This was regarded as complicating the situation in Mexico. Gonzales has declared martial law in Puebla City, according to these advices and has exacted a loss of 200,000 pesos from the population.

Passenger Traffic Suspended. Passenger traffic between Mexico City and Guadalupe has been suspended. A passenger train on this line was attacked by rebels at Panjano on May 5 and robbed of a considerable sum of government funds intended to be used in paying the soldiers at Guadalupe, where at last advice, General Dieguez had 5000 men in his command. Increased rebel activity was reported in the vicinity of Vera Cruz where President Carranza's son-in-law, General Candido Aguilar is in command of the federal troops.

RAILWAY MEN ARGUE PROFITEERING PRIMARY CAUSE OF HIGH PRICES

Conclusions of Study Conducted Under Auspices of Brotherhoods is Submitted to Board in Support of Demands for Higher Pay and to Refute Charges that Increased Labor Costs are Responsible for Elevated Expense of Living

WASHINGTON, (P)—A study of profiteering in American industry, made under the auspices of the railway brotherhoods, was presented to the railroad labor board today in support of the railway workers' demand for higher pay and to refute the charge that increased labor costs are responsible for the high cost of living.

Presented by W. W. Lauck, former secretary of the war labor board, the study seeks to show that profiteering in industry is the fundamental cause for high prices. It gives many statistics to support that contention.

Cities War-Made Millions. Calling attention to the many war-made millions, the study contends that the increase in the wealth of the wealthy is an "unanswerable" refutation to all attempts to charge labor with profiteering.

"For, if invested wealth gets a larger return," it says the study, "the man who gives personal service or labor is bound to get a smaller proportion."

Of the extraordinary increase in the price of sugar now amounting to 300 per cent, the study says, the increase in labor cost paid by the consumer was less than 15 per cent. The result of advanced prices, according to the quoted reports of 12 companies, was pictured in the net profits of these concerns which it was said rose from an average of $100,000 during the years 1912-1914 to $250,000,000 for the years 1915-1918.

In the meat packing industry where profits were said to have increased between 100 and 400 per cent, the labor item was shown so small that a wage increase of 100 per cent would add less than 5 per cent to the total cost. Between 1914 and 1918 was shown as eight times the total labor cost and the 1918 price represented 25 times the total labor cost.

Compare Factors in Price. Profits about approximately equalled the retail price of certain kinds of cloth, the report declared, while the labor item amounts to from one-fourteenth to one-twentieth of the price. Similar relations were pictured in the manufacture of men's garments.

Shoes, according to the study, "formed a splendid opportunity for the profiteer. The profit items in 1914, it was charged, absorbed nearly one-half the price paid by the consumer, or nearly three times the total labor cost, while in 1917 the profit items amounted to approximately three-fifths of the total price and over five times the total labor cost."

Increases in the retail price of bituminous coal were shown at four times the normal price, the study declared. The proceeds of the industry received by the coal operator was shown as increased from 75 to 400 per cent.

Profiteering Continuing. Profiteering did not stop with the armistice, the study declared, presenting figures to show that corporation profits in 1919 were 110 per cent over the pre-war average which means, the study added, that 1919 profits were more than double the average for the years 1912-1914.

An average of $1200 per family of five during the years 1912-1918 was declared to be probably a highly conservative estimate of the actual cost of corporate profiteering to the consumer.

Submit General Demands. Concluding his study, Mr. Lauck submitted the following general demands in the name of the railroad workers:

"1. Labor in general, and railroad labor in particular, must have wages increased proportionate to advances in living costs.

"2. In the present crisis, and for all time to come, producers and middlemen must be restrained from advancing prices in excess of increases in labor and material costs.

"3. Producers and middlemen must refrain from including income and excess profit taxes in their costs and passing them on to the consumer with an added cost.

"4. The principle of a living wage must be accepted and established in the normal order of business and restored and increased production hoped for in all fields of industry."

SONORA SENDS TROOPS FOR DRIVE ON TORREON

Calles to Take Command of Army at Juarez for Concentrated Operations in Coahuila Region to Southward

AGUA PRIETA, Sonora, (P)—Five hundred more Sonora troops left Agua Prieta today for Pulpito Pass, where they will enter the state of Chihuahua and join 2000 more Sonora troops, which left here yesterday for Chihuahua.

