

Arbor Day is Coming, Let Us Make It Mean Something on the Tract

ENTIRE TRACT TO BE BOOSTED IN THE FUTURE

FILER MAN PLEADS FOR GREATER UNANIMITY OF INTERESTS OF SECTION.

J. W. Tanner, in Address at Commercial Club Says Entire County Should Work as Unit for Betterment of General Conditions.

Declaring that Filer residents were well satisfied to work for the good of the Twin Falls tract as a whole and that the theory of the greatest good for the greatest number should be the religion of every inhabitant of this tract, J. W. Tanner, president of the Filer Journal, delivered a splendid address at the meeting of the members of the Commercial club on Wednesday night, March 27, at the town of Filer, the luncheon being served especially to that prosperous community.

Mr. Tanner went into details regarding the fertility of the land about Filer and declared that while Twin Falls had the people Filer had the land and Twin Falls people had to do it. He referred to the necessity of concerted action if this country were to ever have a county fair and said that the Twin Falls people had the land in the vicinity of Filer which was well suited to the purpose.

Major Reed spoke.

Major Fred R. Reed followed Mr. Tanner and made a number of pertinent remarks upon the city of Filer, president of the Twin Falls tract. Mr. Reed told in forceful terms of the value of repeating unfounded rumors concerning the city of Filer, and then confidence in the minds of the eastern investors, and urged the citizens to eternally remember that confidence in the city of Filer was the only thing which could pull the country through.

Remember that we all have our feet planted upon the same ground. Remember that a full acre of confidence must be in the city of Filer, and that we must flow this way and bear in mind that without this support we will be in a bad way. It will be many years before the city of Filer will be able to stand on its own feet, and we must all stand on our own feet. It is our duty to lend every hand to make the country possible in the first place and have since stood by it every year and lent their brains and hands to making a better city of Filer. Let us all get together and help this country. By doing this we are helping the men back of it and we are helping the men back of it.

PACKERS NOT QUILITY.

Chicago, March 28.—Chicago packers called a meeting at the city hall with the government officials to discuss the United States District Judge Carleton's court-bankruptcy suit of violating the Sherman anti-trust law.

The possibility of a full dredging in Twin Falls County will be the main item discussed at next week's Wednesday luncheon at the Twin Falls Commercial club.

Miss Emma Handrick entertained Miss Korman at the country home of her parents on the mile east of the city.

SUICIDES AT CAPITAL

Supposed Former Twin Falls Man Takes Own Life in State House Grounds.

Inquiry has failed to throw any light on the recent Twin Falls suicide, of a man who took his own life in the state capitol grounds at Boise some time early Tuesday morning. Dependence over business matters is given as the cause for self-destruction.

It is stated in a Boise dispatch that until two months ago Villanor was connected with the Continental Trust Co. in Twin Falls. He has recently been assisting in the office of King-Clay in Boise. Former times it is believed that the dead man was a resident of Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Toledo, Ohio, but does not seem to be known in Twin Falls.

BRUNEAU BOOSTED AGAIN

Kuhn-Leeb Money Now Said to Backing Project Following Engineer's Report.

The Brunneau-Twin Falls project, finished a few months ago, is to become a reality, for information that has reached Boise, and which is being given to the public in detail, indicates that the project is being pushed forward by the people who are now backing and in control of the project, have made definite plans following the report of the engineer, and the survivors, to start work early this year. It is only the fear that the placing upon the market so large a block of stock as 200,000 acres of land might flood that prevented them from starting work sooner.

The estimated cost of the project is $2,000,000. The money is now ready for use, and unless some unforeseen delay prevents operations, the Brunneau lands will probably be put on the market as early as next week. The big dam that is to be constructed across the Snake river near American Falls will back water over the townsite of Brunneau and surrounding lands as far back as 50 miles, forming a great inland lake in the course of the Snake river—Capital News.

GOOD ROAD BEING BUILT TODAY

JUDGE CHAMBERLAIN AND LARGE FORCE OF WORKERS ARE CONSTRUCTING HANSEN-BOHL HIGHWAY BETWEEN SUN-UP AND SUNSET.

COMPLETED ROAD WILL BE GREAT ASSET TO THE TRACT

Quick Access Will Be Afforded to the Markets and Shipping Points—Farmers Have Been Eager for the Improvement—Only One Section Balked—Receipts and Smoker to Be Given at Commercial Club Tonight.

"They are doing it today." By this evening the Hansén-Bohl highway will be completed, and this tract will be paved by the best county roadways in the state. Several hundred men, including the county road crew, are working along the way and residents of the town through which the road passes, got out early this morning and wielded pick and shovel, and were kept busy all day, working on the road. The road will be a great asset to the tract, and will be a great asset to the county.

Dimmer and Reception.

