FOOD SAVING CAMPAIGN IS NOW ACTIVE

COMMITTEES IN TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK FOR CONSERVATION

Meat, Wheat and Sugar Are to be Saved

Need of Sugar in France is Pressing—French Have Plenty of Other Necessities—England Depends on Us.

The food conservation campaign has started in earnest in this county and throughout overlapping the liberty bond work is active at all points. There are now eight committees at work in this city, under the leadership of...

NO TIME FOR SITTING BY

By George A. A house was burning. All of the neighbors, except one, were trying to save the building. He sat on the fence. Someone asked him why he should help. "They don't need me," he replied. "The others are so blamed energetic and efficient that probably the fire will be put out without me turning a hand."

A ship was sinking. The captain ordered the hands to the pumps. "Keep the pumps going and I will land you safely," that was the captain's assurance. All of the sailors, except one, sprang to the pumps. This one sat on a coil of rope and smoked his pipe. "Do you want to drown?" asked a shipmate. "I won't drown," was the cool reply. "Not while you boys are doing my share of the work. I know you've got to keep the pumps going whether I help or not."

Once a great rebellion, in real need of the loyal assistance of every citizen, called for subscribers to a bond issue of enormous dimensions. One "kind of man said, 'I don't believe I'll subscribe. The country is full of fellows that are all keyed up and patriotic, and when it comes to a show down, they'll make a few sacrifices and take care of my part of the subscription, rather than see the enterprise flat-out and fall.'"

MORE COAL TO BE PRODUCED THAN BEFORE

GARFIELD SAYS PRODUCTION WILL NOT LAG ANYWHERE

Lays Down Law to the Operators

Belief General That an Ample Supply Will be Forthcoming—Canada Gets Its Proportion From the U. S.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire) PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 23.—Declaring that just so long as the power of fuel dictator was bestowed on him he preferred to see that the production of coal in the United States is kept at the highest level, Dr. Harry A. Garfield addressed a gathering of more than two thousand operators from all over the country here today.

"Coal shall be produced as it never was before," he said, "and factories and homes will be plentifully supplied."

Dr. Garfield's address was brief. He urged the coal men to forget their difficulties and put themselves solidly behind the government in this report with unflinching faith in the government in its prosecution of the war.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Much optimism was expressed by the fuel administration today over the apparent settlement of labor difficulties in middle western coal fields. Officials believed that the situation is now entirely in hand and the miners will be so straitened out that there will be no further labor troubles for the duration of the war.

AMERICANS TO ATTACK TEUTON SOON IS BELIEF

OFFICIALS AT WASHINGTON SO CONFIDENT BAKER'S WEEKLY STATEMENT

Allies Will Not Go to Quarters

Secretary of War Declines to Interpret Statement Saying That It Must Speak for Itself—Winter Movement Expected.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—American troops may soon be on the firing line in France. This is the interpretation placed by officials today on Secretary of War Baker's weekly review of the military situation.

After telling of the splendid physical condition of the Americans overseas and indicating that they are ready now to oppose the Germans, Secretary Baker said there probably would be no halt in the campaign against the Germans on the west front during the winter months.

"Bad weather already prevails along the western front, wintry conditions will soon set in and the terrain will become increasingly difficult for attacking troops," he said. "Nevertheless, the potency of allied material and men, the accumulation of the technical means of combat, and the preparations which have been going on for many months will make it possible for the British and French commanders to triumph over natural obstacles and with few short intervals we may expect the offensive to press forward."

It is not anticipated that the allies will go into winter quarters this year. "This statement coupled with the remarks of the secretary on the condition of the American troops is regarded as most significant," Secretary of War Baker declined to elaborate on his review today.

"It must speak for itself," he said. "Until now officials have believed that the allies would have secured all the dominating positions of hill tops and then would suspend operations through the winter months."

The secretary is ready to take the field, would not get into the fighting until the spring drive started, it was believed.

Secretary Baker's revelation that there would be no let up forced the conclusion today that American troops might be on the firing line within a few days.

It has been the policy of the war department to decline to let any American troops go to the first line trenches as they feel that the army generally has made a good showing against the Germans.

