

JOHN ANDERSON
MEETS DEATH IN MILL ACCIDENT

Elkora Company Employee at Jarbridge, Well Known Here,
Fatally Injured When Caught
by Moving Belt

John Anderson, aged 35 years, former resident of Twin Falls and Mackay, Idaho, died here Monday afternoon from shock and hemorrhage attending the loss of his left arm which was mangled and almost severed in an accident Saturday night in the Elkora mill at Jarbridge, Nevada, where he had been employed for about two years as mechanic and floor foreman.

No Witnesses to Accident.

There were no witnesses to the fatal accident, although another workman in the mill at the time rushed to Mr. Anderson's assistance when the injured man called out and summoned help. Anderson is believed to have attempted to push a belt off a pulley immediately after electric current operating the plant had been shut off. His hand and arm were caught and crushed between the belt and pulley and he was thrown violently. The mangled arm was amputated at the shoulder Sunday morning at the hospital here.

Long Trip to Hospital.

The trip here, a distance of about 90 miles, largely over mountain roads, was made in four hours' time. The injured man was accompanied by Dr. Emory, a physician residing at Jarbridge. Mr. Anderson was born in Sweden, and was brought while an infant to the Twin Falls area and reared by Dr. Emory and Mrs. C. B. Anderson of Twin Falls, who survive him.

He leaves also his wife and three little children, Marie, 11; Margaret, 9; and Betty, 5, and a sister, Mrs. C. L. Bowen of Twin Falls.

During several years' residence in Twin Falls, Mr. Anderson was employed as an automobile salesman by the J. A. Barrell Automobile company, and other agencies. He was engaged in mining during his residence at Mackay, Idaho, and returned to Jarbridge for funeral services for Mr. Anderson, who was announced Monday evening, will be held Wednesday afternoon at the P. J. Cronan chapel, Jarbridge, and will be conducted by the Rev. Edgar L. White, of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Camera and Pen Place 'South
Idaho Metropolis Before Active and Retired Employees

Four pages of the October number of the Union Pacific Magazine, released Monday by the Chamber of Commerce, are devoted to a descriptive article and group of pictures of scenery, crops and buildings in Twin Falls and vicinity.

With the picture of Twin Falls occupying the central position, there are grouped around it pictures of Stanley lake, Red Fish lake, Blue lake, Snake river canyon, Balanced rock, Thousand springs, Milner dam, Hansen bridge, alfalfa stacks, corn field, beet field with sugar factory in the background, and the Twin Falls post office.

By way of introduction to the article, the following quotation from the Kanan's biography of E. H. Harriman appears:

"I explained to Mr. Harriman," said the late W. H. Bassett, general manager of the Oregon Short Line, "that I thought Idaho would be the best state west of the Missouri river. It was called Idaho, and it was a new state, more land to be put under cultivation, ranges in abundance for sheep and cattle, and mines, coal lands and timber reserves second to only one other western state."

The Union Pacific Magazine is distributed free each month to more than 50,000 active readers, and is one of the Union Pacific system and also has a general circulation.

LePage Layton Displays Nerve and Endurance When Leg Is Broken in Horse's Fall

With his leg broken in the hip and knee when his horse fell on a ranch about six miles south of Hansen early Sunday afternoon, LePage Layton, 30, a native of Twin Falls, Idaho, crawled, dragging the injured member, on his hands and knees about a quarter of a mile to the ranch house. The slow and painful progress occupied almost five hours. From the ranch house an ambulance was summoned from Twin Falls and the injured rider was brought to the county hospital here, where Monday morning he was reported resting comfortably.

Layton was caught under the saddle horn when the horse apparently stepping in a hole, plunged suddenly forward. Attendance on the ambulance and at the hospital spoke Monday in terms of praise of Layton's nerve and endurance.

Funeral Services for
Mrs. Sarah D. Bowers

Under the auspices of the Burley lodge of Elks, which last February conducted funeral services for her husband, the late J. E. Bowers, funeral rites for Mrs. Sarah D. Bowers, one of the earliest settlers of southern Idaho, will be held Thursday morning at Burley, and the body will be taken in the afternoon to occupy a grave beside that of her husband in a cemetery at what is now Artesian City, where for more than 30 years Mr. and Mrs. Bowers made their home.

Death of Mrs. Bowers occurred Monday afternoon after an illness of only about two weeks duration. During the spring and summer months her health was apparently excellent. She made her home after the death of her husband at their residence in Burley where they resided after leaving the ranch home. Since early summer her son, James Bowers, made his home with her. The only daughter, Mrs. Keller, arrived Wednesday from San Francisco

WALTON QUILTS
SUIT TO OBTAIN
FREE PAVEMENT

District Court's Order Approving a Request for Dismissal of Action, Marks Close of Interesting Incident

Suit instituted in district court here March 24 by E. P. Walton against the Warren Construction company for recovery of $100,000 damages, "representing the cost of removing defective pavement and substituting a new return to the city of $100,000," as the amount then paid to the Warren company on its contract to construct the pavement and paving, was Tuesday abandoned by Walton when through his attorney, H. C. Mills, he asked and received from the court an order for dismissal of the action without prejudice.

