

BIDS ON BONDS DELAY ACTION ON CITY AUDIT

Council to Decide on Publication of Report on City Books at Session on Thursday

Action in respect to publishing the five-year audit of the city accounts which was to have been considered at the regular meeting of Twin Falls city commission Tuesday night, was postponed until Thursday morning when it will come up for discussion along with the receiving of bids on bonds with which to redeem between $50,000 and $50,000 in outstanding city warrants.

Bond Buyers on Hand. With six bond buyers present representing a number of concerns, the council meeting took on the nature of a stock market. Offers of a wide variety regarding the cost of bonds with which the city proposes to refund outstanding warrants were made and after an hour and a half had been devoted to the matter it was finally decided to receive final bids Thursday morning at a special meeting of the commission, the bids to be made on the basis of five and one-half per cent interest and the bonds to run 20 years with an option of paying after 10 years and the bonding concern to pay all expenses.

Some Bids Mailed. Bids were submitted in writing by representatives of George Bullery & company and Bonwell-Phillips company, O. H. Coleman & company of Portland; W. P. Bullock of Salt Lake; Lumbersen's Trust company of Portland; Ferris & Hardgrove of Spokane; and Drake-Ballard company of Minneapolis.

Licensees Granted. Milk licenses were granted to W. H. Coleman, G. J. Pickett, Harold Euker, Christy Bungalow grocery, N. P. Kenworthy and S. Kayler. Meat licenses were granted to the American market, O. H. Coleman, Prater's grocery and the Idaho Department store.

SCHOOL GIRL PLAYERS SCORE HUGE SUCCESSSES

'Old Maids' Convention' and 'Burglar' Apt Themes for Blue Triangle Thespians

'The Old Maids' Convention' and 'The Burglar,' which were played by the Blue Triangle club Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium, scored a big success. 'The Old Maids' Convention' was given first. The cast included 17 old maids and the three officers. Marjorie Knefel as the president of the matrimonial club, took the part in the old maid form. Norma Lenz and Lavern Carlson also no worthy of mention. Professor Pinkerton, as played by Margaret Scelley, was the famous wonder worker of the evening, changing the dried up old maids into charming, young women.

'The Burglar' was a screaming success. The characters were: Constance Hill, Helen Fisher, Pauline Hill, Lenora Lang, and Valerie Rowberry. The girls became frightened on account of some reports that they heard about a burglar in the city. They retired for the evening after much deliberation. Suddenly they were awakened by a scream and they decided to capture the burglar. Two of the girls were experts when it came to handling a shotgun. Finally Valeno, the bravest of the girls, went into the room and brought forth the vicious burglar, who was a kitten! Helen Fisher proved that she had an excellent voice when she sang a song and Valerie Rowberry when she is frightened. Valeno Rowberry and Constance Hill were exceptionally good.

Jeroma Krivanek, who was one of the transformation, sang a delightful song. Geo De Witt gave a reading; Ellen Lang sang 'My Father's Old Shanty'; Bess Duke danced; Zoia Bowlsby played a piano solo and Flo Peters gave a reading and Bess Duke rendered a delightful tambourine dance. All of these were the transformed old maids. The music was furnished by the orchestra. The play was directed by Miss Joy, the advisor of the club. The high school auditorium was packed, even standing room being at a premium. The money the girls made by these two plays is to go into the camp fund, and they will be holding a summer conference at Payette lakes.

BORAH TO BE SPEAKER AT AKRON, OHIO, RALLY

Date is Arranged to Accommodate Fight on Shipping Bill; Relation to Third Party Movement is Denied

Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, will speak March 21 at a state-wide prohibition progress rally at Akron, Ohio, under auspices of the Summit county republican executive committee, according to information received here Monday. Invitations have been sent to prominent Republicans throughout the country, the committee advised. The date of the rally originally was February 12, but was postponed to avoid possibility of Senator Borah's absence from Washington during the fight on the merchants' marine bill, which he is opposing.

Conservative Akron rally, Congressman Knight of Ohio, in Washington recently said 'I will have nothing whatever to do with the formation of any third party or with furthering the candidacy of any man for president.'

Liability matter sent out by the committee in charge of arrangements for the rally says Senator Borah is 'above all a republican,' and that 'he will, it is anticipated, go to the heart of some of the perplexing problems of the country.'

SUCCESS SEEN FOR FUTURE OF BIG RESERVOIR

Hearing on Confirmation Set for March 2; Claim Opposition Dead Issue

The petition filed in district court Monday by Judge James R. Bothwell, attorney for the American Falls irrigation district, asking a hearing for confirmation of the district was granted by Judge W. A. Babcock at the date of hearing set for March 2. Notice of the filing and granting of the petition is to be published at once and four weeks are given in which to file demurrers to the proceedings. The seven directors of the district are named as the petitioners.

