LOCALS TO PLAY HANSEN

Real Game Promised When Teams Clash—Hansen Is Confident

That the game scheduled with Hansen Sunday is drawing marked attention, is evident by the large crowd of fans that are going out to Lincoln field each evening to watch the local celebrities work out.

Manager Alworth saw the handwriting on the wall at Kimberly last Sunday, and to avoid a repetition has had the boys out every evening this week. There isn't a doubt but what there is plenty of material for a fast team here, and the only way that it can be brought out is to practice. The old adage, "practice makes perfect," still holds good.

The game at Kimberly last Sunday, although won by the locals, did not show the team at its true strength, and only by hard work will the locals be able to bring home the bacon from Hansen this coming Sunday.

Hansen Has Good Team

Hansen has a crackerjack of a team, and are in perfect condition, having played every Sunday since the season started, and each game has shown them with better teamwork. Walton, their star hurler, was an interested spectator at the Kimberly-Twin Falls game, and there isn't a doubt but that he saw a few things that he will use against the Twin Falls team when he faces them Sunday.

In all probability, "Lefty" Oliver will start things off for the locals, with Don Liville in reserve. Pultz will don the mask for Twin Falls, with Patton doing the same for Hansen. The game will start at 3 sharp and don't forget that the road is paved from Twin to Hansen.

Coming through Montana Mr. Pugley will visit the schools of agriculture at the University of Idaho and Washington State college and thence proceed to the coast.

Ants That Eat Flowers.

A new type of ant, large, vicious and prolific, is playing havoc with the flower industry of the Twin Falls River, says the Scientific American. Horticulturists are required to report the appearance of this pest immediately and to take prescribed steps for its destruction. The ants are supposed to have been introduced from the Argentine.

ASKS REJECTION OF FORD OFFER

Senate Urged to Turn Down Detroit Man and Go Ahead on Government Capital

WASHINGTON, July 20, (AP)—Rejection of Henry Ford's offer for the Muscle Shoals and enactment of legislation for development of the war-built projects in Alabama by a government-owned and government-controlled corporation, was recommended to the senate today by Chairman Norris of the senate agriculture committee.

His views were set forth in a voluminous report, differing portions of which were supported by various members of the committee. Senator Pargo, Vermont; McNary, Oregon; Keyes, New Hampshire; Gooding, Idaho; Norbeck, South Dakota; Harold, Oklahoma; and McKinley, Illinois; republicans, and Kendrick, democrat, Wyoming, the report stated, favored rejection of the Ford offer along with Chairman Norris. Senators McNary, Norbeck, McKinley and Gooding, it was added, concurred with the chairman in the recommendation for government ownership of the lines detailed in the pending Norris bill.

Wants Limit Set

Senator Kendrick declared in the senate after submission of the report, however, that "he would be glad to agree to the offer of Henry Ford, providing a modification is made of the time limit of the lease."

The Ford offer provides for a hundred year lease and Senator Kendrick said he favored the fifty year maximum provided for in the federal waterpower act.

The report criticized the Ford offer sharply, describing it as "the most wonderful real estate speculation since Adam and Eve lost title to the garden of Eden," and inquiring "why a warranty deed to the capital at Washington is not included in this great transaction for government property to this wonderful corporation."

FOREST FIRE TAKES LIFE

J. W. Holcomb Killed by Fall of Blazing Limb While Engaged in Fight with Flames

PORTLAND, Ore., July 20, (AP)—J. W. Holcomb, 22, died at a hospital here today as the result of injuries sustained yesterday when a blazing limb fell from a tree upon him while he was helping to fight a forest fire in the Rock Creek district.

His companions carried him six miles over mountain trails to put him within reach of medical treatment.

WORKERS REPORTED SCARED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 20, (AP)—Promising protection by Illinois troops if Illinois mine operators can obtain sufficient miners to work their mines, Acting Governor Fred E. Sterling late today dispatched his response to the request of President Harding that Illinois mines be reopened. His promise of co-operation was qualified by the expression of doubt that any of the mines would attempt to reopen because of the lack of workers.

PROMINENT WORKER CALLED

RICHMOND, Ky., July 20, (AP)—Miss Belle H. Bennett, age 99, prominent in the affairs of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, throughout the country, died at her home here today following an extended illness. She established the Scarr Bible and Training school at Kansas City, Mo., and her last college in Rio Janeiro is named in her honor.

