Major H. S. Bennion, Assistant Chief Engineer, Visits Snake River Falls Upon Which Filings Have Been Made

Hydro-electric power sites on Snake river in the vicinity of Twin Falls, which are scheduled for development when official approval is granted, were inspected Wednesday by Major H. S. Bennion of Washington, D. C., assistant chief engineer for the federal power commission.

The sites inspected included Twin Falls and Upper Salmon falls, upon which filings have been made by the Idaho Power company, and Augur falls, upon which a filing has been made by the Snake River Irrigation district in connection with its plans for reclamation of approximately 50,000 acres of land in the Hansen-butte region between Hansen and Murtaugh.

Advice Carries Weight

In view of Major Bennion's official position, it is believed that his recommendations and advice would be a paramount factor with the board in acting upon the filings made.

Major Bennion, in this district, inspected both developed and prospective power and reclamation projects. He entered upon his trip through southern Idaho at American Falls, where he arrived Tuesday and subsequently visited the Murtaugh project power systems.

Thursday he expects to visit plants at Thousand Springs, Malad, Salmon falls, and later he will inspect plants at Swan Falls and Or Bow, visiting the Arrow-rock project while in the vicinity of Boise.

Meets Welcome Here

Major Bennion was accompanied here by Harry Dobbie, project manager for the federal power commission, and by E. J. Hankins, Boise, chief engineer for the Idaho Power company, and H. W. Turner, Butte, president of the Montana Electric company. W. B. Fennell, vice-president of the Idaho Power company, with the other power men, met Major Bennion at American Falls, where he was called back to Boise Tuesday evening by the Snake River Irrigation district manager for the Idaho Power company, joined the party here.

On his inspection Wednesday of the American Falls, the party was accompanied by H. T. Henderson, engineer for the Murtaugh Irrigation district, and in the evening Major Bennion met here with the district's engineers, two of its directors, James L. Barnes and O. D. Bills of Hansen, and Attorney James W. Porter.

Major Bennion will be accompanied on the second day of his trip through southern Idaho by Idaho Power company representatives. He will follow the course of the Snake and Columbia rivers to the country's reclamation, next month to complete an inspection of power sites on the Green river.

NEW CONTESTS DEVELOP ON DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Two Candidates File for Nomination for Commissioner from Third District

Two candidates for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner from the third district filed papers on Wednesday, the resulting contest figuring as the outstanding feature of the day's political announcements, all of which were made by Democrats.

The opposing candidates were W. F. Brower of Hansen, who served as county commissioner in 1917 and 1918, and J. D. Barnhart of Kimberly, who was formerly a deputy in the office of the county recorder.

Each candidate filed papers signed by five members of the party rather than by the county chairman, who has been out of town for several days returning Wednesday. Mr. Brower's nomination was endorsed by John E. Davies, Taylor Commis., E. J. Finch, J. H. McNichols and W. F. Donnelly, all of Twin Falls. Nomination of Mr. Barnhart was endorsed by Ora McVey and S. McCoey of Hansen, and R. G. Wilson, W. H. Turner and J. M. Steelsmith of Kimberly.

Contest for the Democratic nomination for prosecuting attorney developed with the filing Wednesday of the names of C. E. Kinney of Twin Falls, a practicing attorney here since 1910, now serving as receiver in bankruptcy for the southern Idaho district. O. W. PETITIONS FOR AMERICAN FALLS DAM COMPLETED

Twin Falls Swings Into Line With Formal Call for Submission of Proposal for Snake River District

Circulation in the territory under the Twin Falls canal system of petitions for formation of the Snake River Irrigation district to assist in financing construction of the American Falls dam has been completed, canvases of the situation made Wednesday evening at chamber of commerce offices here showing a total of 61,328 acres signed up.

Removes Last Barrier.

Barry Dobbie of American Falls project manager for the federal reclamation service, who was present when the canvases was completed, said that completion of circulation of petitions here had removed the last barrier to further proceedings looking toward formation of the big irrigation district. All of the other canal companies of the Snake river valley whose territories will be included in the big district have completed circulation of petitions. Mr. Dobbie expects to take with him on his return to American Falls Thursday, the petitions signed here. Photostatic copies of the petitions will be made for filing in the office of the state reclamation commissioner and the petitions thereafter will be returned here to be filed with the board of county commissioners.

It is expected that the petitions will be filed with the county board by July 1.

The association members also adopted a constitution and by-laws for the organization and elected as members of an advisory board, the president of the county fair bureau, county agricultural agent, county club leader and secretary of the county fair board.

IDAHO CROPS AND ROADS FAVORED BY COMPARISON

Sheriff E. E. Sherman Gives Utah Possible Advantage on Sugar Beets

With respect to farm crops and roads, southern Idaho and particularly the Twin Falls country excels northern Utah, according to statement of Sheriff E. E. Sherman, upon his return Tuesday evening from a week's auto trip through southern Idaho and north Utah.

"Crops in the Twin Falls country are better generally than those in Utah, with the possible exception of sugar beets," Mr. Sherman said, "and the country here as a whole looks better."

It would be possible to trace the state's boundary by comparing road conditions in Utah and in Idaho, Mr. Sherman said, declaring that the advantage in the comparison was all on the Idaho side.

Mr. Sherman traveled on this trip through the Malad valley and as far south as Brigham City, Utah. He was accompanied by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lewis Sherman, who visited relatives and friends at her former home.

COURT HEARS CLAIMS OF MURDERED MAN'S MOTHER

Woman in Spain Contends for Insurance Award Through Court Here

Appeal to the district court for the decision of the state insurance decision board in the case of Ignacio Billoa in which an award of $2,400 was first allowed and later rescinded by the board, was argued by attorneys before Judge W. A. Babcock here Wednesday. Billoa, a Spaniard, who was employed as a sheepherder by James Farmer, was shot and killed in March, 1920, by William Carver, a Bliss district farmer, under circumstances indicating that Carver's claim was made for recovery of his stock on or near Carver's property had preceded the shooting. Carver was convicted in district court here on a charge of murder and is serving a sentence in the state penitentiary.

