

I. W. W.'S PLAN REVENGE DRIVE ON SACRAMENTO

Officers Claim to Have Knowledge of Attack on City; Workers Are Restrained by Injunction

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 23 (AP)—Sacramento is to be subjected to a "reign of terror" by the Industrial Workers of the World, and members of the organization plan to give the city "the same kind of a dose that was administered at Centralia, Wash."

Inside details of the plan of the I. W. W. to get revenge on Sacramento by the means of members under the criminal syndicalism act were obtained by the investigators during a meeting of the organization in a nearby city a week ago.

The time set for the drive on the city is in the early fall, according to one official of the I. W. W., who told at the meeting of plans to "teach Sacramento a lesson."

This leader was the principal speaker at the meeting, according to the investigators. He began revealing the intended invasion of Sacramento by referring to the suit for an injunction against the I. W. W. brought by District Attorney J. J. Henderson, and the numerous arrests and convictions of I. W. W. members under the criminal syndicalism law.

"It is about time," the official is quoted as saying, "to give Sacramento a lesson in the same kind that the members gave Centralia, and wake her up. It will be a good time to start it when the members come back this fall to spend the winter."

The speaker is declared to have said that the organization should have its headquarters with many I. W. W. members as can be gathered together, open a hall, start a free speech campaign, fill the jails of the city and county, then have parades and start a general "reign of terror" in the city.

The investigators also have reported concerning the plans of the I. W. W.

REPORT DEATH OF LEADER OF JAP CABINET

Unofficial Announcements Claim Baron Kato Is Stricken; Was Leader in Arms Conference

TOKIO, Aug. 24 (AP)—It was unofficially reported here this afternoon that Baron Tomonaburo Kato, premier of Japan, had died. It had been previously announced he was very ill.

The hour of the premier's death as given in the unofficial report was 1:20 o'clock this afternoon.

Physicians attending the premier announced at midnight last night that his condition had taken a turn for the worse. Before morning he began to show signs of general exhaustion, his pulse became extremely weak and the doctors said their patient's heart was causing them greatest anxiety.

While Premier Kato had been ill for a number of months, it was announced only last Monday that his condition was not dangerous. It was added, however, that his health was extremely poor and that his retirement could be expected in the near future.

Early this afternoon the announcement was made that the premier was seriously ill. Following this came the official report that he had died.

Owing to the not unusual custom in Japan of not officially announcing immediately the death of an important official, the report of the premier's death was generally believed.

Premier Kato attained his eminence among the noted men of Japan as the right-hand man of Admiral Togo and Kaminara in the Russo-Japanese war. He entered the war as a captain and emerged as a rear admiral, chief of staff of the first squadron of the Japanese navy with the decoration of the second class order of the Golden Kite.

Taking over the portfolio of the navy in 1915, Baron Kato became a strong partisan of the advancement of friendly relations between Japan and the United States. At the Washington arms conference, where he was a member of the Japanese delegation, he was credited with being one of the strongest proponents of the naval accords treaty.

Admiral Baron Kato was confirmed as premier of Japan June 12, 1922, his cabinet succeeding that of Viscount Takahashi, which resigned June 6.

RESUMPTION OF RELATIONS WITH MEXICO IS SEEN

Official Announcement Reported Forthcoming; Negotiations Provide for Protection of American Lives

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—Resumption of friendly relations with Mexico is regarded here as virtually a certainty, and it is expected that official announcement of such a step will be made shortly by the Washington government.

The attitude of the administration on the question, it became known today, has been revealed to representatives here of several American governments, which, it is believed, will extend recognition to Mexico once the United States has done so.

Announcement was made today that Charles D. Warren, one of the American commissioners to the recent Mexico City conference, had concluded his work, for the time being at least. Mr. Warren is expected to return here as a negotiator for the results of the negotiations, and this assertion was taken as an additional indication that a recognition announcement was not far off.