GERMANY UNABLE TO PAY

NEW YORK, July 20, (AP)—A sharp cut in the reparations assessments asked from Germany must be made to save that country from ruin, James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, said in an address here today. Mr. Gerard, who recently returned from abroad, asserted Germany never would be able to pay 130,000,000,000 marks.

SEVERAL ARE INJURED

ALBANY, Ga., July 20, (AP)—The "Southland" on route from Chicago to Jacksonville was wrecked early today near Smithville, Ga. A number of injured were brought to Albany.

IRISH ROADS TRENCHED

DUBLIN, July 20, (AP)—Most of the roads leading into Cork have been trenched and mined by the irregular army forces in preparation for the coming of the regular army.

PLAN NEXT STEP IN COAL STRIKE

President Favorable to Appointment of Commission when Events Justify

WASHINGTON, July 20, (AP)—Appointment of a commission to go into the coal mining situation, notwithstanding the refusal of mine workers and of a majority of operators to accept such arbitration, will be made "in due time," it became known at the White House tonight when telegraphic correspondence between President Harding and Governor Sprout, of Pennsylvania on the subject was made public.

Governor Sprout telegraphed he hoped the president was merely withholding appointment of a commission until it could be determined whether satisfactory production would result under the program which has been adopted by the administration.

"If this does not occur within a reasonable time," the governor's message said, "I respectfully urge the prompt creation of your commission, either as originally proposed or in modified form."

Replying, President Harding said: "Your telegram relating to appointment of coal commission, notwithstanding mine workers and a minority of mine operators declined to accept such an arbitration, is received."

Matters in Suspension

"Matters are temporarily in suspension because when arbitration was decided there was but one consistent thing to do as I saw it, and that was to in-quire into the situation. The primary object was the prompt and just ending of a dispute. The broader purpose was a searching inquiry into the causes of such strikes, the causes of disputes and find a way to void them in the future. It may be desirable to modify the form of the commission as originally proposed, because it was first designed to meet most promptly the exigency then existing. I wished a settlement at the conference table where all could be heard and all be represented on the commission."

To Come in Due Time

"It has seemed to me that time to appropriate situation, the opportunity to measure the unquestioned fairness of the proposal and sense the obligations involved, and a period in which to resume production, would either avoid drastic steps on the one hand or clearly justify them on the other. The commission will come in due time. There is an authority above all workers and operators and that authority is the American public—must have an agency of effective expression."

IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

SEATTLE, July 20, (AP)—The twenty-sixth annual convention of the United Amateur Press association opens here July 23.

Pterosaurs Flying Reptiles

One of the highest forms of reptilian life which flourished in prehistoric times was the pterodactyl, the huge flying reptile which, in view of the scarcity of birds in those days, could lay claim to the dominion of the air. A mature pterodactyl possessed a wing spread of 20 feet, and a toothless beak, more than a yard long, and as sharp as a dagger. The structure of the pterodactyl was of extraordinary lightness, the entire skeleton, even when petrified, weighing only five or six pounds, and the entire weight of the living creature, according to leading scientists, could not have exceeded 25 pounds. The remains of the largest pterodactyls have been found in America, but they were apparently most numerous, and in the most curious forms in what is now Europe.

Significant

Some boys and girls were sitting beside one another in church recently. The congregation had been singing songs with which all were familiar. The pastor asked the congregation to name some other songs. A boy, apparently sixteen years, stood up and asked for the song, "Win the One Next to You."

SPORTS CLOSE FINISHES IN ORDER

Four Events on Grand Circuit Characterized by Fine Reinmanship

KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 20, (AP)—Close finishes in which the winners of the four events were crowded all the way and forced to go the limit in order to annex each heat was the feature of today's Grand Circuit racing bill.

An average time of 2:06 2-3 was made in the 12 furlong race. The big upset of the day was in the 2:07 trot when Main Lick, the favorite, finished fifth in the three heats with Top Geers. Peter June leading, King Watts was second in the first mile, but was obliged to give way to Miss Ellen Todd in the remaining heats.

After winning the first mile of the $3000 Columbia hotel purse for 2:15 trotters with The Laurel Hall, Walter Cox was obliged to draw the colt on account of lameness after which Tommy Murphy drove Princess Elawah to victory in straight heats.

