PLAN TO AVOID WATER FAMINE

Council and Citizens Consider Unified System

WOULD ALSO GET SEWAGE FROM WATER IN WINTER

A Magnificent Plan to Supply Water for Six Towns and Cities in County.

As a result of the recent plumbing of the city water supply for a whole day, the city council with a number of public spirited citizens have been considering the question which confronts this city today with other cities which must depend on the canal for their water.

George P. Sprague is credited the following plan which will do away with the possibility of having a shortage of water for domestic purposes, will prevent sewage largely and the ruining of water through the direct pump of the canal system during the winter months. The plan in brief which has been gone over by Manager Harton of the Canal company is to apply to the condition of the system, is to bring water from the Putat sullyway of the eastern part of the canal system.

The details and any objections have not been worked out yet. The project is being considered and is possible place before the water users of the tract for their approval. The city engineer will be permitted to investigate as to legal title for the water in this country but the city engineer will look up the engineering features.

One of the Salt Lake dailies recently devoted almost a half of its front page to showing how it had wronged its contemporaries in getting a photograph of the outlaw Lopez. The blowing of the horn in self-defense whether in the individual or the newspaper gets little sympathy from the people forced to hear the egotistical blarney. The average reader of the modern newspaper does not care how the gathering of the news is carried on, or the labor and grief which enters into every day newspaper work. The public wants the news delivered with as little blarney as possible and when it finds a paper which delivers the goods, the public then does the blowing for the paper. The paper, which has the public boasting for it, is never a dead proposition. Even the undertakers will boast a live paper.

Mr. Louis D. Brandeis continues to afford the railroad exploiters of this country considerable food for thought.

He was promised the place of Attorney General, and the railroads promptly pulled some of the strings and did him out of that. Then he was slated to be Secretary of Commerce and the railroads pulled some strings and did him out of that also. Great joy in railroad circles.

However, they were not done with this man. The Interstate Commerce Commission has chosen him to conduct the hearings on rate increase that the railroads are now trying to limo-flam through.

Hold with their own petard. The hold much better have allowed him to be Attorney General. With the courts full of railroad judges, an Attorney General, no matter how honest, can do the railroads little harm. But a man like Brandeis, who knows the preposterous nature of the proposed rate increase, can knock that pet project.

After which, how about our melons? Nothing seems left but for the press vultures of the pirate ship to renew their personal attacks on this man and the sentiment that pursue him, with anonymous threatening letters to return to their activities. These things do not seem greatly to daunt Mr. Brandeis, but they may some day. Much virtue lies in persistent effort.—Pearson's Magazine.

During the last session of the legislature the women of this state and many of the club women of this city, worked hard and earnestly for a reduction of the working hours for women. It is a matter for congratulation that they succeeded in their efforts and had the nine-hour bill become a law. It is true there was need for the law and every merchant in the state probably admitted its justice. But there is another side to the question which the club women and the women shoppers should not overlook while planning the Christmas shopping. It is justice to the merchant who is hit the hardest by the nine-hour bill. Every merchant has the same problem to face who employs women. From the beginning of the Friday before Christmas on up to Christmas eve the stores have to be opened to meet the demands of the women shoppers. It is too well known to need comment that every merchant waits until the last minute to make purchases. It is a fact that women as a rule always shop the same hour of every day to shop, forgetting that to crowd stores for two hours means more clerks. If they can be secured, and with it more expense to the merchant. To take care of this rush shopping stores which cater to women trade do not have enough business to keep the clerks busy. To the women of this city the Times desires to put up the plea of justice both to the clerks and to the merchants to not only shop early but to go that shopping at home when the usual shopper is at home.

Try to do your shopping in the morning and do it early in the month. It means that you get better service for yourself and that you are trying to untidy your own in the matter of labor union. Don't figure that your activity in pushing through the nine-hour law is the sign of your responsibility toward establishing better conditions for working women. Just remember that spending up the human machine beyond its best pace for three full shopping hours is just as bad as longer hours under a more moderate pace induced by some shopping.

