MINIDOKA AREA CROPS PROMISE HEAVY RETURNS

Authorities Look for Immense Yield All Over District—Car Shortage Menace

Crop conditions on the Minidoka project, according to crop authorities, are at least 30 per cent better than ever before at this season of the year. All most perfect stand of wheat, alfalfa, beans, potatoes and similar crops have been obtained by the big majority of farmers on the project.

Weather conditions, generally speaking, have been favorable. While the acreage of alfalfa is slightly less than in 1919, the clover crop is ready for the scythe. This promises to be heavier per acre and will, doubtless, equal in total yield crops of other years.

The question of water for late irrigation is disposed of in the abundance of supply stored in the Jackson lake reservoir. Neither is the harvest problem as serious as in other years. Farm help is plentiful and of better quality.

The one great menace confronting farmers is the car shortage. All too crops in this section promise to break production records.

COURTS' DECISION FAVORABLE TO TWIN FALLS CANAL COMPANY

Judge Babcock, in the District Court, Decided Cities Have Right to Vote Corporation Stock of Which They Are Trustees—Finds Illegal Voting Equal on Both Sides—Directorate Unchanged

Rendering a decision in the case of Frank De Klotz and others against the Twin Falls Canal company, Judge W. A. Babcock has found that the city of Twin Falls and Burley, and the representative of the High Line Pumping plant have a legal right to vote stock of which they are trustees. The court has so advised the contending attorneys.

Judge Babcock's finding was announced Tuesday evening, the decision being made known orally.

In addition to declaring that the stock held by Twin Falls and Burley and the High Line company had been legally voted according to the lawful rights vested in the corporations as trustees, Judge Babcock avers that some stock was illegally voted on both sides in the recent election of a board of directors of the canal company. The court finds, however, that this illegal voting was equal on both sides, and in no way affects the standing of the directorate personnel. In this respect the court says:

"As to persons voting who had disposed of lands and stock, not bona-fide stockholders and not entitled to vote as an election for directors, the stock is about equal on both sides. The court holds that the city of Twin Falls, Burley, as trustees, are entitled to vote their stock on both sides, and the High Line Pumping plant as stock appurtenant to land under the canal system."

Whether there will be any further contest remains with the legal representatives of the plaintiffs.

Following an annual election of directors, and resulted from a finding that more stock had been voted than was required by law. Dr. De Klotz was a defeated candidate.

MUST CONTINUE PESS'S COMBAT

Horticulturists Warned to Carry on Fight Against the Coddling Moth

Urging the necessity for repeated applications of lead arsenate spray in maintenance of orchards against the coddling moth, a representative of a fruit house today said, "Some fruit here has been ruined by frost, but orchardists must not make the mistake of neglecting to give their trees thorough spraying with arsenate of lead for the coddling moth. The coddling moth is a very serious pest and it is necessary to apply the spray in a very thorough manner to protect it, because even a smaller crop of well developed fruit will yield a profit with a wormy fruit cannot be sold at any price."

"Most orchardists of this district have applied the spray, but they have not applied it in a very thorough manner, but these attacks are repeated from time to time, and it is necessary to apply the spray in a very thorough manner to protect it, because even a smaller crop of well developed fruit will yield a profit with a wormy fruit cannot be sold at any price."

Mad Anthony Wayne Was First American Legion Commander

CAMP PIKE, Arkansas, (AP)—The first "American Legion" was founded in 1902 and its existence, by that name, terminated in 1903. The name, however, was not changed until the regular army was reorganized in 1920, following the Revolutionary war. It was then designated the "United States Army" and was divided into four "sub-legions," of which the Fourth United States Army was a part.

Mad Anthony Wayne was the first legionary commander of the United States Army as the legion originated with General Knox, secretary of war under George Washington and was organized under his direction at Pittsburgh, Pa., in May, 1792. President Washington designated the legion as the "United States Army" and was divided into four "sub-legions," of which the Fourth United States Army was a part.

SPARKED FIGHT IN PROSPECT IN C. O. P. PRIMARY

Popular Estimate Gives County Division Leading Part in the Sweezy-Seaver Contest for State Senate

A contest in the republican primary election August 3, which promises to be spirited because of the bearing it is commonly accepted as having on the county division issue became a certainty Saturday when, a short time before Senator Joseph H. Seaver of Twin Falls, made formal announcement of his candidacy for re-election.

Stands on Expediency

Mr. Sweezy is understood to base his candidacy on a platform that makes no reference to the county division issue. He is credited with the statement that division of the county would make for representation in the state legislature of the various sections of the county boundaries as they stand by two delegations both seeking the best interests of their respective counties and the state, instead of by a single delegation whose chief business is to maintain whole over the county division issue.

PUSSYFOOT ALWAYS WAS PROHIBITIONIST

Anti-Liquor Lecturer Will Be in Twin Falls on July 6 for An Address

William Eugene (Pussyfoot) Johnson is a native New Yorker, who shows here on July 6. He was born in that state March 25, 1862.

Always a prohibitionist, he was identified with the third party for years, until he became convinced that the non-partisan, inter-denominational plan of the Anti-Liquor league was the plan that ultimately would win. He came actively into the work of the league in 1912, though before that time he had done a great deal of work for and with local and national organizations of the league.

Johnson has always been a newspaper and publicity man. His style has been the "vigorous and aggressive" style, more or less polemic, always attacking the liquor stronghold, but at the same time giving his opponents credit for whatever honesty of purpose they possessed.

CHURCHMAN

Bishop Touré Announces Will Send Best Rector Obtainable to Twin Falls

That Ascension Episcopal church will before long have an official clerical head is the assurance given members of the church yesterday afternoon by the Rt. Rev. Frank Lela Touré, bishop of the Episcopal missionary diocese of Idaho. Bishop Touré gave this promise when he received pledges from individual members of the church amounting to guarantee full stipendiary consideration for the employment of a first class man to fill the local pulpit.

