

REPUBLICANS WIN A DECISIVE VICTORY

Taft Elected President with 298 Votes Secure and 34 Doubtful—He Carries New York City and New York State with a Greater Plurality than Roosevelt Received Four Years Ago—Speaker Cannon Re-Elected by His Unusually—Missouri Returns to the Democratic Field, Electing Cowherd Governor.

William H. Taft has been elected president, receiving 298 electoral votes, in the doubtful column are 34 votes, composed of Colorado, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

The indications are that Democratic governors have been elected in several of the middle western states that have given their presidential votes to Taft.

Taft exceeded Roosevelt's plurality in New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

The Republican plurality fell off heavily in the middle west in a manner thoroughly surprising to the Republican managers.

Speaker Cannon has been re-elected by his usual majority.

Representatives Payne of New York and DeLoach of Pennsylvania have also been re-elected, and the house of representatives will probably continue under its old regime.

Without any apparent reason the "solid south" on the presidential ticket and has elected Cowherd governor.

The United States senate will retain its present Republican majority.

Bryan, apparently, has carried Nebraska, although the Republicans still claim the state.

The majority in Ohio will be between 85,000 and 75,000.

Indiana, which the Democrats hoped to carry, is safely Republican.

Among the surprises of the campaign is the defeat of Representative Heppner of the Eighth Ohio district, hitherto regarded as a fixture in congress by reason of his many years of service. He is chairman of the interstate commerce commission. Representatives C. B. Landis and Jesse Overstreet of Ohio have also been re-elected. They have been in congress for years and stand high in their assignments.

Governor Johnson made a great race in Minnesota, but his majorities are being cut down and his election is doubtful.

Following is the result in the various states, so far as known:

New Jersey.

Taft's plurality in New Jersey will be between 85,000 and 75,000. The Republicans elect in the congressmen and the Democrats two. The present congressional representation is now six Republicans and four Democrats. The Republicans gain one, and possibly two-congressmen.

Minnesota.

The governorship in Minnesota hangs in the balance, the result being so close, with not sufficient returns to indicate what it will be, that both Chairman Day of the Democratic state committee and Chairman Brown of the Republican state committee claim the state by small majorities.

Jacobson made heavy gains in the country, especially in the southern counties, and at Republican headquarters it was said that the Republican candidate will come into the Twin Cities with enough voters to give him whatever Johnson may get in St. Paul and Minneapolis. The Johnson plurality in the Twin Cities is estimated at about 11,000, with heavy gains in Hennepin county (Minneapolis).

The early reports were largely favorable to Johnson. The vote is so close that in all probability the governorship will not be determined until the returns are all in.

Missouri.

Returns from all parts of Missouri show that Governor Folk has been defeated by Senator Stone in the balloting for United States senator. In this contest only Democratic ballots were counted and Republican votes for Folk were ignored. The new legislature, being Democratic, will obey Roosevelt's majority.

United States Senator William J. Stone of Missouri returns from nearly every county in Missouri point to a plurality of at least 35,000 for Bryan, the election of the Democratic state ticket by a smaller plurality. Cowherd, Democrat, for governor, ran some thousands below the remainder of the ticket.

Wisconsin.

The Republican national and state tickets were victorious in Wisconsin by a plurality estimated at 75,000. The congressional delegation, with one district to hear from, probably will remain about the same as two years ago—also Republicans and two Democrats. The legislature, which will elect a United States senator to succeed Samuel C. Stephens, will be overwhelmingly Republican.

Colorado.

With thousands of scratched ballots yet to be counted and returns straight ballots coming in from county, town or community in Colorado conditions at midnight are such that it is impossible to give even an idea of how the state stands. It is estimated that more than 60 per cent of the ballots cast throughout the state were scratched in the counties of Denver and Pueblo. Bryan and Taft are running neck and neck on straight balloting, with definite returns from no point.

Oklahoma.

Oklahoma has continued loyal to the Democratic party, but the majority has been reduced materially and Bryan's lead is estimated at only 65,000. The five members of congress, four Democrats and one Republican, have been re-elected. The legislature will elect a Democratic incumbent in return of United States Senator Thomas F. Gore, the blind senator.

Taft has carried the state by 170,000 to 175,000. Doneen, the Republican candidate for governor, was elected by a plurality estimated at from 40,000 to 45,000. The next legislature, which is to choose a successor to United States Senator Albert J. Hopkins, will be composed of 58 Republicans and 34 Democrats in the senate, and 215 Republicans and 176 Democrats in the house.

