Kerensky Falls Before Extreme Pro-Germans Maximalists Today

COAL THIEVES OF OHIO WILL BE ARRESTED

OFFICIALS JOIN CITIZENS IN STOPPING TRAINS AND BREAKING CARS

Other States Made to Suffer Want

National Officials Take Charge and Will Prosecute Those Guilty of Offenses Against Transportation Laws.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Mayors and other municipal officials of cities and towns throughout Ohio were charged with "municipal robbery" of coal by the fuel administration today.

Discovery of the "hoax" involving the unlawful confiscation of thousands of loaded coal cars was officially announced by Fuel Administrator Garfield, following a conference with Mayor Johnson, newly appointed fuel administrator for Ohio.

State Administrator Johnson declared that evidence has been unearthed indicating that not less than 200 cities and towns, under the direction of their leading officials, have engaged in the holding up and robbery of coal trains destined to points on the lakes and the far west.

Evidence laid before Administrator Garfield today showed that in scores of cities railroad tracks had been torn up, trains have been stopped and loaded cars seized by irate officials and citizens. In some cities loaded coal cars were taken from sidings.

Most of the stolen coal was on its way to Minnesota, the peninsula of Michigan, northern Wisconsin and the Dakotas. The government recently authorized a rush shipment of coal to the north in order to provision those states for the winter before winter comes and ice shuts down lake traffic.

Most of the coal was directed by mayors and city officials of towns which have been allowed only enough coal to meet their immediate needs, and where the people have been allowed to haul only a few hundred tons of coal trains going through the state headed for lake ports and the northwest.

The municipal robbery has not only disarranged shipping but it has caused unnecessary hardships on other roads and in other Ohio towns.

Dry Ohio Indicated by Latest Dispatches

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—Complete but unofficial returns compiled by the International News Service from every precinct in Ohio shows that the state has made the most revolutionary step in its history and adopted prohibition by a majority of 2,104 votes. The vote was: For prohibition 517,331; against 515,850.

The tabulation gives Hamilton county (Cincinnati) credit for an at least record of 10,000 votes. Some Cincinnati wet leaders had the mistake of saying 500 and others had the error allowing for an error of 12,000, the state still is dry by a majority of 104.

The alleged error at Cincinnati was regarded with suspicion. The Governor, Secretary of State Fulton, James A. White, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon league and private individuals started investigation of the matter and the court there will be watched very closely.

The surprising thing about the Cincinnati vote of prohibition was that it came in excess of the combined majority vote. Another thing that was regarded with suspicion was that the Cincinnati vote was first announced by the Cincinnati wets.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—Official returns received up to 12 p. m. today at the secretary of state's office from eight counties and compared to unofficial returns from the same counties show slight gains for the drys in every instance. Election returns at the secretary's office asserted the state would be dry by 2,500 on official returns.

COAL MEETING LAST NIGHT GOT SOME RESULTS

BETTER UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN ADMINISTRATORS AND LOCAL DEALERS

Governor Gooding Explains Difficulties

Efforts to Make Railroads Co-operate Successful and They Are Now Doing the Best That They Can to Help.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire)

After present supply of coal, bought before reduction of prices, was exhausted, the proposed of prices for coal delivered in this city, including drayage, was raised and all charges, will be $2.77 for Utah lump coal and $2.86 for Wyoming lump coal; other kinds in proportion. Screening and forking will be abolished, prompt delivery of plenty of coal will be assured and steps taken to prevent shrinkage. Coal dealers say that there is no profit in the business at this rate, but are not complaining much regarding it, though hoping for slight concessions. The whole subject was threshed out at a meeting of the fuel committee with State Administrator Gooding and District Administrator Guthrie in this city last night.

The tribute due to King Coal was the subject for discussion last night at a meeting held by State Coal Administrator P. Gooding at the office of District Administrator W. G. Guthrie, which was attended by a number of dealers from other towns on the Minidoka branch, at which plenty of coal was distributed to the dealers and at which the dealers were granted permission to increase their hauling charges two bits a ton to cover the cost of their hauling.

None of today's dispatches made any mention of the women's battalion of death. Previously it had been reported that the women soldiers had been drawn up in front of the Winter palace and that they would remain loyal to the premier.

One dispatch which returned to Russia from America following the revolution and abdication of the czar, is the leading spirit in the present activities of the Maximalists.

The Bolsheviks are the most extreme radicals of Russia, corresponding in many ways to the I. W. W. of this country. They are a branch of the Maximalists that broke away from the slightly less radical groups after the revolution and began at once a determined drive for a separate peace with Germany.

Among their desires is an immediate peace with Germany, and they are not in favor of any other of the Maximalist aims.

They are an official organization. They have a program and they are not in favor of any other of the Maximalist aims.

The Maximalists are in control of all of the telegraph and cable lines from Petrograd and every dispatch sent out is censored by their representatives.

It is not known definitely whether they were any serious clashes between the military forces controlled by the Maximalists and the military forces controlled by the Maximalists.

A Bolshevik manifesto has been issued in which a number of Maximalist aims are set forth.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Russia's collapse, indicated by today's cable dispatches from London, Stockholm, and other points, which say that the Maximalists at last have dethroned Kerensky and will use for an immediate separate peace, will not change the war aims, or the attitude of the United States toward Germany. This was emphatically stated in official circles today. It may probably, it will mean that this country must do far more than it appeared three months ago to do for an immediate "make the world safe for democracy." But if the German agents and German could gain this "victory" in any hope of expectation that they will declare a peace, Germany's terms they will soon find out their mistake according to the men who today are leading this country's war preparations.

WIRES SEIZED BY REVOLUTIONARY ELEMENT—NEW PARTY WANTS IMMEDIATE PEACE AND DIVISION OF ALL THE PROPERTY IN RUSSIAN TERRITORY—DETAILS NOT KNOWN—MUSCOVITE ARMIES WITHDRAWN FROM EASTERN FRONT—WASHINGTON OFFICIALS ADMIT SITUATION IS SERIOUS BUT SAY FIGHT FOR LIBERTY AND DEMOCRACY MUST BE MADE STRONGER THAN EVER—ITALIAN SITUATION IMPROVES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Officials at the Russian embassy said at noon today that they had received information, which they declared was not as yet "official," that the Kerensky government has been overthrown and that the Maximalists now are in complete control of Russian affairs.

In the absence of any official information officials at the embassy said that they could say nothing. They made it plain, however, that they considered the news most serious.

Other information which reached Washington just before noon indicated that not alone did the Maximalists intend to force a separate peace at once, if they can do so, but that at certain points at least the soldiers who have been confronting the Germans already have quit the trenches. Whether this was under orders from Petrograd or not, is not yet known.

Up to noon the state department still was without any information regarding what was going on in Petrograd. It was admitted that if the reports reaching here are true that very important readjustment must immediately be made to meet the situation and to cope with it so far as the entire allies are concerned.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Premier Kerensky's government has been overthrown according to a dispatch today from Petrograd.

The Maximalists are declared to be in full control, and it is reported that they will negotiate for a separate peace with Germany.

No word reached London of what has happened to Premier Kerensky. One dispatch which returned to London of the provisional government had been arrested.

The Maximalists were enabled to overthrow the provisional government. It was said as the result of several Cossack regiments going over to their side. The Cossacks had been expected to support Kerensky, even in an armed clash with the Bolsheviks.