Opposition to the confirmation of the district appears to be practically out of the question. The Landowners' Protective Association, the organization opposing the big district plan of financing, has no plans outlined, in fact, some of the formerly active officials in the organization claim that it has 'laid down' in view of the big majority by which the district plan carried, and that the members are no longer desirous of carrying on a minority fight.

On the other hand, E. J. Malone, chairman of the executive committee of the association, stated Monday that the organization is still intact and that although it has nothing definite in view at present as regards opposition, it does not intend to quit entirely. Shad L. Hoaglin, attorney for the Landowners' association, stated he had heard of no further opposition being planned. Certain legal questions can be raised in regard to the confirmation of the district but plans to that end have not been decided upon, he said.

The committee on information which played an active part before the election in favor of the project is resting on its victory but its members stand ready to become active again in short notice in case anything of a nature threatening the progress of the district shows up, according to A. L. Swain.

HUSBANDS ARE GUESTS AT ORIENTAL PROGRAM

'Evening in the Orient' Given by Women's Club Outstanding Event of the Season

More men was not only recognized, but honored and fêted in royal style Monday night when the members of the Twentieth Century club presented one of the outstanding social events of the season in a program designated as 'An Evening in the Orient,' at Odd Fellows hall, at which their husbands were guests.

The setting and atmosphere was truly oriental and exceptional care and cleverness was evident in the preparation and execution of the event. Costumes and numbers strongly recalled H. H. Cuntor or Constantinople and the indispensable incense of the lands across the seas was present in enigmatic clouds. Conversation, however, was carried on in English.

The Shook, in the person of Twin Falls' 'Tajah' who had succeeded upon a luxurious divan covered with robes and clad in raiment of purple and gold and his comely favorites contented themselves in worshipping their lord from a cross-legged posture on the floor at his feet.

The program opened at 8 o'clock with 'The Song of India,' by Mrs. A. F. Oland. The second act from 'Madama Butterfly,' capably presented by Mrs. I. H. Masters and Miss Emma Smith.

The third number was in incense danced by Mrs. E. J. Stepien and her daughter, Lolita. The fourth act proved a feature of the evening. It was a pageant of the nations, presented in costume. Mrs. D. F. Riggs, with eight assistants, representing the Goddess of Liberty, France was portrayed by Mrs. S. C. Wyatt; Mrs. H. C. Alexander was in the native costume of Sweden, and Miss Colette Wolfe was attractive as the girl from Spain.

The costume of Miss Luella Wolfe that of 'Miss Tina,' white Mrs. Masters wore the costume of Japan. Miss Smith was the representative of Chilean, and India was characterized by Mrs. Stepien. Mrs. Carl Benson was accompanist.

SUGAR COMPANY HEAVY SPENDER

Institution's Head Gives Facts and Figures to Show Importance of Industry

That the operation of the Twin Falls sugar factory of the Amalgamated Sugar company is a splendid asset to the community as well as to the best interest is shown by figures quoted Tuesday by James Scelley, official head of the institution.

'The sugar company has paid out to farmers at Twin Falls so far this year,' said Mr. Scelley, 'the sum of $170,748.88. It has paid a payroll per month of $13,658.70.

'The average per month during the campaign was $41,016.50. If beet enough are grown to run the factory four months it would mean a payroll of $169,000.00.

'Besides the payroll at dumps along the river, the payroll to farmers for hauling piled beets, each ton of beets makes 500 pounds of pulp. Dairymen now awake to the value of beet pulp and good hay as a milk producer. This feed will produce as good a flow of milk as good pasture. Heat pulp is made into a fertilizer for corn and feed. Molasses mixed with hay is an excellent food for feeding cattle, sheep or horses.

'If each farmer will put a portion of his land in beets, a portion in beans and potatoes, prosperity is bound to come to the farmer. We are urging all verified farming and feed that the farmer who has 10 or 20 acres of beets in his better shape at his market is sure to hold beans, potatoes or grain for better prices. No freight to pay means no waiting for cars, no gambling as to price. The more beets there are grown the better price can be obtained.

MECHANICS LOSE TO DRAMA TEAM

Idaho Theatre Lads Take Two Out of Three Games From Rendahl-Wright Bowlers

The Idaho Theatre kids won the odd game from the Rendahl-Wright plibusters Wednesday evening at the Twin Falls bowling alley, taking the second and third games by comfortable margins.

The loss of the first game was the first one of the present season for the high school lads who have been doing some paramount work in keeping the theatre at the top of the list. In this game the mechanics smashed out a victory by the score of 787 to 742. Percy Thompson went wild in this game and rolled a 207 score, getting awful close to the prize offered by the Troy Laundry for high score this week. His nearest competitor was Reeves with 187.

Figuring that the auto men were lucky to win the first game the theatre stars began to raise the roof in the second, and when the final ball had been rolled, the score read 780 to 704. Captain Selek took high game with 189, with McMill second with 173.

To stay at the top was the next thing, and the high school boys with the trousers that made "The Shell" famous came through in fine style, winning 747 to 698. Denny Sullivan pulled down the high score in this game with 187.

