SIDE-LIGHTS ON OLD STORY

IDAHO MAY MAKE A STATE PARK AT SHOSHONE FALLS

Contract and Land Surrounding Owned Two-Thirds by Omaha Estates in Limestone.

Crichton, Dewey and Stone, With Clark of Moptana, Bought
It Years Ago.

Buying a catanaet was a special feature into which Count Crichton, Charles H. Dewey, and E. L. Stone of this city and W. A. Clark of Montana, since best known as the "copper king," embarked about thirty years ago.

Shoshone Falls, Idaho, the point where the Snake river takes a sharp plunge of about 200 over a breadth of 1200 feet—or a half mile—than the Missouri river at Omaha, was the investment they made with 210 acres adjoining it.

Shoshone Falls challenge the admiration of hardy tourists even at that day. There was a scheme to build a road to it and make it a tourist point. The road was then a drive through sage brush of thirty odd miles and over lava and not a pleasure jaunt in any sense.

The Omaha men did not live to see its development. Count Crichton became a count of the Roman empire. Mr. Dewey was dubbed the "Duke of Shoshone" by his friends and being wholly democratic like his partner, Mr. Stone, he did not embarrass it on his behalf. They used to shift the back and forth. Mr. Clark went on planning in copper, went to the United States senate, had his scrap with Marconi, had built a mansion costing millions, quite Central Park in New York and is still living to enjoy it.

Mr. Dewey and Mrs. Stone are each one-sixth owners of the falls.
The Crichton estate holds one-third share and Clark possesses the other third.

Nine years ago Twin Falls was founded six miles from the falls.
It has thrived and is a beautiful city, a city of streets, arches and surrounded by rich fruit growing lands and alfalfa. I. B. Perkins, founder of Twin Falls, resides in promoting a motor road from the falls and connects with the branch of the Oregon and Great Northern and south to Twin Falls.

There is a prospect that Omaha Montana owners may realize this property now grown beautiful and surrounded by trees and treasuries is Twin Falls itself.

Idaho people are asking the state to secure Shoshone Falls as a state park. New York has secured Niagara to make it a public park. Not the falls but also Blue Lake.
Owned by Mr. Perrine, and four miles below the falls will be a shore road.

The prospect that is suggested of Idaho and the Omaha and Montana owners may get together upon about $50,000.
Not only the Twin Falls district but also the valley of the Snake river, which is a rock-rimmed stream and carries vast volumes of water that can be used for irrigation and beyond the falls is rich in alfalfa country and reclaimed from the sage brush.
Alfred Thomas of Omaha, representing the Crichton Trust Estate in Idaho, has just returned from Idaho, he is enthusiastic over the great fruit and farming country and beautiful scenery. Omaha

GERMANY DEFEATS ALLIES

Nine Day Battle On French Frontier Warns England and France as to The German Strength

Germans Hurrying Western Troops to Stop Victorious Russian Forces Sweeping Through Prussia. Italy Sends Ultimatum to Austria

BREITEN (By wireless to the Associated Press, via Stuyville, L.
L.)—Headquarters has issued an official report that the western enemy has everywhere been defeated and is in full retreat after nine days' fighting.

Generals von Blomow and von Hansen completely defeated the Franco-Belgian forces, about eight miles, between the Sambre and Namur and the Meuse in several battles and are now pursuing them to the eastward of Man-hagen.

The attack on Manbeuge was opened by Grand Duke Albrecht of Wuertemberg, who defeated the French and Belgian divisions at Manbeuge and pursued the enemy across the Sambre and the Meuse.

The German crown prince is advancing towards the Meuse and the crown prince of Bavaria resulted an attack from Nancy and the south.

TRACT HAS BIG CROP OF ALSYKE

GRASSHOPPERS ARE BAD IN WESTERN IDAHO

Twenty-five Cars of Seed Have Already Been Marketed
in Twin Falls.

"Seed Growers Should Harrow Their Plow Fields at Once," Declares L. L. Brocknridge.

"With twenty-five cars of al-slyke already marketed at an average price of $11.50 per hundred, not to the grower, and fifteen more cars yet to be sold, Twin Falls farmers will receive approximately one hundred forty thousand dollars for their alsyke alone this year," declared L. L. Brockn-ridge, of the Twin Falls Milling & Elevator Co. in an interview with a Times representative Saturday.

"These figures," he stated, "do not take into account the clover seed, yet to be harvested and which the farmers are just beginning to cut. This crop is impossible to estimate, but is sure to be much larger than whatever raised so far in the tract before. All of this seed is of exceptionally good quality, heavy and well matured.
The larger crop of alsyke was sold in the eastern markets, and it is probable that the clover will grow the same way. The seed grown here compares favorably with that grown anywhere in the country and always finds a ready market.

IDAHO HISTORY AND GOV. HAWLEY

Candidate for United States Senator in the Democratic Primaries and the One Man Who Can Be Elected in the General Election

Has a Larger Personal Acquaintance Than Any Other Man—Knows Every Foot of Soil in the State—Therefore Knows the Needs of the People of This Great State

French's History of the State of Idaho has this to say of Hon.
James H. Hawley, Democratic candidate for the nomination of United States Senator from Idaho.

"In its former Governor, James H. Hawley, Idaho has one of its ablest public men and lawyers.
He has been distinguished in public affairs for more than forty years, and has been honored with nearly every public office within the gift of the people of the state.

James H. Hawley was born in Diplomate, Iowa, in the year 1847.
His ancestors composed old families of New York state. His mother died when he was a child and in 1849 his father went to California and in 1856 to Texas. Mr.
Hawley was educated in the public schools of his native city and in 1861 accompanied some relatives to California where he attended school for a short time. As all who are at all familiar with the history of Idaho, know that the attention of the world was first attracted to this territory by the excitement in 1862. Young Hawley, though but fifteen years of age, became a victim of this lawless, mining excitement, ran away from home in 1862, and came up to the Placerville mines. From that time he has never claimed other place as his home than Idaho. He had all the experiences that fell to the lot of the pioneer—scarred hand in the mines, prospected and tried mining on his own account.

fierce exultation of all classes in Berlin over the news of the British reverses at Mauthouse, as announced officially from army headquarters.