Follows Defendant's Move.

Walton's motion for dismissal of the suit followed a few days after the appearance of the Warren company for removal of the action from the court to the federal district court. This application was based on the grounds that the Warren company was a defendant state, the Warren company being incorporated in another state.

Representatives here of attorneys for the Warren company, when the application for removal was filed, expressed the opinion that the application in itself brought further proceedings in the case under the jurisdiction of the federal court.

No Effort to Force Issue.

Records of the court here show that after the filing of the suit, shortly before a municipal election here last spring, no steps were taken by Walton to press the questions raised by an issue, and the application of the defendant for removal of the suit was the first move made in this direction.

Hager is held a prisoner in default of $500 bail pending judgment on the charge of intoxication. J. F. Dunn, brother of Al Dunn, who appeared in an intoxicated condition at the police station Sunday evening, according to the officers, inquired in regard to the arrest of his brother, who was one of three persons who were Monday sentenced by the police magistrate on charges of having been intoxicated when they were arrested Sunday. City Commission Defers Action on List of Consumers Elig-

Possibility of action by Twin Falls municipal administration providing for refund in the form of credit for water service in the amount of some $3,250, if the city industry was to be ordered, Mr. Barber said, in southern Wisconsin where he has spent the past several weeks, and daymen of that region are giving serious consideration to the statements Wisconsin dairy authorities who visited Idaho and reported that twice as many dairy cattle can be supported on an acre in irrigated Idaho as on an acre in the best dairy section of Wisconsin.

Indicating the desirability for development of the dairy industry in Idaho as a means of meeting the transportation situation, Mr. Barber quoted figures showing that to be shipped by freight on a quantity of hay sufficient to produce a carload of butter that can be shipped an equal distance at $100.

Twin Falls' quota is the same this year as last when the traffic organization was established here.

In rural districts the campaign for funds for the support of the traffic association has been in progress since the farmers' picnic and mass meeting held here two weeks ago under the auspices of the Rural Federation of Women's club.

Members of the five teams which will launch the campaign here Tuesday are:

Beneficial effects from the visit to Idaho last August of national leaders of the dairy industry were also observed, Mr. Barber said, in southern Wisconsin where he has spent the past several weeks, and daymen of that region are giving serious consideration to the statements Wisconsin dairy authorities who visited Idaho and reported that twice as many dairy cattle can be supported on an acre in irrigated Idaho as on an acre in the best dairy section of Wisconsin.

Fun and Jollity Reign Supreme in Initial Session of Four Day Frolic—Street Parade
Draws Heavy Crowds

Entrusting the spirit of holiday that is to reign supreme in Twin Falls until the closing hour Saturday night, the Elks' Circus and Carnival, staged in the new home of the Elks' lodge here, was opened Wednesday evening with an initial attendance and manifestations of popular enthusiasm which bids fair to set a new record for community festivals in southern Idaho.

Gate keepers' records showed that 1,400 people bought tickets for admission to the scene of festivity and indications pointed to even larger attendance on succeeding evenings, although for almost four hours Wednesday evening, the available stock of range of popular enthusiasm which bids fair to set a new record for community festivals in southern Idaho.

Gate keepers' records showed that 1,400 people bought tickets for admission to the scene of festivity and indications pointed to even larger attendance on succeeding evenings, although for almost four hours Wednesday evening, the available stock of range of popular enthusiasm which bids fair to set a new record for community festivals in southern Idaho.

Many turned away
Many who gained entrance into the scene of festivity Wednesday evening will return again to see spectators at the closing circus, as well, because the performance is one that bears repetition as because accommodations proved too small for the crowds that sought admission on the opening night. Midway attractions, including the famous fish, fry, and other food, and shows for men only and for women only, piled a rushing business and contributed largely to the gaiety of the occasion.

Throughout the evening crowds clustered about the various booths, at which candy and other wares were dispensed among those who paid admission, and where the gold of chance, or where soft drinks, "hot dogs" and other refreshments were available to quench the thirst or appease the appetite of the merry makers.

Little Folks Make Merry
Little folks in the carnival crowd gravitated toward an attractively appointed "fish pond," and their elders were drawn toward a strikingly new and original display of the gold of chance, or where soft drinks, "hot dogs" and other refreshments were available to quench the thirst or appease the appetite of the merry makers.

One of the most striking booths was Donnelly's "country store," where a wide and successful display of merchandise was handed out by vendors, costumed in the garb of rural storekeepers of tradition.

Taylor's gypsy camp, where Miss Julia Taylor, who was another of the more elaborate attractions, an open fire and several attendants in the costume of gypsies adding color to the setting.

In the basement in Hell Morgan's establishment, there were revived scenes of the wild west of story books and motion pictures, with various games of chance ranging from craps to roulette, and a dance hall, and where soft drinks under other names were dispensed. All of the attendants of the establishment were costumed in keeping with the traditions of such places.

