FLIER HARDWARE STORE ROBBED

Veggsmen Make Entrance by Boring Around Lock.

$800 IN CUTLERY GOODS TAKEN BY THE THIEVES.

Escape Supposed to Have Been Made On Hand-Car Which Was Heard By Flier Youth.

The hardware store of the Flier Hardware company was burglarized early Wednesday morning by what the authorities consider to be expert veggsmen. The entrance was gained by boring around the escutcheon of the door. The burglars were evidently in no haste and took about everything they could carry, including revolvers, knives, safety razors, silver knives and forks, and carving sets.

When the proprietors entered the store they found everything turned upside down and the safe, the outside door of which was open, broken into by the robbers smashing the inner door with a maul and a bolt. A lady living near the store stated that she had heard pounding in the direction of the store about three o'clock but thought nothing of it at the time. A Flier boy gave other information that he had heard a hand-car coming into Flier about ten o'clock that night. Search made by the proprietors led to the discovery of some of the stolen plunder which the robbers had dropped in their route to the railroad track. Near the track was found a piece where the hand-car had been set off while the theft was committed. The officers as yet have no clue to the offenders.

MEL HOWIE FINED.

Printer in Mix-up With Saloon Men Lands In Jail.

Mel Howie, upon whose evidence the conviction of Pratt and Farrell for illegal liquor selling was accomplished, was promptly re-arrested for passing a worthless check upon Hoholan & Gaut. He was convicted and fined $25 and costs in the probate court, and remanded to jail through inability to pay his fine.

A $10,000 DAMAGE SUIT.

Clarence Provins Sues E. A. Miller, of Buhl.

A suit has been filed in the district court by Attorney J. H. Wise on behalf of Clarence P. Provins, against E. A. Miller, of Buhl, for $10,000 damages as a native for Provins' wounded feelings for the alienation of his wife's affections, and for the harboring of his wife by the defendant.

Dr. O. M. Drake, the Eye Specialist, of Boise, will be in Hanson, Jan. 19th; Hotel Rogers, Twin Falls, Jan. 20, 21, 22 and 23; Flier, Jan. 24th; Buhl, Jan. 25 and 26. He is the pioneer eye specialist of this section, and is in a position to give the best possible service. Ask your neighbor about him. Jan 13 20

WESTERN UNION UPTOWN OFFICE

Request of Citizens Finally Granted by Company.

Operator and Outfit Already Enroute to Twin Falls.

Action of Western Union Highly Pleading to All Business Men and Will Result in Added Business.

Agent D. E. Sullivan received word the first of the week from the Western Union Telegraph company that an operator and a complete outfit would be immediately shipped into Twin Falls and as soon as received the company would open an up-town office. Secretary Stoltz of Commercial club, and J. B. Perrine, who have worked to bring getting such an office, were also notified by the Western Union of the change.

THE APOLLO CLUB FRIDAY.

Last Rehearsal of the Splendid Organization Tonight.

The final rehearsal of the Apollo club will take place tonight and the members of the club are promising something particularly fine in the way of a classical performance. The members are all musicians, and their voices from the high tenor to the low grumbly basso blend in a harmony seldom attained short of years of professional singing and the person that misses the entertainment tomorrow evening in the Methodist church will regret it exceedingly. The program, which embraces only the better class of glee club music, is sure to please each and every person in the audience and the "Soldiers' Chorus" and "The Martyrs of the Arena" will be something you will remember, even if you forget the rest.

GREEK ARRESTED AT HOLLISTER.

Found by Sheriff Dyer With Abundant Evidence.

A Greek with an unpronounceable name was arrested this afternoon by the sheriff and brought to this city, together with a large quantity of liquor, which the Greek was selling contrary to law. The case against the prisoner seems pretty conclusive.

ANTLERED HERD CAPTURES CITY

Pocatello Elks Arrived in Twin Falls in Special Train at Noon Today With War Paint On.

Class of Fifty Baby Elks Receive Initiatory Rites Tonight. Big Banquet to Follow.

Big Elks, little Elks, slim Elks, stout Elks and a goodly number, various breeds and cross breeds, who wanted to be Elks, made up a really gorgeous parade after noon today when the visiting Elks from Pocatello, Boise and Salt Lake City arrived two hundred strong to care for and properly brand a brand new lot of Elks into the Twin Falls lodge.

The parade, which was formed at the depot marched to the club rooms with the Pocatello band playing "bully moose" all the time. When the parade with the unbranched Elks tied to a rope and lead by the doughty sheriff reached the corner of Main and Shoshone the Pocatello Elks clad in brilliantly hued Indian blankets gave typical Indian dances accompanied by blood curdling yells intended to convey terror to the timid little Elks secured so they could not get away. The visitors evidently intended to make an impression and so corralled Mayor Hahn and tied him to a team drawn by the famous Boyd ponies with a young Indian driving the hapless mayor beneath a banner with the taunting words: "We intend to show the Mayor Who runs the town."

RETURNS FROM JARBIDGE.

J. J. Waters Predicts a Big Camp in the Near Future.

J. J. Waters and John Chisholm returned Thursday evening from Jarbidge, uniting in the opinion that the ore bodies around Jarbidge were of sufficient size and value to insure the building of a great camp this summer. Mr. Waters is an experienced mining man and is interested in several rich mining properties in different parts of the country, including some copper claims in Montana, valued at three millions of dollars. Eighteen years ago Mr. Waters prospected through the Bruneau district and located several claims at Jarbidge. It was then impossible to get any ore out of the country, and Mr. Waters became interested in other mining districts.

Upon hearing of the Jarbidge strikes this fall, Mr. Waters postponed a southern trip which he had planned, and came direct to Twin Falls. He and Mr. Chisholm left for the camp a few days before Christmas.

One curious feature of Mr. Waters' trip to Twin Falls, was his accidental meeting with his nephews, the Waters brothers of Flier, whose father, Joe Waters, he had not seen since they parted at Bozeman, Montana, twenty-four years ago, and whose whereabouts he had not known for some time.

Mr. Waters secured some good claims at Jarbidge and will install a diamond drill on his properties as soon as possible.

FARMERS' UNION ANNUAL ELECTION

Active Organization Gaining in Membership Rapidly.

RATES REDUCED THROUGH INFLUENCE OF THE UNION.

Control of Governing Board of the Canal Association In Hands of Farmers' Union.

Twin Falls, Ida., Jan. 11, 1910. Annual county convention of the Farmers' Union met in I. O. O. F. hall Jan. 11, 1910, with delegates from Pocatello, Hansen, Flier, Denney, Buhl, Twin Falls and Kimberly. Absent: Pocatello, Pleasant View and Maroon. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—W. F. Alworth, Flier. Vice President—A. D. Kolth, Hansen. Sec.-Treas.—J. B. Loagy, Twin Falls. Directors—A. H. Hinton, Hansen; Albert Waters, Buhl; E. E. Hoston, Flier; J. F. Denny, Twin Falls.

The county organization was formed April 23, 1909, by A. A. Elmore, state organizer of Washington, and has enjoyed a remarkable growth since. The O. S. L. has revised its freight rates on a number of things to which attention has been called by this union. The Union, realizing the importance of the Canal association during the present prospect of litigation with the company, through its local secured delegates enough to the Canal association manual election to get nine out of the fifteen members of the governing board, thus insuring the unity of the two organizations for the future. The Union began with a small membership with a few staunch ranchers carrying all the load, has grown to the point where it has a large membership and an ever increasing influence on affairs of the county.