Bishop Touré, with Archbishop Howland and St. Mary's rector, Rev. John H. St. John, arrived in Twin Falls Saturday afternoon from the east. Yesterday morning was spent at the Sunday school and holding conference with the members of the church. The morning session following the Sunday school when six minutes were received into the fold of the church.

Talk of Salary

Yesterday afternoon's meeting, although informal, was attended by some of the most prominent representatives of the Ascension church, including the rector, ailing a clergyman for this church, and the problems with which selection is fraught, were amply, openly and freely discussed. There was no question of a salary of $1,000 per year toward the necessary salary. At the conclusion of the session Bishop Touré expressed gratification over the quality of the morning session and to assurance that a man will be sent to this place as soon as hands can be laid upon the proper person.

This morning the bishop and Archbishop St. John left for Jerome by automobile. Yesterday evening confirmation services were held in the church. Two weeks hence Archbishop St. John will hold a rallying service in Buhl, the choir from Ascension going to the west end town to supply music for this occasion.

Mr. Honor Guest

Bishop Touré was the honor guest on Saturday night at dinner served in the Fortine hotel dining room. Present were a number of vestry and others prominent in the conduct of affairs, seated at one end of the table and Archbishop Howland and St. John at the other.

At this meeting the bishop of the Episcopal church in Idaho talked last night on the question of holding a suitable clergyman for Ascension church pulpit. He told of his own efforts to get the right man for the place, and explained his plan to change rectors in mind, any one of whom he believed would eminently fill requirements here. He stated, however, that eastern parishes would not release increased rates of stipend until it now seems almost impossible to move the men of clerical ability from eastern dioceses.

Following dinner a church reception was held for the guests in Parish hall with the Women's Guild in charge.

Bishop Touré made a short address, which he explained his plans for Ascension church-parish, but made it plain that until he had found a man who has confidence and a good address, he will not contract to bring a rector to this field.

ATHEMATICALLY WELL RECEIVED

First Number on Chautauque Course Proves Entertaining

—Tent Nearly Filled

While the tent was not filled to capacity a goodly gathering heard Julius Caesar Nayphe in the inaugural number of the 1920 Chautauque course yesterday night.

Nayphe, billed as an Athenian, delivered a rare, but all too lengthy lecture on himself, personally, and the country of the Orient. He reviewed his personal history as it related to his early environs, and carried on to his career in the United States and America. His story of eastern customs and landmarks was interesting and well told. Throughout he displayed a thorough drilling in the history of the country, and the general effectiveness and interest of the story telling. He was well received.

REFUSES INJUNCTION

Judge Baum on Friday declined to issue an order restraining the city administrators from taking action against the Elmer E. Turner case. The latter company had lodged complaint and application for an injunction to prevent the city's removal of certain water mains belonging to the company.

In argument the city showed that no threats had been made and no agent had been authorized to remove the mains. Elmer E. Turner, K. Hackman, appearing for the water company, asked permission to file affidavits. This motion was granted by Judge John E. Davies appearing for the city.

TENTATIVE PLATFORM DECLARES FOR LEAGUE; SILENT ON DRY ISSUE

Draft of Sub-Committee of Nine and Submitted by Full Committee Demands Ratification of Peace Treaty as Requisite to National Honor; Suggests Reference of Irish Question to League and Leaves Prohibition Unmentioned

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The democratic platform as drafted by the sub-committee and submitted by the full committee declared for ratification of the peace treaty as a requisite to preserve the honor and integrity of the nation; suggests that the Irish question be brought legitimately before the league of nations for settlement and is silent on the subject of prohibition.

The advocates collective bargaining for farmers; opposes compulsory arbitration of labor disputes; declares for recognition of new Mexican government when it has established order, and calls on the legislatures of Tennessee, Florida and North Carolina to ratify the suffrage amendment.

The platform follows that adopted by the Virginia democrats and publicly approved by President Wilson. The league of nations plank in particular is noteworthy as a whole from the Virginia platform, though in other respects there have been modifications and many new subjects have been added.

A summary of the sub-committee's draft follows:

Preamble.
Sends greetings to President Wilson commending his achievements in the latest of "the noblest of all professions" the whole world. Condemns in general terms the republican congress.

League of Nations.
Repeats the Virginia plank with little variation, condemning the action of the senate republicans in adopting reservations and the separate peace resolution and advocating ratification of the peace treaty and such membership in the league of nations as would in no wise imperil national integrity or independence.

Conduct of the War.
Praises the administration's conduct of the war, commends the patriotic efforts of American citizens to aid the government and praises the military and naval forces with mention of General Pershing by name.

Finance.
Again incorporates the language of the Virginia democrats in extolling the federal reserve system and the financing of the war and commending the republicans for extravagance.

Taxation.
Critiques the republican congress for failing to revise wartime tax schedules and demands a survey of the tax conditions by the coming congress. Denies republican claims of economy, declaring that no money was saved except at the expense of the efficiency of government bureaus.

High Cost of Living.
Blames diminished production for high prices and declares the republicans are responsible in that they do not enforce and failed to provide the president with necessary legislation.

War Investigations.
Condemns the republicans for their use of appropriation in investigating the conduct of the war.

Prohibition.
Plodges the party to enactment and enforcement of such legislation as may be required to bring prohibition before the bar of criminal justice.

Tariff.
Reaffirms democratic tariff doctrine and declares for a research on the subject by a non-partisan commission.

Budget.
Defends President Wilson's veto of the budget bill and advocates a budget system partially under direction of the secretary of the treasury with consolidated auditing.

