

AUTO CARRIERS NAME CHAIRMEN TO START WORK

New State-Wide Organization of Transportation Men Formed Here Enters Upon Program with Enthusiasm

Selection of chairmen, each representing a branch of the automobile transportation industry in the Twin Falls district, was effected during the closing hours of the convention of the Interstate States Truckmen and Automobile Carriers' association, in session here Wednesday and Thursday. Chairmen named for this district are J. W. Reese, passenger stages; D. S. Reynolds, long distance hauling; G. E. Sweet, transfers; Harry Reed, gravel and construction work hauling. These chairmen will compose the organization to carry on the work of the association in this district. Similar organizations will be formed in each of the 14 districts into which the state is divided under the association's plans.

Closes With Banquet
Sessions of the convention were closed Thursday evening with a banquet at the Hotel Perrine, at which covers were laid for 76 persons. G. L. Tyler of Pocatello, president and manager of the association, presided, and the list of speakers included Colonel D. P. Olson, director of the state highways department; Senator L. H. Evans of American Falls, representing the Idaho Reclamation association; Newell S. Wright, secretary of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce; Ralph Walsh of Pocatello, secretary and treasurer, and several of the members of the association.

Vote Presented to Executive.
Enthusiasm and determination to prosecute the work of the association to a successful conclusion characterized the sessions, and appreciation of services rendered by Mr. Tyler in connection with the recent submission of the organization at the convention of the association found expression in a motion adopted by unanimous vote, to authorize the payment to him of a definite sum of money. Mr. Tyler told the delegates he would spend the money in connection with the study of activities of similar organizations in other states.

Donations by A. S. Shubert for the state motor truck concern, of a car for the use of officials of the association in organization work was accepted by the convention with a vote of thanks, as was also an offer of Harry S. Wright for the Kelly-Springfield car, to supply tires for the car.

Transportation Col. Olson's Topic.
Transportation rather than road construction presents the more difficult problem to the road builder, Colonel D. P. Olson, director of the state highways department, told the convention Thursday afternoon. There are four fields of transportation, Colonel Olson said, defining them as rail, water, highway and air. No definite limits have been established for any field and it is this fact that complicates the transportation problem, he said. The work of the road builder is made difficult by lack of statistical information relative to the transportation requirements, Colonel Olson said, and in supplying this information the motor carriers' association, he said, can render valuable assistance to the road builder.

HONEY BUYERS' CLAIM IS SUSTAINED BY JURY

Verdict Awards Judgment for $663.90 to Quincy Foster Against Peter Ruyts

Claim of Quincy Foster of Boulder, Colorado, against Peter Ruyts of Buhl, for money advanced through his agent, Charles H. Harper of Filer, on a contract for purchase of honey in the fall of 1918, was upheld by a jury in the district court which Thursday afternoon returned its verdict awarding judgment to Foster for $663.90. The amount of the advance was $440 and the purchase price of the honey in question was to have been $442.8. Foster charged breach of contract to deliver the honey on the part of Ruyts, while Ruyts alleged that the contract had been violated by Foster and his agent in that they failed to receive the honey and that it was sold for a sum less than the contract price to another purchaser. The suit was prosecuted as a test case and is expected to have a bearing in settlement of claims against several other persons who contracted to sell their honey to Foster under similar circumstances. The defendant Foster was represented by M. J. Sweeney of Sweeney and Sweeney, S. L. Hodgins of Walters, Hodgins and Bailey appeared for the defendant Ruyts.

NAMPA SCHOOL BOARD EMULATES TWIN FALLS

Curtailling Expense, Salaries Are Reduced and Departments Eliminated

Through action resulting in announcement of a new schedule of teachers' wages, elimination of the domestic science and manual training departments as well as minor economies, Nampa Independent school district has followed the lead of Twin Falls in the matter of reduction of general school expense. A total of $3,000 has been saved to taxpayers through the action of the board.

Under the new teachers' schedule the minimum salary paid to instructors in the grades will be $2,000 with a maximum of $1,500. High school teachers will draw from $1,400 to $1,700. The work of the board in reorganizing the cost side of the school ledger is not yet complete, according to members of the board Saturday. Further changes are being considered. These will probably take the form of consolidations wherever this can be made without impairing the efficiency of the schools. Elimination of costs for material used in the various supplementary branches is expected to result in a further saving.

Taxpayers Demand Action.
The school board has been studying methods of cutting expenses for some time, it is said, and the recent meeting of the Retail Merchants' association, which resulted into a mass meeting of Nampa taxpayers, is believed to have hastened action. At this meeting, varying opinions were expressed as to the condition the district would find itself in, financially, at the end of this year, some speakers arguing that there would be a deficit as large as $30,000. W. F. Weisend, superintendent of schools, roughly estimated that, including the taxes that would be paid to the district in July, the schools would have $73,000 on hand at the end of the year. Mr. Howard Shell, accountant, basing his opinion on the best estimates of expenditures and receipts that he could obtain, believed that the district might be $76,000 ahead.

Unofficial Count Shows Big Margin for District Plan

Official canvass of the vote of Twin Falls canal company stockholders on the proposition of including lands under the Twin Falls canal system in the proposed Snake river irrigation improvement district for the purpose of building the American Falls reservoir, made today by the canal company directors, shows a total of 44,161 shares represented in the ballot, of which 38,000 shares were voted in favor of the plan and 6061 against it.

An unofficial count of votes cast at meetings held last week at Buhl, Filer, Castelford, Kimberly, Hansen, Murtaugh and Twin Falls, shows on a basis of canal credit represented a proportion of eight and one-half to one in favor of including lands under the Twin Falls canal system in the proposed irrigation improvement district to be formed for the purpose of building the American Falls reservoir. The unofficial count is as follows:

Stock	Individual	Yes	No
Meetings—
Buhl	5,000	415	6
Castelford	4,000	380	30
Filer	5,500	880	44
Kimberly	2,234	514	48
Hansen	4,050	725	33
Murtaugh	2,340	0	30
Twin Falls	5,079	942	52

EHLER'S COW AT TOP OF LIST IN OUTPUT OF FAT

Holds Pioneer Testing Association Record for February with 66.2 Pounds to Credit; Tester Tells of Work

Out of 143 cows tested in February by W. C. Fletcher, official tester for the Pioneer Cow Testing association, two produced more than 60 pounds of butterfat during the month.

Sarcastic Mercedes Lassie, a pure bred Holstein owned by E. G. Ehler, Twin Falls, was high cow in the association, with a production of 153.3 pounds of milk and 66.2 pounds of fat. She freshened November 1.

L. J. Tencknick, Twin Falls, with five grade and pure bred Holsteins and two grade Jerseys, had the leading five cow herd for the month. Carl D. Irwin, Kimberly, with 22 grade and pure bred cows, producing an average of 610.4 pounds of milk and 35.21 pounds of fat, lead the list of herds of 10 and more cows.