The best time of the afternoon was hung up in the 2:12 pace when Abbael, favorite, traveled the second heat in 2:04 1-2. The Thomas entry took the race in straight heats with King Binger and Robert M. taking turns at hurrying the winner along down the stretch. Lou Pile and Noble Angel were even up favorites in the 2:10 trot. The former traveled true to expectations by taking two of three heats.

Mrs. Mollie Mallory Not at First Inclined to Admit Superiority of French Champion

NEW YORK, July 20, (AP)—Unconvinced that she is not a better tennis player than Mollie Mallory, who defeated her recently at Wimbledon, Mrs. Mollie Mallory, American champion, came home today, vowing that she will go back to England next year "if I am alive" in the hope of again meeting the French star.

Mrs. Mallory admitted she was "in a temper" when newspaper men questioned her as the ship came up the bay. She at first declined to make a statement, declaring she had been "misquoted so often I am afraid to open my mouth." Finally she authorized the quotation: "The better player won."

She denied everything that has been published about her recent reported to have been exchanged between herself and Mollie Mallory after the match, deprecating these reports as "lies, lies, lies."

Hard on Newspapers

"The newspapers are the vilest and dirtiest things in America and if they don't let me alone they will drive me out of tennis and back to Norway," she declared.

At the solidification of Dean Mathey, American player who accompanied her, she withdrew her characterization of the American press. Mrs. Mallory said she could be quoted as saying that Mollie Lenglen is the most marvelous woman tennis player in the world. Clapping her hands in prayerful attitude she said "I swear it on the Bible. Is that what you want me to say?" Mathey pleaded with the interviewers to "remember that Mrs. Mallory is a woman, and hot tempered."

DETROIT PLAYERS BEATEN

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 20, (AP)—Fritz Bastian and Ralph H. Burdick, Indianapolis, national clay tennis champions, and Donald Boyd and Stark Franks, Columbus, were today's winners in the first round of play in the intercollegiate tennis tournament for the championship of the United States. The smashing attack of the Indianapolis duo was too much for Walter Wosbrook and Theodore Lightner, Detroit, whom they defeated in straight sets, 6-1, 9-0, 6-1.

AUSTRALIAN GOLFER WINS

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, July 20, (AP)—Walter Hagen, British open champion, and Joe Kirkwood, Australian golfer, defeated Emmet French, Youngstown, and W. C. Foxworth, Jr., Pittsburgh, captains of last year's American pro and amateur international golf teams, three and one, in an exhibition match here today.

DULUTH, Minn., July 20, (AP)—Walter M. Hoover, world's singles sculling champion, will not compete in the singles event of the Golden Jubilee regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, to be held in Philadelphia, August 3, 4 and 5, it was announced today by the rowing committee of the Duluth Boat club.

TWELVE ROUND DRAW

The Bello-Pacifist.

"H. G. Wells is known in Europe as a bello-pacifist, and truly his recent peace articles have stirred up a lot of bitterness and strife."

The speaker was Stephen Lauzanne, the French publicist. He went on: "Wells reminds me of the cantankerous individual who was about to be married. When he came to the church on the wedding morning he warned the minister beforehand that he didn't want any fuss."

He consented, however, to station himself in the aisle, the flowers decked altar, but as the minister proceeded with the ritual he got more and more impatient. Finally, when he was asked if he, Henry, did take this woman, Jane, to be his lawful wedded wife and so on, he gave a moan before the question was half through, and then turned to the congregation and said in a loud, jeering voice: "Well, I guess I came here with that intention!"

Versatility of Etching.

"The needle is the crayon; the acid adds color. The needle is something all the more eloquent because its means of expression are confined within more restricted limits. It is familiar and freely in the sketch, which by a very little must say a great deal; the sketch is the spontaneous letter. It all but reaches the highest expressions when it is called in to translate a grand spectacle, or one of those fugitive effects of light which nature seems to produce but sparingly, to leave to art the work of fixing them—Maxime Lalanne, in 'A Treatise on Etching.'"

Gentleman in His Heart.

"Tom, with apparently a strong sense of chivalry, was invited to luncheon one day with a party of college girls. He reported with contempt that night at dinner that one of the girls had kissed him; but when his father asked who she was, Tom scornfully replied: 'Mama don't tell.'"