"When I returned to the United States from Mexico City," Mr. Warren said, "I announced that the report of the proceedings there was satisfactory to the Mexican government, and, I hoped, would be satisfactory to our government. Now I can say that I have no doubt on this point and I am glad to have been satisfied as to the outcome."

It was authoritatively stated that the record of the Mexican conference continued signed agreements between the representatives of the two governments, which fully protected their mutual interests, and it was indicated that relations would be resumed on the basis of these agreements.

Stipulations insuring the protection of American lives and properties in Mexico, it is understood, were obtained by the United States and recorded in their report to President Coolidge and the state department. In some quarters it is regarded as a point that these would be included in at least one of the claims conventions submitted to the senate for ratification in the event of recognition.

CRITICIZES POLICY OF U. S. TOWARD JAPAN

Foreign Church Worker Minimizes Danger of War; Points to Redactions in Japanese Navy and Army

CHATTANOOGA, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP)—"American and Japanese militarists are chasing each other around in a vicious circle, each getting more alarmed because of the actions of the other," Dr. Sidney G. Clark declared today at a conference on the international relations from the Christian viewpoint.

Dr. Gulkick, who is secretary of the commission on international justice and good will of the federal council of churches, asserted that the ultimate success of liberal progress in Japan will depend on the attitude of any policy of the United States. He declared that not only had Japan reduced its army and navy, but that further reductions in both would be made.

As important items in the program of the pronounced liberals, Dr. Gulkick cited universal male suffrage, reduction of the army by one-third, autonomous government for Korea and the loyal execution of treaties and the spirit of the Washington conference on limitation of armaments.

"Certain it is," he declared, "that the success of the liberal movement in Japan is closely dependent on the attitude of the United States, particularly America. An anti-Japanese policy in America would be a serious obstacle in the ascendency of liberalism in Japan."

GERMAN MINISTER PHASES DEPRESSION

LONDON, Aug. 23 (AP)—The German minister of finance, Herr Hilferding, told the party leaders in the Reichstag today that another monetary depression would mean the death of Germany, says a Central News dispatch from Berlin.

JOHNSON GIVES HIS VIEWS ON 1924 OUTLOOK

Publication of Letter to Friend Brings Comment from California Senator; Talks G. O. P. Delegation

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—Publication of a letter written by Senator Hiram Johnson from California, discussing the political outlook for 1924, impelled the senator to issue a statement tonight paying this respect to those who are taking the letter to the public and adding that he hoped the incident would "be taken by the opposition as an invitation to a contest in California."

Apart from candidates, the statement said, the "progressive republicans" of California are determined that the state's delegation to the republican national convention next year must represent truly a "progressively republican state."

The letter to which the senator referred was written to members of the G. O. P. and was addressed to Charles K. McClatchy of San Francisco. In it Mr. Johnson said he would like to be president but saw no prospect of it. He said Harding would be defeated for re-nomination. He added that he was convinced the Johnson element could not rally its old-time strength in California and doubted whether it could carry the state "against Harding, Hoover or any other candidate."

Makes Stipulation. Tonight's statement was prefaced by Senator Johnson with a stipulation that he was giving out for publication "on the express condition that it shall be published exactly as written and fully written, or not at all." It was as follows:

"The only importance of the publication of this letter is as illustrative of the kind of political outlook we are in California—opposition without limitations or honor or decency."

"Last May, while I was in Europe, I wrote to a friend of mine, Charles K. McClatchy of Sacramento, an intimate personal letter. Mr. McClatchy sent excerpts and excerpts in this letter to a number of newspapers. I am glad to see that the republican state central committee of California."

Andy Lawrence, formerly of Chicago, is publishing a small paper in San Francisco, called the Journal. Lawrence is the chief supporter in northern California of Herbert Hoover and Jerry Simpson, unscrupulous abuse of me. Lawrence surreptitiously obtained letters from the files and private office of Mr. Bevan and among these found the letter of Mr. McClatchy, Boynton, with excerpts from my letters, and published McClatchy's letter in his paper. This is the letter now being circulated by him and published in the east.