One of the big features of today's dinner was the dimmer for farmers' wives—served no pains in the preparation of a big hot chicken and potato dinner.

Another feature of the day will be the reception and smoker in the Commercial club tonight. This evening will be a pleasant one and will be a fitting close to one of the most important days in the history of the tract.

Officials Fail to Appear.

A disappointing feature of the day has been the failure of state officials and office-workers to arrive and do a good day's work on the road. A number of prominent state officials and office-workers were invited by Secretary M. J. Bradley to be present and put their day's work into the road. At the last moment, however, word was received from several of them that they were unable to get away for them to be here. There is a possibility that a few of these men have not yet arrived in their "regrets" and will be here in the afternoon. They have time to at least work up a sweat.

That a good idea may be gained of how the road appears "before and after" the work, the following are the names of the men who have been invited to be present and put their day's work into the road. At the last moment, however, word was received from several of them that they were unable to get away for them to be here. There is a possibility that a few of these men have not yet arrived in their "regrets" and will be here in the afternoon. They have time to at least work up a sweat.

BORAH SAYS HE IS FOR ROOSEVELT

JUDGE ALBIE'S WITHDRAWAL AS A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR COMPLEXES SITUATION—BRADY SAYS HE IS NOT IN THE RACE—DEMOCRATS ARE FACING TANGLES.

(Special to The News.)

Idaho, March 28.—Three political incidents of the past week overtook all others and go far in the direction of clearing the atmosphere in the state. There are the possible retirement of Judge James W. Albie from all consideration as a possibility for governor; the announcement of the candidacy of John T. Morrison for governor; and the announcement of James H. Brady that he would under no circumstances consider a nomination for congress.

Withdrawal Disappointing.

It must be admitted that Judge Albie's retirement from the race was a disappointment to many. His prominent fitness for the office was conceded. That was a consideration that carried great weight. In addition to this his strength with the people of the state was conceded.

There was still another consideration that seemed to point to Judge Albie as the logical candidate. "He comes from the north." As it was pointed out in these dispatches more than once above was a disposition in all parts of the state this year to select the gubernatorial candidate from north Idaho.

COURT GRINDS STEADILY

Large Number of Cases Disposed of and Sessions Will Adjourn Until May Term.

One of the heaviest dockets in the history of the district court closed yesterday. Night sessions have been held regularly for the past six weeks. In order that the docket might be cleared by the close of this month, the full jury have been present at the court house—more than 100 times. While one jury would be deliberating on a case the other would begin the hearing of evidence on another. Court sessions will be adjourned until May term, which opens the first of that month. Judge Blocker goes to Albion, and the court will be in court at least at that place.

Justice Court.

A hearing will likely be given to the hearing of the case of the state of Idaho vs. John T. Morrison, on the charge of receiving stolen goods. The case was set for the 30th of this month. The hearing will be held at the court house. The case is a very important one and will be a great asset to the tract.

HEAVY HAY SHIPMENTS

Carloads of Alfalfa Going East and Farmers Are Selling at a Good Price.

With the clearing of the weather and the settling of the roads, large quantities of hay are being hauled to and shipped from the various stations on the Idaho Pacific. The hay is being shipped in carloads and is selling at a good price. The hay is a great asset to the tract and will be a great asset to the county.

MASONS HONOR THEIR DEAD

Body of the late A. J. Green, Accorded Care by Brother Lodge men at Beaver City.

With the arrival at Beaver City, Nebraska, the body of the late Amos J. Green, who died in Twin Falls March 3, was given a Masonic interment. A lodge of sorrow was opened in the Masonic hall of that city, and the funeral services were held in the First Presbyterian church, following in a portion of the obituary and at the funeral services by the Rev. Mr. Presley, as recorded in the Beaver City Times- Tribune.

"Squire," as he was familiarly called, was always a friend in need, performing his acts of kindness, as a friend, and his duties, as a citizen, in a most cheerful manner, especially when sickness occurred, whether with friend or foe. He was very kind and sympathetic with his fellowmen. His sympathy and kindness were most frequently shown in a way to attract the least attention to the giver, and to those on whom it was bestowed. He was a man of strong character and sterling integrity, giving every sub-

JUST FULL THOUGHT AND THEN TAKING A STAND FOR WHAT HE BELIEVED TO BE RIGHT AND JUST.

No one stood better or had more of the respect of the people of Beaver City during his residence here than "Squire" Green. His love, a deep interest in public affairs, was a great reader and student, and did all he could for the advancement of education, especially in local school affairs, and was a member of the school board during a large portion of his residence here. His loss as a citizen, friend and neighbor was greatly regretted, when he decided to remove from Beaver City.

Besides his many duties in connection with his office Mr. MacWatters is at present in demand as an after-dinner speaker.

