FREE POTATO BULLETIN

A limited number of copies of the new bulletin on "Good Seed Potatoes and How to Produce Them" are on hand at the county office. The bulletin contains much useful information for their distribution in this section having been undertaken through the courtesy of the Oregon Short Line.

Change in Line-up.

The Twin Falls team lined up in a manner never seen before and failed to play in the month long in which won their second game. Harris, who is a better pitcher and left fielder, played second base. Merritt and Anderson both were in the line-up at second base before and considering this fact he played a good game. Harris, a member of last year's team, has the fastest kick in the state in the original speed attack. When he gets started he doesn't know when to stop. It might be added also, that Harris has never had to worry about stopping.

Fallen umpired the game and was a very brilliant success. His ball and strike calling were well done and he was apparently unconcerned about the way the runners scored. He was taken to the far end of the field during the hearing for blows. He was taken very lightly by the Boise team but he didn't show up such a much. He certainly has a varied assortment of jesters, and that was all he needed against Twin Falls' hitters, but as far as smokes is concerned he is a ham. He had good control and kept the locals under his thumb at all times, but comparing all the departments of their art, Liville shows to be far advanced.

JOHN GRAY IS DECLARED NOT GUILTY

ON CHARGE OF SHOOTING JESS HAYES

Upon preliminary hearing before Justice W. J. Smith last Tuesday afternoon, John Gray, well known sheep man, was declared not guilty on a charge of manufacturing, having shot Jess Hayes, sheep herder in his employ, a week ago last Monday night. The hearing was presided over by Justice Gray in his former station as judge in his part in the shooting.

Chief objection to this plan lies in belief that low building efficiency would still be necessary, as at the present time, with grade approaching down to the bridge. As no greater load can be handled to or from this city than can be taken up the grade, it is plain to those who oppose this plan that much would be lost in time and expense if their wish would see that route in traffic, and that the present disadvantage in crossing the canyon would not be materially diminished.

Planners are being secured as proposed as constructing such a bridge as a level grade crossing where being prepared for the commissioners.

Mr. Carlson stated a few days ago that he had been in contact with the prospects of the camp from a mining standpoint.

Colonel Deake stated that the entire project of the camp was not that even a novice in the mining business cannot fail to be impressed with the possibilities.

They are said one thing required to favor the camp's future," said Colonel Deake yesterday, "and that is the completion of the railroad from Rogerson. When this is done, which from all indications will be at no very distant date, the camp of Colonel Deake will be one of the greatest mining districts anywhere."

Mr. Townsend was so pleased with the Twin Falls country that he regretted leaving after attending to business matters. He stated that he liked it so well that he would remain longer the next time.

It was claimed by Gray that the shot Hayes in self defense, following Hayes' snoring his test to a sheeping manner, after the ball had struck him, and that he had no doubt resulted in a fatal or non-fatal. Hayes was intimidated at the time of the shooting.

Prosecuting Attorney Hicks contains his examinations to the defense.

NEW STATE LICENSE TAGS FOR AUTOS ARE BECOMING NUMEROUS ON STREETS OF CITY

Drivers of automobiles and motor-cycles are attaching the new 1913 license tags to their machines, as seen out during the last few days from the office of the secretary of state. Judged by the low numbers, many Twin Falls motorists were among the first to apply for this year's license tags. With this year's license best state numbers rather than city or county numbers, as heretofore. The new tags are made larger than the old style, allowing a larger number to appear in large figures, being easily read at a distance. The body of the tag is blue and the numbers are shown in white. There are stamps of cars and motorcycles carry special license tags. Under the new law license tags are to be placed on the front or rear of the machine. For over 30 lbs. or less the fee is $15; for over 30 lbs. and under 400 lbs. $20; for over 400 lbs. and under 800 lbs. $25; over 800 lbs. $40. Motorcycles, $15.

JARBIDGE SHOWINGS ARE ENCOURAGING

IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED THIS SUMMER

Few Camps Offer Better Prospects for Capital—Flaxite, Bluster, Success and Others Attracting Attention.