FINE TRIBUTE IS PAID BY EDITORS TO SERVICEMEN

Address of Hanford MacNider, Commander of American Legion, Feature of Day's Session of Convention

MISSOULA, Mont., July 20. (AP)—The second day of the National Editorial association convention was featured by talks made by Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, and C. F. Kelley, president of the Associated Copper Mining company. The day closed with the annual banquet at which General U. G. Alexander, "Rock of the Marne," was the principal speaker.

The convention visitors jammed the auditorium of the Elks' temple to hear Mr. MacNider tell them the aims and purposes of the American Legion. His address was one of the most forceful heard by the delegates and his listeners at many times applauded him with a frenzy that was tumultuous. He told them that the Legion was not to be a machine that could be manipulated for political purposes, but that it was an organization that was going to keep American ideals and the American nation thoroughly American. The Legion will continue to do all in its power to see that the men who were trained in service overseas would receive the benefits they deserved.

He said the Legion in one day was instrumental in placing 200,000 men in jobs where other men had been unable to do the work.

"The American Legion knows no creed, no sect, no trace of color of any kind except the difference between constructive and destructive Americanism," said Commander MacNider in closing as he addressed his audience has ever been privileged to hear.

Tribute to Service Men

Mr. Kelley spoke on the state of Montana from an industrial standpoint. Before launching into the main part of his address he paid a glowing tribute to the men represented by Mr. MacNider. The men who answered the call of the nation and stepped forward when their numbers were called for service in the army of the United States were called the nation's greatest heroes by Mr. Kelley.

He stressed the idea that in early days of this state no one thought that this would ever be an agricultural state. The mining and cattle industries were expected to be the biggest business of the state. Contrary to the idea of everyone we now have about one-third of the state listed as agricultural land. Mr. Kelley told the visitors that the settlement of the economic conditions in Montana was not to be a class struggle but that the settlement was to be made by the growing population of the state using the constitution of the United States as a basis.

Use of News Print.
Col. W. B. Greeley, chief forester of the United States, delivered the main address of the morning. He told the editors that the per capita consumption of paper in the United States was 149 pounds, over twice as much as that of any other nation. The forests of the United States furnish the only stable supply source of the paper pulp in the country and therefore the preservation of them is a very important thing.

Twelve the editors are guests of the citizens of Missoula at the annual banquet of the convention. More than 600 persons sat down to the dinner. The feature of the banquet was an address of General U. G. Alexander, commander of the Thirty-third regiment overseas, and called by General J. J. Pershing the "Rock of the Marne." It was his statement that kept the Germans from crossing the Marne on May 30, 1918 and he told the story of the fight. He used this to show the folly of being unprepared and called upon the nation to maintain an army adequate to defend the nation.

Other speakers were Judge F. R. Stoneham of Miami, Fla.; H. H. Cunningham of Helena, Mont.; Washington Jay McCormick, Montana representative in congress.

Tom Davis of Butte was toastmaster.

The Great Cathedral.

They are more than buildings. The work of a man, a man can understand; but these are the work of ages, of nations. Nothing is marked, nothing is clever, nothing is individual nor thrust forward as artistic; they are serene, masterly, non-personal, like works of nature—indeed, they are such, natural manifestations of the minds of men working under the impulse of a noble idea.—W. R. Lethaby.

Distilling Molecule From Breath.

Men without number who were seen on the sea without water have died of thirst; yet it is now possible to distill enough molecule from the breath to sustain life. The apparatus consists of a glass tube and a bottle. By breathing in air through the nose and expelling it through the tube into the bottle, a person can obtain as much as an ounce of pure water an hour.—Youth's Companion.

Mother Got the Letter.

One time when I was going to grammar school I was in love with a boy—who was much older than I. One time he wrote me a letter in school. I loved me. Of course I cherished that letter; so I put it in my pocket. Next day was wash day. My mother found the letter and told my dad. Well, you know the rest.—Chicago Journal.

KNICKERBOCKERS AND CIGARETTES NO CRIME

New York Judge Declines to Accept Either as Evidence of Moral Depravity

NEW YORK, July 20. (AP)—Cigarette smoking and knickerbockers were by women have reached the stage of conventionality where they are not even "suggestively wrong," county Judge McCullough held today in dismissing a vagrancy charge against 18-year-old Mrs. Edna Hobbs Hoych.