Postal Service.
Commends democratic administration of the postal service and makes a blanket declaration for higher salaries for postal employees. Advocates greater use of motor vehicles in transportation of mail and extension of the parcel post.

Free Speech.
Declares for free speech and a free press except insofar as it may attack the life of the nation.

Agriculture.
Praises the democratic record in establishing farm loan banks and other farm legislation. Encourages collective bargaining and researches into production costs.

Labor.
Follows the Virginia plank in declaring strikes and lockouts should not jeopardize the paramount public interests but adds a statement of opposition to compulsory arbitration. Favors readjustment of salaries of government employees.

Suffrage.
Congratulates legislatures that have ratified the suffrage amendment and urges democratic governors and legislatures of Tennessee, North Carolina and Florida to complete ratification in time for women to vote this fall.

Women in Industry.
Declares against child labor. Favors legislation for child welfare and maternity care. Advocates increases in teachers' salaries, larger extension of vocational education, better conditions for working women and re-classification of the civil service with a view to equality of the sexes. Endorses separate citizenship for married women.

Soldier Compensation.
Advocates generosity to disabled soldiers but declares against excessive bond issues to pay compensation which would put patriotism on a pecuniary basis.

Railroads.
Commends federal administration of railroads during the war, declaring it was efficient and economical despite inadequate and worn equipment. Criticizes the recently enacted transportation act and says congress temporized until so late a date that the president was forced to sign the bill or else throw the railroad situation into chaos.

Highways.
Favors continuation of federal aid in road building.

Inland Waterways.
Calls republican plank inadequate and advocates further development of adequate transportation on rivers and further improvement of inland waterways. Recognizes the importance of connecting the Great Lakes with the Mississippi as well as with the St. Lawrence.

Foreign Trade.
Favors extension of foreign trade.

Merchant Marine.
Plodges the party to a policy of continued improvement of the merchant marine under proper legislation.

Reclamation.
Advocates extension of arid land reclamation with a view to home building.

Mexico.
Deplores the misfortunes of the Mexican people and upholds President Wilson's Mexican policy, declaring that as a consequence order is reappearing in Mexico. Advocates recognition of new Mexican government when it has proved its ability to maintain order.

Ireland.
Reiterates President Wilson's principle of self-determination, expresses sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people and declares that when the United States becomes a member of the league of nations it can legitimately bring the Irish problem before the bar of the league.

Armenia.
Declares it the duty of the American government to aid in the establishment of order and complete independence for Armenia.

Alaska.

Commends the democratic administration for railroad construction and coal and oil development. Advocates modification of coal law to facilitate development and also extension of the farm loan act to Alaska.

Philippines.

Declares for Philippine independence without unnecessary delay when the islands are ready for self government.

Hawaii.

Advocates a liberal policy toward Hawaii with greater development of the rights and privileges of the middle class of its work.

Corrupt Practices.

Deplores the pre-convention expenditures of republican presidential candidates and advocates regulation of such expenditures by federal law.

Federal Trade Commission.

Praises the administration of the commission and advocates amplification of its work.

Livestock Markets.

Favors legislation for supervision of livestock markets by the federal government.

PENNSYLVANIA PROMISED WHITE HOUSE RELATIONS

WASHINGTON, Pa., (AP)—If Warren G. Harding is elected president of the United States, this pretty little university city in the hills of western Pennsylvania will be bound up closer than ever with the White House, for not only did Senator Harding's ancestors live here but the father of President Wilson also was a resident of Washington.

Senator Harding's great-grandfather, William Van Kirk, was one of the early settlers of Franklin township, and he and his wife are buried in the family graveyard on the Charles Van Kirk farm near Point Lookout. Senator Harding is honorary president of the Van Kirk family society and frequently has attended the annual reunion here.

President Wilson's father, Rev. Joseph, Bugles Wilson, was born at Bloomsburg, Pa., not far from here and in 1848 became pastor of the Illinois Presbyterian church at Canonsburg, near Washington. Here the family remained until their removal to Virginia where the president was born a short time afterward.

FOREIGNERS ARE CHINESE TO DISPOSE OF CORPSES
SHANGHAI, (AP)—Foreign residents of the Jehol and Kiaschow road districts have asked the municipal council of the International Settlement of Shanghai to urge upon the Chinese authorities to bury a large number of coffins containing the remains of Chinese who had been left scattered about fields and vacant tracts of the two districts. The complaint grows out of the Chinese custom of requesting of neighboring clans unburied for long periods.

HIGH COST PUTS WORD IN BRAZILIAN LEXICON

No Effort is Made to Translate "Overalls" into Portuguese Tongue

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, (AP)—

One result of the movement against the high cost of living in the United States has been to add a new word—"overalls"—to the Portuguese language. When the overalls movement started in the United States recently, newspaper men here translating the Associated Press dispatches from English into the Portuguese language were perplexed. The literal translation would be "troupe de operarios" which in English is "workmen's clothes."

At present however, since photographs have arrived from North America and the movement has been started here, no further effort is made at translation. The simple English word "overalls" has been adopted by newspapers and public alike.

The movement is gathering momentum in Rio de Janeiro and vicinity. The agitation started by newspapers has been taken up by students who in a mass meeting resolved to lead the way in imitation of North Americans in combating the high cost of living.

Probably the purchase you have planned to make "soon" ought to be made now. Get light from the ads.

SYMPATHIZERS WITH IRISH TO MAKE DEMANDS

Caucus Applies to Resolutions Committee for Hearing Argument to Recognition Plank to Avert Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—The sub-committee plank proposing to leave settlement of the Irish question to the league of nations was rejected today by the full platform committee, which also voted down by a majority of 2 to 1 a plank proposal favoring Irish independence.

