

FIFTY CARS OF POTATOES FOR EASTERN USE

CHICAGO MAN CLOSES BIG DEAL FOR TWIN FALLS' FAMOUS SPUDS.

Morrill Contracts for Heavy Shipment for Use in Big Hotels and Dining Car Service Throughout the Country.

Between 40 and 50 cars of potatoes will be taken from the tract for use in the hotels of the big eastern cities and dining-car service between Chicago and New York as a result of a deal closed early this week with the Potato Growers' association and R. Morrill of Chicago. The best of potatoes will be selected and a high price will be paid on delivery. An expenditure of about $10,000 will be made in Twin Falls in filling the large order.

Through a deal closed last Tuesday morning between Mr. Cole, manager of the Twin Falls Potato Growers' association, and R. Morrill, representing a number of big Chicago produce dealers, one of the best advertisements for the tract throughout the country was started. Twin Falls potatoes will have a reputation established far and wide. It is the biggest single contract for produce of the tract ever yet negotiated and its importance cannot be overestimated.

For the purpose of carrying the order by entirely of the eastern produce dealers organized under the name of R. Morrill and company under Mr. Morrill's direction. Mr. Morrill is in the city and will remain here until the order has been filled and sent east. It will require from one to two months' time to fill the order. The potatoes to be selected will be of the best quality and will be served in the leading eastern hotels and dining cars as "Twin Falls potatoes."

Only Best Quality. The potatoes to be selected for this order will be entirely of the white variety, including the Russets, Asa, Carmana and Halethas, as well as other white varieties which may be placed on the tract. The potatoes must be of best quality, smooth and free from roughness and all blemish, and not mixed. Each will be wrapped and boxed in the manner of fruit packing. A minimum weight of three quarters of a pound has been placed on any single potato, while no limit has been placed on the maximum weight. A price of 15 to 20 cents per hundred weight above the growers' association market price, P. O. U. R. Falls, will be paid, cash on delivery.

A Fruit and Potato Grower. Mr. Morrill is president of the largest orchard company in the world, located in Cherokee county, Texas. He is also an extensive potato grower in his native state of Florida. He is also interested in business in Michigan and Chicago as well as in Texas. He states that he has secured elsewhere at a lower price, but he believes the Twin Falls brand can be relied on to bring satisfaction at a price that is well pleased with the Twin Falls county and that it is one of the best potato producers.

Packers Are Needed.

Mr. Morrill states that there will be employment for 25 or 30 men and women in packing, to begin with, and that the packing will commence next Monday morning at the steel warehouse adjacent to the Sterling creamery. He asks that all persons who are so engaged, make application either at the Potato Growers' headquarters in the Bank and Trust building at 11 a. m. or at the warehouse on Saturday morning and Monday.

STREETS BEING DRAGGED.

Commissioner Spencer Placing The Streets in Shape.

Beginning with Monday morning a force of men under the direction of Street Commissioner Spencer began dragging the streets which were rendered rough by the heavy traffic following the several days rain. The thorough cleaning and grading the streets will place them in good condition until the rainy weather sets in along later in the winter.

BRASS-BAND OUT FOR REPUBLICANS

SPLENDID RECEPTION ACCORDED SPEAKERS AT TOWN OF BUHL.

Congressman French Makes Strong Appeal—Judge Shields and H. C. Hazel on Local Issues.

The Republicans opened their campaign in the west end of the county Friday night at Buhl, with a splendid address by Hon. Burton L. French, candidate for re-election to congress, which was well received by a good audience. The Republican county candidates attended the meeting, as did other Republicans from Twin Falls. Chas. H. McQueen, precinct committee man for Buhl, introduced Attorney Booth of Twin Falls, who acted as chairman for the evening in the absence of County Chairman Eldridge, who was prevented from attending by a business engagement. The meeting was in all respects a triumph; at fair. The Buhl brass band furnished music as a preliminary to the meeting. The following program was given at the evening: Mr. French short speeches were made by C. A. Robinson, candidate for state senator; H. C. Hazel, for prosecuting attorney, and J. W. Shields for probate judge. Mr. Robinson in a brief talk outlined the necessity for the re-election of Senator French. He denounced the failure of the Democrats to give the people of the state an opportunity to avail themselves of the primary law, in not placing upon their primary ballot the names of the candidates for the United States senate. Mr. Robinson called upon the Democratic candidates for the legislature to tell the people for whom they would cast their vote for United States senator in the event of Democratic victory. Mr. Robinson said: "If elected will the Democratic candidates for the legislature vote for the well-known attorney for Nugent, that political schemer and Democratic reactionary? Will they vote for Buhl, who received together with Champ Clark, such a vigorous denunciation as big interest men at the hands of Bryan? Will they vote for Sawyer, who is evidently running for two offices and is evidently making his tax-dickering methods? Or will they vote, as a final result of a compromise, for some fool of the Democratic machine who is evidently to know and whom none of you want?" Mr. Robinson's reference to the achievements of Senator Booth was received with ready applause.

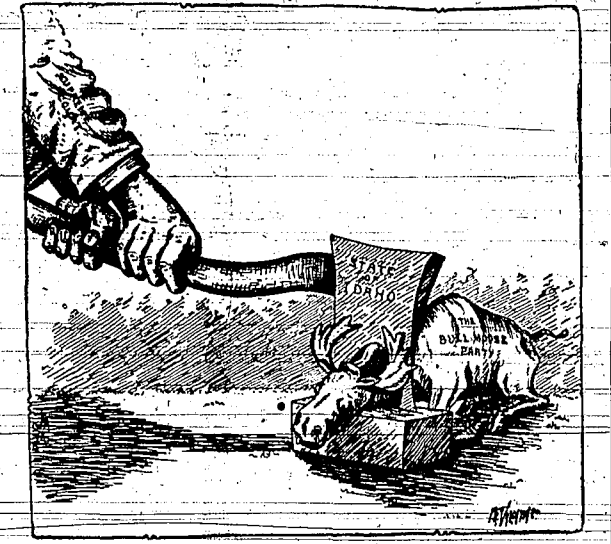

Talk on Juvenile Court.

Following Mr. Robinson, H. C. Hazel, prosecuting attorney, made a talk and suggestions with reference to the juvenile work of the probate court, pointing out in excellent style the importance of a more judicious control of the department and the necessity for co-operation in that work between the probate judge and the prosecuting attorney. Judge Shields commended the work of Judge Shields in juvenile matters, promised vigorous enforcement of the laws if elected, and convinced his audience of the interest in the moral welfare of the county.

Judge Shields in behalf of his candidate for re-election as probate judge congratulated the people of Buhl upon their numerous resources of the community; one of the chiefest of which he said was the Buhl Herald. Referring to a recent article in the paper, containing a criticism of Judge Shields' administration, he presented for the consideration of his audience the official report of County Clerk French, showing the condition of the probate judge's office, which completely contradicted the insinuation made by the Buhl paper. The report referred to by Judge Shields bears the signature and seal of the county clerk and recorder, summarizing the statement of the accounts of the judge's office and stating that Twin Falls county was indebted to Judge Shields for $1,000.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT SHOT BY CRANK DECISION TO PLAY AN IMPORTANT PART

PROGRESSIVE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE VICTIM OF BULLET-DELIERS SPEECH AFTER BEING SHOT AND IS NOW RESTING EASILY—WOUND NOT BELIEVED DANGEROUS.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who was shot by John Schrank at Milwaukee Monday evening, is resting easily in the hospital here. While the wound is serious, it is believed by the attending physicians not to be dangerous unless complications should set in. While in bed, the Colonel occupies the time reading messages of sympathy and dissenting answers. "It will perhaps be several days before any effort will be made to extract the bullet.