A letter has been received from O. G. Zuck of Kimberly saying that the Commercial club of that place accept the invitation of the Twin Falls club as guests at a Wednesday noon dinner, and will come any day that the roads will permit the members of the Twin Falls Automobile club bringing them to this city, as such arrangements have been made.

WANT COUNTY DIVIDED

East Side Residents of Oneida Want County Seat of Their Own.

The question of dividing Oneida county is being seriously discussed by the residents of that county. At a recent meeting at Preston an organization was effected by the taxpayers of the east half of the county who are desirous of self-government. It is estimated that the east side has over 14,000,000 valuation, and that the cost to the taxpayers is in excess of the cost to operate a county.

Another point strongly urged by the east side residents is that in order to visit the county seat it is necessary to travel south into Utah and then back into Idaho to reach Malad City. It is estimated that the residents of the west half of the county will not oppose the county division, realizing the injustice at present imposed on the east side in transacting county business.

EARLY DAYS OF STEAM NAVIGATION. (March Scribner.)

The record of steam navigation dates, certainly, as far back as the year 1642. This and more or less traditional accounts of steamboats as early as 1642. Just 100 years before Fulton's success, a French physician by the name of Papin navigating the River Fulda, in Hanover, Prussia, with a boat employing steam-driven paddle-wheels. His creation, however, was thought to be enormous and dangerous to other craft and met an early summary fate, being torn to pieces by a mob of boatmen, and Dr. Papin did not venture to build another.

Shortly after the American Revolution a craze to navigate by steam possessed inventors both in this country and abroad. There existed then an abiding faith in modes and customs that had stood centuries of usage, and this was only strengthened and confirmed by each failure or apparent failure of the inventive pioneers of the new era. Yet among the investigators of the uses of steam as a motive power continued both persistent and widespread; and in many cases, without the knowledge of others working upon the same thing, they were simultaneously experimenting upon the lakes and rivers from New England to Georgia, testing their many crude mechanisms which evoked nothing save scorn and ridicule or pity from the beholders.

Several American inventors, seeking a more favorable field for their endeavors, soon found their way to Europe. Rumey had moved his experiments in 1789 from the Potomac to English waters. It was his proposal to build a vessel that would reach America in 16 days without sails, and his achievement predicted that "this wonder, when executed, would introduce into commerce as great a change as the discovery of the Cape of Good Hope." Their expectations were then realized, but, none the less, wonders were accomplished by steam engines even in that day and generation. In the year 1804 Oliver Evans of Delaware ran his Erector Amphipole through the streets of Philadelphia from about the site of the present public buildings to the Schuylkill river, with power generated entirely by fire and water.

Mr. West had a well-trained force with him and the carrying was done in much less time than was anticipated. Master Oliver West with his little sheep did effective work in leading the sheep to the desired spot. The train of 23 cars was a mixture of old and new. Along with the sheep train were eight cars of alfalfa meal and hay, which will be fed in the sheep before marketing. Many pounds of grain also will be fed. Feeding and shearing will be done at the Milwaukee yards at Kirkham, Illinois. Sheep Inspector McMurray states that Mr. West had the best band of sheep in his territory.

KIMBERLY
Kimberly, March 20—A. McDermid was in Twin Falls Monday on business.
O. F. Brown has returned from Portland, where he shipped three cars of fat hogs. Mr. Brown had one hog of his own raising that took first prize at the Pacific Northwestern Live Stock Show held at Portland. In addition to the prize Mr. Brown received 15 cents per pound for the hog, which was a pure bred Poland China that had been introduced on wheat and carrots and showed against those that had been fattened on corn and all other kinds of feeding. One of his hogs was crippled in shipping, and had it not been for this he would probably have taken first prize on a hog that he had intended to show. This speaks well for the Twin Falls tract and shows what may be done in this line as well as here the wheat and also the hogs.
The Republican primary will be held Saturday in this precinct at the Kimberley store. Mr. H. H. Hickey is having charge and being the committeeman from this precinct. This will give the people a chance to throw their support into the hands of the man they think is best to be followed by the other parties. The days of conventions and boss rule have passed and the people are demanding first prize on all matters of voting.

The train set fire to the dry grass north of the depot Sunday and damaged some fruit trees.

ROGERSON
Rogerson, March 21—Frank Purdy was in Twin Falls Monday on business and saw the steam engine on various ranches which he has rented. The plow cut about eight feet and Mr. Purdy thinks he can plow about fifteen acres a day easily. Mr. Purdy has also purchased a threshor and will be prepared to thresh the grain at and tributary to Rogerson this year.
J. T. Willis and son, Bryant Willis, have moved a part of their stock and farm implements to Shoshone, Idaho and will farm the ranches taken up in the basin.
The work of excavating for the basement of the Rogerson Forwarding company's warehouse is being rapidly completed and the building will be large and roomy, 70 by 100 feet. This will fill a long felt want in this place and will enable the people tributary to this place to get their supplies and store their wool, grain, etc. here in a dry place, for marketing. Several thousand pounds of wool was damaged by rains last year, an amount not being covered up, and the rains carried the wool to dampen and mold.
James Hancock and Mr. Jenkins of Twin Falls were in Rogerson on business a couple of days last week.