ELKS HOLD ELECTION.

First Officers of Twin Falls Lodge Elected.

The first election of the local branch of B. F. O. E. was held in the hands of club room in the McCormick block last Thursday evening, when the following officers were elected for the year:

Excited Ruler—P. H. Smith, Leading Knight—C. Harder. Lecturing Knight—A. J. Peavey. Secretary—H. E. Deiss. Treasurer—M. Maxwell. Trustees—G. L. Crocker, Fred Morse, A. D. McKinlay.

but a short time, but she has endeared herself to many and all who know her are her friends. She is a young woman of quiet, unassuming manner and sterling worth. She will be missed by a large circle of friends who will console themselves with the thought that their loss is some one's gain. The sincerest best wishes of all attend them to their home in Merrill, Kansas. The groom is a prosperous young man of that city, all of whose friends speak in the highest terms of his personality and ability. They departed on the evening train, many friends being at the station to wish them God speed.

ROBBERS BREAK INTO A SALOON

Buhl Burglars Get Little Ready Cash.

ENTRANCE MADE BY SAWING THROUGH BACK DOOR.

Buhl Correspondent Reports Hold On Office Saloon on Thursday Night of Last Week.

Some one sawed a hole in the back door of the office saloon, Thursday evening large enough to open the door by putting their hand through it. They broke into the cash register and took $18.00, leaving about $4.00 in change, which they were prevented in taking by some obstacle. The loss in money is not considered so great, but they completely ruined a $300 cash register. The suspicion falls on a couple of men who came in on the evening train and were seen loitering around the saloon until about 11:30 that evening, but have not been seen since. We have no further report, as yet, in regard to their capture.

RANCHER KILLED IN RIFLE DUEL

Rock Creek Ranchers Have a Deadly Fight.

SHOOTING SAID TO HAVE RESULTED FROM FEMININE WILES.

Oscar Salmarc Surrenders to the Sheriff After the Murdering of Fred Elledge.

A deadly rifle duel in the Rock Creek settlement occurred today and as a result Fred Elledge is dead and Oscar Salmarc is in the custody of the county, charged with the murder of the former. All the details of the crime is not obtainable, but the trouble seems to have originated through jealousy over the affections of a woman. The men are neighbors and the shooting on both sides was with the most deadly intent, both men being armed with rifles. Oscar Salmarc, as soon as the sheriff appeared upon the scene, gave himself up with no thought of resistance, and was brought to this city.

Woodmen of the World. There will be a meeting of the Woodmen of the World in my law office on Friday evening, January 14th, 1910. All members of the Twin Falls Camp and all Woodmen belonging to any other camp are urged to be present. Jan 13 JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Clerk.

THE INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE

IN TEN EASY LESSONS
Prepared by FLOYD HARDIN
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE LIBRARY CLUB

LESSON ONE.
Pronunciation.

The letters A, E, I, O and U always have the following sounds:
A is like a in father.
E is like e in made.
I is like i in me.
O is like o in go.
U is like oo in too.

Practice on the following sentence, looking at the letters beneath the words as you pronounce:

Father mada mada too
A E I O U

The letter R is always trilled: Pronounce r-ro-ro (rose).
The accent is always on the next to the last syllable: Pronounce the words, fio-ro, tu-llip-o.

- Vocabulary.
- pat-to, father
 - ka-ra, dear me
 - I, me
 - batas, am whipping you
 - sed, but
 - oi, it
 - van-dia, hurts me
 - no, not
 - an-ke, also
 - fi-lo, son
 - yes, yes
 - su-ma, same
 - lo-ko, spot

Read aloud and translate the following sentences:

- La rozo.
- Rozo esas floro.
- Rozo esas en la parko.
- La tulipo esas floro en la parko.
- La rozo esas blanka.
- La tulipo esas flava floro.
- Laodoro di la rozo esas agrabila.
- La koloro di la tulipo esas flava.
- Laodoro di la rozo e la tulipo en la parko esas agrabila.

Ne en la Sama Loko.
Patro: "Kara fio, me batas vu, sed de ne esas agrabila. Ol vundas me anke."
Filo: "Yes, patro, ol vundas vu anke, sed me en la sama loko!"

Suggestions.
Note how many words in the International Language are similar to the English. Remember that the accent is always on the next to the last syllable, and that each letter always has the same sound. English could never become the universal language on account of its absurd spelling. This is a perfectly phonetic language. Cut out these lessons and carefully preserve them. They constitute a complete course in the language. Keep a notebook. Read aloud as you study. Do not translate word for word, but try to think in the International Language. Mr. Hardin will be glad to answer any questions that may arise concerning the language; address Box 902 and enclose stamp for reply.

Announcement.
A free course of lessons in the International Language is soon to be conducted by Mr. Hardin under the auspices of the Library club. The first lecture is to be given in connection with the Second Library Social to be held in the K. P. Hall next Saturday evening, January fifteen. A few complimentary tickets to this lecture may be obtained by inquiring at the public library.

CARING FOR THE IMPLEMENTS.

Loss Through Neglect Reaches Enormous Figure.

In driving along a public road a few days ago, within a distance of four miles, I passed a wagon left by the roadside, one grain binder in a field with a sheaf of wheat in the binder; one mowing machine; two or three horse rakes and a lot of plows, harrows and cultivators, all in barnyards, exposed to the weather.

I don't know whether this sort of neglect of implements is as bad in other neighborhoods as mine or not. I hope not. But one thing is certain, this is one of the causes why so many farmers do not succeed in their business, and why the implement manufacturers get so rich. If we are as careless about everything else as we are about this sort of valuable property we will never get ahead.

I can not think of any good excuse for this sort of neglect of valuable property. I know that it is very little trouble to have a place for the tools and put them in the right place, because I always did it, and always require all who work for me to do it. None of my tools, implements or vehicles ever rot or rust out. I keep them painted and housed, and it saves in many ways that it saves a lot in the purchase of such things, and it saves probably more in not losing any time in looking for them and getting them ready to work with.

Last summer a neighbor of mine was about to start mowing his grass and clover meadow which was just right and the weather was fine. It was hot and dry and just the thing to cure the hay—exactly right! He engaged some hands to help, and he sent and put the mowing machine out of a shed with a leaky roof, and out. What the machine was all dirty and rusty, and it took a half a day almost to clean it out, rust rubbed off and knife ground. Then at the last minute he remembered that on the last day's work last summer he had not greased the wheels, and the machine could not be used till it was replaced. He sent a boy on a gallop to a store that kept parts of that kind of mower, but they didn't have that one, and he had to telegraph for it. He got it by express the next day. Two days were lost in getting even a start.

He did have good luck with his cutting, and mowed all that was ready in three days. But before he got the new wheels, or even all put up in large casks, a two-days' rain set in and at least two tons of the hay got wet enough and spoiled. Of course, that was more bad luck; we can't control the weather; but if the machine had been looked at in time, and got good and ready, the luck would not have been bad.

I have always noticed that the man that is right up with his business, or something else, is the one that has the least "bad luck," and makes the best success.

When I have to go to a neighbor to do something my wife says she has to hold me back to keep me from getting to the place before the people are out of bed. And I admit I have caught some in bed. But I find it a mighty satisfactory way of doing things: I generally have a little letter success than some of my neighbors, who seem to think "any old time" will do to get their work done.

And when you come to think of it, farming is the only business in which this lack of system and promptness prevails to any extent. Railroads, factories, mills, shops and all business houses have to be run on "schedule time." I know it pays just as well for the farmer to be systematic as any of the others. I don't know but it is more necessary, for the working season does not last all the year with him.

