BUHL BOY SHOWS GRIT AT FRONT

Sergeant Dewey Snodgrass Too Busy to Retire When Wounded

An incident illustrative of the pluck of the American fighting man occurred when the "hans" in the front of the American Expeditionary Force, Sergeant Dewey Snodgrass, of Buhl, by a comrade in a letter lately received. Sergeant Snodgrass, who has taken part in every action in which his company has engaged, was admitted against the odds when he was struck down and slightly wounded by a fragment of shell. The wound caused him for a moment. Two or three comrades hurried to his side and volunteered to assist him to the rear. "I can't go back now, I'm too busy," Sergeant Snodgrass is reported to have said as he got by his feet and went on with the advancing troops.

In connection with this story it is recalled that Buhl that Sergeant Snodgrass, prior to his departure for the Mexican border of the 8th Infantry of the Second Idaho Regiment, of which he was a member, administered a sound thrashing to a husky individual of German descent who ventured to utter remarks disparaging to the guardsmen within their hearing.

QUARTERLY BENEFITED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

"I am thankful for the good I have received by using Chamberlain's Tablets. About two years ago when I began taking them I was suffering a great deal from indigestion after meals from headaches and a tired, languid feeling due to indigestion and a torpid liver. Chamberlain's Tablets corrected these disorders in a short time and since taking two bottles of them my health has been good," writes Mrs. M. P. Harwood, Auburn, N. Y. (Advertisement.)

The Responsibility and Opportunity of the American Farmer

The appalling devastation of crops and the enforced neglect of European farms places upon the American farmer the grave responsibility of supplying to our allies and to our boys in Europe the sustenance that is absolutely indispensable to the winning of the war.

And with this responsibility comes an opportunity, the likes of which our farmers never knew before—an opportunity—not merely to profit by high market prices and by appealing demand—but an opportunity to serve humanity and the cause of Democracy.

Our ordinary farm production is entirely inadequate to meet the demands upon us. We must put every productive acre to work, and we must apply our farming genius where largest crops will reward our efforts.

The marvelous productivity and quick crop possibilities of must command the consideration of the progressive American farmer at this important hour.

The remarkable combination of ideal conditions of soil, water, climate, transportation and proximity to markets makes Capay a tremendously potential factor in the multiplied food production program of the American farmer.

This land is being sold to close an estate. There is comparatively little of it left. It is situated in the fertile Sacramento Valley in California. It is ready for immediate production. There is no pioneering.

Successful farmers from all over the Pacific Coast who have personally investigated Capay Rancho have been amazed at the wonderful rapidity with which crops grow here. Some of the finest grain farms and dairy farms and orchards in California are right in this section. Cattle, hogs and chickens have proven very profitable here.

There is an opportunity for you HERE and NOW to turn this land to intensive production and to profit accordingly.

IN WAR TIMES

It's pretty hard work to run a news paper in war times. When the big news of the entire war breaks there is a brief period of demoralization followed by a hectic passage of hours which make everything that has gone before seem like a story from a child's picture book.

When the first news of the signing of the armistice—which amounts to the same thing as a German surrender—reached the News office, there was one outside visitor in the office. Within five minutes the confirmatory message rattled in over the wire, after which phone messages were sent to Mayor Bracken and upon his arrival, the wires were laid before him.

For twenty minutes more the news was suppressed, in a last effort to guard against any possibility of an error in wire transmission. When private messages began to come in from Boise and other outside points telling of the preparations for a celebration, the first bulletin was placed in the windows of the News office.

The parade started within ten minutes. Then the News telephone began to hum and for two hours it was impossible to get a phone call out of the office.

Everybody saw the parade—nearly everybody was in it.

There is little room for doubt but what the signing of the armistice means lasting cessation of hostilities. The terms are known to be such that Germany's re-entry into the war is virtually impossible.

Proclamation Tells Germans to Sit Tight

Declares Maintenance of Order and Discipline Should Be First Consideration

PARIS, Nov. 7 (10:04 a. m.)—Chancellor Maximilian has published a proclamation to the German people, announcing that a delegation to receive the terms of the armistice has been promptly sent to the west front.

"The maintenance of order and discipline with the free consent of the people, in these decisive hours, is an absolute necessity which any democratic government must make its duty to the nation," the proclamation concluded.

Linked France and Scotland.
The small border, or treasure, which surrounds the arms of Scotland in the British coat of arms is the emblem of preservation or protection. A legend states that the border was given to Achala, king of the Scots, by Charlemagne as a pledge that the French lilies should defend the Scottish lion. The significance of this lies in the design of the border, which is composed of four-de-la.

