

BAKER INJURED IN AUTO SPILL

New Marks in Speed and Accomplishments are Made at Highway Institution

Crushed rock deliveries from the highway district plant Thursday established another record for a day's business. The total amount of crushed material passing over the scales during the 16 hours of operation was 2,747,520 pounds. This is 344,081 pounds more than the

In addition to the material passing over the scales the plant authorities delivered 100,800 pounds of crushed rock to the Warren Construction company by crane from the storage dump. This brings the total day's deliveries to 2,848,800 pounds.

Many Trucks Employed.

At the present moment 21 large capacity motor trucks are moving material from the crusher plant, these vehicles being in the employ of the highway district, the Warren Construction company and the Heinecke Construction company.

There is being maintained at the plant a dump containing not less than 25,000 pounds of crushed rock as an emergency supply. This storage is not touched except in cases of direst need. At present the plant crane is one of the hardest worked institution at the plant. The crane is being worked 24 hours a day in three shifts. Yesterday, in addition to handling the 100,800 pounds of rock to Warren Construction trucks the hoist unloaded three cars of structural steel to be used in the erection of the Shoshone street bridge over Bork Creek, and also 15 automobiles from cars assigned to the Lind Auto company.

More Speed.

In connection with the handling of the automobiles another speed record was established, one machine being placed on the ground each six minutes. Credit for this rapid handling is given

Quite a new departure in the repairing of equipment has been inaugurated by the quarry mechanics in caring for tram cars used in hauling material from the quarry to the crusher up the skipway incline. These cars are constructed of heavy steel but in the handling of huge sections of quarried rock the steel bottom and sides quite frequently be-has proved a long, tedious and more or less ineffectual method and a more expeditious mode of procedure had to be found. In this emergency dynamiting was resorted to with extraordinary suc-

IDAHO APPLES PROMISE WELL

Reporting Service Sends Out Gratifying Statistics on the Present Outlook

The average condition of the Idaho apple crop is 80 per cent of normal, better than the average for the same time last year. This year's condition forecasts a yield of 5,310,000 bushels as against a forecast last spring of 5,681,000 bushels.

These figures are contained in a statement just issued by Julius H. Jacobson, field agent of the Idaho crop reporting service, who says all present conditions preface excellent returns from Idaho orchards. The report also tells of indications for improvement in conditions from this time forward.

Northern counties are enjoying growing conditions equal or better than last year. Mr. Jacobson says.

In Twin Falls county, the report continues, indications are for a crop 70 per cent of normal, compared with 69 per cent a year ago. Gem county shows the highest condition with 90 per cent while Payette county, with 60 per cent, is lowest. Late frosts did not do extensive harm.

With reference to the peach crop outlook the report has a gloomy aspect, reading: Peaches damaged by the extremely low temperatures last winter and insufficient water last summer and fall. Indications are for only 25 per cent of a normal crop, or 75,000 bushels, as against 60 per cent last June and a final crop of 350,000 bushels last year. Gem county reports 11 per cent of a crop, Adams 25 per cent, Ada 18 per cent, and Twin Falls county one-half crop.

Pears show 88 per cent of a normal crop, forecasting 50,000 bushels. A year ago the condition was 70 per cent, which developed into a 70,000-bushel crop.

Oregon reports apples at 75 per cent of normal crop; pears 75 per cent and peaches 25 per cent, as compared with 95.70 and 40 per cent respectively last year. Washington has also decreased fruit crops, apples being 65 per cent, pears 70 per cent, and peaches 40 per cent, as against 95, 84 and 61 per cent, respectively last year.

LAST MATERIAL FOR THE BRIDGE SHIPPED FIRST

Manufacturers Ship for the Top to Begin With, Leaving the Bois and Rivets Last

Construction work on the Shoshone street crossing of Rock Creek will begin during the latter part of the present week, according to statement made by Contractor Charles H. Mull before the board of city aldermen Monday.

Mr. Mull stated that the material for the work should be on the work by Thursday.

Telling of the delay in arrival of material for the construction of the bridge, Mr. Mull explained that shipments of material had been made without regard to the eternal fitness of things.

"In the instance," Mr. Mull said, "five weeks after the contract was awarded last fall the steel manufacturer shipped material for the bridge. It was followed by the stone masonry, and following these came material for the bridge. It was not until the last week of the month that the steel came to the site."

