

NEW PATROLMAN DESIGNATED AT STORMY SESSION

City Commission, for Third Time, Votes to Reject Appointment of Commissioner and Chief of Police.

Making a climax in the stormiest session of its three months' history, Twin Falls city commission at its regular meeting Tuesday evening voted 3 to 2 for the third time to reject the appointment by the police commissioner and police chief of P. O. Herriman...

Mayor Has the Goods

"Now would be the finest time in the history of the city to be tempted to do so by small and selfish considerations. I have got to be a man and turn it around tonight. If I wanted to, but I hope I am of too big a calibre both as a citizen and as mayor of Twin Falls to do that."

Nothing Against Herriman

A little later the mayor asserted that throughout the controversy referred to filling of the vacancy on the police force he had no word derogatory to Mr. Herriman.

Afraid of Results

"I feel afraid of the result of what people will say if Mr. Herriman is discharged. They will say that you are trying to make bootlegging more profitable to the bootlegger and to other persons who are connected with bootlegging."

GREEK KING IS AGAIN RETIRED AS RULING HEAD

Constantine, for Second Time, Steps Down from Throne—Revolutionary Army Said to be Close to Athens

ATHENS, Sept. 27, (AP)—King Constantine, bowing to the will of the army and navy, has abdicated as Crown Prince George, who married Princess Elizabeth of Rumania, becomes king of Greece.

"Until the people say they want me no more, I shall hold on to the throne," the king declared to the Associated Press correspondent last night. He accepts this swift revolution as the voice of the people.

The revolutionary army is marching on Athens and will reach the capital tonight. Three hundred army officers visited the king and urged the formation of a military cabinet. They were ready, they said, to put themselves at the head of the people to combat the revolutionists, maintain order and defend the king.

The great demonstration by prominent citizens acclaimed Venizelos a republic. There was some rioting and former Minister of Agriculture Sidiro was wounded.

Only enough, it was the former American battleship Idaho, now the Greek Lemnos, that started the revolution. In 1913, Greece bought the Idaho and the Mississippi. The Idaho was named Lemnos. The Mississippi was named the Kilkos after a famous battle against the Bulgarians.

The revolutionists announce that they will proceed to the capture of a military on their arrival in Athens.

Twice Occupied Throne

Constantine twice occupied the throne of Greece. His first reign began March 18, 1913, with the assassination of his father, George I, and continued until June 1917, when he was forced by the demands of Great Britain, France and Russia to abdicate because of his pro-German sympathies.

He was succeeded by his second son, Alexander, who was nominated by the deposed monarch and who had promised to carry out Constantine's policies despite allied threats to the contrary. For three stormy years, Alexander reigned in name only. Then his tragic death in 1920, due to the bite of a pet monkey again turned the spotlight on Constantine, who has spent the intervening three years in exile with his large family.

A plebiscite had shown that the Greeks were insistent upon the return of Constantine to the throne and while the allied governments continued to exert every pressure at their command to prevent his re-accession, the former king marched triumphantly into Athens and was crowned in December, 1920, amid scenes of the wildest enthusiasm.

Had German Education

Constantine was born August 9, 1893, and obtained his education under German tutors and army officers. Once, in 1909, he was dismissed as commander of the Greek army because of popular clamor against him, but he became a national hero in the Balkan war of 1912 when he led a Greek army in the capture of Saloniki from the Turks. In consequence of this achievement he was awarded the popular title of "The Lion of the Balkans." Prince George is the oldest son of Constantine. He also was pro-German and was excluded from succession by the allied terms which compelled his father's abdication in 1917. He accompanied the royal party to Asia Minor in 1921 and was a member of the staff of the Greek commander, General Papoulas. George was born in July, 1890, and married Princess Elizabeth of Rumania in the spring of 1921. The only other son of Constantine is Prince Paul, born in December, 1901.

Has Four Brothers

While Prince George has been regarded as heir-apparent since Constantine's return to the throne, the deposed monarch also has four brothers who were considered eligible for kingship honors. These in the order of succession are Prince George, after whom the crown prince was named, born in 1869; Prince Nicholas, born in 1872; Prince Alexander, born in 1882, and Prince Christopher, born in 1888. Christopher's wife is the former Mrs. William B. Leeds, widow of the American "tin plate king."

Democratic Members of Senate Appropriations Committee Can See No Good in Harding Administration

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (AP)—Quoting the statement of President Harding in his veto message on the hours bill that the treasury faced a deficit in 1923 of $650,000,000, Representative Byrnes, South Carolina, democratic member of the appropriations committee, says in an extension of remarks to be printed in the Congressional Record that "it annihilates leaders of his party in congress who have been bill clearing that the receipts and expenses of the government have been balanced."