PLOT TO ASSASSINATE PRESIDENT WILSON RESULTS IN EIGHT ARRESTS

Men Plan to Visit Washington on Thanksgiving Day and Get Into White House to Murder Chief Executive of Nation—Names Not Made Public.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire) MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 23.—A plot to assassinate President Wilson on Thanksgiving day has been discovered by secret service agents in Memphis and eight men charged with being the conspirators have been arrested in different places, according to federal officers here. One was arrested in a town near Memphis, two in Pickett county, Tenn.; two near Nashville; one in Scott county, Tenn., and the others within the confines of the state according to federal officers here.

They refused to make the names of the arrested men public. The scheme, it was announced, was for three of the men to go to Washington Thanksgiving day and by political acquaintances gain an audience with the president. One of the men was to take his life. The plot according to federal agents was laid in a town near Memphis.

CHEAP STEEL FOR THE HANSEN BRIDGE

The efforts of the county commissioners toward getting steel for the Hansen bridge is likely to prove successful as indicated by the telegram published hereunder. At the suggestion of the board, County Attorney Frank L. Stephens wrote to Congressman Addison T. Smith, who promptly took up the matter successfully with the government as the following telegram will show:

Washington, Oct. 20. Just advised that minimum prices of structural steel as agreed upon by war industries board and steel manufacturers are: Structural shapes, three dollars per hundred lbs.; 6 in. x 6 in. Pittsburgh bars, two dollars nine cents per hundred lbs.; 6 in. x 6 in. Pittsburgh plates, three dollars twenty cents per hundred lbs. Board does not issue purchasing licenses, but says commissioners of Twin Falls county will have to do so.

U-BOAT FACTOR IS NEGLIGIBLE IN THE WAR

LESSENING EXECUTION BY SUBMARINES A HOPEFUL FEATURE

Lowering of Insurance Rates Results

Reduction of Sinkings Not Due to Lack of Teuton Activity but to the Better Methods of Defense Used.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The United States shipping board has presented new figures showing that the U-boat is fast becoming a negligible factor. Statistics compiled for the shipping board show that the number of ships lost in six months has been but one boat in every 200 sailing is attacked. The proportion of sinkings has been but one in 125 among those attacked.

Men high in the shipping industry have told the shipping board that the perils of the U-boats is now almost negligible as compared with the danger of the early days of the war. These opinions have been backed up by a general lowering of insurance rates both life and mercantile. It was learned here yesterday that the rates had been materially reduced in the past two months.

RUSSIAN PRESS REJECTS TERMS OF THE COUNCIL

DECLARE MANIFESTO "CONFUSING AND UNACCEPTABLE" IN MANY WAYS

German Lost Heavily in Riga Gulf

Teutons Today Land Forces and Threaten Flank—Siberian People Bow Before Clear and Alarm Friends of Republic.

PROPOSED PEACE PLAN RUSSIAN PRESS SCORES

PETROGRAD, Oct. 23.—"Confusing and unacceptable" was the general feeling of press comment today upon the peace terms announced by the council of workmen's and soldiers' delegates on Sunday. The peace terms propose to require almost everything on earth, extending to the Panama canal. They propose that the Belgians and Serbians should be reimbursed from an international fund for actual financial losses, thus making the loss of Germany pay for the damage done by the central powers. These features are strongly censured by the majority of Russian newspapers, which however, approve of such parts of the plan as are regarded as practicable.

More than a score of German warships and mine sweepers, including two dreadnaughts, were destroyed or put out of action in the naval engagement yesterday upon the Baltic. Information at hand today shows that only one Russian battleship of the line was destroyed.

The Russian main body of war ships in the Baltic and in the Riga Gulf was the Slava and she plunged beneath the waves the only sailor remaining on board launched a torpedo which blew the German battleship. (The Slava was sunk in action with the German fleet last Wednesday.)

New details reaching the military command today show that the Russian sailors fought gallantly, although their ship was in fire from stem to stern. Even so she sank the Slava was surrounded by dreadnaughts and torpedoes which kept up a continuous cannonade.

The fight was at close range, almost hand to hand. All the sailors on the Slava remaining alive had left the ship except one man, a German destroyer approached and fired the finishing blow. This sailor fired the torpedo which sent the destroyer to the bottom.

British submarines have entered the Baltic and are assisting the Russians. Some of the German naval losses were caused by these submarines and the British destroyers have sunk them and a German dreadnaught damaged.

