INDICT SELLER
AND PURCHASER
IN BOSCH DEAL

Perjury and Embezzlement
Charged Against "Dummy"
Purchaser and Former Sales
Director for Custodian

NEW YORK, Dec. 28, (AP)—Martin E. Kern, alleged "dummy" purchaser of the Bosch Magneto company's assets at an alien property custodian's sale in 1910, and Joseph F. Guffey, former sales director of the property custodian's New York office, today were indicted by a federal grand jury which has been investigating for several weeks complaints of irregularities in connection with the Bosch sale.

Kern was indicted for perjury and Guffey for embezzlement, but federal officials admitted the indictments were supplementary today to the Bosch inquiry and did not concern the alleged irregularities.

Outside Bosch Deal

The charge against Kern was that he took a false oath to get an American passport last January. A series of embezzlements totalling $400,000 were charged against Guffey, but it was made clear that these were not received by the alien property custodian's office in sales other than the Bosch transaction.

Counsel for Mr. Guffey tonight asserted:

"By this indictment he is charged with misappropriating $400,000 of the government's money on these and on the fact that the money was paid into the treasury of the United States in March, 1921, and he holds the government's receipts."

Bosch Technicality

The $400,000, the attorney said, was a fund of interest which Mr. Guffey collected from banks where he deposited monies realized on sales of enemy property collected by him in a desire to do his full duty although he was not authorized or required by law to do it.

Official Says High Schools
Commercial Education Purpose is Too Restricted

CHICAGO, Dec. 28 (AP)—The purpose of public high school commercial education has been too narrowly defined, it has been concluded by a committee on business education, and has neglected to give students the proper background and understanding of business conduct and relations. Declared Glen Levin Swiggett, of the U. S. Bureau of Education speaking before the National Commercial Teachers' Federation.

"The problem in business education today is to coordinate skill and information, method and knowledge," he stated.

"Business education is not easy to define," Mr. Swiggett said. "That condition will prevail until it becomes more of a science or a profession. Recent years have seen much done to give scientific character and professional aspect to business, its conduct and procedure. Colleges and universities have instituted research departments for the study of production processes, marketing methods and devices and systems of business conduct. As a result, the theory of economics is now applied in many directions by these institutions in preparation for well defined business careers."

"For example many universities are offering accounting courses, advertising and merchandising, banking and finance, insurance, foreign trade and consular service, organization, management and transportation. The scientific study of business problems involved will lead to a statement of principles and laws, and a definite kind of information governing new business procedure which will bring new subjects for study in the field of business education."

Kaw Indians Choose Woman
for Chief of Their Tribe

Chief Lucy Revives Barbecue Custom at Election and Herself Makes and Serves "Squaw Bread" at Festival

PONCA CITY, Okla., Dec. 28 (AP)—The Kaw Indians not only have given the woman the right to vote, but have elevated one of their number to the highest office in the tribe, that of elective chief. The woman is Mrs. Lucy Tayiah Eads, now chief Lucy to all her tribesmen.

Chief Lucy is the first head the Kaw Indians have had since 1908 when Chief Washunga was frozen to death. She is the wife of John R. Eads, a white man. The two with their children live on the new chief's allotment, an inheritance of eight hundred acres. They are among the few who have not disposed of any of their property. They raise livestock of all kinds and thrive on their children to the white schools.

Best Qualified for Post.
"The best material for the job," is the way the Indians describe Chief Lucy, and John Eads, who is a cousin of James Buchanan Eads, who built the Eads bridge across the Mississippi river at St. Louis, proudly takes his place as husband of the chief. "She is an excellent wife, a fine mother, the best nature living and understands the needs of her people," he says.

Lucy Tayiah with her brother, Emmett were adopted years ago by old Washington, who led the Kaw Indians from their lands in Kansas in 1873 to a new allotment in Oklahoma territory. He sent them to Haskell institute, after they had completed the tribal schools. Here Lucy distinguished herself as a student and became interested in nursing. After her graduation from Haskell, she went to New York City to become a graduate nurse. She remained there several years and then returned to her own people. Her brother also lives in the Kaw country, near the little village of Washington, named after the old tribal chief.

