NEW CARS ARE SUBJECT TO TEST

PROMINENT CITIZENS GUESTS OF COMPANY ON JUNKET

Trip Was Thoroughly Enjoyable and the Equipment Found Second to None in the Country.

One of my fondest hopes—storage battery electric cars for Twin Falls—has been realized. This trip has proven the cars a success. We are all more than pleased with the result and know that the electric line, which will be the first so operated in America, will also be a success. This is only a starter in the way of electric development for the Twin Falls country. H. B. Porritt, president of the Twin Falls Railway company, was the guest of honor.

As a demonstration of the successful operation of the Edison storage battery cars for the Twin Falls Electric railway, a trial run was made with "100" and "101" in train to Bull last Saturday evening over the Oregon Short Line. The storage battery car was pronounced a success by the citizens of this city who were the guests of the electric railway officials on the trial trip. Eighty-nine and Second Street north, at 8:05 o'clock, the car made the run to Bull in 33 minutes under the motor control of the storage battery battery system. With the Federal Storage Battery company of Silver Lake, New Jersey, makers of the cars now on the road for the local electric railway. The return trip from Bull was made in 40 minutes, allowing a brief stop at Piler, arriving at 8:45.

PROMPT ACTION SAVES LIFE OF LITTLE ONE

FIVE YEAR OLD SON OF A. R. ANDERSON HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Falls into Later and is Drawn to Safety With a Rake in the Hands of Mrs. I. B. Nelson.

Presente of mind, quick action, and a rake proved the child dead from claiming the five-year-old son of A. R. Anderson Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Anderson said the child had been playing a marble in the Moor man addition. Returning, the boy was running on ahead of his mother, and coming to the large later, he fell into it. Mrs. Anderson immediately jumped in after him, but failed to catch the child and he was swept away by the water. Mrs. Nelson saw the child in the water, and immediately ran to the later, where the boy fell in, and was just in time to see him rise to the surface. Mrs. Nelson soon had the child in her arms. With the assistance of neighbors she rescued the boy, who was unconscious and apparently dead. The boy is now getting along nicely.

Classification of the Various Business Houses Shows a Healthy Opportunity for Continued Growth.

As an accurate directory of the business houses, industries, occupations and civic features of this city, Secretary McMillan, of the Commercial Club, has compiled a list of 1000 data information both for the residents of the city and tract and the outside public. Most interesting as well as valuable points may be gained from reading the roster, which should be clipped and saved for ready reference. As an example, there are eight occupations in this city, about one for each thousand inhabitants, while it requires 13 physicians to keep the public well. Twice as many lawyers as

ONLY TWO MEN AFFECTED

Strike Inaugurated in Salt Lake City Finds Temporary Echo in Twin Falls

As a result of a strike inaugurated by the employes of the Salt Lake Electric company, a number of Idaho branches of the concern are affected. The strike went into effect some days ago as a result of failure to agree on an increase in wages. The Twin Falls branch of the concern, known as the Citizens Electric Company, is temporarily affected, but Manager W. A. Hartz states that work is in such shape that no salaries were little inconvenience here. Mr. Hartz states that the local employes have no grievance against the company, but that a recognition of the strike here is forced to some extent by reason of the difficulty at headquarters. Only two employes of the local company are affected by the order and a settlement of the trouble is looked for within a day or two.

TWIN FALL HIGH DISTRICT CHAMPIONS

BUHL-TEAM DEFEATED 5 TO 4 IN DECIDING GAME

Close Score in Snappy Game on the Local Grounds—Opposing Pitchers Work Fine—Show Improvement.

Twin Falls High School won the baseball championship in this section of the state at the local ball park last Saturday, defeating Buhl high 5 to 4 in a close 10-inning game. Both teams showed great improvement over their work on two previous days. The wind and dust made fast playing impossible and considering this disadvantage the boys put up a good game.