The chief complaint of the police who arrested her at Bergen beach, was that she was sitting on a bungalow porch in knickers, nonchalantly puffing at a scented "tag." "I find nothing wrong, or even suggestively wrong in wearing such a costume," said the court. "Nor do I consider the fact that the defendant was smoking a cigarette evidence of moral depravity. It means she recognized that day by day women indulge in greater numbers in the use of tobacco and that such a process is considered good form in polite society."

RESULT RESTS ON NEW COUNT

Republican Gubernatorial Nomination in Nebraska Awaits Official Canvass

OMAHA, July 20. (AP)—Political observers watching progress of the vote in Tuesday's primary in the race for the republican gubernatorial nomination between Adam McCullough of Beatrice and Charles E. Randall of Randolph tonight expressed the opinion that there was no doubt it will take the official vote with mail votes permitted under the absent voters' law to decide the outcome, so narrow was the margin separating the contestants.

These political students estimated the mailed votes would total 14,000, which they thought would be sufficient to swing victory to one or the other, as with 1,857 of the state's 1,213 precincts reported the difference between their vote was less than 150, the total being: McCullough 47,490 and Randall 47,347.

Throughout the day as belated returns were reported to the Associated Press, the two candidates exchanged first and second place almost with every new report, at one time only one vote separating their totals, making it one of the most hotly contested political fights in Nebraska history.

Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock was re-nominated as democratic candidate for United States senator by a three to one vote over his nearest competitor. With 238 precincts missing, Senator Hitchcock had 46,735 votes, J. O. Shroyer of Humboldt 15,488 and Anthony T. Mahan of Omaha 9,492.

Arthur G. Way of York, who participated to the progressive party movement with Roosevelt in 1912, apparently was nominated as candidate of the newly formed progressive party for United States senator over A. H. Bigelow of Omaha.

On the Farm.

Once the farmer sown his wheat with the cradle and raked and bound it by hand. Then the horse-drawn reaper appeared, then the McCormick binder, and finally the great mechanical tractor of the present, each of which has taken the place of the one also, which has antiquated fall "recoiled from morning to night" on the best of the farms. Then horses were used to tread on the straw, and then came the treadmill thrasher, the last of which went out some fifteen years ago. Today tractor thrashers do the work.

Coquette's Explanation.

A young man recently asked one of the opposite sex why girls so frequently became engaged to several fellows at once. "A smoker like you shouldn't have to ask that," she replied with a laugh. "When you have only one match, doesn't it generally go out?"—Boston Transcript.

OFFICIALS PLAN DEFINITE ACTION CONSERVING COAL

Product of Non-Union Mines to be Diverted to Essential Transportation Lines of the Country

SHORTAGE OF COAL IS CERTAIN NEXT WINTER

A COAL shortage next winter has been made certain, according to Attorney General Daugherty, because of the mine and rail strikes.

Federal plans to secure distribution of the now dwindling supply by presidential orders to supply essential railroads and the northwest.

President Harding's committee to receive replies from governors, practically all assuring him they will protect mine operations in spite of the strike.

John I. Lewis, president of the mine workers, reiterates the determination of the union leaders to carry on the strike until they have obtained successful negotiations for a satisfactory scale wage basis.

Troops were ordered out in several states, the Illinois operators said, being promised protection in case they decided to try to reopen their mines.

WASHINGTON, July 20, (P)—Development of plans for stretching out the nation's coal supply, now dwindling under continued impact of the mine and railroad strikes, was the immediate concern today of federal officials acting in the industrial situation.

Secretary Hoover announced that within a day or two the interstate commerce commission and the commerce department would put into operation a scheme of diverting to essential transportation lines the coal coming from non-union mines and those that may be opened up in union territory, by use of priority orders governing transportation.

Not in order for coal supply from the diminished output, it was indicated, would be the northern Great Lakes ports, and should it be found impossible to avert a coal shortage, the distribution plan might be expanded to become a complete rationing of supply to other industries and territories, as necessities might appear.

Attorney General Daugherty said the strike situation already made it certain that there would be a coal shortage next winter.

Replies of governors to President Harding's invitation that they guarantee protection to mine operation in spite of the strike, continued to come to the White House, practically all assuring the federal government support.

Governors of Arkansas, Montana, Oregon and Texas had not responded to night. Governor Grosbeck, Michigan, outlined plans for opening mines there under state control with federal sanction.