Under provisions of an industrial accident policy carried by Farmer on his employee, claim was made for recovery on account of Billoa's death, in behalf of Carranca Ybarbarran, a resident of Spain and the adopted mother of the slain man.

The claim was related on appeal on the grounds that no evidence had been offered to show that the claimant was actually dependent upon Billoa for support.

The case for the Spanish woman was presented by E. M. Wolfe or Wolfe and Martin. Charles M. Kahn, Boise, appeared in behalf of the state board.

LIMITS IMPOSED ON WATER'S USE

Commissioner Re-Involes Rule for Irrigation on Alternate Days

Due to extraordinary demand upon Twin Falls municipal waterworks system of domestic water during continuing warm, dry weather the capacity of the filtration plant is overtaxed, according to statement Tuesday of J. J. Pilgerman, water commissioner, announcing revival of the rule providing for use of water for irrigation on alternate days of the month.

The rule, which is reinvoled at this time in order to protect the city's supply of filtered water, is as follows:

"Effective" at once, and continuing in force until further notice, consumers at even numbered street addresses will use city water for irrigation only on the even dates of the month. Consumers at odd numbered street addresses will use city water for irrigation only on the odd days of the month.

These restrictions do not apply to the use of domestic water nor to public buildings.

VOTERS CHOOSE S. G. McAULEY AS COUNCIL MEMBER

First Commission Form Administration is Made Complete With Second Election; Light Vote is Polled

Twin Falls' first commission form municipal administration was completed at a second election Tuesday resulting in the election of S. G. McAuley as councilman over Dr. W. H. Dwight, with a majority of 160 votes. Election of McAuley completes the success of the so-called "White" ticket. The new officials will take office July 3.

A total of 838 votes was cast at Tuesday's election as compared with 2228 cast at the first commission form election June 6, when the mayor-elect and three of the four councilmen-elect were chosen.

The vote Tuesday, although small enough to indicate general apathy over the affair, was larger than had been expected by supporters of the successful candidate, who had estimated that 500 votes at most would be polled.

Dr. Dwight's statement issued soon after it became known that although he led McAuley with a margin of 16 votes in the first election he had failed to secure a majority of all votes cast, is considered by political observers, to have been largely responsible for the lack of interest taken in the second election.

In this statement Dr. Dwight said that he would make a second campaign and suggested that his friends cast their ballots for his opponent.

Stories Stir Interest.

Reported disunion among the four commissioners-elect as to an appointment to municipal office heretofore filled by vote of the electorates, was the last minute hope among opponents of the so-called "White" ticket that Dr. Dwight's chances of election were favorable and that he might be persuaded to accept the office if elected. This is believed to have been a principal factor making for the larger vote than had been anticipated.

The cost to the city of the second election Tuesday is estimated at between $300 and $400, or practically the same as the cost of the first commission form election June 6.

GRAVE CHARGES ARE VOICED BY DISABLED MEN

American Veterans of World War in Fighting Mood as the Result of Addresses Before National Convention

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Colonel Charles R. Forbes, director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, drew both applause and criticism from the disabled American veterans of the world war Wednesday when he explained to their convention the relief measures the government had undertaken for its stricken defenders.

Cheers greeted his announcement that the bureau had established an employment unit designed to find suitable jobs for every man given rehabilitation, and his assertion that he favored revision of the civil service laws to give former service men preferred positions on every government list.

Scores of veterans clamored for the floor, however, to ask why employment had not been found for various individuals and why others had had their training concluded too soon and their training pay stopped.

The climax of the criticism came with the reading of a telegram from the student officials of the training school at Camp Sherman, Ohio, demanding that the school be closed. This telegram, which was read by Robert S. Marx of Cincinnati, national commander of the Disabled American Veterans, asserted that the president and other executives of the school had left. Colonel Forbes replied that the school should not be hastily condemned, but said that its work so far was satisfactory and that its graduates would be found the best trained of any rehabilitated veterans.

Plans Are Criticized

Although Marx ruled out of order many individual complaints about neglect and declared himself in sympathy with most of Colonel Forbes' policies, he criticized several plans of the director.

He took exception to Colonel Forbes' announcement regarding employment plans.

"This is the only country that has not had an employment service for its veterans in operation for two years," said Marx.

Marx charged that the bureau had failed to reimburse the cost of the disabled American veterans several months ago that financial profit was being made in hospital care of soldiers in Ohio and 56 per cent of the men from one institution were discharged dead.

Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, President Harding's personal physician, also was criticized. Humphrey Sullivan of St. Louis, representing Hamford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, charged General Sawyer with economizing at the expense of the health and sanity of disabled soldiers.

Irrigation Waters Wipe Out Villages

EL PASO, Texas, (AP)—Within less than 200 miles from El Paso five old towns gradually have given way to irrigation waters, and their former sites are now farm lands.

Cantadero, a peaceful Mexican village 200 years ago, on the banks of the Rio Grande, is one of the places which has been wiped out. Although it withstood the storms and hardships and some attacks from the Apaches within the past two centuries, the water has washed away the thick adobe walls.

Cantadero had a population of 400 persons. Other towns wiped out slowly by the waters from the Rio Grande and the Elephant Butte dam waters were Santa Rita, with a population of 300; San Agustin, 250; San Jose, 250; Alamo, 300. Each had its ancient churches, stores, cemeteries and school houses. These are to be seen no more, save for a few crumbling walls which the water has not entirely melted down.

Fishing License Only Way of Identification

SPOKANE, Wash., (AP)—But for the finding of a fishing license among the effects of a man who dropped dead in a hotel here recently while registered as J. J. O'Brien, the body would have been buried in the potter's field and the dead man's identity might never have been discovered.

In going through the dead man's effects a fishing license made out to P. B. Shen, Orofino, Idaho, was discovered. A local merchant later identified the body as that of Mr. Shen and stated that he formerly was deputy sheriff at Orofino.

Shen died of heart failure while registered under the name of O'Brien. All efforts to discover relatives or to identify him had failed until the discovery of the fishing license.