Massachusetts.

The Republican national and state candidates swept the state today and all eleven Republican congressmen were re-elected. Both branches of the legislature will be Republicans by heavy margins. Early estimates indicate a plurality for Taft of 125,000.

Taft's plurality in Oregon will exceed 25,000. It is believed that he has carried every county in the state. Multnomah county, the largest voting county in the state, will give him a plurality of about 9,000.

The Republican state committee claims the state for Taft by approximately 25,000, and the Democratic committee concedes a plurality of 15,000.

Kansas.

The returns seem to substantiate the claims of the Republican state committee that the entire Republican state ticket, headed by Walter R. Stubbs for governor, has been elected by about 25,000 plurality, and that Taft's majority is a few thousand vote larger. The Republican majority in the new legislature will be large, assuring the election of J. L. Britton, formerly fourth assistant postmaster general as United States senator to succeed Chester L. Long.

Governor Hughes won by over 50,000 majority. Hughes came down to the city from up state with an indicated plurality of about 121,000. Chandler's plurality south of High bridge was approximately 68,000. The vote of two years ago was increased by about 150,000, Chandler surprising the Democratic leaders by an unexpected large vote in the rural districts, but lost tremendously in the city of Greater New York, where his followers had expected at least 100,000 plurality.

One of the surprises surpassing the most sanguine hopes of the Republicans was Taft's carrying of the Great City of New York by a plurality of 15,648. His plurality in New York state will considerably exceed Roosevelt's big plurality of 1904.

With Taft and Sherman carrying the state by a large majority, estimated at about 100,000, the successful candidate for governor of Michigan is not known. Returns from the state are slower than they have been for years. Republican candidates for congress have been elected in all but the First district, where the votes have not been counted and the result is not known.

Washington.

Taft carried Washington by 45,000 and Samuel G. Cosgrove, Republican candidate for governor, will duplicate the Taft plurality in the state ticket if elected. The election of Wesley L. Jones to succeed Levi Ankeny as United States senator is assured. The next vote in the First district, where the votes have not been counted and the result is not known.

Connecticut.

The Republicans swept Connecticut fully as completely as four years ago, Taft carrying the state by more than 30,000 plurality, and Congressman George Lilley, the Republican candidate for governor, going into office by about 15,000 plurality over Judge A. H. Robertson, his opponent. All the five congressmen are Republicans by plurality equal to those of two years ago. The entire Republican state ticket is elected.

Pennsylvania.

Taft has carried Pennsylvania by a plurality that will be nearer 400,000 than 300,000. The Republicans have their own in the congressional districts if they do not increase their representation.

Virginia.

Indicate a slight advantage for Taft, although the margin is small. The state could still be carried by either party.

Mr. McMaster has already brought many fine horses to Twin Falls and he states that this is by far the best lot he has ever handled. The animals will be sold by the Farmers' Estate & Live Stock Co. Those that are not disposed of at private sale will be sold at auction on Saturday, November 25. Mr. McMaster will return to Twin Falls on November 12.

Two Carloads of Fine Horses Purchased by C. A. McMaster—Arrive in Twin Falls.

C. A. McMaster, who went east about a month ago, purchased two carloads of high class horses and mules which arrived in Twin Falls today. The animals were carefully selected and are the best to be had in Iowa and Missouri. Among the thoroughbreds are several eligible to register. Several good spans of mules and heavy work horses are in the shipment.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The most conspicuous need that has been keenly felt in Twin Falls is the establishment of a Stationery and Book Store where goods are available at popular prices. That need is now supplied. We have just received a large consignment of Stationery of all kinds, Memorandum Books, Office Supplies, etc., from America's greatest stationers, R. C. McClurg & Co. of Chicago, and can now supply you with best goods at lowest prices. The three features that will dominate our business are QUALITY, PRICE and SERVICE. By reason of our favorable Chicago connections, we buy our stationery at rock bottom prices. Our motto, "Small profits, quick returns."

Yours for business,

Kingsbury Printing & Stationery Co.

Big Wood River Project

Now under construction by J. G. White & Co., of New York.

This project adjoins the Twin Falls North Side tract on the north and embraces some of the best agricultural and horticultural land in Idaho. Within its confines are farms which have been developed for years and on which unexcelled fruit is being grown. A portion of the segregation is now open for entry and the remainder will be opened next spring. The water supply is obtained from the Big Wood river, one of the most dependable streams in the state, and the storage capacity provided for is far more than sufficient for the lands to be irrigated. Fifteen miles of the main canal has been completed, the diverting dam is ready for use and work is in progress on the reservoir. Water rights cost $35 per acre and there is no better value for the investment.