There was less hitting on the Twin Falls side than occurred in the former game when Buhl was squeaked by a score of 18 to 6. W. Hubbell led the team with a string of 13 strikeouts to his credit. He seemed to have a special grudge against Bailey and fanned him seven times. The first game Buhl hit Buhl six to four, but his arms were well scattered and with any kind of support Hubbell could have won the game. Shields was named as the chief offender on the Buhl team and three bobbles are held against him. All three came in the first and second innings and were the only ones possible for two of Twin Falls. Burns, Byrne, at third booted a couple and helped considerably. Jacoby missed one shot in the ten field and was out at short made a wild throw to first that scored a man.

Markel, who played short in the former game, batted all afternoon in left field.

The Twin Falls team presented a lineup that was somewhat different from the order of the first game. Marshall regressed to left field. Fay Rogers, who has recently held center field, batted in the second. The game was taken by Hoag, Hoag booted a couple, but neither of the two were serious.

Crack Pitching

Livville pitched his first full game for Twin Falls and looked like a seven hundred dollar in the first game. He had two men and allowed four hits. Twice during the game he found himself in bad holes, but with great control and perfect support from his teammates he pitched himself out without allowing a score.

All through the game the local players displayed some of the best hitting seen in such a longed for future. There wasn't a dull minute in the whole game. The infielders kept up a constant conversation with the pitcher and the pitcher's vigorous enthusiasm was noticeably absent.

Game in Detail

The game started with Buhl at bat and Livville moved them down in order. Twin Falls in her hat started with Burns, who was out to the right. Taylor lagged to center, which Jacoby failed to stop, and the ball rolled to the center field fence. Instead of going after it Jacoby watched it to see how far it would roll. By the time the left fielder had struck the ball Whalley was pursuing it. Burns threw it in the air and it was found that he got started. Marrin was next up and tipped off a single and Whalley came across with a fly. Kirpatrick and Whittier rolled out and Chisholm knocked a weak grounder to Shields, who batted it and gave the runner a clean two-base hit. Shields' error, Chisholm was caught stealing second.

Three Men Up

Three bums then faced Livville in the second inning, two of them fanning and the other filed to Bally. Twin Falls' scores were more in their half of the second. Bailey fanned. Bower rolled out to Burns, who threw wild to first. Bower going to second on the error. After this and Bower took loose with a balk and Bower took third. Hoag grounded to Shields and let the ball get away from him. Hoag's error, Buhl's error, Livville seemed to be rattled. Livville was at bat and Hubbell tried to sneak over a return strike. As soon as he got the ball in his hands he shot it back, hoping to get the batter off his guard, but Livville calmly stopped up and pitched a clean two-base hit. The center fielder, and Hoag scored. Whitted ended the inning by striking out. Hubbell did not try any more return strikes.

Buhl Scores

In the fifth Buhl managed to get one run. Jacoby made first on an error. Bock fanned and Markel grounded out. Jacoby going to second on the error. Buhl's error, and W. Hubbell singled, scoring Jacoby. Shields fanned, ending the inning. Buhl earned the score in the sixth and made things hum for a while. Burns scratched one and was safe on first. G. Harding grounded out. Buhl's error, Burns' error, Burns walked. Jacoby fanned and Bock popped an easy one just out of Bailey's reach, and Burns and Bower were taking second. Markel singled, scoring Bock, but was caught later in attempting to steal second. Buhl went down in order in their half of the tenth and Twin Falls jumped in and won the game when their turn came. Whalley pulled off a master stroke that took him in the game when it was coupled with a wild heave to first. Chisholm was next up and sent a single down past second that was so hot that it signed the grass. Whalley scored and the game ended with the score 5 to 4.

GROW CLOVER SEED ON MAMMOTH SCALE

TWIN FALLS STATED FARM CO. BRINGS PARES FOR ACTIVE WORK

Will Cultivate Large Area of Land on the Twin Falls South Side and Salmon River Projects.

One of the most important enterprises launched in this section in some time past is that of the Twin Falls Seed Farm company, of which Harry F. Allen is the managing partner with a number of local business men serving as officers and directors of concern.

The company will engage in the growing of seed of all kinds, but for the present will specialize in red, white and Alaska clover. Negotiations are under way for the securing of several large tracts of land on the South Side and Salmon River projects and already a heavy acreage has been selected. The seed will be marketed through the regular channels on a wholesale scale and it is expected that the company will become active operations practically at once.

