

SUPREME COURT STILL HAS ITS HAND IN CASE

Pickford Divorce Matter Now
Before Highest Nevada Tribunal Brings Out Sharp Legal Battle Between Attorneys

CARSON, Nev., (P)—Motion of Attorney General Leonard B. Fowler of Nevada, to have Mary Pickford, divorce from Owen Moore annulled was submitted to the Nevada state supreme court here January 30. Miss Pickford was divorced from Moore at Minden, Nev., March 20, 1920, and a short time later married Douglas Fairbanks. All three are motion picture stars.

Attorney General Fowler contended that Miss Pickford's divorce was obtained through "fraud and collusion" and declared the Minden court had no jurisdiction as both parties were "bona fide residents of Los Angeles, Cal.," although Miss Pickford swore she was a resident of Nevada. The suit was predicated, the complaint stated, on the principle that the state "reserves an interest in all divorce actions."

CLAIMS OFFICIAL
HAS NO AUTHORITY.

Gavin McNab, prominent San Francisco attorney, who represented Miss Pickford, in reply declared that Fowler had no authority under Nevada laws to bring his action. There was no aggrieved party in the case, and nowhere, McNab argued, does the law give the attorney general the right to review divorce cases. If the law granted that right, he said, every divorce granted in Nevada would be subject to review.

"The case," McNab declared, "is without precedent in jurisprudence. No language can be found in any law that can be tortured into giving excuse for this attitude of the attorney general. It is the first of its kind and should be the last of its kind."

District Judge Frank P. Langdon of Minden, who granted the decree, later, on June 25, 1921, refused to review the case and Fowler appealed to the state supreme court.

SNOW DEPOSITS HEAVY IN WOOD RIVER REGION

Forest Service Reports Show a Depth of 37 to 60 Inches at Various Points

Depths of snow in the Big Wood river and Soldier creek watersheds reported to forest service offices at Halley Monday show 27 inches at Halley, 45 inches at Soldier creek, 43 inches at Ketchum, 49 inches at Whidow's, 55 inches at the Mascot mine and 60 inches at Galtay Summit. There were eight inches more on the ground at Halley than on the corresponding date a year ago, and the proportionate increase applied throughout the region.

A total of snowfall for the season at Halley was 82.7 inches, with water equivalent of 8.34 inches as compared with 84.7 inches with water equivalent of 12.55 inches up to the corresponding date of last year.

Montgomery, Cal., is proud of its orchard trees as residents of the lower Hudson valley are of Anthony's nose. This celebrated curiosity is formed of two conical masses, so that their foliage seems to be that of the tree, and the shape of it, together with the peculiar angle at which the two trunks are placed, gives the silhouette of a huge and curved nostril standing along alone. The brave old trees that make the picture are alone on a barren tongue of bench running out into the breakwaters of the Pacific.

The Difference.
When you see an old man alone you are looking at something very sad; when you see an old man with a young wife, you are looking at something very rich. —From Love, London.

Successful Passion Play Again

Montreal Priest Held for Alleged Murder of Brother

Father Adelard DeLorme, of Montreal, is charged with slaying his half-brother, Raoul DeLorme, to get $25,000 insurance and a $150,000 estate. The priest is shown in the inset above. Below is Raoul, whose body was found in the DeLorme home, where the alleged murder was committed. The evidence against Father DeLorme is circumstantial, centering around a revolver and alleged bloodstains found on his automobile. Sergeant Father DeLorme, in denial, denies guilt.

CZAR NICHOLAS A PHILOSOPHER

Final Days on Earth Spent in Spirit of Indifference to Approaching Fate.

ERKATERINBURG, Russia, (P)—Alexander, the late emperor of Russia, never seemed to chafe under her imprisonment in this city where she was finally executed, but the late Emperor Nicholas showed more calmness and indifference to his fate.

A little booklet recently issued by P. Bykoff, former chairman of the Ekaterinburg Soviet, gives many intimate glimpses at the imperial family during the months they were prisoners of the Bolsheviks in this city just preceding their execution in July, 1918.