According to the president, says Mr. Byrnes, they lack $650,000,000 "of being balanced and it is certain the government must continue to borrow to meet its ordinary expenses. With measures now pending providing for additional appropriations, he declares, the deficit named by the president will be increased to $850,000,000, the "largest ever incurred by the treasury in time of peace."

AMUNDSEN TRIP TO POLE CARRIES ADDED INTEREST

Intrepid Explorer Expected to Transport Mail from Alaska to Friends in Europe

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 27 (AP)—One of the most spectacular chapters in the annals of world wide postal delivery may be written when Captain Roald Amundsen, famous Norwegian explorer, wings his way across the top of the world in his proposed attempt to try an airplane from the tip of Alaska to Northornmost Europe via the North Pole.

With him in his monoplane will ride a mail sack containing letters written by Nome residents for delivery to friends in Europe.

If weather conditions had not forced a postponement of the flight until next year, these letters might have reached their destination a week ahead of the time required to make delivery by the established routes. As it is, perhaps arriving more than a year later, they will have a special historical value to their recipients who will doubtless follow the affairs of their explorer-postman with intensified interest.

According to a report by Postmaster Walsh of Nome to local postal officials, the letters were written when Captain Amundsen was about to depart from the mining town on his way to Wainwright, 100 miles southwest of Point Barrow, where he will winter awaiting favorable conditions for his proposed flight.

Other features of the celebration will include a seal battle, pony races, foot races, obstacle riding and barbecue. A ball game between Orofino and Koonkia is also planned.

On the second day of the celebration it is intended to send a quantity of historical data in a monument, which according to present plans, will be opened on the occasion of a similar gathering to be held fifty years hence, on the 167th anniversary of the camping of the Lewis and Clark expedition here.

FOG MENACE IS DISSIPATED BY CLEVER SCHEME

Residents of Pittsburgh Hereafter Will Miss Important Part of Disadvantages of Life Along River

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 28 (AP)—A large section of Pittsburgh fog was completely put out of business today by local scientists, assisted by officials of the weather bureau and experts from the United States engineering department.

The initial experiment, conducted on the Monongahela river, was pronounced "distinct success." The official fog removers expressed themselves as confident that considerable "Pittsburgh gloom" will be avoided this fall and winter, provided moderate funds are available.

The keynote of the experiment was the lubricating of the Monongahela river from Rice's Landing to a point one-half mile upstream early this morning. The reports were made public tonight.

Notified by the weather bureau that a cold wave would sweep through the valley, the scientists took the government boat Evelyn, a derrick and a barge fitted with sprinkling apparatus and proceeded to Rice's Landing. As the cold air and warmer water met, fog began to form, a thin spray of oil and organic air was spread over a broad area of the river. The fog dissipated rapidly. The air prevented union of the air and water.

Battle Between Chicago Chief of Police and the Rev. John H. Williamson Expected to Soon Come to Head

CHICAGO, Sept. 27 (AP)—A verbal battle between Charles Fitzmorris, chief of police, and the Rev. John H. Williamson, who was appointed "law enforcer" by Mayor William Hale Thompson some months ago at a salary of $10,000 a year, resulted in rumors that the resignation of one or the other might be expected soon.

The Rev. Mr. Williamson opened his attack by charging that the chief is using the police force to trace his movements while seeking evidence against gambling houses, brothels and "blind pigs." Fitzmorris replied that the law enforcer's movements were of no interest to him, but that his men had been following "Franchy" Mader, a former convict and under sentence to the penitentiary, with whom he said the Rev. Mr. Williamson had been seen. The appointment of the Rev. Mr. Williamson caused considerable comment at the time it was made because of the failure to provide him with any force or authority.

BOSTON RED SOX HOLD THE PALM

Philadelphia Athletics, cellar champions for seven years, are the Boston Americans' loudest disputant having won, back in the days of "The Million Dollar Infield," three world series, two of them in succession.

The other American league club to huddle the National league clubs twice without information are the Chicago White Sox, now a glided memory of the suspicious days, Cleveland, with Tris speaking in the only other club in the younger circuit to win a world series.

All the American League clubs except Washington and St. Louis—neither St. Louis team has won a pennant—have been champions of their ballwink.

World Series Honors Over Period of Years Safely Theirs, According to Record

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (AP)—Since 1905, when the former National Baseball commission was created, a post-season series has been held between the teams which won the championships of their respective leagues, resulting in ten victories for the American and seven for the National.

Whether this world's series supremacy denoted a better brand of ball playing in the younger league has been debated every winter in the Salt Lake Old Stove league with facts dug from the record books to prove and disprove the same assertions—and Marshall used to say, "with the same result and no casualties."