Those familiar with the possibilities in the raising and marketing of clover seed say that the profits from this crop are enormous. This is based on larger—on data contained in the detailed reports of Don E. Beck, government engineer in charge of experiments on the duty of water in Idaho, which show that net profits per acre amounting to as many as $4000 to $7200 were secured last year by a number of growers on the Twin Falls tract.

Read the following Affidavit and then Come and Talk it Over with me:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, San Joaquin Co., ss.
I, M. E. Deckeraw, of lawful age, being duly sworn, depose and say that I am a married woman and formerly resided at 1533 Market St., Oakland, California.
That on December 14, 1911, I borrowed $1500.00 from a gentleman by the name of Dr. Taylor for the purpose of purchasing a wholesale contract for that amount from the DOMESTIC UTILITIES MFG. CO., located at 124 Broadway, Los Angeles, Calif., and gave as security for the payment of said amount my promissory note which is as follows:
Noted as Cal. Dec. 14, 1911.
On demand after twenty days from date for value received I promise to pay T. E. Taylor, of Crofton, Cal. One Hundred and FIFTY Dollars, ($150.00) in U. S. Gold.
(Signed) MRS. M. E. DECKERAW.
Endorsed: Paid December 15, 1911.
R. E. TAYLOR.
The above note was paid in full four days after the money was borrowed and when I received the same Mr. Taylor, telling me that I had made the $150.00 through the use of the loan in four days, and still had the privilege of doing business under my wholesale contract with the M. E. Deckeraw Co., whereupon he said he wanted to invest the same $150.00 in the same way and at once bought a $150.00 wholesale contract from the DOMESTIC UTILITIES MFG. CO. at a store of $150.00 commission, on which I received $50.00 commission.
On the 29th day of January following, I had made enough commissions on sales under my $150.00 contract to raise the same to $300.00.

The above letter is one of many that I can show you from persons who are making big money out of this business. If you want to make more money than you ever made before, call at 128 Shoshone, West, and I will tell you how it can be done.

Yours very respectfully,
A. T. COPE, Wholesale Agent.

Square Deal Fence

The difference in cost between a loosely woven fence made of brittle, poorly galvanized wire and the best fence you can possibly buy is only a few cents, at the most. In fact, it is so slight that you can't afford to consider it for a minute. When you stop to think that it lasts just as many years and just as much labor to put up a short-lived fence as it does one that will last two or three times as long, and when you stop to figure the cost of repairing broken-down fences—the loss to your crops from cattle breaking through, horses going over and pigs crawling under—you will agree that to buy any wire fence just because it is cheap is poor economy.

Come In and See It

THE END OF THE WORLD.

Those who believe that the bottom is going to drop out of the universe, co-incidentally with the passage of the Democratic tariff bill, should take a long drink of any recognized brand of soothing syrup and proceed to forget it.

Money, just at this time, is tight over the country. This is not a local condition or even a national one. It is international in scope and applies equally to the whole world. The reasons are also world wide, although the prospects of a tariff change do not tend to improve matters in this country.

In analyzing cause and effect in connection with financial conditions, there are one or two bright spots which it is well to keep in mind. An far as Twin Falls is concerned, any reflection of general moment is bound to be reflected throughout the entire country and this section cannot expect to prove an exception. Yet there is no more prosperous town of its size in the West today than Twin Falls, and any banker or business man will confirm this statement and will find it hard to provide the reasons.
This year any one of two or three things, all of which may happen, will be sufficient to lend an impetus to local business which will place Twin Falls in the most enviable position of any town in the State. One of these is the completion of the local street railway system—another is the beginning of construction on the Short Line road to the Southern Pacific; still another is the opening of the great Bureau project.

Now all of these things may happen, one or two of them are bound to happen. There can be no question of their effect on local business conditions, and it is therefore well that they should be kept in mind.

THE IDAHO RAILROAD OUTLOOK.

Boise is very sure of her connecting line to the Western and Southern Pacific at Winnemucca, judging from the tenor of recent newspaper utterances emanating from the Capital. Twin Falls is also virtually assured of the construction of a Short Line branch from this city to the Southern Pacific, thereby providing an outlet to the west coast.

