

REPUBLICANS SWEEP ATL AND NATION

Twin Falls County G. O. P. Elects Every Candidate on Ticket

G. O. P. IS LEAD IN STATE

Entire Ticket Elected by Majorities in Some Cases Two to One—Total Vote Is Unusually Heavy

BOISE, Idaho, (P)—Returns coming in today from yesterday's general election served only to increase the leads of republican candidates shown over the democratic and independent ones last night. Seven of these were in the ratio of two republican votes to every democratic one. Robert N. Dunn, had the largest lead of the lesser offices. Eighty-eight precincts in five counties gave him 12,707 and his democratic opponent, J. H. Forney, 5572.

More than one quarter of the precincts heard from nine of the smaller counties still to give their first reports, and Harding, Gooding and Davis republican nominees for president, senator and governor, respectively, far in the lead. That was the result of Idaho's general election so far as known early today.

The actual figures, from 248 of the state's 823 precincts, were: Harding, 24,140; Cox, 14,820. Frank R. Gooding, republican, 21,273; John P. Nugent, democratic incumbent, 12,622. D. W. Davis, republican, incumbent, 21,204; T. A. Waller, democratic, 10,943; R. D. Fairchild, independent, endorsed by the Non-partisan league, 6165.

The vote for Fairchild was a surprise in some quarters, a certain portion of the political experts estimating that he would poll more votes than at least one of his competitors in the race.

Harding Lead Grows

As the night wore on and returns began to come in with some regularity and volume, Harding increased his early lead, once advancing until he had approximately three times as many votes as Cox and then dropping back until he had only about twice as many, but maintaining approximately that ratio for some hours.

Gooding steadily increased his lead over Nugent, ranging upward from a plurality of 1700 odd when 145 precincts had reported to 3500 when 180 precincts had reported.

From a majority of more than two to one over Waller early in the evening, Governor Davis' lead decreased to slightly above that proportion and then hung there for some hours.

Figures Come Slowly

The congressional race returns came in even more slowly than did those for president, senator and governor, and the returns on the proposed amendment to increase the number of judges on the supreme bench came slowest of all.

In the first district, 117 of the 390 gave Burton L. French, republican, incumbent, 10,445, as against 4554 for Mrs. Nell K. Irion, democrat. Mrs. Irion was the only woman nominated for a national office in Idaho this year.

In the second district, Addison T. Smith, republican incumbent, received 1217 votes against 7494 for W. P. Whitaker, democrat.

On the amendment, eight precincts showed: For 597; against 356.

Figures on Increase. On the supreme court amendment 23 precincts gave, for 1234; against 758. Four precincts in Caldwell, where Waller has made his home for many years, gave Davis a small plurality.

The also precincts reported from Canyon county, home of Mr. Waller, went for his republican opponent by approximately 400, but Fairchild put a heavy toll there which some experts said perhaps reduced the tally for the democrat. The vote stood: Davis 1009; Waller 668; Fairchild 812. This was the first county where Fairchild showed otherwise than as, third man in the race.

Figures on Decrease. On the supreme court amendment 23 precincts gave, for 1234; against 758. Four precincts in Caldwell, where Waller has made his home for many years, gave Davis a small plurality.

THE MAN WHO HOLDS THE REINS

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN COUNTY PRESENTS A CLEAR CUT RESULT

Entire Ticket Swept into Victory from State Senator to Coroner—Result Apparent at an Early Hour—News Office Scene of Thrilling Activity as Figures of Returns Pour In

With majorities clear cut and decisive, the entire Republican ticket in Twin Falls County swept into victory upon the close of a wave of ballots which seemed to grow in intensity as the day's voting wore on. In no case was there room for doubt as to the final outcome from the early hours of the evening on.

Various and conflicting reports from outlying precincts served merely to heighten interest in the campaign. By 10 o'clock it was apparent that only some utterly unforeseen event could possibly change the result. An hour or two later the last lingering strands of question were swept into the discard and the election of the entire ticket was virtually conceded.

Election returns were posted at the office of The News as well as at the Elks' club, the Lavington theatre, and at other points, including the picture shows. Crowds warmed before the bulletin boards everywhere until about 11 o'clock, after which the city became strangely quiet and only The News office, Republican county headquarters, and one or two other places presented evidence of continued activity. A force of experienced auditors, worked all night at gathering and tabulating the returns at The News office, which work was not completed until late this morning. Added results served merely to accentuate the victory. The figures:

over Walters. The figures were: Davis 1009; Waller 668.

