

MANDATE WRIT IS DENIED TO CIVIC LEAGUE

School Board Action Court Holds Law Has Been Complied with—Case Falls

Declaring that the board of trustees of school district No. 1 have in intent complied with the terms of the law in the matter of publication of financial statements, Judge Babcock, in the district court, on Saturday denied a writ of mandamus applied for by the Taxpayers' League against the board. The case was ordered dismissed. The court, in announcing from the bench, indicated he would hold that the summarized report made for 1919 provided substantial compliance with the law, whereupon counsel for the plaintiff league asked permission to withdraw from the complaint the request for publication of the 1919 financial statement in summarized detail. The court allowed leaving the issue standing solely upon demand for publication of the 1920 reports. The court then held that compliance has been made in the matter of 1920 reports and further held that there existed no necessity for issuance of a writ of mandamus. The order of the court followed brief arguments on demurrers presented by both sides to the issue. Shad L. Hodgins represented the board of trustees as a whole, with Asher B. Wilson, assisting as special counsel for Mrs. C. R. Scott, a member of the board. Mr. Wilson demurred to the complaint, questioning the entire board, attempting to prove that Mrs. Scott could not be held responsible for the acts of members of the board done before she was a member of that body. The point was overruled. Turner C. Hackman and Homer C. Mills represented the Taxpayers' league, which brought the action in the name of G. H. Brown, C. D. Thomas, S. E. Kittling and E. F. Walton as plaintiffs. The court made no statement relative to fixing costs. In an action against the highway commissioners the court taxed costs against the defendants.

CONTINUANCE ORDERED IN OUSTER HEARINGS

Judge Babcock Defers to Motion of Defense for Time to Consider Charges

Following the ordering of a continuance of hearing in the E. F. Walton ouster case against the individual members of the board of trustees, Judge W. A. Babcock in the district court overruled plaintiff's demurrer to the Taxpayers' league case against the highway commission as a demurrer. The demurrer was lodged against a petition to grant defendants an alternative writ of mandamus. The latter ruling was made Friday morning while continuance of the hearing of ouster actions against C. B. Channell, J. M. Steelsmith and A. E. Larson, commissioners, was ordered Thursday afternoon. The court denied the demurrer when it was shown by counsel for the defense that the demurrer made by plaintiff in the original complaint had been fully complied with. This decision was in full compliance of a financial report of the district's condition, and such physical data as is required by law. Costs of the proceedings against the ouster petitioners were ordered assessed against the petitioners. Hearing of the ouster action against the individual commissioners was set for next week. The additional time was given on petition of counsel for the defendants who asked more time to study the causes of action named in the complaints. There are more than 50 such causes alleged. The court also continued a scheduled hearing of a mandamus action against the district school board, brought by the Taxpayers' league, until Saturday morning at ten o'clock. The case against the city was dismissed of in the action against P. E. Hildreth, treasurer, when the court held that the reports asked by the petitioners must be published.

W. W. PARISH DEFINES POSITION WITH RESPECT TO SCHOOL BOARD

Chairman of District Board of Directors Intimates Withdrawal in General Announcement—Urges Solid Support for Tax Levy at Coming Election as a Patriotic Impulse of the Community

Defining his position with respect to his place on the school board, W. W. Parish, chairman of the board, who earlier in the week was alleged to have resigned following withdrawal of two of his colleagues on the directorate, Friday made the following statement, which though not definite announcement of resignation, can be taken as an expression of intention to such an act. Following the announcement in a public meeting by a speaker on that occasion that Mr. Parish had definitely resigned from the board, Mr. Parish made formal denial through the press. His statement reads: "I wish to make a statement to the public in regard to the decision I have made relative to my position as a member of the board of education of the Twin Falls schools, a position I have held since the fall of 1916, when I was elected to the board of the district where I served in the same capacity for eight years, and resigning a similar position in Illinois on leaving that state in 1905 to make my home in the Twin Falls country. "After those years of service I can say with a certain degree of pride that the present financial condition of the Twin Falls schools, in the first place, is a record in the sacrifice I have made in giving my time willingly, to work out the school problems in the various communities where I have lived. And the responsibility of the present condition I can assume only as a member of that board. "The board since I have been a member, has worked diligently and earnestly to solve the many problems coming before it, with but very little discord among the members at any time. "When the financial stress, which confronts the district at this time, came to light, it was as great a surprise to me as to any other member of the community, having relied on those in charge to properly handle and report on same. Since that time I have done everything I could to work out the relief which is in sight at this time. Success of the relief plan is dependent upon the will of the people at the polls, and the ballot we cast at this election will determine our loyalty to the public schools. "It has been rumored for some time that the present board would be asked to resign by a certain element in the community, claiming that it would stabilize matters and make the election more secure for the needed relief. There has never been any desire on my part to protest such an action when I was convinced that such a condition existed. "The number of my friends have pleaded with me not to resign, maintaining the theory that the relief was more sure if I remained on the job, and my refusal at the board meeting on Tuesday evening was based on that conviction. "After giving the matter careful consideration, and going into all the details with a number of my friends, I decided that the men who thus advised me were men of too big a caliber, and too much vision to take up the fight against the schools on account of my resigning, and if by so doing it would clear the atmosphere in the minds of others, it was duty I owe to the schools to get out of the way in order that the relief might not be jeopardized, and our schools be permitted to continue without any further disgrace upon our fair community. "My earnest desire is that whoever is placed in their stead on the school board will be benefited by the experience of the old board, and when the relief is granted by the community, they will be capable of handling school affairs in such a way that by their acts and careful management of the school affairs, no reproach can come, and the relief of the schools be safeguarded above all things else."

