REGULATION IS HELD CAUSE OF RAILS DECLINE

President of Illinois Central Blames Government Interference for Halt in Development and Car Shortage

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 9 (AP)—Government regulation is almost wholly responsible for the decline of railroad development and existing shortage of transportation, Charles H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad, told members of the Railway Business Association at the annual dinner here tonight.

For ten years before the war, he said, unwise regulation kept down the rates and reduced the net return of the railroads, although wages, prices and returns earned in other lines of business were increasing.

Meets Business Revival
"The outstanding fact regarding the present shortage of transportation is that it has been met at the very beginning of a period of business revival," he said.

"In this respect it creates a situation unprecedented in our history—a situation which should cause every farmer and business man, every railway regulating official, every public man, every wage worker, to pause and reflect seriously."

"In past periods of business revival the increase in freight business has gone on until it has reached a point 35 to 100 per cent higher than ever before. We may well ask ourselves whether, with the railways finding it difficult to surmount the freight record of 1920, they can be expected within a few months or years to handle such an increase in tonnage as past experience shows would only be normal in a period of general revival."

Strikes Partly Responsible
Mr. Markham said the situation is due partly to the coal and shop employees' strikes, but added that the large contributing factor was the more rapid development of the production and commerce of the country than the development of the facilities of the railroads.

"Clearly it is essential to the welfare of the country that the railways should as rapidly as practicable put their existing facilities in good condition, and that they should for some years rapidly improve and expand their properties," he continued. "The only thing which ever will enable and cause the railways to carry out a sufficient program of expansion will be to let them earn sufficient net return to raise the new capital required for that purpose."

Repeal of the rate-making provisions of the Esch-Cummins Transportation act would be the most readily won that could be aimed at railroad credit and the nation's good faith and prosperity, he said, adding that it would tend to cause a chronic shortage of transportation which would seriously hinder all increase of production and commerce as long as it lasted.

Transportation Vital Factor

"It is plain to every man who thinks that the wages labor can be paid, the income of the farmer can be derived from business, depend in the long run upon the total amount of production and commerce that can be carried on. If the necessities, comforts and luxuries each of our people have is to be increased, we must increase our total production and commerce even more rapidly than our transportation. We have always done this in America. But nothing could be more obvious than that the increase in production and commerce which is vital to the welfare of all cannot be secured without a corresponding increase in transportation."

SIZE OF HORSE IS NOT ENDURANCE DETRIMENT

Army's Annual 300 Mile Test Fulfills More Proof That Winners Come in All Shapes and Sizes

CHICAGO, Nov. 9 (AP)—Any straight-going, sound horse, with the heart to keep going down the road, can finish in the 300-mile annual endurance test, according to the results which have analyzed the results of the 1922 meet, held recently at Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont.

The result, they decided, was that racing men have long known, that the winners come in all shapes and sizes. This year's five day race was the fourth annual renewal of the classic of the army remount world, which, W. R. Brown, of Berlin, N. H., and A. W. Harris, of Chicago, were instrumental in founding.

The most important lesson learned from the endurance tests, which require the horse, carrying 250 pounds (this year 200 pounds less than in the 1921 test), to complete the 300-mile run in five consecutive days, Mr. Dismore says, is the necessity for straightgoing action. In other words, the horse's feet and legs should move straight forward, parallel to a line drawn through the center of his body, in the direction of travel. Any deviation from this line wastes energy, leads to leg weariness, and causes the horse to "interfere" by hitting the forelocks with the shoe of the other foot.

None of the prize winners were perfect straightgoers, but their deviation was so slight as to cause no interference, except in the case of the first prize winner and his rider, found a way to check the trouble, which was due to bad shoeing.

DRINK WATER IF KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Pains or Bladder Bothers

Too much meat may produce uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead and you have stinging pains in the back, or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys may act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid crystals which are just combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to help neutralize the acids in uric acid, to loosen a source of irritation, thus often ending urinary and bladder discomfort.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful beverage. White water drink, and nobody can mistake a mistake by taking a little occasionally to help keep the kidneys clean and active. Drink plenty of water at all times.—adv.