None of today's dispatches made any mention of the women's battalion of death. Previously it had been reported that the women soldiers had been drawn up in front of the Winter palace and that they would remain loyal to the premier.

TIGER TAKES NEW YORK AT CITY ELECTION

HYLAN GETS MORE VOTES THAN MITCHELL AND HILL—QUIT IN THE CITY.

Socialist Was Third in the Contest

Republican Got Small Vote—Large Number of Ballots Cast—Entire Democratic Ticket Won—Mitchell a Good Loser.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Democracy's candidate, Judge John F. Hyland, stood elected to the majority of greater New York by the biggest plurality ever granted to any man in the city's history.

With all election districts in the democratic candidate's plurality over Mayor John P. Mitchell, his nearest opponent, was 146,535. Previously the largest plurality ever given a candidate was four years ago when Mitchell carried the city by 121,209.

Judge Hyland won the entire democratic ticket into office with him. The democrats have complete control of the board of estimate and apportionment, in which the actual administration of the city government is interested.

The strong race made by Morris Hillquit, socialist, who ran on an anti-war platform, was one of the big features of the election.

Patriotism's Triumph Pleased Governor Cox

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—In a telegram Governor Cox this afternoon said: "In the local campaigns in this state which have been most spirited in the history of Ohio, the patriotic sentiment, the adopted policies of the nation, came from the socialists. It gives me great happiness to advise you that they are honestly defeated everywhere and every community has given vigorous expression to its support of you."

Lowest T-Boat Toll ANNOUNCEMENT YET

(I. N. S. Leased Wire)

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Last week saw the establishing of a new low record for British ships—sunk by German submarines. The admiralty announced that 12,000 tons of shipping were lost in 1600 tons, were lost. The record previously was the week of September 30, when 15 ships were sunk.

Hun Alarmed Over U. S. in Conference

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Official interest in the United States—today is centered on Paris, where on the 15th of the month the most momentous conference in American history will convene. Officials decline to discuss the instructions given to Colonel E. M. House, confidential adviser to President Wilson, who heads the American delegation.

It is highly significant that this conference should assemble at a time when Russia has assumed a "passive" position in the war holding her lines until she can rehabilitate her army and restore complete order at home and while the situation has developed as it has in the last fortnight. Officials very frankly declare that one of the compelling reasons for the conference is the German surrender in the Italian front was realization by the German leaders that the United States was to participate in the Paris conference and thus completely approve the German claims that the United States was not wholeheartedly in the war.

Another instance of how deeply Germany feel the action of the United States in these premises it is permitted to state now that probably never before in American history will our country have been so active as during the days when the American commission under escort was proceeding to its post. It is assumed that the German government is so anxious to see the intention of the United States to send the commission and it was willing to sacrifice many fighting cranes to "get the American" out of the Italian front. If possible, the German government would have been so active as during the days when the American commission under escort was proceeding to its post.

PRESIDENT MAKES APPEAL FOR DESTITUTE COUNTRIES

Thousands of Armenians and Syrians Dying From Starvation—$2 to $3 Will Save Life For One Month.

The American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief... The proclamation follows: "One year ago, in conference with resolutions passed by the senate and by the house of representatives, I appointed days upon which the people of the United States might make such contributions as they felt disposed for the aid of the stricken Armenian and Syrian people."

"Reports indicate that of orphans alone there are more than 400,000, besides women and other dependent children, reaching a total of more than 2,000,000 destitute survivors. The situation is so distressing as to make a special appeal to the sympathies of all."

"In view of the urgent need I call upon the people of the United States to make such further contributions as they feel disposed, in their sympathy and generosity for the aid of these suffering people. Contributions may be made through the American Red Cross, Washington, D. C., or direct to the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, 110 Madison Avenue, New York City."

WOODROW WILSON'S Contributions are being far in excess of those suffering people will be received by either V. G. Backman, local committee chairman, or Rev. A. W. Jones, and will be without expense deducted to the head office. We feel that the president's appeal should receive a hearty response from Kimberly people.

High School Notes The Senior III of the Kimberly high school gave a party for the senior high school Tuesday evening. Many were present and a lovely time was had. Dainty lunch was served at a late hour. Mr. Downing is still in the Twin Falls hospital but is slowly improving.

Many of the school people who were out of school during the apple-picking season have returned to school again. Work is rapidly picking up. The first meeting of the Lyceum course was held Wednesday evening in the high school auditorium. The Hampton Court Singers entertained, giving a splendid program. The school carnival that was given for the benefit of the Red Cross was a complete success. There was $193 taken in and that is quite an achievement to the society. Everyone reported that they had a splendid time. Miss Lulu Ogg is enrolled in the senior class of the high school as a new member, having moved here from Watertown, S. D.

The first number on the Lyceum course to be held in the high school auditorium was very good. The next number will be the Berkeley Sextette, on November 22. Miss Marie Pettygrove entertained a few friends at a theatre party in Twin Falls, Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday. Those present were the Misses Edna Draper, Marie Turner, Vera Jamison and Clara Belle Severance. Word has been received here that Edmund Richards has enlisted in the army and is stationed at Vancouver, Washington. Edmund is one of the boys who went to Corvallis a short time ago. Ray Wagoner has returned to Kimberly to finish school after spending the summer in Stampa. The senior class entertained at a Halloween party in the gymnasium last Tuesday night. Most of the boys have returned to school after a several weeks' absence while helping with the harvest. Closing Out Sale—C. C. Harned, who is about to permanently leave his farm five miles south of Kimberly, on the north side of Rock Creek offers for sale immediately following a free lunch at 11:30 on Thursday, November 15, all of his stock and poultry besides farm machinery and household goods. There are 100 chickens, a Liberty Six car, pronounced as good as new. Dunn & Vanaunderlin will conduct the sale.

Have your walkers for George, the Barber. Get your hair cut by the Barber. It is kept sanitary. Enough said. The barbers. GEO. O. BRADY, Prop.

Because of the recent frozes, which seriously damaged the fruit crop in aid about Kimberly, Denny & Company, local packing plant, finished the season's pack of apples last Friday, and will now continue to remaining storage room for potatoes.

J. J. Dunn is driving a new Oakland car, purchased recently from the Kimberly Motor Co. by Mr. Dunn.

Grant King is moving this week to his own ranch one mile south of Kimberly, where he will farm next year. The King farm was in the hands of J. M. Robinson this season. Mr. Robinson, however, will now move to a place two and a half miles south of Kimberly, near the old mill race.

Clarence Decker was in Kimberly last week from the north side, visiting with his father. Mr. Decker kept busy these days carrying the mail not only on his regular route, No. 1, but on No. 2 also, which has been for some time without a carrier. Route No. 2 was formerly handled by J. E. Swearingen, and for a short time by Rev. A. W. Jones, and J. F. Schepp, Mr. Decker now carries the mail on route two in the evening.

Swearingen and Wilson, local furniture dealers, received a car load of furniture this week.

Kimberly has again been acquainted with a new telephone man. C. J. Girtz, former manager at Kimberly, is now in charge of the Kimberly office. He is already being filled by G. E. Carline from Hollister. Mr. and Mrs. Carline will keep house here, and Mrs. Carline will be assisted by their daughter, Miss Gladys Seldin, who is working in the bank at Hollister.