Contractor Mull asked the council to authorize the deputizing of a special policeman to watch the bridge during the progress of construction. This request was granted. Mr. Mull and the chief of police to find the proper man for the place.

VANDALS RUIN PRIZE ROSE IN HOME YARD

Attempts to Uproot High Grade Shrub Results in Almost Total Destruction

Malignantly inclined persons Tuesday night totally ruined a valuable rose bush at Dr. H. W. Wilson's residence last night. The bush, was of an especially high grade and, prized most highly by the entire Wilson family.

Through particular care Mrs. Wilson had brought the bush through to maturity and full bloom. Yesterday it was a solid mass of blossoms. Today there was little more than a valueless shrub left. Apparently an attempt was made to uproot the bush, the attempt resulting in little less than utter destruction.

HIGH WATER INJURES MALAD POWER PLANT

Flume of 200 Feet is Washed Away and Machinery Sustains Damage

Local officials of the Idaho Power company have information of a serious break at the Malad power plant of the company. The break occurred last Sunday when high water in the Malad river washed out the foundation from 200 feet of flume conducting water to the plant.

Result of this condition the installation will be shut down for two weeks while repairs are being made to the flume and plant machinery. Electrical equipment is being removed and stored through plants which tie up the Malad installation.

These attacks, army officials say, have been constant during the past year, but in the past few weeks have increased in their trend toward maliciousness.

The language involved, chiefly in poor writing, is of a violent and most virulent nature, while the words with sharp instruments are used to indicate a murderous disposition.

While no arrests have as yet been made here, it is believed that the culprits are on the trail of perpetrators of the maliciousness.

From Salt Lake comes a report of a recent attack on the O. B. U. at a meeting held in the city. The police as well as detective departments and agents are expected soon to result.

In the instance, it is stated, recruiting posters were torn from their stands and propaganda of the One Big Union organization substituted, the army planks being torn to shreds and stamped on the dust of the street and left to lie beneath the radical posters.

At local recruiting headquarters received from Oakland, California, indicate that the O. B. U. of a plot to stage a social revolt in the California city by the members of the radical organization, aided and abetted by other parties of similarly radical temperament.

Schoolgirl Beats Adding Machine in Contest

Miss Esther Kaplan, thirteen-year-old City Schoolgirl, who recently established an international record as a rapid calculator, has successfully defeated her laurels against a special demonstrator for an adding machine company, after results from comparison of additions in forty-seven seconds.

The best Miss Mae S. Dorey, an adding machine demonstrator, could make in the special exhibition of an adding machine, was one minute and forty-two seconds with one error. Four other types of adding machines entered in the contest were withdrawn after Miss Kaplan's defeat.

The girl will compete in the international contest at Cincinnati in June.

Why That Headache?

When you know the cause of a disease a cure may often be effected. This is particularly true of headache. Headache often results from constipation or a disordered condition of the stomach, which may be corrected by taking a dose of two of Chamberlain's Tablets.

These tablets are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

French Girls Defeated in Soccer Match with British Sisters

Members of Radical Organization Accused of Malicious and Unparliamentary Acts

In the first soccer match between girls teams of France and England, played at Preston, England, the British girls were defeated by the French girls by a score of 0 to 0. The game was a strenuous affair, as can be seen by the picture and the girls were repeatedly cheered by the large crowd for brilliant play. Judging by the facial expression of one of the girls, she evidently missed the ball and bumped her opponent's head.

GAS CARBS MAKE TOO MUCH NOISE COUNCIL THINKS

Law's Violation Requires Flag- rant with Failure to En- force It

"That the loud and boisterous manner in which Twin Falls folks operate motor vehicles of all sorts is getting on the nerves of members of the town administration was made amply evident during the course of weekly deliberations Monday night. The mayor led in protest."

"It's all over town just the same way," the mayor emphasized, "when for a minute or two suddenly a motorcycle motor pops off his machine in a continuous sequence of explosions that would have put to shame a Browning machine gun in active operation."

It developed during discussion that there is on the city law books an ordinance requiring the employment of a muffler on all motor vehicles. It developed that in most instances machine operators, whether pleasure car, truck or motorcycle, taking advantage of a failure to enforce the terms of the ordinance, have either removed the muffling device or fastened them back permanently.

Mayor Eldridge intimated that attempt to enforce the ordinance at this time would bring forth a storm of protest from truck men employed on city paving work. "Other people" to use a muffler reduced the hauling efficiency of the machine," Mayor Eldridge said.