Five Leading Herds.
A list of the five leading herds producing more than 30 pounds of fat is given as follows:
William T. Hardin, Buhl, nine grade and pure bred Holsteins, 1062.9 pounds of milk and 38.6 pounds of fat.
John H. Goss, Twin Falls, 10 grade Holsteins, 853 pounds of milk and 34.4 pounds of fat.
E. G. Ehler, Twin Falls, 11 pure bred Holsteins, 793.5 pounds of milk and 33.6 pounds of fat.
Emory Poltz, Twin Falls, seven mixed grades, 793.5 pounds of milk and 33.6 pounds of fat.
B. F. McPherson, Filer, eight grade and pure bred Jerseys, 640 pounds of milk and 31.4 pounds of fat.

The official tester in comment on the month's work in the association, says:

Poltz Mixes with Bull.
Emory Poltz of Twin Falls came near being returned a decidedly poor second in a recent encounter with his fine Jersey bull, while more than four points down, he finally managed by almost super-human luck to bring enough pressure on the bull's ring to be freed long enough to make the fence in "nothing at all." He swears that "the bull" was the best bull he "had need to be handled only on a staff and kept in a fool-proof paddock. A badly bruised chest and leg kept Emory at home a few days.

One clerk of Twin Falls, finds that cow testing pays, not only by helping to sell two thousand dollars worth of fine grades for about $25 each above the price of similarly appearing mixed cows but by saving four boarders for the butcher.

L. J. Tencknick recently bought 3 fine grade Jersey heifers from Carl D. Irwin, gladly paying about $20 more for each than he would have paid for good Jerseys, because their cow testing association records showed that not only they but their dams, and their dams' dams, and their sire's nearest dams, had all drawn good milk and thus their own blood was profit-paying.

"That sixty dollars will more than pay Mr. Irwin's testing for a year; and Mr. Tencknick's assurance that he was buying in for good Jerseys, because their cow testing association records showed that not only they but their dams, and their dams' dams, and their sire's nearest dams, had all drawn good milk and thus their own blood was profit-paying."

George A. Childs of Buhl lost still another cow recently.

Captures State Record.
L. S. Otto's fine Jersey "Helena's Glory," which he purchased from George Childs more than a year ago, has just set a new record for Jersey cattle club with 406.5 pounds of fat for the 305 days period ending in December. This is believed to be an Idaho record in this division for mature cows.

LADS MAROONED ON CLIFF SPEND NIGHT IN OPEN

Relatives and Friends are Joined by Boy Scouts in Search for Youths Hemmed In by Canyon Walls in Darkness

Marooned on the side of a cliff, with space below and a sheer wall above, two Twin Falls lads, Ellis Gates and Jan. Tucker, spent Sunday night under the stars while parents and friends scoured the country in the vicinity of the Rock Creek and Snake river canyons in search.

Sunset Brings Anxiety.
The boys left home Sunday afternoon with more or less vague remarks about their actual destination, the main idea being a juvenile hike. When darkness came on a good deal of uneasiness began to manifest itself in the homes of the parents and when 10 o'clock came with the lads still absent a search was decided upon.

Night-Long Search.
Friends of the two families worked until about one o'clock in the morning. Donald MacLennan was aroused about that hour and advised of the disappearance and at daylight the scout troop of which he is master joined in the hunt. At the head of the Blue Lakes grade the searchers came upon the missing boys, plodding back to town. They had entered a box canyon at the head of the Blue Lakes, climbed up a cliff, a not very safe place and with the coming of night were unable to see their way down again. A small fire was lit and kept going through the night and with the arrival of dawn the catwalkers negotiated the trail and started for home, apparently none the worse for their adventure.

UNCOVERS FACTS ABOUT ACCIDENT

Sheriff Identifies Driver of Car Which Crashed into Wagon on State Highway

E. E. Barron of Buhl has been identified by Sheriff E. R. Sherman as the driver of a car which Saturday evening on the state highway near east of Curry crashed into a multi-drawn wagon in which J. F. Turner and B. F. Hack of Filer and members of their families were passengers.

Women Suffer Injuries.
V. L. Holman of Buhl, Mrs. Holman and Mrs. Barron were the passengers in the car, which was badly wrecked in the collision. The two women suffered more or less severe bruises and contusions. The men in the car, as well as the occupants of the wagon, escaped unhurt, although the collision was head on and the wagon tongue and rear were broken. The wagon was proceeding westward and was on the right side of the road.

Explains License Plates Removed.
In explanation of the removal of the license plates from the car after the collision, Sheriff Sherman says that Barron admitted having only one set of license plates for two cars, one of them a light truck and the other the car involved in the collision. It was his practice, the sheriff says, to transfer the license plates from one machine to the other as he had use for it. Barron will be required to pay the cost of repairing the wagon and will be cited for violation of state law in using one set of license plates for two cars, the sheriff indicated today.

Baby Trout Arrive to Make Homes Here

Twenty thousand baby trout from the state fish hatchery at Hay Spur were Saturday received here by officials of the Southern Idaho Fish and Game association, who will superintend the introduction of the baby fish into their new homes in several of the smaller streams of this district. Officials of the association Saturday refused to make public locations in which the little trout are hereafter to be found, for the reason, they said, that too great temptation might be offered to small boys and others to fish out the streams and bring the infant fish to an untimely end.

CROP OF SEED BEANS ARE INVOLVED IN LITIGATION

Landowner's Claim to Share in Crop is Disputed by the Seed Company

Landowner's claim to a portion of a crop of beans grown by his tenant under contract with a seed company, is disputed in the case of the D. M. Ferry Seed company of Detroit, against Frank Smith of Twin Falls, in which argument of attorneys was heard by the supreme court this week at Boise. E. M. Wolfe appearing as counsel for Smith, and A. E. M. Sweeney of Sweeney and Sweeney as attorney for the seed company.

Evidence in the case shows that Smith rented his farm to R. L. Norris of Filer and was to receive one-half of the crops grown in rental. Subsequently Norris entered into contract with the seed company by which he was to receive seed beans sufficient to plant 23 acres. The contract provided that Norris should raise these beans for the seed company and that the seed beans and the seed crop grown therefrom should remain the property of the seed company.

At threshing time Smith had his wagons at the machine to receive his one-half of the beans. Objection was raised by a representative of the seed company. Smith, however, removed the beans to a warehouse here and the seed company brought suit, and under provisions of a bond, it took possession of them and shipped them to Detroit. The seed company contends now that the tenant did not have the right and authority to deliver the beans to Smith or to mortgage or otherwise dispose of the crop, but that he had no right whatever to the crop except to cultivate it under the direction of the company.

POLICE INTERVENE IN DISORDER AND GUN PLAY

Authorities Deal Out Sentences to Offender and Informant in Fracas

Ray Christanson, colored, has been sentenced to pay $50 fine for carrying a concealed weapon; Ethel Christanson, his white wife, is a prisoner in the county jail under a vagrancy charge, and John Gallegaz and Rosalia Gallegaz, Mexicans and brothers, have been sentenced to pay fines of $100 each on vagrancy charges with the option of leaving town within a designated number of hours.