The Twin Falls people are inclined to regard the promises of the SHOY LINE in this connection as having been made in good faith and if the plans go through as per schedule the breach now existing will be considerably diminished if in fact it does not disappear altogether.
From an unbiased standpoint it would seem that Boise's chances for a new line are considerably heightened as a result of the Short Line Twin Falls project. Should this line be built, as now seems exceedingly likely, Boise will in all probability get her railroad just the same, but it will probably run from Boise to a connection at Twin Falls rather than from Boise to Winnemucca.

There are a good many reasons for this, chief among these being that such a road would do away with a great deal of unnecessary construction expense, would pass through a settled and populated section of the State instead of better than a hundred miles of unproductive desert waste, and would give Boise about as direct a connection with the California coast as could well be brought about.

THE NEW STREET RAILWAY.

There is something of an inspiration in the sight of the big, new, powerful looking cars of the Twin Falls Street Railway company moving forcefully up and down Second street. With a delay of only a few hours following their arrival in the city last week, their activity in Twin Falls commenced. The sight means the beginning of a new epoch—many a man felt like giving a hearty cheer—some few did. In seven years Twin Falls has progressed from the stage coach to the street car, and the most modern type of storage battery car at that. This is something of a step in the march of progress and one of which the city may well be proud.

There is a sense of peculiar fitness in the fact that the man who has made the street car possible here should be one of the very first arrivals, the leader of the vanguard of the IHHE army of intrepid men who came, and saw, and had faith in their ability to conquer, at a time when Twin Falls was a sage brush waste.

I. B. Perrine has done much for Twin Falls but perhaps his crowning achievement consists of his latest accomplishment—the giving to the Twin Falls country of her first inter-urban-railway system.

HASTY CRITICISM.

There is a very general tendency to criticize Theodore Roosevelt on the ground that he, and he alone, is responsible for the present Democratic administration. With all his faults, his extreme selfishness and consummate egotism, this is not quite fair to the man.

In the final analysis, the leaders of the Republican party in nineteen twelve are the men to shoulder the responsibility. The outrageous theft of the Chicago convention at the hands of Taft and the National Committee did more to elect the present President, House and Senate than any other single cause, the Roosevelt activity included.

TALK AMALGAMATIONS OF TWO ASSOCIATIONS

FRUIT-GROWERS MAY CAST LOT WITH NORTHWESTERN

Horticulturists of This Section of the State Hold Well Attended Meeting, But No Decision is Reached.

Perhaps the meeting held in the rooms of the Commercial club last Saturday in the interest of the fruit growers of the Twin Falls tract will eventually be of mutual benefit to all who attended and also to all the growers in general. At least it has been thought best by the advisory committee of the Twin Falls County Fruit Growers' association to call another meeting of the organization for Saturday, May 10th, in the rooms of the Commercial club, at 2 o'clock, to take up, discuss and definitely decide whether the growers of this section shall affiliate with the Idaho Oregon Fruit Growers' association, this district to be composed of the counties of southern Idaho and one county in Oregon, or make the present local organization be maintained.

This meeting should be of more than special interest to not only the members of the local association, but to all those interested in the culture and growing of fruits, and the decision reached at this time is undoubtedly destined to have a bearing on the future outcome of the marketing of the fruits, both large and small produced on the tract. It is hoped that an unusual number of growers will be present, adding not only by their presence but by any suggestions they may offer, in the way of presenting a question that is material, direct, then and develop to a greater extent the future fruit industry of the Twin Falls tract. The meeting will be called to order promptly at 2 o'clock.

CROWDS DO HONOR TO MODERN CULINARY ART

DEMONSTRATION OF ELECTRIC RANGES GAINS APPROVAL

Good Things to Eat of All Kinds Are Served All Day Long—High School Girls Assist in the Servings.