A plank merely to express sympathy for the Irish people in their aspirations for self-government then was offered, but before the committee acted on it Frank P. Walsh, head of the American league for Irish independence, was granted a hearing behind closed doors.

Mr. Walsh advocated a plank pleading the worthy recognition of the Irish republic. He declared he had been instructed by a caucus of about two hundred Irish sympathizers who are convention delegates to say that anything less would be considered an evasion of the issue.

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—A "caucus" of Irish sympathizers among delegates applied to the convention resolutions committee today for five minutes' hearing in which to put forward an Irish recognition plank. The caucus chairman, John J. Fitzgerald of Rhode Island, said it was proposed to reserve an ultimatum to make that a floor fight would be made for such a plank.

Two hundred delegates attend. The caucus was held in a hall adjoining the committee room. More than 200 delegates were said to have attended. Through Senator Walsh of Massachusetts a request that Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City, be heard by the resolutions committee, was submitted.

Fitzgerald said a minority report favoring the recognition plank was demanded, to pave the way for carrying the fight to the floor. Should it be refused or the committee refuse to hear Walsh, he said, the course of the Irish sympathizers would be determined at another session of the convention later in the day. Convention rules could not prevent a floor battle, he insisted.

The caucus appointed a committee to conduct the fight, including F. M. Connelley, Daniel J. Connelley, J. F. Felleiter, Massachusetts; J. B. Flanagan, Vermont; Joseph B. Shannon, Missouri; Edward F. Dunne, Illinois, and several others.

Takes Up Struggle

The convention resolutions committee reconvened promptly at 11 a. m. today to take up the platform struggle where it ended long after midnight. A sharp fight in the "Irish" plank offered by William J. Bryan was in immediate prospect when Chairman Glass banged his gavel for order and announcement and proceedings were hurried out of the hall to their dreary watch in the corridors.

Bryan Early on Ground

Mr. Bryan was early in the committee room, stirring about in a score of personal conferences. He said he was prepared to fight to a finish for his dry declaration against the disposition of the sub-committee on platform to keep the party declaration silent on prohibition enforcement. The Nebraskan announced he would battle for his plank precisely as he had framed it and that the only "balance" it contained which he might be willing to sacrifice was an adjective here and there that merely reinforced the assertion for home rule and the eighteenth amendment.

Senator Walsh of Montana said he "hoped" the committee would be able to report the platform to the convention later in the day.

Irish Plank Remains

The Irish plank also remained to be acted upon by the full committee. Placards displayed about the corridors signed by half a dozen delegates called for a "caucus" of nominees friendly to Irish independence.

New efforts to prevent leaks in the platform deliberations were ordered by Senator Glass. The deadline drawn first yesterday 29 feet from the doorway of the committee room and later back to 20 feet under a skinned line of police, was sent clear to the ends of the corridor today.

Newspaper men were not permitted to approach within 10 yards of the doors and the committee men could rear their views at will without being overheard.

Educational Declaration Waits. In addition to the Irish and dry planks, the only remaining to be covered when the committee met, it was said, was whether creation of a separate federal department of education would be recommended. Printed copies of the plank, agreed to during the long night session were said to be available to committee members today, the draft showing blanks for the dry, Irish and educational expressions.

The printed version was set up and run off during the morning hours with comparative columns showing differences of opinion on certain questions. In blanks left near the top, presumably for the wet or dry expression, the printers had inserted the phrase "a wide-brimmed, black slouch hat, associated in cartoons, with Mr. Bryan's favored type of head gear while opposite it appeared the "stove pipe" with which cartoonists usually crown a "tammany" figure or any old line politician.

Carlson also Gets Rid of Thirty-Five Years' Trouble with Rheumatism

"By taking Tanlac I have gained twenty pounds and gotten rid of rheumatism that had troubled me for thirty-five years," said J. W. Carlson, of 96 Phelan creek street, St. Paul, Minn. "I am now sixty years old," he continued, "and had suffered ever since I was a young man of twenty-five. During the time I had the very best of treatment and tried many different kinds of medicine, but got no permanent relief until I found Tanlac. I was in bed for three months. I also had stomach trouble so bad that everything I ate seemed to go to waste. I was in bed for hours afterwards, often I had raging headaches and was so nervous I could never get much sleep. Finally I gave up entirely and never expected to be any better, but I began taking Tanlac and the way it knocked that rheumatism out was simply wonderful, and I haven't a sign of it left."

"My stomach trouble, too," he left me entirely. I eat three big meals every day, for I am hungry all the time and now have the best bit of digestion. My strength has come back and it beats the world the way I am gaining in weight. I never felt better in every way in my life and it gives me pleasure to recommend Tanlac, for it will do just what they say it will."

FEAR NOT THE FUTURE

Fear expressed in public addresses, especially by the heads of colleges and universities, that we are passing through a period of intellectual and moral unbalancing which may lead to a national decadence, is probably going faster than those engaged in the busy-busy of life will admit. If, as one distinguished educator said a few days ago, we have lost our bearings, the situation is only apparently so, or at worst but temporary. If his further fear is true that our old-time values of life have been forgotten, it is probably only because we are struggling to establish other values without losing our moral grip upon ourselves or our relations. There is a difference, perhaps, in our bearings, in our sensing of the values of life, but there is not what can be defined as decadence in any sense.

The boy and girl, young man and young woman, expanding to the fullness of life in the days of automobiles, airplanes, radio communication and the multitude of other mechanical marvels, cannot be expected to remain contented with all the old values. The child to whom the telephone is a commonplace, aerial craft, scarcely more than a momentary curiosity because of its familiarity, has advanced beyond the intellectual frontiers of the child of the last generation. That child grown to manhood or womanhood cannot but smile at the limitations of its grand-parents' age.

