Spin this again... The Times called attention of the public to the need for loyalty toward the home fruit growers on the part of the merchants and the buying public.

WHOM DO WE SUPPORT? WHAT if we should go to one of our local storekeepers and say: "Here is a ten-dollar bill; I want you to buy for me such-and-such an article, made abroad, this color, that size, and deliver it to me at your convenience—say 30 days."

THE JUDICIAL ELECTION Before the primary election The Times pointed out that it was possible under that system for Twin Falls county to absolutely control and dictate the nomination for district judge.

Two candidates out of these four, Judge C. O. Storaker, Attorney Who said Hallock, of Twin Falls, Mr. (howell), will be elected. And Twin Falls still has the power to absolutely elect two of its local men if a mind is set so.

Mr. Howell is a strong candidate as he was next to the highest man in number of votes received in the primary. He is well qualified for the place, fully as well qualified as either of his two opponents, who, like him, have had to experience on the bench. If by desire to place on the Twin Falls man from the remainder of the district they must support Mr. Howell.

LYCEUM ATTRACTIONS, SEASON 1914-15

PLATFORM SETTING FOR PROFESSOR MONTRAVILLE, WOOD.

PROFESSOR MONTRAVILLE WOOD

One of the big features of the Lyceum attraction for America is represented in the double lectures and demonstrations presented by Professor Montraville Wood. Mr. Wood is one of America's foremost inventors, particularly in the electrical field. Nearly 100 patents have been awarded to Mr. Wood, the majority of which are in respect of his inventions.

and a gyroscope weighing twenty-eight pounds and attaining a speed of 3,000 revolutions.

The reducing of handwriting on the small car, a model car built especially for the Lyceum, is a task well above one of the stages of the education. The reducing of handwriting on the small car, a model car built especially for the Lyceum, is a task well above one of the stages of the education.

Professor Wood is a good lecturer and entertainer as well as a scientist. Miss Alice M. Wood, Professor Wood's only daughter, who has been his co-worker and assistant for several years, accompanies him and is his help in his program. Miss Wood is a graduate of a well known musical college of Chicago and is otherwise talented, but there is nothing in which she is so much deficient as scientific work.

HALWOOD ROBERT MANLOWE. Halwood-Robert Manlowe, the versatile musician-entertainer, known in the "Big Top" as "The King of the Lyceum," has been a part of the most popular entertainers before the public today.

In his character delineations Manlowe is an Irishman, Swede, Jew, Dutchman, Frenchman, and what you please, and in his character delineations Manlowe is an Irishman, Swede, Jew, Dutchman, Frenchman, and what you please, and in his character delineations Manlowe is an Irishman, Swede, Jew, Dutchman, Frenchman, and what you please.

Manlowe is particularly strong in his character impersonations. When he is Dutch, he is all Dutch. When he is Irish he is all Irish, and in each character he throws himself into his work with enthusiasm and gets quickly into the hearts of the people. His humor is particularly strong. Manlowe is a young man. He is full of ambition and an indefatigable worker. He is without a mighty centimetre to meet, for his heart beats in grand sympathy.

THE HARMONY CONCERT PARTY.

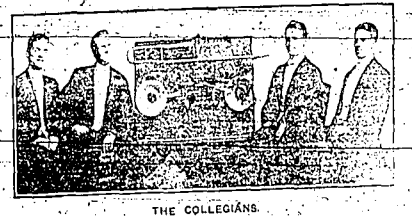

One of the great individual characters in educational and religious circles is Chancellor George H. Bradford of the Methodist University of Oklahoma. His lectures are full of thought and inspiration, and it would be useless to attempt to approximate the number of men and women who have done great and better things after coming under his influence.

It is natural that Dr. Bradford should be particularly interested in education. The secret of his success in that line seems to be almost entirely within himself. The opportunities he had were not to be compared with those of great majority of young men and women today. No one paid his expenses in school nor gave him a high cultured position after graduation from college. His hard work has succeeded in completing his course and immediately he began as a preacher in a mission church. The salary consisted of the robes tossed into the collection basket.

THE COLLEGIANS.

The Collegian Quartet made its first appearance in the Lyceum two years ago, when it toured a portion of the east and middle west and everywhere met with success. Their program comprises both instrumental and vocal music and includes solos as well as ensemble numbers.

The program is their own, at times including, in the songs, ballads and other music that is new and original. The quartet is particularly interesting in the informal but serious gathering at the fraternal house and finally closing with an exceptionally bright and captivating solo.

