

P. O. SITE IS SELECTED BY GOVERNMENT

TEMPORARY BUILDING TO ADJOIN PERMANENT FEDERAL GROUND.

Bid of George H. Smith is Accepted and New Home of United States Mails to Be Ready by January First.

The location of a temporary post office building to serve until the erection of the new Federal building in Twin Falls was settled this week upon receipt of word from the first assistant postmaster general to the effect that the bid of George H. Smith, owner of the ground adjoining the permanent post office site, had been accepted by the government.

It is expected that work will be commenced right away on the construction of the building, as it must be ready for occupancy by January first. The building will be of brick, one or two stories in height, and will probably be heated by electricity. The inside dimensions will be 32 by 90 feet and it will be especially built for the purpose for which it is intended, and with special view to facilitating the work of the handling of the mails.

A feature of the new building will be an almost unbroken wall of glass on the side adjoining the federal office. Windows will occupy almost the entire side of the building and the light feature is expected to prove of the greatest convenience to the postal staff.

On Five-Year Lease.

The building will be leased to the government for a term of five years, or until such time as the new federal building is ready for occupancy. The fact that the lease contains a clause providing for the leasing authority to terminate at any time is taken to indicate that the new building may be finished long before the expiration of the full term of the lease. The rental to the government will be at the rate of $1,800 per annum.

Perhaps the greatest advantage in favor of the location which has been selected lies in the fact that the move into the permanent quarters will not be made with the work of the office. The move from the present quarters must be made not later than January first.

A LARGE POTATO YIELD.

B. W. Gillette Breaks Squid Record—Over 800 Bushels per Acre. All records on this tract for potato yields were broken when B. W. Gillette harvested his crop of Early Borekas a few days ago. Mark M. Murtach, who has been in charge of the field, is authority for the fact. The acreage yield was 805 bushels of potatoes being a large and uniform yield for the county. The potatoes were set out on 1 1/2 inches apart in the rows and in digging the potatoes from two adjoining hills will yield almost touch.

AMERICAN APOSTASY.

The fifth sermon in the series now being delivered at the Presbyterian church will be of special interest Sabbath morning. It is quite evident to the careful observer that there is something more going on in this country than the development of new countries and situations in politics. All may not be aware of the religious apostasy that is being made with the aid and growth of Christian denominations. Some of the things that are being done by the members of the Christian faith will be pointed out next Sabbath morning.

12-YEAR-OLD CHILD'S DANGEROUSLY HURT IN SERIOUS RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

The 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Ehlers, residing two miles west of Twin Falls, was seriously injured in a runaway near the ranch Friday afternoon. The boy was riding on a horse when he was thrown and his head was struck on a stump. He was immediately called and it was found that concussion of the brain had resulted from the fall from which he was unconscious for two days. The boy is now improving and Dr. Boyd expressed the hope that he was out of danger.

MAY YET BE CLAGSTONE.

(Special to The News.) Boise, Aug. 21.—The only 15 votes between Halnes and Clagstone, gubernatorial candidates for nomination, the race has been so close that it is really unique events of Idaho politics. Recent changes in the standing of the contestants leads to the belief that the matter will not be settled until a recount of the vote of every doubtful county has been made. Where recounts have already been taken the Halnes lead seems to be slowly coming down and many persons here familiar with the political situation give it as their opinion that the honor will eventually rest upon the Clagstone banner. It is claimed by the friends of Clagstone that numerous second choice votes were not taken into consideration at all in some precincts of certain counties and that if these were counted Clagstone would be found to have a majority over Halnes. The situation is attracting a good deal of attention, but so far it has not been decided whether a recount will be applied for or not.

TO ELECT CHAIRMAN AT SATURDAY SESSION

CANDIDATES TO HOLD IMPORTANT GATHERING THIS WEEK.

Party Leaders Have Confidence in Outlook and Bull Moose Party Believed Not Likely to Interfere.

A call has been issued to the Republican central committee to meet at the K. of P. hall next Saturday, the 24th, according to the provisions of the primary law, for the purpose of perfecting their organization and to elect a chairman and secretary and lay plans for the coming campaign to the county. The central committee this year will represent constituencies of a new departure. Formerly there has been one committee from each precinct, but the Republican candidates at their meeting last week named three committees for each precinct, which will bring the total membership of the committee up to about 60. Some trouble has been reported in some of the precincts, but having each precinct represented at the meetings of the central committee, but it is expected that this will be obviated by the election of three committees instead of one in each precinct. Ticket Looks Promising. Harmony seems to be the keynote of the Republican situation in the county, and the leaders confidently

NEW CONCERN COMING

Boyle Commission Company of Wichita, Kansas, to Open Twin Falls Branch in Near Future.