In connection with a message from Governor Morrison of North Carolina, questioning the President's policy in asking the mine owners, even if the strike was necessary, to protect workers, high administration officials pointed out that responsibility for coal production in that state was small.

Mails Still Unaffected.

Reports to government departments indicated that while trains are still being withdrawn by railroads, the movement of the mails and all necessities of life continues throughout the country. Mail cars are being attached to trains with coal, running with motor trucks in readiness to supplement this service.

Secretary Hoover indicated that imports of coal from abroad might help the situation. He pointed out that several cargoes had been coming to Atlantic harbors from England since the strike began.

SOUGHT EFFECT ON JURY

Father of Victim Figures in Odd Transaction, According to Witness

LOS ANGELES, Cal. (P)—Mrs. W. A. Osgood, a customer, furnished a surprise today in the trial of Mrs. Maryann Oshenbach for the murder of J. H. Hutton, by telling of dealings she had had with Kennedy and his father, J. D. Kennedy.

The elder Kennedy, Mrs. Osgood declared, came to her place last March, during the first trial of Mrs. Oshenbach, and asked for a mourning costume for his wife.

"I asked him whether he wanted it for a mourning or for funeral," the witness said. He replied, "I am Mr. Kennedy, the father of the young man who was killed in Beverly Glen. My wife is to testify today and her trunk has not arrived. I want her to look as mournful as she did in the trial of Arthur Hutton. For it makes a good impression on the jury."

Mrs. Osgood said she told Mr. Kennedy that she had no costume of the kind he wanted. Mr. Kennedy had declared that such a conversation took place.

Southwestern Pennsylvania Bituminous Coal Field Promises Trouble with Miners

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 20, (P)—Troops were ordered out by Governor William C. Sproul tonight for duty in the southwestern Pennsylvania bituminous coal fields. A regiment of cavalry, a machine gun squadron and a motor truck company of the national guard were ordered to proceed tomorrow to police in the bituminous region.

At the same time the governor issued a proclamation calling on the people of Pennsylvania to co-operate with the president of the United States in the effort to procure coal and avert a "national peril" and to preserve law and order.

USE OF PICKETS IS ENJOINED BY FEDERAL JUDGE

Temporary Restraining Order Issued and United States Marshal Will Enforce Terms in Eastern Washington

SPokane, Wash., July 20, (P)—A temporary restraining order enjoining strikers of the Great Northern railway in eastern Washington from maintaining pickets along railroad property or otherwise interfering with traffic on that line, and charging that violence and intimidation are being used by strikers in dealings with new employees, was signed this afternoon by Federal Judge Frank H. Rutkin.

Approximately 900 Great Northern strikers here, and at Ellensburg, about three miles east of Spokane, are directly affected by the order.

Similar action, it is rumored, is contemplated by officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee and Union Pacific roads here. Enforcement of the order is in the hands of the United States marshal and preparations are reported under way to swear in an adequate force of deputies for enforcement of the order.

The defendant strikers are ordered to appear in federal court here July 27, to show cause why the temporary restraining order should not be made permanent.

Economic Restoration of Russia Fails and Sessions Adjourned

THE HAGUE, July 20, (P)—The United States government figured in the closing session of the Hague conference, which today passed into history without accomplishing its aim—the reaching of an economic accord with soviet Russia.

Catter of Belgium made the statement at the final session at the peace palace that he was authorized by the American charge d'affaires to say that the American government would adhere to the resolution which had just been adopted, whereby the governments engaged not to assist any of their citizens in attempting to acquire property in Russia which belonged to citizens of other countries.

The Hague states did not succeed in their efforts to have set up some machinery for possible continuance of the work at The Hague.

JURY AWARDS SURGEON FEE IN TANGLED CASE

Decides Woman and Her Husband Were Mistaken About Operator

Roy Eaton and Mrs. Roy Eaton are indebted to Dr. W. P. Pike, Twin Falls, in the sum of $150 for a surgical operation which Mrs. Eaton underwent in April, 1920, according to a verdict returned Tuesday afternoon by a jury in probate court after more than an hour's deliberations.