Wilson and Brown shipped a carload of goods to the north side, later by Mr. and Mrs. Noah Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. Himer and their daughter Hilda. Mrs. Himer and her daughter, Misses Alma and Lulu Ogg, and Mrs. Carl Ridgeway and son Kenneth, made a trip to Wendell Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Hickerson and family. Old Hood made a trip to American Falls last Saturday. He will probably accept a position in the "meat market" at American Falls.

Mr. Herman Stricker of Rock Creek is a Kimberly visitor Friday. Mr. Smith of the Nibley-Chapman Lumber Co. has returned from a business trip to California. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van derpool, last week, a baby boy. C. J. Girtz, former manager here, was in Kimberly last of last week on business and a friendly call.

J. E. Ogg has rented the Albert Brown house and will move in as soon as his furniture arrives. Harry Courts is the new night watchman for the Kimberly Milling Company's establishment. Mr. Courts was formerly watchman at that place. J. W. Swearingen, together with Mr. and Mrs. Still Swearingen, spent Friday afternoon on Rock Creek after trout. Several of the Kimberlyites attended the dance at Hanson last Friday night. Wm. Dunn went to Three Creek Saturday of last week and returned Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Raymond are the proud parents of a baby girl born last Saturday. (Clarence) Decker has purchased the new car, a Buick, from J. J. Dunn, from the Kimberly Motor Company. T. W. Dods, local proprietor of the Kimberly pool hall, will be out last week. Ernest Eden joined the colors Monday of this week, not by draft or selective call, but from his own free will. Three calls for Ernest. He is the kind of an American we like to see.

FIRST LYCEUM NUMBER MEETS WITH APPROVAL

Kimberly folks are surprised and delighted with the Hampton Court Singers. It was a high class entertainment. The Hampton Court Singers who appeared at Kimberly last Wednesday evening, greatly surprised the local patrons of the Lyceum course. From a musical standpoint they exhibited the finest talent, and were accomplished. The high class character of the first number has caused the patrons of the course to look forward with eager anticipation to the coming of the Lyceum course. It is generally felt that the course this year will surpass every course so far shown in the history of Kimberly. The Hampton Court Singers was quite large and came within a few hundred dollars of meeting the expenses for the entire course. The expense of putting on the Lyceum course will be put forth by those who have the course in charge upon the appearance of the next number, to raise the remainder of the expense of putting on the entire course. It is expected that no trouble will be experienced in accomplishing this end.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Mr. O. E. Pittella and Miss Thelma Alford Chambers, of Hansen were united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage in Kimberly Monday, November 5th, at 2:30, the ceremony being presided over by Rev. W. J. James. Only a few friends were present as guests. These are fine young people from the Hansen place, who will receive many kind congratulations and wishes from their many friends. They will reside in the country on a ranch

Suffrage Means a Dry New York

(I. N. S. Leased Wire) NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The great State of New York awoke today to find nearly 2,000,000 new voters within its borders. Woman suffrage has won in New York, and indications are that it carried by more than 80,000 votes after 69 years of continuous effort, since the first woman suffrage convention was held in the United States. New York is the first of the great eastern states to grant women the ballot, and having won their fight, the suffragists of the Empire state now will turn their attention toward a federal amendment to enfranchise women throughout the United States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The "news from New York" today stirred official Washington. The declaration of the Empire state for suffrage marks the beginning of the end of organized opposition to votes for women. Politicians who are students of events agreed on this fact today. Only one thing will prevent favorable action by the coming session of congress on the Susan B. Anthony amendment and that will be the action of certain suffrage organizations that have advocated militant methods in the campaign. If they continue their demonstrations, they will furnish an excuse to certain representatives and senators—an excuse which they have been looking for—to vote against the amendment.

The result in New York, undoubtedly gives the needed votes in the house for the measure. Advocates of the measure have claimed that they had sufficient support in the senate. And veteran politicians who are well posted on New York lined up for suffrage, no member of congress could very well afford to vote against extending suffrage to the remainder of the states. These men will be candidates for re-election next fall and they will have to justify their attitude on the Anthony amendment to the women voters of their districts.

That this result is recognized was seen in hurried conferences here between leaders of the anti-suffrage movement. When it became apparent that suffrage had carried they began setting into touch with each other by wire and telephone to decide what will be done. Why so far an agreement has not been reached it is certain that the fight against suffrage will continue along the lines that it is a state issue and as such it is not a matter for congress to act upon. This has been the expressed view of the president although at all times he has whole heartedly sympathized with suffrage but it was considered here today that this "measure of defense" for opposition congressmen was barred by the New York voters yesterday.

It is understood that a conference of suffrage senators and representatives will be held in about three weeks just before congress meets for the long session and at that session an aggressive plan of campaign will be agreed upon. The leaders will make an effort to have the Anthony amendment made an early order of business in both houses and they feel sure that they can get it through so that the issue can be submitted to all of the states at a very early date.

The women's campaign for the franchise in the Empire state culminating Tuesday at the polls has been the least forceful of any thus far. In former years we have seen lively, energetic drives pushed with every ounce of stamina and personality the suffrage leaders could bring to bear, but this, our first year at war, the women have bent their efforts toward in patriotic endeavors, and the dash of their accustomed assault has, as a necessary result, been conspicuous by its absence.

From a monetary point of view they claim their treasury has suffered but slightly by the increased expenditures for the Red Cross for field maintenance units furnished by them, for the necessary outlay on the organization, which assisted so ably in the New York governor's patriotic canvas of the state for wool, for comfort kits and numberless other contributions forthcoming from the suffrage funds. They claim that special funds have been raised and have proven more than ample for their patriotic endeavors.

To offset these very evident handicaps they have enjoyed the support of every political party, every majority candidate in New York City, the mayor of New York, the governor of the state and the president of the nation—the national administration having exhibited a very keen and favorable partiality toward their efforts.

Tuesday's result has already become a national interest. A bevy of prodigious states were expected to flock into the suffrage folds if New York went over. Without the State of New York woman suffrage claimed a little more than half the area of the nation.

The female voting strength has nearly doubled since the first of January. In nineteen states the women vote for president.

Since January there have been victories of more or less importance in eleven states and signal successes in seven others. The suffrage cause has this year annexed 335,314 square miles of territory. Up to the end of 1916, suffrage extended over 1,295,329 square miles, or 39 per cent of the continental United States, not including Alaska. On April 22 of this year the suffrage flag floated over 1,634,634 square miles, or 49 per cent. Including Alaska, where women have the vote since the same terms as the men, 2,334,627 square miles, or 67 per cent of the total possessions of the United States, except the newly acquired Virgin Islands, are now under the banner of suffrage.

The diversified appeal for the ballot in different nations abroad ought to have a share of our attention, for astounding results have been secured by the efforts of women for the franchise in England, Canada, Russia, (where they have equal suffrage) and France. It was on April 29 of this year that Gustavus Loeb, a member of the imperial reichstag of Germany, openly advocated full suffrage to women. So many on the ground that it was through the efforts of millions of German women that the existence of the Fatherland had been preserved.

Sale Next Monday—A public sale at which thirteen hundred fourteen cattle and a large number of farm implements will be placed on auction will be held by F. J. Strain on Monday, November 12, at his place on the state highway, two miles west of Twin Falls. There will be a free lunch at noon and the sale will begin at 1 o'clock. H. B. Lue is auctioneer.