After crossing the short time near the pass, the troops will march to Juarez, where they will be met by General P. Elias Calles, commander of troops in northern Sonora, who will take special command of the forces for a concentrated drive into the Torreon region.

General Calles expects to reach Juarez Monday.

JUAREZ, Mexico, (P)—One thousand revolutionary troops already have started on their march from here to Mexico City, and 500 more will depart this afternoon, according to information given out at military headquarters here at noon.

Cavalry in Vanguard. The first units to go were cavalry troops, it was said. The contingent that came to leave Juarez last Monday was to be composed of infantrymen. The troops will march first to Torreon, Coahuila, and thence to the national capital.

Three hundred soldiers from the garrison at Casas Grandes arrived here today. Puebla, one of the largest cities of Mexico, will fall into the hands of the revolutionists without a struggle, it is not already from the north, according to Brigadier General Francisco R. Serrano, chief of staff, of the revolutionary army, who arrived here today.

Agent of Reconstruction. As an agent of reconstruction rather than as a fighting machine, the army under General Plutarco Elias Calles, which is to be massed here within eight days, will make its triumphant sweep to Mexico City, General Serrano declared.

Our chief work will be to rebuild what Carranza's troops have destroyed," he explained. "We do not expect serious opposition from the army on the way to the capital. We believe that they will join the movements as others have done heretofore—without firing a shot."

FRENCH STRIKE CONTINUES

PARIS, (P)—There was no apparent change in the strike situation throughout France this morning. During the past few days a large number of extremist railroad workers have been released but many of these have been released.

The executive committee of the railway workers federation held a stormy meeting last night at which it is understood, there was strong sentiment in favor of calling off the strike if it could be done without appealing to capitulate to the government.

Miners in the northern coal fields have finally decided to strike next Monday.

BUTTE'S LABOR TROUBLES CALL TROOPS OFTEN

Military Forces Enter District Four Times Since Disruption of Federation of Miners by Extremists

NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE WORKER STARTS TROUBLE

Period of Disaffection Begins when Radical Elements Coalesce Under Leadership of Socialist, Later Townley Editor

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—The arrival here of United States troops, sent on April 22, 1920, to preserve peace following a strike called by Metal Mine Workers' union, No. 8, Industrial Workers of the World, constituted the fourth military invasion of this, the greatest mining city in the world.

Butte's first serious labor trouble developed in 1914. It was the host of the old Butte Miners' union, No. 1, Western Federation of Labor, and that it never had and a strike during 33 years of its existence. Wages were comparatively high and living comparatively cheap. A large per cent of the miners owned their own homes and they were conservative.

Duncan Starts Trouble.

The period of disaffection began about 1910, when radical elements in the camp began to coalesce under the leadership of the Rev. Lewis J. Duncan, a socialist. Duncan left the pulpit for the radical lecture platform and in 1911, ran for mayor and was elected overwhelmingly. Duncan was re-elected mayor in 1913, by a large vote, and, it is said, immediately began his battle for control of the Butte miners' union and through it of the Western Federation of Miners, which embraced almost all the metal miners in the land.

The conservatives in the union, backed by Charles H. Moyer, president of the federation, resisted. On June 13, 1914, the annual parade of the miners' union was broken up by men said to be J. W. W. and Duncan followers. Moyer came to Butte from Denver to investigate. On the night of June 30, he attended a conference in the miners' hall. A mob gathered outside. Deputy sheriffs were sent to the hall to protect Moyer, who was threatened. Shots were fired. It became a full-scale riot and two men in the crowd were hit. One of them died.

The mob stormed the hall. Moyer fled to Helena, where he appealed to Governor Sam V. Stewart for protection.

Creeds Reign of Terror.

Meanwhile, the hall was blown up and a reign of terror was created. A sort of soviet was established with "Muckie" McDonald as dictator. McDonald chose a cabinet of 20 for advisers.

Buildings were dynamited. The railroads broke into factions and a Flinn leader tried to assassinate Mayor Duncan but was killed by Duncan. The Flinn faction then blew up Duncan's socialist printing house. People began to leave Butte in droves.

Then the governor sent the Second Montana guard—in the great war afterwards, the 103rd U. S. Infantry—to Butte. The troops quickly dissolved the "soviet." McDonald and several others soon after were sent to prison and the mayor was removed from office by legal proceedings instituted by the governor for failure to preserve the peace.