As fantastic as it appears in print the Boston Red Sox, rivals of all who are dependent, hold the palm for World's series honors, being the only club that has won the highest prize in baseball four times and one of the three in the annals of the classic that have won it two times in succession.

And more fantastic, so it seems to the fans of "Sleepy Town," the

Five in National

In the National league five clubs, New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Boston and Cincinnati, have won premier honors, the first two named twice each and the last three once each. The St. Louis Cardinals are the only National league team that has never participated in the biggest athletic event of the country.

A peculiar incident of the world's series is that seven of the 17 times it has been played the winner took four games out of five, the best four out of seven to win; three times it has been four to two games, though in the 1907 series Detroit managed to tie one game. The only other tie

OAKLEY AND TWIN FALLS TO OPEN SEASON HERE

Lincoln Field to be the Scene of Initial Contest, with School Yells and Rah Raahs

The Oakley football squad will be the Guests of the Twin Falls football team at Lincoln Field on Friday afternoon at three o'clock, in the first divisional game of the local football season.

This opening game is just as important as a championship clash as the divisional games are practically elimination affairs and the team that loses a game is out of the running as far as the championship is concerned, unless the other teams in the section lose also, which means the playing off of ties. With this system in effect, it behooves each team to give the best in them as every little movement has a meaning of its own.

Playing true to form, Coach Evans is still undecided as to what his line up will be in Friday's game, but the chances are that he will use at least 20 men in an effort to get a line on the different ends. Oakley has seven members of last year's squad and should give

CLOSED CARS

Present prices are the lowest at which Studebaker Light-Six closed cars have ever been sold.

Yet the intrinsic values are emphatically the greatest Studebaker ever offered. This means they are the best values that the industry affords, because Studebaker cars have always been above par in the amount of value per dollar invested.

Capacity production and the savings resulting from Studebaker methods of complete manufacture make these low prices possible.

Light-Six closed cars are sturdily built of finest materials and best workmanship. The bodies are the product of Studebaker skill and craftsmanship, and the prices of $1550 for the Sedan and $1225 for the Coupe-Roadster are no index to their inherent value.

When you buy a car you want to look at several makes. Include Studebaker in your list and after you have ridden in the Light-Six Sedan or Coupe-Roadster it will not be difficult to make up your mind.

The foundations of Studebaker success are quality, durability, comfort and integrity—principles that have been upheld steadfastly by Studebaker for seventy years. You can depend upon Studebaker automobiles because of the name they bear.

American Archaeologist Describes Area Once Stone Age Mining Field

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Sept. 27, (AP)—Further details concerning the un-covering on Ilo Royale of what be-lieved to be remains of homes used by miners of the stone age, while tak-ing copper from Ilo Royale, were given by William P. Ferguson, arch-aeologist of Frank, Pa., who is in Port Arthur on his way home from his sum-mer activities.

"The Royale is definitely placed as a stone age mining district," he said today. "We found pits six feet in diameter growing on the ancient rock dumps at least half a mile in width and two miles long over the whole of which we found remains of human habita-tions.

"There were larger pits which had been dug for homes. They ranged from 8 to 10 feet deep and they were protected by carefully built stone walls which kept them free from wa-ter, and apparently had been covered by wooden roofs.

"They were used as communal dwell-ings as some of the pits were 20 by 40 feet in diameter and one which was about a mile in length, was 50 by 80 feet.

"These people mined in solid rock the whole island over, but did not dig their shafts more than 30 or 50 feet deep. Their tools were black, egg-shaped stones of great hardness which are found on the shores of Black Bay, on the north shore of Lake Superior, but not on Ilo Royale."

INVESTIGATE INSCRIPTION

Name Hown in Rocks Along Green River in 1836 At-tracts Attention

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 28 (AP)—The inscription of Julian Siki in 1837, discovered recently by Cap-tain H. T. Yokoy of the lunch Chan-non Belle carved on a rock on the banks of the Green river in eastern Utah, is being investigated by Utah historical authorities. The inscription according to Captain Yokoy is carved so deeply that it will outlast the topography of the cliff dwellers which are found nearby.

Opinion has been expressed that M. Julian was perhaps a Canadian trapper who wandered down through Utah eleven years before Brigham Young at the head of his little Mor-mon band first settled in the desert wilderness on the site of the present Salt Lake City. Besides the name is being investigated by Utah histori-ans, it is being investigated by Utah historical authorities. GREAT SEASON LOOKED FOR

Football Battles Expected to Offer Brand of Entertainment Second to None

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27 (AP)—Football of a better brand than ever will be played on the Pacific Coast this year, according to expe-rienced football players and obser-vers. All agree that this season will be the greatest in the athletic history of the west. Idaho and the University of Southern California are expected to give the most exciting contest for the first time this season, they having been added to the circuit last winter. The other six conference schools are the University of Washington, University of California, Stanford University, Uni-versity of Oregon, Washington State College and the Oregon Agricultural College.

