

CITY COUNCIL ORDERS PAVING INVESTIGATION

Administration Decides on Immediate Action to Have Experts Determine Actual Condition of Paving

Paving done here in 1920 by the Warren Construction company will be investigated immediately by the city, it was decided at the meeting of the city commissioners Tuesday night. The matter was brought up by Mayor Tucker and objected to by Commissioner All on the grounds that the investigation would be premature and would produce grounds for litigation. Mayor Tucker defined his position as "fulfilling a pledge to the people" and firmly maintained his recommendation for immediate action.

The mayor stated he had investigated the matter and on his recommendation Mark Moritz was selected to do preliminary work at $15 a day, and McGonigle & Ulrich, consulting engineers, of Salt Lake City, will follow with the investigation which they estimated could be completed in seven days and at an expense of $35 a day.

Will Publish Report

On completion of the work a full report of the work and a statement of its cost will be published, Mayor Tucker declared.

The subject of the paving developed into an important one shortly after the work was completed in 1920. Numerous complaints were made to the effect that the work was faulty and some action was started by individuals to recover on the expense. The proposition in the first officially taken by the city.

Balances in the sprinkling appropriations of $150 in 1920 and $310 in 1921 were transferred to the 1922 fund. The treasurer was authorized to vote the share of the city in the Twin Falls Canal company at the annual meeting in January.

Considerable discussion was devoted to most licensing and sale, the commissioners being in favor of devising some means of protecting the meat markets permanently located in the city and to force the non-resident dealers to pay the same revenue as others.

Reynolds Resigns.

The resignation of D. S. Reynolds, patrolman, was accepted and L. V. Carlson, former employee in the street department, was appointed in his place. Mr. Reynolds will leave for California. Red Cross Appeals

An appeal from the Red Cross chapter for $500 as the city's share in supporting a public health survey was granted on the condition that Commissioner Roberts the mayor will take the matter up with the county authorities. The county is asked to contribute to the survey, the independent school district $300.

BANKS TO PAY FULL VALUE ON SCHOOL CHECKS

General Expense Warrants of School District Not To Be Discounted Hereafter, Board Member Announces

Improved financial standing of the Twin Falls school district was indicated in the announcement of James Fitzgerald, treasurer, at the monthly meeting of the school board Monday night that all Twin Falls banks have discontinued discounting the general expense warrants issued by the district. The custom of discounting general expense warrants was started by the banks only last year. The pay warrants were not discounted. The expense warrants will not be discounted after and including this month.

Mrs. Miller, Fined for Drunkenness, Expresses Emotions When Placed in City's Jail

"Don't you dare put me in that dirty old jail; if you do I'll sue the city for $25,000," said Mrs. George Miller, according to the police, as she was shown to her room in the J. E. O'Connell Hotel, Second street and Second avenue north, following her arrest Monday night for drunkenness. She was fined $10 and costs by Police Judge Fawcett Tuesday.

Mrs. Miller was in the final stages of intoxication when arrested on the streets, police said. She not only accompanied the officer peacefully to the station, but insisted on demonstrating various talents when they got her there, it is said. After a few vocal selections, she insisted on dancing, but on facing down bars her attitude changed and she demonstrated her command of profanity, it is said, and applied every commonly known epithet to the officers, the story and the world in general, officers claimed, before she was locked in her cell.

The record to date for sugar beets in this district goes to George A. Bender of Buhl, who obtained a yield of 29.12 tons per acre upon six acres of land, according to the Amalgamated Sugar company. Mr. Bender received $5.50 per ton for his beets, plus a further payment of $1.50 per ton based upon the price of sugar at this time, to which he added $1.50 per ton which will be paid him for his best tops on the entire tonnage.

Checks aggregating $111,694 have been mailed out by the Amalgamated Sugar company. November 15 is the date when the sugar beets in the Twin Falls county will be weighed. The payments cover a total beet tonnage of 20,345 tons and the first cash distribution in settlement for the crop so far. On December 15 another payment will be made to growers which it is anticipated will amount to approximately half of the amount just distributed. Sixteen hundred and fifty acres represents the total area planted to beets in the Twin Falls county this year.

On the basis of the present price of sugar a further sum of $1.50 per ton will be earned by beet growers on every ton grown this year, according to the Amalgamated Sugar company. With a payment for the tops at the rate of 35 cents per ton of beets will make the crop one of the most profitable of all crops grown in this section.

EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN ON CANCER UNDER WAY

Statistics Show Death Rate of Disease and Demonstrate Value of Early Treatment

Through the cooperation of churches, lodges and civic bodies success is apparent in the crusade against cancer being conducted November 12 to 18, by the League of Conservation of Public Health of Idaho and the American Society for the Control of Cancer. Dr. L. A. Alexander, a director of the state organization, is in charge here. The campaign is primarily one of education as to the first symptoms of cancer and to show the importance of early treatment. Statistics furnished by the American society show that during the two years of the war more than twice as many people died of cancer in the United States as were killed while serving with the American army. Cancer causes one out of every 10 deaths after the age of 40 in this country. It is a local disease and not a constitutional affliction, according to the authorities.

DEATH CLAIMS PIONEER RESIDED HERE 16 YEARS

Mr. Parker was severely injured in a runaway 13 years ago and he never entirely recovered. He was taken seriously ill last spring as a result of complications from the effects of the injuries and for a time he was not expected to live. He had barely recovered and was able to move about at the first time on Monday. He suddenly relapsed, a relapse and his death resulted.

Mr. Parker is survived by his widow, and by a daughter, Mrs. Guy Grummet, and a son, who is in the military service. Besides a son in Iowa and a daughter in Nebraska.

FARMERS MEET KIWIANS AT BANQUET BOARD

Business Men's Organization Sets Precedent With Entertainment of Friends in Country at Dinner Meeting

Fifty Twin Falls district farmers were guests of as many Kiwanians at a fellowship dinner meeting here Monday night at the Twin Falls Kiwanis club. No similar gathering of farmers and business men had ever before been held in Twin Falls, it was asserted. Belief that the affair would prove an important factor in making for improved relations between city and country residents was expressed by several of the guests.

