RAIDS CONTINUE IN IRELAND ON LESSENER SCALE

Police Barracks, Court House and Postoffice in Limerick County Burned with Several other Attacks Reported

EXTENSION OF MILITARY ACTIVITIES IS FORECAST

Commander of British Forces Formulates Plan for Closer Co-operation of Authorities in Suppressing Disorders

DUBLIN, (AP)—Several additional attacks on government property and other incidents occurred in various parts of Ireland last night, but the reports indicated that the activity was nothing like the scale of Wednesday night's demonstration. The police barracks, court house and postoffice in Limerick County, Ireland, were burned, while a motor van containing provisions for the police was burned near Sherive. The plan of General Sir Nevill Macready, commander of the government forces in Ireland, being clear co-operation between the police and the military in an effort to suppress the disorders in Ireland, involves the establishment of military posts in isolated districts, it is stated here on apparently good authority. Previously the police have been largely occupied with work which is essentially of a military nature.

COAST PLANS INVASION OF ARGENTINE MARKETS

Ship Board Steamer to Transport Heavy Cargo of Merchandise and Provisions

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—One thousand tons of canned salmon, sardines, rice, canned and evaporated fruits, pasta, various lubricating oils, and other goods from the Pacific coast will invade the Argentine market when the shipping board steamer, Pallas, sails for Buenos Aires in June, according to Swynne and Hoyt, operators of the vessel, who said there had been a big demand for cargo and that the steamer's cargo is in addition to a big consignment of lumber.

No difficulty in obtaining a return cargo was reported. South American merchants having signed up to ship linseed, quebracho extract, used in tanning, dry and green hides, corn, seeds from Argentina and Santos coffee from Brazil. The route of the line will be down the west coast and through the Straits of Magellan, returning by way of Brazil and the Panama canal. Heretofore Pacific coast products have had to travel across the United States by rail before going to South America, according to steamship men, while lumber from the southern states has been used in the southern continent instead of west coast lumber. Fir and spruce will be the Pallas' lumber cargo. It is expected pine and redwood will be shipped later. The Pallas, a 7500-ton boat, will follow the Pallas in July, and the shipping board expects to allocate a third boat for the Argentine route, according to the operators.

SAYS SUBAR SITUATION TO BE LONG ABNORMAL

Hoover Gives Measure of Credit for the Rapid Rise in Price to Farmers Agreement

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Two or three years will be required for the sugar situation to get back to normal, Herbert Hoover, former food administrator, estimated today before the house committee investigating the sugar situation. Hoover, expressing what he said was an "off-hand" opinion, asserted that there would have been a "rapid" rise in the price of sugar if prices had Attorney General Palmer had not agreed that Louisiana producers could sell their crop at 17 and 18 cents a pound.

PROHIBITS REQUIREMENT FOR COMBINATION SUGAR SALES
ST. LOUIS, Mo., (AP)—The practice of sugar growers in requiring a certain amount of other commodities be purchased with each pound of sugar is a violation of the federal trade commission act, according to instructions received from Attorney General Palmer by the local department of justice today.

England Offers Men's Clothing at Low Price

NEW YORK, (AP)—England is ready to sell to American merchants men's clothing, all wool, that can be retailed at a 20 percent profit at $35.40 each, according to J. C. Shannon, member of a London manufacturing concern. "We can produce suits, transport them to America, pay the duty and sell them to the retailer for $32.40," Shannon asserted. "The same quality suits are now selling here from $50 to $80."

SOCIALISTS CALL ON PALMER FOR RELEASE OF DEBS

Petition in Behalf of "Political Prisoners" is Presented by Committee Named by Convention

NEW YORK, (AP)—The socialist party of America at its national convention here today voted to reaffirm its allegiance to the third (Moscow) international, with reservations, including that of determining its own national policy. By a vote of 90 to 40 it rejected a proposal by J. Louis Engel of Chicago to pledge without reservation its allegiance to the third international, which was attacked during the socialist investigation in Albany as the organization that at the height of Lenin and Trotsky, had issued a call for violent world-wide revolution.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Release of Eugene V. Debs, the socialist party's nominee for president, and all other political prisoners, was asked in a petition presented to Attorney General Palmer today by a committee appointed at the socialist party convention in New York by Seymour Steinman, the party's vice-president nominee, as chairman.