All this has resulted from police intervention in a disturbance and gun play staged at about 8:30 o'clock Friday evening in the furnace room in the basement of the Baugh building, corner of Shoshone street and Main avenue north.

The disorder was reported to police headquarters by John Gallegaz, who told the officers that Christanson had threatened him with a gun when he and Christanson's wife were found in the basement quarters by Christanson. The police rounded up Christanson and Rosalia Gallegaz and lodged them both with John Gallegaz in the single cell of the municipal jail. The trio spent night pending questions for the women were provided in the county jail.

MURTAUGH VOTE UNANIMOUS FOR DISTRICT PLAN

Ballot Shows 2,340 Shares of Canal Stock Cast in Favor of Financing Scheme and Not One Against It

Unanimous vote for inclusion of lands under the Twin Falls canal system in the Snake River irrigation district to be formed for the purpose of building the American Falls reservoir was cast at a meeting of canal company stockholders at Murtaugh Friday afternoon.

On a basis of canal stock represented the ballot showed 2,340 shares in favor of the district plan and none against it. Thirty individuals voted for the plan and none in opposition to it.

Murtaugh's vote raises to 8 1/3 to 1 the proportion of sentiment outside of Twin Falls in favor of the district plan as expressed by ballot at the meetings thus far held.

Dependence of the Murtaugh irrigation district and, in a measure, of the Miller Low Lift irrigation district upon construction of the American Falls reservoir to afford a source of their water supplies is believed to have been the principal factor in determining the vote result. Both districts' lands are situated in the immediate proximity of Murtaugh. Neither of these districts would be included in the proposed Snake River irrigation district, but each would deal directly with the reclamation service in negotiating its purchase of water rights in the American Falls reservoir.

Concluding Campaign.
T. D. Nash of Murtaugh, was chairman of Friday afternoon's meeting. The principal speakers were P. A. Banks, reclamation service engineer, and Senator L. H. Evans of American Falls, representing the Idaho Reclamation association. Both speakers have addressed all of the series of meetings held in this county for submission of the irrigation district plan to vote of canal company stockholders, in connection with a campaign which was to be closed with a meeting here.

Prevalence of an epidemic of influenza in the Castleford district prevented holding of a meeting there Thursday evening for discussion of seed production and marketing methods, it was said at the county farm bureau offices. A meeting for this purpose was held in the afternoon at Buhl. Speakers were H. K. Willey, president of the Idaho Seed Growers' association; E. W. Stephens, representative of the Western Seed Growers' Marketing agency, and B. E. Broadard, county agent.

COURT DECISION FORMS BASIS OF COUNCIL'S MOVE

Collection of Meat Inspection Fees Is Authorized and Date Is Set for Meeting with Dairymen

Judge T. Bailey Lee's decision sustaining Twin Falls' meat inspection ordinance was the basis for decisions reached at Monday evening's meeting of the city council to take immediate steps to collect from meat market and slaughter house owners the amounts due from them in payment of inspection fees, and to arrange for a meeting of city officials with a committee of dairymen with a view to formulating a new milk and dairy inspection ordinance.

Attorney Given Full Power.

City Attorney Taylor Cummins was authorized by vote of the council to take any action necessary in collection of the meat inspection fees. As the first step, Mr. Cummins indicated, Dr. W. L. Ikard, meat and dairy inspector, will make a demand upon the delinquent butchers for payment of the fees. It is estimated that the total amount due is in excess of $4000, of which more than $2000 is due under provisions of the ordinance which the court has sustained.

Will Meet with Dairymen.

Wednesday evening, March 29, is the date set by Mayor P. W. McRoberts for the meeting of city officials with the dairymen's committee, which was chosen some weeks ago at a convention to which all dairymen were invited by city officials. Expansion of inspection and regulatory powers, asked for by some of the dairymen, and a more efficient method of dealing with applications for dairymen's licenses, suggested by Dr. Ikard, are among the subjects to be threshed out by the committee and city officials. Members of the dairymen's committee are S. H. Kaylor, B. Black, Dr. W. M. Fisher, W. B. Harg, L. J. Tenckwick and O. E. Carlson.

Look to Next Election.

Upon recommendation of the city attorney, decision was reached by the council to hold a brief special session next Saturday afternoon or evening for the purpose of adopting resolutions providing for holding of a special election April 18 for submission of the city manager plan to vote of the electors. Provisions of the law require that registration books which will be opened upon passage of this resolution, must be open a stipulated time before the date of the election.

Saturday will mark the last day for registration for the commission, term election, and action by the council on the city manager plan election must be taken by that time to comply with legal requirements, Mr. Cummins advised.

Mr. Cummins expressed the opinion that registration of all electors would be required for the city manager plan election, regardless of whether or not they registered for the city election last spring or for the special election this month.

Establishes Sprinkling District.

Adoption of an ordinance establishing an improvement district for the purpose of sprinkling certain streets to alley dust during the coming season was the principle item of routine business at Monday evening's session. In response to petition and representations of interested citizens the council decided to eliminate from the sprinkling district addition avenue west from Washington street west to the city limits; Alexander street from Taylor street north for its full length in South Park addition, and all of Elizabeth avenue.

Request for the elimination of Alexander street was conveyed to the council in a petition signed by 16 residents along that thoroughfare. J. Blake and Fred Linden asked that addition avenue be eliminated and said that 75 per cent of the residents on that avenue affected were in favor of its omission. J. H. Bates appeared again before the council with his request that Elizabeth avenue be not sprinkled this year.

Commissioner Beats Bid.

Reporting to the council the results of his inquiry into the question of cost of repairing the roof of the waterworks department building, J. J. Pitterman, commissioner of streets and water, was advised that the work could be done on force account at a maximum cost of $80 as compared with an estimate of $125 submitted last week by a Barby bidder.

The council authorized payment of claims against the waterworks fund in the sum of $50, against the streets fund in the sum of $70.00, and against the general expense fund in the sum of $35.55.

Acting for the club John Graham presented Nobles Robert F. Clark and Harry M. Barratt with hand-painted loving mugs. These recipients are soon to leave for points on the coast to remain indefinitely. Last night's meeting was interesting and enjoyable throughout, and brought together the greatest number of Shrines ever assembled for an occasion of this sort in Twin Falls. The room was tastefully adorned in Shrine colors and with Shrine insignia.

Newspaper Story Brings Information to Officers Undertaking Search

Ward Fry, whose unexplained absence was reported Sunday to police headquarters and the sheriff's office, is a patient at the county general hospital, where he has been under treatment since February 25, the authorities were advised Monday afternoon.

For several hours following the appearance of the newspaper story tale, phone calls were received at police headquarters and at the sheriff's office from friends and acquaintances of Fry asking for latest information on the authorities' search for him. TWO-FOLD TASK PROPOSED FOR SCHOOLS' HEAD

Twin Falls Board of Education Discusses Consolidation of Offices of Superintendent and High School Principal

Consolidation of the offices of the superintendent of schools and of the principal of the high school was under discussion at a special meeting Monday evening of the board of education of the Twin Falls independent school district. Only four members of the board were present and decision on the question was deferred until a later date.