(Special News Correspondence)
Jarbridge, Nevada, May 22, 1913.
A week spent in climbing its rugged and precipitous mountains, examining its mines and prospects, and staling up the large ore bodies already uncovered, convinces one that there are few camps where capital will have a better use for money spent in intelligent and systematic development than at the camp of Jarbridge.
Then, too, while its chief claim to recognition lies in its large bodies of low grade free milling gold ore, yet it is possible to get pannings from Flaxite, Success or Bluster ore that would yield one somewhat of the early days of Goldfield and which stimulate the enthusiasm.

property. The vein was cut in a cross cut tunnel, 518 feet from its portal, at a vertical depth of 300 feet.
The "high grade" shoot was encountered in a drift on the footwall of the vein but 6 feet north of the tunnel. As shown by development up to this time the rich ore averages about 18 inches in width, and as it varies with high grade ore shoots, the values do not run uniform. But the average is exceedingly satisfactory.

Good Grade Ore.

The high grade ore is not being mined, but the drift has been continued alongside for a distance of 50 feet. This drift, however, is in mill ore that will go $20 per ton. A vein is also being sunk on the edge of the rich ore at a point near where it was first struck. This vein is now down 30 feet, and exposes the high grade for the entire distance. While, as indicated, it is not the intention to take on the rich ore until later, yet to outline a ledge for stulls while striking the vein, it has been necessary to cut into the high grade shoot. In doing this a ton of the ore has been taken out and sacked, and a grab sample from the sacks gave assay returns of $34 per ton. This is not as good as the assay returns of better than $100 per ton which were obtained some weeks ago, but it is wonderfully good for an average of the body so far exposed.
A deal for a large block of the treasury story of the Flaxite Mines company is being negotiated, the purchaser being B. D. Holcomb, of the camp, Washington, who has been in camp for some days. This will provide funds for systematic development and blocking out of the ore.

Making of Big Mine.

The writer had the privilege of being shown through the prospect of the Success camp by President C. J. Nelson. This property has a splendid showing and the making of one of the big mines of the Jarbridge district. The main tunnel of the Success is run on the vein and is in 230 feet in ore, except for the first 30 feet and for 60 feet between the two ore shoots.
The first ore shoot was struck 30 feet from the portal of the tunnel and is 150 feet in length. At a depth of 110 feet a vein was sunk to a depth of 75 feet. This is on the hanging wall and is all ore, with no footwall in sight. An upraise of 115 feet to the surface was made at a point 120 feet from the tunnel mouth also all in ore. The average value of the ore in this 120-foot shoot, as opened up in tunnel, vein and upraise, was a trifling better than $17 per ton, according to the report of R. M. Jones, an engineer well and favorably known in Nevada.

From the shaft to the 230-foot point in the tunnel the vein is practically barren, but at the latter point another ore shoot was encountered which has been proven up for a distance of nearly 200 feet. At the 250-foot point a vein was sunk to a depth of 30 feet, and 65 feet further in an upraise of 80 feet was made. Close to the end of this shoot the vein was cross-cut, showing an ore body 14 feet and 6 inches in width, with neither wall in sight. At the bottom of the vein, 327 feet in depth from the surface, the vein was again cross-cut and the ore body here is 11 feet wide. The character of the ore is a soft sugar quartz, easily mined and milled; assays show that the average value of this ore in this second shoot is about $18 a ton.

Pleased With Success.