Hilwaukee, Wis., Oct. 14.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was shot and wounded here tonight as he was leaving the Gilpatrick hotel for the College to make a speech. He had just entered an automobile when John Schrank, who is believed to be mentally unbalanced, stepped toward the car and fired at the Colonel, the bullet lodging in the right breast.

Mr. Roosevelt proceeded to the hall and delivered his speech. Schrank was seized by Albert E. Martin, the Colonel's secretary, who held him until the arrival of the police.

After delivering his speech, Colonel Roosevelt took the train to Chicago and entered the Presbyterian hospital on West Congress street, where X-ray examinations were made of the location of the bullet.

The wound shot to be serious and is experiencing but little pain. It will be some time before he can resume speaking engagements. Members of his family are on their way to his bedside. The Colonel is able to walk to and from his bed to the X-ray rooms.

Following his removal to the hospital, John Schrank was placed under a charge of shooting with attempt to kill. His bond was fixed at $7,000, the amount of the charge. He was unable to give bond and was assigned to a cell. His trial will not be held until some time in November.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Colonel Roosevelt is receiving messages from the leaders and candidates of the Republican, Democratic and Progressive parties. Exponents of sympathy have been sent him by President Taft and Governor Wilson. His physicians pronounce him a physical marvel and

TO THE VOTERS OF TWIN FALLS COUNTY.

I wish to state to the voters of Twin Falls county that I am not a candidate for assessor. My name was put on the Progressive ticket against my wishes, as it is impossible for me to make the race at this time. Should I be elected am not in a position to qualify. The Progressives and my friends in both the Republican and Democratic parties can best please me by supporting James W. Beauchamp for assessor.

BUSINESS SCHOOL SUSPENDS

Twin Falls College of Business Closes Its Doors—Financial Trouble Is the Cause.

Announcement was made yesterday by Principal Nicholson, of the Twin Falls School of Business, that the institution would no longer continue in business. Financial troubles are understood to be the cause.

The school was opened at one of the business institutions of the city, and the news came as somewhat of a surprise. No intimation is given as to the future, but it is understood that the business will not be reopened for the present, and Mr. Nicholson will devote his time to other lines of work.

The owners of the school were Mr. Nicholson and H. C. Van Tassel of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rawson arrived Sunday from Los Angeles, California, and are spending the week looking over the city and tract.

Senational Move by Progressive Leader Will Shift Backbone of Party—Judge Stewart to Bear the Heaviest Political Burden.

(Special to The News.)

Boise, Oct. 15.—Theodore Roosevelt, looking himself into the Idaho campaign in highly dramatic style in the past week. Incidentally he gave an illustration of what he means by a recall of judicial decisions.

In a broadside in a local paper Sunday morning Colonel Roosevelt poured out his wrath upon the justices of the Idaho supreme court because of their recent decision. He openly charged in so many words that the court defrauded the voters of the state in the interest of criminal corporations, and he calls upon the voters to arise in their majesty and rebuke the court by choosing Roosevelt electors in defiance of the court decision.

This broadside on the Idaho situation is as intemperate as anything Colonel Roosevelt has put forth in his campaign. It was not possible for him to have had the decision of the judges before him when he wrote so that it was impossible for him to base the reasons upon which the court based its decision. The natural assumption is that the colonel got what information he had on the subject from his campaign managers here and fired his broadside without knowledge of the provisions of the Idaho laws or the reasons that guided the supreme court in reaching its decision.

Decision Plays Part.

But, however this may be, it is certain now that this action of the court is to play an important part in the campaign from this time to the end. The supreme court is composed of three Republican judges—George H. Stewart, James F. Allaire and Isaac M. Shumway. These men are all well known and highly respected in the parts of Idaho. Up to this time their decisions have been received with little comment. It was not possible for them to be subject to error like all other men, but their motives have never been brought into question in a matter of importance. All three judges have served long on the bench—Justice Sullivan has been there since Idaho was admitted into the Union.

Of course this sensational move of Roosevelt will have a tendency to stiffen the backbones of his followers. It is probable that some of them are ready for fight before the call to arms is issued. Now they are ready for war to the knife and the knife to the hilt. It is well possible that the masses to vote for the Roosevelt electors by writing in the names of the candidates on the official ballot.

Miss Parker, Entertainer Number of Friends Tuesday Evening.

Miss Lucile Wilson, who leaves soon for her home in Spencer, Iowa, was the honored guest at a party on Tuesday evening given by Miss Blanche Parker. The party was well attended and very attractive. Delicious refreshments were served at midnight. Those present were: The Misses Blanche, Dora, Edna, Stella, Willis, Pearl, Kayle, Fika, Pocket, Trout, Sherman and Parker; Messrs. Woodhead, J. Woodhead, Leonard, Fred, Fred, H. B. Important, Blumington, Friday, Davis, Harry, Webb, Dalton, Beckley, Myers, Pritchard, Newman and Parker.

Even more serious than had been anticipated is the present refrigerator car shortage. Buyers and shippers of produce and farmers of the tract, are face to face with a situation that is alarming. Thousands of dollars have already been lost through a lack of shipping facilities and no estimate can be placed on further losses if immediate remedy is not obtained.

When the car shortage first was felt, a few weeks ago, it was believed that relief would soon be obtained, but the situation has grown worse since such hopes as shippers and farmers are at the point of despair. Many times more produce has been purchased and contracted for than now seems possible of shipment without extensive losses. Potatoes are the chief shipments suffering, as nothing but refrigerator cars can be used at this season for their transportation. Even box cars for hay shipments cannot be secured to load out the amounts now on hand, not mentioning the large quantities contracted for in the near future.

Thousands May Be Lost.

Unless the present shortage is relieved at once the farmers of this tract will lose thousands of dollars, said E. W. Cole, manager of the Potato Growers' association yesterday. "We have many carloads of potatoes waiting for shipment and no cars in sight. Our orders have been filled in the time. The situation is most serious."

"I have 300 carloads of sacked potatoes at the tracks and cannot move them with the cars ready to haul to the track as soon as cars can be secured. If at all," said George D. Aiken. "I don't know what to do unless I go to a heavy expense of building a store-house. If there is a way out of this situation I would like to know what it is."

Much Hay Sold.

In speaking of the large quantities of hay on hand, Robert McCollum and George Sprague stated that farmers have baled large quantities of hay on the strength of the belief that the car shortage would soon be relieved. This hay is now ready for shipment and great loss will be experienced by farmers and shippers if orders, some of long standing, at the market cannot be filled on time.

Glen Mangel, of the Southern Idaho Produce company, stated yesterday: "We have already baled quantities of our order of car-shortage. Many of our orders for potatoes, which should have been delivered some time ago, are still here. We are not sure that we can get cars to do so, says C. L. Delong of the Boyce Commission company. "We are having no difficulty in buying cars, but the railroads will order officials are doing the best they can for us."

Concern on Stewart.
Chief Justice George H. Stewart is likely to suffer a defeat as the result of this decision ruling the Progressive candidate for presidential electors and to Congress of the official ballot. It is believed that the name of Stewart is being written on the ballot. Judge Stewart is unfortunately in a position where the Progressive campaign quick reverse if they are included.

