POLICE COURT MADE SCENE OF POLITICAL MOVE

Defense of Cooney and Kingswald, Charged with Being Drunk, is Based on Attitude in Election; Jury Disagrees

Scenes unparalleled in the history of the police court in Twin Falls were enacted Monday afternoon and evening in Judge Paul R. Taber's court in the trial before a jury of six men of Tom Cooney and Andy Kingswald, who previously had pleaded not guilty to a charge of having been drunk on the night of March 28, following the commission form election in Twin Falls.

After two hours deliberations, the jury at 10 o'clock reported its inability to agree upon a verdict and it was discharged. Repeated ballots of the jury are reported to have stood four for conviction and two for acquittal. Retrial of the case was set for next Monday afternoon.

An audience of about 100 persons, composed largely of sympathizers with the accused men, crowded into the courtroom where the trial was in progress, and more than half the number waited about the room and building until the jury was discharged.

Suggests Political Motive.

Homor C. Mills, chairman of the commission form committee, as attorney for Cooney and Kingswald, developed the case for the defense on the theory that the accused men were the victims of an attack by the arresting officer, inspired by the disappointment over the election. The court ruled against the admission of testimony of M. E. Atkinson and P. M. Torr which, Mills said, would have tended to show that Irl Rigney, the arresting officer, in a street corner conversation had sworn to drive all the advocates of the commission form out of town.

Cooney, on the stand in his own defense, admitted having had "two drinks of poor grade moonshine" on the night of his arrest, and Kingswald said he had had about three. The arrest was made at about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in the vicinity of labor hall on Second street and Third avenue east.

The stories of Cooney and Kingswald dovetailed nicely. Cooney said that Kingswald had been struck over the head by the officer without provocation and before any arrest had been made. When Cooney remonstrated, he said, charging the officer with being "sore" over the results of the election Cooney himself was attacked and struck four times over the head, he testified. Kingswald, however, had the impression that Cooney was struck first.

Officer Gives Version.

The arresting officer, on the stand, said that the trouble started by Cooney who, he said, made the point that though he had a gun. The officer struck Kingswald, and turned about to find Kingswald bearing down upon him. He testified Kingswald with a blow of his club which Cooney then seized with both hands. The officer drew his gun and ordered Cooney to get out of the club. He started then to lead Cooney and Kingswald toward the police station. Cooney threatened to strike the officer and the club was again called into play, landing three times on Cooney's head. There was no further trouble and the situation was quiet when Patrolman W. A. Austin, responding to summons of women who had been awakened by the disturbance and of Rigney, arrived on the scene.

Sentences on Stand.

Testimony of several residents of the vicinity of the arrest was introduced both for the prosecution by City Attorney Taylor Cummins and for the defense.

Selection of the jury and presentation of evidence occupied almost four hours. Court recessed at 6 o'clock until 7:30, when a half hour was devoted to arguments of attorneys, before the case went to the jury.

Members of the jury were J. W. Leedom, G. O. Havens, G. S. Avant, P. L. Shensberger, T. J. Waldman, J. D. Rogers.

A regular meeting of the city council convened before the conclusion of the trial in adjoining rooms of the streets and waterworks commissioner.

The program was under direction of the Pythian Sisters, and was a rare arrangement. Opening with a series of dark melodies, the Pythian Sisters, Mrs. Sturtevant and Messrs. Ball and Ball, the crowd was set in harmony for the delights which followed rapidly.

CALLS FREIGHT TARIFF UNJUST

Utilities Commission Orders Short Line to Revise the Branch Line Rates

BOISE—Proposed freight rates from distributing points on the Mackay, Aberdeen and Ketchum branch lines are unjust and the Oregon Short Line must file a supplemental tariff correcting the discrimination, the state utilities commission decided at the conclusion of a public hearing here Monday.

The hearing was called as a result of a complaint filed by the Boise Chamber of Commerce charging discrimination against several towns in Idaho in favor of Pocatello. The hearing brought out that Idaho Falls was discriminated against in favor of Pocatello on the Mackay and Aberdeen branches and that Boise was treated unjustly in regard to the shipment of commodities on the Ketchum branch from Shoshone.

The commission further decided that a hearing should be held at some time in the near future to consider the matter of effecting a scale of class and commodity rates for the state, and the secretary of the commission was instructed to give notice to all railways in the state together with a general notice to commercial bodies and shippers.

Leonard Way, secretary of the Southern Idaho Traffic association, appeared as intervenor at Monday's hearing, to urge revision of intrastate freight rates to place all shipping points on a common basis.

TRAFFIC LAW OFFENDERS SWELL RECORD OF POLICE

Thirty-Three Out of 74 Arrests in March are for Breaking Traffic Rules

Violations of Twin Falls traffic ordinances were responsible for 33 out of 74 total arrests made by the police force during the month of March, according to the report of Chief of Police Ben J. Brown, presented to the city council at its meeting Monday evening. In addition 99 persons were warned during the month for minor violations of traffic regulations.

There were 25 arrests during the month for drunkenness; one for fighting; four for vagrancy; one for carrying concealed weapons; eight for misdemeanors involving violation of state laws, and five for violation of various city ordinances.

The total amount of fines imposed by the police court was $738.50.

Thirteen persons were warned of the police for minor violations of various ordinances, and a total of 29 complaints was investigated. Ten boys and four girls were reported as violators of the curfew ordinance.