The Doyle Commission Company of Wichita, Kansas, will in a few days establish a branch in Twin Falls. D. DeLong, who will be their local representative, arrived in the city a few days ago with his family and is expected to begin the work of opening up the business as soon as possible.

The Boyle Commission company has been established in business over 15 years and is one of the largest and strongest concerns of its character in the west, being capitalized at $100,000.

It is the intention of Mr. DeLong to establish branches through Southern Idaho with Twin Falls as the headquarters. The location of their offices here will be known in a few days.

Mr. DeLong has the record while serving as secretary of the Idaho Business Men's association of increasing the membership from 100 to 1,200 in 12 hours and adding $30,000 to the funds of the association thereby.

J. C. Cummins of Sidney, Ohio, is visiting in Twin Falls, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor. Cummins is a member of the district committee. Mr. Cummins, Sr., expresses the greatest interest in the proposed election of the next governor and is greatly impressed with the entire tract and its possibilities.

RECOUNT OF VOTES MAY BE DEMANDED

RACE SO CLOSE THAT EXTRAORDINARY MEASURES LIKELY.

Clagstone and Halnes May Both Take Action, When Delay in Actual Nomination May Run Into Months.

(Special to The News.) Boise, Aug. 21.—It seems that uncertainty and doubt are still to prevail among the Republicans of Idaho for a time longer than it is expected that the announcement has been made definitely that John M. Halnes of Boise had won the primary nomination for governor that the additional announcement was made that intimate political friends of Paul Clagstone had plans in hand to demand a recount. This contest is to rest on the claim that in a number of precincts in different counties the second choice votes for Clagstone were not counted. It must be admitted that the small margin of 15 votes in Halnes' favor holds out tremendous temptations to contest, and it is admitted on all sides that there were irregularities in the counting of the votes. Whether one candidate or the other is to share in a result of these irregularities is a question that could be settled only by a recount.

Don't Question Old Soldiers.

It was announced that the Idaho men interested in the Old Soldiers' Home precinct here in Clagstone county on the claim that the old soldiers at the home have no residences here and that it is not a legal precinct. Stockmaster, it seems, so held at one time in an opinion from the bench. This precinct gave Halnes 71 more votes than it is entitled to, as reported by Clagstone leaders. They assert that they will not question the right of the voters to vote, even if they could secure the nomination by so doing. At this writing it seems reasonably certain, however, that a contest will be instituted. Attorney J. M. Thompson of Caldwell, an ardent Roosevelt man, is taking an active part in the preliminary work. It is stated that he will mean a complete recount in every county in the state, because John M. Halnes has not started it. This report is denied by Clagstone leaders. They assert that they will not question the right of the voters to vote, even if they could secure the nomination by so doing. BIG MEETING CALLED Representatives of Commercial Bodies to Invade Boise in Force Next Month.

Boise, Aug. 21.—For the purpose of doing some whereby the state of Idaho may profit from the commerce that is expected to pass through the state in 1915, during the expatriation in California, what will probably be the greatest gathering of persons prominently connected with the development of the west will assemble at Boise for a two-day convention September 16 and 17.

At this mammoth meeting, representatives of every commercial club in the state, mayors, county commissioners, the heads of the big industrial enterprises and state officials will be present, each to contribute his ideas as to the most effective method of inducing the thousands of tourists and transients to settle in Idaho.

Heavy Attendance Expected. The meeting was called by Governor Hawley on behalf of the state of Idaho, the officers of the League of Southern Idaho, Commercial clubs and the Idaho-Washington Development League, and from the number of favorable responses received the convention will be largely attended.

One of the important subjects to be disposed of at the convention is the character and location of the new building at the Panama-Pacific exposition. The site for the building has already been selected by the committee headed by Governor Hawley and it is said to be one of the best in the exposition enclosure.

It is expected that Senators Bland and Hiram and Congressman Burton L. French will participate in the convention. Plans for unusual entertainment of the visitors are being made and nothing will be left undone in the way of making the meeting enjoyable.

EAST IS INTERESTED

G. E. Booth Says People Unanimous in Their Belief That Business Will Improve After Elections.

"No matter who is elected president, business conditions are bound to improve after the election," said G. E. Booth, president of the Booth Cattle company, who returned this week from an extended business trip to New York and Chicago. "Eastern business men are not so much no longer afraid of the tariff. They believe that it has reached a point where further changes would have little effect on business generally, and all they ask is that the country's dollar be kept strong and steady. Money is not running down their stocks for the past year or two and they have now reached the point where buying is a very profitable investment."

Mr. Booth talked to some of the biggest business men in the east and his impressions are largely the result of these conversations. He concluded with his own investigation.

