LOYD GEORGE DICKERS ON OCCUPATION GROUNDS

Intimation Given that British Premier will Approve Tactics of France Under Prescribed Conditions

SAN REMO, (AP)—Armenia is to be created an independent state. This decision was reported by the supreme council of the allies today because neither the United States nor any other power was willing to accept a mandate over the country.

SAN REMO, (AP)—Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain would approve of Anglo-French occupation of the Ruhr district in Germany in the event the Berlin governing council should refuse to suitably live up to the revised terms of the Versailles treaty, says "Pettinax," political editor of the Echo de Paris. He says intimation to this effect has come through a member of the British premier's suite, for the purpose of averting Premier Millerand's opposition to revision of the German treaty.

"Maneuvers at San Remo," asserts "Pettinax," "having the purpose of overcoming French opposition to revision of the treaty are the culmination of conversations which have been going on at Berlin, between officials of the German government and certain allied representatives. The arrival of the German note asking for a permanent army of 200,000 men is not a mere coincidence."

Appeals Come from Mazatlan and Topolobampo on Pacific and Frontera on Gulf

GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS INAUGURATE INQUIRY INTO REQUESTS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., (AP)—The cruiser Salem and destroyer Number 376 were ordered by Admiral Hugh Rodman, commanding the Pacific fleet, to sail immediately for Mexican waters. It was announced the vessels would stop at Mazatlan. It was expected, according to word from the flagship New Mexico, that these or other vessels would also call at Topolobampo. Both vessels are at San Diego at present.

At the offices of the Mexico-California Steamship company here it was stated that word had been received that the ports of Mazatlan and Topolobampo had been closed. The company has terminals at Mazatlan. At the time of the last sailing from there, ten days ago, everything was reported quiet.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—American government representatives in Mexico have asked for the dispatch of warships to that country to protect American citizens and their property.

The requests came from Mazatlan and Topolobampo on the Pacific coast and Frontera, on the Gulf coast. Officials of the state, war and navy departments are investigating the requests, explaining that in times of disturbance in the southern republic it is not unusual to receive requests for warships when there is no need for them.

Details withheld. Details as to the requests of the American agents were not made public. Advice today said that 350 Mexican federal troops with two cannon had arrived at Mazatlan, but there have been no reports of disturbances there or at the other two ports.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS REJECT SENATOR REED

State Convention after All-Night Session Votes to Return Nomination to District Caucus

JOPLIN, Mo., (AP)—The democratic state convention in session here this morning voted to reject the selection of United States Senator James A. Reed as district delegate to the national convention and to return his name to the fifth district caucus which nominated him.

The vote was 1070 to 490, four not voting. It came as the climax to an all-night session of the convention in which wrangling and filibustering played an important part.

Spirited debate preceded the roll call. The fifth district delegation (Kansas City and Jackson county) and the St. Louis delegation with the exception of two wards, cast their ballots against the measure.

The convention adjourned in due time. Four men and four women delegates-at-large were selected for the national convention at San Francisco. Each one will be given half a vote. This action was taken in order to give women equal representation with men. # SUFFRAGE ISSUE COMES TO FORE IN TWO STATES

Fight for Amendment Ratification to Be Carried to South Carolina. Regardless of Action in Louisiana

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—Action of the democratic state convention recently in adopting a platform plank for ratification of the woman suffrage amendment was followed by a special session of the legislature about July 1.

Louisiana is the only state to have a session before the North Carolina but suffrage leaders say no matter what action is taken in Louisiana it will have no effect on the fight for ratification in North Carolina.

If Louisiana were to act favorably it would make the thirty-sixth state but on account of some uncertainty over the ratification in Ohio legislature, because of a referendum involved, suffrage advocates are anxious to have 37 states ratify the amendment.

Opinion is divided here as to what action the North Carolina legislature will take. "In view of the fact that both political organizations in the state have adopted platforms including the plank favoring suffrage, many party leaders believe the amendment will be ratified. However, Governor Bickett, many democratic party leaders in the state have come out for the amendment, including Secretary Daniels, Senator Simmons and Congressman Hogg. The legislature is overwhelmingly democratic.

Opponents of suffrage believe the amendment will not be carried by the legislature or by the voters of the state. They think the legislature will follow Senator Overman's idea and propose a state constitutional amendment giving women the vote, thus putting the suffrage question up to the voters, who, they believe, will reject it.

MILLERAND DISCUSSES PEACE CONFAB AFFAIRS

Explains Position of France with Reference to Treaty Execution

SAN REMO, (AP)—Alexandre Millerand, the French premier, Thursday received the American newspaper correspondents, of whom 11 are here, and talked freely about peace conference affairs.

"Our friendship with the American people," he said, "did not begin with 1914 but very long before that and before you brought us the decisive help in the war, which now is such a precious recollection."

"I regret we could not have the direct active co-operation of the United States government in the preparation of the Turkish treaty here, but I am sure America will stand apart always from European affairs."