An elaborate array of good things of all kinds was served yesterday at the electric-cooking exhibition given in the Moore building under the patronage of H. F. Holland, representing the Simplex Electric Range company of Boston. A full line of the latest designs in electric ranges, cookers, and broilers were displayed and their operation explained to all those who were present. A steady stream of men and women came and went all day long.
The steady heat obtained in electric cooking was evidenced in the specially scalloped potatoes and peas that were served. An interesting feature of the exhibit was the display placed on the sidewalk in front of the building which fried, broiled or baked without interference from drafts or breeze. No smoke came puffing out the stove lids, no fires blew out. A strong feature of this method is contained in the use of the range or other appliances in the open air, as in the kitchen at Dorches. A large booth of carnations decorated the top of each stage during the demonstration.
The demonstration was a success in all particulars. A large number of electric patrons were served with delicious food of all kinds during the day. Orders for ranges, broilers and much, potatoes and other vegetables, pies and delicacies of every description were pronounced delicious by the guests. The service was assisted in serving by representatives of the Great Shoshone Power company and members of the high school domestic science class.

MISSION-UNION MEETS

Associated Church Societies Hold an Interesting Program at the Baptist Church.

The Woman's Missionary Union met in the Baptist church May 11, with Mrs. C. E. Evans in the chair. The meeting started at 1:30 with devotional, led by Mrs. Kingsbury. The roll was called alphabetically, each society raising and giving a verse of scripture. The Baptist society had 16 members, Christian fourth, Methodist sixteen, and the Presbyterians seventeen, each society having a banner, the Presbyterians carrying off honors in point of numbers.
Each society gave a report of the work being done, which was very interesting.

- 1. The program for the afternoon was in the hands of Mrs. H. H. Miller, the topic being "The Bible in the Public Schools." The following questions were asked: 1. What is the importance of the Bible? 2. What have been the influences on the young in removing the Bible from the public schools? 3. What step can we take to reinstate the Bible? (The following resolution was presented to the union and unanimously adopted.) Resolved, That we, the members of the Twin Falls Missionary Union, be loving that there be a tendency of the day toward carelessness of the Book of Books, that we, the members of this union, do our best to encourage the reading of the Bible at least one of our study days in July to the study of the book called "The Fascination of the Book of Books" by Dr. Edgar Wright, New York City, under the direction of our president, Mrs. Evans, and that we work and pray until every citizen of Twin Falls has a Bible in his own country, come to see and realize the vital importance of the Bible.
- (Signed) I. A. POISTERFIELD, MILTON, MISSOURI.
JANIS WYATT, ALICE BAIRD MILLER.

Annual Blossom Party

The annual "Blossom Party" given by Mrs. I. D. Perrine at the famous Blue-Lakes ranch last Saturday proved to be even more of a happy event than the women of Twin Falls have learned to expect, and the same hundred and twenty-five guests who delighted that they never will know the beauty of this wonderful spot. Most of the guests motored from the city to the top of the grade, enjoying the ramp the rest of the way down to the ranch, while others who did not care for the walk were driven at the way in buses and coaches.

Last year when lunch was spread under the blossom laden apple trees at the head of the lake, no one dreamed there could be a more beautiful spot on the whole ranch, but this time Mrs. Perrine surprised her guests by arranging the lunch on long tables in "Lover's Retreat," a place where few of them knew existed. To reach this picturesque island the guests followed the winding banks of Morgan creek to the enchanting "Grove Hill" Falls, where they created a rustic bridge. The island is sheltered by giant cedar trees and birch willows, and was indeed an ideal spot to serve the delicious picnic lunch which the hostess had provided. During the afternoon the guests roamed at will over the beautiful ranch, finding new attractions along the banks of the lakes, in the clear waters of which mountain trout and cray fish could be "baited" every day. The out-of-town guests were Meslames B. D. Burton and W. D. Morrison of Burley, C. H. Craven and K. H. Dixon of Hollister, J. C. Somers, from Annapolis, W. E. Brown and George Hoganson of Jerome, A. A. Walters and R. J. McMahon of Shoshone, J. W. Fair, Harry, E. W. Hutton and A. J. DeLoach of the guild from Buhl, D. S. Spencer, Ed. Johnson, and Misses Clinton, Frank and Kenneth of Salt Lake, and Mrs. P. B. Bickett and daughter of Hagerman.