Gooding, through addition of these precincts, reached a plurality of 341 votes over Nugent in the same county. Two precincts in Sugarfoot, a plurality of 1000 votes over Gooding in this county.

Smith's home county, Twin Falls, nullified the republican candidate, gave him a heavy majority over Whitaker, his democratic opponent.

Three precincts reported early from Whitaker's home county. Bannock, gave Smith 680; Whitaker 307, a majority of more than two to one.

Liberate the republican congressional candidate in the first district, Bonner county, Mrs. Irion's home, out ran her in the seven precincts reporting early today. The figures:

French 320; Irion 371.

Ada county, home of Senator Nugent, democrat, gave the republican senatorial candidate, Gooding, 2570 in the 84 precincts reporting, against 3257 for Nugent.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESS ASSUMES CHARGE OF GOVERNMENT WITH SAFE MAJORITY IN BOTH HOUSES

NEW HIGH RECORD SET BY REPUBLICANS OF ILLINOIS

Success Carries Through to Last Man on Cook County Ticket

CHICAGO, (P)—Setting a record that will be hard to overcome without a greater outpouring of voters than obtained yesterday, republicans polled an estimated majority of 777,000 votes in Illinois for Senator Harding and did not fall far short of that figure in electing Len Small governor, and Wm. B. McKinley senator. Most of the Illinois congressmen will be republicans, while the entire state ticket, including the legislature and the Chicago and Cook county officers will be of the same party at the coming national administration.

On incomplete returns, Small ran some 300,000 votes behind Harding. Congressman McKinley, who followed the pace set by Senator Harding in the race for the senatorship against Peter Waller, democrat. Mayor Thompson's candidates were elected to Chicago offices.

Side Issue Defeated. Chicago, with some 900,000 voters, delivered a plurality of about 400,000 for Harding, 325,000 for McKinley and 200,000 for Small. On policy questions, Chicago defeated daylight saving.

Gooding Majority May Reach 10,000

Senatorial Election in Idaho Shows Overwhelming Republican Leaning

BOISE, (Special to The News)—On the face of scattered returns from all over the state it is apparent here that the Gooding majority may reach as high as 10,000. Democratic leaders concede his election by a heavy vote, but are not inclined to regard the result as a landslide.

David Burrell, secretary of the state republican committee, stands on a prediction of at least 10,000 for Gooding. He said that the democratic situation are inclined to agree with him.

MISSOURI REPUBLICAN BY ENORMOUS MAJORITY

Both Sides Claim Victory But Democratic Figures Continue to Shrink

ST. LOUIS, Mo., (P)—Although both parties today still claimed to have carried Missouri, republican candidates for the principal state and national offices continued to increase their majorities.

Over nearly half of the state's 2810 precincts, in Senator Harding led Governor Cox by about 35,000; and Senator Selden Spencer was about the same number of votes ahead of his democratic opponent, Breckinridge Long. Arthur M. Hyde, republican candidate for governor, was running well ahead of the national ticket and in advantage of more than 50,000 votes over Atkinson, democratic nominee.

Champ Clark, former speaker of the house, had more than 1000 votes in 73 out of 208 precincts, but seemed to be maintaining his advantage. Bland, democratic incumbent, led Ellis in fifth district by 2000 with two-thirds of the precincts in.

HARDING STRENGTH IN NEBRASKA IS GROWING

Returns Show Tremendous Majority on Republican Side

OMAHA, Neb., (P)—Senator Warren G. Harding came to increase his lead over Governor Cox as later returns came in shortly before noon in Nebraska. A total of 1072 of the state's 1872 precincts gave Harding 152,000; Cox 64,882, a plurality of 87,118 for Senator Harding.

Additional returns also helped to swell the leads of republican candidates for state office. Governor B. R. McKinley, republican, had 91,954 votes as compared to 80,672 for former Governor Charles D. Hammond, democrat. Arthur G. Wray, mayor of Omaha, endorsed by labor and farm organizations and the Non-partisan league, with the same number of precincts heard from, had 51,589.