I tell my neighbors that I think it is more important to train their boys to promptness and time-saving ways of doing things than to give them very high education or money. The training will have its effects all through life and be useful in any line of work, but property or money left them may soon be gone.

Of course, boys must sleep enough, but not too much. It is like eating; if one indulges the appetite to the point where we are apt to eat too much. However, the sleeping habit is one that depends on training. People with nothing to do sleep more than others if they are healthy, and more than they need. But if the sleep is not sufficient when it is light enough to work, in the busy season, certainly it is best to get along on less, or go to bed earlier. Every man should train his children to appreciate these things, and they will be valuable to them all their lives.—S. J. O., Oklahoma, in Farm Progress.

THE BIG WATER SUIT FILED.

Twin Falls Canal Company Seeks to Establish Snake River Priority.

Boise, Jan. 8.—The Twin Falls Canal company has filed a suit in equity in the Twin Falls county district court, naming between 2500 and 3000 water users under protest along the Snake as defendants and seeking to have the priority of its filing under date of June 25, 1900, on 300 cubic feet per second decreed. The case, it is stated, will precipitate litigation which will result in the adjudication of the rights of the various appropriators of water from the Snake river and parallel the case involving Boise river priorities, pending in the state courts for several years and which were recently passed upon by the supreme court.

The federal government, Twin Falls Land & Water company, Twin Falls North Side Land & Water company, The Twin Falls City Land & Water company, The American Falls Water Power company, The Washington Irrigation & Colonization company and all water users under these various projects are named as defendants to the suit, the plaintiff contending that its claim in its precedence over all of these appropriators.

The Twin Falls Canal company, the plaintiff in the suit, is the original Twin Falls Construction company, in-Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott.

January 16, 1910.
The Beginning of the Galilean Ministry. Matt. 4:12-25.
Golden Text. The People which sat in darkness saw great light.—Matt. 4:10.
Verse 12.—Why did Jesus depart for Galilee when he heard John was imprisoned? What for fear of personal arrest?
Why should a good man not necessarily expose himself to danger?
Verse 13.—Describe, or point out on the map, the situation of Nazareth and Capernaum and state at least one thing for which those cities are noted?
Verse 14-16.—State your reason for either theory that Jesus went to dwell in Capernaum purposely to fulfill the prophecy of Isaiah, or that his going there was an unconscious fulfillment of this prophecy?
Why, or why not, do any of the events which God says are going to happen, depend upon the help of man?
Why is it that the Advent of Jesus into a Christian's heart, or into any community, is like a great light harrying out all dark drunks?
What is the literal meaning of the figures of light and darkness, as used in verses sixteen?
Verse 17.—What, if any, was the difference between John's preaching of repentance and that of Jesus? (See Chap. 9-2.)
Compare say Abraham and Enoch of the Old Testament, with the Apostles John and Paul of the New Testament, and then compare the four with an equal number of like goodly men now, and then say if there is any essential difference in the way that they each entered into the kingdom of God?
Verses 18-22.—How can you explain that these fishermen so promptly gave up their business and followed Jesus? What can be said for, or against, the idea, that they had heard Jesus frequently and had thoroughly convinced themselves of his authority, and that then they took sufficient time to dispose of their business affairs?

Give a reason for your answer as to whether God in these days, or ever calls upon men and women to do erratic things, such as, neglecting their families, or their families, in order to do religious work?
How may a man of God recognize the call of God to new work, when it comes through the medium of another man?
Will a true Christian, at the command of God, give up the business in which he may be engaged in order to do gospel work?
When God calls a man to devote himself to gospel work, is it always to be presumed that it is a life long call?
Most people recognize that a special call is necessary for the gospel ministry, but if this is so, why is not a special call necessary for any occupation?
Why for example should not a Christian businessman, have as clear cut conviction, as that of a preacher of a church, that he is doing his divinely appointed work?
If you are not sure that you are where you ought to be, and are doing what God wants you to do, what reason is there to believe that you are not drifting in some degree separate from God?
Verse 23.—Why is every Christian, to the extent of his opportunity, under as much obligation to minister to the spiritual and physical needs of the people as Jesus was?
Verse 24.—Did Jesus heal all the sick people in the community?
Verse 25.—Is a faithful man equally to be praised whether he is popular or unpopular?

DEATH OF FILER YOUNG LADY.

Daughter of Frank Taylor Dies After Short Residence On Tract.

Filer, Idaho, Jan. 11, 1910.
George Trutt, the local station agent, left on last Wednesday evening to join Mrs. Trutt and little daughter who are visiting friends and relatives in Wyoming. They will be absent about two weeks.
Mrs. T. E. Moore returned on Saturday afternoon from a five weeks' trip to Chicago and Hillsdale, Mich., where she was the guest of relatives and friends. She reports that their daughter, Mrs. Norman Barker, has entirely recovered from her illness and that with the close of the University season that both she and Mr. Barker will return to Idaho.
Miss Francis Brown, who has charge of the primary department, has returned from school on Monday on account of a brief illness. Mrs. A. Newberry filled the vacancy during Miss Brown's absence.
Miss Charles Wetherbee and daughter, Miss Gladys Dunn, left on Wednesday for Buhl, where they will make their future home since Dr. Wetherbee has entered into a partnership with Dr. McClusky of that place.
R. H. Pearleywitis is in Filer from Boise and is taking charge of the business of the O. S. station in the absence of George Trutt.
Miss Hutter of Buhl, remained in Filer Monday and Tuesday, and on Monday evening in the Methodist church building organized a vocal class which she will instruct in the old fashioned, yet new, acoustical method. A goodly number were in attendance and an interesting session was reported by all present.
On Saturday night, after waiting two days for the delayed freight, A. P. VanAusdell shipped out two cars of fat hogs to the Portland market.
Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Shafer entertained a number of friends at a merry dinner party on Sunday evening.
On last Friday evening two merry sledging parties of young people after enjoying the smooth roads for several hours, gathered at the home of Mrs. H. H. Schildman, where the guests of the evening were entertained in games, pop corn and candy until a late hour.
On the evening of Friday, Jan. 21st, the local order of I. O. O. F. are planning to give one of the best dancing parties of the year. The dance will be given in the Johnson hall and music will be furnished by the O. K. orchestra. Already plans are being perfected for a sumptuous oyster supper.
On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Fisher and George Allen enjoyed the fine sleighing in Twin Falls, where every thing was done to make Mrs. C. McCreary, who was quite seriously ill for several days of last week is greatly improved and able to be one of the world once more.
E. Claud Stewart of Buhl, spent Sunday with friends in this burg.
A. S. Erickson spent several days of last week in this vicinity looking after his many interests in local real estate. Mr. Erickson has been successfully in business in Colfax for a number of years and has been interested in the Twin Falls tract that he has decided to locate permanently in the spring in the former place.
On last Sunday afternoon from the Monnonite church occurred the funeral services of Miss Nora Taylor, the youngest daughter of Frank Taylor, who resides near Filer. Miss Nora came to Filer about two months ago from Yakima, Wash., and made her home with her brother, Samuel Taylor, where everything was done to relieve the suffering girl but to no avail. Death occurred early on Thursday morning, when she was only eighteen years and twelve days old, her birthday having been on Christmas morning. Rev. Muller of the Lutheran church of Twin Falls officiated at the services and interment was made in the Filer cemetery. Six of the young men of the Lutheran church of this place acted as pall bearers.