The Kaws, like many other Indians, have sold and dissipated their holdings and are now reduced to poverty. Although their lands join those of the rich Osage, and oil derricks can be seen rising in the distance, the Kaws have reaped no mineral benefit as yet. A number of tests have gone down, but all in paying quantities have not been found.

Will Press Land Claims

Chief Lucy announced that the principal task of her administration will be pressing a claim of her tribe against the government for $15,000,000, which the Kaws alleged is due them as payment for lands they owned in Kansas before their migration to the Oklahoma territory. The Kaws declare the government offered them $125 an acre for the land, which was near Topeka, but they received only ten cents an acre. The $15,000,000 they claim represents the difference. Their family neighbors, the Osage, have offered to advance enough money to the Kaws to enable them to send a delegation to Washington to press their claims.

All Kaw Indians possess a strain of French blood, running back to the early trappers and voyagers who settled among the Indians in the days of Marquette. The most prominent member of the tribe today is Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, who with his children hold allotments in the Kaw reservation.

At the recent election of Chief Lucy, an old tribal custom of having a barbecue was revived. Chief Lucy made and served the "squaw bread," considered a great delicacy to all Indians. It is made like a blanchet dough with the shortening omitted, rolled flat and cut into strips. These are dropped into large kettles of lard and cooked thoroughly.

Delivers Maiden Speech

After the feast Chief Lucy called her council together. She made her maiden speech, thanked her people for the great honor they had given her, the first woman to occupy so high a position in her tribe, and assured the Kaws that she would work for their interests.

The new chief spoke in English and some of the younger generation interpreted her speech for the older Indians. So-Jum-Wa, who is about seventy-three years old and the only member of the tribe now living who came from the Kansas reservation, replied for them. His remarks were also interpreted for those who did not understand the Kaw language.

Taking Desperate Chances

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and paves the way for the more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifling sum.

FRIENDS GREET
WAR PRESIDENT
ON NATAL DAY

Collectors of $1,000,000 Fund
to Perpetuate Wilson Ideals
Promise Success; Senate
Sends Its Felicitations

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (AP)—Friends of Woodrow Wilson, who are raising a $1,000,000 fund for the perpetuation of his ideals, celebrated his 65th birthday today by sending him word through a delegation which called at his home, that the success of the movement was assured.

At the same time, the senate adopted a resolution offered by Senator Harris, democrat, Georgia, expressing "pleasure and joy" at the former president's recovery toward health. The resolution was put through quickly with a chorus of eyes from the democratic side of the chamber, many of the republican senators, engrossed in other matters apparently paying no attention to its purpose.

Spends Day Quietly

Mr. Wilson spent his birthday quietly. For an hour or more a group of men and women stood in the rain in front of his home, hoping that he might appear to greet them, but all they saw of the war-time president was a glimpse of him as he drove off in a limousine late in the day for his daily ride.

During the day messages of felicitation came to Mr. Wilson from all parts of the world. A few choice friends called to extend greetings, the delegation representing the former president's foundation arriving at 3 o'clock, for a 40-minute visit. In the group were Hamilton Holt and Mrs. Charles E. Simmons of New York city, Mrs. J. Malcolm Forbes of Boston, and Miss Caroline Rutz-Dore of Greenwich, Conn., all members of the foundation's executive committee.

The delegation told Mr. Wilson that contributions to the fund already had passed $800,000, probably now approximated $900,000, and in the near future undoubtedly would reach the $1,000,000 mark. The former president was reported to have expressed satisfaction over the success of the movement and its purposes.

Keep Topics Secret

Those in the delegation declined to disclose the nature of their conversation with Mr. Wilson aside from saying that they had chatted informally on a number of topics. He was in excellent spirits, they said, and apparently was in better health than at any time since he was stricken with illness. Mrs. Wilson and Miss Margaret Wilson, the former president's daughter, joined him in receiving the visitors in the library.

An engrossed copy of the resolution adopted by the senate was sent to Mr. Wilson by Vice President Coolidge, with the following letter of felicitation:

My Dear Mr. Wilson:
"It gives me great pleasure to be the medium of transmitting the enclosed resolution to you. It was unanimously adopted. To it I wish to add my own felicitations on your recovering good health and my congratulations on the return of another anniversary of your natal day."