HOPE FOR ERADICATION OF TUBERCULOSIS IN CATTLE

Careful Planning Speeds Up the Tests and Cuts Down Cost of Treatment

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The plan for the complete eradication of tuberculosis in the cattle herds of the country seems well within the bounds of possibility to the Department of Agriculture experts as the result of a demonstration that an entire county may be cleared of all its reactors in a week and a day.

Such a demonstration was recently completed in Essex county, New York, where local authorities, assisted by the state and the Department of Agriculture, began the testing of the herds on Friday, May 19, and finished the job on Saturday, May 20.

Rapid Tests Made

The county was divided into convenient districts, and 25 veterinarians were taken from farm to farm in automobiles by 25 leading farmers who volunteered their services. By this use of rapid transportation and by careful planning of routes it was possible in two days to test 920 herds containing 5,274 cattle. This was an average of more than 18 herds a day for each veterinarian. Because the loss of time was cut to a minimum and supplies were bought in quantity, the work was done for less than half the usual cost when herds are tested individually, the report to the department said.

Mr. Mackoff estimates the value of the stamps in United States money at the time of their purchase in Russia as being about twenty-five cents.

BIG TELESCOPE TO BE BUILT AT OHIO WESLEYAN

Instructor at University Gives Fortune to Realize Ambition of Lifetime—Will Be Third Largest Instrument

DELAWARE, O., (AP)—Within the next few years there will arise on Observatory hill on the campus at Ohio Wesleyan university here a huge concrete bulk, with a long finger pointing skyward. It will be the third largest telescope in the world.

At that time an old man may look from the doorway of an out-of-date brick house near the great instrument, and recognize in it a monument to his perseverance and the dominating ideal of a life that will have passed the four score and ten mark.

If he is there to see it, he will be comparatively penniless as money goes, but rich in happiness.

If he is not there to see it, he has said he will be just as satisfied, because he knows it will be there, whether he is or not.

Gives Fortune for Ideal

Professor Hiram M. Perkins, now 89 years of age, started teaching mathematics and astronomy years ago at Ohio Wesleyan, a poor man. During the long years of teaching since then he has amassed a fortune of close to $250,000 by fortunate investments. But he will die a poor man. Nearly every cent that he has earned and saved together will be represented in the "third largest telescope in the world."

A story that passes understanding is unfolded in the simple announcement by trustees of Ohio Wesleyan that the $250,000 has been contributed for the installation of the telescope. All but $75,000 of the quarter of a million dollars was given by Professor Perkins; the remainder by his sister and brother-in-law.

Professor Perkins has lived with one dominating goal—he has been able to turn enough money over to Ohio Wesleyan university for the purchase of such a telescope. Not only did he devote all his income from his investments to his telescope fund, but he often contributed to it from his meager salary as a college professor, he and Mrs. Perkins trimming their household budget to make the sacrifice possible.

And the story of self-sacrifice is not on a par with the efforts of Professor Perkins to dodge recognition for his remarkable gift.

Does Not Want Credit

He has steadfastly refused any acknowledgment from his alma mater and has driven the college press bureau to distraction by refusing to permit the use of his name in connection with the gift.

"I do care whether I live to see the telescope and the new observatory completed or not," he is quoted by Professor C. C. Crump, now head of the department of astronomy. "The knowledge that the university is to have them is sufficient."

Professor Perkins gives the telescope at the age of 89. He has held away in his whole life—the belief that the study of the stars outclasses all others in teaching the majesty and power of God, and in inculcating principles of true religion.

Under the terms of his gift, the telescope is to be used first for the instruction of all the students of the university; second, it is to be turned over to the public at regular intervals, and after that it is to be used for research.

Aviation Cadets Victims of Fatal Accident; Bodies Are Badly Burned

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, (AP)—Three aviation cadets were killed and their bodies burned when an airplane in which they had just risen at Brooks field fell from a height of 200 feet late Wednesday. The killed are Walden R. Farrell, 24, of Philadelphia, who was piloting the machine, and who was killed instantly; William C. McCoy, 22, Nashville, Tenn., and George C. Thompson, West Philadelphia, Pa. None of the cadets was married.

MARION, O., TO ENTERTAIN NATIONAL CELEBRITIES

Celebration of City's Centennial Anniversary to be Assisted by Prominent Men

MARION, O., (AP)—President Harding, General John J. Pershing, Hiram MagNider, national commander of the American Legion, and other nationally and internationally known figures are expected here early in July to attend the celebration of the centennial of Marion's birth. July 2, 3, 4, and 5 have been fixed as the dates for the observance, but to date no definite program of speech-making has been arranged.

Sabbath to Be Observed

Sunday morning, July 2, will be given over entirely to religious exercises in the churches, and in the afternoon there will be a union church service in the Chautauque pavilion, where nearly two years ago President Harding was officially notified of his nomination by the republican convention.

Monday afternoon there will be a musical program and in the evening the chief musical event of the centennial celebration will be staged. At that time former Marion musicians who have become nationally known artists will appear.

Tuesday morning there will be a program for the children, including a children's horse show. In the afternoon the local American Legion post will stage an Independence day celebration and in the evening there will be a program of fireworks.

Wednesday Is Big Day

Wednesday is planned as the big day of the celebration, to begin with a mammoth parade in which all periods of the city's growth will be shown. The part of the American Legion in the program will be taken by representatives from most of the 550 posts in the state. In the afternoon it is planned to have a speaking program in the downtown section and at the fairground the Legion will have a barbecue. On that day the Legion is to fire a state convention.

The final event of the program will be a pageant at the fairground Wednesday evening. The pageant has been written by Miss Elchner M. Froeland, formerly of Marion, but now of Pittsburgh. It will depict Marion's history

WATER AT JACKSON LAKE FLOWING OVER SPILLWAY

Big Government Reservoir at Headwaters of Snake Riv. or Is Full

BURLEY—Jackson Lake is full. On June 21, the reclamation service here says, the big government reservoir at the head of Snake river in Wyoming reached its capacity of 847,000 cubic feet and water began to flow over the spillway at the top of the dam.