Incomplete Returns Indicate Overwhelming Vote for Candidates of G. O. P.—Late Figures Show Increased Majorities in House and Senate—Bad Weather Fails to Cut Down Ballots

NEW YORK, (P)—Republican control of congress for another two years with an increased house majority and a prospective increase in the senate, was a major part of the election sweep. A net gain of twenty votes in the house was shown with complete returns from only seventeen states, but with most of the democratic strongholds reporting. Eight of the fifteen republican senatorial candidates had come in winners today, the seven others had substantial leads, while in ten other states all of the republican candidates were reported in the van.

Fight Uphill Battle. For the 19 democratic seats 9 of the minority party had been returned winners—all from southern states—while the border and western states the others were fighting an uphill battle. That the general republican landslide would seat several more republican senators was predicted confidently by republican campaign managers, who claims included a majority of eight to ten in the next senate. Both the republican presidential and senatorial tickets were reported early today as ahead in California, Nevada, Missouri, Colorado, South Dakota, Idaho, Ohio and Washington.

Underwood Re-elected. Of the democrats, Senator Underwood of Alabama, minority leader, was re-elected and Representative Heflin chosen to succeed the late Senator Bankhead. A new face in the senate on the democratic side will be Representative Caraway of Arkansas, who defeated Senator Kirby in the primaries and was elected yesterday. Among the republican leaders re-elected were Senators Brandegee, Wadsworth, Dillingham, Watson and Penrose.

In the house, most veterans, both republicans and democrats, were re-elected, including Speaker Gillette, now holding the record for continuous service and elected for his fifteenth term.

Bourbon Philosophical. Leaders of the Bourbon party here are inclined to take the pill of defeat with a coating of philosophy and stoicism, most declining to offer excuses preferring to another disappointment in congressional elections for the victorious party and winning candidates.

Before 11 o'clock last night local B. returned in the nation's election wind, and ere midnight struck all interest had switched to the state fight for senatorial honors—a fight waged between Frank R. Gooding, republican, and John P. Nugent, democrat. Around The News' bulletin place this scrap was the absorbing topic, republican adherents and democratic adherents alike being hopeful of the result.

Many Scratches. According to clerks and judges of election scratched ballots proved rather more the rule than the exception in Twin Falls. The number of precincts, especially true was this condition in precincts No. 1 and 2, where counting of ballots was not concluded until late this morning. In fact, of the fact that the count was started soon after ballot casting was under way yesterday morning.

FRENCH PRESS LAUDS HARDING

Paris Newspapers Declare Republicans' Election is Great Triumph

PARIS, (AP)—Newspapers of this city give great prominence to reports of the American election, and publish many pictures of Senator Harding, the Excelsior giving its entire first page to the successful presidential candidate and his family. In their comments, the newspapers declare the election of Senator Harding was a triumph, give high praise to his personality and recall he has always asserted great sympathy for France.

Deserves Confidence.
Editors are unanimous in remarking that the election clearly condemns the policy of President Wilson, and attests definitely the "situation" existing between administrative and executive departments of the government. They assert this situation has "completely paralyzed American international policy," and express the conviction that the result of the election will in no way prejudice Franco-American friendship.

By his love of order and the brightness of his character," declares the Matin, "Senator Harding deserves the confidence of the French people." The Excelsior expresses the hope that Paris that "the discussion which will be started on relations between the United States and the league of nations will provide occasion for repairs some of the faults committed by Versailles."

Defeat for Wilson League.
Paris newspapers, commenting this afternoon on the American election, agree that Senator Harding's success is a distinct defeat for the league of nations as established by the Wilson campaign.

The Temps says: "The election may be considered as a referendum on the entrance of the United States into the league of nations, the conviction of which is a personal defeat for President Wilson."

The Liberte says: "American common sense has condemned the league in its forms. From an international point of view the American election day was a bad day for socialism and the society of nations, the consequences of which will be felt throughout the world."

The Transigent says: "From the French point of view it is a success. Senator Harding has offered the friendship for France, declaring that France would find in him an ally. He will not relinquish the conviction which binds the new world with France."

Tariff Disquieting.
The Journal des Debats says: "The republicans' party, fundamentally protectionist, regards tariffs not as an instrument of reprisals but as one of protection. Such an attitude is disquieting to us."