Most of the conference teams this year are "pointed" for California. California has gone undefeated for two seasons but this year loses its veteran line backs to tackle and one star half back. Andy Smith, the Bear coach, however, is confident that he will have a powerful eleven. Drick' Muller, an Ameri-can football player, is one of the stars who will be back.

The other teams are being strength-ened. Stanford has introduced the Glenn Warner coaching system, which is being used by other teams, doing the coaching and promising a strong fighting eleven. Washington, with new material and better coach-ing, hopes to regain the place held in the football university of Glimour Dolbo until the team through a victorious decade. Oregon thinks it will have the greatest team since it defeated Penn State and lost to Harvard by a lone point several years ago. Washington State has eleven veterans back. The Oregon Aggies and the U. S. C. have as yet no claim to fame. Idaho, a stranger, looks like a dark horse.

Outside of the conference some hard battles are anticipated. One will be played Thanksgiving day, between St. Mary's and the Santa Clara Uni-versity, two ancient California foes who broke apart ten years ago and who were brought together again only this season. Competitions will be keen in the Southern California Conference and the Northwest Con-ference.

STILL WORKING TO GET MATCH

American Promoters Continue Scramble to Sign Up Senegalese Batter for Go

PARIS, Sept. 27, (AP)—American prize fight promoters are still endeavoring to get Battling Siki, the victor over Georges Carpentier, in the ring. The manager of the Senegalese fighter has been the recipient during the past 24 hours of cable offers, from Tex Rickard and Tom O'Rourke, and an- other American promoter now in Eu-rope, also is bidding for the battler's services. Siki, in addition, has received an offer from Joan Wilson of Eng-land, to meet the winner of the com-ing fight between Joe Beckett and Frank Moran, which is to be held in London.

M. Hellera, manager for Siki, said this evening to the Associated Press that his last and final conditions were 1,100,000 francs, net exclusive of in-surance, to meet either Harry Wills or Harry Grob in the United States, or 1,600,000 francs for a fight with Jack Dempsey October 26, or any date thereafter. Hellera added that if he would not agree to his demands, he would not go to the United States this winter, but would remain in Eu-rope and fight England's best glove man.

REED ASSUMES MIDDLE GROUND

Missouri Senator in Favor of "Reasonable Modification" of Existing Liquor Laws

MEXICO, Mo., Sept. 27 (AP)—Declaring for a "reasonable" modification of the prohibition law, United States Senator James A. Reed tonight in an address here opened his campaign for re-election on the democratic ticket. He assailed the new tariff as the "most non-sensical scheme of plunder ever conceived by selfishness and greed," and attacked the Harding administration.

Senator Reed has been challenged by his republican opponent, Brewster, to declare himself on the prohibition question in tonight's speech before the primary campaign de-bate. He replied emphatically "as dry as the 18th amendment."

Mr. Reed stated he favored a "rea-sonable modification of the dry law so that the rights of the citizens shall be protected against unwise and un-brutal attacks of prohibition offi-cials."

No Mention of League.

Reed, who fought the league of na-tions, did not mention the league, but mentioned former President Wilson's name once in referring to Mr. Wilson's veto of the prohibition bill.

The speaker asserted he held "a sen-timental regard for the 18th amend-ment, President Harding, and was sorry for him, but even more sorry for the peo-ple of the United States."

She took her sophomore and junior work at the university of Washington but de-cided to return to Michigan for her degree.

Wife of August Borgorni, Slain by Paul Staron, Tells Jury Her Story of Murder

EBERHART, Wash., Sept. 27, (AP)—Trial of Paul Staron, confessed killer of August Borgorni of Wilson Creek, Wash., will be resumed at 10 a. m. tomorrow. Today's court session devoted largely to selection of a jury.

Mrs. Joe Borgorni, wife of Joe Borgorni, whom Staron, said he wounded on the same occasion that he killed August Borgorni, was the first witness for the state. She took the witness stand at 4 p. m. and told of what she had seen of the shooting. Her testimony included a recital of Staron's attack upon her and his at-tempt to drag her 12 year old daughter, Margaret, from the house. Staron pleaded guilty to first degree murder, so all that the jury must do is to hear the testimony and decide whether the state should inflict a pen-alty of life imprisonment or death upon the prisoner.

