

INVOKE RECALL IN CASE OF TWO LODGING HOUSES

City Commissioners Revoke Permits Issued in Cases Where, Attorney Says, Prohibition Law Was Violated

Licenses issued to two operators of lodging houses in Twin Falls were revoked by action of the city commission at its meeting Tuesday evening. The disqualified operators were Mrs. Florence Squibb of the Lyman rooms, and Celia Dawson of the Weaver rooms.

The commissioners voted unanimously to revoke the licenses after S. D. Davis, city attorney, in response to a request by Commissioner S. S. Atch, had announced that in each case the license holder had been convicted of violation of the prohibition laws.

In City's Interest. Resolutions declaring the licenses null and void were introduced by Mayor J. D. Tucker, who said he was making the matter up to be done by Commissioner J. E. Roberts, who was absent from the meeting.

An application for license submitted by the successor to Mrs. Squibb as operator of the Lyman rooms, was tabled by the commissioners with brief comment.

Will Help Build Road

Four hundred dollars is the amount authorized by the commissioners to be expended by the city in conjunction with the Twin Falls highway district in improvement of a, quarter mile stretch of road leading east from Blue River road to the highway. The road crusher plant toward the sugar factory. Total cost of grading and graveling this road which extends along the south boundary of the highway district is estimated by the highway district at $1,983, and by J. T. Krivanek, Twin Falls superintendent of streets and waterworks, at $1,500. The road is to be graveled with gravel from the gravel pit located on the west side of the road, about one-half mile from the gravel pit now connected with the highway. The amount of the city's appropriation for the work is estimated by the highway district at $1,500. The work is to be done by the city and supervised by Commissioner S. G. McAuley.

Insurance Policies Lacking

Inability to find any record of insurance to cover the fire loss, and the fact that the insurance policy on the dwelling houses at the filtration works was reported to the commissioners by City Clerk J. L. Mee. The subject was referred to the clerk and the superintendent for further investigation and inquiry as to the necessity for insurance in each instance. Commissioner McAuley, who introduced the subject, was asked to report at the next meeting his recommendation as to letting to J. S. Mullins again next year of approximately $2,000 of late in the vicinity of the filtration plant.

Mr. Mullins paid under a lease that will expire next December, a rental of $325 for the property. The city considers the rent too high, but will take the place next year if the figure is reduced. The commission endorsed Commissioner McAuley's recommendation that the city employ its engineer at $7.50 a day instead of on monthly salary basis. The commissioner reported that E. J. Canning, city engineer, had employed good deal of the time during the next few months with work at Milnor, and had consented to the per diem arrangement.

Questions Item of Expense.

Commissioners, all of the course of his examination of bills against the city, found a claim of $325 for a motor-operated pump and recalled that the commissioners had been assured that the pump would not cost more than $200. He accepted the explanation offered by the street superintendent as to necessity for obtaining a pump that would be required to pump water from the Salt Lake concern that supplied the machine.

The commissioners considered and placed on file the monthly reports of the city treasurer, chief of police and police magistrate, and ordered warrants drawn in payment of claims against the general fund.

The sum of $5,025.23, against the street sprinkling fund in the sum of $725.36, and against the waterworks fund in the sum of $59,101.63.

WATER WHEEL FIGURES IN NEXT CASE IN COURT

Dispute Between Machinist and Butcher Over Claim for Wages to be Aired

Jurors will be empaneled Tuesday in district court here in the trial of the case of J. S. Lawrence, doing business as the Lawrence Machine and Iron works, against C. B. Janks, formerly operator of an abator and meat market here, wherein Lawrence instituted suit against Janks to collect $670.50 alleged to be due on account of labor and materials furnished.

In an answer and cross-complaint the butcher denied any indebtedness to Lawrence and alleged the fact to be that Lawrence had contracted to construct and install a water wheel to operate a dynamo at the slaughter house and that the wheel was improperly constructed, wherefore Janks asked that Lawrence take nothing and that Janks be awarded $500 damages.

In answer to the cross-complaint the machinist said that the water wheel was built in accordance with specifications upon which the butcher and the butcher agreed, and renounced his claim for recovery of a fifth alleged debt.

Anchor B. Wilson is attorney for Lawrence, and T. K. Heckman for Janks.