The total pins stood, Idaho Theatre 2275; Rendahl-Wright 2180. Percy Thompson had high average for the three games with 164.

How the theatre lads held first place:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Rendahl-Wright 1 2 3 Totals, McMill 136 173 142 451, etc.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Idaho Theatre 1 2 3 Totals, Kerr 149 150 148 447, etc.

Wonder if the rest of the bowlers still insist that the Idaho theatre team is lucky?

Both teams were off color last night, and with the exception of Thompson's game of 207, the bowling wasn't up to standard.

The success of the kid bowlers lies in the fact that they are not flashy bowlers, but maintain a steady average during the three games.

All five of the Theatre team will bowl within five points of one another when the season ends.

This sort of work will win more games than a team that bowls 850 one game and 650 the next.

Percy Thompson looked mighty good in the first game and it is very much as though his wife will be able to take a layoff for a few Mondays.

Laval Jarman was the controversialist of the evening, confining himself mostly to splits.

Captain Selek had a nice chance to keep the laundry war in the family in the second game but an error in the seventh, and a split in the eighth, followed by a blow in the ninth stopped him at 159.

Although Chet Kerr averaged 149, he has done far better work. Chet is dangerous at all times.

McCracken couldn't get his hook ball to working and failed to pass 146.

Arbury was another bowler who failed to live up to expectations. Em-met got as far as 156 in the first, which proved to be his high for the evening.

Reeves, taking McRobert's place for the theatre team, did fine in the first two games; but fell down in the third.

McMill, lead off man for the auto team, was a little under par, too, McMill had a good game in the second with 173.

Denny Sullivan couldn't get started in the first and second, but sent them a whizzing in the third for 187. Denny threw a fast ball and with a little more control will be a hard man to keep up with.

Selek took a tumble, not being able to beat 142. He had five errors and a split in the second game.

The Wright's Store team will clash with the Alvord & Mott artists this evening, and if things go as Charley Bruggemann says they will, the department store clan will lose three games.

With Emery Bonnot back in the lineup, and a real dark horse making his first appearance before the American Bowling team, the Wright's team clinch quite a bit for this evening's tilt.

The games tonight will end the regular scheduled games for the week.

Harry Vogel announces that his team is in the best condition, and if they lose it will be because the Shoe Market men are marking up strikes when the scorekeeper isn't looking.

They daily bowing thought: If a lady bowler married a telegraph operator in San Francisco, would you call it a Western Union?

Bible Is Printed for Every Other Inhabitant of Globe

CHICAGO, Jan. 31 (AP)—More than 600,000,000 Bibles in all languages have been printed in the world since printing was invented in the middle of the fifteenth century. According to George C. Buxton, Chicago publisher who presented this interesting estimate at the convention here of the Subscription Book Publishers' Association.

Approximately 8,000,000 Bibles are printed in this country, and Canada annually," said Mr. Buxton, "and 35,000,000 throughout the world.

"Assuming as approximately correct that the earth contains 1,500,000,000 inhabitants, it is evident that all the Bibles ever printed would supply nearly half of the individuals of the globe with a copy and each of earth's 300,000,000 families with more than two copies. There is, however, no way of knowing how many Bibles of the total printed in history are in existence today, and the distribution of the Scriptures, of course, has not been uniform among nations and tribesmen.

"There are more exact statistics regarding the distribution of Bibles in the United States. In a population of 116,000,000, it is estimated by Dr. J. S. Kirkbride of the American Bible Society that about 80,000,000 people own Bibles. This leaves 35,000,000 who do not possess a copy of the Scriptures in a total of 600,000,000 families, 16,800,000 have Bibles.

"These figures do not reflect with exactness the religious situation. The American people are inherently religious. Through there are 7,300,000 families without Bibles, I believe there are few individuals who at some time in their lives have not had Bible instruction or who have not constant opportunity for reading the Scriptures.

MEXICO NEEDS FRIENDS

Exiled Statesman Says Country Should Lay Aside Exaggerated Patriotism that Makes for Isolation

HAVANA, Cuba, Jan. 31 (AP)—"Mexico needs friends in the form of a man who has the courage to have unpopularity by seeking the friendship of foreign countries, especially the United States," declares Emeterio de la Garza, pro-revolutionary Mexican statesman, who has arrived in Havana from Europe after nearly a decade of exile.

"Mexico needs foreign capital and immigration," Senator de la Garza continued, "and must encourage and protect them. We must lay aside our exaggerated patriotism, which tends to isolate us from the world. We must consider ourselves from an international viewpoint."

Senator de la Garza, who asserts that Mexico is being estranged even from her Latin American sister republics, is unable to find even a raveling of silver lining to the cloud he sees hovering over his country.

The Screen

"PENROD"

The presentation of Marshall Neilan's latest First National attraction "Penrod," brings with it a memory of Bobby Barron, gentlemanly and capable film actor. Bobby's brother Johnny, is in the cast and was imputed taken up by everyone who checked fond thoughts for the former leading man in D. W. Griffith's De Othy Grah pictures who lost his life tragically.