Last fall, when the gates were closed, more than 351,000 acre feet were left in the reservoir as a start toward the supply for 1922. During the winter there was a great deal of snow fall, especially in the upper part of the watershed, which assured a good runoff of water during the coming summer. On account of the cold spring, this run-off was delayed so that the lake was a week later in filling in 1922 than it was in 1921. It is expected, however, that the need for turning out stored water will be correspondingly delayed this year.

Jackson Lake, one of the largest reservoirs in the world, furnishes water to some 750,000 acres of land in southern Idaho, including the Minidoka and North and South Bito Twin Falls projects and about one fourth million acres of the upper Snake river valley.

MONTANA IS WAGING WAR ON GRASSHOPPER PEST

Department of Agriculture Aids the County Agricultural Agents

BILLINGS, Mont., (AP)—Aid of the department of agriculture in a campaign to exterminate grasshoppers has been extended county agricultural agents of Montana and the Federal department has established headquarters here to study insect conditions. Supplies which are used in poisoning the grasshoppers have been ordered and it is planned to scatter the poisoned mixture over an extensive part of Yellowstone county where the hopper plague of last year is thought to have started.

Stuart Lockwood, in charge of the investigation phase of the work and E. J. Ullmo, who is in charge of the factory work, are two representatives of the department of agriculture who will devote their time this summer to combatting the insect which in prolific years is a serious detriment to growing crops.

Increase Is Rapid

Investigations conducted by the department in past years show that each female hopper lays from 50 to 150 eggs in the fall and they hatch in the early spring which follows. These figures give an idea of the rapidity with which the pests increase.

The mixture which is "broadcast" to poison the grasshoppers is not dangerous to stock. Mr. Lockwood stated, and is the most effective way yet devised of fighting the pest.

PLANS LAID FOR MINE GATHERING

Official Washington Engaged in Waiting for Next Move Saturday

WASHINGTON, (AP)—With acceptance received from all the principals in the bituminous and anthracite coal strikes, both on the operators' and miners' union side, official Washington Thursday night began preparations for the Saturday conference President Harding has called to consider a possible basis for resuming work in the mine fields. Both sides having accepted, questions remained on only two points. First, as to the identity of individuals who would represent the employers of the unionized bituminous field, and, second, what would be the administration's plan for procedure after the meeting assembled.

At the commerce and labor departments where officials have chiefly been occupied with the strike settlement plan, it was intimated that the union leaders and the operators would be expected to work out their own course after the conference assembled. President Harding was expected to bring the groups together, but his engagement was called for to leave Washington immediately after, and it was expected that Secretaries Davis and Hoover would represent the government in the negotiations.

Emphasis was placed behind the assertions in semi-official discussion that the government did not expect the meeting to bring out a strike settlement itself, but to recommend the union leaders and the operators represented by those present; a further course which might be followed and which might result in settlement.

GIRL SEEKS PATROL WORK RATHER THAN SHORTHAND

Great Outdoors Appeals to Her After Three and One-Half Years of Indoor Work

DULUTH, Minn., (AP)—Three and one-half years in an office convinced Miss Helen Carroll, 21-year-old Minneapolis girl, that person perfectly at home in the great outdoors had no business doing stenographic work for a living, so she applied for a position doing patrol work with the local National Guard. She impressed Supervisor Calvin A. Dahlgren and now she is a full-fledged patrolwoman, the first to be permanently stationed in the north woods.

Miss Carroll plans to continue in forestry work the year around. She said she wasn't afraid of bears, so the forest service promptly gave her the position and assigned her to a post deep into the forest. Here she was virtually lost for three weeks. Finally she received a letter asking for an interview. A notable change in her appearance she explained that "a lone-out's hours are rather long—I haven't had time to answer sooner."

CHINESE COMMANDER READS BIBLE TO HIS FIGHTING MEN
PEKING, (AP)—General Feng Yuhang is known throughout China as a Christian commander who reads to his troops from the Bible. He led Wu Pei-fu's soldiers in the battle outside the gates of Peking. To him is credited the first victory which resulted in the rout of Chang Tso-lin's forces and their retreat from the vicinity of the Chinese capital to a point north of Tientsin.

When the wounded General Feng's division were treated it was found that each wore on his left arm a strip of parchment upon which was written:

"All officers should die loyally, faithfully and bravely for God and Country."

"The enemy must be killed; if the rifle is broken, if the bullet is broken, use the fist; if the fist is disabled, use the teeth."

"If one loses his life in rescuing a wounded companion; that is true bravery."

COURT RULES AGAINST SCHEME FOR SETTLEMENT ON SALMON

Judge T. Bailey Lee Declares Attempt to Solve Problem Involves Contract to "Sell What They Cannot Deliver and Buy What Already Belongs to Them"—Enjoins Transfer of So-Called Surplus Stock on Company's Books

Persons who have attempted to effect a settlement as between settlers of the Salmon river project following its reduction from 65,000 to 35,000 acres have "contracted to sell water" they cannot deliver and furthermore have contracted to buy that which already in equity belongs to them," according to statement of District Judge T. Bailey Lee in his decision rendered Thursday in the case of R. C. Glavin and others against the Salmon River Canal company and others and J. E. Clinton as intervenor.

Upholds Acreage Basis.
The decision, which was received here by John W. Graham of counsel for the plaintiffs, sustains the contention that water available for irrigation of Salmon project lands should be delivered on a basis of acreage rather than upon a basis of stock holdings for which the Salmon River Canal company contends. It provides also for issuance of an injunction restraining the canal company from transferring on its books any of the stock purchased by persons attempting to make the settlement from landholders outside the patented area with the purpose of distributing the water among settlers inside the patented area who entered into the settlement agreement.

Argument in the case was submitted before Judge Lee in district court here recently, contentions of the canal company being urged by McKinnon Morrow, of Richland and Hinga, Boise, and J. R. Bothwell, of Bothwell and Chapman, T. W. McKinnon, an attorney for the defendant, Robert Ray, participated in the defense of the action.