Auction Bridge Club Entertained

As a finale to the series of bridge luncheons given by the Auction Bridge club, Mrs. C. G. Longley, Mrs. B. A. Hamiltons, Mrs. H. R. Grant and Mrs. H. F. Allen, who were the four holders of the highest scores for the season, gave a beautifully appointed dinner at the home of the former on Shoshone street for the members of the club and their husbands on Saturday evening. The dinner table was beautifully decorated in Nell Rose, a low crystal bowl filled with carnations of this shade and surrounded by ferns forming the attractive centerpiece. The cardiac shades were also of pell rose silk with crystal fringe, and added much to the general effect of the decorations. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Longley were the prize winners for the evening. Attractive place cards were arranged by Mrs. and Mrs. Longley, Mr. and Mrs. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Longley, Mr. and Mrs. McCollum, Miss Maxwell and Mrs. Warren.

Honoring Mr. H. B. Lewis

Honoring Mrs. H. B. Lewis, who, with Mr. Lewis left Tuesday evening for Long Beach, California, where they will make their home for some time, was the very attractive bridge party given by Mrs. Greenough and her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Lewis, at the home of the former on Monday evening. The house was prettily decorated in Japanese plum and cherry blossoms, and the entire room was decorated with hand painted in the same spring flowers. Mrs. Allen won the prize for high score at bridge, and Mrs. Lewis was declared the best book or magazine gift. A delicious supper was served at the close of the evening to the twenty-four ladies who enjoyed Mrs. Greenough's and Mrs. Lewis' hospitality.

K-C Gold Cake

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

1 cup butter; 1 cup sugar; yolks of 4 eggs, beaten light; 1/2 cup flour; 1/2 level tablespoonful of level level of baking powder; 1/2 cup milk; grated rind of 1 orange.

Sift flour and baking powder together three times; cream butter and sugar; beat yolks of eggs, add these to creamed mixture, and lastly add the molasses and flour alternately, using butter until smooth. Gold Cake can only be made successfully by beating yolks of eggs, very, very creamy, and light lemon colored, using a rotary beater. The rotary beater is the only one that is better than will do justice to the yolks of eggs. The beating will give the cake a light, airy texture, and improve the texture of the cake.

Coconut Frying
Beat the whites of 2 eggs dry, gradually beat in half a cup of sifted confectioner's sugar, continue the beating until the frosting is smooth, thick and glossy. Beat in the grated coconuts, fresh or prepared, and spread upon the cake. This frosting is made thick by beating rather dry.

Beats this recipe: "You will find it one of the best, or better, send us the colored cardlets packed in each 25-cent can of K-C Baking Powder, and we will mail you 'The Cook's Book' containing this and 100 other baking recipes equally good—all by Mrs. Hill. James Mfg. Co., Chicago."

JOSEPH MADE RULER OF EGYPT.

Genesis 41: 25-40.

25. And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: Pharaoh hath two dreams.

26. The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years; the dream is one.

27. And for the seven evil kine and for the seven ears of tares, they are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted by the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

28. Thus is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29. Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt.

30. And these shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land; and the famine shall consume the land; and the famine shall consume the land.

31. And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of the famine following; for it shall be very grievous.

32. And for that the dream was doubted unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will surely do it.

33. Now therefore let Pharaoh look out for a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34. Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years.

35. And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36. And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

37. And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38. And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the spirit of God is?

39. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God has showed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art.

40. Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people do; for I have found thee in this dream will I be greater than thou.

41. And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, Golden "ex" - God will give grace to the humble. - I Peter 5: 5.

Introductory.

Two years have passed since Joseph interpreted the dreams of the king and the baker of the King of Egypt. They have been lonely, sad years for the young man, but nothing could destroy his sense of dependence upon the God of his fathers. He believed that all human interests are in God's hands, and that he will finally vindicate his own cause and do good, while the wicked are punished. He remembered his experience in the prison. He thought of Joseph and told the king so. The king was pleased and at once sent for Joseph, who came and gave such an account of the dream and its interpretation that the king was satisfied.

Expository.

25. The king had dreamed twice, two different, but similar things. All other interpreters would "mix" the two dreams, most different things; but Joseph saw that they meant the same thing, the one simply emphasizing the other. Pharaoh could see that it was the same thing, the God of Joseph, had given the dream as signifying his purpose in dealing with Egypt. It was to be a great display of divine power.