Dance Attracts Many
Thinking of the crowds about the booths and in the wild west setting was attended with a proportionate increase in the attendance at the dance, conducted on the third floor in the Elks' lodge hall and ball room, where dancing was continued until midnight, and the gates were closed on the carnival parade.

No traveling circus parade has brought to Twin Falls a larger assemblage than that which thronged the streets in the carnival parade that preceded the opening of the circus and festival. Under the direction of Howard E. Sablin, there was assembled in this parade a succession of floats and marching organizations, that in point of interest, has not been exceeded by any similar event here. Exposed to the parade was a parade of floats and marching organizations, that in point of interest, has not been exceeded by any similar event here.

Lodge Float Pleasing
Members of the four fraternal orders of the lodge typifying the Elks as big brothers to former service men, Boy Scouts, Salvation Army and children, came to the parade in a succession of floats and marching organizations, that in point of interest, has not been exceeded by any similar event here.

Floats that followed represented the attractions of the circus and carnival, the wild west feature being represented by the veteran stage coach that served needs for transportation in pioneer days.

Three bands were in the line of march, the Twin Falls band at the head, then a band of local musicians, and finally the Elks' burlesque band. Just ahead of the parade that did service as a calypso, came the animals of a grotesque menagerie.

Members of the four fraternal orders preceded a hose cart representing Twin Falls' former fire department, and the motor company of the town.

CHILD FIGURES IN MURDER CASE

Woman Who Shot Husband and Stenographer Will Be Tried Only for Latter Crime

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Catherine Rosier, who, on January 21, shot and killed her husband, Oscar Rosier, and his stenographer, Miss Mildred (Jerry) Rockitt in Rosier's advertising agency, came to trial today. Assistant District Attorney Maurice J. Spolier, in charge of the commonwealth's case, elected to try the defendant on an indictment charging her with the murder of Miss Rockitt alone, a procedure strongly opposed by John R. K. Scott, chief counsel for the defense, who urged that she be tried simultaneously on this and the indictment charging murder of Rosier. Judge Norris B. Barratt ruled in favor of the prosecutor. Only two talismans had been sworn in at the end of the day's session. Throughout the long, wearying court day devoted to impaneling a jury, Mrs. Rosier, reduced by nine months in jail to a mere semblance of her former self, managed for the most part to maintain a calm attitude.

Baby in Court
Judge Barratt permitted the presence of the Rosier baby, Richard who is a year old, in court, despite Mr. Spolier's plea that he be excluded. Richard sat quietly in the arms of his aunt, Mrs. Ralph Chapelle of New York. The judge said he would decide later whether he would allow the mother to hold the child.

At the close of the morning session, Mrs. Rosier broke down and sobbed. In the sheriff's room she said, tearfully:

"I am trying to stand it, but, oh, it is so hard."
She would not eat until told that if she did not she would not be permitted to hold her baby. She then relented and for forty minutes—almost the entire recess—hugged and kissed the child.

Following the close of court it was reported that the defendant was placed in the care of a physician who said that she was suffering from an attack of indigestion.

DEATH CAUSE CLEARED UP

Francis Schlatter, King of Healers, Victim of Hemorrhages Induced by Tuberculosis, Autopsy Shows

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 19 (AP)—Francis Schlatter, widely known as the "King of Healers," who died in a rooming house here Monday night, came to his death as a result of hemorrhages induced by tuberculosis, according to the coroner's autopsy, which was announced after his widow had expressed the belief that her husband had been a victim of foul play.

The police, however, continued their search for a woman who acted as Schlatter's nurse and who disappeared shortly after he died.

According to Mrs. Schlatter, her husband's death ended a five months' search for him which she conducted, beginning last June 15, when he left her in Chicago and started for Milwaukee on a lecture tour.

Schlatter, according to his widow, was born in Alsace-Lorraine, 60 years ago and was brought to the United States when two years old. In 1895 when he was a cobbler in Denver, Colo., his power to "heal" the sick and crippled attracted wide attention.

His fame over the country practicing the "laying on of hands."

PROVIDE RELIEF FOR NEAR EAST

Two Steamers to Leave With Food and Clothing for Victims of Turkish Troops

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 (AP)—Two steamships will leave soon from American ports filled with food and clothing for refugees in the Near East.

One of the vessels, a shipping board steamer, will proceed by direction of President Harding, who, in requesting Chairman Laaker to furnish the ship, declared there was good reason for further government assistance in Near East relief activities. The other ship, the steamship Stuyvesant, will leave New York October 24, with one thousand tons of food and wearing apparel, according to an announcement by the American Red Cross.

Chairman Laaker, responding to the president's request, notified Dr. James L. Barton, head of the Near East relief, that the Coeur d'Alene, now at New York, was available and that if the cargo was not ready, another vessel would be furnished at the convenience of the relief agency. The Coeur d'Alene is capable of carrying 5,490 tons.

