The cost of the installation to have been $2,950.00. The cost of each standard for current use per month. Each standard is equipped with four 40-watt and one 60-watt Tungsten lamps. The speaker also stated that the standards on the business district are to be installed for about half the cost of those in the park district.

Easy to Raise Cash.

Mr. Breckenridge made an interesting statement about the financial standing of the city of Twin Falls in the after part of his speech. He stated that the city was bonded for $150,000 and that it could easily be bonded for $150,000 more.

Aside from the speech made by Mr. Breckenridge, the Rev. Jacob Finger, pastor of the Methodist church at Idaho Falls, made a clever address regarding the development of fertile lands in Idaho and expressed his belief in the future of the state.

The May jubilee to be given in the Commercial club rooms from May 15 to 18, inclusive, by the members of the Twentieth century club and the Commercial club, will be a grand affair of pleasure as far as can be judged from the preparations now under way.

The jubilee will be open from morning till night and the fun will be in full swing all the time. For the benefit of our business men and women a luncheon will be served at each day, while light refreshments can be had during the entire day. The main feature will be the "Ar" exhibit, where the famous painting "The Girl at the Wheel" will be shown. This will be the moving picture show and the vaudeville performance in the evening. The vaudeville acts will equal anything seen in the Orphanus hall, and in fact, better.

The managers are endeavoring to secure some of these attractions.

Commercial Club to Assist.

Instead of the regular Wednesday night dance, the Commercial club will be assisted by the ladies—sandwiches, coffee, cream, strawberry short cake and other good things.

The result of the week will be a grand four-day jubilee. There will be stereopticon views of the Twin Falls county and the Hotel will be open for the day. There will be shows and exhibitions of various sorts in the rooms across the hall. A great prize will be offered to the winner of the "Ar" exhibit.

Every member of the Commercial club who will volunteer to assist in any way is asked to notify the secretary.

STABBED AT NAMPA

Brakeman Severely Knifed by Hobo Sealing Ride on Oregon Short Line.

Nampa, May 7.—Marvin Norton, a brakeman on the Oregon Short line, and whose home here, was stabbed twice by Albert Christy about midnight last night, following the latter's refusal from a freight car on a bound train on which he was loading his milk. The trouble occurred a few miles east of here, and Christy was arrested near the scene four hours later by Constables Deland and O'Farrell, having made no attempt to get away. Christy was taken to the Methodist hospital at Idaho Falls, where he was taken into custody and is being held as a witness for the present. The doctor in charge here is Dr. Norton.

Norton was stabbed in the abdomen and in the arm and while the wounds are not fatal, his condition is such that he was taken to the Short Line hospital at Salt Lake this morning.

After being wounded he was taken to the hospital and kept in bed for some time, but he suffered a considerable loss of blood.

It is alleged that Christy refused to leave the train when ordered to do so, and that after Norton had got off he drew his pocket knife and made the attack. Christy claims that the latter had a gun with him and was repeatedly with his hands and that he finally used the knife in self-defense.

After Norton had been shot he was taken to the hospital and followed him into the night and followed him into the night and followed him into the night.

TWIN FALLS LOSES

TOO POWERFUL FOR HIGH SCHOOL

BLANK IN AT BURLEY.
Fall to Repeat Playing by Which Old Rival Was Swamped Two Weeks Ago—Teams Will Likely Play Off the Tie.

The varsity baseball team of Twin Falls high school was stung 8 to 0 defeat last Saturday at Hoyburn when they pulled off the second game of the series with Pioneer high school. The report of the game was a repetition of the contest played here two weeks ago with the honors somewhat changed around.

make-up for the wild heaving perpetrated by some of the local boys. Pioneer got one in the first inning and then calmed down. After this the game was a tight until the seventh. Wilson and Howberry waging a pretty battle on the mound. But the worst of the game was in the seventh—the balloon went up and stayed up out of sight until the Pioneers had throated themselves out and incidentally secured seven scores. After that the play-letted again and during the remainder of the game no scoring was done.

In the near future, probably Saturday, the third and final game of the series will be played, presumably in Twin Falls. After suffering twice at the hands of Wilson—the Twin Falls boys have made a solemn vow that they are going to knock the spear off the next game. If they are successful in this they will be the victors in a three-class exhibition.

Cottolene

The cook is never satisfied unless her baking turns out. Cooks who have tried it secure better and more uniform results from the use of Cottolene than with butter, lard or any shortening.

Cakes, pies, cookies and doughnuts are best made with Cottolene. It makes rich food without being greasy. Cottolene is always digestible, because it contains no lard.

GRAHAM'S

Why Have "Nerves"? This is the reason why women have "nerves." When thoughts begin to grow cloudy and uncertain, impulses lag and the warnings of pain and distress are sent like lightning throughout limbs and brain, straightway, nine times in ten, a woman will lay the cause of the trouble to some defect of the point where the uterus is felt. If it is a headache, a headache, a sensation of irritability or twitching, or uncontrollable nervousness, something must be wrong with the head or back, a woman naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centers in the womanly organs. It is also cases out of ten the most difficult to cure, and a woman should take rational treatment for its cure. The local disorder and inflammation of the delicate special organs of the sex should be treated steadily and systematically.