NEW MEAT AND ABATTOIR INSPECTION LAW OF GREAT LENGTH ADOPTED BY THE COUNCIL

Ordinance, Drafted to Conform with Requirements of Court, Read and Ordered Placed on Municipal Statutes at Deferred Meeting of Administration—Fulford Petitions for Reinstatement of Milk License

Approximately 10,000 words contained in 100 sections, typewritten on 31 legal cap pages comprise the new city meat and abattoir inspection ordinance adopted at a deferred regular meeting of the city administration Friday night. The ordinance is a substitute for a similarly lengthy law devised and adopted by the council a year ago, and was prepared by City Attorney John E. Davies to conform with requirements laid down by the court. The greater portion of a four-hour session of the city executive board was consumed in the reading of the new ordinance, which is intended to include the ordinance of Olaf Nielsen of the rules and regulations which heretofore have been apart from the municipal law instead of being a part of the law. On the petition of Olaf Nielsen, the ordinance is to be defended in court when it was taken into court on injunction proceedings brought by the city butchers against the administration for restraint of operation under this ordinance. The new law, as read, was formally adopted by the executives and became operative without delay upon publication. It contains far more drastic features than its predecessor on the city statutes, and in the main is a revamped repetition of the former law. On representation, with submission of plans, drawings and certain preliminary estimates, the city board authorized Harry Severns for the erection and operation of an auto service station was granted. The station is to be established on vacant ground at the corner of Second avenue south and Second street.

CITY ENJOINED FROM INSPECTING ABATTOIRS

District Court Grants Butchers Injunction Against Municipal Board

The city of Twin Falls has been enjoined by Judge W. A. Babcock of the district court, on interfering with the operation of slaughter houses located within the limits of the city. This injunction was issued Friday evening and results from the hearing of a petition made by three operators of meat markets and abattoirs. By this order the city is prohibited from interfering with the operation of the slaughter houses. The plaintiffs in the original case were: C. E. Janks, of the Star Meat market; C. A. Jarrett, of the Independent; and Charles Dunn, proprietor of the American market. The latter two

AUDITOR GIVES STATEMENT OF SCHOOL NEEDS

Will Require Nearly $183,000 to Carry On Educational Institutions This Year

The actual amount required to carry on the public schools of Twin Falls to the end of the present year is $183,559.82, according to a financial statement issued by Auditor, Edwin A. Wilson. The latter submitted a complete financial statement of the district to the school board yesterday evening. In summary the report is as follows: Outstanding warrants as at January 31, 1921, $157,707.28; Estimated income for balance of year, $149,515.31; Warrants outstanding in excess of income, $8,191.77; Budget for balance of year beginning February 1, and ending June 30, $176,689.05; Amount required at special election to finance district to July 1, 1921, $182,859.82. In connection with this report Mr. Wilson makes the following general statement: "The budget provided for interest on bonds and interest on the warrants themselves until taxes can be collected, and the warrants paid as well as for all running expenses to July 1, 1921. "The assessed valuation of the district is $2,350,000.31. It will therefore require a 20-mill levy to provide funds to complete the school year and take up the present deficit. "This levy will be in addition to such levy as will be required to operate the schools from July 1, 1921, to June 30, 1922, and it is probable that the tax levy this fall will not be less than 29 mills. "The budget for next year has not yet been prepared but it is evident that the same amount levied last year will be insufficient to meet the requirements next year even with a considerable reduction in expense."