The German resentment against England for having "injected herself into this conflict," and for calling in Japan, a yellow race, is so deep that news of surrender of the British army on the continent would be received with more joy and satisfaction in Berlin than tidings of the fall of Paris.

"It is reported here today that a portion of the British force is at present shut up in Alpbach.

The Berlin populace, inspired by the announcement from military headquarters that the "iron wing" is making its way around the French, British and Belgian forces from Cambrai to the Vosges, exhibits little concern regarding the situation on the eastern frontier of Germany. It has full confidence that the task on the west line will be speedily finished and that the victorious German armies will then make sharp work of clearing German soil of the Russians.

A correspondent of the Berlin Tagblatt reports that Louvain, in Belgium, bitterly punished for the uprising of its civilian population, has almost ceased to exist.

FRENCH AND BRITISH ARE SURROUNDED

Berlin Proclaims Critical Position of French and British North Army

WASHINGTON—The French and British north armies on the Sambre and Meuse rivers have been "surrounded" by German troops on all sides as a result of the latest fighting, says a wireless from Berlin to the German embassy. The message adds that the "French east army has been partly driven from the south. This has prevented communication between the French east and north armies, while all the German armies are in contact from Cambrai through upper Alsace. The German cavalry has advanced to Ostend.

"The appearance of a Zeppelin at Antwerp," the message continues, "has caused a panic in London.

"Reports to Berlin from Copenhagen and Stockholm announce that there is a grave crisis in the French government. The Spanish ambassador at Vienna has called the situation in France very serious.

"The Danish colony in Berlin has warned foreigners to beware of fictitious news.

"A meeting today of all foreign colonies in Berlin was held, at which a resolution was passed thanking the German government for the kind treatment of foreigners and expressing admiration for the wonderful spirit and enthusiasm shown by the German people.

"Citizens of the Belgian town of Louvain made a perfidious attack on German troops while

KAISER TO CHECK RUSSIANS

Troops From the French Territory Rushed Through Germany

St. Petersburg Reports Victories Against Austrian Forces. Koenigsberg Besieged by Russians and Outer City Taken

(Special to The Times.)

Advices from Berlin state the Kaiser has ordered Russian invasion on eastern frontier, checked at once.

Troops of first line and second reserves have been ordered to Prussian territory forthwith. In addition, the famous Landsturm Brigade of trained troops are being rushed from western attack and all railway service in Germany is paralyzed while these forces are being rushed across the country to assist the Russians that have entered the eastern section of the empire.

Austrians heretofore engaged in advancing on Serbia and Montenegro are being transferred as rapidly as possible to the north to support the Germans in the defense of Prussian towns.

St. Petersburg reports that Russians have taken and occupied Koenigsberg, notwithstanding fighting. Louvain was punished by the destruction of the city. The Defenses of Paris. PARIS—The defenses of Paris are thus described by La Patrie: Paris, by its situation, is the stronghold of the national defense. This city is an entrenched camp protected by three series of works. First there is an inner circle of defenses, then a circle of forts and beyond these a second ring of powerful forts destined to prevent the enemy's shells reaching the city. Some of the latter forts are 12 miles from the city.

BRITISH DEFEAT AT QUENNUM

Complete Route Further Aggravated by Harassing German Cavalry.

Berlin says British defeat at St. Quennum was complete. British losses were heavy and routed British soldiers were forced to accept battle by German Cavalry, who were in masses on their line of retreat.

Copenhagen says that ordinary railroad transportation in Germany has been suspended for the present because the railroads are engaged in carrying troops from the west front to the hard pressed east front.

BATTLE EXPECTED NEAR BOLOGNE

Suspension of Train Service Between Paris Indicates Near Battle Ground.

PARIS—Train service between Paris and Boulogne was suspended today until further notice. It is presumed here this step is taken because the allied armies expect to engage the Germans on or near the railroad running into Boulogne.

GERMANS DENY INJURY TO CRUISER

PARIS—After inquiry at Tsing Tan, the German legation denied the sinking of German torpedo destroyer as reported.

ANOTHER NAVAL BATTLE PENDING

English Pressing Closer to German Fortifications at Kiel Harbor.

LONDON—From merchant ships comes information that British yardships are surrounding German cruisers near entrance to Kiel canal and another big naval battle is expected, greater than any German details. Report says Russian forces have taken outer sections and are now attempting to get main part of Citadel, where retreating Germans have taken refuge.

Berlin reports defeat of five Russian army corps south of Alenstein, which is regarded as encouraging and as greatly relieving the situation in east Prussia. It assures flank of German positions.

Austrian troops are pursuing Russians from Krausnik, about 20 miles south of Galician frontier in direction of Lubin. Austria has invaded Russia and has occupied the region in front of Zamosse. Zamosse is a strongly fortified town of Russian Poland on the Wipier, 45 miles southeast of Lubin.

Austrians hold regions to west, north and southeast of Lemberg, Galicia and, and have advanced toward the Dniester river against strong invading forces.

yet. No official announcement has been made on the subject.

GERMANS BRING BIG SIEGE GUNS

City of Alpbach Objective of Kaiser's Forces in Onward March.

Antwerp—It is reported that the Germans are bringing up heavy siege guns for attack on Antwerp. The Germans here ordered all able bodied men in Liege and Tongues to proceed at once to Germany to assist in harvesting. Many Belgians are trying to escape to Holland and England.

Belgians Reported Active at Brussels.

PARIS—It is reported that a large force of Belgians are moving out to attack German stronghold at Brussels. They will be joined by English infantry and marines from Ostend.

NO RELIEF FROM GERMAN ADVANCE

Paris Hopes for Withdrawal of German Troops to Fight Russia are Crushed.

PARIS—A bill in the German attack gave the impression that the Germans were planning to withdraw their troops from the west to throw them against the Russians on the eastern frontier. It has been ascertained, however, that the Germans are assembling in formation to make a great attack on the French at three different points. Exhausted soldiers are being replaced by fresh ones and terrific battle is expected.

AUSTRIAN CITADEL IS BOMBARDED

French and British Warships Demolish Forts at Cattaro in Six Hours.

MILAN—A report has reached here from Bari, Italy, that British and French warships, combined with Montenegro guns, bombarded the bombardment of Austrian forts at Cattaro on Thursday night. Two forts were demolished after six hours cannonading. A small Austrian squadron attempted a sortie from its place of retreat at island of Chiaras, but without success.