BREVITIES

All Germans are cordially invited to attend a Christian church on Sunday, November 3, at 3 o'clock.

Rev. A. Chambrlain will conduct services in the Episcopal church on Sunday at 11 o'clock in the morning and 7:30 in the evening.

The Episcopal ladies will conduct a cooked food sale in the Idaho Department building on Saturday afternoon, November 7, beginning at 2 o'clock.

James Gallisher is building a black-pipe shop opposite his livery stable on Second avenue west. The building is 24x60 feet and is rented to a smithy from Blackfoot.

Dr. and Mrs. Wiglesworth have returned from a week at their new home, to obtain relief from rheumatism.

Mrs. C. A. Tush entertained her lady friends on Thursday and Friday afternoons of late week at her new home. The entertainments were in the nature of housewarming greetings to her many friends.

The members of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen are requested to meet in L. O. O. F. hall, Twin Falls, Idaho, on Friday evening, November 13, at 8 o'clock. Important business will come before the meeting.

Miss Nan Greenbow and Miss Kate McManis had "the bunch" up to make merry at the home of Mrs. Voorhees on Friday night. All kind of high society were indulged in and there was a jolly midnight supper was served.

Al Page returned last week from Chicago, where he underwent a very successful operation for appendicitis. He at once commenced St. John's school on Monday afternoon, and his boys on his Kimberly farm to pay for the cost of the operation.

J. E. Glass, Jr., a nephew of Lee W. Glass, arrived from Pittsburg yesterday and introduced himself to his aunt's nephew and the young man had grown so much that his uncle did not know him. He is going to stay and help to build up Idaho.

Henry Easley has grown some magnificent turnips on tract No. 8 in the De Long division. The turnips were planted July 15 and were not irrigated until the end of that month. They are of the purple top variety and some of them weigh seven and a half pounds. The plants are solid and heavy and of excellent texture.

The ladies and gentlemen comprising the younger branch of the Bridge club were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Nixon on Friday evening, and were entertained in a most enjoyable manner. The favors went to Mrs. Mitchell and Mr. Woods. Light refreshments were served at a late hour and the 30 couples were reluctant to leave so hospitable a home.

M. M. Murrugh took out his driving horse "Bryan" for exercise on election day. It will be recalled that Bryan was injured in a runaway recently. While his name "Bryan" escaped the injury, Bryan cut up so scandalously while being exercised on Tuesday that Mark decided to turn him out on pasture for another four years, as he is a fine specimen.

Martin McMillan, 12 years old, was shot in the leg on Halloween while cutting capers with a party of youngsters of his own age. The bullet struck through the limb and made a painful but not serious wound. The lad does not know who shot him and his companions are keeping still. The case is decidedly mysterious.

Durd Wall entertained 40 of her young friends at a Halloween party on Friday evening. The children had a glorious time, but when the hour for refreshments arrived it was found that some rube boys had invaded the black porch and plundered the larder. However, as Mrs. Wall is a very resourceful hostess, the delinquency was quickly made good and the feast proceeded. Mrs. Wall is now looking for a large, fierce watchdog, one that is especially fond of ill-mannered boys.

Joe Meyer of Boulder, Colo., a member of the firm of Meyer Bros., who have rented a store in the Rogerson building, is in Twin Falls arranging for the storage or sale of a large stock of goods for which he cannot obtain room. Mr. Meyer endeavored to secure a temporary location in which he could do business and avoid the trouble and expense of storing. His firm will come in strong about the first of the year with some of the finest lumber in the dry goods and furnishing trade.

The members of the "Lunch club" were royally entertained by Mrs. G. D. Alken on Friday. For place cards there were dainty hand embroidered cardholders, each bearing the initials of the guest for whom it was intended, and the menu consisted of all kinds of goodies dear to the feminine taste. The prize for the highest score was a fine pair of handkerchiefs, which fell to Miss McCollum. The favors were all the work of the hostess and her guests were doubly appreciated by her guests.

Dr. H. C. Wann, brother of W. O. Wann, the nurseryman, is here from Alton, Kansas, with a string of draft horses and standard breeders. Dr. Wann was secretary and manager of the Dickinson county, Kansas, Fair association. His attendance at the fair averaged 7000 daily this fall with 10,000 paid admissions on the big day. He was surprised to find that no permanent association existed in Twin Falls. Should he decide to locate here, which is not improbable, he might be induced to assist in forming this much needed organization.