B. D. Holcomb, of Tacoma, and Superintendent Hecator of the McHobby group, who accompanied the writer, declared the Success ore shoots were "the prettiest" they had ever seen. When some of the ore was later panned, and the long string of gold showed, they were even more enthusiastic.
Owing to the imperfections of four distance telephoning in the mountains "in winter" errors crept into the report recently given out regarding the deal for a control of the stock of the Bluster Consolidated company. The purchaser is not the "Potter-Palmer estate" but Hecator Palmer, the son of the late Potter Palmer, of Chicago, and one of the heirs of the estate. He is dealing for himself individually and not for the estate. Further, the deal was not actually closed as the Bluster people have given Mr. Palmer until May 15th to make the payment. For some days past a force under Superintendent John A. Jess has been sampling and surveying the known ore bodies and Hecator Palmer, who is Mr. Palmer's consultant engineer, has been in camp this week checking up the work.
When George Wingfield and the owners of the Success and Bluster groups failed to conclude the deal for these properties, it was given out that Wingfield had "turned down" Jarbridge. That such was not the case is indicated from the statement that he is once more operating in the camp. The property he is now working is the Jarbridge Gold, which adjoins the Flaxite and has the extension of the vein.

Wingfield Still Active.

The option on the Jarbridge Gold is not in Mr. Wingfield's name, but evidently has been purchased by him as the work is being done under the direction of F. J. Stewart, Wingfield's chief engineer, and whose services are devoted entirely to the latter's interests. E. H. Fletcher is in charge of the work as laid out by Mr. Stewart. A tunnel, now in 200 feet, is being driven and it is expected to catch the Flaxite vein in another hundred feet. Though it is still in the regular country rock, they are already getting panshots. A shaft is also being sunk, which is now down 75 feet.

Another property, which is attracting considerable attention is the Little Hill group, which joins the Bluster on the south. It is owned by the Prunty-Brothers, Wm. Rowland, W. H. Martin, and associates. A cross-cut tunnel caught the vein at a depth of 26 feet and in it is a small streak of ore from which two tons are stacked. It will go over $200 a ton. Another cross-cut tunnel has been started which will give a depth of 115 feet on the vein.

Numerous other properties in Jarbridge have very encouraging showings and before midsummer has arrived there should be many important developments.

WHY

The Best Fence Is the Cheapest

The difference in cost between a loosely woven fence made of brittle, poorly galvanized wire and the best fence you can possibly buy is only a few cents, at the most. In fact, it is so slight that you can't afford to consider it for a minute. When you stop to think that it takes just as many posts and just as much labor to put up a short-lived fence as it does one that will last you two or three times as long, and when you stop to figure the cost of repairing broken-down fences—the loss to your crops from cattle breaking through, horses going over and pigs crawling under—you will agree that to buy any wire fence just because it is cheap is poor economy.

Square Deal Fence

will outlast any other farm fence you can buy and costs no more than any other fence of equal weight and quality of material. Every rod is guaranteed by The Keystone Steel and Wire Company—the mill that makes both the fence and the wire that goes into it.

Come In and See It

before you buy fencing. See how trim and neat it looks; how easy it handles; see the non-breakable, non-slipping Square Deal Lock. See the wavy strand wires that keep Square Deal Fence tight and trim year around. See the one-piece stay wire that makes this fence self-supporting, non-sagging and non-buckling.

SAFEGUARDING PUBLIC HEALTH.

Within a couple of hundred yards of the point where the Short Line tracks cross the main canal from the Millner reservoir, there may be seen from the car windows the carcasses of two dead horses grotesque and ugly, their feet sticking into the air well above the safe beach.

A few rods away runs the canal, the ground sloping gently from the earthen to the water-course.

It rained during a good part of Sunday over much of Twin Falls county, and that rain beat down on the dead horses and the water ran down the incline slope into the canal. How long the decaying carcasses have been there is not known.

Typhoid and similar diseases depend for existence largely on just such conditions, and pollution of a city's water supply is one of the most prolific sources of all epidemics.

WHERE JUSTICE LEAVES OFF.

A decidedly interesting state of affairs is brought to light through the recent disclosures in connection with the latest bootlegging prosecutions.

The system of hiring detectives at a salary of four dollars a day and an unlimited expense account, not to detect crime, but to go out and create it, and share in it as a means of serving the ends of justice, may be a very good thing, but it would seem to be the part of common sense for the county authorities to make some little investigation as to the record of the man so hired.