The work of excavating for the basement of the Rogerson Farming company's warehouse is being rapidly completed and the building will be large and roomy, 70 by 100 feet. This will fill a long felt want in this place and will enable the people tributary to this point to get their supplies and store their wool, grain, etc. here, in a dry place, for marketing. Several thousand pounds of wool was damaged by rains last year, on account of not being covered up, and the rains caused the wool to dampen and rot.

USURPING DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS.

Heretofore the Democratic party could always be depended upon for a split in the ranks at some point or other, while the Republican stood shoulder to shoulder in the march to victory. This time the Republican party appears to have taken the job out of the Democrats' hands, and the eventual result is difficult to foresee.

However, it must be remembered that the next election is but a primary, and when the smoke clears away and the real fight begins the Republican voters will be found in solid phalanx for the winner, be he who he may.

The state of Idaho is perhaps as widely split as any in the Union when it comes to a choice for presidential nominee. From all the information obtainable it is any man's race. Roosevelt sentiment is strong in many places, while the Taft feeling runs high in as many more. Among the leaders the same general conditions obtain, and the most that can be said is that the Legislature convention will happily settle the question as far as Idaho is concerned. Senator Borah has publicly announced himself for Roosevelt. Not, perhaps, in the strongest terms in the world, but in a manner sufficiently plain to be understood. But should Taft receive the nomination no better Taft worker in the country will be found than William Edgar Borah. Senator Borah takes to himself the God-given right to have and express a preference in politics as in everything else. All points considered, it took a good deal of courage on his part to bring out a public announcement just at this time.

The attitude of the voters at the New York state primaries but further complicates the situation. Taft is the overwhelming choice, and heretofore the victory has been regarded as turning absolutely on the action of the state of New York. Yet Taft is not likely to carry the solid South, and the solid South must have if the element of question is to be entirely removed when it comes to the vote in Chicago. One bright spot remains on the horizon of hope in Idaho. The question of Taft or Roosevelt will be decisively settled one way or the other some time before the date set for the holding of the Republican state convention at Lewiston, and, once settled, the Republicans may be depended upon to do their duty towards the man chosen to head the ticket.

THE ROAD BUILDERS.

Old Mother Earth wears a more than usually kindly smile on this day of the building of the model road from Bull to Hansen, and her sons have not been found wanting.

The work is a necessary one and a good one, and the measure of support given the movement speaks volumes for the character of citizenship of the Twin Falls tract. The giving up of a full day of time in the midst of a busy season is no small matter, and in addition to this money was cheerfully subscribed by those unable to help in person, and in other ways the people of the tract came nobly to the rescue.

In the general spirit the work of the few men responsible for the movement in the first place should not be lost sight of, and in this connection none is entitled to more credit than Judge F. E. Chamberlain. Possessed of a happy disposition and unlimited patience, it is a question if a better man could have been secured for the work in hand. More than a day of time was necessary in this case, and days and weeks were cheerfully given in the great undertaking which has made possible every great undertaking in the world today.

There are others on the tract to whom credit is due and to whom credit is given in full measure. When all is said and done this whole section deserves the very highest credit, and when the spring and summer crop of tourists, settlers and travelers generally begins to come in this whole section will get it and it will be worth while.

THE STRIKE IN ENGLAND.

With subscriptions being taken up to provide the necessities of life to the families of the strikers, and the government admittedly powerless to bring about a settlement, the coal strike in England threatens serious embarrassment throughout the land.

Apart altogether from the causes which led up to the present industrial war, it is safe to assume that the policy advocated by the Right Honorable Joseph Chamberlain, had it been in effect today, would have rendered such a conflict well-nigh impossible.

From the day of the famous repeal of the Corn Laws the gradual wane of British prosperity has been in progress. Helped on by the free trade ideas of England's greatest premier, Gladstone, a condition has been engendered which of all the nations of the earth, England is perhaps in the poorest position to withstand any great integral trouble. With hundreds of thousands of fertile acres untouched by the plow for years where formerly crops grew in abundance, with the vaunted yeomanry of England transformed into the hoodlum of the large cities, and with poverty stalking the streets of every large town, it would appear that a change is necessary in England. To maintain in any measure whatever her position among the nations.

A NATION STARVING TO DEATH.