WIDOWER DENIES WIFE'S SANITY

Mental Derangement is Alleged by Husband Contesting Will of Woman Dead at Own Hand

Mrs. Stella Starr was mentally unbalanced as a result of grieving over the death of her husband, George Starr, who she executed a will five days before her death, August 11, 1921, at her own hand at the foot of the lad's grave, according to the testimony of witnesses who were present at the funeral. The will was contested by the estate of George Starr, husband of the dead woman, who is contesting the will in the district court here. The will was executed by the second son, Dale Starr. Witnesses who testified Monday included fellow workers at a mercantile establishment here where Mrs. Starr was employed, and L. A. Snyder, superintendent of the Twin Falls cemetery, who told of Mrs. Starr's visits to the grave of her son and of finding her body after the shot that ended her life.

Under provisions of the will which is being contested, Mrs. Starr constituted the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company as executor of her estate which consists of Twin Falls real estate that has been appraised at $9,000. The husband and remaining son are to receive the net income from the rental of the property, and in the event of the death of both husband and son, the property is to be sold and the proceeds divided equally between the children of Mrs. Starr.

According to Judge E. A. Walters of counsel for the husband, Mrs. Starr persuaded her husband to deed the property to her about a month before her death, the agreement being that she was to make a will naming the husband as her executor. The husband was to receive the net income from the rental of the property, and in the event of the death of both husband and son, the property is to be sold and the proceeds divided equally between the children of Mrs. Starr.

The estate is represented in the trial of the case by E. M. Wolfe and J. F. Martin.

DUNNING TALKS HERE ON PROGRESSIVE PROPOSALS

Third Party Candidate for Congress Addresses Audience at Open Air Meeting

Political issues from the viewpoint of the progressive party in Idaho were discussed Wednesday evening in the city park here by Dow Dunning of Boise, candidate for representative in congress from the second district. The address was heard by a group of nearly 100 persons, who braved decidedly chilly weather to attend the open air meeting. Mr. Dunning opened his speech with a reference to the protective tariff policy, which he denounced as a "scheme to keep the country in a state of small business man." He continued with the discussion of the planks of the progressive party's platform declaring for a new tariff, a guarantee of mining property, a guaranty law and other proposed reforms. Mr. Dunning was introduced by O. G. Zuck of Kimberly, an one who had come to Idaho in 1901, worked as a farmer, miner and in other capacities and served as a member both of the state house of representatives and the state senate. "If only a candidate elected, and we confidently expect that he will be," Mr. Zuck said, "Idaho will be represented in congress as it has never been represented in a long time."

ADVICE FROM HAGERMAN ENDS HUNT FOR CARSON

Sheriff Discontinues Search for Man When Word Comes that He Has Been Seen

Search for Fred Carson, Bull laundry wagon driver, who was reported missing since last Saturday morning was discontinued Wednesday by Sheriff E. B. Sherman upon receipt of advice that the missing man had been seen Tuesday afternoon in the vicinity of Hagerman. The sheriff expressed the belief that Carson was leaving the country. It was assumed that his wife had been informed of his whereabouts.

Carson, according to reports to the sheriff's office only this week, spent Friday night at Castleford. He left there on foot after attempting vainly to start the car in which he made the trip there. It was suspected that Carson might have been in the vicinity of George Sandholtz, owner of the National laundry, where Carson was employed, stating that Carson's accounts were paid.

Both Sheriff Sherman had P. O. Heriman, acting deputy, participated in the search for Carson Tuesday.

HODGIN OUT OF RUN FOR BENCH

Twin Falls Attorney Whose Name Was Written In on Ballot, Declines Nomination

Shad L. Hodgkin, Twin Falls attorney, who was nominated on one of the Republican candidates for district judge by voters who wrote in his name on the ballot at the primary election, has declined to make the race because, he says, while "I fully realize that it is a great honor to hold and fill the office of district judge, I have made other plans for the future and cannot be a candidate for that high district office."

Mr. Hodgkin's withdrawal from the race leaves a vacancy to be filled by the Republican candidate for district judge. Judge T. Bailey Lee of Burley is the other republican candidate for the district bench.

Mr. Hodgkin's letter to the secretary of state declining the nomination, which was mailed Tuesday, is as follows: "At the primary election held in the city of Twin Falls, Idaho, I was nominated for the office of district judge of the Eleventh judicial district, comprising the counties of Twin Falls, Jerome and Blaine. I hereby decline to be a candidate for the office and request that you not place my name on the official ballot for the office. I am not now a candidate for the office."

"I desire, however, to take this opportunity to sincerely thank my friends for the honor conferred upon me by their placing my name upon the ballot and for the many kind expressions of assistance in the coming campaign. I should determine to remain in the race. I fully realize that it is a great honor to hold and fill the office of district judge, but I have made other plans for the future and cannot be a candidate for that high office."