A local attorney is under arrest in Elko, Nevada, pending the filing of charges in connection with recent liquor prosecutions, which if proven, will be sufficient to send him to the state prison. The truth of the charges has yet to be established.

In the case of the detective, T. F. McConville, certain facts have been already established which alone form a unique and interesting chapter in the story of Twin Falls' wrestle with the bootleggers.

While on the witness stand last week, McConville stated that he was a former saloon man and gambler. He also testified that he had been employed in the securing of testimony against illicit vendors of intoxicating liquors. His salary is four dollars per day and his expense account from eight to twelve dollars per day, on an average, with no limit. His business consists in inducing men to break the law governing the sale of intoxicating liquor. The transaction usually consists of a purchase by the detective from the bootlegger. The detective becomes a party to the crime under the law. The bootlegger pays the penalty of the law. The detective is paid four dollars per day and an unlimited expense account for his services.

There is something inherently vicious in the system which permits of the selection by the forces of law and order of a former saloon man and gambler as their representative to go out among his acquaintances and induce the commission of a crime, in the name of justice.

There is something radically wrong where the law must depend for a victim upon the commission of a crime which would not have been committed at all had it not been for the detective in the case.

There is perhaps no lower element of humanity than that represented by the bootlegger, and it is quite possible that every bootlegger ever convicted in Twin Falls county was as guilty as the lowest, but not for a minute does this excuse the hiring by the county machinery of former gamblers and saloon keepers as county detectives in bootlegging cases.

A WORK OF ART.

One of the finest examples of the product of the printers' art and one of the biggest and best publications of the kind ever turned out by any plant east of Boise, is "The Coyote," the class publication of the class of nineteen and fourteen, of the Twin Falls High School. All the matter was prepared by the members of the class, under the efficient direction of Harry Musgrave, class president, and Carlyle Pickett as business manager. The photos for the various half-tones with which the book is so liberally embellished, were the work of the Elbe Studio, and the many excellent drawings were produced by Clifford Bentun, Irene Viscer, and Inez Watson.

The various sketches and cleverly told stories indicate a degree of literary ability on the part of the authors which renders the volume at once distinctive and entertaining.

The book is from the press of The News plant and is perhaps the largest and most carefully executed piece of work of the kind ever turned out in Southern Idaho. Incidentally it may be mentioned that The News is the only plant in this part of the state with equipment capable of this class of work.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.

The proposition on the part of the City to purchase outright the plant and system of the Twin Falls Waterworks Company should meet with general approval. While a price has not been definitely fixed, it is a question if, under the circumstances, the matter of price is not the least important part of the negotiations.

The facts in the case are these: The people of Twin Falls have signified their approval of a municipally owned water system. In order to secure such a system, the present company must first be eliminated from the field. There are two ways in which this may be done. The first involves a long legal battle with an indefinite continuance of the present dangerous and unhealthy conditions, the second is to agree on a price and buy the system outright.

There are objections on both sides, but immediate action would seem to be the prime consideration. The present system in its present condition is a disgrace to the city and the sooner it is taken over and the necessary steps taken to render the water supply fit for human consumption, the better it will be for Twin Falls.

THE NEW ROCK CREEK BRIDGES.

The proposition to construct new bridges over Rock Creek both above and below the city is one of deep moment to farmers and others hauling goods to and from the city. The bridges are necessary goes without saying, yet unless substantial structures can be thrown over the creek at the road grade it would seem better to postpone action than to erect an inferior type of bridge.

In certain quarters the impression appears to have gone out that to the south of the city a bridge thirty feet above the creek bed with long four or five per cent grade approaches on either side would answer the purpose very well. The fallacy of such an idea should be apparent to any one. Such a bridge would mean that farmers with produce for the city would be forced to load their wagons with a little better than half a load during the greater part of each year in order to successfully negotiate the grade. The expense of the necessary cuts through the rock to form the approaches would be considerable, and the increased expense to those hauling across the bridge could not fail to prove a heavy drain.

WHERE DISCUSSION IS PROFITLESS.