Miss Carolyn Fargo has returned from Dakota and has resumed her piano class.

A. D. McKinlay and his daughter, Miss Edith McKinlay, left today for Iowa to visit relatives and friends.

W. S. McCormick, W. J. Halloran, Mr. Sherman and Hoher M. Wells of Salt Lake City were in Twin Falls on Saturday and Sunday, the guests of A. C. Milner.

A. J. Wiley and D. W. Ross inspected the work on the Salmon dam this week, in company with Chief Engineer C. C. Smith. Excellent progress is reported.

R. W. Jones has returned from southern California. Mrs. Jones will remain there for the winter and Mr. Jones will join her after he attends to some business matters.

Mrs. H. O. Milner gave a charming informal dinner party to eight little girls on Sunday, followed by a delightful auto ride, both of which were greatly enjoyed by the young guests.

The bonds for the county courthouse and jail will be sold on February 1. A large number of inquiries concerning the same have been received and it is more than likely that scores of proposals will be made.

B. A. Baker returned on Saturday from the east and middle west, where he visited for three months. Mr. Baker was traveling most of the time but he was nothing which would induce him to leave Twin Falls.

George Reels and Miss Winifred Reels were in Bull on Sunday evening. Evidently the Bull matrimonial germ is extending to Twin Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Reels have all the happiness in the world.

James A. Waters is going to sell his registered Jersey bull at public auction on Saturday afternoon, November 21. The animal comes from the best Jersey strain and is a splendid animal.

Frank H. Rogers and Miss Nettie Sheffler were married on Saturday evening last at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Fargo and a large number of friends are extended to the popular couple.

Harry Kingsbury, formerly of the News force, has opened a book and stationery store on First street east, where he has a large stock of books. He will handle a full line of books, stationery and office supplies, and will also conduct a library.

St. John Skinner's team got away from the depot on Sunday and made a lively run up Shoshone street to the bridge and plowed the street for a considerable distance but no damage resulted. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner were in the buggy at the time.

A representative of the W. G. McPherson Co. of Portland, Oregon, is here arranging for the installation of the heating plant in the Lincoln school. This will be one of the finest plants of the kind in the west. The school is nearing completion, the plastering being nearly done.

preparing himself to take care of all cases that come before him from polygamy to matrimony. He is beginning to adopt a severe cast of countenance and beams very condescendingly upon his constituents in a manner suggestive of possible future dealings, already sitting them up for a touch now and then. We don't care if the touch doesn't develop into a pinch. The mighty nimrod of Milner blow out 15 cottonwool. It will be Saturday night, Jim Surgrass, Bill Stark, Vinn Cockburn, Ed Sprague and Hope Polinsky, but they did not do much in the way of accounting for themselves so far as material evidence was concerned. They carried a battery of small arms and enough ammunition to stock up 6000 months' camp. But, aside from getting a sick bag; getting a hawk and a hawk, all they get is what is making Bryan feel so peevish these days—and you know what that is. They had a good time though, and the birds out Cottonwood way don't care.

Dr. G. W. Baker will be in town November 14 attending a meeting of the 32nd degree Masonic order.

Hunters Scour Cottonwood Canyon Without Success—Bagged a Sick Badger—Successful Box Social in Grimm Valley School.

MILNER, Idaho, Nov. 4.—Arc lights have been installed around Riverside Inn. This was a much needed improvement and greatly adds to the looks of the place.

The honor roll for the month of October in the Milner school contains seven names of pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the month. They are Glenn Palmer, Lena Coburn, David Williams, Frank Sizemore, Estha Coburn, Leila Haworth and Willie Williams.

The box social in Grimm Valley school on Friday evening last was quite a success. They cleared $55, which will be used for the winter supply of coal. The new building is very neat and attractive, built in very modern, up to date style. About 30 people drove out from Milner to attend the social, 18 of them going out in a hay rack. All reported a delightful evening.

Miss Clara Vedder went to Twin Falls Saturday to visit her mother over Sunday. From there she went to Jerome to spend a week helping out in the office work in the North Side company's office.

P. W. Davis returned Sunday from a week's stay in Jerome.

H. S. Geary and C. B. Smith spent Sunday afternoon in Twin Falls.

George Weldon returned Sunday from a business trip to Jerome.

D. C. Watters returned Saturday from a business trip to Jerome and Gooding.

C. B. Smith, after spending a couple of days in Milner, returned to Jerome Monday evening.

George Weldon's mother, of Albion, and his sister, Mrs. Westengaven of Boise, have been visiting him this week.