In directing the assignment of a shipping board vessel, the president wrote to Mr. Laaker as follows:

"You are familiar with the great relief work in the Near East, which has been undertaken by the American Red Cross and the Near East relief organization. This great work is in response to the promptings of the American people and the sacrifice of time on the part of American citizens, but I think there is good reason for us to do everything possible in a governmental way to further the most appealing enterprise."

PLEADS FOR PATIENCE WITH THE RAILROADS

Fall and Winter Transportation Problems Promise to Tax Tolerance of Operating Departments

CHICAGO, Oct. 19 (AP)—The vital part that railroads play in the welfare and prosperity of the farming industry as well as the country at large, was stressed by C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad, who addressed the annual convocation of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers here.

"A few months ago railroads found it difficult to provide storage space for idle equipment and now they are hard-pressed to supply cars needed for the transportation of coal, farm products, building and construction materials and many other commodities," Mr. Markham declared.

"Business will continue to be good and railway traffic will be heavy this fall and winter, and there will be some unavoidable inconvenience to shippers. However, if the public will be patient, realizing the handicaps under which railroads are struggling, and will be liberal in support and cooperation, we can go through the winter without serious distress."

The problem of transporting the nation's farm crops, usually reaching peak volume during the fall months, is further handicapped this year by the additional coal shipments necessitated by the strike which made shipments impossible during the slack summer months, he said.

The 1921 farm crop was sown and brought to harvest at materially reduced costs when compared with the last few years. This means that farmers bid fair to make profits that can be spent in the purchase of goods. "Industry generally has been getting back to normal after the long depression, although its return has been interrupted by strikes. Now, however, the industrial skies are clearing and we shall find the employment situation improving constantly."

REDUCE ROYAL GUARDS

TOKIO, Oct. 19 (AP)—Instead of 2000 police being ordered out to line the streets and order people from upper windows who were an important member of the royal family makes an appearance, as has been the custom for centuries in Japan, the authorities have decided that the number shall be reduced and are considering a proposal to allow the people to pay respects to the emperor or empress from upstairs. Should a member of the royalty decide to drive across the city, a large force of police was ordered out, street cars were stopped, traffic diverted, every person strictly scrutinized and upper windows ordered closed, no matter how hot it was. The patriotic Japanese, however, consider it a grave offense to look down on his emperor of divine origin.

Puzzle Team of South Central Division to Battle with Evans' Pigskin Chasers

Today is the day when the fans of this section will journey out to Lincoln field to take a squall at the Rupert squad of pigskin chasers.

This is to be a regular scheduled game between Twin Falls high and Rupert high, and not since the season started have the fans been worked up to such a degree of excitement as has been manifested in today's battle.

The cause for this extra excitement is unknown, unless it is the fact that Rupert has a team that relies on forward passes and open formations, and the local team has not been up against this style of play thus far this season and the fans are anxious to see what will happen.

Then again, it may be the fact that the season is just getting a good start and the fans are becoming imbued with the spirit of wanting to see some action. There is a lot of red-blooded fans in this section, and it takes a red-blooded football game to awaken this feeling.

Whatever the cause may be is not the issue at stake. What the fans want to know is: What is Twin Falls going to do against Rupert?

The visitors have a real good man on the lineup, with "Shinney" Nelson, star quarterback doing most of the heavy work. Stone, at right half, is a short backfield man that comes here with a reputation that sounds like a threat for the locals. "So" Lang, the running mate of Stone, as his name implies, is fond of going around the ends for "long" and runs. "Hann" Hanneman is the fullback of the team, and does most of the passing.

There you have it. Rupert has four men on the squad over the average. What will this quartet do to the locals?

Rupert will have the following men on the field this afternoon: Bartlett, Hoopes, McMillan and McElroy; tackles, Droste, Allen, Hockaday, Jewell; guards, Reynolds, Roe, McKendrick; center, Newman; end, Burley; backfield, Nelson, Tuttle, Bailey, Stone, Hammer and Long.

The officials for today's game: Whitney, Twin Falls, referee; Ruff, Paul, umpire; Kennedy, Hagerman, head linesman; Kanne, Twin Falls, time-keeper.

The game will start at 3 o'clock sharp.

Other games to be played today in the south central division are: Filer and Oakley at Filer; Buhl and Burley at Buhl. On the North Side of the river there will be two other games which will be watched with interest by Twin Falls. The Jerome-Wendell game will in all probability decide the championship of the North Side division, and on November 3 the winner of the South Side will play with the North Side champs for the right to play the winner of the eastern division. The other North Side game will be between Shoshone and Gooding at Gooding.

ENTHUSIASM RUNS HIGH

Buhl's Game With Burley is Looked Forward To With Keen Anticipation

BUHL, Oct. 19.—Football enthusiasm is at a high pitch in Buhl this week in contemplation of the football game here on Paris athletic field Friday with the speedy bunch, Burley. The game here Friday will determine if Buhl is still in the race for the championship of this section.