COUNCIL FINDS IRREGULARITIES IN VOTING COST

Disallows Claim Presented by H. H. Friedheim as Judge, for "Constable" Pay for Commission Form Watcher

Acting upon a statement of facts supporting assertion of Sidney L. Johnston that he protested "as a member of the election board and as a citizen and taxpayer against padding the election payrolls," the city council Monday evening disallowed a claim turned in by H. H. Friedheim one of the judges of election, for $450 as compensation for H. H. Kinsley for services as "constable" at the Second ward polling place in the commission form election March 28. Johnston served as one of the judges of election in this ward.

The council was advised that Kinsley had not been sworn in as an election official, but that when he had appeared at the polling place in the morning he had been introduced by Friedheim as a "watcher" for the commission form committee bearing credentials signed by E. F. Walton and Homer C. Mills. Friedheim acting as judge for the commission form party, swore in all of the judges and clerks of election in this ward. The officials early in the day decided against employing additional help because of expense involved.

"Kinsley did nothing during the day but sit in a corner and watch the election," he was entitled to do under his credentials," the council was advised.

Inspection of the payroll turned in indicated that the claims of Friedheim and of Kinsley were written in the same handwriting.

Solves Commissioner's Problems

Outside of its action on claims against the city treasury, the council's attention was occupied by three problems presented through the office of the streets commissioner and in consideration of monthly reports of officers.

Correction of house numbers and renumbering of residences in districts east of Blue Lakes boulevard was decided upon by the council, with a vote to employ Charles W. Seldel, insurance surveyor for a San Francisco map company who is just completing a new writers map of Twin Falls, to co-operate with the street commissioner in this work. The fee of the surveyor is to be $40 and includes delivery to the city of a map on which the proper house number for each lot whether vacant or occupied will be indicated. Under the new scheme numbering of houses on each avenue east of the boulevard will begin with 1000.

Residents of Yeatman, addition whose property fronts on Heyburn avenue, appearing before the council with Edwin N. Day as their spokesman, were given assurance that the street commissioner and city engineer would inquire into their request for co-operation as between the city and highway district in removal of trees and grading of Heyburn avenue in an effort to solve the boundary line between the city and highway district.

Takes Up Water Problem.

G. W. Dean, owner of acreage property in the Moorman addition, also was promising to file official notice against himself in an effort to solve his problem of obtaining irrigation water for this property. Erosion of the ditch from which water is supposed to be delivered to this land had lowered the water level below the floor of the headgate. The question presented is as to whether the canal company or the city is responsible for delivery of water.

The council authorized payment of claims against the general obligation fund in the sum of $4,902.03, against the waterworks fund in the sum of $1,571.96, and against the street sprinkling fund in the sum of $55.20.

WAY MAKES PROPOSALS TO NAMPA AND CALDWELL

Traffic Expert Offers to Place Services at Disposal of the Boise Valley Towns

NAMPA, Idaho—Leonard Way, secretary of the Southern Idaho Traffic association with headquarters at Twin Falls, Tuesday evening proposed to business men here the establishment of a traffic bureau in Nampa. He offered to put an office in Nampa for $3000 a year or to give merchants here the benefit of the service of the Twin Falls office for $1000 a year. A committee was named to investigate the proposal. Substantially the same proposition was made by Mr. Way in Caldwell except that it was not proposed to establish an office there. Financing of the proposition seems to be the stumbling block in both Caldwell and Nampa, it was said Thursday.

Mr. Way has been here for several days appearing before the state public utilities commission in opposition to the Oregon Short Line's proposal to reduce passenger train service on several branch lines in Idaho.

COUNTRY CLUB INCORPORATION PAPERS FILED

Non-Profit Corporation Formed by Twin Falls Men to Develop Blue Lakes Ranch for Recreational Purposes

Articles of incorporation for the Blue Lakes Country club, whose directors hold a contract for the purchase from Mrs. Horstene Perrius of the famous Blue Lakes ranch in Snake river canyon just north of Twin Falls, were today filed in the office of the county recorder.

The directors named are C. E. Booth, L. L. Brackenkridge, J. S. Bunsell, E. Ostrander, John W. Graham, Leonard E. Smith, L. T. Wright, Arthur L. Swin and J. S. Keel.

No Capital Stock

Purpose of the corporation, which is organized on a non-profit basis with no capital stock, as set forth in its articles, are to establish, maintain and promote social, intercourse, athletics and recreation.

It is authorized under its articles to construct and establish golf grounds, bath houses, dance halls, club houses, baseball grounds, hot-springs, lunch-rooms and other structures deemed necessary for the attainment of its objects.

Membership Limited

Membership in the club is limited to 150 persons, although this number is susceptible of being increased. At the time of the organization of the club, February 1, there were 12 members on its rolls. Since that time several additional applications for membership have been received. It is said to be the plan of the incorporators to limit the membership to 125 residents of Twin Falls and 25 residents of other towns.

Membership in the club does not convey to the member a possessory interest in the club's property.

The life of the corporation is to be for 50 years. At the expiration of that time, it is suggested by the members of the board of directors, the property may be turned over gratuitously to the city of Twin Falls.

It is the purpose of the directors to expend approximately $10,000 each year for improvement of grades leading down the canyon walls on either side of the river to the lake and property. Plans have been prepared for construction of roadways of minimum grade, 18 feet in width, and enclosed with rock walls.

Attorneys for the club were today inquiring into the abstract of title to the Blue Lakes property, which the club's directors have contracted to pay Mrs. Perrius $50,000.

Phillip Buck of Two Man Team Representing University Debaters Against Chicago Debaters

University of Idaho's debate team which lost by vote of three to two, a debate on the subject of Chicago two-man team here Friday evening was composed of Walter Greathouse of Boise, and Phillip Buck, former Twin Falls high school student.