Pain Music.
The rub in the woods always wakes me. And in my grave, I think, if I lie sleeping under a roof of forest leaves, I shall wake and listen when it rains. Before the stars came together the primordial waters mingled with the rising land; before the winds came rustling; through their trees the waves were fingering the sweet-tuned sands struck down the sounding shores; and before the birds found their tongues, or the crickets their little ladders, or even the toad had blown his quivering conch, it had rained—the whole earth woke into song. Mother of music is the water, and, for me, the sweetest of her daughters is the rain, and never sweeter, not even on the shingles, nor down the rolled, fevered blades of the stambling corn, than in the deep woods at night upon the low roof of your tent.—Darius Lore Sharp in Harper's Magazine.

Plants That Shine at Night

There are a number of plants and flowers which give out a phosphorescent light in the dark. Flammies first noticed this phenomenon in the common nasturtium, whose flowers seemed to him to have a faint fluorescence at night. Later observations by others showed that the light was stronger after very sunny days. Among other plants which possess this singular property are the marsh fly and the frankincense tree. The latter secretes a volatile oil which comes out in hot weather, spreads a thin layer over the flowers, and forms a vapor which becomes luminous in the darkness. In the coal mines near Dresden grows a species of fungus which exhibits the appearance of luminous festoons of shifting colors.—Washington Star.

Darwin Lost His Taste for Art

In the last 20 or 30 years I have almost lost my taste for pictures or music. I cannot endure to read a line of poetry. My mind seems to have become a machine for grinding general laws out of large collections of facts. I had to live my life again I would have made a rule to read some poetry, and listen to some music at least once every week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin in His Autobiography.

HULA IS CALLED LIBEL ON CUSTOMS OF HAWAII

Almost Forgotten Laws Are Invoked by Reformers to Suppress Dance in Which Grass Skirt Figures

HONOLULU, Nov. 9 (AP)—Two ancient and forgotten laws on the statute books of Hawaii which still are effective could be invoked to suppress the hula—a dance of Hawaii, which is usually performed by a grass-skirted woman, according to an announcement by Territorial Attorney General John A. Mathewman, in connection with recent efforts to abolish the hula exhibitions, now given mainly for the entertainment of tourists.

The announcement followed the adoption of a resolution of the Hawaiian Civic League composed of leading Hawaiians, denouncing the hula as a "libel upon the Hawaiian race and its customs."

Judge Mathewman said that the two laws which might be enforced against exhibitions had been on the statutes of the territory for many years—one since 1850 and the second since 1896, this having been adopted when Hawaii was a republic.

In connection with the campaign against the hula, Vaughn MacCaughy, territorial inspector of landing schools, declared that the "so-called high society dancing which is seen at leading social events is more immoral than the hula."

Much Easier

Two men were discussing golf courses in general, and a pretty little nine-hole course in particular. Eventually the conversation turned to a certain eighteen-hole course close to the other one. "I always think," commented one to the other, "that the little nine-hole course is far more difficult than that eighteen-hole course." "Well, one would expect it to be so," exclaimed a lady friend, who, needless to add, did not play golf. "Why?" asked the two men, simultaneously. "Why, it is obviously easier to get a little ball into one of the holes when there are eighteen. It would be twice as hard when there are only nine!"

Nothing clarifies your mental vision more quickly than withdrawing temporarily from contact with the details of your work. From a distance you see right of the small problems of the daily routine find view the structure of your work as a whole. There can be no stronger foundation for success than careful attention to detail, but nevertheless there is a further function—that of fitting the details together into one complete whole. ## BULL TEAM TO MEET WENDELL

West End Gridiron Will Close Season With Clash Against Speedy Northside Eleven

BULL, Nov. 9.—(Special to The News.)—Bull high school football team will meet the speedy Wendell high school team in a gridiron battle later Friday afternoon, in what will probably be the last game of this season on the home grounds. The game is being played on Friday instead of Saturday Day so that the local fans who care to may see the Twin Falls-Moscow game at Twin Falls.

Wendell has one of the strongest football teams in this section. They have lost but one game this season, having defeated all comers by a large score with the exception of Jerome. The only comparative dope that can be obtained gives the Wendell eleven considerable the better of it with Bull.

What Dope Shows.

Bull defeated Hagerman last Friday by a score of 22 to 0. Wendell smothered Hagerman under a 60-point defeat. Wendell won from Shoshone last Friday 56 to 9, and Hagerman formerly defeated Shoshone. The leading college team also went down to defeat to the heavy Wendell eleven.