Mitchell Urges Deliberation

Discussion indicated that members of the board had it in mind to retain Superintendent M. C. Mitchell in the dual capacity of mutually satisfactory arrangements could be agreed upon. Mitchell, who has been in the position against hasty action in the premises, pointing out that the proposed change was somewhat revolutionary, although, he said, he would undertake the added responsibility. He said that if the board decided to retain both offices he would recommend the reappointment of E. K. Karsay as principal of the high school. It developed that the consolidation scheme had been in the minds of members of the board for some time.

Acceptance of Positions on part of Miss Fannie Perkins as principal of the Lincoln high school, Miss Ruth Way as principal of the Bickel school, Mrs. Ethel Gray as principal of the Washington school, and Miss Elizabeth Stowell as supervisor of elementary grades, were reported to the board by Mr. Mitchell.

See Saving in Janitor Service

An estimated saving of around $1000 in expense of janitor service at the high school and intermediate grade school building is expected to result from the board's award Monday evening of a contract to Ollie Taylor to provide janitorial service at the building during the coming school year for a consideration of $4,500. Heretofore three men and three high school students in addition to Mr. Taylor have been employed by the district to perform this work. LOCAL EIGHTH GRADERS WIN OVER MAROA TEAM

Good Playing on Both Sides Characterizes Game Replete with Individual Features

The local eighth grade basketball quintette put another notch in the win column on Friday afternoon, when they came out on the long end of a 26 to 18 score with Maroa.

It was probably the best game that the locals have played this season, and their victory came as a surprise, as Maroa came here with a reputation of having won most of their games this season.

With the exception of one man, the enemy stood head and shoulders over the locals, but with recent victories still ringing in their ears, they couldn't see anything but a win.

The team work of Miss Casey's five showed considerable improvement over last season, if not over the boys trying for individual honors.

Clyde Rosa startled the fans with two of the prettiest baskets ever seen on the local floor. Clyde, who has been in a sort of a slump lately, fully redeemed himself yesterday.

"Jim" Grigaly, another local player, showed the spectacular game of last week, came through with 9 field goals, making a total of 18 points. Jim has developed into one of the best basketball players in the junior high. It is too bad that he still has another year to go, as Coach Evans could probably use him very handsily on the high school team next season, if he were eligible.

Bussell Potter, captain of the locals, confined himself to guard and well did he do his work.

Cornell Jarman shot two dandy baskets, being in the game at all times. Alvin Kelley, who has been substituting for Howard Berg at guard, played a game but a seventh grade player, a freshman, has shown wonderful improvement.

For Maroa, Darnell at forward, played a fine game, making four field goals, and throwing four free throws.

Lyon, the other forward, also played a nice game, but perfect guarding kept him from shooting but one basket.

Edith helped his teammates with two classy field goals, beside doing some clever guarding.

Sterner and Bay, the two guards, did all that was expected of them. The Maroa team is by far the best balanced quintette seen here this season in the junior division.

These two teams will lock horns two weeks from last night, on the Puffer floor, which will end the local basketball season.

The Kimberly freshman will play Miss Casey's hoopers next Friday afternoon on the local floor.

Mays asserted that he sold his interest in the business to Munson for $1700 and that he had received from Munson only $700. Munson, in his pleadings, said that the $700 was full payment for the share in the business.

Mays was represented by John W. Gilman as counsel. Walters, Hodgkin and Bailey conducted the case for Munson.

KANSAS AGGIES RECEIVE IDAHO CAT FOR MASCOT

Dr. H. R. Groome and Dr. J. E. McCoy Respond to Request of Coach

Kansas state agricultural college, at Manhattan, Kansas, has been supplied by Dr. H. R. Groome and Dr. J. E. McCoy, practicing veterinarians of Twin Falls and alumni of the institution, with a mascot in the form of a live wildcat which has been christened "Touchdown."

Referring to the new mascot, the student paper, the Kansas Industrialist, in its issue of March 1, says:

"The college has a mascot, the coach of the Kansas Aggies, has a wildcat mascot—unless it develops later that the wildcat has Charley Bachman. Odds were even as to the outcome yesterday afternoon at the veterinary hospital, where the wildcat is recuperating from a lacerated leg. He arrived Sunday from Twin Falls, Idaho, and is a present from Dr. Herbert B. Groome, '35 and '37, and Dr. John E. McCoy, '09. Both are practicing veterinarians at Twin Falls."

"So far the wildcat—christened 'Touchdown' the day he arrived—has not shown any signs of the deteriorating effects of civilization. Perhaps after he is removed from among the veterinarians and caged with the athletic department he will realize that civilization has come, and modify his resentment toward the world. So far he is a wildcat, and Bachman is his keeper. No one else has volunteered."

"Bachman suggested he would like a wildcat for a mascot some time ago, and alumni of Idaho, Montana, Arizona and New Mexico have been combing the mountains for him. It is understood that another will be on the way soon from New Mexico."

"Dr. Groome and Dr. McCoy are partners operating a veterinary hospital at Twin Falls. So far they have not reported how the wildcat was captured. Each wrote a terse note to alumni headquarters announcing the wildcat was coming."

Efforts on the part of photographers at Manhattan to photograph the wildcat have been unsuccessful. Cliff Stratton, executive secretary of the alumni association, says in a letter to Dr. Groome and Dr. McCoy acknowledging receipt of the mascot and expressing the appreciation of the student body for the present. He declares that photographs of the animal taken here by J. W. Wheeling were "two awful good pictures." Bachman, he says, "has refused all invitations to have his picture taken with 'Touchdown' in his arms."

SLIDING SCALE ADVANTAGE TO BEET GROWERS

Contract for Season Offers a Minimum of $5.50 a Ton with Excellent Prospect of Higher Price

On a basis of 18 per cent sugar content, with sugar pricing its present market price of $6 a hundred pounds, provisions of the 1922 contract announced yesterday by the Amalgamated Sugar company, assure beet growers of a price of $9.35 a ton for their beets this season.

Eighteen per cent sugar content was scored for many beet crops grown in this district last season, the company advises. The company, in a statement issued in connection with announcement of its 1922 contract, expressed the opinion that "present conditions lead us to believe that by next fall sugar will be netting us $6, which would make beets worth $7.62 a ton."

The minimum price offered under the contract is $5.50 for beets bearing 15 per cent sugar content, with the price of sugar at $4.50 a hundred pounds.

Waits to Better Terms

Preparation of the contract has been delayed this season, the company's statement says. "In order that the very best contract possible might be issued."

As the contract is participating, the statement says, "it is important to the farmer that enough beets be grown to run our factories to capacity thereby cutting the cost of sugar production. For this reason every farmer within hauling distance of a beet receiving station should plant a piece of good land to beets. Early planting and attention should give us a 15-ton average, which, at $7 a ton, would make $105 an acre for the beets and $5 an acre for the tops.