The Petit Parisien says: "Two questions dominate the American election: the election of the republicans so far as France is concerned. One is the Versailles treaty and the league of nations and the other the question of tariffs."

"The first question is settled irrevocably, but Senator Harding's declaration at Chicago in the course of his campaign is not reassuring for French manufacturers and exporters, as he advocated a revision of the tariff and an increase in the duties on American imports from Europe."

The inhabitants of Grandur fought the flames and saved many other houses from destruction.

SOME GOOD SUMMER SALADS.

In no season of the year are salads as much enjoyed as during the warm weather when the appetite lags and crisp fresh things are most welcome.

Cucumber Jelly.—Cut cucumbers and tomatoes into dice, saving the juice. Season with grated onion, pepper and salt. Dissolve half a package of gelatin in two cups of liquid, add to the vegetable juices, stir until well mixed, cool, cut in cubes and serve in tomato cups with mayonnaise.

String Beans.—Wash the beans and put them in a little water. Put string and cooking for five minutes, then add a very little water, set back where they can simmer, adding a very small amount of water when needed. Season and cook for two hours. Serve hot with curled bacon.

Steamed Radishes.—Cook without peeling the radishes, and if usual, leave whole. Serve in a white sauce, using plenty of seasoning. If boiled, use very little water and reserve it for making the white sauce, so that the nutriment and flavor may be saved.

Corn and Green Peppers.—Cook a medium-sized pepper in sweet fat, then add corn, seasoning and cook until slightly browned. Serve hot.

Iceberg.—Dissolve two cups of sugar in three cups of water (boiling), cool, add three-fourths of a cup of lemon juice, color light green and freeze. Serve in stemmed sherbet glasses. Put a teaspoonful of cream in each glass, sprinkle with finely chopped nuts, using almond, almonds, pecans and walnuts in equal proportions. These may be used with the meat course, or between courses, or as a finish to the meal.

Sliced Apples.—Produce can of an equal amount of fresh peaches through a sieve, add one cupful of sugar, two cups of orange juice, two table-spoonsful of lemon juice, and when well mixed freeze.

Manly of Doubt.

There are a lot of people who think that to doubt everything shows common sense and shrewdness, whereas it may indicate only a narrow-mindedness. But there is an uneasy doubting of one's own vision, if not resisted, may finally chop up a man's life. Often, though perfectly sure that we did look the door, or deliver an injunction, or put a memorandum in our pocket, we nourish the doubt all day, or turn out our pocket on our way to work. Any symptom of this malady is the hurried, worried search for a missing article in every place save where it usually is, and the astonishment at finding it there.

Orchid Crossbreeding.

While orchids from the wilds have remarkable and interesting characteristics, they are being rivalled and surpassed by new forms produced by hybridization in the greenhouses of experts. Now, the hybrids are many in number and are supplanting the older varieties in part because of their exquisite beauty of color and form, but increased fragrance and their greater ease of cultivation. It is slow work, the crossbreeding of orchids, but it is marvellously fascinating.

MEXICO IS PUZZLED BUT HOPEFUL OVER ELECTION

Sentiment Generally Regards Republican Victory as Advantage

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Reports of the election in the United States were given the entire front pages of newspapers of this city. Only two journals, however, the Excelsior and El Herald de Mexico, ventured to speculate editorially on what a republican administration in the United States means for this country.

The former sees immediate recognition as one result of the election, and the other asserts that a republican election "will not be an obstacle to good relations between Mexico and the United States."

The Excelsior, which "sees in the election a 'personal rebuke' for President Wilson," asserts he now "can scarcely be expected to refrain from recognizing the republican victory," against the republican senatorial majority, which in the past has assumed an uncordial and even hostile attitude toward this country.

El Herald rejoices that Senator Harding is not a "fire eater of the Senatorial fall class," but asserts his statements regarding Mexico seem to be vague and "we are confused at judging his true mental attitude toward us. His election puzzles us, although we have faith in his ability."

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Assertions that the country offerings of wheat were somewhat larger gave an advantage today to bears in the wheat market. It was contended also that wheat was still out of line with other grain and with commodities in general. Support was lacking. Initial prices which ranged from 1 1/2 to 2 3/4 cents lower, with December 2 1/4 to 2 3/4 and March 1 1/2 to 1 3/4, were followed by a moderate further setback.