In addition to the large number of German ships put out of action, German soldiers and sailors were lost. The Russian fleet is praised highly in the statement for the manner in which it studied the Russian fleet, which greatly outnumbered the Russians.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 23.—The northern end of the Russian battle front seriously pinched today as a result of the landing of German forces on the main land of Vardø peninsula.

Heavy infantry and light artillery have been put ashore between Petsamo and Japsaial according to accounts from Petrograd today.

The troops are only eighty miles behind the Russian lines and evidently intend to make an effort to cut the Riga-Petrograd railway, one of the chief lines of communication between the Russian troops on the Dvina river front.

Not only has the Russian fleet occupied from the south, but heavy landings have inflicted upon the German fleet of warships and transports that have been operating around Oesel and Dago islands.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 23.—General headquarters at Mahloff today received an alarming telegram from the soldiers' council in the German family at Tobolsk, Siberia, urging that he be removed to a safer and more secluded place.

Had Enough Poison to Kill an Army

San Livingood Didn't Think It Was Sufficient for Generalissimo From the Panama

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Samuel O. Livingood, government aviation student on trial before military court yesterday at Governors Island today created a favorable impression while trying to account for the large quantity of poison found in his possession.

He said he had bought the poison to commit suicide but held no desire to do so. He thought the only self destruction was when he was killed by a girl in Panama, he said.

The finding of poison sufficient to kill 2000 persons led to the theory the boy was planning to kill his fellow students.

AMERICANS DIED BRAVELY WHEN ANTILLES WENT DOWN

Gunners Waited Until Last Minute at Post-Storm on When Ship Was Sunk—Naval Officers Scout Serious Consequences of Attempts to Shell Cities From Submarines.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire)
A PORT IN FRANCE, Oct. 22.—Bravery and discipline on the part of the soldiers and sailors in the United States transport Antilles marked the last moments of the ship after she had been torpedoed at sea last Wednesday by a German submarine.

Survivors from the lost transport, who were landed here by patrol ships, today told graphic stories of the attack.

The Antilles was struck just at dawn as she was wallowing through heavy seas on her voyage westward. The boat was not sunk and the first of the men on the transport knew of the accident was a terrific explosion towards the fore end of the ship which tore a great hole in the bow and sent a geyser of water and wreckage spurting a hundred feet in the air. As the men went to their places all remained perfectly cool but the ship tilted so swiftly that some of them gathered in the stern had to leap into the water to save themselves from being sucked down by the sinking vessel.

The gunners calmly took their places at the guns peering intently in every direction from the deck of the rolling ship in the hope of getting a shot at the submarine. All these gallant gunners perished.

Weather and water were bitter cold and some of the half clad men who had leaped from the stern and grasped pieces of wreckage soon became so chilled they could hold on no longer and were drowned. Others were picked up more than three miles after floating for hours in the water.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—German naval activities which resulted in the infliction of a neutral squadron protected by British destroyers by German high speed commerce raiders and in the sinking of the transport Antilles during the last few days, directed renewed attention here in Washington today to widely spread rumors that the German naval authorities plan submarine and cruiser raids in the near future on this side of the Atlantic.

Certain coast line steamship officials have been nervous over this possibility while some of the big coast cities are displaying trifling apprehension that they might be in danger of German raiding parties if the latter should manage to put to sea.

Navy officials today declined to discuss possibilities of this sort. They did, however, state that "every possible precaution" has been taken to cope with them if they arise. What those precautions are is not for civilians to know.

Officials were more concerned over the attacks by a German raiding squadron on a convoyed merchant flotilla in the Atlantic in the early morning when the weather is very hazy and when even a sharp lookout must have great difficulty in spying "brometick periscope" only a few inches above the surface of the water. But the merchant fleet was attacked far from German territorial waters and officials admit that it demonstrates once again the fact that the battle cruiser squadron of the Germans and their new high speed commerce raiders can get into the Atlantic at any time if the Germans were willing to make a counter demonstration by their battle fleet to cover up the dash.

Such a contingency must be ever present, naval officials said today and the fleet must be always prepared to meet it. Admiral Maxton's plan of course provide for such action.