"I regret much more that the United States does not participate in the discussion of Germany's treatment of the treaty of Versailles."

"I am confident that the Americans, whatever their points of view respecting the German war, have also sympathy for the victims of Germany. The policy of France . . . is simple and entirely open. We suffered and Germany profited by the treaty to do certain things. She has not done them."

"Suppose Germany continues to loaf, what should be done?" the premier was asked.

"Ah, that is the question," replied M. Millerand. "We have just received a German note asking our consent for her to maintain an army of 200,000."

KENTUCKY LAW MAY PENALIZE CIDER-MAKERS

Home-Made Beverages with Alcoholic Content in Excess of Statutory Limit Come Under Ban of State Legislature

LOUISVILLE, Ky., (AP)—Farmers in Kentucky who have been accustomed to quenching their thirst with hard cider may be classed as "moonshiners" under the McCallan law which goes into effect on July 1. Under the statewide dry amendment, adopted by the people last fall, any person having a beverage containing more than one-half of 1 per cent alcohol, including cider or homemade wine, on their premises, may be hauled into court to show whether they manufactured it with or without a permit.

Kentucky is thus assuming "concurrent jurisdiction" with the government of the United States in enforcing prohibition puts more teeth into the Volstead enforcement act and makes every peace officer in the state responsible for keeping the commonwealth "bone dry."

Thirty-four other states and the District of Columbia have state law enforcement measures as follows: Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Texas, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia and Wyoming. Ohio has not adopted a complete enforcement code. Three codes having been passed by the legislature and held up by the popular referendum.

Eleven states which so far have not passed law enforcement codes are: Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Vermont, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Louisiana and Wisconsin. Three of the 11, Rhode Island, New Jersey and Wisconsin, have adopted "beer bills." The Wisconsin legislature, in enacting a two and one-half per cent law provided that if the United States supreme court sustains the Volstead act, the statute shall not go into effect. Rhode Island will license places selling beverages containing not more than four per cent of alcohol by weight and the state will be non-prohibitory. New Jersey in legalizing the manufacture, sale and transportation of three and one-half per cent beer avails itself of federal prohibition of peace and the end of war prohibition.

Maryland wet legislators proposed a 3 1/2 per cent law which was passed by the house but defeated in the senate. A 3 1/2 per cent bill is now pending in the Massachusetts and New York legislatures. Delaware is considering an amendment to the state prohibition code providing for the sale of liquor for "medicinal purposes" in harmony with the federal code. It dries oppose it on the ground that it nullifies much of the state enforcement law.

GENT JIM BRITT WAS ORIGINATOR OF FAMED CROUCH

There is one thing that followers of the ring know and, in justice to Jimmy Britt, it should be told. You have heard of the Jeffries crouch and the Dempsey crouch. These two men got the credit of being among the first to use this famous pose in the ring. As a matter of fact, Jimmy Britt is the originator of the man wrecking posture. Out on the coast the fans, when they first saw Britt come from his corner like a crouching panther, gave him the laugh.

But after he whipped men like O'Neil, Nelson, Young Corbett, and a score of others with crushing blows, started from this posture, they began to tout the crouch as Jimmy's main asset. Tommy Ryan, who trained Jim Jeffries, went after Britt and got pointers on the crouch and instructed the former heavy king how to use it.

Britt also gave Dempsey "the inside" stuff on the crouch. Well, did it work out for the present champ? His knockdowns in the first round in the bout with Willard is the answer. Jimmy is the epitome of gentlemanliness, and is the best argument in the world against reform and to those who declare the game is filled with roughness.

DOPE POINTS TO DEMPSEY WINNER OVER CARPENTIER

Physique and Punching Power Favor Salt Lake Man in the Match with European

By Ray Pearson.
With all this talk of a world's heavyweight championship between Jack Dempsey of America, the titleholder, and Georges Carpentier, champion of Europe, it is interesting to note facts and figures. Of course, figures in the game of pugilism do not always mean what they seem. One may look back to that fracas of July 4 last when Dempsey demonstrated that conclusively by upsetting and winning the crown at Toledo.

If one could depend on advantage in weight, height, reach, and all of those things in physical development to bring victory, then such things as betting on a contest, would be out of the question. If Dempsey could have been judged by what the scales and tape line showed before his clash with the huge Willard, his chances wouldn't have been worth a plugged nickel in these days of "his cost." Every physical advantage was on the side of the Kansas farmer, but Dempsey more than offset that by skill and hand punching.

Tape Line on Fighters.
But now with a battle approaching at some distance between Dempsey and Carpentier, there will be a lot of argument and some of the fans who simply date on allowing the tongue of the willow even to touch the subject believe that the European champion has even better than an even chance against the champion of the world. Here are the figures in cold type which will enable the fans to judge for themselves what will happen when this championship is staged.