Guests and hosts, several of them speaking extemporaneously, discussed various local and collective problems and existing prospective conditions here from various viewpoints.

Freight Rates Figure.

High freight rates and necessity for diversification of crops in successful farming in the Twin Falls country figured largely in the remarks of the farmer guests, which were highly optimistic.

Quoting from authorities in the world of freight rates, one of the speakers pointed out that the Twin Falls situation is on the eve of an era of prosperity based upon increasing demand for Twin Falls products, C. E. Wright, former president of the Chamber of Commerce, called attention to the fact that Twin Falls farmers and business men had prospered when freight rates and taxes before the period of reconstruction following the war, were as high as they are now, and argued that the removal of the readjustment barrier to trade and the gradual reduction of freight rates that seemed likely, Twin Falls would be in the near future experience better times than ever before.

J. E. White, a realtor, predicted that prices of land would not recede, but would advance to levels higher than they had hitherto attained.

One Farmer's Views.

Presenting a report of the Twin Falls situation, which was voiced by Richard Glavin of Berger, who made one of the most telling talks of the evening. These reports, Mr. Glavin said, were being given credit both for the farmers and business men who are dependent upon the farmers. Good roads are earnestly desired by the committee composed of Mr. Glavin said. "I have often said when leaving Twin Falls after spending the day here, that it is a good town to live in, but I would not live in it if they were to give me a deed to the whole town."

Mr. Glavin said in conclusion. W. H. Hines, a realtor, spoke here in 1904, when he first visited this region. Livestock, he said, is the salvation of the Twin Falls country.

"No man is so far from market as a man who has goods to sell," E. E. Corry told the farmers and business men, adding that the productivity of the Twin Falls country is a direct result of the soil and its continued development.

C. E. McClain, Ivan L. Lincoln, T. George Hyslop and F. E. Chamberlain also were among the guests who were called upon for remarks.

Host Bids Goodnight.

Each Kiwanian was seated next to his guest and at the conclusion of the evening both guests and hosts were introduced individually to the assembly.

M. J. Sweeney, president of the club, presided as toastmaster. Arrangements for the meeting were delegated by the club to a committee composed of Neilson Hayward and W. T. Leslie.

Chorus singing, as is usual at meetings of the club, was a feature of the occasion, both the high and low line heartily in the various familiar songs. Several numbers also were given by a quartet composed of C. E. Wright, Merrett, Robert Logan and Phil Goldwater.

SHORT LINE OFFICIALS ON TOUR OF INSPECTION

On a tour of inspection of the Oregon Short Line railroad system preparatory to compiling the 1923 budget to provide for repair work and new construction, a party of Short Line officials, traveling in a special train, spent a short time Tuesday in Twin Falls.

Expenditures here next year, it was stated, will be limited, probably to creation of a house and new platforms at the scales and a shelter for grain cars.

Members of the party were W. E. Armstrong, Salt Lake, chief engineer; E. A. Pierce, Portland, general superintendent; C. E. Manson, Pocatello, assistant superintendent; B. F. Prater, Pocatello, assistant chief engineer; E. D. Nauman, division engineer.

FASCISTI CHIEF GIVES POLICIES TO RULE ITALY

Mussolini, in First Appearance
Before Parliament as Premier, Demands Full Power and Free Responsibilities

ROME, Nov. 16 (AP)—Benito Mussolini, in a dramatic first appearance before parliament as premier, today announced his foreign and internal policies and warned his adversaries that the Fascist government had come to stay. He affirmed its strength to enforce law and order against one and all, even against an illegal coup by his followers, and he demanded full powers and full responsibilities.

The Fascist leader proclaimed a policy of action, not words. He set an example, for he spoke for only half an hour, and was frequently applauded and cheered.

Radicals Silent and Subdued.
The socialists and communists, numbering 118, who have greeted every succeeding government with violent and noisy demonstration of opposition, sat in the chamber today silent and subdued. Old leaders, like Giolitti, Orlando, Salandra, Facta and Bonomi, saw their power wrenched from them; they were relegated to second place without uttering a single objection and some of them are among the hundreds who congratulated Mussolini as he concluded.

The only attempt at interruption was made by Deputy Modigliani, socialist who, when Mussolini threatened dissolution, shouted somewhat timidly: "Long live the parliament!" The leader of the Fascists merely glared at him while the right and center sections cheered.

Forced Vote Expected
There are many who think that the premier will force the chamber to vote as soon as the minister of the treasury, Professor Tangorra, has developed the details of the fiscal and bureaucratic reforms on the Fascist program.

Strong Protest Is Entered Against Orchard's Release

Local Man Calls Attention to Circumstances of Conviction of Idaho's Foremost Criminal and Gives Reasons in Opposition to Granting of Pardon to Slayer of Governor Steunenberg

Twin Falls, Nov. 14, 1922.
Hon. D. W. Davis,
Boise, Idaho:

Dear Sir:
I noticed in the morning press that a petition has been made to the pardon board for the release of Harry Orchard. I feel that it is my duty as a citizen of this state to give you my views on the subject.

Like yourself, and every other citizen of this state who lived here at the time of Governor Steunenberg's assassination, I cannot forget the debt of gratitude that we owe him. He was the chief executive at a time when lawlessness reigned in the mines of north Idaho, and his courage, sturdiness and desire for fair play and good government made this a better state in which to live.

As proof of the body blow which he dealt to organized criminals in the United States we have but to recur to the records of the famous trial of Harry Orchard, Moyer and Pettibone. The governor of the state at that time was Frank B. Gooding. Within a week I have heard the governor say that during that trial he received them in his office and that he was giving them attention that he was giving that trial. I am at a loss to see how he can now approach a board of pardons and ask that the arch criminal, who in cold blood, after weeks of planning and scheming as the paid employee of an organization, struck down this noble fellow, the humble, worthy servant of the people.

The granting of his petition but makes it easier for another band of assassins to send you to eternity for the same faithful performance of your duty.

The senator's efforts in this behalf can only be excused upon the ground of sympathy. It is that sympathy that has filled our jails and penitentiaries with such as Orchard. It is all a mistake. There is nothing coming to Orchard in the way of mercy. Clemency to him means anarchy to government.