There is not a farmer in the county who should not have a bank account. If you have bills to pay, whether they be large or small your check will pay them and you will always have the correct change, as well as a receipt in the form of your cancelled check. It will be a pleasure to have you make an account with our BANK OF KIMBERLY. —Adv.

discontinuance of the village sprinkler. We must bear in mind that the village is newly incorporated, and the members of the board are not necessarily of careful action in all things.

We therefore consider that the board have a right to be heard and to be heard. They hope next year to provide water for all side streets as well as the main street at a minimum cost to the village.

Kimberly stands in need of many improvements. And one of the most urgent at the present time is the installing of new curbs on all street crossings.

It is well to notice that adjoining property is responsible for curbs across alleys and under sidewalks, causing as a result, a good deal of rearrangement of the curbs.

American Roads Want More Money

Railroads Say That The War Costs Eat Up Everything—Controller Will Have Favorable Rate.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—American railroads cannot meet the war needs in opening the argument for this was the firm declaration today of the eastern trunk lines and New England railroads when the interstate commerce commission reopened the increased freight rate case.

Gross earnings for the first nine months of the present year have increased 72 per cent but operating expenses have risen 165,434,000, leaving a deficit of $7,291,000.

To show the war load that has been placed upon the shoulders of the railroads, the interstate commerce commission has issued a report showing that eight billion more ton miles were produced in the first four months of the war than in the same period last year.

Estimates of the new level of costs, presented by the eastern carriers in May, were too low, it was stated. They also estimated the cost of the war load at $236,000,000 a year, but present figures indicate a cost of $270,000,000 while increased revenues for 1917 are estimated at $1,000,000,000.

Control of the currency, William H. Clegg, director of the Interstate Commerce Commission, said today in a statement favoring the proposed increases in rates.

The controller's statement is interpreted as putting the administration's stamp of approval on the move to give the carriers of the nation increased revenues.

MILLIONS OF CATHOLICS FIGHT IN WORLD WAR

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.) PARIS, Nov. 8.—Just why the Pope was so virtually concerned in desiring peace and why he made his move at the time he did is an enigma. The answer to the open charges that his motives were dictated by a desire to save Austria-Hungary, the greatest Catholic country in the world, is that he had been in the following figures published by a semi-official organ of the Vatican and demonstrating that there are more Catholics among the Central and Eastern Allies than in the Central Empire.

According to this publication the prolongation of the war is not only a very real danger to Catholicism, but to Christianity itself, regardless of sect. The figures show that the greatest casualties have been suffered proportionately by France, Austria, Italy and Germany, all of which, with the exception of the last mentioned, are strongholds of the Roman Catholic Church.

In approximate figures, excluding the United States and Japan, the proportion of adherents of the Roman Catholic faith ALLIES is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Country, Total Population, Catholics. Includes France, Italy, Austria-Hungary, Germany, Belgium, Roumania, Montenegro, Serbia, and Total Europe.

European total 123,100,000 65,580,000 Outside Europe, Turkey in Asia, German colonies 22,000,000 100,000 Out of the statistics thus compiled it may be seen that of the 1,710,000,000 inhabitants of the world, 1,500,000,000 are at war. The total Catholic population of the earth is 315,500,000, of which more than one-half, of 188,000,000 are in killing each other. Of these 123,770,000, including those of both the Americas, are ranged on the side of the allies and 64,300,000 with the Central Empire. Of the 1,500,000,000 Catholics, 300,000,000, though they have no belief in common, one religious and spiritual head, 84 per cent are doing their utmost to exterminate the other.

From these figures it may be seen at a glance, while the total number of Catholics in the allied countries is the most downy of the Central Empire, the proportion of Catholics fighting for the latter is much greater, taking it in ratio to the population of the countries.

Rogerson Items

Miss Jessie and Nellie Malthe returned to Twin Falls on Monday. Mrs. W. C. McKoven returned from Twin Falls on Monday. C. B. Razor and family moved from Contact to Rogerson, where they will reside this winter. J. L. Haugland and family moved from Three-Creek to Rogerson for the winter. The Hallow'een special at the church Wednesday evening was a very pleasant affair. The students of the Rogerson school voted to use what money they have on hand to purchase pictures for both rooms. Our school is progressing nicely—several new students registered recently. This is examination week and we are all busy here on business. C. H. Olson was here on business the fore part of the week. Peter Van Dyke and lady friend spent Sunday here as guests of the Leachners. Miss B. Noel was down from the Basin this week. The Bank of Rogerson reports the sale of $3,350 worth of liberty bonds. The home of Mr. Willis, in the basin, was burned last Sunday while the family was away. Mr. Nelson, the expert accountant, was checking up at the mercantile this week. Mrs. J. W. Hubbell was a Buhl visitor the fore part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Blair Lanford, Mrs. H. P. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bus-sells were Twin Falls callers. last week. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lutz spent Sunday in Twin Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Marlan Larson are the proud parents of a baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogerson stopped on their way to Three Creek this week. The Commercial club and the Red Cross ladies gave a farewell reception at the hall Friday evening, November 2 to Jim Boyd. The evening was spent in a happy and enjoyable manner with music by the local orchestra—Mesdames Peterson and Mye, pianists. Mr. Boyd, though a young man, has spent three years in the service of Uncle Sam, enlisting in the Fifth Missouri cavalry. Part of the service was on the Mexican border. While Rogerson counts his loss, we are proud of the step he has taken. He is a lucky number in the first selective draft, and to the call he answered, "Here" without a murmur. The Commercial club showed their esteem for him as a man and their appreciation of the stand he is taking to maintain his country's honor, by presenting him a beautiful gold wrist watch. He registered in Jarbridge so will meet the boys in Reno, on route to camp Lewis on American Lake, Washington to await further orders.

Denny Hogue Sought by His Brother

Peter Hogue of Hoffland, Nebraska Wants Information Regarding Long Lost Relative. Hoffland, Nebr., October 27, 1917. The Commercial Club, Twin Falls, Idaho. Dear Sir: I have lost track of a brother for about forty years. His name was Denny Hogue. I heard there was a man by that name running a hotel in Twin Falls. Please inquire if he is my brother and have him write me. Yours respectfully, PETER HOGUE, Hoffland, Nebr. The above communication was turned over to the TIMES today by Secretary J. E. Stubbs of the Twin Falls Commercial club, who says that his search for Mr. Hogue has proven unavailing. If anyone among the readers of the TIMES knows Mr. Hogue, he will doubtless furnish the information required to his brother, if not, the TIMES will be glad to forward anything bearing on the case.

