

AMIENS AIM OF NEW HUN OFFENSIVE

HINDENBURG RESUMES WEST FRONT ACTION IN SECTOR BETWEEN THE SOMME AND THE AVRE—LINE OF TEN MILES IN TERRIFIC FIGHTING

(By United Press.)

FOLLOWING AN intensive artillery bombardment, covering practically the entire British front from south of Ypres to the Somme, Hindenburg today apparently has resumed his west front offensive with a drive against Amiens.

Haig, in his official report today, said that "strong infantry attacks are progressing in the Albert sector between the Somme and the Avre."

The Somme and the Avre are slightly less than ten miles apart, where the battle front across the Somme flows directly westward through Amiens, while the Avre, flowing northward, converges with the larger river less than two miles east of that city.

Resumption Foreseen

Between these two rivers, the Germans in their last drive progressed to within less than five miles of Amiens. A resumption of the drive against this important strategic point has been forecast by allied military officials.

At the same time Hindenburg is thrusting westward from Albert, which is about six miles north of the Somme. A heavy attack in this same sector last night was broken up by rifle and machine gun fire, Haig reported.

Heavy Rainy Weather

On the Flanders front, the British commander said there was "heavy fog and rain" between the Somme and the Avre. A front of more than eight miles along the southwestern edge of the deep German salient. Heavy concentrations of infantry near Amiens, in the center of the Flanders wedge, were broken up by British artillery.

The French war office communiqué, evidently issued before Haig's report, described a "terrible German bombardment between the Somme and the Avre." The infantry fighting around Albert was already in progress when the French statement was issued, as Paris mentioned this.

COURT GIVES HEED TO OLD MAN'S PLEA

Probate Judge Duval Permits John Warren, Alleged Vag, to Work As He Desires

When John Warren, aged 60, appeared before Probate Judge O. P. Duval Tuesday morning charged with vagrancy, the court took him at his word and dismissed the action on condition that he should go to work as he had said it was his purpose to do when arrested Monday at Hansen. Warren said that he had been in Hansen less than two hours when he was placed in the street. He said that he had come to Hansen from Postville, where he had been sick for a month, and that he expected to find work there heading sheep. Prior to going to Postville, Warren said he had been employed on a bridge gang in Utah.

Warren's alleged theft of a bottle of milk in Hansen resulted in complaint being made to the sheriff's office, where the complaint against him was preferred by Deputy Sheriff George F. Huffman. Warren offered no apology for commencing the milk, stating simply that he was weak and hungry and had no money with which to buy food.

HONOR FLAG FOR COUNTY APPROVED

FEDERAL RESERVE DISTRICT LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE EXPRESSES CONGRATULATIONS

The Liberty Loan general executive board for the twelfth federal reserve district, San Francisco, on Saturday last approved the awarding to Twin Falls county of the official honor flag of the third Liberty Loan, awarded to districts subscribing the full amount of their appropriations, according to word received Tuesday by County Chairman D. Thomas from James E. Lynch, chairman of the district board.

Twin Falls county's quota was $550,000. Its subscriptions up to Wednesday morning were $600,000. Chairman Thomas announced. Several districts of the county including Twin Falls, Blaine, Tiler, Rogers, Hollister, Elgar, Bickel, Glover and others have gone "over the top."

Announcing the approval of the award of the honor flag to Twin Falls county, Chairman Lynch says, "The committee wishes to congratulate you and all who assisted you, on the magnificent spirit of patriotism and unselfishness which has characterized your efforts in the Third Liberty Loan campaign. The committee hopes that the splendid spirit which has enabled your community to win this honor flag will be continued throughout the remaining days of the campaign and that, before its close, you may secure one or more blue stars to be sewed upon the white field of the flag, each star signifying that your quota has been increased by 100 per cent."

ALBION DISTRICT IS SWEPT OF ITS MEN

Army Recruiting Sergeant Reports No Field for His Activities—Only Two Prospects

The Albion district, so far as revealed by investigation of Sergeant Leonard Brimley in charge of the United States army recruiting station at Twin Falls, has sent practically all of its men of military age, outside of those registered under the draft, into the service. Sergeant Brimley returned Sunday after spending the week on a recruiting trip to Albion. "All the time I was in Albion, I saw only two men whom I could have accepted for enlistment in the army," he said. "Both were employed on farms, and felt that they were most service there. The Albion district is represented in the service by practically all of its men of military age."

CONSTANT IS APPOINTED

POSTMASTER AT FULL
Avery Constant, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Constant, and the junior member of the firm of F. P. Constant & Son, was appointed postmaster of the Buhl office by President Wilson Wednesday, says the Buhl Herald.

Notice of the appointment came as a complete surprise to Mr. Constant, who is now in Salt Lake City attending business college, where he has been during the past several months completing a business course he has been taking by correspondence. He was notified of the appointment by telegram Thursday afternoon by friends in this city, and it is expected he will be home Saturday.

Mr. Constant, with six others took the competitive examination in Twin Falls last November, though the grading of the papers was delayed until recently on account of the heavy work.

WANT NO DELAY IN ENTERING SERVICE

Four recruits for the United States army, transferred through the local recruiting station, left Wednesday for Fort Douglas, Utah. Incident over delay incident to the requirement that their applications for enlistment in the tank service must be approved by the director of tank service at Washington, D. C., Edward R. Harris and Samuel D. Brownell, both of Twin Falls, have withdrawn their applications and have enlisted in the engineering corps. Harris is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, having received an honorable discharge when the fifty-first Iowa regiment of which he was a member was mustered out in 1899. Brownell has been employed as a shipping clerk here by Oakley & Company.

With Harris and Brownell, Claude F. Wiley, auto mechanic of Kimberly, left Wednesday night to join the engineering corps, and Charles N. Gossett of Twin Falls goes to enter the army medical department.

IS READY TO QUIT STUDIES TO ENLIST

Erroll Hillman, Albion Normal School Student, Anxious to Join the Marines

Gaining the impression that recruits for the marine corps could not be accepted after a certain date in the immediate future, Erroll Hillman, 18 year old student at the Albion state normal school, confided to Dean C. E. Boodch that he had not expected to enlist until after the end of the school term, but that if necessary he would quit his studies and enlist at once. In compliance with Hillman's wish, the dean has written to Sergeant W. B. McCracken in charge of the marine corps recruiting station at Twin Falls, asking for the facts and explaining Hillman's predicament.

Hillman, he says, is as good a young fellow as could be desired in the service—well built, athletic and level headed. "The marine corps is the pick of the service, and that is one reason why I am anxious to get him in there," Dean Boodch says.

One of Hillman's brothers is a first lieutenant at Camp Fremont, California, and another is a member of the army medical corps stationed in Louisiana.

Sergeant McCracken says that he has no reason to believe the marine corps will be closed to applicants for enlistment in the immediate future.

FOREGO LODGE SESSION TO INVEST IN BONDS

EARLY RESUME KNIGHTS PYTHIAS' VOICE INDICATES FAVORABLE ATTITUDE

As a result of a suggestion made in the local lodge by W. A. Minnick, past chancellor and representative to the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias lodges throughout the state are balloting on the proposition of dispensing with the session of the grand lodge this year and devoting the money, aggregating about $1000, that would be expended in per diem and mileage expenses of delegates, to the purchase of Liberty Loan bonds. The grand lodge at its session last year, voted to meet this year in Twin Falls on June 18.

A district convention of the order which was to have convened on Saturday next at Halley, has been called off in permanent of the suggestion that Liberty Bonds should be purchased. Out of 48 lodges in the state, 14 have replied in regard to the proposition, nine of them favoring abandonment of plans for the grand lodge session, and five declaring for the session.

LOSS OF HUSBAND UNBALANCES MIND

YOUNG WIDOW WANDERING UNDER DELUSION ABOUTS NEIGHBORHOOD BY ORBS

The pining shrieks of a young woman, apparently suffering from temporary mental derangement as a result of the death of her husband, aroused neighbors in the vicinity of the residence of J. H. Houghtaling, 414 Seventh avenue east, where she made her appearance shortly after midnight this morning. The name of the woman is withheld by the officers who were summoned to take care of her. She is said to have left the city, returning to her former home this morning.

According to the statements of officers, the woman appeared on the porch of the Houghtaling home and stood there for several minutes before her presence was observed. When the lights were switched on, she uttered piercing shrieks, and a crowd quickly collected. She called for her mother and her husband, laboring under the delusion, evidently, that he was within the house. She later told officers that Frank Ham, who took her in charge, that her husband had died two weeks ago. She was dressed in deep mourning. She was apparently about 30 years of age.