He says people are taking a lively interest in the election and are comparing with the total primary vote cast by both parties. Thirty-nine votes were thrown out by the judges on account of mutilation. A majority should be over 600.

BRIDGES TURNED DOWN

Vote by Precinct Shows Where Main Opposition Lay—Proposition to Be Tried Again.

The proposed bonds for bridges across Rock Creek voted on at the time of the primary election, failed to carry by about 100 votes. A two-thirds majority of the vote cast necessary for the issuance of bonds for county improvements. The vote on the question of bonds was light compared with the total primary vote cast by both parties. Thirty-nine votes were thrown out by the judges on account of mutilation. A majority should be over 600.

APPROVES OF JARBIDGE

C. H. Burton and Party Make Glowing Report of Camp as Mining Center and Hunter's Paradise.

Declaring that the camp at Jarbridge was a revelation in the matter of general activity and the amount of work going on, Charles H. Burton returned last week from a two weeks' stay at Jarbridge. He has had the time of his life in the way of prairie chickens and trout fishing. Mr. Burton was accompanied by Zenas Smith of Smith and Smith, candy manufacturers, and Dick Strubridge.

The party visited the Success property, and Mr. Burton, himself an operator, was deeply impressed with the prospects on the property. This company is now driving three tunnels and the showings indicated in all three lead to the belief that the mine will eventually become one of the big producers of the country. The values contained in the new showings are so large, but the richer rock is found in sufficient quantity to warrant a magnificent property which will be good for generations.

All Mines Look Good. The other mines in the vicinity also look good and it is estimated by Mr. Burton that nearly 500 men are at work in the various mines and general mining in the hills. Business here is going on, contrary to the general impression, and a spirit of confidence appears to pervade the entire district.

As a vacation place Mr. Burton recommends Jarbridge and vicinity as being here an absolute show and any other place in this part of the country. Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Spillberg and family and Sunday Tour Christy, Idaho, Wyoming, to make their home here, and are residing at the Tandy place near Jarbridge. The Spillbergs are with the Ferguson Fruit and Land company.

IDAHO THE PREMIER STATE FOR POTATOES

That Idaho is destined to become the premier potato raising state of the west is evidenced by the rapidly increasing crop from year to year. The crop of Idaho that will be raised this year is already being figured on, and is estimated as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Region and Quantity. Includes Twin Falls region (2,200), Teton valley (600), Snake river region (200), and Other territory (200).

RAILROAD OFFICIALS VISIT THIS SECTION

Judge Lovett, Head of Harriman Line, Likes Twin Falls.

Tour of Inspection Taken in Hollister and Oakley Branches, and Bliss Report Cautious.

On a general tour of inspection of the entire Harriman system, Judge Lovett, head of the system, E. C. Anderson, general superintendent of the Short Line, Paul Kunkelbacher, assistant to the general manager of the same road, and Carl Stridling, judge of appeals, spent the better part of two days in this section the early part of the week.

The officials went over the line to Hollister, visited Oakley and took the new Bliss-Rogers line. I. B. Fortino accompanied the party on its travels over this branch. Those in a position to know say that the visit bears no special significance in connection with the proposed program of railroad development in this section, but is merely a part of the general tour of the system commenced some time ago by Judge Lovett in the interests of the Harriman roads.

AUTO EXCURSION TO WELLS, NEVADA, PROMISES TO BE AN ENJOYABLE TRIP

The proposed excursion to Wells, Nevada, over the route of the new Western Pacific line to be built from here to a more than usually interesting trip.

Arrangements are now being made and it is expected that all the automobiles necessary will be secured in time for the excursion. It is expected that the excursion will follow the route of the new line, taking the same trip as that of Messrs. McCollum and Alken, and will provide a splendid opportunity to study the geology of the country and gain a practical idea of just what the new line and the territory it traverses amounts to.

It is expected that the start will be made at an early hour Friday and the party will return to Twin Falls, Saturday morning. It is expected that the outing should prove of good enjoyment to all who decide to make the trip.

LOGGERS ARE DOING WELLING TO MAKE RACE

TWIN FALLS THIRD PARTY CANDIDATES SAY THEY ACCEPT NOMINATIONS.

Hutto Unqualifiedly, Boyd Says Quite Likely—Both Men Well Pleas'd With Progress of Movement Over the State.

F. A. Hutto of Twin Falls, nominee of the third party for the office of attorney general, yesterday stated that he would accept the nomination and get ready to make the run. Dr. T. O. Boyd, nominated for state auditor, also stated that in all probability he would be a candidate in November.

Both men express themselves as well-satisfied with the growth of the third party movement over the state, the proposition to place a third ticket on the field in the fall was endorsed unanimously at the meeting of the executive committee Monday in Boise.