A paper is being circulated among the merchants of Buhl today by the local fans, asking them to close their places of business from 3 to 5 o'clock for the Buhl-Burley game. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Coach Barry has been drilling his men this week on hard signal practice and scrimmage each evening. Most of the men on the squad this year are out for their first season in football, so they are getting all of the rudimentary points of blocking, tackling and charging in the line.

The business men of Buhl presented the football team with new blankets a few days ago, and the team will make its first appearance in the new regalia on Friday afternoon.

Twin Falls and Buhl will meet in their annual gridiron battle at Buhl on October 20. Legions of tickets have come in from several of the neighboring towns. A good-sized delegation will be here from Gooding to see the game.

How Better Than Pills?
The question has been asked, in what way are Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Pills for Infants better than the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is, they are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.—adv.

WANDALS HAVE FIGHTING CHANCE WITH COUGARS

Washington State, Although Favorites, Have Hard Game Before Them

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Oct. 19.—University of Idaho and Washington State college football teams faced each other on the gridiron tomorrow. Washington is essentially the favorite through her long string of victories; but Idaho is again conceded a fighting chance, which she had against the University of Washington. Mathews is not definite as to what lineup he will start in the game and it is probable that several changes in position will be made from the team which opposed Washington.

The only break in the string of Cougar victories since 1913 when the Idaho S. A. T. C. team defeated the Washington State team, 7 to 6.

WEATHER FAVORS WORK ON FARMS

Seasonable Harvests in Full Swing; Soil Too Dry in Southwest for Fall Plowing

BOISE, Oct. 19.—Weather conditions in southwest Idaho during the week ending Tuesday were very favorable for seasonable farm work, except that the soil is too dry for fall plowing and seeding, says the weekly summary of weather and crop conditions in Idaho just issued by Clinton E. Norquest, meteorologist here. Delightful autumn weather provided for the most part daily mean temperatures were high for the season although heavy frosts occurred at night. Light rain fell Wednesday night but the days were generally bright and clear with abundant sunshine.

Apple harvest is in full swing with a good crop of excellent quality apples being secured in fine condition. Potatoes and beets are being dug, although potato digging is proceeding slowly on account of low prices. Pastures and ranges are mostly very dry, being only temporarily refreshed by light rain, and it is evident that early feeding will be necessary to keep stock in good condition.

In southeast Idaho, moderate temperatures prevailed. Light rains occurred which were followed by cooler weather with killing frosts Saturday morning. Thrashing continues. Potatoes and beets are being dug in good condition, but many potatoes are not being dug because of low prices. Range cattle are being rounded up in good condition. In north Idaho, the weather of the week was characterized by continuous sunshine and high temperatures. The weather was favorable for all farm work and the apple harvest, but it was very detrimental to early sown head lettuce. Considerable seeding was done on summer fallowed land. The ground is too dry for general plowing. Pastures holding out, but need rain. Stock are in good condition and fat cattle and sheep are being shipped.

WASH KIDNEYS IF THEY HURT

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Pains You or Bladder Bothers

Flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much meat and rich foods may form uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull aching pain in the kidneys, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. To help neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four-corned of Jax Salts from your pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer irritating, thus often ending bladder troubles. Jax Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent-lithia water drink.—adv.

Social Notes

Edited by Mrs. E. B. Williams Telephone 888

On Wednesday afternoon of this week a jolly party of ladies with lunch baskets well filled with good things to eat, motored to Churchill and spent the day with Mrs. A. G. Shade, a former resident of Twin Falls county. Mrs. Shade furnished the fried chickens, and although some of the ladies were somewhat embarrassed in trying to follow rules of etiquette laid down in the book published by the Aid society of the First M. E. church, most of them did ample justice to the splendid menu. The afternoon was spent in visiting and late in the evening the guests returned to their homes, voting Mrs. Shade a splendid hostess. Those who made the trip were Mrs. H. A. Brice, Mrs. F. L. Cogwell, Mrs. J. F. Denny, Mrs. W. T. Combs, Mrs. William Baker, Mrs. J. B. Stewart, Mrs. J. W. Hardin, Mrs. E. D. Stover, Mrs. C. A. McKim, Mrs. C. D. Weaver and Mrs. D. R. Churchill.

Mrs. A. W. Husted was hostess to the Harmony club Wednesday afternoon. The usual game of bridge was enjoyed, Mrs. H. E. Barger being the successful contestant for the club favor. At the close of the afternoon, dainty refreshments were served to the seven members and one guest present.

Mrs. James R. Behrwell and Mrs. W. O. Chapman entertained the Episcopal Guild Thursday afternoon at the home of the former on Tenth avenue north. After a short business session roll call was answered with quotations from St. Luke. Mrs. Phil Thomas read a fine paper on "Abraham, the Cosmopolitan," and Mrs. D. L. Alexander sang two delightful solos. A general social time followed during which delicious refreshments were served to the 22 ladies in attendance. Tea and coffee were served from a prettily appointed table presided over by Mrs. C. F. Green and Mrs. E. B. Williams.