TURKEY WANTS TO QUIT THE TEUTON CAUSE

FEARS SHE IS GETTING THE DOUBLE INSTEAD OF THE IRON CROSS

Hints Dropped of Desire to "Drop It"

Bulgaria Also Suspicious of the Good Faith of Kaiser Announces That Bulgarians and Americans Will Not Fight.

John Edwin Nevins,
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Turkey well as Bulgaria has thrown out hints of willingness to accept separate peace "on favorable terms" with the entente was admitted in diplomatic circles today. Both nations now are suspicious that Germany and Austria Hungary hope to utilize them as pawns in any peace game that can be initiated. The result in both are believed to be anxious to be endeavoring to find a way to benefit themselves, even though in doing so they abandon the war. Realization of these facts were the reason for the recent visit of the kaiser to the sultan and Bulgaria's king.

In this connection it is reported in confidential circles reaching here that the kaiser's visit did more harm than good especially his attempt to cultivate the intimacy of the sultan. Both allied and neutral diplomats have received advice saying that in certain German states and in Scandinavia impression is growing that the kaiser only consented to visiting Constantinople after it had been intimated upon him that the loyalty of the Turks to the Pan-German cause was distinctly under suspicion. His acceptance of the sultan's hospitality in the Turkish atrocities against Christians has embittered many of his own people it is stated in the confidential information reaching here.

The Bulgarian situation likewise is filled with possibilities. For the first time since the United States entered the war the Bulgarian minister here, Stephen Panaretoff, has broken silence. He has expressed the belief that there is "not the slightest chance" that the Americans and Bulgarians will meet in harmony with the same time he made public what diplomats here today declared was most significant statement called by the Bulgarian nationalist party in which it said:

"We do not wish America to take our side but we desire that America should create in the Balkans a situation which will be in harmony with the principles of national unification, international justice and true democracy."

Coming as this does on the very heels of "inspired" Bulgarian declarations that under no circumstances would Bulgaria consider any end of the war that did not give her all occupied territory the change is considered most significant here. It marks the beginning of the end of the Italian campaign.

City Spray May be Used in 1918

Professor Burrill Talks To Council About Matter—Other Business Was Transacted.

At the request of the city council, Professor A. C. Burrill made a talk before that body Tuesday on a municipal sprayer for use in the city. The talk was made a favorable impression but the matter was laid over for future action.

At the request of Keeler Brothers and Sweet, Casper, Foster & Company submitted a proposition to give waterworks, city hall and paving bond elections legal advice needed for three months of the past year but they failed to get bonds and charge nothing if awarded bonds.

It was learned in transferring the city water accounts from the old books to the new that the municipality will be entitled to considerable increase in revenue by reason of the fact that there have been a number who have paid less water rent than provided. For instance, the ordinance provides, as many do not know, that for each additional toilet in a residence the same rate of water rent shall be charged. Some have installed such without realizing what the ordinance provides, so the revenue will increase shortly.

T. M. Nave, who understands plumbing in his own residence, subject to inspection but the council found that an ordinance along this way.

The question of whether Lots No. E. 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, near the Bickel school could go unpaired, though in the district, with the parcel of residents and contractor came up, and was decided in the negative.

An ordinance permitting autos to run and stand with front to curbing in pavement district No. 2 was laid over, as it takes in part of town in which it was deemed necessary to run the cars parallel with the street. The boundaries of the district will probably be changed.

The matter of ordinance codification was discussed and it was to take the matter up as soon as City Attorney Davis had gone over them and eliminated the superfluous.

BASE OF AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE, June 28.—(Delayed.)—The first contingent of the American expeditionary force has disembarked in France.

Symbol of Identification.
One common symbol of service in both our army and navy has been accepted as distinctive by the French peasants. It is a little black and white paper tag that hangs by a piece of yellow string from the left hand breast pocket of the service shirt or the navy jacket. This identifies the bearer as possessor of a sack of a well known tobacco brand and has been interpreted as uniform equipment.

MURLESON'S RULES FOR NEWSPAPERS

Postmaster General Burleson has laid down the law as to what newspapers may not do. They need not fear suppression, he says, unless they transgress the bounds of legitimate criticism of the president, the administration, the army, the navy or the conduct of the war. Mr. Burleson will decide the question of transgression.