...and Gans will enter in good condition. Both Carpenter and Gans have made good records in the Ring, most of their matches having been made in Denver and Salt Lake boxing circles.

Next Monday evening's contest will feature the return of Bobler, of Twin Falls, who will officiate as referee. Both boxes train each afternoon in the Smith building, opposite the post office. Hours of training are: Gans, from 7 to 8 o'clock; and Carpenter from 8 to 9 o'clock.

MAMMOTH BONES ARE FOUND

J. C. Vandaveit, Locates Teeth and Tuks of Prehistoric Animal Near the Twin Falls.

J. C. Vandaveit, the placer miner who lives just above the Twin Falls, is in possession of a number of mammoth bones, evidently those of a prehistoric animal. Among the bones found was a portion of a tusk. There was also part of a tooth which weighed some 10 to 12 pounds. The great mammoth evidently roamed the country and finding its way into the canyon probably was swept over the falls or became mired in the soft sand and mud below.

"Jake" Fritz, who is said to have found the canyon, is now endeavoring to find whether he could recall having killed the animal and also what its name might be. He stated that its horns he might have killed it, but from the time could not recall its name nor just when he shot it.

Further interesting information especially in size, and give rise to many repeated queries as to conditions existing here in prehistoric days.

CHEAP WOOL RATES

Steamship Line Makes Tariff from Portland to New York 70 Cents per Hundred.

Gooding, May 7.—F. R. Gooding, president of the National Wool Growers' association, and president of the American-Hawaiian Steamship company offering a reduction of 70 cents a hundred on the present rates from Portland to New York. The letter, which is very interesting to stockmasters, is given in full: "The American-Hawaiian Steamship company, president Mr. F. R. Gooding, president National Wool Growers' association, Gooding, Idaho. Gooding, referring to his correspondence between you and me, in connection with rates on our line from Portland to New York, we now beg to advise that our rate on wool in gross in sacks has been reduced from 75 cents per 100 pounds to 70 cents per 100 pounds, effective at once and to remain in effect until July 31. We trust that such reduction will allow of our being favored with a large amount of wool from the interior, and we shall be pleased to have advice in such respect from the shippers. Awaiting your further favors, we remain, Yours truly, AMERICAN-HAWAIIAN STEAMSHIP COMPANY, C. B. Kennedy, Agent, Big Baying to Growers.

The letter is very gratifying to Mr. Gooding, as it makes a bid for practically all of the wool of Oregon and Idaho, and a large portion of the wools of Idaho. This rate of 70 cents a hundred on sacked wool from Portland to New York in connection with the present milling gives wool a fourth-class rating from Biler to Portland, making a rate of $1.65, including the haul from New York to Boston, which is 23 cents a hundred. This is a saving of 23 cents a hundred over the present all-rail rate to Boston, as quoted by the Interstate Commerce commission, or 76 cents saving over the old rate of $1.42.

Mr. Gooding is especially anxious that this matter should be given as wide publicity as possible so that the shippers may all take advantage of the water transportation. Shipping directions will be furnished by the American-Hawaiian Steamship company, 316 Railroad Exchange building, Portland, Oregon.

Studebaker Automobiles E.M.F. Two Models

If You Were an Expert What Car Would You Buy

The time has passed when automobiles can be sold to you on their appearances or claims. This is a day when you and every purchaser must be shown what the car for which you pay your money will actually perform; what it will do. Beware of an automobile salesman who attempts to beguile you with pleasing story. Tell him to show the goods and prove to you that his car is worth the money. Find out whether his car is a real car or only an assembled automobile built to sell.

You have a right to your money's worth, but it is up to you to see that you get it. Deeper than all appearances, there are a few expert tests which ought to be applied to every car.

Who makes the car? Is it an assembled car or made from top to bottom by one manufacturer? What kind of a guarantee is on it? Does the manufacturer respect his own product with a real guarantee, or does he want you to take the chance? What do parts cost you and how conveniently can you get them? How many cars of this make are in service and how many are giving satisfaction? Questions like these go deep into the heart of the case, and if you put them rigorously upon any car you will find out with a certainty whether or not the car is worth its price.

We are selling Studebaker E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars because we know that, dollar for dollar, their equal is not sold in the market today. The records of many thousands of cars in all kinds of service have convinced us absolutely. Studebaker E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars are built run, and because they run they sell. If we cannot prove to you under the most searching test that Studebaker cars are absolutely the best automobile values in the market, we do not want your business; but we can prove it, and your neighbors who drive these cars will tell you the same thing.

Be an expert when it comes to buying a car. You can get more getting from us some further ideas on real tests of an automobile. Clip the attached coupon and send it to us now because we have something new to tell you which you ought to know, whatever car you have in mind.

ACT IN TRACT INTERESTS

Salmon River Settlers Urge All to 'Cultivate Your Land'—Water Supply Gradually Increases.