Too Much

A very stout man mounted the scales in a downtown drugstore the other day and dropped a penny in the slot. There was some wait, and the clank-ing and rattling of the inward of the contraption, and the pointer finally came to rest somewhere not far from the 300 mark. There was an unseen witness to the ceremony, and, as the fat man woefully contemplated the re-sult, the voice of a wee small boy piped up from behind him: "Say, Mis-ter, how many times did it go around?"

Exchanged Ideas

That the Egyptians were in constant communication with other nations is shown by the fact that Egyptian scarabs and mauls, Phoenician pot-tery and Greek terra cotta figures are found in the tombs of different pe-riods. Bronze daggers, and jewelry are fairly common and a safety pin, 8,000 years old, that would still work, is said to have been found.

OIL INDUSTRY IN SESSION

No Serious Problems but Many Minor Points in Need of Attention in Interests of Developments

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 27 (AP)—The oil industry in this city is not con-fronted with any serious problems, but there are minor matters which require correction in order that the industry may develop more rapidly, according to W. R. Boyd, Jr., of New York, confer-ee of the American Petroleum Institute, who presided at a general conference of the transportation section of the institute which opened here today.

"We do not propose at this confer-ence," Boyd said, "to formulate any definite proposals regarding transport-ation equipment or handling to be submitted to the American Railway association. We simply are discussing various minor matters, which members concerned need to consider, and the general aim aimed at is improvement in all lines of the industry."

No effort is being made, it is said, to lower transportation rates on petro-leum products.

About 150 traffic managers and su-perintendents of mechanical depart-ments of oil concerns are attending the conference.

PARIS, Sept. 27, (AP)—The French government probably will make rep-resentations through the embassy at Washington in an endeavor to have the American government admit un-der the old tariff on ten million and twelve million francs worth of goods which were on their way to the United States when the new duties went into effect.

Scores of French business men dur-ing the past few days have visited members of the ministry and protest-ed warmly against the new American tariff. Not a few of them demanded that France adopt retaliatory meas-ures.

DEMPSEY TRIES FIGHT WITH CANADIAN MOOSE

Hero of Squared Circle Wins Bout but Comes Out Sadly in Need of New Trainers

ST. JOHNS, N. B., Sept. 27 (AP)—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, won his first bout with a Canadian moose. A message reaching here today from the forests of King's county, re-ported the meeting between the king of the squared circle and the monarch of the north woods last Tuesday. The moose is dead. Dempsey escaped with a torn pair of breeches. Dempsey met his quarry in the early morning when the animal responded to the gull's call. At the first shot, the moose fell, and Dempsey, disregarding the warning of his men, rushed up and seized it by the antlers. The next moment the moose tossed its great head in a last agony, the champion was sent flying through the air, landing 15 feet away. He was unhurt, but was in much need of a new pair of trousers. The moose had an antler spread of 49 inches with 14 points, and weighed 700 pounds.

Dempsey learned today for the first time of the defeat of Georges Carpen-tier, former heavyweight champion, by the Senegalese Siki.

"I am very sorry to hear it, and very much surprised," he said. "This Siki must be a good man."

Asked if he would meet the Senega-lese, Dempsey replied that he was wil-ling to meet Siki or any other aspirant to the championship at any time if proper arrangements were made.

OFFICERS FAIL TO AGREE UPON RESULT OF TEST

Maneuvers Off Virginia Capes Bring Wide Variety of Views as to Actual Accomplishments of Planes

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 27, (AP)—Dramatically opposite opinions developed among observing officers as the results of the maneuvers off the Virginia Capes today when a squadron of torpedo bombers attacked the fleet of the Atlantic fleet, and theoretically destroyed one of them.

Seven hits were registered out of 17 torpedoes discharged, all finding their mark on the target ship. In the opinion of Rear Admiral W. A. Moffitt, chief of the naval air service, Colonel C. E. Danforth, army air service, commander of Langley field, Va. station, and other officers in all respects, demonstrating in their view, that planes equipped with torpedoes can successfully attack battleships from the surface, especially if protected by a smog.

Naval officers of the staff and line attached to the battle fleet, on the other hand, generally contended that today's experiments only proved that the planes are effective within a limited radius from their base and that the two squadrons could have been annihilated before coming within striking distance of the dreadnaught, had the battleships been alerted by the usual smoke screen. They also contended that the secondary batteries of the warships under battle conditions could have blown to atoms every plane before it had an opportunity to discharge its destructive cargo.

Eighteen Participate

Eighteen planes participated in the maneuver, but one failed in the discharge of its missile. The test was staged under ideal weather conditions.