"We shall take great care not to let criticism which is personally or politically offensive to the administration affect our action," he said. "But if newspapers go so far as to impugn the motives of the government and thus encourage insubordination, they will be dealt with severely."

"For instance, papers may not say that the government is controlled by Wall street or munition manufacturers, or any other special interests. Publications of any news calculated to urge the people to violate law would be considered grounds for drastic action.

"We will not tolerate campaigns against conscription, enlistments, sale of securities or revenue collections.

"We will not permit the publication or circulation of anything hampering the war's prosecution or attacking improperly our allies."

The Times prints butterwrappers any day in the week.

Antilles List Shows 67 Dead

First Report Proves Correct—Believed a Few Wounded Soldiers Were On Board.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The complete list of casualties in the transport Antilles disaster made public by the navy department this afternoon, shows that most of the victims were members of the crew. Fifteen American soldiers were killed while of the steamer's crew 45 men were drowned, many of them from men and others whose duties would hold them below decks, while the ship was going down. Four members of the American navy were among the lost and two of the medical corps, and one civilian passenger.

No additional details of what occurred when the German submarine attacked the returning transport were made known when the casualty list, which totalled 67 instead of the original estimate of 70, was given out. Naval officials would not say whether more came in with the dispatches that gave the full death list.

The presence on board the ship of the soldiers who were killed was explained by the statement of officials that probably they were men taken ill since arriving in France or suffering from injuries sustained in training. This, in the opinion of war department officials indicates that the German practice of attacking hospital ships and other vessels that were known to be carrying sick and wounded soldiers would be pursued against this country as well.

The list as given out by the committee on public information was as follows:

- Civilian H. H. Cummings, emergency address unknown.
- Sergeant Otto Klober, father Paul Klober, Berlin, Germany.

Coal Strike Ends in Mid West Monday

Thousands of Workmen Return to Their Places—United States Investigating Agitators.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 22.—Serious trouble in the middle west mining district was at an end today, according to reports received today by John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America. All of the 5,000 striking miners in Indiana returned to the mines today, except in isolated cases. Mr. White was informed that most of the Illinois miners were back at work today and the trouble in Birchford district in Ohio was nipped in the bud. The situation was so encouraging today that Mr. White thought it would not be necessary for him to go into the affected districts, or to employ drastic means.

An investigation of the Indiana coal strike was ordered today by United States District Attorney Eric Slack. He asked for reports from the sheriffs of affected counties and declared he would put a stop to efforts of agitators to hinder the production of coal.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Every mine in the St. Clair-Madison county area was reopened this morning when 12,000 striking Illinois miners returned to work. The two mines still closed are "Big Six" and "Belleville" at Belleville and Donk Brothers, No. 3 at Muryville.

NO WHEAT FROM AUSTRALIA

Mr. Hoover told the delegation that went to Washington to represent the grain growers of the northwest that the food administration had formed a commission from wheat of Australia, Argentina and India, much of which, he said, could be laid down at San Francisco for 90 cents and $1 a bushel.

The delegation must have found it difficult to repress a broad smile at that. Australian granaries are bulging with old wheat, but the domestic market is so great and shipping so scarce and high that Great Britain, much as she wants to trade with her own commonwealth and much as she wants that Great Britain, has been unable to transport it across the wide seas.

It is 12,000 miles from Australia to England—24,000 miles for the round voyage. It is only 3,000 miles across the Atlantic—6,000 miles for the round voyage. Which means that four times as many ships would be needed to carry grain from Australia as from the United States.

Dollar wheat this year from Australia is a dream, and the farmers of the Pacific northwest will smile at Mr. Hoover's professed concern lest they suffer from that kind of competition. They would like to buy Australian grain at that figure and turn it into pork, poultry and dairy products.—Idaho Farmer.

It is hard to believe that Hoover was correctly quoted in this matter. It would seem as if wheat could be laid down for a dollar a bushel in San Francisco or Seattle that it would pay England to ship it to this country, pay the transportation across the continent, reload at New York and take it to Europe. If not, why not? If any large quantity of wheat can be handled at that figure, surely this plan would pay. That it has not been tried indicates that the quantity of dollar wheat that can be laid down in this country from the antipodes would not feed very many.

