COLONIAL BALL IS PLEASANT EVENT

Ye Olden Time Gentle Folks Come to Life.

MODERN DANCES DISCARDED FOR THE TIME BEING

Large Number of Citizens Participate in Annual Ball of the 20th Century Club.

With stately and measured steps, chivalrous knights of yesteryear, with bowed heads and marked time, with colonial damies in ruffled, airy of the days of our Pilgrim Fathers in the mistiest, launces and many steps unknown to rising America. The gentle courtesy, graceful rhythm, made a marked and pleasing contrast to the present day dance. Under the beautifully decorated balcony, the orchestra presented a suitable picture. Old and young alike entered into the spirit of the evening in a manner to make the ball one of the pleasantest ever held in this city.

The furnishings of the hall were Colonial and the club colors, green and white, were used in decorating. Colonial wreaths were used at each of the pillars, between which narrow strips of green bunting were festooned, combining with the white walls to form the club colors. The town was ransacked for Colonial mirrors and pictures for the walls, and were scattered at intervals in the hall. The beautiful and attractive designs was the work of Miss Hamilton, Mrs. J. E. White and Miss Thomas. In one end of the hall was stationed the Regan-Mandolin orchestra, which played at intervals during the evening. The table from which the punch was served was also trimmed in green and white, and was presided over by Mesdames Bishop, Gales, Kayser, Clark, Mann, Swin, Clousch, Mitchell, Sweet, Evans and Karls. The orchestra was beautifully decorated with American flags, and the stage was banked with palms. The decorations of the auditorium were under the direction of Mr. Hailo, the Idaho Hotel, and the stage, assisted by the decorating committee.

The balcony was filled with spectators long before the hour of the program which was a most excellent one furnished by Mesdames Wiley, Durall, Miss Combs and Miss Thomas, Miss Edith Ramsey and Mrs. Gilbert. Vocal solos by Prof. Skougard and Mr. Ostrander, immediately followed by Mrs. Ostrander, who sang the grand march led by Mr. A. W. Johnson as "Uncle Sam" and Miss Jane Maxwell as "Lincoln". The music was furnished by the Regan-Mandolin orchestra of five pieces. Grand vocal solo by Mrs. H. H. Hays, who sang "The Star-Spangled Banner". The music was furnished by the Regan-Mandolin orchestra of five pieces. Grand vocal solo by Mrs. H. H. Hays, who sang "The Star-Spangled Banner".

BOGU' POSTAL ORDERS

Banks and Merchants Warned to Be on the Watch For Them.

Postmasters have received notice from the department that a number of bogus postal orders are being issued by counterfeiters and the principal banks and merchants are being urged to be on the watch for them. The orders are being issued in the name of the post office in order that they may be passed upon.

The bogus orders are printed on paper similar to that used by the government, but any one familiar with the handling of that paper can detect the difference. The paper of the bogus orders is thicker and does not have the government watermark.

EUGENE V. DEBBS IS ELOQUENT

Socialism Expounded By National Exponent.

AUDITORIUM CROWDED TO CAPACITY BY RESIDENTS OF TRACT

Special Train From Babi Brings Many People to Hear Socialist Presidential Aspirant.

Eugene V. Debs, whether one agrees with his panacea for national life in Socialism, it must be conceded that he is very much in evidence and a very eloquent exponent of his one big idea. To a crowded house last night, Mr. Debs gave for two hours his view of the national life and of the remedy for it. Tracing from the start of the commercial progress and especially the growth of capitalism, he traced the growth of capitalism to the present day, showing the tendency to power of the Socialist party.

Many incidents in the industrial warfare and activities of the working capital and labor factions were brought out to show the inevitable result of present form of government. Mr. Debs is both a forceful and brilliant speaker and has a convincing manner which holds over those who may not agree with his propaganda. It is certain that after hearing Mr. Debs, very few people will refuse to recognize him as the strongest Socialist speaker ever before a Twin Falls audience.

FOR TAXPAYERS INFORMATION

Details of Actions of County Commissioners Concerning Grades and Bridges.

One Mill Levy Made Under Resolution For Specific Purposes of Three Projected Improvements.