For governor—H. Harland of Payette. For lieutenant governor—Dr. T. W. Boyd of Twin Falls. For secretary of state—Alex Vancot. For state treasurer—Leander Peterson. For attorney general—F. A. Hutto of Twin Falls. For state auditor—L. Vancot. For state treasurer—Leander Peterson. For attorney general—F. A. Hutto of Twin Falls. For state auditor—L. Vancot.

It is understood to be the intention of the party to file in the blanks in the ticket at an early date and present a full state ticket for the consideration of the voters this fall. A good deal of discussion is said to have accompanied the selection of candidates, in which C. D. Brown, manager of the party, was particularly active. A prominent part and indeed acted as a sort of advisory board to the committee.

There is a good deal more local interest in the question of a third party county ticket than in the state ticket, and the question of the party will be open one. Many prominent members of the Bull Moose party profess to be highly in favor of the party to begin start of the movement to be presented in a full ticket in every county in the state, but there are others close to the question in the county who do not seem pleased with such a prospect. As far as can be learned no Bull Moose man of any consequence in this county professes to believe that a third party ticket could be elected here, and most of them are satisfied that the one sure result would be to elect a full ticket of Democrats and probably defeat Borah for re-election to the senate.

TRouble Getting Together.

The proposition to have all the present Republican candidates in the county endorse the third party platform and then receive the endorsement of the third party is being discussed in the county quarters, but there are some dissenters to this plan and a number of the candidates themselves are said to be against it.

It is expected that the proposition to the acceptance by the third party of any candidate who has already been nominated by the party is being discussed in the county quarters, but there are some dissenters to this plan and a number of the candidates themselves are said to be against it.

THE THIRD TICKET IN IDAHO

In the Progressive party a party for the promulgation of progressive policies or progressive offices?

With the announcement of the state ticket a good many are asking themselves the question.

In the judgment of The News the only possible question in the whole progressive movement at this time centers around the office of president. That there is a heavy demand for a third national party can not be denied, and as a result a ticket of third party national electors should be submitted to the people of Idaho at the November elections. But right there the third party program ends.

There is no demand for its entry into state or county, although this may come two or four years from now. There is no excuse for the existence of third party activity in state or county politics, and the best way in the world to discourage a third party vote on an electoral ticket, here is to go just one step further and name a third party ticket in Twin Falls county.

THE STRENUOUS LIFE

The danger to citizens from reckless, rowdy, devil-may-care dogs is daily becoming more prevalent. It is not that the dogs are inherently vicious, nor that they have criminal tendencies. They have simply become blind to the rights of others, and go dashing up and down the streets and alleyways in their wild, foolish abandon, without regard to the safety of the pedestrians. Also, they have no regard for property rights and think nothing whatever of causing damage to windows, go carts, step-ladders and other chattels, as the auction bills say, too numerous to mention.

Already one leading business man is hobbling around on crutches as the result of a violent encounter with a canine on pleasure bent. Another instance of the tenacity of the dogs is the destruction of a brand new plate glass window, which was being carried by some workmen of place in the front of the office occupied by Swin and Aldrich on Main street. A pair of dogs, evidently playing at some canine game, without even a yelp for a warning, rushed headlong into the plate glass, smashing it into many pieces.

A short time ago one of the same gang of roystering dogs broke a plate glass on Main avenue east, causing several dollars damage.

There is very little to be said on behalf of a dog that forgets his duty to society, and exceeds the speed limit on the highways and streets in a flimsy attempt to have a little fun. No one would deny to a dog his right to have a little innocent amusement now and then, but the present list of casualties indicates that the average Twin Falls dog is of the rough-house variety and should be kindly but firmly given to understand that such practices are not in accordance with the usages of polite society—dog or any other kind.

QUESTIONABLE POLITICS

The rumors of third party tickets in the state and county involve the names of certain erstwhile candidates who were defeated for nomination on the regular Republican ticket. Paul Clagstone, who lost the nomination for governor by a scratch has shown his caliber as a man by declining to run on the Bull Moose ticket, and other candidates have shown the same spirit as good losers.

The man in the worst position possible to accept a nomination on the third party ticket is the man who tried for the nomination under the regular Republican emblem and failed to land. His motives in now trying to crawl back into the game, after an eleven hour conversion and political purification, are thin as a sailor's fish net. The value of his services to any honest party is away below par.

WHAT MAY BE EXPECTED

The executive veto of the bill providing short terms of service for civil service employees calls for approval from all citizens who are opposed to the spoils system. The work of the Democratic House of Representatives in attempting to rehabilitate a system so pernicious, expensive and unbusinesslike serves to discredit their claims for further power in other branches of the government. The present civil service plan is the result of many years of work on the part of men who believed that the government should demand efficiency of service and that the executive departments should be free from political influence.