Speaking of wheat prices, a Kansas newspaper remarked last week that something over twenty years ago Jerry Simpson made what was then considered a very famous speech in which he said that farmers should receive at least a dollar a bushel for wheat. The newspaper remarked that if Jerry were still on earth and tried to convince Kansas farmers that they ought to accept a dollar a bushel he would be mobbed if they were not too busy to attend to him.

Rupert Buried by T. F. Avalanche

One Hundred and Eighteen to Nothing Was Score—Goodie Next With Strong Team.

The Twin Falls eleven won his third gridiron game of the season Friday, overwhelming the Rupert high school eleven by the score of 118 to 6. The Twin Falls team outplayed and outwitted their opponents in spite of the irregular practice of the past week. The blue and white eleven showed some improvement in the second game, the line becoming seasoned on offense and defense and the back field running better interference. Norman Barker, of Filer, officiated as referee.

Part of the high school band played for the Rupert game. The band is a most valuable aid to Twin in winning games. With their music, their good band, and with the support and encouragement of the students and public, the team should go a long way toward the goal of a successful season. The presence of the business men at the Rupert game Friday was noticed and much appreciated by the eleven.

The game next Friday with Gooding is regarded by coaches and team as one of the hardest on Twin's schedule. The team will go into the game as veterans and has had regular practice for weeks. They play a 0-0 game early in the season with Buhl, and since then have defeated the strongest teams they played Idaho Tech at Pocatello. Tech's field, a stubbornly contested game 12 to 6 in favor of Tech. The Tech school is considered a school of college grade. The team will go up against a real team and in making ready for the fray.

LIQUOR IMPORTATION RULING IS REQUIRED

(I. N. S. Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—Collector of the Treasury Becker in a ruling late today interpreted the new war tax law to permit importations of liquor. The deed will probably be annulled. When Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Rowe heard of the decision he hurriedly called a conference of the treasury officials and they are now discussing the matter. Assistant Secretary Rowe said the ruling might be temporarily withdrawn. It will probably be so before the end of the month. Attorney General before it is put into effect.

The stray Zeppelin brought down in France while returning from the last London fray, was 600 feet long by 50 feet in diameter. The war in the air goes merrily on. British airmen claim the destruction of 32 German planes, with a loss of seven, since Saturday.

"American troops soon to be on the firing line in France," is the interpretation placed on the weekly bulletin of the secretary of war. Secretary of War Baker, in his weekly report, says there will probably be no halt in the campaign in France during the winter months.

"Bad weather" now hampers operations along the fighting line in France. They met Secretary McAdoo in Atlanta today with a big bonfire and an Indian war dance—war whoops and all—staged by some company near Dubois. Bob Bogus, foreman for the concern and Ed. Drown, an employee of the company are dead here. Drown was instantly killed and Bogus died as the result of wounds received in the battle.

American patriots respond to the call of patriotism as readily as American men have responded or there will be a "selective draft" of money as of men. This was the warning sounded in an address at the Iroquois club in Chicago, by Joseph Daniels, secretary of the navy. Secretary Daniels spoke at an informal luncheon and made a vigorous though optimistic plea for support of the second Liberty Loan. We have lived to see the day," said Secretary Daniels, "when the great tragedy of war enables all Americans to see a matter what their differences were yesterday today we are all republicans we are all democrats."

Bob Fitzsimmons Beated by Death

Famous Gladiator Died Yesterday From Pneumonia in Chicago at a Hospital.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire) CHICAGO, Oct. 22—Courageously fighting till the final bell, Bob Fitzsimmons, former world's champion heavyweight pugilist and one of the greatest fighters that ever held a world's title, died at the Michael Reese hospital here early today. Death was caused by an attack of double pneumonia which seized Fitzsimmons while he was performing in vaudeville here. Fitzsimmons went to the hospital last Thursday and it was said then his recovery was impossible. Refusing to admit defeat, however, fighting Bob battled with death until his strength was exhausted.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons, who is an evangelist, and to whom he recently was reconciled after an estrangement, was with the former champion in his final illness.