J. A. Dyker of Gooding and H. L. Anderson of Des Moines, Iowa, spent Sunday in Milner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Edwards entertained a small party of friends at a taffy pull on Halloween.

D. W. Ross of the Pittsburgh office of the North Side company, was in Milner for several days this week on company business.

A great many thousand sheep in the last two weeks have been taken through Milner to the north side of the river for the winter range.

Ivan Bennett returned Monday to Milner from Jerome. Mr. Bennett has so nearly recovered from his recent attack of typhoid fever that he expects to return to work in the North Side company's office in a few days.

Committeeman Belmont reports a very quiet election and appears very quiet himself as a result. We went Republican all right, but Belmont is looking for those who searched the ticket. He thinks they must have had the itch bad and wants to give them a little dope on the subject.

FILER FARMER DIES ON ROAD

Charles Allen is Found Dead on His Lumber Wagon.

Charles Allen, a rancher, was found dead on his lumber wagon on Tuesday night, three-quarters of a mile west of Filer. The discovery was made by J. A. Chisholm, about 9 o'clock, and was reported to the authorities. Doctors A. E. Nowby and Charles Wetherbee were summoned and they decided that death was due to heart failure. Coroner Hunt did not deem an inquest necessary and the funeral was held this morning from Miller's parlors, Rev. Gourley officiating. Interment was in Twin Falls cemetery.

Allen came to Filer about a year ago. His brother, Oscar Allen, has a farm about two miles from Filer.

SPLENDID EXHIBIT FROM TWIN FALLS

IS NOW BEING DISPLAYED IN CHICAGO.

Fruit and Vegetables Are Excellent, but Grains and Grasses Need Replenishing—Exhibit is Attracting a Great Deal of Attention.

(From Our Special Correspondent.) CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—In walking down Adams street, just a little west of Dearborn, one is attracted by an unusual window display in that busy part of our city. There is an exquisite picture of the "twins"—those marvelous children of the Snake, born in the countries that were, yet still flowing onward, and which in this twentieth century will be harnessed to perform a work that will prove a blessing to the new people in the newest of all new countries. Flanking this is a bird's-eye view in color of the tract taking its name after the Twin falls, while at the base is displayed some of the products of this once desert country.

Grains and Grasses Needed. Entering the large room, one's nostrils are regaled by that fragrance typical of the orchard in fruiting time. One's salivary glands experience that sensation designated as "mouth-watering," as he roams amid the tiers of fruit. It is essentially an apple show, although sacks of wonderful potatoes and onions flank the rose-cheeked and golden fruit. There is rather a sparse collection of grains and grasses. This should not have been. The Twin Falls country growers should have made a special effort, so long as a car was headed for Chicago for exhibition purposes, to have every kind of growth on the tract in the fruit, grain and vegetable class, represented. Why not have sent one season's growth of the honey locust? One trunk would have pictured more than words can express, and as the boys say, "seein' is believin'." The bunches of alfalfa, timothy, grains, etc., are represented by last year's products, which have been in Chicago since a previous exhibition. Your correspondent mentions this fact in order that the Twin Falls farmers may know that they are to a large extent in the public eye just now, and as competition is keen from neighboring irrigated lands, it behooves every grower on the Twin Falls tracts to see that he has proper representation in an exhibit of this kind.

High Quality the Aim. One fact impressed your correspondent very favorably, the lack of freak growths. The whole exhibition is typical of a sound intelligence in the matter of agriculture. All who come to the exhibition are favorably impressed with this. The farmers of the Twin Falls country are aiming for quality rather than for quantity. Keep with in these well guarded lines, ye farmers of the promising lands of the Snake river basin, and time will bring its just reward for your efforts and intelligent thought. No one wants to have potatoes as big as a No. 12 boot. The cook despises them, and in order that they may be available for pot or oven they must of necessity be hacked to pieces, thereby distributing their flavor in steam or vapor, and rendering them insipid by the time they reach the table.

Attracts Attention. And who comes to this exhibition in a Chicago store room, to pass opinions, and to eagerly ask for information? Well, your correspondent wishes it were possible to give you all in the Twin Falls country just 15 minutes in that exhibition room. It is thought by people of unusual intelligence, men and women, young and middle aged, all asking eagerly for some information regarding opportunities and chances and to give information to lecturers who have been among you, and who are making the merits of irrigated lands known to the public, are kept constantly busy, besides quite a stack of those who are very familiar with all the promising possibilities of the country, are there to answer questions and to give information. It is like a summer school or a fall session rather, in an agricultural college, these gatherings.

