

MEETS DEATH BY SHOOTING IN HIS OWN DOORYARD

GEORGE H. BUTLER DEAD AND GLEN MATHEWS IS HELD FOR MURDER

BULLET FROM RIFLE IN HANDS OF NEIGHBOR PENETRATES HIS LUNG, INFLECTING FATAL INJURY—JEALOUSY IS MOTIVE

George Harris Butler, 40, unmarried, a lather residing in Twin Falls for 10 years past, is dead, and Glenn Mathews, 39, a plasterer residing here for two years past with his family, consisting of his wife and two sons, is in the county jail charged with his murder, as results of a shooting which took place at about 11:30 o'clock on Friday night at the home occupied by the dead man and his brother, Earl E. Butler, also unmarried, at 260 Jackson street in the Golden Rule addition.

Jealousy Probable Motive
Mathews' suspicions of intimacy between his wife and Earl Butler probably furnish the motive for the shooting. Immediately after firing the fatal shot, Mathews presented himself at the sheriff's office, stating that he had killed a man, and he was taken in custody. Statement of George Butler, prior to his death at a local hospital four hours after the shooting, was taken by the officers, as were statements of other witnesses of the affair, including Mrs. Mathews, her brother, Herschel Hedges, and Earl Butler. No inquest was held. The remains were taken to the funeral home of the deceased in North Platte, Nebraska.

The bullet that caused death was fired from a .38-350 caliber Winchester rifle, taken by Mathews from his home, which is directly opposite that of the Butlers, just before the shooting occurred. It entered the right lung and emerged below the left shoulder blade.

Finds Man in Bed at Home
Mathews fired one shot at Earl Butler without effect. The fatal shot was fired in a struggle that ensued with George Butler for possession of the weapon. Mathews found both Butlers in bed at their home when he arrived there on his murderous errand. George Butler answered his knock at the door, as to what he had come for, Mathews said that the Butlers knew his business and that he was looking for Earl Butler also. Mathews fired at Earl Butler as he got up out of bed. George stepped between them and snatched at the rifle. In the struggle they stepped outside the door. Mathews succeeded in reloading the weapon and pulled the trigger. Earl Butler and Hedges appeared on the scene a moment after the shot was fired.

Visited Mother First
Hedges arrived from Eldorado, Kansas, three weeks before and was staying at the Mathews home. Earlier in the evening he had gone with Mathews to the home of Mathews' sister, Mrs. John Cook, in Elm Park addition, where Mathews' mother, who had arrived here three days before, was a guest at the Cook home. They returned to Mathews' home at about 9:30 o'clock. Mathews later went away alone in his car, Hedges remaining there and waiting for his brother. According to statement of Mrs. Mathews, Mathews returned at about 11 o'clock and announced her of being instructed by Earl Butler. She denied the accusation, but he refused to listen and started to choke her. He took the rifle from its place on the wall and then commenced firing into the room, bidding them both farewell, then went across the street to the Butlers' home. Both Mrs. Mathews and Hedges heard the conversation at the Butlers' home and the shots that followed.

Hedges returned to his room to put on his shoes and then went across the street, finding Earl Butler bent over his fallen brother. Mathews disappeared. Wife Is Prostrated
Mrs. Mathews, when interviewed by the officers Saturday morning, was in a state of nervous prostration. She was unable to assign any motive for her husband's act, stating that he had made no direct accusation against her, and that her conduct had in no wise given grounds for suspicion. Statements of neighbors corroborate Mrs. Mathews' statement in this respect.

The Mathews were married 13 years ago. They have two sons, Cecil, 12, and Claude, 7. They left Stafford, Kansas, nine years ago and went to the state of Washington, coming to Twin Falls from that state two years ago.

TELLS HOUSEKEEPERS HOW TO CONSERVE

Mrs. Alpha Holt Pleads for Economizing Energy to Be Directed Toward War Work

Use of dilapidated and paper napkins instead of linen, thereby doing away with extra laundry and conserving the energy of the housewife for employment in Red Cross or other war work, was suggested as a wartime household economy by Mrs. Alpha Holt, federal home demonstration agent for five Idaho counties, in an address before an audience assembled Thursday evening in the Bickel district school house. She also outlined the closing of rooms not required.

Referring to the discovery by American women of Belgian mothers in the ruins of their homes after a siege in which their sons had been killed, who had said then that they would remain to care for other mothers' sons, Mrs. Holt, who has been in the military service, asserted that it is the duty of every American woman to emulate the example of the Belgian mothers and do what they can for the relief and support of American soldiers at the front.

Other speakers at the Bickel school house on this occasion were W. F. Alworth, president of the state farm bureau; Hal G. Blue, superintendent of Twin Falls schools; C. E. Munson, county chairman of the food administration; and County Agent Donald McLean. Their appeals were in the interests of conservation and of increased production, especially of sugar beets.

ORGANIZE SUGAR DRIVE AT HANSEN

Due to misunderstanding in regard to date, there was no audience at Thursday evening when E. L. MacVicar and W. E. Edwards were to have addressed a meeting there on the sugar beet situation. On their return trip, the speakers stopped at Hansen and at the conclusion of a chautauque course number, delivered there the message to have been taken to Murtough. Organization of the campaign in the Hansen district to urge the patriotic necessity for larger beet plantings was effected at that time. Elvie Laycock and W. R. Estabrook were designated as leaders.

Swift & Company's 1918 Year Book shows that Swift & Company sells the meat from a steer for less money than the live steer cost!

Proceeds from the sale of the hide, fat, and other by-products covered all expense of dressing, refrigeration, freight, selling expense and the profit of $1.29 per steer as shown by Swift & Company's 1917 figures as follows:

Average price paid for live cattle per steer	$84.45
Average price received for meat	68.97
Average price received for by-products	24.09
Total received	93.06
This leaves for expenses and profit	8.61
Of which the profit per steer was	1.29

There are many other interesting and instructive facts and figures in the Year Book.

BURLEY MEN SEEK INFORMATION HERE

C. D. Thomas Is Invited to Address a Mass Meeting on the Sugar Situation

Confronted, in common with other southern Idaho sugar producing districts, with the problem of securing increased production of sugar beets as a patriotic necessity, farmers and business men of Burley appealed to C. D. Thomas of Twin Falls to relate at a mass meeting convened there Saturday afternoon, the basis of organization and results of a campaign waged here for that purpose. Invitation to Mr. Thomas to address the mass meeting was extended by a committee named at a meeting of business men convened on the preceding Thursday by Mayor W. W. Youmans to consider the beet situation.

I. W. W. CARD CARRIERS HELD AS VAGRANTS

Cards showing their membership in the I. W. W. were found in the possession of M. A. Fitzgerald, aged 36, and Chester Brown, 35, when they were arrested at Bull last Thursday by Marshal Baymiller. Charge of vagrancy was filed against them and they were turned over to the custody of the sheriff pending further investigation. It is said that Fitzgerald and Brown, who had been employed by the Canal company at a seepage camp near Bull had induced two other workmen employed there to quit work.

WANTS ROAD BUILT TO SECURE COAL

FUEL ADMINISTRATOR UNDERTAKES TO MAKE PRODUCE OF IDAHO MINES AVAILABLE

Seeks Expression of Popular Sentiment to Strengthen Appeal to Railroads to Put in a Spur Track from Driggs to North Part of State

In order that coal from an Idaho mine may be made available to the consumers of the state, Frank E. Gooding, state fuel administrator, is endeavoring to persuade the Oregon Short Line railroad and the Union Pacific system to put in a spur track from Driggs to the coal mines in the Teton valley basin, a distance of about 10 miles over what he says is an easy route.

Administrator Gooding recently inspected the coal mine properties in question and declares the veins large and the quality of the product excellent. The owner of the properties agrees to install machinery sufficient to secure the output of 150,000 tons of coal annually, provided the railroad extension is built, Mr. Gooding says. Development of the property will be made by the owner, unassisted, and no stock is offered for sale, Mr. Gooding adds.

"He is arranging to hold public meetings at different points in the state to present the matter to the people generally to secure sentiment in support of the request to the railroad companies."

SOLDIER HERE ON VISIT

Corporal Joseph S. Harvey of the One Hundred Fifty-Second regiment of infantry, stationed at Camp Shelby, Iowa, arrived here last week to spend a furlough on a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harvey. Corporal Harvey enlisted last year at Crawfordville, Indiana, where he was engaged for some time in newspaper work in the Indiana national guard regiment that has since been converted into the One Hundred Fifty-Second regiment. His younger brother, George, is also a member of this regiment.

PURPOSE SETTING PRICE OF THRESHING

Farm Bureau Arranges for Conference of Growers and Machine Men Here

With a view to settling the price for threshing in southern Idaho this season, the executive committee of the Twin Falls county farm bureau at its meeting here Saturday, authorized the appointment by the president, W. F. Alworth, of a committee to be composed of six members, three of whom are to be threshermen and three grain growers. The east, west, and central districts of the county are to be represented each with a thresherman and a grain grower on this committee. The committee is to be instructed, after reaching its own conclusions, to confer with similar committees appointed in other southern Idaho counties, to the end that a uniform price agreement may be determined upon.

NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE BUYS NEWSPAPERS

Owens Three in the State, Two of Them Being Located in Twin Falls County

Three newspapers are now owned by the Non-Partisan League in Idaho—two of them being in Twin Falls county—the Filer Journal, which was purchased last month, and the Bull Pioneer, which was bought last week. J. J. Manire, former editor of the Pioneer, has been placed in charge of the Journal, and it is probable publication of the two papers will be consolidated through one office. Organization of a corporation to publish a paper in the interests of the league in the Boise and Payette valleys at Nampa has been announced.