The committee will see Secretary Tumulty at the White House tomorrow to present a similar petition to President Wilson, and on Monday another committee will call on Secretary Baker. A joint decision on the three petitions is expected. Mr. Steinman said the delegation did not believe that Mr. Palmer had been favorably impressed by the appeal for general amnesty. He added that the attorney-general had told them that he would take under advisement the matter of releasing Debs. The memorial presented to the attorney-general said that the "practice of presenting petitions for holding and opposing political views appeared to those of the administration in power, or for

INDIANA G. O. P. BLAMES WILSON IN PACT DELAY

State Convention Approves Action of Republicans in Senate in Treaty Controversy; Instructs Delegates

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., (AP)—Indiana will send ten delegates to the republican national convention in Chicago next month instructed for Major General Leonard Wood, of Indianapolis, instructed for Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, and sixteen uninstructed. This was one of the net results of the republican state convention that adjourned last night after nominating a state ticket, adopting a platform and electing four delegates at large to the national convention.

The only contest of the convention came over the adoption of a qualified resolution instructing the "big four" to support General Wood, who won the plurality vote in the primary last week. The resolution was carried after a hard fight led by the Marion county (Ind.) delegates by a vote of 753 to 740.

Holds Wilson Responsible
The text of the peace plank incorporated in the party's platform charged President Wilson with being responsible for the delay in ratifying the peace treaty.

"The treaty of peace with Germany ought to have been made immediately after the armistice," the text reads. "If that had been done, the treaty would have been ratified many months ago. The president insisted upon making, and forced the representatives of the associated powers to adopt the covenant of the league of nations as an integral part of the peace treaty. He thus sacrificed peace to his own plan for the league of nations, seeking in this way through coercion to nullify the constitutional powers of the senate in regard to treaties. As representatives of the republican party," continued the text, "in convention assembled, we declare our solemn opposition to the covenant of the league of nations as submitted by the president and we fully approve the action of the republicans of the senate in rejecting its adoption."

For Association of Nations
The party favors an association of nations to promote the peace of the world, and the establishment of a world court to administer international justice and also earnestly support a general agreement among nations for a reduction of military and naval forces of the United States, but we are unalterably opposed to any league or covenant which gives to foreign nations, in any way whatever, the slightest control over the military and naval forces of the United States or which gives a foreign court or tribunal the least jurisdiction over the domestic affairs of the American people."

Matamoros Surrenders without Giving Battle

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, (AP)—Matamoros, opposite Brownsville, quietly surrendered to Mexican revolutionary forces shortly before noon today.

It was the last southern border port to be captured by the revolutionaries, and its surrender was in accordance with an agreement arranged yesterday between General Rafael Cosío, Matamoros' military commander, and General Berrea, representing the revolutionary government.

ATTEMPT TO OVERRIDE VETO FAILS IN HOUSE

Five Democrats, Prohibitionists and Independent Voted with Republicans on Motion

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The house today voted 219 to 210 to override the veto of the executive, legislative and judicial appropriation bill. The vote was 170 to 157.

The only vote in party lines on the vote was five democrats, Gilliam and Olney, Massachusetts; Sullivan, Mississippi; Lea, California, and Evans, Nevada, who voted with the republicans to override the veto. Randall, California prohibitionist, and Keller, Minnesota independent, also voted with the republicans.

Fugitive Executive Continues Struggle with Numbers of Antagonists Increasing

INTERNATIONAL INCIDENT FORECAST IN PREDICAMENT OF BRITISH CONSUL

(By the Associated Press)

Mexican rebel forces have apparently won the first phase of the battle against troops still loyal to President Carranza, which have been fighting in desperate battle north of San Marcos, state of Puebla, for the past four days. Advice from Vera Cruz indicates a break in the Carranza lines and an effort on the part of the president's men to break through the rebel lines and march northward.

The struggle is continuing and new rebel reinforcements are reported to have reached the scene, coming up from the south.

An international incident may be provoked by the fact that W. A. Body, British consul for Vera Cruz, is in the camp of President Carranza. It seems probable he accompanied the president in his flight from Mexico City. British and American authorities in Vera Cruz have arranged for a Mexican naval lieutenant to go by special train to the battlefield and attempt to rescue the Britishman.

French and British warships have made their appearance in the harbor of Vera Cruz and four American fighting vessels are at anchor there. Negotiations for the surrender of Matamoros, across the frontier from Brownsville, Texas, are under way and it is expected the Carranza forces there will surrender without fighting today.