At a meeting of the Salmon River Settlers' association held in Hollister last week, steps were taken for the early development of the Salmon tract. A "cultivate your land" slogan was adopted by the members, and a resolution was passed that their land under cultivation at the earliest possible date, which will lead, if followed out, to the quick advancement of the tract.

The members were stimulated to action following the reading of a letter from Secretary T. F. Finley in which the association urging each settler to improve his own land and to use his influence upon others to do the same. The motion was unanimously adopted that each member be a committee of one to urge the settlement of the tract for the best interests of the tract.

At the present time it is stated that the water is rising gradually in the spring and that the snow in the mountains has been passed. This is especially encouraging from the fact that the supply of water will be increased by runoff from the snow in the mountains. The level is rising at the rate of about two feet per day, and the stock water will be raised an additional point eight miles from the dam.

NEW DISCOVERIES ADD TO PROMISING CONDITION OF MINES

Ernest Egan Has Secured Lease on Large Group of Claims—Strong Capital Interested and Aggressive Improvements Will Soon Begin.

Ernest Egan, well known in mining circles, returned Monday from Boise where he secured a lease on the North Star Mining and Milling company's entire group of claims at Jarbidge, which includes among others, the Bourne mill, formerly operated by the Clark-Fletcher Leasing and Milling company. It is understood Mr. Egan has interested strong capital and that extensive improvements will soon begin.

Upon his return Mr. Egan stated that prospects at Jarbidge are of the best. He reports that a new low level vein has been discovered, which assays $110 per ton. Early development will be to open a vein, which is rich in surface showings, and which is believed to be a continuation of the original vein.

Much of the present optimistic outlook is the result of careful prospecting and examinations during the past season. By the latter mine, formerly operated by George Wingfield, a rich vein was discovered along the side where Wingfield had been operating and had given it up. This vein assays $44 per ton.

A worker in the Flaxton mine, through curiosity, sent a shot into the wall of the tunnel, then being driven and found rich ore parallel to the working shaft. The vein was entered a distance of 12 feet and good ore was still to be found. The discovery is being made the making the best showing in the camp, and gives the best prospect for the highest grade producer in the Jarbidge district.

It is stated that the mines now have better promise than at present, and that the boom spirit of the 1920s is being revived, and that the mines now remain all actively engaged.

M. W. DENOVER IS INJURED

Fallen from Ladder—While Removing Sign from Building From Booth Store Window Broken.

While engaged in removing a sign from the building now occupied by Swim & Aldrich, Shoshone street west, last Saturday forenoon Martin W. Denoyer fell from his ladder to the pavement and received painful but not serious injuries. When about to descend from the ladder, with sign in hand, Mr. Denoyer lost his balance. The ladder slipped from under him, breaking the large plate glass window of the building. Mr. Denoyer was removed to the office of Dr. Alexander, where his injuries were attended, and he was later taken to his home. He is now up and about and expects to be soon actively engaged.

Another window broken. At about the same time of Mr. Denoyer's accident the large plate glass window in the Booth Mercantile company store was shattered by a collision of three small boys, in a wagon with the window. The boys, all of whom were under school age, were spinning along the sidewalk in a small "express" wagon. While their attention was attracted from their path the wagon suddenly turned, and the long "ramo" plowed into the window, destroying the heavy plate glass.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

That ordinarily you eat about the same things day after day?

That is the reason you can think of only such a few of the good things are in the market, when asked to name them off-hand.

That is also the reason the housewife is always perturbed about what to eat for dinner today or for Sunday dinner. She can think of so few things and trying to vary the means, without succeeding to her own satisfaction.

Some have this as a favorite dish others have that; but after all, it's some things that appear on any individual table—simply because, like groceries, one cannot think of many different things.

But there are as many different tastes as there are individuals and a store like this has something to please the appetite of every individual, hence hundreds of different good things to eat here.

We advertise to call attention to this fact. We try to suggest something by printing a partial list, but, at its best, the list mentions only a very few. You have to call and go over the stock to get an adequate idea of the many good things that you will like. Do that tomorrow.

The curtains were drawn and a cheery fire in the fireplace cast a yellow glow through the rooms, which was heightened by the electric lights. Tables, covered with white cloths, were set in three large rooms, each adorned with a beautiful centerpiece of white carnations. Primary and secondary birds perched on a tumbler at each place, carried in their bills by a thread, a card bearing the name of the guest. THE SMART SET HAS PLACED ITS SEAL OF APPROVAL ON

SOCIETY HOSIERY

Coler Phillips, the famous New York artist, has said woman must lavish most of her attention on the shoes and stockings that dress her feet. He is right. No woman of today can afford to wear ill-fitting, shabby and cheap stockings, and no shoes, however expensive, look well without a "finny" socky looking base.

SOCIETY STOCKINGS

Are woven of pure silk, are exceptionally long, with reinforced heel, sole and toe and double knit center top. They have all the durability of the old true hosiery combined with the beauty of the silk. In their weaving the greatest of care has been taken, with the result that there is no unbecomingly lagging at the ankle or instep. SOCIETY STOCKINGS look their part—they are fine, sleek and thoroughbred.