The "Jokers" in the Proposed Initiative Amendment to the Constitution

State Direct Legislation League Exposes Measure as a Fraud and Urges Its Defeat at November Election

Yamnoch as an "idiot" legislation will be one of the first to be taken, it is of great importance to the voters of the state that they have a full understanding of the proposed initiative. At a recent meeting of the State Grange and the State Direct Legislation League it was unanimously decided to oppose the amendment providing for the initiative and to support the amendments providing for the referendum and the executive committee is composed of members belonging to different political parties, counting among them the state chairman of the Progressive committee, the chairman of the Ada county Republican committee and the chairman of the Ada county Democratic committee. The league had adopted resolutions endorsing and recommending the passage of the amendment providing for the referendum and the recall, but condemning the initiative amendment as a subterfuge and directly opposed to the principles of the people's party. The committee recommends that it be defeated. Victor O. Johnson of Shoshone, vice president of the league, has prepared a list of reasons why the initiative amendment should be defeated, some of the reasons being as follows:

Constitutional Amendments.

"At the regular November election there will be submitted to the voters of Idaho for their approval or rejection three amendments to our constitution. Three of these provide for the initiative, referendum and recall. The two amendments providing for the referendum and recall are not wholly satisfactory, but the friends of direct legislation do not deem them so objectionable as to justify defeat. The amendment providing for the initiative is a positive fraud. It is not only useless, but worse than useless. The framers of the amendment apparently acted in the deliberate intent to give the people of the state of Idaho a sham initiative under which no measure could ever be enacted by the people. The measure providing for the initiative makes the operation of the initiative impossible. They provided a system which the experience of many other states shows to be absolutely unworkable.

"This joker will not appear on the printed ballot, and the voter might easily be misled into believing that in voting for the initiative amendment he was aiding the cause of popular government. The 'joker' is found in the provision that the measure submitted by the initiative shall require the approval of a number of votes equal to a majority of the aggregate votes cast at the general election to be adopted.

Provision Destroys Measure.

"The average voter may not be sufficiently conversant with political history to know that this provision absolutely destroys the possibility of effecting any measure by the initiative. There are always many voters who are not sufficiently conversant with political history to know that this provision absolutely destroys the possibility of effecting any measure by the initiative. There are always many voters who are not sufficiently conversant with political history to know that this provision absolutely destroys the possibility of effecting any measure by the initiative. There are always many voters who are not sufficiently conversant with political history to know that this provision absolutely destroys the possibility of effecting any measure by the initiative.

"For instance, at the election in 1910 there were submitted to the voters of Oregon 25 propositions. Three of the measures related to the license or the prohibition of the sale of liquor. As usual there were very sharply contested and the total vote upon the aggregate was over 100,000. The question of woman suffrage polled over 34,000 votes, and upon the employers' liability bill there were over 90,000 votes. Of the 25 measures submitted, 23 were rejected and 2 were approved. Among the measures were the employers' liability bill, the presidential primary, a road roads law, and an amendment to the constitution authorizing a 'tax' on the courts in 'difficult cases, simplifying the procedure in the courts, and preventing the removal of cases for technical errors.' One of these measures—the employers' liability bill—had a majority of 22,315. But no measure received an affirmative vote equal to a majority of the aggregate vote for governor. Under the initiative provision in Oregon a majority of the votes cast thereon. If Oregon had adopted an initiative like the one offered to the people of Idaho by the last legislature not a single measure submitted in 1910 would have been adopted. The employers' liability bill, which received an affirmative vote of nearly 2 to 1 and a majority of over 22,000, would have been defeated. This is precisely the result which the legislature of 1911 hoped to accomplish in Idaho.

Idaho Example.

"The experience of Idaho illustrates the same proposition. If we were to add upon six amendments to our constitution. Some received an affirmative vote of 3 to 1, others a vote of 2 to 1. The majority wanted nearly 4,000 to over 23,000. Under our constitution an amendment need only receive a majority of the votes cast thereon. If these six measures were carried, but if it had been necessary to procure a majority of the total vote cast for governor over one of them would have failed. This is precisely the result which the legislature of 1910 hoped to accomplish in Idaho.

Women's Suffrage Amendment.

"The women's suffrage amendment in 1896 received a vote of nearly 2 to 1 in favor of its adoption, but it did not receive a majority of the total vote cast for governor. Those opposing the amendment argued that the amendment was lost. They contended that those who failed to vote should be counted against the amendment. The supreme court of Idaho said: 'Upon what vote of honesty or dishonesty can it be claimed that it is not more reasonable, as well as more righteous, to say that in a matter about which they manifest such indifference their silence shall be taken as assent?'"

Justice Morkin commenting on the same proposition said:

"These electors either have no opinion on the subject or they have none that they care to express. Why should they be counted as having voted at all on the subject? They are absolutely no reason why their constitution of the statutes require it, and we have seen they 'do not'."

Supreme Court Ruling.

"The reasoning of our supreme court in certain instances. From time to time the constitution must be amended to keep pace with new conditions and with the progress of the state. It is reasonable that those who are too ignorant to have, or too indifferent to express an opinion should be counted against every measure submitted and thereby block the wheels of progress. It is not more reasonable that the laws should be amended to the detriment of the great mass of the intelligent, thinking people than that they should be controlled by an ignorant and indifferent minority."

Other Defects.

"The initiative as submitted is also really defective in another most important particular. It permits the legislature to 'permit' the people to vote on measures in the enactment of ordinary statutes. It denies to the people the right to initiate or propose amendments to the constitution. Obviously the latter is the more valuable right. The fundamental function of a state is always supposed to emanate directly from the people and it would be strange to demand that the people of their own initiative should be permitted to propose and enact changes in it. The initiative should be used only on matters of some importance and it is plain that under the constitution are generally more important and far-reaching than ordinary statutes. With a constitutional initiative the people control their representatives, the legislature. Without it the legislature controls the people, and the servant is greater than his lord."

HIGH CLASS PLAYS COMING

"Lion and Mouse" and "Third Degree" to Be Given as Benefits for the Library.

The Union Play company will present "The Lion and the Mouse" and "The Third Degree" at the high school auditorium about the first week in November, under the auspices of the library board. This is a strictly high-class company, with the best cast of characters ever seen in either of the plays, and only through the hard and united effort of the library board was the company persuaded to favor Twin Falls. That company has been playing in Boise, where they have been received by crowded houses and given the highest praise. The first play presented here will be "The Lion and the Mouse," a story of a political lion and a judge who by a decision has blocked his schemes. The plan to ruin the old judge forms the plot of the story, and is considered one of Charles Klein's best productions.

"The Third Degree" will also be presented here. This is Klein's latest play and deals with a number of prominent conditions that exist in large cities. The scenes are laid in New York. The methods of the New York police department will be portrayed in their real light.

One cannot afford to miss seeing this company, for these two great productions, which will undoubtedly be the best that has been seen in Twin Falls.

NEW SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Professor G. M. Powell of Malad City May Establish Conservatory in Twin Falls.

While in this city last week, Professor G. M. Powell of Malad, Idaho, well-known musical instructor and soloist, stated that in all probability he will locate in Twin Falls and establish a conservatory of music. He has much pleasure with the talented and progressive Twin Falls and Malad center.

Professor Powell has been in Idaho for the past three years, coming from his home in Mountain View, North Wales. He is a tenor singer of note and leader of choruses. He has studied and taught in the leading musical conservatories of England, being a graduate of the Royal Academy. He expects to give a concert in this city during the winter, having his chorus assisted by students from the Royal Academy. A Malad ladies' chorus, conducted by Professor Powell, recently took a prize at a musical contest at Salt Lake. While here he will be the guest of W. C. Williams.