Although Johnny Barron is a comparatively new comer to the screen, his sterling work in the juvenile parts of "Penrod" has distinguished him as a screen player of great promise. "Penrod" was adapted from Booth Tarkington's famous story of American boyhood. Its release will mark the first time that these works have been consolidated into one complete feature picture. Showing at the Orpheum today.

"ARABIAN LOVE"

Manager Madson of the Idaho theatre announces that he has a thrilling desert picture coming today. It is the latest William Fox production, "Arabian Love," featuring John Gilbert, who has won extraordinary success in big Fox specials.

"Arabian Love" is said to have in it all the charm of the trackless desert, with the shocks and the outlaws running wild in their pursuit of wealth in transit over the sands. Gilbert is a member of an outlaw band because the law is on his trail and he finds safe refuge in the desert. This band captures the wife of a French diplomat. Gilbert saves her—and falls in love with her, in ignorance of her marriage. The complications that arise are heightened by the obstacles that Gilbert finds in the romantic path along which he battles his way to ultimate freedom and happiness.

Helpful Precepts

I have no precept your wide or valuable than this: Cultivate self-help; do not seek or like to be dependent upon others for what you can yourself supply; and keep down as much as you can the standard of your wants; for in this lies a great secret of manliness, true wealth, and happiness; as, on the other hand, the multiplication of our wants makes us effeminate and slavish, as well as selfish.—William Everett Gladstone.

The cause of his death, it was announced, was chronic bronchitis. He had been failing in health for several months.

Mr. Clews is survived by a daughter, Elsie, wife of Herbert Parsons, former congressman from New York, and a son, Henry Clews, Jr., an artist and sculptor, residing in France. His nephew, James B. Clews, succeeded to the active management of the banking house several years ago on the occasion of Mr. Clews' retirement.

Henry Clews, "the dean of Wall street," author and public speaker, for more than 50 years, was one of the leading financiers in the United States. Born in Staffordshire, England, on August 14, 1840, he was studying for the ministry as a young man when he communicated his intention to travel to New York. He decided to enter mercantile life and some years after the panic of 1873 helped to organize the leading firm of Stout, Clews & Mitchell, which later became known as Clews & Co. In 1877 the firm became Henry Clews & Co., which it has since remained.

Upon the outbreak of the Civil war in 1861, Salmon P. Chase, secretary of the treasury, appointed Mr. Clews government financial agent for the sale of the first issue of the United States bonds. He was so successful that President Grant later appointed him as fiscal agent of the United States for all foreign governments. In this capacity he was an adviser in the organization of the modern financial system of Japan, a service for which in 1908 he was decorated as a commander of the Order of the Rising Sun.

Declines Cabinet Post.

Mr. Clews, who was a life-long republican, twice declined offers of the portfolio of secretary of the treasury, once the republican nomination for mayor of New York and once the governorship of the port of New York. He always maintained an active interest, however, in organization of a patriotic, charitable and educational character, including Ohio Northern university and the Metropolitan Civic forum of which he was a trustee, and the Richmond Hill (N. Y.) settlement of which he was treasurer and director.

He was also a director of the American Civic Alliance, the Japan Peace society, the Royal Society of Arts of England, the American Chamber of Commerce of Paris, director of the International Peace forum, president of the American Peace and Arbitration league, former president of the National Highways Protective association, former treasurer of the American Geographical society and the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. He was a founder of the Union League club of New York and a member of the Turf and Field, Army and Navy, Economic, Union and Press clubs of New York, the Authors of London and the Boston City club.

Writes Books on Finance.

He wrote a number of books, including "Twenty-Eight Years in Wall Street" (1885), "The Wall Street Point of View" (1900), "Fifty Years in Wall Street" (1908), and "Speeches and Essays" (1910). In one of his volumes he told an interesting story of how he got into the New York stock exchange for $500 when membership has since been quoted as high as $2000.

"I was a young man then, a very young man, and one of many who wanted to get into the exchange. The old members of that organization considered themselves a close corporation and fought tooth and nail to keep us out. They charged one-eighth for each stock transaction. When I advertised for and was told that I would execute orders for stock at one-sixteenth, cutting the commission in half, they were glad to take me in."

He was married Miss Lucy Madison Worthington, a grand-niece of President Madison and a descendant of General Andrew Lewis, next in command to General Washington in the Revolutionary war. For many years they made their home in New York city and had a summer residence in Newport, R. I.

A Hard Swim.

From a Fujian boat capsized by a squall five men were drowned, but a woman, accustomed to swim from childhood, reached the shore after swimming for 13 hours. When she reached the coral reef her hair caught in its projections, but she dragged herself to safety.

Call for Assistance.

Bobble, amusing himself on the sidewalk in front of the house, stopped Uncle Albert, who was on his way downtown to attend the mortician. "Uncle Albert, come in and help me ask mother to coax me to go," he cried.

Oceanic Statistics.