German Corps Cross Rhine

BASEL—Reports that 2-3000 German army corps and two Austrian army corps, with vast amount of artillery, have crossed the Rhine.

English Mine Trawlers Sunk

LONDON—Two trawlers, sweeping for mines, have been sunk in the North Sea by striking mines. Five members of the crews are missing and a number were injured.

WOULD QUELL WAR ALARMISTS

Paris Newspapers Limited to One Publication in Twenty Four Hours.

PARIS—Newspapers here are forbidden to get out more than one edition every twenty-four hours. A violation of this regulation will mean suspension. This action is taken to prevent, as far as possible, inflaming of the populace.

Warns British Against Typhoid.

LONDON—Dr. William Coker is urging the emphatic need of compulsory typhoid vaccination for the British army.

PARTICULARS OF NAVAL ENCOUNTER

British Engagement off Coast of Germany Reported to Washington Department.

Washington has received the following account of yesterday's naval battle: German cruisers engaged British cruisers. British cruiser of first light cruiser squadron sunk the Mainz recruiting. Only slight damage. The first light cruiser sank one cruiser of the Kola class and another disappeared in the mist on fire and in a sinking condition.

German cruisers which were engaged were thus disposed of. The battle cruiser squadron, although attacked by submarines and floating mines, successfully evaded them and is not damaged. The light cruiser squadron suffered no casualties. Cruiser Amethyst and the Laerzle are seriously injured. British loss of life was not heavy.

AMERICANS ARRIVE IN LONDON

War Detained Yankees Accept Every Opportunity to Leave War Zone.

LONDON—A large number of Americans arrived here last night by boat and train from Folkestone. Most of them are from Munich, Baden-Baden and Frankfurt, via Dutch ports. They complain of extortion in Holland, where they were compelled to pay four dollars for the privilege of sleeping one night on cement floors. Dutch landlords asked as much as twenty dollars for hotels rooms with running water, while the money changers charged outrageous prices.

MALINES IS DEPOPULATED

City of Sixty Thousand Population Represented by Only A Handful.

ROTTERDAM—Out of sixty thousand inhabitants of Malines only two hundred are now left in the city. Many were killed in the bombardment, but the majority of the inhabitants fled.

BRITISH CLAIM NAVAL VICTORY

Attack Heligoland Naval Base of Germany and Sink Armoured Cruiser.

LONDON—England is wild with joy over the announcement of a victorious attack by the British fleet on the German off Heligoland, one of the Kaiser's formidable naval bases in the North sea.

Two German cruisers were sunk and a third disappeared in the mist wrapped in flames and sinking.

Two torpedo-boat destroyers were also sunk and several others damaged.

Every British ship in the engagement returned under her own steam.

ENGLAND REALIZE A CRISIS

Will Mobilize Every Reserve of Entire Dominion to Protect French Coast

Fierce Fighting of the Past Nine Days Made by Allies Against Overwhelming Odd of Three to One Claims British War Office

(Special to The Times.)

LONDON—Russian embassy here has received advices from St. Petersburg, that Russians have occupied Allenstein, east Prussia, 65 miles south of Koenigsberg, after repulsing Germans, who had brought up reinforcements. In Galicia it is reported the Russian advance continues. An Austrian regiment decimated. St. Petersburg, correspondent says Russians are rapidly advancing on Lemberg, Austria, their cavalry overcoming all Austrian opposition. The Russians are marching on Koenigsberg.

Already occupy important position on Allo river. Between the rivers Vistula and Dniester the Russians are in close touch with the Austrians, whom they have defeated decisively at Tempachoff and Monasterykynka.

Paris correspondent says he is informed that Italy will send ultimatum to Austria, requesting explanation of Austrian mobilization on Italian frontier. Only a brief period will be given for an answer and in a short time Italian troops are expected to be in Trieste.

Rome correspondent says Avloni, Albania, confirms report that William of Weid, Albanian ruler, has left Durazzo. London Mail says in connection with concentration of German forces against British expeditionary force: "Germany has brought the stupendous odds of three to one against the British, of whom we may feel proud, but the situation is most critical. France has done everything in her power. Russia cannot help except by indirect pressure. Britain alone can find more men and find them she must. The nation must prepare on a colossal scale and send every man and every gun that can be spared here and now to the decisive point in France."

While governor of the state, Hawley demonstrated his ever watchfulness for the needs of the people in his reform of the tax system, at which time he took a stand for full cash value assessments, and against overwhelming odds won his fight. He stood for a tax commission, and organized a temporary non-partisan commission that did most excellent work. His opponents were forced to accept this doctrine and a tax commission will yet bring to light just and equal system of taxation.

A far greater good was accomplished by Governor Hawley in his fight for an exemption on improvements, and the bill which he later signed gave this exemption in the sum of $500. This bill was wiped from the statute books by the present administration, an act which will be remembered and must be hounded for to the people.

Certainly no more progressive actions in tax matters were ever made in an American commonwealth, by a chief executive standing alone against overwhelming political odds, than those accomplished by Governor Hawley.

Governor Hawley was the most popular elector in Idaho, as was attested by his election, overcoming an adverse majority of 15,000 votes in a small state as Idaho. For reelection, he carried, over his successful opponent, 18 out of the 21 counties of the state, outside of the six southeastern counties, which practically alone of all the section of the Union, were imbued with the idea that Taft had a chance of election and nominated by the sugar and wool industries and the Oregon Short Line, gave an overwhelming standstill Republican vote. Even then Governor Hawley was many thousands ahead of any other state candidate.

With James H. Hawley leading the democratic ticket as a candidate for the United States Senate, the Democrats of Idaho have never had a more opportune time for success than in the coming general election. Every democrat should make special effort in getting out the vote and lend their support to the choosing of good and sound progressive men who are sympathetic and will support the party leaders.

A man who, has always been a close student of public questions and the needs of the people, who knows every foot of Idaho soil, and is familiar with all of her resources, is the one best fitted to serve the people of our great state as United States Senator. Such a man is James H. Hawley.

There is no man in the state of Idaho, who has so large a personal acquaintance among the people whom he seeks to represent as James H. Hawley.