"All of which is piffle," he belittled, "recently remarked Alderman Brockridge, who operated a transport truck in France and who operates a pleasure car here."

No definite action was taken on this subject that night, the matter being left open for further discussion at another meeting.

POLICE FORCE IS CRITICISED

Members of City Council Openly Charge Negligence of Fun- damental Duties

The girl wife is in a state of collapse over the tragedy in which she caused her husband's death. COURAGE AND COURTESY ARE QUEEN'S NEED

Feminine Power Behind Throne of Rumania Gives Secrets for Successful Discharge of Royal Duty

BUCHAREST, (AP)—"How to be a successful queen?" said Queen Mary of Rumania repeating the question of the correspondents.

"Why, it is something of a trade to be a queen, and the chief implements of the trade are courage and courtesy. Smile when your head is aching, smile when you are ready to drop from fatigue and worry, smile when all is going wrong, smile at good news and at bad news. Always keep yourself interested in others. No matter how great may be the strain on your patience when talking or listening to a bore, make him or her think that you think the conversation is vital. Never think of your personal troubles but those of your country. I don't even own up when I know that I don't know a thing; but I always go out and find out all about this unknown subject."

Queen Mary, the queen-mother, the slither hand, the power behind the throne of King Ferdinand every minute. Since she came out from England more than 25 years ago, she has been ruling this trade of being queen, and now she has been at it for more than five years, in place of Carmen Sylva, and she has made it her business to know her country and her people.

She aspires to be queen in every sense, and she is quite as willing to take the duties of the job as well as its pleasures. As for its pleasures she gets all the fun she can out of it, dresses as well as she can, to enhance her beauty while in the presence of a queen goes around, shabby and red-nosed, it makes a great deal of difference, I think," she said. "It is not a question of us and so why should I do it? I felt rather mortified when in Paris just after the armistice and I had to attend receptions frequented by all the beauties of the world, and was not able to wear some of my splendid jewels which had been sent to Moscow. Just to think that I had four or five crowns, some of them inherited from my Russian mother, and not a one to wear in Paris!"

That the queen is quite as willing to shoulder the duties of queenhood as is testified to by thousands of men and women who met her during the German occupation of Roumania. "Red Cross nurse who was visiting the hospital of the incurables at Jassy. When she and the surgeon reached the door of the hospital, they found a man going in there. It is too dangerous," said the surgeon. "They are dying—it is my duty," answered the queen. Just after she entered the queen, a dying soldier calling for his wife. Without a word the queen walked over to the bed of the typhus victim, saying, "Here I am," and knelt and embraced the man, who died in her arms, happy.

The queen is a practical queen. In the same city of Jassy this fact was discovered and when the mayor wanted to get the snow cleaned off the streets, he timely applied to the queen for help. "Why bless you, of course I will help," said the queen, and she led a gang of snow shovelers. After this whenever medicines and instruments were needed in the hospital, or extra nurses, the queen was called upon.

Once there was a bread famine. The queen got her own private motor car, scouring the country for flour and then she organized the bakers of the city. She did the same thing when there was a wood and coal famine. "As a child I was taught to live for others," said the queen in one part of the conversation with the Associated Press correspondent. "So whatever I do, I do naturally, without effort."

"As a little girl I was told that this was part of the trade."

"Should the queen get a touch of internationalism and go on strike some day, that would be a hard day for Rumania," said laughingly the queen. One of her admirers, a man regarded as the keenest minded lawyer, financier and politician in the country.

TWELVE CITIES ADVANCE INTO 100,000 CLASS

Census Bureau Announcements Include 1920 Population of 169 of 229 Towns of Over 25,000 People

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Great Falls, Mont., 34,121; increase 10,175, or 72.9 per cent.

Fairmont, W. Va., 17,851; increase 8,140, or 83.3 per cent.
New Bedford, Mass., 121,217; increase 24,623, or 28.4 per cent.
Northampton, Mass., 21,051; increase 2,220, or 13 per cent.
Lansing, Mich., 67,237; increase 23,008, or 33.6 per cent.
Wenatchee, Wash., 6,324; increase 2,274, or 36.1 per cent.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The 1920 population of 169 of the 229 cities and towns which in 1910 had more than 25,000 people has been announced by the census bureau. Good progress also has been made in total population of the states.