Mr. Frank Ripley of the Weeter Lumber company, was among the Filers on business in the county seat on Saturday.
Dr. Chas. Wetherbee of Buhl, attended the bank meeting in this place on Tuesday afternoon. A. M. McKinlay of the Falls city, was in attendance.
The Jaridge mining fever has reached Filer, also, and one of the plans were nearly completed whereby a second mining company was organized to own and develop claims in that area much discussed recently. With such names as T. E. Moore, F. Graves and several others of equal business ability and integrity it is felt that the new company will be one worthy of consideration. Though as yet they have not finished their organization into a stock company, they have already traced over a considerable sum to the treasurer and have unfilled and sent two men into the mining region.
Prospecting is being done in the direction of a brother of W. R. Swicegood, who recently arrived here from Wallace, Idaho, and who is a mining man of much experience.
The village council met on Monday evening in the offices of the Idaho State Bank, where the minutes of the spring development of Filer were discussed.

Excelsior Notes.

Excelsior, Idaho, Jan. 5, 1910.
Miss Laura Nixon, our efficient teacher, spent Saturday and Sunday in Buhl.
Peter Link is spending a few weeks of well earned vacation in St. Louis.
The son of the treasurer was heard in our vicinity last week but was cut short by the storm.
Old John Wender is dividing his time between putting up lettuce and building brooches. Ponder whose got the best, royal John or Uncle Joe? Here's luck boys, and hoping you both win.
Several of our old boaters need a wife or two.
Peter Larsen is hauling straw from the Neely place to his Rock Creek ranch. Hay is about all bought up and at a premium.
Snow is deep and most of the young ones are being toted to school.
Mr. H. Hutto has sold his farm on the Rock Creek, Hansen stage road. We understand the purchase price was $100 per acre.
Jack Craig shipped a car of hogs to Portland recently for which he received $3.40 per hundred, and now Jack wears the smile that won't come off.
Some of our farmers afraid of the hot days to come are storing up large chunks of the cold. The ice is of the quality and uniform thickness, about 20 tons have been harvested.
Miss Georgia Hilton, who has been visiting with her friend, Mabel Harrison in Buhl, has returned to her home in Oakley.

The action of the Twin Falls men in establishing a hotel at Wilkin's hot springs should tend to clinch Twin Falls as the outfitting point and they should be commended for their public spirit and enterprise. Twin Falls has the only good road to the camp and by making a decent permanent hotel at the end of the first stage of the journey, it will prove alluring to old prospectors and tenderfoots alike.

Colonel Thomas R. Hamor is a candidate for re-election to congress and should be made to tell right off the bat just where he stands regarding the support of Cannon. If he is lined up with the Cannon haul he should not be returned to give aid to the movement which does not express the views of his constituents. Viewed from the standpoint of ability, Mr. Hamor is no better than hundreds and thousands of citizens in this state and unless he does express some good sound-sensitiveness aside from following Cannonism through thick and thin he should be given a chance to view the national congress from the outsider's aspect. Idaho does not need bombast and silver-tongued oratory right now as much as she needs a little common sense in her lone representative.

The meeting of the business men and ranchers at the Commercial club resulted just as The Times predicted, in nothing of advantage to the arguments brought up by one or two interested parties to have the decree suit dropped, inasmuch as the advice did not seem disinterested. The idea which was given out from the same sources in that case the way against the deed to the canal system is not dropped that the Brunau project will be dropped avoided too much of a bluff game and resulted in making many ranchers indignant. The latter objection to the threatened suits seems most childish in as much as the original estimate on the cost of putting in the irrigation system was based upon the plan of building an entirely new canal to carry the water and not upon the perhaps cheaper plan of widening the high line canal. In fact every estimate of the expenses was placed high enough to cover difficulty. Besides there is the basic principle for the settlers guidance in that they must protect their own rights at all costs, and for them to lay down and tamely submit to an imposition in regard to either decree suit or the suit to nullify the deed would be the height of folly. There are many of the settlers here who invested every dollar on the tract and the results of the suits mean much to them. The Times greatly wishes for the sake of the prosperity of the tract and this city that nothing should hinder the development of the Brunau project, but it is not going to ask the ranchers who have made the prosperity, which has come so far to the city and tract, to sacrifice a principle in order to secure future benefit.

A CIVIC TRIUMPH.

By a majority of seven thousand in a total vote of thirty thousand, Kansas City, Missouri, has refused to grant a forty-two-year franchise to the Metropolitan Street Railway company of that city. The result was a decisive victory for civic decency and for the principle of the referendum in city affairs. It indicated the growing tendency of American cities to retain control of their streets and to refuse to make long-term franchise grants. The situation in Kansas City has already been described in The Outlook. The street railway company has a franchise which does not expire until 1925. In order to renounce the company, it obtained from a complaisant council and mayor an extension to 1951. The concession offered was the promise of the sale of six tickets for twenty-five cents on the cars and twenty-five for a dollar at drug stores, at that three years. Meanwhile the company was to build a viaduct to carry a roadway and car tracks from the heights of Kansas City into the river bottoms of the wholesale and packing house district. The wording of the reduced fare clause of the ordinance was ambiguous, there was no limitation on the issue of securities, and the forfeiture clause was so worded that it would have been virtually impossible to forfeit the franchise. Fortunately, under the new charter there is a compulsory referendum in Kansas City on all franchises for a term of more than thirty years, and a referendum on all franchises on a petition of twenty per cent of the voters. The City club at once protested against the terms of the franchise, and organized a non-partisan committee of one hundred to manage the campaign. This organization had the powerful support of the Kansas City "Star." Meetings were held in various parts of the city under its direction every night for the fortnight before election, and several hundred volunteers were obtained to work at the polls on election day. In the last days of the canvass the street railway company became desperate, and pay stations were publicly operated there literally hundreds of men were employed as "workers" to talk for the franchise on the street cars and to get out the vote on election day. So demoralizing were the methods employed that the committee of one hundred was impelled to publish an emphatic protest against the attempt to buy the election. The chief elements of danger in the situation lay in the possibility of corruption and fraud because of the great money stake of the street railway in the outcome, and in the fact that nearly thirty per cent of the voters were disfranchised through lack of the opportunity to register. The board of election commissioners, which had been appointed by Governor Folk, and the police commissioners, appointed by Governor Hadley—both of whom, by the way, had come out publicly against the franchise—took extraordinary precautions to make the election honest. The majority against the franchise registered in no uncertain way the opinion of the people of Kansas City.—The Outlook.

President Taft has by his recent message to Congress and by his dismissal of Gifford Pinchot brought to a climax the differences between the old line party leaders and the insurgents. The refusal of patronage to the latter members tended to bring strained relations between the two factions to the point of open war, and now the dismissal of Gifford Pinchot confirms to the people of this government that Taft has at last come to his long awaited decision that the Roosevelt policies were not his policies. There can be no other interpretation of his message and of his action than that as far as the present administration is concerned, Roosevelt counts no more than any other private citizen. It shows Taft in the light of trading the rights of the people for a better standing with the trusts and the dominant faction in the Republican Congress. In any light the position of Taft reflects no credit to a man who made his race for the position of president upon Roosevelt policies and upon a platform approved by the majority of the citizens all over the nation. It shows him first as he fluctuates between the two distinct positions as a man of vacillating character. It shows him now as a man careless of pledges to a whole nation. There can be no doubt in the mind of many men who voted for W. H. Taft that his election was not the result of bring future reforms, nor to hold the ground gained during the energetic administration of Roosevelt.