The Bull team has been weakened somewhat since the Twin Falls game by the absence of Gary Troy Moore. Moore is still suffering from his wrenched knee, and will not be able to get into the game again this season. Glenshawner will not be in the lineup, either, and it is doubtful about Waver, but Machack is in the lineup.

Probable Lineup.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Whitney, of Twin Falls, will referee.

VANDAL SQUAD ON BOARD CARS

North Idaho "Friendship Special" with Team on Way to Boise and Pasadena

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Nov. 9.—The northern Idaho "friendship special," carrying the University of Idaho football team, left here this afternoon for the annual Armistice Day gridiron classic at Boise Saturday. The special is a ten-car train with a special Pullman for the women students, another for the men student athletes, and one for the football squad, and the rest of the train for Moscow and northern Idaho people making the trip.

The Vandal squad consisted of 38 players. Coaches B. L. Mathews and R. E. Neidig, and Graduate Manager Knudson.

No announcement of a probable lineup was made by Coach Mathews, but he is taking along the following list of players:

Ends—Cobley, Vossler, H. Brashers-Marker, Boner.

Tackles—Vols, Mauseon, Sigfus, Quinn, Stephens, Korschinsky, Tardie.

Center and guards—H. H. Neale, Goff, Tappert, Hubble, Stephens.

Backs—Captain Brown, Kleffner, Vossler, Reed, Hillman, Stivers, Klanson, H. Brashers.

Last year the Vandals were defeated 17 to 7 by the crimson warriors at Salt Lake and this year they are out to regain that lost football prestige. Reports from Utah, however, indicate that it will be a tough job, for the Salt Lakers are but one game from the Rocky mountain conference pennant.

After the Utah game the Idaho squad will go direct to southern California, where they play the University of Southern California at Pasadena November 18.

Did you ever hear of the lung-fish which breathes only air and buries itself for months until the earth is dry and sandy overhead? This fish is dug with a pick and shovel in places where there has been no water for eighteen months and whose location is known by a small hole the fish leaves to breathe through. They grow up to three feet long and store fat on their tails for keeping them through the long dry seasons. There is a certain eat that does likewise. ## UNFAVORABLE BALANCE SHOWN IN KIOBE TRADE

Japan's Largest Port's Exports for Nine Months Less Than One-Third of Imports

YOKOHAMA, Nov. 9 (AP)—While the trade of Yokohama whence most of Japan's silk is shipped, and Osaka, the chief industrial city, shows a favorable balance, that for Kobe, the largest port, is unfavorable, according to the official figures for the nine months ending September 30th. Osaka's exports for that period totaled 240,128,000 yen, compared with imports of 100,001,000 yen or a favorable balance of 140,127,000 yen; Yokohama exports 635,731,000 yen; imports 517,500,000 yen; favorable balance 117,231,000 yen; Kobe exports 209,295,000 yen; imports 406,419,000 yen; unfavorable balance 197,124,000 yen.

Facts About the Hair.

Curly hair is flat. Vain possessors of such hair are apt to bristle with resentment at this bit of information, but without cause, for the ambiguous adjective refers to cross-sectional shape, and not to taste, smell or artistic effect. Each kinky hair of the negro is as flat as a ribbon, else it would not be capable of coiling like a watch-spring. Each hair of a person guileless of curls is as round as a round pencil, in cross-section. This is why biologists rarely speak of curly or straight hair; they use the terms "flat" and "round." Each hair on the head of a person with a wave, of course, is intermediate in shape between a ribbon and a pencil. It is oval.

ENGLAND TO GET FRESH FRUIT FROM AUSTRALIA

LONDON, Nov. 9 (AP)—As the result of increased commerce between Australia and the mother country, a western Australian syndicate has been formed which will build eight new freight and fruit ships to operate between London and Australia. The ships will run also to South Australia, and the syndicate expects to keep the markets of the British Isles supplied with Australian fruit in all seasons.

Perian Religious Belief.

The Persians and Judeans believed in Ahirman, chief of the cacodemons or fallen spirits. They were thought to have been expelled from heaven for their sins. Having endeavored to settle down upon the earth at several places, according to legend, they were always rejected. Out of revenge they found their pleasure in injuring the inhabitants. Xenocrates thought that penance and self-mortification, though not agreeable to the gods, would pacify the malice of the cacodemons. Ahirman and his followers were believed finally to have taken up their abode in all the space between the earth and the fixed stars, and there established their domain called Ahirman-abud. As Ahirman was the spirit of evil in the Persian religion, so Ormuzd was the spirit of good.