With millions of her people starving to death, and millions more likely to perish before the next harvest, it seems queer that the second stallment of the Chinese loan should be so long delayed in the making. China needs the money if ever money were needed by a nation on earth, and China's credit should be good for the necessary five or six million which will be needed to tide over the affairs of the republic.

Four or five cents is all that is necessary to provide a day's rations for one in China, and for every four or five cents withdrawn from China at this time a human life goes out.

Should any of the Twin Falls tract care to contribute any sum, however small, towards the relief of a famine-stricken race, The News will receive and receipt for such subscription and will forward the same to the Red Cross workers in the field, together with a substantial donation of its own to help swell the total.

HURRAH FOR THIS!

It is understood from an authoritative source that the services of a dog catcher are to be brought into play in Twin Falls in the near future. The city will secure a suitable man and pay him for the work.

Men whose dogs are regarded as among the best friends they have will agree with The News that it is high time some such action was taken. The small army of homeless curs which at present infests the streets of the city is a nuisance, to put it mildly, and the sooner it is abated the better. Leaving aside the annoyance to merchants and pedestrians up and down Main street, from the standpoint of common humanity, it were better that they be kept out of the way.

THE LATEST MEXICAN ROW.

Another president of Mexico as a result of the present revolution? Not at all impossible. In comparing the present conditions with those which obtained in approximately the same stage of the Diaz trouble, a remarkable similarity is noticeable. The fighting has in the same way and the general trend of events was the same. The world had been awakened to the fact that a revolution was in progress when Diaz fled the country and his successor was inducted into office.

The News Forum

Printed without prejudice in the interests of the general public.

Editor Twin Falls News: I am seeking, as district organizer for the Farmers Society of South Idaho, to call the society all through Southern Idaho, and in order that I may reach the farmers of your community I beg leave to ask you to place in your paper the plan in brief, and the good points of this great organization. In the first place, it is a plan for the benefit of the people who came here from Illinois two years ago to make my home; so, beyond my small fee as district organizer, I have only a sincere interest at heart in promoting this work that will appeal to every farmer in this or any other country—namely, that of being able to always market all of the produce I may raise at any time, at the highest market price, consistent with shipping rates.

It is noted that the people of your great tract have experienced great difficulty in disposing of their bountiful crop in particular, notwithstanding the number of and the buyers of farm produce in 110 of the large markets of the United States, thereby guaranteeing the farmer a ready market in handling all shipments, fair inspections, no deductions, highest market price, always freight rates considered, no extra charges, and direct communication with each other, and sell direct to the consumer. You can readily see the great advantages of a system of this kind, and the direct aid from a local union without powerful support, which leaves the farmers in just as good condition (and a better purity) as before the organization was formed.

If you can give any notice to this appeal it will be much appreciated by me now, and I promise you by all your means after this local meeting. This is a decided step in the right direction for the prosperity of Southern Idaho.

A district organizer I will be very glad to come to your city at any time you as a people might name, and thoroughly explain the workings of this F. S. I. All I ask for is a meeting place, a meeting place, and give the meetings the proper advertisement.

Kindly let me hear from you at your convenience, and believe me very sincerely,

A Southern Idaho Booster,

H. B. MORRISON.

THE POLITICAL FIELD.

(Tribune Special Journal)

A survey of the political field indicates that the contest between the Taft and Roosevelt forces. The former seems to have the better of the situation, and the latter a more aggressive disposition. A few articles from telegrams and headlines, the Taft contingent is at present making the greater headway.

In this connection there are many who are to be congratulated for the fact that the new party Bryan and La Follette. They are close to together on political policy and both are in the lead of their own party. La Follette has no more to lose than Bryan, and stands squarely on the record of his

Amusements

AT THE ORPHEUM.

The Melrose Male Quartette, a company of well-matched voices, has won popular applause at the Orpheum this week. The selections rendered are of the latest, and good solo numbers are a feature. This week's motion pictures are of the usual good quality.

AT THE LYRIC.

The four-act drama, "Was She or He?" is being exceptionally well presented at the Lyric theatre this week. The cast being made up of members of the Seattle theatre company, composed of sixteen players, all of ability and pleasing stage artists. Interesting specialties between acts are presented by the cast members.

AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Colonial Concert, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid society, will be given at the church this evening. Some of the best talent in the city will appear on the program. An added charm will be the performance in costume.

He has for Taft, while Bryan is hostile to the entire Democratic leadership, except, possibly, Governor Wilcox, against whom he is only lukewarm.

So this year will be remarkable for its political changes. I may end in the making of new names, both for the party and leaders. The people are slightly unsettled; it won't do to appeal to the past; the future is the only concern.

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE.

