News of the County

KIMBERLY.

Kimberly, Oct. 14.—George L. Tyler, of San Diego, California, is here renewing old friendships and looking after business affairs. Gus Vogeler, of Salt Lake City, the big seed man, is here this week buying clover seed and oats. He has bought several crops in one, he is paying ten cents per pound for red clover and fourteen cents for alfalfa, when released.

The potato and beet bauling has commenced again after the recent rainy season. Several cars of each are loaded every day. One car of the latter, of Limon, Colorado, unloaded a car of emigrant goods here on the 10th and will make this his future home. Mr. Butler is a brother of the Butler boys south of town and a brother-in-law to O. M. Banta.

The crew of apples packers were here Thursday and Friday from the Fruit Growers' association in Twin Falls and packed a carload of apples, which is to be shipped at once. There will probably be ten or more cars of the apples go from this station this year.

D. F. Detwiler shipped three cars of wool from here this week, which was obtained by shearing his flock this fall. He expects to market five thousand sheep within the next few weeks, as they fatten much faster after the wool is off.

W. A. Richards, a brother-in-law of W. A. L. Stone, and wife are visiting here the past few days from their home in Wisconsin, and will visit the coast and other points before returning east.

The Ladies' Pioneer club met with Mrs. R. H. Denton last Thursday afternoon. Robert Barnhill has nearly completed his new residence on his ranch south of town.

Mrs. C. A. George, of Olympia, Washington, is here at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Gilbert Hurd, who has been sickly ill. Bert Hurd, of Eden, was here a few days ago visiting his parents.

The fund for the foundation for the new Christian church is expected this week and work on the foundation will be started at once.

Among the jurymen from this precinct drawn Saturday were W. T. Chubb, J. P. Henning, F. A. Burhalter, and Bert Hinkle.

The agricultural exhibits by the school children take place at the school house this week and a nice display is promised.

Conrad Fritz is erecting a new fence on his place south of town in which all his land including the fence posts.

B. F. Hays is signing and shipping his potato crop to his brother at Iowa.

W. E. McMenamy lost a valuable horse by death the last of the week. Some of the hay crop is moving at $5.00 to $5.25 in the stack.

It seems that some of the seed shipped by the seed firms last spring was not good. Two samples were sent to the state experimental station at Moscow, Idaho, and one sample was re-tested. The first one and the other 69 per cent. In other words of one kind of seed shipped here one given out to the farmers less than a year would grow at all. Several of the farmers had to plow up what few peas they did have, but still have to pay for the seed. This seems to be a good market for the poor seed where the farmer gets the worst of it—not only losing his work, but also having to pay for the seed.

The farmers next year should require a certificate from the experimental station knowing that the seed they intend to plant will grow. If the company will not furnish such certificate, send direct with a fee of 50 cents for each sample tested. It will likely save you money.

C. M. Chase, and Miss Caroline Summers were married in Twin Falls Tuesday afternoon. There are two of Kimberly's well-known young people. The groom is manager of the alfalfa mill and the bride one of our popular young ladies. The happy couple will make their home in Kimberly, where they have the best whips of the community.

BUHL. Buhl, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Chas. Snyder entertained the Auctioneering club this afternoon.

Mrs. Noel, who has been visiting with her daughter for the past several months, left for Nebraska last Friday morning.

ROCK CREEK. Dick and Dan Gray, of Balmora River, are visiting with their mother, Mrs. Susan Gray.

Rock Creek, Oct. 14.—John P. Hansen went to Twin Falls Wednesday, and from there to Burley and Albion. The Iverson children, who are attending school here, received the sad news Thursday of the death of their father, John Iverson, at Los Angeles, Calif., where he had gone for his health. The body was brought to the family home at Cottonwood.

The family of Jonas Greenfield arrived Friday from North Carolina. C. I. Burditt was over from his ranch at Deep Creek Saturday. His sister, Mrs. Jonas Greenfield, and children accompanied him home Sunday. Mr. Greenfield expects to join them Wednesday and from there will go to one of the V. L. & S. Co's ranches near Tecoma, Nev., where he has employment.