Makes Severe Charge. "There are some things that must not be done even in politics, and that recent men and women do. One of these is surreptitiously an opponent's rooms or stealing his private property, or private correspondence, or receiving things that are appropriate. This is exactly what was done in this particular instance."

"Fortunately, aside from little intimacies which occur in the private life of every man or woman, there is nothing in any correspondence of mine that cannot be revealed or published. I do object, however, to grand larceny or petty thieving in politics or business."

"I may add that I hope the letter may be taken by the opposition, with its implications in its invitation to an invitation to a contest in California. Progressive republicans there, apart from any candidates, are determined that the delegation to the republican national convention next year shall represent California as a progressive."

Saw Harding's Strength. The excerpts from the senator's letter to Mr. McClatchy, as published today in several eastern newspapers, are as follows:

"I feel that Harding will be able to reconquer himself, although some very good people, like Senator Moses and George Henry Payne, believe otherwise, and want to commence an active campaign. As I have said to you often, I would like to be president."

"I think any American in political life who pretends otherwise is wholly hypocritical. I realize, however, political realities, and I cannot see success in an active candidacy. A sort of passive attitude toward me is everywhere, and my natural inclination is to fight. This, though, is a kind of valor of ignorance, and hardly wise. The next few months, possibly will clarify the political atmosphere, and any personal declaration I am leaving entirely to the future."

"The delegation from California, however, is different. I ought to be composed of our friends, not a compromise of some of our friends and some of our enemies, and who whether we have or have not. If progressives are going to continue in politics in California, it seems obvious to me they must get ready to assume the mantle. If they permit Chandler, Dickson, Andy Lawrence and the Hoover crowd to control the national delegation and again elect a national committeeman, they might just as well resign themselves to the role of outsiders."

Beys Compromise. "Since last year I have endeavored to impress this on all our friends. We lost California principally because we compromised, because we let them whip them, and who remained as conservative and reactionary as ever, but bided their time to strike."

We destroyed the morale of progressives and convinced the ordinary individual we are not different than our opponents, that sought political success through compromise."

"My strength while I was governor was in never yielding for an instant to the old rotten crew, standing always with the progressive forces. Today that I have yielded and given power, position and political strength to the very men I so often formerly denounced. The past is past, and I have fully resigned to it as a candidate for the future. I am under no illusions now about California. Really, C. K. I doubt if I could carry it against Harding, Hoover or any other candidate. The old crew are in the saddle. For the first time since 1910 they have the state, all its offices and an active military organization, both in pocket and in power."

Chandler Boasted. "Chandler has been in Washington lately. He is to have charge of the president's itinerary in California. He boasted, so my letters say, after they left his election and Crawford's victory in Los Angeles, that he now has California in his west pocket. He spoke of national delegates next year, with the idea to be led by Hoover and Richardson, and made all arrangements to bring a Harding delegation from California."

"Now, singularly enough, though my state is not in Washington, it has very great possibilities in other states. If I were a candidate I would fear California more than New York. This is no idle statement and please do not ascribe it to my pessimism."

LAWRENCE REPLIES. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23 (AP)—Andy Lawrence, publisher of the Journal, tonight issued a statement in which he said that he was surprised by Senator Hiram Johnson, dictated the following over the telephone from Del Monte, Cal., where he is spending the week-end. "It's always unprofitable to discuss matters with a corpse. If the late lamented senator had paid more attention to the new friends that he made and less to his enemies that he so frequently discussed, he would be alive today."

"I don't want to pronounce his funeral oration. The letters were obtained in the regular course of business. The senator is probably more disturbed over those that have not published than over those that have."