Complimenting Mrs. A. S. Martyn, Mrs. H. C. Gettett and Mrs. Harold Bouty entertained with a charming party on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gettett on Poplar avenue. A clever sewing game formed the diversion for a portion of the afternoon; Mrs. E. J. Finch winning the prize. Autumn leaves and late fall flowers were used to decorate the room and a two-course luncheon was served. Those present in addition to the guest of honor, were Mrs. R. M. Liebetrau, Mrs. W. G. Crotty, Mrs. E. S. Sparks, Mrs. D. F. Clark, Mrs. William Graham, Mrs. V. Strang, Mrs. C. J. Wurster, Mrs. B. Nunemaker, Mrs. E. J. Finch, Mrs. L. H. Masters, Mrs. Wyle, Mrs. J. C. Beatty, Miss Edna Graham and the hostess.

Members of the Optimist club were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy E. Hansen on Ninth avenue north. A Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. Roll call was answered by a contest story, Mrs. Sliff winning the prize for the most amusing story. The afternoon was spent with sewing and Mrs. Goodrich was welcomed to membership.

An interesting program was given at the Woman's Council of the Christian church by division number two with Mrs. W. S. Parula as leader. The subject for a discussion was "Shall the eighteenth amendment be enforced or repealed?" The eighteenth amendment was read by Mrs. E. R. Van Cott and two vocal numbers were given by Mrs. J. B. White accompanied by Mrs. Gladys Carlson. About 60 women enjoyed the program and the delicious refreshments served at the close of the afternoon by division number three of which Mrs. W. W. Butke is chairman.

MURDER TRAIL NOW LEADS IN A NEW DIRECTION

Authorities Scout Story of Commission of Crime in Old Barn and Prepare for Entirely Different Action

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 18 (AP)—The latest investigation into the double slaying of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, choir singer, which the authorities have been guarding with such secrecy that they have considered it essential to remove their official headquarters to Raritanboro, N. J., leads directly into the home of "one of the leading families of New Brunswick," a county official said to-night.

This official, who declined to permit his identity to be revealed, is known to be in very close touch with the county prosecutors.

"The authorities are in possession of something with which the public has not been acquainted and which is being jealously guarded," he said. "We all sincerely believe it contains the solution of the crime."

Less than 24 hours after it became known that the county prosecutors, through the obtaining of signed statements, had built up a theory that the couple were slain in a vacant shed more than four miles from the spot where their bodies were found, the authorities were riddling the story to-night.

No Trace of Osm.

Examination of the floor of the building, which was said to have been used formerly as a school, is said to have failed to reveal any trace of bloodstains.

The authorities admitted that they were attempting to trace the diary of Mrs. Mills, which, it is said, she gave to the rector in exchange for his. They also said that consideration was being given to the possibility that Mrs. Mills' diary in possession of the rector had been a starting point of the crime.

In tracing this clue, the authorities learned today that a man identified as Edward Carpenter, a cousin of Mrs. Hall, was seen leaving the Hall home on the morning on which the bodies were found, carrying a tray, filled with what were said to be papers.

of the old cabinet unionists remain true to their leader. Mr. Chamberlain, the Earl of Balfour, Lord Birkenhead, Sir Lewis Worthington-Evans and Sir Robert Stevenson Horne follow Mr. Lloyd George into the wilderness, and many workers in the party-ranks are likely to go with him.

Mr. Lloyd George will make his first speech as "ex-premier" tomorrow at Guild hall, on the occasion of London's first welcome home to the Prince of Wales, but he is expected to reserve his real political manifesto for Saturday's meeting at Leeds.

Today's events may be regarded as constituting a great victory for Sir George Younger, who upset Lloyd George's plans for a February election and now has been the cause of his resignation. Mr. Lloyd George will continue to hold his seat of office to carry on current business until the new government is formed.

Mrs. Lloyd George Happy.
Mrs. Lloyd George, addressing a political meeting in London tonight said her husband's health and spirits both improve when he is engaged in a fight — "I am always pleased when there is a fight going on," she declared, "because he gives me far less trouble."

Thirteen unionists, member of the late government, including Mr. Chamberlain, Lord Birkenhead, the Earl of Balfour, Sir Robert Horne and Sir Lewis Worthington-Evans and Lord Lee, sent a manifesto to the press tonight paying tribute to Lloyd George's invaluable services to the country and protesting against the action of the Carlton club as unwelcome and ungrateful to Mr. Lloyd George. They declare they will refuse to carry such a message to a prime minister.

FRANCE NOT REJOICING.
PARIS, Oct. 18 (AP)—There is no tendency on the part of the French government to rejoice over the passing of Lloyd George and his cabinet. This was given definite assertion in official quarters. In general, the feeling seems to be that while Lloyd George was sometimes bad enough in his attitude toward the French position, Andrew Bonar Law might be worse.

The foreign office declined to make any statement on the downfall of the Lloyd George government.