Clyde Stricker has just finished vacating the Stricker cattle. Dr. and Mrs. Albee and Mrs. John Hansen went to Cottonwood Saturday to attend the funeral of John Iverson, which was held at the home Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harrell and children and Mrs. Tros. Wallace and daughter Myrtle were Kimberly visitors Monday.

The recent storms in the mountains have driven the cattle down and the stockmen are kept busy gathering and putting them in the fields to prevent their trespassing on the unfenced fields.

HAMPSHIRE-SHEEP-SALE

Pure-Bred, Imported English Stock That Will Be Money-Makers for Buyers.

Experienced sheep men say that the Twin Falls country is among the best in the world for sheep raising, and farmers of the tract who are interested will be glad to know of the opportunity that will be offered them next Tuesday, October 21, to buy Hampshire sheep on the Twin Falls stock farm, which is located in the Blaine valley near here.

The sale will be noteworthy as the largest sale ever held in this country of pure bred Hampshire sheep, all imported from England. From the best sheep farms of England, and it will furnish the best opportunity for sheep men and farmers to get a start of the best sheep that can be bought in England at a reasonable price.

Farmers with a small bunch of sheep owned, say 25 to 50, can raise 125 to 140 per cent increase each year, half of which increase will be those lambs that have never failed to sell for $25 to $50 per head when six months old, or in the early fall following their being dropped in early spring. This will give the grower each year, and the flock can be enlarged by keeping the ewe lambs, so that in short time a good-sized flock may be had.

A flock of the size mentioned can be grazed for nine months in the year on pasture at the rate of ten to twenty to the acre. Small bunches do better than large flocks and produce a much better mark than large flocks. These sheep cost no more to run or care for than grades, and they will give five times the profit on the investment.

Amusements

Eugene Walter's play "The Wolf," which comes to Cotton hall on Monday, October 27, might be called a recent play of pictures. It is very sad to see that one sees a play that grips the interest and pleases the curiosity of the eye, but does not give the mind any rest. The play is a beautiful scene. It is an Indian summer in the Northern woods. Pines and golden hills make the light and shade. A stream winds down the avenues and cottonwoods, and in the background are the blue foothills. To the right is the big house of MacTavish, with a great tree in front of it. Under the tree sits "The Canuck," puffing at his pipe. In the doorway is the giant form of MacTavish, and he, too, is smoking. The two men puff in silence for a moment, while an auditor takes in the perfect color and perspective and grouping of the scene. Then MacTavish says: "You say she's dead, man?"

This is one of Eugene Walter's

strong points—begins his story with the opening lines: "He wastes no time in unnecessary conversation, and he sticks to the point from curtain to curtain."

Another of these pretty pictures of effects is in act three. Two men are squinting in the foreground, while standing in the tall, thin, graceful figure of Jules Beaulieu. Hilda appears at the top of the tall entry of the canoe paddle. She stands there an instant holding the paddle like a shield, framed in the dark, and the golden leafage color, with the sunset gleaming ominously about her. One almost expects to hear the wild cry of "The Wolf!" A little later comes the great and intense scene of the play, which is without doubt one of the most novel and gripping scenes ever staged.