The plan of the Democrats was thwarted by the president's veto, but the action of the House shows what the country may expect if the government is given over to Democratic rule.

THE BRIDGE BONDS

Contrary to the general belief, the bridge bonds failed to carry. An investigation of the vote by precincts shows very clearly just where the opposition lay, and the reason for this opposition is equally obvious.

It is understood that the question will be again submitted to a vote with a sufficient amount added to provide for approaches to the Clear Lake bridge. This should remove the opposition, and had such a step been taken in the first place there would likely have been no necessity for this second election.

AS TO MARKETING

A local authority on crop production and foreign markets states that it would be well for farmers to watch the markets closely this season and not make the mistake of holding too long for high prices. A steady and judicious selling from the start is apt to give better financial returns than might result from holding indefinitely to the product.

THE ST. ANTHONY SCANDAL

When it is recognized as a sound principle that one evil can not be corrected by the commission of another wrong, few people in the state would mourn if Justice took her blindfold and flayed with the scottish thongs of stern retaliation the bare back of the man who used a harness tug on the helpless inmates of the industrial school at St. Anthony.

A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY

The proposed automobile excursion to Wells, Nevada, promises to provide a splendid opportunity to see the country adjoining the route of the proposed branch of the Western Pacific from this city to Wells.

Twin Falls residents are interested in the promised development and the trip should prove well worth taking.

PROGRESSIVISM; WHAT IT IS

Sketch of State and National Issues Covered in the Third Party Program

Editor Twin Falls News:

I have many inquiries as to just what the Progressive party stands for in the state and in the nation. With your kindness I desire to give to the people of this county especially just what the Progressive party means, and it is briefly this:

National Issues

1. Direct primaries.
2. Statewide presidential preference primaries.
3. Direct election of the United States senators.
4. The secret ballot and the initiative, referendum and recall in the state.
5. Equal suffrage for men and women.
6. Laws requiring the registration of lobbyists, publicity of committee hearings and recalling of all votes in committee.
7. Prohibiting federal appointees from taking part in political organizations.
8. The prohibition of injunctions and labor disputes when such injunctions would not apply if no labor dispute existed.
9. Prohibition of child labor.
10. The general prohibition of night work by women and the establishment of an eight-hour day for women and young persons and the eight-hour day for young men twenty-four hours in length.
11. The abolition of the convict contract labor system and the application of minimum earnings to the support of their dependent families.
12. Protection of home life against the hazards of sickness, irregular employment and old age, through social insurance adapted to American use.
13. The establishment of industrial research laboratories, of the department of labor, a country life commission and the encouragement of agricultural education.
14. The development of agricultural credit, and co-operation.
15. Full and immediate inquiry into the highest cost of living and immediate action to break the transportation monopoly, with every need disclosed thereby.
16. A national health service.
17. Strong federal administrative commission to maintain permanent, active supervision over industrial corporations, as the government now does over national banks, and the interstate commerce commission over railroads.
18. The strengthening of the Sherman law by specific prohibitions.
19. The enactment of a return law to prevent the suppression or the misjudgment of patents in the interest of injurious monopolies.
20. Physical valuation of railroad property of the interstate commerce commission and the abolition of the commerce court.
21. The retention of forest, coal and oil lands, water and other natural resources in the ownership of the nation, and the construction of the national highways.
22. The operation of the Panama canal to break the transportation monopolies now held and controlled by transcontinental railroads.
23. The amendment to downward revision of the tariff; a national anti-trust commission; and a progressive tariff which shall equalize conditions of competition between the United States and foreign countries but for the farmer and the manufacturer and minimum for labor an adequate standard for living.

24. An income and graduated inheritance tax.
25. A wise and just policy of pensioning American soldiers and sailors.
27. The rigid enforcement and extension of the pure food act.
28. Governmental supervision for the protection of the public from fraudulent stock issues, and watered stock.

State Issues

1. The state Progressive endorse the above and an action for the state of Idaho submit the following:
2. A stringent corrupt practice act modeled on the Wisconsin plan.
3. For a public utilities commission, with power to ascertain physical valuation, examine, control, regulate, render, and full publicity concerning the same.
31. For a fair and liberal workmen's compensation act, for injuries received, and requiring employers of labor to safeguard their workmen against dangerous places and machines.
32. For the exemption from taxation of improvements on real estate.
33. For the valuation of mines for taxable purposes at their actual cash value as other property is valued.
34. For the placing of all patents in public hands, under the management of one board.
35. For the placing of all educational institutions under the management of one board.

The above principles, of course in all cases are elaborated in detail, for handy reference to determine during the approaching campaign what is meant by Progressive the above declarations contain their articles of faith.

Respectfully submitted,

F. A. HUTTO,

Chairman County Central Committee, Twin Falls, August 20.