CANNON POINTS OUT REMEDY FOR IDAHO TROUBLES

Commissioner of Agriculture, Discussing Political Issues at Buhl, Contrasts Constructive with Opponents' Plan

BUHL, Oct. 4.—(Special to The News)—Idaho's troubles are not the result of taxation but of difficulty in selling Idaho products, said a prominent Miles Cannon, state commissioner of agriculture, told an audience of about 100 persons at the city hall here this evening. "Grow the crops and sell them at a profit, and our troubles will disappear," the commissioner said.

Low prices for Idaho farm products, Miles Cannon pointed out, are a consequence of importation of foreign agricultural products. He referred to the arrival some time ago at Vancouver of a carload of 27,000 cases of eggs from China, and the fall of foreign prices. Cannon said that the price of butter following the arrival at San Francisco of a large quantity of the product from New Zealand was 10 cents less.

Tariff Affords Remedy.

The new tariff law, the commissioner promised, will tend to rectify this situation. It provides for payment of duties of 30 cents a bushel on foreign corn and 25 cents a bushel on foreign wheat; 8 cents a dozen on foreign eggs; 8 cents a pound on foreign butter; 4 cents a ton on foreign iron and 50 cents a ton on foreign steel.

Idaho needs an export market, Cannon said, adding that after the war when C. C. Moore, the republican candidate for governor, was asking for the loss of the crop of 800 acres of wheat, his opponent in Boise was selling goods at 100 per cent profit.

Shows Change of Front.

The democratic party in Idaho, the commissioner said, was now a force to be reckoned with. He pointed out that the democratic party in 1917, argued upon the legislature the desirability of abolishing various courts and departments, and the replacement of the state government by a commission of governmental powers. "This," the speaker said, "is the very thing he is now attacking."

Records of the state auditor's office, Mr. Cannon said, showed that the number of employees on the pay roll of the state in July, 1917, was 295, and in the corresponding month this year the number was 325. The pay roll for July, 1922, was $5000 less than it was for July, 1917, the records show.

Commissioner Cannon was introduced by J. W. Taylor, candidate for prosecuting attorney. Sheriff E. B. Sherman, and County Auditor C. C. Sigbee, who were present for re-election, attended the meeting.

Reception Marks Climax of Social Events of Week

Appreciation Beams From Faces of Dancers Among Visitors Here for Institute

Teachers of eight counties and institute instructors were guests of honor at a reception and dance Wednesday evening at the Lavering pavilion that marked a climax in the program of entertainment provided by citizens of Twin Falls to make the visitors' stay here during institute week a pleasant one.

The occasion witnessed one of the largest assemblages ever brought together on the floor of the pavilion, and enjoyment was plainly written on the countenances of each of the scores of guests who were present. A veritable tide of humanity under the spell of the music. Guests and hosts alike were put at their ease at the beginning of the affair by the announcement of M. C. Mitchell, conductor of the institute, that formal introductions were out of order.

Decisions with which the Twentieth Century club's committee had beautified the hall for the reception given by that organization last week were still in place, forming a gorgeous contrast to the success of the institute. Guests at the reception, in addition to the visiting teachers, included members of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, Kiwanis, and other organizations, and the husbands of Twentieth Century club members. All were met and welcomed at the doors by members of a committee of young women, and which was composed of Mrs. W. F. Pike, Mrs. J. A. Walker, Mrs. R. F. Ligon, Mrs. O. A. Enos, Mrs. E. C. Simpson and Miss Alberta Simons.

JEROME WINS
BATTLE WITH
GOODING MEN

North Side Teams Put Up a Splendid Exhibition at Lincoln Field; Weight of Players Decisive Factor

The Jerome high school football team defeated the Gooding high school team Thursday afternoon at Lincoln field by the score of 13 to 0.

For the second time in a week Gooding has fallen before the heavier Jeromeites, having lost its regular scheduled game at Jerome last Friday by the score of 13 to 0.

Gooding has a much lighter team than Jerome, and consequently failed to hold, when Jerome got busy with line plunges.

Jerome made a touchdown in the first quarter, when Turley blocked a punt on the 20 yard line, line plunging carried the ball over the line for the first counter. On a fake kick formation, Jerome failed to take the ball over for the extra point.

In the second quarter, a series of forward passes, combined with some excellent end runs by Turley, gave the Jerome team their second touchdown. Schag placed-kicked the goal, giving them 13 points. This ended the scoring for the remainder of the game, although the Gooding lads were within striking distance several times.