Because of some of the statements made concerning the various bridge and the attitude of the various communities in the controversy, the times takes this opportunity of presenting to its readers the official history of the bridge matters from the start of the controversy. From the following excerpts from the journal, it can be readily seen that direct and positive action was not forth in the call to meetings and in the specific disposition of the funds from the levy of one mill. A careful reading of the call for mass meeting and resolutions will show that the county commissioners have certain obligations to perform in carrying out the resolution. There is strong indication that any action not in harmony with the resolution is contrary to law.

STRONG TERMS

United States Warns Warring Powers.

AMERICAN VESSELS MUST BE SAFEGUARDED IN DANGER ZONE

Note of This Country to England and Germany Demands Keynote of American Policy.

Washington — Publication by the state department of the text of the note sent Wednesday to Great Britain and Germany, respectively, revealed that both countries had been warned in most emphatic terms against menacing the vessels of American citizens, traveling the recently proclaimed sea lanes of war. Germany was advised that the United States, in the event of a conflict, would hold the imperial government to a strict accountability for such acts of its naval authorities as might result in the destruction of American vessels or the loss of American lives, and that "such a deplorable situation should arise." The American government would "take any steps it might be necessary to take to safeguard American lives and property."

To Great Britain the United States pointed out "the measure of responsibility" which would seem to be imposed on the British government "for the loss of American vessels and lives in case of an attack by a German naval force." If England sanctioned the general course of the American flag by British vessels and thereby cast doubt upon the valid character of the neutral maritime.

"They two" communications were to have been presented respectively to the British government by Ambassador Page and the German foreign office by Ambassador Grawert. They were prepared by Counselor Robert Lansing and revised by President Wilson.

The British, Spanish and Brazilian ambassadors, who happened to call at the state department, were given copies of the notes as were the ministers of Sweden, Norway and Denmark, who specially requested them. The documents created some of the most serious of the diplomats generally as their dramatic implications. High officials of the American government pointed out that the notes were not intended to speak in unadmitted terms now rather than to wait the future. American public opinion which might ensue from the sinking of a vessel with scores of American citizens. The notes, official documents, were not to be a prerogative of the critical possibilities discussed in them.

Diplomats combined with great interest in the language of the communications and some of them construed the note to Germany as a warning against the use of force. The note to Germany was a warning against the use of force. The note to Germany was a warning against the use of force.

NEW USE FOR ELECTRICITY

Water Company at Ripert Thawed Pipes by Live Wires.

The thawing of frozen pipes with electricity was demonstrated in Rupert this week, and proved very successful. The water company was put in place on the sidewalk, and the connections made direct to the pipe. Iron was used in the pipe, and it causes the pipe to become hot in a very short time, and the ice is, of course, melted in consequence. Two openings were necessary, as the pipe could not be handled for more than half the distance, but the work was soon over once they were attached.

Refusing to grant the application of the Great Shoshone & Twin Falls Water Power company for a rehearing on the certificate for a rehearing and recently granted to the Idaho Power & Light company in the Twin Falls field, the public utilities commission Saturday opened the way to bringing the southeastern power war into the supreme court for final settlement. The case was argued by Commissioner Graham and the company made application for a rehearing on the recent order of the commission allowing the Idaho Power & Light company the right to enter the Twin Falls field. Accompanying the application was an affidavit in which it was declared that Commissioner Graham was not competent to sit on the question as he had shown his animosity to the Great Shoshone company by a letter to the commission. When questioned concerning the case, Mr. Graham said that he was not a member of the commission and that he was not competent to sit on the question as he had shown his animosity to the Great Shoshone company by a letter to the commission.

"THE MATCHMAKER"

Twin Falls Dramatic Club to Produce Another Play.

The second play to be produced by the Twin Falls Dramatic club will be Daniel Sullivan's latest and greatest success, "The Matchmaker," a comedy with the scenes laid in Southern Idaho in the earlier days.

The players were selected from those who were credited in the club's production of "Tolly the Circus," some six weeks ago. Mr. H. J. Macaulay will be seen in the role of Father Dwyer, and his sayings and Irish philosophies will certainly prove the most enjoyable in the play.

The players have gone to quite an expense in securing this play as there is a heavy rushing attached to the production of the name and should be shown encouragement by the theatre.