LOSES LIFE IN SAVING RAIL CREW FROM DEATH

Former Policeman Who Once Held High Place Struck by Engine After Warning Workmen

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—John Gilmartin, who by dint of hard labor and study worked his way up to the position of policeman in the assistant state's attorney of Illinois, only to be broken and dragged down again by ill health, was killed today in saving the lives of a gang of six railroad track workers.

The former state's attorney had a job standing on a curve of the New York Central railroad whistle in an effort to warn track workers of an approaching train. A dozen men were working in a cut at Gouverneur place when Gilmartin saw an express train approaching.

He blew his whistle and the men stepped over to the express track, thinking the train was a local. Gilmartin, seeing their mistake, ran to warn them, warning a train. As they jumped back to the other track the engine struck him, killing him instantly.

Fifteen years ago Gilmartin gave up his job on the police force here and started to study law, attending Kent's college. He went to Chicago, was admitted to the bar, and made a name for himself in private practice. Then he went into politics and became assistant state's attorney, holding that position for seven years.

However, the hard pace of study and work that he had kept up for years finally told on him, and he was forced to give it up.

ALASKAN OIL FIELD IS ATTRACTING ATTENTION
Leases on Suspected Coal Areas Taken for Locations; Geological Survey Is Favorable

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Aug. 23 (AP)—Many leases taken on supposed coal-bearing areas in Matanuska-Alutian fields, 70 miles north of Anchorage, are being abandoned for oil locations, according to operators here. With the discovery of a heavy flow of gas beneath the coal horizon, it is believed an oil field will eventually be brought in.

The discovery of gas, confirmed by the United States geological survey, was made at a depth of 1000 feet in a diamond drill hole. The log of the hole, it is stated, indicates the possibility of an oil field. Dr. Alfred Brooks, chief of the Alaska division of the geological survey, said it was possible for the Kenai formation to be underlain by a gas-bearing formation containing reservoirs of oil. The new discovery, it is stated, confirms the U. S. G. S. deduction.

GERMANY SEEKS FOOD CREDITS

Luther Claims Heavy Resources of Foreign Cash Needed to Save Country

BERLIN, Aug. 23 (AP)—Unless Germany is placed in a position to float credits abroad to pick up heavy reserves of foreign currencies, her food situation will be in a state of chronic jeopardy, in the opinion of Food Controller Luther. He said that the country and raw materials from which oleomargarine is manufactured, is presenting great difficulties to food controllers as these materials are being bought abroad, and must be paid for in foreign money.

"Until the mark is rehabilitated or given some sort of permanent propping up, attempts to create normal conditions in the nation's food supply will be unavailing," said Dr. Luther in a statement today. "In the present we have succeeded in forcing the reichsbank, through the mediation of the ministry of finance, to disgorge sufficient sums of foreign currencies to pay for heavy consignments of fats from Holland and Denmark."

With respect to immediate supplies of wheat and potatoes, the food controller purposes to adopt a system of rationing and, rationing which will not be far removed from war measures. The commanding officer of rolling stock has been rendered necessary because of the shortage of freight cars. This shortage is due to the fact that many cars are tied up in the Ruhr blockade, thus preventing the hauling of the new crops before the frost set in.

Dr. Luther is proposed to encourage cities and smaller communities to assist in the distribution of winter supplies to the poor.

He recommended that they be given appropriations necessary to contract for supplies to be stored on a per capita basis. The food controller believes a liberal policy of financial aid by the central government or credit accommodations by the cooperative societies are essential to furthering the whole process of collecting and distributing the new crops.

Statistics with regard to the volume of the crops are available, although it is supposed to extend the limit of grain reserves beyond April 15, 1924, to avoid a possible crisis in the summer months, when stocks are nominally exhausted.