Jerome Does Good Work

For Jerome the work of Turley Schag, and O'Rourke is worthy of special attention. Turley is the spirit man of the Jerome school, and is a wonderful man on defensive play. Schag is a player of no mean ability and is the place kick man of the team. His effort at trying to place kick from the 40 yard line was a neat piece of work. His kick hit the cross bar and bounded back. In every play, Schag was by far the best man on the Jerome line. O'Rourke does most of the line plunging for the team and seems adept for just such a job.

Gooding's stars were Park, Cromwell and G. Prince. This trio of back field men did exceptionally well considering the lightness of their line. The first quarter brought out the fact that Jerome was a bit the stronger on line plunges, and kept at that method of attack, mixing in a forward pass now and then. A 20 yard forward pass, O'Rourke to Schag, was a feature of this session. Jerome scored one of their two touchdowns in this period, the scoring resulting from a block kick and line plunges.

Aerial Plays Tried

The second quarter showed Jerome trying aerial plays for long gains, finally crossing the Gooding line. Schag placed-kicked goal.

The third quarter was the most exciting of the afternoon. Jerome getting to within one yard of the goal line, only to fall in getting the ball over. On the last down they attempted to place kick which also failed to bring home the bacon.

The last quarter found the ball in Gooding's possession most of the time, and although they seemed to brace up, the necessary punch was missing when a few yards meant a touchdown. Gooding used a good many passes in this section, and made long gains. Jerome, however, always got through their line when they attempted end runs and line plunges.

PUNTS AND PASSES

By FULLBACK

A few minutes talk on the Burley-Twin Falls game of Wednesday.

Burley has some team even though they didn't score.

Did you see that fellow Kerabinski tackle the local?

When that boy puts them down, they stay put.

Two more men on the line like Kerabinski and Burley would be unbeatable.

And how about "Buzz" Cannine? seen in those parts. "Buzz" is the whole thing, as far as the Burley backfield is concerned, taking the ball practically all the time, besides calling signals, and doing all the punting. We would like to see this streak of lightning perform in his college football togs.

Cannine and Kerabinski are the two main cogs in the Burley machine, but Coach Underwood has several likely looking lads who will prove a tower of strength in his team next year.

Garrity, for the locals, covered himself with glory in Wednesday's game. In a tall, rawboned boy is fast running into shape, and his ability to handle the pigskin should make him one of the most reliable passers in the state.

I gave the fans something to talk about Wednesday, his tackling being close to perfect, and his improvement in punting was a revelation. Forty yard punts seem to be his favorite fruit.

It has been said that Garrity thinks he is Swift because he has hands like Hama.

Walter Selck, the unassuming fullback of the team, played a stellar game against Burley. This chap can stand enough punishment for three men, and yet he never gets too credit due him. Can it be that the fans take it for granted that Walter is a star, and doesn't need any assistance from the bleachers?

And how about Jenkins? This likely looking backfield artist is rapidly showing the coach that he can be figured on at any time to go around the end for a gain. And when "Jen" hits the line, let it be said that the line is hit.

Three forward passes were completed in Wednesday's fracas, and all three were headless. Robinson's catch of the first one was the clever piece of work. By the way, this Robinson boy isn't the poorest man in the world at right end. "Stew" went into the game this season to be hit and a regular, and hard work has placed him within striking distance to say the least. Go to it "Stew."

David Alyard snaked into the game just long enough Wednesday to prove that his performance against the Oakley team was not a flash in the pan. "D" intercepted a forward pass three minutes after he got into the game for a touchdown.

John Leiser is another of those players that one never hears about, and it is a known fact that when K few yards are needed through John's territory, there is usually a hole made wide enough to drive a team of mules through.

And "Pat" Flynn, on the other side of the line, looks better every day. This sterling player keeps the pep in the line and watches every move made by the opposition.

Len Scott showed a marked improvement over his playing in the opening game, and with Frank Powers as an able sub, Coach Evans would lose many nights' sleep worrying about a quarter.

Frank Powers looked awful good out there against Burley. His tackle of Cannine when the latter got through the line was a dandy piece of work. Frank is a hard worker, and when he's recting the team, the team works hard.

Apples for Health.

There is much truth in the old saying, "An apple a day keeps the doctor away." The food value of the apple lies principally in its acids and mineral salts, all of which are valuable in ridding the body of accumulations which develop upon secretion into very decided poisons. Apples purify the blood and give tone to the organs of digestion.—Exchange.