Promptly at 5 o'clock the flagship Wyoming, with the battleship Arkansas as command ship, and a limited force of the Atlantic fleet on board, and the super-dreadnaughts Arkansas and North Dakota got under way and headed for the rendezvous. The fleet rendezvoused about 50 miles off the capes and awaited the attack.

At 9:30, the lookouts on the flagship sighted the navy dirigible C-7, which was followed shortly afterwards by a flotilla of scout planes and others carrying observers.

At 10:18 the first squadron of nine torpedo planes appeared on the horizon and the battleships put on forced draught and began maneuvering at full speed to keep the attacking force astern. General quarters were sounded on all the ships and they were cleared for action while the guns were trained on the rapidly advancing "enemy."

As the second squadron of torpedo planes flew down, Admiral McDonald placed his ships so as to avoid the enemy force, keeping one squadron ahead and the other astern. Broadside Impossible

The dreadnaughts went into battle with the target ship Arkansas in the center of the line, the distance between the three warships preventing a broadside. Changing their tactics, the planes attacked on the flanks of the fleet and concentrated on the Arkansas, scoring the fatal starboard quarter.

The angle fire was kept on the other two battleships which were constantly maneuvered at full speed. The flagship Delaware escaped being hit by clever maneuvering, and the North Dakota also escaped theoretical destruction by a slim margin.

Commander Bartlett of the attacking force, maneuvered his planes around the warships, seeking every opportunity to strike a vital spot, and frequently succeeded. The crews of the battleships, handicapped by the absence of supporting destroyers, were forced to defend themselves with their rudders, their guns being silent.

Two of the planes were forced down after the test, their gasoline tanks becoming empty after they had passed the capes on their return to the naval base here. The battleship Delaware was scheduled to take part in the maneuvers, but instead, remained at anchor.

GOOD WEATHER RIDING CROPS

Conditions Over Most of Country for Past Weeks Favorable to Farm Products

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (AP)—Weather conditions in most parts of the country the past week were favorable to the rapid maturing of late crops, according to the weekly report of crop conditions by the weather bureau, issued tonight. The bureau's study showed, however, that insufficient moisture in the many parts of the country had damaged pastures and meadows and had affected fall seeded grains.

Rain was needed also, the review reported, for the preparation of the soil and the seeding of fall grains over large areas. The minimum of moisture, however, permitted harvesting to go forward rapidly. Frost occurred in Colorado and in the north end of Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas during the week, the review said, but caused little damage. Western and southwestern ranges were reported in good condition with the livestock moving satisfactorily to winter ranges in the central and upper Rocky mountains.

AGED COWBOY ANSWERS DEATH'S SUDDEN CALL

William Ireland Drops Dead at Door of Cabin in Three Creek Region

William Ireland, aged about 40 years, died suddenly Wednesday morning at his cabin about 37 miles west of Bogerson in the Three Creek region, where he had lived and worked for several years as a cowboy.

Word of Mr. Ireland's death was telephoned to Twin Falls from Wednesday afternoon by Thurston Pence, a former employer of the deceased. Coroner P. J. Grossman left on the Sunday train from Twin Falls for some days prior to his death. Mr. Ireland had complained of ill health, and it is believed that death was the result of stomach ulcers. He had arisen and stood just outside the cabin door when stricken by the fatal attack Wednesday. He called to Forest Page, a companion, inside the cabin, but before Page could reach him he was dead. Mr. Ireland was unmarried. He was well known among residents of Bogerson and the stockgrowing districts in that vicinity.

DEATH WINS FIGHT FOR LIFE OF WOUNDED CHILD

Elizabeth McNutt, Three Years Old, Dies from Effects of Bullet Wound

Contending against parental devotion and the utmost efforts of surgeons, death won the battle for the life of little Elizabeth McNutt, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McNutt, Bogerson, when she was wounded yesterday afternoon at a hospital here, resulting from a bullet wound through the head accidentally inflicted at the family home last Friday morning. With the removal of the deadly leaden pellet, and the return of the little one to consciousness, hopes for an eventual recovery were held out, but a turn for the worse was observed a few hours before the little one expired. The body was taken to Buhl, where funeral services will be held.

Flames Active for 38 Years Break Out With New Violence

Miners Forced From Property by Spread of Blaze from Mine Two Miles Distant

NEW LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 27 (AP)—A burst of flames which tonight soars a score of feet in the air, today forced miners from a mine almost in the heart of Shawnee, near here.

The fire, it is believed, sprang from the old New Strataville underground mine, about two miles from here, which has been burning for 38 years.

The blaze will stop the production of several miles and the working of several thousand acres of coal lands.

SHOWS GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 27, (AP)—Bill Ketchell, Arizona welterweight boxer, tonight reversed a decision which had been given in his favor by three judges watching his match with Jake Stahl, local lightweight.