A local Protestant clergyman has decided, much to the disappointment of his congregation, to accept a call to another pulpit in an eastern city. A few days ago, one of the ministers and his little son of this neighborhood were talking over the matter.

"So your father is going to work in Blanton, is he?" "Blanton, is he?" "The little boy looked up in surprise. "Oh, no," he said. "Only to preach there."

BORAH FOR ROOSEVELT.

to catch it up, and this has led many to the conclusion that Mr. Morrison as a candidate for governor is to have the active support of Judge Allison. It is true that Judge Allison is ambitious to go to the senate there is nothing more natural than that he should desire to have a representative in the senate. Naturally this gives rise to the two man coalition between the two men.

Mr. Morrison in his announcement stands squarely on the record of his former administration. He urges economy as the best method of relieving the people of their burden of taxation and he contemplates a business method in handling the affairs of the state.

Naturally this announcement of Mr. Morrison gives rise to much speculation regarding the course of those who fought him so bitterly two years ago when he was a candidate before the people. The selections rendered are of the latest, and good solo numbers are a feature. This week's motion pictures are of the usual good quality.

Mr. Morrison's candidacy brings about an interesting situation here in the capital. At the moment taken for granted here that the real fight for the nomination for governor will be between John T. Morrison and John H. Haines.

Both are both well known, both able and both backed by men of high standing. Any one of these two, one long to be remembered, is just now the statement that the fight is to be between these two men.

The interesting situation at home is considered here as the elimination of all three from serious consideration. Many here as elsewhere regret this, especially on account of State Auditor S. D. Taylor, who has many friends in all parts of the state, and who at one time looked up as a most formidable candidate for gubernatorial honors.

So, unless there is a radical change and some unforeseen developments occur, the next primary time, it is safe to say that a severe knock-down-and-drag-out struggle between Haines and Morrison. It is too early to predict the result, but the strength of the two men.

BORAH FOR ROOSEVELT.

In the realm of national politics the most interesting local development of the week was the positive announcement of Senator Borah's plans for the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt.

"I am for Roosevelt," he writes from Lincoln, "and want to see him win." Like everything else in politics, this message is a two-edged sword. It is wonderful, but at the same time it cuts the ground from under those who are trying to make it appear that Roosevelt is a himself-a candidate for the presidency. He is a sorry candidate for any office who cannot support himself.

Admirable Today.

Before this article reaches the eyes of The News readers the Republican here in Ada county will be holding their primaries to select delegates to their county convention.

The primaries will be held on Thursday and the county convention on Friday. It is predicted that Roosevelt will control the county through the influence of Senator Borah. The chances are that he will be elected, and they have to pay a fearful price for his whistle.

President Taft will sweep the state outside of this community; the delegation from Idaho to the Chicago convention will be Taft to a man, and when it is all over Senator Borah and his friends will have the sad consolation of knowing that they have torn their party in the state to tatters to no good purpose whatsoever.

The real and most serious danger, from a party standpoint, is that the feeling engendered will become so bitter that the Republicans may lose control of the next legislature because of the attitude over to his political enemies.

Many good party men are now fearful of just such a catastrophe. They are urging Senator Borah's withdrawal in permitting the use of his name as a candidate for the presidency simply to defeat President Taft when it is known that the use of his name under the circumstances is a cheap political trick.

Brady Not a Candidate.

James H. Brady took himself out of consideration as congressional timber by his own announcement that he would not run for office. It is well understood that Mr. Brady has undertaken a gift of the mountain project at Mountain Home, and it is understood that he will take all his time for the next year or two to the exclusion of all office holding.

This withdrawal of Mr. Brady is understood here to work to the advantage of Addison T. Smith. Just now Mr. Smith was so emphatic in his party for the coming of the national from the southern district. Colonel Haines is still fluttering around like a moth around the candle, but so far as the public here is concerned, he is receiving very little encouragement. He is expected to make a definite announcement one way or the other in a few days.

Henry Times Promised.

In eighteen years of practice as an optician we have never prescribed colored lenses for permanent use. There are few eyes which, if the rays of light are brought to a focus precisely on the retina, need colored lenses. Then why use the unsightly things? God's light is made to use. If you shut it out you make the retina more sensitive to light and the farther have relief by shutting out the light, but an optician will try to get results in a better way. We give the best lenses, good reliable mountings and a "square deal" always.

Week in Society

The past week has been a very quiet one in the social circles of Twin Falls. Only a few parties and the usual club meetings marked the week, socially speaking. The coming week promises to be busier than the past.

Two large parties will be given Monday, April 1st, by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wetton and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Foster. Dinner will entertain. The event of the week following Easter will be the Cotillion which will be given by the Twentieth Century club.

Birthday Stag Dinner.