WIFE SECURES DIVORCE

Lela Brasfield was granted a divorce from her husband, B. L. Brasfield, Friday morning by Judge W. A. Babcock of the district court. The case was not contested, the defendant withdrawing his answer and cross-complaint upon stipulation that the statutory allegations which constituted part of the grounds upon which divorce was sought, be withdrawn. Property settlement was effected outside of court.

PUT OUT TWO BLAZES

A heap of rubbish accumulated in one day at the rear of the First National bank building, where remodeling was in progress, caught fire Thursday afternoon, and for a time endangered structures in that vicinity. Alarm was turned in by an occupant of an adjoining building, and the blaze was put out by the fire department before any serious damage resulted.

Fire of unknown origin in the coal shed at the residence of H. B. Hogan, corner of Third avenue and Fourth street east, was extinguished by the fire department Thursday evening.

AMERICA MUST WIN IN MIGHTY WAR IN IDEALS

DR. THOMPSON DECLARES PRINCIPLES OF DEMOCRACY MUST TRIUMPH

Shows conflict in which every individual is enlisted and all have part to perform in it to stay

An audience of nearly 1000 persons filling the lecture hall here to capacity Monday evening heard Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of the University of Ohio, and representative of the secretariat of the American people, declare the duty of Americans to support the government program for winning the conflict. Two hundred seats reserved for hearers from rural districts were occupied and every section of the county was represented in the audience.

Members of the county council of defense occupied seats on the platform. Several numbers were given by the Twin Falls band before the meeting was called to order by C. E. Munson, county chairman of the Twin Falls section. The Liberty chorus, composed of high school boys and girls under the direction of Miss Simpson, sang patriotic songs at the opening and close of the meeting.

The speaker was introduced by Hal G. Black, superintendent of Twin Falls schools.

Conflict of Opposing Ideals

Dr. Thompson declared that the war is a conflict of ideals—of German ideals of might and treachery against American ideals of peace, freedom and liberty. "It is the most serious business that ever was waged," he said, "and we are not going to win it by singing national anthems and having the band play. It is the most serious business in which we were ever engaged, and there is nothing left now but to whip the Germans to a standstill. The German respects nothing but force. We go against him with a superior force and when the Hun is finally vanquished we shall help to write into the terms of peace the spirit of the American mind and the Golden Rule."

Germana Stand With Buller

Declaring that the Germans are sincere in their adherence to their belief that might makes right, and that the state is supreme, he said that the German declaration of war was a declaration justifying the right of conquest and the abrogation of contracts and treaties. Dr. Thompson asserted that the German cannot understand the American ideal of liberty and the supremacy of the rights of humanity, nor can he understand the principle of the American declaration of war where it is set out that we seek no territory nor indemnity. The German regards such an attitude as an admission of weakness.

Quotes Kaiser on Conquest

Quoting from the statement of the Kaiser in 1900 in which he said that Germany needs the sea and what lies beyond (America) in order that no important step might be taken without the consent of the Kaiser and German government, Dr. Thompson proceeded to outline the German life and the German interpretation and application of culture. "Because the idea has been instilled into the German mind from infancy that they are the superior and superior to any other people," he said, "they believe therefore that it is their right to rule the world."

"An officer of the German army employed as a professor in the Ohio state university once told me that he regarded himself as a superior to any individual of any other race; that he had been taught to believe from childhood that there was a war coming and that Germany must win that war, and that the supremacy of the Germans was justified by their superiority of strength," Dr. Thompson said.

In contrast of the situation in America to the German mind preparedness, Dr. Thompson said that at the beginning of the war Germany had 2,000,000 men in arms, while in the United States there were only 100,000 military rifles, and with the aid of the Ordnance department it took six months to make 500,000 rifles.

No Justification for Starting

"We didn't start the war," Dr. Thompson declared. "We must accept the responsibility of it, that is, the nations involved in it accept the responsibility for starting the war. We will settle the responsibility but I'll never justify the starting of the war."

"The United States did not get into the war," he said, "because we were not in the war, followed the lead of McKinley in 1898, and waited until the American people were solidly behind us. We have a good deal of time, as well learn now that we are in the war for 50 years or longer if need be. Our principles will not be forsaken. We may give up our lives but never our principles."

The achievements of modern science and industrial development have been applied to the business of warfare, making this the most stupendous and horrible of the conflicts of history, Dr. Thompson declared. German efficiency has been quick to make use of the terrible mechanisms for making war horrible, he said, but German efficiency in using nothing except what we have ourselves, and now we are inventing devices that will overcome their fighting machines. Only recently a device has been perfected that will detect a submarine at a distance of 10 miles, Dr. Thompson announced.

Atrocities Yet Unpublished

The end of the war will disclose a record of German atrocities in Belgium and France so terrible that it is impossible to publish it now, Dr. Thompson said. He added that Hugh Gibson, secretary to Brand Whitlock, American ambassador to Belgium, whom he had started, had told him that the Belgians have preserved records of these atrocities and that they dare not speak of them now for fear of the vengeance of the Huns.

The extensiveness of the war requires that every citizen shall take his part in it. Dr. Thompson declared that it costs us 14 times more than it does the Germans to place and keep a soldier at the front. To meet this enormous strain our industries must be reorganized and we are meeting the situation. After 12 months we have done more toward war preparation than any other nation has which we were ever engaged in. Great Britain and France say so, and Germany would say so, too, if forced to admit the truth," he asserted.

Process of Democracy

"Nothing has so conclusively proved the success of democracy as the development of efficiency and co-operation in America to meet war requirements. Every American is ready and willing to play his part, and there is a part for every American to play. You can loyally back the government in whatever is ordered and can conform in letter and spirit to the regulations as to the use of food. You can do your part toward saving wheat that our army may be fed. I have a boy in France today—many of you have. Are we going to let them be fed on green onions and lettuce, salad that we may have? Wheat, bread and potatoes, meat? Not if I know the spirit of the American people."

"The matter of food production. Here, I understand, you can raise excellent wheat in great amounts. It is a question for you to decide whether you will raise wheat or raise wheat and sugar beets. The government has many requirements. It must look to the localities that can produce what is needed to fulfill the requirements. For oil and gasoline it must go to the oil fields, and for its sugar supply it must look to a relatively small area. This is a part of that area. I am not going to tell you what to raise or what to do, but I am confident that you will fulfill your patriotic requirements and that whatever you do, you will do well."

Castigate Self-Seekers

"It should not speak in this manner to an audience in North Dakota where there are many Rascallized Germans, who have come to America simply to better their own condition, who cannot be reached by appeals to patriotism and who are equally unready to render assistance to the United States or to Russia or to Germany. They don't belong to the salvation army, so we do."

Burdens Distributed

"It is the time now for us to submerge our individual interests and to give all to the winning of the war. I would not give 15 cents an acre for any farm under German domination. It is not required that any one person or a few persons should bear the whole sacrifice, or that there should be any one crop idea in force. The decision rests simply with you as patriotic loyal American citizens.

"It is true that there are wrongs to be righted in this country, and that grave injustices have existed here in the past, but the paramount consideration now is to defeat the Germans, and after the Kaiser is licked there is going to be a housecleaning at home. If I were not persuaded that it is so, I should not be so anxious for the defeat of Prussianism."

Comes to Investigate

Dr. Thompson, who is chairman of the executive committee of the Association of American Agricultural Colleges and the direct representative of the secretary of agriculture, was in Twin Falls on a tour of the west to make a personal inspection of agricultural conditions. He was at a meeting of the county agents of this district held here Monday afternoon, with Leo W. Fluharty, director of the state university agricultural extension department, and made searching inquiry into local conditions for use in his report to the department of agriculture. In this conference it was disclosed that potato plantings that aggregated 6000 acres in Twin Falls county last year will be reduced to less than one-fourth that amount this season. Early frost and unfavorable traffic conditions are the reasons given for the decrease. On the other hand it appeared that the plantings of wheat will be increased very largely, much alfalfa hay land being turned over for that crop.

Disease Sugar Situation

Considerable attention was directed to the beet sugar situation, and the opinion was expressed by Dr. Thompson that when the sugar requirements were fully appreciated a larger acreage would be devoted to the beet crop in this region. He declared at this time that the farmer is as truly in the service of the nation as the soldier in uniform, and that diffusion of the requirements alone was needed to secure their fulfillment.

Later Monday afternoon Dr. Thompson spoke before the high school students.

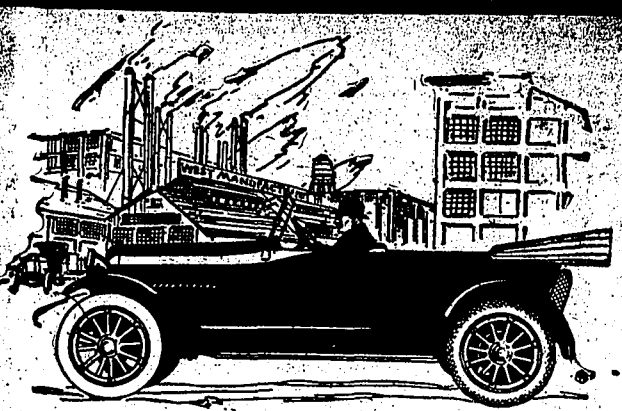

He addressed meetings in Idaho at Boise, Caldwell, Twin Falls and Pocatello, and went from this state to Wyoming.

THE PNEUMONIA SEASON

The cold, damp, wet weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. Pneumonia often results from a cold. The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. With the Red Cross Work At Home and Abroad

Edited by Twin Falls Chapter

A STRING OF PURLS

The hours I spend on thee, dear sock,
Are as a string of purls to me;
First two I knit, then two I purle,
And round the leg I slowly reel.
Now joyful pen in the heavens hurrl,
I've turned the heel.