After the judges had given the fight to Ketchell and Referee McMahon had raised Ketchell's hand, Ketchell shook his head, then walked across the ring and raised Stahl's right hand saying: "You won, Jake."

The fans gave the fighter a big cheer for his sportsmanlike act.

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Would You Buy A Good Coat for Twenty-five Dollars

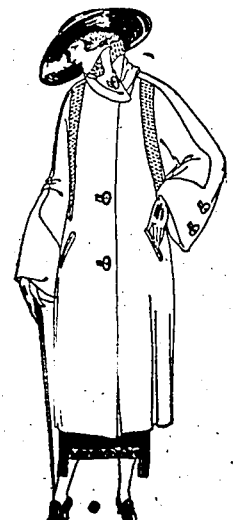

We repeat: "Would you buy a good coat for twenty-five dollars?" We mean by this a coat that from a standpoint of material, quality and workmanship is worth more than $25. There are just 15 coats, sizes from 16 to 46. Every one of them is different in style.

There are 15 women in Twin Falls who will get a new Fall coat, a good one, for less than they could expect coats of this class to cost.

The materials are all wool velour of fine soft quality. Every coat is fully lined, most of them have fur collars. All are nicely trimmed, and each one is distinctive.

We urge that you visit the department early, for values of this kind will go out readily.

THE HAND OF DEATH

The sympathy of all goes out to the parents and relatives of John Lloyd Owens, high school student, news of whose death at Nampa reached Twin Falls yesterday.

Young Mr. Owens was a splendid representative of the highest and best type of young manhood. Ambitious, industrious, with a strong mentality and of recognized ability, he numbered his friends by his acquaintances and the position which he had won in the estimation of older men will not soon be forgotten.

A PIONEER PASSES

Word comes to Twin Falls of the death of George B. Frazier, reporter, editor and telegrapher, and in early days the guiding spirit of The Twin Falls News.

From nineteen hundred and five until nineteen hundred nine Mr. Frazier resided in Twin Falls, Idaho, weekly, he recorded the changes in and the progress of the community and the developments over the great Twin Falls South Side tract.

Frazier was of the stuff of which pioneers are made. In the days when Twin Falls was composed mostly of tracks, farms were represented by cleared patches among the sagebrush stretches and most of the small alleys of living were conspicuous by their absence, he was in his element.

The Olive Tree of Athens. The olive tree is the emblem of Athens, in memory of the famous dispute between Minerva, the patron goddess of Athens, and Neptune. Both deities wished to found a city on the same spot; and referring the matter to Jove, the king of gods and men decreed that the privilege should be granted to the one bestowing the most useful gift on the future inhabitants.

SUGAR MAKERS PREPARING FOR FALL CAMPAIGN

Harvest of Crop in Twin Falls Region to Begin October 2 to Provide for Early Operation at Plant

With the purpose of beginning the season's campaign between October 10 and 15 at the Amalgamated Sugar company's factory here, harvesting of beets grown in the district tributary to the factory will be started October 2, according to letters sent out by the office containing suggestions for the mutual advantage of growers and the company in connection with the harvest.

Will Grind 60,000 Tons There will be ground at the Twin Falls factory this season approximately 60,000 tons of beets, according to the statement Wednesday evening by W. T. Scilly, superintendent. Of this amount approximately 20,000 tons will come from fields within Twin Falls and the rest will be brought here from other south Idaho best-producing sections.

Although the acreage in the Twin Falls area, especially, is considerably less than that devoted to the crop in past seasons, prospects for yields are "exceedingly good," Mr. Scilly said. The company has not given publicity to its estimates of crop production, but will make public the record of yields after the harvest season has opened.

Makes Harvest Suggestions In connection with the harvest of the crop the company makes these suggestions in its letter to the growers: In the first place the water should be shut off in time so that the ground will be in good condition for harvesting.

Secondly, see that your beet pulp is going in the ground deeply enough to avoid beets being broken, and part of them being left in the ground. This is especially true in the case of beets which are also sugar, as a broken beet loses sugar very fast.

Thirdly, start your harvest promptly, and spread the time of harvest, as doing this you will need to be helped, and you will be putting money in your own pocket.

Striking out the harvest we can have a greater percentage of the beets in cans, which means less shoveling into piles for the grower, and less shrinkage in sugar content, which under our contract means a higher price for beets.

The fourth important point is to see that beets are delivered free from trash, such as leaves and stems, and other trash. If this foreign substance is received, it slows up the factory, consequently running up the cost of the sugar in the market. If you are interested with the company in keeping down the expense.

Our service at the dumps will be the best possible, and we have your operation in getting the best results.