LABOR DIVIDES ON SOCIALISM

Japanese Unions Fail to Agree on Federation Because of Inability to Avoid Politics

OSAKA, Japan, (AP)—An attempt to form a federation of the labor unions of Japan has ended in failure, owing to the inability of the socialists, who are in control of some of the unions, to agree with the regular unionists, who avoid politics. A conference called here for October 1 ended in a row in which the police took a hand, eventually arresting a number of the socialists.

The Nippon Rodo Sodomei, the socialist wing, wanted a federation with central control, while their opponents, the Kumi Sodomei, wanted local autonomy. On the discussion of the rival resolutions an outcry arose, which threatened to develop into a free fight when the police intervened and were made the targets of bottles and stones, but soon got the upper hand, cleared the hall and took the ringleaders to jail, whence they later were released.

However, this fight between the two elements in the labor movement is said to be only one reason for the failure of the laborists to advance their cause. There has been in Japan for a great number of years an organization known as the Kokusai-kai, which in some respects might be likened to the Fascisti of Italy. This society, which wields great power, is opposed to all revolutionary movements and is in the habit of taking "direct" action when called upon. It is backed by the great labor contractors, who supply labor in the bulk throughout the country. When a strike is called in a given industry, this organization often is asked to intervene in the interest of the prevailing order of things and usually it can induce the workers, by one means or another, to return to work. It is strongly opposed to labor unions and makes its influence to prevent them from gaining membership.

At a meeting of the Nippon Rodo Sodomei, after the failure to form a federation, a protest was entered against "the outrages committed by the members of the Kokusai-kai upon members of the Sodomei" at a recent meeting held at Kyoto.

Another cause of the lack of strength of the unions at the present time is the business depression, many skilled workmen, especially those in the textile industry, at present being "out of work."

COUNTIES MAKE SAVING BY RODENT ERADICATION

Destruction of Three Million Prairie Dogs is Estimated Worth Half Million Dollars in Colorado

DENVER, Nov. 9 (AP)—Twenty Colorado counties have been saved at least $500,000 by the destruction of an estimated total of 3,000,000 prairie dogs thus far this year, according to a report of Joseph Keyes, director of rodent control for the United States biological survey recently.

Within five years Director Keyes predicted, the rodents will be entirely extinct in Douglas, Arapahoe, Adams, Larimer and Weld counties as a result of the concentrated effort made in these counties. Sixty tons of poisoned oats already has been scattered over areas infested with prairie dogs, he said.

The counties are cooperating in the work of financing the extermination work, he declared. The plan of procedure proposes the extermination completely of the rodents in one section, and the concentration of efforts on another section, until the entire state has been covered. Next year, he stated, thirty counties will be covered by the workers. The activities will be extended to pocket gophers as well as prairie dogs.

 Game Here Is Expected at
 Armistice Day Tussle

The much touted Twin Falls-Moscow football game will take place tomorrow afternoon at Lincoln field at 2 o'clock as the main event of the American Legion program for the day. The visitors will arrive in town this afternoon from Bliss, and will headquarters at the Perrine hotel. Fifteen busses including Coach Comrade are making the trip. BATTLING SIKI SUSPENDED

French Boxing Federation Takes Summary Action When Senegalese Strikes Manager

PARIS, Nov. 9 (AP)—The French boxing federation today suspended "Battling" Siki, the Senegalese fighter, for three months for his conduct at the Prunier-Belzuncaga fight last night, when he struck Prunier's manager.

The subject was under discussion by the federation for a long time and it finally was decided to permit Siki to meet Beckett in the fight scheduled for December 7 at London, articles for this matching having been signed before the incident for which he is penalized.

Postal Authorities Solve Problem by Accepting Saurian in Mail if Under 20 Inches

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—When it is, and when isn't, an alligator a harmless animal, has been a much mooted question. Those who have undergone the still more or less discussed fictional adventure of the destruction in a big "gator's" switchable tail, are somewhat undecided. There are many folks who still believe a "gator" is a playful pet that can be kept in the parlor as a chum for the baby; but one who has had even the smallest hang out his amply extended forefinger with the grim persistence of a steel vice, may still be firm in his belief that it's best to leave 'em alone at any age. The postoffice department, however, has decided that while under 20 inches over-all length, the baby saurian is harmless. So are baby chicks, soft-shelled crabs, blood worms and chameleons.