When the czar and his wife and part of his family were transferred from Ekaterinburg to the Soviet by the Soviet government, a residence in the center of the city was assigned to them. It was in the basement of this building that they were shot. A half-prison regime was established which did not interfere with the activities of the imperial family in their own quarters.

Before the Romanoffs were permitted to enter their new quarters the guards searched them. Alexander protested bitterly and offered physical resistance. The emperor submitted willingly, but was greatly perturbed. He paced the room while the search was proceeding and exclaimed: "The devil knows what it means. Up to now we have met courteous people and have had decent treatment."

According to Bykoff, the Soviet officials made it clear to the Romanoffs that they were not at Tsar's Square and threats to isolate the emperor from his family if he offered criticism of the new government.

SUBMITTED WITH LITTLE COMPLAINT.

"Nicholas soon realized we were not joking," says the book, "and submitted willingly to the search. The demands of the commandant in charge of the house. He made few efforts to chat with the guards, but Alexander never ceased breaking rules."

The Romanoffs were permitted to select their own hours for walking in the garden, where all sorts of tools were available if they cared to take more vigorous physical exercise. Two meals a day were supplied to them from "the best Soviet kitchen in Ekaterinburg," and they were given a gasoline primus, or stove, upon which they could heat their food.

Food packages were forbidden to the imperial family, but Bykoff says "the sisters in the local convent annoyed the guard by sending parcels of Mincian and other delicacies which were distributed among the soldiers."

On Easter the imperial family asked permission to attend church. This request was denied, but a priest was admitted to their quarters to hold service and special cakes were sent to them by Soviet officials.

Foolish Schemes Make Money.
People who know not the art of making money, are eternally astonished at the "perfectly foolish schemes" that miraculously roll in the cash.

Water and Electricity.
The bureau of standards says if a stream of water from a low is thrown upon high tension wires at close range there is considerable hazard from the possible conduction of electricity by the stream of water back to the man holding the nozzle. If, however, the stream of water be thrown from a distance such that the water breaks up into drops before coming in contact with the wires, no danger exists, there is little danger, as such a stream of water is nonconducting.

The Burden of a Name.
"Few great men's sons ever amount to much," said a man at the club the other evening. "I think the most striking reason for this I ever read," he continued, "was that given by the second duke of Wellington. Someone remarked to him: 'I cannot understand how it is that you, with your great interest in and knowledge of public affairs, have taken so little part in them.' 'Ah,' replied the duke, 'if you had sat so long under the shadow of a great tree, you would have been as colorless as I.'"

Donnelly	2	2	.500

Grant	2	2	.500
Thoma	1	3	.250
DeLong	0	3	.000
Woods	0	3	.000

Three games were played yesterday at Macaulay's, one in the afternoon, and two in the evening. These were all in the class B section.

The afternoon game resulted in a victory for Bob Logan, playing T. J. Woods. This game was Logan's fourth straight win, and fans are predicting that he will win first prize, but it must be remembered that there is many a slip, while a rolling stone is gathering the moss. Logan scored 100 points while Woods garnered 61. This game rolled along for 74 innings. Logan made a high run of eight.

The opening game in the evening between Donnelly and DeLong was a bang-bang from start to finish. Donnelly winning by score of 100 to 99 in 109 innings. At no time during the game did either player lead the other by more than two points. Both players aged considerably during the progress of this session. DeLong made a run of 7 while Donnelly was content with a run of six. Donnelly is still rounding into shape, and he is still to be reckoned with before the tournament is over.

MURRAY WINS IN CLOSURE MATCH

The second game of the evening was played by Murray and Thomas, and was a great game from the spectators' standpoint. 100 to 93 is what the official scorer announced after these two experts had waded through 120 innings. The winning of this game brought Murray into a tie for third place with Donnelly.

The class A division took a rest last night owing to sickness of two contestants scheduled. This evening will have but one scheduled game, and that will be between Bracken and Boushara. With Murray and DeLong, Donnelly and Woods, in the class B section having open dates, and Hillington and Baily in the class A section having a postponed game to be played off it is more than likely that two or three of these games will be played this evening.