Taft has to a great extent been handicapped by the great ability of his predecessor and come to his term with the eyes of the world looking for him to make a worthy successor. He was handicapped in the start by the need to keep many of the former cabinet officers and minor officials in place. Another handicap was in the party machine built up in Congress by the Cannon-Alfritch controversy making free action to a certain extent extremely hard and a great many reform measures out of the question.

But after weighing all of the disadvantages under which President Taft labored, there still confront even his most staunch supporter the facts that in every case where only the big stick could solve the problem, Taft began to compromise and it was not long before Cannon and Alfritch had sized up the situation and seized control. The Dallinger-Pinchot controversy reached its acute stage during Taft's western trip and made a case needing drastic dismissal of one or both of the only solution. Taft as usual compromised and tried to keep both in line on policies directly opposite. Again when the tariff bill was in its first stages of construction and the trusts were howling for an increase in the rates, Taft could have set his foot down, solidly on the threat of a veto and made even Cannon and Alfritch be good, but with the same vacillation, compromises was his cry and in the end every benefit promised the people was nullified. When his special message was first begun, it was understood that a beneficial change in the inter-state commerce laws was to be recommended which would make the commission worth while. At this critical moment a delegation of railroad men were called to the White House and the result was a decision that the present traffic law suited the railroads. Trace every move of the present incumbent from his position on the Philippine commission to the present situation and only one thing stands out. Indecision and temporization with vital questions, needing a strong and rugged handling, are the qualities which will be handed down to history concerning the President Taft of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meyer left Tuesday evening for Denver, Colorado, on a short business trip. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer will also visit friends and relatives in Boulder, Colo., before returning.

The funeral of Miss Pearl Smith, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Smith, who died on last Wednesday morning will be held from the Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. If there is any change in the time of the funeral it will be announced from the various churches next Sunday morning.

F. W. Robinson, who was the guest of his cousin, A. G. Fisher a few days the first of the week, left Tuesday morning for his future home in Portland, Ore. Mr. Robinson stopped off in Twin Falls on his way from his former home in Chicago to Portland, where he has accepted the position of assistant general freight agent of the Harriman lines.

Miss Nellie Teasdale entertained most charmingly Friday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Earnest White, in their beautiful new home in East Lawn addition. There were present about twenty-seven young people and all reported a most enjoyable time. The evening was devoted to games and music, after which an elaborate luncheon was served.

The beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White in the East Lawn subdivision was thrown open to the members of the Wednesday afternoon card club and their husbands last evening, when Mesdames Ernest White and W. F. Pike gave the first of a series of monthly dinners recently inaugurated by the club. The guests were, upon arriving, given a most delicious repast as the combined effort of the hostesses after which the evening was spent in playing five hundred. Mrs. W. S. Hill and Mr. J. W. Craven were recipients of the prizes for high score.

Died—On Tuesday, January 11, 1910, Henry J. Grant, aged 50 years, very suddenly, at Milner, Idaho. He was taken very suddenly sick at Webb & Henry's pool room at Milner, Monday evening. Dr. W. F. Duckett was called in and said he had a paralytic stroke. Coroner Charles J. Walker was called up and after examining Wm. O. Daniels, James Bennett, Jas. Hippard, John Rolan, J. P. Smith and Frank Sizemore, they pronounced death due to paralysis. The doctor and Mr. Walker examined everything thoroughly and could find no indication of foul play. The funeral was held at Milner at 4 p. m.

ROCK CREEK NEWS.

Rock Creek, Idaho, Jan. 5, 1910. Mr. and Mrs. Tilly entertained Mr. A. McDermid and his wife, Miss Edna; Mr. Will Tilly and sister, Miss Edna; of Kimberly, at dinner Xmas day.

The young people of Rock Creek appeared Thursday, December 23, as "Santa Claus Defenders." The cantata was well rendered, each child doing his very best. All who were present expressed their appreciation of the work done by the children. Old Santa came to strengthen their faith.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Aikin and daughter entertained the following at dinner Xmas day: Mr. and Mrs. Nepht Larson, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson, Misses, Will Johnson, Lloyd Brown, Marion Larsen, Mr. Monte and Clyde Aikin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burke and daughter, Lynn, entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. Wixom and daughter, Vesta and Miss Kate Larson, Xmas day.

Misses Ellen and Anna Larsen spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Larsen. They returned to Albion Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Osborne and daughter Mildred took dinner with Misses Elliott and McDermid New Year's day.

Mr. J. F. Tatro of Oakley, spent the holidays with his daughter, Miss Maude Tatro.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Larson took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. Peterson Sunday.

The dances at Rock Creek New Year's Eve were greatly enjoyed by the young people. All were young that night in spite of years.

Mr. G. W. Calverton made a trip to Twin Falls Tuesday with Mr. C. F. Reagle's goods, which were to be loaded in J. H. Newton's car bound for Hamlet, Ore.

Jack Frost and Miss South Wind had a contest at Rock Creek Thursday evening to see who would be the winner. Jack Frost, in a very gentlemanly way allowed Miss South Wind to feel that she was the stronger for a while day, then he began in real earnest and slipped and cutted and boxed in such a furious manner that poor Miss South Wind sat down and hunched her face in her snowy white handkerchief and wept frozen tears.

Mr. Frost apologizes in this fashion for his unseemly conduct: "I wouldn't do for the honor of 1210 to have all flowers in mourning his throne."

"The Gypsy Heiress" was given by the young ladies and gentlemen of Rock Creek. The play was well rendered, the "villain" being the star of the evening. Many expressed a desire to see the play again, which speaks well for the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harold and son Andrew took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dallas Xmas Day. Everything that was good was served.

Miss Leanna McDermid and Mrs. Roy Perry made a pleasure trip to Kimberly Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Mr. Harold Tilly and Miss McDermid attended the dance at Kimberly Xmas Eve.

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Twin Falls Household Will Find Them So. To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed, to be entirely free from annoying and dangerous disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful.

A Newton, Mountain Home, Idaho, says: "I served in the army and like many other soldiers, suffered from kidney complaint. It was caused a great deal of trouble and could not find relief. A friend finally suggested me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I did so with the most satisfactory results. I am now well and able to do my work which bothered me almost constantly. The kidney secretions were very unnatural and at times caused me much of my trouble. I also suffered from rheumatic pains. My shoulders and hips ached and at times I was seized with dizzy spells, during which I had to grasp something to keep from falling. Since taking Doan's Kidney Pills the trouble has entirely disappeared. I am glad to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

Making Himself Secure. After the funeral of an old woman in a remote Yorkshire hamlet her sons and daughters made a vigorous search for her will, but without success, although they knew that she had prepared one shortly before her death.

"What's to be done if it, loek?" the eldest son asked the youngest, who, being unmarried and a great dunc, had always hung on to his mother's apron strings. "That's been in it 'ouse all this time, 'er 'eady to watch thee, 'n' look a bit fishy. Hast in burit it?"

Joek violently refuted the charge. "Why, Ah nobbit 'n' it in my 'and once," he declared.

"Ah, then, Ah admits there was a will!" cried the eldest brother triumphantly.

"Of course there was!" Joek frankly confessed. "She gave it to me 'f day afore she died, but Ah couldn't read a word of it, so Ah took it out 'n' buried it to keep it safe. Ah'm not going to let any brothers 'n' sisters get ahead o' me. When Ah've learnt to read for me sen Ah shall dig that will up, but not a day earlier!"