THE SILK STOCKINGS, WITH THE STYLE, WEAR AND FIT

Coler Phillips, the famous New York artist, has said woman must lavish most of her attention on the shoes and stockings that dress her feet. He is right. No woman of today can afford to wear ill-fitting, shabby and cheap stockings, and no shoes, however expensive, look well without a "finny" socky looking base.

Are woven of pure silk, are exceptionally long, with reinforced heel, sole and toe and double knit center top. They have all the durability of the old true hosiery combined with the beauty of the silk. In their weaving the greatest of care has been taken, with the result that there is no unbecomingly lagging at the ankle or instep. SOCIETY STOCKINGS look their part—they are fine, sleek and thoroughbred.

SOCIETY HOSIERY is not on sale at the shops, but must be purchased from us direct by mail. In this way we eliminate the dealer's profit, greatly reducing the cost to you and also prevent the substitution of an inferior grade of hose.

These stockings positively will not run; they come in all colors and will be sent by mail to any address, all charges prepaid. If on inspection you are not satisfied—you to be the sole judge—your money in full will be refunded.

Special prices to introduce our Society Silk Hosiery good for ten days only.

CHEAT CANADA LAND

Something over fifty thousand men, most of them heads of families and all of them self-supporting citizens, leave the United States for Canada every year, take up land, embrace the British constitution and settle down to make homes for themselves.

There is no question about the facts. Senator Borah made one of his strongest speeches in the senate on the subject, and other men equally well known have admitted time and again that the continued drain on this country through emigration to Canada constituted one of the greatest of modern American problems.

A good many steps have been taken to stop the flow, but with every move made on this side of the line a similar one has been advanced by the Canadians, until at this time both sides are fighting tooth and nail and the exodus continues as great as ever.

The Borah-Jones three-year homestead bill is designed in a measure to help correct this evil. The bill proposes to shorten the term of residence on the homestead to three years, at the end of which period title will pass to the settler and the lands and everything on them become his by virtue of United States patent. It will be a splendid measure, and here in Idaho it will be of incalculable benefit to thousands, but the Canadians have overlooked nothing, and in hundreds of newspapers all over the United States may be seen the following advertisement:

The Canadian Pacific offers the poor man and American renter five best chances in the Grand Canadian West. After the settler has made his one-tenth payment on his land, the C. P. R. will loan him up to $2,000 for permanent improvements and putting in crop, and without additional security, interest at 6 per cent and 10 years to repay. Why labor for years changing the value of another man's land? Let the C. P. R. make you independent and prosperous.

And so on in the same strain. Now the point is, the Canadian Pacific will do just what it says, and it is this very reputation for doing what it says that has built up the feeling of confidence which has done so much to make possible this great movement.

As to the remedy, there are a number of things which might be done which would help the western states to compete to better advantage with Canada lands. In the first place, the amount of red tape surrounding the smallest transaction in lands between state and federal governments goes far towards interfering with the spirit of co-operation which should exist between settler and state. Under the present system the federal government has more of a say in the administration of Idaho lands than has the state of Idaho. Title is delayed in passing to the state and this irritates the settler who has to wait for his title, as witness the situation at Buhl, where dozens of men have done their work and made their proof, yet are unable to borrow a dollar to put into their land for the reason that they are unable to legally show that they are the owners of the land. As a matter of fact, why should not title pass from the federal land department to the state irrespective of settlement on the land? In other words, why should not the state administer the affairs of its state land without the supervision or co-operation of the government from a distance of two thousand miles?

The residence period for settlers in the past has been far too long. Too much has been expected of him and too many safeguards thrown about his occupancy of the land. No allowance is made for any element of trust or confidence in the man who takes up the land, and no adequate provision has been made to help him file over a bad year or two if it should come.

All these things should be corrected and will be in time. The three-year bill is the first step. After that is safely passed and the law in effect, the other points may be taken up and the entire situation gone over with a view to proving beyond the power of all the foreign advertisements that can be printed that the United States is essentially the country for rich and poor alike, and that Idaho and the balance of the western states are the very garden spot of the nation as far as land opportunities are concerned. Tear down the restrictions and Idaho land will find its own market.

THE RED FLAG.

There is food for thought in the recent labor disturbances in Boise, when the red flag was all ready to be unfurled, and only the action of the police prevented its being carried down the streets of the city at the head of the ranks of the so-called industrial workers of the world.

The right of this or any other body of men to carry a red flag at the head of a procession in the United States of America, when the flag of the United States is conspicuously lacking, hinges solely on the question of the sentiment back of the red flag. Many parades there have been, where flags of various kinds and colors were exhibited and there were no disturbances as a result thereof. But the red flag has become so closely associated in the minds of men with anarchy, lawlessness and bloodshed that it is not to be wondered at if only these things can be seen by the average citizen.

It is claimed by the particular branch of the Socialist propaganda represented by the I. W. W. element that their red flag stands for none of these things. That the sentiment behind the flag is one of equal rights and common justice for the working man of America, and that the cause of anarchism has nothing in common with the motives of themselves and their leaders.