O, knotty ends that scratch and turn,
O, stitch that dropped, uneven turn,
I kiss each blight and strive at last to reach the toe,
To reach the toe, O Lord, to reach the toe.

One week from Saturday, April 6, the quarterly meeting of the auxiliary will be held. On Monday, April 1, will be held the regular monthly board meeting.

The treasury of the Twin Falls chapter ter has been reimbursed by a portion of the Christmas membership drive and by an additional sum from the war fund. This will allow the board to operate successfully until the next Red Cross drive.

The Red Cross chapter appreciates the cooperation of the ministers in calling attention to the increased need of work in the surgical dressing department.

The Belgian relief commission reports a generous response to the appeal for old clothing this last week. Over three tons—30 big bales—of clothing have been shipped from Twin Falls alone.

The auxiliaries are sending direct. Holsteter, Rogers and Hazleton have already shipped. The chapter is very grateful to Mr. Guilbert, under whose direction the donations were gathered in. To Mrs. Packard and her committee, who received and arranged the garments at the Parish hall, for the use of the Parish hall, and to Messrs. McMillan, Lambling, and A. N. Sprague for the use of their automobiles in the collections of the donations.

At a farewell reception given L. L.

Breakfasting Friday night at the Presbyterian church, Dr. Wilson, on behalf of the board, presented him with a gold Red Cross insignia of the Red Cross chapter. The chapter takes great pride in the fact that one of the members of its board has volunteered his services for the Red Cross work in France.

A complete and beautifully made set of surgical dressings is now on exhibition at headquarters.

Five boxes, each containing 30 layettes, are ready for shipment. Will everyone working on layettes turn them in as soon as possible, as they must be shipped to headquarters at Seattle within a limited time?

Dr. Scott, chairman of the first aid committee, will visit northwestern district headquarters at Seattle this week.

The ladies of Filer have completed the course for surgical dressing instruction under Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Ormsby. These now qualified to teach are Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Cartney, Mrs. W. A. Shear, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Hessman, Mrs. Guy Shearer.

The Elks have donated several large, nicely made tables to be used in the surgical dressing department.

The high school students have an allotment of 150 personal effect bags to complete. These bags are given to hospital patients to put their personal effects in for safe keeping.

March 16 marked the thirty-sixth anniversary of the establishment of the American Red Cross. In that short space it has grown from a struggling little known organization to a great body of eager workers numbering its members in the millions.

Because of the chapter receiving its quota of surgical dressing work from headquarters at Seattle last week and because of its unexpected size (13 boxes a month), an earnest endeavor has been made to reach the women of Twin Falls and interest them in this work. If every woman would do her share it would mean so little from each one. The time has come when the man or woman is going to be measured not by money, not by name, not by family, but by service. This is service to a worthy cause. They may not fight in the trenches, but they can play the game here and do whatever is put up for them to do. The women can concentrate every ounce of power in our bodies to winning this war, the sooner the war will be over.

Sixty men have pledged themselves to do surgical dressing work. The rooms are open every afternoon and evening, and any man wishing to take part in this work may come directly to the Elks hall, over Idaho theater.

KULTUR MOVES WESTWARD

THE smug complacency of America is its most dangerous foe—this cock-sureness, this over-confident, matter-of-fact attitude, and this self-laudatory bunk about the Yanks parading the streets of Berlin.

The catch-penny phraseology hurled at loose by some of our impassioned, word-fighting orators has lulled great numbers of our people into the delusion that after a little nasty work of short duration, the shooting alone remains.

There are evidences, fortunately, that the events of the last few days have jarred these tranquil visions, and that America is at last awakening—its people are awakening—to some conception of the task of preserving democracy upon this globe.

They are awakening, also, to some degree of appreciation for the work done by the English, French, Italian, Russian and Serbian nations, while we held disdainfully aloof.

Distance and dimness obscured the true nature of the struggle. It is only now that we are beginning to realize the full debt of gratitude we owe to these valiant peoples.

Prussianism, Militarism, Autocracy, Kultur, whatever you choose to call it—has gripped our west line, and moved it westward.

The west line has moved towards the coast of France, closer to Paris, closer to England—towards America.

With the division of the allied forces in France and the control of the channel, Kultur and all it has come to mean during the past three years, would have gained an enviable—almost vital—advantage.

Control of the English channel carried with it virtual control of the seas, insofar as that control effects the war situation. With the channel in Kultur's talons, the submarine course would assume proportions hitherto undreamed of, and Kultur would certainly surge over entire Europe like a great tidal wave.

Nor would it rest there.

The emperor himself warned our ambassador, James W. Gerard, "America had better look out," he said; "I shall stand no nonsense from America after the war."

Major Liebscher told our vice-consul at Pliny: "We are keeping books on you Americans. It's a long account and we haven't missed any details. Best assured that the account will be presented to you some day for settlement. We are keeping the account in black and white—with customary German thoroughness."

Klaus Wagner, a German writer, in 1906 said:

"Not only North America but the whole of America must become a bulwark of German Kultur, perhaps the strongest fortress of the Germanic race."

A cultured count by the name of Von Goetz, on had it figured out nearly a score of years ago. He said:

"About fifteen years from now my country will start her great war. She will be in Paris in about two months after the commencement of hostilities. Her move on Paris will be but a step to her real objective—the crushing of England. Everything will move like clockwork. We will be prepared and others will not be prepared. I speak of this because of the connection it will have with your own country."

"Some months after we finish our work in Europe we will take New York and probably Washington and hold them for some time. We will put your country in its places with reference to Germany. We do not propose to take any of your territory, but we do intend to take a billion or more dollars from New York and other places. The Monroe Doctrine will be taken charge of by us, and we will have put you in your place, and we will be the class of South America as far as we want to. I have no hostility toward your country. I like it, but we have to go on our way."

An officer of the German general staff, Freiherr von Edelsheim, in 1901 wrote with reference to "the war":

"Operations against the United States of North America must be entirely different. With that country, in particular, political friction, manifest in commercial aims, has not been lacking in recent years, and has until now been removed chiefly through acquiescence on our part. However, as this submission has its limit, the question arises as to what means we can develop to carry out our purpose WITH FORCE in order to combat the encroachments of the United States upon our interests. OUR MAIN FACTOR IS OUR FLEET. It is a condition that the naval war against the United States cannot be carried on with success without at the same time inaugurating action on land. . . . It is almost a certainty, however, that a victorious assault on the Atlantic coast, trying to import and exporting business of the whole country, would bring about such an annoying situation that the government would be willing to treat for peace."

"If the German invading force were equipped and ready for transporting the moment the battle fleet is dispatched, under average conditions, THREE COASTS CAN BE OPENED UP ON AMERICAN SOIL WITHIN AT LEAST FOUR WEEKS. . . . The United States at this time (1901) is not in a position to oppose our troops with an army of equal rank. . . . The fact that one or two of our provinces are occupied by the invaders would not alone move the Americans to sue for peace. To accomplish this and the invaders would have to inflict real material damage by inflicting the whole country through the coastal seizure of many of the Atlantic seaports in which the threads of the entire wealth of the nation meet. It should be so managed that a line of land operations would be in close touch with the fleet through which we would be in a position to seize in a short time many of these important and rich cities, to interrupt their means of supply, disorganize all government, and assume control of all needed supplies, confiscate all war and transport supplies, and finally to impose heavy indemnities. . . . As a matter of fact, Germany is the only great power which is in a position to conquer the United States."

Germany has not stayed out; she has not worn out; she has not revolted. None of these happy eventualities have transpired.

She has just delivered a powerful blow against the western line—the line that protects the world from the curse of Kultur; a blow of such tremendous force that the world is waiting, with bated breath, for the next development.

If that line breaks, then the final struggle, the last stand of democracy, may be made on the very soil that was hallowed by the Revolution. Far better for us that it be maintained where it is. Far better for us that we face the German curse with our staunch allies than single and alone.

Every resource of this nation must be marshaled and thrown into the fray. Germany must be driven back; foot by foot, yard by yard, rod by rod, in a series of the most costly struggles that has ever reddened the pages of history. The cost in life and resources will be staggering.

But, for us, there is no choice.

MR. BAKER VISITS FRANCE

IT IS within the range of possibilities, that Secretary Baker will return from France a sadder and a wiser man. From time to time Congressional parties have made the tour of the trenches, heard the big guns, witnessed a few bursting shells (through field glasses), and returned to tell the American public of the stupendous extent of the terrific struggle being waged.

Mr. Baker will probably not run strongly to adjectives. Words lose much of their significance when applied to a description of things too big for human comprehension, and the war in its present stage requires the assimilation of days before anything approaching a clear conception of its magnitude may be gained.

Mr. Baker could not possibly have timed his visit at a more opportune moment. He will return the best posted man in America upon the subject of the war and its needs. He should be in a position to fire the opening gun in a home campaign of speeding up along every line of war endeavor in which there should be no pause, no let-up, until the German army go down to inglorious defeat and the battered headpiece of Bill the Baby-Killer becomes in fact the highest symbol on earth of human contempt.

No serious minded man has ever attached any particular blame to Secretary Baker for taking a period of months to decide on the merits of the Browning machine gun over all competitors, but the thing he is to blame for and has always been to blame for is the taking of seven more months, following his decision, before placing the Government order for the guns.

Mr. Baker should know better when he returns.

RIGHT!