POLYGAMY DIES OUT IN PERSIA AS COSTS RISE

Jealousy Characteristic of Eastern Wives with Permeation of Western Ideas

TEHRAN, (AP)—Polygamy is dying out in Persia. Another result of greatly advanced living costs, together with jealousy, which is becoming more marked, characteristic of Persian wives with the permeation of western ideas and standards in the east. With this change has come another—the custom of having family names. A year ago the Persian government made it compulsory for people to adopt a surname. Before that only peasants had any common name in the family, the upper classes possessing only one. A man, for instance, might be called Ghaffar simply, and his son Hassan with nothing to show their relationship.

HOOVER ARGUES FREEDOM NEEDS THE OPEN SHOP

Former Food Administrator Gives Views Before Senate Committee on Laws for Settlement of Industrial Unrest

DECLARES AMERICA FREE FROM POLITICAL STRIKE

Approves Plan of Wilson's Conference for Voluntary Adjustment of Labor Troubles by Agreement

WASHINGTON, (AP)—"The principle of individual freedom requires the open shop," Herbert Hoover declared today in testifying before the senate labor committee on hearings on proposed legislation for the settlement of industrial unrest.

Opposed to Repression
Mr. Hoover, who was a member of President Wilson's second industrial conference, and he did not believe the relationship between employers and employees should be settled "by any form of legal repression, whether it be by injunction, compulsory arbitration or industrial courts."

"Fundamentally," he declared, "all such effort leads inevitably to the use of force as a solution for disputes as to respective participation of labor and capital in industrial profits and proceeds swiftly toward compulsory labor, or compulsory wages, or martyrdom. No one doubts that the modern consolidation of the employers over large units of employees gives every justification and right for the organization of employees similarly into units for the exertion of equality in bargaining power. Such organization has the right to present its own representatives in bargaining. On the other hand there should be no compulsion to join such an organization. The principle of individual freedom requires the open shop."

Approves Conference Plan

Mr. Hoover heartily approved the plan of the second industrial conference for voluntary adjustment of labor troubles through co-operative agreement. Senator Jones, democrat, New Mexico, wanted to know if labor had not been compelled to join such an organization. "It has," replied Mr. Hoover, "but it is difficult to say how far this has helped to cause industrial unrest, new to the cost of living. There is no question as to the enormous increase in profits but what weight is to be given this requires very careful attention. There has been a big increase in profits over the cost of labor but I cannot say as to proportion."

On the question of strikes Mr. Hoover said a distinction should be drawn between conditions in this country and Europe, declaring that strikes for political ends had been resorted to in Europe, which had caused unnecessary alarm in this country.

No Future Strikes

"There has been no tant of such strikes out in this country," he declared. "No attempt has been made by leaders of organized labor in the United States to overthrow the ballot, and labor leaders have been successful in this. There seems to be a misapprehension in which to whether the strike may develop into a political weapon. But certainly that has not been the case in the United States."

Mr. Hoover thought it was almost impossible to legislate as to hours of labor. "Wages," he said, "should take into account the cost of necessities, marriage and the enjoyment of all benefits of the civilization of the time."

Senator Phillips, republican, Colorado, called attention to the bonus paid employees by many industrial enterprises and to reports that labor leaders felt it should be distributed.

Difficulties
"In the actual practice of the operation of the various devices they fall into two general classes—sharing of profit and sharing of savings," Mr. Hoover said.

"It is difficult to reach a fair basis of settlement. The occasional misuse of the system has led to the opposition of organized labor."

OBREGON WOULD MAKE DUPLICATE CANADIAN LINE

Revolutionist Leader Gives Ideal for Relations Between Mexico and United States; Would Withdraw Troops

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—The policy of President Carranza toward the United States was "national suicide," General Alvaro Obregon declared Saturday evening to the Associated Press in the first exclusive interview given for a foreign newspaper since the Mexican revolutionary forces after fleeing from Mexico City, April 13.

"What strengthens the United States strengthens Mexico," he said, "and what weakens the United States weakens Mexico. My ideal for the relations between Mexico and the United States is to shake the international border, the Canadian boundary, withdraw troops, except customs officials."

"Carranza's interpretation of the Monroe doctrine was a mistake, although I believe in it perfectly sincere in the belief his policy was best for Mexico."