NO MORE FOOLING. Nowhere did Abraham Lincoln show his shrewdness of judgment to better effect than in that famous utterance which ended, "You can't fool all the people all the time." In the past, there were a few misguided advertisers who thought they could sell their wares better by misrepresentation. But those advertisers have long since gone out of business or mended their ways. Hard experience taught that Lincoln was right. Untruthful advertising doesn't pay. Other advertisers proved that the only way to advertise successfully, make regular customers and build up public good-will was to tell the absolute truth about their goods. So, you can be sure that every consistently advertised product is good. The advertising test has proved it. The very fact that it is advertised is your best warranty of satisfaction and true quality. The concern that tells you frankly what it is doing is a good concern with which to do business. That is why it pays to read the advertisements, to patronize advertisers, and to buy advertised merchandise. It's mighty good business

CINCINNATI'S PLAYERS DENY CROOKED DEAL

Heydler Advises Legal Action After Hearing Allegation that Two Men Were Offered $15,000 to Throw Game

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—Charges that two Cincinnati players were approached by gamblers recently on the eve of a crucial series with the New York Giants, will be lifted to the bottom, John A. Heydler, president of the National League, announced tonight after a hearing held here earlier in the day at which the players, Second Baseman Sammy Bohno and Left Fielder Pat Duncan, flatly denied the accusations.

The charges were published last Saturday by Collier's Eye, a Chicago weekly sporting paper, but the first official recognition given them was at today's hearing in the office of the National League executive, who established a precedent by inviting Cincinnati newspaper men, traveling with the club, to attend. The publication alleged that Bohno and Duncan and a third player, whose identity was not revealed, had been approached by gamblers with an offer of $15,000 each to influence their play in the series with the Giants at Cincinnati the first week of August. Under the gambling charges it was said, and was added by the fact that the Reds lost five straight games to the Giants in that series. Today, however, both players denied, under oath, that they had been approached either directly or indirectly by gamblers, while President Heydler, after the hearing, stated that charges against Bohno and Duncan appear to be to be silly and unfounded. Nevertheless, the league head emphasized that every effort would be made to trace them to their source. After hearing the players' testimony President Heydler advised them to institute legal action against the publication. He also urged that the Cincinnati club take similar action, a suggestion which was followed by an immediate resolution in the name of Herman, president of the club, that he would back the players in any legal course they took.

FOREIGN VISITORS IN RUSSIA ARE NUMEROUS

Lead of Sovietism Is No Longer Lost—May Increase Hotels Soon to Meet Tourist Demands

MOSCOW, Aug. 23 (AP)—Russian isolation is ended. Three years ago the presence of a foreign visitor in Moscow by Petrograd was sufficient to cause the native populace to stare at him as if he were a being from some other world. Two years ago foreigners were still so rare that the few American and British newspaper correspondents scented a story in each of them and tried to interview all who came to Russia. Last year they were still sufficiently rare to arouse some curiosity. But today, Moscow, Petrograd and the other principal cities are thickly sprinkled with foreigners; daily trains from the outside bring them in by the dozens, and they arouse no more interest than they would in any other European capital. During June more than 1000 foreigners visited Petrograd, and even more, perhaps, came to Moscow. Most of all of them were business seekers. Hotel accommodations in Russia are still so limited, particularly in Moscow, that the government has not yet found it advisable to admit large numbers of tourists. Exports must have some legitimate business reason before he can secure his visa. Within a short time, perhaps in 1924, hotel accommodations are to be improved and it may be that Russia's interesting revolutionary scenes will become a Mecca for tourists.

AUSTRALIAN STARS LOSE

Significance Noted in Victory of American Players in Tennis Contests at Brookline

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 23 (AP)—The lawn tennis doubles championship of the United States may yet remain in the keeping of Americans by virtue of the success of R. N. Williams, II, of Bryn Mawr, Pa., and Watson Washburn, New York, on the courts of the Lenoxwood Cricket club at Chestnut Hill today. The American Davis cup team of 1921 defeated the crack Australian Davis cup challengers, James O. Anderson and John B. Hawkes, 7-5, 2-6, 0-2, 6-2, in a semi-final match.