There is a spirit of pride awakened, too, a national feeling of appreciation for that which is ours by heritage. The desert lands! The phrase is more foreign than Greek myth, to the average man and woman, and in fact to even the learned in other matters, in this middle western country. What do you suppose it must be to those on the Atlantic coast? But there are the rose-cheeked apples, of various hues, and the wonderful golden pippin, that outvies the English fruit of the same name, the smooth-faced variety that would stir the Irish heart to envy, together with carrots, beets, celery and other garden and farm growths, all bearing witness to the fact that the country of sagebrush and sand, for years considered a part of the American desert, and of no account so far as farming and colonization were concerned, producing that which the humid lands of the country east of the Rockies have long since ceased to produce with vigor, while towns are springing up on either hand, that are in themselves models of social and economic conditions, which must leave a golden trail in the history of the world's evolution.

Sentimental Features. The questions asked prove that the people are thinking—thinking, not atgether as individuals; but as a body. Your correspondent, in the course of a conversation, in which the question of the Snake waters was under discussion, felt it imperative to emphasize the fact of your wonderful snow-fed and spring-nurtured river. After the few words of description had been expressed there were moist eyes and out-stretched palms; and the general expression: "We never knew we had so grand a river out in that desert country!"

So eyes are being focused in your direction, and the Twin Falls country must plan to reach the heights which its inconspicuity has promised. Tender, patriotic sentiment is reaching out to you there, and from the corn belt in Illinois in which your correspondent was privileged to speak a short time since, deeper sentiment is traveling in your direction, which will and must bear fruit in its helpfulness to you, who as the pioneer settlers of a new region, under conditions more favorable in every respect than those which environed the early settler of Illinois, have gifts for which you will be held accountable, and for the right use of which the nation itself awaits results.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION OF WHICH WILL TAKE PLACE IN SPOKANE December 7 to 12. SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 4.—From a purely local affair, originating in the Spokane County Horticultural society, the apple show to be held in Spokane, December 7 to 12, has become a national in scope. Notices were received the past week that Japan, England, Germany and Norway will all have national displays at the Spokane show. British Columbia and the other Canadian provinces have already reserved space for approximately 300 exhibits, and the indications are that they will double this number. In all, the entries received up to the first of November aggregate 644.

In view of the interest taken in the apple show by foreign countries, the board of trustees has arranged special features that will make the event international in appearance if not in name. Invitations have been issued to all the foreign representatives of foreign countries at Washington, D. C., as well as to all foreign governments. Plans of nearly all foreign countries have been secured and will be used in decorating the immense building in which the show is to be held. Invitations have been issued to all the foreign representatives of agriculture of both the United States and Canada, so that every district represented might be assured of fair treatment.

"If the northwestern states are to make a showing against other sections of the world at the apple show, the growers must get busy," said Manager H. J. Nedy this week. "I have just been advised today by W. N. Hutt, state horticulturist of North Carolina, that his state will require new fruit trees for the exhibition, and has issued a call for exhibitors. It is expected that the California growers will be the first to come, and that another transfer at St. Paul is being made before we are getting entries every day from British Columbia.

"This means that the northwestern states will not have everything their own way, and in fact must do some rapid work if they are going to compete with the other sections of the world. The apple crop is now being harvested and it will soon be put in crates, ready for shipment."

Manager Nedy is now making tour of the apple districts of the northwest in the interest of the apple show.

PORTLAND SHOWS KINDLY SPIRIT
IS COURTEOUS TO TWIN FALLS
VISITORS.
Commercial Club of That City Entertains Delegation Which Inspected Courthouse in the Northwest—Applauds Our Development.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 29.—Idaho's magnificent development through irrigation is attracting international attention, but no other city in the United States seems to take such a direct and personal interest in this remarkable advance as is felt by the business men and general citizenship of Portland.
The Portland newspapers have constantly kept their readers advised of the progress that was being made. Among recent guests at the Portland Commercial club was a special delegation composed of Messrs. James McMillan, W. P. Guthrie, John F. Hanson, George H. Crocker and H. T. West of Twin Falls, Idaho. They visited Portland and other cities to get pointers on the building of a $150,000 downtown hotel. The delegation has honored this city in recent years received a more hearty welcome, and all the newspapers contained elaborate accounts of the visit.

