

START ACTION ON ANNULLMENT OF OIL LEASES

Special Attorney Examines Evidence; Admiral Testifies in House Inquiry; Parties Still in Fierce Debate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—Affirmative action looking to the annulment of the naval oil leases was initiated today while the senate still was engaged in a swirl of debate over the Walsh annulment resolution.

Ellas H. Strawn, who, with Thomas W. Gregory, had been selected to prosecute the oil cases, conferred with President Coolidge and then began examination of evidence collected by the senate oil committee.

Although it failed to reach a final vote on the Walsh resolution, the senate rejected three amendments designed to allow the president to terminate the leases.

Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, interrupted debate long enough to introduce a proposal to bar a special government counsel in all cases any person who has been connected with any oil company, as counsel or otherwise.

Admiral on Stand

Staffing an oil inquiry of its own, the house naval committee heard two admirals. One of them, J. L. Latimer, judge advocate general of the navy, testified that he had informed Secretary Denby in December, 1921, that it would be legal to enter into a contract with the Doherty interests for the construction of tankers at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, in conjunction with their lease of the California reserve.

The senate oil committee, headed by Secretary Denby for his part in the oil leases were renewed in the senate, while Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, stated privately he would press his resolution for such resignation at the first opportunity.

The senate oil committee was led by four physicians that the present condition of former Secretary Fall made it inadvisable for him to appear at a public hearing, but the committee decided to appoint a medical commission of its own to examine him.

Denby returned to Washington with a request that the committee hear him again and he probably will take the stand at the next session on Friday. He declined through his counsel to reveal the nature of the state.

Internal Taxes In Past Six Months Show Heavy Gains

Healthier and More Active Business Conditions Generally Indicated by Increase in Revenues

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—Internal taxes brought more money to the government in the last six months of 1923 than in the corresponding period of 1922, showing, in the opinion of treasury officials, a healthier and more active business condition generally, inasmuch as the domestic taxes are levied on scores of different industrial and commercial pursuits.

Statistics of receipts between July 1 and January 1 last, as made public tonight by the internal revenue bureau, showed payments to the government of $1,325,297,452 from all internal taxes, including income and profit taxes. Receipts for the corresponding period of 1922 were $1,167,646,452.

Income and profits paid their usual large share of the total, $931,259,551, coming from the same source as in the last six months of 1922, this source yielded $675,706,120. There was an increase also in the "miscellaneous" taxes, covering all of the other assessments under the internal revenue law, the comparative receipts being $258,237,900 for the period ending last January 1, and $490,850,308 for the six months ending January 1, 1922.

New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois, in order, furnished the greatest amount of taxes. Collections from New York amounted to $344,123,287; Pennsylvania $126,031,444; and Illinois $114,951,193.

Other states: Idaho, $87,083; Montana, $1,491,069; North Dakota, $607,220; Oregon, $4,003,255; Utah, $1,920,126; Washington, $224,411; Wyoming, $800,335; Arizona, $441,849; California, $27,069,364; Colorado, $7,607,342; Nevada, $233,478; New Mexico, $457,087.

Figures in Oil Lease Scandal

Colonel J. W. Zevely, Attorney General H. M. Daugherty, and Secretary F. D. Ives.

In the investigation into the government oil land leases, made by ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall, of New Mexico, to Harry F. Sinclair and Edward L. Doheny, Attorney General H. M. Daugherty has been bitterly assailed for his failure to prosecute. The leases, though negotiated by Secretary Fall, were signed by Naval Secretary Edwin Denby, over the strong protest of a number of high naval officers, it is reported. Colonel J. W. Zevely, Sinclair's attorney, admitted on the witness stand he had loaned Fall $25,000 in Liberty bonds, given him by Sinclair for that purpose.

DRAW CLOSE TO BURIED BODIES

Police Chief Confident of Finding More Victims of Lincoln; Inquest to Be Held

AURORA, Ill., Jan. 30 (AP)—Confident that he is close to the discovery of the bodies of Mrs. Lina Lincoln and her brother, Byron Shoup, for whose deaths the woman's husband, Warren Lincoln, is being held, Police Chief Frank Michaels kept his squad of jail prisoners digging about the Lincoln farm "until darkness halted their efforts tonight."