TWIN FALLS SCORES HIGH IN FIRST GAME

TAKES BUHL WARRIORS INTO CAMP BY 720 COUNT

Football Season Opens With Local Eleven Showing Championship Form—Second Team Given Chance—Good Crowd Was Present

Twin Falls high school defeated Buhl last Saturday in the opening game of the season by the score of 72 to 0. A good crowd witnessed the game, an enthusiastic delegation of Buhl fans accompanying their team to this city.

During the entire game the Buhl team put up a hard fight, but the Twin Falls boys outdistanced them in weight and showed better and more thorough coaching. At no time did the Buhl eleven come closer than within 10 yards of their goal.

The game started with Twin Falls kicking to Buhl; and within four minutes the local team had won the first touchdown. Three touchdowns were made during the first quarter, by Curtis Bower, captain of the team. Rex Bailey and George Wood, and one goal was kicked by Bower. At the beginning of the second quarter the ball was in Buhl's territory and 15 yards off the goal they were easily carried over the line by Bower. Five other touchdowns were made during this quarter and one goal kicked. Thus making the scores were Buhl 0, Bailey, Wood, Williamson and Murrain. The score at the end of this half was 66-0.

Second Team Plays

The second team of Twin Falls was allowed to compete in the second half, and they showed in excellent shape. The third quarter started with Twin Falls kicking to Buhl; and although Buhl secured the ball in the second down it was soon recovered by Twin Falls and a forward pass resulted in a touchdown, three minutes after the half started. Although the local team was penalized 15 yards for crawling, they soon regained their yardage, and with Buhl penalized 5 yards for offside they were soon with in easy distance of their goal, when a drop-kick by Ralph Morse secured a score. Twin Falls proceeded in making one other touchdown before the end of the game. This was also made by Ralph Morse, captain of the team.

The Line-up Follows:

Twin Falls First Team.

Entertained at Nixon Home

Mrs. M. D. Nixon and Mrs. W. G. Nixon were hostesses at a delightful formal afternoon at games last Friday at the home of the latter. Yellow fall blossoms and autumn leaves adorned the rooms. Mrs. Slater was winner of the prize in the guessing game and Miss Kate Dodge received a prize for the best rhyme as an answer sent to the following quaint in-quiry: On Friday the eleventh at half-past two the Nixon home will be open to you. We hoping you will come to our party, that day. And pass the hours in all kinds of play. Or, R. S. V. P.—Rhymes sound very pretty. So if you like answer this in some kind of ditty.

Bridge Tournament Club

The ladies of the bridge tournament club and their friends were entertained at a very pleasant dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Alken Saturday evening. Following the repast cards were played for a few hours.

CLUBS

Viewed from every point, the second regular meeting of the Twentieth Century Club at Masonic hall on Tuesday of this week, was an unqualified success. It was "Men's Day" and the program, unique in that it was given entirely by men, was very good. If the members of the club work along the lines suggested, and accept only a part of the things recommended, they will have accomplished much.

The president, Mrs. Sweeney, called the meeting to order, and introduced Mrs. Wilbur Hill, first vice president, who presided in a very able manner throughout the rest of the meeting. After the transaction of the usual business, Mrs. Hill introduced Mrs. Scott, the leader for the day. Mrs. Scott graciously responded, and then the speaker introduced Mrs. C. Robinson, who addressed the members of the club on "Woman's Part in the Commercial Development of the Community." He made a splendid speech, which was well received by those present.

C. A. Robinson Speaks

He referred to the need of a rest room for the convenience of ladies coming in from the country, which he declared would prove a boon to tire mothers, and in many cases to their children. He gave it as his opinion that if something of the kind were provided women from the country would come often to Twin Falls and enjoy their visits to a far greater extent. He also referred to the interest shown by the women of Twin Falls in the public library and suggested that his hearers use their influence to bring about such changes in the laws as would permit of the appropriation of state money for its upkeep. His contribution to this session, on one point, which was received with close attention, viz., the tendency on the part of a good many persons to regard their ten-orary home rather than as their permanent abiding place. He set this down to the disadvantages of a new country, and urged his hearers to do all in their power to render their city attractive to newcomers in every way possible.

Women's Help Needed

Professor Jones, when he spoke to the women present on "School Needs and Women's Part in Keeping Them." He pointed out that the help of the club women was not needed so much in the school as in the creation of a proper environment for the children after school hours. He said that education was the adaptation of an individual to environment, and at only a few hours of each day were spent in the school room, proper amusements and

The game was refereed by Dutton S. Mitchell of Twin Falls. W. G. Berry of Buhl was umpire and Earnest Stettler head linesman.

The Season's Schedule

The schedule for the Twin Falls football team has been completed and the second game of the series will be played with Albion, November 19. Other games will be: October 26, Rupert at Twin Falls; November 2, Albion-Nor-mal at Twin Falls; November 3, Belmont at Buhl; November 10, Eastern state championship game at Twin Falls; November 21, Twin Falls high school at Albion; November 28, also on November 21, the second team will play Rupert at Rupert.

recreation must be provided. Among other things, Professor Jones urged the women to work for the establishment of a Y. M. C. A. with its reading rooms, play rooms and swimming pool; that if mothers believed in dancing they see to it that their place be found for their children to dance so they need not attend the public dances. Mr. Jones offered a number of suggestions for discussion and his entire address was listened to with close attention.

Favors City Parks

Mr. Morse dwelt on "The Value of Beauty as a Municipal Asset." He commended his hearers on the possession of the city park, which he declared would be a credit to a city or town. The speaker declared he was not well to forget the growth along the lines of least resistance, but pointed out the advantages of proper supervision of this growth in a manner to give the best civic results. In this connection he pointed out the growing tendencies of cities to avail themselves of professional aid in the laying out and care of their growing community.

He referred to the scenic possibilities of the Snake river canyon for park purposes, and strongly advocated a close attention of his hearers to this feature of the city's development. Whittor Peck faced the audience with two delightful slides, "Where the Lullaby Bloom" in both of these selections Mr. Peck manifested a taste, which was heard and appreciated. He responded to encore with a delightful rendering.

Active work has started in the several departments of the club and great effort is being made by the heads of the departments to accomplish more this year than had been done previously.

The Parliamentary and Civics under the direction of Mrs. R. E. Morse will hold its second meeting of the year on Monday, October 21, at the Presbyterian church, when the study of parliamentary law will be continued.

The History and Literature department with Mrs. W. F. Hill as head will meet on the afternoon of October 23 at the Pike home at 2:30. The work will be taken up at a short review of the work of the previous year will be taken.

Miss Liberty, teacher of domestic science in the high school, will speak to the department that day and give a number of illustrations.

Mrs. Kennedy Packard is the head of the Current Topic department. This subject to be taken up at the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. M. J. Sweeney on October 22, will be the applying in Central America. This department meets every two weeks, alternately at the Masonic hall and at a home of a member.

Mrs. E. E. Regan is head of the Music department and will hold the next meeting Tuesday afternoon, October 22, at the Masonic hall at 2:30 o'clock. American composers are being studied now and the subject for the next meeting will be American orchestral composers and American orchestral conductors.

Mrs. E. E. Regan will preside. The subject of organizing a ladies' choral society will be discussed and all members of the Music department as well as members of the Twentieth Century club who are interested are most earnestly requested to be present. The following will be given:

THE HEADLESS TICKET.

The Progressive ticket in Idaho, as represented on the ballot, is without a head. According to the law's interpretation, the names of the candidates for the state and county offices may go on the ballot, but not so the names of the Roosevelt electors and congressman. In the judgment of The News the situation would be rendered a good deal more satisfactory if the electors had been left on and the state and county ticket taken off.