FILER TO ENTERTAIN BUHL
IN FOOTBALL GAME TODAY

Two West End Teams of This Division to Battle for Supremacy This Afternoon

Filer and Buhl will clash this afternoon at three o'clock on the football gridiron, in the second scheduled football game of the season.

Buhl, smarting from their defeat last week at Rupert, are putting forth their best efforts to give the west end fans a chance to see them in victory. Filer, on the other hand, is out for the state title, and Coach Deaman will use his best men against Buhl today.

The west end team has been held back this season on account of injuries, but Coach Buhl promises that his team will be out there trying every minute of the time.

A large crowd of Twin Falls fans are making arrangements to see the game, as it will give them a line on Filer, they being the next team to invade Lincoln field for a try at the Blue and White.

While Filer and Buhl are vying for honors at this end of the division, Rupert will journey to Oakley for a friendly encounter. There are no games scheduled on the northside.

FRESHMAN INTELLIGENCE TO BE MEASURED AT MOSCOW

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Oct. 5.—Freshman intelligence will be measured again this year by a series of tests to be conducted by Professor J. W. Heston, head of the department of psychology. Although the tests are prepared primarily for freshmen, all new students will be required to take them.

It is the plan of the department to examine 150 a day until the list is exhausted. The tests will begin October 10.

"A more comprehensive test will be given this year," according to Professor Barton, "which will show better comparative results with other means of evaluating student possibilities."

GOING AFTER NEW RECORD

Heaviest Monoplane Ever Launched Engaged in Effort to Capture Honors for Sustained Flight

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 5, AP.—The huge monoplane T-2 in which Lieutenant John A. Macready and Oakley Kelly started today to make a new record for sustained flight after fog had balked them temporarily in their attempt to fly to New York without a stop, still was circling over San Diego late today.

The aviators had announced that they would try to remain in the air until 4 a. m. tomorrow or later, to capture the sustained flight record. Officers at Rockwell field said that when the great machine went into the air at 5:56 a. m. today its total weight was 10,900 pounds, more than ever had been carried up before by an aeronautical motor.

NATION WIDE DROUGHT DUE TO ODD CAUSE

Moisture Bearing Atmosphere
Largely Stationary With Large Part of Country Suffering as Result

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The weather bureau just has acted right. That is the only explanation of the United States weather bureau can make for the protracted drought which grips a great portion of the country. Meteorologically speaking, the winds and the barometric pressures are acting contrary to nature. The air is sluggish and there is little movement in high or low strata, consequently the moisture-bearing air cannot journey over the country.

With the exceptions of California and the northern Pacific coast, Florida and the east gulf coast, there have been few areas where any rain to speak of has fallen for four or five weeks. There is a "low" extending from Washington, D. C., to south of Knoxville, Tenn., which is hardly moving and which forms a barrier to moisture-bearing winds. When that moves away, the bureau says, there will be some chance of a change for the better.

Crop Damage Small
Although the present dry spell is making somewhat of a record for territory covered and length of time, agricultural and meteorologists declare it has been marked by an exceedingly small amount of crop damage. The preceding warm weeks rapidly matured corn and other crops, cotton and truck stuff, and the harvest generally is practically over. Some little damage may result to late corn, it was said by agriculture department officials, but this probably will not be extensive. The main trouble, from the farmer's point of view, is that winter wheat is being retarded by inability to get the ground in condition.

While farmers have not been bothered greatly over crop damage, great loss has been done by forest fires in arid sections and in some areas have been expressed in this country and Canada for inhabitants of forested areas.

5,000 Are Homeless
In northern Ontario 5,000 persons have been rendered homeless, an undetermined number are feared to have perished, their towns have been wiped out and at least four others partially destroyed. Tentative estimates of the property loss amounts to millions. With no prospect of rain, it is said the forest fires will have to burn themselves out.

In northern Minnesota an area of about 100 square miles is burning in many places, fires of this nature have been reported. While it is thought no lives have been lost in that state, due to the long warning residents have been given, several towns have been destroyed and others damaged by the fires.

Because of the danger of fires, Governor Baxter of Maine has ordered the hunting season closed.

Streams Drying Up
The drying of streams and reservoirs in many sections of the country has been reported. Water has failed and farmers and small-town residents have been forced to haul water long distances.

Weather bureau officials can see no relief from drought and also from the general attending high temperatures in any section of the country, except where local showers are reported. From nine cities throughout the middle west have come reports of temperatures higher than any ever before recorded for this time of the year. For at least 24 hours, fair and generally warmer weather is predicted.