Oceans occupy three-fourths of the earth's surface. At the depth of 3,500 feet waves are not felt. The temperature is the same, varying only a trifle from the poles to the burning sun at the equator. A mile down the water has a pressure of a ton on every square inch.

Right Action.

Rightness expresses of actions what straightness does of lines, and there can no more be two kinds of right actions than of straight lines.—Herbert Spencer.

FAVOR WENATCHEE ROAD

Attorneys Predict Early Issuance of Certificate of Necessity and Convenience for Line to Kennewick

WENATCHEE, Wash., Jan. 31 (AP)—That the Wenatchee Southern railway company will soon have a certificate of necessity and convenience to construct its proposed line along the Columbia river south of Kennewick, is the opinion of A. N. Corbin, attorney with A. N. Teal of Portland, Ore., for the Wenatchee Southern, who returned here recently from Washington, D. C.

Mr. Corbin reported that 11 of the 12 members of the interstate commerce commission heard the argument of the Wenatchee line. Both Senator Wesley Jones and Senator Miles Polinder appeared before the committee in favor of the road, and Mr. Corbin, who added that a number of other men prominent in state and national politics also were present and expressed approval of the project.

CONSTRUCT NEW BULLRING

Moneyed Lovers of Sport Influenced by Success of "El Torero" Build Second Arena for Mexico City

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 31 (AP)—The sight of 20,000 persons jamming "El Torero" bullring every Sunday afternoon and day of fiesta, was too much for a few moneyed lovers of the sport. So they built a new ring, which was dedicated to the memory of the fighters from Spain have been imported and contracts made for several good breeds of fighting bulls.

The new arena accommodates slightly more than half of "El Torero's" capacity. The versatility of this ring was shown recently when within four days a bullfight, a boxing match, grand opera, a Ukrainian chorus concert, and a circus were staged there.

000 to 20,000 tons have remained un-cleared every day for weeks.

Calm Seems Restored.

Calm has apparently been restored, so far as outward demonstrations are concerned. The infantry, bicycle and cavalry patrols, which have been keeping order in the streets since the outbreak of last Thursday, have arrested only two men at Essen and one at Dueseldorf in the last 24 hours.

The railway strikes shows no signs of improvement; it is effective throughout the Ruhr and Westphalia, Coblenz and Cologne. The stations between Dueseldorf, Essen, Duisburg and Ruhrort are filled with people, unable to reach the city.

The municipal council of Bochum, which has been a center of opposition against the occupying powers, has pasted a proclamation on the walls, reading: "Germans, remain firm. Make the invaders feel that he is our enemy and make his realize that Germans are not dogs that lick the hand that strikes them."

Germans Stop Trains.

The Germans have stopped the Paris-Waraw express at the Cologne station for the past two days; no international eastbound train gets beyond Cologne.

The bottom seems to have dropped out of the exchange market. Sterling today brought 220,000 marks, the dollar 45,000 and the French franc 500 in Dueseldorf and Essen, with paper marks becoming scarce again.

The Websters.

Daniel Webster was born January 13, 1782; died October 24, 1852. Noah Webster was born October 10, 1758; died May 28, 1843. These two were not related. Noah was a descendant in the fourth generation, of John Webster, English dramatist and author, and Daniel's father was Ezekiel Webster, judge and farmer of New Hampshire.

Seemingly Nothing Doing.

Bobble had just arrived in this country and was visiting his aunt for the first time. When bedtime came, he said goodnight formally, so his aunt asked him if he wasn't going to kiss her. He replied: "I don't kiss grandmothers; aunts never."

Ancient Custom.

The salutation of English-speaking races of shaking hands is very ancient. It is mentioned by Homer, Aristophanes and by Virgil. As the confirmation of a bargain it appears in II Kings 10:15. Today it is confined to western races.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be not kidney trouble, but the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are oftentimes symptoms of kidney trouble. Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store. However, if you wish first to test the great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer, 233 E. 12th St., Buffalo, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—adv.

IRON GRIP ON RHINELAND TO BE TIGHTENED

French Losing Patience in Face of German Stubborn Resistance and Stern Measures Are Prepared

DUESSELDORF, Tuesday, Jan. 30 (7:45 p. m.—AP) (Delayed)—The French are losing patience in the face of the stubborn resistance of the Germans, and there is evidence that real military occupation is coming in the Ruhr.

Stern measures, including martial law, an early curfew, suppression of the use of automobiles, and censorship of the newspapers, will be enforced in a few days, after the last opportunity has been given the Germans by the Quil d'Opigny to make a suitable reparation offer.

Comfours with Cardinal Although Dr. Gruetzer, president of the Rhineland province, and the burgo masters of Dueseldorf and Essen have been made aware of the coming measures, they maintain their attitude of resistance.

Start Trains or Walk An official at French headquarters in commenting upon this announcement of the application of sterner measures, said:

"The fact that a German owns an automobile does not make him immune from the present difficulties of traveling in the Ruhr for which the Germans are responsible. If the magistrates desire to visit neighboring cities, they must start the trains again or walk."