This island of Heligoland, which lies 45 miles off the mouth of the rivers Elbe and Weser, always has been considered a point of great strategic value for the protection of the Kaiser Wilhelm canal and otherwise in the naval defense of Germany. Recent reports had it that a large part of the flower of the German navy lay in the waters adjacent to the mouths of the Elbe and Weser and in the Kaiser Wilhelm canal.

CONGRESS LIKELY TO ADJOURN OCTOBER 1

Federal Law to Supplement Sherman Act, the Important Measure.

WASHINGTON—With prospects of limiting the trust legislation program to the federal trust commission bill and the Clayton measure to supplement the Sherman law, it was predicted today that congress would complete its business by October 1. Whether it then would adjourn depended, however, on conditions arising from the war in Europe. President Wilson has let it be known that there would be no insistence on enactment at this session of the measure to authorize regulation of the issuance of railroad securities by the interstate commerce commission.

SENATORIAL AND CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES TOLL OF COSTS.

WASHINGTON—Preliminary expense accounts were filed by Idaho senatorial candidates Friday in the senate by James H. Hawley, Democrat, and Frank R. Gouding, Republican. Hawley reported no contributions and no expenditures. Gouding no contributions and $1638.50 expenses. Congressional candidates filing accounts are Smith, no expenditures; Jones $125.00; Kerl, $102.22; McCracken, $18.40.

FORDS' ANNOUNCEMENT

Something of the Purpose Back of the Premier Auto Builder.

DETROIT—That the Ford Motor company's announcement of its reduction in prices coupled with a profit sharing plan for the benefit of new buyers of the retail buyers has lifted the people "off their feet" is indicated by the huge volume of correspondence that has overwhelmed the Detroit office.

While the Ford company's announcement of the new profit sharing plan is evident that many wish to be assured as to two or three points. The officials, therefore, find it necessary to reiterate that the profit sharing plan for the benefit of the new owners has nothing to do with the prospective reduction in price. Sixty dollars is cut off the price of every car on and this reduction is not contingent on any production figure although there is no guarantee that present prices will not be advanced so that all orders are accepted for immediate delivery only.

The profit sharing plan, by which each buyer who purchases a Ford between August first, 1914, and August first, 1915, is to receive from $40 to $60 as the share of the season's profits, is an entirely separate and distinct proposition and is contingent on the sale and delivery at retail of 200,000 new Ford cars between the dates named.

Three hundred thousand cars he estimated production and some people who are not fully informed concerning the huge character of Ford business from the future may be in excess of possibilities. It is necessary to recall in this connection how the Ford output has grown from year to year in order to understand that 300,000 cars will be only a normal growth. It must be remembered that from August first, 1913 to August first, 1914, the Ford company manufactured 221,688 cars and the season before that something like 185,000.

With every new Ford buyer interested in the company's profits as soon as he buys, it is a conservative estimate to base the new profit sharing plan on a production of 300,000 cars.

The Ford company further explains that the new plan is but the fulfillment of a promise. It was the purpose of the company when it was organized to build a car for the people in the largest and broadest meaning of the phrase. It was the avowed policy of the company to control prices according to production, based on market prices to buy and build. History proves the truth of these statements. Ford prices have been steadily reduced as business grew. Many will remember

You believe, and so do we, in the simple common courtesies of life.

A friendly greeting and a spirit and atmosphere of accommodation—of these you are assured when you enter a "Gem State" office.

We feel that way—because we like our fellow "Idahoans," we like our business, and we believe in our usefulness to the community.

DEMAND THIS LABEL ON YOUR PACKAGES OF FRUIT

It stands for products of superior quality. Our fruit can be purchased at the Shoshone Grocery, or at the orchard. Many people have found it highly satisfactory to drive to the orchard for their fruit for they get it fresh, see what they buy, and we always make the price enough less than the delivered price that they can well afford to come.

We have all sorts of fruit in their season, viz: curly peaches, pears, plums, grapes, late peaches, and apples of several varieties. During the first week in September we will have plums, yellow peaches and pears ripe and ready for delivery.

Our crop of Elberta peaches is much better in quality than last year and shows every sign of ripening ten days earlier, thus assuring freedom from frost. The price will be reasonable.

that when the prices were reduced last August it was declared that there would be a still further reduction in another year if production and buying prices warranted. Production, as reported, that step and now the promise has been kept—more than kept because the addition to the promised reduction comes the amazing profit sharing plan for the benefit of new buyers if we can sell and deliver 300,000 new Ford cars between August first, 1914, and August first, 1915.

WATER USERS ORGANIZE

Local Committee Reports on Trip to Miller Dam.

In response to the call for a meeting of the water users a large crowd met in the high school auditorium Saturday and formed an organization to be known as the West End Water Users' Association and appointed the following committee to formulate a constitution and by-laws: Messrs. Huston, West, Tull, Boyd and T. H. Burrow.

The report of the committee, who on last Sunday visited the east end and the Miller dam, to ascertain conditions there, was heard and from the report it was learned that all ditches between here and Miller had been cut in places between August first, 1914, and August first, 1915. The report of the committee, who on last Sunday visited the east end and the Miller dam, to ascertain conditions there, was heard and from the report it was learned that all ditches between here and Miller had been cut in places between August first, 1914, and August first, 1915.

The North-Side gates, it was found, were wide open and the water that was passing through was said to be that coming from the Jackson Lake. The South Side gates were down within 4 or 50 inches and several of them entirely closed. Up till Sunday 2100 feet was all that was given to the South Side canals. Sunday 700 feet addition was turned in, which was accounted for, by the engineers, from a raise in the river.

All present were urged to attend next Saturday's meeting and bring any complaints, that they may be presented to the canal board who will be in attendance.

The meeting was presided over by C. J. Winters, chairman, and Walter F. Forben, secretary. A collection was taken up during the session to defray the expenses of the committee for their last Sunday's trip.—Hubb Herald

PRIZE WRITE-UP PICKED

Editor of Richfield Recorder Wins Twenty-five Dollars.

At the time of the Eastern Idaho Press Club session in this city the Twin Falls Commercial club offered a prize of twenty-five dollars to the paper which should contain the best write-up of the Twin Falls tract. All of the editors who attended gave excellent boasts for the Twin Falls tract and the judges were somewhat troubled to make the selection. However, they finally decided in favor of the article appearing in the Richfield Recorder, and the twenty-five dollars was immediately mailed to Mr. Lindo the editor. The article will be reprinted in the Times in the next issue.