TWIN FALLS ATHLETES MOW DOWN MINIDOKANS

Despite Bad Judging Robey's Men Defeat Rupert Men Two to One

Twin Falls high school athletes won a tournament at Rupert Friday night, taking 18 points to 9 in two boxing and three wrestling bouts. In the boxing matches Midget Husted, a flyweight who entered the ring at 95 pounds, defeated Roberts at 110 pounds. Adams, of Twin Falls, lost a hairline decision to Brickman in three rounds. Adams weighed 140 pounds and Brickman 130. Scaver, Twin Falls, won from Smith in a 135-pound class wrestling contest, although the latter had the advantage of six points in weight. Scaver sealed victory with him for a three round tilt. There was only one fall in two 10-minute periods. Nicholson, weighing 155 pounds, lost to Neilson 63, over whom the local lad was victor when the men contested here a month ago. Neilson was given the decision by the judges. In the Garrison-Anderson wrestling affair an agreement was entered into before the bout that in case of no fall in the prescribed time the award was to be made to the aggressor. Garrison was on the offensive eight minutes out of the bout of twenty, and was given the decision by the judges. This decision will be officially protested before the state high school athletic board. Garrison weighed in at 103 pounds and Anderson 103. Long of Rupert forfeited to Kerr claiming he had been hurt in the early period of the bout. McNeill, of Rupert, a 145-pounder, refused to go to the mat with Tucker of Twin Falls, and the contest was awarded to the latter. Donald Flynn, a light heavyweight boxer, representing Twin Falls, was unable to find a Rupert man who would agree to fight with him for a three round tilt. The bout was called off. According to Coach Robey, who telephoned reports to Twin Falls this morning, Referee Turner's work was excellent, and the fight was satisfactory. He reports, however, prejudice on the part of the judges in scoring in favor of the Rupert athletes. Harward, of Twin Falls, at 122 pounds, and Fullerton 125 of Burley, boxed a three-round draw. This bout was staged to fill out the boxing section of the evening's bill.

LATE MAJOR REED IS HONORED BY FRIENDS

Elks and Masons Hold Joint Services with 300 Participating

Nearly 300 persons, Elks and Masons, Friday afternoon gathered around a draped altar set up in Elks temple to pay homage to the late Maj. Fred R. Reed, whose sudden death was recorded in Pocatello early this week. The memorial services were synchronized to take place simultaneously with similar services in Boise and other places where Major Reed was best known. The program, consisting of addresses and music, was opened. Carlo H. Otis, of the high school, gave two instrumental selections and Miss Sara Thomas and Miss Vera Cook sang selections. Three addresses, all eulogizing the departed, were given by John W. Graham for the Elks, H. B. Elmer for the Masons, and M. J. Sweeney for the community. The Holliester meeting was called by Twin Falls county farm bureau officers for the purpose of discussing with needy and eligible farmers the terms of the federal seed-relief proposal. H. E. Powers, county agent had the meeting in charge. Addressing the meeting Holliester made the following brief explanation: "The regulations of the federal department of agriculture provide that the funds be distributed through the farm bureaus in the various states and counties and that committees be delegated to investigate as to whether or not the farmers would be justified in making the loan. "No one is eligible to receive a loan in this county whose land is under the water rights of the Twin Falls Canal company, who is a minor or whose land is not under new Salmon tract segregation, that is, no one should be encouraged to take chances on making a crop unless he has opportunity to irrigate his fields. The reason that no one can get Twin Falls Canal company rights is eligible is that fund was appropriated for drought-stricken areas and statistics show very conclusively that at no time during the last year was there a serious shortage of water under this company's system."

Gilbert's Spree Blazes Trail to Night in Prison

Golden Rule Man Finds Hooch that Inspires to 'Shooting Up' Episode

Cider having, it is said, a high alcoholic content, was the inspiring medium that sent Fred Gilbert, 40, on a "Powder River trail" in his home hailwreck on Quincy street, Golden Rule addition, Thursday night. City authorities quelled Gilbert's riotous frolic and Friday he was sentenced $100 as payment for the good time. The fine was imposed in the municipal court. Gilbert, according to officials employed to maintain the peace and preserve the dignity of the municipality, found a place down town yesterday where a firewater of an inspiring nature was obtainable. He procured a faithful supply and then went on a rampage. At home he procured a gun and for about 15 minutes he terrorized the neighborhood with Comanche yells and pot shots in the air. The police were called and Gilbert spent the night in jail sleeping off the effects of his potations. The weapon he used has been confiscated by the authorities. The police have located the place where Gilbert bartered for the inspiring hooch, but what action will be taken in this case has not been announced.

REQUIREMENTS FOR SEED LOAN ARE OUTLINED

Meeting is Held in Holliester to Assist Drought Stricken Farmers

No land owner whose property is included in the district under water rights of the Twin Falls Canal company and no minor person who owns land may take advantage of the terms of the federal seed loan arrangements. This condition was made very plain by farm bureau executives addressing a meeting of farmers held at Holliester on Saturday night. The Holliester meeting was called by Twin Falls county farm bureau officers for the purpose of discussing with needy and eligible farmers the terms of the federal seed-relief proposal. H. E. Powers, county agent had the meeting in charge. Addressing the meeting Holliester made the following brief explanation: "The regulations of the federal department of agriculture provide that the funds be distributed through the farm bureaus in the various states and counties and that committees be delegated to investigate as to whether or not the farmers would be justified in making the loan. Appreciation of the adjutant's services was expressed by the post members for Mr. Albert and their best wishes for his continued success in his new field. H. J. Benoit presented to the departing officer a handsome gold pen, the gift of the post. Mr. Albert accepted the present with expressions of his own pleasure at having been associated with Twin Falls veterans and citizens since his election as adjutant. He will be at the state convention of the Legion last June. Several impromptu boxing bouts, an encounter between two heavyweight members of the post who were blindfolded, a stunt, contributed to the large measure to the entertainment features of the evening.