RECOUNT OF VOTES

Clagstone seems to have dashed the hopes of the third termers. He was counted on to lead the movement against the spoils system. After the result of the primary became known he announced through the dispatches that he would not be a candidate on the ticket. This announcement caused surprise for the reason that Clagstone has always maintained that all anti-Roosevelt Progressives, who will vote for Roosevelt first, last and all the time. He justified his assertion by the fact that he was asserting the legal candidate of the Republican party and that Roosevelt is the real party leader.

Up to the People.

This question in party ethics is much too deep for the writer to solve

It is respectfully returned to the readers of The News.

The fact that Clagstone has refused to run for governor on the third term ticket, that McEynolds has refused to run for treasurer, that Dempster has refused to run for lieutenant governor, and that McGracken has refused to run for congress seems to put the ground completely from under the Roosevelt leaders. All of the men named were ardent workers for Roosevelt in the present campaign, but two of them since, have declared for President Taft.

It is taken for granted here that Senator Borah is using his influence against the placing of a third ticket in the field. It is felt on all sides that it would be much against the senator's interest if it did not in fact endanger his seat in the senate.

Opposition to Primary Law

Opposition to the direct primary law exists at present confined to the state capital in Twin Falls. It is charged that the Democrats voted in large numbers in the Republican primaries in every county in the state, and that they did this for the specific purpose of embarrassing the Republicans as much as possible.

So far as the nomination for governor goes, however, the Democrats failed to carry their scheme. In some sections of the state they voted for Roosevelt, and in practically all sections they voted for Clagstone feeling that he would be the weakest of the three candidates. Hence, on the other hand, he is free from the suspicion of Democratic support. He made his right to stand together with an appeal on the strength of his record as a business man, and the feeling in Twin Falls here that the Democrats did all in their power to defeat him by the nomination of Mr. Morrison—or Clagstone, feeling that Haines would be the hardest of the three to beat.

Hard on the Democrats

There is an urgent demand for the enactment of a provision of the primary law similar to that voted by Governor Hawley at the close of the last session of the legislature. This compelled every voter to declare his party allegiance at the primary and vote either a Republican or a Democratic ballot as suited him best. Democrats fought this at the time on the ground that if voters were compelled to announce their political affiliations many would be placed at the mercy of the corporations for whom they worked and would lose their jobs if they voted the Democratic ticket. It was mainly on this ground that Governor Hawley vetoed the provision.

The Democrats, after receiving advice and counsel from Judge William B. King of Portland, member of the Democratic executive committee, have practically decided to divide up the issue and responsibility hereafter placed on their state chairman. The scheme now is to have a chairman located in Boise, a vice chairman from the southeast and a vice chairman from the north. To these will be added two other high councillors, and this board will run the affairs of the party.

It is understood that the vice president from the southeast is to confine his activities to his own section of the state and the man from the north is to do likewise. A unanimous vote of the five will be necessary to establish a party policy or to alter other important items. All factions of the party are to be represented on the board.

By this means it is hoped to stamp out the warfare between the friends of Chairman Nugent on the one side and the friends of Governor Hawley on the other. It is felt that this will move inside and far-reaching than the general public imagines.

COW MAKES RECORD
Hansen Man Owner of Animal That Yields on an Average 70 Pounds of Milk per Day.

Mr. W. D. Griffith of Hanson has purchased a Jersey and Durham cow from S. S. Nohr that has a record as a producer of milk that will at the most equal that of the higher bred and registered stock.

Mr. Nohr brought the cow here from the Blackfoot country about five years ago, and since that time she has won over $40 in cash prizes in butter-fat competition. A record of 4 1/2 per cent butter fat, equal to 25 pounds of butter in seven days, is shown by a test made by the officials at Moscow university. Her average yield of milk per day is about 70 pounds. If she were a blue-blood and registered her value would be greatly increased, but notwithstanding these drawbacks she has an enviable record and is a money-producer of the first water.

THE VISIT TO NAZARETH.

Luke 4: 16-30.

16. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.

17. And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written.

18. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.

19. To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20. And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and he sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21. And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22. And all bear him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

23. And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do thou here also.

24. And he said, Verily I say unto you, no prophet is accepted in his own country.

25. But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up six years, and six months, and it rained not upon Israel in that time: and Elias was sent unto them, and he healed them of their widow's.

26. But unto none of them was Elias sent, except unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27. And many widows were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed, save Naaman the Syrian.

28. And it came to pass in the synagogue, when they heard these things, they were filled with wrath.

29. And rose up, and thrust him out of the synagogue, and said unto him, We will have thee here again, that thou mayest blaspheme: and because we can endure thee no longer, we have cast thee out hence, for that thou sayest these things.