Of the 50 cities which had more than 100,000 population in 1910 only 12 remain whose 1920 figures have not been announced. These are: Philadelphia, Cleveland, Detroit, Kansas City, Mo., Providence, Rochester, New Haven, Birmingham, Richmond, Va., Omaha, Fall River and Grand Rapids.

Twelve cities have advanced into the 100,000 class of those thus far announced. Arranged in the order of their size they are: Akron, San Antonio, Dallas, Hartford, Youngstown, O., Springfield, Mass., Trenton, N. J., Salt Lake City, Camden, N. J., Norfolk, Va., Wilmington, Del., and Kansas City, Kan.

Of the 59 cities having from 50,000 to 100,000 population in 1910, the 1920 population of all but 11 has been announced. These are: Reading, Pa., Des Moines, Yonkers, N. Y., Houston, Troy, N. Y., Fort Worth, Savannah, Ga., Oklahoma City, Charleston, S. C., Holyoke, Mass., and South Bend, Ind.

Twenty-six cities announced have advanced into the 50,000 to 100,000 class. Population of only 36 of the 120 cities having between 25,000 and 50,000 in 1910 remain to be announced and 47 cities having less than 25,000 ten years ago have thus far advanced into the 25,000 to 50,000 class, while one, Clinton, Ia., has shown a decrease and dropped below 25,000.

With an increase of more than 25 per cent during the last ten years, New Bedford, Mass. has advanced into the 100,000 class of cities with a total population of 121,217, according to the census bureau's announcement today. In the ten years New Bedford, which ranked as fifty-third most populous city in 1910, has outstripped half a dozen cities, Trenton, Nashville, Albany, N. Y., Lowell and Cambridge, Mass., and Spokane, Wash.

Lansing, Mich., ranking as 177th city ten years ago, had a larger growth during the decade than the average for cities of its size. It has gone ahead of two score other cities, including Bay City, Mich., which ranked 117th in 1910 and Jackson, Mich., which ranked 174th.

AMERICAN PRODUCTS EXHIBIT AT EVOLUTION ARMS POSTPONED

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The special exhibit of American products which was to have been held at Buenos Aires next November and December by the American National Exposition, Inc., has been postponed until next March, officials of that company today informed the department of commerce. The postponement was made, they said, in deference to the wishes of the American chamber of commerce in Buenos Aires.

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (AP)—Aside from the price advances of pools, the stock market drifted aimlessly today. Rates approximated 300,000 shares, almost the dulcet season of the year.

Changes otherwise were generally toward higher levels, with chemicals, steels and equipments again in the lead. Rails were irregular, Canadian Pacific losing a point. Preliminary quotations in foreign exchange were noteworthy for the marked strength of remittances to London, demand bills approximating 84 to the pound.

Stagnation was most pronounced in the final hour, a few leaders including United Steel and Baldwin reacting coolly. The closing was heavy.

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bond final prices today: 3-1/2, $93.05; first 4-1/4, $85.50; second 4-1/4, $85; first 4-1/4, $85.70; second 4-1/4, $85.14; third 4-1/4, $85.80; fourth 4-1/4, $85.40; Victory 3-5/8, $95.59; Victory 4-5/8, $95.62.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Corn prices weakened today as a result of larger receipts here. Some bearish sentiment was due also to belief that chances of a serious squeeze in the July delivery had been lessened, board of trade directors having issued a call for a statement of all open contracts on June 30. Selling, however, did not become aggressive. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1.73 1/4 to 1.78 1/4, July 1-15, and 1.73 1/4 to 1.78 1/4, September 1-15, were followed by moderate further declines, and then something of a reaction.

Withdrawal of shipments led subsequently to a decided setback in values. The close was unsettled, 1-3/8 to 20 net lower, with July 1-15 at $1.77 3/8 and September 1-15 at $1.76 5/8. Cooler weather with rains gave a downturn to the oats market. After opening 1-1/4 to 1-1/2 lower, including September at 84 5/8 to 85, the market underwent an additional sag. Provisions reflected the weakness of grain and hog. Buyers were scarce.

MASKED BANDIT ROBS BUILTMORE

Kating House Scene of Operations of Thugs who, Early in Morning, Loots Till

With visage masked by a handkerchief drawn over the lower portion of his face and with a gun in his right hand a bandit at 2 o'clock this morning had upon the hills in charge and looted the till at the Builtmore cafe at the corner of Third avenue north and Shoshone street.