The decision means that, every man or woman in Idaho who desires to vote for Theodore Roosevelt, for president will be compelled to write in the names of the Roosevelt electors. Many will do this, but, theoretically, enough will fail to do so to ensure Roosevelt's defeat in Idaho.

It is a queer analogy—There was and is a heavy demand on the part of the voters of Idaho for a vote on the head of the ticket. In to punish him for the act of the entire court. He is the only one of the three up for reelection this year. The Progressives are running no candidate of their own against him, but if they are determined to slaughter him they could accomplish their object by voting for A. M. Bowen of Twin Falls, the Democratic candidate for justice of the supreme court, of 15,000 or 15,000 Progressive voters were inclined to follow this course they would be likely to bring about the defeat of Justice Stewart and the election of A. M. Bowen.

DECISION PLAYS PART.

Judge is Unfortunate.

Politically Justice Stewart seems to be especially unfortunate. In the first place he was defeated by Alfred Budge for the nomination after a hard fight in the primaries. As Justice Stewart is a prominent Democrat it was feared that his defeat would operate against Justice Stewart in the southern counties and thereby counterbalance the chances of his Democratic opponent. Now, on the heels of this, comes this awkward decision of the court, which Justice Stewart is the head arousing the anger of the Bull Moose as nothing else in this campaign has aroused it, and exposing Justice Stewart to the fury of these Bull Moose while they are still cavorting over the hills and valleys with fire issuing from their nostrils at every breath.

state, it must certainly help Justice Stewart in the southeastern counties where it is known that Justice Stewart is strong and growing stronger every day.

A Two-Edged Sword.

This should more than offset any losses Justice Stewart might have suffered in that section of the state because of scores over the defeat of Judge Budge. So it is plain to be seen that this decision may act as a two-edged sword helping Justice Stewart on the one hand while it hurts him on the other.

There is much speculation also as to the effect of the decision of the supreme court on the race for congress. P. Monroe Smock, the former Republican minister of this city, is prevented from having his name printed on the official ballot. He is placed by the court in the same class as the candidates for presidential electors. He will suffer more than the candidates for electors because he has not back of him the strong Roosevelt sentiment. Many more, however, will go to the trouble to write in the names of the candidates for electors because of their zeal for Roosevelt, and they will stop right there so that as writing names is concerned.

A Help to Smith.

This will help Addison T. Smith materially. It is well understood that P. Monroe Smock is running for the sole purpose of defeating Addison T. Smith. Mr. Smith's association with Senator Hoeyburn has poisoned the Progressives against him. They avowedly buried in French while and Mr. French shows his appreciation by refusing to endorse President Taft, but they would not stand for Addison T. Smith. They put P. Monroe Smock deed that is all The News ever claimed was necessary in the present state of the public mind. Outside of the few machine politicians who for purely selfish reasons desired to make sure of Democratic success in state and county, there was and is no real demand for a third ticket in the state, or in any county in the state, although this applies with greater force to the county ticket in this county than to the state ticket.

As far as the third ticket in Twin Falls county is concerned, it cannot be shown that the movement is a bona fide one in any way. A review of the list of the names of the signers is sufficient to prove that. Of course there is no reason why a true Democratic progressive should not be in favor of a progressive ticket any more than in the case of a Republican, but the Democratic and Republican progressives of Twin Falls city and county are opposed to the new ticket. Not because they object to the men on it, but because it stands for nothing which the regular Republican county ticket does not stand for. In other words, the third ticket splits the votes of the Republican party, and leaves the Democratic party massed solidly against the two halves.

Such a situation is unreasonable to a degree. The third party advocates the return of Borah to the senate—the Republican legislative ticket is pledged to that end. The third party ticket is composed of good men, but no better than those on the Republican ticket for the balance of the offices, and with not half as good a chance of election. Added to this the fact that the rank and file of progressive voters all over the county have declared against the proposition to place a third ticket in the field and the problem becomes at once simple and effective. Who does want a third ticket in Twin Falls county? The Democrats.

Last week's expose of the Hansen fiasco in connection with the securing of signatures to the third party petition will ever stand as a monument to the greed and selfishness of the Democratic party in the county. It will be noticed that not one word of the facts as given to the public has been denied, nor will it be. But the most curious thing about the whole matter is that even a small percentage of the progressive voters of the county should be caught by so shallow a trick.

The third party in Twin Falls county is now occupying the position of an adjunct to the Democrats. It is encouraged by the Democrats and tolerated by the real progressives, who see the real situation but are powerless to interfere.

The lopping off of the names of the Roosevelt electors from the ballot was a real calamity as The News sees it. Had the situation been reversed as between the electors and the balance of the ticket the voters would have received the benefit.

GOOD COUNTY ROADS.

There is one point of supreme importance in the conduct of the affairs of Twin Falls county and that is the matter of county roads. Without good roads the best county in the world can score but a partial success, but given well-planned and well kept up highways and many an indifferently favored section has grown to affluence.

In the selection of the men who will administer the affairs of Twin Falls county for the next two years, and who will be directly responsible to the people for the upkeep of roads and bridges—the road problem should not be lost sight of, and in this connection it would appear to stand to reason that a competent and experienced civil engineer on the board of commissioners might be the means of much good.

Such a man is Charles S. Burton, head of the Filer Coal company, old-time surveyor and engineer and a student of modern road-building of acknowledged ability. Mr. Burton is making the run on the Republican ticket because of the general demand for the class of ability and experience which he represents. As a successful local business man Mr. Burton needs no introduction in this section of the county, and his splendid record, coupled with his engineering usefulness, places the people of the county in a position to take advantage of a splendid opportunity to gain the services of a man in a line where such services have been conspicuously lacking in the past.

On a plain common-sense basis The News strongly urges the election of Mr. Burton.

A GOOD MAN'S RECORD.

It is in the nature of man to ignore the qualifications of his fellow unless those qualifications should point him out as a rogue. The News prints herewith a written tribute to the worth of one man which probably would never have reached the public ear at all, otherwise.

Those who are personally acquainted with E. P. Hinton need no recommendation from The News or any one else, but those who do not should be interested if only from a political standpoint. Mr. Hinton is the Republican candidate for the position of county commissioner and The News takes pleasure in lending him its unqualified endorsement and in printing the following splendid tribute from one who knew Mr. Hinton in his old home before the days of the Twin Falls county:

Scottsville, Ky., Oct. 5, 1912.

My dear Mr. Hinton, I have just learned through a mutual friend of your nomination by the Republican party of your county for the office of commissioner, and hasten to extend to you my heartiest congratulations and best wishes for your success in the final election.

While I am not of your political faith I cannot refrain from at the same time expressing my belief that the county or your nomination is having the opportunity to place in an important office as that of commissioner a man of proven ability and integrity such as yourself. Your record here, both in private and public affairs, if fully known to the voters of Twin Falls county, would make your election a certainty.

Very truly yours, E. F. WELCH.

A PROTEST.

The News invites and encourages every legitimate enterprise tending to increase the general business of the community and it welcomes every form of entertainment which in any manner contributes to the uplift of public morals or adds to the pleasure and profit of the people; but The News desires to register a vigorous protest against the bringing to Twin Falls of such an aggregation as that now operating in this city.

It is understood that the company comes to Twin Falls well recommended as giving a clean, moral entertainment. This may be entirely true from the standpoint of a big city with a crowd to entertain from the outside, but it does not apply in cities such as this.

The people of Twin Falls have nothing to gain from such an exhibition, and it is to be hoped that it will be a long time before it is again treated to such a spectacle.

THE ROOSEVELT SHOOTING.