MAY RECALL OLD DAYS

EUGENE, Ore., (AP) — University of Oregon is the only member of the Pacific Coast conference which has not yet elected a football captain for 1922 and Coach "Shy" Huntington makes no mention of calling the squad together for an election. Campus discussion of the situation recalls the football days of 1916 when Huntington. When a player on the team was competing with another member of the squad for the position of captain. Rivalry was so keen that Hugo Bezdek, Oregon's famous coach of the early days, was afraid an election might split the team, so he refused to permit any choice, saying that he thought football captains were superfluous and generally useless. Perhaps Huntington remembers these days now, for there is close rivalry between two players, "Tiny" Shields and George Kling, for the post of 1922 leader.

Everything in Readiness for Big Basketball Tournament; Five Towns Represented

A message last evening from Jerome stating that four members of the basketball team of that town were confined to their homes with flu, has forced Jerome to withdraw from the tournament, which will be held at the local high school gymnasium, starting tomorrow at 2 p. m.

The dropping out of Jerome, leaves five teams in competition for the finals, and with Oakley, Burley, Rupert, Filer and Twin Falls to fight it out, the fans will be treated to some real basketball.

This evening at 7:30 the board of control of the South Central division, will meet at the high school, with Coach Evans of the local team, to arrange for the drawing of games, schedules, etc.

The first game of the finals will start at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with two games to be played. The evening will see two more games. Two more are scheduled for Saturday morning, with a possibility that at least one game will be played Saturday afternoon. The final game will be played Saturday evening.

OAKLEY TEAM IN GOOD CONDITION

Oakley sends word that they are in the pink of condition, which means that Oakley will have nothing to fear from the opinion of the writer that Oakley will prove the stumbling block for the other teams entered in the finals.

The Diamond Hardware company, agents for the Wilson line of Athletic goods, have donated a new Wilson basketball for the tournament, which will become the property of the winners.

Archer, local referee, has been chartered to referee all games, which means that good clean basketball will be played from start to finish.

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP) — Eleven of 12 matches, played by telegraph over the leased wire of a San Francisco brokerage firm between the San Francisco Mechanics Institute and the City Athletic League of Chicago were completed at the close of play late yesterday and are to be decided by Edward Lasker, captain of the Chicago team. The player who had the advantage will be declared winner.

The one match settled was the defeat of R. Gilman of Chicago by R. F. Lyon of San Francisco. The matches began at 8 a. m. and continued for eight hours, the players writing each play on a slip of paper and telegraph operators transmitting the moves back and forth over the wires.

TOD KENT WINS AGAIN IN ASHTON DOG RACE CLASSIC

Time: Slower Than World's Record Made Last Year But Trail Conditions Bad

ASHTON, Idaho, (AP) — Tod Kent, winner of last year's dog derby, won yesterday's classic, time two hours 35 minutes. Koosh second, two hours 45 minutes; Plices third, time two hours 40 minutes. The time was slower than the world's record made by Kent last year, considered remarkable under the existing weather and trail conditions.

TODAY'S MARKETS

CORN AND WHEAT MOVE UP

Setbacks in Lumber Commodity in Early Hours of Trading are Soon Overcome

CHICAGO, (AP) — Although wheat showed setbacks in price at the opening of the market, soon rallied and scored a substantial advance. The initial depression was due to rains in the portion of the winter crop territory where drought has been long continued.

Active buying set in, however, on the decline and with quotations at Liverpool and Buenos Aires displaying comparative strength an upturn in values here was quickly brought about. The opening which varied from 1-3 to 2-4 lower, with May 1-13 to 1-14 1-2 and July 1-13 1-2 to 1-24 1-2, was followed by a rise to well above Tuesday's finish.

Subsequently persistent selling on the part of commission houses led to renewed weakness, which was still more or less prevalent at the finish.

Corn advanced to a new high record for the crop. Indications were said to point to a material decrease in the arrival of corn here. After opening 7-8 to 3-8 up, with May 63 5-8 to 6-8, the market took a general upswing, starting 1-3 lower to 1-8 gain, May 41 1-4 to 1-3 1-4 and then rising all around.