ALBION SENDS TWO INTO MARINE CORPS

Student and Bank Clerk Pass Examinations to Be With Brothers in Service

Harlow H. Campbell, bank clerk of Albion, and Errol H. Hillman, student at the Albion state normal school, here Friday passed the physical examinations for enlistment in the marine corps, and will leave in the next few days for Salt Lake where they will receive assignments to training stations.

Campbell is one of three brothers, two of whom, Sergeant Orris Campbell and Floyd Campbell, enlisted in the marine corps in July, 1917, being transferred through the local recruiting station. Sergeant Campbell has been designated to attend the marine corps officers' training camp. Both brothers who are already in the service are opening furniture at home, and their opinion of the service gained through experience, has been instrumental in securing the enlistment of the third brother.

Hillman is 18 years of age. He also has two brothers in the military service, one being a Marine stationed at Camp Fremont, California, and the other a member of the medical department of the army at a posternment in Louisiana.

INVENTOR CLAIMS HE WAS DEFRAUDED

J. W. NANCE BRINGS ACTION TO RECOVER RESTITUTION OF HIS PATENT RIGHTS

Claiming that the Franklin Gas Turbine company of Detroit has failed to fulfill its contract with him in regard to the compensation he was to receive for patents on devices of his invention which the plaintiff is manufacturing, J. W. Nance has filed suit in district court here to secure redress of the contract and reinstatement of the ownership of patents on the three devices—a rotary steam valve, an automobile tow bar and a gasket screen.

Twin Falls Capital Invested
Many of the stockholders of the defendant corporation are residents of Twin Falls. The inventor was engaged for several years here in the automobile business, and the corporation was organized here for the purpose of exploiting his inventions. A large measure of success is said to have been achieved in the enterprise by the corporation.

Says Concern Involunt

In his complaint, Nance avers that he was to receive a certain number of shares of the stock of the corporation and that he was to be employed by it in connection with the manufacture of the patent articles at a salary of $150 per month. He states that no payment of any nature has been made to him; that he has been discharged from the employment of the corporation and that it is now insolvent and about to dispose of its assets including the patents.

BICKEL DISTRICT GOES OVER THE TOP

Trustees Invest $1000 of Surplus School Funds Fulfilling Liberty Loan Quota

Purchase by the board of trustees of the Bickel school district of a $1000 Liberty Loan Bond from the surplus school funds, put the Bickel district over the top in the third Liberty Loan campaign "Monday." The quota for the district is $2500. O. D. Bills is the district Loan drive chairman.

The Bickel district, which is situated between Hansen and Murdock, is one of the smallest in the county. It includes practically 80 per cent unimproved lands, part of which have been filed upon by homestead entrymen. The quota, as in the case of other districts, is based on the assessed valuation of its property, of which about 65 per cent is the valuation placed on the railroad property within its boundaries. It receives no credit for the subscriptions of the railway company.

OAKLEY BOY WINS HONOR IN SERVICE

Sergeant Orris Campbell Designated to Attend Marine Corps Officers' Training Camp

In recognition of his adaptability and hard work in the service, Sergeant Orris Campbell, who, with his brother, Floyd Campbell, both of Oakley, was transferred through the local marine corps recruiting station July 28, 1917, has been designated to attend the marine corps officers' training camp, an honor much sought after in the service. Since their enlistment the Campbell brothers have been stationed at Mare Island navy yard. They are spending their leisure time here and at their home in Oakley.

Convinced of the attractiveness of the marine corps service, they expect to be accompanied on their return to their posts of duty by a third brother, whose purpose to enlist they had discouraged prior to their own experience in the service.

SCHOOLS AT JEROME ARE CLOSED FOR THE TERM

On Sunday the board of education of Jerome school district decided that it was impracticable to attempt any further school work in the district this year and ordered the schools closed for the term, says the North Star News. The decision was based to reopen school again last Monday, but after going over the situation this plan was abandoned.

While there has been no increase in the number of scarlet fever cases, and the threat of this pest is no more than it has been, it appeared that many of the children would not be allowed to attend school by their parents anyway on account of the contagion, and the school term was so close at hand that little could be accomplished in the remaining time if school was reopened.

There will be no examinations and there may be no commencement exercises for the high school graduating class. This was the decision being employed figuring out the grades of the pupils from their monthly report cards and the pupils will be passed on these and final examinations will not be held.

TO CELEBRATE ATTAINMENT OF COUNTY'S GOAL

PARADE, BAND CONCERT AND SPEAKING FEATURES OF LIBERTY DAY OBSERVANCE

Liberty Day next Friday, designated by the proclamation of President Wilson as an occasion throughout the nation for increased efforts in securing subscriptions to Liberty Loan bonds of the third issue, will be observed in Twin Falls with a celebration of the county's attainment of its goal in the over-subscription of the appointment of $550,000 worth of bonds.

Flag to be Hoisted

There will be a parade of all of the pupils of Twin Falls school at 11 a. m., a concert by the Twin Falls band, and a speaking in the evening. The honor flag to which the county is entitled by reason of the attainment of the bond appointment is received at that time, it will be hoisted. Arrangements for the celebration are being perfected, and an appeal of the county council of defense, which made preliminary plans for the observance at its meeting here Tuesday evening.

Duty is Fulfilled

"Twin Falls county's bond appointment has been over-subscribed by $50,000," Chairman Thomas of the county Liberty Loan committee said this morning. "It is the opinion of the committee that Twin Falls county is subscribing already more than was asked for, has completed its duty in the present Liberty Loan drive, and thus a celebration of its attainment is a proper observance of the Liberty Day occasion here."

Pupils Parade a Feature

The parade of the school children will be headed by the high school band, followed by the pupils of the primary grades, the pupils, in separate groups, carrying a number of effective patriotic devices, and banners to be carried by the pupils are being arranged for. Following the parade the pupils will be dismissed to their homes, where the Liberty Loan wagons will be ready to take people to their homes who wish to leave at that time.

Exercise at Main Street Corner

The band concert and speaking will be given from a platform to be provided at the intersection of Main street and Shoshone street, where Liberty Day exercises, marking the initial event of the Liberty Loan campaign in this county, were held April 6. The concert will begin at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The speakers will be volunteers from among the four-minute men and others. No Solicitation for Bonds

There will be no solicitation for subscriptions to Liberty Loan bonds on Liberty Day in Twin Falls, Chairman Thomas announces.

LIBERTY LOAN HONOR FLAG

PROOF POSITIVE OF OVER-SUBSCRIPTION OF $550,000 QUOTA IS REPORT OF BANKS OF AMOUNT OF BONDS THEY ARE TO DELIVER

Positive proof of the fact that Twin Falls county's apportionment of $550,000 worth of Liberty Loan bonds of the third issue is oversubscribed was furnished Saturday evening when the banks of the county reported to Chairman O. D. Thomas that the aggregate of the amount of bonds to be delivered by them was $551,800, and there remained at that time at county headquarters subscriptions for $11,600 worth of bonds yet to be apportioned among the banks of which the subscribers were patrons.

Apportionment Among Banks
Following are the amounts of bonds to be delivered through each bank: Twin Falls, $288,100; Buhl, $105,000; Filer, $40,000; Kimberly, $40,000; Hagerman, $18,100; Murrain, $3,000; Murrain, $3,000.

Others Get Credits
On Friday Chairman Thomas announced that the record of sales in the county indicated that the quota had been oversubscribed. At that time the county commission had just before adjourned a ruling of the treasury department providing that credit would be given to each county or district only for the amount of the bonds actually delivered through the banks of such county or district. Chairman Thomas announced that subscriptions received in this county for more than $40,000 worth of bonds would be credited to other districts under that ruling.

Women Play Important Part
The Liberty Bond campaign had been carried on just two weeks when the Twin Falls county committee was able to announce the county's quota oversubscribed. More than 500 men have been engaged in the campaign, and in Twin Falls, Hagerman, Hollister and Kimberly, women's groups stationed at the banks, secured subscriptions aggregating about $40,000.

The campaign in the sector at the west end of the county, which includes the Buhl independent school district and all other school districts, was conducted under direction of J. W. Paris of Buhl. The quota for the districts in this sector, determined by apportionment based on the assessed valuation of property, was $116,000. On Thursday of last week, Mr. Paris reported subscriptions to bonds in the sum of $145,000. Districts in this sector which had oversubscribed their quotas at that time were Buhl, Clover and District Number 59.

Others Reach Quotas
Other districts in the county which went "over the top" last week were Twin Falls, Filer, Murrain, Hagerman, Hollister, Bickel and Eggardt.

CITY GETS FIGURES ON INSURANCE BILL

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION TO COST MUNICIPALITY $1845.68 A YEAR

It will cost the city of Twin Falls $1845.68 to insure its employees under the terms of the Idaho state workmen's compensation law, according to figures furnished City Clerk W. A. Minkler by State Insurance Commissioner C. O. Broxon. The law, which became effective the first of this year, provides that municipalities and some other corporations must take insurance from the state insurance fund. Some question arose between the city officials and the insurance commissioner relative to this feature of the law, and the city, in consequence, has deferred payment of its premium until now when the payments for the first two quarters of the year are due and payable.