NEW PRESIDENT OF UNIVERSITY OUTLINES AIMS

Dr. A. H. Upham, in Address on Occasion of His Inauguration as Head of State School at Moscow, Gives Views

MOSCOW, Idaho, (AP)—Some of the functions which he said had come to be expected of a great university, and some of the things which he hoped to have the University of Idaho do for the people of the state were outlined by Dr. A. H. Upham, here Wednesday in an address upon the occasion of his inauguration as president of the state university.

Dr. Upham traced the growth of the tasks which universities have been called on to perform, from the small college to the present-day state institution, with its multiplicity of courses of study and its numerous branches of extension work.

The largest and most valuable feature of this service is to teach the boys and girls of the people the things they need to know to take their places in a busy western state," he declared. "To teach the boys and girls of the people, I have said. This very influx of college students all over the land helps to create a state sentiment which has been silenced for a time, but has been brought out once more and apparently justified by the vastly increased costs of public education. This is that college education is the opportunity of the few, the well-to-do privileged class, and should not be a burden on the whole people.

"Probably we do go too far in a public university when we place all the burden on the state and require nothing of the student in return, in either immediate or deferred payments. But the basic idea of state universities and land grant colleges is that no man's son or daughter should be too poor to accept of their opportunities and their immense achievement is largely on this account. A third of the students in these institutions today are earning a considerable part of their living expenses. A large percentage of the students come from families which are far from well-to-do and in no sense privileged.

Traces Development.
Telling of the development of the University of Idaho from its original college of science and letters, Dr. Upham continued:

"The young men and women of Idaho will have more to do than to compel a living from the soil or accumulate a fortune for their children. They are citizens of a vast republic so constituted that each and every one of them has equal value in arriving at policies far-reaching as the seven seas. The mechanism of a league of nations, mandate in the orient, trade relations with soviet Russia, tariffs and world commerce, the Japanese question, the limitation of armaments—every one of these intricate and vexing problems, so far as the United States is concerned, is a problem not for some select and remote council of diplomatic experts, but for every mother's son of us and daughter too, to have an intelligent opinion on and to help solve with our halcyons.

Appeals for Respect.
Dr. Upham appealed for "a full measure of respect and confidence" on the part of the people of the state toward their university, and deprecated that "it is a cheap and popular thing today, all over our land, to discredit education and educators."

"Is there anything offensive in the idea that a university is a highly technical place of organization, whose direction is a more or less expert job for which men qualify by long years of inside experience?" he asked. "Even then, he declared, they are humbled by the little they know. This higher education is not fossilized. Every year brings new problems and new developments, which teachers and administrators study and debate and experiment with in the most open-minded fashion.

"But the general public, for all its good intentions, cannot have this background of experience and cannot expect to master the details of the system. Once confidence is established and sustained, it will always be sufficient if the money entrusted to the university is economically used and strictly accounted for. We ask no more of our banks, our corporations or our life insurance companies."

SAMOA'S BASE NEW CODE ON AMERICAN STATUTES

Legal Revision Results from the 'Disturbances' Culminating in Suicide of Governor

PAGO PAGO, American Samoa, (AP)—A new code of laws based on American statutes has been developed in American Samoa from the disturbances of last year which culminated in the suicide of the governor, Commander Warren J. Terhune.

The revised laws, drawn by Captain Waldo Evans, the new governor, and Judge A. M. Noble, and submitted to the native chiefs, mark an interesting change from the early laws provided for the first governor, he received from various villages a copy of the ten commandments of the bible. This accompanied, with the suggestion that penalties for their violation should consist of a fine in the shape of a hog and a barrel of beef.

These recommendations were not adopted in whole for such penalties would have resulted in every offense being the way for a feast in the village. This officials decided, would prove too much of a temptation for the natives.

It is the custom of the Samoans, and was then, that when any offense is committed, the offender is known, for the native pastor, or native magistrate, to compel each person in the village to declare his or her innocence by oath on the bible.

On one occasion some church money was stolen from the box of a Samoan pastor, where it had been placed for safe keeping. The native pastor immediately went from house to house with a bible, swearing in every inmate but everyone declared innocence. He, however, forgot to take the oath himself, and the theft remained a mystery.