It will soon grow cooler in the northern Rocky Mountain regions and in the northern plateau region due to widespread showers there, and indications are for cooler temperatures in the north Atlantic states.

Few Lake Storms
One reason given for the dry and hot spell is that during September, the month of storms on the Great Lakes, only one storm has been reported. Until changes appear in the Pacific off the northwestern coast, little relief can be expected for the northern and western states, and until storm clouds appear in the Gulf of Mexico, the central and eastern states can expect a continuation of the dry spell, the forecasters say.

ALLIED DEBTS MAIN SUBJECT

Suspension of Obligations of Foreign Countries to America
Occupies Bankers' Time

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—The allied debts to the United States and German reparations and settlement of these problems as they may affect the industry and commerce of the United States were the outstanding topics of interest at the third and closing session of the convention of the American Bankers' association here today.

While Sir Reginald McKenna, former chancellor of the British exchequer, in an interview, said that he believed that the new tariff law would increase prices in this country to such an extent that foreign merchants would be able to lower the tariff barriers and remain in the American market, the bankers expressed the hope that "the president will not hesitate to make use of the power granted him by the new tariff law to make such adjustments in the schedules as may be necessary from time to time for a restoration of our international commerce."

Suspension of the debts of France, Italy and other European debtors of the United States for a period of ten years was recommended by President Arvin W. Kravert of the Equitable Trust company as a means of taking the allied debt question out of politics for a definite period and creating an atmosphere of judicial aloofness in which the subject might be approached.

Must Keep Faith
Any cancellation of Europe's debt to the United States at the present time would not assist either France or Italy in collecting reparations from Germany, he asserted. America must and will keep faith with Europe, he concluded, but Europe must do her part and keep faith with herself.

Henry Morgenthau, former United States ambassador to Turkey, in an outline of the situation in the Near East, hailed the British forces at the Dardanelles under Sir John Harington as the saviors of the civilization of the world in the last two weeks.

"Turkey is a fostering bill which must be destroyed," he asserted, before there can be peace in the Balkans.

Value of Yawning.

Horiculture in Mustaches.
Children are consistent and logical in their thinking, if nothing else. Uncle Jim removed a mustache he had worn for a year or so. A relation remarked she never had seen Uncle Jim with a mustache, and another member of the family said, "Oh, yes, he grew it about two years ago." "And he plant the seed?" Little Nabhis asked.—Indianapolis News.

ORGANIZATION OF HOMES URGED AS DUTY TO YOUTH

Massachusetts Commissioner of Education in Public Address,
Points Out Responsibilities to Future Citizens

Existing conditions sound a challenge to homes to organize in order that social activities of the young people may be properly guided and directed, Dr. Payson Smith of Boston, Massachusetts commissioner of education, told an audience of about 800 persons including many Twin Falls parents as well as teachers attending institute sessions, in a lecture Thursday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church on the subject of "Some Responsibilities of a Community to Its Youth."

The lecture was one scheduled for the Thursday evening institute assembly, which was held in the large rooms of the church building in order that a general invitation to Twin Falls citizens might be extended. It was preceded by a pipe organ recital given by Mrs. T. R. Nielsen, resident pianist, and chorus singing in which the entire assemblage joined, under direction of T. R. Nielsen, director of fine arts at the Idaho Technical institute. The speaker was introduced by Mr. E. H. Wells, superintendent of Twin Falls schools and conductor of the institute.

Should Protect Schools
"We who are taxed to maintain the public schools ought to see to it that these schools are protected against those things that make life work ineffective," Dr. Smith said in introduction to the lecture.

There should be maintained, he said, a suitable home atmosphere, and boys and girls should be kept in that atmosphere at least five evenings each week. Necessity for organization of homes to attain this object then was pointed out by the speaker.

Among the things that handicap the work of the schools, Dr. Smith mentioned corrupt political conditions and the police in this connection to the strike in Boston and to the stand taken by Vice-President Coolidge, then governor of Massachusetts. "The action taken by the governor and the effect it had upon the citizenship of the state, Dr. Smith said, has been reflected in easier and simpler enforcement of regulations in schools since that time.

Measure Civilization March
Declaring that "so long as we can look and see an increasingly high standard in homes we may be sure that civilization is advancing," Dr. Smith declared that any industry which does not attempt to pay its workers wages that would permit of a decent home life "ought to be wiped out or re-organized."

Dr. Smith urged proper provision for playgrounds, declaring that a responsibility rests upon communities to show young people how properly to dispose of their leisure.