I notice that attention is called to a statement of William J. Burns, head of the United States Secret Service, to the effect that rewarding criminals in this way would do much to secure the conviction of others.

In answer to that I ask: Of what is the avowal for a government to spend immense sums of money to convict criminals and deal out justice to them through the courts and juries and then after they have been given the benefits of every doubt and fairly and honestly convicted and sentenced with mercy they appeal to the board of pardons and they are turned loose to prey upon the people again.

Let the political murderer of the country stand over him. He country that your board has pardoned Harry Orchard and every hardened criminal or penitentiary bird will take a drink on you, well knowing that it is but a step toward lesser punishment for crime.

Before you consider this case, so that you may have the full force of the enormity of the crime and the great loss to the people of this state in mind, I would ask you to read the splendid edition of Wm. E. Bush over the body of Governor Steunenberg.

I notice that a point is made of the fact that Orchard's confession was a great help to the State of Idaho in the prosecution of his co-conspirators, Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone. That is all true, but the State of Idaho has paid Orchard too well for his treachery to his associates. It was not loyalty to his government which he sought for several years to tear down, that prompted him to testify against them. The state had the goods on Orchard and if he had not rendered this service his body would have dangled at the end of a rope in the penitentiary at Boise, and his soul would have rendered a prompt account to his Maker long ago. Good government would have been the winner.

If every wretch who goes about with murder in his heart knew that if he took the life of his fellowman he would be compelled to give up his own, he would mend his ways and become a better citizen.

Orchard feared to face the judgment of a just God and postponed the agony by turning state's evidence. He did not want pardon then because he was afraid to meet the criminal world whose hiring he had been for several years. He felt that they had him marked, and that if he were out he would perhaps pay the penalty that he had so ignominiously earned.

The taxpayers of Canyon county have generously paid the last assessment for the expense of that great trial which they hoped would bring to justice the murderer of their beloved neighbor.

The State of Idaho owes a debt to the memory of Governor Steunenberg. It should first erect a monument to his memory and after Orchard's burial in the penitentiary grounds it should place an inscription on the tomb that would be a warning to every other murderer that is spared the wrath of his fellowman while he serves out his life sentence.

The people of this state spend their hard earnings in an effort to control the cunning conspirators and the assassins, and every enemy of good society; juries bring in their verdict, the judge pronounces his sentence.

All expressing the wish and degree of an outraged public and then sympathy comes along in the lapse of time, and undoes all the good work of the jury and the judge.

When Judge Fremont Wood pronounced his sentence on Orchard he recalled the fact that Orchard turned state's evidence; that he had testified for the state, and that he had rendered important service in the prosecution of Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone. Because of that fact the state should be lenient with him, but he fixed the penalty at death and he given Orchard seventeen years, which his pardon now means. Governor Gooding would have indicted him, and his explosive appeal to an outraged God would have shaken the dome of the capitol building.

There is a sentiment growing up among the people against untimely pardons; that it is not unlikely that a law will be enacted that no pardon shall be granted to a criminal except upon the grounds accruing after the conviction and the sentence of the court. I trust that the pardon board will promptly turn down any application that may be before it for the pardon of Harry Orchard. I regret that I have not more time to present the matter to you now, but if I can be of any service I shall be glad to appear before you in person, and I am satisfied that other citizens of the state will do likewise.

I am,
Very truly yours,
(Signed) E. M. WOLFE.

NAMPA BATTLERS BIG DELEGATION HERE FOR GAME TO GO WITH TEAM

Interest Attaches to Test of New Style Football in Opposition to Plunging Tactics

The Nampa football team arrived here Thursday afternoon ready for its clash with the Elmer warriors today at Lincoln field.

Although there is no title at stake, the game has occasioned interest, as it will prove beyond a doubt the time-worn argument whether the new style football is better and more effective than the old style, which means before the forward pass became known.

Nampa uses practically all new stuff, having a light line and depending on flank formations and forward passes to give them yardage, while Elmer figures on the speed of Aman and Timm around the end and the plunging power of Lapp and Ditch.

Coach Harrington of the Nampa team said last evening that he expects to win the tilt with the Elmer lads. He based his claim on the fact that the teams of this section have not seen a great deal of spread formation plays, and figures to grab two or possibly three touchdowns before he is discovered.

Coach Donham also claims a victory, stating that his line is one of the heaviest in the state. He expects to use the backfield men through the line at all times.

Filer will have the advantage in weight of about 10 pounds to the man. The game will start at 3:30 and a large crowd is looked for as the entire town of Filer plans to be at Lincoln field when the opening whistle is blown.

Filer Falls school students have been asked to attend the game and give Filer their support, since in the event of Twin Falls winning from Idaho Falls, the Filer high school students will be needed on November 24 to help the locals win the state battle.

The officials for today's game have been announced as follows: Barry, Filer, referee; Weston, Jerome, umpire; Folton, Filer, head linesman.

The teams will line up in this fashion:

Position	Nampa	Filer
Love	L. E.	Compton
Marvin	W. T.	Eubanks
Conant	L. G.	Eastman
Morse	C. E.	Carson
O. Diehl	E. G.	Morehouse
Hall	R. T.	Owens
Martin	R. E.	Gowan
Aman (captain)	G. B.	Gray
Timm	L. F.	Gray
Lapp	R. H. Keith (captain)	Woodie
O. Diehl	F. B.	Woodie

NEW TRIAL FOR WOMAN IS ASKED

Mrs. Clara Phillips, Convicted Slayer of Mrs. Meadows, Inveighs Against Verdict

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 16 (AP)—

Mrs. Clara Phillips, convicted today of second degree murder for beating Mrs. Alberta Meadows, young widow, to death with a hammer, will seek a new trial and if that is denied will appeal from the verdict, it was announced by Bertram A. Harrington, her attorney.

"There is a fatal error in the record and finally Clara Phillips will be freed," Harrington said. "I will not quit the fight until she is."

The motion for a new trial will be made when Mrs. Phillips is sentenced Monday. The verdict, which was a compromise one from a jury of nine men and three women, carries a penalty of ten years to life imprisonment.