That there is a moral recession, or that there is the slightest danger of decadence, is improbable. There has been a noticeable transition within recent years and the young men and young women have simply kept step with the change. They are keeping their eyes open for the first appearance of the new world, the new conditions they were promised. They were unafraid, striding courageously out to meet what comes along. Was there ever a retiring generation that did not express doubts of the sturdiness of character of the youth of the rising generation? But did the men and women ever fall?

MILLER IS INDISPENSIBLE

There are two outstanding reasons why Twin Falls county can ill afford to lose Carl J. Miller of Castelford, as a member of its delegation to the next session of the Idaho House of Representatives.

In the first place, Mr. Miller's record as a legislator made in discharge of his official as one of Twin Falls county's representatives sent to Boise two years ago, is one on which he is entitled to stand with assurance. That the electorate of the county is so appreciative of faithful service that it will reward its servant with further political preferment.

And in the second place, Mr. Miller is the only available candidate for re-election with legislative experience gained in the last session of the state legislature. Twin Falls county cannot afford to assume the handicap of being in inexperienced delegation to Boise this year; nor to overlook the advantages certain to result to the county in consequence of Mr. Miller's heightened ability to work during his second term in the legislature for the betterment of the state at large and of Twin Falls county in particular.

Mr. Miller is reluctant to ask further favors at the hands of the county's electorate. He will not make the race for re-election unless he is persuaded that the people claim such service from him. Enlightened self interest of the county, if nothing else, should dictate popular insistence that Mr. Miller forgo his personal inclination and once again place himself at the service of the county and its people.

FOOD SPECULATOR ON JOB

There are indications that the over-zealous food speculator has his eyes on the alarming reports of farm labor shortage sent out from many states. His problem, however, is not only of the immediate present, but even more of the future. He will manage to get through this season in some way, and there will be no actual shortage of foodstuffs next winter. So the speculators may as well cease their efforts to make high price propaganda for themselves out of the misfortune of the man who grows the crops.

The fear of an actual food shortage is in the future with more and more men and women leaving the farms. We shall still have food for next winter, with an ever-dwindling surplus in the years to come.

Young Secretary to Lloyd George Looming as New Power in Britain

Sir Philip Sassoon, M. P., who, a few months ago, when he was selected by Premier Lloyd George to act as his chief private secretary, was unknown in British political circles, today stands as one of the most prominent officials of the Coalition Government. His great wealth, his aptitude for statecraft, and his great diplomatic ability, which he has shown in an embryonic manner in Great Britain. Sassoon is thirty-one years old and is a Jew. His father, Edward Sassoon, was known universally as "the friend of King Edward." A brilliant future is predicted for Sir Philip, who in a few months has become the leading figure in British politics.

OUR SUPREME COURT

The growth of Idaho along every line such as agriculture, reclamation, mining, lumber, stock, fruit and other branches of industry since its admission in 1890, has brought such an increase in the volume and importance of litigation coming for final determination before the Supreme Court and the membership of the court under the constitution being limited to three justices who, notwithstanding their ability and industry, are unable to keep up with such growing volume of questions submitted for their consideration and by reason of which the present congested condition of the Supreme Court calendar, through no fault on the part of the court practically leads to a denial of justice in many cases by reason of the long delay incident to the hearing of cases and appeals, has brought the Gen. state to a point where a large court is unquestionably necessary to meet existing conditions.

By reason of the situation which confronted the last legislature, the question of amending the constitution of Idaho in a manner to increase the number of justices from three to five will be submitted to the voters at the coming election. To avoid the expense and inconvenience of a special election of the two added justices in the event such submitted amendment shall be approved by the voters, the legislature decided that at the coming election two justices, in addition to a justice to fill the expired term of Justice Morgan, shall be elected. In the event the submitted amendment shall not be adopted, then the number shall remain the same notwithstanding such election.

In view of the foregoing situation and the importance of bringing the Supreme Court calendar up to date within as short a period of time as is consistent with necessary care, the public is very deeply concerned in securing for this important work the best trained legal talent possible. In a practical sense it is best to distribute such justices over the state, but it is important also that at least one justice should be a resident of the capital.

Looking the situation squarely in the face, usefully, and in the interests only of the public good, The News would suggest the name of District Judge Charles P. McCarthy of Boise as a candidate for one of the supreme justiceships. Judge McCarthy has stood the test of judicial responsibility in a district where the test is a strenuous one, and has not been found wanting. Judge McCarthy is eminently qualified for the position. He is an able jurist of ten years' experience, an administrator of the law without fear or favor and a man of the highest personal ideals.

So far as known, Judge McCarthy is not a candidate for this or any other elective position at this time, but that the supreme court of Idaho would be the gainer through the assumption of such position by this man is not likely to be gainsaid; and that the Idaho Bench and Bar as a whole and through the whole state, would profit by such a move, would seem to be a foregone conclusion.

A CAMPAIGN OF ISSUES

The unanimity with which the Harding nomination is being acclaimed among well for the success of a campaign. Prior to the convention individual preferences were divided among many candidates but it is apparent that since the contest is over, all who believe in Republican principles are getting behind the nominee. Although the campaign will be fought chiefly on issues, yet the personality of the Republican nominee is such as to bring enormous strength to the cause. The nature of the man will make him as popular with the great masses of the people as he has always been among his neighbors in his home town and state.

The first act of the Republican convention was to adopt a declaration of principles by which its subsequently chosen candidate would be bound. Its next duty was to select as head of the ticket a man of unquestioned integrity, fearless courage, and dauntless energy to make those principles a part of our government. That man they found in Senator Harding. No man, whatever his political faith, will question for a moment that Senator Harding is amply qualified to realize the program of reformation and reconstruction that his party has laid out for him. Criticism, therefore, of his candidacy must be an attack on that program. And, conversely, support of his candidacy must involve primarily the vigorous presentation of its policies before the people.