Threats Are Made Against Speakers

(I. N. S. Leased Wire) SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22—Death threats were received today by United States Circuit Judge W. W. Morrow and Attorney Otto Irving Wise and members in connection with the public banquet that will be tendered tomorrow night to Congressman Julius Kahn, father of the selective draft law. Judge Morrow is to be the principal speaker and Attorney Wise is the moving spirit in the banquet plans. The threats were on post cards marked J. W. W. and bore the skull and cross bones. Written in red ink was this threat: "We will get you by poison or dynamite."

and tells her her husband has disappeared. That night Mrs. Lawton dies after giving birth to a daughter, Nan.

The outlaws who killed Don Carlos and stole half the chart of the location of the mine, seize Yaqui Joe, Don Carlos' son, and use him as a bargaining chip to reveal the location of the mine, which now belongs to Nan.

CHAPTER FIVE

Will The Indian Tell?

Gwyn rushed from the room and out through the door. Nan stood, as if she were dazed. The dawn was beginning to cast a thin, gray light in the sky...

Montime, Yaqui Joe, faithful to his trust, had ridden bravely after the brigands and, as it transpired, into the very jaws of death. When he mounted his pony and started after the gang it was easy for him to pick up and follow their trail.

Then began the torture that showed the depths of fiendishness that lay in Cut Deep Rawls and Shooting Drant. Joe was bound fast to the trunk of a tree, his hands cutting into his flesh so that he winced from the pain.

They were his last words. His head fell back, his face relaxed. He was dead. Tenderly, Gwyn raised the body and bore it to his tent.

Now Gwyn and Nan moved hurriedly toward the point where they had descended into the canyon. Drant, who had by now reached the upper trail...

When Gwyn and Nan reached the canyon they found Drant bound to the trunk of a tree. He was bleeding from the forehead and the side of his head.

When they reached the top, Gwyn replaced the rope in the well and he and Nan went in search of their mounts. Only Gwyn's was to be found.

Don Carlos returned to Mrs. Lawton and she told him of the death of her husband.

left a man on guard, and his other followed with him, leaving the dying Yaqui alone.

Drant and his companion discovered their position in a death grip with Gwyn. He and Nan had descended into the canyon on his farthest side by means of a rope which Gwyn took from the wall on the side of the trail.

Drant and his companion lost not a moment in going to the rescue of Gwyn's antagonist. Each tried to bring their weapons into play, but could not. The struggling pair ended so rapidly they dared not take a chance of killing their friend.

Drant, his fury turned on the girl, fired his revolver. She had anticipated him and he leaped to the ground. She took in his own hand the bullet that was intended for her.

Suddenly the old, wrinkled face of the faithful Yaqui brightened. His eyes lighted for an instant, his lips parted, a whisper came forth. They bent down to hear. He spoke: "Joe no tell."

They were his last words. His head fell back, his face relaxed. He was dead. Tenderly, Gwyn raised the body and bore it to his tent.

Chief Executive Sends Condolence to Parents of the Dead Wisconsin Senator.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—"I grieve with you all my heart," President Wilson in a telegram. "He was one of the most conscientious public servants I have ever known and his death is a heavy loss to his state and to his country."

Senator La Follette this afternoon issued this statement: "The state of Wisconsin and the country will be greatly shocked to learn of the tragic death of Senator Hustling."

He was better known in Wisconsin as a legislator than as the leader of his party in the state senate. His record in that body as an able, constructive legislator singled him to the front of the state.

Twins Falls Gets Praise From Brady Junior Senator Says It Gave Four Times as Much to Red Cross as Washington.

That Twin Falls county gave four times as much for the Red Cross drive as that fact was freely discussed in the capital city was among the things James H. Brady told the banqueters at Pocatello Friday night.

Mrs. E. J. Ostrander, first vice president, and Mrs. E. L. Macvicar, secretary, were in charge of the dinner.

The speakers were introduced by Dr. John Hillier Dickinson, who met them at the recent Fort Valley conference, and the two speakers proved most interesting and entertaining talkers.

The dinner was held here for the benefit of the Red Cross and the joint conference saved considerable time and the workers were well advised as to the best method of raising money.

Dr. Minnie Howard, president of the Pocatello chapter of the organization presided for the evening.

War Plot Holds Interest

Wallace Reid is a most likable hero and in "The Hostage" handles his part well. The plot deals with a war between some small countries.

The vaudeville includes two team acts, one of which is a singing and comedy act, is especially commendable.