Subsequently apparent shortness of export demand led to increased weakness. The close was nervous, 3 1/2 to 4 1/4 not lower with December 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 and March 1 1/2 to 1 3/4.

Corn sagged with wheat. After opening unchanged to 7-8c lower, including December at 81 3/4 to 82 1/4c, the market continued weak.

Smallest of receipts tended to rally the market somewhat. Prices closed steady, 1c lower to 3-8c advance, December 81 3/4 to 82 1/4c.

Provisions, although dull, were firm. Large shipments had a bullish influence.

LARGER PLANTS FOR BEET SUGAR

Havemeyer Company Officials Order Enlargements at Burley and Paul

Reports reaching Twin Falls from Burley indicate plans authorized for the extension of the capacity of the Great Western Sugar company's plant at that place. The daily capacity of beets is to be enlarged to 1200 tons. The present capacity is 800 tons.

Definite decisions for the improvements at Burley was reached during a visit of company held officials recently. H. A. Havemeyer, Jr., heading the official party, in order to increase the capacity increase it will be necessary to remodel the present institution and install new machinery of an entirely new make and character.

In addition to the enlarging of the Burley plant plans have been adopted also, for similar increase at the plant near Paul from 950 to 900 tons per day capacity.

Action of sugar manufacturing officials for the improvements at Burley and Paul is consistent with a policy inaugurated by sugar officials wherever plants are located in the west. Improvements similar to those proposed for Burley and Paul have been made out or at least authorized, in most of the important sugar beet growing sections of the international region.

In the past year the Amalgamated Sugar company has expended a total of $300,000 in the enlargement of the Twin Falls sugar manufacturing plant. The new plant has increased capacity 100 per cent. During the winter campaign will be inaugurated in the interest of extension of the sugar beet growing industry in this and all contiguous sections. The campaign plan includes personal visits and the holding of mass assemblies of the growers and processors throughout the off season. These assemblies will be addressed by agricultural expert in the growing of sugar beets.

BRYAN DECLARES WILSON SHOULD RESIGN AT ONCE

Commoner Suggests Carrying Verdict into Execution Immediately

CHICAGO, (AP)—William Jennings Bryan, in Chicago today, gave out a statement suggesting that "President Wilson should resign at once."

"Now that the American people have decisively declared against the league of nations as written by the president," said Bryan, "it is most desirable to carry out the verdict immediately. This can be easily done."

"The president should resign at once and turn over his office to Mr. Marshall, on the condition that on the convening of congress in December, Mr. Marshall appoint Senator Harding secretary of state, and himself resign."

"The law then would make Mr. Harding president, and with the republican support in congress, he could at once put in operation the plan for the United States to enter into an association of nations for peace."

"As world peace is a thing nearest the president's heart, he can hardly refuse to hasten the coming of peace by so small a sacrifice—if it could be called a sacrifice—to escape from a three months' captivity with a hostile congress, supported as it is by the recent vote."

SEES IN RESULTS DISAPPROVAL OF NATIONS LEAGUE

T. M. Robertson, Democratic State Central Committee man, Reviews Election

In a letter addressed to The News, responding to a request for an expression as to causes that led to the recent republican landslide Thomas M. Robertson, of the democratic state central committee, gives as one of the chief elements in the almost unanimous election of Warren G. Harding disapproval of the nations league. In present form, Mr. Robertson also takes the avalanche of votes for republicanism as an indication that the voters of the country favored a change in the form of administration, and as an outcry against the present condition of the country's markets.

"In compliance with your request for a statement regarding the recent election, would say that in my opinion the results are the outcome of various causes. It is an unmistakable verdict on the part of the American people that they did not approve of the league of nations in its present form. It also reflects in a great degree the desire on the part of the American voters for a change, and the shifting of the responsibility in the conduct of our governmental affairs. I think that the present market conditions influenced this desire as much or more than any other one thing."

Since the victory has gone to the republicans, I am glad that it has gone so strong that, the responsibility will be wholly theirs, and I hope that the affairs of the country at large will be conducted in such a manner in the next four years that they will not object to assuming this responsibility. The men nominated on both tickets were, I believe, high types of citizens, and there should be no reason for the most partisan democracy to feel that the welfare of the country has gone to the law-wuvs, but that we will continue to live in the greatest country under the sun, in a republic or democratic administration at the head of affairs.