"With greetings of the season, I am,

AMERICAN BUILDERS IN JAPAN LAND MUCH WORK

Construction of Office Buildings and Hydro-Electric Plants Awarded to United States Firms

TOKIO, Dec. 28 (AP)—Construction work under way in Japan by American building firms represents several millions of yen, with prospects of a much larger volume.

The George A. Fuller company already has completed several office buildings in Tokyo, Yokohama, and Kobe and has started on others in the capital. Stone & Webster, Inc., of Boston, have in hand the construction of a high dam hydro-electric plant on the Shio River in Toyama prefecture, which is the largest in Japan, its ultimate capacity being 70,000 kilowatts. It is designed to supply the various industries of the work coast as well as those in the larger industrial centers.

The most important of the new work for which the American firms will be building a small industrial city at Tezumi, between Tokyo and Yokohama for the Shibaura Engineering company which is associated with the General Electric company of America.

This firm has decided, owing to the lack of space in the vicinity of its present plant, to move bodily to Tezumi. Besides the buildings, there will be water, sewage and street car systems to be installed as well as other public utilities that go to make up a modern town.

Advocates of Centralized Municipal Government Seek Greater Development

LAWRENCE, Kansas, Dec. 28 (AP)—Greater development of the city manager form of government, which, its advocates point out, centralizes municipal responsibility and gives the citizen more service per tax-dollar will be the object of the National City Managers' association, which recently chose the University of Kansas as its national headquarters. A monthly magazine devoted to efficient city administration will be one of the results used to further this idea in government, states John G. Stutz, secretary of the association.

"In 1912, there were two cities with the manager form of government," Mr. Stutz says. "Since that time 287 cities in thirty-eight states have adopted this plan. Among the larger cities with this form of government are Cleveland, Akron and Dayton, Ohio; Houston, Texas; Nashville, Tenn.; Wichita, Kansas; Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo, Michigan; Albuquerque, New Mexico and Glendale, Pasadena and Long Beach, California."

GERMANS SEEK AMERICAN AID ON REPARATION

Chamber of Commerce of United States Reveals Further Phases in Move for American Commission of Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (AP)—Further aspects of the move for an American commission to inquire into Germany's capacity to pay reparations came to light today when the Chamber of Commerce of the United States made public a definite request from German business men that such a commission be appointed.

The request was transmitted through the German Industrie und Handelskammer, a national organization representing German business interests. In reply, the chamber of commerce expressed gratification at the confidence shown in American business leadership, but deferred a definite decision pending discussion of the reparations question by the council of allied plenipotentiaries at their meeting on January 2.

The correspondence as made public contains no reference to previous discussions of the project although it is known that in an informal way the American commission plan has been under consideration in Germany, the United States and other countries for several weeks. Only one allusion is made to the fact that the plan has been discussed also with officials of the interested governments, the cablegram of the German Industrie und Handelskammer saying merely that the "German government would be pleased to welcome such a commission," and to open all its sources of information.

Washington Is Silent.

State department officials, who have been unwilling to discuss in any way the commission proposal since it first was disclosed in a recent Associated Press dispatch from London, continued almost tonight regarding the whole project, the White House officials would not reveal whether the move was one of the things President Harding had in mind when he wrote to Senator Lodge today regarding the efforts now being made to be helpful in solving the European economic problem.

ENGLISHMAN PROPOSES PLAN BASED ON AMERICAN AID

LONDON, Dec. 28 (AP)—An important article, supposedly reflecting in a broad way the views held by the British government, is contributed to the current week's issue of the Spectator by its editor, John St. Lee Strachey. Under the caption "An appeal to America," the editor proposes a plan for world settlement under three headings, as follows:

"First: Got Great Britain's debt to America funded.

"Second: Ask America to assist in ascertaining the amount of reparations Germany is able to pay, and induce France to accept that sum by undertaking to cooperate in the defense of France against German aggression.

"Third: America and England then to inaugurate some system of international legal tender, permitting resumption of international exchange on a sound basis."

AGED TEXAN IS HELD TO ANSWER KILLING CHARGE

Double Slaying Comes of Fend Growing Out of Dispute of Dead Man's Wife as School Teacher

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Dec. 28 (AP)—A. D. Halliburton, 72 years old, of Somerset, was remanded to jail without bail by Justice of the Peace Ben Fisk, after the killing of J. G. Harwood, 27 years old, and A. G. Chapman, 48, at Somerset this morning. An attempt to obtain bail will be made through habeas corpus proceedings tomorrow.