Phillip Buck, a youthful arguer, of Twin Falls, says the Idaho Statesman, worked with a more spectacular mode of delivery than his teammate, coupling his confidence with an engaging smile in a natural manner. This mannerism was noticeably lacking in the presence of any of the other speakers. The delivery of Chicago speech for the negative, were clear and self-evident, and his logic was sound.

The question for the debate was: Resolved, That Congress should Enact Legislation Compelling Arbitration in All Labor Disputes of Public Service Corporations.

Governor D. W. Davis of Idaho presided and the judges were Chief Justice Rice, Justice Budge of the state supreme court and Judge F. A. Dietrich of the federal district court.

TAX COMMITTEE ADVISES SLASH IN OFFICIALS' PAY

Recommends That $1,500 Be Maximum Salary Paid Minidoka County Officer

RUEBIT—Material reductions in the salaries of county officials of Minidoka county are urged in resolutions addressed to the board of county commissioners by the Citizens' Committee on Taxation, of which E. E. Fisher is chairman and W. W. Mattison secretary.

Effective January 1, 1923, the committee's resolution urges that salaries of the treasurer, treasurer, be slashed by $2000 from $2000 to $1500; auditor and recorder from $1800 to $1500; county superintendent of public instruction from $1500 to $1200; probate judge from $1800 to $1200; prosecuting attorney from $1350 to $1200; coroner and surveyor each $100.

The committee, in its recommendation, points out to the commissioners the following alleged facts:

Minidoka county was third in territorial size nearly one-third by the creation of Jerome county.

Two independent school districts have been created within the county, materially lessening the jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools.

The entire county has been organized into highway districts—thus eliminating almost completely the handling, issuance, etc., of road and bridge bills and warrants by the auditor and treasurer.

Adjoining precinct and the adjacent dry farm region is almost depopulated.

LUKE PAINTED AS VICTIM OF SPITE

Jury in Police Court Disagrees in Case of Auctioneer Held as Drunk

H. B. Lue, auctioneer, at his trial before a jury in police court here Tuesday afternoon on a charge of having been drunk, was by the defense depicted as a man being persecuted by the police because of his adherence to the commission form of city government adopted at a special election here on March 28.

After two and one-half hours deliberations, the jury reported that it was unable to agree upon a verdict, and was discharged. The vote of the jury is reported to have stood four for acquittal and two for conviction. Retrial of the case has been set for next Tuesday afternoon.

Submits Without Argument

A crowd of about 100 men occupied all available standing room in the courtroom during the progress of the trial and many stood about until the result of the jury's deliberations was announced.

The case for the prosecution was by City Attorney Taylor Cummins submitted without argument after he had introduced the testimony of Irl Rigney, the arresting officer; Chief of Police Ben J. Brown, Patrolman W. A. Austin and John E. Gilgerrim, street and waterworks commissioner, to the effect that Lue was drunk when he was arrested.

Lue admitted having had several drinks of beer during the day and that Schropell, his companion when the arrest was made, said that Lue might have been drinking but that he did not consider him drunk. Schropell said that he had been endeavoring for some time to take Lue home to avoid "trouble."

Homor C. Mills, attorney for the defense, submitted testimony of one man to corroborate Lue's statement that Rigney in a conversation with the election, had told Lue that he would "get him." Another man said that he had seen Rigney before the arrest was made and Rigney was saying to himself, "Now is the time to get him." Another man said that he had seen Lue on his way to the police station and that Lue was drunk.

Claims Impachment

Mills, in his argument to the jury, claimed that the defense had impeached the testimony of Rigney, who had denied making any threats against Lue, and asked that all of Rigney's testimony be disregarded. He accounted for the testimony of the other officers on the grounds that the policemen would naturally tell the same story.

Monday afternoon the jury was told by W. C. Denke, Harry Eaton, B. E. Bonham, J. E. Weaver, Robert Benson, C. H. Howard.

Preventative Medicine

"The tendency of medical science is toward preventative measures. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. The public who are most susceptible to the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, often follow a cold or attack of the grip. The cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the pneumonia germ. It is longer the cold lingers on, the greater the danger. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the first indication of a cold appears so as to get rid of it with the least possible trouble. It is folly to risk an attack of pneumonia when this remedy may be obtained for a trifle.—adv.

TRAIN SERVICE CUT TRESHED OUT AT HEARING

Arguments for Curtailment by Short Line Representatives are Met with Facts and Figures by Opponents

Because train service on the Twin Falls-Rogerson branch is an independent factor of the Oregon Short Line system, it is being operated at a loss, the Short Line is seeking to curtail passenger train service and reduce the number of trains operating on the branch to one every other day except Sunday, according to testimony and evidence adduced by representatives of the railroad at a hearing here Tuesday before members of the state public utilities commission on the application of the Short Line for permission to effect this curtailment.

Bad Effects Shown.
Residents of communities served by the branch, through Leonard Ward, secretary of the Southern Idaho Traffic association, and through the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, argued in opposition to the Short Line's proposal that curtailment of train service would cause suffering and hardship to the communities in the district directly affected. It would deprive them of daily mail service and shipments of perishable products, and that it would tend to depress land values and cause other evils.

Persons who attended the hearing expressed confidence that the railroad company would not be permitted to curtail train service on the Rogerson branch in view of the showing in opposition to the proposal.

Commissioners conducting this hearing were J. M. Thompson of Caldwell, and Capt. E. M. Stowell of Twin Falls. They were assisted by Captain A. H. Conner, attorney for the commission. The case for the railroad was presented by F. H. Knickerbocker, general superintendent of the Oregon Short Line, and J. O. Moran, attorney.