In this case Dr. Pike brought suit to collect $250 as fees for professional services. Payment was resisted by the Eatons on the grounds that the operation had not been performed by Dr. Pike but by Dr. H. W. Sawyer and that Dr. Pike had been called only in consultation. They offered to pay Dr. Pike $75. They declined also to pay Dr. Sawyer any surgical fees on the grounds that he was an osteopathic physician and not qualified to perform the operation. Dr. Sawyer testified that he had only assisted in the operation which, he said, was performed by Dr. Pike.

Members of the jury were Charles Brown, C. V. Parks, W. E. Crabtree, W. A. Falcon, R. G. Benson, R. L. Ashton.

PHILLIPS TRIAL DATE SET

Woman Accused of Murder with Hammer Will Answer Charge in September

LOS ANGELES, July 20, (P)—Attorneys for Mrs. Clara Phillips, accused of murdering Mrs. Alberta Meadows with a hammer, continued today their trial but upon interviews with their client and their refusal to give any indication what the defense would be when she goes to trial September 18. This date was set today by Superior Judge W. Brouer after the defense had argued unsuccessfully for a four months delay.

Mrs. Phillips showed her first signs of concern while the arraignment was taking place but, according to her guards, showed no perturbation while passage was being forced for her through a crowd which blocked her way from the courtroom to the county jail.

While in the court room Mrs. Phillips stared steadily into the eyes of a young saleswoman, brought there to attempt to identify the prisoner as a customer to whom she sold a hammer on July 12, last, the day before the tragedy. The saleswoman, whose name was not divulged, conferred with officials after the court proceedings, but the latter declined to state whether the identification had been made.

District Attorney Woolwine said he was ready to go on trial at once.

HITCH APPEARS SCHEME FOR NEW PIPE LINE

County Commissioners Take Time to Study City's Proposition on Water Main on Addison West

Members of the board of county commissioners and of the Twin Falls city administration agreed, after a survey of the situation Thursday, that a new pipe line is needed to carry water from Addison avenue west to serve the county general hospital and other consumers along its route, but a decided difference of opinion seems to have developed as to the portion of the expense involved, if any, that ought to be borne by the county.

Salesman on Hand
A representative of a cast iron pipe concern was here Thursday ready to close a contract for the material required, but the county commissioners declined to commit themselves without further consideration of the expense involved.

The city's proposition contemplates payment by the county for material required to build the new main from the city limits to the hospital. In the case of cast iron pipe, according to figures presented by J. T. Krivanek, city street and waterworks superintendent, the total cost would be $5,200, of which the county would pay $4,400 and the city $840. Wood stave pipe, according to the superintendent's figures, would cost $3,200, and the county would pay $1,980, leaving $1,220 to be paid by the city.

Former Arrangement Unrecorded
The city's proposition is said to be based on the arrangement whereby the main that is to be replaced was laid. No record of this arrangement is to be found, but it is said that the county paid for the pipe laid from the city limits and the city paid for the water free for the county hospital.

Several objections to removal of this arrangement seem to have occurred to the county commissioners. In the first place, it is said, other consumers, notably the natatorium, who pay for service to the city receive water through the pipe installed by the county, and again it is pointed out that the county does not receive water free for the hospital but is paying for it at a rate said to be 50 per cent higher than the rate charged to consumers within the city limits.

It has been suggested that consumers outside the city limits served through this main should divide with the city the cost of the pipe beyond the city limits, although this suggestion, admittedly, leaves the way open for many problems and perplexities in the future.

Lower Pressure Gives Relief
The main in question is one that has given the waterworks department the most deal of trouble for several months. The pipe is of the wood stave type and alkali in the ground has eaten through the wire bands that hold the staves together. Several breaks have occurred in the past two weeks. A measure of temporary relief seems to have been found by reducing the pressure of the water through this main.

Indications in Thursday's favored purchase of cast iron pipe for the proposed new main. S. G. McAnulty, city commissioner of streets and public improvements, said that he has not made a thorough investigation but was not inclined to consider use of a wood stave pipe for the replacement as any other than a temporary expedient.

BOULEY BANK SOLVENT WHEN DOORS WERE SHUT

Attorney Tells How Dismissal of Charge Against Officials
Was Won

Charges of receiving money for deposit on their knees the bank to be insolvent, preferred against D. R. Langlois and M. A. Ross, formerly vice president and cashier respectively of the Commercial State Bank at Burley, were dismissed at a preliminary examination at Burley Wednesday when attorneys for the defense showed that the bank actually was solvent when it closed its doors. Some months ago, according to statement of Frank J. Stankin, one of the attorneys for Ross, who returned Thursday.