In a campaign of that sort the Republicans will have a tremendous advantage over their Democratic opponents. For the last seven years the government has revolved around the personality in the White House. Democratic pre-election promises, constitutional limitations upon executive authority and established precedents have alike given way before the imperious dictum of the executive autocrat. His re-election in 1916 was accomplished by continually impressing upon the people that the salvation of the nation depended upon keeping Woodrow Wilson in the White House. Issues played little part in that campaign; in fact, the Democratic ticket book was adorned with a picture of the President, with the words "Thank God for Wilson."

The Democrats will be forced to conduct the 1920 campaign along similar lines. Every plank of their 1916 platform is a mass of splinters. If a platform were to be constructed it would, necessarily have to follow much the same lines as that of four years ago. And if it were not before the people in a plea for their votes it would imply a repudiation of the man who has not hesitated to alter his declaration to suit the exigency of the moment. Democracy and Wilsonism are totally at variance, and one or the other must be chosen. Wilsonism will be the watchword and the campaign will be waged on what has been done by Wilson rather than what has been accomplished through adherence to the principles of democracy.

The voters will not be slow to discern the radical difference in the two contests. Neither will they hesitate to make their choice between them. For seven years they have been forced to bear the burden of a government by men, and they know what it means and the costs that it involves. They will welcome the opportunity to substitute for it a government of laws, administered with impartiality and thoroughness. They see in Senator Harding, as exemplified by his long service as a legislator and executive in both state and national affairs, the man who will vitally affect the issues of the republican platform and bring to the nation the sort of government it must have to survive.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Twin Falls county, in the judgment of The News, cannot do better than to send to Boise next fall as one of her representatives in the lower house of the state legislature, Hal G. Blue, superintendent of Twin Falls public schools. As a schoolman, Mr. Blue has gained a reputation and a standing that is more than state-wide and firmly established. In the discharge of his official duties, Mr. Blue has for several years exercised the management of one of the most important phases of the public's business, and he has done his work in a manner above reproach.

But in addition to his attainments in his own chosen field of endeavor, Mr. Blue has proven himself a broad-gauge, public-spirited citizen, one who is invariably foremost in any undertaking looking toward the betterment of the community in which he lives and serves and for the country and its people at large.

Mr. Blue has lived and worked here long enough so that he has gained an intimate familiarity with the problems and needs of this district and of Twin Falls county in particular. Further-

Wife to Wed Another, It Is Alleged

Byron Madison Pettibone, who is being held by the authorities of Beaufort, Vt. Pettibone, in an alleged confession to the authorities, admitted poisoning his wife. According to the police, Pettibone's love for Miss Helen Irene Guilford, of Beaufort, was the motive for the alleged murder. Miss Guilford, according to reports, has visited the prisoner several times and is said to have declared she will stick to him regardless of what happens.

more, he is eminently qualified to assist in the solution of these problems and meeting of these needs, in the capacity of a member of the state legislature.

Mr. Blue has not been consulted as to whether or not he will make the political race suggested; but his record of public service here is one to convince his friends that if persuaded of the desirability of further extension of his sphere of service, he will not decline.

The News takes profound pleasure in proposing for a member of Twin Falls county's next delegation to the Idaho House of Representatives, Hal G. Blue of Twin Falls.

ENABLING GERMANY TO PAY

The $30,000,000,000 cash indemnity imposed upon Germany by the Allies is probably no greater, relatively, than the $1,000,000,000 collected by Germany from France nearly a half-century ago, taking into account the increase in the wealth of nations in this period. France paid in an incredibly short time, surprising the world with the revelation of her hidden financial resources, and the aftermath of the settlement in some ways was worse for the victors than the vanquished. Germany indulged in an economic spree and also in a dream of world conquest which was shattered two years ago. France, on the other hand, buckled down to work and not only speedily rehabilitated herself financially but became, next to England, the greatest creditor nation in the world. Industrially, Germany is superior to France, and shortly before the war she reaped supremacy from Great Britain as an iron and steel producer and took rank second only to the United States in this respect.

Under the plan submitted at the conference of Allied premiers the period for the payment of the $30,000,000,000 imposed upon Germany is extended over a period of 37 years, unless she previously warrants a more rapid extinction of the obligation. The problem set before the world's financial experts in all history, has no parallel in all history. The obstacles in the way of its solution appeared insuperable to the lay mind. They involved political as well as economic factors, affecting both creditors and debtors. One cannot but admire the skill displayed in the tentative adjustment. In the first place, the terms of the treaty left uncertain the amount of the indemnity to be exacted. The plan submitted at the recent conference fixes a definite sum. The terms of payment were also indefinite; now they are explicitly fixed.

Without doubt the experts had in mind the effect upon the recipient of

Primary Draws Near; Here Are Tips for Voters

HOW IDAHO WILL ELECT OFFICIALS THIS FALL

The people of each party will choose by ballot delegates to a county convention. Each county convention will select delegates to the state convention of its party. The state convention will nominate the party candidates. The whole people by ballot, will choose between the party tickets at the general election.

IMPORTANCE OF THE PRIMARY

The primary election is the election at which the people choose their political leaders and entrust to them the preparation of platforms and the nomination of candidates. The primaries will not only nominate county officials but also will name the delegates to the county conventions; this choice of representatives will decide the issue of the fall nominating conventions.