DEMPSEY. CARPENTIER.
24 years. Age 23 years.
5 ft. 10 in. Height 5 ft. 9 in.
173 lb. Weight 170 lb.
6 ft. 1 in. Reach 6 ft. 1 in.
42 in. Chest (normal) 40 in.
44 in. Chest (expanded) 44 in.
17 in. Neck 15 in.
32 in. Waist 32 in.
14 in. Thigh 14 in.
14 in. Calf 15 in.
9 in. Ankle 9 in.
14 in. Biceps 14 in.
9 in. Forearm 9 in.
9 in. Wrist 9 in.

When they clash in the ring Dempsey will have an advantage in weight of something like 17 pounds, and that poundage will materially help him. But even were Dempsey not heavier than the Frenchman, he would make a difference, for this battle would not be one in which weight counts.

Jack Starmer Punched.
The thing that will count is the force behind the punch, and any one who knows anything about this boxing game will readily agree that Dempsey has it all over the Frenchman in this respect. As one fellow, who is pretty close student of the game, remarked in a conversation in the relative merits of these two heavyweights were being discussed:

"Dempsey is more than twice as good in hitting as Carpentier. He has that shade because he can knock out opponents equally with as much force as he can with the other hand. Carpentier is able to score knockouts only with his right hand. Dempsey also has his right hand in punching power, for he has demonstrated it by his own knockouts, while few of the Frenchman's victories have been gained in one round."

One Punch to Finish Georges.

"Carpentier will last just as long as he isn't hit by the champion. When Dempsey lands one solid smash, whether it is in the right or the left side of the fight will be over."

Those who are willing to believe that Carpentier has a chance to defeat Dempsey have their opinion based simply because of one thing, and that is the element of cleverness. They seem to be under the impression that the Frenchman is far more clever than Salt Lake Jack, and that he will be able to outpoint the titleholder, and possibly open him up for a shot at the jaw with his knuckle, the punch that split Joe Beckett, champion of England.

Charged with Amazing Acts of Cruelty by Daughter

John Gallender

John Gallender, actor known on the stage as "Gallender the Clay Master," who is alleged to have inflicted acts of unbelievable torture upon his seventeen year old daughter, Minnie, who is being cared for at the Manhattan Hospital, at Jamaica, N. Y. The girl, whose body bears scars from hundreds of wounds, telling her story to the New York authorities, alleges that she was forced to stand undressed in the middle of the kitchen of her home while her half-brothers and sisters hurled knives, forks and broken dishes at her frail body. Her arms and body were pained with ice picks, daisies and needles. Five weeks ago she told her story of seven years' suffering for the first time in the convention of the National Tuberculosis association here today.

Examination of post influenza cases, it was asserted, developed that 65 per cent were infected with the tubercle bacilli.

Great headway could be made in checking the spread of tuberculosis, if employers would realize the value of having their employees undergo examination, according to Dr. John S. Billings, director of the New York Tuberculosis and Chest Disease cases are in that way, detected in the incipient stage and proper attention effects a complete cure.

NIGHT ILLUMINATION BOOSTS EGG OUTPUT

Professor at Montana Experiment Station Finds Lights Encourage Hens

According to Prof. W. F. Schloppe, poultry expert of the Montana state college experimental farm, the use of electric lights in hen houses actually increases egg production to a very considerable extent during the winter months. Claims of this nature have already been advanced from a number of sources, and it is said that greatly increased profits have been shown. Professor Schloppe has conducted some very careful and exhaustive tests which seem to prove beyond any reasonable doubt that the intelligent use of electric light in hen houses does show a white while increase in egg production. Here is the story of his test:

Two flocks of 100 Lehighs were penned in separate houses. The birds were divided into the two flocks without choice and all conditions except that of light were kept the same throughout the test. The test was started on October 1, and continued until July 31. One flock was allowed to go with no other than natural light, going to roost at dark each night. In the other pen electric lights were installed. That of light was kept the same throughout the test. The test was started on October 1, and continued until July 31. One flock was allowed to go with no other than natural light, going to roost at dark each night. In the other pen electric lights were installed. That of light was kept the same throughout the test.

It was found naturally that the hens in the lighted pens showed more feed than those in the unlighted pens, and that their production was probably 24 cents a bird. Quite a difference. And yet in December the contrast was even more marked, because while the unlighted pens showed a profit of 11 cents a bird, the lighted houses returned a profit of 59 cents.

Taking the ten months as a whole the light house produced nearly $100 more profit than the unlighted ones. The exact figures were $173.80 for the unlighted pens and $268.10 for the lighted. A difference that is surely worth having.

Now of course it is understood that this university test was very carefully conducted and that all the birds received good care and good feeding regardless of which flock they were in, so that their production was probably rather high anyway. But it will be noted that the record speaks of profit not of production, and shows very clearly that the hens in the lighted pens produced a higher profit after making full allowance for the extra feed they consumed and for the cost of the lights.