Firmen's Rate Highest
The highest rate of insurance is assessed in the case of the members of the fire department, of whom there are 10. The rate in their case is $5.10 for each $100 worth of insurance carried. The rate for policemen is $5.00 per $100, while the lowest rate is for clerical assistants in the city clerk's office, whose rate is seven cents per $100.

Employees to Be Protected
The city's liability insurance bill is estimated on the basis of 32 employees classified as follows: Firemen, 10; waterworks superintendent, street commissioner and employees in these departments, 9; policemen and police judge, 9; clerical assistants in the clerk's office, 4; sewer department, 1; city engineer and weighmaster.

These are Bernice, aged 15; Arthur, Florence, Raymond, Robert, and Harold, aged 4 years.

John Fink has been a resident of Twin Falls for about eight years, during which time he has been steadily engaged in business. LET'S CONTRACT FOR IMPROVEMENT OF WATERWORKS

COUNCIL FINISHES LONG SESSION AND MAKES ARRANGEMENTS ON ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS

At about 11 o'clock last night the city council came to the end of its session begun at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon and awarded contracts for furnishing material and labor and constructing improvements to the municipal waterworks outlined in plans of Burns & McDonnell, engineers of Kansas City, and provided for with a municipal bonds issue in the sum of $375,000 carried last January and subsequently sold to Sidney Spitzer & Company of Toledo, at par plus a premium of $5,795, the interest rate being six per cent.

"The contracts that have been let for the waterworks improvement are very favorable to the city," was the opinion of city officials. Mayor F. P. Bracken said this morning. "The aggregate of the bids accepted is well within the limit of the fund available for the purpose. Under the terms of the contracts entered into, work will begin without delay and will be completed within from six to eight months."

General Construction Contract. The general construction contract for furnishing labor, equipment and material for the construction of concrete settling basins, filter basins, clear water reservoirs and brick filter house for a 6,000,000 gallon per day mechanical water filter plant was awarded to the Houser & Packard company, Salt Lake, whose bid as figured for purpose of comparison was $78,200. There were five bidders in this section.

Harkins Gets Pipe Laying. Contract for trenching and hauling and laying cast iron pipe and wood pipe mains for supply line and distribution system was let to William Harkins of Twin Falls, the estimated total of whose bid, $42,030.15, was nearly $5,000 lower than that of the next lowest bidder.

Install Larger Plant. The council decided to install at once all of the units of a 6,000,000 gallons daily capacity mechanical water filtration plant and awarded the contract to the Pittsburgh Filter company, Pittsburgh, whose bid as figured for purpose of comparison was $47,700, and only $21 lower than that of the California Jewel Filter company, the only other bidder. The bidders were asked to submit alternative proposals on plants of 4,000,000 and 6,000,000 gallons capacity.

Miscellaneous Awards. Contract for the furnishing of iron pipe was awarded to the American Cast Iron pipe company, Troy, New York, for $11,074.95.

Bids Thoroughly. Thursday afternoon, the council received 32 bids on the several plans of the work to be done, which was divided for the purpose of awarding contracts into seven sections. Until late Thursday night the council, with Clinton S. Burns, senior member of the supervising engineers, were compiling figures from the submitted proposals to arrive at a basis of comparison. All Friday afternoon and evening the council and city officials heard the statements of participating bidders for contracts for furnishing materials and advantages of their bids.

Profit Out to Minimum. An indication of the terms of advantage to the city on which the contracts were let is the statement of the successful bidder to furnish cast iron pipe. "If our bid had been accepted," he said, "we would have made a profit of 50 cents a ton or about $400 on a $6000 order."

VETERANS APPLY TO SERVE WITH TANKS

ARMY RECRUITING STATION APPLIES FOR APPROVAL OF ENLISTMENT OF TANK MEN

The applications of three Twin Falls men, two of them being veterans of the Spanish-American war, for enlistment in the tank section in France have been forwarded by the local United States army recruiting station to Washington to receive the approval of the director of the tank service before applicants can be accepted. All of the three applicants are above the draft age.

Edward R. Harris, one of the applicants, was discharged as a sergeant from the Fifty-first Iowa regiment of infantry on November 3, 1909. He, as well as Frank Lindy, 2074 Main avenue east, another of the applicants, is a carpenter. Lindy was discharged September 8, 1909, when the First Colorado regiment of infantry, of which he was a member, was mustered out of the service. The third applicant for tank service is Sumner Brownell, 147 Seventh avenue east. He is employed as a shipping clerk here by Onkes & Co.

Conductor Wants to Go. Joe R. Smith of Filer, a railway conductor, has applied through the local army recruiting station, for enlistment in the regiment composed of railroad men units of which have been in active service since after the declaration of war and took part in the first engagements in which Americans were involved.

TOBACCO MAKES BETTER TOASTED

Since the day of the caveman, who liked his meat raw, civilization has learned a lesson in the tobacco trade.

Naturally none of us would now prefer to have our meat raw, our potatoes as they come from the ground, our coffee unroasted.

And naturally follows the great discovery recently made by The American Tobacco Co.—that tobaccos taste better TOASTED.

This is a wonderful new idea—simple like all great inventions—was first used in producing the famous LUCKY STRIKE Cigarette—made of toasted Burley tobacco.

Burley has a mellow flavor, entirely different from the tobacco usually used for cigarettes. It is a pipe tobacco and LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes taste like a pipe.

SEES PROSPECT FOR TOO MANY SPUDS

BOYLE COMMISSION MANAGER AND COUNTY AGENT AT VAMPIRE IN VIEWS ON SUBTOP

Warning against the possibility of a duplication this year in the Twin Falls district of last season's overproduction of potatoes is sounded by R. H. Boyle, manager of the Boyle Commission company's office in Twin Falls.

Growers Allege Plans.

As a result of conclusions formed by growers based upon the farm survey showing that 20 per cent of last year's acreage is likely to be planted to potatoes again this year and the further fact that many growers have their cellars filled with potatoes that will serve as seed but are practically valueless on the market, Mr. Boyle says that the prospect for extensive plantings of potatoes in the Twin Falls district have been given a decided impetus during the past four weeks. His investigation leads him to the conclusion that between 80 and 90 per cent of last year's potato acreage will be replanted to that crop this year, and that the potato acreage in this district will be above normal.

Disappointment in Prospect.

Such a situation, if it develops, he points out, is bound to result in disappointment to the growers. Some potato growers, he says, are not in position to take a chance on the potato market, and even if there should be a shortage of the potato crop this year, he asserts, the grower is not assured of receiving a high price for his potatoes for the reason that the crop may be controlled by the food administration.

The only crops for which the grower is assured of returns are wheat, oats, beans and peas, Mr. Boyle says, advising growers to undertake rather to produce one or more of these crops than to gamble with potatoes.

Considers Estimate High.

County Agent Donald McLean, under whose supervision the farm survey in this county was made, is of the opinion that Mr. Boyle's estimate of the probable potato acreage in this county is too high. The survey showed that last year's potato fields covered an aggregate acreage of approximately 6,000 acres, and the indicated plantings of potatoes for this year were about 1200 acres, or about 20 per cent of last year's acreage. Since the completion of the survey, Mr. McLean says. It is probable that the plans of growers of this district provide for larger plantings of potatoes than is indicated in the survey, but, he is of the opinion, there is little possibility of a recurrence of last year's overproduction of this crop.

SOME GOOD ADVICE.

"Don't think too much of your own methods. Watch other people's ways and learn from them." This is good advice, especially when billows or constipated. You will find many people who use Chamberlain's Tablets for these ailments with the best results, and will do well to follow their example.—Adv.

ROAD OFFICIAL IS ASKED TO RESIGN

W. W. Allen, Chairman of Heyburn-Paul District, Is Cited by Council

At the instigation of a number of the citizens of Heyburn, W. W. Allen, chairman of the Heyburn-Paul Highway district, and well-to-do rancher, was given a hearing before the Minidoka County Council of Defense in this city Wednesday evening, says the Minidoka County Patriot. It was alleged that after refusal to buy bonds when approached by the Liberty Bond committee and asserted that the war was making too many millionaires to suit him, as well as uttering other diabolical and caustic remarks. Allen admitted before the council of defense that he had not subscribed for bonds at the first or second Liberty Bond sale, but stated that he had contributed to the Red Cross and Armenian fund, maintaining that he was loyal to his country and that his remarks were misunderstood. It was brought out at the hearing that Allen did consent to buy a bond after the committee had approached him, but not until he was informed by citizens that his resignation as a member of the highway was to be requested. Allen refused to resign his position when asked to do so by the Council of Defense after his hearing, and the matter is to be taken up directly with Governor Alexander asking for Allen's removal.