HERE is a sum-up of the position of America in the war which will compare with any similar sentiment ever expressed:

"If the report that the western front has been pierced be true, and we meet today in the shadow of temporary defeat, I give the message of Idaho to the representative of the government here beside me that America will never sue for peace nor rest until the Stars and Stripes have been planted in Berlin and the German hordes driven back across the Rhine. Let him bear the word to the government that America pledges that the last man, the last dollar and the last drop of blood in her veins shall be spent before defeat is acknowledged. We are in this war until the war is won. I appeal to you here today for voluntary enlistment of your lives, your money and your service in the cause of our country. The man who is not with the United States to the finish has no place in the country."

The speaker was Governor Moses Alexander, the place, Boise, the time, Sunday afternoon last.

For this speech the Governor is entitled to the hearty congratulations of the entire State.

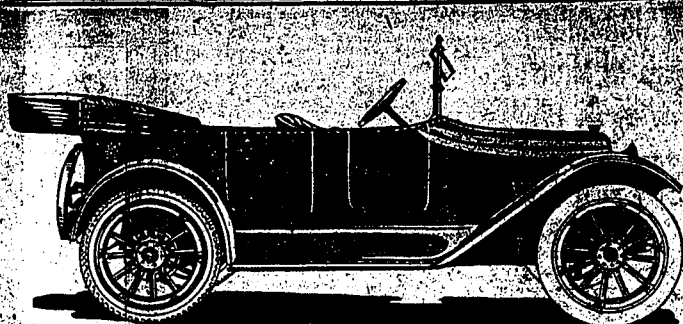

INTERMENT IS RIGHT

WE QUITE agree with our local contemporary who advises that German spies should be handed over to the authorities for "interment."

SYSTEM?

SOMEWHERE there is inefficiency in the distribution of transportation facilities when the State of Minnesota, which is shipping out more potatoes daily than any other three potato producing states, receives a car load of potatoes from the State of Washington, and when the State of New York, where potatoes command a higher price than in any other State in the Union, ships potatoes to the Chicago market, where they will sell for a less price.

This is the situation that is revealed by the reports of the Federal Farm Markets Bureau. So long as it exists there is justification for protests relative to the car situation, and in dealing with an administration no better organized than this evidence proves the traffic control to be, there is reason to believe that the district which sets up the loudest howl is the one that will be served most adequately.

—an individual car

To the very smallest detail, the Chevrolet reflects the ideals of the makers to produce a really high-grade car at a popular price.

That the Chevrolet is more commonly compared with cars selling at much higher prices is justification for the conscientious effort of its manufacturer.

The new model Chevrolet "Four Ninety" Touring Car and Roadster attain a standard of excellence uncommon of cars at these prices. This is a claim we would be delighted to prove—we could ask no greater favor than to do so.

Would you have a good-looking car? The Chevrolet has it in full measure. Would you have strength? Vanadium steel is used wherever unusual strength is required. Would you have comfort? Proper spring suspension, together with comfortable upholstery and roominess, meet your comfort wishes to the fullest degree. Would you have power and low upkeep? The wonderful valve-in-head motor with which each Chevrolet is equipped provides power far in excess of ordinary requirement or emergency; and the direct-application-of-power principle insures maximum power on minimum fuel. Twenty-five miles per gallon is a common thing for this Chevrolet. And the car is fully equipped.

Suppose you let us demonstrate that we have not over-stated Chevrolet quality.

TWIN FALLS TEN YEARS AGO

(From Files of Twin Falls News.)

March 27, 1908.

Ceremony of the opening of head-gates of the North Side canal at Milner releasing water for the reclamation of 160,000 acres of land was witnessed on March 23 by more than 1000 citizens of the Twin Falls tract, together with officers of the company and their wives, representatives of the press and members of the state land board. The first headgate was unlocked by Mrs. W. S. Kuhn. Major Fred R. Reed was master of ceremonies, introducing the speakers. Governor Fred R. Gooding and W. S. Kuhn. Music was furnished by the Twin Falls and Buhl bands. The visitors from the Twin Falls tract traveled to Milner in a special train of seven cars.

Orchard Tract Opened

A one-fourth of the Orchard subdivision of over 1000 acres adjacent to the city of Twin Falls was sold on March 25, the day of the opening, the remaining tracts going rapidly thereafter. D. W. Brunk of Twin Falls drew the first choice and sold it one minute afterward to H. A. Moore at a profit of $500. Succeeding numbers were drawn by C. E. Norton, who transferred his number to P. H. Smith; Frank Osborn, who sold immediately to Harry Allen; Charles Costello, N. Layne, J. P. Johnston, A. P. Senior, B. L. Land, D. L. Hickling, George H. LeClere, C. A. McMaster, James Vero and O. D. Thomas. A number of Colorado fruit growers in attendance purchased tracts. The opening was conducted by the Landreth Investment & Improvement Company, and H. A. Strand & Company interested Colorado investors.

BEARS MESSAGES TO FRENCH AND ENGLISH SCOUTS

BRECKENRIDGE MADE AN HONORARY MEMBER AND DISPATCH BEARER

LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS EXPRESS FELICITATIONS ON FAREWELL OCCASION FOR MAN ENTERING RED CROSS WORK ABROAD

Loyal L. Breckenridge, manager of the Twin Falls Milling & Elevator company and leader of various patriotic activities since the declaration of war, who left Monday to enter upon work in an executive position with the American Red Cross in France, has undertaken to deliver to representatives of the Boy Scouts of England and France messages delivered to him by the Boy Scouts of Twin Falls at the meeting assembled in his honor Friday evening in the First Presbyterian church.

Bear Stars and Stripes
Entrance of the Boy Scouts, bearing the Stars and Stripes, while Austin D. Thomas, at the organ played the Star Spangled Banner and the assembly stood at attention, at the beginning of the program, was one of the striking features of the contest. The conclusion of the air, V. H. Decker, scout leader, announced that the Scouts had elected Mr. Breckenridge an honorary member, and the messages were delivered to him at that time.

Speak for Organizations
Voicing the respect and appreciation of organizations with which Mr. Breckenridge has been prominently identified and their appreciation of the measure of service he is fulfilling in the line of the nation's crisis, John E. Davies spoke for the Twin Falls county council of defense; Hal G. Blue for Twin Falls commandery; Knights Templar; Dr. Asher, H. Brand for the Presbyterian church, and Dr. H. W. Wilson for the Twin Falls chapter of the Red Cross.

The program was interspersed with musical numbers including a selection by a ladies' octette and vocal solos by Wilton Peck and Mrs. Savage, Mrs. Jack playing the accompaniment for the former and Miss Zelma Lessor for the latter. It was concluded with the singing of America.

Mayor Master of Ceremonies
Mayor F. F. Bracken, successor to Mr. Breckenridge as chairman of the county council of defense, presided and explained the purpose of the gathering from the standpoint of that organization, it being one of similar demonstrations upon the departure of men entering the service of the country, serving to show to them that those who remain at home give pledge of their support.

After the program, wishes of those in attendance for Mr. Breckenridge's wellbeing while absent and for his safe return were extended.

LIBERTY SLOGAN IS WORTH $100

Idaho Student Under 18 Years Has a Chance to Make Most Stake in Contest

The student in the state of Idaho, 18 years or under, who submits the best Liberty Loan slogan to the state Liberty Loan committee, will be awarded a prize of $100 in cash. The contest opens immediately. All slogans must be submitted to the committee at Boise on or before April 6, the date the third Liberty Loan drive opens. The committee will make the selection and announce the winner.

This prize is offered by the Idaho State Bankers' association. The rules and regulations in greater detail are now being prepared by E. M. Hoover, secretary of the state committee, and will be announced later.

The contest is open not only to students in the common schools, but to students in business colleges within the age limit and to students of private or religious schools. It is believed that inspired by the patriotic appeal contained in the contest, hundreds if not thousands of students in the state will submit slogans.

The third Liberty Loan drive promises to be the most strenuous that has been conducted. A timely slogan may mean much toward swelling the subscription necessary to make up Idaho's promised quota.

Statement for Waterworks—Statement showing the earnings and cost of maintenance and operation of the Twin Falls waterworks system since it was taken over by the municipality is being prepared by Frank E. Wheeler, assistant city clerk.

GAINS 25 POUNDS TAKING TANLAC

SUFFERED FOR YEARS AND HAD REMEDY SO BAD COULDN'T GET SHOS ON

"When I tell you I have been relieved of the worst of my suffering and have actually gained twenty-five pounds in weight, besides, you can readily understand why I'm so strong," said Tom McClelland of 1313 Grand street, El Paso, Texas, recently.

"I had a number of troubles," he continued, "and it's the first time in several years I have been rid of rheumatism. Before I began taking this Tanlac my legs and feet were swollen all the time and sometimes I couldn't get my shoes on. The pain was something awful and I was so nervous and miserable I didn't know what it was to get a good night's sleep. I had no appetite and nearly everything I would eat disagreed with me. My food would sour and the gas would press on my head so I could scarcely breathe. Besides my terrible suffering I had an awful tired feeling and would wake up in the mornings feeling so no-account I could hardly get out of bed.

"I tried every kind of treatment and medicine I heard of, but got no relief until I began taking Tanlac, but three days after the medicine I made me feel like a brand new man through and through. I have never in all my life had such a ravenous appetite and you may be sure everything agrees with me or I could never have gained so much in weight. I sleep all night long without waking and my nerves are as steady as a clock. All the swelling and pain has left my feet and legs entirely and I'm never bothered any more with gas on my stomach, shortness of breath or other signs of indigestion. You may count me among the many Tanlac boosters and you are welcome to this statement which I hope will be the cause of others finding relief."

