

SPURIOUS MONEY MAKERS FACING FIGHT IN COURT

Secret Service Agents Wreck International Counterfeiting Ring and Take Between 500 and 600 in Dozen Countries

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—With the international counterfeiting system wrecked by secret service agents who laid its workings bare yesterday and today, the United States government is expected to have arrested more than a dozen counterfeiters in a dozen countries today, under arrest, federal authorities today prepared for a court fight to send the counterfeiters to jail for the maximum term of 45 years.

While court evidence was being set in order, the dragnet of the secret service was extended to include the large cities of the United States, where hundreds of passers of counterfeit money, implicated by clues captured in Tuesday's raid here.

Joseph A. Hain, chief of the special secret service squad which for eight months tracked the makers and distributors of spurious money, gave evidence in court yesterday that the counterfeiters of the plot-by-plot manufacturing of 15 persons had been arrested in England, France, Germany, Cuba, Austria and the United States.

Trace Links to Killings

New York police, who began an independent investigation, professed to find a direct connection between the counterfeit plot and the slaying of a well-known gangster of the past few years.

Several of the murders were believed to have resulted from passage of bogus money and from double crossing the ranks of the counterfeiters. A number of crimes, it was said, had been committed in or near the Bronx street car, enforced by John J. Ross, arrested yesterday as one of the gang's large wholesalers of counterfeiters.

Immigrants unfamiliar with American money were the easy victims, but they also hunted for the counterfeiters, kept by aged women and store left at times in charge of children.

Secret service men are checking up on all possible sources of information thrown open to them by yesterday's arrests to ascertain whether the counterfeiting conspirators turned over the vast quantities of counterfeit money to independent gangs or whether they used their own nationwide organization for the distribution of the drug.

In League With Bootleggers

Hoards of large quantities of counterfeit internal revenue stamps, physicians' liquor prescription blanks and Quebec liquor stamps, in yesterday's raids indicated, secret service men said, that the counterfeiters, in addition to making vast purchases of liquor from international rum runners, also were in league with illicit manufacturers of whiskey by interstate traffic.

Some of the dies used in making spurious specie were smuggled here from Italy in large cheese, officials said today.

JAPAN'S TRADE INCREASES

Foreign Commerce Record for Year Best Since 1918; Improvement Over Preceding Twelve Months

TOKIO, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Japanese foreign trade for the year 1922 indicated a slight improvement over the preceding year, said M. K. Nomura, minister of Commerce. "Up to November 1922 for instance exports reached 1,478,500,000 yen and imports 1,746,700,000 yen, thereby registering an increase in the former of 27,750,000 yen and of 300,000,000 in the latter. It is a matter for congratulation that in the latter half of the year 1922, the trade resulted in the excess of export due chiefly to the brisk demand abroad for silk."

"Viewed as a whole, however, there is something in the past foreign trade that indicates depression of business beyond the extent of the usual years. But this is a tendency common to all the world nations, nor is it insurance that efforts be made for the improvement, so far as Japan is concerned, of the quality of goods and the reduction of prices."

"In the hope of attaining these desirable improvements, the government is resolved to employ every possible means by despatching early this spring commercial commissioners abroad for the purpose of inspection and the appointment of special committees for the investigation of industrial possibilities."

DISCLOSES OWN STORY OF CRIME

Sixty-Two Year Old Texan Tires of Living Under Shadow; Wants to Visit Mother

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 22 (AP)—Charles F. McCandless, 62, of Hurst, Texas, who confessed, according to the police, he killed four men in Texas and New Mexico, between 1900 and 1910, yesterday told his highest reward for his arrest, surrendered to the police here today. His motive for surrendering, he is alleged to have told authorities, was that he is tired of living under the shadow of his crimes and he wants to visit his 34-year-old mother in Hurst, Texas, who wants him to atone for his misdeeds before she dies.

McCandless, according to his confession to the police, had served as guard at various military camps throughout the west under the names of Jack and Richard W. Miller. Two years ago, he states, while serving in the name of Richard Miller, he was chief guard of the Newport News, Shickling and Pryor company. Elmer G. Barnes was another of his many aliases, he says.

Militiaman Fifth Victim

McCandless also claims to have killed a fifth man, whose name he does not give. This killing, his confession states, occurred at a militia camp in Arizona in 1915, from which he deserted after killing a guard.

