OFFICIAL COUNT NOW COMPLETE

Some Close Contests Develop on Results.

NO. 1 AND 2 OF CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS, CARRIED.

Hawley's Majority in County Increases from First Estimate of 191 to 162 on Commissioner's Count.

The county commissioners met in session Monday to canvass the vote of the county. The work was completed on Tuesday. The count as completed does not change the standing of any candidate as far as his election is concerned. There were a number of changes made, however, in the majorities that were given a number of the candidates on the basis of the campaign managers' count.

An interesting fact brought out by the official count is the strength of the Socialist vote, which had been disregarded in the previous counts as the officials made at that time to get the results of the two leading parties. The ballot shows that the Socialist vote in this county is approximately 370. It is also interesting to note that the Socialists "voted her straight," as there was very little variance in the votes for the various candidates of the party. The constitutional amendments, with the exception of the third one, were passed by large majorities. The third amendment, which related to the issuance of bonds to complete the state capitol building, was lost by about 500 votes.

HAS HIGH ENROLLMENT

1354 Names On Register of Local Schools.

CONDITIONS WILL DEMAND A CHANGE.

Estimated That Three Rooms Will Be Necessary by January 1—Increase Continues.

Monday morning there were 1354 names enrolled on the registers of the city schools. This is the high-water mark in the history of the Twin Falls schools. Of this number 603 are enrolled in the Lincoln school, 572 in the Bickett grades and the Roberts building on Main street, and 186 in the high school.

This large enrollment puts school room at a premium and makes it clear that if the present rate of increase in enrollment continues, more room will have to be provided. Superintendent Elliott states that if the increase continues it will be necessary to provide at least three new rooms by the beginning of the second semester, January 23. This is necessary for several of the rooms have more than forty pupils at present.

Conditions in the high school are practically as bad for the reason that a class of thirty will be ready for the entrance examinations at the beginning of the second semester. This will make it necessary that the new high school building accommodate two hundred pupils.

The removal of the high school from the Bickett building will only make an increase in the number of grade rooms of four. The enrollment is growing every month in both the grammar and high school sections so that it is clearly evident that additional room must be provided for both branches of the school.

ON TOUR OF INSPECTION.

HEAVY PROFIT IN POTATOES

Twin Falls Rancher Elated Over Crop Returns.

L. A. SNYDER PRODUCES REMARKABLY HEAVY YIELD.

Receives $680 for Crop from Three Acres of Delmay Challenge and Peachblows.

L. A. Snyder, living one mile from this city on the Kimberly road, has demonstrated to the farmers that potatoes are a profitable crop. Mr. Snyder in the early spring when the $750 prize was offered for the best yield of marketable potatoes from one acre was announced by D. E. Burley and associates, entered the contest and began working toward the cultivation of a handsome product.

From the three acres Mr. Snyder marketed 395 sacks of good sized tubers and still has a sack of smaller sizes for his next year's seed. The 899 sacks weighed 1500 pounds and netted him 70 cents per hundred, or $630. The prospects are excellent for Mr. Snyder to get the Burley prize on his Delmay Challenge acre of potatoes.

COUNTY GIVES ROAD AID

County Commissioners Help Jarbridge Route.

WORK HAS NOW BEEN STARTED ON COUNTY ROAD.

Jarbridge Commercial Club is Aiding From Nevada Side—Easler Grades Are Decided Upon.

County aid has been secured to help build the Jarbridge road. The commissioners have authorized the use of the money for the improvement of the road as far as the county line. This is a distance of fifty-four miles. The entire distance to Jarbridge is ninety miles.

The particular piece of work that will receive the most attention is the construction of a road from the Salomon dam towards the Nevada camp. The plan is to have the Commercial club undertake the work of finishing the work from the county line to Battlesnake Springs. From here into Jarbridge the road will be put into shape by the Jarbridge people, who now have a force of men at work on their end at the Jack Hole.

An easier grade will be taken from Battlesnake Springs into Jarbridge. This is the expensive piece of the road as there is considerable blasting to be done. When the road is completed, however, there will be only one stiff grade with the added advantage of having a road that is passable all the year around.

F. M. Buckley is superintending the work and has a crew at work. He returned to this city Wednesday night to get a larger force in an endeavor to get work done before it gets too cold. He reports that the temperature is getting lower every day and that snow has fallen. With an added force of men to work the work should be pushed to a successful end in a short time, as the road from here to the county line is not so difficult as the other portions of the road.

There is no doubt but what the road will be heavily traveled this winter. There are several freighters on the river in addition to the Brunh Kinney people have the new ore mill that will have to be freighted in over the road this winter. The gravel camp also requires more supplies, which will still further increase the winter's travel.

WILL ISSUE THANKSGIVING.

The First Issue of the Idaho Club Women Now Being Prepared.

Volume I, No. 1, Idaho Club Woman, will be issued from this office Thanksgiving. It is the official magazine of the Idaho State Federation of Women's Clubs. Heretofore the ladies have subscribed to the magazines of other states and will serve as a means for the advancement of any particular measure that the women of the state are anxious to have passed.

