Week in Society

A Musical Tea.

The home of Mrs. W. O. Taylor was the scene of a most delightful party last Wednesday afternoon, as a courtesy to her mother, Mrs. G. H. Roberts, of Boise. The house was beautifully decorated with all kinds of flowers. White flowers were used in the living room and the big front porch was a tower of pink roses. In the music room pianos were used profusely, while the dining room was especially beautiful, coronals being arranged most artistically all throughout the room.

A very entertaining musical guessing game was most interesting. Old and well known songs and pieces were played on the piano. Mrs. Allen was successful in guessing the most titles correctly.

Mrs. R. M. McCollum and Mrs. Roberts entertained at the tea table. Mrs. W. H. Greenhaw and Miss Edna Beauchamp, Julia and Susanne Taylor sat in the dining room. The guests present were: Madamess M. J. Sweoley, W. H. Greenhaw, A. D. Norton, J. H. Beaver, Tuttle, Harold Dodd, F. E. McKee, J. B. Perrine, B. D. Aiken, G. H. Robbins, R. Phibco, E. M. Sweoley, Morgan Heap, Higby, E. E. Morse, J. W. Epler, John Costello, and Sibbie, G. E. Stott, and Misses Smith and Hamlin.

Pythian Sisters.

Thursday afternoon at 2:30 the Pythian Sisters held their regular meeting. Five ladies were admitted to membership. After a short program refreshments were served. The following officers were installed:

Moonlight Wedding.

One of the prettiest weddings of the summer was that of Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cheek, and Arnold Schreiber of Council Bluffs, Iowa, which took place on Thursday evening at nine o'clock on the shore of Blue Lake. The bride and groom were met by the bride's father, Mrs. Cheek, and the groom's father, Mr. Schreiber, at the porch and proceeded to the ceremony was performed. Before the ceremony Miss Fannie Hartman sang "In the Mood." At the stroke of nine, Mrs. J. C. Beatty played Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bride, on the arm of her father, proceeded to the porch and was escorted by little Miss Virginia Colvin, the flower girl, the bride party, including Miss Cheek of Waco, Texas, the maid of honor, and Misses Mary Cheek and Frances Austin, the bridesmaids, took their places under the arch, where the impressive words of the ring ceremony were spoken by the Rev. Mr. Henry of the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Austin. During the ceremony the organ softly played "Anno Laurie."

K C Dumplings

By Mrs. Nevada Biggs, the well known baking expert.

For cups of most lamb, veal or beef, the cheap cuts of fresh meats, and fowl too old for roasting, make delicious dumplings. K C Dumplings make them doubly attractive and the whole dish most economical--an object to most families with means are so high and must be made to go as far as possible.

Porch Party.

Mrs. G. W. Kenneth entertained a few guests at a quiet but most delightful porch party Sunday evening for her guest, Miss Audrey Young, of Gooding. During the evening beautiful solos were sung by Mrs. Kenneth, Wilson Peck, and Mr. Watson. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Watson, Misses Burt, Wall, Beaton, O'Connell, Harriet Warner, Audrey Young, of Gooding, and Miss D. Fern Dryden, of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Hostesses, Mrs. Clear, Peck, Younger, Wachter, Flintoff, Gravel, and Karball, of Pocatello.

Lawn Party.

The spacious lawn of the Newman home was the scene of a most delightful lawn party Friday evening, when Miss Laura Younger and Paul Peck entertained a party of nearly hundred guests. The lawn was brightly lighted with many colored electric lights.

Kimberly

and her relatives at Devil's Slide, Idaho.

J. S. Hoover and wife, of Dicknell, Indiana, are here visiting their brother, B. F. Hoover and family. Burt families expect to leave in a few days for Yellowstone Park for a few weeks outing.

N. Pittilo had the misfortune to lose two horses by lightning Sunday. Mr. Smith, near the headstags, lost a horse and stack of hay.

Several bands of rogues are around Kimberly now, busy pulling the strag piles, called "rogues," out of the large pen crop in this vicinity.

Union services are being held by the Methodist and Christian churches in Kimberly during the summer months. When the weather permits these services are to be held in the park on Sunday evenings. Last Sunday was the first meeting and the services were held by Rev. C. E. Evans. Next Sunday evening the services will be held by Rev. Floyd Harbin. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. M. V. Taylor and children are here from Salt Lake City visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Wilkins. Mrs. Taylor and children have not been many friends and are glad to have her return for an occasional visit.

W. E. Prentiss has taken a contract of raising and burning 300 acres of sage brush for Turner and Webster, on the dry farm land east of Rock Creek.

Mrs. Edna Kemp has returned home after spending a few days with her parents, Ed. Tilly and wife, at Rock Creek.

Geo. O. Brenner left Monday morning for Nampa, where he will join his wife and children; they will go to Seattle, where they will spend several weeks with Mr. Brenner's uncle and other relatives.