Appearance Shows Strain. General Obregon plainly showed the strain under which he has been laboring for more than a month. He was restless as he talked his voice was hoarse, a ten-day's growth of beard, heavily shot with white, covered his face. Outside in Tacubaya, a suburb, where he was making temporary headquarters, the narrow street was jammed with automobiles and spectators.

At the entrance to the hotel, a small tented to keep the doorway clear. In front of the entrance, Obregon, wearing a military uniform, stood at attention. He was surrounded by a crowd of visitors and officers. A white clad sentry who stood at the doorway of the first of two entrances, occupied by Obregon and his chief of staff, and difficultly preventing the crowd from passing through the doorway. Obregon, seated on a chair, had, transacted business with a never-ending stream of army officers and leading supporters, despite the fact that he had not slept more than a few hours from the time he arrived at Tacubaya at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Cautelous About Statement. Because of the importance he attached to any statement involving Mexican relations with the United States, General Obregon declined to be quoted except for a few generalities, promising to dictate a complete statement outlining his views later.

Regarding the liberal constitutionalist revolutionary movement, which reached a climax May 7, in the evacuation of Mexico City by the Carranza government, General Obregon declared he adhered to the plan of Agua Prieta, that he was obeying the orders of Governor Adolfo de Huerta, temporary supreme commander of the movement, that he had no designs for becoming dictator and was operating in perfect accord with General Pablo Gonzalez, General Obregon and Gonzalez both were candidates for the presidency of Mexico before they joined the revolution.

The revolution was a moral and not an armed revolt, General Obregon said, and his followers had been given strict orders to respect private rights and to take nothing without the consent of owners and payment being made; that he had not named any provisional government officials and had issued strict orders that supporters of Carranza should not be harassed physically.

Gives Revolution Motives. The liberal constitutionalist revolutionary movement, General Obregon affirmed, was a nationwide "moral protest" against the tactics of the Carranza regime in attempting to impose Ygnacio Bonillas, former Mexican ambassador to the United States, as the next president after having imposed state governments of the Carranza type upon the people, notably in San Luis Potosi, Tamaulipas, Queretaro, Nuevo Leon and Guanajuato.

SPUDS PLANTING LITTLE LESS THAN LAST YEAR

Indications Point to 95 Per Cent of 1919 Acreage in Potatoes This Season

BOISE (Special)—The indications on May 1 were reported that the acreage in the seven principal Idaho potato producing states would be 95 per cent of the acreage planted in those states last year, or 1,659,450, according to a telegraphic report received this morning by Julius H. Jacobson of the federal bureau of crop estimates in the Idaho building. New York growers planned to seed 97 per cent of their last year's acreage; Michigan 90 per cent; Wisconsin 95 per cent; Colorado 94 per cent; Minnesota 80 per cent, and California 110 per cent. In the Idaho situation is uncertain, but farmers intend to plant as near a full acreage as possible depending on receipt of fertilizers. Idaho growers were planning on 93 per cent of last year's acreage, or 34,300 acres compared with 36,000 acres in 1919.

The above inquiry was made in response to numerous requests from farmers as to the outlook of the potato industry this year. It should be kept in mind that intentions of farmers on May 1 are reported. The acreage may be changed depending on climatic conditions and the necessity of re-seeding other crops. Here in Idaho the acreage is increased by the sugar beet industry. Potatoes can be planted successfully as late as May 31 in the upper Snake river valley. If sugar beets fail to make a stand, potatoes are generally planted. Scarcity and high price of seed and labor, coupled with the loss of some protection, has caused the farmers to hesitate in planting potatoes. The possibility of good returns from sugar beets this year is another important competitor for potato acreage.

Bean Acreage. An inquiry made at the same time on the bean acreage indicates that New York will have 90 per cent of last year's acreage; Michigan 75 per cent; Wisconsin 70 per cent; Colorado 65 per cent; Minnesota 60 per cent, and California 60 per cent. Idaho's acreage may be reduced somewhat, but May 1 indications were for an acreage equal to last year's.