The evils of free trade constitute food for discussion which is of little profit just at this time. If a tariff based on the revenue needs of the country only means chaos among American industries, then the country at large had better prepare for chaos.

The point is, free trade, or something closely akin, is bound to come. This is pledged by Democracy and by the Democratic party; by the party platform and by Woodrow Wilson, Democratic president. There can be no question but what many protected industries under Republican rule will be shorn of that protection under the present administration.

Prominent among the industries affected will be lead, sugar, and wool, in all of which Idaho is vitally interested. Yet it does not follow that no more beets will be planted, no more lead mined or no more sheep fed in Idaho.

But in any event it is too late to lament. What is to be will, and we might as well get ready to make the best of it.

NEW LIGHT ON RAILROAD.

The following letter is believed to be authentic and is published for what it is worth.

Salt Lake City, May 12, 1913. Mr. E. D. Hayward, Secretary, Wells Commercial Club, Wells, Nevada.

Dear Sir: In reply to your favor of May 6th, would say that if any statements were made by any of the newspapers in Boise that construction work on the line south from Rogerson to a connection with the Central Pacific had commenced, OR WAS ABOUT TO BE COMMENCED, IT IS ENTIRELY ERRONEOUS.

While it is true that we expect to commence construction of this line during the present season, yet there is nothing certain about the matter at all. When actual construction work is commenced, I will be glad to communicate with you and arrange a meeting with a committee of the Wells Commercial Club. Just at this time, however, I do not see that anything would be gained by such a conference. Yours very truly, W. H. BANCROFT.

WANT STATE ROAD TO TRAVERSE TWIN FALLS

AUTO MEN OVER ENTIRE ROUTE TO ASSIST.

Resolutions Pledging Full Support is Passed at a Recent Meeting at Commercial Club.

Good roads enthusiasts from Bilsa, Harman, Buhl, and Twin Falls met last Thursday for the purpose of considering the routing of a state highway through the southern part of the state. Six automobile loads of the good roads men came over the proposed route of the state highway west of here, on what is practically the Oregon trail, came to Twin Falls and support in getting the state road routed along the famous trail. As a result of the joint meeting the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we pledge our united efforts for the establishment of the above mentioned route as a part of the state highway, from Postoffice to Bilsa, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the state highway commission.

COMPILE MODEL LETTER FOR BENEFIT OF EASTERN CORRESPONDENTS OF RESIDENTS

Realizing that many residents of this city and friends frequently receive letters from friends at their former homes, requesting information concerning the Twin Falls country, and that the recipients of these requests are often unable to give the desired information, either too busy to be engaged to answer in full, or that they have not the proper data at hand from which to write intelligently, the committee of the Commercial club, has written a general model letter which may be used as a basis in answering these requests.

This letter was endorsed at a meeting of the directors and members of the club held last Friday evening. It was the sense of the meeting that this letter be used, at least in substance, in replying to all such requests, the letter being of the nature of a general model letter which may be used as a basis in answering these requests.

My Dear Doctor: The letter, which is enclosed, contains the climate of this Twin Falls tract, and I can perhaps best give you the information by saying that last year our temperature was 68 degrees and the coldest 15 degrees below zero, and these extremes were not for a day. Our annual rainfall is about 17 inches, and our snowfall, totals about 30 inches in the season.

Why Magic City? You know Twin Falls is called the Magic City, because of its rapid growth. From all ages in 1896 to a city of 8000 inhabitants in 1905, and in 1915 we have 17,000 inhabitants. This is the best record in the state, splendid fire department, all the parks, and a city of much larger size and very new and modern.

I was in the Commercial club the other day, and my attention was called to the leaflet you have printed out on the wheat field of the county last year. It gives the names of several farmers and the average yield per acre of 23 bushels of spring wheat, 41 of fall wheat, and 79 of oats.

This Baking Powder Keeps Its Strength. The large can of K.C. lasts longer than 25 cents worth of other baking powders but no matter how long it takes to get to the bottom the last spoonful is just as good as the first. K.C. raises the nicest, lightest biscuits, cakes and pastry you ever ate, and it is guaranteed pure and wholesome.