One may feel confident the blood worm can be fondled with ease and without fear of danger, and still have his doubts also in regard to baby terrapins, but the latter also are classed by the department as harmless. The classification has been made by the department for the ease of mind of harassed postmasters whose clients have sought to make of their offices non-monogeries. The mailability of live "mail matter" is still a hazy question among the general public, and the department declares, so to clear up the matter, a circular has been prepared to settle the question.

For more than a year live fowls and domestic animals were acceptable for mailing under a ruling which prohibited their handling only when the complete journey was made by motor trucks, but this ruling was revoked more than a year ago. Another applying to the insurance and C. O. D. privileges of such shipments was not modified under which regulation a few shipments of live fowls and domestic animals have been accepted by postmasters.

Only small live animals, "having no offensive odor and requiring no food or water in transit," such as the ferocious animals mentioned, and their like, may be sent in the mails and insured against loss. Alligators up to twenty inches are included in the list.

BE PRETTY! TURN
 GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre of the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improve by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try It! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You clean a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—adv.

"Faust" Was a Real Person. "Faust," literature regarded as a legendary character emanating from the brain of Goethe, really existed as a self-styled prophet, quack doctor and peddler of fake horoscopes, according to a discovery made in the re-entrance of the Munich library. In the diary of Caspar Ritter, Lieh there was found this entry: "Faust, 5 June, 1523, when the sun and dove meet in the same constellation other prophets like myself will be born." Under this Caspar Lieh had written: "Faust may believe he was a great commander with high standing, like an undertaking a prince-arch through Germany, but he was, as a matter of fact, a quack doctor, selling faked horoscopes and remedies. The fact that he became rich was due chiefly to his education, he having been a graduate of Heidelberg in the class of 1487."—Detroit News.

WET AND DRY
ISSUE RAISED
BY ELECTIONS

Opposing Forces Make Conflicting Claims as to Probable Lineup on Modification of Prohibition Enforcement

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—The political complexion of the next congress having been definitely established, interest turned today on the probable lineup on the question of modification of the prohibition enforcement laws. Both the "drys" and "wets" were claiming a victory as a result of Tuesday's elections.

For the Anti-Saloon league, Wayne D. Wheeler, general counsel, said the "wets" would have as many votes, by three at least, in the senate as heretofore, and that their strength in the house would not exceed 140, or 75 less than a majority.

On the other hand, the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, through G. F. Hinckley, its general secretary, claimed a gain of 80 "liberal" votes in the house, which, it was asserted, would give actual control of the body to the modificationists.

Expects Liberal Legislation

"The pronounced increase in the 'wet' membership," said Mr. Hinckley's statement, "renders highly probable the passage of liberal legislation in the next session of congress that will strike the first blow at the more stringent provisions of the Volstead act."

"Involved in this view, is a consideration of the change of leadership of the powerful committees in the house. The defeat of Andrew J. Volstead of Minnesota removes the author of the objectionable prohibition act from the chairmanship of the house judiciary committee, giving over the place to Representative Graham of Pennsylvania, an avowed 'wet.'"

"The passing of Mondell leaves the majority leadership on the floor either to Representative Longworth of Ohio, or Representative Mann, of Illinois, both re-elected, and both having been endorsed by the association because of their attitude on the prohibition issue."

Like Foam on Beer

Mr. Wheeler, in his statement, declared that the claims of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, of a gain of 80 votes in the next house was "like the foam on a glass of beer—nothing substantial to it."

"In the house," said Mr. Wheeler, "their total strength in the past for any beer or light wine amendment or similar weakening amendment to the prohibition law was not more than 135. The last reports we have from the states, with a few districts out, show that they will never muster 140 votes for any amendment. Their vote will probably be much less than that."

"The only real test of sentiment on the 275 cent beer issue this year was in Ohio, where the proposal was defeated by more than 150,000. In Illinois the organized 'dry' forces did not vote either way on the beer proposition."

The defeat of the codes in Massachusetts and California is no loss because we never had any enforcement codes in those states."

Preparing for Fight

Both the "drys" and the "wets" are preparing for a fight in the new congress. Mr. Hinckley declared the outlook was "extremely" favorable for the carrying out of the "prohibitionary" program of his organization, and other of the leaders of the "wets" entertained a similar view.