On Saturday the Williams-Washburn team will play the winners of the other semi-final to be played tomorrow between William T. Tilden, 17, Philadelphia, and Bryan I. C. Norton, South Africa, against Manuel Alonso, Spain, and Wallace F. Johnston, Philadelphia.

The defeat of the Australians, who have lost a much more thorny path to the semi-finals than their conquerors, came as a surprise to many. Yesterday they looked most impressive in administering a spanking to William M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin, three times national champions—but today was another day. Not only did the Australians play more spotty tennis but the Americans were profited by the lessons of yesterday. Two American teams, one the championship pair, William T. Tilden, Jr., and John H. Johnson, and the other an Australian-English combination, and an English-American duo entered the semi-final round of the national doubles tournament on the Lenoxwood Cricket club's grass courts today.

CHAMPION SEEKS TO GAIN SPEED

Dempsy Switches to Light Heavyweights in Sparring; Appears in Good Shape

SARATOGA SPRING, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP)—Jack Dempsy switched from light to heavyweight sparring partners today at Saratoga Springs, New York, as he prepared to meet Jack Burke, Pittsburgh heavyweight, and George Godfrey, 225 pound negro.

The champion's training camp due to the chill wind that swept through his outdoor ring, were a heavy woolen short under full length trunks to protect himself, while the 400 spectators wrapped themselves in sweaters and overcoats and shivered through the brief but spirited workout.

Although both Burke and Godfrey are suffering from the bombardment received while preparing Dempsy for Tommy Gibbons, they were forced to take a short summering. Burke managed to evade Dempsy's hooks for the first round by continually retreating, but Dempsy, his teeth gleaming in his grin, landed a right hand in the second and all but knocked him over with a right cross to the chin. Burke fell into the ropes and clinched, until Burke landed a left jab which sent Dempsy's left hands and jabs were working to a perfection against Godfrey. In the absence of Manager Kearns, Jack Britton, former world champion welterweight, referred. Kearns went to New York to file an application for Dempsy's license and also to arrange for additional sparring partners. Before putting on the gloves Dempsy peppered the light punching bag for two rounds and went through a round of shadow boxing. The unreasonable weather forced the champion to remain within his cottage, where he ground out jazz tunes on a phonograph. He wore a heavy white sweater.

AMERICA'S AID SAVED RUSSIA

Colonel Haskell Brings Message of Appreciation from Soviet Government

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—America's aid to Russia through the American relief administration, is called by the Soviet government the "greatest single service rendered in the history of the world by one nation to another," according to Colonel William M. Haskell, director of the administration, who returned on the steamship American today. Colonel Haskell's first act on arriving was to convey to the American people the undying gratitude of millions of Russians. He brought a parchment document in which the Soviet government had officially expressed its thanks in the above words, concluding with "this assistance will always preserve friendship between the two nations." The document is three feet long, wrapped in an embroidered silk folder. There is no longer a food shortage in Russia, he said, and if the crop yield this year is as great as it is estimated, the farmers will be able to export two million bushels of grain. The present crop is from 60 to 70 per cent of the normal crop prior to the war. Russian leaders are anxious to re-establish relations with other countries, according to Colonel Haskell, who said this could not come until the political situation in Russia changes. That might be one or twenty years away, he said. Nine hundred thousand tons of supplies were transported to Russia by the administration at a cost of $60,000,000 to America, he said.

equipment should not cause the country to lose sight of the fact that on the first time in the history of aviation, night flying service on schedule has been successfully accomplished. At Fort Crane, Chicago, were assembled tonight a larger group of transportation officials than had previously witnessed the flights. Both transport and air mail experts were unanimous in their expressions of admiration for the air mail.

Compare Costs The presence of the railway officials elicited a comparison between the cost of building a double track railway and those of building a double airway, complete with terminals, radio, signal lights and ground equipment. It was learned from postoffice officials that the cost of building a double track railway would be $100,000,000, exclusive of terminals, probably would not be built for less than $75,000,000 or $100,000,000 a mile. Railway officials stated that a double track railway over the same 1,000 mile stretch from Chicago to Cheyenne, exclusive of terminals, probably would not be built for less than $25,000,000 or $100,000,000 a mile.