THE KILLARNEY GIRLS AND RITA RICH

The Killarney girls appear in Irish costumes and, with an appropriate setting, present a program of instrumental music and singing, with emphasis on the latter. There are Irish songs that range from simple folklore to the Irish classics, most of which will be rendered by a company of real artists.

Miss Rita Rich, whose work is one of the special features of this company, is widely known in Lyceum circles, having been a member of the Elma B. Smith Company for some time—a most popular organization. One of the features of Miss Rich's work with the Elma B. Smith Company was her appearance in Irish folk songs and Irish ballads.

Another member of this company who has a prominent part in the program is Miss Laura Werns, reader, accompanist and vocalist. As a member of the Killarney Company she presents Irish legends and readings.

MISS RITA RICH.

The contralto soloist is Miss Marguerite Andrews, soloist for several years in one of the largest churches in Pittsburg and who has appeared in concert work throughout the east.

Miss Etha Klinton, soprano, who was with the Fuchs Company in 1912 under Josephath management, appears not only in the ensemble, but in the quartet, solos and as an accompanist. There are seven members in the company, all of whom are artists.

DR. EDWARD A. STEINER.

Dr. Edward A. Steiner is often referred to as the greatest authority on immunization in this country. Dr. Steiner was born in Austria; received his early medical training in Vienna; attended the higher school of Germany; made his doctor's degree at the University of Heidelberg; spent his early months in Vienna and his present head of the department of applied Christianity in Iowa College at Grinnell.

Since coming to this country he has traveled extensively. He has studied local conditions both here and abroad. A personal friend of some of the brightest lights of the modern philosophical and literary world, such as Tolstoy and Max Nordau, he was well known in this country, he has a command of valuable and entertaining in formation and experience to draw upon, and which he uses most effectively, shall be his series of lectures. Dr. Steiner made a special trip to this city a few years ago with the result that the American public was brought into closer sympathy with the greatest of his scientific and popular work. His lecture, "The Trail of the Immigrant," was issued and has well been described as "a book which set America thinking and her statement to a man."

"JUDITH OF BETHULIA"

In Four Great Parts.

Featuring Blanche Sweet. Possibly one of the greatest pictures ever offered to the Twin Falls public.

Ancient in story and settings, it is modern in penetrative interpretation—it is a vivid history of one phase of the time it concerns. As it is so impressive as well as so revealing, a lesson from one of the world's struggles that made and unmade nations as well as individuals, yet it is not without that inspiring influence that appeals powerfully to human sense of justice.

To cover the extra expense of this big feature, our prices will be CHILDREN 10c, ADULTS 15c.

SOCIETY NOTES

Society items for this column will be gladly received by The Times.

The City Five Hundred club will meet this week with Mrs. Adams at the home of Mrs. Cox on Addison avenue.

The Wednesday Addition Bridge club met last week at the home of Mrs. W. B. Hill. Mrs. Robert A. McCollum won the prize for the high score for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Swim entertained last Thursday evening at a reception on Fourth avenue east. Four tables of players enjoyed the game of Five Hundred. After which delicious refreshments were served at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Pauline Evans assisting the hostess.

On Friday afternoon, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock, the most intelligent and assistants of the Credit Roll department of the First Christian church, will entertain all the ladies on the Credit Roll and all their mothers. The mothers are especially urged to take note of this announcement and plan to be present with the lady. There are about eight tables all told. This reception will be held in the church basement.

The Luncheon club was most delightfully entertained by Mrs. Harry F. Allen on Friday of last week. Flowers were laid for eight, about a dainty luncheon table, which had for a centerpiece, a low basket of sweet peas in shades of white and pink. The cards were also decorated with the same flowers. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to Auction Bridge, at which Mrs. S. Hill won the prize for high score.

On last Thursday night, Miss Louise Wieldman entertained 20 of her friends in honor of Miss Genevieve H. Henshaw, meaning games and broke on heart contents were the order for the evening. The table was beautifully decorated with hearts, cups and other like matters.

An elaborate lunch was served after which the guests departed, having concluded the bride-elect on the price she had drawn in the matrimonial lottery.

On Saturday afternoon in the church basement, some of the ladies of the Auxiliary of the C. W. P. M. will entertain all the boys and girls of the First Christian church, between the ages of 5 and 16. There will be two groups of youngsters, one for the younger and one for the older children. Each one is asked to bring a picture of a missionary working under the W. H. M. M. and also a picture of the country where the missionary is securing the pictures, please. The children will be in safe hands at the church.