ARMENIAN DISOBSSES ATROCITIES AT HOME

Dr. Samuel Kirkorian Makes Appeal Here for Aid for His Suffering People

The plight of the Armenian people under the barbarous rule of the Turks has been discussed in great detail by Dr. Samuel Kirkorian, native of Armenia, in his appeal for contributions to relief measures for his unhappy people, delivered before a large audience in the high school auditorium on the evening of March 20. Dr. Kirkorian was accompanied here by former Representative John E. McCracken of Boise, state chairman of the Armenian relief commission. He was introduced by E. L. Ashton.

The appeal here was that a portion of the Red Cross contributions be diverted to the relief of the Armenians. Elsewhere throughout the state, Armenian associations have been formed for the express purpose of soliciting contributions for their cause.

Declaring that anyone who would condone the crimes of the Germans is unworthy to remain under the Stars and Stripes, Dr. Kirkorian outlined the agreement entered into by the Kaiser with the Sultan in building the massacre of 1900, whereby Germany was to have right of way through Turkey for its Berlin-to-Bagdad railway; which was a fundamental factor in the German scheme for world conquest.

When the war started Germany and Turkey combined to force Armenian men between the ages of 16 and 40 years into the military service. Those remaining they separated into two groups, the older men and the boys in one and the women and children in the other. To the men they gave the choice of renouncing the Christian religion or death and the women and children they drove out into the deserts.

Dr. Kirkorian described many massacres and atrocities perpetrated upon his people. The Germans have committed crimes in that country, he declared, at which even the Turks revolted.

SEVERAL PERMITS FOR RESIDENCES ISSUED

Home Building Progress in Twin Falls Is Reflected in the Municipal Records

Municipal building permits covering the construction of a number of substantial residences have been issued during the week.

L. F. Morse is building a residence, 8641 feet, on Sixth avenue and between Shoshone and Second streets. The estimated cost is $2500. Earl Felt is the contractor.

A. N. Flory is building a residence, 28x53 feet, on Fourth avenue north between Fourth and Fifth streets at an estimated cost of $2000. The contract has been let to E. A. Moon.

Permit has been issued to C. A. Alvord for construction of a residence, 30x40 feet, on Fifth avenue north between Fifth and Sixth streets, at an estimated cost of $2000.

GOVERNMENT SEES MANY BOOKKEEPERS

The United States civil service commission announces that an examination will be held April 13 in fifty-four cities in the states of Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming, for the purpose of filling vacancies in the reclamation service and other branches requiring similar qualifications in the position of bookkeeper. Both men and women will be admitted. Appointing salaries range from $900 to $1200 per annum. Duration of examination is April 13. Information and application blanks may be secured by addressing the secretary, Eleventh U. S. Civil Service District, 203 Postoffice Building, Seattle, Washington.

Local Briefs

Returns With Bride—H. C. Gettler and his bride have returned from a wedding trip of two months' duration, and are at home at their residence on Poplar avenue in Eastlawn.

Photoplay Star Coming—In the interests of the forthcoming Liberty Loan drive, William C. Phillips, photoplay star, will appear in Twin Falls at a date yet to be determined.

Police Court Docket—The docket of the police court for the week shows arrests and fines assessed in two cases of infraction of the traffic ordinances and three cases of drunkenness.

Knights Templar to Attend Service—Twin Falls commandery, Knights Templar, will attend Easter services next Sunday, and the First Presbyterian church, the sermon for the occasion being delivered by Dr. A. H. Brand.

Decorate Bank & Trust—Hogson Brothers of New York, contractors who are completing remodeling of the First National bank building after several months' work, have begun work on decorating the interior of the Twin Falls Bank & Trust company quarters.

Veterinarian Comes Here—Dr. Herbert T. Cook of Meridian, Idaho, has been appointed a veterinary inspector in the service of the bureau of animal industry, and is on orders to report April 1 for duty here with Dr. W. A. Sullivan.

In New Quarters—The office of Dr. J. T. Evans, oculist and optician, and the jewelry store of F. B. Carson, well known here and in Buhl, are located in quarters in the new building at Vancouver street, the building owned and operated by the Fisher Drug company, fitted up for this purpose this week.

Take Back Barber Shop—In a three-cornered business transaction negotiated through Letch & Williams, Monday, E. E. Kall became again proprietor of the barber shop, 143 Main avenue west, which he recently sold to O. L. Palmer, who retires from the business.

Registrant Bullies—Ray M. Berry, who registered under the draft here last June and later went to Washington, was inducted March 29, for military duty in the engineering corps at Vancouver barracks, according to word received by the local board.

Joins Coast Artillery—Carl Harder, son of H. F. Harder, left here Tuesday evening to join a coast artillery regiment in California. He registered under the draft in Kemmerer, Wyoming, and his voluntary induction into the military service was delayed a few days pending the arrival of authorization for his enlistment from the board.

Put Out Basement Fire—Fire in some clothing hanging in a basement started from hot coals from the fireplace above in the residence of George F. Sprague, 915 Shoshone street north, was extinguished by the fire department at 10:44 o'clock on Tuesday morning. The blaze was extinguished before any damage resulted.

Entertains Chiropractors—At a dinner at the Rogers cafe Sunday evening, Dr. Wyle entertained a number of the chiropractors who are here. Methods for effecting a closer organization and harmonization of interests of the profession here were discussed. In attendance were Dr. W. E. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Johnson of Twin Falls, and Dr. Rice of Buhl.

Back in Former Home—The Irrigated Lands company this week is returning into enlarged quarters in the first floor of the First National bank building, fronting on Shoshone street east. While the bank building was being remodeled during the past nine months, the Lands company occupied temporary quarters in the Johnson Auto Sales company building.

Report Interest in Ran Sale—D. F. Detweiler, director of the Southern Idaho Wool Growers association, and H. O. Brown of the Brown Brothers Sheep company, returned Monday from the North Side, reporting that several sheep growers of that district expect to enter sheep for sale at the first sale of the association to be held at Filer late in August.

Bond for Berlin—Four recruits for the army left Twin Falls Monday evening for Fort Douglas, Utah, from which point they will be transferred into the various branches of the service for which they are being trained. They are Harry F. Hostetter of Filer, Twenty-Third engineers; Elmer Francis, Twin Falls, field artillery; Hyrum F. Hill, Twin Falls, field artillery; and John W. Levey, Burley, quartermaster corps. On Friday evening Ralph L. Sharp of Nitter, Idaho, left here to join the infantry.

REGARDING EASTER SUNDAY AND BOYS

MOST every boy will want a new suit for Easter Sunday and to those boys who need one I just want to say come here and take a look and then go home and tell the folks, or better still, ask the folks to come in with you.

Splendid suits are here for you—made from good quality strong material; good style, with the many little things such as belt loops, watch pocket, buttoned down coat pockets, belted coats, pants lined throughout, with taped inseams to prevent ripping.

BOYS' KNEE PANTS
Does the boy need a pair of pants to finish out the coat of his suit? I have them here in cassimere, wool and worsted; also the kind that launder, in crash, chevrot and khaki. Prices Right.

SHOES FOR THE BOYS

IT is truly remarkable how our trade on boys' shoes has grown but when one thinks of the values I am giving it is no wonder. The good looking kind, made from all leather—good quality—the sort that wears well, the kind the boys like, too. "Come on in boys."

SHOES FOR THE FAMILY

THE sale of shoes in this store was started in response to a rather insistent demand on the part of my regular customers, but I had no thought of its becoming the important part of the store trade that it has. There are many who count on buying all their shoes here. There must be a good reason.

LADIES' WASH WAISTS

YOU will wonder how we can, and why we do, give such wonderful values in our LADIES' LINGERIE WAISTS at ONE DOLLAR. They are good quality, newest styles, smart looking. They come in plain, stripes and plaids, in all white and attractive combinations in colors. You will surely say REMARKABLE. How can you do it? Just come in, see the new lot just in by express, and remember only one dollar each.

KIMONOS

The new and really beautiful creations we are showing in crepe de chine and satin kimonos are delights to look at. Splendid quality, wonderfully attractive, and moderately priced, considering the quality.

A new lot of those colored petticoats at $1.25 are here for those who want an undershirt that looks like silk, in the shades so much in demand.

A wonderful collection of the new things in children's hats for boys and girls. Some for the "little tots" and plenty for the "bigger ones."

SOCIETY

A PLEASANT affair of the week was the dancing party at the Pariah hall honoring Miss Jessie Simpson, director of the high school glee clubs, on Friday evening. The boys and girls of the clubs acted as hosts and hostesses. The hall was decorated in the national colors and the dance program carried out the color scheme. Proceeding the dancing a short program of music and readings was given by several high school girls. Seventy-five students and members of the faculty attended.

A charming announcement party was given at the home of Miss Cora Driscoll in South Park addition on Thursday afternoon, when the young lady made public her engagement to Albert Journey of Kimberly, the wedding to take place the last of this month. During the evening each guest was presented with a napkin and requested to hem it, which upon being opened revealed the announcement. At a late hour refreshments were served to the Mesdames L. F. Roberts, P. O. Herri-man, Wm. Pezala, E. Reles, E. J. Jenkins, G. V. Jenkins, Marie Woods, W. E. Davis, and the Misses Zula Ballinger, Minnie Johnson, Myrtle Anderson, Eva Martin, Blanche Walker, and Electa Davis.

The Elks entertained at another pleasant affair on Thursday evening. Dancing to the strains of most excellent music occupied the evening, followed by refreshments at a late hour. About thirty-five couples enjoyed the affair.