The text of Judge Lee's decision is as follows:

Reviews Question Presented.
The plaintiffs are the owners of certain lands lying within the patented area of the restricted Salmon tract, and the owners of certain water rights appurtenant thereto evidenced by shares of stock in the defendant company heretofore purchased by them or their predecessors, and under which they claim they are entitled to a proportionate distribution of the water supply available for such patented area. They claim that the Twin Falls Salmon River Land and Water company, or the American Irrigation and Trust company, or their successors or assigns having purchased water rights from certain of the excluded settlers, have sold the water rights to settlers inside, and particularly to the defendant, Robert Ray; that the shares of stock therewith transferred, have been or will be transferred on the company's books, and that the defendant company will distribute the available water according to the number of shares outstanding and not according to the acreage as was originally intended.

"They claim that such contracts were illegal and void as against the settlers, and will work an unwarranted discrimination as between contract holders for water rights in such restricted area. They therefore pray that the contracts entered into between the defendant, Ray, and these companies, their successors, and assigns, whereby it has been attempted to convey him additional water rights be cancelled; that he be enjoined from receiving any additional water thereunder; that the canal company be enjoined from transferring any such so purchased shares upon its books, and finally that the defendant company be directed to distribute the water available for the restricted area pro rata according to the acreage between the settlers therein who have failed or tendered the main tenance charge prescribed by the board of directors.

No Dispute Over Facts.
The defendant company sets up in its answer certain denials and affirmative defenses which have been adopted in effect by the defendant, Ray, and the intervenor, Clinton.

There is practically no dispute over the facts. The stipulation filed shows that the bondholders' committee eventually purchased some 29,000 shares of the defendant's stock, and has been causing the same to be transferred to settlers within the patented area; that this was done in consummation with the defendant company's by-laws amended by resolution to the effect that all of the available water in the reservoir should be applied to the restricted area.

Three affirmative defenses are urged especially. First, that certain persons, presumably the bondholders' committee, have been perfecting a settlement with a large number of holders of water contracts and re-endorsing to effect similar settlement with all such holders; that in pursuance of this intent and purpose, the by-laws of the defendant company were amended at a stockholders' meeting providing that certain shares of stock issued for excluded lands may be transferred on the company's books and made appurtenant to the lands included, and therefore should be delivered in accordance with the number of shares appurtenant to tracts or parcels of land within the restricted area; that to require delivery of water according to acreage would be in violation of the by-laws, and would unconstitutionally deprive of their vested rights those settlors who have accepted such settlement and purchased these additional shares originally issued for lands now excluded.

I do not think this contention can be maintained, for while the purpose of securing a settlement was a laudable one, neither the bondholders' committee nor the companies mentioned nor their predecessors could have bought these shares except as trustees for the entire body of settlors. Water rights are not the subject of speculation to be bought and sold by persons who have no land upon which to utilize it. A mere brokerage would ensue, and a traffic in water rights to be held and sold at pleasure is inconceivable.

The only way legally to assure these water rights is by direct purchase either from the owner or on foreclosure of his defaulted contract by someone who has land to irrigate or is in the business of impounding and reselling water for irrigation.

Nor could any body of stockholders by resolution or otherwise determine that water in the company reservoir should be distributed according to share apportionment to lands within the restricted area. This would arbitrarily preclude an outside contract holder who had not accepted settlement from getting his water at all, and such resolution would be void as to such included settlors as may have purchased from excluded settlers. As Judge Dietrich has well said: "It is no business of the company to compel against its will to relinquish its right."

As to the contention that the settlors who have purchased these shares from the bondholders' committee or the specified companies and their predecessors may be deprived of their property without due process of law, my judgment is that they have dealt with parties who have contracted to sell what they cannot deliver, and furthermore have contracted to buy that which already in equity belongs to them. As before stated, in the hands of these original purchasers these water rights or shares became impressed with a trust in favor of all contract holders and they were sold to the settlers subject to that trust. Not until the contract of every remaining settler had been fulfilled, could that trust have been discharged. Had some stranger to water company bought up these shares and sold them to inside settlors, this transaction would have been perfectly sound, but equity cannot permit participation in the relation of these bondholders and their predecessors with the obligation of the very contracts they may later seek to enforce.

As to the further defense that the members of the bondholders' committee and the settlers who have purchased these additional shares should be made parties to this suit I think that by the decision of the supreme court in the Sanderson case.

Entitled to Contract Fulfillment.

And I can see no merit in the final defense that the plaintiffs are estopped by reason of their having heretofore in an independent suit or suits contended that the excluded lands are entitled to water on the same basis as those inside. As I understand this action, it is to do with patented lands only, and that there is sought an equitable distribution of such waters as may be legally applied to such patented area. It is evident that the plaintiffs cannot expect the whole reservoir to be emptied on the patented lands to the exclusion of the settlers outside, for prior to the inception of their suit, it was presumably known to all men that under the law, all contract holders on a Carey act project are entitled to the water specified in their contracts whether they be inside or out.

Plaintiffs' prayer for relief will be granted with the exception that I shall refuse to order cancelled the contracts entered into by the defendant, Ray, with the respective parties from whom he purchased the shares complained of. I have no right to nullify a contractual liability extending to him from them and thereby defeat his right of action thereon.

Plaintiffs' counsel will kindly prepare proper findings and decree.

STATE UNIVERSITY WILL LOSE PROFESSOR OF LAW
Resignation of Dr. Alvin E. Evans to Accept Offer from George Washington University, Expected

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOSCOW.—Announcement that Dr. Alvin E. Evans, professor of law at the university, and received an offer of a professorship from George Washington University, Washington, D. C., and that his resignation was expected effective September 1, is made by Dr. A. H. Upham, president of the university.

"Professor Evans is now at the University of Texas, at Austin, where he is delivering a course of summer school lectures on property. Professor Evans has made special study of the law of community property and has published articles in several law magazines which have attracted wide attention.

Professor Evans has been a member of the faculty of the University of Idaho since 1917. He holds doctorates in philosophy and in jurisprudence from the University of Michigan.

"I regret exceedingly the loss of Professor Evans," said President Upham. "His scholarly interests and his numerous recent contributions to the literature of the law have attracted a great deal of favorable attention of the law school of the university. The several opportunities he has had of late to accept more remunerative positions have been a just recognition of his achievements.