BIG FIGHT IS OFF.
NEW YORK, Oct. 18 (AP)—The fight for the world's light heavyweight title between Battling Siki and Kid Norfolk, which was to have taken place here on November 10, is off. Tex Rickard, who announced today after receiving a cable message from Maurice Hellors, Siki's manager. The Madison Square Garden promoter was informed that Siki would be unable to fulfill the engagement, having decided to meet Joe Beckett, heavyweight champion of Europe in London December 7.

WILL DEFEND TITLE.
NEW YORK, Oct. 18 (AP)—Pancho Villa, American flyweight champion, will defend his title against Abe Goldstein in Madison Square Garden November 10, it was announced today. Goldstein is credited with a newspaper decision over Villa.

ANOTHER SYMPTOM.

No matter what anyone may think the I. W. W. in America are still a force to be reckoned with.

Originating right here at home in the work of "Big Bill" Hayward, for a long time it was purely an American institution, but since the banishment of its leader the movement has taken on an international complexion and its aims are no longer confined to the mere matter of raising the mischief with American industry. Its activities have been correlated, its object classified and its forces organized as a part of the World movement which has for its center the seat of Soviet government in Russia.

If this fact were clearly understood by the average man America could afford to laugh at the menace of the I. W. W., but as long as otherwise intelligent men prefer to regard occasional outbreaks, such as that at Portland, as of purely local importance, just so long will the movement of the I. W. W. continue to grow and spread.

Portland is to be commended upon her stand with respect to the latest manifestation. Portland's Mayor has assumed the right stand in the crisis with which the city is confronted.

The great general strikes at Seattle and Winnipeg, which were nothing less than ineffectual revolutions, started in just this wise.

THE MESSAGE OF THE CARS.

A car shortage is actually developing on the railroads. That is at once good and a bad thing for business. Without the cars, goods can't be moved. But happy are the days when "trade" is crying out for transportation, when railroads are bending every effort to meet demands upon them.

The figures for a two-week period in the last four years are illuminating. Here they are:

1919	1,090,592 cars
1920	1,090,285 cars
1921	1,727,193 cars
1922	1,010,210 cars

Business is hitting its stride again, and is already over the corresponding nineteen hundred twenty-one figure. A great industrial revival is sweeping the country and the indications are that it will last.

The railroads are the best barometers of general trade conditions. This increased activity means but one thing. Good times are on the way. That is the message of the freight cars.

WOMEN AS VOTERS.

Reginald B. Kauffman, who as head of the Republican National committee's bureau of publicity for women voters, has had a chance to make some observations, predicts that in the future women will vote as citizens, not as women. As for their tendencies toward party lines, "the party that sincerely wants to do the best for the country and sets about doing it first, and doing it first at home, that is the party which, in the long run, will have the support of the majority of the woman vote."

The women, Mr. Kauffman found, outclassed the men in their appetite for information. Before the committee's pamphlets of voting instructions had been in circulation three weeks, women all over the country were telegraphing for one thousand lots. When the pamphlet was continued as a magazine, there were requests for more than a million copies per issue.

In spite of this widespread publicity, the women's department had fewer ally letters than the men's. The trend of the letters received was toward practicality, common sense, and an ardent patriotism. The women went on record as being more interested in the candidate's character than in his party. Among the issues in which the most interest was shown were lower taxes, conservation, education, smaller armaments, and child labor.

Although the heat of the first enthusiasm may die away, the outlook for this new epoch in American political life is bright. Indifference is the deadliest enemy which a country's welfare has to face. It is gratifying that the women's vote is proving to be as intelligent as well as an interested one.

Bright Youngster.

The other day a precocious ten-year-old came into the office, and while her mother waited for the doctor the child entertained the whole office. She talked on every subject she could think of, and at last, looking out of the window at the dingy sky, she exclaimed: "My goodness! Ain't the smoke the winn!"—Exchange.

CLAIMS WOMAN
PLAYED TRICK

Husband Asserts Wife Took Twin to Hospital and Returned with Two Dolls

HAMMOND, Ind., Oct. 19. (AP)—Frank McNally, 39, of the aged factory worker who accused his wife of murdering twin babies he says were born to her last December asserted at the preliminary hearing today that Mrs. McNally took the children to a hospital in Chicago last January and returned with two dolls which she substituted for the babies.

Mrs. McNally, who claims that the twins never were born and that she hoodwinked her husband and neighbors by using dolls in order to satisfy her husband's ambition to be known as a father, was unperturbed by her husband's testimony.

McNally testified the twins were born December 8, last, asserted that he had seen them and that they were alive.

Miss Catherine Griffiths, 17 year old sister of McNally, who attended state witness today. She said she learned Mrs. McNally was to become a mother when she accompanied her husband to the hospital in January of 1921. She asserted that later she saw the babies in bed, alive and kicking and also saw one of the babies nursing.