Some years afterward, the pastor became seriously ill and his relatives called together. Having made certain that they were all in a forgiving mood, he then confessed that he was the culprit. Under the circumstances his people felt they could not forgive him. Thereupon it was action, telling how rapid was his recovery.

PURE SEED LAW IS FREQUENTLY BEING BROKEN

Agriculture Department Charges
Farmers and Dealers with Carelessness

"Poor quality seed amounting to carload lots is held by farmers and dealers in Idaho," says C. B. Ahlson, deputy state seed inspector. Orders for several carloads of dodder free seed, 95 per cent pure, have been received at the seed commissioner's office in Boise.

"Such orders cannot be filled," says Mr. Ahlson. "Too much laxity in regard to buying, selling, trading, planting and harvesting has been practiced the last few years. This year the results of such practices are very keenly felt."

"The pure seed law has been promulgated for the protection of the farmer who desires to produce clean, marketable products. Violations have been frequent, as indicated by the quality of the seed this year. In many cases it has been lack of knowledge of the pure seed law. The following elements cover the most important factors in the handling of seed: No person, firm or corporation shall sell, expose, offer, distribute or give away seed, for sale or distribution, any seeds of red clover, white clover, blue clover, sweet clover and alfalfa of one pound or more; Canadian bluegrass, Kentucky bluegrass, bromes (awnless) grass, meadow fescue, orchard grass, red top, timothy, barley, buckwheat, oats, wheat, field corn, kafir corn, flax, millet, rape, eye-earmion clover and sorghum in lots of five pounds or more, in or from any receptacle, package, sack or bag or in label securely attached thereto, but marked in a plain and indelible manner in the English language in letters not less than one-fourth inch in length:

(1) Name of agricultural seed; (2) name and address of the person selling offering or exposing for sale; (3) grade and date of grade; (4) the kinds and number per pound of noxious weed seeds contained therein, using their common names. Also, whoever falsifies or tampers with any agricultural seeds, or whoever shall prevent seed inspectors from inspecting said seeds and collecting samples, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

W. A. Warrington

To bring back a man whom the county criminal authorities have sought for more than a year, Deputy Sheriff H. V. Audin left Tuesday morning for Clinton, Okla.

Warrington, according to the complaint held by Twin Falls authorities, is wanted here to answer a charge of obtaining money by fraud. He is charged with having defrauded the Bank of Hansen to the extent of $900 by false representation. Warrington, it is stated, obtained a loan of the amount mentioned on cattle and other livestock he claimed to own near Pritchard, Idaho. A. D. Pollock, former vice president of the Bank of Hansen, is the complaining witness.

COMPLETE DISTILLERY UNCOVERED ON RANCH

Official Foray Yields Liquor and Boozing Making Machine
ery in Operation

Two gallons of "White Mule" together with a complete distilling outfit—retort, worm and all, is the booty falling into the hands of sheriff's officers, who on Monday night raided a place north of town on Friday. The stuff is held as an exhibit in action to be brought against John W. Hirschling, aged 72, and his wife, Mrs. W. Hirschling, 33. The elder man is on a $500 bail for appearance April 1. The younger man is held.

John W. Hirschling farm is about one-half mile north of the city limits and is located near what is known as the Kingsbury corner. The foray was conducted by Deputy Sheriffs V. H. Ormby and H. C. W. Warrington. The wife is stated by the officers, was in full plant operation when they entered the house. A large copper retort with a capacity of about 10 gallons was on a steady coal fire, while from the exit of the worm there dripped a steady flow of white liquor said to be of "excellent" quality. A glass jar of more than a gallon capacity, was found in the room, and was confiscated along with the receptacle being filled. Warrington, with his wife, were taken in jail, but in the case of the elder man, an immediate hearing was given. He denied guilt, although he was found in possession of the stuff. He told the court, it is stated, that the stuff belonged to his son.

AS SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER PARISH TENDERS RESIGNATION—IS TABLED

Chairman of Trustee Body Proposes to Leave
Work on April 1, the Date Set in His Letter to Colleagues Taxpayers' League Executives
Object to Advanced Date, Arguing for Earlier Action

The resignation of W. W. Parish, a member of the board of trustees of Independent School District No. 1, was Monday presented, read and tabled to be discussed later. The resignation submitted is to be effective at the first regular meeting of the board in April. As all regular meetings are scheduled by the by-laws for the second Monday in each month, Parish would under the terms of his letter, continue as a member of the board until after the July election.

Mr. Parish's letter of resignation, addressed to the board and dated March 23, is couched in the following terms:

The Board of trustees of Independent School District No. 1:

"Knowing that there exists a feeling of unrest in the minds of those interested in our schools, relative to the financial situation, and believing that this feeling is being encouraged by some, through personal and selfish motives, I, as a member of the board, on account of my position on the board, and being convinced that my resignation will stabilize matters to such an extent that our schools may be granted immediate relief, I respectfully submit my resignation as a member of the board of trustees of Independent School District No. 1, same to take effect at the regular board meeting in April."