WAR AND THANKSGIVING

There is a curious irony in Thanksgiving festivities while a nation is at war; in almost every home there will be at least one empty chair but it is perhaps just this situation which will draw more closely together the ties of family affection. Commenting on this condition, a writer in the November issue of Good Housekeeping says: "Let us try first of all, to collect a big family. Find someone who would otherwise have to sit down to some lonely table. Economize we must in every way conceivable. It is possible, however, to plan and execute our own menu with such cunning art that the economies will never be suspected." Here is a suggestion: Uzbridge Vegetable soup, toast strips, roast turkey, giblet stuffing, fried baked squash, creamed turnip, onion, latticed potatoes, spaghetti, creole sauce. Home-made plectrini, canberry sauce. Rings of brown bread. Cold slaw, Russian dressing, crisp General Taylor's pudding, cordial sauce. Old-fashioned pumpkin pie, apple Tart, cheese. Canned orange peel. Coffee. Every item in the foregoing may be prepared inexpensively, and after the showing how, the author even suggests economical carving. To quote: "When serving, carve slices and serve without the bones. What is left on the platter may be used in soup." In connection with this article, a message, published in the same issue, from Herbert Hoover, is of genuine interest. "The Thanksgiving dinner this year should be festive, but not ornate. The stay should be one of real Thanksgiving cheer for the mother who prepares and serves the dinner herself. Thanksgiving would not be Thanksgiving without a chicken or turkey, or without cranberries in some form. Potatoes and other vegetables there should be. Corn-meal bread is suggested as a

Food Destruction Conspiracy Charged

Immense Pile of Vegetables Said to be Left to Rot—Road Said to Keep Food Stiffs on 'ar Too Long. (I. N. S. Leased Wire) CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Federal and state authorities today are investigating what is believed to be a gigantic conspiracy to destroy food by the carload and to keep it out of the Chicago market so that prices of certain commodities might not come down. The investigation was started when a huge mound of fruit and vegetables was found in the yards of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway at West Chicago. First Deputy Wesley Westbrook of the Chicago police department, today sent men to investigate reports that food was being dumped in great quantities at Blue Island and Clearing. Westbrook declared he had photos of great piles of onions and potatoes rotting in the provision yards, covered with oil and acids to hurry the decay.

He also is investigating a report that full 300 cars containing food are being heaped back and forth along the railroad tracks without being unloaded.

REUNION AFTER SEVENTEEN YEARS OF SEPARATION

MOTHER THINKING HER FAMILY DEAD MOURNED FOR THEM UNCEASINGLY

Dream of Sister Led to Their Discovery

Mother Arrived in Time to See Daughter, Grown to Womanhood, Married to a Merchant in Galena, Kansas.

Separated for seventeen years from children whom she supposed were dead, Mrs. A. P. Truesdale of this city was happily reunited to them three months ago and has just returned from a trip on which she witnessed the wedding of her daughter.

THE MOTHER
From a photo taken some years ago in Springfield, Mo. She placed the children in a nursery there and went to Mississippi to accept a position. Shortly after arriving in the southern state she was taken ill with a fever and for a time her life was despaired of. In the meantime the matron of the nursery received offers for the adoption of the children by people living nearby and wrote to their mother

making the privilege of letting them go. The letter arrived while her health was critical and was held until she began to recover. Under the conditions then existing, the mother felt that it was better to let the people adopt them and write a letter to that effect. A short while later word was received by her that the nursery had been burned and that the matron and her three children had been burned in it. This was followed by further illness and when the stricken woman recovered she felt that she would never be able to go to Springfield again. The facts in the case were that her letter granting privilege of letting the children be adopted had been received by the matron a couple of days before the nursery burned and the children were gone, so that it was other children who had lost their lives in the fire. All records of the institution were burned. The people who had the children, either did not know that they were the ones supposed to be burned, or did not know, or try to ascertain, where their mother was, and suffered for all the intervening years. The oldest boy, Virgil, was seven years old. He was taken by a family residing but four miles from where his brother and sister were living, but did not know it and did not see them for six years, when, as a lad of thirteen, he determined to find them and did so. They had no idea of where their mother was and supposed her dead. They left Springfield long ago and all have secured a good education and made good.

LUTHER, AN EXPERT MECHANIC

VERA—MRS. RALPH SHELLACK guard at the time that it went to the border and is now at Charlottesville, N. C., ready to serve in France for his country. Unfortunately he has been unable to meet his mother. Luther is an automobile expert in Miami, Oklahoma, where the happy reunion took place. He will join his mother here in a few weeks. Vera had become a school teacher in Kansas, and had met and become engaged to Ralph Shellack, a druggist, of Galena. In that state. The wedding day had been set before she learned that her mother was alive, and the latter had the pleasure of attending the ceremony, which was held in Carthage, Mo. Mrs. Shellack will visit her mother in this city in a couple of months.

The story closed to mark the pleasure of the reunion was the fact that Virgil was called away before his mother could meet him, so that they only met in spirit and by letter.

Mrs. Truesdale says that she enjoyed the trip very much, but says she is glad to be back in the idyllic climate after observing the cold weather back in the Mississippi valley. She has lived here eight years and has been accustomed to good weather.

Three Times As Many People Are Now Buying Franklin Cars

"AMERICANS," said a foreign critic, "know the price of everything and the value of nothing."

That was before our entry into the War. Today it is a different story.

The past few months have developed a remarkable understanding of the National duty to curb needless waste and extravagance.

A typical illustration is the change in standards of judging and buying a motor car.

Only a short time back a car had to be everything but practical to attract the average motorist.

He wasn't interested in upkeep because his eye was on ponderous mechanism.

Gasoline didn't worry him because he was comparing wheel-bases.

Tire economy was not in his mind because he was judging freezing mixtures for an unnecessary water-cooling system.

And getting rid of his old car at a fire-sale price for a new model of another make he figured was part of the game.

Today economy—both in gasoline and tires—is being forced on the attention of the motorist. By rising costs, by Government officials, by newspapers and magazines the problem is before the motorist daily.

What is he to do?

He is looking for a way out—some way to cut his cost in half and maintain his mileage.

He must get down to fact and figures. Know what the car he intends buying will actually do on a gallon of gasoline and a set of tires. Take into consideration the depreciation each year. And turn his back on pleasing phrases and tempting "claims."

There's less mystery than one thinks about this economy problem. A car has thrift or it hasn't. Something "in between" is like the proverbial "something just as good."

An unflinching gauge of the worth of any fine car today is the way it is selling today.

THE BEAR WHISPERS

No one will be really surprised, however much he may be disturbed and disappointed, by today's news that Russia is seeking separate peace with Germany. With it comes the word, not official, that the Kerensky government had been, or was being, overthrown and that fighting in the streets of Petrograd was momentarily expected.

It is useless to speculate on the result of this development—in fact, unsafe even to assume that the present apparent conditions in Russia will have permanent, Governmental revolutions, throughout all history, have been attended with more or less violence, bloodshed and anarchy. There was never a reason to expect that Russia, in mass most abjectly ignorant and superstitious, would escape. That the end is yet—or that the hoard of military and peasant anarchists (they miscall themselves socialists) who have succeeded Kerensky, if he is indeed overthrown, will afford the Kaiser any material assistance, is not at all to be expected. Russia has for months been eliminated as a factor in the fighting. All Germany will shout over the news that she seeks a separate peace; but, for the present at least, the opportunity to shout will be about all she gets out of it. The Turkish nation has no longer the right to be called "the sick man of Europe."

FORWARD OR BACKWARD?

Good roads alone may truthfully be said to have saved Paris and all France from going under the heel of Prussian militarism at the Kaiser's first onset. For it was the good roads of France that enabled the army of Paris, with all its artillery and munitions, to get upon the ground soon enough to help win the battle of the Marne—confessedly lost without each and every element of strength that helped to win it.