One of the prettiest little affairs of the week took place Tuesday evening when Mrs. E. J. Ostrander invited several young boys to dinner in honor of the birthday of her son Eugene, the affair being a complete surprise to that young man. The table was extremely pretty with its artistic decorations of greens and white, and the entertainment of the dinner was in harmony with the decorations, the large birthday cake adorned with lighted green candles being of course the main feature. E. J. Ostrander presided at the dinner. Covers were laid for Rex Thomas, Trieman Boy, Emory Houck, Pierre Watscho, William Holton, Lynn Beauchamp, Charles Pfeiffer, Eugene Ostrander and E. J. Ostrander.

A Birthday Party.

A very happy birthday party was that given on Tuesday afternoon by C. E. Lavette for her little son Philip, the occasion being in honor of his fifth birthday. The time was spent in games and amusements that children enjoy. At the close of the afternoon a delicious birthday dinner was served.

A color scheme of yellow and white was used in the adorning of the table in the center of which was a large birthday cake bearing five yellow candles. The favors given were little raffles. The little guests were entertained by Mrs. White, Clara and Louis Hahn, Margaret Wall, Leonard and Maud Ripley, Allan Bedford, Theodore Scott, Howard Harrison.

Entertained for Mrs. White and Mrs. Milson.

Mrs. F. P. Parsons entertained on Thursday, March 22, in honor of Mrs. James White and Milson, who will leave Twin Falls soon—Mrs. White for Burley and Mrs. Milson for Jerome. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. Cards furnished the amusement for the afternoon. An elaborate five-course dinner was served. Those invited were: Madames Hill, E. Wilson, White, J. Milson, J. H. Perrine, J. H. Wise, Caras, W. S. Mallory.

Mrs. W. S. Mallory entertained the W. K. club at her home, 628 Third avenue north, Wednesday, March 27, in honor of Mrs. John H. White, who will leave in a short time to make her home in Burley. CLUBS

Tuesday, at the Twentieth Century club was Idaho day, and the program was one of the best ever given at the club. M. J. Sweely addressed the members on "Idaho and Her Laws," dwelling more particularly on the constitutional property laws of the state. He pointed out that white woman had the right to vote and hold office, and also had equal educational advantages with man, she had no power to stop him from selling, giving away or squandering the community property other than the homestead, and suggested that by concerted effort of the part of the women of Idaho this defect could be remedied. Mr. Sweely also enumerated the advantages of Idaho as a residence in Twin Falls or on the Twin Falls tract, recommending the consolidation of some of the institutions now maintained by the state, and that this may be accomplished. At the conclusion of Mr. Sweely's remarks all the members heartily joined in extending him a vote of thanks for his interesting and highly instructive address.

Mrs. Beckwith, a talented musician who recently arrived in the city, rendered a beautiful piano solo. Miss Margaret Conway recited an original poem entitled "Idaho," which was very clever. Mrs. Buckley sang "Love in the Springtime" in her usual delightful manner and graciously responded to an encore. Miss Lelock read a paper on Idaho, dwelling on the natural resources and the great wealth of the state, which was much enjoyed. Mrs. Regan's mandolin club rendered two very delightful numbers and the afternoon was closed by the presentation of "Idaho." Mrs. W. S. Mallory in charge of the program and arrangements for the afternoon.

The next and last meeting of the club will be Thursday, April 9, at 1 o'clock, and all the members are urged to be present. The annual election of officers will be held.

The club season will close with a breakfast on April 23.

The Fortnightly club met with Mrs. B. E. Morse this week. The subject "Socialism," was discussed by Professor O. M. Elliott and Mrs. G. W. Kenneth. "Socialism in the United States" was the coming year. Monday, April 8, closes the present club year, at which time the "closing party," a customary party given by the club, will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Seavers. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President—M. J. Sweely; Vice president—Mrs. G. W. Kenneth; Secretary—Burton E. Morse; Standing program—Mrs. J. H. Seavers; Dr. C. R. Scott, Mrs. B. E. Morse.

The domestic science department of the Twentieth Century club met with Mrs. Elliott on Monday. Cake making and baking was the subject for the afternoon. The guests were: Madames Hill, E. Wilson, White, J. Milson, J. H. Perrine, J. H. Wise, Caras, W. S. Mallory.

DRAW BOUT AT BUHL

Boxers Went Part in Ten Rounds Last Monday Night.

A draw decision was rendered in the ten-round boxing bout between Clyde Farnsworth, better known as the "Salt Lake Kid" of Butte, and Jack Welch of Buhl, at the Buhl opera house last Monday evening. Both were in the frame at the end, though Welch went to the mat twice during the bout. The go was snappy from start to finish. The sympathy of the home crowd was with Welch, though Farnsworth is credited with ending without a scratch and of having had the better of the bout throughout.

OFFICE LAWYERS.