SOME ANSWERS TO FREQUENT QUESTIONS

What must I do to represent my precinct in the county convention? You must get your name on the ballot as a candidate for election as delegate. To do this you must file a nomination paper with the county recorder before July 3. What is a nomination paper? It is a certificate substantially this form:

State of Idaho, County of _____

I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a citizen of the United States of the age of 21 years or over and will be at the coming election, and am a legally qualified voter at _____ (insert street and number, if any) in this precinct and am a member and affiliate with the _____ party. I have not signed a petition for nomination of a political party with which I am not affiliated, and I have not signed the nomination papers of an independent candidate for any office for which voters are to be elected at this primary; that I believe in the principles set forth by the _____ party and that I am not becoming a candidate as member of any partisan or nonpartisan organization other than as a candidate for the _____ party; that I voted at the _____ city, village or town, with the _____ political party at the _____ A. D.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, A. D.

What else is to be filed?

A written certificate from the county chairman or a majority of the members of the county central committee that you are now, and have for two years been, a member of the party you wish to represent. Or you must file the affidavits of at least five registered members of the party to the same effect.

Must candidates for election as precinct committeemen make the same filing?

Yes. For county officers and precinct committeemen the procedure is the same.

What part does the county central committee make up of these committeemen, play in the election?

It names election judges, clerks and other officials and fixes the location and time of the election. It also may make any rule which may arise in the party ticket.

How many delegates go to the county convention?

Each precinct is entitled to one delegate for each 30 votes cast at the last preceding election. Providing that each precinct shall be entitled to at least one delegate.

the too rapid payment of the indemnity, assuming Germany's ability to pay promptly. Perhaps the most serious of all the problems in the mind of the general public was the means whereby Germany could be enabled to meet her obligations. She could not pay in gold because the sum did not exist in exchangeable form in all the world. She could only pay by being given the means to develop her material resources. Here the experts applied the principle followed by an individual bank to a virtually insolvent nation: the best debt when it makes a new loan to him. The allies propose to issue international bonds, one-third of the proceeds of which will be advanced to Germany for her own internal use. With these means will be able to buy raw materials on which she must apply her acknowledged skill and her admitted potential industry, turning them into finished products which may be exchanged for gold or financial credits, which in turn will be devoted to the liquidation of the principal of her debt.

Commerce has little sympathy with individual or partisan bitterness, and is not barred by geographical boundaries. Where its interests are mutual it makes friends. It is as much to the interest of the allies that Germany be economically rehabilitated as to the new republic itself. It looks as if the financial experts had solved the problem. The percentage of the sum to be distributed among the several allies appears to be the one remaining point of dispute, but this should not impede the solution submitted.

Trailroads of well-conditioned cattle are leaving western Texas almost daily for the Northwest. They are a part of the approximate 300,000 animals that were shipped into Texas last fall because of drought conditions in Wyoming, Montana, Idaho and Nebraska.

This recalls the movement of cattle from Texas into the northwest pastures under very similar conditions during 1916, 1917 and 1918, when Texas was a drought stricken, and the country which was served during the past winter of almost hospitable pastures to starving Texas cattle.

RACE FOR TOGA NOW TRIANGULAR

Louis L. Allen of Twin Falls, is Third Aspirant for Republican Nomination

Contest for the republican nomination of state senator from Twin Falls county became a triangular affair late today when Louis L. Allen, 140 Quincey street, Twin Falls, shed his candidacy in the race for the state togo. The contenders previously entered for the nomination were Senator Joseph H. Seaver of Twin Falls, aspiring to reelection, and former Senator M. J. Crowley of Twin Falls. Popular estimate before the appearance of the third candidate had discerned in the contest a revival of the county division fight, with Mr. Seaver standing as the reputed champion of the divisionists and Senator Seaver in the position of the defender of the undivided county. Entrance of the third candidate is commonly accepted as complicating the situation with a possibility that the county division may be cast relatively into the background.

Mr. Allen has not expressed himself as to his attitude on this or any other issue, but promises to make plain his position in no uncertain terms when the time comes.

He came to Twin Falls county two years ago last February from Oneida county, Idaho, where he was associated with his father and brothers in large farming and livestock interests. He varied two years ago in Buhl, where he made his headquarters for a time, later removing to Twin Falls.

Mr. Allen's nomination paper bears the endorsement of five members of the republican party in compliance with a provision of the new election law. It is the first instrument thus endorsed to be filed this year. The others have borne the endorsement only of the county committee chairman.

The endorsement of Mr. Allen's nomination are H. O. Lamoreaux, Twin Falls; John W. Hartz, Buhl; H. E. Vanderpool, Hazzard; F. B. Wilson, Kimbory; William H. Stoddard, Twin Falls.

E. Carlson of Twin Falls today filed certificate of his candidacy for the democratic nomination for county commissioner from the second district. Mr. Carlson retired two years ago as chairman of the board, having served for three terms as a county commissioner.

Kennedy Packard of Twin Falls has filed his nomination for justice of the peace, subject to the democratic primary election.

The names of Charles E. Krongel and R. T. Hazzard, both of Twin Falls precinct No. 1, have been placed in nomination for delegates to the republican county convention.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PLANNED

Arrangements are being made for a community Fourth of July service to be held in the city park Sunday evening. Mayor W. H. Eldridge will be asked to preside. The address will be delivered by the Rev. W. A. Moore. Miss Loree Leo has been chosen to read the Declaration of Independence. The Rev. Moore's subject will be "The Patriot and His Country."

Monday and Tuesday of last week ran more than $600,000 in clearances, while but one day this week has shown an amount above that total. That was today, when the clearances summed $203,866.44. Following are the receipts for the four days of this week.

Monday $180,656.55; Tuesday $173,922.88; Wednesday $129,996.45; Thursday $23,886.55.