Sessions of the hearings which began shortly after 2 o'clock in the afternoon were resumed in the evening and continued until almost midnight.

Starts Spirited Debate.
A spirited discussion arose when John W. Graham, formerly a member of the public utilities commission, introduced Knickerbocker to the extent of saying expected to result from the proposed curtailment of train service. It was developed that the crew which operates the branch train during about three hours each day is needed during the remainder of the day in switching in the Twin Falls yards. Graham insisted that the only saving would be about three hours more switching time.

The chamber of commerce bureau was unopposed in its efforts to introduce into the record newspaper clippings which showed that the branch line paid 8 per cent on its investment as shown by its last annual report. It was balked also in an attempt to introduce into the record the previous commission of Oregon directing the Oregon Short Line to continue train service on non-paying branch lines out of Ontario, Ore.

Accepts Maps Offered.
The commission took into consideration the bureau's request that the Short Line show the tonnage and passenger incomes for the past five years, and the past year only, and the bureau introduced maps showing the territory dependent upon the Rogerson branch and its resources, together with petitions from all of the communities affected. In support of the contention that there are no surfaced roads between Twin Falls and Rogerson, over which stage lines might be operated in the winter months, the bureau presented a map prepared by the Twin Falls highway district showing actual road conditions.

In reply to objection by Captain Conner, the railroad superintendent stated that it was the Short Line's purpose to maintain curtailed service only during such times as regular service could not be operated at a profit.

Other Hearings Scheduled.
The hearing here was the fourth that has been held by the commission on the Short Line's application which proposes curtailment of train service on branch lines generally throughout the state. Previous hearings had been held at Nampa, Cascade, Emmett and Wilder.

The fifth hearing of the series of hearings is in progress today at Oakley, and subsequent hearings are scheduled to be held at Burley, Jerome, Mackay, Driggs, Halley and Fairview. The hearing at Fairview is scheduled to take place April 19.

MORE JOBS AND LESS COMMISSION CHAIRMAN
WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Employment conditions throughout the country continue to improve, according to reports received during the past two days at the previous conference on unemployment, Arthur Woods, chairman of the emergency commission, announced today.

The upward trend, Mr. Woods said, "while not great, still continues to hold, with the number of jobs available slightly increased, coupled with a corresponding decrease in the number of applicants—a most hopeful sign."

CONGRESS REINSTATES AMERICAN FALLS FUND

Provision for Purchase of a Townsite to Make Way for Reservoir Restored

POCATELLO, Idaho, (Special)—A telegram here and received by Congressman Addison T. Smith by the manager of the Idaho Reclamation association, stating that the irrigation committee of the house had voted unanimously to reinstate the bill, which is the same as the McNary bill favorably reported to the senate.

If this so-called McNary bill should pass the congress and be approved this session, which seems likely, it would mean that the proposed super-district in the Snake River valley would be in a position to market its lands under more favorable terms than the old bond market. There would be a longer period and possibly a lower rate of interest.

In any event, it would be necessary to form the district, as such, are the requirements of the McNary-Smith bill. Therefore, if the big district should be formed it would be just that which the McNary-Smith bill has become a law.

HALTS ACTION TOWARD TOWN OF MANAGER PLAN

Court Order Obtained by Commission Form Leader Suspends Proceedings for Second Municipal Election

Registration and all further proceedings toward the holding of a special city election April 19 to determine whether the city manager plan shall be put into effect for Twin Falls were halted by issuance of a writ of prohibition ordered by Judge W. A. Babcock upon application of E. F. Walton as the plaintiff in an action for this purpose instituted late Friday afternoon against Mayor P. W. McRoberts, Councilmen W. E. Sanger, Craig T. Bracken, C. H. Kregel and C. P. Bowles and the city of Twin Falls.

The writ was on Saturday served by Sheriff E. R. Sherman upon the officials named.

Temporary Suspension.
The effect of the order is to restrain and prohibit proceedings as to the election until April 7, and "until the further order of the court." The officials named are required on April 7 to show cause in court why they should not be absolutely restrained and prohibited from any further proceedings in the election. As grounds for his action Walton alleges that the commission form of city government, adopted with a margin of 63 at a special election March 28, became effective six years from that date. He charges also that 30 of the signers of the petition for the city manager election "did not disclose their names in that election because they gave their age as being 'legal age'." Deduction of these 30 names from the city manager plan would leave a total of 662 signatures or 12 less than the 25 per cent necessary to authorize the election, Walton charges. Finally he charges that the expense of the election proceedings would exceed the amount of the collection of each voter would cost at least 25 cents making a total of $750, and that the cost of the election would be approximately $150.

Lists Questioned Signers.
Walton lists 30 names of signers of the city manager plan petition as persons who "did not disclose their qualifications as voters," and suggests that their names be stricken from the petition. All of the signers named are women and he lists includes the names of Jennie Larson, Eva L. Simpson, Florence D. Heap, Mrs. Jennie Swensen, Mrs. J. H. Cherry, Mrs. Morrison, Dora G. Ross, Mabel Parker, Eva Martin, Georgia Martin, Kathryn Brown, Mrs. J. W. Whitely, Marie Hall, Mary Ann, Mrs. Phil Phelps, Alice Abt, Edna Y. Plink, Mahel Ashbury, Mrs. W. O. Chapin, Mrs. C. H. Crowl, Mrs. J. J. Keck, Mrs. L. E. Drake, Charlotte Bond, Adelia Peterson, Judith Hedquist, Mrs. W. C. Hammond, Cecil C. Wootley, E. F. Drickel, E. H. Fox, Mrs. E. O. Walton, the complainant in this action, was not a member of the commission form campaign committee, although he is secretary of the city of Mills, chairman of the committee with dividing the plan of action for the commission form campaign.