Mrs. Arthur W. Jaynes was the hostess at a party at her home on Saturday afternoon, in courtesy to Mrs. Karl H. Dixon, of Hollister. Sweet peas were used in the decorations. The party was assisted in serving by Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Carey, and Miss Ruth Sprague. The guests present were: Madamess E. H. Bluff, J. G. Clark, W. H. Greenhaw, Harold Dodd, W. H. Karla, W. H. Dwight,

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Glover and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Denton. Kimberly is on the map for a newspaper. Mr. Beck is in town and says he will have the first issue out Saturday. The paper will be printed at Heppner until the press arrives, and that he proposes to give Kimberly a first class paper.

A number of farmers south of town are in the hills getting poles this week. Among the number are J. I. Graham, Grant King, J. H. Voss, F. C. Wilson, E. V. Newcomer, and others.

Noah Hickerson, of Wendell, is here visiting a few days. He is in the other business at Wendell now. J. M. Waters has an attachment to his theater for hulling peas and expects to start out in this vicinity as soon as the farmers have their peas crop in shape.

R. B. Norton, of Twin Falls, was here Monday on business.

The school board met Monday at the school house and elected Miss Bellville as one of the teachers for the coming year. Miss Bellville is a niece of B. A. Bellville, southwest of Kimberly. Repairs and improvements were ordered on the school building, and grounds, and everything is expected to be in first-class shape for the opening of the fall term in September.

J. E. Newbury, of Eden, Idaho, was here Tuesday and reports crop prospects excellent in his vicinity.

M. J. E. Steiner went to Minidoka Tuesday to meet M. L. Rosenbaum from the east. Mrs. Harry McManan was a Twin Falls visitor Tuesday.

The Last Word

WITH THIS ISSUE of the Twin Falls News the newspaper and plant will pass into other hands and the present management retire from the newspaper field of Twin Falls County. Messrs. Melvin and Milligan, the present publishers of the Daily Press, become the new owners.

It is not without a feeling of regret that the men who have controlled the destinies of The News for almost two years lay aside the reins, for much that was planned remains to be done and not a few ideals are still unfulfilled.

Apply the Remedy JUST HOW LONG the American people will continue to endure the disgrace of permitting the Secretary of State of the nation to devote the bulk of his time to money getting for his own selfish ends, while the affairs of his office look after themselves, remains to be seen, but from present indications the end is apt to come suddenly.

Apply the Remedy JUST HOW LONG the American people will continue to endure the disgrace of permitting the Secretary of State of the nation to devote the bulk of his time to money getting for his own selfish ends, while the affairs of his office look after themselves, remains to be seen, but from present indications the end is apt to come suddenly.

The Cleanest Town THE STATEMENT by Dr. W. M. Smith, deputy State Pure Food Commissioner, that Twin Falls is "the cleanest town in the state" is worthy of more than passing notice.

THE STATEMENT by Dr. W. M. Smith, deputy State Pure Food Commissioner, that Twin Falls is "the cleanest town in the state" is worthy of more than passing notice. While it is not likely that Dr. Smith means to imply that there are no other towns in the state as clean as Twin Falls, he undoubtedly did intend to compliment the people of Twin Falls on their cleanliness.

The Building of a City

THE CHIEF MATERIAL that enters into the building, is the proper training of its youth. It will pay any city to look after its boys and girls. The character of each generation is a determining factor in the character and permanency of the future city.

I took a piece of plastic clay, And idly fashioned it last day, And as my fingers pressed it will, It moved and yielded to my will. I came again when days were past; The bit of clay was hard as flint, The form I gave it still it bore, But I could change that form no more.

Propose Gigantic Purchase

THE LATEST PROPOSITION for the settling up of the Mexican problem constitutes a truly remarkable scheme. This amounts to no less than the purchase by an American syndicate of bankers of practically the entire Republic of Mexico, including Southern California.

Great Possibilities

PRESIDENT BUSH of the Western Pacific is quoted as saying recently that the Western Pacific railroad resembled a bridge with one end in Salt Lake City and the other on the Pacific Coast, and that the solution of the problem lay in the construction of feeder lines.

What Constitutes a State?

What constitutes a state? Not high-raised battlements or labored mound, Thick wall or moated gate; Not cities proud with spires and turrets crowned; Not bays and broad-armed ports,

We are pleased to find for once the name of Samuel Gompers published in connection with a highly creditable deed. We do not undertake to assert that the famous labor leader is just the sort of man to aid his own cause or the cause of progress as efficiently as a man of more universal experience might do; but it is apparent to all fair-minded people that he has been associated times without number on flimsy grounds and by people who know as little of the rights of labor as, perhaps, Mr. Gompers knows about the rights of capital.