DEWEY HOUSE TO BECOME MARKET

Gift of American People to Victor at Manila Give Way to Trade Spread

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Admiral Dewey's former home, gift of the American people to his victory at Manila bay, is being remodeled into a store, having given way, as have a number of other historical residences, to the growing commercial section of the city. The Dewey house, at 1747 Rhode Island avenue, just off Connecticut avenue, was disposed of some years before Admiral Dewey's death. The city's commercial expansion is gradually moving northwestward along Connecticut avenue and has passed beyond the British embassy which now finds itself amidst a group of fashionable shops. The historic old Corcoran mansion and the wisteria-old John B. Ford house, with their old-fashioned gardens and high brick garden wall, facing Lafayette park opposite the White House at the beginning of Connecticut avenue, soon will be razed for a modern building for the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America. Among the historical mansions holding out against the march of commercial expansion are the famous Octagon house, residence of Colonel Stanton, which was occupied a year by President Madison after the White House was fired by the British in 1814.

INERTIA CHIEF ADVERSARY OF LEGION'S DRIVE

National Membership Push is Counted on to Supply Impetus that will Cause Enrollment of Procrastinators

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Members of the American Legion, who will conduct a nation-wide campaign for new members, May 17-22, believe that their chief enemy will be none other than old General Inertia. The legion now has approximately one and a half million members and seeks to get a million more. When it is remembered that four and a half million men and women are eligible for membership, by reason of active service in the world war in army, navy or marine corps, it does not seem that the legion's aim is an extravagant one. Posts throughout the country, of which there are now about 6500, report that their chief obstacle in getting men to join has been more inertia. Thousands of men are convinced of the desirability of legion membership and are in hearty accord with its principles. But they have failed to "obey impulse" and become active members. It is believed a national membership push will supply the additional impetus that will cause a majority of the victims of inertia to join the legion.

The legion has done enough beneficial things for ex-servicemen generally, whether they were members of the organization or not, to earn it a high place in the affections of these men. The legion has obtained from congress an increase of base pay for the disabled from $30 to $60 a month. It has adjusted thousands of claims and their dependents. Until the legion took hold, the federal board for vocational training was not functioning properly in many districts. Recently a plan of co-operation between the legion and the board has been devised, that promises to speedily solve the rehabilitation problem for all the disabled.

The legion has helped to secure preference for ex-servicemen and their widows in civil service appointments and special preference for the disabled. The four-fold compensation bill for all ex-servicemen, now before congress is familiar to all as being the handiwork of the legion. Back in those days just following the demobilization, the legion was an active agency for re-employment and co-operated with national, state and private organizations to speedily return service men to profitable and suitable employment.

A recent act of the organization has been to raise a fund throughout the nation, with which to decorate the graves of all the soldier dead in France. To this purpose the money is being forwarded to the Paris post of the legion, and this post will superintend the ceremonies.

In all these activities the legion has acted for service men as a whole, and not only for its members. A great many service men are expected to reciprocate by joining the legion now.

PROPOSES MOBILIZATION OF BUGS TO CARRY GERMS

Novel Suggestion for Adding to Horror of Next War Advanced by Scientist

LONDON, (AP)—Mobilization of the mosquito, the housefly, the louse and various other disease-carrying pests for the dissemination of deadly germs in enemy territory is a possibility of "the next war" pictured by Professor Maxwell Lefroy, a scientist.

"I foresee the mosquito from Brazil starting yellow fever in new lands, the housefly, duly infected with cholera, dysentery or enteric and the typhus-laden louse doing their deadly work much more effectively than spid work poisoning wells," said Professor Lefroy in a recent address.

"This would be part of the work of a war office of entomologists—the working out of strategic plans for the distribution of these pests by airplane. It seems that the world is latent upon furnishing an airplane service for these pests, many of which are now held somewhat in check by natural enemies in their native climes. This will give them just the means of transit they have required. It will be a peace-time danger as well as one that could be used very offensively in war. The danger from these winged battalions of death is more serious than one dare estimate."

AVERAGE SALARY FOR NEW MEXICO MINISTERS IS $994. ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. Getting away with something

EVERYONE envies the fellow who always gets away first. Who never seems to take anybody's dust! He comes up behind you on the road, gives you a toot, and jumps by you as though you were tied.

That is you—sometimes. That's when your motor is extra lively. Ever notice that it happens just when you have filled up with Conoco?

Try out that suggestion. Next time you need gas, pull up at a Conoco Service Station, or at any garage that shows the Conoco Sign. Get your carburetor adjusted for the economical, powerful Conoco mixture.