BUY ICE FOR LETTUCE
Marketing Agency Contracts for Refrigerating Material for the Local Crop

Contract for purchase of between 700 and 800 tons of ice for use in shipment of the Twin Falls district's head lettuce crop this year, has been entered into with a Twin Falls manufacturer by George F. Prince, representing the California Vegetable union, the marketing agency selected by the organization of head lettuce growers in Idaho.

Completion of negotiations for the purchase of the ice was announced today at the county farm bureau office. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO OPPOSE TRAINS CUT

Railroads Bureau Outlines Procedure at Hearing on Short Line Proposal

Plans for the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce railroad bureau's intervention in behalf of communities tributary to the Rogerson branch at a hearing before the state public utilities commission here next Tuesday were worked out at a meeting of bureau members Friday afternoon. The bureau will present a brief setting forth its grounds for opposition to the Oregon Short Line's proposal for curtailment of passenger train service on the Rogerson branch, which is the subject for the hearing before the state commission. It expects to support "the claims set forth in this brief by testimony and by petitions received from the communities tributary to the branch, and Jarbidge, Nevada, and Three Creek, as well as from communities along the branch."

The railroad bureau is composed of F. W. Dunke, G. H. Seif, E. S. Johnson, F. W. Brough and John R. Taylor. With the beginning of construction of the American Falls reservoir project on the railroad line south from Twin Falls, the chamber of commerce advertising bureau will launch an intensive advertising campaign, according to decision reached at a bureau meeting. The bureau in this connection approved plans for preparation of a new pamphlet descriptive of Twin Falls and its opportunities, and the use of letters bearing advertising matter for Twin Falls on its back.

DECLARES VOTE ON SALMON VOID

District Court Decision Wipes Out Proceedings of Hollister Meeting

Under a decision just handed down by Judge T. Bailey Lee in district court at Burley, the personnel of the Salmon River Canal company's board of directors remain as it was following the company's annual meeting and election in 1921, and proceedings of a meeting at Hollister February 10, 1922, and the election of successors to three of the members of the board, are wiped out of the slate.

Sustains Demurrer
The court's decision sustains a demurrer and motion to strike offered by Broome and other defendants in a suit to enforce a contract for the sale of the company's stock owned. The meeting elected R. A. Carter, E. E. Babcock and B. S. Kunkle as directors to succeed G. H. Hall, E. B. Darlington and A. G. Howell.

Nullifies Election
Persons attending the meeting at Hollister last February voted for directors on a basis of land held by each voter rather than on the basis of company stock owned. The meeting elected R. A. Carter, E. E. Babcock and B. S. Kunkle as directors to succeed G. H. Hall, E. B. Darlington and A. G. Howell.

Judge Lee's decision in the case has been communicated to T. K. Hackman, an attorney for Broome, and to G. H. Hall and Howell, attorneys for Glavin and others.

HOUSE COMMITTEE FOR SMITH-MCNARY MEASURE

POCATELLO, Idaho, (Special)—Congressman Addison T. Smith has wired Guy Flenner, manager of the Idaho Reclamation association, that the provision to the appropriation bill which would purchase of land for the proposed project of the Snake River valley to be restored and will be in the law when approved. This provision has previously been eliminated in the house.

The rehabilitation of this appropriation means that the government will have funds available to move the townsite of American Falls to the site of the reservoir project shall not be abandoned. This depends wholly upon the inclusion of the farmers in the Snake River valley to participate in its construction. If they approve the plan to organize the super-district for the purpose of financing their obligation to the government in connection with the reservoir the great project will be completed with the least possible delay. The government's part of the project is to be completed according to those in charge of the district campaign it is now exclusively up to the land owners of the Snake River valley.

OIL CITY GROWS LIKE MUSHROOM

Shidler was Barren Waste in December; Has Energy, Wealth and Romance

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., (AP)—Like mushrooms that spring up overnight, Oklahoma's oil towns have pushed their way into existence from the barren prairie or the rock-strewn hillside. In the wake of the "wildcat," the lease sale and the inevitable derricks, these towns have reached their growth in a twinkling and flourished on the golden pool of oil found at the end of the rainbow. With their ungodly buildings of flaring structure, these ephemeral villages, hazy on the trail of the oil scout who has crossed hill and dale in search of the underground treasures of petroleum.

Shidler the Latest
The latest addition to Oklahoma's oil towns is Shidler. A few months ago this site was known only as the south west quarter of section 28, in Osage county. But that was before the Osage lease sale held in Pawhuska last December, when oil companies and promoters said $8,000,000 for lease on Indian lands. Then drilling began, and what had been barren plain, on the morning of the site of the town of Shidler. Shidler has a schoolhouse, five towns of more than 100 people. It was built from funds donated by lumber companies when a school census revealed that 42 children in the village needed a chance at the "Three R's." Then, too, Shidler is a railroad terminus, for the 12-mile line of steel from Ponoka comes to an abrupt end in this oil-man's village. And it has its romance. Several months before Shidler sprang from the prairie, T. A. Gale, a young engineer, married an Osage Indian girl, the owner of many acres of oil land and the future village. Now the Gales live in town, along with hundreds of other folk.

White-Bang Booms
While the word familiar to the Anglo-American found in the trenches in France—was the oil town sensation before Shidler popped into the world. It, too, is located in the Osage Indian country and started as natives with its sudden growth and oil production. A law-abiding and profitable town, however, started a vice-ridden village which ended in the arrest of the sheriff, after trial at the county seat of Pawhuska, and now White-Bang is famed. The original owner of the town-site was Miss Eileen De Nova, 19 years old, a high school girl. Only recently Miss De Nova sold her holdings and the town dropped its war-time euphoria and adopted the more prosaic De Nova.