Despite a hesitating start; provisions advanced in response to the action of grain and hogs.

Recessional took place later when the wheat turned weak. The close was nervous at 1-2 to 1-8 to 1-14 net gain, with May 67 to 67 1-8 to 1-14.

Tendency Still Upwards

NEW YORK, (AP) — Extensions of 1 to 2 points to recent gains were made by leaders of the stock market today but these were substantially reduced in the final dealings on higher money tendencies. Sales approximated 1,200,000 shares.

Accumulation of buying orders over the holiday gave momentum to the further advance of prices at the opening of today's stock market. Foreign oils, especially Royal Dutch, Shell Trading and General Asphalt, were the strong out leaders. Southern Railway, St. Louis and San Francisco featured the renewed interest for speculative rally, and Sears-Roebuck, Wilson and Pierce Arrow preferred denoted short covering.

The only stock to show acute weakness was National Enameling company.

Leads New Styles in Music

Story, who claims to be an originator of a modified jazz music, with his "Kings of syncopation" is fulfilling an engagement at the Rogerson hotel. Mr. Story declares that styles change in music as in other things, and that, whereas some time ago dance music was noisy and "jazzy," the tendency today is toward a more refined style without sacrifice of "pop" or rhythm.

Attention, Farmers!

Now is a good time to make plans for this year's crop. We believe it is better to plan crops a year in advance. We also believe that a farmer should make on the best rotation possible to suit his particular farm, then make the necessary arrangements to carry out this rotation.

Any one crop grown on the same land year after year does not give the best results. If wheat is grown without a cultivated crop too long, you invite disaster. As you must have a cultivated crop, will we be safer to confine ourselves to one crop or should we divide the available land to the various cultivated crops possible to profitably grow, such as Sugar Beets, Potatoes and Beans? We believe the conservative farmer will grow some of each, each year. Sugar Beets, because of a guaranteed price and market when the crop is ready to harvest, also because the by-products fit in with livestock and dairy industry as he wishes to get fertility to build up his land and increase the production of all other crops. Potatoes because when there is a failure in some part of the potato producing country, he is sure to hit a high price occasionally, in fact, he is in a better position if he has a number of crops than to depend on any one crop.

Now is a good time to all harness, get machinery in shape, and be all ready to any, when the land is in condition to work. "Let's go boys!" We have plenty of moisture now, don't forget that if our face soil is not worked, a few hot windy days soon uses it up. "The early bird catches the worm."

The Knights of Columbus entertained last evening in honor of Washington's birthday at the O. P. hall, which was attractive with patriotic colors. After the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the assembly, some of the children of the parish gave a most enjoyable program consisting of a "Washington Birthday" recitation by John Macaulay; "Butterfly Waltz," Nell Kinney; recitation, "I Cannot Be a Washington," Hilda Sweninger; "Johnnie's History Lesson," Lynn Smith; "A Soldier's Reprieve," Harry Hazel; piano solo by Vincent Navin; "The Banner Betwixt," Geraldine Richmond; piano solo by John Macaulay. Miss Teresa McFadden, accompanist. Fred Beckwith, favored with a violin solo and Charles Macaulay read a letter written by Washington to the Catholics of America soon after his first inauguration. Rev. Father Basil S. Kozler spoke on the life of Washington. After the program "500" was played and the ladies of the congregation served refreshments.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Nelson on Seventh avenue east was the scene of a jolly neighborhood party Wednesday evening. The event was given to celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. E. B. McEachan. Most of the guests were in colonial attire, and the dancing of the Virginia Reel and also the more modern dances was a part of the festivities of the evening. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ducker, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McMartin, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Koefer, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dumke, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friedman, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McEachan, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. McAtco, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neely, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson.