"Office practice is what the average lawyer gets for his money." "and that is the business that makes the largest return for the least waste of time. More money is made nowadays by keeping out of litigation and free from the dangers of the law's delay than by defending them, even successfully, in court. It is safe to say that there are some 6,000 lawyers who are making a very good living in New York from law practice, and that there are a large number of lawyers who from their offices and directing great enterprises and corporations and guiding wealthy clients, take in each year princely sums, even fabulous amounts."—Lawyer's Diary.

Kansas City Stock Yards, March 28.
Cattle received here this week 20,000, last week 22,000, same week last year 20,000. Muddy range kept receipts down this week, and the same influence will work toward light receipts next week. Everything has been in the seller's favor this week, even stockers and feeders, which have caused a little better feeling, getting up considerable prices are 15 to 20¢ higher than Monday, and buyers are early in the saddle. The winter's crop of beef is not only eight per cent shorter in number, but the market is a comparatively tight one. The average weight of animals this year is two to four per cent short of the average weight a year ago. With the market a little spot about it is a small wonder that buyers do some hard riding these days. Native steers sold at $2.10 and $2.15 here, yesterday; water steers at $1.75 and for nearabout steers this week, $1.45 for nearabout steers this week, for short feed, and $1.00 to $1.50 was paid for long term feeders. $2.25 in $2.40 for stock steers. It is possible that a considerable influx of cattle may appear next week, but its extent in the market if it makes one, will soon be known.

Hogs received here this week 35,000, last week 37,000, same week last year 65,000. Hog buyers apparently are more difficult in getting to market this week than they were a few days ago. The fall-off is not regarded as urgent. Buyers have been most urgent here this week, and they broke four yesterday with a shout of exultation that reached the heavens - "When they quit 25 to 30 cents has been added to values and this big advance is sticking today. Several lots sold at the top of the market, and bulk of sales ranged from $7.25 to $7.55. The appearance of Illinois supplies might cause a break next week, but high prices are counted on for some months ahead. Sheep received here this week 40,400, last week 39,000, same week last year 50,000. Buyers suddenly acquired most interest in getting to market this week, and prices have jumped up 10 to 20 cents. The attention seems leading, for the highest prices of the week were recorded in getting to market. A few buyers are coming in, and a few days before there had been a heavy bait set off in a quarry near by. This bait set off in a quarry near the start of a colony of blacksnakes from their slumbers in a neighboring ledge. One of the wires was crossed in a distant city by a traveler, and the broken wires which lay near the snakes' den made a death trap. When the snakes came to the wires trailing on the ground, they were killed and crushed over them, touching the ends of both wires at the same time. They thus "short-circuited" them, and released a shock which can destroy immediately upon being shocked each animal curled up in a hard knot, thus opening the circuit and setting the trap again.

NOVEL TRAP.
A novel trap was set for a borer found in a patch of woods in Connecticut where large blacksnakes live up in the back yards and stone of the woods. The wires ran through the woods overhead, and a few days before there had been a heavy bait set off in a quarry near by. This bait set off in a quarry near the start of a colony of blacksnakes from their slumbers in a neighboring ledge. GOOD ROAD BEING BUILT this city and took a number of views of the condition of the road. Within the next few days views of the road from the same points will be taken and the great change that has taken place in a day will be shown.

Arrangements Were Made.
Judge Chamberlain has been actively engaged for the past three weeks arranging for today's work. Kits, drugs, have been distributed along the way, and plows placed where breaking the ground was necessary before the drags and scrapers could be used. Overseers and superintendents of mile and other sections of the road have been posted, the plowmen were along their assigned sections, and have been assisting workers to various miles of the way.

At many places along the new road farmers have been busy the last few days plowing the road-making ready for the drags and scrapers, especially where a sufficient number of drags and scrapers would not be on hand with which to till the work today.

While the road superintendents have been at work arranging for the remodeling of the pike, other good road boosters have been soliciting funds in this city and in other towns along the way, with which to hire teams and other necessities for those workers who went along the road this morning from their homes in town. It has also been necessary to hire a portion of the preliminary labor on the road, such as plowing and making new cordilla at internal and ditch crossings. The financial contributions have for the most part been liberal.

Just the Thing Needed.
Now that the Hansen-Buhl road, is practically completed, its advantages to the people of this tract cannot be overestimated. It will make a new highway through an agricultural community that is constantly becoming more and more thickly settled. It will reduce the hardships of transportation, especially for the farmers to market—and shipping points, almost to a minimum. It will reduce the cost of hauling material to the land along and in the vicinity of the new road, and will afford a firm foundation for prospective settlers to take up their residence along this road and in the choice sections of the tract through which it passes. From the start to the end, the new road should be built, and when the sentiment became strong enough the boosters got together and put the road through in a day.