Just what the program of attack on the Volstead law will be has not yet been fully developed, but it is expected to be a straight-out proposition for the sale of light wines and beer. That proposal was put forward in connection with soldiers bonus bill at the last session but it never received serious consideration. Representative Britton of Illinois announced today, however, that it would be renewed.

Treasury and other officials looked for proposals to modify the enforcement act. Treasury officers, however, said the policy of strict enforcement would continue until congress acted.

On the Death of Huxley's Son.
We have lost our little son, our joy and life. You who know him well and now how his mother's heart and mine were wrapped up in him, will understand how acute is our affliction. We had many hopes and plans, sadly enough yet not altogether bitter, for as the little fellow was our great joy, so is our recollection of him an enduring consolation. It is a heavy burden, but I would buy the four years of him again at the same price.

TWIN FALLS WEEKLY NEWS

Established 1904

Twin Falls News Publishing Company, Ltd., Publishers

IT'S UP TO US.

It is to be hoped that as large a number as possible will attend this evening's dinner in the interests of the local Chamber of Commerce.

A WOULD WEATHER BUREAU.

A movement is under way to establish an internationally-owned observatory and wireless station on the shores of Baffin Bay to furnish weather reports to all the nations of the northern hemisphere.

The value of the official weather reports can hardly be exaggerated. They are indispensable to mariners and to agriculturists.

Government weather reports are not yet absolute accurate, however, despite the fact that all governments which issue weather reports cooperate by exchanging observations.

REMEMBER THE LIVING.

Disabled veterans of the World war make today a simple plea—forget me not. This has been set aside as Forget Me Not day.

Much has been done, and it is indeed encouraging to see here and there a youth, partially crippled by a piece of shrapnel or a bomb, finding again his place within the ways of peace.

Many hospitals have within their wards some of those pathetic figures of whom it chills the heart to speak.

Those holy dead in fields of Flanders and of France will never lack our homage. We best can show our words regarding them are not empty, if we heed the quiet, unassuming, modest plea of the living disabled—Forget Me Not.

Heine's Verses. The movement of Heine's rhythms, simple as they seem, is not spontaneous; it is an effect of art; the poet abured at his cadence as at his meanings.

Napoleon's Summary of His Life. As given by Barry O'Meara, his surgeon at St. Helena in August, 1817, Napoleon's summing up of his finish was: 'I should have died at Moscow. I had been fought to death without a check, there I commanded. I would have gone down in history as the greatest of conquerors.

INCREASE SHOWN IN BANK DEBITS

Gain 15 Per Cent in October—Babson Report Shows Twin Falls Sales Figures

Total bank debits of the First National, Twin Falls Bank and Trust company and the Twin Falls National bank increased 15 per cent in October as compared to the totals of the previous month, according to reports submitted to the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday.

The total debits for October were $3,669,430.13, as compared to the total of $3,195,309.08 for September. The latter figures, however, show an increase of 20 per cent over the August figures of $2,649,006.07, which in turn are 15 per cent greater than the July totals of $2,314,764.46.

According to the monthly Babson forecast of sales conditions under date of October 26, Twin Falls is still in the fair, or second, highest classification, where it has remained continuously since the first of the year. Boise is also placed in the "fair" classification for the first time, it is believed, since January.

Twin Falls is one of the only six cities in the entire Intermountain region placed in this classification. Few cities in the west rates with the exception of those directly on the coast line, are in the "fair" sales class.

Babson's report shows the following September sales for Idaho: Boise, $11,067,000; Pocatello, $1,100,000; and Twin Falls, $3,195,000.

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom if ever have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care on themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in warm rooms, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excesses, over eating, becoming over heated and then chilled and getting their feet wet. Then when they feel the first indication of a cold, they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over—adv.

MOORE HERE FOR CHAMBER DINNER

Governor-Elect Will Speak at Annual Gathering of Business Men Friday Night

C. C. Moore, successful candidate for governor of Idaho, will be a guest at the annual meeting and election of officers of the Chamber of Commerce at the Rogerson, Friday night. Acceptance of the invitation has been received by chamber officials and the appearance of Senator Gooding and Borah and Congressman Smith.

The purpose of the invitation to the governor-elect is largely that he may be acquainted with the business of the Twin Falls district. In the appearance of those named, if all accept the invitation, is evidence of the resumption of the fight for freight rate reduction.