MAORI SINGERS BRING CHAUTAUQUA TO CLOSE

Interesting Program is Given Concluding 1920 Series of Entertainments

With the Maori singers and Miss Lella M. Blomfield, New Zealand lecturer and writer, the features of the Twin Falls 1920 Chautauqua closed last night. There was a capacity audience.

During the recess following the lecture Director C. Callow concluded a canvass for support for the Elliston White Chautauqua service in 1921. Ten guarantors signed last night, bringing the total to the required number.

Last night's lecture was on the general subject "New Zealand," and was, in the main historical. The speaker handled the subject in excellent style, and provided a lot of illumination concerning the island in the southern seas. The company, all Maoris, supplied native songs and dances and gave some interesting details of native life, habits and tribal customs.

BAND CONCERT BILL VARIED FOR TONIGHT

A varied program of selections has been devised for tonight's city band concert in the public park. One number will be played by request. The schedule follows:

March, "Frontier Echoes," by Watson Selection from "Fors & Frills," by Hein Fox Wros, "At Moving Picture Ball," by Sautley Overture, "The Army Chaplain," by Miller One Step (by request) "Swano," by Jones Selection from "So Long Letty," by Carroll "American Patrol," by Marchant March, "Fultonshire," by Walton

THE MOST CAPABLE person you could secure in the city for that position is probably a regular reader of the classified ads—keeping on the alert for the right opportunity.

PUSSEYFOOT HAS BIG YEAR AHEAD

National "Dry" Worker Scheduled for Many Lectures at Home and Abroad

William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, who will be here on July 6, is speaking in 35 American cities during his experiences of a year and a half in prohibition effect in Great Britain. Hitherto he has been in the east and central states, but is soon to cross the Mississippi and to speak in states where much of his enforcement and temperance work in the past were accomplished.

Johnson's western schedule is as follows:

Des Moines, June 30, evening; Helena, evening of July 1; Wichita, evening of July 2; Denver, morning, afternoon and evening of July 4; Twin Falls, Idaho, reached by airplane from Greeley, Wyo., afternoon of July 6; Spokane, evening of July 7; Tacoma, July 8, evening; Seattle, July 9, evening; Portland, morning, afternoon and evening of July 11; San Francisco, afternoon and night of July 13; Oakland, July 14, night; Pasadena, July 15, evening; Los Angeles, noon, afternoon, July 17, two addresses July 18, with evening meeting at Long Beach; San Diego, evening of July 19.

Pussyfoot will turn east from San Diego and will speak at El Paso, evening of July 21; San Antonio, evening of July 22; Houston or Austin, evening of July 23; Dallas and Fort Worth, July 25; Shreveport, July 26; Meridian, July 27; Birmingham, July 28; Atlanta, July 29, winning up his American tour at Nashville on the evening of July 30.

Mr. Johnson will then return to his home at Westerville, O., for a month's rest and to work on a temperance encyclopedia which he and his associates have been preparing for several years.

He will sail for Great Britain tomorrow, July 16, to be gone a year in the interest of prohibition over there, helping out the British drys, especially in Scotland, which votes this year on local prohibition.

Johnson is speaking under joint direction of the Anti-Saloon League of America and the state leagues. In each meeting place local pastors co-operate in making arrangements. It is announced that his meetings are free and that women as well as men are invited.

Johnson is telling his audience that Great Britain may go dry within the next decade and the whole world within a generation. He also insists that the drys of other civilized nations are knocking at the doors of American drys and asking for aid in putting on their own campaigns against the liquor traffic.

CHARLES NEGLECT.

Alleging the man she married in Helena on January 27, 1917, has failed to provide for her support, and that he has been cruel in his manner toward her, Edna Slater has asked that the bonds of matrimony attaching her to William Slater be severed. Suit has been filed in the district court by Attorney E. V. Larson.

Conditions and Prognosticator are at Variance

THE weather prophets say "cooler tonight," but natural elements and conditions contradict the prediction. There is no mention of possible rain, in fact the prognosticator announces fair weather for tonight and tomorrow.

The mercury mounted five degrees for the top yesterday. The nocturnal low was 47. Farmers from the Salmon district lament that all the folks around have received rains in the past week; but there has been no moisture on the Salmon section.

LIORNEED TO WED

BIG DAY FOR TWIN FALLS

For the first time in its history Twin Falls will be right in the spotlight. Pussyfoot's proposed trip by airplane was heralded all over the country and reported by the big-metropolitan dailies. ESSEX IS CREDITED WITH MAKING RECORD

Fast Time is Recorded on Trial Run, Twin Falls to Buhl and Return

Blair Langford of the Salladay Hardware company, accompanied by Harry Atwood, of the Johnson Auto Sales company today drove an Essex roadster from Twin Falls to Buhl in time he believed to be the best time ever made between these two points.

Mr. Langford left the Perrine hotel from a standing start at 4:09 a. m., this morning and arrived at the Oregon Short Line railroad crossing on Broadway at Buhl at 4:33 a. m., and was again at the Perrine hotel in Twin Falls at 4:56 a. m. Sworn statements from disinterested persons verifying this Essex performance are now in the hands of the Johnson Auto Sales company.

In an interview, Mr. Langford made the following statement regarding his remarkable drive. "That any automobile would stand such a grueling test over such roads is almost unbelievable. The road shocks were so severe that before we had gone more than two miles the windshield was shattered and it seemed as though something must give away, but the little roadster never faltered and returned in perfect condition except for a broken windshield and some badly mangled tires. I feel certain that with the roads in their present miserable condition that my Essex roadster can still reduce our performance of 34 miles in 40 minutes by several minutes."

Mr. Langford made this drive at the request of the Johnson Auto Sales company to fulfill the promise to the public that it could expect some unusual performance from the Essex car during "Watch the Essex week."