26. The seven fat cows were seven years, and the seven good ears, or sheaves, were also signified seven years. They meant the same thing, the seven "lean" or poor cows were seven years, as did also the seven sheaves of wheat shined and worthless. The first seven signified fruitful years, the second seven signified years of famine.

27. The dreams were given that Pharaoh might be prepared for the famine.

28. During the first seven years the earth would yield abundantly - more than the people could properly consume; but the next seven years would bring such a famine as had never before been known. Even when the fruits of the first seven years were laid up as food, there would be such want and hardship as to be unbearable. Everything would be eaten up.

29. All that could well be saved during the first seven years would hardly suffice for the next seven years. Only the greatest care could prevent the death of all the nations.

30. The famine would be so great that the people would starve, that there had been years of plenty.

31. The two dreams, dealing so directly with the number seven (the sacred number), were given to emphasize the truth and give Pharaoh assurance that it would be as Joseph had said. It was to come to pass very soon.

32. Joseph's advice is that preparation be made at once. Some man of great executive ability and armed with full power should be made responsible for the care to be taken during the first seven years.

33. This high official should be selected to report to the king about the progress of the work, and those with power to appoint still others over smaller districts, and so on down until the work was fully provided for. At least a fifth of the produce of the first seven years should be stored up against the famine of the next seven years. This was not a mere precaution considering the seven years to follow.

34. It would require large storehouses for such gathering; but provision must be made. We must remember that the word "corn," here used, signifies wheat. Wheat was not a large part of the wealth of Egypt. It is exported to Italy and France, and perhaps farther. Our Indian corn was not known in Egypt in those days, though some is grown there now.

35. This fifth of the crops of the first seven years might be sufficient if it were used during the next seven years. To just keep the people and animals alive.

36. Pharaoh saw the force of what Joseph said; he accepted it as true, and he determined to set upon the advice of the young man.

37. Pharaoh said to him, I will look around for the man who should be set over the whole business. He consulted his high officials; but the right man was not known to them.

38. It occurred to Pharaoh that Joseph was just the man. He had given good advice, and he was the man to execute what he had advised. He turned to Joseph and declared that he was just the man needed, and he should undertake the task.

39. He was a custom king, and their wish, to get rid of all the responsibility and hard work possible, was often lavished upon him, in which they themselves ought to have done. Joseph was the man for Pharaoh. Not only should he transact this business, but he should be made to the king himself, having all the power of his kingdom, though not being the nominal king - it was a wonderful exaltation for the Hebrew young man. It was because his God was with him and gave him the wisdom to interpret the dreams and to give the good advice. He was now to act in the place of the king himself, the latter simply keeping the name Pharaoh. So Joseph was provided for by the king of his choice.

40. Joseph had not presumed to interpret his own dreams which he told to his father and his brothers. He was to interpret for Pharaoh and win a great victory.

PATRON'S DAY DULY OBSERVED IN TWIN FALLS.

Exhibits of the Manual Training Department Science and Art Departments Draw High Praises From Many.

Work done by the pupils in all departments and classes of the high and graded schools of the city was on display last Friday on the occasion of Patron's Day. Many visitors spent the afternoon viewing the drawings, paintings and works of art craft at the various buildings. A number of the exhibits were kept in place until the first of the week—when they were viewed by many who were unable to visit the buildings last Friday. At the high school exhibit in the manual training, domestic science, and art departments were of high class—work in being done by the pupils in these departments the most of any work done in the special schools of the country. At the Hinkel and Lincoln schools the rooms were decorated with drawings, paintings and samples of lesson work in penmanship, as well as copy-books containing work in spelling, grammar and arithmetic. The exhibits were especially fine for the grades and the age of the pupils preparing the exhibits. Work in drawing, painting, and basketry and design in the first grades were especially meritorious. School officials and teachers are greatly encouraged with the progress that has been made in these departments during this year.

MEETS INSTANT DEATH FROM HIGH POWER LINE

HARRY KING OF BUHL KILLED BY ELECTRIC CURRENT

Dead Wire Comes In Contact With a Transmission Line, With Fatal Results to Lineman.