Theodore Roosevelt has added to his reputation for luck. In the first place, he is lucky in that he escaped instant death at the hands of the dastardly coward who shot him, and in the second place the shooting, if it turns out to be as trivial as is sincerely hoped, can hardly help but lend a certain impetus to his campaign.

The political aspect of the happening aside, no condemnation can be too strong for his wretched assailant. Even if the Colonel should suffer practically no bodily harm as a result of the bullet, another is added to the list of names which begin with J. Wilkes Booth and ends with Crozoas. The idea that the country which produced such men as Lincoln, Garfield and Roosevelt has also produced the types which were their undoing is an interesting one. It is to be hoped that the former list is complete for all time.

The day of the argument of the bullet has long since sped. One or two more similar episodes and the election of Roosevelt to the presidency is assured.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

On the score of training, ability and general fitness for the post, in the judgment of The News it would be difficult to pick a man for state senator better qualified for the work in hand than C. A. Robinson of Twin Falls, manager of the Farmers and Merchants' bank.

The appeal of Mr. Robinson is solely and only along these lines and there is a certain straightforward honesty in his presentation of his candidacy which appeals to the common sense of the average voter.

There are no political accusations which Mr. Robinson is called upon to dignify by a reply. Like many another self-made man, his record is his best recommendation and his election as state senator cannot help but be to the best interests of every element of the community.

WHAT IS POLITICS?

Politics in the abstract can be one of two things—the voice of a people calling for reforms, the arousing of a public conscience or the spontaneous tribute of a people to a few. Or it can be—

The lowest form of class contest known to man. A game without rules, played in the dark, where every foul count, and the more underhanded the method adopted the more successful the player.

Take your choice. A pretty fair sample of the latter description may be found in the ranks of the Democrats and the so-called third party adherents in the county right now.

THE MEN WHO KNOW.

Ask any Democratic leader what he thinks of the third party movement in Twin Falls county and watch the cheerful smile spread itself slowly over his countenance.

But even a Democrat may make a mistake, and it is fair to assume that when the intelligent voters of Twin Falls county grasp the true inwardness of the little Democratic-third party deal there will be some empty saddles on the firing line and the scalps will not be Republican either.

C. A. Robinson is known as a business man and a farm and city property owner and, best of all, his property is in his own name.

BAND FOR REPUBLICANS.

Shields on account of money received from him in the sum of $50 or some odd cents. Judge Shields also presented a written report of County Attorney Hicks which stated that an item of every respect and entirely proper under the circumstances. The judge's reference to the stirring times of the civil war, and his humorous backhand compliments to the editor of the Bull Herald, kept the audience in an uproar of laughter and applause.

French's Strong Speech.

The main address of the evening was delivered by Congressman French, and was one of the best speeches heard so far in the campaign. His vigorous methods of dealing with public questions was popular with the audience. He discussed the record of the Republican party as a whole and the progress had brought about the most advanced legislation for the benefit of the people of the country, and had proved itself capable of solving every question brought before it, and showing its present position to handle current problems. Mr. French revealed some of the greatest of history's most important legislative measures, including the proposed reciprocity agreement with Canada, tariff revision and the establishment of a national bureau for the welfare of the poor children of the great cities.

There are a number of people today," said Mr. French, "who are misled by pessimism, but their position is wrong. I am an optimist, and I believe in this country, its history, its institutions and its people. During the past 50 years we have encountered and solved some of the greatest questions ever presented to any nation, and I have no confidence in the intelligence of the people with whom I live. I believe that the problems of the future will also be solved in their proper time.

Urges Borah's Election.

Mr. French urged the reelection of Senator Borah and spoke in the highest terms of Addison T. Smith, Republican candidate for congress. "I have known Mr. Smith for a number of years," Mr. French concluded, "and I know him to be a man of high character and of splendid ability. You people of Twin Falls are indeed fortunate in having an opportunity of helping to elect to our national congress a citizen and a resident of your own county and I am sure this opportunity will not be overlooked. Indeed, the position of Twin Falls is an admirable one with such an opportunity of sending direct to this county to the United States congress a man of such splendid character and ability as Addison T. Smith, and I cordially hope that the good people of this county will not forget him on election day."

Mr. French expressed his regret of being unable to speak in Twin Falls, and he was obliged to leave on Friday for the southeast and from there to north Idaho, where he will close his campaign.

MIKE KELLY DISAPPEARS

Friends of Farmer, Whose Home is Near Twin Falls, Are Anxious About Him.

Much concern is being experienced among the friends of Mike Kelly, farmer, who disappeared Friday, October 12, and of whom no word has since been received. Inquiries have been sent out to such places to which he might have gone, but no word as to his whereabouts has been obtained.

Mr. Kelly's home is located three miles southwest from Twin Falls. He came to this city on the date mentioned in the interests of a law suit which he had started in Justice Smith's court and in which a decision was to have been rendered that day. Instead of going to the court, however, he left for parts unknown.

It is known by his friends that Mr. Kelly had about $200 with him on the day he disappeared. He settled a number of bills on that day and had spoken of plans to be had for the future. He had removed nothing from his home, his stock being taken care of by farm help who made their home with Mr. Kelly. He was not married.

The squash, known as the "banana squash," weighs more than 11 pounds and is 2 feet and 4 inches in length and measures 6 1/2 inches at the thickest portion.

Mr. Gilleland states that his crop of potatoes, which is now being dug, is yielding at the rate of 800 bushels per acre. An accurate measurement of the land, and crop already taken in has been made to ascertain the exact yield. This is the largest yield per acre yet reported.

STORE IS ENLARGED

Struss & Glauber Inaugurates Improvements Which Practically Double Capacity of the Well-Known House.

As a result of their steadily increasing trade, the firm of Struss and Glauber have made improvements in their store which gives them practically double their former floor space, with better facilities and more room in every department.

The work was done in an incredibly short space of time. Although the improvements consist of the erection of a new building on the end of the old quarters, tearing out of the old partitions and changing in the plumbing and heating as well as the most minor changes, only a few days were consumed in the whole operation. The new store was opened during the improvements and the work was done with practically no interference with the business.

The additional floor space was required necessary as a result of a greatly increased stock of clothing and men's accessories of all kinds and was fitted out to accommodate a large car of clothing, etc., which has been standing on the tracks ready to be unpacked for several days.

AMUSEMENTS

The bill to be presented at the Isis Friday and Saturday evenings of this week contains a number of interesting and unusual films. Fuzzy John Bunny and his drabbing paper hangers are at this time in "Martha's Rebellion," a French melodrama, "A Bold Game" will also be run. This story is both interesting and instructive. A new picture plot is seen in "The Two-Guns Bertram," in which a person obtains a congregation in a very novel way. Art's "The Lightning Paper Hangers" is a comedy which will not fail to please every one who knows the disadvantages of fall soap-speeching. On Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week one of the best plays taken from stories which have ever been run here will be "Tip Van Winkle." This is a recent film and will be appreciated by the old and young. The other two plays for these evenings will be "The Lord and the Peasants" an Edison drama, and "The Grunch at the sea shore," a good comedy.

High School Auditorium.

The United Trust company will soon present at the Auditorium "The Lion and the Mouse" and "The Third Degree."

Orpheum.

The specialty at the Orpheum for the tonight, Friday and Saturday night is a comedy act by Emerson, Morris and Walton. Dicky folks. This is a well-rehearsed performance and will consist of novelty stunts, talking and acrobatic stunts. This will be a 15-minute act. A number of interesting vaudeville picture plays will complete the bill.