Mrs. H. C. Milner was hostess to a large number of friends at her apartment home on west Main last Thursday evening. The affair being a luncheon in honor of the bride, the bride's mother, Mrs. J. C. Costello, presiding at the table which was most attractive, having for its centerpiece, a Japanese basket of fruit and at either end were shaded candles. The luncheon was further assisted by Miss Violet Thomas and her daughters, the misses Mary and Truth Milner.

Miss Corine Sillan, who left the first of the week for an indefinite visit in Michigan and other western states was the honored guest at a progressive dance given last Friday evening by a number of our friends. Courses were served at the following homes where red and white roses, pink and white carnations and pansies formed the center of interest: Mrs. Lena Hylbe, Miss Mae Hulbert, Miss Myrtle Starler, Miss Louise Wieldman, and Miss Sarah Sillan. Covers were laid for fourteen. At a late hour the guests sang their own freedom, after which they had their popular song, contrary to have a good time but remembering that the center of interest was the Twin Falls. The following guests were present: Misses Corine, Ruth and Doris Sillan, Louise Wieldman, Myrtle Starler, Mae Hulbert, Edith Wieldman, Corine, Louise, Myrtle, Cynthia, Ruby, Bonwell, Sillan, Fisher, Smith, Hulbert and Fryler.

GONE UP IN SMOKE

One-half of your coal—and it did you no good. Hard luck that. But there is a way to fix it. Here's how:

That stove of yours has seen its best days. You need a new one. You know it—but you have let things drift along. Meanwhile, you have been losing HALF of every hod of coal you have put in it. Of course, you knew it, but you did not think of it that way. You know that half of every dollar you spend on coal. Rather extravagant? Yes?

The ordinary stove made of a lot of separate castings leaks air. They leak air at the wrong place. Places you can not control.

RESULT—the best part of your coal—the 14,000 cubic feet of common illuminating gas that is in the average ton of $3.00 soft coal—goes up the flue unburned. You have lost it. It has gone up in smoke.

Save that gas—mix it properly with air and you have the hottest kind of a blue flame. But there is only one way to do this—Buy the only heater that is made tight—holds tight—stays tight.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

It leaks no air. This is the heater that mixes the gas and air and gives you all the heat in the coal. This is the heater that burns any kind of coal and makes a ton of $3.00 soft coal do the work of $8.00 hard coal in a high priced base burner. This is the heater that is a joy and comfort to the housewife. It makes no dirt or smoke in the house. This is the heater that saves labor—fix it in the morning and at night and FORGET IT THE REST OF THE TIME. This is the heater that gives a steady, constant heat from soft coal or lignite. This is the heater that will hold its fire untouched for a day and a night. This is the heater we sell you under a guarantee that is as "good as old wheat at the mill." Burns soft coal, lignite, slack, hard coal or wood. It is just the kind of a heater you want. Come in and see it.

See the name "Cole's" on the feed door of each stove. None genuine without it.

NOTICE AND PROCLAMATION

Of the Submission of the Question of the Division of Twin Falls County to the Qualified Electors of Said County at the General Election November 3rd, 1914.

Notice is hereby given that at a regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of Twin Falls County, Idaho, held on August 1st, 1914, a petition bearing the filing date of July 21st, 1914, praying for the submission of the question for the division of Twin Falls County, at the ensuing general election, was presented to the Board for their consideration, said petition being signed by a majority of the qualified electors of said proposed new county voting at the last preceding general election, which electors are more particularly described in said petition in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at the intersection of the main channel of the Snake River with the route line (that is, boundary) between fifteen (15) and sixteen (16) East of the Idaho Meridian, in section 19, south of range 21, west of longitude, west from Washington, thence north along said Meridian to the intersection of the Snake River, the main channel of the Snake River, thence up the center of the said channel to the Snake River to the point of beginning.

The description of the proposed county is "Bull County."

The name of the proposed county of said new county is "Bull County."

NOW THEREFORE, it is hereby proclaimed that the question of the creation of said proposed new county is submitted to all of the qualified electors of Twin Falls County voting at the ensuing general election to be held on November 3rd, 1914, and that the same shall be controlled by the general election laws of the State of Idaho, in far as the same shall be applicable.