"The loss of Professor Evans is only another indication that our salary scale at the University of Idaho is relatively low, so that it is some difficult to avoid rather frequent changes in our teaching staff.

"Steps will be taken at once to secure a thoroughly competent man in Professor Evans' place."

LOCAL CRIME

One of the most popular forms of crime in large cities over the country is stealing automobiles. Sometimes the cars are stolen bodily, at others they are merely hauled off and stripped of tires, batteries and every other movable part and then left for the first owner to find.

Possibly the theft of the Mitchell car in Twin Falls a day or two ago may be accepted as evidence of the "civic growth and progress of the Magic City," but from the standpoint of the owner such a view will hardly compensate for the expense occasioned by the incident.

The theft does, however, prove one thing beyond a doubt, and that is that there are persons in Twin Falls who may safely be ranked among the real criminal class. This was no boyish trick, conceived in a spirit of mischief, it was the work of a man with nerve, daring and the true instincts of a criminal. It may have been a first offense, executed because of the pressure of actual need. But the criminal instinct is there just the same. Of such stuff are hold up men and burglars made.

CROP WEATHER

Hot! Of course, but what about the compensating advantage of the weather from the standpoint of the crops and the farmer who grows them?

There is only one element of uncertainty in the crop prospects in the Twin Falls country this year and that is the price at which the product will be sold. There is no question as to the amount of stuff that will be raised, none whatever.

And prices will be higher than a good many people imagine if the general proposition of world conditions constitute anything at all of a factor in the quotations. And it always has.

VALUE OF FRIENDSHIPS

It takes a long time to build up a real friendship. Regrets of that it is why for everyone to strive to maintain friendships, once they are established. It is pleasant to acquire new acquaintances, but the number of real friends that we can have is limited; and often old friends are the best, for the reason that they have been through many of the same experiences that we have, know the same people that we do and enjoy doing the same things that give us pleasure.

However, there are a number of persons who do not appreciate their friends. They take their friendships for granted. They do not strive to maintain the friendships. They get angry over some comparatively trivial thing that a friend may do, although they, themselves, do things as bad or worse without offending the friend. They act as though they were conferring a great favor on their friends by permitting them to be friendly. Such persons may make real friends, but they cannot hold them. Nor do they come to hold them.

One of the finest things to be gotten out of life is the enjoyment to be derived from association with real friends. The older one gets, the stronger is the realization of the need for real friends. But life is fleeting and real friendships are not made in a day. Those who have had difficulty in making real friends or in retaining them will do well to start immediately to learn the art of being friendly.

LAY PLANS FOR AN EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN HERE

Five Hundred Persons Endorse Proposal for Union Tabernacle Services in Twin Falls
Next September

Five hundred persons representing six denominations in Twin Falls and churches at Burley, Idaho, met at a meeting Wednesday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church here, unanimously endorsing plans for holding an evangelistic tabernacle campaign in Twin Falls during the month of September.

Decisions as to whether he would undertake to conduct the campaign was left by the meeting with the Rev. James Rayburn of Newton, Kans., who addressed the gathering and outlined plans for campaigns similar to the one to be conducted here. Mr. Rayburn came here in response to invitation extended by the Methodist union's committee on evangelism of which Rev. A. G. Pearson is chairman.

Keen Interest Shown
Keen interest in the proposed campaign was evidenced by persons taking part in the meeting, and there were expressions of opinion that existing conditions here demand relief of the sort expected to result from the campaign.

Plans for the tabernacle proposed to be erected here for the campaign providing for accommodation of 3000 persons and being susceptible of enlargement with increasing attendance, were traced in the hands of a building contractor.

Mr. Rayburn would bring with him here his company of four assistants, including a soloist and choir director and a pianist.

Ministers Attending.
The Rev. E. L. White of the Methodist Episcopal church of Twin Falls, presided at the meeting, and other ministers who occupied seats on the rostrum were Rev. R. J. McKee, Knoll; Rev. Samuel Harris, Knoll; Rev. O. W. Jones, Knoll; Rev. Charles Evans, Knoll; Rev. C. E. Helman, Knoll; Rev. E. E. Cox, Hansen; Rev. A. G. Pearson, Twin Falls; Rev. W. H. Tolliver, Twin Falls; Rev. W. W. Burke, Twin Falls.

Denominations that would unite in the evangelistic campaign here are the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, Christian Episcopal and Church of the Brethren. It was stated.

The Rev. Mr. Rayburn was the guest of the ministers participating in the plans for the campaign, at dinner at the Rogerson hotel.

To Clear Furniture.
Remove the dust from the crevices with a painter's brush with long bristles. Wipe the surface with a soft cloth wrung out of warm suds of white soap. When dry, pour a mixture of equal parts of turpentine and paraffin oil into a saucer, dip the paint brush in the mixture just wetting the tips of the bristles, and remove the surplus by squeezing the end of the brush for an instant in a piece of cloth. Go over the curved portions with this, and treat the plain surfaces with a little of the same mixture applied with a piece of cheesecloth. Finish by polishing vigorously with a piece of flannel or velvet.

REHEARSE STORY OF FATAL SHOTS

Circumstances of Slaying J.
Belton Kennedy Before Jury
in Obenchain Case

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Circumstances of the shooting of J. Belton Kennedy in Beverly Glen on August 5, last, were rehearsed Wednesday in the second trial of the Madeline Obenchain for the murder by Mr. and Mrs. Loula Borey who live near the scene of the shooting. The repeated testimony given at the first trial of Mrs. Obenchain and the two trials of Arthur C. Borch, co-defendant, all of which ended in acquittal, were rehearsed.

Mrs. Mary Demond testified she had received letters from Paul Roman, in mate of Polono, postmaster, to be delivered to Mrs. Obenchain. Roman testified he corresponded with the defendant after she had tried to persuade him to testify falsely that she overheard two men plotting to blackmail or slay Kennedy.