But if this is true, why the red flag? If these men are honest in their claims, why not a blue flag or a flag of any other color?

For a good many years now the red flag has been the chosen emblem of anarchism and the forces it represents, and this is just as well understood by all classes of society as was the significance of the black flag at the masthead in the days of the Spanish Main. It would be unfair to a degree to accuse the workers of an ignorance so abysmal as to preclude this view, and so, no matter what their excuse or explanation, in the eyes of all but their own members they are placed in the position of endorsing the doctrines of which the red flag is the accepted emblem.

But the question of the right or wrong of the actions of these men is not the most interesting feature of the situation. Right or wrong, they represent a cause which is being forced into public consideration and which today constitutes one of the gravest questions with which the American people are confronted. The efforts of these men to gain a hearing are interesting only from the viewpoint of the student of social and industrial conditions, and the question of merit or lack of merit of their cause does not detract from this interest in the least. The entire movement typifies a spirit of unrest which is apparent in half a dozen different directions throughout the nation. Conditions are perhaps responsible, but injustice will never become the force to correct them.

MODERN ELECTION VIEWS.

An interesting kink in human nature was brought to light in connection with the recent city elections in Boise, namely, that a good many of the candidates had no idea of sitting idly by and waiting to be chosen if action on their part could, in their judgment, influence the result. The number of those who advertised their qualifications for office through the purchase of space for the purpose in the Boise papers was astonishing. But it is perhaps not so astonishing that not one of those to do so got any votes to speak of.

Advertising space in newspapers is for sale and any newspaper is glad to sell it for any legitimate advertising purpose. But the idea of a candidate for city office under a commission law advertising his qualifications for office is so absolutely foreign to the spirit of the original commission plan as to be worthy of comment.

The fathers of the commission plan of government for cities had in mind a situation where an over-supply of candidates had no place. For the head of the ticket it was expected that the choice of the people would be practically unanimous. The candidate selected accepted the office as the highest mark of honor within the gift of the citizens, unsolicited and unthought.

The modern view as typified by the Boise aspirants is somewhat at variance.

THE FLY MENACE.

"Swat the fly," says James H. Wallis, Idaho's energetic dairy, food and sanitary commissioner, and in this Commissioner Wallis is right all the time.

Sermons might be written upon the work of destruction of the insidious little pest, the common-house fly. No filth too foul, no food too clean; busy all the time distributing the germs of a hundred diseases where they will do the most evil, and assisting in the death of millions more of his kind work, between times.

Here in Twin Falls, where he nowhere else, too much cannot be done of an early start on a crusade which shall last all summer, or single fly remains alive.

Use his responsibility for business prevalent among and especially among young children, during the months. This is not general until the baby happens to be you notice it.

Keep this in mind when the flies comes on, and when they are called to the nuisance, even if fully, follow Commissioner Wallis' advice.

CONGRATULATIONS.

Both the "dry" forces and the "wet" are to be congratulated that, so far during the campaign and personalities gone conspicuously lacking. The sides have been fit to meet the general appeal to the press of the worthy of comment and commendation.

So far as possible the issue out on a mainly basis and the only by a vote which will come an actual indication of the view than any similar vote ever taken.

While The News stands on principle of prohibition and to lend its editorial support of the suppression of the liquor in Falls county, it does not fail to count the spirit of fair-play and belief in the sincerity of pur those whose views are utterly those of this paper.

CLARK IS EASILY

WHAT WE SPEND FOR LIQUOR.
Drink Habit in the United States Costs $3,000,000,000 a Year.

New York-American.—The amount of money we spend every year in the United States, directly and indirectly, for liquor would give a two weeks vacation to every man, woman and child in the land, with their board and expenses paid. We spend $1,500,000,000 a year for alcoholic drinks, and we expend as much more for judges, police, jails, poorhouses and insane asylums to take care of the people who get into trouble through the habit of drinking. That makes $3,000,000,000, or $30 a piece for everybody. For a family of father, mother and four children it amounts to $183 a year, a nice sum for an outing in the country.
It is estimated that 1,500,000 men and women in the United States are every day either mentally or physically disabled for work as a result of drink.
"It could be shown that the drink habit makes for better health, or better muscles, or better earning power or lived longer than the man who did not drink, there might be some argument in favor of drink, even in spite of all that has just been said. But thousands of experiments have shown that the brain worker and the laboring man are both at a disadvantage if they drink.

HIS PREFERENCE.
A distinguished eye surgeon tells a good story of his hospital days—namely, that he never treated oculitis and himself were chatting in their quarters in the hospital when the young man, upon the beauty of different colors of eyes. One championed the superior brilliancy and sparkle of the blue eye, another the depth and fire of the brown while a third was all for the clear, cool light of the hazel. After they had exhausted their eloquence with the usual effect of confirming themselves in their original opinions, the fourth young man bones suddenly broke in: "I don't care a hang about your blue eyes or your brown eyes or your hazel eyes. Just give me some eyes and plenty of them and I'll be happy!"—Saturday Evening Post.

Teacher (in geography class)—John, you may tell the class what a league is.
John (promptly)—Eight baseball clubs is a league.