Soldiers Demand Passes. Soldiers stationed at bridges and across roads demanded passes, as in real war days, and anyone without authority from the requisition office was halted and forced to alight.

There is much unemployment around the Dueseldorf steel plants. The heavy fall of black smoke normally hanging over the city now is much thinned.

Traces History of Letter to Civilization's Origin

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (AP)—From the use of the dromedary in biblical times to the swiftly flying mail plane of today, the history of the letter, as a written means of communication between peoples, was traced by Assistant Postmaster General C. H. Brown in a speech recently by postmasters and postal employees in a postal conference convention at Winston-Salem, N. C.

"On the post office job," he said, "nothing can take the place of the individual. While in a many great industries the human equation has been reduced to a minimum, no one has yet invented anything to take the place of a man in the delivery of letters."

"The history of the postal service goes as far back as the sixth century B. C. and may be called the handmaid of civilization and tracing it from the dispatch bearer of the Assyrian and Roman times to the airplane service of the present day, the postal business has doubled in the last decade while the number of employees has increased only nine per cent."

"The use of postage stamps is now so common and the mailing letters so general that it seems as if there never was a time when this practice was unknown. But the stamp itself is comparatively new, with the sending of letters in other than Solomon."

"The Book of Esther in the Bible tells of how King Ahasuerus, learning from Queen Esther that Haman had ordered the death of all the Jews, his commandment to call together the scribes and send letters to every province of the kingdom forbidding the massacre. This is the verse that describes the sending of the Messianic letter."

"And he wrote in the King Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the King's ring; and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels and young dromedaries."

"The Romans, too, sent their letters by mounted couriers. The courier carried the message about twenty miles (and when he went to a 'post') where another messenger was stationed with a fresh horse. He in turn, would be relieved by still another courier. Thus relay after relay the letter was speed on until at last it arrived at its destined 'post,' meaning station or stopping place, and from that word we obtain the word 'post' as found in post office, postcard and many similar words."

"In the times of Benjamin Franklin, each letter was charged for by the sheet instead of by weight, and also for the distance it was carried. Ten cents was charged for one sheet, 20 cents for two sheets, and so on, and for every fifty miles another full cent was added. Envelopes were not used in these days, the letter simply being folded up and sealed."

"And now we come to the staggering figures showing the growth of this great business. In every single hour of the 24 there are mailed 1,000,000 letters and in every day of the 24 there are mailed 24,000,000 letters. To carry this great volume of letters, there was sold fourteen billion postage stamps, 57 million special delivery stamps, 38 million registered stamps, and 10 million postage due stamps used on short paid mail matter and a billion postal cards printed and sold, and all counted, we used 18 billion units during the last fiscal year. And, again, to carry this vast quantity of mail we operate a very large motor truck service, having in operation today 4,433 motor vehicles, and then in the carrying of this volume of mail by railroads it requires 21,000 railway mail clerks who cover 216,000 miles daily."

CHILEAN LAUDS U. S. COLLEGES

American Educational Institutions Are Held Up as Examples to University of Berlin

BERLIN, Jan. 31 (AP)—Colleges and universities in the United States have been held up as examples of practical and admirable efficiency for the training of students, in an address delivered at the University of Berlin by a Chilean professor, Dr. Jose M. Galvez, on-line exchange professor at the University of California, Dr. Galvez is now exchange professor at the University of Berlin.

Dr. Galvez spoke before a medical association immediately following a discussion on the scope of German science by the noted clinician, Professor Wilhelm His. Dr. His warned Germany against conceit and national self-satisfaction with which she not rarely overestimate our own science and its researches."

Professor Galvez's address was illustrated by lantern slides showing American university and college grounds and buildings, including assemblies, libraries, scientific departments, and social quarters. The speaker explained how these institutions fulfill a double function of imparting knowledge and developing the student's character. He emphasized that individuality is encouraged, personal inclinations are taken into consideration, and opportunity is provided for the students to become acquainted at first hand with citizenship and the maintenance of public health.

"The members of teaching staffs, who are themselves often trained and informed in other callings, are not haughty and reserved toward the students," Dr. Galvez explained, "but rather do they foster a camaraderie with them. Furthermore, there is no such class distinction between college and public-school teachers. The work of students is very highly developed, because every student is furnished with a genuine appreciation, regardless of what it is."

MOSCOW SCRAMBLES FOR PEEP AT FLUFFY FINERY

Display of Lingerie Appearing in Shop Windows for First Time in Years, Precipitates Near-Riots

MOSCOW, Jan. 31 (AP)—Moscow is rapidly assuming some of its old-time splendor in the shopping district; so far as stores are concerned it is becoming normal.

The most expensive French and German perfume, toilet articles, lingerie and other luxuries, after an absence of many years, are again on sale in Moscow, Petrograd and some of the other Russian cities. While the greater part of these goods, according to officials, have been smuggled into the country, nevertheless they are sold openly as in pre-revolutionary days, but at enormous prices.