STORAGE WATER INCREASES BUT STILL DEFICIENT

Supply Impounded at Jackson Augmented in Week—Total Below Last Year

In the week ending April 10, according to an official report on reclamation service headquarters at Burley, just issued, a sum total of 6700 acre feet of water was added to the impounded supply in the Jackson Lake storage reservoir. This is an excess of 1550 acre feet over the same period in 1919.

While the addition of water to the storage supply during the week reported is greater than normal for such a period the total amount of water in the reservoir is far short of the total impounded at this time last year. On April 10, 1920, the amount was 1,347,740, a short age of 181,750 acre feet. The report follows:

Today's Markets

New York Exchange
NEW YORK, (AP)—Further liquidation of long accounts and renewed pressure in some shorts caused extreme reactions of two to ten points in speculative stocks today. Sales approximated 1,350,000 shares. Oils continued to react in the last hour, fresh selling of those issues extending to the general liquidation of disturbances in Mexico. The closing was weak.

Liberty Bonds
NEW YORK, (AP)—Final prices today on Liberty bonds: first 3 1-2s $93.20; first 4s $86.10; second 4s $85.50; first 4 1-2s $86.40; second 4 1-2s $85.50; 4 1-4s $90.10; fourth 4 1-4s $85.24; Victory 3 3-4s $90.30; Victory 4 3-4s $90.40.

Grain and Provisions
CHICAGO, (AP)—Urgent European demand for breadstuffs attracted considerable notice today as a bullish factor in the corn market. Besides, cold weather tended further to strengthen prices. Financial conditions drew much less attention than has been the rule of late. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1/2 to 1/2, were followed by a decided general upturn and then something of a reaction.

Later, the weakness of stocks and cotton had an evident bearish effect on corn. Prices closed nervous, 1-8 to 1-8 1/2 net lower, with May 1-6 1/2 1-8 to 1-8 1/2 and May 1-6 1/2 1-8 to 1-6 1/2.

Oats advanced with greater swiftness than corn, owing more to lack of offerings than to any great buying. After closing 5-8 to 5-16 up, including July at 85 to 86 3-8, the market climbed a little further before any setback began.

Provisions reflected the price of grain. Most of the trading was in lard.

NOT A PARTISAN ISSUE

Certain phases of developments in connection with Georgia's presidential primary election ought, perhaps, to be called to the attention of Chairman Cummings of the Democratic national committee, who declared one day this week in San Francisco, that a net result of all his very extensive travels during the past several weeks had been a confirmation of his original opinion that the American people want the league of nations on the terms dictated by the national administration.

The league of nations was the one principal issue in the Georgia election. There were three candidates, Attorney General Palmer, who stands pat on the covenant as drafted at Versailles; Senator Hoke Smith, who supports the Republican reservations, and Thomas E. Watson, who is opposed to the league in any form.

Complete unofficial returns show that the attorney general would have 140 votes in the state's state convention, but that he led Mr. Watson, his nearest opponent, with a plurality of only ten votes, and that Senator Smith made a not creditable race with an accumulation of 114 votes.

It is not to be overlooked that the votes in the convention are the votes of county delegations, and that a direct vote of the electors in expression of preference would have placed not Mr. Palmer, but Mr. Watson, the opponent of the league in any form, in first place with 51,305 votes as against 47,005 for the attorney general, according to latest compilations.

There can be no misrepresentation of the fact in the face of the election returns, that the people of Georgia are not in favor of the league of nations as prescribed by the administration.

Interest generally attaches to the Georgia elections where the issue was so clearly presented, because of the president's decree practically necessitating the submission of the question of ratification of the covenant to a "solemn referendum" in the coming general elections.

If one fact more clearly than another is brought out in the results of the Georgia elections it is the fact that the league is NOT an issue for division of political opinion along partisan lines as they are drawn in this country at the present time.

HAWAIIAN BORN ORIENTALS FLOCK TO PACIFIC COAST

HONOLULU, T. H., (AP)—Hawaiian-born Orientals, hitherto to enter the United States, are leaving for the coast at a constantly increasing rate, according to Richard L. Halsey, United States immigration officer here.

"The number is increasing every month," Halsey declared, "so that, if the acceleration is maintained, perhaps the problem of the Japanese vote here, in some degree, may be transferred to the mainland."

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow (Special).—"The Great Year Book," an annual year book descriptive of life and activities on the University of Idaho campus, will be ready for distribution the last week in May, according to an announcement made today by Alfred A. Kinney of Nampa, editor-in-chief. The current book will be approximately 80 pages larger than that published a year ago.

Benefit in Joy Giving.
When you once get started in joy giving it's easy to keep it up. The fact that you give joy brings candidates for your magic touch constantly before you. The returning benefits of having given joy keep your supply with the means of joy giving. So you just direct the ever enlarging stream that through you ministers to your fellows. And your own joy increases with each new expression of your good will. The joy giving habit grows upon you and you would be perfectly miserable without the chance of helping others to happier days. It's real joy.—Grit.