SECOND SCHOOL FAIR PROVES A SUCCESS

EXHIBIT AT PEAVEY IS AN EXCELLENT ONE.

Washington School Takes the Largest Number of Prizes—Crowd is Too Large for School House—Program Rendered and Speeches Made.

The second and last of the county school fairs to be held this fall was the one given at Peavey last Friday, which eight schools participated. Approximately 350 attended, coming in the morning and bringing their lunch. The school house was too small to hold the large crowd and all exercises were given outdoors, while the exhibits were placed within the building. Superintendent Potter was in charge of all the exercises and following a brief address by him a literary program was rendered, pupils from the several different schools participating. Superintendent Farr of Buhl and Professor Dooley of Pines gave interesting addresses on practical education. The exhibits made of the work of the school children in gardening, sewing, cooking and carpentering were works of high school pupils, and were an excellent demonstration of the practical use of the method which Mr. Potter has long been working for in the rural schools. All patrons of the schools which took part in this fair have been ardent supporters of this idea of practical education, and are assisting Mr. Potter in furthering the good work.

SEIDEL SPEAKS FOR PARTY'S PRINCIPLES

TALKS OF TRUSTS, LABOR AND COST OF LIVING.

Large Crowd Sees and Hears a Candidate for Vice Presidency—He Said to Excel Running Mate as a Public Speaker.

Emil Seidel, Socialist candidate for vice president, spoke to an overflowed house at Colton hall last Thursday evening. More than eight hundred men, women and children were seated and a large number stood throughout the address. Mr. Seidel is a forceful speaker, and is rated by many of the party adherents as an excellent Presidential Candidate. He is a speaker, his addresses in the main being free from personal bitterness.

Mr. Seidel was defeated for reelection as mayor of Milwaukee last spring after serving in that capacity for one term. He is now on the ticket for that will take him into most of the states of the Union. He was introduced to the local audience by S. G. Gilliland, candidate for state senator.

The Trust Question. Much of Mr. Seidel's address was devoted to the trust problem. He said: "Trusts are bad only in so far as they deprive the people of the means which enable them to earn a livelihood. They are good in so far as they increase productivity with decreased waste."

In speaking of the collective ownership of trusts he stated that such ownership would retain the good features and eliminate the bad. Speaking of this phase of the subject he said:

"The nation should, through its government, take possession of the national trusts—the state should own those trusts that are a unit in the states; the county should own those trusts that are a unit in the cities. This management and regulation should be assumed by the people through and in co-operation with their governments, local, state or national. With this done we would enter upon a real democracy."

NEW HAY-PRESS SHOWN

S. G. Gilliland Bales Two Tons of Hay in Thirty Minutes With Late Invention.

What is no doubt one of the most speedy as well as powerful hay presses that has ever been seen in this part of the country has been demonstrated recently by the inventor and builder, S. G. Gilliland, of this city. Mr. Gilliland has been operating the press for the past year, though the improved machine that he is now demonstrating has just been completed.

At a demonstration on the section grounds last Monday afternoon, Mr. Gilliland, with the assistance of two men, baled two tons of hay in 30 minutes, or at the rate of four tons per hour, making it possible to press 40 tons in a ten-hour day at normal speed. He stated that it is possible to bale even at a rate speeded with his press than was demonstrated. The hay, or straw, is pressed by means of a power-driven hammer operated by horse power and does away with the old style of "kicking it down" by man power.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bolt of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bolt was all used the boy's cold was cured. He writes: "It is the best three-dollar doctor's bill I ever saw by a dollar." (Advertisement)

SEIDEL SPEAKS FOR PARTY'S PRINCIPLES

TALKS OF TRUSTS, LABOR AND COST OF LIVING.

Large Crowd Sees and Hears a Candidate for Vice Presidency—He Said to Excel Running Mate as a Public Speaker.

Emil Seidel, Socialist candidate for vice president, spoke to an overflowed house at Colton hall last Thursday evening. More than eight hundred men, women and children were seated and a large number stood throughout the address. Mr. Seidel is a forceful speaker, and is rated by many of the party adherents as an excellent Presidential Candidate. He is a speaker, his addresses in the main being free from personal bitterness.

Mr. Seidel was defeated for reelection as mayor of Milwaukee last spring after serving in that capacity for one term. He is now on the ticket for that will take him into most of the states of the Union. He was introduced to the local audience by S. G. Gilliland, candidate for state senator.

The Trust Question. Much of Mr. Seidel's address was devoted to the trust problem. He said: "Trusts are bad only in so far as they deprive the people of the means which enable them to earn a livelihood. They are good in so far as they increase productivity with decreased waste."

In speaking of the collective ownership of trusts he stated that such ownership would retain the good features and eliminate the bad. Speaking of this phase of the subject he said:

"The nation should, through its government, take possession of the national trusts—the state should own those trusts that are a unit in the states; the county should own those trusts that are a unit in the cities. This management and regulation should be assumed by the people through and in co-operation with their governments, local, state or national. With this done we would enter upon a real democracy."

AS TO LABOR.

Speaking of the labor situation Mr. Seidel said: "With the system in operation as advocated by our party, labor would be respected instead of scorned as it is today. Child-labor as a national curse and the waste of human energy would disappear. Woman would be protected as the mothers of our race and the race would be benefited. Poverty would no longer exist, unless crops fail, and this, with our resources and rational husbandry, would be improbable. This is the goal of the Socialist party."

COST OF LIVING.

As to the cost of living Mr. Seidel said: "The cost of living is going higher. The price of food is going up. The price of clothing is going up. The cost of living has increased sixty per cent during the last fifteen years. The same amount of goods that cost $15 fifteen years ago cost $150 today. Wages have also increased, but not so rapidly as the cost of living. Wages have increased only ten per cent during the same period of years. Where a man received $1 for a given amount of work fifteen years ago he now receives $1.20. This means that the cost of living has increased more than three times as much as wages and that the working family must get along with 25 per cent less today than fifteen years ago."

Mr. Seidel stated that the courts to be held in this county will be held and will be his party in power. Judges would be elected who would favor the workers and lawmakers would be elected who would favor the interests of the working people.

MISSIONS TO THE GENTILES.

Mark 7: 24-30; Matt. 8: 5-13.

Mark 7: 24. And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into a house, and would have no man know of it: but he could not be hid.

25. For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came, and fell at his feet.

26. The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27. But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled; for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to give it unto the dogs.

28. And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29. And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30. And when she had come to her house, she found her daughter lying on the bed, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

Matt. 8: 5. And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a certain leproseus, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst heal me.

6. And saying, Lord, my servant is clean.

8. The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9. For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me; and I say unto this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

11. And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of heaven.

12. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee: and his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

Golden Text: "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."—John 6: 37.

Introduction.

The ministry of our Lord in Galilee was nearly his whole life. Before entering the country he enters upon one of the longest tours of his ministry. He goes northwest to the Mediterranean coast, and then west to the Galilee cities of Phoenicia. During this long journey he gave those in the remotest part of the land to hear and see him, and he desired to do so.

He was tired and he could no longer rest, and it was to be presumed that he could find it in this region, where he had been so long, to have but little intercourse with the outer world.

"But he could not be hid." His fame had gone before him, besides there was something in his demeanor that made him a marked man.

A Gentle Daughter Healed.

A Syrophenician woman, whose daughter was sorely afflicted with an evil spirit, hurried to our Lord's tent and laid her case before him.

Not being a native of Greece, she was a gentile. Her daughter had been in the family of Israel. She knew that Jesus was a Jew, and she knew of the Pharisees, the Jews and the Gentiles. His silence at first increased her petition. She must have relief for her daughter. Jesus indicated that she was not a daughter of Abraham and therefore could not expect to receive a benefit from him.