Notice the quick, powerful pick-up Conoco gives your car—how easily you can jam on power for a quick getaway.

Polarine helps, too. It holds the force of hard-hitting Conoco Gasoline behind the pistons—makes it work hard. There's no better oil, at any price, than Polarine. Sold where you see the Conoco Sign.

Use a Conoco Coupon Book to buy your gasoline and oil. It is a great convenience—especially when you've left your roll at home and need oil or fuel.

TRAIN ROBBERY ENDS IN DEATH

Bandit who Looted Illinois Central Limited Falls in Battle with Police

CHICAGO, (AP)—One of the most daring train robberies in the middle west in recent years ended this morning in the death of a lone bandit, who, last night, looted the Illinois Central Near Orleans limited and the recovery of currency estimated to total nearly $100,000.

One policeman shot by the bandit in the death and another is seriously wounded.

Battles with Police
The bandit was identified as Horace Walton, aged 35, of Iowa City, Mo. He fell with four bullets in his body after barrelling himself in his apartment and fighting a pitched battle with more than 100 police.

Walton boarded the train a few miles from Kankakee last night. A Deaneux pouch containing registered mail was taken from him.

As the flyer pulled out of Kankakee, Walton stepped into the mail car and announced that he was the postal inspector. He then drew a pistol and commanded "Hands up!" Four of the clerks were ordered to lay on the floor and the fifth was forced to bind their hands. Walton then tied the fifth man's hands and feet about a barrel sorting of the mail pouches.

Armed with the clerk's key, he picked out and rifled the bags which contained shipments of money, remarking that "It's easy when you have inside information." A traveling bag appropriated from one of the clerks furnished a complete outfit of money.

Walton kept up a running fire of bullets with the clerks until the train reached South Chicago shortly before 1 a. m. There he leaped out.

Shots Patrolman
Within minutes later, Patrolman William A. Roberts and John Kendrick met Walton. Roberts stepped forward to question the man. Walton fired through his coat and Roberts fell, shot in the head and side.

Walton leaped into the armory of an apartment building, where Kendrick opened fire. After an exchange of shots the policeman jumped the door and Walton dropped the bag and fled to an apartment house a half block away.

Police rifle squads surrounded the building and for more than an hour poured hundreds of bullets into Walton's apartment. He returned the fire steadily, using two guns, then suddenly stopped. Detective Chief Mooney found Walton on the floor, with four bullets in his body.

Patrolman Roberts was rushed to a hospital where doctors said he could not recover. Patrolman Thomas Seriff, also was wounded, but fatally.

Walton had lived in the apartment where he was killed for several weeks, according to neighbors. He was a bachelor. Police said he had five children, the eldest of whom is six years old.

Walton Former Mail Clerk

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., (AP)—Horace Walton, the train robber who was killed by the Chicago police, was a St. Joseph high school graduate 12 years ago. His father is a clerk in the city's leading hotel. The youth was a railway mail clerk until a month ago when he resigned and left home without telling his parents where he was going.

HOOVER ARGUES

"If profit sharing is to be based on the conception that wages are to be just and that profits are to be an addition to pay, then it would be in proper form, but not when used as a weapon to hold down a man's pay. The intangible agitation in industrial side concerns the question of a division of surplus, not the question that employers want to manage the business."

MONTANA GAME WARDEN
TO DECLARE WAR ON HERONS

HELENA, Mont., (AP)—The state game warden is about to declare war on herons in the Yellowstone river, which are devouring fish at an alarming rate. There is one island along the mouth of Snake creek on which it is estimated 2000 of these birds have made their nests. They are said to eat many thousands of fish a month and will soon strip the river and creek, it is feared.

The birds kill more fish than they eat, sometimes eat by their method is to stab trout with their bills in the rifles, and many escape only to die further down stream.

GIVES BUTTE MAIL CARRIERS
PERMISSION TO WEAR DENIM

BUTTE, Mont., (AP)—Butte mail carriers have been given permission to wear blue denim overalls, under a ruling from Washington. Permission had been withheld until it could be decided whether the postal regulations would permit the step, it is said.

SAYS SECRET SESSION WOULD DEFEAT DRY LAW

Vice-President Marshall Gives Intimate Impressions of Government

RICHMOND, Va., (AP)—Vice President Marshall speaking Thursday before the Virginia Bar association, declared that if national prohibition had been considered by the senate in secret session not 20 votes would have been cast for it.