S. S. WORKERS HOLD YEARLY CONVENTION

EIGHTH ANNUAL MEETING AT HANSEN LAST WEEK. One of Association's Most Successful Gatherings—Important Phase of Work Discussed—Two Days' Session Held.

The Eighth Annual Convention of the Twin Falls County Sunday School Association convened in the M. E. church at Hansen, May 13 and 14. After the devotional conducted by Rev. S. A. Hoffman, of Murtaugh, Rev. W. B. Woodhill, of Twin Falls, gave an interesting address on "The Boy or the Bible," in which he compared the methods of making the lesson of the most importance, and made plain that the pupil should be the first consideration, and the lesson adapted to him.

The remainder of the forenoon was occupied in business session, committees were appointed, and reports received from the county officers. A resolution was adopted thanking Miss Edith Bowser for her kindness in typewriting copies of the reports received at the beginning of the year.

Important Addresses. Mrs. Helenor talked of the Cradle Roll, urging that each school represent take up that department of work. Following this, Rev. W. E. Perry, of Twin Falls, delivered an address on "The Possibilities of a Child."

The work of grading, seeding and planting to trees and shrubbery of the high school grounds is being completed this week under the direction of E. Wright Davis. The work has been in progress for the past three or four weeks, and the grounds will soon present an attractive appearance.

Crisp Appetizing Saratoga Chips

Made With Cottolene. Saratoga Chips made with Cottolene are never greasy, as are those made with lard. The reason for this is that Cottolene heats to about 100 degrees higher than either butter or lard, without burning, quickly forming a crisp coating which excludes the fat. Your Chips, therefore, are crisp, dry and appetizing.

TRY THIS RECIPE. Put the potatoes and slice them into cold water. Drain well, and dry in a towel. Fry a few at a time in hot Cottolene. Salt as you take them out and lay them on a coarse brown paper for a short time.

JOSEPH AND BENJAMIN.

Gen. 41: 18-19, 23-34.

18. And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the meek that was returned to our sacks of the first time are we brought here? And they stood in confusion against us, and fell upon us, and take us for bondsmen, and our money? 19. And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they summoned with him at the door of the house.

20. And he said, Peace be to you fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I have your money. And he brought Simon out, unto them.

21. And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave to them water, and they washed their feet, and he gave their asses provender.

22. And they made ready the present which Joseph commanded them, for they heard that they should eat bread there.

23. And when Joseph came home, he bowed himself to him to the earth. 24. And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is my father well, the old man of whom you speak? Is he yet alive?

25. And they answered, The servant of thy God is in good health, he is yet alive: And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance. 26. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom you speak unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

27. And Joseph made haste, for his vision did stand with respect; and he entered into his chamber and wept there.

28. And he washed his face, and went out, and retrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

29. And they set on for him, and he ate bread before them, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves: because the Egyptians might not see bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

30. And they set before him, the fourth year, according to his first sight, and the youngest according to his youth; and the men marvelled on at another.

31. And he took and sent messengers unto them from before him; but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

32. And he said, I have loved his brother abiding in the light. — L. John 21: 20.

CLAIMS ROGERSON IS GOING RIGHT AHEAD

HOLLISTER BRANCH TERMINAL THRIVING COMMUNITY.

J. W. Langford Says That the Local Merchants are Prosperous and Prospects Excellent in Every Way.

That Rogerson, though one of the smallest, is the best business town on this or the Salmon tract, with the exception of Twin Falls. Is strongly claimed by J. W. Langford, agent for the Short Line at Rogerson. Rogerson is the freight receiving and shipping point for a large district in the range country and the main distributing center for the mining camps of Contact and Jarbridge, Nevada. The amount of freight handled at that point, and supplies and merchandise bought from Rogerson merchants far exceeds general belief.