The Idaho Federation has a membership of about twenty-five hundred and the membership is rapidly increasing. The purpose of the magazine is to connect the clubs of the different parts of the state. It will be the medium for the exchange of ideas of the various clubs and will serve as a means for the advancement of any particular measure that the women of the state are anxious to have passed.

Asks from the report from the three state districts, there are several timely articles on events of state and national interest. It will accompany the meeting at Pocatello is also given space. Mrs. Martha Spangler, of this city, is the editor of the magazine. It will be published every month and subscription price is set at fifty cents a year. CHICAGO EXHIBIT ATTRACTS PRAISE

Display at Fruit and Corn Show Getting Results.

WINS FIRSTS AND SILVER CUP.

Twin Falls Representative Find Ready Response to Requests for More Settlers.

W. E. Palmer, who is in attendance at the National Fruit and Corn Show in Chicago, in writing to "The Times," states that " Idaho is the whole show there." He also states that there will be a big immigration from Iowa and the middle west to Idaho—the number of inquiries are a proper sign of the prospects.

George H. Smith is too busy to even write home, he adds. He says that he has seen all first premiums on potatoes and onions and a silver cup as well.

Mr. Palmer's letter follows, in part: "The show opened last Thursday and the weather is fine and attendance good. The show is held in a large coliseum and presents a beautiful appearance as the hundreds of acres of apples are artistically arranged for exhibit. Idaho is the whole show here this year, having large exhibits of apples from Payette, Nampa, Boise and Caldwell. Colorado has a good display but Oregon and Washington are not represented. The Twin Falls display is fine and interesting to the visitor more than any other, as it is varied and shows potatoes, grain, etc., in addition to the fruit, and is a very much interested farmer are most interested in. Dozens of people inquire every day for friends or neighbors who are now in Idaho, and are very much interested in their success there. Many are planning to visit Twin Falls this fall and see for themselves."

"Twin Falls is a splendid territory on potatoes and onions, including a silver cup. We could not compete in the apple contest, as most apples are of an fine color and quality as anything shown here and in a few years Twin Falls will certainly win the silver cup. The quantity of apples we have a great advertisement for our tract and encourage hundreds to come out there, for the Iowa farmers have more than 100,000 acres in Twin Falls and if the crowds increase a new boosting force will be necessary; as the present force is about all in working the day and night, and answering a thousand questions daily."

PICTURES MAKE HIT.

Films of Championship Base Ball Games Draw Crowds.

The new motion picture theatre on Shoshone, The Luna, was crowded on Monday and Tuesday nights of this week. The manager, Benson alone was well worth the admission price.

J. E. White & Co. Report Great Demand for Golden Rule Property.

Twenty-one lots sold since Saturday noon is the record made this week in the bargain sale of the lots in the Golden Rule tract. The success of the advertising, Mr. White says, are shown by this record, the extensive publicity given the sale being the chief factor in its success.

WELTER CITY—THE FAVORITE

West Is In Favor of Landing Exposition For San Francisco.

A great many people living in the middle west, and many living in the east, know San Francisco as they know New Orleans. To such people there can be but one opinion when it comes to deciding which is the best site for a great international exposition.

These people know that San Francisco has a delightful climate, summer and winter; they know that San Francisco is a great financial and commercial center; they know that it has one of the finest harbors in the world; they know that it is today one of the most beautiful cities in the country, a miracle of rehabilitation having been accomplished by the expenditure of more than $300,000,000 and marvelous energy; they know that the people of San Francisco have the ability, the energy and the money necessary to make the Panama-Pacific exposition a splendid success; they know that California, which is backing San Francisco in the fight is one vast storehouse of natural treasures, and that it offers more attractions to tourists, homeseekers and investors than any other section of the country—of the earth.

They also know New Orleans; they realize that it is somewhat nearer and that its people are hospitable, but they are not blind to its disadvantages and its comparative dearth of resources; they know that while the climate of New Orleans is pleasant in winter it is unbearable in summer; they know that New Orleans is not able, judging by the past, to adequately finance, even with the proposed state and great international assistance, a show that is as hard on which to welcome the fleets of the world, and present a naval spectacle as a feature of the exposition that is to commemorate the wedding of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans; they know that New Orleans is not in the same class with San Francisco, Louisiana is not in the same class with California.

Knowing these things the intelligent people of the east and the middle west will rally to the support of San Francisco in the fight for congressional favor and endorsement. All the jobs and special interests New Orleans can bring to its aid will not blind the people to its defects and deficiencies or make them forget the undisputed natural beauty of San Francisco and its many substantial qualifications as the ideal site for the proposed Panama-Pacific international exposition in 1915.

Particular About Cheese.

Gritts, the grocer, pulled his apron straight and put on his No. 1 smile as the lady with the f'm-placing-a-thumping-or-dor air entered the shop. She wanted some cheese.

"Yes, madam," smirked Gritts. "I have some delightful Derby's, madam, a quantity of choice Cheddars, madam, and a parcel of primo Parmesans."

Madam would like to taste some if she could. Certainly, madam could, if she would. Gritts flourished his gauge over this cheese and that. Madam nibbled at 11 different samples. No: none of them was quite "it."

"Of course, madam," said Gritts at length. "If you require Stillton"—and he handed her a generous taster.