Will Reduce Tare You should insist on your labor doing a first class job of topping in the field. This will result in a lesser tare at the receiving stations and more satisfaction all around. If you have any complaint to make, do so at once. If they are at the stations, but take it up with the fieldmen or agricultural superintendents.

We realize that there is a large acreage of potatoes to harvest, and we ask of you not to delay the beet harvest until your spuds are dug. You can start to harvest beets as soon as you can stop and harvest spuds with the same force, and in this way keep the factory running, and avoid a rush at the latter end of the harvest.

The greatest loss in the beet sugar business is the loss of sugar in stored beets. This loss appears to average according to all available figures, one pound of sugar per ton of beets per day in storage. Inasmuch as our present silking scale beet contract is based on the percentage of sugar in the beets as they are at the factory, the price paid for beets to the growers can be somewhat raised by the growers stretching out their deliveries, in the season, by reducing the proportion of immature beets harvested, reducing the quantity of beets carried by the company in storage and reducing the period of time the beets are kept in storage.

SUGAR COMPANY'S CLAIM IS SUSTAINED BY COURT Jury at Rupert Returns Verdict in Accordance with Motion of Twin Falls Attorney

JURY DECLARES DAWSON GUILTY OF BOOZE SALE

Brings in Verdict of Conviction on Misdemeanor Charge in Case of Lodging House Operator Charged with Felony

Paul Dawson, operator of the Weaver rooms, Twin Falls, who was charged by the prosecuting attorney with habitual violation of the prohibition laws involving, upon conviction, a possible sentence of imprisonment for from one to two years in the penitentiary, was convicted of illegal sale of liquor, a misdemeanor involving a maximum penalty of six months in jail and $500 fine, by the jury which returned its verdict at 10 o'clock Wednesday night, after 11 hours deliberation.

Released Under Bond

Judgment of the court will be pronounced upon Dawson next Saturday. Immediately after the verdict was read, Judge W. A. Babcock ordered Dawson committed to the custody of the sheriff. Later the order was changed and Dawson was given his liberty until time for his sentence under the $1000 bond which he had previously furnished.

Salesman Contact Figure

Dawson was charged by the prosecution with having sold liquor to E. D. Ferguson, Kansas City traveling salesman, who used in negotiating the alleged purchase a marked bill that had been furnished by Twin Falls police.

Testifying in his own behalf Dawson denied selling liquor to Ferguson and explained his own possession of the marked bill with the statement that he had received it from Ferguson in payment for room rent. Defense counsel also introduced the testimony of two witnesses from Contact, Nevada; to the effect that Ferguson had brought liquor from Salt Lake to Twin Falls.

FRIENDS OF G. B. FRASER TO BE FOUND EVERYWHERE

Telegram Announcing Death of Former Editor of The News, Pays Handsome Tribute

One of the most widely known men on the North Pacific coast, a newspaper man who had never seen many of his friends—died yesterday, says the Portland Telegram announcing the death last Sunday of George B. Fraser, former editor of the Twin Falls News. The Telegram continues:

He was George B. Fraser, operator of the Associated Press in Olympia, Wash., who was with that organization in Portland until a short time ago. Death was caused by paralysis. He was 65 years old.

Fraser had been a reporter, a newspaper owner and a telegrapher. His activities took him to Chicago, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Boise, Twin Falls and many other cities from which his acquaintance stretched out along the long trail of telegraph wires.

A rival of wit, coupled with a perfect blending technique on the old hand key made him a personality on the wire. Because of his outstanding skill with the old instrument he hated the automatic "bug" now generally used for sending.

He once did politics for the Boise Statesman and owned a paper in Twin Falls. Fraser was a graduate of McGill university at Montreal.

His mother and a brother live in Tofield, Alberta. Another brother, James Fraser, is a banker in Vancouver, B. C.

NOTICE REGARDING SEASON TICKETS

The season tickets of the High School which are now being sold will admit the holder to all regularly interscholastic contests, such as Athletics, Debate, Declamation, etc. There will be certain contests which are not regularly scheduled to which the season tickets will not admit.

The State Board of Control of the Idaho Inter-Scholastic Athletic Association decides where the Inter-Scholastic and Sectional and State Championship contests are to be played, and has charge of the finances of those games; the season tickets will not admit to Inter-Sectional or State Championship games, whether they are played here or elsewhere.

There are usually from twenty-five to thirty-five regularly scheduled contests, which means that those who buy tickets get the admission for less than 10c per game, whereas those who buy single admission tickets pay from 30c to $1.00 for admission to football games and from 25c to 50c for basketball games and baseball games. The saving in buying season tickets, therefore, is very evident.