Mr. Parish presented the resignation from the board following the board's majority choice of A. J. Requa to succeed D. D. Alvord. This election completed the board. Mr. Alvord was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George E. Bryant last week, but declined to qualify. Mr. Requa was nominated by G. W. Blee, seconded by D. F. Clark, after the name of E. E. Sanger had been submitted by E. P. Dunlap, the nomination being seconded by Mr. Scott. On roll call Mr. Requa was elected by the following vote: Parish, Clark and Blee, ayes; Scott and Dunlap, nays.

Debate is Heated
The meeting was attended by practically all of the members of the executive board of the taxpayers' league. Some of these entered vigorous protest against the date set down in the letter of resignation, and also to the tabling of the withdrawal notice. Sentiment favored immediate acceptance of the resignation, with the inclusion of a new and earlier date for its effectiveness.

C. D. Thomas, president of the league, led the debate for the opposition, but was ruled out of order by Mr. Parish, presiding as chairman of the board. Hal G. Blue, superintendent of the schools, announced that the auditor's report on the district's condition, had been forwarded to the commissioner of education at Boise, E. A. Bryan.

Mr. Dunlap, treasurer elected to take the place of W. E. Nixon, stated arrangements have been made to transfer the board's treasury for interest account to himself. The amount of the bond is $10,000 and it runs to the end of the fiscal year. Mr. Dunlap also reported on the amount of funds in the district treasury for interest account.

The board has made every arrangement for the special tax levy election to be held on April 6. Notices have been posted in various conspicuous places and are being published in the papers.

The next adjourned regular meeting of the board will be next Monday night.

VETERANS NAME AL-SOLDIER TICKET FOR THE CITY ELECTION

P. W. McRoberts Heads Lineup Pledged to Work for Establishment of Managerial Form of City Government in Twin Falls — Taber Selected for Clerk, and Landon for Treasurer

Pledging its candidates to initiate and support a campaign looking toward adoption of the city manager plan of government in Twin Falls and to "shoot straight and shoot hard," a convention made up of more than 60 former service men assembled Monday night in the Johnson Auto Sales company office here, nominated a complete ticket of candidates for the several municipal offices to be filled at the election April 26, and authorized its filing today as the first ticket in the field. It is designated as the City Manager Plan ticket.

The candidates, all of whom are former service men, are:

Mayor: Captain P. W. McRoberts, Councilman: First ward—Dr. W. E. Passer and Craig Bracken. Councilmen, second ward—Captain C. H. Krenzel and A. Wilton Peck. Clerk—W. H. Landon. Treasurer—Captain E. A. Landon.

The nominations were made in each instance by unanimous vote of the convention. Prior to the adoption of the plan of making the nomination, a delegation headed by J. C. Robertson, democratic state committeeman, appeared before the convention and announced the declaration of democrats of Twin Falls to support the service men ticket, and to join to its sponsor whatever measure of co-operation that might be deemed desirable in the campaign.

The convention was organized by the endorsement of the election plan by a chairman, and J. Frank Martin as secretary. An executive committee was formed by election of seven members as follows: F. E. Snook, Taylor Cummins, C. A. Delong, Sidney H. Graves, H. J. Bennett, A. W. Bowler, Ralph Pink.

The report of the platform committee, which was adopted by unanimous vote, follows:

"Believing that the administration of a city government under our general laws possesses many inherent weaknesses and that such inherent weaknesses account for much of the dissatisfaction that has been expressed with reference to past administrations, and this without any measure of criticism of those past administrations:

"And believing further, that the present needs of the city of Twin Falls will be best conserved and met by the adoption of the city manager plan of government as provided by the laws of the state of Idaho, and that such administration will prove to be the most economical, practical and efficient government that can be secured:

"This ticket is presented for the endorsement of the electors, and pledges itself, if elected and as soon thereafter as circumstances will permit, to initiate necessary steps to present the question to the electors as to whether or not the city of Twin Falls shall adopt the city manager plan of government, and to support in full measure of its ability the adoption of that plan."

Indicating a rise of 3.1 feet for the past week with a gain in storage water of 5635 acre feet, a reading of the gauge at the Salmon river reservoir Monday morning showed the water level 59.5 above the floor of the outlet tunnel and a total of 47,500 acre feet impounded.

The stage reading shows the water level 3.5 of an inch higher than the high mark of last year which was reached on May 1, and indications are considered favorable for a run-off for 1921 that will be the best for several years and possibly as good as it was in 1917, when the record was reached.