Figures Show Profits

"We estimate $52 an acre to raise, harvest and deliver the crop, which also includes maintenance, taxes, marketing, interest and depreciation. This estimate is conservative and open to inspection."

On the basis of this estimate a possible profit of $58 an acre for sugar beet production is shown.

In connection with its contract for beets, the company offers a side contract which provides $1 a ton extra for beets harvested and sliced. This is considered of advantage especially to growers from four to six miles from a receiving station.

IRISH QUESTION SERVES AS SUBJECT OF SPEECH

Twin Falls Rotary Listens to Address
by William T. Scully on World
Question

Twin Falls Rotary at the regular weekly luncheon on Wednesday was entertained by a lengthy and carefully prepared address on the Irish situation by Rotarian W. T. Scully. The program which was in charge of Mr. Scully was postponed from the meeting of a week ago, due to the fact that Mr. Scully, Salt Lake moving picture man with interests in the same line here and members of the Salt Lake Rotary club, addressed the members on the general subject of the necessity of a more optimistic view of local business.

Mr. Scully's address dealt with his subject from the standpoint of north Ireland and an interesting array of historical data served to hold the close attention of his hearers throughout the entire address.

SHORTHORN ARISTOCRACY TO BE OFFERED FOR SALE

Breeders Association to Give Disposal of One of Its Best Offerings to Public

One of the best offerings of pure-bred Shorthorn bulls ever placed before the public by the Twin Falls North and South Side Shorthorn Breeders association is to be offered at the association's annual Shorthorn sale to be held at the C. A. McMaster sales barn here Thursday, March 30, according to announcement made today.

Only 30 animals will be offered for sale at this time. Many of them are pure Scotch and were prize winners at various fairs in 1921.

Among the breeders who are co-sponsoring the sale are C. A. McMaster, William McMaster and J. H. Glendon of Twin Falls; Dr. R. S. Ames, D. L. Benner, H. H. Schildman and E. S. Ticknor of Filer; M. D. L. Barstow of Buhl; Bull Brothers of Hagerman; J. H. Bundy of Bliss; N. H. Leland of Wendell; R. H. Callon of Jerome; S. H. Proctor and Nequa Brothers of Kimberly; Vernon Grimm and Gordon Dier of Marston; Milo Davis and Lester Dittler of Twin Falls.

It is said that this is the only offering of registered Shorthorn bulls advertised in southern Idaho this spring, and many buyers who are looking for quality stuff already have signified their intention to attend this sale.

One of the most interesting features of this sale will be a pure-bred registered Shorthorn bull offered by Reuben Brothers of Kimberly. It is expected that spirited competition will result in the bidding in which hotel and butcher shop operators here have been invited to participate.

LEGION TO MAKE SERVICE CENSUS

Veterans' Organization Undertakes to Establish Contact with Service Men

Twin Falls post, American Legion, co-operating with Legion posts at Buhl, Filer, Kimberly and Murtaugh and with Women's Auxiliary organization, will undertake to establish permanent contact with the more than 3000 former service men of Twin Falls county through the agency of the American Legion service campaign, in pursuance of a decision reached at a meeting of the post Tuesday evening.

General charge of this campaign on the part of the Twin Falls post was delegated to a committee composed of Carl L. DeLong, Leo P. Bracken, Harry J. Bonell, Sidney H. Graves and John C. Harvey.

An Relief Measure

Purposes of the campaign, which is to be conducted by the American Legion throughout the nation, include formulation of the service record of each former service man together with a comprehensive statement in each case as to the present status and requirements of each individual. The information thus obtained will be turned over to national headquarters of the Legion for use in urging measures for the relief of former service persons.

Members of the post in discussion at Tuesday evening's meeting declared this campaign is the most comprehensive and constructive program yet entered upon by the Legion.

Unemployment Discussed

The unemployment situation came in for consideration at the meeting, and members were urged to communicate to Carl L. DeLong, past employment officer, both the names and addresses of former service men who are out of employment and opportunities for obtaining employment.

Under supervision of Ralph Pink, a committee chairman, members of the post were served "army style" with refreshments consisting of baked beans, coffee and rolls.

BUTCHER IS SUED BY CITY

Municipality Claims $536.30 from Charles Dunn for Inspection Fees

Suit against Charles Dunn, proprietor of the American Meat market, for collection of $536.30, alleging that meat inspection fees under municipal ordinance, was instituted in district court Wednesday for the city of Twin Falls by City Attorney Taylor Cummings.

Mr. Cummings, in this case, is acting under authority conferred by the city council at its meeting Monday evening, following receipt of District Judge T. Bailey Lee's decision upholding the city's meat inspection ordinance, which was attacked by butchers and slaughter house operators here.

BUTCHERS FILE NEW COMPLAINT AGAINST CITY

Opposition to Municipal Meat
Inspection Ordinance is Renewed on Grounds Enforcement is Discriminatory

Opposition on the part of meat market and slaughter house operators here to the municipal meat inspection ordinance was renewed Wednesday with filing in court by T. K. Hackman, attorney, of an amended complaint in the case of C. A. Jungert, E. B. Whitney and Fred K. Wahl, doing business as the Independent meat market, against Twin Falls city officials.

Adds New Charges

General charges in the original complaint that the ordinance was invalid, which was overruled by District Judge T. Bailey Lee, is renewed in the amended complaint and an additional charge made that the ordinance is discriminatory in that only slaughter houses within a five mile radius from Twin Falls are assessed to pay costs of inspection and that city officials have failed to enforce the regulatory measure as to persons selling meat from open wagons.

Not Fighting Inspection

Discussing the case, Mr. Hackman today said:

"There seems to be a misapprehension in the minds of some persons as to the real purpose of the suits questioning the validity of the meat inspection ordinance of this city. In fact, some people seem to think my clients wish to deprive the city of the right to inspect meats. Such is not the case. My clients are in favor of inspection, and, notwithstanding the fact that the city has been temporarily restrained from inspecting, pending the restraining order, my clients consented to submit themselves to the enforcement of the inspection ordinance, except that they did not consent to the payment of fees."

"The real cause of my clients' complaint is based upon the fact that the city ordinance placed the burden on the three slaughter houses located within two miles of the city of Twin Falls of paying all or practically all the salary of the city meat inspector and the expenses of inspection in the fees charged for ante-mortem and post-mortem examinations of animals killed at said slaughter houses; that these ordinances, on the other hand, permit all other persons to bring meat into the city and sell it without its being subjected to these charges, an examination or inspection simply being made of the portion of the meat which is offered to the public, and this meat is sold from wagons or in other inexpensive ways and may be the carcass of an old bull of some other decrepit animal, and this cannot be discovered by this inspection of the portion of the carcass submitted to the inspector."

Makes Unfair Competition

"My clients have a large investment of money and considerable taxes to be paid, and they are thrown into competition with this other class of meat, and this other impure and unsanitary method of selling meats. If the ordinance were to apply to all meats brought into the city by requiring the ante-mortem and post-mortem examinations as to insure that all meats were from healthy animals, and from the proper class of animals, and the expense distributed among all, my clients would not be in court."