In Pralza of Tea. Kienlung, the Chinese poet, was a prolific writer, and of all his poems the most widely remembered. Written in exquisite characters, it decorates half the old cups, plates and fans of his period.

Thus it runs: "The wine is a gentle fire the tripod whose color and form tell of a far antiquity and fill it with water of molten snow. Let it soothe till it would be hot enough to whiten fish or to redden a crab. Then pour it into a cup upon the tender surface of a selected tea tree. Let it rest till the mists which freely rise have formed themselves into thick clouds and until these have gradually ceased to weigh upon the surface and at last float away in vapor, then deliberately slip the delicious liquor. It will drive away all the causes of disquietude that come to trouble us. You may taste and you may feel, but never can you express in words or song that sweet tranquillity we draw from the essence thus prepared!"

Meat Bread. In Saxon and medieval times, even after the introduction of wheat and other cereals, there can be little doubt that acorns were regularly used by the poorer peasants for the purposes of making bread, and not only in seasons of scarcity, but as a general article of food. Oak trees were then chiefly used in the house of the acorns which they produced.

In Anglo-Saxon records for the year 1110, which is described as "a very calamitous year, the crops being spoiled by the heavy rain, which came on just before August and lasted till Candlemas." It is expressly mentioned as an aggravation of the "heavy year" that "meat was also so scarce this year that none was to be heard of in all this land or Wales."

The days of meat bread are happily gone forever, and even barley bread, in common use during severe winters not so many years ago, has now everywhere given place to that of the "spiced wheat flour"—London Spectator.

Smokeless Until science discovered a way to construct the Automatic Smokeless Device, and make it completely dependable, all oil heaters had one common great fault—smoke. With the advent of the Automatic Smokeless Device, and its practical application to the PERFECTION Oil Heater (Equipped with Smokeless Device) the smoke problem was successfully solved. The Perfection Oil Heater is the only heater equipped with this Automatic Smokeless Device which insures a steady, full-glowing heat, with the wick turned up as high as it will go, without a shred of smoke. Reverse the motion, turn the wick down—there's no odor. The smokeless device automatically locks and prevents the upward movement of the wick beyond the proper exposure, that is the secret. This splendid result gives leadership to the Perfection.

You may now have all the heat you want—when you want it—and where you want it—without the annoyance of smoke or odor. Brass wick tube—damper top—cool handle. Cleaned in a minute. The Perfection is beautifully finished in Nickel or Japan. Every Dealer Everywhere. If Not At Hand, Write for Descriptive Circular to the nearest Agency of the WEDDING AT THE DAVIS HOME.

Miss Estelle Lyons and Walter Blanchard United at Kimberly.

Kimberly, Idaho, Jan. 12, 1910. The Kimberly Commercial club met at the office of the Kimberly Real Estate Co. for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. E. T. Newby was elected chairman; H. G. Wilson, vice chairman; W. F. Breckon, secretary and treasurer. A general order of routine business was transacted and several new names were added to the roll of membership.

E. E. Higgins, electrician, will have charge of the Great Shoshone Light & Power Co.'s business at Kimberly. Frank Ogg and family of Twin Falls, will leave Kimberly soon. Mr. Ogg expects to purchase an interest in the hardware and furniture business now owned by Swearingin & Wilson.

Tyler Bruce, and E. S. Murphy of Buhl, purchased an 80-acre tract near Buhl a few days ago.

Five hundred sheep, which was held on Monday of this week, was well attended and everything sold for a good price.

Five thousand head of sheep passed through Kimberly en route to Filer Monday. The owners were compelled to feed for the night near Filer, and the fancy price of about $20.00 per ton for four tons of hay in the stack, this being about $5.00 dollars per ton more than the price paid for the hay in the city.

It does not seem to be the best way to induce stockmen to bring in their herds to feed during the winter, as the stockmen are usually not in a position to act like it is imposed upon. Think this matter over Mr. Hay Grower, and meet the stockmen half way.

R. M. Newby came home losing one of his horses Sunday afternoon. While the family were visiting at the home of W. C. Newby the team became tangled and the horse fell on the head and was all but dead when found and released.

County Supt. T. W. Potter of Twin Falls, was in Kimberly Tuesday. Tuesday of this week and reported the school progressing nicely.

The Ladies' Pioneer club met at the home of Mrs. M. G. Taylor, last Thursday afternoon. There were 21 members present, the loosing side in a contest for members furnished the refreshments. All present had a very enjoyable time. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Kendall, the first Thursday in February.

The quarterly meeting of the Farmers Union will be held at Kimberly on Tuesday of this week. The Kimberly Local Social association met last Saturday afternoon at the office of O. G. Zuck. The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: O. G. Zuck, vice chairman; A. Burkhalter, representative; W. Lewis, secretary; T. W. Hess, treasurer. Fourteen new names were added to the membership.

R. A. Byrns and family left Tuesday evening for their old home near Rockwood, Iowa. Mr. Ryan owns a fine 10-acre tract west of town, and no doubt that he will return to Idaho to make this his future home.

Geo. Oakes came down from Orestin City Saturday evening to attend the installation of a car of Kimberly lodge No. 122, I. O. O. F.

The Kimberly local of the Farmers union, elected officers over to the city, on Jan. 8. Joseph Sulwies was elected president; O. G. Zuck, vice president; W. M. Van Houten, secretary and treasurer.

The farmers received a car of coal Monday morning which was distributed among the farmers and those of the town people who were in need of coal. W. F. Breckon received a letter a few days ago from Ed Donarob, who lately went to Shelby, Mich. Mr. Donarob says he is in the coal business in snow. He thinks he will be able to induce most of the people in Michigan that Idaho is the only state in the west to produce coal.

At the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Davis near Kimberly, at high noon Wednesday, Miss Estelle Lyons and Walter Blanchard were married to Mr. Walter Blanchard of Buhl.

der, Colo., Rev. John Gourley of Twin Falls, officiating. Only a few relatives and friends were present. After the ceremonies all returned to the dining room where an elegant wedding dinner was served. The happy couple left on the evening train for Boulder, Colo., their future home. Mr. Blanchard is a well-to-do stock man of Colorado, the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lyons wish for them all the comforts and happiness of a long and prosperous wedded life.

E. S. Hithon, who was operated on some time ago for rheumatoid arthritis, is recovering. His many friends will be glad to see him up and around again.

W. C. Hill, local manager for the Western Lumber Co., is reported on the sick list this week. Messrs. Swearingin & Hickerson have rearranged the interior of their hardware store, making quite an improvement in the appearance of their shop.

Rock Creek News. Rock Creek, Idaho, Jan. 12, 1910. Mr. H. P. Larsen went to Kimberly Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hansen and daughter, who are visiting with their friends and relatives here Sunday. The teacher and pupils of Rock Creek had an extra week of vacation, thanks to Jack Frost and his winter spirits. They were literally snowed in.

Will Curry went to Twin Falls Saturday. H. P. Larsen and Henry Jones were searching the canyon for stray cattle Friday.

The weather man is doing some damage to stock by trying to please everybody. The thermometer registered twenty-six below and caused animal husbandry men to wonder what the weather man never knew to admit Jack Frost before.

Asabel Murray drove George Crockett to Oakley Wednesday in spite of the snow drifts.

Orley Tilley drove out to the ranch Saturday evening. He decided that sage brush roads were preferable to snow drifts.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Osbourne made a trip to Kimberly Saturday. Mr. Osbourne has made arrangements for his bride Jersey cows, which he purchased for Mr. Irwin Ward. Mr. Parker is certainly a good judge of cows.