ABANDONED FLAG IS DRAPED OVER CASKET OF EXILED MONARCH

FUNCHAL, Madeira, (AP)—Perfect weather marked the funeral of former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary yesterday. The coffin, covered with the old Austrian-Hungarian flag and smothered with floral tributes and wreaths, was lowered to the temporary mausoleum erected in the parish church. The ceremony was impressive and was attended by members of the former royal family and their suite. The burial was conducted by the bishop in full robes and his attending clergy.

The state to the church was lined with people, and nothing but respect was shown, as the procession passed.

A plaster cast of Charles' features was made Tuesday by a Portuguese artist.

The hydroplane they are using is only 15 hours' flight. The aviators arrived at St. Vincent two hours ahead of their schedule, making the flight from Gondo bay near Sao Paulo, Cape Verde islands, at the rate of 118 kilometers (about 92 miles) an hour.

"Pigs is Pigs" Issue is Raised by Coyote and Red Tape Rules

PORTLAND, Ore., (AP)—When one coyote is captured and eleven coyote pups are turned in, how many bounties is the hunter entitled to?

That is what Stanley G. Jewett, in charge of predatory animal work for the United States biological survey in Oregon, would like to have somebody tell him authoritatively.

Albert Peterson of Ukiah, set a coyote trap a few days ago. When he went to visit it he found a female coyote and around her ten baby coyotes, born after her incarceration. Peterson killed them all, then wrote Jewett to inquire how many bounties he was entitled to under the circumstances. Jewett confessed himself stumped, and a ruling from Washington will be required.

TODAY'S MARKETS

SELLING FOR STORAGE
BREAKS BULL IN WHEAT

Early Advances are Overcome by Declined Recession in Prices—Oats Climbs Little

CHICAGO, (AP)—Unfavorable crop reports from the Southwest tended to bring about higher prices for wheat today during the early dealings. A leading expert advised that the crop in general was very good and was likely to deteriorate in a rapid manner if weather proved as dry as usual during May. Comparative firmness of Liverpool quotations helped also to lift values here. The opening, which varied from unchanged figures to 7-8c higher, with May $1.29 7/8 to 1.30 1/8 and July $1.18 3/4 to 1.19 was followed by moderate gains around and then something of a reaction.

Subsequently, selling of wheat to go into storage here led to a decided setback in the price of May delivery which went to 12c over July, as against 15c over on one time earlier in the week. The close was unsettled, with May at $1.30 1/4 to 1.30 3/8 and July $1.18 7/8 to 1.19.

Wet weather was more or less responsible for an upturn in prices of corn and oats. After opening 1-8c off to a shade advance, July 61 1/2c, the corn market scored fair general gains.

Later the market eased off somewhat with wheat. The close was unsettled at 3-8 to 1 1/8c net advance, with July at 62 to 62 1/2c.

Oats started at 1-8c decline to a like advance, July 38 3/4 to 38 7/8, and then climbed a little in all the deliveries.

Provisions were easier notwithstanding higher quotations on hogs. Smallness of provision shipments from here as compared with a year ago attracted considerable interest.

TO BEGIN WORK ON ROAD OVER GALENA SUMMIT

Fred Ramsay of Forest Service to Leave This Week and Commence Opening of Highway into Stanley Basin

Galena summit now has 90 inches of snow on an average with an even greater amount in some spots along the road, according to figures compiled by Fred Ramsay of the forest service, as compiled April 3.

Upon April 3 the actual amount of snow on hand at various points in the Wood River watershed was as follows: Halley, 28 inches; Soldier Creek, 28 inches; Ketchum, 35 inches; Winslow's ranch, 40 inches; Ruston John's, 74 inches; Maseet, 57 inches; Galea summit, 90 inches; Old Galea, 82 inches.

Mr. Ramsay will leave on Saturday of this week to take up his season's duties with the forest service, the first of which will be to begin the work of opening up the road over the summit. He will go to Ketchum by stage and outfit at last point for the spring work. A party of six men will work under his direction and the start from Ketchum will be made on snowshoes with toboggans to carry tent, bedding and provisions.

Travel Is Slow.

Mr. Ramsay says it will probably take two days to make the trip from Ketchum to old Galea.

Work on the clearing of the road over the summit will be commenced at old Galea and continue to the top of the divide. Sand and gravel will be hauled on small sleds and spread over the roadbed from small pits opened at intervals for the purpose. The action of the sun on the sand and gravel covered snow results in a much more rapid melting. Where the road is lined with trees those on the south side may be cleared away to facilitate the sun's action.

Mr. Ramsey gives it as his opinion that the road over the summit will be open by June 15, but in view of existing conditions it will take the hardest kind of work to bring this about.

The entire party of six will camp on the job until the work is finished or the road in shape for travel.

The women of the Christian Church will have their annual bazaar and cafeteria dinner in the basement of the church on Friday, April 7th. The bazaar will be open at 1 p.m. with a display of beautiful and practical articles offered at very reasonable prices. The dinner will be served at 6 o'clock.—adv.

PLANS ARE DEVELOPED TO FIGHT PROHIBITION

Undertake Repeal of Volstead Act, and Delegation of Authority to States

NEW YORK, (AP)—Leaders of the Association Against the Prohibition amendment, had completed today arrangements for a membership rally to be held tonight in Carnegie hall. Announcements of the meeting detailed the purposes of the association as follows:

"To get the Volstead act out of the law and keep it out.

