THE DICKENS CENTENNIAL
One hundred years ago on February the seventh there was born of obscure parents in the city of London a child who, as years rolled on, was destined to take his place in the march of progress as one of the greatest reformers of his age.

It is as a writer that Charles Dickens is best known, but it is as a reformer in the truest and best sense of the word that his memory will be revered, probably as long as the English language endures.

From the day of his advent into the world, Dickens appears to have been one who was set apart in the world's work and to whom the minutest details of existence did not apply.

It is as a writer that Charles Dickens is best known, but it is as a reformer in the truest and best sense of the word that his memory will be revered, probably as long as the English language endures.

of the other laws along similar lines put up to him.

House bill 35 is now in law and already steps are being taken looking to the securing of such aid as will enable the state board of equalization to handle the matter of the state's revenue in a manner which will be satisfactory to the taxpayer.

House bill 35 contains much of genuine good and by the time it has been thoroughly tried out there is no doubt but that the people will be in a better position to judge of just what they want than they are now.

The proposition to collect all taxes in excess of $20 in two annual installments, instead of all at once, is a good one.

But the big winning is in the matter of the tax levy and the laying of the "full cash value" assessments for all the property.

The passage of the law which provided for a victory for the people of Idaho over their representatives, over the persistent opposition of one man to force his theories down the throat of the people against all sense or reason, and utterly irrespective of whether they wanted them or not.

SCHOOLS A GOOD INVESTMENT.

Within the past week the towns of Buhl and Hollister have voted bonds for school buildings, Buhl in the sum of $60,000 and Hollister $30,000.

In each case there was only a small dissenting voice, and the towns in question are to be commended and congratulated upon the enterprising and progressive spirit shown.

ROAD BUILDING EXTRAORDINARY.
Thirty miles of good highway in a single day is the record set for the farmers of the county with handsy along the road between Buhl and Hansen.

HORSE SHOW AND SALE

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1912.
C. A. McMASTER, of the firm of Smith & McFadden, returned Saturday, February 27, from Iowa, where he purchased for the firm 40 head of imported stallions and high-grade brood mares. The horses arrived by express Thursday and are now at the barn, and on Saturday, February 10, at 10 o'clock, we expect to show on parade in Twin Falls 40 head of stallions and mares, averaging 1800 lbs. We want every lover of a horse and every one interested in the business up to the great horse market in this, the greatest horse-breeding country in the world for the growing and maturing of the draft horse, to be sure and see this horse show. If you miss it, you will miss the best show—ever given in Twin Falls. Parade promptly at 12 o'clock, and we guarantee to show the best string of horses ever shown in Idaho without any exception, as the most of these stallions are the choice of the 1911 importation of J. O. Sigmaster & Sons, of Keota, Iowa, one of the oldest and best importers of the draft horse in the United States.

Immediately after the parade we will hold another of our regular sales. In this sale we will have our Iowa mares, most of all of them in foal to stallions weighing a ton, and the mares weigh from 1600 to 1800 lbs. Our regular sale is held on February and March are as follows: February 10 and 24, March 9 and 23. Our coming sales will be conducted under the same rules as our sales of the past. In the five sales of the fall and winter we have never for once put a price on a single horse. All have sold without any bidding. An bidder and our sales can count on it that he is bidding against a legitimate bidder.

A word in regard to the selling of our imported stallions. We expect to stay in the horse business, and have decided to add to our regular farm horse trade the buying and selling of the imported and improved draft stallions and any one wanting anything in the stallion line will be glad to see us before buying elsewhere. We have the largest stock of the very best horses available, and are going to show to horse fanciers that we have got the goods to show for the horse business in Idaho.

Every five sections of improved land on the Twin Falls tract should have one of these horses, or some good cow and registered cow.

And the sooner these horses got located on this tract the sooner the mortgages will disappear. Farmers, a few of you in each locality, get together and come in and do yourselves and your communities a better job than one of those great horses. We will sell you as good a horse as money will buy from $1200 to $16,000; home-bred from $400 to $1000 and at $2000 and much better than a great many