LOSS OF HER CHILD REASON FOR SUICIDE

Friends Say Mrs. Olive Timmons' Grief Over Husband's Abduction of Baby Caused Rush Act

Grief over the kidnapping by her husband of her four or five year old child is the reason given by acquaintances of Mrs. Olive Timmons for her suicide on Monday morning at the E. E. Slocum ranch two miles south and one mile west of Jerome. Mrs. Timmons' body was discovered early Monday morning in the creek wagon at the ranch. A .38 caliber revolver was beside her and a bullet wound through the heart gave evidence of the cause of her death.

Because of domestic troubles Mr. and Mrs. Walter Timmons had not been living together for the past five or six months, according to the statement of acquaintances. Mrs. Timmons was employed as cook on the Slocum stock ranch and had her child with her. About a month ago, on the child's birthday, Timmons went to the Slocum ranch and asked Mrs. Timmons' permission to take the child to town to outfit it with new clothing. He never returned with the child and officers were unable to locate either Timmons or the child.

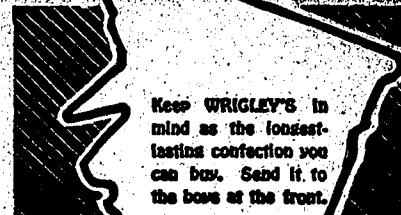

During the greater part of last year Mrs. Timmons had charge of the toll house at Blue Lake.

BONDS WILL RELEASE THEM

Where is the man or woman in the great state of Idaho who can turn a deaf ear or a closed purse to the German-made slaves by the Germans asks the State Council of Defense in one of the most earnest pleas for Liberty Bonds, subscriptions that has as yet made its appearance. No stain on a nation's history will be deeper than that of the Tenth's in the deportation of non-combatants. It is against this character of injustice that the mighty power of the United States has been raised. It is to fight such wrongs that the country is appealing for financial support. The crimes of Germany are many. The atrocious deeds of the Hun are so foul that Justice cries out for an accounting. The official bulletin will in future issues briefly set forth those bearing on and showing why we are at war today. But it is the Idahoan who hesitates in investing his savings in Liberty Bonds it seeks to reach now. None of them can fail to heed the appeal in this brief excerpt taken from the official government document entitled "German War Practices," with particular relation to the enslavement of the Belgians:

"They walked out, 6200 men at Mons with the soldiers on each side, with bayonets fixed, with the women held back. The degradation of it! The degradation of it as they walked into this great market square, where the pens were erected exactly as if they were cattle—all the great men of that province—the lawyers, the statesmen, the heads of trades, the men that had made the capital of Belgium glorious during the last 20 years. There they were collected. . . . You saw on the one side the one brother taken, the other brother left. A hasty embrace and they were separated and gone. You had here a man on his knees before a German officer, begging and pleading to take his old father's place. The father went and the son stayed. . . . You saw the women in hundreds . . . beseeching to approach the train. . . . No one was allowed to approach. . . . Off they went."

Can an Idahoan picture that scene—one of reality in Belgium, when the "slaves" were driven to German markets—and not buy Liberty Bonds to free them? Minister Whitlock officially reported to this government "one hundred thousand were deported and of these less than two thousand have returned." The sons of Idaho will reply to that outrage on the battlefield of France. Will those at home make their answer in Liberty Bonds?

A SOBERLY NEEDED LAW

How truly and surely the trend of thought in America is turning against the pacifist, the Hun sympathizer and the Nervousness. Notwithstanding and But style of conversation.

Within a few days Congress may be depended on for action which will result in placing on the statute books a law under which a large and dangerous element of persons may be handled for the first time. For many months now there has been crying need of such a law. A mere glance at the recent record of far and feather parties, temporary broods and various other actions in connection with disloyalty and similar charges is of itself enough to establish the necessity for such a law.

And it does not take a wise man to predict that the effect of such a law will be of unmitigated good. It should be remembered always that the man or woman who is not for us is against us. There has never been, nor can there be, any middle ground.

OF THEIR OWNITY

The House of Representatives the other day declined to accept the report of the Postmaster General because it incorporated a statement by Cress, the chairman of the committee on public information, to the effect that a certain charge made by a member of the house was without foundation. The statement to which Cress took exception was that tons and tons of the committed, literature had been sent across the water to the boys in France to the detriment of necessary shipping.

No lesser a light than ex-President Roosevelt met a similar file in the hands of the dignity of the House, so Cress has no reason to feel particularly aggrieved.

The public, of course, wants to see the House get all the dignity that is coming to it, but at the same time it is a whole lot more interested in knowing whether Cress or the Congressmen were right.

The outsider fails to appreciate the fine points involved. Somebody in Congress is certainly mistaken once in awhile, if only what members occasionally say about each other is to be taken at all seriously. But it seems that it is a different matter entirely for an outsider to publicly suggest that somebody on the inside doesn't know what he is talking about.

ONE STONE—TWO WEDS

Another bone of contention was kicked into the discard last week when the city fathers let the contracts for the new waterworks system.

Whatever differences of opinion there have been in the past are of no consequence now. No more discussion will there be as to which was the best source of supply, or as to what particular plan of bringing the water to the city was the most feasible.

It's a matter of congratulation all around, not only that the city is shortly to enjoy a water supply beyond a taint of suspicion, but also that the city is forever rid of a question that has periodically kicked up more of a row than all of our other troubles put together.

MAKING A START

The report of Chairman Hurley of the Shipping Commission to the effect that several wooden boats will be ready for launching May first and that others will follow at not too long delayed intervals is indeed welcome news.

There can be no question but what shipping is the primary need of this country and the Allies. Shipping and airplanes and it is difficult to figure which is the most important. Once a start is definitely made it is predicted that production will not cease for a single moment. And a few months' production will go far towards overcoming the unfortunate effect of the long delay in starting—a delay which, to a very large extent, resulted from causes which could not possibly have been foreseen.

WANTED—LAW

If, as has been stated, there is no occasion for a law such as that provided in the Chamberlain bill because other measures will satisfactorily take its place, all well and good. With the Chamberlain bill a dead letter, unless these other measures do take its place, the country will simply witness a return to the conditions, which obtained when every man was a law unto himself.

Alien and citizen plotters and enemy sympathizers must be dealt with and unless legal machinery is provided for the purpose other means will be employed. Which is as regrettable as it is vicious.

WAR GARDENS

Let none neglect his war garden this year. The importance of food saving, even small quantities of food, is greater this year than last. Maybe the individual saving is not large, the aggregate is tremendous, and the service to the nation very real.

AN OPPORTUNITY

There are two or three points in the roads of this county which just naturally ought to be fixed if work has to be suspended anywhere else during the operation. One of these is the approach to Shoshone Falls, another is the Shoshone Falls grade while a third is that portion of the Filer road where it crosses the canon just beyond the county hospital.

If the men in charge of the roads of Twin Falls county really desire to bring about a condition whereby every farmer and everybody else using the roads will rise up en masse and call 'em blessed, here is the opportunity.

Moreover, is there really any other thing in these parts of as much importance to as many people as the roads?

THE WORK AT HOME

There is no security under the present European war situation. There is a lull in the fighting and the Allied troops are for the moment on the aggressive, but there will be further German offensives, with bloody fighting and enormous losses of life. The war is still raging.

War measures at home should be accorded the same measure of support as is given the boys on the firing line. No matter what the situation abroad, let there be no let-up in the work of the home forces.

THE LAST LAUGH

It is to be hoped that the contractor who is building the new federal building has treated with the utmost consideration those old weather beaten boards that for so many years constituted a source of hope in the announcement they bore to the effect that they graced the site of the future Twin Falls postoffice.

Whether it was eight, ten or twelve years that this promise stood its ground against those of little faith is not especially material. They were faithful old sists just the same, and survived their task. The old-timers will wish them well.

MUCH WORK YET

Notwithstanding the splendid start made there is still a long hard row ahead of the third Liberty Bond campaign. While a number of towns, cities and counties have already "gone over the top," the country by districts has not yet made more than a reasonably good start.

There is no question as to the outcome, no doubt in anyone's mind as to the eventual result of the campaign, but in a broad sense there is little to crow about as yet and it may be several weeks before the totals amount to the aggregate asked.

Work and not talk is what is needed.

To yield them way, "God hardened Pharaoh's heart," And filled it with dire pride—as He does thine,

That vaster be the punishment condign! For thou shalt be engulfed—or soon or late— Thyself, thy house, thy ministers of state,

And men of aftertimes, of these and thee Shall say, "God's hand in history we see!"