"Ah," nodded the lady, as she smacked her lips. "that will do nicely! Now, if you'll give me a matchbox I'll be getting home. I only want to bat a mousetrap!"

How to Avoid Cholera.

A cheerful disposition is held by some doctors to be the best protection against cholera. When this disease first visited Paris in 1832, a notice was issued advising the inhabitants "to avoid, as far as possible, all occasions of melancholy and all painful emotions, and to seek plenty of distractions and amusements. Those with a bright and happy temperament are not likely to be stricken down." This advice was largely followed, and even when cholera was claiming over a thousand weekly victims, the theaters and cafes were thronged. The epidemic was in some quarters treated as a huge joke, and plays and songs were written round it. Rochefort, the father of the brilliant journalist of today, wrote a play, "Le Cholera Morbus," which proved a big success, and another production on the same lines, "Parle-malade," also had a long run.—London Chronicle.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescriptions.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—it cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—it enables Nature to repair the ravages of disease.

The records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema Cure.

DEFEAT IN GOOD OLD DAYS

Children of Large Families Were Undervalued, Overworked, Beaten and Ill-Treated.

We are told by many that the modern era is becoming forgetful that her chief and highest duty is to rear children in the fear of the Lord; or that if she recognizes this duty she is rebellious against it. And we are pointed admiringly and regretfully to the good old days when mothers saw their duty to church and state, and meekly performed it in the shape of families of eight, twelve and fifteen.

There are only two defects in this beautiful dream of the days of old. The first is that neither the fathers nor the mothers of these huge families had any particular intention, or, indeed, any idea, of sacrificing themselves for the race, or doing their duty by the community; they were simply following their instincts and taking the consequences more or less patiently—and astutely. The second is that with the exception of the small classes of independent means, these large families, if valued at all, were valued chiefly as a source of income to their parents from the earnings or work of the children during their time of dependence. We do well to denounce the modern sweatshop, or the factory mine crowded with child workers, but let us remember that a large percentage of the children of these huge families, among the working and farming classes a hundred years ago were more underfed, overworked, beaten and ill-treated, starved physically and mentally than most of the children of any civilized community today, even in factory towns.—Dr. Woods Hutchinson.

BILL NYE ON FOX HUNTING

He Considered It a Most Thrilling Pastime for Sons of the American Nobility.

"Fox-hunting is one of the most thrilling pastimes of which I know," said Bill Nye, "and for young men whose parents have amassed large sums of money in the intellectual pursuit of hides and tallow, the moot, the chess, the scampor, the full cry, the yelp of the pack, the yelp, the roll of triumph, the confusion, the whoop, the holla, the halloo, the hurrah, the abrasion, the snort of the hunter, the concussion, the sword, the open, the ear-bopper, the strangulated herra, the glad cry of the bound and the lay at his master's feet the strawberry mark of the rustic, all are so exhilarating to the sons of the American nobility. Fox-hunting combines the danger and the wild fun of the chase for the skating rink, the toboggan slide, the mush-and-milk sociable and the straw ride. For the young American nobleman whose glad father made his money by inventing a fluent pip, or who gained his great wealth through real estate mainly by means of a lung-pod, a Liverpool, a kidney-pod or a foot-pod, fox-hunting is his rate."

Sand and Germs.

Pretty ideas don't always appeal to the experts in hygiene. Kneeling for works, beaten and even that sand provided for children in the parks is no innocent as it looks. The sand-hopper, with which children are so familiar on the real seashore, is replaced, according to the gloomy experts, by another kind of hopper. The sand, in a word, when the children have played architects with it for a time adds crinities to crinities. This is not necessarily a reflection on the children or their children's parents, for sand, like loam, hay and straw seems to produce crits out of nowhere. But after all, sand can be renewed at small cost, and if the economists about town found that he is invited to take the old sand, it will be as good and crinities after that as when it was new.—London Chronicle.

Had Become Matter of Habit.

When Elsha decided to take unto himself a sixth pope, he repaired to the house of a Baptist minister, a venerable man who had officiated at several of Ziggs' previous weddings, to make arrangements to be married there the next day. The minister reflected a moment. "Elsha," said he, "I shall, of course, be glad to marry you again. This will be the fifth or sixth time, will it not be your mind telling me why is it that you never have a minister of your own race to the knot for you?" Elsha seemed hurt for a moment, but finally a broad smile illumined his features. "Well, sir," he explained, "I'm kinder got to be married by a white man to do my marryin', an' I reckon I'll alius do it."

Keeping Bright.
Said an intelligent woman not long ago, "My grandmother was one of the sprightliest, youngest, most up-to-date women I ever saw. Her household affairs and family plans seemed to move on as if willed. She was always ready with a quip and quick to brighten life for the rest of us. There was an ancient family joke about 'grandmother's journeys': she would once in a while announce, 'I'm going on a white announce. I need it,' and away she would go, work or convenience to the contrary notwithstanding. She didn't spend so very much or go far, but she would come home bright and cheerful."
Owes Fame to Childish Friends.
Everybody knows that Lewis Carroll, the author of "Alice in Wonderland," was an Oxford don—Rev. C. H. Dodgson—and that he looked more like the high-and-dry old mathematician than he was an entertainer of children. Yet he had certain child friends, and to these on their country walks he told the "Alice" adventures which he afterwards made into a book. But had it not been for the importunities of the children this great masterpiece would have died. The learned don thought nothing of it. Nevertheless, it will keep his name as long as the English language is spoken.