In our southern Idaho can hardly expect great armies and armaments to be facilitated or delayed by the condition of our public roadways. But we in Southern Idaho constitute an important part of the great American farm from which not only ourselves, but other armies and other nations must be fed. The labor of at least ten people at the rear, it is said, is required to maintain one man on the firing line, supplied with food, clothes, arms and munitions. Everything that makes for efficiency here must make both for numbers and efficiency there.

But good roads are not only a patriotic need, for the nation's welfare in the present time of stress or at any time; they are also of the greatest importance to ourselves, both for convenience and for economy. The question is before the people of this county, shall we have them now, or shall we continue to suffer from indefinite delay? And this is an important question—the burning question, for us, of the hour.

Every opportunity is being given for the most thorough and full understanding of what is proposed to be done, how and where. On the same page of this paper will be found a map, showing in heavy lines just where road improvement is proposed, and of what character. Elsewhere, action of county commissioners giving by section lines the same information—all of which locations will be absolutely binding upon the board or its successors, should the bonds be carried.

Whatever happens, this bond election should not be permitted to go, either way, by default. It is not opposition so much as apparent lack of interest that appears to be the danger, dangerously to rule the situation, bringing every neighborhood and every family to thinking and talking about the matter, the battle is won. The need of good roads is too great and the proposition too self-evident a wise and economic one for it to be otherwise in an intelligent and progressive community like ours. The only real reason for the voter to settle each for himself, is the one indicated by the caption of this article, "Forward or Backward!"

THE MITCHELL DEFEAT

After-election snags are common as pig tracks, and the man who can tell why some fellow was Kates, or "who struck Billy Patterson," is as omnipresent as he is inafferrable. On the other hand, the fellows who can tell before hand why the candidate on the opposite ticket will be beaten are "thick as hair on a dog's back." That the man who before election can calmly point out the weakness of a man whom he is enthusiastically supporting which are likely to lead to his defeat, is at least worthy of consideration.

The New York Nation supported Mayor Mitchell persistently from his first nomination through his first campaign, through his administration and through the campaign which closed Tuesday. In its issue of October 25, President O. G. Villard, in a two page article, in favor of the re-election of the mayor, proceeded to calmly point out the forces at work which rendered such election doubtful, and which had the effect predicted.

Villard declared in this article that Mitchell was the best mayor that the city had seen in recent years; that he had advanced the interests of the city immeasurably; that he had brought a statesmanlike vision to the handling of many questions of far-reaching importance; that he had given marvelous exhibition of moral courage; that he was scrupulously honest; that he made a splendid presiding officer in introducing foreign delegations; that he had personal charm; that the interests of the plain people had been considered as never before; that the city was better policed, its charities better managed, its schools, tenements, regulations and prisons all successfully conducted under efficient and honest departments; and that it would be impossible to exaggerate the misfortune of his defeat.

In summing up the forces for Mitchell the article said: "If he succeeds it will be a victory for the prosperous elements, for the well-to-do property owners, for what are known as the 'cultured classes.' His business is behind him to a man, the captains of industry, like Judge Gary of the United States Steel corporation have the profoundest respect for him. He will not get every vote in the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchant's association, and the City and University clubs." Villard adds: "But he will lose many on the teaming east side, where poverty and idealism flourish side by side and where, it is admitted today, he will run far behind the Tammany and Socialist candidates. Throughout the city, there is one group after another expected to vote solidly against him, because there is this one great defect of his leadership, that he cannot impress upon the city's plain people the fact that he thinks and works for them."

In tracing the sources of this unpopularity, Villard classifies the causes under three heads. He attributes to bad luck, the failure to carry the Republican primary in a fight made under the direction of amateurish leaders; the indictment of a trusted friend for alleged frauds regarding city lands; the direct of unspoken attacks on Germany long before war was declared; the beating administered by his police to Jewish women at the city hall during the bread riots at a time when the mayor was ill, and the fact that he was in an auto accident in a Vanderbilt car, which focussed attention on his associations with the rich. Under the head of tactlessness Villard cited the undue prominence given to captains of industry at public receptions; the allowing of his name to appear so frequently in society notes of Newport and the homes of the the Four Hundred, especially when he failed to make visits to the east side to get in personal contact with the people there and learn their wants first hand; an omission that in some cases allowed real grievances to remain unredressed; the failure to join with Hillquit in a joint statement favoring woman's suffrage, although a supporter of it personally, and, above all, the adoption of an attitude which permitted Hillquit to play the role of a martyr, by refusing the Socialist candidate the right to speak on the court house steps, although he exercised that right himself.

Blunders of a more serious character, due to lack of careful supervision, Villard found to be the adoption without sufficient investigation of the original plan for the Riverside drive and the Eleventh avenue railway; and a similar failure in the case of real estate purchases at Coney Island and Rockaway. These things, Villard urges, happened through no personal dishonesty on the part of the mayor, but because he trusted others too implicitly, but they were capable of being most effectively used by the magnificent organization of Tammany and through the Hearst papers, and made much capital for the Socialists. The yielding to the more impetuous friends of speech and expression, is another blunder emphasized by Villard who mentions the resentment caused by the mayor's action in breaking up legitimate public meetings held on the street to protest against the mismanagement of Ireland. His police commissioner, Arthur Woods, had laid down the proper policy for handling these and the anti-war meetings, but the mayor yielded to the demand of our extreme militarists and Imperialists, and so we had the spectacle of police cars being driven into crowds and orators arrested for speeches that were not seditious and were infinitely less hostile to the British government than the mayor used to make before he took office." Lastly, Villard holds that the introduction of the issue of Americanism under the circumstances attending its introduction, was a mistake, and the cry that a vote against Mitchell was a pro-German vote, proved a boomerang, that was resented by many who hated the Kaiser and all his works.

The article assumed that it was speaking of things within the common knowledge of all men in New York, and revealed a condition of affairs locally which as the event proved, more than warranted the statement that "the best mayor the city has had in recent times appears at this writing to have only a fighting chance to succeed himself."

NEGATIVE CITY ELECTION NEW YORK CITY ELECTION

It is not often that sincere patriots can get a crumb of comfort out of a sweeping Tammany victory, but friends of the American republic breathed more freely Tuesday night when the news was flashed over the wires that all possibility of the election of Morris Hillquit, the anti-American, pro-German candidate, had been dissipated. That all of his opponents considered his election as a serious possibility and that many veteran judges of practical politics believed he would win was a consideration of the gravest importance. Had he been elected, his triumph would have heartened the Kaiser more than anything that occurred since the repulse of the Marne stopped his victorious march through France. It is a matter of congratulation that the vote, showing that Hillquit was never really in the race and that his claims were based on the enthusiasm of friends and the fears of foes.

It will be remembered that just before the declaration of war a great socialist conference was called to discuss the question of war, and though a state of war virtually existed at the time, this unpatriotic body resolved against the defense of its rights by this country, but submitted the question of war or peace to a referendum vote of the party, or rather of that portion of the party paying regular dues. Morris Hillquit was the leader of this unpatriotic move, which was opposed by Allen Benson, the Socialist nominee for president in 1912, by Charles Edward Russell, by John Spargo and the ablest intellectuals and leaders in the organization. The very submission to a vote of the question whether a party within a nation would support it when defending its rights, was itself morally treasonable, and the great majority of even the dues-paying party members took no part in the fight. The pro-German element all voted, and carried the anti-war recommendations by a big majority of the vote cast, after war was an actuality. Benson, Russell, Spargo and many other leaders withdrew from the organization. Their only error consisted in their failure to refuse to take part in the voting at all. It was not a case of conscientious objection, for the man who is opposed to participation in war of conscientious grounds does not wait for a referendum vote of a portion of a political party to determine whether he should participate or not. Since the time Hillquit has ever been a sturdy opponent of the United States in its conduct of the war and has deftly united with a certain smoothness and success that La Follette has not been able to imitate that this country was all in the wrong.