The Blue Lakes Boulevard club was entertained on Friday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Wright. Future work of the club made the topic for the afternoon. Red Cross sewing occupied the time, followed by a dainty luncheon at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Burd Wall entertained delightfully at a seven o'clock dinner Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Peck. A charming color scheme of pink and white prevailed and the table was centered with a crystal vase of pink carnations. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alexander, Miss Lesley Williams, Ray Logan, and Mr. Butterfield, of Moscow.

The members of the Thursday Bridge club were entertained by Mrs. C. F. Parsons last week. Elaborate refreshments were served to the Mesdames Karis, J. S. Moore, Crow, Conover, Leopold, White, Putnam, J. B. White, Husted, Barger, Foss and Miss Cashion.

The Hoover Bridge club was entertained last week by Mrs. C. J. Schroeder. Mrs. J. P. Johnston captured the prize for high score, a dainty boudoir cap. At four o'clock a delicious luncheon was served to the Mesdames Johnson, Husted, White, Leopold, Moore, H. B. Johnson, Sawyer and Cox.

SUFFRAGE SPEAKER AT CLUB MEETING

MISS ELIZABETH SANDERS OF NEW YORK DISCUSSES WOMEN'S WAR WORK.

The meeting of the Twentieth Century club on Tuesday afternoon was one of the most interesting and instructive meetings of the year. Mrs. Robbins, chairman of the program committee, had charge of the program and introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Sanders, of New York. Miss Sanders is a prominent suffragist who has been a co-worker with Carrie Chapman Catt and who helped to organize the National American Women's Suffrage association. The subject of her talk was "Women's War Work." She is a very pleasing speaker and during her talk she held the closest attention of her audience. In appreciation of her effort the club gave her a rising vote of thanks.

The meeting opened with the president, Mrs. C. J. Schroeder, in the chair. The president requested that Mrs. Clouche, the president of the first district, act as chairman for the afternoon, and she was then ushered to the chair by Mrs. Wise, chairman of the reception committee.

Among other business the club breakfast was announced for April 16 in the Moose hall at 1 o'clock. All those who wish to attend are requested to give their names to Mrs. Alken or Mrs. Sweet on or before April 2. The annual election of the club will be held April 2. A short business session will be held before the election, and all members are urged to be present at 2:30 o'clock sharp. On the Tuesday following the club breakfast the last meeting of the club for this year will be held. The afternoon will be devoted to music, after which the ladies will discuss plans for next year's work.

Mrs. Packard, chairman of the current events department, announced the regular annual meeting of the department at the home of Mrs. Guilbert next Friday afternoon, at which time the election of chairman for the coming year will be held. This department will continue to meet every Friday afternoon during the summer, alternating making surgical dressings one week and sewing for the Red Cross the next week.

BOHEMIAN CROSS RECEIVED $314,000 FROM GALA DAY

THREE THOUSAND PEOPLE TAKE PART IN EVENT— BIDDING IS LIVELY

Deserving its highest praise and reflecting immensely to the credit of patriotism of the community is the comment made on this Red Cross day at Buhl last Tuesday by M. J. Sweeney, of Twin Falls, one of the speakers on that occasion.

More than $314,000 for the benefit of the Buhl Red Cross chapter was realized as a result of the sale at auction of articles contributed for the cause, ranging in variety from a book cabinet to pure-bred live stock, and from other money-raising plans. An egg laid by one of the hens brought in for the sale was sold for $75. Other articles were sold at fabulous prices and then given back to be re-sold. One Jersey calf was re-sold 20 times. The first article sold was a satin Red Cross banner made by women of Buhl, which brought $250. One registered Shorthorn yearling bull brought $675.

All Day Event
The entire day was given over to the occasion, beginning at 10 o'clock with a parade of automobiles and trucks loaded with the articles donated for the sale, and ending late at night with the final number of a benefit dance given in the Stone hall. More than 5000 people were in attendance.

Business houses with the exception of drug stores, restaurants and hotels were closed during the day, the exceptions donating a large portion of their day's receipts to the Red Cross.

Four Auction Rings
Everything that was sold was donated by Buhl people. Four auction rings were required for the sale of the goods, the sale beginning at 11 o'clock after the parade, and continuing until late in the evening. Rain in the afternoon did not dampen the enthusiasm of the crowd and the bidding mounted to higher and higher points as the sale proceeded.

The Buhl Junior Red Cross society and Boy Scouts served luncheon on the sale grounds and assisted in the sale of several hundred copies of the song entitled, "Let's Help the Red Cross Now."

"Swat the Kaiser"
A game of "Swat the Kaiser" came in for large attention and liberal patronage. Another of the features of the day was a community grab bag, from which more than $500 was realized. An introductory address was made by C. H. McQuinn, chairman of the Buhl Red Cross chapter, and addresses were made by H. G. Munson of Filer and M. J. Sweeney of Twin Falls, following the noon hour.

BEAUTIFUL STAR IN CRACKING STRONG MILITARY MELODRAMA

SHOWING AT THE IDAHO THEATRE
AFTER LAST THREE DAYS OF THE WEEK—THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

CUTS AND FLASHES

The Paramount-Mack Bennett comedy girls have organized a volunteer fire department to take the place of the one which was more or less demoralized by the drafting of a number of the men at the studio. Director Eddie Clive drafted the entire feminine fire fighting brigade the other day for use in a new comedy. They wear firemen's hats and handle the hose and axes like experts.

ELSIE FERGUSON, TALENTED STAGE BEAUTY, IN ANOTHER BIG SCREEN SUCCESS—VAUDEVILLE TRIO IN SURE-FIRE COMEDY HIT ENTITLED "THE MYSTERIOUS BLOND"—ALSO HARRY LEE, ENTERTAINER

"ROSE OF THE WORLD" is a three-cornered combination that works out wonderfully well. A beautiful star who is a talented actress, a director who is wonderfully capable, and a story that is full of meat, giving the star unlimited opportunity. The result is a corking feature production. Elsie Ferguson is the star, and has a role in which she tugs at your heartstrings and causes a lump to rise in your throat. And when they do that on the screen, it is going some!

That is what Wid's Picture Review has to say of the big Artcraft feature that will be shown at the Idaho the last three days of the week.

Effective Scenes
Director Maurice Tourneur, who produced the picture, has introduced some novel and effective scenes of conflict, when after a sleep of two months the garrison makes a night sortie and is nearly annihilated by the natives. These incidents in the film were photographed at night, and the struggling combatants in the dark are lighted by the flashes of musketry and shells, presenting weird and startling effects.

MURTAUGH BOYS ARE HURT ON TRANSPORT

Elwood and Raymond Roberts Are Wounded in Submarine Attack Is Report

MURTAUGH—A message was received Saturday that Elwood and Raymond Roberts, two of Murtaugh's young men, were wounded while on a transport on the Atlantic when attacked by a submarine. They are in a New York hospital but are not reported seriously injured.

A large crowd of people were at the depot Friday evening to bid farewell to Roy Hunt and Charles Warrell, who joined the marines and left Friday evening for Salt Lake.

Mrs. E. D. Hunt and Mrs. Kendall were Twin Falls visitors Saturday.

The Red Cross ladies of Artesian gave a program Friday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross. The program consisted of drifts, recitations and a tableau by the school children, solo by Mrs. Stark, and songs by the Murtaugh choir. Quite a number of Murtaugh people motored out to Artesian to attend the program. More than $35 was taken in.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Day and family of Twin Falls visited at the home of John Day last week.

Noah Hinkerson of Kimberly was a Murtaugh visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Volney Van Brumer, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Keolan, John Brockman and Miss Sue Brockman of Burley were Murtaugh visitors Sunday on their way home from Shoshone falls, where they had been taking in the sights.

Mr. Morris of the Ellison-White lyceum bureau was in Murtaugh on business Saturday.

The business men of Murtaugh have engaged five very good numbers for the coming season.

FILER PLANS AUCTION FOR THE RED CROSS

Many Articles from Needlework to Live Stock Are Donated to Increase Fund

Many articles of fine needlework and canned fruit, as well as registered Fencherson station and other valuable live stock, farm implements and furniture have been donated for sale for the benefit of the Red Cross fund at the auction and community dinner at Filer on Saturday next. Patriotic address on this occasion are to be given by J. M. Marble and Rev. Mr. Deak. The auction will be conducted by E. O. Walter. Proceeds from the auction sale as well as from amusement features of the occasion are to go to the Filer Red Cross chapter fund.

THERE GET DIVORCES

Decrees of divorce were granted by Judge Babcock in district court here Friday in the case of Nancy Moncur against Reuben Moncur, J. O. Tryer against Eda Tryer, Nellie M. Pach against Lewis Henry Pach.

BOOK ORBER NEWS NOTES

BOOK ORBER—The Red Cross met at the Red Cross rooms Wednesday and finished up the work for the two weeks ending March 20. The work finished and taken to headquarters consisted of twelve suits of pajamas, three sweaters, and five pairs of socks. Mrs. D. P. Albree delivered the goods Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stricker entertained the Card club at their home Saturday evening. The social activities will soon give place to the regular work on the farm, which permits very little time for social diversion.

The Shoosho outfit took out a large bunch of cattle Thursday, the boys returning Saturday. Food is reported as good and the cattle are being moved as fast as their condition permits.

Mrs. O. Peterson is reported quite ill with the measles.

L. P. Larsen has purchased the Murray cattle and will add them to his own herd.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vance have sold their ranch at Pleasant Valley and will move to Twin Falls as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. Mrs. Vance has been one of our most enthusiastic workers in the Red Cross work and Twin Falls will profit by her loss.

Quite a number from here attended the chautauque at Hansen Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Larsen and children and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Murray of Filer spent Sunday at Filer visiting with Mr. Larsen's sister, Mrs. J. F. Mallory.