BANQUET WILL MARK RECEIPT OF CHARTER

Kiwanians Will Hold Special
Festivities April 20 when Certificate Comes

The Kiwanis club of Twin Falls will receive its charter on Wednesday evening April 20, at a banquet for visiting delegates from all of the local organizations, according to report of the club's executive committee announced at Monday's meeting when the club was organized for the first time of the month. The banquet will be held at the Rogerson hotel.

A communication also was read stating that arrangements would be made for a reception of the delegates at the hotel.

The club voted to participate as an inter-club in the suit brought by the chamber of commerce against the Oregon Short Line railway company to secure improvements in the station here and along the right-of-way from Minidoka to here. A public hearing on this case is to be held here on Wednesday afternoon next before the state public utility commission. Various civic organizations of Twin Falls have been requested to participate as inter-club.

A plan for more generous consideration for the dairy industry in the Twin Falls country was made by H. J. Youngs of the Sterling Dairy Products company, who was the principal speaker of the occasion. Mr. Youngs declared that keeping of ten or twelve cows on each eighty acres of land would bring into the district an annual revenue of $3,000,000 or $4,000,000. He estimated the number of cows kept here now is approximately 4,000 or only for each fifty acres of land, and the value of their product at about $500,000.

The attendance ward was won by the Rev. Charles Glenn Baird and was donated by F. W. Kobs of the Big White store.

In the absence of the president, E. J. Ostrander, M. J. Sweetley, the vice-president, presided at Monday's meeting.

STATELY SCENE AT SERVICE FOR DEAD PRIMATE

Roman Catholic Church Lays to Rest One of Most Revered and Faithful Servants with Centuries Old Ceremony

BALTIMORE, Md., (AP)—With all the splendor of a ceremony centuries old the Roman Catholic church today laid to rest one of its most revered and faithful servants—James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore and the second American to be elevated to the cardinalate.

Archbishop John Bonzano, apostolic delegate at Washington, celebrated a mass here today for the soul of the blessed Virgin Mary, with seminary chanting, Gregorian music never heard outside the Sistine chapel in Rome during a funeral of a pope.

Glennon Delivers Eulogy
Archbishop John J. Glennon of St. Louis delivered the funeral sermon. During his eulogy of the dead, there remained scarcely a dry eye among his hearers, whose memories went back to the kindly, gentle old man who led with power of spirit as well as power of mind.

The service was like a scene from the Middle Ages, like an altar piece come to life. Numberless priests in a seemingly endless procession filed into the church, and in their stately robes of the varied colors of their orders, moved forward to the catafalque on which rested the late cardinal in his archbishop's vestments of purple. In a few moments the body of the church was filled with this army of clergy, and the atmosphere of the twentieth century was dispelled.

There was a harmony of color and sound as the light of the candles around the bier fell on the brilliant ceremonial robes of the priests and the auditorium echoed to the measured chant of the prayers.

Most Dignitaries Assembled
The greatest assemblage of church dignitaries ever massed on this continent gathered here today for the funeral of James Cardinal Gibbons.

They came from the east, west, north and south, and from the dominion across the border, to mourn the prelate, the American, the cardinal, the pontifical procession which formed for the pontifical requiem mass were numberless priests and the mitred heads of a hundred bishops.

At the cathedral of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on the heights overlooking the city of the cardinal's birth, came also lay delegates, representing Catholic organizations, diplomatic and American, and Americans differing in creed, but united in their love for the dead churchman.

Unmatched in History
They came for a ceremonial unmatched in the ecclesiastical history of the United States, for in addition to all the honors that the Roman Catholic church in America could shower on a servant old and true, was here today on the dead a special gift from the Vatican. In special recognition of the American prelate's service to the church the pope decreed that the Gregorian chant, which only St. Peter's seminary should sing at today's mass a solemn Gregorian chant previously heard only at the funeral of a sovereign ruler of the Catholic church in the Sistine chapel in Rome.

Stevens Crowded Early
By nine o'clock, an hour before the time for the ceremony, streets surrounding the cathedral were so crowded with clergy and laity that not a square inch of pavement could be seen. At 10 o'clock the whole city, by gubernatorial and mayoral permission, was urged to drop every activity for a minute in respect to a man it had numbered among its most distinguished citizens. Every motor, street car and wagon was directed to stop in its tracks when the clocks of the city tolled ten.

Early in the morning the clergy began forming in front of Calvert hall, college, diagonally opposite the cathedral, for the procession.

Impressive Spectacle
It was an impressive spectacle. Regular clergy in the colors of their respective orders headed the line, and beside them the secular clergy, followed by the members of the Cardinals' O'Connell and Beggin and Archbishop John Bonzano, apostolic delegate and celebrant of the mass. All the higher church dignitaries were mourning color of purple. Behind the cathedral, under the gilded dome at the foot of the center aisle, lay the body of James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore. He rested on a purple-covered catafalque, draped in his archbishop's vestments, on his head his archbishop's mitre and on one finger the ring that so many thousands had kissed during his life. The rays of tall white candles lighted his face and features. At his feet stood the bier was the cardinal's hat of red.