BOSTON MAN WAS MUSICAL

Must Have Been, for He Found Nothing Good in Opera Performances in Paris.

"Americans have to have a lot of nerve when they're abroad," said the man who had just returned from his first foreign trip. "I fell in with an American at the Grand hotel in Paris who was on his way to the opera, and, as I was of the same mind, we started together.

"Although it was a feature that night we found the opera house packed—the French, you know, are great on opera."

"Who were the singers?" asked a listener.

"Oh, I don't know—it was a third-rate performance.

"Well, we tried hard to get seats and couldn't—not a thing to be had."

"Wait," said my American friend; "I'll be back in a few minutes—I think I can get some tickets, and we'll returned very soon, waiting two tickets aloft which, as it turned out, were complimentary. To obtain complimentary tickets on a night like that was a master stroke. The French would have called it 'pulling strings.'"

"Coup c'est!" suggested some one.

"Tour de force!" said another, but no one was quite certain, so he continued:

"He had represented himself to be a director of the Metropolitan Opera company."

"Did he live in New York?" inquired another listener.

"No—Boston—but he was very musical—at least, I think he must have been, for while I sat enjoying the performance immenely he was examining from time to time, 'Hotten' Hear that tenor! That soprano's awful!"—Boston Herald.

Miracle of a Bath Sponge.
Henry Savage Lander, at one time a captive of the Lamas in Tibet, tells the following adventure:

"The Lamas had got hold of my bath sponge, which was dry and pressed to great thickness by a heavy weight which had rested upon it. Throwing it from them, it fell in a little pool of water. I addressed the sponge in English and with my words that came into my head, pretending to utter incantations.

"The attention of the Lamas and soldiers was quickly drawn to this unusual behavior on my part. They could not conceal their terror, which as I spoke louder and louder to the sponge, it gradually swelled to its normal size. The Tibetans, who at first could hardly believe their eyes, became nauseated. There was a general stampede."

First to Find Gold in America.
North America has counted as a gold-producing continent only since the late '40s. But it might well have done so for nearly 200 years. According to the London Chronicle, in the voyage round the world which began in 1719 the privateer Capt. Shelvocke, found in certain California valleys "a rich black mold which, as you turn it fresh up to the sun, appears as if intermingled with gold dust. Though we were a little prejudiced," he adds, "against the thought that it could be possible that this metal should be so profusely abundant and universally mingled with common earth, yet we endeavored to cleanse and wash the earth from some of it, and the more we did the more it appeared like gold. In order to be further satisfied I brought away some of it, which we lost in our confusion in China."

TWO GOOD REASONS.

"Why did you refuse him?"
"He was dissipated."
"Yes—his?"
"Any—his fortune was 'loot'!"

WOMAN AND HER INSTINCTS

She Will Follow the Law of Her Nature Because She Cannot Help It.

Women will follow the law of their nature, not because they are "so-called" sensualists, nor because they were; they can no more help it than they can stop their hearts from beating; they have no more choice in the matter than they have in the fact of their hair and feet, nor as much. Quite as amenable to the underlying laws of life are the older and sterner members of womankind who chatter on platforms about women's rights. When this kind fails, they fall like "so-called" sensualists, though I realize that it will take several scenes before man finds this out, that the strongest-minded women are actually the ones capable of the strongest affections, the most apparent susceptibilities, the deepest sensas, the most womanly. The instinct for motherhood is the primal, indestructible fact of woman's life, and professional work, university life, even—even the most advanced of sciences, if any more than the present style in gloves is going to change it. As well be afraid, that water will run up hill, that the Hudson will turn and travel back to the Adirondacks, as that the heart of woman, as she is short-haired, hooded and spurred or clad in chiffon, shall be made any way except as it is made, and has been for all time! The swallow to her to the river to the sea, as that the nest of the weaver to her child, exist, or non-existent. You cannot keep the needle from pointing to the pole, and no amount of good advice will make it point there irrevocably.—Scribner's.

CHARGE IT TO ADVERTISING

Veteran Actor's Good Story of the Theatrical Manager and the Evangelist.

"I hitched in London with Charles Klein, the dramatist and author of 'The Third Degree' and 'The Lion and the Mouse,'" said a veteran actor in New York. "Klein was the hero of the London papers just then. He had gotten into a taxicab one morning and said calm to the chauffeur, 'Edinburgh.' It was a trip of a thousand miles—the taxicab record. Naturally, afterward," the actor continued, "our conversation turned to advertising. Klein told me an interesting case. While he was conversing with a theatrical manager in London one day an evangelist was shown in. 'My dear sir,' said the evangelist to the theatrical manager, 'I am taking notes and gathering material for a lecture on the wife of the stage. I hear that 'The Blonde Widow,' your present attraction, is decidedly a s—m—sensation. May I ask for a ticket of admission so I may gauge his immorality personally?' The theatrical manager beamed with delight. 'Why, certainly, sir, certainly,' he cried, and turning to his secretary, he said: 'Rutherford, give this gentleman an order for a proscenium box, and charge it to advertising.'