A. P. Murray, Jr., Leon Rothhead and C. J. Donose were in Twin Falls on Thursday evening to see the great war picture featured that evening.

COULDN'T LET BOOZE ALONE IS ACCUSATION

Sam Reber of Castleford, released last week on bond to secure his appearance in district court on a charge of illegal possession of intoxicating liquor, was arrested at Buhl Sunday and turned over to county authorities by Marshal Baymiller on a charge of being drunk. The arrest was made in Buhl.

STIVER GOED BY BULL

While attempting to loosen his large registered Holstein bull and lead him out of the car when he arrived at Nampa, this week, E. H. Stiver was gored in the arm by one of the bull's horns, having the muscles torn loose from the bone, says the Buhl Herald. The animal has always been easy to handle, and Mr. Stiver was not anticipating the attack. However, Mr. Stiver is able to get around but carries his arm in a sling.

BENNETT NEW UNION DIRECTOR

Gordon Bennett was elected to the board of directors of the Buhl Farmers' Equity this week to take the place of Jena Nicolayson, who resigned recently, says the Buhl Herald. Mr. Bennett lives northwest of Buhl and is a large and successful farmer. He at one time was a member of the board of directors of the Twin Falls Canal company.

TAKES POSITION IN FARM BUREAU OFFICE

THOMAS LABOR, TWIN FALLS' FIRST AGRICULTURAL TEACHER CHOSEN BY EXECUTIVE BOARD

As Secretary of Commercial Committee He Succeeds W. F. Edwards, Who Resigns to Manage the Hansen Farmers' Society of Equity

The executive committee of the county farm bureau at its meeting Saturday elected Thomas Labor secretary of the farm bureau commercial committee, to succeed W. F. Edwards, whose resignation, effective Monday, was tendered in order that he might accept the place of manager for the Farmers' Society of Equity at Hansen.

Mr. Labor was the first director of the Twin Falls high school agricultural department, occupying that position during the school years 1911-12. Subsequent to that time he engaged in practical agriculture on his farm five and one-half miles west of Eden. Recently he has been assisting the county agent in the work of compiling the returns of the farm survey in this county.

Mr. Edwards entered upon his new employment Monday. It is not his purpose to move with his family to Hansen at the present time.

DISS FAR FROM HOME

Stricken with heart disease, from which he had been a sufferer for a long time, and with no relatives or close friends so far as known, D. C. Delmont, aged 50, died Monday morning at the county hospital, where he had been cared for for six weeks past. When able to perform labor, Delmont had worked at odd jobs here for some time. His condition becoming serious recently, he turned to the county for assistance. Delmont is said to be a native of Illinois. Burial was made Tuesday from the Grossman & DeWitt chapel, with interment in the Twin Falls cemetery.

LOOK FOR QUARTERS FOR FARM AGENTS

DESIGNATION OF LOCATION IS PUT UP TO COMMITTEE NAMED BY EXECUTIVE BOARD

Office for County Agent, Women's Demonstration Worker, and Boys' and Girls' Club Leaders May be Combined Here

Solution of the problem of providing quarters for the representatives of the department of agriculture retained in Twin Falls county has been delegated by the county farm bureau executive committee to a committee to be named by its president, W. F. Edwards. Three rooms are to be provided for three federal agents, the county agent, to general with the woman's home demonstration agent, and the boys' and girls' club leader, recently provided for by federal, state and county appropriation. The county agent now occupies offices in the court house.

It has been suggested that quarters be provided for these three agents in the same building with the farm bureau office, and with this purpose in view a number of locations are under consideration.

MUSICAL EVENT FOR RED CROSS BENEFIT

Local Talent to Present "Crucifixion" Under Leadership of Austin D. Thomas

Under direction of Austin D. Thomas, organist-director of the First Presbyterian church, well known local musical talent will give "The Crucifixion," St. John Stainer's great musical achievement, Friday evening next in the Parish hall. An offering will be taken, all of which will be turned over to the Red Cross. Those taking part include: Soprano—Mrs. O. P. Duval, Mrs. W. H. Dwight, Miss Taylor and Miss Smith; alto—Miss Pitcairn and Miss Almond; tenors—W. F. Mikesell, D. A. Simon and A. W. Haywood; basses—D. G. Watson, N. Hayward and F. W. Meech. Solo numbers will be given by Mrs. Duval, Miss Almond, Miss Pitcairn, Mr. Simon, Mr. Watson, Mr. Mikesell and Mr. Hayward.

MINISTERS FORM COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Dr. A. H. Brand Is Elected President of Organization to Unite Clergymen

Dr. A. H. Brand, pastor of the Twin Falls Presbyterian church, was elected president of the county ministerial association organized Monday with a membership of eight clergymen, and other officers were elected as follows: vice-president, Rev. Mr. Caldwell of Knappa; secretary, Rev. V. O. Beckman of Kimberly. One of the announced purposes of the organization is to bring the work of the ministers into closer relationship with that of the council of defense.

TWO RUPT FARMERS FACE DISLOYAL CHARGE

R. L. Lynn and Peter J. Holt Under Arrest—Await Orders From District Attorney

Because he said, "I hope the farmers of this country will band together and drive out the rest of the United States and their allies," R. L. Lynn, a farmer living northeast of Rupert, is now behind the bars in the county jail and may not have his freedom for some time, says the Minidoka County Patriot, of Rupert. Lynn, while in a local restaurant last Thursday afternoon, made the above remark among many others concerning the government, it is alleged. Sheriff Thompson's office was notified and Deputy Jack Purcell went after Lynn Thursday night, a charge of making seditious utterances being placed against him. It is said Lynn was intoxicated and that he is now repentant and has asked Sheriff Thompson for a chance to enlist in the next draft call so that he may show his loyalty. Lynn, being married, was placed in the fourth class in the draft. He is now willing to waive exemption and be placed in class 1 if the charge is dropped.

Sheriff Thompson will use his influence in behalf of Lynn and he may be one of the quota of six to be called March 29.

Yesterday afternoon Deputy Purcell placed under arrest Peter J. Holt, a farmer living five miles south of town. Holt is charged with distributing seditious literature. He is alleged to have passed J. W. W. and other literature in the Big Bend school house, among other places, and some of this has been found. Holt admits circulating Socialist papers.

Both men are held without bail awaiting orders from District Attorney McCone of Boise. The district attorney will likely order the men to appear before U. S. Commissioner Delmeyer for hearing.

CALL ON HOSPITAL TO FURNISH NURSES

The Boyd hospital, Twin Falls, has been requested by the American Red Cross and council of national defense to graduate after two years' training all nurses who register and express a willingness to accept service with the Red Cross, stating that all such would be accepted in that organization when this had been done.

Nurses of this institution are taking advantage of this opportunity to serve their country and the hospital is increasing its training school facilities to meet this demand.

Girls 16 years of age or over, in good health, who can furnish satisfactory references, will be admitted to this class.

INCOME FROM 1000 SHEEP
(From the National Woolgrower.)
A correspondent asks us, "how much money may reasonably be expected as the gross income from a flock of 1000 sheep with wool at 50 cents and lambs at $8.00 each in the state of Idaho?" There is only one sound basis on which to operate for the man who is in the sheep business, to stay. That is, to carry over sufficient ewe lambs each year so that the entire flock will be replaced at the end of five years. By this method the bankruptcy item of depreciation is escaped. The average useful breeding age of a crossbred ewe is five years. Starting with two-year-old ewes, at seven years they are done from a range standpoint. Therefore, 20 per cent of the flock must always be carrying over ewes. On this basis a band of 1000

FARMERS ATTEND TO THIS BEFORE THE RUSH

We are equipped to thoroughly clean your seed wheat. Our triple mills will take out 98 per cent of wild oats. This year, above all others, sow nothing but clean seed—and don't take chances on the cleaning.

ALFALFA AND RED CLOVER SEED

Our alfalfa seed was bought in the Rock Creek country. State tests give it 99.8 pure. Our Red Clover tests 99.8. It is none too early now to look after your seed requirements.

A Woman's Investment

Hetty Green, who recently died in New York, left one of the richest and safest private fortunes in the world. It was nearly all invested in Bonds secured by mortgages.

Her son, Col. D. H. E. Green, recently stated: "For the most part, my mother invested in bonds secured by mortgages. She used extreme care in making her investments and never speculated."

YOU can make just as safe investments as Hetty Green, by putting your money into the issued by this company. They pay 6 per cent guaranteed interest.

First Mortgage Bonds

These Bonds are secured by mortgages on income producing Idaho farms and city property. Issued in sums of $50 to $10,000. For cash or monthly payments. Write for booklet.

be $3760. To this should be added the return from pelts. The 60 dead sheep would return say 30 pelts, as some are not skinned, and those that die after shearing are not worth skinning. On a basis of 50 cents the pelts would be worth $30 each, or $90. As the pelt value is due to the wool on it, this must be added to the receipts from wool, making the total income from this source $3350. Thus the gross income from a flock of 1000 sheep on a basis of 50-cent wool and 49 lambs would be $3760. Therefore, 44 per cent of the income is derived from wool and 56 per cent from mutton. The average income per sheep would be $3.76.

We agree that most sheepmen do not operate on this basis. As a rule, they purchase a flock of young ewes, run them as long as they will breed, and then dispose of all the old ewes and go out and buy another flock and start over. When they go out to buy they find they did not get within 70 per cent enough out of their old ewes to replace them with young ones. As a consequence, they often have to borrow 70 per cent of the money needed to make the purchase, while if operating on a basis of carrying over 20 per cent of their ewe lambs each year, they always have a flock of the same age as they started with, and in the long run are ahead.