Harwood and Chapman were killed in a street battle this morning. According to reports made to deputy sheriffs who hastened to the scene, Harwood was shot by Chapman and Chapman later was killed by Halliburton, father-in-law of Harwood.

The trouble is said to have resulted from a feud growing out of the discharge of Mrs. Martin Harwood, wife of the slain man, as a school teacher by Chapman, who was superintendent of schools.

LIQUOR CARGO IS SEIZED

Prohibition Agents Take Alcoholics From Schooner Washed Ashore and Bend Efforts to Finding Skipper

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—Prohibition enforcement agents today seized the small liquor cargo of the schooner Anna Belle of Baltimore, which was washed ashore on the bay side of Sandy Hook. The agents also gathered in several weeks. Only one allusion is made to the fact that the plan has been discussed also with officials of the interested governments, the cablegram of the German Industrie und Handelskammer saying merely that the "German government would be pleased to welcome such a commission," and to open all its sources of information.

The British schooner Madonna V., which, according to her skipper, Captain James, was carrying liquor from the Bahamas to St. Pierre, was wrecked near Montauk Point, Long Island, and her crew taken off in a breeches buoy. Some rum runner skippers, it was reported, refrained from trying to make shore with their craft, and were dumping cases of whiskey into the sea, which kindly tossed them ashore into the waiting hands of confederates.

SEARCH FOR BOAT FAILS

Owners of Missing Tug Cornell Abandon Hunt After Exhausting Efforts to Find Some Trace of Vessel

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 28 (AP)—Lake Erie agents tonight can solve the mystery surrounding the disappearance of the tug Cornell, with a crew of seven men. Feeling that all efforts to find some trace of the vessel which had been missing since last Thursday, had been exhausted, officials of the Great Lakes Towing company, former owners of the Cornell, announced that further search would be abandoned.

What was thought to be the wreckage of the Cornell sighted near Erie yesterday by aviators sent out from government anti-malaria station here, developed to be that of a Canadian boat sunk several years ago, according to a report received from the tug Q. L. Gilmore, by H. E. Gilpin, president of the Great Lakes Towing company.

URGES WOMEN TO EXERT THEIR POLITICAL RIGHTS

Woman Member-elect of Ohio Legislature Holds Interest in Home is Most Important Feminine Duty

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 28 (AP)—Mrs. May Van Wyo, wife of a professor and herself a former school teacher, was elected by republicans of Hamilton county to be one of the women who will represent this county in Ohio legislature for the next two years. Mrs. Van Wyo was elected to the house of representatives by 76,000 votes.

Born and educated in Brooklyn, Mrs. Van Wyo came here about 10 years ago and engaged in school work. She was a member of the National Council of Defense, during the war, being in direct charge of the social work of that organization, and also served as chairman of the Patriotic League. She is now connected with the Y. W. C. A. in an official capacity and is also a member of several clubs of Cincinnati.

It is Mrs. Van Wyo's first venture in politics. During her campaign she spoke on legislation for women. She also stressed the importance of the women exercising their newly acquired rights.

The woman representative says that her main hobby is traveling, but that she is fond of gardening and outdoor life. Interest in the home is the most important, she adds.

Mrs. Van Wyo is the wife of Benjamin O. Van Wyo, professor of public speaking at the University of Cincinnati.

OFFICIALS VAGUE ON PLANS OF PORTO RICO'S GOVERNOR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (AP)—Secretary Weeks today announced after a prolonged conference with Governor E. M. Mont Relly of Porto Rico, that he did not know what the governor's intentions were with respect to his continuance in office as the head of the Porto Rican government, although he assumed that Mr. Relly would return there as governor. Mr. Relly emphatically refused to comment on his future plans. Governor Relly visited the White House executive offices late today but it is understood did not seek an appointment with the president. He said he expected to see Mr. Harbord "socially" before leaving Washington.

PUTS GUARDS IN MINNESOTA JAIL

Sheriff Takes Precautions When Threats Are Made Against Wife Slayer

FAIRMONT, Minn., Dec. 28 (AP)—Sheriff W. S. Carver tonight placed guards in the Martin county jail following threats of violence made against Clarence Hamblen, who, according to the sheriff, confessed that he poisoned his wife as she lay in a sick bed at Ceylon, October 9, last.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Hamblen, whose family is prominent, were reported to have made threats against the life of Hamblen. A kinsman, who was largely instrumental in starting the investigation, which resulted in the execution of Mrs. Hamblen's body, is said to have declared that he would shoot the prisoner on sight.