COURT GIVES DECISION IN TANGLED DEAL IN HAY

Denies Donald McLean's Claim Against Albert Winters for Cash Advanced to Growers

Claim made by Donald McLean, doing business as the Farmers Service, against Albert Winters of Buhl, for return of money advanced to farmers on hay shipped to market on consignment, has been denied in a decision rendered by Judge O. P. Duval in probate court here. McLean sued on two causes of action for $167.25, alleging that the cash advance exceeded the proceeds from the sale of the hay in these instances. Winters asserted that he was acting as McLean's agent in the hay deals, and that his share in the money involved was only 50 cents on each ton on which he advanced money for McLean. Winters was represented by J. W. Taylor as counsel, Homer C. Mills appearing for McLean.

The Pneumonia Month

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. The pneumonia germ is everywhere, and is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ-laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting pneumonia.

COMMERCIAL POULTRY FARM OPERATING HERE

D. A. Wright, Expert in Chicken Propagation, Leases a Tract Near Town

Patterned after the Petaluma system a chicken hatchery plant has been placed in operation one quarter mile north of the northern edge of this city. The plant is known as the D. A. COURT AWARDS WAGERED AUTO TO MRS. HAYS

State Supreme Tribunal Sustain
Wife's Claim to Car
Wagered and Lost by Husband on Election Bet

Mrs. Minnie Hays' claim to possession of an automobile wagered and lost by C. A. Robinson, Twin Falls, by her husband, J. W. Hays, in a bet on the result of the gubernatorial election in Idaho in 1918, has been sustained by the state supreme court in a decision written by Justice Robert N. Dunn and concurred in by all the other members of the court.

It is indicated that the case will be remanded to the district court here for a new trial.

Bets on Samuels

Hays, an active member of the Non-Partisan league, bet the car against a similar car owned by Robinson that Samuels would win the election and that Davis would be defeated. After the election, when Robinson came to claim the Hays car, Mrs. Hays asserted her claim to ownership of it.

"Decision of the supreme court is based on a technicality. The court holds that Robinson's statement in his answer to the original complaint that he and the garage operators who acted as stakeholders 'deceit each and every allegation contained in the complaint, not heretofore specifically admitted, is not a denial under the system of pleading used in the state."

Instruction Held Faulty

"Failing to deny that demand was made by Mrs. Hays for the car admitted the truth of that allegation," the court says. "It was therefore error for the court to instruct the jury that the allegation of demand was supported by proof. If all the other facts necessary to support a verdict for the appellant (Mrs. Hays) had been found by the jury in her favor, this instruction would have required the jury to find for Robinson, because she offered no proof of the demand alleged in the complaint."

LAUNCH FIGHT ON CITY'S RULE BY COMMISSION

Opposition to Change in Form of Twin Falls Government
Selects Committee to Manage Campaign

Opposition to adoption of the commission form of government for Twin Falls was organized at a meeting of about 100 persons at Parish hall Tuesday evening with the election of a committee of 12 members to direct a campaign culminating in the special election next Tuesday.

Members of the committee are C. E. Munson, R. H. Stevenson, Arthur L. Swin, E. J. Finch, E. L. Ashton, S. L. Hodgins, W. Orr Chapman, H. M. Heller, T. J. Woods, Mrs. Burton E. Morse, Mrs. M. J. Sweeley, Mrs. H. W. Cloucheck.

Subsequently members of the committee elected C. E. Munson chairman and E. J. Finch secretary.

Speakers Voice Objections

Speakers called upon at the Tuesday evening meeting, which was called to order by Burton E. Morse, were Shad L. Hodgins, who reviewed the history of the commission form in Boise and criticized it as a scheme for division of official responsibility; R. H. Stevenson, who declared that adoption of the commission form under conditions existing here would bring on turmoil and strife for a period of years, and M. J. Sweeley, who attacked the commission form because of additional expense involved. All of the speakers urged retention of the present form of municipal administration in Twin Falls and voiced opposition to change to another form of government.

Cause of Turmoil in Boise

"It makes no difference what form of government we have we will never have government any better than the men that we put in office," Mr. Hodgins declared. The commission form was adopted in Boise, he said, at the behest of a "reform" element whose activities for several years made Boise a laughing stock and engendered a feeling of its citizenship. "The purpose of the Black law which provides for the commission form, is to divide official responsibility," he said, and cited a case in Boise's history where one of the board of commissioners successfully defended his position as absolute head of the department with sole power to employ who he chose and determine salaries paid.

Cause Needless Strife

"The commission form invites the radical element to all sorts of activity, causes strife and needless expense and provides a vehicle for agencies that are destructive of the principles of American government," Mr. Stevenson declared, summing up his argument against the proposed change in Twin Falls government. "The commission form is favored in Twin Falls solely by forces who desire the recall as a weapon to use against persons in office who incur their displeasure, he added, predicting that a period of turmoil marked by frequent elections would be a consequence of adoption of the proposal.

Taxpayer Pays More

"From the viewpoint of the taxpayer," Mr. Sweeley said, "it would be a mistake to adopt any scheme that would involve additional public expense and make for uncertainty." He pointed out that substantially the same officers would retain the commission form as under the present form. The salary of the mayor, now $500, is fixed by statute at $600 under the commission form, and councilmen whose salary now is $300, would as commissioners under the commission form draw $450. Instead of $1700 a year it would cost the city $2,400 a year for the six years it would have to retain the commission form after its adoption.

Automatic Salary Boosts

"Increase in the city's population to more than 10,000 persons under the Black law, would automatically double the salary of the mayor, and instead of paying $1700 a year for salaries as at present, the city would be obligated to pay the mayor $1,200 and commissioners $900 each, making a total increase of $3,600.

Commission Advocates Insist

Senator Sweeley declared the fact that advocates of the city manager plan of city administration to be voted on at a special election April 18, had consented, in the interests of public economy, to abandon their plan for submitting this issue to the election, provided proponents of this commission form would agree to likewise. Commission form advocates refused to consent to any such arrangement, Senator Sweeley said, explaining that he had conducted negotiations in the premises as chairman of the chamber of commerce tax committee.

Motion for the election of the campaign committee was made by H. J. Benoit.

State Tribunal Sustain Lower Court in Case of C. A. Robinson Against Earl Fruit Company

Default judgment obtained against the Earl Fruit company of the Northwest by C. A. Robinson, Twin Falls, in connection with his claim for $14,000 damages, arising out of the sale of his fruit crop in 1920, has been set aside by order of the state supreme court, according to word received here by W. P. Guthrie, attorney for the fruit company. The supreme court's decision sustains the action of the district court here in setting aside the default, and places the case upon its merits before the lower court.

Twin Falls won the inter-city three-cushion billiard tournament from Rupert last evening at Macaulay's, by taking two of the three games possible. Epler and Mattison made it possible to keep the honors here as Goldwater lost his game to Ansell.