Prisoner Expected Acquittal

"I expected to be acquitted," Mrs. Phillips said in commenting on the verdict. "They didn't give me a fair deal. I am going to ask my attorney to appeal and believe with another trial I can be acquitted. I don't think I will go to the penitentiary. But if I have to go there I could face life in that place with the same poise I have here. It would not make much difference to me. All my hopes are crushed anyway."

The three women members of the jury voted for the death penalty until the final compromise, second degree murder, was reached. It was said in the early balloting there were four who voted to acquit. The jury reached an agreement late last night after the judge, the attorneys and court attaches had gone home, but the verdict was not returned until this morning. According to members of the jury, they did not consider the insanity contention set up by the defense.

State's Witness Liberated

Mrs. Peggy Caffee, the state's star witness, whom Mrs. Phillips testified killed the hammer that killed Mrs. Meadows, was released from technical custody today. Since October 20, when the trial commenced, she has been in a hotel near the courthouse in charge of a matron from the district attorney's office.

Taking advantage of the great palestras which sweep the ocean front not far from Los Angeles, Director David Smith worked every night for a week in the production of the sequence of "My Wild Irish Rose," which required as many as an asset.

The sequences show the stealthy stealings down winding cliffs and cautious prowling over slender trails. "My Wild Irish Rose," is adapted from the famous stage play which made Dion Boucicault famous years ago. It was called "The Shaughraun." The story is unusual and full of dramatic sequences. Three love tales are interwoven in the plot which deals with England and Ireland of an early date. The all star cast is headed by Pauline Starke, Pat O'Malley and "Mickey."

THE GUMPS—OH WHAT WILL THE ANSWER BE?

VENEZELOS WILL TAKE NO PART IN GREEK POLITICS

Former Premier Says if Elected to Parliament He Will Resign; People Given Choice of Monarchy or Republic

LONDON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Elisavetha Venezelos, ex-premier of Greece, and head of the Greek delegation which will attend the Near East Peace Conference at Lausanne discussed the internal affairs of Greece in the first lengthy interview he has given for several months, and also discussed various phases of the Near East situation as it appears to the Greek eyes. "The rule of King Constantine," he added, "shook the Greek monarchy to the roots, but if a 40 per cent minority, we will say, wish to continue the royal institution, I imagine that a majority of the Greeks would consent to carry on the present system provided the King's power be nullified."

Forewears Politics. The aged statesman apparently has recovered from the severe moral shock he suffered recently because of the Greek defeat in Asia Minor. He seems to be in better health, and speaks vigorously. At the present time he is totally absorbed in making arrangements for the peace conference and also in caring for a million and a half Greek refugees. "I am absolutely divorced forever from Greek internal politics," he continued, "and if elected to parliament, I will resign immediately. If the Greek people want a republic, they probably will show it in the coming elections, for the majority will indicate its will. If the monarchy is of no further use to them, they will be able to signify that fact; and if there is a strong minority desiring to continue the present regime, no doubt the majority will consent, with the proviso that I have mentioned. As a matter of fact, there is little difference between a democratic monarchy, where the king is rendered powerless by the constitution, and a republic. I fancy England is just as democratic politically, though possibly not socially, as the United States."

Avoids British Policy. Asked if he had any comments to make on the passing of Lloyd George, or the British Near East policy in its bearing on the fortunes of Greece, Mr. Venezelos declined to answer, nor would he comment on the action of Italy in retaking the Ionian Islands, which she once promised to Greece.

HOPPE WINS AGAIN AT BILLIARD TOURNAMENT

Former Champion Defeats Cochran with Two Massive Runs of 192 and 160 in International Games

NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—Vilho Hoppe won his second match in the international 18.3 ball line championship billiard tournament. His victory of 500 to 162 over Walker Cochran was built upon two massive runs of 192 and 160. The third best run was 63. The average of the former champion was 55.5-9. Cochran fell to an average of 20-28.

Throughout his sizeable runs Hoppe chiefly favored rolling caroms of a somewhat free-handed variety. His stroke appeared unskilled to sustain the result. The result was brilliantly played caroms which his skill at cushion and position made possible.

Edouard Moremans, the Belgian, hung up a new record high run of 244 for the championship in his match against Etich Hagelbacher, German. The final score in favor of Moremans was 500 to 301.

Moremans finished his string with an average of 35-10-14. The German's average was 21-7-14.

MORE BUILDING DURING WINTER NOW INDICATED

Survey of Conditions in 27 States Shows Unusual Activity With Residential Work Taking Prominent Place

CHICAGO, Nov. 16 (AP)—More than the usual amount of winter activity in building with residential work taking a prominent part, is indicated in a survey of activities made by the American Contractor, in twenty-seven states forming the main northwestern part of the United States.

Valuation of the 2141 contracts awarded for the week ending October 23, reached a total of $64,318,400 and was but slightly lower than the weekly average for the first nine months of this record breaking year, says the publication.

"The volume of contracts awarded during the last two weeks of October, which are normally dull, shows that there is expectation of less let-up than usual during the winter period," the report states.

"There are incontrovertible facts which show that building activity is in no danger of a slump for months to come."

"Contemplated work reported for the week ending October 23 totalled $100,002,000. For the corresponding week of 1921, this total was only $85,925,000 and the valuation of contracts awarded was only $51,718,000. Yet the fall of 1921 was considered a good opener for the spring season of 1922."

"Of the contemplated work for that week, $46,491,200 is for residential building as against $12,331,300 for business building and $7,025,300 for industrial building. While the demand for residence building has not diminished for some time, there is little business and industrial building going on and a period of business expansion will add these projects to the field. In addition there is much educational and governmental building in abeyance which must be done soon."

"Skilled labor will be scarce next year as it is now. Indications are that no reduction will be made in wages of common labor which is all absorbed. Material men are producing at increased costs. The demand for labor and materials in the spring will equal the supply. From such facts, a definite logical conclusion regarding future building costs can be drawn by anyone."

AIRTIGHT RULE SUGGESTED FOR SHIPPING BILL

Reported Purpose to Restrict Consideration of Merchant Marine Measure Brings Call for Party Conference

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—There was a suggestion from some republican quarters today that the administration ship subsidy bill—certainly as regards the manner of its consideration in the house—might be passed along for determination by a party conference.