Look Around Town

We advise you to look all around town before you buy your fall suits, coats, dresses, dress goods and everything you need. Compare the goods we are showing with the styles and prices shown anywhere. If you do this we are sure of your business. We are positive of our supremacy in all lines. Look all around and then come here and be convinced. We never had such a big early fall business and never had so much nice new stuff to show you. Every person in this big store takes a pleasure in showing goods—they couldn't help it. The goods themselves create enthusiasm. Many of our imported goods will be impossible to get later. Be sure of courteous treatment and the best prices and better goods at

OPEN FRUIT STORE

Peach Growers Will Retail Fruit in City.

The Crystal Springs Orchard company and John S. Gostely, who own adjacent ranches down in the Snake river canyon, below Filer, have opened up a retail fruit store in the city in the Anderson building on East Main avenue, where they will retail the famous Elberta peaches raised on their ranches this year. The fruit shows in a fine color and large and uniform in size and hand sorted and packed. The peach season will only last about ten days and for that reason, the ladies should take advantage of the early offerings. The new store will take orders and deliver anywhere in the city.

CATTLEFORD ITEMS

Threshing is the order of the day. J. C. Gates, transacted business in Marlton Monday. Marlton Southwick says he thinks the Deering Moore (Deering-Mower) is one of the best there is. Billy Todd was in quite a lot of grief Saturday night, some one was so kind as to take his saddle off his horse. Billy had to stay in town all night for it makes a difference whether a fellow has a saddle or not. Mrs. S. C. Robinson and Miss Grace Frough were shopping in Lihl last Friday. John Massey pulled his threshing outfit into the Flat Saturday and will be busy for about two weeks as there is a big crop on the ranch owned by the Ferguson Fruit & Land company. G. M. Simpson of the Magic Club was in our midst Wednesday of last week, securing subscriptions for the Twin Falls News. F. H. Smith and J. H. Seaver of Twin Falls, were on our streets Friday looking after electric prospect and land purchases here. Mr. Foreman was thrown from a horse Saturday which resulted in a broken rib. The new school building was completed Monday except the painting and that is under way by Mr. Fort, of Dub. If you are in need of anything, a Times Want Ad. will fill your want.

To Vote for Hawley, Democratic Candidate for U. S. Senator Mark Your Ticket as Below:

Table with 3 columns: Candidate Name, First Choice, Second Choice. Includes James H. Hawley and W. C. Whitwell.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN HOAX IS EXPOSED

Prohibition of Republican Brand Only According to Anti-Saloon League.

Just upon the eve of the primary election a circular is spread over the state purporting to be signed by the "Anti-Saloon League of Idaho." Stating that the league is opposing John F. Nugent as against James H. Hawley. It says Mr. Nugent "has always been consistently dry" while Mr. Hawley "has always been exceedingly wet."

We have no quarrel with the anti-saloon league, nor any criticism to offer of the men and women of Idaho, who are trying to make Idaho "dry." But when the managers of the league make a statement such as the above, it shows that such managers are not trying to be fair but are trying to elect a republican to the United States senate. Mr. Herwig, the superintendent of the league, is a republican, wants a republican elected, and never has given a square deal to the democrats of Idaho. There are men in this county who are as loyal to the "dry" movement as Mr. Herwig. They have been his uniform opponents against Mr. Herwig, knowing that while he may be honestly striving to advance prohibition in Idaho, he does not overlook a chance to advance the cause of Republicans and the Republican party.

Democrats, dry Democrats, we ask whether one party has been given a square deal. Note these, James H. Brady, while Governor of Idaho, tried his best to defeat the enactment of the local option law. He was elected upon a platform pledging county option, but he made a secret promise to be brewers of Penotello to use his political influence against its enactment. Everyone knows how skillfully Mr. Brady tried to accomplish this result. Mr. Herwig knows it and yet Mr. Herwig, on James H. Brady and says Mr. Brady is "satisfactory."

When James H. Hawley was governor a bill was introduced called the "Search and Seizure" bill. This bill was designed to strengthen the weak points in the local option statute. It was one of the most drastic acts ever proposed. Mr. Herwig did not interfere. The legislature passed the act and Hawley approved the act. And yet to Mr. Herwig Hawley is unsatisfactory.

Mr. Nugent has never yet demonstrated publicly how he stands. Mr. Nugent is "satisfactory." It is well known to many that the managers of the Anti-Saloon League have almost always given very adequate, regardless of their moral standing, worth as citizens, or reliability as men. Republicans are pronounced "dry" who are "dry" only in theory. Democrats who have been lifelong opponents of prohibition—men of high lives—are said to be "wet" and "doubtful." For instance, four years ago Frank L. Moore of Moscow was elected Governor of Idaho. He pronounced "wet" or "doubtful" whereas he was one of the leaders of the movement to take Latah county dry the year before. Mr. Herwig never says a word of it in any form, and never has said to one wife, and yet to Mr. Herwig, Moore was wet. Mr. Herwig has endorsed all drinkers, men who are known drinkers, men who are known to be "wet" and "doubtful" in their lives as citizens, but those are Republicans. James H. Hawley has lived up to which needs no shield. He is a man who does not use liquor and his political acts show that he stands ready to stand with the people in enactment of prohibitory legislation.

Can it be possible that Mr. Herwig is working in the interest of his pet—James H. Brady? DEMOCRATS—REMEMBER THE NATIONAL ISSUE Need For Unity in Idaho to Aid Pres. Wilson in Congress. That it is all important to the administration of President Wilson that a democrat be elected from Idaho to the United States Senate; That to insure this every legal demagogue should lay aside minor differences and nominate some one who can win; That James H. Hawley is the most popular democrat in Idaho; That he can draw more votes from the opposition than any other democrat; That he will have the loyal support of thousands of independent voters; That his candidacy will appeal to the women of the State as much as he was the father of women's suffrage in Idaho; That he will command the support of a united party for the reason that he will honestly strive to represent ALL of our party and not a faction; That he is a loyal supporter of the policies advocated by Woodrow Wilson; That his election would be highly pleasing to President Wilson; That he would immediately become one of the leaders of the senate; That he is a fearless fighter and a tireless worker; That no man knows the state or its people better than James H. Hawley; That not one word can be truthfully said against his character, reputation or habits; That he is and has been for years, Idaho's leading lawyer, citizen and democrat.