WAKE UP, GOVERNOR, YOUR DREAMING. If the engineers of the New Haven railroad strike, Governor Foss of Massachusetts promises to call a special session of the legislature to pass a law making a strike by railroad employees a crime. But why stop with railroad employees? They cannot be put upon a different footing from other employees. Pass a law, governing, making every strike a crime, and then one compelling all employed persons to work under such conditions and for such hours as their employers may designate, and thus create at once a state of industrial serfdom in which even the National Association of Manufacturers could find no flaw. If you are going into this thing, do it right. Meanwhile, if a more ordinary citizen should think that such a law has the same constitutional functions and become a facile registry for the governor's decrees. He says he "will have the legislature do this." "Will have" is a good phrase in the mouth of the president of the Russian council, but we do not recall ever encountering it before in the utterances of an American executive. The governor must be dreaming. He is at a factory again, and wants to give out orders to his "hands."—Pearson's Magazine for December.

TALKS ON THRIFT

No. 27—FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE.

"I know of no greater independence than this thing of having a large lump sum of money saved up just away, be it ever so small. A sum that is kept in reserve and only in very extreme instances, drawn upon."—Daniel Barnes, President Seaman's Savings Bank, New York.

Every Fourth of July our thoughts turn naturally to the subject of independence. If we are really thoughtful, we will not stop with a consideration of the joys and benefits of political freedom, but on those are—just kings and governments are not the only tyrants that oppress.

We still have with us a tyranny of extravagance and debt that holds countless thousands in its grasp, that there is a way out of this straits. The first step is to make a DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE, by starting a savings bank account. This may mean a Revolution in your manner of living, but the peaceful and happy consummation of your struggle a few years hence, when you have reached the goal of financial independence, will reward you for your present self-denial and sacrifice.

A man who is financially independent whose daily resources are sufficient only for daily needs can never enjoy the fullest measure of freedom and self-respect.

His ambition is curbed, his hands are tied, his spirit is broken.

On the other hand, the man who has money ahead has learned that he can make his money work for him. He looks every man squarely in the eyes, owes no man anything, and is free from worry for the present and anxiety of the future.

In short, he is a better citizen and a stronger man in every way. A Los Angeles savings bank published this "human interest" advertisement.

We know a young man who recently lost his position. He was steady and competent, but an unforeseen combination of circumstances threw him out of a job. He had saved no money whatever—found himself without work, penniless, with a family to maintain.

Friends helped this young man. But he was two months idle, and had to wait another full month before drawing any pay in the position he finally secured.

It will be a year at least before this young man buys what he owes—provided he observes the strictest economy.

That he had friends was unnecessary.

WHAT A DIFFERENT POSITION HE WOULD FIND HIMSELF IN, IF HE HAD SAVED SOME MONEY WHEN HE HAD IT!

There are various paths that lead to fortune, but if you expect to acquire a competence through your own efforts, there is only one starting point—the regular saving of a portion of your income.

As an illustration, one of the common roads that lead on to fortune is judicious investment in real estate. To buy land you must have at least some cash. Many a man has made profitable deals because he had more cash on hand—rather than the mere promise of an opportunity when it presented itself, while his pockets are empty.

Saving money is practically indispensable in business success, not only in itself and in the credit which it brings, but also for the good mental and physical effects that habits of thrift have upon the individual himself.

It takes some backbone, some genuine courage, to withstand the temptation to spend more money than you can really afford, but you'll feel better to keep out of debt and then you'll be working today for tomorrow's satisfaction, and not to make good on account of yesterday's extravagance.

When the finest home-buying chance is yours to seize, you'll get the best in the "Real Estate For Sale" section.

The Right Way to Roll a Cigarette
 I. In fingers of left hand, hold cigarette paper curved, so as to receive the tobacco. Four right quantity of "Bull" Durham out of muslin sack with right hand, strawing tobacco evenly in paper.

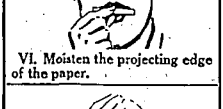

II. Then place your two thumbs next to each other in the middle of the paper in this position.

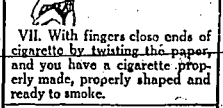

III. And roll the cigarette on the lower fingers, so that the index fingers move up and the thumbs move down. With the thumbs, gently but firmly force the edge of the paper over the tobacco, and

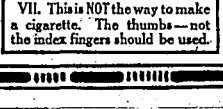

IV. Shape the cigarette by rolling it with the thumbs, as you draw them apart.

V. Hold the cigarette in your right hand, and

VI. Moisten the projecting edge of the paper.

VII. With fingers close ends of cigarette by twisting the paper, and you have a cigarette properly made, properly shaped and ready to smoke.