When Women Propose.
It was not long ago when Queen Victoria offered her heart and hand to Prince Albert, whom etiquette prevented from proposing to the queen of England, but Sir John Lubbock declared that his sovereign was "as full of love as Juliet," and the marriage, which was solemnized in 1840, proved a union of perfect bliss.

PRESIDENT OF DRUGUAY URGES AMERICAN LEAGUE

Would Provide for Common Action Against Aggression and Arbitration

MONTEVIDEO, (AP)—Formation of an "American league" on a basis of absolute equality between American nations for common action against aggression threatening any one of them from outside nations and for arbitration of inter-American disputes was proposed by Dr. Baltazar Brum, president of Uruguay, in addressing students of the University of Montevideo last night.

Dr. Brum declared other American countries should make declaration similar to the Monroe doctrine, to secure the solidarity of the American continent. He said should any member of the "American league" have a controversy with the league of nations, that nation should ask for the co-operation of the "American league" in settling the controversy.

Taking up the Monroe doctrine, Dr. Brum pointed out how it had "constituted, on the whole an efficacious safeguard to the territorial integrity of many American countries."

"(Quoting) to the state in which European countries remain as they struggle, it may be said that fear of invasion by them in America has been reason for the policy of the Monroe doctrine," he added.

"But is that sufficient reason for us to take no interest in the future, and turn away from the Monroe doctrine with the pretext it is now unnecessary?" he asked.

"That today, more than ever, we should see foresight in searching for formulae with which to assure forever the peace and full independence of American countries."

Referring to his scheme for an "American league" he said that President Wilson proposed organizing Dr. Brum thought it could co-exist with the league of nations without difficulty.

He pointed out that unsettled boundary questions were still embarrassing American countries, and said settlement would be possible by an "American league" without appeal to the league of nations.

Regarding the individual nations, he thought no intervention should be permitted unless two-thirds of the allied countries decided to intervene.

President Brum expressed belief that the American political world should also declare against diplomatic interference by outside nations.

German Monarch in 20 Years, Says Crown Prince

E. J. Comer.

E. J. Comer, of New York, former Lieutenant in the American Army, returned recently from Holland, where he met and interviewed the former German Crown Prince. The Crown Prince, according to Mr. Comer, prophesied the re-establishment of a monarchy in Germany within from ten to twenty years. The prince was optimistic as to his exile and was of the belief that within a short time he would be able to return to his country. He advised America, said Mr. Comer, to stick to the Monroe Doctrine and not to meddle with European affairs.

ISLAND LEGION MEN TO LIST ALIEN EMPLOYEES

Policy of Steadily Increasing Citizen Labor is Purpose of Campaign Opened by War Veterans

HONOLULU, T. H., (AP)—Territorial headquarters of the American Legion has opened a drive to list all aliens employed in the Hawaiian islands and, to this end, has sent a questionnaire to employers, according to J. T. Phillips, chairman of the legion's citizen employment committee.

Allies are to be asked through their employers for the following information: Full name, age, birthplace, length of residence in territory, length of time in present employment, occupation, war record; whether a declaration of intention to become a citizen has been filed. All information thus obtained, said Phillips, would be held confidential, the total results only being published.

Chairman Phillips continued: "It is not the intention of the committee to request the discharge of any employee of any firm, but the committee expects all employers who are addressed on the subject to give their views on a future policy for the islands which would embrace steadily increasing citizen labor. It is the aim of the organization to promote and foster 100 per cent Americanism."

Sonora Authorities Forecast Settlement in Case of Seizure of American Owned Property

NOBALES, Sonora, (AP)—Hope for the early return of the Southern Pacific de Mexico railroad to its American owners was forecast by Sonora officials today.

Major Roberto Esquivel, of the Sonora military intelligence department, mailed public today a telegram from Governor Adolfo de La Huerta, stating the Sonora executive would arrive here late this week to discuss returning the road to its owners.

Major Esquivel said Governor de La Huerta was working on a plan to settle the differences between the railroad and striking employees. The road was seized by the state after traffic was completely tied up.

The telegram also was the first information Governor de La Huerta was near recovery from an operation he recently underwent.

Representatives of Regents and Academic Senate Would Share Powers of Berkeley Executive BERKELEY, Cal., (AP)—The University of California regents have under consideration a plan to put the welfare and control of the institution in the hands of a tripartite board composed of the university president, and representatives of the regents and the academic senate.

The proposal is an outgrowth of the recent denial of the academic senate for increased representation for the faculty in control of university affairs.