PRESIDENT WILSON NOT INTERESTED

Attempt to Place President Wilson's Preference Are Foolish.

One of the most amusing episodes sprung by the over-zealous friends of Mr. Nugent was the one appearing in the last issue of the Chronicle to the effect that "President Wilson wants Nugent." Those who are familiar with the position of the President knew that this was a campaign hoax, pure and simple, but to verify this a telegram of inquiry was sent to John Burke, former governor of North Dakota, and now treasurer of the United States, requesting him to make inquiry at the White House and find out. An answer has been received as follows: "ADMINISTRATION NOT INTERFERING IN IDAHO POLITICS. Signed, JOHN BURKE." President Wilson is too wise and broad a statesman to be misled by Mr. Nugent's friends. President Wilson knows that James H. Hawley is just as earnest, loyal and self-sacrificing as Mr. Nugent is. President Wilson is not interfering, so says Governor Burke, and we imagine Governor Burke stands as close to President Wilson as the Twin Falls Chronicle.

A man who is above petty factionalism, broad-minded enough to uphold instead of disrupting, one who has always taken the people into his confidence, and who treats his opponents openly and above board is the kind of a man in whom the leadership of the democratic party in Idaho has been entrusted. That man is James H. Hawley, whose ability to serve his state in the United States Senate will be recognized by his nomination and election to that body.

HAWLEY'S STRENGTH AS A CANDIDATE

Records Show High Appreciation by Voters of State of Pioneer Lawyer.

In 1910, James H. Hawley was elected governor over Mr. Brady. He was the only democrat elected and ran several thousand votes ahead of any other man on his ticket.

In 1912 he was defeated for governor and solely for reason that the numerous majority cast for Tait and the entire Republican ticket in southeastern Idaho. As it was he ran several thousand ahead of his ticket. Compared these facts will then see whether or not the claim is not just when we say that Governor Hawley is the greatest vote-getter in our party.

In 1912, Governor Hawley carried 18 counties over Governor Haines out of 27. The ones he carried as against Haines were: Ada, Blaine, Boise, Bonanza, Canyon, Clearwater, Custer, Elmore, Idaho, Kootenai, Lemhi, Lewis, Lincoln, Nez Perce, Owyhee, Shoshone, Twin Falls and Washington. The ones carried by Haines over Hawley were: Adams, Blainock, Bear Lake, Bingham, Blaine, Cassia, Fremont, Latah, and Owyhee. He lost Adams by only 178 and Latah by only 149. Hawley received more votes in Idaho than President Wilson. He received several thousand more votes than any other democrat running except one. Even in the worst of the counties, in the amendment campaign. In Ada county, the home of both Haines and Hawley, Hawley ran over 500 votes ahead of Haines. He ran 600 votes ahead of the democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor. And this too, in the face of the treachery of some of Mr. Nugent's friends.

Let every democrat, in weighing Governor Hawley's popularity look over the abstract of votes prepared by the Secretary of State.

The facts which can be verified that are not vain, unsupported claims. If we cannot win with Hawley, we cannot win at all.

GOVERNOR HAWLEY AND RURAL CREDIT

Every farmer is interested in the rural credit scheme of the administration. If you have not read in this, better do so at once. It means that the farmer will be able to secure money at four and five per cent, or even cheaper. Why not? Is not the farm credit the best in the world?

The rural credit idea is directly designed to benefit the farmer. It is a plan which cannot fail to be of vast benefit to the farming population.

Remember this: That Governor Hawley has given special study to this subject and one of his ambitions is to join with President Wilson in favor of such a plan. Governor Hawley's public address, published in the subject.

Governor Hawley's greatness of vision was never better exemplified than at the Baltimore convention where he immediately saw the line of democracy and true to the democracy of Idaho, under his leadership, the eight votes of the state were cast for Bryan for temporary chairman and for Bryan resolution against Bryan and Debutant and when the bench came the vote of Idaho was cast for Bryan for the nomination and then went to Woodrow Wilson.

GOV. HAWLEY AND WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE

Women of Gem State Owe Debt of Gratitude to Blanche Friendship of Hawley.

The women of Idaho—especially those familiar with the history of the granting of suffrage to women—feel a debt of gratitude to James H. Hawley, for Governor Hawley was not only a leader in the movement which gave the suffrage to the women of the State, but it was largely to his able argument before the Supreme Court that the suffrage amendment was upheld. A great many of the leading citizens of the State were bitterly opposed to suffrage of women, but James H. Hawley was in favor of the same and he fearlessly and eloquently championed the cause. He was one of the body of earnest fighters to whom the success of the movement was then due. He believed and has faith in the intelligence and patriotism of the women of the State.

The amendment, after a battle in the legislature, was submitted to the voters of the State at the election of 1896, and a majority voted in its favor, but this was not a majority of the entire vote cast at the election. The constitution of the State provides that if "a majority of the electors shall ratify" an amendment it becomes a part of the Constitution, and the question was immediately debated whether this meant a majority of all electors or a majority only of those voting on the amendment.

It was then that the women in charge of the amendment appealed to James H. Hawley again. They did not appear to win. With his usual vigor and ability, Hawley took the leading part in presenting the side of the women before the Supreme Court. This was done without compensation and solely because of his loyalty to the cause. On the other side was the Attorney General of the State and also one of the leading law firms of the State. But Hawley won. The Supreme Court held the amendment adopted and the women have voted ever since in Idaho.

The history of the legal proceedings can be found in the opinion of Justice Huston, in the case of Green vs. State Board of canvassers, reported in the 5 Idaho at page 130.

SEC. LANE'S LETTER TO GOVERNOR HAWLEY

Position of Idaho Man With Pres. Wilson Made Plain by Wilson Cabinet Officer.

Nothing could show better the respect and confidence which the national administration has in Gov. Hawley than the letter written by Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane to James H. Hawley in appointing the latter to the Western Reclamation and Conservation Congress held at Denver, Colorado, last April. Secretary Lane especially urged Governor Hawley to give special study to this subject and one of his ambitions is to join with President Wilson in favor of such a plan. Governor Hawley's public address, published in the subject.