As far as Hyman is concerned, he comes in under some suspicion. Of course, the campaign just closed has been distinguished by the blighting of oceans of mud, but it is quite clear that Hyman has always been a Tammany worker under the domination of Murphy, Martin Van Buren, noted only as a tricky politician, when elevated to the presidency made good under circumstances of extraordinary difficulties, so the case of Hyman is not hopeless. He may arise to the occasion, in spite of lugubrious outlook. His patriotism was seriously called in question. Two years ago, sixteen months before the war broke out, as a judicial candidate, he dutifully appealed to the German voters on account of alleged sympathy for their nationality, and this with the support of the New York Journal and the Examiner furnished Mitchell with his campaign cry of "Hears, Hyman and Hohenzollern." On the other hand, since the war broke out he has declared himself for the United States and denied, with plausibility at least, that the adver-

Brackett Enters School—The war is causing such a tremendous demand for motor car and tractor workmen, that many of our young men and some of the older ones as well, are taking President Wilson's advice and getting an education before it is too late. Mr. J. A. Brackett has just entered Hanth's Auto and Tractor school of Kansas City, Mo., where he will take a thorough technical and mechanical course in automobile and tractor engineering. Mr. Brackett will return to Twin Falls as soon as he graduates and open a garage and repair shop which will be run a strictly scientific basis.

Vote for better roads in Twin Falls county. God knows she needs 'em.

The Great Question before the people of this city and county today is one of progress or immobility. And in the words of today, when progress is the rule, to stand still means virtually to go backward. On another page will be found a sectional map of Twin Falls county showing plainly, in heavy black lines, the two hundred miles of roadway which will be improved and made the basis of a complete good roads system—provided enough people shall vote "yes" at the Road Bond Election to be held on Saturday, November 17. It does not really seem possible that this, so great an opportunity for so vital an improvement, can be neglected on misadvice. Great danger, however, lies in possible neglect—in failure, on the part of those who would vote yes, to vote at all. "One vote isn't going to make any difference," says or thinks, the person to whom, going to the polls means opportunity for so vital an improvement. Don't you believe it! There will be nothing in the ballot box but single votes. Put yours there and do anything within your power to see that your neighbor does the same. To fail to carry this election in favor of good roads will mean indefinite years of bad roads and roads in Southern Idaho are like the little girl with the curl, when they are bad they are horrid!

Error in Account—An error in the writup of the funeral of W. T. Puckett stated that Mrs. C. B. Blinco, of this city was absent from the funeral. It was Mrs. Fisher, of Greeley, Colorado, who was unable to be present.

The Advisory Board of representative citizens, have agreed to share with the county commissioners the duties of responsibilities of road construction. In case the bonds carry, pledge themselves especially to see that the county gets one hundred cents for every dollar expended.

Following the requirements of the law, the county commissioners, in their proceedings, published elsewhere herewith, have exactly specified every rod of the almost two hundred miles of county roadway which it is proposed to make into year-round good roads, and compare with the map, also shown herein, and you will know all about it.

Twin Falls Young People Marry—On Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. C. E. Booth, Mr. Marshall M. Hobson and Miss Ruby Virginia Booth were united in marriage, the Rev. O. T. Anderson, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, officiating. Only the families of the bride and groom and a few of their friends were present. After the ceremony, a sumptuous dinner was beautifully served by the hostess. The young people left on the evening train for Pocatello and other points where they will spend a few days before returning to Twin Falls. The bride is well known in the city among the young people. The groom formerly lived here but recently has been located at Salt Lake where he has had a position as electrical engineer.

Closing Out Sale—Because he has sold his ranch George Evans, who lives a mile north, and half a mile east of the north end of Shoshone street, will put on a closing sale starting after free lunch, on Thursday, November 15, at which time, under the conductorship of Colonel H. B. Lue, he will dispose of two horses, ten head of cattle, ten head of hogs and all his farm implements and household furniture, besides a lot of canned fruit.

Referring to the thousand dollars contributed by Boise to this fund, last Tuesday's TIMES made an appeal for a better showing from Twin Falls than that previously reported. The our people were both generous and willing was known. All they needed was waking up; and on yesterday Mr. A. L. Stone took it on himself to sound the reveille. Taking the TIMES list on the street, in three hours he secured most of the subscriptions shown below. They are, however, still coming in, by mail and otherwise; and wishing to send in our money next week, so that the packages may be in the boy's hands by Christmas, final appeal is made for immediate help to reach the present total of $141.00 to $200.00 at the least.

Come Early for Portraits

You will find in our advertising this autumn very little reference to the splendid suitability of photographs for Christmas gifts. So many thousands of the people of the Twin Falls country are sending more and more photographs each holiday time and we feel it is really superfluous for us to discuss the charm of the most personal of all gifts—your own photograph. And we shall not talk about the economy of sending photographs either for most every one knows that a true fine portrait costs no more than anything else equally worth while.

In our advertising this month and next, we shall neither urge any one to have portraits made nor seek to influence any one to have portraits made at our studio. It is not necessary! For we are convinced that our holiday business will be all that we can possibly handle; therefore, we have but this one thing to say concerning Christmas portraits—Come early—Come early.

MARGUERITE CLARK IN

"BAB'S DAIRY"—THE PEER OF ALL HER PRODUCTIONS

THE FAMOUS "SUB-DEE" ON THE SCREEN AT LAST—MARY ROBERTS RINEHART'S SATURDAY EVENING POST STORIES BROUGHT TO LIFE

Did you see "Miss George Washington"? It has heretofore been conceded to be Miss Clark's most popular picture. "Now comes "Babe's Dairy," picturizing Mary Roberts Rinehart's famous "Sub-Dee" story, said to be even better. It is a production starring this popular young lady that will get you from the start and hold your attention to the finish, provoking smiles, chuckles and laughs, and gaining your unqualified approval. It commences Thursday at the Idaho and continues throughout the week.

Had an Imaginary Sweetheart? Imagine a vivacious young girl at boarding school who has an imaginary sweetheart. She simply had to have one because her parents were paying too much attention to the older sister, who was about to be married. So Bab invents a sweetheart. You can't blame dainty "Bab," but you can appreciate her predicament after she has succeeded in worrying the life out of her parents, when a prankish friend introduces an actor into the family as "Bab's sweetheart."

"He can't be real," exclaims Bab, "because I made him up." A little thing like that, however, couldn't dampen the dauntless spirit of Bab. But her efforts to extricate herself from the situation are exuberantly funny, and she seems to get in worse with every move.

Twin Falls Red Cross Department

Monthly Meeting
The regular monthly board meeting was held November 5, at the Red Cross headquarters. The division of the Military into three departments was announced by Mrs. Edwards. The general sewing will be done, as formerly, at the high school and the shirts and trousers will be made. Every Tuesday and Friday afternoon Mrs. Bracken and Mrs. Scott will give help in knitting at the Red Cross headquarters. The Red Cross supervised surgical dressings every afternoon. The place of meeting will be announced later.