BEACHES CHEYENNE

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 23 (AP)—Pilot H. G. Boonstra, bringing the east-bound air mail from Rock Springs, Wyo., arrived in Cheyenne at 6:33 p. m. and was met by the city manager, Pilot James P. (Dinty) Moore took off with the mail for Omaha. There were 16 sacks of mail in his cargo. Boonstra stopped here an hour and 15 minutes ahead of schedule.

FAST TRANSFER

OMAHA, Aug. 23 (AP)—Pilot Hopson, flying from Chicago, with the west-bound mail, arrived in Omaha at 10:50 p. m., central standard time. He carried 10 pouches of mail, two for Omaha and eight for Chicago. He was met by a record transfer was made when Pilot Allison hopped off for Cheyenne, the next lap along the transcontinental airway. He carried 22 mail pouches, four being picked up at Omaha. The quick hop off was made possible by the perfect landing of Pilot Hopson, who landed in a few minutes and a few feet away from the Allison machine.

BOUND OCEAN'S DEPTH

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 23 (AP)—A record of the depth of the Pacific ocean for every five miles from San Francisco to Sydney, New South Wales, is to be undertaken, according to the United States navy department. The new scout cruiser Milwaukee, by actual test the fastest vessel in the American navy, has been selected for the work. She is equipped with a sonic depth finder. Last fall the navy conducted a series of soundings across the Atlantic to the Straits of Gibraltar, taking soundings every hour of the run. Early this year the soundings were also taken along the Pacific coast. What is useless to you may be valuable to others—advertise it in the classified columns. Watermelon on ice, 3c. I. W. W. PLAN REVENGE

In promoting a general strike in industries, agriculture, lumber and general construction camps, with the organization hopes to call within six weeks. The investigators also secured a quantity of a new consignment of I. W. W. literature, published in Chicago and California headquarters, which had been broadcast throughout the state.

RESTRAIN ACTIVITIES

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 23 (AP)—The Industrial Workers of the World, its officers and members, were restrained in an injunction granted by the superior court of Sacramento county today from acting as an organization or as its officers and members in California. The injunction was issued after the court had considered the arguments made last week. The action was brought by District Attorney J. J. Henderson in the name of the people of California and was directed against the I. W. W., the general executive board of the organization, its committee officers, agents and members in California. The injunction will remain in force until the case is opened, if such action is taken, or until it is overruled by a higher court.

WILL ELIMINATE TRIALS

Prosecuting attorneys who attended the court sessions said the granting of the injunction will eliminate long trials of members of the I. W. W. under the state syndicalism law, make membership in the I. W. W. a violation of the injunction, and as such, contempt of court. In opposition to the granting of the injunction, the defendant's counsel argued that a court of equity has no jurisdiction in the matter of crime, where no property rights are involved, and that there was no showing that the state of California owned any property that was threatened. It also was argued that the application for the injunction was an attempt on the part of the state to deprive the defendants of the right of trial by jury guaranteed by the constitution. The district attorney, in arguing, said the supreme court had held that the I. W. W. is an unlawful organization and that prosecution now brought under the criminal syndicalism law means long trials to again prove that fact.

SPECULATORS LOSE

HONOLULU, Aug. 23 (AP)—Collapse of the German mark has been felt in Hawaii more keenly than in Japan, than by any other of the numerous races represented here, according to local bankers, who said that many thousands of dollars have been lost by Japanese in the purchase of marks at apparent "bargain" prices. When the mark began its sensational slump the Japanese rushed into the market and purchased in exchange in large quantities. The bankers said they expressed belief in the economic future of Germany and refused to consider the possibility of further declines. Even now, it is said to be extremely difficult to dislodge some of the Japanese from purchasing more marks.