Although confident that no violence could be done his prisoner, Sheriff Carver took cognizance of the reports and stationed the guard.

Another Woman Figures.

Hamblen, who also is charged with setting fire to his home after his wife's death, was arraigned here today on a charge of arson and was ordered held to the grand jury. He will be charged with murder, officials said.

It is planned to call a special grand jury to indict the prisoner for murder. According to Sheriff Carver, the motive for the crime was infatuation with another woman who formerly lived near Ceylon. She was divorced there, the sheriff said, and later moved to California. Last summer she visited Ceylon.

Shortly after the woman left, the sheriff said, Hamblen collected insurance on his furniture, which was damaged by fire, and a week later also collected insurance on his automobile which was burned.

Insures Wife's Life.

Then, the sheriff continued, he had his life and that of his wife insured for $1000 each. A month later Mrs. Hamblen became ill and four days later—on October 12—she died in convulsions.

Nothing was suspected until representatives of the state fire marshal's office were asked by insurance companies to investigate the furniture and automobile losses.

After Mrs. Hamblen died her husband left town and County Attorney Paul C. Cooper ordered the body of the woman exhumed November 24. The contents of the stomach were sent to the University of Minnesota for analysis which revealed the presence of poison. Then search for Hamblen was begun and he was arrested in Stockton, Cal., December 15.

Blames Financial Trouble.

According to Sheriff Reicks of Stockton, Hamblen wrote the former Ceylon woman there that he was coming to her.

CECIL LEITCH PRAISES AMERICAN WOMAN GOLFER

Former British Champion Gives Impression of Visit to Canada and United States

LONDON, Dec. 28 (AP)—Miss Cecil Leitch, the former British woman golf champion, is at present in the hands of a specialist for treatment of her arm and she has said recently that she could not define her prospects in the matter of playing in the next ladies' championship games.

Regarding her tour last summer in Canada and the United States, Miss Leitch declared it was purely of a private nature. She was particularly impressed with women's golf in the Dominion. Of the outstanding players in Canada, Miss Alex MacKenzie and Miss Popper were probably the greatest. Miss Alex Sterling was undoubtedly the greatest exponent of women's golf in the United States, in spite of the fact that she curtailed her play during 1922. She was the finest "shot maker" over there. She had more shots almost than any other player. Miss Leitch considers that the majority of women's golf courses in the United States and Canada are easier than those in England. There is no undulation there as in England, and virtually no wind. The courses, however, are very much better kept than in this country.

The premier announced he would appoint Marquis Torretta ambassador to Great Britain, as head of the Italian delegation to the Paris conference, with Marquis Raggi and Signor Danoloni, members of the reparations commission as assistants.

Olives Reasons
Mussolini's reasons for not going to Paris were, first, that the legal situation demanded his presence in Italy, and second, that there had not been such diplomatic preparations as to give hope of a speedy agreement at Paris, and he foresees difficulties between England and France.

It also was stated that he said he had found when abroad that he was welcomed not as the head of the government, but as a leader of the Fascisti, and he did not wish to disturb the tranquility of a country in which he was a guest. He therefore had decided to accept a special delegation for the conference.

Reviewing the internal situation, Mussolini said it was improving.

FRANCE COMPLETES PLANS FOR SEIZURE OF FORESTS
PARIS, Dec. 28 (AP)—The French government has practically completed its plans for the seizure of certain German state forests as a result of the formal action of the reparations commission last Tuesday in declaring Germany in voluntary default to deliver the specific amount of timber during the next year.

Some of these government owned forests are in the occupied territory of Germany and others in Bavaria. It was authoritatively stated tonight that part from any general settlement that may be reached at next week's conference here of allied premiers, M. Poincaré has made up his mind to take these forests in economic reprisal for Germany's "wilful default," even though the other allies refused to participate in the operation.

The French premier will insist that his work of seizure be the first item on the agenda of the premiers' meeting. He will ask the approval of the allied powers, but if this is not forthcoming he is prepared to act alone.