Called for Glory Divine.
Among the customers in the drug store conducted by George Epler, Twentieth and Darks streets, one day last week was a little girl, who is known to her playmates in that vicinity as "Peggy." As she stood waiting for her turn, it could be noticed that she was repeating something under her breath, in her effort to remember what her mother had said her to buy.

"Mother wants five cents' worth of glory divine."

"Of what?" said the young clerk who was standing there as if stung by a hot iron, a "bottle of glory divine," or "glory divine," came the reply in a louder voice than when she had made the original request.

"You had better go home and have your mother write it down on paper, because it isn't the clerk, feeling that the girl was too sure to argue with him.

Soon she returned, and handing the note to the clerk, he read: "'Five cents' worth of chioride of lime.'"—Philadelphia Times.

Pride of Opinion.
Pride of opinion is perhaps the most common fault of us fairly educated and intelligent moderns. We form our judgments and then, as it were, defy anyone to change them. It is said that no one has ever been converted by abstract argument.

At the time of the great disaster in Martinique, the Italian bar Orsolina was taking a cargo of sugar there. Her captain was a man of no violence and he did not like the appearance of Mont Pelée. Not half his cargo was on board, but he decided to sail for home.

"The volcano is all right," argued the shippers. "Finish your loading."

"I don't know anything about Mont Pelée," said the captain, "but if Vesuvius looked that way, I'd get out of here."

The shippers threatened him with arrest. They sent customs officers to detain him, but the captain persisted in leaving. Twenty-four hours later lay dead in the ruins of St. Pierre—Kate Upon Clark, in the Christian Herald.

A Dremmer.
Hicks—Elbjohson is a sanguine man, isn't he?
Wicks—Yes. He was saying the other day that the sweet-gri graduate might have something new in her vocabulary next year.

DO NOT WANT LANDS.

Packers Object to $20,000,000 Fine Assessor.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Judge Landis of the United States district court and author of the famous $20,000,000 fine against the Standard Oil company, is not charged by indicated members of the so-called "beef trust" to preside over their trial on a charge of conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Judge Landis was patiently hearing some minor cases this afternoon when a quartet of counsel for the packers entered the court room and demanded a change of venue on the ground that he is disqualified from sitting in the case by reason of having acted in the role of special prosecutor, or at least investigator, of a similar charge against practically the same defendants years ago.

"This year session with the clerk of the court, and I will hear arguments next Wednesday," remarked the court, and then gave his attention to the hearing of a case.

The petition declares that fifteen years ago charges were made in the newspapers and in public speeches in congress that certain Chicago meat packers were in a combination in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law to control the price of livestock and the price of meats.

Judson Harmon, then attorney-general of the United States, appointed Keneaw Mountain Landis (the present judge) a special attorney to investigate the charges and to take them before a grand jury if he found it advisable.

Landis spent the better part of the year at the work, and eventually a grand jury indicted the late Gustavus Swift, founder of Swift & Co., and divers other persons, to the jurors unknown, charging violation of the anti-trust law.

The alleged beef trust of 1908 and the one of 1910, are identical, and the charges practically the same, the petition sets up.

FRENCH OFFICER'S REVENGE
How He Got Even With a Venetian Nobleman for a Cool and Worthy-ly Reception.

A French officer who had spirit and good birth, but little wealth, had served the Venetian republic for some years with great valor and fidelity, but had not been acknowledged with promotion as he had merited. One day he waited on a nobleman whom he had often asked for advancement in vain, but in whose friendship he placed some reliance. The reception he met with was cool and unfeeling; the nobleman turned his back upon the old soldier and left him to find his way to the street through a suite of beautifully furnished rooms. He passed them, lost in thought, until he saw a valuable collection of cut glass on a damask-covered sideboard, ready for a banquet. Turning to his companion, a faithful English mastiff, he said, absent-mindedly: "Here, my poor old friend, indulge yourselves, and yet how are we treated!"

The dog looked at his master's face, and gave tokens that he understood. "Here, my poor old friend, indulge yourselves, and yet how are we treated!"

"Why, in just one year the cover time to get married."—Mack's National Monthly.

Mrs. Farmer, bring your orders to The Times for butter wrappers. We do this work quickly and use a specially prepared ink.

Smoke.
Don't imagine next time you see in weather promising storm that a "heavy" stratum of air is forcing the smoke of your chimney to the ground. Instead the condition is the opposite and the atmosphere is too light to allow the smoke to rise. To prove this fact in this vacation season fill your mouth full of tobacco smoke and dive in 20 feet of water, releasing the smoke. The smoke appears from the water almost instantly. You may say it comes up in air bubbles, but this does no more than to prove the theory. Your chimney smoke won't rise, because there isn't buoyancy enough in the air stratum to raise it.