Asserting that there should be less tinkering with the constitution, the vice president expressed the opinion that constitutional amendments had brought a very large measure of evil to the republic.

Mr. Marshall predicted that in the future the country should be faced by the question of government of law or of men, declaring that only two men—Samuel Compers and Judge Elliott H. Gary—now are consulted on public issues.

He was rising vote the association favored the nomination of Mr. Marshall for the presidency.

OPPOSE FEDERAL MARINE CONTROL

National Foreign Trade Council Committee Reports to San Francisco Session

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., (AP)—An American maritime policy eliminating federal control is necessary for the development of successful American commerce, it was stated today in a report in the merchant marine committee of the national foreign trade council, read by Welling Ring, of New York, before the council's seventh annual session here.

"The merchants and mariners of the United States should be enabled to compete with their rivals in other countries without governmental intervention or supervision of transportation charges, the report said. "There should be no dictation as to trade routes, freight charges or methods of management."

"An unequivocal policy must be established promptly by a provision that sales will be made to responsible parties of all shipping board vessels at prices determined by present cost of construction of vessels of similar tonnage and specifications in the best qualified American shipyards. The foreign trade council has already placed on record its conviction that American shipyards will be able to provide tonnage at rates and under conditions that will compare favorably with those obtained in foreign maritime countries."

Using pointed out that where foreign countries have advantage of cheaper labor American shipyards are compensated by a greater efficiency of labor and steel substituting material is $10 a ton cheaper in this country than abroad.

Ring spoke in place of William H. Knox of New York, who was unable to attend the convention.

HOLSTEIN COW MOTHER OF EIGHT LEGGED CALF

SALEM, Ore., (AP)—A calf with eight legs, the holstein calf of the kind of an ordinary calf two months old was born at the state asylum farm, east of Salem, of a Holstein mother. The freak calf died fifteen minutes after birth. The "eight" calf was of normal shape, the extra four legs and small body growing between the legs of the larger body, and on its stomach. All of the legs were fully developed.

It is being mounted at a local establishment.

REWARD FOR "HEALTH CHORES"
TO BE CONFERRED ON TOTS

HELENA, Mont., (AP)—Conferring of the accolade on hundreds of tiny "knight" banners will be the feature of the state fair here next fall. The ceremony is to be under the auspices of the Montana Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, and those decorated will have performed during school hours, certain acts of personal cleanliness as well as certain "health chores."

Governor Stewart will create the knights. Special costumes for the occasion are being devised by Mrs. Sara L. Morse, executive secretary of the association.

DANIELS DENIES DELAYS CHARGES

Declares Admiral Sims Criticism is Fully Refuted by His Own Testimony

WASHINGTON, (AP)—White House officials said today that President Wilson's war time address to the Atlantic fleet and message to the Senate, which were laid before the Senate naval investigating committee by Secretary Daniels with the full consent and approval of the president.

The British admiral was criticized in both of the documents and reports published here said that because of this the president might have been misled by the secretary for making them public.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Rear Admiral Sims' "falsifications and misstatements" charges that the admiral's own testimony refuted the war time charges, especially was "practically the only charge of unfavorable results from the military alleged by the admiral and his commission" the officer had received to the department, Secretary Daniels today told the Senate naval investigating committee.

He added, by the admiral's own testimony.

Admiral Sims based his estimate of an unnecessary loss of 500,000 tons on an average loss for the allies of three thousand tons a day, Mr. Daniels said. The loss of 3,000 tons a day for four months would mean a total loss of 1,200,000 tons, he added, by the admiral's own testimony.

Claims Proof of Fallacy

The admiral based the charge on assumption that had been based on a million American soldiers in France by March, 1918, the war would have ended four months sooner, Mr. Daniels said, and completed the reasoning by assuming the average loss of 3,000 tons a day prevented carrying that number of troops overseas by that date and that failure of the American navy to cooperate heartily in the first months of the war resulted in the heavy tonnage losses.