GERMANY BLAMES ALLIES
BERLIN, Dec. 28 (AP)—Germany's delay in meeting the entente's demand for timber was due mainly to the late date on which the government received specific notification of the allies' requirements, according to an explanation issued today by the German press. The explanation stated that the commission asks an extension of time to the first of April.

GUARDS CONTINUE VIGIL
Proclamation Against Destruction of City Commissioners' Homes by Dynamiters is Extended

COLUMBUS, Ga., Dec. 28 (AP)—Guards kept up their vigil tonight about the homes of the five city commissioners in readiness to combat any attempt of bomb plotters, whose alleged plans to destroy the residences and other property of city officials were disclosed yesterday.

No indication of arrests is given by the authorities although it has been stated that they have the names of several men who are alleged to have met Tuesday night in a cemetery here and made plans to blow up not only the homes of the city commissioners, but apartment houses and missions belonging to the officials.

The grand jury met today in special session to consider the case but adjourned without taking action.

ODDS FAVOR DEFEAT OF BORAH PLAN

Advocates of Idaho Senator's Proposal Spar for Time for Recruiting Administration Opponents

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (AP)—Senate warfare over the Borah proposal for a world economic conference reached a dramatic turning point today when President Harding threw the full force of the administration against Senator Borah's plan as contained in an amendment to the naval appropriations bill and in a letter read in the senate, virtually asked for its defeat.

Another day's general debate followed, but action went over. Plans were made for a vote tomorrow but so many more senators desired to speak that, with forces favoring the Borah rider reported sparring for time in an effort at recruiting, delay over the New Year's holiday appeared possible. Defeat of the amendment was predicted positively by administration leaders and conceded, upon the present status of the battle, by its champions.

Fears False Impressions
The president's letter was addressed to Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, and said the Borah amendment would create "false impressions" abroad as well as at home, to the embarrassment of what the administration already was doing toward aiding Europe. Evidently drafted with great care after consultation with Secretary Hughes, however, the communication failed to give any details of the negotiations it hinted were in progress.

Neither would White House or state department officials divulge any further information on the subject. They declared the affair was necessarily veiled in diplomacy and left developments shrouded in doubt. Virtually the only light thrown on the negotiations came from Senator Lodge during the senate discussion when he said the amendment would create "false impressions" abroad as well as at home, to the embarrassment of what the administration already was doing toward aiding Europe. Evidently drafted with great care after consultation with Secretary Hughes, however, the communication failed to give any details of the negotiations it hinted were in progress.

A suggestion from the president in his letter that congress "free the hands" of the allied debt commission, "so that helpful negotiations may be undertaken," developed special interest in the senate. Senator Lodge said he was authorized to state that the president meant that time for payment of principal and interest of foreign debts might be extended. Senator Borah, however, in brief comment on the president's letter, charged that the administration proposed in effect, to cancel the foreign debt by deferring payments "until the seventh of eighth generation has passed over the Jordan."

In discussions at the state department, rumors of the administration's activities continued of wide and varied form. One was based on press reports from abroad, suggesting possibilities of a four power European peace pact as a means of settlement suggested. Since the three power agreement for defense of France which would have insured American and British support against any German aggression, failed when rejected in the United States, it occurred to some observers that the United States might be selected as the logical agency for presenting a four power European peace plan as an alternative.

Another overflow holiday crowd followed today's senate debate, in which the principal speeches were made by Senators McNary, republican, Oregon; France, republican, Maryland; McMillan, democrat, Arkansas; and Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, in support of the Borah amendment, and by Senator McCormick, republican, Illinois, in opposition. Several lively tilts occurred also between Senators Borah, Lodge, Johnson, republican, California; Reed, democrat, Missouri, and others.

Senator Borah deferred an extensive reply to President Harding's letter until tomorrow when a half dozen senators are to speak on the amendment, including, in addition to Mr. Borah, Senators Johnson, Watson, Indiana, Capper, Kansas, and Mower, New Mexico, and the republican side, and probably Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, and other democrats.

Officials' Lips Sealed
While it was impossible to get any reaction in official circles to this plan of the European peace pact suggestion known to have been considered first abroad more than a year ago, it attracted much unofficial attention. A possibility that it had been evolved in Germany as a means of meeting French demands as to adequate security from attack was suggested. Since the three power agreement for defense of France which would have insured American and British support against any German aggression, failed when rejected in the United States, it occurred to some observers that the United States might be selected as the logical agency for presenting a four power European peace plan as an alternative.