Dehydrating Plant Pays Out $35,000 Per Year For Labor and an Equal Amount For Fruits and Vegetables
The employees of the Dehydrating plant receive during the year salaries aggregating $35,000.
There is paid for fruit and vegetables during the season an equal sum.
These two sentences tell a story of the importance of this young institution to the community. With the record of but a single year in operation, it is contributing $70,000 to the wealth of the community, money all brought in from outside points and distributed throughout Twin Falls county.
This season, the company hopes to be able to manufacture more than $150,000 worth of dehydrated fruits and vegetables, these to be sold throughout the country. And bear in mind, the fruits and vegetables so disposed of would be WASTE ON THE HANDS OF THE GROWERS were it not for the Dehydrating plant.
There is now an organized sales force selling IN ADVANCE OF MANUFACTURE, the output of the plant for this season. When the time comes to receive the fruit and vegetables and pass them through the process which eliminates the freight costs for the consumer, makes them retain their savory individuality and preserves them indefinitely, there will be no delays about shipment or orders. The goods will go out by carloads, to make more famous this splendid country and to add to the wealth of our community.
Who can visualize this institution ten years hence? Who will say how far the Everready Products will be traveled, in their march forward?

TRANSFER COMPANIES LOOK OUT EMPLOYEES

Latest Development in the Open Shop Fight Results in the Loss of Jobs

Union teamsters in the employ of the Warburg Transfer company, the Cronier Transfer company and J. R. McNichols were locked out this morning and the proprietors and employees of these in other lines are in charge of the operation of such trucks and wagons as are in commission.

The lockout is a part of the open shop plan of employment sponsored and put into effect by the Employers' association of Twin Falls and today's action is understood to have been brought about because of the alleged activity of union men employed on open shop American Plan open shop merchants and businesses.

The statement is made that while open shop employees and businessmen who have endorsed the open shop plan have not indulged in any general discrimination in the matter of patronage, the leaders of the union of workers has instituted and encouraged a drastic boycott directed against all stores endorsing the open shop plan. An early settlement of the trouble is anticipated.

YOUTH IS INJURED WHEN WHEEL BREAKS

Harold Hennefer Rendered Unconscious in Fall to Pavement while Riding

Harold Hennefer, about 13 years of age, was more or less seriously injured when a wheel he was riding broke down shortly before noon today. The boy sustained a hurt about the head that rendered the lad unconscious, and led to profuse bleeding.

Young Hennefer was turning from Second street east into the main highway when his bicycle broke at the headpost. Injuries were sustained in the fall to the pavement. He was taken to a nearby physician for attention, and later conveyed home.

Keopless Lighthouse.

Along the coast of Alaska, where it would be difficult to find a reliable Lighthouse keepers, there have been established many automatically flashing beacons, each of which can operate for nearly five months on one charge of gas. A lighthouse with its keeper, alone and apart, and in the security, is always a romantically interesting mark of progress. A lighthouse without a keeper, however, is, perhaps, a still greater sign of progress. In that it frees many a man from the temporary necessity of staying where he might not want to be. At first some navigators were a bit slow in getting used to the quickly flashing lights. Because of this rapidity of the flash, one might hardly know whether he was running into or away from such a light. In the end, though, these small beacons, which cost only about $1,800 each to install, have greatly aided navigation in Alaskan waters.

Armor.

The invention of some form of protective covering or armor for the body dates back a long way in the history of the world. In Homer, in the Iliad, the story of the great siege of Troy by the Greeks, which was written some hundred years before the Christian era, has much to say, incidentally, about armor. He describes more than once the full armor of an ancient Greek warrior, greaves, corselet, helmet, shield, sword and spear, and tells us how each article was put on. Greaves are metal or leather protections for the legs. In fact, something very like a pair of modern cricket pads. One contingent of Greeks, at the siege of Troy, seems to have made a specialty of armor for they are constantly referred to as "well-greaved Achaeans."—Christian Science Monitor.

"C. Q. D."

The steamship Republic, an American liner, was mired and sunk by the steamship Florida, near Nantuxet light on January 21, 1900. The Marconi operator, Jack Blum, sent out the "C. Q. D.", the code signal then used in calling for aid, and several steamships quickly answered and steamed to the spot. They saved 701 persons. This was the first use of wireless to save lives of passengers on an ocean liner. By a strange coincidence this event happened on the eve of the seventy-first anniversary of the day on which Samuel Morse first publicly exhibited and demonstrated his code of "dots and dashes" now known as the Morse alphabet. The exhibition took place at the New York university on January 24, 1838.

Funeral in Switzerland.

At the death of a person in Switzerland the family inserts a formal, black-inked announcement in the papers asking for sympathy and stating that the "mourning-urn" will be exhibited during certain hours on a special day. In front of the house where the person died there is placed a little black table covered with a black cloth, on which stands a black jar. Into this the friends of the family drop little black bits of paper, cards, sometimes with a few words of sympathy on them. The urn is put on the table on the day of the funeral. Only men ever go to the church yard, and then generally follow the hearse on foot.

TOGGERY STORE ROBBERS ARE BELIEVED CAPTURED IN OGDEN

Utah Authorities Arrest Two Men Said to Have Goods Stolen from Local House in Their Possession—Sheriff Sprague on Way to Take Charge—Pair May Be Part of Organized Gang of Burglars

With merchandise taken from the toggery in a burglary some time last night in their possession Ralph Allison and Twin Jetties have been arrested in Ogdan and are being held by Weber county authorities, awaiting the arrival of Sheriff W. Sprague, of Twin Falls. The sheriff is here this morning for Ogdan and will bring the men back here about Saturday.