The election of 1915 was carried by the conservatives. Duncan left Butte and allied himself with the National Non-Partisan League, one of whose papers he edited. He is now, it is said, running an employment office in Minneapolis. McDonald was paroled by Governor Stewart. Later he was reported to have invited the governor during a mass meeting in Butte in 1916. He went back to serve out his term but soon after gained his freedom.

Duncan and McDonald were succeeded by W. F. Dunn, a local youth, a prize fighter and later an organizer for a union of electrical workers. Dunn came to Butte from Canada and with E. B. Smith of Butte, set up The Butte Bulletin, a weekly radical newspaper. In 1917 trouble again broke out and this time, federal troops went into Butte, because the war demanded that copper production go ahead without interruption.

Disaffection Case Pending.

Soon after an editorial in the Bulletin advised the public to ignore orders of the state council of defense. Dunn, as writer of this article, and Smith, as editor of the paper, were tried in Helena under the state sedition act, convicted and fined $5000 each. Their case is pending before the state supreme court.

In the fall of 1919 federal troops were again obliged to spend some time in Butte. Meanwhile, Dunn's paper had begun to advocate the soviet system and later the One Big Union.

After the disruption of their union in 1914 by the "McDonald rebellion," the conservative miners never reorganized. The I. W. W. and the O. B. U. are said to control those Butte miners who belong to a union now.

BORAH CALLS FOR PROBE OF CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

Idaho Senator Proposes Senate Committee to Conduct Inquiry into Candidates' Tactics

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Investigation of all presidential campaign expenditures, republican and democrat, was proposed in a resolution introduced Thursday by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho.

Mr. Borah proposed that the senate election committee conduct the inquiry into the campaign. Another phase of the proposed investigation would be into use of means or influence, including promises of patronage.

Mr. Borah, who has been supporting Senator Johnson, of California, for the republican nomination, offered his resolution after consultation with prominent republicans, and democrats of the senate, but he did not make any statement on it in the senate.

Senator Borah in a recent address in the senate charged that the campaign managers of Major General Leonard Wood and Governor Lowden of Illinois, were expending large sums of money in the campaign for the republican presidential nomination.

SEEMS COMPROMISE WITH TURK NATIONALIST HEAD

Grand Vizier Decides to Send Embassadors to Mustafa Kemal Pasha, whose Influence Grows

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP)—Damat Ferid Pasha, the grand vizier, decided Wednesday to send Nazim Pasha, former chief of staff, and Nureddine Pasha, formerly governor of Smyrna, to Ankara for the purpose of effecting a compromise with Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the nationalist leader.

The efforts to induce Turkish troops to oppose Mustafa Kemal's forces appear to be becoming more difficult daily. Of three thousand recruits under training one-third drew a month's pay and asked to go home to say good-bye to their families, but failed to return. The remainder are now locked in the compound.

Doubt is expressed among observers here if the two emissaries the grand vizier is sending to Ankara will ever return to Constantinople.

TWIN FALLS IS VICTORIOUS IN RUPERT TILT REPLETE WITH BAD FIELDING—FINAL COUNT RUNS 12-9

Denman's Ball Players Overcome Visiting Coterie but Game is Wozy Throughout with Errors Totalling as High as Scores—Locals Out-Bat Enemy but Mis-play at Critical Periods

Rupert and Twin Falls high school baseball teams yesterday played the most even game yet staged at Lincoln park, when the local crowd defeated the visitors, 12 to 9. Ragged fielding, due in part to the poor condition of the field, brought up the score after the contest had started with the appearance of being a light game.

Every game played here this season has been won to a considerable extent on errors, and yesterday's was no exception. Several local scores were the result of clean hits but most of them were chalked up to Rupert bobbles. Denman's men made more misplays than the visitors, but kept base runners from scoring in several instances.

Two features of the encounter were a homer by slugger Fix and a fancy catch by Thomotz. Thomotz speared Bousa's long hit in the fifth bare-handed. Fix dropped the pellet over the right field fence in the third, duplicating his stunt of the Buhl game. Another commendable feature of the game was that the backstops controlled the base runners much better than in the past. Hereafter, any player who got on first usually ran wild around the circuit, but yesterday some of the base stealing was eliminated.