Twice during the last two months the most centrally located windows of the department store of Olds, Workman & King, at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets, the business center of Portland, have been filled with fruit from Lewiston shown by the Lewiston and Valley Fruit Company. The first was a display of peaches which attracted much attention. Following this was a most artistically arranged window of grapes, and these were served upon the tables of the Portland Commercial club yesterday to almost 500 business men who had assembled for luncheon.
Idaho is doing her full part toward making the northwestern portion of the United States the best known section of the country and who, each succeeding month it is becoming more generally appreciated that her farmers and horticulturists are adding millions of dollars to the wealth of the state and the country at large.

Oregon and Idaho are closely allied in the work of improving the Snake and Columbia rivers and along the most widely quoted meeting held during the last three months, as judged from the newspaper columns, was the recent session of the Idaho and Oregon Development League at Roseburg, Oregon.

ARE WELCOME TO TWIN FALLS
Desirable Citizens From the Good Old Highway State.

The following invites to Mr. and Mrs. James W. Beauchamp, who recently arrived in Twin Falls, is taken from their old home paper, the "Lark" of the city where they were held in the community whence they came.

James W. Beauchamp and wife, after a residence of nearly half a century in Taylor county, have decided to cast their lot in another clime and have departed with their "Lark" for Twin Falls, Idaho, where they will make their future home.

In 1858 Mr. Beauchamp's parents, William Beauchamp and Mrs. Hinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hinton, who for years were among the best known residents of the country.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Beauchamp moved to Hopkins, where Mr. Beauchamp engaged in the mercantile business. A few years later they returned to Taylor county, and Mr. Beauchamp taught school for eight successive and successful terms. They then removed to Bedford, where they have since made their home.

Mr. Beauchamp served as county auditor four years, '95, '96, '97 and '98. Later he was elected city clerk and served in this capacity until he resigned to leave for the west.
Mr. Beauchamp takes an active interest in church work, and a better citizen in every way than is ever boasted of. He is not of the particularly aggressive type, but he is always active in promoting any enterprise that is calculated to the welfare of the community, and a loyal supporter of any movement for better government and cleaner citizenship.
Business affairs have interested him prominently, and his honesty is inappreciable. Jim Beauchamp is a man with no round corners—he is "square" from the ground up, and his neighbors in his new home will never regret giving him their entire confidence.

Mr. Beauchamp's two sons, Ray and Homer, have finished their college course and are now located at Twin Falls. It is this fact that has induced him to move there. He has purchased a farm and stocked it, and it is the intention of himself and sons to "realize" for at least a year and spend the time on the farm. The Times joins a legion of friends in wishing them prosperity.—Bedford, Iowa, Times-Republican.

For Rent—40 or 50 acres, 1 1/2 miles from town, 5-room house, barn and outbuildings, 1/2 mile from R. F. 1/2 mile from two school wagons. Address, Box 513, Twin Falls.

FOR RENT—160 acres 3 miles south and 1 1/2 miles west of Twin Falls, all under cultivation. 100 acres west of Skeleton built on north side, all cleared, water on land and 20 acres in alfalfa. Inquire St. John Skinner, Box 151, Twin Falls.

FARM TOPICS
BY WILLIAM HEWES.

(This column is open to all farmers in the Twin Falls county who desire to express their views on agriculture, horticulture or any other feature of farming.) They are invited to relate their experiences in growing fruit, grain or vegetables, or in raising stock.

There is too much hay raised for feed on this tract for the price to keep steady and high. It is true that the local market for the hay for years will be good because the North Side Salmon River and Drucena projects will make a good market. After this local demand ceases the market will become overcrucified. Those who have hay to sell will be compelled to ship to an outside market or feed the hay to their stock of cattle. The nature of our soil is such that we may raise alfalfa, clover or other hay for a fertilizer. We cannot cut down the alfalfa or clover without the loss of a large crop of alfalfa. It is perhaps our best hay crop from the alfalfa and clover and value as a fertilizer. It is made in the soil, making it porous and adding organic matter to the humus of the soil. It takes valuable nitrogen from the atmosphere and places it where it is available for other crops. So we must continue to raise hay for the benefit of the soil. The hay farmer will prepare for the future while the local market is good. One way is to buy dairy cows and feed the hay to them. Every pound of hay that used will give an additional profit. Dairy products are always high in price. This is the best way of raising the hay in the Gen state. The sooner the farmer here realizes this and go into the dairy business the sooner they will make more money and lessen the danger of over production in the hay market.