Arrest of Allison and Jetties was effected on information supplied from Twin Falls relating to the many burglaries committed in this vicinity recently. The money resulted in an attempt to dispose of some of the property, this morning the suspicion of Ogdan officials. Communication with Sheriff Sprague resulted in a fugitive warrant being issued upon which apprehension was made.

The toggery was entered between closing time last Friday night and opening of the store on Saturday morning. Entrance was effected by breaking a window at the rear end of the building, one man apparently handing goods stolen through the aperture while the other carried them to a temporary cache. Suits, clothing, shoes and haberdashery valued at more than $200 were carried away.

Synchronously with the cracking of the Twin Falls store burglar, the Straus & Glauber store at Buhl, a considerable amount of clothing and like goods being stolen on the same day. In this instance the robbers seemed partial to alken shirts, eight of those expensive garments being taken from the toggery and a like number from the Buhl store.

Notre Dame's Famous Garages.

The garages of Notre Dame are commonly associated with the medieval spirit and the queer obsessions of old Paris. As a matter of fact, while the staid glass windows date from the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries, most of the garages were erected under the direction of Viollet le Duc when the cathedral was restored, no earlier than the middle of last century. Writing in 1913, Harry Hens, who is an authority on architectural subjects, declared that most of the garages were erected by the restorationists of Notre Dame were done by an Englishman named Frampton; "though I believe this fact is now remembered by very few."

They Speak No More.

My cousin was visiting me from out of the city. We were sitting in the living room one afternoon when we heard a knock at the door. Thinking it was an agent, we decided to sit still, when suddenly a louder rap came, and under that furious howl the door came open, and in came my next door neighbor, who had recently moved in. We were so embarrassed we couldn't speak, and she was so mad she went home and has never spoken to us since.—Exchange.

Twin Falls, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Doctor's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results to thousands. Ask your neighbor! Here is Twin Falls evidence of their merit.

Mrs. E. Laydian, 620 Fourth Ave. says: "Several years ago I suffered severely with kidney trouble. I was annoyed an awful lot with dizziness and had black specks floating before my eyes, until I could hardly see. I was miserable with nervous headaches and my back was so ached all the time. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me entirely."

Just Where and How Is the Money to be Spent?

A businesslike Answer to a businesslike Question

THIRTY denominations cooperating in the Interchurch World Movement have budgeted their needs. No business could have done so more scientifically.

They have united to prevent the possibility of duplication or waste. At least a million dollars will be saved by the fact that thirty individual campaigns are joined in one united effort.

Each denomination has arranged its budget under six main heads:

- 1 FOR THE CHURCHES WORK AT HOME. A church of 100 members needs $10,000 a year for its work. The Interchurch World Movement has a plan for the churches of the United States and Canada. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Christianization of the churchmen?
- 2 FOR HOSPITALS AND HOMES. Every year thousands of men and women are suffering from lack of food, clothing, and shelter. The Interchurch World Movement has a plan for the hospitals and homes of the United States and Canada. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Christianization of the churchmen?
- 3 FOR HOME EDUCATION. Of the 100,000,000 people in the United States and Canada, only 10,000,000 are literate. The Interchurch World Movement has a plan for the education of the people of the United States and Canada. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Christianization of the churchmen?
- 4 FOR RELIGIOUS TRAINING. A church of 100 members needs $10,000 a year for its work. The Interchurch World Movement has a plan for the religious training of the people of the United States and Canada. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Christianization of the churchmen?
- 5 FOR THE CHURCHES WORK ABROAD. The Interchurch World Movement has a plan for the work of the churches in foreign lands. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Christianization of the churchmen?
- 6 PREACHERS' SALARIES. The Interchurch World Movement has a plan for the salaries of the preachers. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Christianization of the churchmen?

Each denomination has its own detailed budget, and will administer its own funds. Your pastor has copies of the budget; examine them for yourself. In the week of April 25th-May 2nd you will be given your opportunity to help. You can do it with the full satisfaction of knowing that every dollar of your gift has its post assigned to it in advance.

Every dollar for better America and a better world. Write your church calls on you give—and give with your heart as well as your pocket-book.

SHRIVER-HIDNER CASE APPEALED

Man Jury Sustains Women's Verdict—Fine Imposed; Defendants Give Bail

An all-male jury, impaneled in the probate court yesterday to hear evidence in the state's action against R. Shriver and Elsie Hilder, after 15 minutes' deliberation, brought in a verdict of guilty. This morning Judge O. P. Duval passed sentence, imposing a fine of $100 and costs in each case. The total amount will be about $300.