Mr. Langford was in the city last Monday and stated that "Business is good at Rogerson." Speaking of the business carried on there he said, "It is a common thing for our merchants to sell a bill of goods from $100 to $500 to the trade in the camps to the north. During August and September 1910, figures for freight received were $164,747, and $232,837 respectively, for that time about $8000 per month. Of course these big figures represent business at the time of the construction of the dam and the opening of the tract, but since then the amount of business has held up surprisingly. We think this is pretty good for a sage brush town."

"Rogerson cannot help but be greatly benefited by the construction of the dam from there to Nevada. Immense quantities of supplies and material will be shipped there for distribution along the route of construction. The farming industry in the town is equal to any in the state. While not many in number, our business houses are established and pointing a profitable trade and we have a good bank. While not much has been said, and no fuss made, our little village is not to be sneezed at."

ABOUT POTATOES

New Bulletin Issued by Federal Horticultural Board Proves of Much Interest.

A valuable bulletin, entitled on "Good Seed Potatoes and How to Produce Them," written by William B. Hart, horticulturist with the Federal government at Washington, is being distributed by the general passenger department of the Oregon Short Line to farmers, and those especially interested in potato growing, residing in the territory traversed by this railway. This is a timely publication, one which is greatly needed by potato growers, as government reports show that the average potato crop yielded to day is, practically the same, as 45 years ago.

The bulletin is illustrated with desirable and undesirable selections of seed, and graded diagrams of the field as per selection and care of seed. Among the subjects treated are what constitutes good seed, seed from production plants, sowing, thinning, uniformity in size and stage of tubers, large compared with small seed tubers, treatment of seed for smut, and influence of potato storage on the quality of the seed. The topics, while brief in treatment, are complete in their nature, and should prove to be a great help to potato growers.

WILL BUILD HOSPITAL

Dr. M. F. Kenley, who some time ago took up the practice of veterinary medicine and surgery at Burley, is arranging to build a modern hospital in the west end town in the near future. He was assisted in this plan, Dr. F. T. Kenley, in the latter's hospital in this city before going to Burley.

Doughnuts

That will remain moist.

Every housewife who bakes her own doughnuts knows that a little potato is added to the recipe, the bread will not dry out as quickly. In this recipe we intend to make doughnuts that will remain moist and fresh for several days.

K C Potato Doughnuts

By Mrs. Nevada Rogers, of Bellingham, Wash.

1 cup flour, 1 egg, 1 cup sugar, 1 level teaspoonful K C Baking Powder, 1 teaspoonful salt, 1/2 cup potato, 1 cup milk, or more if needed.

Put three times the flour, milk, sugar and baking powder. Beat eggs with rotary beater, then all using rotary beater, gradually add sugar, then the mashed potato with spoon and alternate with milk and flour mixture. Make a soft dough, roll into a sheet, cut into rounds, place a hole in the center, slip finger and pry in deep bar.

Put for frying, cook in deep fat to brown the doughnuts, then lift out when the doughnuts are dropped into the fat sink to the bottom. As soon as it comes up it should be turned over a number of times while cooking. This recipe is excellent as they do not stick to the fat in frying and will stay moist for days.

TEAMS BREAK EVEN IN OPENING GAMES

INDIANS GRAB FIRST AND MAGGIANS LAND SECOND MEET

Unfavorable Weather Hinders Teams Doing Best Work—Rosters Going to Gate City for Two Games.

Twin Falls and Pocatello broke even in opening games of the league, scheduling played on the local grounds last Saturday and Sunday. The Indians won the first game with the score of 9 to 6, and the Magicians landed the second match 7 to 4. Both games, especially the Sunday match, were played in unfavorable weather. Yet in spite of this greatest of drawbacks the local fans turned out in large numbers. Good ball will not go begging for an audience in Twin Falls during this season.

In the opening game both teams contributed errors freely, Pocatello dropping 6 and the locals scoring, which proved costly in the Twin Falls end of the score. In Sunday's game in spite of the cold weather, both clubs displayed best team work over the preceding game, errors occurring at less costly turns in the game.

Good Stick Work.