It is estimated that material capital in the United States is valued at $70,000,000,000 goes to waste annually in this country.

Dated Twin Falls, Idaho, May 1, 1912.

STUART H. TAYLOR, City Clerk.

Notice that after paying witnesses, special detectives, board of prisoners, special counsel, jury and every charge incident to the prosecution, the county is out only $2,045.00 and the $1,140.00.

The report that the liquor prosecutions have cost the county $30,000 to $50,000 per year is evidently a joke. After the license men have circulated such reports; after they so ingeniously multiplied so many temperance ladies into giving the wet petition for election (assuming, though it was not, as how they put out one year (the index); after they signing in 1908 and 1909 and 1910 and 1911 and 1912, in the face of the police records of 123 arrests for drunkenness in 1909, 1910 and 1911 and 1912, in the face of the fact that the county is out only $2,045.00 and the $1,140.00, one wonders whether they are playing in road faith with our sensible voters.

Those who by May 22, will have resided in the state six months and in the county thirty days will be entitled to vote if registered.

Those who registered in November, 1910 (the last general election, when Governor Hawley was elected) in the precinct in which they now reside, need not register for the present election. Absentees register.

Registration places for the four Twin Falls precincts are as follows: First precinct (East), first door to office of West, Ferguson Fruit and Lard Co., Hotel-Perrine building, next door to post office, fourth precinct (South), McAnally's grocery, Main avenue, south.

COMMERCIAL CLUBS IDAHO EXHIBIT

STATE'S PART IN COMING EXPOSITION MUST BE CONSIDERED.

Convention of State Organizations Will Be Held to Determine Best Plans to Exhibit Idaho's Best at San Francisco.

A state convention of commercial clubs, chambers of commerce, representatives of irrigation and grain companies and all other interested organizations in the greater development of Idaho for the purpose of considering what course will be pursued by Idaho in preparing for its exhibit at the Pan-Pacific International Exposition, and what means will be taken to bring this state the greatest benefit from that "Pan-Pacific" travel which this exhibit of all exhibitions will create, is the proposal of the League of Southern Idaho Commercial Clubs. The matter has already received the enthusiastic support of many different sections of the state.

At the last meeting of the executive board, held in Boise March 20, it was unanimously decided to call such a convention under the auspices of the League and the state, provided the matter should meet with the approval of Governor Hawley. The proposal has received the unqualified endorsement of the governor and also of the Idaho-Washington Development League of Lewiston, and the date will be set as soon as Governor Hawley returns and the officers of the League can have a further conference with him.

"Idaho has always taken up the question of a display at an international exposition at a time when most of the work should, really have been done," said Reilly-Atkinson, secretary-treasurer of the League of Southern Idaho Commercial Clubs, "and of course this is perfectly natural in a young state. It is remarkable that the state did as well as we know it to have done at many of those exhibitions, surpassing in some instances the older and more wealthy states even of the continent. But this time there must be no delay, no chance for mishaps, and not the slightest risk taken that 1915 will find us unprepared."

Great credit to be kind.
"The exposition to be held at San Francisco will be the greatest, the most expensive, the most beautiful yet, and the best managed show ever put on in the world. Nothing in the history of civilization will more than approximate this undertaking, in cost, in magnitude, or in beauty. Already San Francisco has raised more than twice as much money as any other exposition ever started with, about eighteen million dollars being available for this work. In addition California will spend twenty millions improving its roads and the city of San Francisco will improve its waterfront at a cost of ten millions more."

NEW WOOL RATES EAST

New Shipping Prices Went Into Effect May 1 and May 26 Established Permanently.

(Boise Statement.)
The new wool rates to be established between intermediate points and Boston by the Interstate Commerce Commission are given in a letter received yesterday from Frank H. Platiard, assistant to the general traffic manager of the Harriman system. Mr. Platiard, who is a well-known former Boise man, is now in Chicago, where he has been meeting with the commission.

The day he arrived there, P. O. Clark, the district general traffic manager, with headquarters in Chicago, died, and Mr. Platiard is temporarily filling his place.

In their respective hand he says the rates quoted below will probably be officially established. They are to take effect from May 1, and are to be in force on goods shipped after that date and charged for at the old rates.

There are two rates, as follows:
In sacks, minimum 2,000 pounds for a 30-foot car.
In bales, compressed to a density of 10 pounds per cubic foot, minimum 100 bales for a 30-foot car.

The rates given per hundred pounds from intermountain points to Boston follow:

Becks-Bales	41.42	41.50
Merinoes	1.88	1.93
Jerome	1.88	1.93
Burley	1.90	1.91
Dak	1.90	1.91
Twin Falls	1.90	1.91
Dahl	1.88	1.92

CHAMP CLARK LEADS

Speaker Receives Heavy Majority of Votes at Washington Democratic Convention.

Walla Walla, May 7.—When the delegates to the Democratic state convention here were called upon this afternoon to express their preference for president an attempt was made to stampede the convention for Bryan. The Clark men, however, stood firm and won out. With the roll call of counties nearly completed, Peck d'Orville county cast its solid vote for Bryan. In an instant the convention hall was in an uproar. Delegates threw their hats in the air and cheered for several minutes, while a picture was carried to the front of the platform.