Mr. and Mrs. Butters and family returned to Clarkston, Utah, after an excellent week with Messrs. Peter and Marion Larsen at Kimberly.

Mr. Henry Larsen and Miss Vera Daniels are the easy of the Rock Creek game preserve at this place. The streets in this school. We think Mr. Henry purchased his of Old Santa Clara.

T. W. Potter was a welcome visitor at the Rock Creek school Monday.

CAN REGULATE COAL SHIPMENT.

Novel Decision of United States Supreme Court.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The United States supreme court today handed down a decision sustaining the power of the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate the distribution of railroad cars among coal companies. The decision is regarded by the government as most important and it is expected that rate cases to be heard by the court.

In announcing the decision Justice White considered two objections to the exercise of power by the commission, the first being that no such delegation had been made by the interstate commerce law in the matter of the distribution of company fuel cars among coal companies. It is expected that the court below was beyond the authority conferred by law.

The first objection, he said, rested on the ground that the interstate commerce, in the constitutional sense, embraced only shipments in a technical sense and did not therefore extend to carriers engaged in interstate commerce.

Instruments of Commerce. "It may be doubted," he said, "that the carriers of the railroad companies, engaged in interstate commerce, included in which are coal cars, are instruments of such commerce."

The construction which the interstate commerce act had recognized in the case of the coal cars, was an amendment adopted in 1906 all secured to establish the want of merit in the contention.

In addition, to adopt it would require us to hold that congress is enlarging the power of the commission over rates, had so drafted the amendment as to give it the power to regulate power in correcting abuses as to preferences and discriminations, which it was the great fundamental purpose of congress to further.

As the suit was originally instituted by the Illinois Central and other railroads in the Illinois cent files, the court announced its decision in enforcement of the interstate commerce commission's order as it applied to the distribution of the fuel cars for use by the Illinois Central and other shippers as well as the cars employed by the initial railroad companies themselves in handling their own fuel.

The United States circuit court of the northern district of Illinois sustained the commission in regard to the first two classes, but technically decided in favor of the railroads in the matter of restraining the enforcement of the regulation with reference to the company-owned cars.

The case of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company versus the Pittsburg Coal Company, involving a complaint of unequal distribution of cars among independent coal operators in West Virginia, was technically decided in favor of the railroad company, in that the decision of the United States circuit court of appeals for the fourth circuit was reversed.

AGRICULTURAL SPECIAL.

O. S. L. Will Run a Special Lecture and Exhibition Train.

Next Wednesday the O. S. L. R. Co. will send out from Salt Lake, a special educational train for the farmers of Utah and Idaho along the lines of modern methods in potato culture, from a commercial standpoint. This week the famous H. Grubb, the famous Colorado potato grower, and continuing said: "During the year 1909, there were 1,300 carloads of potatoes shipped out of the state of Idaho, and it is hoped that by careful attention to this industry, it will be possible to ship 12,000 cars a year in the near future. At the present time very little is understood by the average farmer concerning the favorable conditions necessary to make potato-raising more profitable.

"No crop on the farm is as profitable as potatoes, and without question, Idaho will in the near future produce more potatoes than any state in the union. When once the ranchers realize the great opportunities open to them in Idaho for the raising of fancy potatoes, that crop will become one of none in size and importance. No section of the world is as splendidly equipped by Nature for raising as attractive or potatoes of as high a quality as the Twin Falls tract.

"D. E. Burley, general passenger agent of the O. S. L. is the promoter of this instruction train, the value of which to the farmers of Utah and Idaho is not easily estimated. The train itself will be one of the most splendidly equipped ever operated in the United States. It will consist of an extra large baggage car, two cafe and dining cars for the instructors accompanying the train, and two passenger cars for seating audiences. The baggage car will contain samples of the most up-to-date implements manufactured, as well as selected types of market potatoes. Demonstrations of the most modern methods of sorting and packing market potatoes will be given by a specialist in this line.

"The corp of instructors will be selected with the view of securing the men who have been the most eminently successful in the various lines and methods of potato culture. They will give lectures on the soil preparation, seed selection, planting, cultivation, irrigation of potatoes, with special lectures on marketing and the most marketable types of potatoes.

"The directors of the department of agriculture of the Kuhn interests will be manager of the train. The Hon. H. L. Edgeron of Carbonade, Colo., will discuss the types of potatoes, seed-selection and the growing of seed.

"C. A. Stauffer, formerly of Carbonade, Colo., but now with the Twin Falls Milling and Elevator Co., will take up the subjects of markets and market types of potatoes. A. L. Egan, vice manager of the Harris Eading House Co. of the Santa Fe railroad, will lecture on the desirable potatoes for hotels and dining cars.

"Joseph E. Wing of Monteburg, Pa. without a peer in America on alfalfa, clover and soil culture, has been secured at great expense to accompany the train.

In addition to the above, Secretary Mahoney of the Grand Junction Chamber of Commerce, and James L. Hamill of the same place, the pioneer in orchard heating, will be with the train to give special demonstration and description of the manner in which the Grande valley of Colorado saved between two and three millions of dollars worth of fruit in western Colorado during the year 1909.

It myself will assist the other specialists from time to time with lectures upon whatever topics that may arise.

"This train will stop at all towns and cities taking from one and half to two hours at small towns, and a sufficient time at the larger towns and cities for a series of lectures on, and a complete demonstration of, the most up-to-date methods of growing and handling fruit and potatoes."

DISCUSS SUIT WITH SETTLERS

Large Number of Ranchers Meet in Club Rooms.

RANCHERS URGED TO DROP SUIT
BY SOME WATER USES.

The Tallest Results in Reversing
Several Phases of the Water Decree Suit.

The mass meeting called for Friday afternoon of last week brought out a big crowd of interested ranchers and a few local citizens to talk over the situation. President J. M. Maxwell of the Commercial club called the meeting to order after which it was turned over to the settlers with Pat Monahan as chairman.

M. J. Sweeley was then called upon to discuss the decree suit and spoke at length advising that the suit be dropped because the North Side settlers could come back against settlers in certain portions of this tract whose water rights were not included in the original segregation owing to some error in the original filing with the state engineer. He was asked if the deed to the system as filed was identical with the deed agreed upon by the attorneys for the settlers and the Land & Water company. Before Mr. Sweeley could answer, Mr. Voigt, who was present, answered for him with the statement that the deed had been changed, because the Land & Water company would not agree to make such deed. Attorney Bowen was asked to give the settlers' side of the question and stated that the decree suit was absolutely necessary and that the settlers should get it as soon as possible. He stated upon the question being asked that in his opinion the deed given by the company should be entirely void of reservations and subject to no liens of any sort.

Further discussion by the above speakers brought out the information to the listening settlers that the North Side company seem to claim an interest in the dam, a contention which was strongly combated by Mr. Bowen. Fred Voigt then gave the information unless the settlers gave right of way and accepted the present deed on file that the promoters of the big Bureau project would not carry out the undertaking, a statement which was given little credence by the men present.

Before the close of the meeting a motion was made to appoint the governing board of the Canal association a committee to confer with the company's attorneys.

MANY OUTFITS TO JARBIDGE.

News of the Heli Strike is Spreading
Throughout the West.

Geo. Easley, brother of Mrs. E. B. Williams, and one of the best mining experts in the state, and Herbert L. Owens left Friday for Jarbidge to prospect and investigate the district thoroughly.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Felix and Ed Vance left the first of the week for Jarbidge with provisions and outfit sufficient for an extended stay in the camp.