The seats will be on sale Thursday, and prices will be the same as before, 25, 35 and 50 cents. You can reserve seats by telephoning or writing to Skoel-Vin's Drug store.

It Will Be Here— In the Morning!

—The New Reo the Fifth—$1050

WE HAVE JUST BEEN ADVISED that our new Reo the Fifth, "the Incomparable Fifth," demonstrator has arrived — by the time you read this it will have been unloaded and will be at our show rooms.

WE HAVE BEEN BESIEGED by scores of persons eager to get a first look at this latest edition of the famous Reo the Fifth—"the Incomparable Fifth."

DO YOU KNOW that since November 4th, there hasn't been a Reo car obtainable at the factory! Last of the 1914 series was shipped on that day.

DID YOU SAY SOMETHING about "hard times"? Reo has never known such a thing. Reo value—Reo service—Reo cars—have always commanded a market greatly in excess of the possible supply—always.

THERE HAS NEVER BEEN A TIME when even with its factory facilities, the Reo Motor Car Company has been able to furnish all the Reos needed to fill the demand. Never a time.

SO THE EAGERNESS of buyers to see this new Reo is nothing unusual.

AND THIS LATEST Reo the Fifth—this 1915 edition of that famous car that has set the standard and maintained the lead in its price class for several years—is destined to increase its popularity and its leadership.

NEVER WAS SUCH VALUE. You read, of course, in the big two-page ad how it was possible to produce a car of such size—a bigger as well as an improved and refined car—at $125 less than formerly. Now $1050—last season $1175.

LET US REPEAT—a bigger, better car—up to the minute in every detail of design and finish and equipment including the best one-man top made, and for less money. No other could do it. None but Reo.

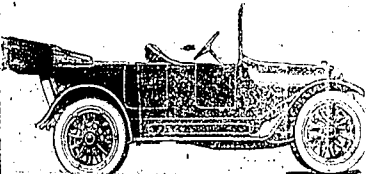

BUT YOU CAN'T appreciate fully what this value is until you can have seen and driven this car.

IF YOU COME EARLY this morning you will be one of the first—you will see it almost as soon as we do. There'll be a crowd—for many, like yourself, have been waiting to see it.

AND, OF COURSE, we need not remind you that, with no Reos obtainable during the past two months and thousands having already decided they will join the Reo contingent, "and be sure," for the coming year, your order will have to be in early to insure an early delivery. Better drop in on your way to the office—we'll be here.

CARRANZA GIVES NOTICE TO WORLD Mexican Chief to Force Recognition

ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO PASS THROUGH HIS HANDS

Government at Washington Worried.
Anxious as to the Treatment of Foreigners.

Washington — General Venustiano Carranza, first chief of the Constitutional army, notified the world Sunday that all communications to the government from outside sources must pass through him. Carranza's decree reached Washington through Rafael Zubizarain Carranza, his minister of the interior, who telegraphed it to Oliver Arrington, Carranza's local representative. The order apparently will make it impossible for diplomatic relations to be made with foreign governments to deal with the Carranza government except by going to Vera Cruz, which they have been unwilling to do, lest such action be construed as formal recognition. Already most of the diplomats at Mexico City have asked their governments for permission to leave when the situation becomes intolerable and some of them have been advised to use their own discretion.

The order may also affect the activity of American consular representatives, who heretofore have dealt with the de facto government, whatever it happened to be.

The first chief of the Constitutional army has been apprised of frequent cases wherein persons of diverse nationalities trying themselves confidential or consular agents of foreign governments without the sanction of the United States, and other persons acting themselves representatives of foreign colonies or large foreign interests established in Mexico, have been making representations, address communications, attend demonstrations and treat directly about matters of an international character. Carranza, leader of the Constitutional army, this action even in cases where it is taken by persons actually accredited, tends to obstruct the unity, which should prevail in the Constitutional government and to belittle the authority of the first chief of the armed forces, provoking disorder and lack of cohesion in governmental decisions with much damage to our cause.

The declaration of Gen. Carranza and other leaders of the northern division involved a painful experience which we must not repeat. Carranza is determined to maintain discipline of experienced leaders.