W. G. CAMPBELL RETURNS FROM EXTENDED EASTERN TRIP Harmony and Union Prevailed on Field Fifty Years After Great Battle—Impressed With Confederates' Soldier's Speech

W. G. Campbell has returned from the east, having attended the reunion at Gettysburg and spending two months in Illinois, New York, and the New England States. His reports are excellent trip and pleasant visits, but glad to reach Idaho and escape the prevailing heat in the east.

Impressive Address "Colonel Young, of Louisville, Kentucky, a prominent Southern jurist, and commander in chief of the veteran army of the confederacy, made the most impressive address delivered during the reunion. The opening sentence of his address was one that will never be forgotten. It is voiced by all true soldiers of the North and South who took part in the great battle.

THE EVOLUTION OF THE ROAD.
After the railroad, the good country road. It's an evolutionary process. Civilization is graduating from the slower highway of special use—the steel track—to the thoroughfare of everybody's travel.

The railroads, steam and electric, have done noble service. They will continue to do so. But progress is irrefragable. The crowning achievements of growth in transportation are the "fast hand"—"Horse and wagon," automobiles and motor trucks, are soon to travel all the people's domain by people's highways.

The railroad will be what it ought to be—the adjunct, or auxiliary, of the common road—Ohio State Journal.

So the People May Know

At this time the little spun sisal fibre we call Binder Twine seems to be causing more excitement than the Tape of the Ticker, when Wall Street is in a panic.

It's funny that a little 30-cent company like ours would incite the wrath of a steen million dollar corporation to such an extent that we thought yesterday some one had kicked over a pillar in the Mormon Church, but it was only the noise we heard, and this Plano Binder Twine was the cause of the disturbance.

Why should a little thing like Binder Twine start such a muss? It happened this way. About 60 days ago our firm issued a circular letter with printed prices attached on Twine and Grain Bags. Our price on Binder Twine at that time was 12 1-2 cents per lb., cash. Nothing was said in the circular about time prices.

Before these had hardly reached their destination it was brought to our attention that some of the dealers, who had men in the country, were selling twine in combination with other articles at less than our price, but perhaps the extra profit was tacked on the other merchandise, and in some cases we found where Twine had been sold at less money on a straight purchase.

No business resulted from the circulars, and investigation revealed the condition referred to above. We immediately adopted a cash price of 11 1-2 cents per lb. on Binder Twine, regardless of quantity purchased. Up to this time we had done no soliciting in the country, but we proceeded to solicit, and sold twine on this basis in wholesale quantities. The business resulting from this figure was very gratifying—in fact, it was large enough so that other dealers became suspicious, and a few days ago some firm in Filer, as we understand, had some bills published offering twine at 11 cents per lb.

So far as we know this was a direct slap at our firm, and we continued to write orders at 11 1-2 cents per lb. in the face of this opposition, to people who knew that this price was in existence.

Now come the Twin Falls dealers, and in the last three or four days are offering Binder Twine at 10 1-2 cents per lb. So far as we know the Consolidated Wagon & Machine Co. are the prime movers in this further reduction, and we have met the price. We will sell to all farmers at 10 1-2 cents per lb. spot cash: or, if time is desired, we will make a satisfactory arrangement with them.

This will apply to all purchases whether they have contracts with us or not, and will be good as long as we have twine in the house this year.

This is the actual cost of Binder Twine delivered at Twin Falls in carload lots, without any handling charge or overhead expense added.

In establishing our price at 11 1-2 cents per lb. on Binder Twine, we did so knowing that we could make a reasonable profit, and it was not our intention to put this forth as a price-cutting proposition, nor to cause any ill-feelings among the dealers toward ourselves.

The net profit on goods which are sold depends, as we understand it, upon the cost of doing business, based on the overhead expense, and if we see fit to handle binder twine at $1.00 profit per 100 lbs., that is our business. If the other man cannot do it, we see no reason why we should be blamed for his failure to meet competition.

We can sell Binder Twine at 1 cent per lb. profit and are well satisfied with it, and would like to have all the binder twine business in Twin Falls county on this basis every year.

We do not intend to be dictated to by any dealer or set of dealers at what price we shall sell merchandise as long as we are in business. It has been our custom to run our own business and leave the other man's business alone, and such will be our future policy.

We have quite a liberal stock of twine on hand, approximately 30,000 lbs., and feel that the farmers should give us the preference on this business on a competitive basis. If twine is offered below 10 1-2 cents per lb., get it from the other man.

We wish to say in conclusion that in as much as the dealers have seen fit to eliminate our 1 cent per lb. profit on the binder twine, that we will make for their benefit a general reduction on Mowers, Binders, Rakes, Manure Spreaders, Wagons, or anything handled by our company. We mean by this a reduction that will be worth considering. We do not care to quote prices on other articles for publication, but if you are in the market for anything in our line, we will assure you of a substantial saving, and terms as liberal as can be made, consistent with good business methods.