Earliest Spectacles.
The ancient Guild of Spectacle Makers, which is increased at a recent London County Council report, is numerically one of the strongest of the city companies. Its charter dates from the year 1629 and, though the exact date of its origin is lost, there is ample evidence that the calling of spectacle maker was extensively followed at a very early date. An old book of 1663 mentions the spectacle makers among other trades, and the biography of Carlo Zeno, an illustrious Venetian, who died in 1418, mentions that even at the age of eighty-four he needed no artificial aids to his sight. So presumably spectacles were common in Italy some five centuries ago.

GREAT SHOW OPENED

Third National Apple Show Under Way at Spokane.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 14.—Unique in plan, broad in purpose and education, is in result the Third National Apple Show, which was formally opened at 10 o'clock this morning. Practically every commercial orchard, district in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and the province of British Columbia, is represented in the numerous competitions for prizes and premiums of $20,000, and in addition there are displays from California and other states.

A message from President Taft, extending greetings to the growers represented and the management of the show, was the signal to "open the gates," and immediately after its arrival, which was heralded by the blowing of factory and locomotive whistles and the ringing of bells in all parts of the city, the first "Live Wire" convention in the northwest was called to order. More than 125 commercial organizations were represented by one or more delegates. E. F. Carter Van Dine presided.

The delegates were the first to view the displays, composed of 30 cars of apples, including 19 straight cars, entered in competition in their classes and eligible in the sweepstakes contest for the chief prize of $1,000 and the world's championship. There are 38 district displays, representing Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, California and British Columbia, more than 300 entries in the box contests and about 3,000 entries on plates. It is estimated there are fully 2,000,000 apples on exhibition.

Ben H. Rice, secretary and manager of the show, announced that a special display will be given, according to the plan of 40 growers, trustees of the apple show and five employees will leave the morning of November 21 for Chicago, Oregon and the management of the show, more than 125 commercial organizations were represented by one or more delegates. The voters who expect much legislation at the next, the eleventh session of the Idaho legislature, will probably receive a greater surprise than the recent election. With a Democratic governor out for only platform measures and a Republican legislature out for a diversity of opposite measures there is little chance of the voters getting a run for their money. The total Republican combined vote could not pass a bill over the Democratic governor's veto.

The city council should declare open season on the automobile searcher of this city and allow pedestrians to take snap shots at the flying game. It would only be just in view of the fact that the lives of women and children are a daily menace by the terrific speed of just a few thoughtless drivers of cars in this city. For some time the speed ordinance was observed with common sense by all the motorists of the city, but in the past few weeks just four or five individuals have been going up and down the streets and rounding corners at the rate of twenty-five to thirty miles an hour, regardless of the safety or the rights of others. Regret on the part of the law violators after some accident will not do any particular good to the victim of their criminal recklessness. The automobile club of the city should act in conjunction with the city authorities to make it hot for anyone endangering lives of others. The standing of the bulk of the club members will be decided in the minds of many by the action of the obnoxious few.

The efforts made by the Jarbidge road committee is meeting with fair success in the way of raising funds for improving the road from this city to the big camp. Every business man in the city should contribute to the fund and help to keep the trade in this city. Some of the business men have refused to consider the matter because of the claims of poor management of the last fund for the road, but conviction in view of the fact that reputable business men are back of the move, men whose integrity cannot be questioned, neither can their business judgment, should assure each donor that the money will be wisely spent. Right at present with new strikes being reported in the district; with rich gold bearing veins being uncovered in the older claims, it looks as though the new camp would be worth every cent put into it by the Twin Falls business men. In the increased trade which will be sure to come to this city if the proposed road is financed before the snow and cold weather sets in. If you believe in keeping this trade in Twin Falls, don't kick and growl when the committee approaches but give to your pile's extent and be thankful that you have the Jarbidge trade to keep money in circulation.

A NEEDED PUBLICITY.

During the months of November and December this city and tract will receive a new form of advertising and should next year reap a harvest of investors and settlers from the venture. Heretofore boosting circulars and booklets have been sent out all over the country containing statements each containing the elements of truth, but open to doubt because of the usual show-me attitude of the ordinary mind. With each verified statement would creep in a perfectly logical skepticism, because no man outside of the actual residents could grasp the wonderful growth and wonderful opportunities of this tract. For that reason literature containing much valuable information was consigned to the fire by the eastern skeptic together with unreliable information from other sources. As a result this section was put in the class with lots of exploded wonders. As the Council Bluffs show this month Twin Falls adopted a new form of advertising, that of showing actual results of irrigation on this tract in a form that could appeal to most incredulous farmers viewing it. This form of advertising brings other advertising from the daily papers of the cities in which the shows are held, brings the matter before the eyes of many whom otherwise could not be reached. A repetition of the same kind of advertising will be made at Chicago in December, where a new set of people will have an opportunity to disconnect real facts about Twin Falls country from the usual hot air talks of western city boomers. The expenditure of some fifteen hundred dollars in this manner will probably net the donors of the money a small immediate and direct return, but the results indirectly will enrich every rancher on the tract and every business man in this city in the inpouring of settlers and investors next spring, convinced by the verity of the Twin Falls country possibilities.

THE COMMON MAN'S STAKE IN RAILWAY RATES.