Mr. Blue reported that the Twin Falls schools were now organized at a Junior Red Cross chapter. Certificates have been received and will be presented to the Juniors by the Chapter officials, with appropriate exercises.

Mr. Maxwell, chairman of the Civilian Relief announced the committee as follows: J. M. Maxwell, chairman; Mrs. Clouchek, Mrs. Schroeder, A. W. Chinnel and L. T. Wright. The following publicity committee is named: Mrs. A. J. Peavy, chairman; Miss Denecke, Miss Barbara McShen and Mr. Cosgriff. This committee will keep the Red Cross members informed through the press of the activities of the chapter.

Curry will hold a basket social on Friday night at the school house for the Xmas fund. Mrs. Smith of Curry, Mrs. Schidman from Plover, Mrs. Logan of Community, Mr. Perkins of Hottel, and the Mommies of Lonsdale, and Mr. Berger from Hazelton were visitors at headquarters during the last week.

Mrs. E. J. Ostrander and Mrs. McRoberts first, and Mrs. E. J. Ostrander second, were presidents of the chapter, left Sunday for New York.

The Xmas packets will be sent November 15th. All fruit cakes must be in by the first of the week. People who are making cakes are urged to return them as soon as possible in order that they may be refilled. The committee is much in need of nice biaco tins, and urges all who have these to leave them either at headquarters or the sewing room.

Mrs. W. S. Cornhill contributed the only ink in the chain during the past week. Peter is planning a grand ball to be given at the school house on November 18th. Twin Falls members are cordially invited.

It is hoped that the $700.00 fund can be completed $500.00 of which has been realized through the numerous auctions of the calf donated at the time of the county fair. The fund is to be used for the donation of a motor kitchen to General Pershing.

Sewing Room Notes
The following letter received by Mrs. Macvicer will be gratifying to those who have been sewing:
Seattle, Washington, October 25, 1917.

Dear Madam:
We are much pleased to acknowledge the receipt of your fine shipment of four fat boxes of Red Cross supplies, and want to say that they are well satisfied with the excellent lot of goods you have sent us, also with your boxes, which are well made. Hoping to be favored with your future gifts, we are,
Yours very respectfully,
RED CROSS SUPPLY SERVICE,
J. A. Balltoregan, Director.

The manufacturing department will make the boxes for shipping the Red Cross supplies. The average attendance for the past week was but nine, and it is earnestly desired that the attendance be much increased, as there is a great deal of work to be completed before the holidays.

The Red Cross pins have arrived and can be purchased at headquarters. Bulletin Received From Washington. Owing to the great scarcity of wholesome milk in Russia, the American Red Cross has purchased a million pounds of condensed milk for the babies of that country. Shipment will be made immediately. Another million pounds will be shipped next month. The Russian government has arranged to release cars from war service to carry this milk to distributing centers as soon as the shipment shall arrive at the boundary of Russia.

The war council of the American Red Cross has appropriated $31,212.00 to buy seventy-five tons of food for American prisoners in Germany. The food is to be forwarded to the Red Cross warehouse at Berne, Switzerland, pending its need by American prisoners. At present the number of American prisoners in German prison camps consists only of about 100 men.

Soldiers and sailors captured by the central powers are not provided by their captors with sufficient food or clothing to keep them in good health, and in view of this condition, the American Red Cross is preparing to feed all soldiers and sailors who may be taken prisoners in the future during the war. A complete scheme for sustaining prisoners is now being worked out jointly by the war and navy departments and the American Red Cross.

Under existing arrangements with the German government food and clothing for American prisoners are sent in bulk to a central country and there repacked by agents of the American Red Cross in standard containers in charge of the work at Berne is Ellis L. Dressel, who before the war was attached to the American embassy at Berlin. He is now a member of the staff of the American legation at Berne, and his experience has well qualified him for the superintending of prisoner relief work for the Red Cross.

The Elementary Grades of Twin Falls have most successfully completed organization. They have all raised more than their required quota which is an equivalent to twenty-five cents fee from each child. Bickel school reports a surplus of $51.00. Washington school is planning on buying material with its surplus of $33.00 and making comfort kits and wash cloths.

The money has been raised entirely through the efforts of the children and the teachers: One teacher and her students picked apples and used the proceeds of the day's work as their share. Another class made fancy work and turned in the proceeds from its sale to the fund. Numerous candy sales, popcorn sales, teas and luncheons have aided in the realization of the fund.

Due to the two weeks vacation the high school organization is not fully completed. Miss Brittonmart Wolfe will soon organize the county schools into Junior Red Cross.

The Eighth B girls of Lincoln school have organized a knitting club. At present, they are receiving instructions but are hoping to do Red Cross work soon.

Mitchel's Friends Want Him Placed

Will Ask President Wilson To Give Him Job—Administration Silent On New York.

(N. S. Lensed Wire)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The friends of Mayor John P. Mitchell of New York City, defeated yesterday for re-election, today were working here to line up an influential committee of citizens named to a federal office without delay. The office for which they were working was that of one of the civilian advisers of the chief of naval construction, two additional officers and two additional naval officers and two civilian. The president, it is stated, has selected one civilian, Howard Coffin, for membership and two places still are open to which he can appoint Mr. Mitchell if he so desires.

Big Red Cross Drive Next Spring

Will Ask Nation For $250,000,000 To Carry On Needed Work At The Battlefield.

(N. S. Lensed Wire)
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The American Red Cross, next spring will again ask the nation for funds totalling $250,000,000 to aid it in its work for suffering humanity. This was made known here today in an address by Mrs. Florence Minshall, head of the women's bureau of the Red Cross at Washington, in an address before 2000 Red Cross workers attending a convocation of the central office. That the work of the Red Cross in Nebraska has been seriously hampered by the work of German propagandists was the declaration of Leonard W. Trester of Omaha. Efforts to trace the propagandists are being made, Trester said.

- 40 Acres 2 miles from Gooding. All in cultivation, 20 A. in alfalfa, 7 A. in alsike, 6 A. red clover, 4 A. in bluegrass pasture, 4-room house, barn for 8 cows and 4 horses, deep well and wind mill, fenced and cross fenced. Price $155 per A. Cash $2200.00, balance easy terms.
- 80 Acres 5 miles from Gooding, 40 acres alfalfa, 25 acres same grass pasture, fenced and cross fenced with woven wire. Good 4-room house. Price $155.00 per acre. Terms, $1800.00 cash, balance $1000.00 annually at 7 per cent.

Gooding is the educational center of Southern Idaho, has $40,000 graded school building; $55,000 high school building; $10,000 State School for Deaf, Dumb and Blind. $400,000 Methodist college now being completed. There is ample water for all irrigation purposes stored in the Magic Reservoir which impounds 200,000 acre feet of water. Plenty of fine quality soft domestic water can be obtained anywhere on the tract at depths of 50 to 150 feet. Gooding is on the main line of the O. S. P. railroad. Probably no portion of Idaho has better opportunities for raising sheep and cattle than the Wood River valley, with plenty of range in the unsurveyed foothills and plenty of government reserve land.

Further information will be gladly furnished on request.