30. And he passed through the midst of them, and went his way.

Golden Text: "He came into his own, and his own received him not."—John 1: 11.

Introductory.

Only Luke gives us the account of this visit to Nazareth. It seems to have been some thirty after his removal of his family from Nazareth to Capernaum. The removal was probably due to the lack of appreciation shown him by the people among whom he grew up and who looked upon him as a matter of course. They had failed to take into account anything else than that he was a good boy of the human parents, his mother and his wise and conspicuous, his reputed father, Joseph, probably dead, and his mother, a poor maid of age; his sisters, who were not mentioned, but whom he had been away from Nazareth for some time, and the fame of his grandfather, so that he was sought by people of many different nations. What do they think of him here in Nazareth? Have they heard about him enough to give them increased interest in him?

Expository.

16. It was a Sabbath day, and he could not keep away from the synagogue. He had now reached an age of more than thirty, and therefore had a right to exercise the functions of a man.

17. The Jews had divided the Scriptures up into short sections, and it was customary to read one or more of these during the hour of worship; usually two—one from the Law and another from the Prophets. It is certain that the passage in Isaiah was "the lesson" for that day, as some would tell us. It is said that "he read the place" that is, he looked for it until he found it. It was not an accident. He chose to read that particular passage.

18. The prophet spoke as though it had been himself, who was prompted to do the things mentioned. But it is evident that the passage was, as it is, Messianic, one of the most delightful prophecies of Messiah. The reading was Isaiah 61. The translation of the prophet is in the following English: "In almost the same words. What is true that Christ, the religion which Jesus taught, does wonder-fully and fully for the benefit of all humanity, and is the greatest alleviator of human suffering, yet we must believe that Jesus had reference to spiritual bondage, spiritual captivity, spiritual brokenheartedness, spiritual blindness, the spiritually blinded, the spiritually ignorant, the spiritually ignorant, there would be no such suffering as is here depicted. It is what should be peaceful and happy. It is in what causes the distress of the three hundred and thirty."—The Bible.

19. "The acceptable year of the Lord" is this year—now. He is always ready, willing to be gracious, and will do what he has promised, if we will have it so.

20. The "minister" was the custodian of the "books," or rolls of parchment, and it was his duty to read the written word. No wonder the eyes of the people were fastened on him. They knew who he was; that is, who his mother and his reputed father, who were his brothers and sisters. But they did not know Jesus. His mother-in-law, his reputed father, his brothers and sisters, they waited for him to speak.

21. To their amazement, he began to read that which the prophet had said, which they had been accustomed to as being fulfilled only when Messiah should come, was now fulfilled. He was not opening prison doors, nor preaching deliverance to men in captivity, and yet he was fulfilling the prophecy, "It was the spiritual man of which he was speaking."

22. They did not understand him, but they were glad for the kindness manifested. His words (and he probably spoke others besides those here recorded) were full of kindness. They wondered the more because they were not expecting such things from him. They called him Joseph's son. They knew, or had known, Joseph, but they did not know Messiah.

23. Now he puts them in a sort of test. They naturally thought that he had come to Nazareth to do some things as they had heard of his doings in Capernaum and other places.

24. But he was aware that they did not know him, but because they thought of him only as Joseph's son. It was as true then as it often is today, that a man's reputation often tells us more than his own words. And now he speaks words which are not so gracious. He tells them what they do not want to hear, but they are not so gracious. He tells them what they do not want to hear, but they are not so gracious. He tells them what they do not want to hear, but they are not so gracious.

25. And here was another case: Naaman, a Syrian, who had been healed of his leprosy, while many Jews in Israel were allowed to die in misery. "That did not kill him," it is said, "but he did not die." He was healed of his leprosy, while many Jews in Israel were allowed to die in misery.

26. But unto none of them was Elias sent, except unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27. And many widows were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed, save Naaman the Syrian.

28. And it came to pass in the synagogue, when they heard these things, they were filled with wrath.

29. And rose up, and thrust him out of the synagogue, and said unto him, We will have thee here again, that thou mayest blaspheme: and because we can endure thee no longer, we have cast thee out hence, for that thou sayest these things.

30. And he passed through the midst of them, and went his way.

I had severe pains in my back and sides and the secretions from my kidneys were unnatural and irregular in passage. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and I began using them. EASY FOR MORTENSON TO DOWN HIS MAN

TWIN FALLS WRESTLER HAS IT ALL HIS OWN WAY.

Match With Julius Trueb at Soldier is Pronounced Feature of Settlers' Celebration and Everybody Well Pleased With the Exhibition.