FIVE RAILROADS IN EAST MERGE

Nickel Plate Line Official Announces Consolidation Representing $105,500,000

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 28 (AP)—Consolidation of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis (Nickel Plate), the Chicago and St. Louis, the Lake Erie and Western, Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville and the Toledo, St. Louis and Western (Clover Leaf), was approved here today by the board of directors of the five railroads, representing an authorized capitalization of $105,500,000, and operating 1,695 miles of road, W. A. Colston, vice-president and general counsel of the Nickel Plate, announced.

The directors of the roads in the consolidation, sometimes referred to as the "Van Swearingen lines," approved and executed an agreement for the unification of the five roads into a single corporation to be known as "The New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad company," and direct submission of the agreement and articles of consolidation to meetings of stockholders of the several companies.

The consolidation "will make possible economies in operation and general administration, and will enable the roads to compete more effectively with larger systems serving the same territory, and give improved service to the public," Mr. Colston said.

The terms of capitalization provide that the consolidated company will be authorized initially to issue $105,500,000 of capital stock, which amount is equivalent to the sum of the now authorized capital stock of the constituent companies. Of the total to be authorized, it is proposed to immediately issue $78,000,000, corresponding to the sum of stock now issued by the constituent companies. Of the initial capital stock, $45,880,000 will be cumulative preferred and $32,120,000 will be common stock.

RADIO HELPS FISHERMEN TO FIND HERRING AT SEA
Wireless Telephone is Put to Use Off Coast of Sweden to Eliminate the Wasteful Waiting

GOTHENBURG, Dec. 28 (AP)—The radiophone is becoming a serious menace to the safety of the herring off the Swedish coast. The fishermen put out at sea sort by the use of the Gothenburg radio control the exact location of the herring schools. This unique service which will tend to eliminate wasteful waiting on the part of fishermen, and will doubtless mean a considerable increase in the catches of herring, is the newest commercial use to which the wireless telephone will be put in Sweden, according to plans just completed.

While merchant vessels have for some time been required by law to carry wireless equipment, the smaller fishing vessels have hitherto operated without systems of communication with the land. They will now receive weather reports, forecasts, and news, as well as the radio tips regarding the appearance of the herring.

Plans are on foot to distribute news in Sweden by radio telephone. Experiments are being made from Stockholm as a center.

ARGENTINA COUNTS DEBT
Announcement of Total of National Obligations Surprises Some Newspapers by Its Size

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 28 (AP)—Argentina's unconsolidated public debt now amounts to $30,574,218, news of roughly $31,000,000, according to figures submitted by the accountant-general's department to the new minister of finance, Dr. Vegas, who sought the information to prepare the budget of 1923.

The figures are noted with surprise by some newspapers, which refer to former statistics indicating that the debt was some 184,000,000 pesos less. It appears from the report that the 184,000,000 consists of debts not subject to any precise term of payment, the remainder being represented by liabilities maturing at specific dates.

A bill for the authorization of an internal loan to consolidate the debt, in whole or in part, is being considered by the ministry of finance in lieu of seeking a foreign loan.

Considering the thousands of people who have read this sensational drama of California, it is likely to fill the theatre at every showing during its run. From every angle it is undoubtedly one of the outstanding pictures of the year. It is a Cosmopolitan production for Paramount by Frank Borzage, director of "Humoresque," and with a powerful cast, headed by Forrest Stanley and Marjorie Daw, leaves nothing to be desired.

CONTINUE SIEGE OF CONSULATE

Widow MacSwiney's Forces Capture Outer Rooms of Office Held by Free Stater

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—"Competent Irish republic military forces" have taken the outer offices of the Irish consulate here, it was admitted today by Robert Briscoe, who said he was an officer in the republican army, and will fight them until some decision has been made as to who actually should operate the office. Siege of the offices began last night when Lindsay Crawford took them over as free state consul.

Muriel MacSwiney, widow of the former mayor of Cork, is in command. Laurence Ginnell, the aged republican, who was named envoy to this country by Edmund de Valera, no longer gives orders. Briscoe declared he received orders from Mrs. MacSwiney and would not on them at all times.