M. L. Fowler, a prominent Nevada mining, arrived Tuesday from Gold Circle, Nevada. Gold Circle is about 70 miles northwest of Piko, and thus not far from Jarbidge, but the snow in the mountains were so heavy that Mr. Fowler preferred to come around by rail via Elko, Ogden and Pocatello, to Twin Falls, and to the camp over an easier and less dangerous route. While in Ogden, Mr. Fowler ran across Dan Greenaway, who had enthusiastically boosting for Jarbidge and advising all whom he met to come to Twin Falls to outfit for the camp.

W. M. Bryan and M. F. Mather of Montana, and J. Campbell of Pocatello, Wyo., are expected to start for Jarbidge, but as yet they preferred city life to any exertion.

W. A. Stevens returned the first of the week from Boise. He stated that the mining men in the Capital City were commencing to become enthusiastic over Jarbidge, but as yet they preferred city life to any exertion.

PURCHASE RICH CLAIM.

Twin Falls-Jarbidge Development Co.
Will Sink Shaft.

C. G. Winter, general manager of the Twin Falls-Jarbidge Development Co., returned from the great gold camp Tuesday evening, where he in behalf of the company he represents, secured possession of the Pick and Shovel claims and the Shovel and Gem claims by the Frenchman, John Excellon. This group of claims was the first strike made after Mr. Bourne made his great find and is second only to the Bourne claims. The purchase price was approximately $250,000. Mr. Winter is on his way to Ogden to purchase mining tools and equipment with which to commence operations. He stated that his company would commence sinking a shaft immediately. Although the weather is unfavorable and there expect to make it an up-to-date case shaft, they nevertheless will go down 100 feet as soon as possible. Mr. Winter expects to be joined by Mrs. Winter from their ranch on the Diamond A Desert, this evening.

BURTON-ETZEL WEDDING.

Popular Young Business Man Takes Life Partner.

The many friends of Charles H. Burton and Miss Etzel were surprised by the happy couple being united last Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Flory. The ceremony was performed by Father Beauman of the Catholic church, was the old and beautiful ring ceremony performed in the parlors of the Flory residence in the presence of only a few of the intimate friends of the married pair. The home was a veritable garland of flowers in which white was the color effect. The bride was beautifully gowned in a white Princess and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding luncheon was served by the hostess.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Booth, Misses Vance, Thompson, Kell, Eisenberg and Elmer Flory.

The groom, who is one of the best known and most popular young business men in the city, has a number of friends who wish him great joy in the marriage relation, while deprecating his attempt to steal a march on them in getting married without their knowledge. Miss Etzel has been a resident of this city for the past year and has made for herself a number of friends who are delighted to have her permanent home in this city.

The bridal couple will make their home at the Rogerson for the present.

BENEFIT CONCERT.

Friends of Pastor of Christian Church
Plan to Show Appreciations.

In view of the general feeling of sympathy for Rev. W. L. McCollough, pastor of the Christian church, who has been very sick for some time, and has undergone a long operation, a benefit concert is being arranged in his behalf. Such a movement is even more opportune because Mr. McCollough's condition is such, even though he is recovering nicely from the previous operation, that he will be at best more or less incapacitated for active work for some time, besides the seeming certainty of it being necessary to perform another more delicate and severe operation later when he becomes strong enough to undergo it.

All who understand the pastor's circumstances are heartily in favor of a general benefit concert. Enough of the best talent in the city, including the Apollo club, have expressed their personal willingness to assist on the program, which will insure an entertainment of so high a quality as to richly repay anyone to attend aside from the desire to aid the benefit.

A fuller announcement of the program will be made later by means of placards. The date for the concert will be Thursday, January 20th, at the Methodist church. Admission price 50 cents.

CHAMPION SHROPSHIRE RAM.

J. H. Perrine Brings the Finest Ram
in England to Twin Falls.

A herd of twenty-four fine thoroughbred shreds, purchased by J. H. Perrine at the International Live Stock show, arrived in Twin Falls Wednesday and are on exhibition on the Perrine ranch on the north edge of town. With the sheep is their herder, an English boy who has accompanied them on their long trip from the pens of Lord Cavendish, Duke Devonshire, the great English stock breeder, to Twin Falls. One ram has won grand champion prizes wherever shown, including the English and American shows. Indeed a distinction to win such a prize at the great International Live Stock show at Chicago, where only the best is exhibited.

The First Chance to Take a Chance in the New and Hustling Mining Camp

OF JARBIDGE

The Jarbidge-Belmont Mining Co. have opened their stock books and offer 50,000 shares of their treasury stock at 10 cents per share. This is all the stock that will be placed at this price and we believe the property will take care of itself without further sale of treasury stock. The Jarbidge-Belmont stock is to be listed on both the Salt Lake and San Francisco boards; also on the new Twin Falls exchange to be formed shortly, and the Jarbidge-Belmont will be one of the features on each of these boards.

A Necessary Clearance

YOU can easily understand that in a business like our's it's quite impossible to tell beforehand exactly how many suits and overcoats we shall sell; if we could do it, we would buy more than enough; a clothing store without any clothes in it, sold out clean, would be a funny store.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

We're selling what we have left of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes and the other winter things to wear, at prices that are very seriously less than their real value. Some of these clothes are what we call "broken lots"; that is, we had all sizes of each pattern at the beginning, suits and overcoats; we've sold in the regular way all but a few sizes, here and there, "broken lots."

For Example: Here are winter overcoats that have been $22.50, $27.50, $35.00, now to be sold at $16.50-20.00-25.00.

Here are winter suits, good as ever; better than ordinary clothes, that we've sold at $22.50, $27.50, $35.00, now at $16.50, $20.00, $25.00.

ELDRIDGE CLOTHING CO.

Local and Personal

On next Wednesday the Baptist church will hold its annual business session at which time church officers for the year will be elected, and such other matters transacted as need to be at this time. In connection with the business session there will be the roll call of the names of the members of the church. Each and every member is required to respond to the calling of their name. If non-resident by letter, and if resident by some word of greeting. There will be two sessions, a forenoon and an afternoon session. Dinner will be served in the church by the ladies of the church, free to all.

The Keystone club was entertained most delightfully last Friday evening by Mr. Breckenridge and Miss Glenn at their beautiful home on Seventh avenue North. The evening was spent in music and social games. Mr. and Mrs. Davis, who have recently come to Twin Falls from Pennsylvania, were welcomed into the club. Delicious refreshments were served to the following: Rev. Mr. Gourley, Mr. and Mrs. Spackman, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, the Misses McConnell, Nan Vance, Mary Gourley, Margaret Gourley, Mary Thompson Glendon, Elsie Glendon and Bryant, Messrs. S. T. Hamilton, Schmits, Goldsmith and Albutch.

At the meeting of the Twentieth Century club Tuesday afternoon a goodly number listened to a spirited debate on "Hardly vs. Environment". The affirmative side of the question was in the hands of Mrs. Lausdell and Mrs. Clouche, while the negative was championed by Mrs. Penoy and Mrs. Chamberlain, and for the greater part of the afternoon the much-talked-of question was discussed pro and con in a very able manner. Indeed, the judges found themselves with a difficult task on hand when a decision must be made; but the affirmative finally gained the day. While at the next meeting all business will be discussed, the Current Events department promise something good in the way of a program and ask each member to come prepared to give an interesting current event in answer to roll call.

Elks Attention—A large display of emblem goods just received at Prib's Jewelry Store. Ask for "Carrollton." It's guaranteed to please. Home Mercantile Jan 13