Governor Hawley's greatness of vision was never better exemplified than at the Baltimore convention where he immediately saw the line of democracy and true to the democracy of Idaho, under his leadership, the eight votes of the state were cast for Bryan for temporary chairman and for Bryan resolution against Bryan and Debutant and when the bench came the vote of Idaho was cast for Bryan for the nomination and then went to Woodrow Wilson.

Nothing could show better the respect and confidence which the national administration has in Gov. Hawley than the letter written by Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane to James H. Hawley in appointing the latter to the Western Reclamation and Conservation Congress held at Denver, Colorado, last April. Secretary Lane especially urged Governor Hawley to give special study to this subject and one of his ambitions is to join with President Wilson in favor of such a plan. TILLS OF A BATTLE

French Soldier Describes Warm Action on Border.

Bayonet Charge That Drove Back Germans at Col du Bonhomme-Kalmers Shells Did Not Seem to Exploit.

Paris.—The first actual eye-witness to give a description of the fighting on the French frontier is a reservist named Jacquin, who participated in the brilliant action of the French in the German positions at Col du Bonhomme in the Vosges. Jacquin, who is in a hospital at Chateau-Berry, says:

"All night long we listened to the roar of gunfire. As the dawn appeared we could hear the first Prussian bullets whist past our ears. It was a curious sensation. One could say at first that a swarm of hammers was being set in motion. Then we all took our breath and instinctively one opens his cartridge pouch. The officers there are as calm as during the July 14 review in the celebration of the fall of the Bastille.

"We lie down and a fusillade begins again. What a noise! We make a few leaps forward and lie down and begin firing again. We carry but this maneuver right in the frontal post. A hundred yards farther in the German position. The charge bayonets, order comes and we leap forward and the German demerit. They are afraid. When we passed the first post they knocked around in it. One would have thought that the German frontier was firmer than that.

"At last we tread on Alsatian ground. Fumblings about recovered in the front. I am five yards and fall senseless from a bullet. I recovered twenty-five hours later, but the surgeon would not let me remain on the firing line.

"In the previous fighting Jacquin had an experience of watching the French field artillery cut through the German columns as though they were corn. As for the German artillery shells, he says, they do not seem to go.

"At one moment on the day preceding the fight at Col du Bonhomme," said Jacquin, "we saw an aeroplane which is a French plane. The men were overjoyed. A bullet later we saw it drop a bomb. It was a transport plane. Some fell through the train and the other two yards from the train and both buried themselves in the ground. They did no harm. An officer called out, 'Yes, they are Germans,' and ordered us to fire, but they were too high.

Jacquin gives high praise to the French commissariat. He says: "We had fresh meat every day, and wine and coffee were never lacking."

French Maidens Kiss Soldiers of Britain

London.—To the Daily Telegraph comes a story from Belgium of the experience of the British soldiers there.

"The people of this city," says the dispatch, "have given over their ordinary occupations in order to show their hospitality to the men of the British army who are here."

The maidens approach the station to the sound of the bugles the crowd becomes more intense, more enthusiastic. The soldiers march past and are not abashed even when some of the women or young maid rush out to kiss a soldier.

"As they leave the crowd, the French maidens who are here to kiss the British soldiers with God save the King."

EXACT MEANING OF VARIOUS TERMS USED IN DESCRIBING PARTS OF EUROPEAN ARMIES

(International News Service.) Do you know the difference between a corps, a division and a brigade? Few do. The terms are not much translated in the various armies. Here is an enlightening table.

- ARMY CORPS.—GERMANY.
 - Army corps has staff, 2 divisions of infantry, 2 regiments of field artillery, 2 squadrons of cavalry, a company of pioneers, a bridge train, field laboratory, telegraph corps, field hospital, and one or two battalions of heavy field howitzers or mortars and a machine gun platoon. Total, 125,000 men.
 - Infantry division.—Total, 100,000 men.
 - Infantry brigade.—Total, 25,000 men.
 - Regiment.—Three battalions of 4 companies each. Total, 10,000 men.
 - Battalion.—Four companies of 250 men each. Total, 1,000 men.
 - Regiment of field artillery.—Six battalions of 24 guns and 3 of field howitzers. Total, 12,000 men.
 - Battery.—Six guns.
 - Brigade of cavalry.—Two and one-half squadrons. Total, 1,500 to 2,000 men.
 - Squadron of cavalry.—Four squadrons of 200 men each. Total, 800 men.
- ARMY CORPS.—FRANCE.
 - Army corps.—Five infantry divisions, 1 brigade of cavalry, 1 brigade of horse and foot artillery, 1 engineers' battalion, 1 squadron of train. Total, 40,000 men.

IN A BELGIAN FORT

Officer Describes Bravery of Germans Before Liege.

Invaders, Un daunted by Fearful Slaughter, Used the Heads of Their Dead and Wounded Commanders as a Barricade.

London.—A Belgian officer involved from Liege to Brussels gives the London Daily Telegraph this description of the German bravery and losses: "The Germans began to begin in the night time. We replied sharply until dawn came. We had no idea what our practice was. Then we noticed heaps of slain Germans in a semicircle at the fort.

"The German guns were much less successful, because they rarely hit us. That night they did better. At day-break we did better still. As the afternoon came, the German infantry advanced more slowly against them down. It was terrible, gas, mustard. I turned to a brother officer more than once and said:

"Volla! They are coming on again to down, close formation. They must be mad."

"They made no attempt at deploying, but came on in long files, almost shoulder to shoulder, until we shot them down.

"The fallen were heaped one on top of the other in an artificial barricade of dead and wounded men that threatened to waken our guns.

"I thought of Napoleon's saying: 'It is magnificent, but it is not war.' No, it was just slaughter.

"So high became the barricade of dead and wounded that we did not know whether to fire through it or go out and clear openings with our rifles. We would have fired to a trifling some of the wounded from the dead, but did not.

"A stiff wind carried away the smoke of the guns quickly, and we could see some wounded men trying to re-load their rifles. I saw one man crawl forward, and when he was near me, he was dead. He had died of his wounds, but they were slight compared with our own.

"The German taken prisoners were necessarily hungry. Plunged away their rifles and throwing up their arms, they came forward and begged for food by tearing at the haversacks of the British soldiers, crying, in German or in broken French, 'bread, bread,' and 'drink, drink.'

Kaiser's War Train.