"To oppose the passage of similar tyrannical laws and to endeavor to have the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment (so long as it remains in force) left to the people of the several states under the concurrent clause.

"To work patiently, lawfully and patriotically for the real repeal of the prohibition amendment and to preserve the constitution of the United States from further mutilation from a fanatical minority.

"Pending the accomplishment of the above program, to favor and encourage obedience to the prohibition laws now in effect."

WALTON SEEKS TO PROSECUTE CITY OFFICERS

Charges Mayor and Councilmen Liable to Heavy Fine and Jail Sentence for Failure to Boost City Tax Levies

E. F. Walton has called upon Prosecuting Attorney Frank L. Stephan to institute criminal proceedings against Mayor P. W. McRoberts and the board of councilmen comprising G. H. Koenig, C. P. Bowles, W. E. Sangor and Craig T. Bracken.

Walton alleges the mayor and councilmen are liable under the criminal code for neglect last spring to levy taxes to raise $4000 for the waterworks sinking fund. The penalty upon conviction is fine in the amount that should have been levied and imprisonment.

Situation Not Clear.

Mr. Stephan Saturday said he had not made a study of the law and facts involved sufficient to justify any action by his office at this time. Walton was today to return to the prosecuting attorney's office for the reply to his demand which was made Thursday afternoon.

Immediately after the demand was made, the prosecuting attorney called Taylor Cummings, city attorney, in conference.

Mr. Stephan indicated that in his opinion the provisions of the ordinance under which the levy in question is alleged to have been made mandatory upon the council, was ambiguous.

Records of the city indicate that no levy for this purpose has ever been made by any council.

Alternative Provisions.

It is contended in some quarters that payment into the waterworks sinking fund might have been made either from the proceeds of tax levy or from receipts of the waterworks office.

Twin Falls' city tax levy last year, outside of levies for special improvements, was $2,800 against each $100 of valuation. The total valuation was $9,167,474, and the amount of taxes raised by this levy was $2,800,000.

Because of the fact that the city treasury was without funds and because of a desire to save every dollar possible to Twin Falls taxpayers Mayor McRoberts said, the present administration when it took office did not deem it advisable to put the city to an expense of several hundred dollars for an audit which would have no effect on the status of the waterworks situation.

Instead the new administration retained as assistant in the office of the city treasurer, the outgoing incumbent to assist in the present audit of the budget, and the council was guided in its action as to budget and tax levies by the recommendations of the city treasurer and his assistant.

Commissioner's Leader.

Walton, who made the complaint in this matter, is the instigator of outside actions which resulted in the removal of the first board of Twin Falls highway district commissioners and three members of the board of education of the Twin Falls school district.

He is credited by Homer C. Mills, chairman of the commission form campaign, with planning the details of the removal of the commission form campaign including the bringing of suit against the Warren Construction company for collection of $100,000 damages in connection with the removal of the money paid or to be paid for pavement and curbing built here by the construction company in 1921.

Some political opponents here today indicated their belief that Walton's present move is designed to intimidate possible candidates for mayor and councilmen under the commission form at an election he called to be held in about 60 days.

WIFE AND TOTS ARE PENILESS

Gotham's Streets Whirl Giddy Jazz Hence Yohnson Calls Cop

NEW YORK, (AP) — When Joseph Yohnson saw the corner of Lexington avenue and Ninety-seventh street going around like a merry-go-round last night, he took judgment told him he ought to be punished for the way his worse judgment had been behaving in the matter of obeying prohibition laws.

So he looked up and down the whirling streets for a policeman. There was none in sight. He shuffled over to the police signal box.

He took down the receiver and when headquarters answered, he said: "Gee, this is me. Please send a cop to remove myself. Myself is annoying me simply awful."

The lights flashed on neighborhood signal boxes. Quickly a policeman came running.

"Officers, do your duty," commanded Mr. Yohnson. They did. They turned that Yohnson, dealer in hops and malt, had patronized himself.

He was haled into police court today and let off with a $3 fine.

AGRICULTURAL COMMITTEE UNANIMOUSLY VOTES MUSCLE SHOALS APPROPRIATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP) — Resumption of work on the gigantic Wilson dam at Muscle Shoals, Ala., under charge of army engineers was recommended today by the senate agriculture committee which voted unanimously to press an amendment to the army supply bill providing an appropriation of $7,500,000 to finance work on the dam for one year beginning next.

Committee members agreed with Chairman Norris that the action was taken solely in order to expedite completion of the project and was entirely without prejudice to the offer for its operation, completion, purchase or lease received by the government from Henry Ford, the Alabama Power company and Frederick E. Engelhart.

Assailant Crushes Heads of Five Boys and Their Father

CONCORDIA, Kan., (AP) — Theodore Tremblay, 18-year-old farmer boy was slain with an axe at his home last night, three brothers, 14, 12 and 10 years old, respectively, and a new death with their heads crushed and the father of the boys, L. J. Tremblay, a trustee of Shilby township and an other eight-year-old son, were injured. The assailant is unknown.

After the attack the slayers set fire to the house and barn. Neighbors seeing the blaze early this morning, went to the Tremblay home and rescued the unconscious victims.

ARBUCKLE TELLS HIS OWN STORY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., (AP) — Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle took the stand today to tell his own story in the third trial of the manslaughter charge against him resulting from the death of Miss Virginia Rappe.

Arbuckle followed Dr. George Franklin Shields, defense medical expert, and one of the defense attorneys in the first trial of Harry K. Thaw for the alleged murder of Blanche White.