The opening game, between Epler and Turner, brought together the two undefeated players. "Epl" won handily by the score of 50 to 31 in 112 innings. The local man showed in perfect stroke, and came through with a run of six in the twenty-fifth inning, taking a lead over his opponent that kept growing as the game progressed. In the eighty-fourth inning he made a run of five.

Epler Star of Tournament.

Epler was by far the star of the tournament, winning all three of his games easily. Turner did not play up to his usual high standard, and missed a great many easy shots.

The second game was won by Mattison against Ed. He made 50 points in 131 innings. Mattison showed a reversal of form and was on edge. His high run was four.

Ansell, Rupert Winner.

The final game of the evening went to Ansell, Goldwater being defeated by the score of 50 to 46, in 133 innings.

The Rupert player won a well earned victory, picking up all the naturals and making a good many tough ones. Ansell, although losing to Epler in the first game of the series, showed by far the best form of the three from the east end.

Goldwater did not play his usual game, and although making a run of five during the latter part of the game, missed a good many easy shots.

Arrangements are being made for a tournament with Boise, in the near future. A large crowd was present last evening to witness the game.

CASUALTY LIST IS LONG

Phillies Have Five Twirlers in Hospital Undergoing Treatment

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—Five of 10 pitchers who are trying for places with the Phillies at Leeburg, Fla., have sore arms and three others have minor complaints that are interfering with their work, according to reports today from the training camp. Leo Meadows, Manager Wilhelm's hurling ace, is bothered by a nerve pain in his pitching arm.

The casualty list at Eagle Pass, Tex., where the Athletics are getting in their final touches, is not causing Manager Mack any worry. All of his men were said to be in first class condition. During this week Mack will start weeding out his candidates.

TREMORS CAUSED BY 'WEAK SPOTS'

Seismologists Aver the Recent Earth Disturbances were Firmament Trouble

ST. LOUIS, Mo., (AP)—Seismologists of St. Louis university today ascribed "weak spots" in the firmament as causing old mother earth to tremble in parts of six states surrounding St. Louis late yesterday.

The earth tremors radiated 150 to 250 miles southeast from here and were reported as far south as Troy, Tenn., and Hickman, Ky., and as far east as Evansville, Ind., according to reports received from the affected area, which also included northern Arkansas, southeastern Missouri and southern Illinois.

Little Damage. Only slight damage, consisting mainly of falling chimneys and plaster, was caused by the tremors, which rattled chimneys and dislodged pictures and ornaments from their places in houses. New Madrid, Mo., where, according to the records, a disastrous earthquake occurred about a century ago, was one of the many cities and towns reporting shocks.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Chicago Wheat. CHICAGO, (AP)—Material setbacks in the price of wheat took place today during the early trading. Commission houses were generally on the selling side and there was a lack of aggressive buying. The opening which varied from 1-4 to 5-8 lower was followed by sharp further declines.

Subsequently, breaks in German exchange rates together with reports that Australian wheat was being reseed by India were bearish factors, but were partly offset by word that Norway was in the market for large May shipments of wheat and rye. The close was heavy 2 to 4-5c net lower, with May $1.32 1-2, 1-3 1-8 and July $1.17 1-4 to 1-17 3-8.

Corn and oats gave way with wheat. After opening 1-8 to 5-8c lower, May 60 3-4 to 60 7-8c, the corn market continued to decline.

Gasps were current that exporters at the seaboard were offering to re-sell corn to domestic bidders. The close was weak at 1 5-8 to 1 3-4c to 2c net decline with May 50 1-4 to 50 3-4c. Oats started unchanged to 3-8c off, May 37 3-4c to 38 and then began a general descent.

Provisions were depressed by the action of grain, notwithstanding an advance on hog values.

weight woolled ewes, $9@9.50; locks about steady.

New York Stocks.

NEW YORK, (AP)—The stock market was under constant selling pressures today. High class rails and industrial sustained losses of 1 to 3 points with many specials. Sales approximately 850,000 shares.

Selling of German marks throughout the day brought the rate down to 2 12-100ths in the final hour, shattering all previous records.

Dealers attributed the further weakness to the changes in the German reparations payments announced in Paris last night, and the firm attitude of the United States government for the payment of the expenses of the army of occupation on the Rhine.

ANOTHER BUTCHER SUED FOR INSPECTION FEES

City Files Action Against O. A. Jungat of the Independent Market

In pursuance of an authorized policy for enforcing collection of municipal meat inspection fees assessed against meat market and slaughter house operators of Twin Falls, suit against O. A. Jungat, doing business under the name of the Independent Meat Market, was late Wednesday afternoon filed in district court here by the city of Twin Falls by Taylor Cummins, city attorney.

This action is instituted for collection of inspection fees in the amount of $1000.00 claimed to have been incurred by the defendant butcher between March 20, 1921, and March 15, 1922, under provisions of the meat inspection ordinance.

Under a writ of attachment issued in the case of the city against O. A. Jungat doing business under the name of the Independent Market, brought for the collection of meat inspection fees, operators of the market's office have attached certain fixtures in the possession of the defendant Jungat.

It Pays To Buy Good Goods!

Penny Wise and Pound Foolish

In the effort to save pennies, by seeking cheap prices there is a danger of buying foolish values. Not always is the lowest priced article the cheapest in the long run. Indeed, it is frequently good economy to pay a little more and be assured of good quality.

In food products and commodities of known quality one may judge the value by the price. But in wearing apparel one should not be guided solely by the price. It is well to remember that quality is remembered long after the price is forgotten.

While this store aims to always keep prices down, it does not—and will not—resort to the selling of shoddy goods in order to accomplish this end. This store is the home of the best known lines of merchandise made in America, and while this merchandise is not always "cheapest" in price, it is usually cheapest in the long run. Surely, it pays to buy good goods.

SESSION SHEDS FURTHER LIGHT ON BIG PROJECT

Closing Meeting of Series for Presentation of Plan for Financing American Falls Reservoir Develops Facts

In line with sentiment generally expressed by landholders of the Twin Falls project, outside of the immediate vicinity of Twin Falls city, a meeting of Canal company stockholders in Parshall hall here Saturday afternoon, on a basis of stock represented valued $230 to $45 for inclusion of lands under the Twin Falls irrigation system in the proposed Snake river irrigation improvement district to be formed for the purpose of building the American Falls reservoir. The vote by individuals was 31 for the plan and 14 against it.

Right and a Half to One for Plan

The meeting here was the last of a series of seven held at central points in the Twin Falls district under auspices of the Canal company directors co-operating with the reclamation service and the Idaho Reclamation association to determine the sentiment of landholders with respect to the plan. Unofficial canvases of votes taken at all of these meetings shows on a basis of canal stock represented a proportion of eight and one-half to one in favor of the plan. The total stock vote cast in favor of the plan was 62, 974 shares and against it 4,889 shares. The meeting here was conducted by W. F. Alworth, a director of the Canal company, as chairman. Dr. John E. White was elected secretary. The reclamation service was represented by F. A. Ben's, reclamation service engineer, who, with Senator L. L. Evans of American Falls, representing the Idaho Reclamation association, had addressed all of the previous meetings of the series.