Long War of the Past

A review of history shows that all the most momentous clashes of arms have resulted in long wars. In the middle ages England waged an intermittent conflict with France known as the Hundred Years' war, while the corresponding conflict between England and Scotland may be said to have been a five-century one.

Superstitions of Seamen

If a man is ill at sea, his most critical time is when land is first sighted. If he survives the storm, the sight of land he will recover. On some trawlers whistling is forbidden; it scares away the fish. Other skippers believe that to wash your face in the middle of a trip will break a spell of calm weather.

Cruelty to Actors

"Your only applause," quoth a star of the movies, "is the click of the camera." Obviously, an instance of cruelty to actors. Invention should come to the rescue and equip every movie studio with an applause machine, consisting of a pair of cast-iron hands and an endless string of percussion caps.—Film Fun.

Another Paradox

"I have noticed in my little journey from bottom to bedtime, and the almost philosopher, that the fellow who prides himself on being smart in his speech can ask some very pointed questions."

Optimistic Thought

Consoling secrets is sometimes no great advantage to a man who does not know.

State Fuel Administrator En- deavors to Solve Problem Through Campaign

BOISE, Nov. 7.—State Fuel Administrator C. C. Anderson, through a series of visits to the coal dealers throughout the state, is endeavoring to organize a "State Winter coal how-to" campaign throughout southern and southeastern Idaho.

Early in this year, the campaign for storing winter fuel was inaugurated by the former fuel administrator and was attended by a great deal of success. Dealers generally reported that sales of coal for storage purposes for domestic use were larger during the months of April, May and June than ever before in Idaho. However, it has recently developed that the receipts of coal in the state to the local dealers have been so great that unless more coal is bought during the present month, orders with coal operators at the present hold, will have to be cancelled, as the local dealers feel that they cannot afford to hold any greater amount than at present in storage.

The campaign with the sugar factories has now commenced and will be in full swing by the first of December. After that time and for the succeeding sixty days, from present indication, the coal operators assigned to Idaho under ordinary circumstances will be largely kept occupied by shipments of coal to the sugar factories and other industrial organizations, and dealers themselves will have difficulty in securing shipments. During the present month, however, it will be possible to receive a large amount of coal from the mines.

Dealers generally, who pay attention to the condition of the coal business, state that although a large amount of coal was stored for domestic use in the early spring, at the present time this has been used to such an extent that practically every domestic consumer in the state is taking and storing sufficient coal for household use until spring opens.

A Patriotic Duty

Mr. Anderson feels that it is so do so would be only wise but a patriotic thing as it would relieve the railroads and the mines of difficulties that might otherwise be encountered.

Gray Copper

The work of a Swiss investigator suggests that absolutely pure copper may have a lighter color like that of most other metals, since it is found that copper which has been ten times distilled in vacuo has only a pale rose color, while the yellow color of gold becomes much lighter under similar treatment.

Good Advice

The man who doesn't worry when he ought to is as bad as the one who worries when he shouldn't. Worrying is bad for the health, but probably not as bad as letting things drift. In case of "rain," run for an umbrella. Instead of saying, "Don't Worry," the best advice to give a man in trouble is "Get Busy."—Thrift Magazine.

Cold-Water Cure

If our eyes are in good order we may keep them so by opening them under cold water every morning when we wash, but cold water is for strong eyes; weak ones should use it tepid, with a little boric powder dissolved therein. Keep your boric solution ready mixed in a bottle, then you won't have to make it up every day.

Just as the telephone is often the "short cut" to the result you want to accomplish, so is the use of the classed ad.

"Gee! but it's nice to see a girl like you!"

IT was in a hut at one of the training schools in France. He was a non-commissioned officer. He had been in France for eight months, and now was back from the front as an instructor. He hadn't seen a girl of his own kind, a girl like his sisters, for weeks.

And there she stood behind the canteen counter in this big, roomy, comfortable hut.

He bought a bar of chocolate. Then he drifted over to the group around the piano. Presently he went back to the canteen for a package of cigarettes. He strolled to the reading table and leafed over a magazine. Again he returned—this time for a cake of soap and some tooth-paste.

For a moment the rush at the canteen was over. He loitered at the counter and looked at the girl. She smiled. So did he. Then he blurted out what he had been trying to say for 20 minutes:

"Gee! but it's nice to see a girl like you!"

There are girls like that all over France—in camps, in towns, in the big cities—even at the front itself. They are serving the canteens, running restaurants, handing out hot chocolate or coffee, pies and doughnuts.