London.—The German war train is described by a Belgian from Germany. The train consists of dining, council and sleeping saloon cars, added to which are well-lit and comfortable. The train carries one or two telegraphers and is preceded and followed by armored trains. Among the equipment is a small simple tent which is to be pitched on the field whenever the engineer deems it expedient to share the hard sleep of his troops.

Women and Boys Run Street Cars.

Paris.—The underground railway is only one running here. You can see the women who have been reduced, wives and young ones of men at the front are taking the places of conductors and ticket punchers. The train is now full running, but with a staff reduced as well as in possible, which is likewise the case with the river steamers and their crews. There are a few taxicabs on the streets.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Brigade of infantry.—Four battalions and independent and medical battalions. Total, 14,000 men.

Cavalry brigade.—Two regiments of 4 squadrons each. Total, 8,000 men.

Brigade of artillery.—Three batteries, 18 guns; heavy artillery, 12 guns; field howitzers, 2 batteries; horse artillery, 2 batteries.

Battery.—Six guns.

THEIR GOLD HIDDEN

People of Europe Are Hoarders of Immense Wealth.

Unquestionable Quantity of Coin and Bullion Buried in the Ground—National War Chests Estimated to Contain $2,000,000,000.

European authorities figured that when the Balkan war began and there was dread among the common people of Europe that a general war might result, nearly $250,000,000 in gold was hoarded in three countries in sums ranging from a gold piece or two up to tens of thousands of dollars. Austria-Hungary was credited with hiding away $125,000,000, Germany $85,000,000 and France $120,000,000.

This was money which had been traced to those countries just before the Balkan hostilities began and before the Balkan hostilities began and before the Balkan hostilities began.

Russia is believed to have tens of thousands of hoarders of money. It is utterly impossible to guess at the amount of gold which the people of Russia have put into the ground or into the cellars of their homes. The sum of wealth would mean the ending of the tax collector, and among the men who look poor are owners of immense wealth in gold.

Vast sums of gold and silver coin have gone to Russia, which seldom lets go of it. The great imperial war chest has behind it, if the signs mean anything, other sums in little war chests and which the government might draw out if it offered lands for sale, or bonds the people would trust, or opportunities to re-conquer her former dominions.

England has her hidden hoards, but one knows her hoards are not many, but there is concealed in England nothing like the amount that is hidden in continental Europe, where foreign armies have only to enter a surveyed boundary line or a little creek to find their enemies' treasures, which they have been hoarding for ages, has more lost hoards than the world will ever know about because there is hoarding but some on for ages, during which the gold has been buried and lost in the desolated lands, trampled down and destroyed everything that could give comfort or assistance to any one.

Spain has millions of dollars in gold, silver, pearls and gems buried and lost in a thousand ancient castles, monasteries and other public buildings. No the hoards of her story Spain imported countless millions of gold and silver from the Americas and countless articles made away with great sums in bolton, hiding it away and many of them never recovered it.

India is the bottomless pit of the world's gold. In one year India imported $200,000,000, and there has never been a time, apparently, when India was not importing gold, silver and precious metals. In the temple of India there are said to be $1,800,000,000 in precious metal and precious stones.

If the hoards of Europe could be tapped and the hidden treasures of European cities should be tapped by the British army, the possibilities of lost gold, pearls and precious metals are beyond compute. But all the lost gold would not compensate for the hundreds of thousands of ounces of gold which must be paid each day for army maintenance and equipment. In India the gold is being melted down, resulting from the cleavage of the victors. War was then for lost.

The war chests of Europe are supposed to contain about $2,000,000,000 in gold coin and bullion. What possibilities of lost gold treasure is in some measure understandable when one considers that this means about 10,000 tons of yellow metal and no estimate is made of the amount of discarded, rusted, pearls and gems also in gold.

RUSSIA RICHEST OF ALL

Of all the nations involved in this European war probably, Russia is the only independent one. She has gold mines in Siberia and has a heavy weight of that gold ever sent out of Russia. It is all in the gold mines of the empire. There is no one to borrow money for her war. She is the only nation of Europe that does not. Furthermore, Russia has food for her great army. She is the only nation in Europe that is not to starve. She has claimed that she has the money, and she has the wheat. She has the wheat of her claim—Bismarckian Logic.

Head Abolishing.

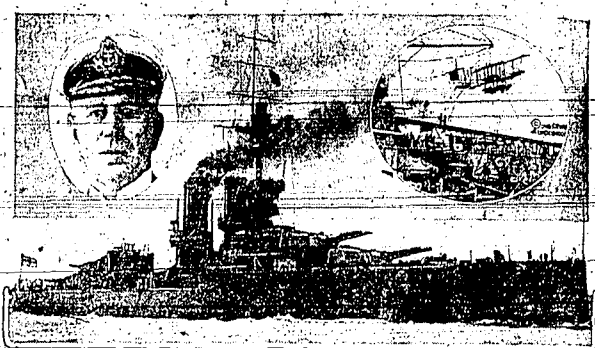

It is striving for leadership a man should first prove himself independent. The way of showing independence is past.

CANADA SENDS HER BEST TO AID OLD COUNTRY

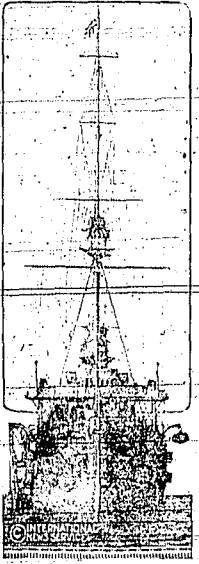

The response to the call for Canadian volunteers for service with the English army was such that the 25,000 men required could be picked from any three of the Dominion's nine military divisions. The illustration shows (below) members of the Halifax Rifles (the first mustered in and above) four of their officers, left to right, Captain Logan, Lieutenant Dennis, Captain Clarke and Lieutenant Jones.

FORTRESS AND BRIDGE AT DINANT

Dinant is the fortified town in Belgium along the Meuse river that confronts the Germans in their advance to the French frontier. Liege is the first in the chain. Namur the second, and just before the French border is reached stands Dinant. The towering bluffs extend for miles along the river and the town generally obtained on a fortified city its rocky base are said to be 1500 feet high. The picture above shows the town along the Meuse and back of it the citadel.