Government officials, while aware of the smuggling, say they are powerless to break it up. When the first fluff, lace trimmed garments from abroad appeared in the display windows of the Moscow shops the incident nearly caused a riot. Men, women and children were wildly eager to get a peek at the things from the outer world. They had seen nothing of the kind for seven years, and fought for a place in the mob for a few minutes' gaze at the finery.

Most of the luxuries are three or four times as expensive here as in London or Paris. This, dealers say, is due to the government monopoly on goods from abroad, which keeps prices so high that the smuggling business is paying handsomely to those engaged in it.

LAUDS AMERICAN SURGEONS Head Physician of Swedish Institution Pays High Tribute to Colleagues of United States

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 31 (AP)—"America is ahead of Europe in brain and nerve surgery, and the American surgeons' work with remarkable skill and precision." Thus speaks Einar Key, head physician of the Maria hospital, upon returning from a three months' trip to the United States, where he had visited leading hospitals and observed the work of the most eminent physicians.

While in America Dr. Key lectured at a medical congress arranged by the American College of Surgeons in Boston. He visited large clinics in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Cleveland, Baltimore, Syracuse and other places. He declares that American hospitals have better laboratory facilities than those of Europe, while he finds the Swedish hospitals, as a rule, are brighter and more cheerful than those of America.

NEW SOUTH WALES WILL AIQ COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Formation of Co-operative Settlers Associations in Sponsored by Government in Betterment Program

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 31 (AP)—The new South Wales government is preparing to undertake an ambitious scheme to aid settlers by providing community extension and rural credit, and establishing rural cooperative associations.

It is pointed out, when the bill was introduced into the state parliament, that community life was not known in this state as it was in other lands, because of the nature of the country settlers were now to each other and they had lacked the cooperative and community spirit.

It is proposed that if a member of a rural association desires a loan in order to harvest his crop, he may go to the association instead of having to go through a bank or a bank manager. The association would have its responsibilities as it would have to see that the borrower did not mispend his money.

GOLD IN CRAWLS OF GEESE LEADS TO MINE DISCOVERY

NEWPORT, Wash., Jan. 31 (AP)—Gold nuggets, found in the crawls of several geese, led to the discovery of a mine near here by Dan Fielder. After finding the nuggets, Mr. Fielder studied others of his fowls closely following them up a hillside, prospecting there and struck a ledge. Although no gold has been found to date, Mr. Fielder believes that another ledge may be uncovered later and will continue to work the mine.

An assay of hand-picked ore taken from the property is said to show that the present working runs about $100 to the ton, with a content of 35 per cent lead and 17.85 per cent silver. Eighteen tons of ore have been shipped to the smelter at Kellogg, Idaho.

COUNTS WORKING DAYS LOST THROUGH DISPUTE

British Labor Commentators Declare Total Year Faced of Year Disasters One for Employment

LONDON, Jan. 31 (AP)—The industrial record of 1922 has been "absolutely" one for employment and commentators, generally, "according to labor commentators, who declare that during the year reductions in wages totaled 5,000,000 pounds sterling a week, and affected 7,500,000 work people. This followed a fall of 7,000,000 pounds sterling in 1921, and it shows a severe cut in the wages and the spreading power of workers. To it should be added the loss involved by unemployment and under-employment."

Some 10,893,000 days were lost in the course of 545 disputes involving 552,000 work people. The contracting and shipbuilding industries were responsible for over 17,000,000 of these lost days.

Unemployment figures are described as representing "an enormous waste of skilled, trained, human power in production capacity." It is noted that the latest figures show some improvement from the worst. In January, 1922, 1,925,450 persons were unemployed, the figures gradually decreased to 1,412,227 in October, but they rose to 1,415,356 in November. The cost of living, which started the year 92 per cent above normal, was down to 78 per cent at the end of the year.

TIKOK SKINNED TOGAIANS USE GRASS FOR TOWELS

PETROGRAD, Jan. 31 (AP)—Bundles of dried grass and flax are sold in the streets of Petrograd near the public bath houses, to be used as towels by the bathers. They cost but a penny or so, and are thrown away after use. Foreigners take their own towels, for while the grass serves its purpose, it is too ticklish for their tender skins.

RICKARD QUILTS TITLE PROJECT

Willard's Chances for Match With Dempsey Fade as Promoter Withdraws from Field

NEW YORK, Feb. 1. (AP)—A series of unexpected developments today brought the heavyweight boxing situation back into the limelight, after a lull of several days, but failed mainly to increase prospects of a title bout for Champion Jack Dempsey.

The net result of these developments, which included withdrawal of Tex Rickard from the field of bidders for a championship contest and a new offer from Tom O'Rourke, Polo Grounds matchmaker, for two fights this summer, was to diminish chances of a return match for Jack Willard, former heavyweight king.