The list of men killed as given in his confession follows:

- A. Hill Walton at Turnerville, Texas, in 1900.
- Call Woods, at Hico, Texas, in 1908.
- An unnamed "highwayman" at Stephenville, Texas, in 1908.
- "Bill" Tack, alias "The" Dupree, at Clovis, N. M., in 1910.

It was for the murder of Woods, McCandless is alleged to have told the police, that the $10,000 reward was offered for his arrest.

CHINA FINDING VALUE OF MILK DRINKING HABIT

American Dairy Industry Looks Toward Far East for Development of New and Extensive Markets

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—A hundred years or more ago the Empress of China, by imperial edict, declared it selfish for human beings to drink cow's milk. The august old lady thought it deprived calves of their natural food. Thus without knowing it, perhaps, she created a dietary regime for Chinese children from which they are only now about to be released.

About a decade ago the Chinese began to take notice of the use of milk by missionaries, and, in the vicinity of the mission stations, began using their own cows and water buffalo as food sources. Once started on a milk diet the trend has been growing by leaps and bounds. Importations of condensed milk, milk powders and the sale of ice-cream in the foreign colonies of the large cities have turned the attention of the Chinese to milk drinking habits and they have now begun to study the benefits that might come to their children if the old Empress had not issued her edict.

America Sees Markets

America with its billions of dollars invested in dairy cattle and products and machinery factories is looking to China as a big outlet, and its hopes are about to be realized, according to the World's Dairy Congress announcement. A type of letter being received from the Far East by the association has just arrived from Elwood Varney, an American milk expert of the Liberty Dairy at Shanghai.

"There is no better opportunity in the world, than right here in China," writes Mr. Varney in a plan for aid in getting American dairy school men to the Orient. "The kind of men wanted are the sort who are as much interested in fattening their own pocket books as in fattening the country."

We do not want the self-seeker. We want the doer and the giver and he will find himself highly rewarded."

Mr. Varney's chief, Mr. Lee, owner of the Liberty dairy at Shanghai, a Cornell University graduate, is going to attend the World Dairy in Congress in Washington in October. Furthermore he is going to take back to China with him a large number of pure-bred dairy cattle with the object of establishing breeding stations similar to the horse-breeding stations established in the United States by the Government. These outbreeding stations are to be operated by Americans with American dairy school training and methods which call in turn for the utilization of American dairy machinery and utensils.

Japan Takes New Tack

Soy beans milk and cheese are in use in Japan as well as China and the World's Dairy Congress Association workers look forward to shifting the interest to cow's milk and cheese in that country. The natives with American institutional training are starting the movement.

CALIFORNIA FRUITS BRING RECORD PRICE IN RUSSIA

SAN JOSE, Calif., Feb. 22 (AP)—A world's record price for fruit was established when $502,500 was received here for a box of prunes.

Two years ago, William Spielberg, San Jose shipper, contracted to send ten boxes of prunes to Moscow, Russia, at the rate of $3.35 per box. One of the boxes went astray and no further word concerning it could be ascertained until recently when a letter was received here by Spielberg from Russia, containing 1,006,000 rubles, the value of the missing box of prunes at the prevailing rate of exchange.

At pre-war rates these rubles would have been valued at $602,500 in American coin. The letter bore fifteen 1,000 ruble stamps for postage, having a pre-war value of $7,000.

SNOW ABSORBS NEVADA OF ABUNDANT WATER SUPPLY

RENO, Nev., Feb. 22 (AP)—The snow cover on the central Sierra ranges is two months ahead of its seasonal average, as a result of plenty of water is assured for irrigation purposes in 1923.

A report issued by Prof. J. C. Church, University of Nevada, based on an investigation made by the state and the United States Weather bureau, shows that the snow depth at the summit of the range is 750 inches, and 60 inches at Lake Tahoe.

The actual water content of the snow at the summit's crest is forty-seven inches and at Fordsyde Lake, forty-nine inches.

WYOMING LIVESTOCK VALUED AT FIFTY-EIGHT MILLIONS

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Feb. 22 (AP)—Livestock in the state of Wyoming on January 1, 1923, was worth $58,138,000, or approximately $7,300,000 more than on the same date last year, according to figures compiled by the local bureau of the United States bureau of Agricultural Economics. The increase was attributed to higher prices for sheep which are marketable at $5 per head whereas they brought only $3 and $5.50 in 1922.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears! After another application or two it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—adv.