While the election results held the center of the stage many have forgotten something else which may touch us all even more vitally than the success of this or that candidate. That the consumer's pocket will feel the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission on higher freight rates is the one point on which both sides agree. If we were to believe both sides, however, we should have to think that we are facing blue ruin in any event. For the railroad magnates tell us that if they lose, business will suffer, and the shippers say that if they lose, prices will rise. So whoever wins, we lose. That appears to be the essence of it, boiled down from all the conflicting testimony filling the columns of the newspapers. The companies' witnesses tell us that if American railroads are to prosper they must strengthen their credit by increasing their freight rates; and unless they prosper, every industry in the country will suffer. On the other hand, the shippers assert that rates advances such as the railroads contemplate would in effect add an annual tax of $400,000,000 to the already heavy burdens of the ultimate consumer.

As the railroad magnates see it, the main factors making necessary the proposed advances are: higher wages to employees; increased cost of maintenance and operation; public demand for increased efficiency and expansion of transportation facilities; and need of maintaining credit with foreign investors. In reply to these pleas the shippers say that from present rates the railroads are receiving a generous return on their actual investment, and that where low rates of earnings have been shown, they are due more to overcapitalization than to low freight charges. Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, the star witness for the shippers, even goes so far as to say that he sees more reason for a reduction than for an advance. Another witness, E. J. Mann, manager of the traffic bureau of the Omaha Commercial club, declares it to be his honest opinion that "the proposed increases in freight rates will not increase the revenue of the roads, but will decrease their revenue by its effect on business in a stoppage of the movement of goods." And H. C. Wallace, of the Country Life Commission, gives figures to show that the railroads under present conditions get a better return on their investment than the farmer. Yet the chief burden of the proposed increases, he says, will fall on the farmer.

While the hearings were in progress the Bureau of Railway News and Statistics (C.R.R.) issued a leaflet showing the earnings of the railroads of the United States during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1916. From this leaflet we learn that the gross earnings for the year amount to $2,779,245,868.

Further: "Compared with the previous banner year, 1907, the earnings show an increase of $190,141,290, and the expenses, an increase of $92,009,935, leaving $97,531,337 increase in net income from operation to take care of an increase of $23,321,000 in taxes and the interest on at least $2,000,000,000 new capital invested in the railways since 1907."—Literary Digest.

HAS UNIQUE EXPERIENCE.

Rock Creek Ranchers Have Fun With Tenderfoot.

Rock Creek, Idaho, Nov. 15, 1916. Mr. Edward Wiley and son Harold were Twin Falls visitors Friday. Supt. Thomas R. Beason of Tecoma, Nov. 15, here looking after the interests of his company. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wixom have returned home after spending two months in Salt Lake City. Robert Whitelock spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents at the ranch. A. J. Tolman passed through Saturday with a band of sheep enroute to his ranch. A. McDermid and G. W. Osborne were here Saturday looking after the work on their ditch.

H. P. Larsen and Nephri Larsen were in Kimberly attending bank meeting yesterday. Frank Dean returned Sunday from Dallas, Texas. He was accompanied by his son, R. J. Dean, who is convalescent, having had a serious spell of typhoid fever.

Mrs. A. P. Murray is quite sick at this writing. Lars P. Larsen drove in a nice bunch of range horses which will be for sale soon.

Mrs. J. A. Walker and Mrs. Henry Hansen, visited at the Johnson home last Friday.

We have received news that the Petersons will set sail for America on November 17th.

B. Pratt and family have moved into Kimberly for the winter.

The Atkins Bros. are threshing for J. B. Rice, today.

Frank Workman has assumed charge as foreman of the Shoe Sole outfit.

Arthur M. Keas has gone to Wyoming.

Mr. Perkins will give a free entertainment at the school house Wednesday evening.

Sing practice will be at the Johnson home next Saturday night. All the young people are invited to attend.

Mrs. D. P. Albee will entertain the young people at her home next Friday evening.

A young man from Ogden came out to visit at the Shoe Sole ranch some time ago. He repeatedly expressed a desire to ride a broncho. The cowboys informed him that riding a calf was preliminary to riding the broncho and when he had mastered the art of riding a yearling calf, he was then prepared to mount the much talked of broncho. After making three unsuccessful attempts to ride around the corral, he gave it up as a bad job and returned to the home satisfied to be a "counter hopper" and no desire whatever to follow "Till you wait show."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Webb and baby came down from Rockland last Sunday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Brose.

Like insect flying.
So far nearly all airplanes fly almost like insects. They make 200 beats of its tiny wings a second. The propeller performs one-third as many revolutions, but the airplane and the frigate bird and the buzzard make at most only three or four beats a second. But airplanes and frigate can sustain themselves two or three days without landing between dates. Let's hear of prizes for longer and longer flights on the least gasoline. When the thing gets down to brass tacks it may show that the aeroplane only needs to put on strong power in going up to its aerial. After that it may soar away and use its gasoline only to meet certain unusual conditions in the upper or lower air.

Our Silent Oyster Salesman

This is the cleanly white and blue porcelain Sealshipt case from which we sell SEALSHIPT OYSTERS at our store. No ice or water ever touches the oysters.