Crawford Holds Out
This was the principal development after republicans had picketed the offices of the consulate 74 hours, declaring that Crawford should not keep control. Mr. Crawford, however, insisted he would remain in the offices until he was ordered out by his own superiors.

Tonight the "republican army" was in control of the outer offices. Mr. Crawford held the inner offices. The safe and filing rooms were held by the republicans, but the only couch in the place was in Mr. Crawford's possession.

The Free State consul, however, asserted he would not be insistent that the republicans remain in that portion of the rooms they had held all day. Because Mrs. MacSwiney, Mrs. Gertrude Corliss and Miss Vera Finerty planned to remain on guard all night, he told them they might use the room in which the couch was, if they wished.

TWIN FALLS WEEKLY NEWS

Established 1904

Twin Falls News Publishing Company,
Ltd., Publishers

AN IMPORTANT TOPIC

Because of the extreme importance of the matter the columns of The News are open for full discussion of the entire subject of the American Falls reservoir plan.

Letters bearing upon the project, no matter on which side, will be cheerfully published provided their primary purpose is to shed light upon the proposition as a whole and the point sought to be made is held within reasonable space.

Because of its importance discussion should be frank and free. Whatever action is finally taken, it will not do to make a mistake.

It is with this idea in mind that attention is called to the forthcoming election and its consequences, and the necessity for a full and complete understanding of the subject on the part of all.

HOLIDAY REASONS TO HAPPINESS

The radiant holiday season, warm and cheering with the contentful bliss of home and affection, impresses us most serenely, most convincingly, most solemnly, most simply, with the ordinary sanctity of everyday existence. The peace and happiness that love and good will instill in us expose the flimsy sham of sordid endeavors.

There can be no doubt, not the least doubt, that the treasures which really are worth while are the intangibles. The proof is in our hearts and in our minds that true happiness and the nearest kin to content lie in the spiritual motives and ends, and that nothing is solid, even the most substantial, unless it derives vitality, strength and content from exalted sentiment.

In the whole year we find no joy, no pleasure, no delight, no entertainment, no diversion, no calm, which compares with this captivating, ennobling, inspiring, inexplicable and soothing ecstasy of faith, love, family and friends. By contrast the material is revealed as unreliable and ephemeral. Nothing lasts, nothing abides, except the spiritual.

This idea is the one which the New Year should be entered. It should broaden our view of life. It should give us a wider and higher vision. It should fill us with charity. It should make us kindly, just and tolerant. It should enable us to determine the values in all of our thoughts, plans and deeds.

We are living for our country, for our nation. As fellow-citizens, we are brothers. We are living for our families, for those dear to us, and our homes are the units which compose our country and our families the units which form our nation. We are living for the honor and happiness of our families, and, therefore, for the honor and happiness of the nation.

The goodwill which we experience during the holiday season, the goodwill of unselfishness and justice, is the virtue which, if practiced from day to day, would be most effectual in solving all the serious, all the complex, social and political and other problems which vex us.

It is not in money, property and business, not in petty objectives, not in hate and suspicion, not in malice and rancor, that prosperity and happiness are found, but in charity and justice. Material things pass away. Only the spiritual, though intangible, endures.

SUPERCOONS

Not much has been heard from Uncle Henry Ford and his artificial cow since he first announced that he could produce synthetic milk. But the busy scientists of the department of agriculture have gone to work and produced a supercow that gives enough milk to feed 30 children a day, just five times what the average cow gives.

That estimate figures a quart of milk per day per kid, a high average. If every youngster in the country consumed a quart of milk a day, we should soon have a race of supermen as well as of supercows. Milk has so often been proved the best all-round food that we marvel more youngsters aren't kept on a steady diet of it.

Good breeding and good feeding—that is how the department of agriculture produced the supercow. And there again we have the human parallel. Good breeding and good feeding are what make the best boys and girls, men and women. In too many homes good feeding is interpreted as meaning expensive food. That isn't right. You take the housekeeper who knows how to economize, and you'll find nine times out of 10 that she is averaging pretty close to the proper scale of calories, proteins and all the other mysterious things of dietetics.

If you want to know which family in your block eats the best, don't ask the grocer and the meat man. Take a walk down the alley. The family with the least in the garbage can is wasting least, and its diet is most nearly right.