VII. This is NOT the way to make a cigarette. The thumbs—not the index fingers should be used.

NO PEACE UNTIL HUERTA LETS GO USURPED POWER

President Says in Message Resignation of Dictator is Crumbling and End is Near.

WANTS MONEY BILL PASSED

Urges Enactment of Legislation to Make Farming a More Efficient Business.

LET SHERMAN LAW STAND

Primary Elections for Selection of Candidates for Presidency Urged—Ultimate Independence of Philippines an Obligation—Double Duty Toward Alaska—Employers' Liability.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The following is President Wilson's complete message delivered to congress today.

In pursuance of my constitutional duty to give to the congress information of the state of the Union, I take the liberty of addressing you on several matters which ought, in my judgment, to receive the attention of your honorable bodies, as of all who study the welfare of the nation.

Country is at Peace.

The country, I am thankful to say, is at peace with all the world, and many happy manifestations multiply about us of a growing cordiality and sense of community of interest among the nations, forecasting an age of settled peace and good will.

There is only one possible standard by which to determine controversies between the United States and other nations, and that is composed of three elements: Our own honor and our obligations to the peace of the world.

Huerta Must Let Go.

There is but one cloud upon our horizon. That has shrouded itself to the south of us, and hanks over Mexico. There can be no certain prospect of peace until Huerta has let go.

remedy and fundamental rights... should more and more put under the control of the nation...

Currency Reform.

I turn to matters of domestic concern. You already have under consideration a bill for the reform of our system of banking and currency...

I present to you, in addition, the urgent question of a useful procedure to be made use of for facilitating the credit needs by the farmers of the country.

Allowed to Lag.

It has, singularly enough, come to pass that we have allowed the industry of our farms to lag behind the other activities of the country in its development.

Efficiency in Farming.

The agricultural department of the government is seeking to assist as best it may the farmer in his present business, of wide-cooperative effort, in quick touch with the markets for foodstuffs.

Let Sherman Law Stand.

Turn from the farm to the world of business which centers in the city and in the factory, and I think that all thoughtful citizens will agree that the immediate service we owe the business communities of the country is to prevent private monopoly...

Specially Important.

Three or four matters of special importance and significance I beg that you will permit me to mention in closing.

Independence for Philippines.

These are all matters of vital domestic concern, and besides them, outside the charmed circle of our own national life in which our affections command us, as well as our obligations, stand out our obligations toward other territories over which we are trustees.

Test of Responsibility.

Acting under the authority conferred upon the president by congress, I have already accorded the people of the islands a majority in both houses of their legislative body by appointing...

Double Duty Toward Alaska.

A duty faces us with regard to Alaska which seems to me very pressing and very imperative.

See the display in the window...

Our bureau of mines ought to be equipped and empowered to render prompt and effective aid in its various branches.

Safety at Sea.

An international congress for the discussion of all questions that affect the safety of sea navigation...

A Handsome, Comfortable DAVENPORT

See the display in the window... our east window---it will give you an insight into the beauty of a

REALLY FINE DAVENPORT BED

E. C. LAWRENCE

BACKWARD, TURN BACKWARD.

Backward, turn backward, old-time in your flight, give a girl with skirts not so tight, give a girl with wimple charms, young or few; are not exposed by too much peek-a-boo; give us a girl, no matter what age, who can use the street for a runway; give us a girl not too shabby in the view; dress her in skirts the man cannot slide through. And give us the dances of days gone by with plenty of clothes and steps not so high; put turkey trot capers and butterlick offices, hard-core twists and waltz-stellar jingles, and other such bunny hugs all on a level with products of hell inspired by the devil, and let us meet our old-time more on the pure sweet woman of the days of yore. Yes, Time, Turn Backward--and grant our request for God's richest blessing but not undressed.--E.C.L.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

The best musical talent of the city rendered selections to a delighted and enthusiastic audience. The program consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Kenneth and by Mr. Wilson Park; a violin solo by Miss Viola Atmore; a piano solo by Miss Vera Thomas. The Indian serenade and the quintette of mixed voices were especially enjoyed. The mandolin orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Ikegan, gave much pleasure to the listeners.