Captain King kept up his perfect batting record, getting three safeties in three trips to the plate. Fix came next with two out of five. Until the eighth frame, neither team had a very decided lead. The visitors led off in the first with one run, while the locals took two. Rupert came back and from then on except in the fifth, led until the last of the seventh when Twin Falls climbed out of the hole and began to put on full steam.

Jameson started out and showed very good hurling, but poor support let in several tallies. Fix relieved him in the seventh and also baffled the visitors. McRill and Remsburg, Rupert moundmen, had little on the ball and were saved by good work in the outfield.

Twin Falls still claims the right to Jameson; wild pitch, McRill; passed balls, Hausen 2, Tucker; struck out, by Remsburg none, by McRill none, by Jameson 3 in 6 innings, by Fix 3 in 7 innings; bases on balls, off McRill 4 in 7 innings, off Remsburg 1 in 1 inning, off Jameson 1 in 6 innings, off Fix 1 in 3 innings; hits, off McRill 8 in 7 innings, off Remsburg 2 in one inning, off Jameson 4 in 6 innings, off Fix 1 in 3 innings; winning pitcher, Fix; losing pitcher, McRill; time of game, 1:35; umpire, Fletcher.

BOSTON FIGHTER CAPTURES CROWN FROM M. O'DOWD

St. Paul Middleweight Title Holder Falls Before New Englander

BOSTON, Mass., (AP)—Johnny Wilson of Boston won the middleweight boxing championship of the world when he was awarded a referee's decision over Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul here last night. The fight went 12 rounds.

O'Dowd was the aggressor throughout the contest but Wilson, a left-handed boxer, scored repeatedly with his right. O'Dowd excelled in infighting but seemed unable to fathom Wilson's style of boxing. Eight of the rounds went to Wilson, two to O'Dowd, and two were even.

The only knockdown in the bout came in the second round when Wilson caught O'Dowd with a straight right to the jaw, O'Dowd going down for the count of 4. Wilson surprised the followers of the game by scoring so many times with his right, breaking through O'Dowd's defense often.

The pace set by the man was fast and at the end of the twelfth round both were instead on their feet. A capacity crowd witnessed the bout. The St. Paul boy was a big favorite before the bout, the general betting being 10 to 3. Hector McInnis of Boston was referee.

Wilson has participated in many bouts against second rate boxers in the last year and has appeared in many cities, principally in New England. Tonight's bout was his first against a leading boxer.

O'Dowd won the title from Al McCoy in 1917.

When the song sounded for the end of the twelfth round and Referee MacInnis pointed to Wilson's corner in token of the local boy's victory, O'Dowd protested the decision, claiming he was entitled to a draw at least.

While MacInnis, who was the choice of O'Dowd's manager as referee, was explaining why he had awarded the title to Wilson, the backers of the local boy rushed to the ring and carried the new champion away on their shoulders.

Wilson's victory gave him the honor of being the first New England boxer to hold the middleweight title.

Spectators said after the fight that O'Dowd's chance to retain his title went glimmering when Wilson sent him to the mat in the second round for the count of 4. The knock down was a complete surprise to Wilson's back-ers, as it was to the adherents of the champion. Thereafter Wilson never was headed in his dash for the title. O'Dowd had stipulated that the man should weigh in at 160 but neither tipped the beam. It was announced officially, however, as the men entered the ring that the bout was for the championship, and the two fought with that understanding.

PLAN FOR OPEN WHEAT MARKET

Federal Director Calls Conference on Steps After Guarantee Act Expiration

CHICAGO, (P)—Called by Julius H. Barnes, United States wheat director, representatives of boards of trade, county and terminal elevator associations, grain buyers, exporters and bankers gathered here today to plan for the re-establishment of an open market in wheat, at the expiration of the wheat guarantee act on June 1.

The Chicago board of trade and other exchanges made known they were anxious to resume trading in futures but desired the government to safeguard their market, particularly against the pool of foreign governments which has been buying grain for export.

Grain dealers desired that the interstate commerce commission use its power to furnish an adequate number of cars to move grain in season.

Today's Markets

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (P)—Liberty bonds $1.00 price today were: 3 1/2's $91.00; first 4's $85.00; second 4's $85.10; first 4 1/4's $86.00; second 4 1/4's $85.25; third 4 1/4's $85.00; fourth 4 1/4's $85.70; Victory 3 3/4's $90; Victory 4 3/4's $90.04.