He declared also for maintenance of a high standard of qualifications for teachers, and for acceptance by parents and art for which they had been trained. He declared disposition to economize at the expense of the schools, declaring that it was fair that future generations should bear a portion of the cost of the war, but that it was not fair that they should be handicapped for living by lack of proper education.

AIRPLANE COMPANY SUED

Fraudulent Contracts Basis of Action in Federal Court in Connection with War Time Work

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 5 (AP)—The United States government this afternoon filed suit in the United States district court at Dayton, Ohio, against the Dayton Airplane company, formerly known as the Dayton-Wright Airplane company, seeking to recover $2,493,207.41 at six per cent interest from June 31, 1919, alleged to have been fraudulently paid to the company by government officers.

The government in the suit alleges that certain provisions in the contract entered into with the Dayton Airplane company by duly authorized officers were wrongful, unlawful, fraudulent and void. The government action states that because of the national emergency at the time war was declared, the government was not able, with the facilities at its disposal, to furnish the Dayton Airplane company with the equipment necessary for its purposes.

The government's claim reiterates seven contracts and supplements, among which are two contracts in which the government agreed to provide the defendants with $2,500,000 to carry out the contract.

Paid Enormous Sum
The bill continues that during the progress of work under these contracts the government paid to the Dayton Airplane company the total sum of $31,436,175.11 as payment under the terms and conditions of such contracts and supplements.

The complaint says that the government was not obliged to make such payment. The bill continued that officers of the government disregarding their duty, fraudulently paid the Dayton Wright Airplane company $849,820.17, which payment was pretended to have been made under the terms of contract as a bonus for the saving in cost of construction. For the alleged operations of an amusement park, the government claims that $30,686.28 was unlawfully paid the defendant under the pretended claim of welfare expense. The amusement park was known as the Triangle park, Dayton. The complaint further alleges that $17,100.21 was paid the defendant for motion picture expense, for which there was no provision in the contracts.

PEACE MEET BROUGHT TO SUDDEN END

Near East Conference at Mudania Halted with Chances of Resumption Uncertain—Serious Break Impends

EVACUATION OF THRACE IS CAUSE OF CONFERENCE BREAK

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5 (AP)—The question of the evacuation of Thrace was the cause of the rupture in the Mudania conference, it was announced at a late hour tonight. The attitude of the Turks and Greeks is very hostile, threatening the success of the conference.

"Turkey has set her heart on Thrace and must have it immediately," said a Turkish official. "We will have it peacefully, if possible," he added, then paused for a minute to make more effective the next phrase—"but if not peacefully, we have the means to enforce our determination. And we must do it, and shall do it."

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5 (AP)—Abruptly though not unexpectedly the Mudania conference came to a halt this afternoon. When it will be resumed is a matter of conjecture. Brigadier General Harrington, commander of the allied forces, and head of the allied delegation, returned this evening on the battleship Iron Duke, and the Italian delegation also came to Constantinople.

It is understood that the allied generals will go into conference with the high commissioners on certain serious differences which have arisen at Mudania.

Various explanations for the separation of the delegations are given in the rumors which quickly developed here. The one most generally credited relates to the evacuation of Constantinople.

According to unofficial information, General Fashu, the nationalist representative, at the afternoon conference, suddenly raised the subject of the evacuation of Constantinople. General Harrington replied that that would come after the conclusion of the peace treaty as set forth in the joint allied note. Harrington was posted on an earlier evacuation and it was found impossible to reach an agreement for the present on this important point.

French Non-Committal
General Mombelli of Italy supported General Harrington, but the French delegate, General Charpy, was non-committal.

At this juncture M. Franklin-Bouillon, the special French envoy, intervened, declaring that he had been instructed by the French government to support the Turkish demand. The conference grew very warm and the allied members adjourned to confer with the commissioners at Constantinople.

Both General Harrington and Mombelli have asked for further instructions from their government. If these are received in time, it is possible that the conference may be resumed at Mudania tomorrow afternoon.

Another report was current, but accepted as only a partial explanation, that the stoppage of the conference sessions, partially was due to the necessity of the Greek delegates referring all matters for decision to their government at Athens.

FOR BENEFIT OF SCHOOLS

Spokane Inaugurates System of Sub-Health Centers Under Direction of Red Cross Officials

SPOKANE, Oct. 5 (AP)—Establishment of sub-health centers in various grade schools of Spokane, under supervision of the Red Cross health center in this city has been undertaken.

The first of these sub-centers opened recently in the Stevens grade school with Miss Helen McGee, Red Cross nurse, in charge as supervisor.