It is the final step in the Sealshipt System which makes it possible for us to furnish our customers with oysters which taste exactly the same here as when eaten at the shore. They are firm, tempting, delicious morsels of sea food.

Sealshipt Oysters

Have the Tang of the Sea

You will be surprised when you see Sealshipt Oysters. More surprised—and delighted—when you taste them.

In buying Sealshipt Oysters, remember that there is no "liquor"—nothing but solid meat. The "liquor" is what spoils common oysters. It is melted, rancid, rife.

If you ordinarily buy oysters by the quart, get only a pint of Sealshipt.

Come into our store and see our silent salesman. While here, ask for a copy of our book "Sealshipt Oyster Diabla." It gives many shore receipts.

FIRES THAT ARE SLEEPING
Range of Eight Great Volcanoes Near Lake Albert Edward in Central Africa.
It is not very generally known that right in the heart of Africa at the southern end of Lake Albert Edward is a great range of volcanoes. They are eight in number, and though it is true that, until recently, they carry no permanent snow, the highest peak is over fourteen thousand feet in height. These volcanoes are particularly interesting on account of their comparative newness. Running through the middle of Africa there is a trench many hundred miles long, in which lie the great lakes Albert Edward, Kivu and Tanganyika.
Not very many thousands of years ago, the volcanoes, generally called the "Furnaces," were active, and of this trench and made a dam across it, with the result that some of the water, which formerly flowed into Lake Albert Edward and so into the Nile, was cut off and a lake was formed, which is the dam. As times went on the waters of the lake which is now called Kivu rose higher and higher, until, not being able to flow over the barrier of the volcanoes, they formed the Russian river, which runs the other way into Tanganyika, about 100 miles distant. Of the eight volcanoes only two show signs of activity at the present time. In the form of thin wisps of steam which occasionally come out from the sides of lava, with white black steam curling through its midst, showed where a formidable eruption had taken place only two or three years before our visit. There are hot springs scattered here and there, and we felt slight shocks of earthquakes once or twice, so it is not safe to say that the Mufumbo volcanoes are extinct—Wide World Magazine.

NATURE'S WEATHER PROPHETS
Signs of Flowers and Animals That Were Followed Closely by Our Grandparents.
Men have made some very wonderful instruments which foretell what the weather will be, but old Mother Nature has given us messengers which tell about the weather if we watch the signs which they show. The little daisies were watched by our grandparents, who believed that the spring had not come until the daisies were blooming on a foot of ground. The chickweeds' starry flowers tell when heavy winds or rains are coming by closing their tiny blossoms. The dandelions have the same habit. Likely the golden flowers, to be sure, to uncover their curly heads unless they can look up to the sun. If you watch dandelions you will see that they do not open on the mornings of the days when rain falls.
Margarids are such particular little blossoms that they will not even show a ray of their splendor if a storm is approaching or thunder is heard in the distance. The morning glories may wake early to tell the gardener, but when they suddenly wrap their silky scarfs about their faces you may be sure that rain is in the air. Some trees, such as the locust, close their leaves when a storm is coming. If you have a garden you can tell what kind of weather is near to warn you of changes in the weather.

Something About Watches

Watches are made in many different grades, and some are more delicate than others. In selecting a watch one should use judgment and choose one that is most suitable for his occupation. For instance, a man who does heavy, rough work, cannot get as good results from a very fine and delicate watch as a man can who does office work or something of that kind. I would be glad to help you to select a watch that would give you the best satisfaction. I aim to carry a good selection of the best makes, such as the Howard, Hamilton, South Bend. I also have the Elgin, Waltham, Hampden, Etc.

I have a fine selection of small size ladies' gold watches. Call and get my price on a good watch, whether you buy or not.

TO USE PANORAMIC VIEW.

Exposition People Send Representative To Twin Falls.

T. R. Huddleson of San Francisco, who is representing the publicity department of the San Francisco Panams. Company, spent Wednesday in Twin Falls in connection with his trip.

The "unfavorable" weather conditions made it necessary that he abandon his attempts to get pictures at this time. He will return in March. He is in the employ of the company that is aiding in the publicity campaign of the Panama exposition people on the coast.

Western people, and especially San Francisco people, are using every means to get the advantages of the Western country before the people and are using money for advertising in an unsold way. They have engaged the Panamas company of which Mr. Huddleson is a representative, to travel over the favored spots of the west and photograph the points of interest. The exposition people have a "rig" contract with this panoramic concern, which is to help in the publicity campaign.

It is the intention of the promoters of the exposition to send ten cars of publicity matter to the middle west and eastern states. The pictures that this panoramic concern takes will be sent over this same territory as an adjunct to the literature taken along.

While here on Tuesday the weather was not favorable for the purpose of getting views and as a result it was necessary for Mr. Huddleson to leave without getting the views that he desired to get of the South Side tract and Twin Falls. He came here from the North Side, where he succeeded in getting some exceptionally good views.

It is his intention to return to this city in March to get the views that he wants for the panoramic pictures.

Without a doubt the pictures will be a big boost for the west and for all the towns and tracts that are fortunate enough to have a place on the view. The pictures and advertising campaign will be started in the sections that can be depended upon to recruit the new settlers to this country.