New York Exchange

NEW YORK, (P)—Today's stock market was dull, dealings falling far below recent daily averages. Sales approximated 600,000 shares.

Sentiment among traders was evidently divided at the opening of today's stock market, initial transactions resulting in a mixture of gains and losses. Moderate selling was probably induced by the report of the local reserve bank urging further contraction of credits. Oils, excepting Texas company, made substantial gains with secondary steels and motors, but rails were irregular with shippings and textiles. Trading was light and again limited to the professional element. Firmness was shown by foreign exchange in the preliminary quotations.

Trading was dull during the noon hour except for an irregular spurt in low priced rails. Publication of the wage survey submitted by the railroad labor organizations was without effect on transportation shares. Call money held at opening quotations on light demand.

The monotony of the later trade was occasionally relieved by another advance in shippings, minor rails also extending their gains. The closing was heavy.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (P)—Trading in corn and oats was very light at the close today, both markets being sensitive to news.

misison-house buying or selling. The market was easily influenced, the sentiment in many quarters being bearish. The transportation situation was understood to be a factor for this.

Opening prices of corn ranged from 1 1/4 to 5-8c lower, with July $1.71 1/2 to 1.71 3/4 and September $1.03 to 1.03 1/2. The downward tendency was soon checked and there was a rally of scattered buying, with May leading the upturn.

All deliveries of corn and July and September sales at new high figure, first on the crop as did all deliveries of rice. The high market, however, were not retained. Lack of pressure and short covering and scattered buying caused the market to advance readily, but toward the close an overbought condition developed in corn and it slumped more than 3c from the early top. The market closed strong, 1 1/4 to 3c higher, with July $1.73 1/2 to 1.73 1/8 and September $1.03. May corn touched $1.03 1/2, then declined sharply, closing at $1.01 3/4, with a sale just before the close at $1.02 1/4.

Oats were dull and about steady at yesterday's close. This condition, however, was short lived, as the market after opening unchanged to 5-8c higher on the range, showed an inclination to advance. July started unchanged to 1-8c higher at 93 3/4 to 94c, and soon touched 93 7/8c, a new high figure for the crop.

Provisions were slightly firmer.

MEXICAN CRISIS COMPLICATED BY THIRD FACTION

Mexico City via Laredo that Carranza had left the Mexican capital for Vera Cruz.

According to the message Carranza left Mexico City last night accompanied by a guard of troops under command of his son-in-law, Candido Aguilar, and that he ostensibly was headed for Vera Cruz.

Predict Early Fight.
Analysis of reports yesterday on the Mexican situation had caused the revolutionary agents here to predict that President Carranza would abandon the capital soon. Their view of the situation found some support in official quarters where the greater part of the reports received had indicated a steady growth of the rebellion.

Rebel agents declared Carranza's manifesto in which he insisted he would not surrender the presidency was not inconsistent with their belief that he would abandon the capital, pointing out that he might cling to the title of president from an office in Vera Cruz or from any convenient refuge.

A message to rebel headquarters here saying the president of the municipality of Mexico City was organizing a civilian guard for the protection of the city "in the event of its evacuation" was regarded by the revolutionary agents as significant and had prepared them for the announcement that Carranza had quit the capital.

Details Killing of Americans.
Official advices from the American embassy at Mexico City said E. F. Greenlaw, the American, and his son who were killed last Saturday near Mexico City were robbed at the same time of a part of the company payroll, amounting to 4500 pesos. Greenlaw was 32 years old and his son 32. Mrs. Greenlaw and a minor child are in Mexico City.

official announcement by Mexican Consul Garcia this afternoon.

The consul denied persistent reports that the military had demanded the surrender of the federal garrison at Nuevo Laredo by 3 o'clock this afternoon. He said a military train carrying four hundred cavalry with mounts and full equipment would arrive from Monterrey late today to reinforce the loyal forces in Nuevo Laredo.

Revolutionists Move Toward Texas Border

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, (P)—A report considered reliable reached here at noon that Mexican revolutionary forces had captured Lampasas, just south of Nuevo Laredo, had cut wire communication to the south and were holding up a train on route from the border to Mexico City. The rebels were said to be on route to Nuevo Laredo where, the report said, the federal forces would surrender.