S. Mortenson (Young Grillo), the Twin Falls wrestling star, found everything to his liking in his match with Julius Trueb at Soldier on the 11th. Trueb had over 10 pounds advantage in weight, but was entirely overcome by the tactics of Mortenson. Mortenson secured the first fall in 30 minutes, after giving the crowd some exhibitions in various holds and clinches. According to some of the spectators, Mortenson evidently could have finished his man in his first match. The second fall came to Mortenson after 10 minutes of work. The bout proved one of the big attractions at the annual settlers' celebration at Soldier. Mortenson is a proponent of Mike York, the famous Cleveland wrestler, and has met some of the best men in the country at his weight. He has issued a challenge to any middleweight in the west, and his friends back up his claim to handle anything in that line.

Weddings

BIG-FREDRICK. At the study of the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning Rev. J. M. Anderson united in marriage Lewis A. Bigg and Miss Alma Linstrom, both of Bull. The young couple were accompanied by a few of their friends from the West end, and after the marriage was consummated the party spent the day at Shoshone falls.

Sims-Fredricks. Last Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister on the North Side, Miss Dorothy Fredricka Jerome was united in marriage to Harold M. Sims of Grandville, Idaho, local pastor of the Harley Davidson motor club. Father Sullivan of the St. Edw. Catholic church of Twin Falls performed the ceremony. Mrs. Sims was formerly a resident of this city, leaving here for Jerome city in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. Sims are at present proving up on their ranch near Hollister, but will make their permanent home at Grandville.

Amusements

An excellent collection of picture plays will be at the Isis tomorrow and Saturday evenings. A Temporary Truce is a western story of strong action, good settings and a most interesting plot. One of the most characteristic Indian stories that are presented at the Isis for some time is "An Indian Bride." This is one of Pathe's pictures and is original in its theme. A Vitagraph play, "The Alarm," is one of those plays where the action is so quick and clear that it is impossible to keep from seeing the point. A thrilling story is told in "From Fireman to Engineer." A brave rescue is the climax.

On Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week a film showing an original and interesting idea—namely, a detective service in connection with a telephone wire in Paris. This is a Vitagraph play and can not fail to be interesting. Two comedies, "Eggs in a Basket" and "Little Fies" will show at the Educational theatre. Catching Crocodiles, cannot fail to interest all, as this is a picture which was taken at great peril and shows the crocodiles at home in Florida. "Target Practice of the Atlantic Fleet" is very instructive and is an excellent picture, as it is one of Edison's. The drama for these evenings is "The Organ Grinder," a pathetic and pleasing story. The attraction for Wednesday and Thursday evenings is a Vitagraph play, "French Spy," in which a young girl in the French army while in Africa is taken as a spy. The acting and costumes are excellent, and the plot—one which is deep and interesting. The Pathe Weekly has some good features for next week.

Lyric. "Novads" will be presented at the Lyric this evening by a talented company. Rehearsals have been held continuously during the past two weeks and the entertainment promises to equal any heretofore given in Twin Falls. All funds obtained from the performance will be presented to an actress who is stranded in this city. Tickets are on sale at the Skeels-Wilcox drug store, and they will be reserved without extra charge.

TO ELECT CHAIRMAN. (Continued from Page 1.) expect the rank and file to support the entire ticket for county officers. The rumor of a third party ticket in the county appears to cause the Republicans but little worry. They believe that the voters will not be led astray by any such plan, as there is no third party principle represented in the selection of county officers. A great many of the Roosevelt adherents, who will vote for Roosevelt, are strongly opposed to a third party county ticket, believing that such a move would only serve to discredit them in the eyes of the voters. Furthermore, it is known that the third party adherents who are anxious to put a county ticket in the field are experiencing difficulty in procuring candidates for the county offices, and so far they reported that with one exception they have met with failure.

Democrat Bull Mooers. THREE FIRMS TO MOVE

City-Marketing-House to Occupy Old Stalker Location—Rush Work on New Block.

A number of changes will take place in the business section on the completion of the foot block on Shoshone street on or before November 1st, at which time the City Pharmacy will move into the new building, and the present quarters in the Boyd block will be taken by the Stalker-Young Clothing company. The City Marketing House has leased the room in the McDonald building where the Stalker Clothing company is now located, and all three firms will move on November 1st. It was formerly thought that the move would be made by September 16, but failure of some of the material to arrive, which is needed in completing the Kirk Foot building, has caused the date to be advanced.

To Remodel Building. Remodeling of the front of the store room, where the Stalker Clothing company is now, will begin soon. A central entrance will be made, and attractive show-windows put in. Plans for changes in the Boyd block room are being made, and the clothing company intends to make connections with the steam plant at the Twin Falls Bank and Trust building in order to heat the building. The windows will be changed and elaborate clothing fixtures placed within. The foot block will have a plate glass front and one window on the side, giving excellent display room. The second story of the building will be finished for office rooms.