The Builtmore, owned and operated by James King, is an all-night service place. Charles Thompson is man in charge after midnight.

At about 2 o'clock this morning Thompson says he was engaged sweeping out the back room, which is separated from the main cafe by a thin partition. He says that while thus employed he heard a noise at the cash register in front part of the house, stepping from the back room he found a masked man pointing a pistol in his direction. Thompson was ordered to maintain a quiet attitude. The bandit seized the till from the cash drawer and made his escape hurriedly. Checking up after the robbery Manager Thompson found about $15 in change left in the register.

COMMISSIONERS URGE USE OF BITULITHIC PAVING ON ROADS

Local Highway District Board Asks Public Works Head to Award Contract for Standard Type of Construction — Warren Company Agrees to Reduction of Original Bid

Contract for the construction of 14 miles of state highway in Twin Falls county will probably be awarded the Warren Construction company, by the commissioners of public works immediately. Recommendation to this effect has been made by members of the Twin Falls Highway district after a reduction of the reconstruction company's official bid of 8 cents per square yard was guaranteed.

The guarantee was given by A. J. Hill, local construction superintendent for the Warren Construction company, at a meeting of the district board held at headquarters this morning. The original bid was $3.35 per square yard. The new offer is $3.32.

Following the meeting of this morning Chairman C. B. Chenebre forwarded a telegram, of which the following is a copy, to W. J. Hall, commissioner of the state department of public works, recommending type B construction. This is a pavement of one and a half bitulithic material on a five inch concrete base. The message reads:

"In view of the uncertainty of securing favorable bids from reliable contractors on penetration macadam, and the probable small saving in cash compared with the durability of the type 'B' pavement, we deem it to the best interests of this district that you proceed to enter into contract for 'B' pavement. The Warren Construction company agrees to make a reduction of 8 cents per square yard, and also to use crushed rock in both top and base."

In the filler district, the Robert Payne company has received a contract for the construction of seven miles of highway at a contract price of $3.10 per square yard, using Dunlop gravel. This is to be a straight concrete surfacing, and the traffic board will probably demand that washed gravel be used instead of quarry run.

Action by the local commission urging the award of a contract for "B" pavement followed closely upon the heels of the federal government's acquiescence to a proposal made by W. A. Kittredge, of the federal department of Missouri, that two-inch penetration macadam be used on an eight-inch rock base. No bid was submitted on this form of construction.

At this time last year the big Jackson reservoir began to show a decline in storage, daily, and as irrigation proceeded more and more intensely and extensively the water declined to an almost alarming degree from the middle of June on.

The Snake river flow at present is reported high, 9000 second feet of water per second over the Miller dam in waste daily.

STORED WATER IS INCREASING

Run-off of Snow in Hills Promises to Fill Jackson Reservoir to Capacity

On June 14 storage water in the Jackson reservoir had reached a stage measuring 534,940 acre feet, with a continuing gain of approximately 10,000 acre feet per day.

On this date last year the big reservoir contained about the same amount of water. The flow, however, had passed its crest and from that time on ebbed rapidly.

This year the condition is vastly different. The flow has only just begun. Hydrographs of the reclamation service declare that there is likelihood of the storage reservoir not only filling to capacity, but there may be a wastage, or overflow of runoff above the capacity of the reservoir of 200,000 acre feet. This theory is based upon the extraordinary amount of packed snow in the hills above the lake. It is expected that the flow from the thaw of this snow will be heavily augmented by June rains, which at the present time are more than ordinarily heavy in the hills.

Theatre

Mark Sullivan, editor of Collier's, has never lacked confidence but the courage of his convictions, qualities so sorely needed today, the "various problems of today." For many years he wrote and is still writing the page "Comments on Congress," condensed by many readers to be the best writing on that subject in the United States. He has knowledge and what is rare, wisdom. He is bound by consideration except the welfare of the ordinary man and woman; and as a writer he has that rare and prime merit of controversy, the ability to select the special points, to clear away the rubbish, and to press the essential things with mastery. On the present world, this year he is in a direct straight forward way problems that have engaged his attention in the journalistic world. This year he is speaking particularly upon problems related to the war, and his addresses, are in effect verbal editorials upon the news of the present day.

Mr. Sullivan will speak at the Laverling theatre tonight.