"Delegation after delegation which had cast votes for Wilson, changed to Bryan, but the Clark men stood firm and as the secretary read frankly to keep up with the changed alignments, and the half-suspicious was overcome, a first dozen Wilson delegates switched their votes to Clark.

Clark Men Too Strong.
A dozen Clark men were on their feet charging that the democratic convention was being engineered by disgruntled Wilson delegates. The staunchness of the Clark adherents was apparent and quiet soon was restored. When the vote finally was announced it showed 455 for Clark, 135 1/2 for Bryan, 100 for Wilson and 1 1/2 for Harmon.

SHEEPMEN SUFFER LOSSES

Heavy Snows Prevailing in Wyoming Cause Scarcity of Feed and Heavy Loss is Sustained.

Evanson, Wyo., May 4.—Sheepmen will lose heavily in this part of Wyoming, which is experiencing the worst weather in years during the winter season. For two days it has snowed almost continuously. There is about eight inches of snow on the level. The herds have just started out. Last winter's snow is still on some lambing grounds, and the sheep are suffering from scarcity of food as well as cold. The loss is estimated at $100,000 if present weather continues. Today's weather brightens the situation somewhat.—Salt Lake News (special).

In the India booth, Miss Faith Gaudin, a Hindu from the city, was ready to answer all questions regarding "carnivals" from that country.

The afternoon session was full of interesting readings, songs and papers. Mrs. C. C. Evans was the director of the Mission.

The day came to a close with the formation of a permanent organization of churches of Twin Falls. Officers chosen for the Union were as follows: President, Mrs. C. C. Evans.

The above named officers were also constituted an executive committee to meet and draw up a constitution.

OFFER BIG PRIZE FOR BEST WHEAT

It will be encouraged to raise the best wheat to be displayed in five bushels at the Northwest Development League's exhibition on November 12 to 23. No entry fee.

To encourage the farmers of the American Northwest to grow better wheat and to attract the attention of the whole country to the fact that the seven northwestern states are the best wheat fields in the world, the Northwest Development League is offering a prize for the best five bushels grown this year. Five thousand dollars for the best five bushels of wheat grown in the American Northwest is the prize announced for the grand champion selected to be awarded by the Northwest Development League this year.

This is the world's greatest prize for wheat—twice as large as any prize offered in Canada, five times as much as has ever been offered before for any class of grain in the United States.

The wheat to be displayed at the Northwestern Products Exposition which will be held in Minneapolis November 12 to 23. No entry fee will be charged. The samples must contain five bushels and along with the three grain ten bundles of sheaves from six to ten inches in diameter must be sent.

States which compete are Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

The prize consists of a Big Four "30" farm tractor manufactured by the Gas Tractor company of Minneapolis and a set of plows made by the Emerson-Williams company of Rockford, Illinois. The tractor and plows will be delivered to the winner free of cost by the Development League. This machinery was selected by a committee of the league after much consideration of what the prize should be, and it was decided the most practical "prize" would be a farm tractor and plows. The tractor selected will do most any thing, plowing, harvesting, drilling, harrowing, threshing or freighting.

W. M. or "Senator" Clark, manager of the Jerome state hotel, recently received a small box from England containing a piece of wedding cake. The package was sealed and the "Senator" had to open it in the presence of the post office clerks and mail it at once to Salt Lake City to be inspected at the customs house as it was a valuable article. The little package came through unscathed this procedure would not have been necessary, as it would have been inspected in the customs house at New York. As it was the "bit of wedding cake" had quite a journey before reaching its destination.

The Great

...said the woman who was telling the story. "I did not have the time to do as I did—I took the time. There was plenty of good reasons why I should have taken it."

"What was that?" inquired Stasia at the moment various corners of the room were lit up as she looked at them. They stared at me indignantly, as one who lightly assumed duties with a discharging breast. They glared at me physically, as one who had been slackly brought up and didn't know any better. But I turned my back on them all, dressed the children and went to bed.

"This is why I went. I had taken a perfectly green girl from the Intelligence Office and trained her steadily for two months. I had trained her so that she understood what I was saying, and could do the housework more than I could well. Any one who had trained a green girl for two months at a stretch knows that a rest cure is due to the trainer, but I'll never be able to introduce rest cure into my curriculum, so I didn't take any rest cure. I had a full day's rest on Tuesday evening, a full day's rest on Wednesday morning, and then I went up to Stasia's room. When they reappeared Auntie Wendell's for that was the gaunt one of the name—Auntie Stasia's—made me pull cases in her hand. Stasia, clutching her month's pay, acquired but two hours' rest, and brought up the rest."

Stasia was about to leave. At once the work was not too hard. No she didn't want any money. She was about to be married, and, as the girl next door expressed it, I didn't even know she was a "company."

"She went in the middle of the spring cleaning. Some one who she knew when she had never met was up her way from the Pacific coast to visit me. The three intelligence offices which constituted the first aid to the suburbs could send me one for a week. The first was the best—discouraged and woke up sick."