Reports that the merchant marine committee, which framed it, would ask for a rule giving it the right of way without opportunity for consideration of any amendments except those presented by the committee itself, provoked some outspoken opposition within the party. This bridge, however, has not been reached.

Will Ask Privileged Status.

The rules committee early next week will be asked to give the bill privileged status, but it was said there had been no agreement to do so. The tariff bill was passed by the house under an airtight rule preventing any except committee amendments and the customary motion to reconsider. Some republican from middle west states are reported to have declared opposition to that sort of a rule for the shipping bill, and it was because of this that the suggestion for a conference was broached.

Mondell Outlines Program.

Representative Mondell, the republican leader, discussed the legislative program today with the president. Mr. Mondell said the principal measures to be taken up at the special and regular sessions were ship subsidy, appropriations, rural credits and possibly some changes in the transportation act. The appropriations bill will not be introduced until the December session. First of these will be the treasury bill, with its appropriation for prohibition enforcement, over which there may be a lively fight.

TRACE SALE OF RECTOR'S LETTERS TO SLAIN SINGER

Prosecution in Hall-Mills Case Discovers Two New Witnesses Who Are Considered "Trump Cards"

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 16 (AP)—Original letters said to have been written by the Rev. Edward Hall to Mrs. Eleanor Mills, who were killed on September 14, are to be turned over to the authorities tomorrow by Miss Florence North, attorney for Charlotte Mills, daughter of the slain woman. It was announced tonight by Special Detective Mason that James Mills, widower of the slain leader, today received $500 of the $1,000 which Miss North is said to have obtained through the sale of the publication rights of the letters. Detective Mason also announced that the prosecution would present to the grand jury testimony of two more witnesses whose stories novel have been made public. The stories of these witnesses, he said, were considered "trump cards" in the case, which would almost surely result in the returning of indictments.

The story of Mrs. Jane Gibson, the state's alleged eye-witness of the two killings, has been checked up in every way, Mason said, and all attempts to find flaws in it have failed. The story was strengthened further today by the announcement of the authorities that they had found the driver of the ramshackle wagon which Mrs. Gibson said she followed to the scene of the murders when she was searching for corn thieves.

RECOVERS WIFE AND AUTO.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 16 (AP)—Walter Harrison, 25, of Longwood, Mo., last night misplaced his wife and automobile, but today was united with both after the police had assisted him. Touring from Indiana to California, Harrison arrived here last night and left his wife in a hotel while he went in search of a garage. He found a garage, but forgot where the hotel was, and starting back to the garage for his automobile, forgot the location of the garage. He then appealed to the police.

SEEK NEW QUARTERS FOR CHAMBER, FARM BUREAU

Directors Discuss Interesting Problems and Vote to Send Delegate to Peacelito

The program of the Chamber of Commerce during the coming year will be outlined in a series of meetings to be held soon, it was decided at the conference between the outgoing and the new board of directors in the chamber rooms Tuesday night.

Matters of interest during the past year and those of the coming year were discussed informally. Selection of bureau heads was not announced and the matter was left in the hands of A. L. Swin, the new president.

The board decided to send a delegate to the freight rate meeting at Peacelito Friday and to invite delegates from Butte, Jerome, Rupert, Blaine and Gooding. This meeting is a development of the gathering at Idaho Falls Thursday and its purpose is to complete the district organization in the southern Idaho body seeking lower freight rates.

Mr. Swin will appoint a committee this week, it was announced, to obtain a ground floor location for the Chamber of Commerce rooms, with the expectation of locating the chamber and the farm bureau in the same quarters.

PACKER MERGER

ing it was forthcoming from the Wattle House, 52, far as was learned. Secretary Wallace said that the Armour plan with Mr. Harding, Attorney General Daugherty was confined to his apartment with a slight independence, but at the department of justice it was indicated that the question was not receiving immediate consideration since no plan in detail had been submitted.

Officers of farm organizations in Washington were watching developments in connection with the proposed consolidation. Gray Silver, for the American Farm Bureau Federation, said the matter had been discussed with officials of his organization by those interested as a matter of information. He stated that the federation had not taken a stand before the department of agriculture but added that this did not mean necessarily that a hearing might not be requested.

Farmers Interested

At the offices of the national grange it was stated that no official information regarding the proposed consolidation had been received. Benjamin O. Marshall, of the Farmers National Council, announced that he was writing to Secretary Wallace and Attorney General Daugherty asking full information concerning the Armour plan and suggested that there be no "packer control through legislation and loss of packer control of the government."

While Mr. Armour still declined to discuss the projected acquisition of Morris and Co., by the concern of which is the head, information from other sources was that such a consolidation would place Armour and Co. in the front rank of the big packing concerns. This company, with its capital of $150,000,000 and capital assets of $177,000,000 has various packing plants in the country as well as in South America and Australia. Morris and Co. has a dozen packing establishments in the United States and distributing stations in the more important cities in Europe and in Cuba. Its capital is $40,000,000.

Economy Pointed Out

One immediate result of a merger would be a general consolidation of the facilities of the two companies, and more particularly of distributing agencies and rolling stock. This, it was stated, would be in the interest of economic operation.

COMMISSION TO DIVIDE COLORADO RIVER WATERS

Agriculture to be Given Preference in Allotment Among Seven States Transversed by Stream

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 16 (AP)—The Colorado river commissioners to tomorrow will start the actual work of writing a plan for the allotment of the water of the Colorado river. The commission today agreed finally upon the main principles of a treaty which will be entered into with the seven states in the river basin and the federal government. The commission, headed by Herbert Hoover, its chairman, began its meetings here in executive session on November 9.

The commission today did not announce all of the details of the compact. Its announcement said the agreement would provide for dividing the basin into two groups. Utah, Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico will be placed in the upper division, while Arizona, Nevada and California will be in the lower division. These groups will divide the waters of the river.

No announcement was made, either, concerning any provision for possible future requirements for the republic of Mexico. A provision, however, was made for the summoning of a second commission in later years to provide for an equitable division of the unlimited water.