At about ten o'clock the company dispersed, looking forward to another special and musical evening some time in January.

Club Notes.

The Century Star is to be edited and published by the current events department. The first issue of this newspaper will appear on January 6, 1914, at the next general club meeting. Every club member is entitled to a complimentary copy of the same. The "local correspondent" is busy day and night writing local news about all the Century people. All lost, strayed and stolen articles will be found in the editorial section.

Mrs. Robert McCollum has been appointed chairman of the ways and means committee.

The Junior department wish to express their appreciation to Prof. J. H. Hunt and Mr. Jones for their interesting and courteous in arranging the auditorium and arranging for refreshments.

Department Items.

The Current Events department met November 26. Among the current events given, those from foreign countries were especially interesting. The lesson period was devoted to finishing the study of Alaska, taking up the natural resources, coal deposits, and the more valuable minerals. The effect which the conservation of the natural resources had upon Alaska proved a very interesting subject and was followed by a lively discussion concerning the doctrine of conservation. The opinions of recognized authorities were quoted both for and against conservation. It was developed that much might be said on both sides of the question. Mrs. Wallington read notes from an Alaska collection.

The next meeting will be the last after the holidays, and will be of a special nature, a sort of Christmas treat by the officers of the department. Each member will bring verses pertaining to the holiday season. The History and Literature department met with the leader, Mrs. Bradley, Friday. Each member responded to roll call by giving some item of interest about England. The class then continued the reading and discussion of Shakespeare's historic play, King John. This department holds one more meeting before the Christmas vacation.

The Parliamentary and Civics department met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Daube. An election without nominations was demonstrated. The class continued the study of incidental and miscellaneous motions.

The prohibitionist with me
With pain his breakfast viewed;
"I cannot stay here, sir," said he,
"For all these prunes are stewed."

At luncheon I was very sure
His palate would be tickled;
Said he: "Such nights I can't endure,
Those wretched beets are 'pickled.'"

At dinner, I was very strong
To bat all boozey junk;
Said he: "I will not be very long
Until that water's drunk."

I offered him a Cacha-Roy;
"On this his rage provoked,
'I've heard," said he, "that light and day,
This brand-is always 'smoked.'"

NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Potato Growers Will Hold Meetings in Different Parts of Idaho.

Mr. J. H. Robbins, manager of the North Pacific Fruit Distributors, which is acknowledged by all who are informed on the subject to be the greatest co-operative agency in existence today.

Mr. A. F. Declaman, with twenty-four years experience as a potato salesman throughout the territory which is logically covered by Idaho shipments, and who has been for the past season general potato sales agent for the North Pacific Fruit Distributors, and who has the general reputation of being the best informed potato salesman in the United States to-day, who has also held a position with the Citrus Growers Union, an organization very similar in the selling methods to the North Pacific Fruit Distributors.

All of the above are expected to be present at an executive committee meeting to be held at Pocatello on the afternoon and evening of December 9th.

Stearns, Robbins and Richards will attend a growers meeting at Payette on Monday evening, December 8th. Mr. Burley has kindly agreed to stop No. 18 at Payette to enable them to get to Pocatello in time for the meeting at 1:30 p. m. on December 9th.

In view of the above named opportunities for food, it is the desire of the sub-central that every member of the executive committee be present on this occasion, and also that each local make arrangements to pay the necessary expenses for its manager to attend this meeting. In case the manager cannot come, we would advise

Good Reasoning In Home Building

It seems natural with good climate, but there's no denying the fact that our forefathers gave home-building a grand boost for all time when they almost to a man selected wood as the best material. There's absolutely no doubt they adopted it not alone because of its low cost, but also because it afforded the most sanitary home.

For the same reasons people are still using wood to build homes. It's one thing in the world supplied by Nature that human minds and hands have not been able to improve upon. The lumber, however-made these days from Nature's wood does show a "marked improvement" due to man's ingenuity in the handling—and the stock we want to furnish you for your new home is truly a marvel in smoothness, softness, grain and color.