The question to be submitted to the electors shall be in form as follows: "Shall the Proposed New County of Bull be created by the division of Twin Falls County, Idaho, by the Board of County Commissioners, Twin Falls County, Idaho."

C. H. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Kimberly has some team

Baseball interest of Nethelmore town kept alive by Fast Team.

The base ball game last Sunday on the local diamond with the Kimbrelly team was one of the most interesting games played this season for the number of acrobats laid up by both teams, it took ten innings to decide it in favor of the winners.

J. B. Hayscock left Tuesday last week for his home in Spokane, after spending some time here looking after his farming interests, he will return to Kimberly after several weeks, however.

The Kimberly ball team crowd had with the Oakley side on the latter's grounds Saturday afternoon, and in spite of the fact that Oakley imported a crack pitcher for the game, Kimberly won by a score of 21 to 12, making three home runs.

Mrs. J. D. Shober, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Landrum, for the past month, left Wednesday last week for her home in Nebraska.

R. M. Ashton and J. M. Beck, the local butchers, spent last week in the hills looking after beef cattle. The boys say that it is not easy task to take all week, extra cattle and calves to give up the long end of a hundred dollars for one herd.

The school board are having the new list installed this week so that there may be no excuses for being late to school from now on. The new furniture has arrived and as soon as the new rooms are furnished, all the pupils will be comfortably located.

Potato disease has been around Kimberly in earnest this week, from the tests already made the late potatoes are showing the best, or greatest, that was ever shown after disease of frost.

Albert McEvans sale held on the 19th was fairly well attended and the proceeds of the sale were used to continue in the dairy business.

The Kimberly business fair committee are busy these days arranging affairs for one of the best displays ever shown of the tract. There will be two days, Oct. 2nd and 3rd, for the presentation of the fine business suits or sets of W. E. Hooton, secretary.

Several automobile loads of Kimberly business men attended the fair at Oakley Friday and Saturday of last week, but it is reported having had a good time.

W. E. Lewis attended the meeting of the Twin Falls county school trustees association last Saturday afternoon, held at the high school auditorium, only a few of the trustees being present on account of the same being.

The practice of taking horses and the sleds in Kimberly has become somewhat of a nuisance in say nothing of the danger. Steps have been taken to stop the practice and if harsh measures have to be taken, Horace Eubank and wife, of Hollister, spent Sunday visiting at the Wittke home, returning Sunday evening.

The Potato Growers' association are pushing work on their storage cellars and expect to have it ready by the first of October.

W. C. Slaughter returned Sunday evening from Oshawa and western points where he went with a car of sheep.

A. J. Wilson and family spent Sunday at the W. S. Martin home.

W. M. Arnold shipped another car of potatoes the first of the week to eastern markets.

Chas. Lloyd's new barn is nearing completion under the management of A. M. Campbell, the contractor.

THE TIE THAT BINDS

OPPOSITES attract each other... This was not more unlike than their characters...

Daisy's letters showed him that she had forgotten or disregarded his advice... "I am sorry," he ran, "that neither you nor Daisy thought it worth while to inform me of the true condition of things..."

"I don't believe," said Daisy, "that you would stop my going out and make me stay stupidly at home for me..."

"Did you think of the baby that was coming to make me happy, dear?" suggested the husband... "You mean," said Daisy, "that I should be a mother again?"

"And what are the real things?" queried the woman... "True human beings with noble ideas and ideas and silly goals; books that fill one out of the brain with big thoughts..."

"I don't believe," said Daisy, "that you would stop my going out and make me stay stupidly at home for me..."

"Well, I did forget," was the reply to only... "I don't believe," said Daisy, "that you would stop my going out and make me stay stupidly at home for me..."

"I heard all that," interrupted Dan... "But what do you want to know?"... "I want to know what kind of a woman you are."

"I don't believe," said Daisy, "that you would stop my going out and make me stay stupidly at home for me..."

had Dan would be detained in town on business, but that she herself would surely come if he booked some time to take her home...

"I don't believe," said Daisy, "that you would stop my going out and make me stay stupidly at home for me..."

WAR'S REAL SINEWS

Financial Resources More Necessary Than All Else.

Cost of Great European Conflict Estimated to Be $4,000,000,000 Daily
Coin and Bullion in the National Banks.

By HERBERT TEMPLE, European Manager of the International News Service.

London.—Ten and eight, battleships and airplanes are necessary for war, of course, but the primo requisite of modern warfare is money. Financial resources are the real "sinews of war" and, in a long drawn out conflict, money is more necessary, even than soldiers, ships and ammunition.