Japanese Ideas That "Permit."
Popular belief in Japan has it that if one employs the sacred road going to and from a funeral, the evil spirits, now acquainted with the route, would be inclined to lead another relative of the deceased to the graveyard. Young men only are employed to do tree grafting in Japan, as it is the belief that they impart their life and vigor to the grafted parts. Educated Japanese say that these beliefs are not superstition; that the ideas just simply persist.

Outstanding Military Leaders in China Agree on Form of Reunited Government

PEKING. (AP)—General Wu Pei Fu, dominant figure of northern China, Wednesday endorsed the recent suggestion of General Chen Ching Ming, outstanding leader of the south, that a federal system be adopted for reunited China, patterned after that of the United States of America. General Wu suggested that the reorganized republic be known as the "United States of China."

The majority of the provinces already have signified their approval of the proposal to reunite the country under a federal government at Peking, with each province enjoying rights similar to those accorded the separate states of the American union, General Wu said.

CUT SLIGHT ON PENNSY SYSTEM

Wage Reduction to Maintainance of Way Men Less Than That of Board

DETROIT. (AP)—The wage reduction announced for maintenance of way employees on the Pennsylvania system, Tuesday generally averages slightly less than that ordered in effect on other railroads throughout the country by the United States railroad labor board, according to unofficial advice received here late Wednesday at the general headquarters of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers.

One exception, according to the information here, was in the case of carpenters, who were cut 4 cents an hour, or approximately $0.40 a month, by the Pennsylvania order, compared with the cut of 1 cent an hour, or $0.50 monthly, ordered by the labor board. The labor board cut bridge and building and track foremen $0.50 monthly and the Pennsylvania took $5 monthly off the former class and left the track foremen unchanged, it was stated.

The 5 cent hourly cut for foremen and the 1 cent cut for the labor board was applied by the Pennsylvania, according to the Brotherhood informant, shop crafts men on the line were cut 7 cents an hour compared with the 7 to 8 cent schedule applied by the board. It was added, and assistant foremen were cut 3 cents hourly by the Pennsylvania adjustment, compared with 5 cents in the labor board order.

Get Out and Get Busy.
The man who indulges in self-pity is a defeated man before the fight begins. There is no exercise of the human mind that is so debilitating, so fatal to heroic resolution, as that of nourishing the feeling that one has an impossible job, and is of all men most miserable. Have you a hard duty to perform? Perform it with resolution, and get it done, and encourage your soul with the glow of triumph. Who promised you an easy life? And who told you a coward and a weakling career for an easy life? Put on a smoke consumer and get out and get busy in the sunlight.—Exchange.

ENTIRE DAY IS TAKEN UP WITH WARM FIGHTING

Battle for Possession of Four Courts Continues Uninterruptedly Between Insurgent and Federal Forces

DUBLIN, June 29.—(12:30 a. m.) (AP)—The situation at this hour has not materially altered. The artillery temporarily is inactive, but sniping continues.

The Free State men now completely surround the Four Courts, and a big attack is predicted for dawn. The insurgents are holding several buildings in addition to the Four Courts.

DUBLIN. (AP)—Michael Collins, head of the Irish Free State government, took active measures Wednesday against the republican insurgents under Rory O'Connor, in their stronghold in the center of Dublin, Four Courts. An ultimatum for the surrender of the insurgents was ignored and at the expiration of a brief time limit, Free State troops in armored cars and motor lorries began a movement against the insurgents, which was met with an immediate fusillade from the building.

From dawn until late Wednesday night there were heavy exchanges, although at intervals the firing ceased. Small artillery, trench mortars and machine guns were employed by the attacking forces, but the irregulars confined themselves largely to machine guns and rifle fire. No attempt was made to carry the Four Courts by assault but one of the walls of the building was breached at various places.

Casualties Are Few

The casualties are few in proportion to the nature of the fighting, and even for the number of civilians caught in the line of fire. So far as is known seven were killed and a score more or less seriously wounded. This does not include any casualties that may have been suffered by the irregulars, these being impossible to ascertain.

Less than 1000 Free State troops are engaged in the present operations and it is known that the irregulars number several hundred. The insurgents were obliged to evacuate several buildings during the progress of the battle, immediately took up new positions which had evidently been prepared in advance.

The Free State troops did not interfere with activities at republican headquarters in Suffolk street, where Emma Donohoe Valera and his colleagues met as usual. Mr. De Valera declined to make any statement on the present warlike situation.

"Leyden Jar."
A leyden jar is a glass jar or bottle used to accumulate electricity; so named from having been invented in Leyden, Holland. In its common form, it is coated with tin foil, within and without, well up toward its top, and is surmounted by a brass knob which communicates with the inner coating. To charge the jar, the knob is connected with an electric source and the outer coating with the ground. Electricity of the same kind as the source is then accumulated on the inner coating, and the opposite kind on the outer.

Racing Secretary is Shot to Death by Angered Jockey

Leon Wing, One of Best Known
Men in Western Track Circles, Murder Victim

RENO, Nev., (AP)—Leon Wing, racing secretary and one of the judges at the Reno race meeting, was shot and killed Wednesday by Archie Zeigler, a jockey. Zeigler then ran into a barn and shot himself, dying several hours later.

Wing was one of the best known racing secretaries in the west, and came to Reno two weeks ago to officiate at the Reno race meeting. He was a well known newspaper man of San Francisco.

Zeigler was suspended at Vancouver, B. C., last season and he was refused permission to ride here by Wing.

Zeigler fired five shots at Wing, three of them taking effect.

HAYS PROMISES CLEAN SCREENS

General Federation of Women's Clubs Told of Efforts to Cleanse Movies

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., (AP)—Will H. Hays, head of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, promised the delegates to the General Federation of Women's clubs in session here Wednesday, that moving pictures would be cleansed at their source.

It was the purpose of this organization, he said, to "establish and maintain the highest possible moral and artistic standards in film production and to develop the educational as well as the entertainment value and the general usefulness of motion pictures."

There is one place and one place only where the evils can be eliminated and the good and great advantages of motion pictures retained," Mr. Hays said, "and that is at the point where and when the pictures are made. And it can be done then and there, make no mistake."