Agriculture will be given preference in the use of the water of the stream, according to the commission's announcement, and none of the existing rights in the river basin will be changed.

Chairman Hoover announced that the commission was in full accord regarding the urgency of immediate erection of control works to protect the Imperial valley, California, from floods.

ACQUIT RANGERS ACCUSED OF MURDER BY USE OF DOGS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 16 (AP)—Louis Bell and Mrs. Mabel Ross, charged with murdering Elmo Elko, their neighbor, by setting a pack of dogs on him, were found not guilty in superior court here today. The verdict was given after the prosecution, Mrs. Ross said the dogs, which belonged to her, had attacked Elmo while he was quarreling with her. They were slain by county authorities after Elmo's mutilated body was found.

PRESERVE GRADES OF RYE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Formulation of four federal grades of rye, dependent upon condition, weight per bushel and other features, and embodying the decage system, were announced today by the department of agriculture and recommended for adoption by the trade. Because of lack of proper funds for their proper enforcement, the grades are not fixed and established under the United States grain standards law.

CANOE FATALITIES INCREASE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Deaths due to canoes in the United States during 1921 totaled 93,000, the census bureau estimated today compared with an estimate of 98,000 in 1920.

The bureau's announcement said the 1921 rate was higher than that for any preceding year in 23 of the 34 states covered in the report. The rate was 86 per 100,000 in 1921, compared with 83.4 for 1920.

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You

Eating too much meat may produce kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headache, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and you will find that the kidneys are stimulated to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so that it is no longer irritant, thus often ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders.—adv.

Kill Turkey Buzzard.

The green fly and the turkey buzzard are two of mankind's worst enemies, because they help spread infestable paralytic germs and other malignant forms of disease. The buzzard was in large measure responsible for the spread of rinderpest in South Africa, cholera in India and the epidemic that killed off the water buffalo in the Philippines. The green fly and the turkey buzzard should be killed on sight.—Thrill Magazine.

A TWO-SIDED QUESTION

Apparently the proposal for increasing the strength of the Twin Falls fire department by addition of three members so that firemen will be on duty from ten to fourteen hours a day instead of the entire twenty-four hours each day, as at present, has a good deal to recommend it.

There are few men who would be willing to trade jobs with the firefighters under the existing conditions, and there will be no objection to the proposal raised on the grounds that the firemen are not entitled to a measure of relief from constant responsibility.

The question is likely to be solved on the basis of its relationship to the financial and economic status of the city. In this connection assurance given by fire insurance underwriters that they will make a material reduction in insurance rates if the force is increased is an important consideration.

Care must be taken, however, that the benefits accruing from such a reduction in insurance rates would apply as extensively as increased taxation which adoption of the proposal would entail.

WAR DEBT STAND JUST

The shift in ministry having apparently removed Great Britain's opposition to a full discussion of inter-allied debts, the proposal to hold a get-together parley in Belgium next month will be universally welcomed. Not only delegates but less is heard of the necessity of making arrangements with the United States before European nations can make adjustments between themselves.

The wholly proper and eternally just stand of the Washington administration that war debts owed to the United States by allied powers must be paid admonishes the allies that they will have to do something on their own account.

So long as the victor nations insist that the vanquished Teutons can pay as demanded they have not a shred of argument for reduction of their indebtedness to America. If Germany can pay, they can pay, and they can pay whether or not they succeed in compelling the Germans to discharge their obligations. It is not improbable that collections in the end will be facilitated by a temporary extension to Germany, the granting of a moratorium covering a few years. That is for the creditor nations to decide. If they do not press the Germans they will be treating those people precisely as they are glad that this country is treating them. At bottom our position is that the war debts can be paid in time.

No one can blame the French for feeling hard toward the nation which thrust war upon them, but now practical business facts must be taken into account. An inter-allied conference at Brussels may marshal them in such fashion that all concerned will be impelled to act practically.

The only thing the bootlegger's public has not availed is Mr. Haynes' warning that 99 per cent of hooch is poison.

While we are on the subject of de-tours, perhaps the Dove of Peace has a few words it would like to say.

OUTLOOK FOR STOCKMEN OF WEST BETTER

Rain and Snow Following
Drouth Improve Range Conditions in Western States to Balance Situation

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 16. (AP)—General improvement throughout the west in livestock and range conditions during the month of October is indicated in the monthly report issued tonight by division headquarters here of the federal bureau of crop and livestock estimates.

Rain and snow coming on the heels of a comparatively extended period of lack of precipitation improved the open ranges in six western states sufficiently to offset the slight deterioration elsewhere in the west, the report declared.

The average condition in the 17 range states was 51 per cent of normal, compared with 80 per cent on October 1 this year. Those averages refer chiefly to the open ranges. The greatest improvement was in Texas, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, Washington and California, according to the report.

Snow which has fallen in many western states since Nov. 1, the first month to bring winter to the west, is expected to improve range and farm pasture conditions further, the report states.

The condition of range cattle declined somewhat during October, the average on Nov. 1 being 82 per cent of normal, compared with 89 per cent one month previous. Heavy marketings in the west in the last few months throughout the western states, due partly, the report says, to scarcity of food and partly to the stockmen being forced to sell to meet their obligations.

Sheep Situation Bright

"Sheep are quite promising for the future," the report continues, "and there is still a widespread demand for feeder lambs although most of the feeder producing states have already sold their surplus. The condition of sheep on November 1 was 92 per cent of normal or only slightly different from their condition as reported one month earlier."

Choleric Writer

The late Edgar Saltus, a popular novelist some thirty years ago, is said to have been one of those unfortunate who take a rejection as personal. When anything of his was returned by the Atlantic he insisted on return, and when P. B. Aldrich, then editor, gave them Saltus flew into a temper. An inflammatory letter from him left Aldrich undisturbed. He smiled at it, but never answered it. — Indianapolis Star.

Champion Charger Springs Into Fame From Garbage Cart

Blue Ribbon Winner at Horse Show Once Served Between Shafts of Scavenger Wagon

NEW YORK, Nov. 16. (AP)—From the shafts of a garbage wagon came a champion charger, a chestnut gelding dubbed "Submersible" by a buck private who sometimes drove him to a post laundry wagon, leaped into fame at the national horse show today as a blue ribbon winner, capturing the coveted Ambrose Clark cup championship for chargers.