calves, 30, hogs, 4,740; sheep, 6,593; horses, 10.
 Beef slaughter this week has fallen off considerably, and prices are 3 shade steadier. Bulk of business was transacted Monday and Tuesday, at respective prices—lamb, 14-16; calf, prime steers sold at $16.75 to $17.65 and cows $6.50 to $10.75. A lot of medium grade steers was offered at the usual discount on choice beef prices.
 Swine trade conditions are on a certain quantity at present, and values fluctuated easily. Tops ranged from $8.70 to $9.50, with tendency downward. Outlet is fair for good light hogs and smooth heavyweights, but size of receipts during the next few days will be the most influential factor on the market.
 Sheep business transactions gave the impression of a steady to weaker tone on lambs. Some choice yearlings in small lots sold at $1.50 and prime ewes $1.75 to $4.00. Lambs failed to reach over 4.50 at week's close, but the number offered for sale was ordinary and quality so ordinary the trade could not settle on a substantial price. Generally mutton and lambs are steady if quality is choice. Outlook of course would be changed, but it has advanced each day's receipts for a week without effect.
 Representative sales have been as follows:
 15 steers, 4,370 lbs., $7.53.
 53 steers, 1,218 lbs., $7.55.
 15 cows, 1,021 lbs., $7.20.
 58 steers, 1,076 lbs., $7.05.
 2 calves, 210 lbs., $10.55.
 20 cows, 981 lbs., $6.75.
 66 cows, 1,012 lbs., $6.50.
 100 cows, 1,001 lbs., $6.40.
 2 calves, 210 lbs., $10.55.
 13 calves, 353 lbs., $8.20.
 3 bulls, 1,720 lbs., $9.75.
 7 hogs, 921 lbs., $7.50.
 189 hogs, 159 lbs., $8.70.
 109 hogs, 195 lbs., $8.65.
 213 hogs, 208 lbs., $8.50.
 165 hogs, 211 lbs., $8.60.
 230 lambs, 62 lbs., $5.00.
 114 ewes, 110 lbs., $2.95.
 62 ewes, 102 lbs., $4.20.
 14 yearlings, 86 lbs., $4.20.

The Markets

THE CROPS
 Breadstuffs—Wheat as a whole, the preliminary returns point to a rather better outcome than earlier seasonal damage reports rendered probable. Wheat, especially, has turned out better, and so have oats and corn, though smaller than last year, probably equal light yields of the immediate past. Potatoes, tobacco, and barley show slightly larger yields than were indicated a month ago. Current yields on a whole are below last year by 24 per cent, but exceed 1911 by 4 per cent. Good prices for those and for the large carry-over from 1912 have made for a highly satisfactory year for agriculture.

steers $8.50 to $9.75. Quarantine cattle this week had the same absence of quality that has characterized them for a week, prices at $5 to $6.75, cows at $4.45 to $5.75, including contractors. Commission men believe that receipts will diminish from now on, and stronger prices should rule the balance of October. On the other hand, owners of long fed cattle have been repeatedly disappointed this fall, the ten-dollar steers having delayed its coming beyond all reason. Removal of the tariff has so far only produced the effect of advancing the Canadian markets about 75 cents per hundred, the effect on prices in this country being unobscured. Hog markets are apparently in for the most October decline, though it will not be a regular market toward a lower level. Prices were strong yesterday, and 10c-higher today, on small supplies. Top today is $8.40, bulk $8.00. Prices were strong yesterday, and 10c-higher today, on small supplies. Top today is $8.40, bulk $8.00. INDEPENDENCE ON 20 ACRES
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and their daughter, of Twin Falls, were visitors to the fair on last Friday and complimented the display very highly. Mr. Wilson was formerly in the real estate business in Twin Falls, but a few years ago purchased a 20-acre farm, on which he has made his permanent home. He is delighted with his experience, is making a fine living and some money, even on twenty acres. His idea is by making sheep and clover near his specialties—North Side News.

KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET
 Kansas City Stock Yards, Oct. 11—Cattle values softened slightly last two days, though the bulk of the week's business has been done at a level somewhat above that of last week. Country buyers have been slow for taking hold this week, as they were visiting the Royal Show and did not desire to make purchases till ready to start home. Trading in stock grades is lively today, and prices are 1/2 to 25 cents higher than the high time of the week. Panhandle yearlings at $8.00 to $8.10. Cows feature, but most of the main handle and Colorado stock cattle and feeders sold at $6.50 to $7.25. On the open market good to choice heavy cattle sold at $9.00 to $9.25, but the best cattle were on exhibition in the Royal Show. The exhibition fat steers sold this morning, top bringing $12.55, and some very heavy

GOOD telephone service depends largely upon mutual courtesy.
 The telephone is more useful to those who talk as if face to face, for civility removes difficulties and facilitates the promptest possible connections.

As in other intercourse, it often happens that two or more people wish to talk with the same person at the same time. Without courtesy confusion is inevitable, and the confusion is greater when the people cannot see each other.

The operators must be patient and polite under all circumstances, but they will do better work if they meet patience and politeness on the part of telephone users.

The Bell Telephone Service enters intimately into the social and business life of each individual. The best results come through the practice of mutual courtesy.