Meet at Idaho Falls.

Senators Gooding and Borah and Congressman Smith are attending the industrial conference on freight rates and commercial conditions being held under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce at Idaho Falls Thursday. A representative of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce will attend.

Committee interest in electing about the nomination and election of the new chamber officials. While sentiment seems to favor the retention of several who have been actively engaged in certain important problems and have therefore become familiar with them, the same reason seems to apply to the election of business men to fill important positions. Knowledge would be of great value.

List Bureau Heads.

The offices to be voted upon are those of C. E. Wright, president; C. N. Beatty, vice president, and 11 bureau directors. Their respective positions are as follows:

C. A. Robinson, state relations bureau; A. J. Swin, reclamation bureau; H. A. Baker, roads and utilities; E. Hollingsworth, R. C. Letch, highways; M. C. Mitchell, L. C. Cios, educational; W. T. Leslie, agricultural; C. E. Wright, merchants; C. N. Beatty, advertising.

The meeting is open to the public. Tickets have been placed on sale at the Chamber of Commerce offices.

CITY MAY JOIN PLAN TO UNITE POLICE CHIEFS

Discuss Proposal for Organization of Officials in Cities of the State of Idaho

Discussion on participating in the proposed organization of chiefs of police throughout the state was a matter of interest at a brief meeting of the city council Tuesday night. The meeting was otherwise followed by reviewing the Henderson bill, the rooms and the granting of $3000.32 in bills, including the general bills and those of the water works department and for sprinkling.

The council decided to send Chief of Police Cress to the organization meeting at Pocatello, December 1 and 2. He will be asked to accept the invitation and to report on the matter. It will be decided whether the city will join with the movement, which involves officials of six other cities in the state.

The license of the Eureka rooms, 251 Second street south, was revoked on a resolution presented by Commissioner Roberts. Mrs. Juan Anacava, proprietress, was recently arrested on a liquor charge and her husband has been convicted on the same charge.

An offer was read from a Denver bonding house to refund about $71,000 in city bonds at a lower rate of interest than is now being paid. The matter was left in the hands of Commissioner All.

There was some informal discussion in regard to changing the ordinance covering the inspection of slaughterhouses by the city, but no action was taken.

DELAWARE RETURNS VARY

Supporters of Both DuPont and Bayard Claim Their Candidates Leading for Senate Short Term

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8 (AP)—Supporters of both Thomas F. Bayard, democrat, and Senator Coleman Dupont, republican, maintained tonight that unofficial revision of complete returns showed their candidates leading for the short term for United States senator from Delaware, while for the full term their Senator Dupont's supporters claimed their revision indicated they had led the vote. Bayard's supporters asserted that he was leading by 822.

For the short term, from election day until next March, the republican check of unofficial figures gave Dupont a majority of 73, while the democratic count stood at a majority of 110 for Bayard.

Rail Men Seek Laws as Guard of Prosperity

Congress Asked to Protect Policy Giving Opportunity to Make Sufficient Earnings

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 (AP)—The railway business association today adopted a resolution declaring congress could protect the policy "designed to give the roads an opportunity to make sufficient earnings" by refraining from amending in any way, the present transportation act.

"Prosperity is here," said the resolution. "Let us make it last. Recovery in agriculture, industry and trade has its mainstay in railway business. Railway improvement must continue if the traffic is to be carried. To let it be clearly seen that no amendments of any kind to the transportation act are under consideration by congress will leave all concerned free for the work of railway rehabilitation and preparation for the coming burden of traffic."

The association adopted another resolution favoring amendment of the immigration laws to provide admission of European laborers by quality instead of by number.

Alba B. Johnson of Philadelphia was re-elected president of the association.

IDENTIFY GUN USED IN KILLING OF CLERGYMAN

Have Authorities Trace Ownership of Weapon to Gift of Husband of Wagoner-Sulzide

HAVRE, Mont., Nov. 9 (AP)—The gun used in the Christian-Carlson (Sulzide) killing here recently was positively identified today by former police officer Charles J. Sunday as the weapon alleged to have been used by John Jenkins in an assault upon E. B. Dance in a local pool room November 14, 1919, authorities announced tonight.