The Daughters of the American Revolution celebrated Washington's birthday with a luncheon in the private dining-rooms of the Rogers hotel on Wednesday at 1 o'clock. Flags of the allies were used in the elaborate decorations. The luncheon was given by the Father of his country. Colonial brass candlesticks with shades in the national colors added to the attractiveness of the table. A clever program for the occasion was worked out by Miss Mae Scott. Concluding the repast, the regent, Mrs. John E. White, arose and tapping on a miniature liberty bell asked the members to show and salute the flag which was on showing the original thirteen stars. This flag being a gift from Mrs. A. W. Husted, she was asked by the regent to give a brief history concerning it. The next number on the program consisted of an arrangement by Miss Scott whereby each member gave a toast to some other member by reading a complimentary quotation recently inscribed on the back of her place card.

The regent introduced Mrs. Stella VanRiper, who most worthily presented the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, That Washington was a greater statesman than Lincoln."

Following this Mrs. C. S. McMartin very ably depicted the career of Abraham Lincoln and the mastery way in which he had saved the union.

Mrs. W. S. Husted then turned to the D. A. R., wittily referring to the Mayflower, that large and commodious vessel which had brought over ancestors of several members present and which event was duly celebrated each year.

Mrs. Kennedy Packard, state vice-regent, received the homage of the chapter and endorsement for the state regency.

Much credit for the success of the luncheon is due the committee, Mrs. W. B. Amahary, Mrs. P. W. McRoberts, Mrs. J. H. Seaver and Mrs. W. S. Hill. Thirty-six members were present. An interesting moment was made that the state conference would be convened in Twin Falls March 22.

On Wednesday afternoon the Mountain View club met with Mrs. O. C. Paulson. It being Washington's birthday, the hostess assisted by Miss Marcia Giffon, entertained the members with games and music suitable to the day. Plans were made to attend the winter picnic of the Federated clubs to be held Friday, February 24, in the Baptist bungalow. The retiring president and secretary, Mrs. L. B. Giffon and Mrs. Albury, respectively, were presented with tokens of remembrance from the club members. Later the hostess served delicious refreshments.

ments to the 13 members and one guest present. On March 8 the members of the club will entertain their husbands at an all-day meeting with Mrs. Conrad Smith.

The community service of the Twentieth Century club gave a delightful tea at the home of Mrs. Burton E. Morse yesterday afternoon to raise funds to buy a moving picture machine for the Boy Scouts. A splendid program was given. Mrs. Merlin Bailey gave a piano solo and a duet; Dr. W. F. Passer spoke on the Boy Scout movement throughout the world. Mrs. F. F. Bracken sang a solo and responded to an encore. Donald McLean talked on the scout work in this city. Mrs. Frank Ellis gave a vocal solo and encore. Ceco and encoes were served.

The M. S. and S. club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. A. Fox. A short business session was held and roll call was responded to with a quotation on George Washington. Mrs. C. B. Lindsey read a paper on the history of Washington. Mrs. Charles Jones gave a sketch of the life of Washington from childhood to manhood, and Mrs. Charles Howsley read a paper which had been prepared by Mrs. Clint Shipman, on the surroundings and home of our great American. The decorations and refreshments were appropriate to the day. Thirteen members and one visitor were present.

Mrs. Fred Harder entertained on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Blue Lakes boulevard in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Harder and Mrs. Olaf Nelson, both of which are on Washington's natal day. Late in the afternoon a three course luncheon was served, the table having for decorations red candles in crystal candle sticks with a tiny red tape at each cover and at either end of the table, a beautiful birthday cake. The guest list included Mrs. O. M. Etter, Mrs. C. E. Lind, Mrs. H. H. Neumann, Lillian Lind, Mrs. Gladys Carlson and daughter, Virginia. Mrs. Olaf Nelson and Mrs. H. F. Harder.

The Women's Progressive club met with Mrs. W. A. Gibson Wednesday afternoon. The room was decorated with the club colors and flags and a Washington day program, was carried out. Thirteen members and three guests were present. The meeting will be with Mrs. Haviland on March 5.

Two very successful piano recitals were given Monday and Tuesday evenings at the Nell studio by the pupils in Mrs. D. E. Regan's music classes, assisted by Mrs. Irene Zabel Carlson, soprano. Thirty-nine pupils appeared on the two programs.