Military leaders before whom such representations may be made must confine themselves to informing the representatives of the Carranza government of the facts and circumstances, which they should take such action up directly with the first chief of the Constitutional army.

Military chiefs are warned to reject "all promises of political assistance emanating from foreigners."

While high officials were reacting to the future course of the United States government, it is evident that the treatment of Carranza by Mexico has been a failure. Carranza's plight of the diplomatic corps there have given the administration much concern.

Although eight censors are on duty at Vera Cruz, to prevent dispatches unfavorable to the Carranza cause from being sent abroad, it has been learned authoritatively that for some time barely courteous relations have been maintained between Carranza and the council of state and the British at Vera Cruz. The council wait for hours in his reception room, only to be told to call again. Both the Spanish and British consuls incurred the displeasure of Carranza because of their persistence in calling on his attention what they considered mere negotiations on foreign property.

The American consul at Vera Cruz, W. H. Cannon, has time and time again made representations to Carranza on the treatment of Spaniards. Recently he was instructed by Carranza that the department of state had learned of the shooting of seven Spaniards at Aguascalientes and another at a nearby town and pointed out that unless this method of reprisals was stopped, the world at large would be shocked; that a continuation of this policy of executive reprisals would be regarded with deep displeasure by the United States and would place personal responsibility on Carranza—Statesman.

UP-TOWN CREAMERY STATION
Sterling Company Putting in Best Room at 128 Shoshone West.

Even if spuds and apples did not bring large returns last season the old crop is still giving milk. The tremendous increase in the dairy industry on the Twin Falls tract was illustrated this week by two incidents in the life of one of the local creameries. The Sterling Dairy Products Co. are opening an up-town cream station in order to take care of its increased business and to accommodate those delivering cream to it. The station is located at 128 Shoshone St. and will be a handsome place for all ranchers and their families. The wash rooms and rest room provided for the ladies will be appreciated after their long drive to town.

For some time Sterling's butter has been sent by mail and express all over six inter-national states, but last week the first shipment was sent to Chicago. Since the new tariff went into effect the price of butter in this city has dropped until now the chances are that this shipment to Chicago will be followed by many others.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH CROWDED

People Become Interested in Revival Services Held Nightly.

The Vawter wedding, at present under the charge of Dr. Advance, Mr. S. C. Chase have been progressing wonderfully. Extra seating has been provided in the Christian church, yet the building was taxed to its utmost for both the Sunday morning and evening services.

Upon the theme, "Will the Old Book Stand?" Evangelist Chase characterized the Bible as "the creed that needs no revision." As to whether the world could endure the complete loss of the Bible he called attention to the things which would vanish with the book: The record of creation and the early history of the human race; the moral and social standards; the present civilization, and the great incentive to human brotherhood.

The Bible is read more and is followed more than ever before. 29,000.

WILFRED R. DIMOND
A Christian devotee of the Vawter revival at the Christian church, who arrived in the city Tuesday evening.

Monday the first case called in the district was that of George L. Water and Perry Heath charged with stealing cattle.

On Sunday, schools of American students of thousands are studying the Bible in Y. M. C. A. and colleges. The Bible has made its progress and entered new fields against the fiercest opposition. The greatest obstacle to the Bible was the fact that the Bible was denounced as a book to be destroyed rather than to be read.

Mr. Chase, who has observed Mr. Vawter's work as evangelist, pastor and co-worker for ten years, characterized him as one of the most and most able men that he has ever known.

JAIL DELIVERY AT ALBION

William Kidd Escapes From Casalia Jail.

Last Saturday night the jailer of the county jail at Albion, left his prisoners apparently in a safe and unguarded condition and went home. When his arrival next morning he found that Willie Kidd, who is serving time for forgery, had escaped, during the night. Kidd was a convict and sheriff and deputy. Deputy Sheriff Burke soon discovered that the lock to the inner door had been sawed off with a hacksaw and then removed. The prisoner crawled through to his freedom.

After concealing himself in a straw stack all Sunday night the deputy went to the door of the house Monday morning and demanded admission. The prisoner was taken into custody and was released. He was taken to the jail at once and held there until he was released.

Mr. Burke took Willie back to Albion and put him back through the same hole he had come through. When the man was about to be released he was taken to the jail at once and held there until he was released.