Ownership of the gun, which was found in the hand of Mrs. Margaret Carlson, who was shot dead with the Rev. Leonard Jacob Christman in the latter's home, October 27, had puzzled the authorities. It was not determined at the coroner's inquest following the killing, at which Mrs. Carlson was said to have done the shooting. Mrs. Joseph Pyle of Butte, Mrs. Carlson's mother, and refused to accept the inquest verdict, intimating the opinion that the gun had been placed in Mrs. Carlson's hand after the shooting.

According to the authorities, the dead woman's husband, Frank E. Carlson, now of Los Angeles, acted as attorney for Jenkins at the time of the alleged assault in 1919.

20 MIDSHIPMEN ESCAPE FLAMES

Naval Academy Students Fight Way Up Chesapeake Bay Out of Burning Boat

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 9 (AP)—Twenty midshipmen from the United States naval academy narrowly escaped death this afternoon when, in a heroic battle against fire, they fought their way up the Chesapeake bay out of the sub-chaser. It was a battle that will long live in the memories of those who stood on the shore and watched the fight impelling the academy students until the sub-chaser finally was beached on the shore of the naval experimental station.

The midshipmen started out early in the afternoon for a seamanship drill on one of the sub-chasers which have been tied up at the academy wharf since the armistice.

Form Bucket Brigades

The bay was rough and the small boat was tossed about as the midshipmen were put through their exercises. When two miles off shore the engine backfired. Before the men realized what had happened, the forward part of the vessel was enveloped in flames. Then the battle for their stations at the hose lines and formed bucket brigades as the flames spread.

The sub-chaser's prow was turned toward the shore. The battle began. A stiff breeze augmented the danger. Heroically the midshipmen fought every foot of the way. On the wharves at Annapolis a crowd gathered, attracted by the smoke. Lighted craft set out from the academy and nearby points to offer assistance.

Cherries arose from those standing on the beach when the midshipmen beached their boat. The boat was burned beyond repair, the flames cutting away all the super-structure and part of the hold.

Poincare Tells Senate Government Will Move Unassisted With Respect to Germany

PARIS, Nov. 9 (AP)—Premier Poincare told the senate this evening that the French government had decided to act alone with respect to Germany if the Brussels conference failed to give France satisfaction. He expressed the opinion that no general settlement of the reparations problem was possible unless the question of inter-allied debts was solved at the same time.

"France is not imperialist," he declared. "I can say that she is the least imperialistic of the nations, but she has rights to defend. We do not contemplate any personal action before the Brussels conference, but if we do not obtain satisfaction, there is nothing in the world that can prevent us from acting alone in the fullness of our rights."

SEEKS CIVILIZATION'S HOPE IN SPIRITUALITY

Materialism Has Made Men of Business of Materialism, World, Bishop Burns Tells Georgia Methodists

MATERIALISM has made a mess of the business of managing this world, and there is need of an infusion of spirituality in its management, declared Bishop Chas. Wesley Burns of Helena, Mont., in an address today before the 56th session of the Georgia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. It was materialism which brought about a shattered, broken and braided world, Bishop Burns said, but he saw 'a bow of promise' in the boundless increase of religion—"the spirit that will control the machine and harness it to spiritual constructive and reconstruction tasks."

"That bow of promise is the living Christ of the ages," he declared, and added that "our supreme need in this hour is for the church and citizenry to 'back-trail' until they pick up the club life and the way of the living Christ."

Bishop Burns declared that Christianity was the only thing that would save our present edifice of civilization. AT THE HOTELS ROEBERSON—E. Hoover, Reno, Nov. 11, J. A Toast to Laughter. At a dinner in Boston recently the following toast was given: "Here's to laughter, the sunshine of the soul, the fragrance of the heart, the wealth of youth, the echo of innocence, the treasure of the humble, the wealth of the poor, the bead of the cup of pleasure! Without it humor would be dumb, wit would wither, dainties would disappear, and smiles would arise from the lips of dejection, banishes the blues and mangles melancholy, for it is the foe of woe, the destroyer of depression, the birth cry of mirth and the swan song of sadness."

Didn't Know His Standing. Counsel was trying to elicit from the witness whether he was a freeholder or householder. He did not know. On examination, he admitted he owned no real-estate. Questioned further, he said he had lived in the county several years, was married, had a family, occupied a home.

"Then you must be a householder," snapped out counsel. "Well, I don't know," drawled the other. "You see, I married a widow."