Rickard ascribed his refusal to bid to lack of support for any particular title match but Willard announced he soon would undertake a country-wide exhibition tour to demonstrate his fitness for another crack at the title.

Willard's tour will start at Portland, Maine, February 10, and take him through the east, middle west and south during the next two or three months.

Pears Adverse Effect

Rickard, it was made known, has refused to consider staging a contest between Dempsey and Harry Wills, New Orleans negro, because of the possible adverse effect on the championship match, and it was declared that his action today was the result of this, and the fact that both New York and New Jersey boxing commissions had frowned upon a Willard-Dempsey project for the present.

Lois Messano, chairman of the New Jersey commission, today denied reports that he was definitely opposed to a Dempsey-Willard match in his state. Mr. Messano said he had merely expressed a doubt as to whether Willard could get into proper condition again. The commission, he added, would not take any attitude until an application for a Dempsey-Willard bout had been presented to it.

William Muldoon, chairman of the New York commission, also explained that while Willard technically was barred from fighting here because he is over the age limit, now fixed at 35, this might not act as a barrier if he demonstrated that he was in condition to oppose Dempsey.

O'Rourke Has Field Alone
O'Rourke's offer for two fights, meanwhile, is the only bid which Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, has under consideration. The Polo Grounds matchmaker submitted terms for matches with Joe Beckett, English heavyweight, and Harry Wills, to take place at the Giants ball park on July 4, and Labor day. It was understood he guaranteed the champion $500,000 for his end of the purse. Beckett's

Offer Dempsey $1,000,000 To Fight

Jack Dempsey has been offered $1,000,000 for three fights at the Polo Grounds, New York City, during the coming summer. John M. O'Connor, president, and Tom O'Rourke, matchmaker, of the Republic Athletic club, made the offer. In case Dempsey accepts it is likely the three contenders will be Floyd Johnson, Harry Wills and Jess Willard.

appearance, he said, would be contingent upon the outcome of his match with Georges Carpentier, scheduled in May.

Montana Students Don Hood and Robe To Build Up Spirit

Mystery Enveloping Abduction of University Men is Dispell-ed at Smoker to Arouse Interest

MISSOULA, Mont., Feb. 1 (AP)—The mystery which has enveloped the state university of Montana, the city of Missoula and the entire state for the past week, was cleared up when 800 men of the university faculty, alumni and student body met in the new gym tonight in response to a call issued today for a mass meeting of the men, presumably to probe the recent kidnappings of two university students by scarlet hooded and robed men, turned out to be a smoker with a large and varied program of entertainment for the purpose of securing a closer cooperation among the students, faculty and alumni.

It was learned tonight that both "victims" of the mysterious band had agreed previously with members of the organization to being abducted in order to arouse an interest in the student body.

The first of the kidnappings which occurred the night of January 25, took place between the halves at a basketball game in the new gym when hundreds of students saw their yell king "Bill" Hughes, taken from the middle of the hall by four men garbed in scarlet hoods and robes. The entrance and exit was through a fire escape and the abduction was so quickly and orderly accomplished that not a voice was raised in protest until all had disappeared and were speeding from the campus in two closed cars.

When Hughes was returned home he refused to tell anything of what had taken place except that his captors had given him a "talking to."

The curiosity and excitement increased Monday night when Charles Gleason, university correspondent for the Missoula, stated that he had discovered the identity of several of the hooded men and within an hour afterwards was kidnapping when he was leaving his fraternity house to investigate an alleged case promised through a mysterious telephone message. Gleason had not been aware of the existence of the organization and was about to expose the affair in the press when he was approached and told of the purpose and agreed to keep quiet and to be "kidnaped."

No inkling was given as to the identity of the hooded men at the meeting tonight, the only connection being the appearance of two of the band in a clog step. However, the purpose of the smoker in creating a closer bond between the university men was unquestionably successful, according to those who attended, and the promoters of the entire affair were highly praised by various speakers.

DRUGS EXCITE THE KIDNEYS, DRINK WATER

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Back-ache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the old native tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts, or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, or a stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking lots of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Dr. Sante's. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

And salts are indispensable to prevent future, unless a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by taking it. It is good for flushing any time. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year—adv.

CROWDS ATTEND REVIVAL

Rev. L. E. Burger Attracts Hundreds; Urges Sincerity, Support of Church; Musical Numbers Are Pleading

An audience estimated at 800 persons attended the revival service at the Lavinger theatre Thursday night to hear the Rev. L. E. Burger speak on the subject, "Repentance and Sincerity." The speaker cited instances from biblical history to emphasize the importance of sincerity in repentance and he showed his subject was one of the principal ones used by the followers of Christ.

In speaking of the church he said: "The most fundamental it takes six lives to handle a dead one and that is about the state of most churches. It takes so many of us to take care of the dead timber."

"The church at its worst is the best institution on earth, and some of you folks who find fault with it ought to come in and help us and we will get rid of these crooked fellows in the church and clean it up and make it what it ought to be."

The music, especially the numbers by the big choir, are proving to be a feature of the services.