NEED SOLDIER'S HELP AT HOME ON FARM

Local Board Receives First Application for Furlough Under the New Rating

The assistance of Sherman L. Snyder, member of the army medical corps on duty at Fort Douglas, Utah, base hospital, is required this spring in the work on the farm owned by his mother, Mrs. L. L. Snyder, four miles south of Twin Falls, according to the affidavit of his brother, George Snyder, whose application for soldier's furlough Thursday was the first instrument of its kind filed through the office of the local draft board. Furlough is asked between the dates of April 25 and May 15 next.

"The application is made under the provisions of a recent war department order permitting soldiers in this country to be furloughed for a time if their services are required in farm work at home."

CONSTIPATION AND INDIGESTION

These are twin evils. Persons suffering from indigestion are often troubled with constipation. Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill., writes that when she first moved to Mattoon she was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation. Food distressed her and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on her stomach and chest. She did not rest well at night, and felt worn out a good part of the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets corrected this trouble so that she has since felt like a different person.—Adv.

UPHOLDS POWER TO COMPEL VACCINATION

Attorney General Gives Opinion Upon Request of Patrons and Board of Buhl Schools

While the statutes of Idaho do not contain a provision permitting school boards to make and enforce an order requiring that all of the pupils of the schools be vaccinated for smallpox, attorneys general decisions have been rendered in favor of such action in cases of contagious diseases, according to an opinion rendered by Attorney General T. A. Walters, this week, says the Buhl Herald.

The Buhl school board passed a resolution at their regular April meeting requiring that all pupils of the Buhl schools be vaccinated for smallpox, due to the rapid spread of the disease in that neighborhood. However, they rescinded their action at a meeting last Monday night.

A number of complaints have been directed to the Superintendent, C. G. Manning, by the patrons of the school, and because of them the board has lifted the vaccination order.

The authority of the school board to take such action was questioned, and the attorney general was asked for a decision on the matter.

Undergraduates Stage Enthusiastic Reception for Prospective Bridegroom

One of the most enthusiastic and well-attended reception parties ever staged in Twin Falls came yesterday upon the arrival of the noon train carrying a young man who it is said will shortly carry off one of Twin Falls' popular young lady school teachers.

Hearing of the arrival of something like 50 of the undergraduates of the high school were at the depot when the train came in and with them was a blond male borrowed for the occasion and upon which they respectfully invited the guests to ride up lawn.

On next Wednesday afternoon the music pupils of Mrs. M. M. Taylor will entertain at a Red Cross tea from three to six at Mrs. Batley's home, 435 Main avenue north. The proceeds will go to the Junior Red Cross.

GIVES ACCOUNT OF LAWYER'S WEDDING

Moscow Paper Describes Ceremony by Which J. F. Martin and Miss Cornwall Were United

Following is the account of the marriage of J. F. Martin, attorney of this city, and Miss Vesta Lillian Cornwall of Moscow, as given by the Moscow Daily Star-Mirror:

At a simple and impressive home wedding, Wednesday at noon, Vesta Lillian Cornwall and J. F. Martin were married by Rev. D. H. Hare of the Presbyterian church. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and carried white roses. She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Delos Cornwall, of St. Martin, as matron of honor. Dr. Cornwall was best man. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served and Mr. and Mrs. Martin left on the 3:40 train. They are now in Boise visiting at the home of the groom's parents and will be at home in Twin Falls after May 15.

Mrs. Martin is a Moscow girl with many friends who will miss her here. She is a charter member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma at Idaho and was a senior at the university.

FINAL TRIBUTE IS PAID TO MRS. FINKE

BORROWING FRIENDS IN LARGE NUMBERS ATTENDED FUNERAL OF WELL KNOWN WOMAN

Requiem high mass was sung at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning in St. Edwards Catholic church for Mrs. John Finke, who died on Thursday morning last. The services were largely attended, and a profusion of floral tributes gave evidence of the esteem in which Mrs. Finke was held in the community. From the family home, 503 Third avenue west, the funeral procession formed and proceeded to the church, where the sermon was delivered by Rev. N. P. Hahn. Services also were held at the cemetery.

Vocal music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. J. W. Clausen, Miss Nellie Tossdale, M. A. Kohles and George W. Kobbs. The ballbearers were Thomas Cooney, E. D. Kinney, Julian Boy, Owen Buchanan, William Macaulay and H. C. Hanel.

Floral tributes were sent by many individuals and by the following organizations: Elks lodge, Knights of Columbus, Altar society of St. Edwards church, Young Ladies' Sodality, high school girls.

Mrs. Finke, whose maiden name was Agnes Welsh, was born February 14, 1880, in St. Louis. Mrs. Michael Scully, of St. Louis, older sister of Mrs. Finke, who arrived here Sunday with Mrs. John Finke, mother of the deceased husband, was the only mother the little girl knew, the two growing up together.

A pathetic feature of Mrs. Finke's death is to be found in the fact that six little children ranging in age from four to 15 years are left orphaned. They are Bertha, aged 15; Arthur, Florence, Raymond, Robert and Harold, aged four years.

John Finke has been a resident of Twin Falls for nearly eight years, during which time he has been steadily engaged in business. He is the head of the Anchor Hay, Grain & Feed company, and is known as one of the most successful business men in the city.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to him in his loss.

BUG INVESTIGATOR'S SEARCH REWARDED

DR. J. E. WODASDALE DISCOVERS AFTER 70 DAYS HUNT FOR FOUND HERETOFORE

Discovery of thriving specimens of the clover aphid family was the reward Saturday evening at the end of two days' search for the insects instituted by Dr. J. E. Wodasdale, head of the departments of zoology and entomology of the University of Idaho, upon his arrival here Thursday to continue and amplify investigations in this field begun last year by A. C. Burrill.

In Unexplored Field
The work in which Dr. Wodasdale is engaged is one that is practically unexplored. Entomologists have discovered new methods of controlling or eradicating the insect pests that, in this district two years ago, did thousands of dollars worth of damage. Study of the life history of the insect is one of the important preliminary steps of the work. Dr. Wodasdale stated yesterday that his discovery Saturday of aphid reveals the fact that the adults of the species survive through the winter season. It also makes it possible for him to observe a period of the life history of the insect, beginning 70 days earlier than has been possible for any investigator in the field heretofore. Mr. Burrill, who came here late in April last year to make investigations relative to the aphid pest, was unable to discover any specimens of the pest until June 19. His notes, therefore, necessarily admit any reference to the earlier period in the life history of the insect.

Dr. Wodasdale's discoveries of aphid were made in the vicinity of Twin Falls, one at the southeast corner of the city and another at the northwest end of Main avenue.

Specialist on Bugs
Dr. Wodasdale is eminently qualified by his training for the work in which he is engaged here, and about which he is enthusiastic. Before becoming a member of the faculty of the state university he was an instructor at the University of Wisconsin, where he specialized in entomology, securing a degree of doctor of philosophy upon the merits of a thesis entitled, "The Behavior of Insects," setting forth the reactions consequent upon the application of various stimuli to several types of insects.

REPORTS CHOLERA IN HERDS AT BLACKFOOT

Outbreak in the Blackfoot district of two cases of hog cholera, marking recurrence of the malady in this state for the first time in several months, was reported last week to Dr. W. A. Sullivan, inspector in charge of the bureau of animal industry investigations in Idaho, by Dr. L. C. Henderson, an inspector formerly with the Twin Falls station and now at Idaho Falls. The source of infection has not been determined, but the disease is believed to have been brought into the district in an infected importation of hogs. Dr. Sullivan Saturday, detailed Dr. H. T. Cook, inspector of the local station, to go to Dr. Henderson's assistance in combating and controlling the plague in the Blackfoot district.

TRAINED NURSE
ENDORSES TANLAC

GRADUATE OF LONDON, ENGLAND
SAVES AND CURED MANY
BY AFTER TAKING IT

Mrs. Lena Bloomfield, a trained nurse residing at 3900 San Jacinto street, Dallas, Texas, is but one among many in her profession who, after testing the merits of Tanlac, have come forward with unqualified endorsements of the "Master Medicine." Mrs. Bloomfield graduated in London, England, and for several years followed her profession in New York, Denver and Dallas. Her statement, coming as it does from one of such wide experience in relieving suffering, will be of interest to hundreds of this section who are seeking relief. In telling of the benefits she has derived from the use of Tanlac, Mrs. Bloomfield said:

"Some time ago I had a severe shock that brought on nervous prostration, and I suffered from awful headaches all the time. My stomach was out of order and most everything I would eat disagreed with me. I usually have a sunny disposition and try to be cheerful under all circumstances, but I had become so weak and rundown and my trouble weighed on me so much I had gotten to the point where I felt depressed and despondent and had no desire to live or do anything else."