SOME GOOD ADVICE

Kidney disease is too dangerous to neglect. At the first sign of back ache, headache, dizziness or urinary disorders, you should give the weakened kidneys prompt attention. Eat little meat, take things easier and use a reliable kidney tonic. There's no other kidney medicine so well recommended as Doan's Kidney Pills. Twin Falls people rely on them. Ask your neighbor! Here's one of the many statements from Twin Falls people.

Mrs. J. M. Diamond, 302 4th Ave. E., says: "I was all run down with an attack of kidney trouble. I had terrible headaches and dizzy spells and my back ached severely. I was also nervous and unable to get a good night's sleep. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and got immediate relief. Only a couple boxes were necessary to restore me to my usual good health. I have been well ever since and I gladly recommend Doan's."

NEW YORK, Oct. 19. (AP)—When Dr. M. A. Lipkind told Mrs. Lena Hoffman today that she had only a few hours to live, she summoned her three children, Fannie, 25, Harry, 23, and Dorothy, 21, to her bedside and told them that she would die contented if they knew they were all married happily.

Historian Married Seven Times.

One of the best-known examples of a much-married man is afforded by Sir Gervase Clifton, the historian of Jamaica, who married seven times, five of the brides being domestic servants from his own household. His matrimonial ventures all turned out happily.

DEATH STRIKES
TRAVELER HERE

W. H. Harris of Caldwell Falls
Dead in Midst of Conversation in Local Garage

Stricken in the midst of a conversation relating to the journey he was making by auto from his home at Caldwell, Idaho, to Los Angeles, William Henry Harris, aged 40 years, a painter, crumpled to the floor of the Idaho Auto and Supply company garage here Thursday forenoon and expired almost instantly.

Death was attributed to a valvular heart disease from which Mr. Harris had been a sufferer.

The body, which was taken in charge by Coroner P. J. Grossman, will be taken Friday to Caldwell for burial by the widow, who was making the trip to California with her husband. They were accompanied by two men traveling as passengers. The party spent Wednesday night at the tourist park here, where Mr. Harris remained while her husband drove the car for repairs to the garage where he died.

Circumstances attending Mr. Harris' death were witnessed by several employees and patrons of the garage, and after examination of the body made Thursday by physicians, Coroner Grossman announced that no inquest was deemed necessary.

Mr. Harris was received Thursday night into the home of G. E. Duke, one of the proprietors of the establishment where her husband met his death.

Flowers.

Flowers seem intended for the solace of ordinary humanity; children love them; quiet, tender, contented, ordinary people love them as they grow; luxuriant and disorderly people rejoice in them gathered; they are the cottager's treasure; and in the crowded town as with a little broken fragment of rainbow, the windows of the worker in whose heart reign the covenant of peace.—Buskin.

NAVY STILL UNPREPARED

Rear Admiral Sims Declares Situation Today No Better Than It Was When America Entered War

CLEVELAND, Oct. 19. (AP)—The United States navy was not prepared for war in 1917, it is better prepared today than it was then and never will be prepared under the present organization plan, Rear Admiral William S. Sims, recently retired from the United States navy, declared here in an address today before the City club.

The navy department at Washington bungled and mismanaged the fleet during the war and since the war there has been no clear indication of a disposition to put the navy into fighting trim, Admiral Sims asserted.

"The navy has not been properly handled," Admiral Sims said, "because of mistakes made at Washington. You know nothing of these except what those in control at Washington wanted you to know. When I came back from the war I could have set light and let things take their course or I could expose the mistakes in the hope that they would not be made again."

"Had I done the former I could be walking along with Mr. Daniels today, figuratively speaking, belted with gold braid up to my elbows."

The Navy is read by the permanent earning class.

WORKMAN HURT
BY GATE'S FALL

R. D. McBride, Berger, Suffers
Severe Injuries in Peculiar Accident on Canal System

R. D. McBride of Berger, an employee of the Salmon River Canal company, is a patient in the general hospital here suffering from severe wounds about the face and head received Thursday in the fall of a headgate in the canal about two miles below the Salmon river reservoir, where the injured man was one of a group of workmen engaged in paving a section of the canal.

McBride's injuries, which were inflicted by flying pieces of the metal gate, include fracture of the jaw, cheek and nose and a deep gash over the eye. Dr. D. L. Alexander, who accompanied the injured man from Hollister and dressed the wounds, said Thursday evening that recovery without incident was to be expected.

The exact cause of the accident is unexplained. McBride, who has been employed by the canal company as a ditch rider, and another workman were requested by the superintendent to lower the gate, which was situated a short distance from the work in the canal. Indications are that the mechanism controlling the gate was defective or was not properly operated permitting it to fall with such violence that portions of the metal were broken off and sent flying with great force. McBride's companion was not hurt.

The injured man was taken by Superintendent Fred Bates from the scene of the accident to Hollister, where they were joined by the surgeon and George F. Grover, secretary of the canal company.

Something Wrong.

It has been stated that package freight, once loaded, could be carried from Boston to Cuba, or coal from New York to Brazil more cheaply than it could be moved from one pier to a neighboring one within the same harbor.