Each Tuesday afternoon for an indefinite period the class at the Stevens school will be conducted. This work will deal with infants and children under school age, and will be of value to all who care to take advantage of it. Infants will be measured, weighed and examined. It is also planned to extend work offered to classes in home hygiene and care of the sick.

The Red Cross plans to establish four such sub-centers in different local grade schools in cooperation with the Spokane school board.

"Damaged" Wood In Demand.
Old cypress trees are often attacked by a fungus that leaves the heart wood pitted and perforated with minute holes. The wood from such trees is called pecky cypress, and until recently has been almost worthless. Lately, however, architects have discovered its decorative value for interior finish, especially where an antique effect is sought. In consequence pecky cypress is in great demand and bids fair to become the Cinderella of the whole cypress family. Builders are even offering special prices for the "peckiest" specimens.—Youth's Companion.

Question of Appetite.

LONDON UNEASY OVER OUTLOOK

Mudania Conference Dispatch Reaches Home Office in a Badly Mutilated Condition

LONDON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The Mudania conference has separated, not finally, but in circumstances of serious difficulty. An important dispatch from General Harrington reached the government this evening. It was sent by ship's radio and stated with reference to Thursday's proceedings that the conference had adjourned and asked for instructions.

The dispatch arrived in a very imperfect state, the conclusion of it being altogether missing. It was sufficiently obvious, however, that a very unsatisfactory state of things had developed at Mudania and the premier hurriedly summoned a late meeting of the cabinet.

The ministers met at 11 o'clock and after a long and earnest discussion decided that General Harrington's dispatch was too mutilated to take a final decision thereon. They accordingly decided to send an urgent message to him at Constantinople, where he stated he had gone, asking for a repetition of the dispatch and requesting him to remain in Constantinople pending receipt of further instructions. The cabinet then separated.

General Harrington's reputation is expected to reach rare sums this during the night, and if it does the ministers will resemble Friday morning to prepare instructions.

JURY SAYS BUTCHER MUST PAY FOR DEFECTIVE WHEEL

Returns Verdict After Three Hours' Deliberations Supporting Mechanic's Claim

A jury in district court here Thursday, after three hours' deliberations, awarded to J. S. Lawrence of the Lawrence Machine and Iron Works, judgments against C. D. Janka, butcher, for damage to a motor vehicle. The vehicle, built for the butcher to operate a motor at the Janka slaughter house, and which it was admitted, failed to function for a year and a half. The vehicle was built in accordance with specifications which Janka, at least, approved. He asked for $870 for labor and material in making the vehicle. The jury found that the butcher denied any responsibility for failure of the wheel to operate as it was intended to operate, and brought in a claim for $1000 damages based on alleged waste of material used in construction of the wheel and for loss of time and materials. Trial of the case occupied two days. The case was represented by Asher B. Wilson and J. Paul Thoman as counsel, and T. K. Hackman appeared as attorney for the butcher.

Arbitrary Arrests of Traveling Cars by Small Town Officials Leads to Unusual Action by Commercial Club

YAKIMA, Wash., Oct. 5 (AP)—Free legal advice for motorists arrested for violation of traffic laws in town of Yakima, the first incorporated town south of Yakima, is to be furnished by commercial organizations in Yakima valley, in an effort to curb activities of the speed officer and judges at the city. The stretch of pavement in the city limits of Union Gap looks just like any other piece of pavement, it is claimed, and has become known as a speed trap. Other towns fear that its fame will spread and keep tourists out of the valley. Hence the free lawyers. "Union Gap is not out to get flagrant offenders, but to get money," the Yakima Valley Commercial club declared in a resolution, "terminating actions of the small town 'arbitrary and unreasonable.'"

FACES SERIOUS CHARGES

Wanted, Fred Tom, of KX KX KX, Indicted for Using United States Mails to Defraud

ATLANTA, Oct. 5 (AP)—E. Y. Clarke, imperial wizard pro tem of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, was indicted by the United States grand jury here today on charges of "using the mails to effect schemes to defraud." He was released on bond of $500.

The charges against Mr. Clarke, who yesterday announced his resignation as pro tem of the Klan to take effect October 10, are based on the true bill rendered by the grand jury, on alleged use of the mails in collecting money from certain members, subordinate officers and employees of the Ku Klux Klan on the pretense that premiums would be used to pay premiums to surety companies furnishing bonds for these members.

The indictment alleged that the sums collected were in excess of the amount required to pay such premiums and that this excess was converted to the personal use and benefit of Mr. Clarke.