"A friend of mine recommended Tanlac to me and as I was anxious to find something that would relieve me, I got a bottle. My improvement was particularly noticeable when I was on my third bottle, when my appetite picked up and my flesh became much firmer. Those headaches are leaving me and I don't feel so tired as I used to be all the time. My sleep is refreshing, my stomach and nerves are stronger and I feel I owe much to Tanlac for what it has done for me, and will continue to use it for some time because of the good it is doing me."

Tanlac is sold in Twin Falls by City Pharmacy, in Regester by Thompson Drug Co., in Murtagh by Murtagh Drug Co., in Filmer by A. B. Wood, in Buhl by C. D. Boring Brothers Co., and in Kimberly by W. A. L. Stora-Adv.

The next draft contingent of 57 to leave here April 30. Should any of these claims be approved by the local board, other men further down the list will be called to take their places. The claims have been filed by Volney O. Thompson, Oakland, Oregon; Elmer C. Brewer, Buhl, and John H. Whitaker, Twin Falls.

FERGUSON PRODUCTION

IS YOUR "SONG OF SONGS" MONEY, POWER OR LOVE?--SUMPTUOUS FEATURE, NOTABLE CAST, AT THE IDAHO

In "THE SONG OF SONGS" Elsie Ferguson, the noted stage beauty, interprets the part of Lily Kardos, a girl of unusual beauty, who begins life as a salesgirl for an Oriental store with branches on the boardwalks of Palm Beach and Atlantic City, where she attracts the attentions of wealthy men. Her career is a series of dramatic incidents, and she rises to a commanding position as the wife of ex-Senator Calkins, a millionaire who proposes marriage only after he has been repeatedly repulsed in his wily advances. Through the plotting of Calkins' housekeeper, a former victim of his perfidy, Lily is caught in a seeming compromising position, and in a fit of jealous rage he drives her away.

JOINS THE FIRST SET
She plunges into the fast life of the set into which she is thrown and later meets Stephen Bennett, a high-minded young man, with whom she falls in love. Through the intervention of this man's wealthy uncle the shadows of her past are brought up and loom up as a barrier between the lovers. Lily is prevented from suicide by Stephen, who disregards his uncle's commands and rushes to his sweetheart's side in time to save her life.

"Sunshine Nan"

This is an adaptation of the novel "Calvary Alley," by Alice Hegan Rice, author of the Mrs. Wiggs stories. Miss Pennington has the role of Nan Malloy, an archaic living in "Calvary Alley," and heading the gang called the Alley Tars. She has as a child sweetheart Dan, who works in the shoe factory.

Through an escapade which makes appearances seem against her, though she is actually innocent, Nan is com-

IS WOMAN THE CHIEF WAR SUFFERER?
The much debated question as to whether men or women feel most severely the terrible burden of war has been thoughtfully touched upon in the tremendously patriotic picture, "The Thing We Love," which every good American man, woman and child ought to see and think about.

The question is as old as time itself and the nearest solution that has been reached is that both men and women usually find the equal heavy burden of war on their shoulders of all. This is only one of the many present-day problems that "The Thing We Love" touches upon.

EXPLOSIONS TAKE HEAVY TOLL OF GRAIN

GOVERNMENT MAN TELLS OF METHODS ADVISED FOR PREVENTION OF ENORMOUS WASTE

Four million bushels of wheat, or enough to maintain 200,000 soldiers for one year, were destroyed and 500 men were killed as a result of dust and smut explosions and outside of fires from other causes, in the United States last year, Dr. H. H. Brown of the bureau of chemistry department of agriculture, told an audience of about 100 grain growers, elevator men and mill operators assembled in the Lavington theatre Saturday afternoon.

Two such explosions occurred last year in Twin Falls county.

Food Saving Measure.
As a means of assisting in the food conservation program as well as the protection of the grain growing and handling industries in this respect, the department of agriculture is carrying on a campaign for the dissemination of information as to the causes of dust and smut explosions and methods of prevention. Dr. Brown, who has been detailed as a speaker in the northwest, came here in the interests of that campaign.

Electricity a Cause.
Explosions result from ignition of dust or smut and are most frequent in threshing and after the grain is stored in elevators or mills, Dr. Brown stated. Static electricity is a common cause. It is the opinion of the department of agriculture, Dr. Brown said, that between 60,000 and 75,000 volts of electricity will be developed in the normal operation of a threshing machine.

Methods of Prevention.
Methods of preventing explosion advised by the department include the use of ground wires, suction fans and automatic extinguishers. The use of suction fans is advisable for the reasons that it removes the smut, preventing its spread, and because it cleans the grain so that it is worth on an average of 5% cents a bushel more than uncleaned grain, according to report of department of agriculture laboratories.

Threshing Spreads Smut.
Threshing of grain infected with smut unless the spores are confined by means of a suitable mechanical device results in the spread of the pernicious fungus over wide areas, Dr. Brown said. He gave one instance in which smut spores to the number of 600 to the square inch had been discovered three miles distant from the nearest grain field, as a result of distribution of the spores in the spread of the pernicious fungus through threshing.

The department has succeeded in developing an effective automatic fire extinguisher for use in threshing machines, Dr. Brown asserted, and is in position to give full information to anyone interested.

Illustrates With Views.
Dr. Brown illustrated his lecture by means of lantern slides and motion picture films showing the results of dust and smut explosions and measures adopted for prevention of such explosions. He produced a number of miniature explosions by artificial means, demonstrating the effect of ignition of various kinds of dusts.

Dr. Brown was introduced by W. F. Alworth of Filer, president of the state and county farm bureau organizations.

LOCAL FRUIT CROPS ESCAPE FROST DAMAGE

Fruit of all varieties in the Twin Falls district, outside the orchards in Snake river canyon, escaped practically uninjured from recent frosts, Deputy State Horticultural Inspector C. W. Brannon, of Rupert, said here today. The peach crop escaped for the reason that blossoms were not fully opened. The killing of 50 or 60 percent of the blossoms would still leave a full crop of fruit this year, the inspector said. His investigation leads to the conclusion that the damage has not reached so great proportions in any of the orchards on the bench.

TWIN FALLS WOMAN LEASES FILM ROOMS

Mrs. J. D. Rogers of Twin Falls last week leased the Munyon Rooms of Mr. Kirkpatrick, of Filer, and has already assumed charge of the management, says the Filer Journal. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers came to Filer from Twin Falls, where they have successfully operated the Weaver Rooms for the past eight years. JUNIORS VOTE TO DANCE AT 'PROM'

SANCTION OF FACULTY IS THE NECESSARY STEP AND A FEW
GOES OUTSIDE SCHOOL

Placed in a position to choose among three propositions relative to the giving of the annual officer class reception to the graduates of the high school outside the high school building with dancing and without the supervision of the faculty, a reception in the high school building without dancing and with faculty supervision, or a reception at all—the Junior class, this year, by a majority vote has elected to give a "prom" for the graduates on Friday evening next in the Parish hall.

Danced Last Year.
Last year the Junior "prom" was the only high school event in which dancing had a part. Objections to dancing in the high school resulted in a ruling that no affair in which dancing should figure could be given in the high school building or on the campus, under supervision of the faculty.

Invited Patrons.
Although the Junior reception this year does not figure as an event of the commencement occasion under the supervision of the faculty, the principal, C. H. Downman, has been invited by the Juniors to attend in the capacity of a patron of the event. Others who have been invited in this capacity are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. VanTassel, parents of Junior class president, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomett, parents of Michael Thomett, president of the Senior class.

Senior Colors Figure.
The Parish hall will be decorated for the occasion in the colors of the Senior class—purple and white. Music will be furnished by an orchestra composed of Lowrie Wall, W. B. Coburn and Neil Schettler. For the entertainment of those students who do not care to take part in the dancing, games will be provided.

Committee in Charge.
Following are the members of the committee named from among the members of the Junior class to take charge of the plans for the "prom":

Invitation—Esther McRoberts, Ralph Glasgow.
Decorations—Dorcas Van Tassel, Elmer Wyland, Dean Mickelwait, Vaughn Price.
Refreshments—Frances Field, Ethel Kaits.
Hall—Francis Schenberger, Gwen Watson.
Program—Burton VanTassel, Ruth Beauchamp, Ruth Jester.

NATURE CURES THE DOCTOR TAKES THE FEE

There is an old saying that "Nature cures the doctor takes the fee," but as everyone knows you can help Nature very much and thereby enable it to effect a cure in much less time than it is usually required. This is a particularly true of colds. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough mucus and aids in its expectoration, and the cough then the Nature is restoring the system to a healthy condition.—Adv.