Discussion Reveals Facts

Discussion of the question presented on the part of various landholders seemed to make plain many phases of the plan which had not previously been explained to the satisfaction of all those attending the meeting. Open opposition to the scheme was expressed by Senator J. H. Seaver and J. C. Beatty. The scheme was warmly defended by J. A. Cron, Judge F. E. Chamberlain, C. E. McClain, and others, while the opposition was able to answer all of the questions asked with respect to the proposal.

Seaver Raises Objections

Senator Seaver raised numerous objections to the American Falls project and the plan for financing it. He contended with suspicion upon the contract under which the Idaho Power company is to turn over to the reclamation service certain of its water rights at American Falls, and cited the failure of a reservoir built by the Kuhn on the North Side. He questioned the ability of landowners to meet the cost of their share in the American Falls reservoir, and expressed satisfaction with the plan where by Twin Falls district landholders would guarantee payment of the obligations of other corporations participating in the big district. Finally he suggested that the reclamation of new land consequent upon development of the American Falls project would increase competition as among producers of farm produce to an extent that should be taken into consideration. Mr. Beatty asked for assurance that the cost of the American Falls reservoir would not exceed the engineers' estimate, and wanted to know if the Twin Falls district would benefit otherwise than by receiving an increased water right. "We have too much water now," he said.

How Objections Were Met

Replying to Senator Seaver's reference to the Power company contract, Mr. Banks explained that the "primary rights" reserved by the company involved a stipulated amount of water which would enable it to maintain operation of its present developments at Snake river between American Falls and Shoshone falls.

Judge Chamberlain analyzed the question and brought on the conclusion that the reclamation service, under the contract, was paying only for indisputable rights of the Power company. As to the North Side reservoir, Mr. Banks said that the project had been entered upon against advice of engineers and in response to popular demand. Mr. Cron corroborated the engineer's statements and went into further details on this subject.

Possibility of the cost of the American Falls reservoir exceeding the engineers' figures was remote, Mr. Banks said, pointing out that the reservoir had been built for a million dollars less than the engineers' estimates provided and that a saving of $75,000 in comparison with estimates had been made in building the Jackson Lake reservoir. Construction of the American Falls reservoir offers practically no serious engineering problems, Mr. Banks said.

Neighbors' Obligations—Mr. Banks and other speakers, in discussion of the big district plan of financing the project, pointed out that the same principle is involved in taxes levied for improvements by highway or school districts, and that in each case each person taxed assumes a liability for the obligation of his neighbors. Only fully developed lands would be included in the big district, it was shown.

C. E. McClain pointed out also that the district plan offered considerable advantages in that lands of the district, being non-taxable, would sell readily and draw a less interest than the bonds of an individual corporation, and that deferred payments under the district plan could be met much easier than a direct assessment such as might be levied by a canal company to meet the cost of the project.

OLD TALE

One of interest to Our Readers. Good news, bad news repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitate to believe it at first hearing, we feel sure it is true. The following experience of a Twin Falls man is confirmed after seven years. Wm. Secord, carpenter, 225 Main Ave., says: "I had pains and aches in my back and joints terribly. I was also bothered with my kidneys acting irregularly. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended and I found them fine. Since then when I have caught cold and been bothered with kidney disorder I have used Doan's and they have always given me prompt relief."

LASTING RESULTS. Over Seven Years Later Mr. Secord said: "The relief Doan's Kidney Pills gave me has lasted."

Twin Falls Chapter Entertains
for Guests Attending State Convention Here; Program
Replete with Interest

Twin Falls chapter, D. A. R., entertained in honor of the visiting delegates at a luncheon Wednesday at the Bogerson hotel. The tables were arranged in the form of a large hollow square with 57 guests seated around the outside. The color scheme was in blue and white, the colors of the society. Strenuous of blue and white flattered from the chandeliers and were draped along the sides caught at frequent intervals by conventional cut-out wreaths of blue. The same design was carried out in the handsome, crated menu cards and nut cups. Blue wax candles in crystal candlesticks surrounded by the blue cut-out wreaths further emphasized the color effect and every guest wore the blue and white badge of membership.

Salute Original Flag.
As the guests stood at attention the salute was given to the flag, the original flag of thirteen stars. Mrs. D. W. Standford, from the Wyeth chapter, Porterville, pronounced the invocation. A program of much interest followed the luncheon. Carrie Harper, White, regent of the hostess chapter, being a charming toastmistress for the occasion. "We are the embassadors in which our ancestors live," said Mrs. White in a more serious vein she continued, "It is for us to lift high the torch and represent the best ideals for which our ancestors stood." She then introduced Mrs. R. C. Hudelson, state regent. Mrs. Hudelson enumerated the hundred and one aims, aspirations and ambitions of the D. A. R. in an alluringly alliterative application of the alphabet.

Brings Focastelli's Message.
Mrs. B. C. Winters brought the message from "Wyeth" chapter, Porterville, by reading a poem entitled, "Our Emblem," written by one of their members.

Mrs. Douglas Little, "Topicals" chapter, Gooding, responded to the toast, "Trails." Miss Little, who represented the regent of her chapter, made a stirring appeal for the youth of our country. "The great problems which we are confronted with are the leisure of the young people," she asserted. The daughters of the American Revolution must blaze the trail over which they may profitably follow.

SPUD GROWERS TALK PROBLEMS

Buyers' Representative Says
Industry Here Must Bestir
Itself to Keep Pace

Problems of production of more and better potatoes and their marketing occupied the attention of a group of about 50 potato growers assembled Wednesday afternoon in the Parish hall here under auspices of the county farm bureau.

Other Districts Progressing.
It behooves Twin Falls district growers to bestir themselves to retain their position of advantage in the potato market. Mr. DeLong told the meeting. New fields of production with this season be developed in Wyoming; Utah growers this year will operate for the first time under a brand; while growers of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan this season will continue the system of compulsory grading which was inaugurated last year and which enabled them to place their potatoes on the market on a parity with the Idaho product. Mr. DeLong informed the growers.

Operation of the compulsory grade system and the practice of marketing potatoes under brand in other districts tends to put the product of these districts on a level in the market with that of the Twin Falls district, so that buyers last year were placed in a position where they could offer for the Twin Falls product only as much as was paid for potatoes of similar grade produced in other districts. This resulted in a price to the grower here that was less by the amount of the difference in freight rates than the price paid in other districts.

Twin Falls' Advantages.
On the other hand, Mr. DeLong pointed out, the percentage of calls grown in this district is considerably less than in any other district, and the Twin Falls country supplies the country's demand for "bakery."

James Schley, district manager for the Americanized Sugar company, addressed the meeting briefly on provisions of the company's 1922 contract for sugar beets.

Members of the committee named to attend the conference Sunday on marketing methods are Joel Hammons, E. S. Wood and W. R. Hays.

DR. J. H. MURPHY APPOINTED.

Temperature last night, for the second time this year, held above freezing point and the low point was reached at 33 degrees above zero, according to reports of the government weather observer here. Yesterday's high was 55 above.