Admittance Limited
It was obvious that only a small part of the thousands who sought entry to the cathedral would be able to pass under the great portico, with its tall columns draped in purple and black. Most of the space was allotted to the clergy and admittance was by ticket only. But this did not shake the great army of mourners in the hope of getting the great stone pile, of catching the strains of church music that might be wafted to them. Disappointment was theirs in the face they stood their ground with the same determination that had been displayed by the tens of way into the edifice to view the body of their devoted leader.

Two Ceremonies
Today really held two ceremonies. One was the great church assembly at mass—the church bestowing her honors on one who had served her faithfully. The other was the simple burial service in the crypt of white marble under the cathedral sanctuary—the relatives and close friends taking leave of one dear to them.

Cardinal Gibbons is the seventh soldier of the church to be buried in this vault and to him was allotted a place on the north side. The last time the crypt was opened was in 1872, when Archbishop Spalding was buried there.

UTILITIES COMMISSION LISTENS TO CITIZENS CASE AGAINST O. S. L.

Company Fights Hard Against Demand for New Passenger Station Here; Ballasting of Branch Track and Improved Traveling Conditions — Community Wins Points of Importance

Based on the case upon a determined plea for sanitation, as well as improved accommodations and facilities, citizens of Twin Falls, through counsel, contended with the O. S. L. railroad company yesterday afternoon and evening, in an open inquiry before the state utilities commission, for a new passenger station in Twin Falls, a completely ballasted road between Minkola and Buhl, and better rolling stock on passenger trains running between those points. The inquiry started at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and closed shortly after midnight.

Only two members of the state public utilities commission attended the inquiry, they being George Eby, chairman, who presided; and J. M. Thompson, junior member of the board. E. M. Sweoley, third member of the commission, was unable to be present. The client side of the case was presented by John W. Graham, local attorney, while H. B. Thompson, assistant general attorney, appeared for the company. A number of local attorneys were present to support Mr. Graham. Capt. Bert Connor, assistant state's attorney general, appeared with the commissioners.

Throughout the two sessions contentions of both sides were challenged and desperately contested. From the beginning the company counsel put up a stubborn resistance against introduction of certain testimony desired. In the court record as sustaining the demands set out by the citizens. Claims by counsel of the petitioners that only a new, modern and commodious passenger station will serve the purpose of Twin Falls, met with stubborn resistance. The challenge of the opposing attorney was that a 60-foot addition would supply all the wants for some time to come, and that this extension would adequately care for all needed ventilation and sanitation, and, in addition, look well after the housing wants. Attorney Thompson admitted that his company planned a frame extension to the depot. It was also learned that the addition is to cost $15,000.

Object to Addition
Mr. Graham lodged serious objection to the construction of a wooden structure of any nature, on the ground of added fire hazard, and on the further ground that placed where the company now designs the addition would constitute a desperate danger to drivers using the Shoshone street crossing of the freight tracks, due to the fact that the extension would obstruct the view to the eastward along the tracks. Mr. Graham also pointed out that passengers emerging from the proposed new waiting room would be hampered in also, its tonnage since operation started, and similar data relating to the entire O. S. L. System. On these issues counsel and local homes until the commission called a halt at 5:30 o'clock for recess until 8 last night.

Those attending the hearing for the railroad company were: F. H. Knickerbocker, general superintendent of Salt Lake; D. E. Elrod, sanitation inspector of Peacott; and W. R. Armstrong, assistant chief engineer, of Peacott.

Many Witnesses Called
Eight witnesses were called during the afternoon to testify in behalf of the citizens. These all gave evidence of the conditions at the Twin Falls passenger station, as relating to sufficiency of space, general accommodations, sanitation and similar needful requirements. In addition testimony was adduced relative to traveling conditions over the Minkola branch, all witnesses testifying to the need for dustless roadbed surfacing and better rolling stock.

Those called up during the forepart of the inquiry were: George F. Sprague, Dr. C. Q. McGowan, county physician; Dr. W. F. Passer, physician and surgeon; J. A. Roberts, a realtor of Twin Falls; Mrs. Barton E. Morse, Mrs. W. Sawyer, Mrs. H. W. Clonch, prominent civic workers; L. C. Moore, traveling salesman; and A. W. Soole, proprietor of the Pioneer Barber shop. In addition to describing alleged unsatisfactory road and depot conditions Mr. Sprague testified that the company's plan to increase the size of the present passenger station structure with a 60-foot frame addition, would increase fire hazard of the section in which the building is located.

Decision on the hearing is expected in the next 48 days. The commissioners and railroad officials left this morning.

WHAT does it profit a few ambitious buds to break forth under the inviting influence of a warm spring sun if Old Boreas is to blast them with keen cold at night?