CELLARS HOLD BIG QUANTITY BAD SPUDS

City Sanitary Commissioner Takes Steps to Secure the Removal of Wasted Crop

Basements of several Twin Falls business houses which were made available for storage of Twin Falls district's superabundant potato crop last fall, and which held the stored spuds throughout the winter months when a sufficient number of cars could not be secured to move them, now contain several hundred sacks of decomposed tubers that are fit for nothing but prompt removal to the dump grounds, according to City Street and Sanitary Commissioner J. J. Pilgrimage, who is securing an emergency campaign to proper disposal of the spoiled potatoes in storage here.

Inadequate facilities for ventilation in the basements is given as a reason for the large extent of spoilage, although the proportion of potatoes touched by field frost when placed in storage is a contributing factor of importance.

The Best Thing to Do

HEALTHY DISEASE

A naching back may not mean anything serious, but it certainly does mean something good. When the kidneys are weak or disordered they cease to do their work, and instead of cleansing the blood, the waste products remain to attack the whole system, bringing aches and pains in muscles and joints, irregularities of the bladder, puffiness under eyes, biliousness, erratic appetite and other ills and ailments.

Foley Kidney Pills

George McLaine, Turtle Lake, N. D., writes: "I am a locomotive engineer. I was troubled with my back, had bad pains and bladder trouble, one often through the day and night. I took Foley Kidney Pills and I was relieved in a couple of days. If you have reason to suspect that your kidneys are overworked, weakened or diseased, the best thing to do is to give them help immediately. Foley Kidney Pills come in two sizes, 50c and $1.00. FIGHTING IN EUROPE

SELF-PRESERVATION as well as patriotism demands that our farmers shall plentifully feed our fighters.

When Germany proclaimed the seas closed to American merchant vessels and entered upon her program of wholesale ocean tonnage destruction, she was aiming a blow directly at the American farmer.

For lack of proper marketing and shipping facilities Australia today has three crops unsold and millions of tons of grain spoiled or destroyed either by weather or rodents.

Upon our success in this war depends not only life and liberty but livelihood.

DELCO-LIGHT Increases Farm Efficiency

- Saves time and labor—Work formerly done under poor light and by hand can be done better and in less time with the aid of electric light and power.
- Labor is attracted to the farm—"The back to the farm" movement is the practical result of the convenience afforded by electric light and power which can be had in the country.
- Keeps the boys and girls on the farm—Electric service on the farm offsets city attractions. Valuable labor and valuable young manhood and womanhood are saved to the country community.
- Solves the entire farm problem—Electric light and power make the farm home so attractive and comfortable that the farmer and his wife remain on the farm where their advice, experience, and immediate interests are of great practical value.
- Lights the burden of the housewife—Increased farm work in war time means increased labor for the housewife. Electricity offers the only practical means of taking the drudgery of household tasks from her shoulders.

Delco-Light is a complete electric plant for farms or country homes. Self-contained. Self-starting. Self-charging. Long-lived battery. Best insulation. No leaks. RUNS ON KEROSENE.

"Those trenches, gopher ditches, I call them, were nightmares. They were only about five feet deep, and you used to get the tankards from bionding down. It wasn't exactly safe to stand upright, either, because as soon as your napper showed over the top a bullet would bounce off it, or else come so close it would make your hair stand on end. We used to fill sandbags and stick them on top of the parapet to make it higher, but no use; they would be there about an hour and then Fritz would turn loose and blow them to bits. My neck used to be sore from ducking shells and bullets."

"Where my battery was stationed a hasty trench had been dug which the boys nicknamed 'Suicide ditch,' and, believe me, Yank, this was the original 'Suicide ditch.' All the others are imitations."

"When a fellow went into that trench it was as good as gamble that he would come out on a stretcher. At one time a Scotch battalion held it, and when they heard the biting was even money that they'd come out on a stretcher; they grabbed all the boys in sight. Like a lot of bally idiots, several of the battery men fell for their game, and put up real money. The 'Jocks' suffered a lot of casualties, and the prospects looked bright for the battery men to collect some easy money. So when the battalion was relieved the gamblers lined up. Several 'Jocks' got their money for emerging safely, but the ones who climbed it weren't there to pay. The army men had never thought it out that way. Those Scotchies were bound to be sure winners, no matter how the wind blew. So take a tip from me, never bet with a Scotch, 'cause you'll lose money."

"At one part of our trench where a communication trench joined the front line a Tommy had stuck up a wooden signpost with three hands, or arms on it. One of the hands, pointing to the German lines, read 'No Betting'; the one pointing down the communication trench read 'No Bluffing'; while the other said 'Suicide Ditch. Change Here for Stretcher.'"

"Farther down from this guide post the trench ran through an old orchard. On the edge of the orchard our battery had constructed an advanced observation post. The trees screened it from the enemy airmen and the roof was turreted. It wasn't cushy like ours, no timber or concrete reinforcements, just walls of sandbags. From it a splendid view of the German lines could be obtained. This post wasn't exactly safe. It was a hot corner, shells plunking all around, and the bullets cutting the leaves off the trees. Many a time when relieving the signaller at the phone, I had to crawl on my belly like a worm to keep from being hit."

"It was an observation post sure enough. That's all the use it was. Just observe all day, but never a messenger back for our battery to open up. You see, at this point of the line there were strict orders not to fire a shell, unless specially ordered to do so from brigade headquarters. Blimey, but if anyone disobeyed that command, our general—yes, it was Old Pepper—would have court-martialed the whole expeditionary force. Nobody went out of their way to disobey Old Pepper in those days, because he couldn't be called a person; he was more like a pirate. If at any time the devil should feel lonely and sigh for a proper mate, Old Pepper would get the first call. Facing the Germans wasn't half bad compared with an interview with that old firebrand."

"If a company or battalion should give way a few yards against a superior force of Boches, Old Pepper would send for the commanding officer. In about half an hour the officer would come back with his face the color of a brick, and in a few hours what was left of his command would be holding their original position."

"I have seen an officer who wouldn't say a word for a thousand quid spend five minutes with the old boy, and when he returned the flow of language from his lips would make a navy blush for shame."

"What I am going to tell you is how two of us put it over on the old scamp, and got away with it. It was a risky thing, too, because Old Pepper wouldn't have been exactly mild with us if he had got next to the game."

"Me and my mate, a lad named Harry Cassell, a bombardier in D 238 battery, or lance corporal, as you call it in the infantry, used to relieve the telephonists. We would do two hours on and four off. I would be on duty in the advanced observation post, while he would be at the other end of the wire in the battery dugout signaling station. We were supposed to send through orders for the battery to fire the investigation would go on. I was on observation post, and the observing officer could truthfully swear that I had not sent the message by phone, and that I was on duty in the advanced observation post. The investigation would then be up in the air, we would be safe, the Boches would receive a good bashing, and we would get our own back on Old Pepper. It was too good to be true. I gleefully fell in with the scheme, and told Cassell I was his meat."

"Then I waited with beating heart and watched the captain like a hawk. He was beginning to fidget again, and was drumming on the sandbags with his feet. At last, turning to me, he said: 'Wilson, this army is a blankety blank washout. What's the use of having artillery if it is not allowed to fire? The government at home ought to be hanged with a rope of their red tape. It's through them that we have no shells.'"

"I answered, 'Yes, sir,' and started sending this opinion over the wire to Cassell, but the captain interrupted me with: 'Keep those infernal fingers still. What's the matter, getting the nerves? When I'm talking to you, pay attention.'"

"My heart sank. Supposing he had rumbled that tapping, then all would be up with our plan. I stopped drumming with my fingers and said: 'Beg your pardon, sir, just a habit with me.'"

"He said a d—d silly one, too," he answered, turning to his glasses again, and I knew I was safe. He had not tumbled to the meaning of that tapping."

"All at once, without turning round, he exclaimed: 'Well, of all the nerve I've ever run across, this takes the cake. Those Boches are using that road again. Blind my eyes, this time it's a whole brigade of them, transports and all. What a pretty target for our guns.' The beggars knew that we won't fire. A d—d shame, I call it. Oh, just for a chance to turn D 238 loose on them.'"

"I was trembling with excitement. From repeated stolen glances at the captain's range chart, that road with its range was burned into my mind."

"Over the wire I tapped, 'D 238 battery, Target 17, Range 0000, 3 degrees 30 minutes, left, salvo, fire.' Cassell O. K'd my message, and with the receiver pressed against my ear, I waited and listened. In a couple of minutes very faintly over the wire came the voice of our battery commander issuing the order: 'D 238 battery, Salvo fire.'"

"Then a roar through the receiver as the four guns belched forth, a screaming and whistling overhead, and the shells were on their way."

"The captain jumped as if he were shot, and let out a great big expressive

The Final Proof of Quality

In these days a man must exercise intelligent judgment in the administration of his personal affairs. When he buys shoes, he must buy good shoes—for the very simple reason that poor shoes are frightfully extravagant. When he buys a motor car, he must buy a good car—for the same reason.