PRICE SCALE OF BINDER TWINE BASED ON THE COST OF SIBAL

Following an investigation of the cost of manufacturing binder twine the United States food administration announces the maximum advances over cost of sibal which may be charged by the manufacturers. The scale is based upon the present price of 15 cents per pound for sibal fiber. Standard and sibal binder twine, containing 550 feet to the pound, should be sold in car load lots of 20,000 pounds or more at a maximum advance of 4 cents per pound above the cost of sibal.

Sales in 10,000-Pound Lots

Lots of 10,000 pounds or more, but less than 20,000 pounds, are to be sold at an advance of not more than 4 1/2 cents per pound above the present price. All smaller amounts are to carry an advance of not more than 4 1/2 cents per pound.

The lot that contains 550 feet to the pound should be sold at a maximum advance of 1 1/2 cents per pound above the price for standard twine; 600 feet to the pound, at an increase of 3 cents; 650 feet to the pound, at 4 1/2 cents per pound increase. Pure manila twine containing 550 feet to the pound should be sold at an advance of not more than 6 cents per pound above the price of standard twine. All of these prices are f. o. b. factory.

Consolidations in Filing Scales

In formulating this scale of prices the food administration has considered the increased weight of binder twine over its sibal content. It has made allowances for the fact that manufacturers now have on hand sibal which was purchased at lower prices than rule to day or twine that was manufactured from the lower-priced sibal.

CHAPTER XII.

Bombing.

The boys in the section welcomed me back, but there were many strange faces. Several of our men had gone West in that charge, and were lying "somewhere in France" with a little wooden cross at their heads. We were Throwing Hand Grenades.

In rest billets. The next day our captain asked for volunteers for bombing school. I gave my name and was accepted. I had joined the Suicide club, and my troubles commenced. Thirty-two men of the battalion, including myself, were sent to L—, where we went through a course in bombing.

Here we were instructed in the various methods of throwing and manufacture of various kinds of hand grenades, from the old "jam tin," now obsolete, to the present Mills bomb, the standard of the British army.

It all depends where you are as to what you are called. In France they call you a "bomber" and give you medals, while in neutral countries they call you an "anarchist" and give you "life."

From the very start the Germans were well equipped with effective bombs and trip mines. The English army was as little prepared in this important department of fighting as in many others. At bombing school an old sergeant of the Grenadier guards, whom I had the good fortune to meet, told me of the discouragements this branch of the service suffered before they could meet the Germans on an equal footing. A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Twin Falls people. Charles W. Secord, carpenter, 156 McKinley Ave., Twin Falls, says: "When I was living in Minneapolis, I was suffering with pains in my back and other kidney trouble. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they completely cured me. I always recommend Doan's because I know they are reliable." (Statement given June 2, 1910.)

AGAIN PRAISES.

On September 25, 1917, Mr. Secord said: "At one time I was so bad on my kidneys that I couldn't do a whole day's work. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and place I gave my last statement recommending them I have been free from all such trouble I have been as strong and healthy as any man."

THIRD LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE TO BE THOROUGH

LEADERS IN SCHOOL DISTRICTS OF COUNTY ARE PUT IN CHARGE

FINAL DETAILS OF CAMPAIGN TO BE WORKED OUT AT MEETING OF WORKERS WITH BANKERS AND COUNCIL OF DEFENSE

The most thorough canvass ever made of Twin Falls county for a patriotic fund will be that of the third Liberty Loan campaign beginning on Saturday, April 6, the anniversary of the United States' declaration of war against Germany.

Appoint District Captains Under direction of County Chairman C. D. Thomas of Twin Falls and J. W. Davis of Butte, leader for the west and district, with the co-operation of the county council of defense, captains of the drive in each school district are being appointed.

A meeting of these captains, together with the bankers of the county and the county council of defense at a luncheon at the Fernside hotel is to be held on Monday evening next, at which time detailed plans for the conduct of the campaign will be determined upon. It is the purpose of the bankers to agree upon terms whereby the bonds may be sold upon a uniform plan of deferred payments throughout the county.

Each district captain will be provided with census cards, showing the assessed valuation of the property of each individual in his district and the amount of bonds each individual is expected to purchase. During the drive these cards will be filled out to show prior contributions of each individual to war funds together with other information showing the measure of support in each instance to the carrying on of the war work.

Complication of the information on the census cards is authorized by the national and state council of defense. The cards are to remain a permanent record in the offices of the county council of defense or drive chairman.

Secretary McAdoo announced Monday that the third Liberty Loan will be for $5,000,000,000, bearing interest at 4 1/2 per cent. The apportionment for Twin Falls county has not yet been announced by the state chairman.

Bonds of the first loan, bearing 3 1/2 per cent interest, and of the second loan at 4 per cent, may be converted into the new bonds, but these of the third issue will not be convertible into any future issue.

The announcement of Secretary McAdoo was made with the comment that "the great events now happening in France must fire the soul of every American with a new determination to furnish all the dollars and all the material resources of America that are needed to put an end to the execrable atrocities of German militarism."

Some Appointments Delayed. Appointments of drive captains for Twin Falls city have not been announced as yet, while those of the west and district are to be made by Mr. Davis.

SCOUTS PLEDGE FEALTY TO BROTHERS ABROAD

Twin Falls Troop Sends Their Message Through T. M. O. A. Worker to English and French

Following is the message sent by the Twin Falls Boy Scouts through L. I. Brookbridge, to the Boy Scouts of England and France:

We wish to extend to you a word of greeting and to assure you of our sincere sympathy for you in your losses of the past three years and a half. As much as we regret the suffering occasioned by this war, we can not but be grateful for the lesson of unerring devotion to a high ideal that your people have given our people. We feel that our boys will be better Scouts, our soldiers better fighters, our citizens better patriots, because of the new high standard established by the French and English people.

We Scouts are rendering to our government every service in our power in doing so we are inspired not only by love of country but also by desire to serve. Fraternity and England there is a feeling stronger than the mere tie of military alliance, that binds us to you—a personal feeling that makes your problems our problems, your joys our joys, your sorrows our sorrows. In devotion to this common cause, we remain, Loyally yours, THE BOY SCOUTS OF TWIN FALLS, IDAHO.

Buy Idaho Farm—Shipman Brothers of Rock Rapids, Iowa, who are visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sheneberger, this week bought a ranch a few miles from town, the left farm, and will return in a few weeks to take possession of their property.

Comes to Twin Falls—Mrs. J. C. Wheelon arrived here Sunday from Garland, Utah, to join her husband, who is the general manager of the Twin Falls Canal company. Their two daughters will remain in Garland until the close of school.

Superintendent on Visiting Tour—Miss Britton Wolf, county superintendent of schools, last week visited schools in the Bliss and Rogerson districts, beginning at that time a tour of inspection of the schools that will occupy about five weeks' time.

Takes Over Work—After April 1 the collections of the Twin Falls Land & Water company will be taken care of by the Twin Falls Title & Abstract company. The books of the former concern will be turned over by R. R. Pitcairn at that time.

Move Variety Store—Dawson & Bell, proprietors of the Variety store, on Monday began moving their stock of goods from the building at the corner of Main avenue and Second street by the Bickler Cash store, which they recently purchased.

Will Leave Twin Falls—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Pitcairn will leave about April 7 for Moscow, Idaho, where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. John A. Koslalek for a month or so, going from there to southern California. Mrs. Pitcairn leaves shortly after the first of the month for Pasadena, California, where she will pay an indefinite visit to relatives. The family has resided in Twin Falls for the past eight years, Mr. Pitcairn having been in charge of the office of the Twin Falls Land & Water company.

BRING MEXICANS TO BETT FIELD Two hundred and fifty families from the interior of Mexico have arrived in Idaho Falls from El Paso, Texas, to take up work in the sugar beet fields in that territory. They were brought in by the Utah-Idaho Sugar company, by special arrangement with the government.

SCOUTS WANT RAKES FOR JUNIOR RED CROSS FUND Members of the Twin Falls troop of Boy Scouts will scour the city on Saturday next for discarded grain and potato sacks which they will convert into cash for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross fund. Persons having sacks in their possession without intention of making use of them are asked by the Scouts to place them at their disposal. The high price commanded by sacks at the present time is likely to result in the securing of a considerable amount for the Junior auxiliary through the Scouts' work, and at the same time conservation of the available supply of sacks will be secured.

VETERAN BUILDER IS HOST ON BIRTHDAY

M. H. PAPE ENTERTAINS FRIENDS ON HIS SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

M. H. Pape, pioneer carpenter and builder of Twin Falls, celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary with a dinner and social gathering for about 60 friends and neighbors in the Odd Fellows hall Monday evening. Following a social hour, the guests were seated at the banquet board, and under direction of T. K. Hieckman as toastmaster, responses were made by E. V. Larson, James A. Bybee, M. N. Emerson, E. L. Ashton and C. E. Towdiffe, the latter reading "You, Pape and Me." At the conclusion of the evening, Mr. Pape also gave several readings, made of them being of his own composition. Mr. Pape was the recipient of the "Hill-Grass" cake for his well-earned fame, which was well appreciated by all of the company assembled. He has been a resident of Twin Falls since 1904, and is one of its most widely known and respected citizens.

GET CLOCKS AHEAD ONE HOUR IN ORDER

Terms of the daylight saving law passed by Congress require that every clock owner throughout the nation shall set at 2 o'clock next Monday morning and set the hands of his timepiece one hour ahead, to 3 o'clock. No penalty, however, is attached to adjusting the clock to conform to the new requirements on Sunday evening. The director general of the railroads has notified railway roads to conform to the new time, so that trains next Sunday technically will be one hour late. Read the Classified Ads.