A trip into the country in the fine warm weather of the past few weeks is one of the best spring tonics on the market. A survey of the farms of Twin Falls county will pay dividends in the form of satisfaction with the section in which we live, to an extent which is surprising.

Never has the Twin Falls country looked better than at present, never were the prospects better at this time of year for everything which goes to make a successful farm year, never were returns more certain upon intelligent and careful land cultivation.

The Twin Falls people as well as the farmers should be proud of the farms of Twin Falls county. In comparison with those of many other sections of the state, this section is in a class by itself. A trip over Southern Idaho will serve to convince the most skeptical of this; only those who are unable or who refuse to see this comparison will disagree with the statement that there is no better farming country in all the broad west, and no better farmers, than are to be found right here in the Twin Falls country.

THREE DEFRAY FINES IN MUNICIPAL COURT

Housekeeper at the Corcoran Rooms and Guests Found Guilty of Drunkenness

Mrs. Kate Weston, housekeeper at the Corcoran rooms; Mrs. R. E. Johnston, a guest at the Corcoran, and a man, the name of W. J. Taylor, whom Chief of Police William Taylor declares is a professional gambler, each paid fines of $25 in the municipal court yesterday. They were arrested during the early hours of yesterday morning on charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct at the Corcoran.

The trio appeared in the police court after having spent the hours intervening following arrest in the county jail at 10 o'clock yesterday morning for arraignment. Fine denied guilt and trial was ordered for 3 o'clock. At that time they were declared guilty and a fine imposed. Hughes is said to have had a large amount of money in his possession.

Mrs. Johnston, according to Chief of Police Taylor, is the widow of E. Johnston, who was found murdered in a Salt Lake hotel several months ago. They are from Jarbridge.

$400 RING IS INVOLVED IN SUIT AT LAW

John Wilson Says Young Woman Withholds Property He Allowed Her to Wear

John Wilson once possessed a ring, it was a valuable ring, according to Mr. Wilson. He wants it back. Wilson accuses Olive Goss of withholding his property, and he has taken the matter into the district court for decision.

According to a complaint filed by Attorney W. P. Guthrie and A. J. Myers, Wilson loaned the jewel to Miss Goss some time last February while the twin kept company, "one with the other." The ring is valued at $400 and since the friendship of the two has ceased Wilson considers the return of the property the only proper thing.

Plaintiff alleges that the defendant has refused to return the jewelry, and he asks the court to compel her to make good either with the property or its full value, together with $250, which is considered a reasonable fee for carrying on the suit.

WIFE IS MADE DEFENDANT IN DIVORCE SUIT

Joseph Cannon Complains that Spouse Entertained Men in Domestic Apartments

Joseph Cannon has a grievance against his wife, Iva Cannon. He wants to air the circumstances in the divorce court. The bill of particulars in this case recites that Joseph and Iva intermarried on February 24, 1919, in Twin Falls county. Since then, it is averred, the wife has treated the husband in a cruel and inhuman manner through "conduct inconsistent and contrary to the laws and customs of decent marriage and the established rules of society."

Specially, the complaint recites, Mrs. Cannon has been guilty of entertaining men, other than her husband, in the "rooms of the plaintiff and defendant in the absence of said plaintiff." This violation of society laws and domestic ethics occurred, the plaintiff says, "on June 15, 1919, and July 6, 1919, when she sat upon the lap of a man—Davis, and embraced him."

J. H. Sherry filed the papers for Cannon.

Climatic Critic Calls Truce With Weather Forces

THIS is Armistice Day. You didn't know that, but we are telling you.

A truce of indefinite length has been declared with the weather man, and from now on hostilities are done—until something else happens.

You see it this way: The gaffer whose clock we punch, and who for certain services performed presents us at the close of each hebdomadal period with a more or less adequate stipendiary check, thinks our disposition might be improved if we take a lay-off for a period, the terminal of which will be decided by events and circumstances of the future.

As now we are off, so here's to you, and you, and the weather man.

As a favor, auf wiedersehen, and also so long.

Yesterday was summer weather, with 68 the peak and 43 the bottom mark.

Tonight and Saturday fair, says the person who proposes what sort of weather shall pervade this district.