Mrs. J. G. Thorp was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club this week. Mrs. L. T. Wright won the club favor.

DAIRYMEN COPE COLD WEATHER SUCCESSFULLY

Average Production of Herds in Twin Falls District Maintained
During Low Temperature
of Past Month

Report of W. C. Fletcher, official tester for the Pioneer Cow Testing association, showing average production of 71.45 pounds of milk and 32.17 pounds of butterfat for 130 cows tested during the month of January indicates that Twin Falls county dairymen were successful in coping with cold weather problems. The average production for 141 cows in December was 69.15 pounds of milk and 33.95 pounds
of butterfat.

High herd average was secured by the herd of J. L. Touchman, Twin Falls, consisting of seven cows, five Holstein Friesians and two grade Jerseys. Average production for the herd was 491 pounds of fat and 1216.9
pounds of milk.

Twenty grade and purebred Jerseys constituted the herd of Carl D. Irwin, Kimberly, secured high average for herd of more than 15 cows, with a production of 37.42 pounds of fat and 113.95 pounds of milk.

PITTSBURGH COW
TOPS LIST.

E. G. Ehlers, Twin Falls, again heads
the list for high cow, with Aaracene
Mercedez Lueder, purebred Holstein Friesian, credited with 33.5 pounds of fat and 205.53 pounds of milk.

Other high herds ranked in order
are:

E. G. Ehlers, Twin Falls, 15 cows;
13 Holstein Friesians and two grade Jerseys; 41.8 pounds of fat and 1067.51
pounds of milk.

B. P. McPherson, Filer; seven grade and purebred Jerseys; 35.7 pounds of
fat and 117.2 pounds of milk.

J. L. Galt, Twin Falls; 12 grade
Holstein Friesians; 33.3 pounds of fat and 814.1 pounds of milk.

Emerie Foltz, Twin Falls; 10 mixed cows; 32.12 pounds of fat and 683.7
pounds of milk.

In conclusion with his report, Mr.
Fletcher says:

The fat test varied considerably
during the month but the quotation used (23.5) was practically the average after the handling charge of one cent a pound of fat from was used.

Feed costs were barely 90 cents per hundred; brand 80 cents per hundred; alfalfa $4; silage, $2.75. With those costs and fat prices, an average return of $17.50 for a dollar expended for feed was secured.

The average cost of a pound of fat,
and 100 pounds of milk, were 13.3
cents and 40.11 cents, respectively.

SMALLER HERD SHOWS PROFIT.

Perhaps an interesting feature is that the high herd of seven cows yielded a profit of $17.51, which amount was surpassed by but comparatively large herds, and was superior to that of several herds of from nearly twice as many up to 18 or 20 cows.

Mr. Irwin's herd of 20 cows constituted one-seventh of the total number tested; yet earned more than two ninths of the profit of the association.

The cold weather had varying effects, but Mr. Irwin's experience seems to be conclusive evidence that cows feed liberal rations, given freely pumped well water, protected by a warm straw shed and provide with abundant bedding have little to complain of 30 degree below zero weather.

His 20 cows, including many helpers, milking since March, dropped only two gallons of milk from the 77 they gave normally. None were kept out during the night, but all were turned into his bed straw shed, protected on three sides.

Emerie Foltz had as good success as
Mr. Irwin in maintaining his flow.
Practically the only difference in the management of the two herds is that Mr. Foltz feeds mangel and has a tank heater. The heater costs little to operate, yet obviates the bother of pumping water in a gasoline engine, a difficult task when it is cold. Incidentally, Mr. Foltz had very little loss from frozen mangels due to his excellent rot cellar.

NOT ALL A BED OF ROSES.

That all dairying is a bed of roses
is denied by the death during the cold weather of five or six fine calves in the association.

E. G. Ehlers' fine Holstein "Josephine Doebe," leads in the October
two-day production of fat of Idaho
"Official Test." Cows had the misfortune to develop a wart-like growth near the orifice of one teat. Before Mr. Ehlers had realized the danger, infection had taken place, with the consequent loss of the quarter. Despite the pain and abundant aspiration "Josephine" continued to produce 35 to 40 pounds from the remaining two teats—she only had three teats when producing up to 87 pounds daily—and on practically no grain, as she already had more than 250 pounds of fat to her credit in less than four months.
She will be continued on official test
and will doubtless qualify for advanced registry even though only one half cow.