The event was a competitive test for army horses ridden by officers in full equipment. Major John A. Barry had the mount on Submersible.

Views of Grange Given on Packer Combination

Increase in Monopoly Implies Need for Larger Degree of Government Control Ownership, Is Opinion.

WICHITA, Kans., Nov. 16. (AP)—Opposition of the national grange to the proposed merger of the Armour and Morris packing companies was voiced here tonight by T. C. Atkinson, of Washington, D. C., legal representative of the national grange, and member of the executive committee.

"Our general attitude throughout the history of the grange has been one of opposition to monopoly in any form. We believe that as there is an increase in monopoly, there must be a like increase in government control or ownership. For the more the people give up protective competition, the more they are giving up their only means of protection," Atkinson said.

"Merging for greater efficiency and to give the common people better prices is all rot," he declared. Mr. Atkinson also made his report of the work done during the past year by the national grange in Washington. He felt that the interests of agriculture had received much consideration and that the farmer had been fortunate in the matter of the tariff.

Baking Powder—that's the big thing in successful baking

It determines failure or success in baking, more than any other ingredient.

If you do not always have satisfactory bakings, change to Calumet for just one trial.

It is pure, containing only such ingredients as have been officially approved by U. S. Food Authorities.

Within the Calumet factories—the largest and most sanitary on earth—hundreds of skilled workers clad in white are busily engaged in producing the baking powder that is used by millions. Human hands never touch it. Its sale is 2½ times as much as that of any other brand. Pure in the making—pure in the baking.

A pound can of Calumet contains 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounces instead of 16 ounces cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

ENGLAND SUPPORTS PARTISANS

War Born Coalition Government Gives Way in Elections to Rule by Conservatives Under Bonar Law

LONDON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The long drawn out fight between former Premier Lloyd George and Sir George Younger has for the time ended with victory for the chairman of the unionist party. Younger and his adherents staked their political fortunes at the famous Carlton club meeting which smashed the coalition and sent Lloyd George into the wilderness on the conviction that the country was ripe for a return to party politics and in the firm belief that the nation would support the conviction by sending the conservatives to the house of commons with a good working majority.

Their confidence has been amply justified. Yesterday's elections have returned a parliament with almost the same overwhelming predominance of conservatives as the last parliament elected in 1918 on a wave of grateful enthusiasm to Lloyd George as "winner of the war."

Commands Majority of 80. In the new parliament Premier Bonar Law will command a majority over all parties combined of approximately 80.

While this cannot be properly described as a landslide as the conservatives, who at the time of the dissolution of parliament numbered about 180, it amounts to the same thing, considering the high hopes held by the labor and liberal parties of the return of the country to progressive views.

Lloyd George Steps Down. It means a parliament with few changes, except that Mr. Bonar Law replaces Mr. Lloyd George as premier and that the following members of the national liberals, reduced by the election to fewer than 50, presumably hereafter will be in opposition, instead of working in cooperation with the conservatives.

The downfall of Lloyd Georgeism is the outstanding feature of the election. The coalition liberals whose dissolution numbered 129; they are represented in the new parliament by only 44 members.

Labor Makes Own Handicap. The Asquithian liberals improved their position, rising from 34 in the old parliament to 60 in the new, but they did not do so well as they expected. On the other hand, labor, although it failed to fulfill the high hopes of the party, did better than expected, having done exceedingly well, rising from 76 to 136 seats. It is generally believed that labor would have done far better, but for the mistake in its advocacy of a capital levy.

While the strength of conservatism in the country is a matter of surprise, perhaps the keynote of the elections is the decline of liberalism and the growth of the labor party. This seems to show that henceforth the struggle will be between the conservatives and the labor party.

Labor is the second strongest party in the house, and in the event of the present government suffering defeat in parliament it would be to the labor party that the king naturally would turn for a new premier.

Another striking feature of the elections is that the women voters have taken an unexpectedly strong interest in the struggle, their participation probably accounting more than anything else for the exceedingly heavy poll. But, however keen their interest in political life, they do not appear to be in the mood to elect women to parliament, only Lady Astor and Mrs. Wintlingham, already in the house, being returned.

Party Lines Complicated. Estimates on the distribution of parties in the house of commons differ somewhat owing to a certain confusion in party boundaries and the number of isolated members representing independent groups, such as "cooperators." Included in the conservative group are 13 Ulster conservatives. There are still ten seats, the results of which will not be announced tonight, some of which the university and distant scattered Scottish constituencies, from which the results may not be available before Saturday.

Notables on Casualty List. There have been many notices of casualties among all the parties, the most striking perhaps being the defeat of Arthur Henderson, former leader and Winston Churchill, former colonial secretary and the overthrow of five members of the new administration, for whom safe seats will have to be found. The defeats of Mr. Churchill, Sir Hamar Greenwood, former chief secretary for Ireland, and Frederick G. Kellaway, former postmaster general, were severe blows to Mr. Lloyd George, who, however, had the satisfaction of seeing his son returned by a big majority, while both his secretaries, Sir Edward M. Grigg and G. H. Shakespeare, were elected. Mr. Asquith held himself somewhat narrow escape from defeat, and his chief henchmen, Sir Donald MacLean and Walter Runciman, went down.

Astor Wins Seat. In Dover, Major John Jacob Astor received 19,151 votes against 8,054 for Sir T. Polson, the independent candidate, and 2,985 for L. J. Selin, liberal candidate.

CUNO NAMED TO FORM MINISTRY

Hamburg-American Steamship Line Manager Succeeds Wirth as German Chancellor

BERLIN, Nov. 16 (AP)—The task of forming a cabinet to succeed the Wirth ministry has been accepted by Wilhelm Cuno, general manager of the Hamburg-American steamship line and one of the outstanding industrial figures of the country, according to an unofficial announcement today.

Wilhelm Cuno recently has become increasingly prominent in political affairs. He has been chiefly important in recent years as general manager of the Hamburg-American steamship line. During the negotiations at Paris, Herr Cuno was among the German technical delegates.