Shriver and the Hilder woman were tried on a charge of having committed a statutory offense, charges being preferred before the county prosecutor by Shriver's wife. In the same court ten days ago the case was tried before a jury of 12 women, whose verdict of guilty was sustained by the men yesterday.

Immediately after pronouncing of sentence today Homer C. Mills, attorney for the defense entered motion for appeal to the district court.

Both Shriver and the woman have been admitted to bail for the amount of $500 each. The bonds were provided.

CHURCHES TO START CAMPAIGN ON SUNDAY

Protestant Denominations Will Gather in Mass Assemblage Near Boise

Plans are under way for a gigantic mass demonstration to be participated in by the affiliated Protestant denominations in the united simultaneous campaign to be held in a great amphitheater in the foothills near Boise Sunday afternoon. The marvelous acoustics of this gigantic natural coliseum, which has a seating capacity that will accommodate many thousands, has but lately been discovered, and it is in this amphitheater Boise expects to produce a spectacular drama this fall during fall week.

The speakers and singers at the Interchurch World Movement demonstration will be 1200 feet from the audience and yet, talking in an ordinary tone of voice, each word will be distinctly understood. It is expected that fully 6000 people will be present at this great meeting. State Director Randall, 400 yards from his audience, will tell the message of the Interchurch World Movement, and give the signal for the start of the united simultaneous campaign in Idaho.

MEMORIAL SCHEME PROMISED SUPPORT

Business Men of Kimberly Will Aid Legionnaires in Plan to Erect Hall

KIMBERLY (Special).—Members of Kimberly Post, American Legion, were entertained by the Kimberly Commercial club on Wednesday night. At the conclusion of the business meeting coffee and sandwiches were served army style. The night's activities were brought to a close by a boxing bout.

The next meeting of the post, on April 27, plans for the proposed memorial hall will be submitted for approval and possible adoption.

Claycomb of Twin Falls; John Smith and Herbert Hall of Idaho Falls. The former has signed for the artillery and will be connected with band work in Honolulu. The latter two will be connected with a cavalry detachment at Cheyenne.

WORKERS RETURNING TO THEIR POSITIONS

Coterie of Heinicke Men Said to Have Repudiated Union and Go to Work

Outside of extension of the labor lockout to several more concerns, some controversy between union workers employed on contract jobs concerning hauling contracts, and the return of some men locked out yesterday to work there is little change in the local labor situation. Each side claims to be making gains.

The Brazos Shoot Metal works has closed its doors against union men, and is operating on a non-union basis. The American Electric Co. too, is said to have followed the lead and has refused to work to card men. It is reported that a considerable coterie of workers, employed up to yesterday by the Heinicke Construction company, returned to their jobs this morning, having, according to announcement, repudiated affiliation with the union.

TOURIST PARK READY MONDAY

Camping Area About Prepared for Service, Commerce Club Official States

Practically every detail of cleanup and construction for the Twin Falls tourist park has been completed. The site should be ready for service by the beginning of the coming week.

"We have about completed the task we set out to accomplish and we hope to give the camping park over to tourists by Monday," said Newell S. Wight, secretary of the chamber of commerce, today. The work of preparation has been in charge of the chamber of commerce, executives of which have directed forces of workers during the past few days.

Yesterday's activities at the park, which is located at the east end of Fifth and Sixth avenue east, resulted in the completion of five brick and concrete camping stoves and a good start on the construction of camp tables. These are being made by high school students of the manual training section. There will be five of the tables, each four feet by five feet in size. A driveway has been opened to the grounds and signposting is in progress. City forces are employed in coupling up mains for water and sewer service, and the same forces will fill in trenches dug yesterday by volunteer forces. Cardmaker Elliott Lamb has moved out to the park and will be stationed in a nearby cottage. The park site covers an acre of ground and includes a fine locust grove.

Figleaf Society Has Fat Chance to Get By Here

THE governor of Idaho is strong for the economy start and has adopted the overall idea as help, aid and assistance to the country-wide movement designed to reduce the cost of clothing.

This governor also announces that if the cost of overall advances under demand pressure he may be induced to start an Adam-and-Eve club.

That statement will be taken, by reserved persons, with a grain of salt—that is, of course, unless, and so forth.

Anyway a fat chance a figleaf society would have with the present dispenser of climatic things on the job in Boise.

Unless the governor first that guy pretty soon would like to see said governor doing a shivering shimmy with a leaf as his sole covering.

Wonder if the weatherman could possibly predict "bright and better" occasionally.

Still the promise for tomorrow isn't so bad, as promises from the statistical station go. He says "Warmer Saturday."

The concrete contractor will not be permitted to pour his dope tonight, because there's going to be "light to heavy frosts," if you get the meaning.

Yesterday's top temperature was 43 with 24 low last night, and four one hundredths inch precipitation during the twenty-four hours.

OBOWLEY TO RE-ENLIST

Sergeant K. M. Crowley, who has been in charge of the local army recruiting station some time, left yesterday for Salt Lake to re-enroll in service for the war department.