They are giving the huts a look of home—putting bright curtains at the windows, posters on the walls, making flower-gardens at the doors. They are mending for the soldiers.

But, most of all, they are just being there! They talk about the things that sound like home. Perhaps they know the very towns and streets and girls that these boys know. They bind together home and France! They are the girls beside the men behind the guns!

Without the organizations whose uniforms they wear, these girls could accomplish nothing.

However eager to help, they could not even travel as individuals.

But with the backing of these established, recognized and regulated bodies, they can work wonders.

When you think of war as a brutalizing force, think of American womanhood working with the soldiers in this war—then give, to support the organizations which make this possible.

Why you should give twice as much as you ever gave before!

The need is for a sum 70% greater than any gift ever asked for since the world began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000.

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 what

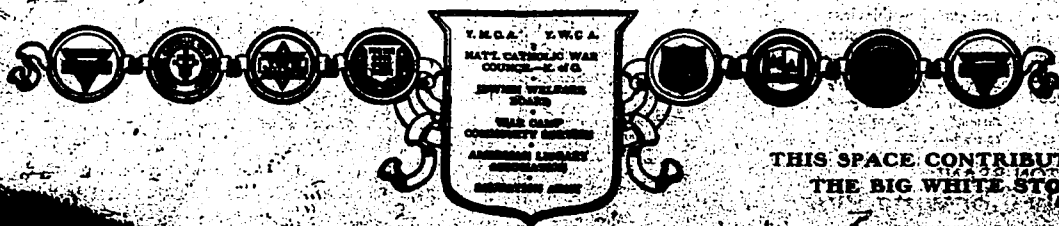

3600 Recreation Buildings	2500 Libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
1000 Miles of Movie Film	85 Hostess Houses
100 Leading Stage Stars	15,000 "Big-brother" "secretaries"
2000 Athletic Directors	Millions of dollars of home comforts

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comforts of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theatre, a cheerful home, a style, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul!

You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs.

Now give to maintain the Morale that is winning the war!

UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

Put your wardrobe on a war basis

THAT means that the clothes you do buy should be the kind that make the best possible use of the labor and materials put in to them. It means clothes that not only wear a long time but keep their shape a long time. It means "conserving" clothes.

Hart Schaffner & Marx make that kind and we sell them

Now if you're going to buy clothes at all—and you shouldn't unless you absolutely need them—that's the only kind you've a right to buy—clothes that save.

It's "dollar economy," too. You pay a little more now—but they wear so well you spend less in the long run.

GIVING TO WAR WORK
CITIZENS' BIG PRIVILEGE

Joint campaign for $170,500,000 during the week of November 11 to 18, to carry on the good work among our boys. Every cent of the money raised is spent for the pleasure of those boys and to give them some of the home influence they desire and need.

One of the seven organizations doing welfare work for the soldiers overseas shipped to the men over there during the period from July, 1917, to August, 1918: 1,559,156 cans of fruit; 14,010,000 packages of chewing gum; 548,785,808 cigarettes; 453,824 pounds of soap; 10,253,782 pounds of sugar; 557,029 tubes of tooth paste; 31,870,802 packages of flour; 2,587,481 packages of tobacco; 32,368,700 cigars and 1,663,120 cans of condensed milk. These figures show the need of raising funds to maintain the work of the welfare organizations which serve to keep the morale of the Allied armies at its topmost point.

The influence of the American home follows the American fighting men clear to the front line trenches. It is the first time in the world's history that this is the case. This influence is carried overseas by the seven great welfare organizations doing work among the soldiers, the Y. M. C. A., R. O. C. F., W. O. C. A., Jewish Welfare League, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association and the Salvation Army. Hots are established where the soldier may spend his leisure and time. Entertainment is furnished him and he is given that care and attention that he would have received in a greater measure at home. These hot overseas are the nearest thing to home that the soldier knows.

You may not agree religiously with some of these organizations (in this drive, but that is no reason you should not give liberally to this campaign. The different organizations doing welfare and relief work over there do not ask you his religious views before offering him a cigarette or doughnut; and if he does not belong to their particular organization—direct him elsewhere. Every race, creed or color is gladly welcomed at any hot, building or headquarters of any of the different organizations and made to feel at home. Have you any right to draw any "lines" over here if it is the grandest work ever undertaken, exclusive of the Red Cross? Support it liberally. They certainly need your money.

County Organization

"The program is financed by a budget raised by voluntary subscriptions. We estimate that $8,500 will cover the entire expense of a county organization for a year. The work in each county is supervised by a committee of farmers, business men and professional men who employ a secretary who gives his entire time to the work."