Arbuckle smiled as he took the stand. He said he knew Miss Rappe five years. He acknowledged being present at the party in the Hotel St. Francis in which he is alleged to have fatally injured Miss Rappe. He said he had invited a few of the guests to his home.

Gin, whiskey and orange juice were served at the party, he declared. "Breakfast" was served at 2 p. m., which was the hour at which he left the room in which the guests were at 2 p. m., and went into his own room to dress for an engagement with Mrs. May Taube, a friend, he said.

"I went into my bedroom and looked at the clock," he said. "I went to the bathroom and the door struck something. I looked in and saw Miss Rappe on the floor. She was holding her stomach and moaning."

"I gave her some water and asked if there was anything I could do for her. She said, 'I want to lay down.' I carried her to a bed and returned to the bath. When I came out into the room Virginia was on the floor. I again placed her on the bed and went out for Dr. Bauman, Dr. Delmont, her friends and one of the guests."

"A number of the guests came into the room, including Miss Alice Blake, Mrs. Delmont, Miss Kay Prescott and other Miss Rappe's friends. They were tearing her clothes. Her sleeve was hanging by a thread and I pulled it off."

"I went out of the room and returned later. Miss Rappe was lying nude on the bed. I tried to cover her up and Mrs. Delmont tried to stop me. I said to Mrs. Delmont: 'Shut up or I will throw you out the window.'"

The witness said he was dressed in a lounge robe and pajamas. He described the summoning of the assistant surgeon and called for the removal of Miss Rappe to another room.

Freedom's Beginning.

The free institutions of ancient Greece and Rome had long been dead when our Anglo-Saxon forefathers, in the little island in the North sea, began building their utopian, or, as subsequently of the wise men of the kingdom. In the early days of the nation, national affairs were dealt with by a national council, composed of the high owners of state and feudal barons, and presided over by the king. — Montreal Family Herald.

PROPERTY OF ROAD DISTRICT TO BE DIVIDED

Commissioners of Twin Falls and Murtaugh Districts in Joint Session Appoint Appraisers for Division

Initial steps toward division of property as between the Twin Falls highway district and the lately created Murtaugh district were taken at a joint meeting of the commissioners of the old and new districts here Wednesday afternoon when an appointment was made by either board of an accountant to serve as an appraiser of the property to be divided.

Edwin A. Wilson, Twin Falls, was designated by the Twin Falls district board, and J. A. Schofield, Salt Lake, by the Murtaugh district board to appraise the property and determine upon a basis for apportionment of credits and indebtedness as between the two districts.

May Appoint Third Person
In the event of the failure of these appraisers to reach an agreement on the basis of their inquiries, they will be required under the law to appoint a third person whose decision shall be binding. The meeting Wednesday was held in accordance with provisions of the state law providing that such meeting shall be held within 10 days after the commissioners of the new district qualify for their official positions. Wednesday was the fifth day after the Murtaugh commissioners qualified.

The meeting was attended by all members of both boards, the Murtaugh district being represented by W. C. Hall, A. W. Nelson and B. Briggs, and the Twin Falls district by Asher B. Wilson, A. E. Mann and Nick Smith.

Vote Funds for Road Work
Designation of appraisers was the only business transacted by the joint session. Thereafter commissioners of the Twin Falls district voted to authorize S. A. Shober, highway district engineer, to expend $300 for traveling funds as soon as weather conditions permitted, and approved his application and budget providing for expenditure of $1000 for repair of certain designated bridges.

FREIGHT RATES ON COAL TO BE TOPIC OF HEARING

Southern Idaho Traffic Association Points Out Apparent Discrepancies

Freight rates on coal in the intermountain region will be the subject for a hearing before the interstate commerce commission at Salt Lake next month, according to information received here by the Southern Idaho Traffic association.

It is expected that Leonard Way, secretary of the association, will attend and take part in the hearing, presenting the claims of shippers and consumers in southern Idaho. Indicating apparent discrepancies in the existing freight rates on coal from the Kemmerer, Wyoming, fields, the association today made public figures showing the rates on lump coal to Minidoka at $4.62 1-2; to Twin Falls $5.25; and to Rogerson $5.25. On mine run coal the rate to Minidoka is $3.87 1-2; to Twin Falls $3.87 1-2; and to Rogerson $5.25. On lump coal the rate to Minidoka is $3.87 1-2; to Twin Falls $4.12 1-2; and to Rogerson $4.62 1-2. Black coal takes a rate to Minidoka and Slack coal of $3.50, and to Rogerson of $4.12 1-2.

SUBSCRIPTION STARTED TO PAY WALTON'S CLAIM

Twin Falls Friends Contribute Toward Paying Judgment Against A. E. Larson

Movement for payment by popular subscription of the $500 judgment assessed against A. E. Larson of Hollister in connection with his removal from office as a director of the Twin Falls highway district, had been launched in the minds of his friends here.

Subscription papers for this purpose were Wednesday circulated among business men, and the contribution is said to have reached a substantial total.

Mr. Larson has for 10 years past been engaged in farming in the vicinity of Hollister. The full amount of the judgment against Mr. Larson, it is reported, will be retained by E. F. Walton, instigator of the quo warranto proceedings which resulted in the removal of Mr. Larson and of C. B. Channel, Twin Falls, and J. M. Stoolmiller, Kimberly, from office as highway commissioners. Mr. Channel and his associates, heretofore, have paid the $500 judgment assessed against each of them. This $1000 is said to have been split three ways among E. F. Walton, Rupert; T. K. Harkness and Homer C. Mills, Twin Falls, attorneys for coalition in this action.