Chauncey, Bursing, Bailey and McClellan did effective stick work in Sunday's game. Kiersted's fielding was a feature of the game, and Bursing, on the mound, was given good support. Pope artists could not take the size of the playing of the teams from their actions under unfavorable weather. The best fans being on hand, the favorites playing championship ball before the season far advanced.

Prominent local fans are planning to go to the Gate City next Saturday and Sunday, when these teams will play their second games in the league schedule, and supply the necessary amount to help the Magicians land both games. A number of Pocatello fans witnessed the games here Saturday and Sunday. The summary of the games were:

Saturday's Game.

TWIN FALLS WINS

Flier-Dahl Team Over Down to the Fast Wednesday Afternoon to the Tuna of 4 to 0.

Twin Falls defeated the combined Flier-Dahl team yesterday afternoon on the local grounds with the score of 4 to 0. Scoring by the locals was unearned, the errors of the visitors giving away the game. For the home team Bursing twirled a good game and Chapin put up his usual style behind the wheel.

For the visitors, McCroery, pitcher for the Vancouver league team, did the mound work in good style, his deliveries being well handled by Deter, who was in line for visitors by the locals, who were a-b-a-b-a-b-a-b. Four hits were tallied by the visitors and five by the Twin Falls players.

BOISE HIGH WINS

took the field. Livville, after getting two strikes on the Boise man, hit him with a pitched ball. This seemed to be an inspiration to the Boise players, and before the inning was over, three more men had run into the ball. All this time the boys put up a good bluff and Patton would have them to first.

Boise ran things her own way all the time of the game. Twin Falls scored her solitary run in the eighth inning. Morris made first of an error and a succession of errors and wild throws kept his way home.

With this game Twin Falls closed the best year of her history in the state of Idaho. Out of four possible sectional championships she won three. In three state championship games, all with Boise, she has won once in the season of 1912. She has a red letter one in high school athletics.

REVIEW OF ACTIVITY.

ment and have selected the building at Evanson, Illinois, as the most desirable from which to pattern the new building for this city, with the addition that facilities for a federal court be included in the building. Congressman Addison T. Smith has advised the club of his intention, as well as that of the entire Idaho delegation at Washington, to endeavor to provide for a federal court building. Congressman Smith will try to have added to the next appropriation bill an appropriation for a weather bureau station at Twin Falls, such as the one at Pocatello and Lewiston. In the meantime the flag system has been installed, the flags flying in the weather department being displayed from the First National Bank building. Arrangements have been made with the telephone company to give its subscribers the forecast daily, without cost.

Route New State Highway.

A trip has been made, to Pocatello by a number of members of the club, a careful log of the route tabulated. Theodore Turner, chairman of the state highway commission, has assured the club of his support in routing the new state highway through Twin Falls and southern Idaho. A delegation from Dubu, Washington, has met with citizens of this city, and harmonious and enthusiastic support was promised the effort to secure the state highway through Twin Falls.

One thousand "booster buttons" have been ordered by the club and will be received in about two weeks. A list and found department has been installed in the club and is rendering good service. A business census of the city has been made and the public requested to supply themselves with these directories and make use of them. Senator Brady has been asked and the government road-making machinery, which he was instrumental in having displayed in Boise, demonstrated in Twin Falls. The chief bureau of the federal government has been asked to supply the club with the recipes for preparing fruit for exhibition, and Senator Nicholson has been directed to secure price on jars of several sizes for exhibiting local fruit.

Great Industrial Activity.

The establishment of five factories is well in hand, with every possibility of securing three of the five. An effort is being made to secure the first meeting of the state teachers' association in Twin Falls. The new by-laws, prepared by a committee of the board of directors of the club, were printed at last Friday evening's meeting and adopted with the exception of a few minor changes.

These are the things that have been and are being done by the Commercial club at this time. Another membership meeting will likely be held in the near future and will further plans will be presented.

THOROUGHLY established old line insurance company, with excellent reputation, just entering Idaho, desires connection with man capable of handling general agency for the state.