If you care to make a little investigation of the used car markets, you will discover the final proof of Paige quality. For it is a matter of record in fifteen of the principal cities that Paige used cars bring a higher price—proportionate to first cost—than any other American automobiles.

With the Red Cross Work At Home and Abroad

Sewing materials and yarn will be given out by the Twin Falls branch of the Methodist church, beginning Tuesday, April 24. Yarn both for socks and vestings may be had. The rooms are open to all and now that the organization of the branch is completed the work will go on as usual. Mrs. F. W. Hronchak has been appointed chairman of the knitting department.

The English half will be used as a cutting, picking and supply house by the Twin Falls chapter. Materials and supplies to all auxiliaries will be sent from these rooms.

The quarterly meeting of auxiliaries will be held Saturday, April 27, at the Moose hall, at 8:00 o'clock. All chairmen are urged to be present.

The pupils of Mrs. M. G. Batley will give a tea and musical from 3 to 6 o'clock on May Day at the home of Mrs. Batley on Main avenue north. The proceeds from the tea will go to the Red Cross.

The following donations have been received at headquarters this week: Mrs. Kinsling, $10; Mrs. Fitzsimmons, $5; Mrs. O. M. Gant, $10.

Surgical dressing classes are again at work in Twin Falls, Filer, Kimberly and Hansen. If the same enthusiasm is shown in this department as was shown last month there will be no reason why Twin Falls should not fill her quota by or before the allotted time. The place, the days and the hours are the same.

This month's quota from the sewing department has been finished and shipped, and consisted of: 1 box pajamas, 1 box bed shirts, 1 box table bed shirts, 1 box convalescent gowns, 1 box underwear, 1 box bed jackets.

A quota has also been given the knitting department this week. By the middle of July the following articles are to be completed: 850 pairs socks, 212 sweaters, 66 wristlets.

The refugee department has shipped two boxes of completed layettes to headquarters. Anyone having old coats or overcoats of any color or color leave same at refugee rooms. This must be washed, pressed, and ripped before leaving and will be made into garments for grown people and children of France and Belgium.

Rita Osborn and Irene Hall, students of Miss Shaw, room 16, at Lincoln school, presented the Red Cross, with another baby bond this week, in behalf of the L. B. S. club. This club is composed of the students in Miss Shaw's room.

The Junior Red Cross work on exhibition in Cioe Book store is attracting a good deal of attention. Next Saturday the Lincoln school will exhibit.

Captured American soldiers, arriving in German prison camps, will find American Red Cross emergency food parcels awaiting them, if arrangements are fully carried out. At the prison camp at Tschol, in West Prussia, fifty-seven miles northwest of the Austrian border,

TO PROVIDE SUGAR FOR CANNING SEASON

RATIONING OF MANUFACTURERS AND CONFECTIONERS RELATED ON THE WAY—PLANNING CANNING

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Rationing of confectioners and manufacturers using sugar is coming soon, it was learned today.

This step, to follow closely the sugar card or certificate for housewives, is believed necessary to provide sugar for the canning season about to begin.

Over 1,600,000 tons of sugar are used every year for canning fruits and vegetables, sugar experts declare. An average of 30,000 tons of this is used by housewives in the millions of American kitchens.

Hoover's sugar card, while not so drastic as those issued in Europe, pledges householders buying sugar on the card to use it only for canning and preserving. Surplus sugar must be returned.

IDAHOANS ANXIOUS TO BE AT THE FRONT

Sergeant John W. Kendall Gives Insight Into Soldiers' Lot in France

"We are all 'rain' to get to the front; we may get tired of it, but it must be done," says John W. Kendall, recently promoted to the grade of sergeant in the medical corps with the American expeditionary forces, in a letter under date of March 11, received this week by his parents, Sheriff and Mrs. F. M. Kendall.

Gets Thanksgiving Box

Following are quotations from Sergeant Kendall's letter:

"I will write a few lines this morning before dinner. I received the box you sent me for Thanksgiving day before yesterday—almost four months on the spot. I was certainly glad to get it. We are becoming mighty scarce."

"I passed my examination for sergeant and received my warrant, so I am now Sergeant Kendall, and in charge of the hospital wards. It keeps me very busy, but I like it, fine. I have had a hard job for my promotion, as you have to take a written examination for sergeant in the medical corps."

"Have you heard anything about the insurance I took out? When you write, let me know, as I want to have everything fixed. I will soon have my Liberty Bond paid for and they will send that to you also. Dad can do whatever he thinks best with it. I am leaving it up to him."

Americans Not Worried

"Every one of the boys are feeling fine, and are very comfortable. We get fine food and good beds and warm clothes. I think it's going to be a hard old struggle, and it may take a long time, but I think Uncle Sam can turn the trick. It's going to cost a lot of lives, also, but a fellow can't give more than his life, if it is necessary. I am not worrying, nor are any other American soldiers. We are all 'raring' to get to the front. We may get tired of it, but it must be done."

"I am sure the fellows in the army over here are very grateful for the people at home are doing for them in the way of making them comfortable. Half of the war is being fought in America, where they are saving for us."

Meets General Pershing

"Had the honor of having General Pershing and Secretary of War Baker inspect my wards the other day. I can say that General Pershing is the finest looking soldier I have ever seen. He went to the beds and talked to the sick men, asking them how they felt, etc. I don't envy him the burden he has on his shoulders."

"Wouldn't I like to see Twin Falls again for a few days. Don't suppose I would know the place. Had a long talk with Jack Thorpe this afternoon. He certainly has a fine band."

Near Large City

"I wish I could write and tell you all about France and the people, but 'Uncle' says no. I can say we are in a beautiful place, and not far from a city. They do more business in a day in America than they do in France in a week."

"Do you remember, Dad—just four years ago yesterday you signed my enlistment papers when I joined old Company D. Time sure does fly."

"I will close for this time. Write me real often and tell me the news."

Your son,

stirring continually so that each place will be well covered.

To distribute the poison bait, sharpen an old broom handle as a probe for making holes in the runway. Probe a foot back from the bait, and drive the till the runway is pierced. Care should be taken to see that the main runway is baited and not side channels. A couple of pieces of the bait should then be dropped through the hole made with the stick. This should be done several times with grass to prevent much light from entering and care should be exercised to prevent dirt covering up the bait. Baited and empty cans should be kept out of the reach of stock and children.

Destruction of Ants

An effective control method for large ant colonies is to inject into the nest a quantity of disinfectant of carbon, which can be purchased at any drug store. This substance can be placed in the nest with an oil can or small syringe. The quantity varies with the size of the nest from 1/4 ounce to 3 ounces or more for the larger nests. An oil can or syringe with a long spout is the most convenient for this purpose, as this can be inserted into the hole and the liquid injected without it being too near the operator's nose. The injection should be as deep as convenient from 2 to 3 inches, depending upon the type of hole and can be vacillated by means of a sharp stick or a piece of wire.

After injection of the disinfectant of carbon the hole should be sealed by tramping around it lightly. The efficiency of this remedy is increased by covering the hill with a wet blanket to better retain the fumes.

Carbon disinfectant should be kept away from all fire as it is highly inflammable.

PLENTY OF BINDER TWINE IS PROMISED

Food Administration Gives Assurance to Grain Growers on Important Factor

Whenever the amount of grain available in the United States this year, arrangements of the United States food administration provide for a plentiful supply of twine for binding the harvest. The food administration recognizes the desire of grain growers to know as far in advance as possible all the factors affecting their business. Of these the supply of binder twine is one of the most important.

Has Exact Information

"We are getting bi-weekly reports from binder twine plants in the United States," declares the food administration. "These reports show the progress each establishment is making. We know the capacity of each plant, also the supply of raw material, on hand and available. The mills are now running at a rate that will take care of all needs in prospect, but in case of necessity, production can be speeded up."

Controls Yucatan Bial

Through agreement with all binder twine plants the food administration controls all sales of Yucatan and distributes it to manufacturers according to their requirements. The manufacturer agrees that he will manufacture all Yucatan silk secured for him into binder twine (unless released by the food administration for other purposes) and that he will sell at a price which will return to him only the cost of the raw product, plus the cost of manufacture, plus a reasonable profit, the reasonableness of which is to be determined by the food administration.

Prices to Be Published

There will be sufficient publicity of prices to enable the consumer to know what he should pay for twine at retail. Although the business will be handled through regular retail channels in the past, and from the user's point of view, government control will be invaluable, its effects will be felt. Under the regulations, no opportunity exists for speculators to fatten on a heavy demand for binder twine so essential in the harvesting of cereal grains. Nor has any step toward insuring adequate supply and distribution been left to chance.