Evidence introduced by the defense showed, Mr. Stankin said, that the bank's affairs were turned over voluntarily by its officers and directors to the state commission, in an effort to prevent the liquidation of the bank. The state commission, however, was not insolvent when it closed its doors. Mr. Stankin said. The hearing which was held before Judge J. S. M. Wright at Burley, occupied ten days. No other charges have been brought against Ross in connection with the bank case, but Langlois will be brought before the court to answer to a charge of issuing a letter containing information relating to the bank's condition which is said to be in violation of the state commission's order.

Associated with Mr. Stankin as attorney in defense of Ross was C. W. Thomas. R. T. Lawe appeared as counsel for Langlois. The notice was presented by T. M. Morris, Cassia county attorney.

to Proposed Application of Water to Other Lands

Trial in the case of George Crockett and others against Henry Jones and W. H. The case was brought in district court on appeal from the ruling of the state commissioner of reclamation approving the proposed transfer of water to the present owner of the water right in controversy and of the lands to which he seeks to transfer it. He purchased the right from Jones who filed upon it in 1916. The plaintiffs are the owners and water users of the Rock creek region.

E. M. Wolfe and J. F. Martin appeared as attorneys for the plaintiffs, and E. A. Walters, R. P. Parry and C. A. Bailey are counsel for the defendants.

SETTLING BASIN GIVEN SCOURING DURING NIGHT

Crew of 12 Workmen Remove Accumulation of Mud Collected in Three Months

A crew of 12 workmen under the supervision of J. T. Krivanek, street and waterworks superintendent, and the operators of the filtration plant, at 7 o'clock Thursday evening began work on the settling basin at the city water works. The basin had been in operation since last March. Using rakes, and playing a stream of water on the bed of the basin after it had been drained, the workmen pushed a heavy coating of sludge that had collected on the floor through drain pipes, while others scraped and scrubbed the side walls. When this was done the whole inside surface was to be disinfected. It was expected that the task would be completed by 7 o'clock Friday morning. The second settling basin is scheduled to undergo similar treatment. The city's water restrictions as to the use of water imposed Thursday night will be applied again this night.

PRISONER GETS BRIEF LIBERTY

Court Upholds Technical Objection and Perkins Visits Restaurant and Barber

Fred Perkins, Roseworth project settler who is accused of threatening to kill P. C. Meredith, president and general manager of the Idaho Farm Development company, was his liberty for a few hours Thursday when Judge O. P. Duval in probate court sustained a motion offered by Perkins' attorney to dismiss the complaint on technical grounds.

Perkins, who has been a prisoner in the county jail in default of bond, since Saturday, secured his brief period of freedom by patronizing a restaurant and barber shop downtown, and then was placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriff J. S. Hamilton on a warrant issued after a new complaint designed to meet the technical objection had been placed on file.

Perkins will be brought before the court Monday for hearing on the new complaint.

Perkins' attorney Thursday based his motion for dismissal on grounds that the complaint was defective and was taken before the warrant of arrest was issued.

At the hearing Meredith will ask that Perkins be placed under peace bond.

INQUIRIES TO PRECEDE OFFICER'S PROSECUTION

County Attorney Will Interrogate Witnesses Before Proceeding in Case

Criminal proceedings against W. H. Green, Twin Falls traffic policeman, whose method of killing an Alroed dog owned by Dr. F. E. Snook Thursday have caused considerable discussion here, will not be instituted by the prosecuting attorney's office until after witnesses to the incident have been interrogated by County Attorney Frank J. Stankin said Thursday evening.

A complaint charging Green with cruelty to animals involving penalty upon conviction of $200 or fine not exceeding $200 or imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed 10 years, or both, was issued Thursday at the instance of E. J. Hornbush, Twin Falls attorney, who was present when the dog was killed. The dog was brought here from Salt Lake and interviewed the prosecuting attorney relative to action to be taken in the case.

In an interview Thursday Green said that he struck and wounded the dog with the second shot he fired after the dog ran out at him as he was passing on his motorcycle and that the station after being wounded bit him in the leg. He denied having dragged the animal at the end of a chain on his motorcycle until after it was dead.