Herr Cuno came prominently into political notice in 1920 when he was urged to accept the post of minister of finance in the reorganized cabinet. His refusal to act resulted in much criticism.

OPERATORS AND MINERS COMMITTEES DISAGREE

Initial Efforts at Conference to Negotiate Wage Scale in Soft Coal Fields Prove Futile

CHICAGO, Nov. 16 (AP)—Two sub-committees, one representing coal operators and the other the miners of the bituminous fields, conferring here in an effort to make some plan to negotiate a wage scale at a meeting of miners and operators next January, tonight announced that they had disagreed after an all day conference, and would so report to the meeting of miners and operators tomorrow morning.

The announcement was made by Harry N. Taylor of Kansas City, president of the Southwestern Coal Operators' association.

Four tentative plans were considered by the sub-committees for negotiating new agreements. One was agreed. One involved a virtual reinstatement of the old central competitive field as the basis, another would have enlarged the central competitive field by the addition of Kentucky and West Virginia, and the third and fourth were plans for a national conference of operators and miners.

"This simply means," said Mr. Taylor, "that the sub-committees could not agree and does not mean that the bituminous coal miners will not be able to adopt a method."

TWO HUNDRED ITINERANTS ARE DRIVEN FROM TRAINS

Railroad Police Believe Men Turned Back at San Bernardino are Vagrants of I. W. W. Invasion

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Nov. 16 (AP)—Two hundred itinerants, many of whom were declared by the local members of the I. W. W. were driven from freight trains on the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railway north of San Bernardino, Cal., by deputy sheriffs and railroad officers.

The men are believed by railroad police to be the vanguard of those who are to be driven from the I. W. W. headquarters in Chicago in consequence of a recent waterfront employment controversy.

Railroad officials were advised that nearly 500 men, many of them I. W. W., had passed Needles on freight trains. Twenty-one arrests were made here and efforts were made to turn the men back through Cajon pass.

GENERAL WRIGHT LINGERS

Erroneous Report of Death of Former Secretary of War is Branded by Physicians as Frivolous

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 16 (AP)—The condition of General Luke Wright, secretary of war in President Roosevelt's cabinet and former governor of the Philippines, who has been critically ill at his home here for several weeks, was reported unchanged tonight, although it was said he is gradually growing weaker and his death is looked for at any moment.

An erroneous report that General Wright had died was denied by the family. General Wright has been in a semi-conscious condition for three days and all the members of the family have been called to his bedside.

General Wright, who is 76 years old, is a Confederate veteran.

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

CHAMBER-BUREAU HEADS SELECTED

Effort Will Be Made to Urge State Legislature to Cut Down Court Expenses

Directors for the 11 Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce bureaus were announced Thursday by A. L. Swin, newly elected president, as follows: J. S. Keel, industries; L. E. Sullivan, roads; J. E. White, utilities; M. C. Mitchell, education; W. T. Leslie, agriculture; C. E. Wright, state relations; C. N. Deady, advertising; James Hargrave, merchandise; Lawrence Closs, parks and playgrounds; D. D. Alford, civic affairs; A. L. Swin, recreation.

Five of these occupied the same positions last year and while the appointment of the others is announced as tentative, Mr. Swin stated he believed there will be no changes.

Call Special Meeting

A special meeting will be called before December 1, Mr. Swin said, to outline the plans for the year. Mr. Swin announced that one of the problems which will require much attention will be that of forming a policy concerning state legislation to come up at the next session. In this connection the chamber plans to bring special efforts toward economy in court procedure and curtailing certain methods now being used. This work will probably fall largely upon C. E. Wright, past president of the chamber, and now director of the state relations bureau.

Retain Quarters

Communication with state officials of the farm bureau showed that the plan, while approving the idea of combining the local quarters of the bureau with those of the chamber, has no provision for the added expense of new quarters and the officials therefore could not consent to the plan at present. The finding of the new location for the chamber offices will probably be postponed until the new building is made up.

Carl DeLong and Nowell S. Wright will represent the chamber at the eighth state conference at Pocatello today, where plans will be considered for combining the southern Idaho counties in an organization seeking lower rates.

The general business situation is marked by greater confidence than was manifested during the last weeks of 1921, Mr. Foster said. The local office was in charge of Miss Pearl Foster during the manager's absence.

BUHLAND MUST NOT BE DIVIDED

Judge Babcock Denies Petition to Have 250 Acres Inside City Limits Separated

The petition of property owners to have 250 acres of agricultural land detached from the corporate limits of Buhl has been denied by Judge William A. Babcock. Asher H. Wilson, attorney for the petitioners, stated Thursday he will file an appeal.

The case has been pending for several months, a hearing having been held some time ago at Buhl. The petitioners and city being represented, respectively, by the firm of Wilson and Thomas and the city of Buhl by its attorneys, J. H. Shorley and J. W. Taylor. The matter was then taken under advisement by Judge Babcock and written briefs submitted by counsel for the respective parties.

Want Lower Taxes

The chief cause of the action is that the farmers want their lands excluded from the city limits to avoid the high taxes. The land is owned by six individuals and is devoted to agricultural purposes which makes it subject to the 1921 state law providing for attachment of agricultural lands from cities.

The statute provides, however, that detachment cannot be made where it will be a detriment to the city, and it was on this ground that the petition was denied.

Would Mar Symmetry

Part of Judge Babcock's decision is as follows: "Upon a careful consideration of all the conditions disclosed by a view of the land sought to be detached and the evidence introduced at the hearing, including maps of the present city of Buhl, I do not see how any of the tracts of land provided for in the petition can be detached or excluded from the corporate limits of said city without materially limiting the symmetry of the city, for the said petition will therefore be in all respects denied. Attorneys for the city may prepare and submit judgment accordingly."

The Northwestern Mutual

will reduce your insurance cost 25 to 35 per cent on all the property in the city of Twin Falls, that will pass their inspection, which would more than cover the additional expense of the three additional firemen to make the two platoons. Why place your insurance with companies who are only willing to reduce the rates 5 per cent.