"It was as I drank the tea that the great temptation reared its head. 'Isn't it a lovely day?' said the great temptation—entirely. 'You ought to be out of doors on such a day. Oh, well, I know the work isn't done and you have no girl, but the work will keep and the world is full of girls.'"

"At this point the duties that I have mentioned before stalked from the respective corners and stated the fact of withholding the great temptation, but it was waterproof."

"How fresh is the smell of the lake air!" it went on. "How pleasant is the beach! How much good it would do the children!"

"I had put the dishes to soak right after breakfast; that was all I had done. And, you see, I was going to do it up upstairs and dressed myself and the children, locked the door and fled toward the nearest station that would furnish a train to bear me and my children to the lake shore. As I turned the corner and looked back at the house a duty glared at me from my bedroom window. 'Going away for the day, and not a single bed made?' it sneered after me. I made no defense—I had none to make."

"The father of the great temptation may have been legion, but it was truthful. The lake was blue, the atmosphere sparkled. There were very few persons about the children and I set on the beach and ate quantities of fruit that I had bought and later read a new magazine. Once or twice I had an uneasy feeling that a hovering duty was asking me what would be the result if the sister-in-law should arrive ahead of time and getting into the house by hook or crook, should find the beds unmade. I refused to listen—absolutely refused."

"I am now coming to the part of the story that I don't like to tell. Even to myself it sounds crazy, but it really is true, notwithstanding."

"As I approached my own door late that afternoon, literally saturated with ozone and the joy of living, being accompanied by two children similarly affected, my neighbor crossed the lawn. Behind her came her maid and behind her came still another maid. Briefly told, the mistress of the second girl was going to England to visit her husband's people. She would be gone four months, but she would be back that period if I wanted her, but Jenalo would like to return to her first mistress in September."

"What a life here! I had difficulty in getting my arm around my own door. I had to go for it."

"After I went inside I had to go for the key and worked the door. 'How did you doze the night?' asked my husband at dinner. I turned on the water for a regular old time and left this morning."

"I was so nervous. Then I told my husband of the great temptation. He exactly knew myself, what the rest of this tale is. Many good housekeepers would say that it has happened that it was, in fact, slightly unusual in the lesson of rewarded selfishness. But I don't know."

IDAHO IS DRIPPING FROM TAFT

...rained himself forever so far as politics in Idaho is concerned. Since then, however, the special session of the legislature has practically removed the name of Taft from politics. It is admitted that Governor Hawley is likely to have the solid backing of his party. This is conceding that the name of Taft will be favored from consideration until after the election. They all know from past experience that Governor Hawley is not a politician and they are taking these and other factors into consideration for all their calculations.

Voters on Lookout.

Some of these cold-blooded calculating Republicans are "strutting" with either Mr. Haines or Mr. Peterson and to them is attributed the renewed call of E. H. Dewey. They are some of the men who some time ago made such desperate efforts to induce Justice James F. Allison to abandon the bench and enter the race for governor. They will be remembered for this. They were wrong again just before he left Idaho for a long visit in the east, announced that he would not be a candidate for governor this year for business reasons. In spite of this announcement on his part he is being impudently by many influential Republicans to change his mind and run for the office. In fact, some from some quarters, too, that these motives are in a fair way to succeed, and that there is every prospect that Mr. Dewey will enter the race.

Horrisson's Charges Bringer.

What the result of this would be is problematical. Some are of the opinion that it would play into the hands of Horrisson. These are the men who are strong in the north and that if Dewey enters the race he will divide the south with Haines, giving Horrisson all the advantage.

It is also stated by some of Haines' friends that he had held back and refused to enter the race until after Dewey had made up his mind and announced that he would not be a candidate. For this reason it is claimed that it would be unfair to Haines for Dewey to enter the race at this late day.

There are still others who assert that because of Dewey's connection with the Idaho farmers, really a branch of the Short line party, that he would be fought bitterly by those in the state who are determined to fight corporations, every chance they get.

Taking all these things into consideration it is clear that the announcement of Mr. Dewey's candidacy has aroused the great here among those who devote much of their time to the solution of political problems. Some of Mr. Dewey's shrewdest and best political friends are advising him to stick to his original determination.

Elections Plenary.

Bids had one city election last week and is preparing for another under the provisions of the Black Law. For the second time the supreme court upheld the constitutionality of the law. The first election under its provisions was held May 4. There were eight candidates for mayor and 14 for councilman. Because of the large number of candidates none received majorities, and because of this the second election must be held when the voters will decide between the two receiving the highest votes for mayor and the eight for the council.

Wet and Dry Candidates.

Arthur Hodges and Marlon B. Park are the candidates for mayor. By a rare combination of circumstances Hodges is a Republican, Park is a Democrat. Hodges is a wet, Park is a dry. Hodges is backed by the liberal element, Park by the ultra church element. For these reasons the election will be an interesting one and call into the field many forces that are normally in abeyance.

There were but 3,600 votes cast at the last election out of a total population of upward of 10,000.