PLANS NEW CITY PARK

FULLETON, Cal., Feb. 22 (AP)—A movement to set aside thirty-seven acres of land in Fullerton for the creation of a public park, rivaling the finest in the country and involving an expenditure of $100,000 is gaining popular support. Features of the proposed park would be a memorial plunge, about which the walks and drives would center, and a Greek Theatre.

A Judicious Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists ask a customer, who wished to buy a cough medicine, whether it was for a child or an adult, and if for a child, they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for colds, croup and whooping cough it is unsurpassed.—adv.

ATTACKS TREND TOWARD DESPAIR IN LITERATURE

Century Magazine Editor Tells Methodist Council Fears Must Be Conquered by Removing Their Causes

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 22 (AP)—The process of political, social, industrial and racial disintegration, cannot be stayed by deluding ourselves into thinking that we can shut our eyes to the most salient facts of our time and blindly chant, "Day By Day, in every way, the world is growing better and better," Glenn E. Young, editor of the Century magazine told the meeting of the Council of Cities of the Methodist Episcopal church here today.

Five fears were outlined by Mr. Frank as contained in the books of certain authors who have gone to make up "what Mr. Frank termed the "literature of despair." The prophecy of the New Dark Ages springs from some of all of these five distinct fears, he said. He described these as the Biological fear that the best blood of the world is being bred out; the Economic fear that the crowd-man and crowd-processes of thinking will push to the wall that insurgent individual whom we have regarded as the mainstay of progress; the Economic fear that our industrial civilization has outstripped the administrative capacity of mankind; and the Moral fear that the younger generation has lost its allegiance to all wholesome standards of conduct and is on the loose.

Names Prophets of Despair.

The authors named by Mr. Frank as having contributed in some of their works to this literature of despair include Lathrop, Stoddard, Lohon, Trotter, Everett, Dean Martin, Lord Bryce, L. F. Jacks, Dean Inge, H. G. Wells, Edward Grant Conklin, Ralph Ames Grant, Madison Grant and others.

"I do not suggest that we disregard this literature of despair," said Mr. Frank. "These five fears are well grounded. Our duty is to conquer them, not by emotional incantation, but by removing their causes.

"But there is also a literature of hope made up of essays on the new spiritual values. I venture to suggest some ideas that soon to me must be rescued from the jargon of technical scholarship, taken out from under the exclusive patronage of cloistered intellectuals and put to honest work in the direction of our public affairs if we are to close the door to a new Dark Ages and open the door to a new renaissance. There are Cultural Nationalism; Economic Internationalism; Democratized Industry; Humanized Business; Factitious Politics; Humanized Education; Socialized religion and the idea of a Well Trained Race."

See New Competition.

Mr. Frank stated that Cultural Nationalism will convert world politics into a competition in excellence instead of competition in arms; equanimity will force us into a new sort of international management of the fundamental economic rights of transit trade, migration and investment in backward countries; Democracy in Industry means the workable democracy and not empires; Democracy in Industry must be socially sound in order to be commensurate; Research should be under government as the action between politics and facts has meant a dangerous colic from which we suffer daily; the modern world and religion must speak to society as well as to the soul and be concerned with institutions as well as individuals.

While Mr. Frank said the literature of despair could be gathered together in a five foot shelf and so labeled, the literature of hope was found here and there, thrown up as unconscious by-products of the thought and investigations of our modern biologists, psychologists, economists, statesmen and others.

Rainfall Over Country is Less than Normal in 1922

Hatteras, North Carolina, Wettest Spot, and Yuma, Arizona, Dryest, According to the Observers' Records

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—The country was not so wet last year as it normally is. Philadelphia was the driest it has been in 100 years. Comparisons of the weather bureau show that 96 of the 175 reporting stations had less rainfall than normally.

Hatteras, N. C., was the wettest spot, while Yuma, Ariz., was the driest. Mobile, Ala., was a close second for the wettest place, and El Paso, Tex., took second position as driest.

Three inches in extreme southern California. The outstanding features of precipitation during the year compared with the normal were the large deficiencies in amount in the far northwest, especially where the weather bureau also has a station from central Colorado southward. Tacoma, Wash., received but little more than half the normal annual rainfall, while in extreme western Texas and southeastern New Mexico, less than half the annual amount was received.

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally by Drinking Quarts of Good Water. No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, which is a well-known remedy. Too much rich food creates acids which, if they think soft water is insufficient, filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood. Then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.