It has been estimated by experts that with Germany, England, France, Russia, Austria-Hungary and Servia at war, the daily cost will aggregate $100,000,000. If Italy, Holland, Turkey and the United States were to join the conflict, $150,000,000 would be a fair estimate of the daily money cost of the huge conflagration.

The German relishing at the outset more than $1,000,000,000 for war, the British parliament voted over $500,000,000 at first and followed this with another $500,000,000 making the total British appropriation $1,000,000,000.

The Russian war appropriations have topped the billion dollar mark, and France has not been behind.

In a significant war like the one now on, the bankers of the world are perhaps more powerful than the rulers of the nations involved.

The importance of the financial factor has never been more obvious than now when the European war has thrown the stock exchanges and bourses of the world out of business. When so vital a part of the financial structure is being away, all the usual data that go to indicate a nation's financial standing become to a great extent valueless, but they are still of use for purposes of rough comparison.

Of the amount of hard cash that the warring nations of Europe have at their command, the returns of the state banks are the best guide available. According to recent weekly returns, the five great powers now at war have the following amounts of coin and bullion in their central banks: France, $245,000,000; Great Britain, $221,000,000; Germany, $182,000,000; Austria-Hungary, $121,000,000; Great Britain, $201,000,000.

These could only become available as a war chest if their primary function of backing for paper currency and credit were suspended. They are of greatest value when exercising the privilege. Although England's central gold reserve is the smallest of the five, it is said in banking circles to be the most valuable because it forms the backing of an immense volume of credit of international value.

It is only on the assumption that the great credit system of the European nations at war should fall utterly to the ground, that they would have to fall back upon their gold reserves to pay for the millions of war.

HE SAVED BRUSSELS

How Minister Whitlock Averted Destruction of City.

Peruaded Burgomaster to Abandon Pledge Demanded That Germans Permit Foreigners to Obtain Food.

Antwerp.—Brand Whitlock, former mayor of Toledo, is receiving the praise of all Brussels and is given credit for having saved the city from starvation. As American minister to Belgium Mr. Whitlock asked the burgomaster to abandon his proposed defense by the civil guards in order to prevent useless bloodshed and to save the city's famous buildings and works of art. The civil guards were disbanded and the city was surrendered.

When the Germans attempted to commandeer all foodstuffs in the city Mr. Whitlock figuratively took the bull by the horns. He notified the German commander that the burgomaster under his protection as American minister would uphold the rights of the Germans and threatened to hold him responsible if they were deprived of food.

Washington.—Brand Whitlock, American minister to Belgium, from whom the city of Brussels has been saved for several days, finally succeeded in getting a cablegram through to the American government from Brussels, which he reported to be in German hands, but completely "surrounded by armies engaged in active operations."

Mr. Whitlock did not move the American legation with the Belgian coat when the seat of government was taken from Brussels to Antwerp, but remained behind, together with most of the other neutral ministers.

It develops that through the influence of the American minister and the Spanish minister the burgomaster of Brussels was persuaded not to make a fight because of the fatal consequences which would have followed bombardment of the defenseless city.

"Mr. Whitlock's telegram follows: 'Having under the direction of the mayor granted, I decided that yesterday I was in Brussels. The Spanish minister reached the same conclusion, as did the ministers of 17 other neutral powers.' The representatives who went to Antwerp over the French, Belgian and Italian ministers, who nations are involved as belligerents, and some others who went for personal reasons.

"Already intrusted with German interests here, I subsequently took over the Belgian legation and the protection of a large number of Belgian citizens."

"Owing to the distinguished position of the United States I have been able to give services for which I have been thanked by the German commanding general, by representatives of the British cabinet, by the international monetary unions and by an official of the Belgian foreign office on behalf of the king.

"The Spanish minister and I made representations to the burgomaster before the occupation of Brussels, which in connection with other considerations, led him to abandon his intention of attempting a futile defense of the city, which might have brought on a bombardment with all its terrible consequences.

"The position of our legation in this conflict is unique, and happily so detached, being entirely without apprehension as to our personal safety. We have been able to give certain humane service, scrupulously observing meanwhile all the requirements of our neutral position."

ATTENTION!

I wish to announce to the public that I have taken the agency for Studebaker cars for 1915—It's my intention to have in stock at all times all repair parts for all models of Studebaker, E. M.