Harry King, of Buhl, lineman for the Great Shoshone Power company, met instant death by disconnection of a transmission line, while striding over about one mile east of Buhl. His body was accompanied to Denver last evening by Mrs. King for interment at their former home.

Engaged in stringing a new line, King was pulling a dead wire from a tree when the wire caught in a tree and broke loose from the tree, falling into the air and came in contact with a live power wire, killing Mr. King instantly. Medical aid was immediately summoned, but found to be of no avail.

Mrs. King had been in Buhl for only about a month. Mr. King having been connected with the company in the Mountain Home field prior to going to Buhl.

NEW CARS ARE TESTED.

The Great Shoshone Power office building is a sufficient one can be secured. The maintaining of equal average train speed expelled from the middle of all the trial trip passengers, any amount that would be of comfort could not be secured on an interurban line, as the riding of the train was over more satisfactory through the city than on the other lines.

Start Work on Track.

Within the next few days, providing a sufficient one can be secured, work will be started on the completing of the track to Shoshone Falls and return. The line along Addison Avenue will be the first constructed. A switch has been built into the charging station at the foot of Second street, west, and with the cars easily and quickly will be expected in distributing the line and rails for placement.

The Electric Light and Power company for two weeks' business trip in Washington, D. C. and New York City greatly credit over the trial of the battery cars made on the Shoshone Falls line. The company is planning for the future, he stated, that the opening of this line is only a beginner along the line of electrical development for the Twin Falls country. That this line will scatter over the county and north side within the next few years to be his assurance. He will likely be allowed to announce other development plans that will mean much to southern Idaho well pleased.

Mr. LaFoy was well pleased with the showing made by the cars on the run to Buhl. After going over the route of the line to the Falls he is sure that the line will be maintained over the entire route, there being no greater grade than three per cent on the entire route.

During the stay at Buhl last Saturday evening, a party of Buhl citizens were taken about the cars and given a ride. Permits have been given the electric railway officials by the Short Line to operate the special train over the route. Special facilities were furnished by the electric line officials to the city and county officials, the officers of the Commercial club and representatives of the press and families to make the initial trip of the battery cars.

A Logical View of a Problem Confronting the People of Idaho

Since the passage of the Public Utility Bill by the last session of the State Legislature, a new and significant problem faces many of our local communities. This question is that of Regulation versus Competition. Hereafter, the people have had practically no choice in the matter, but are being forced to pay for the tolls imposed by the local utility corporations, their only recourse being to choose whether it shall involve competition or utility service. Since the Utility Bill became a law, however, the public has an option to choose whether it shall involve competition in a community, or whether it shall regulate the rates charged for electric or other forms of service by the local company.

At first thought, one is likely to conclude that wherever opportunity affords competition should be encouraged. This feeling is magnified by the thought that a rate war will result and that the consumer will reap the benefit. On the other hand, the public must now be considered that the Utility Bill was passed for the express purpose of regulating rates to be charged for the public utility service by the various utility companies. In other words, under this new law the public at large is brought into partnership with the local utility company. As the companies prepare for the growth of their business and public patronage, the consumers will receive adequate service through compulsory reductions in rates. The law specifically provides that no utility company shall be allowed to earn an income out of proportion to its investment or fair valuation.

All over the country today, people are coming to realize that competition is an economic necessity, especially in the electric service industry; that competition does not make for cheap service, and that competition will be replaced by regulation to a very great extent. Where the competition exists the combined investment of the two or more companies involved is applied, the operating and maintenance costs are necessarily diminished and consequently the cost of production of the service furnished to a given community is greatly increased and the public is made to pay for it.

LEGAL BLANKS. A full supply of legal blanks at The Twin Falls News.

often doubled. This fact, too, that the public and they are greatly dissatisfied by the installation and two or more sets of poles is another reason why the electric service industry should be subjected to the properly regulated company. The history of power rate wars all over the country has been that the rate cutting should be confined to a few months, and rarely, if ever, more than a couple of years. After the thing is completed, the rate cutting is stopped, and the rate is raised to the original level. The result is that the public is left with a rate that is higher than when the thing was started. The result is that the public is left with a rate that is higher than when the thing was started.