"It is not necessary to wander far into the realm of abstract technical questions to show the absolute fallacy of Admiral Sims' claim," Mr. Daniels said. "He informed the committee that the tonnage available for the allies May 1, 1917, was 27,000,000 tons. It is a matter of common knowledge that on May 1, 1918, the tonnage was less than in May 1, 1917, would indicate that the net loss during the year was about two million tons. This is probably a sufficiently close estimate for practical purposes. Now, then, owing to the tonnage losses of 1917 and the early part of 1918, the net tonnage available to the allies had been reduced from 27,000,000 on May 1, 1917, to 25,000,000 on May 1, 1918. Yet it is admitted by Admiral Sims that in the spring of 1918 American troops were transported to France at the rate of nearly 300,000 a month or more than ten times as fast as they were transported had been restricted in 1917 because of the destruction of tonnage. This simple fact refutes absolutely Admiral Sims' statement that the tonnage losses of 1917 made it 'impossible to transport any considerable American army' and made it 'necessary to limit the number of American troops that could be sent abroad during the first year to an average of approximately 35,000 men per month'."

Tonnage Always Available

There never was a time, the witness said, when tonnage was not available to carry troops and supplies to France as fast as they could be landed and transported to the front.

"As a matter of fact the American army materially shortened the war," said Secretary Daniels. "It got to the front as soon as it was humanely possible, not by a chance but as a result of careful planning involving close cooperation between the army and navy, carefully carried out."

SOCIALISTS CALL

participation in working class movements and struggle is favored by it, is deeply repugnant to the genius of democracy."

"When it is resorted to in times of war," continued the speaker, "it is invariably done upon the justification that the critical emergencies of war time conditions necessitate extraordinary measures."

The memorial said that all powers participating in the war with the exception of the United States had granted amnesty to their political prisoners.

"To say that the United States is still at war is to reply to a demand for justice by an unworthy quibble and technicality."

CONFESSES TO KILLING OF NORTH DAKOTA FAMILY

Feeling Between Neighbors Culminates in Wholesale Crime

WASHBURN, N. D. (AP)—Henry Laver, a farmer, has confessed to the killing of Jacob Wolf, his wife and child, and a chore boy, Jake Hofer, on the farm three miles west of Turtle Lake, N. D., on April 22, it was announced here Thursday by J. E. Williams, state's attorney for McLean county.

Laver was charged with first degree murder and when arraigned before Judge Nussle, pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to hard labor for life and arrived at the prison at 4 p. m. Thursday, less than 48 hours after his arrest.

His feeling of long standing, culminating in a quarrel over injuries administered to Laver's cattle by Wolf's dog, was responsible for the crime, according to Mr. Williams' version of the confession.

Laver is married and has six children. He owns a farm and a half mile from the Wolf home.

According to Laver's alleged confession to State's Attorney Williams Laver said he went to the Wolf farm shortly after midnight on Thursday, April 22. Mr. Williams declared Laver said an argument followed and Wolf demanded that Laver leave the place at once.

Laver refused according to the alleged confession, and Wolf went into the house and returned with a double-barreled shotgun. Williams said Laver declared he trapped the gun and attempted to wrest it away from Wolf. The struggle, it is said, took place in the entrance to the kitchen, and the weapon discharged twice.

One of the shots killed Mrs. Wolf and the other Hofer, 13-year-old chore boy. Laver then turned on the Wolf and shot him in the back. Laver then shot Wolf in the back as he lay on the ground, according to the alleged confession.

According to Williams, Laver then said he ran to a barn and shot two of the girls while they pleaded for mercy. Attracted by the screams of the three little girls in the house, Laver, according to his alleged confession, declared he trapped the gun and killed the third with a hatchet.

SUGAR WORKERS STRIKE HEAD UNDER INDICTMENT

Grand Jury Charges President of Philippine Union with Embezzlement

HONOLULU, T. H. (AP)—Paulo Manalang, president of the Philippine union and prominent in sugar plantation strike circles, has been indicted by the territorial grand jury on a charge of embezzlement.

Manalang is accused of having accepted $9,640 from two countrymen to buy steamship tickets for them and converting the money to his own use. He was released on $1,000 bonds.

Manalang issued the order for the Philippine to strike on the sugar plantations January 19 last, which was followed in a few days by the Japanese Federation of Labor order, calling on the Japanese. Later he changed sides and urged the Philippines to return to work after attacking the Japanese for alleged failure to render the Philippines aid.

Subsequently, he announced he had been misled and that the strike should be continued. Planters say that despite, or because of Manalang's numerous orders to him countrymen, nearly all of them are at work. Recently, however, he was considering a general walkout in all the islands.