George Childs in feeding silage purchased from a neighbor for $3 a ton delivered, and is very enthusiastic about the result. He is feeding the rate of 20 pounds silage daily together with unlimited alfalfa. His herd averaged a fraction over 30 pounds of fat
in January.

SHOULD BE
STATE RECORD.

L. S. Otto's four-year-old Jersey
"Gypsy Lad Carnation," finished her year's official test February 2, by producing 147.5 pounds of milk and 40.860 pounds of fat in her last 31 days. This will give her approximately 400 pounds for the year, and should be the Idaho state record even for mature cows. If correct it will exceed that of Idaho, from the Huerfano and Fort Jenny, by practically four pounds of butter fat.

sentative Checks Up Popular Attitude
on Proposed New Outlets

With a view to estimating public sentiment on proposed construction of a railway outlet to the south, E. C. S. Page, representative of the Freight department of the Western Pacific Railway company, spent several hours in Twin Falls yesterday.

Mr. Page declined to divulge his impression here other than to make personal observation of the attitude of the people toward the new railroad project.

PAYS FINE FOR TAKING LIQUOR TO DANCE HALL

Police Court Imposes Sentence in First Case Involving Violation of New Ordinance Provisions

The first case of violation of provisions of an ordinance recently enacted treating public taverns or public dances as places where liquor is sold for consumption on the premises, was brought before Judge Darling today
when Joe Darling entered a plea of guilty to a charge of having liquor in his possession at a dance hall.
He was sentenced to pay a fine of $15.

The case was called to attention of the police by the dance hall floor manager. Darling attempted to destroy the bottle of liquor when accused by the arresting officer.

FRUIT GROWERS VOTE THANKS TO EXPERT ON PESTS

Resolutions of Horticultural Society Express Appreciation of Services Rendered Here
by Ralph H. Smith

Proposals for purchase through the society of spray material in quantities for use of orchardists here in combating insect and fungus pests were considered at sessions this afternoon of a meeting of the Twin Falls County Horticultural society in progress at Parish hall.

Several proposals for furnishing this material have been submitted for consideration of the fruit growers.

An outstanding development at this morning's session was the adoption by the members of the society of resolutions expressing appreciation of the services here of Ralph H. Smith, entomologist for the University of Idaho,
who is to leave in the immediate future to accept a position with a creamery concern in California. The resolutions were proposed by T. George Hil-top and adopted by unanimous vote of members in attendance at the meeting.

The proceedings were opened with a discussion relative to methods of pruning, thinning and grafting of fruit trees, led by James A. Waters, a pioneer orchardist of the Twin Falls country and a director of the society.

C. Fahmy, president of the society, presided at the meeting, which this morning was attended by between 20 and 30 members.

RESOLUTIONS EXPRESS APPRECIATION.

Resolutions adopted with respect to the departure of Mr. Smith are as follows:

"Whereas, the Twin Falls country and the state of Idaho are about to lose the services of Ralph H. Smith, who, as a representative of the state university, has for some years past resided here doing research work in entomology and advising our farmers and orchardists in the control of insect and fungus pests;

"We appreciate the services rendered by Mr. Smith to the farmers and orchardists of this country, particularly to the members of our society. He has always been ready with sound advice and able assistance which we know has saved us many thousands of dollars. We regret that Mr. Smith must leave us and the fact that the services of scientific workers of the highest class must so often be lost to the public because the public, unlike private business interests, is unwilling to adequately compensate them for their services; therefore,

"Be It Resolved, That the Twin Falls County Horticultural society herewith express its appreciation of the valuable work done by Mr. Smith in adding to the world's knowledge of the life history and habits of some of our most destructive pests and with the best and surest means of combating them;

"Resolved, That we tender Mr. Smith
our kindest regards and best wishes for his success in the new work which he is about to undertake."