Cattle and hogs have long been considered one of the best income producers for the farmer. This is probably true but there are many sources equally as good. One of these is the sheep industry. On this tract sheep raising is something of an experiment, but the results so far have been satisfactory. Dr. Crocker, T. E. Moore and A. D. McKinlay are among those who have embarked in the sheep business. They were started with 100 to 500. The range of increase varied from 125 to 150 per cent, which is very good for any country. With the productive alfalfa the cost of feeding has been reduced to the minimum. Our climate is almost ideal for sheep. The sheep man can get three times in a year. The early lambing is in demand in the spring, a little later the sale of wool, and again in the fall, when there is a market for the sheep. Many farmers in the East are keeping small herds and find them profitable. The conditions here are much better than they are there. If they can make money, the farmers here can make more money.

Mr. Farmer, if there is any reason why you do not like Southern Idaho, go to the first man you will pay your price, then move to some other place. We have the climate, soil and water. The country is a good one. Ten years from now you will worry that you sold. The country has great opportunities. You have a choice to either keep them or throw them away.

When you finish your fall plowing you can spend ten minutes in greasing your plow and save several hours of hard work in re-oiling it next spring.

In an irrigated country it is sometimes found necessary to take down a fence to avoid a ditch or lateral when driving to or from a field. It is no more than to use a part of the wire, or occasionally, it does not pay to construct a permanent gate. A temporary gate, which will cost only a few cents, can be constructed in the following manner: Loosen the wires on three or four posts, depending on the thickness of the wire. Then drive in staples about one-half inch apart parallel to the wire and to each other where the staples were formerly driven in the post. Place a spoke between the ends of each wire in the center post. The wire can then be hooked under these staples and will hold close to the ground so it is easy to drive over. When the fence is to be closed place the wires between the parallel staples and then run a nail through both staples and outside of the gate. This will prevent the wires from being just as good as it would be if the wire were stapled to the posts. This is a very cheap and satisfactory way to construct a temporary gate.

One very good way to clear land of sagebrush, provided you do not care to use the land for a year or so, is to sow rye among the brush in the fall. This will cause the rye to grow. The rye will ripen in the following July. In August a fire will burn both the rye and sagebrush. If care is taken in sowing the rye so that the fire will carry well from brush to brush, the ground will be left as clean as a sweep floor.

The writer does not expect every one to agree with him even on "Farm Topics" but he will be glad to give facts as they are given to us or as we see them. If our readers have any suggestions, crop reports or opinions in any way, we will be glad to use them in this department. We will be glad to receive crop reports, points on raising live stock, irrigation on fruit culture, methods of raising hay, grain or vegetables, or anything of general farm interest that will apply to this tract.

Place your photos here on Thursday evening at Thirteenth street. Mr. J. M. Hale.

J. N. Watson spent last Sunday at Gooding. J. Dygest of the firm of Dygest & Fullerton of Gooding was a business caller here last Thursday.

There was a moving picture show in town Monday night.

SCHOOL NOTES

The basket ball game played last Saturday between the Twin Falls High school and Pocatello academy was the best ever witnessed in Twin Falls, the score standing 10 to 5. It was a hard struggle for both of the teams. The score stood 5 to 1 in the last of the first half. Although the last half was the best one, D'Umple, who was from Pocatello, did not seem to know the game, as the Pocatello girls made a great many fouls which would have counted one for Twin Falls. This was the last game of basket ball in Twin Falls this season and will play the opening of the next season.

GALA PARTY AT ROCK CREEK

Given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bross on Hallows' eve.
Mr. and Mrs. Beebeck and daughter Helen, Misses Snodgrass, Albertson, McGibbon, Knopper, Bross, and Messrs. J. H. and G. H. Bross accompanied Mr. Bross to his home on Rock Creek to enjoy All Hallows' eve at a party given by Misses Fayetta Johnson and Mrs. G. H. Bross. The party and singing Jack O' Lanterns, peering out in the starlight, greeted the merry party on arriving. To make the occasion more varied and enjoyable the lights had been lowered or extinguished and all had a mysterious air. After the ghost parade many games showing much previous arrangement and preparation were played. Several were fortunate enough to carry off souvenirs as prizes. The rooms were prettily decorated in yellow streamers and suspended apples. After much dancing and merriment all were eager enough to enter the dining room and find a plate at the appropriately arranged tables. Huge punchbills, filled with popcorn and apples were part of the decorations, and all indulged with hearty appetites. The cake containing the ring, thimble and penny affair, much excitement and amusement, especially to the fortunate or unfortunate ones. The party broke up at a late hour and all acknowledged a delightful time.