8-9. "Besides, in the eyes of 'Jot' the woman was writing to do so. 'Jot' place and portion of dogs. If only her daughter was healed. Her persistency won the victory. She returned to her home to find that her daughter was out of her daughter and that she was on her way to full recovery.

The Centurion's Servant Healed.

The incident of the centurion's servant occurred nearly a year before, and is here given to further illustrate how Jesus made the Jewish nation were drawing upon the compassion of our Lord.

The centurion was also a gentile. He prayed in behalf of a servant whom he loved. He believed that Jesus could heal at a distance as well as when present, and hence did not expect him to come to his home, but to speak as he thought of military men. He himself was a Roman officer, and was desirous to obey his superior, and expected his inferior to likewise obey him. He felt that Jesus could exercise like authority and heal his servant in the same manner.

By Rev. Wallace Wood, D. D.

The grain is ripe, come let us bind it. The fields are large and reapers few. For laboring men, let us try to do a little less for the thousands die. Each year, without the Word of God, Whole nations bow beneath the rod.

Oh! do not out, with miter's gird, The shining gold and bankers' scrip.

But send your gifts, with liberal hand, To those who reach in heathen land; And in the year of jubilee send, The bread that's cast upon the sea. Will come again with great increase, When Christ shall bring the reign of peace.

The Field is the World.

The call to service has never been so insistent. No field in the world is ever richer than that of the young man or woman who is master of some useful profession. America is the most popular country in the world to the Chinese, Russian and professional people from America are needed in China.

A recent book dealing largely with the Persian situation, contains a paragraph quoted here, which is full of "Every missionary is a spoke in the wheel of progress toward Christian civilization. Now, in a country like this, a Christian civilization can be built up, except on a basis of economic reform. If we can begin to educate these people in the foundation principles of honesty as a result of scientific and professional labor, if we can start from the Persian government proper protection for the workmen under our supply, that they may be permitted to labor with freedom, and to amass profits and property without molestation; then, if we can build up this sense of civic responsibility which should be felt by every citizen as a citizen and patriot, we shall be the pioneers of a mighty, far-reaching and purely Christianlike work."

STATESMAN BY CARRIER

Delivery Service Now in Operation in This City—System is to Be Adopted Elsewhere.

The carrier service for the Idaho Daily Statesman has been put into operation and is working to the satisfaction of the patrons of Boise's morning paper. This city is the first of a series of carrier boys have been assigned the routes in this city and papers are delivered to places of business and residences immediately after the arrival of the train.

Miss Jessie Warrington, local agent of the Statesman in this city, has direct charge of the carrier service. She has been assisted in organizing the work of city delivery by George W. Manning, traveling representative of the Statesman in charge of the circulation. Earl G. Adams, circulation manager, returned to Boise Tuesday after spending a couple of days here checking up the subscription list and the new system of city delivery. The Statesman has put the carrier service into a number of other cities of the state and will likely adopt the service in still other cities in the near future.

CLUB LUNCHEON WELL ATTENDED

SPEAKERS DWELL ON ADVANTAGES OF Y. M. C. A.

Ivan B. Rhoads, State Secretary of Idaho and Oregon, is Guest of Twin Falls Business Men at Luncheon.

The work and object of the Young Men's Christian association constituted the subject of an address by Ivan B. Rhoads, state secretary of that institution, at the regular weekly Commercial club luncheon Wednesday.

Mr. Rhoads dwelt at length on the advantages to the youth of any community of a branch of the association, and outlined briefly the management of the enterprise and his work in connection with it. His speech drew interesting figures tending to show the growth of membership throughout the country and particularly in the west, but declared that the state of California, Oregon and Washington were considered to be ahead of Idaho in the matter of Y. M. C. A. work.

Business Men Must Decide.

He stated that it was not the custom of the Y. M. C. A. officials to urge the establishment of branch associations, but that the procedure was in every case to allow the local business men to be the judges as to when their particular city was in a position to support a branch of the association. He announced that the trained secretaries and other officials of the association were always at the disposal of those towns where the citizens had in mind the establishment of a branch, but added that it had been found best to allow the local business men the last word as to the final establishment of a branch.

Other Workers Present.
John P. Gossard and A. C. Chambers of Boise were present with Mr.

rhoads and each made a few remarks along similar lines. Following the speeches it was announced by Professor Elliott, who acted as chairman, that the topic for next week's luncheon would be the civic beautifying of Twin Falls, which would be discussed by L. F. Morse.

CANAL COMPANY WINS SUIT

Given Verdict for $33,000 Against Land and Water Company in Federal Court.

A verdict was given in the Federal court at Boise last Friday in favor of the Twin Falls Canal company against the Twin Falls Land and Water company for $33,000 damages alleged to have been suffered by the plaintiff through the defendant turning over the canal system to suitors. The case lasted three weeks and was presided over by Judge Dietrich and tried before a jury.

This case has attracted wide attention and the result will be of importance to other Carey act projects. The case was brought upon claimed damages resulting from the construction of wooden headgates and weirs in the main, high and low-line canals and on account of defective construction of the Point Spillway.

Attorneys Bowen and Porter of this city and Worth Clark of Pocatello represented the Canal company, and Attorneys M. J. Sweely of this city and S. H. Hays of Boise and Attorneys Edwards of Salt Lake represented the defendant.

TO HELP IDAHO

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson Writes to Local Real Estate Man.

For the purpose of providing information from a source that cannot be questioned, for inquirers as to the Twin Falls country, Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, has expressed his willingness to furnish inquirers with bona fide information. This word comes from him in answer to a letter written by D. M. Denton, real estate dealer in this city, under date of October 4.

In accordance with the secretary's letter, Mr. Denton asks that all farmers and others who have harvested large yields of crops, of whatever nature, make sworn affidavits of same and deliver to him at the office of the Twin Falls Real Estate and Trust company. These affidavits will be forwarded to Secretary Wilson.

The correspondence between Mr. Denton and Secretary Wilson follows: Hon. James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: We are confronted with a problem in southern Idaho which should be of great interest to you as father of the Agricultural department.

As you know, we have one of the best and largest irrigation projects in the world. On this project our crop yields range as follows:

Wheat, 70 bushels to the acre.
Potatoes, as high as 500 bushels to the acre.

Alfalfa clover seed, from 10 to 14 bushels to the acre.
Oats, from 70 to 120 bushels an acre.

The above mentioned crops are a few of the large yields which we have harvested this year. If we go to the east and middle west and report this crop yield the prospective purchaser has a tendency to disbelieve us. The problem of colonization is getting so great with the big ad. on Florida, Texas and Canada, where some of these places are not worthy to be placed in the colonization column, that we feel at this time that by coming to you, and if you are not acquainted with the conditions existing here, we would only be too glad to furnish you all data needed to confirm our great crop yield, and we know after you are convinced that our country is as productive you will allow us to use your office for reference, which we must do in order to save the extreme number of land-seekers that are leaving these United States for Canada.

Our lands are cheap and we have used extreme methods to show eastern land-seekers these facts, which are beyond comprehension. It would be a great pleasure on our part to furnish you sworn affidavits proving without a doubt that such crops as above mentioned are accurate.

Yours very truly,
D. M. DENTON.

Mr. D. M. Denton, Twin Falls, Idaho.
Dear Sir: Your letter of October 4th received, and any facts in our possession regarding Idaho will be cheerfully given to any inquirer, but that is as far as we can go.

Yours respectfully,
(Signed) JAMES WILSON, Secretary.