May Take Time.

"It can't be done in a moment. Years of action can't be removed in a day and it can't be done in a practical manner without the support of the public, which support, I know you will give."

As to the future, which the club women might help, Mr. Hays said the contest was to be refused to patronize theaters that produce objectionable pictures. He urged the federation to maintain a vigorous department for better films and to appoint better film committees in every community.

As for censorship, Mr. Hays said the American people were against it in all forms.

In the Capital's Early Days.

During the administration of John Quincy Adams the east room of the White House in which his mother had hung clothes to dry, was so gorgeously furnished that his rivals abused him for his extravagance. From the political stump, in the campaign of 1828, he was arraigned for having put a billiard table in the White House. And Adams found it necessary to prove that this had been bought and set up by his son from his own private allowance.

CITY LIABILITY IS HINGED UPON ISSUES OF FACT

Council Defers Action on Problem Presented by Removal of Block of Concrete in Sewer; Prepares to Quit Office

Question as to whether nine years ago the city actually installed a sewer connection or whether the work was done without municipal supervision, prevented action by the city council at a special meeting Thursday evening on the problem presented by John Treugden, owner of the property. Mr. Treugden demanded payment of a bill of $10 for removal by city employees of a block of concrete discovered at the connection after complaint had been made that the sewer was not functioning properly.

Presents Question of Fact.
A. W. Murray, sanitary commissioner, advised the council that in his opinion the city was not liable for the cost of the operation, citing city records to indicate that the original work had not been inspected by the city.

Properly owners are required to pay for removal of obstructions such as roots, from sewer pipes, although the work is done by the city, Mr. Murray said.

If the city did the work in the first place, the city is liable, Taylor Cummings, city attorney, told the council. A question of fact was thus presented, and the council deferred action pending further investigation.

Quit Office Monday.

Purposes for which the meeting Thursday evening was called were to pass upon bills introduced by the city and to consider the removal of the second commission form election Tuesday which resulted in the election of S. B. McAuley as a member of the council. The council adjourned until 10 o'clock Monday morning when it will meet to deliver certificates of election to newly-elected officials and turn over to them the administration of the city.

The full membership of the city council was present at Thursday evening's meeting, for the first time in four years. Councilman C. P. Boyles having returned that they have a month ago in Kentucky and attending the aldermanic session.

Warrants were ordered drawn in payment of claims against the general fund of the city in the sum of $1402.01, and against the street sprinkling fund in the sum of $298.20.

Arrest of John Crowley Follows Investigation by the County Officials

Crowley is 30 years of age, is married and is the father of eight children ranging in age from 3 to 15 years. Arrest of Crowley was the result of an investigation conducted by Frank L. Stephan, prosecuting attorney, and John R. Ault, probation officer, following the birth of a child two months ago to Crowley's 16-year-old daughter.

When arrested Thursday and brought here by Sheriff Sherman and Deputy V. H. Ormsby, Crowley expressed desire for trial without delay.

The Home of the Soul.
"In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, and that the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing so effective as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach, and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter."—Adv.

Route of Storks in Migration.
Some interesting details of the route followed by storks in migration, as ascertained by the well-known investigator, Herr Christian Moutson, are given by the Danish Ornithological magazine. Between 1901 and 1920, 1,200 storks were ring-marked in Iceland under his auspices, and information was obtained as to 56 of them. They flew southward from Jutland in September, then to the east along the Oder to the western Carpathians, across Hungary to Transylvania, thence to the Sea of Marmara, and probably along the coast lands to Asia Minor and Egypt, and onward to the Transvaal, Natal, and Orange Free State. Their rate of flight during migration is estimated at 180 miles a day on an average. The distance from Jutland to the Orange Free State is about 15,000 miles. These birds remain in the South until the end of January, and then probably return by the same route.

A pretty wedding took place Thursday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Leese on Elizabeth boulevard, where their daughter, Marie Lenore Leese, became the bride of Dr. Orrin A. Fuller. The ceremony was performed at noon in the presence of the families of the young couple and 30 of their intimate friends. Dr. Edgar L. ALL WOULD ADD COUNTY OFFICE TO HIS BURDEN

Lately Elected Twin Falls Councilman Announces Candidacy for Commissioner from Second District

County politics took an interesting turn Thursday with the announcement of S. S. All, lately elected Twin Falls city councilman, of his candidacy for the republican nomination for county commissioner from the second district. Comment among political observers dealt with question as to whether in the event of election as county commissioner, Mr. All could legally serve in two official positions, and it was pointed out that W. F. Brecken, present third district commissioner, is also mayor of Kimberly.

Indications during the day pointed to development of a three-cornered fight for the republican nomination for second district commissioner, with the endorsements of Mr. All and W. F. Brecken already on file, and assurance being given that B. N. Bondahl, pioneer resident and well known business man of Twin Falls, had definitely decided to cast his lot in the ring.

Buffington for Legislature
The day brought forth only one other filing for county office, that of R. F. Buffington, prominent Buhl district farmer, as candidate for state representative on the republican ticket.

Francis Williams of Rogerson, filed papers as candidate for constable for the Shoshone Basin precinct.

As a result of precinct caucus nominations of the following candidates for delegates to the republican county convention from Twin Falls precinct No. 7 were filed Thursday: F. L. Stephan, E. J. Hornbrook, E. P. Dunlap, C. J. Hahn, C. A. Bailey, C. T. Bracken, J. W. G. Drake, George E. Sprague, Paul R. Taber, Clara With and Bertha G. Morse. Mr. Hornbrook was nominated also for precinct committeeman.

Kimberly to Be Represented
As candidates for delegates to the republican convention from Kimberly the following were named in papers filed on file: W. F. Brecken, William A. Gill, Wilbur W. Bolton, E. M. Arnold, J. W. Hardin.

A full delegation at the republican convention from Buhl precinct No. 7 was assured with the filing of nominations of D. C. Weaver and Harry Leincke.

S. C. Hodge, chairman of the republican central committee, filed as candidate for delegate to the county convention from Twin Falls precinct No. 2.