An announcement from Lincoln late in the afternoon that he "thought he remembered burying the bodies in the gladiola bed" caused Chief Michaels to suspend digging in the pigsty and turn his men into the flower bed growing along the driveway leading to the horticulturist's greenhouse.

Evidence that ground here had been disturbed to a greater extent than necessary for the cultivation of the flowers and flower stalks found about three feet below the surface caused Chief Michaels to feel confident that a few more hours digging will unearth the bodies.

During the afternoon Lincoln sat in an automobile at the farm, smoking cigarettes and watching the men dig. He was seen to look at the men shooting a little more than a year ago. Recently he remembered that he had entombed their heads in a concrete block and led police to a dump heap where the block was found. Lincoln will be taken to the inquest to be held tomorrow in the city hall and will be asked to take the stand. He has not said what his action will be, nor has his attorney.

Lieutenant Griffith Is Surprised by Release from Jail at Baden Following Kidnaping Incident

BERLIN, Jan. 30 (AP)—Corlies Hooven, Griffith of Hamilton, Ohio, imprisoned in Baden for his part in the attempt to kidnap Grover Cleveland Borchgrevink, American draft evader, at Eberbach last summer, was released at 6 o'clock this evening and left immediately for Stuttgart. He was accompanied by American Vice Consul Magnusson.

Throughout the day the foreign office denied that final action with respect to the release of Griffith was imminent, and even contended that the situation remained unchanged in view of negotiations alleged to have been going on with Washington through the German embassy.

The Prudential minister of justice at Karlsruhe also declared that was

DEMAND INQUIRY IN ANTI-BONUS LEAGUE AFFAIR

Founder of Organization Alleges Big Sum Spent on Tax Plan; Prominent Men Named

NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (AP)—Funds of the Ex-Services Men's Anti-Bonus League have been spent to support the Mellon tax reduction plan, it was charged tonight by Edward L. Allen, who resigned last November from the league, which he founded and served as executive secretary. He has asked Senator James A. Reed of Missouri to cause a congressional investigation of the association.

Mr. Allen asserted the league was subsidized by big business and that funds raised in the New York State Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' association for the league were being diverted to agitate for the Mellon plan.

The Merchants' association, in a statement, denied that it had contributed any money to the league, although with the state chamber it had organized a joint committee to cooperate with it. John T. Pratt, chairman of the joint committee, admitted tonight, however, that the committee had printed 10,000 pamphlets and petitions for the league which it rejected and which were never used and added that after abandoning the plan to cooperate with the league it was decided to use the money to aid the Mellon plan.

Mr. Allen said he supplied National Commander Quinn of the American Legion with information he used last night in addressing at Albany members of the legislature who are ex-service men.

(Among the contributors to the Anti-Bonus league named by Mr. Allen, were:

—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation; Henry A. Ogden, director of Colgate & Co.; John R. DeLoach, William S. Adams, president of the United States Savings bank; Amos L. Beatty, president of the Texas company; Clement M. Biddle, president of the American National bank, Mount Vernon, N. Y.; B. W. Childs, Harold S. Vandorville, Robert Oliphant, director of Thompson Street company; Donaldson Brown, vice president of the General Motors.

Lady Godiva's Ride on Movie Set Ends in Near Disaster

Animal Actor Jumps Over Footlights; 20 Hurt as Audience Seeks Exit

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30 (AP)—Lady Godiva's ride across the stage of a make-believe theatre at a motion picture studio here today developed into a riot when the white horse upon which Rose Langdon was re-enacting the famous noblewoman's unclad equestrian appearance suddenly went wild, threw its rider and attempted to trample her, and then leaped over the orchestra-pit into a crowd of 450 extras playing the part of a fashionable audience. Miss Langdon's arm was broken by a blow of the animal's hoofs before she was pulled out of its reach by properly man, and 20 persons were injured in the rush for exits which followed the horse's leap over the footlights.

ENGLAND FAVORS OREGON REGIME

Expect Negotiations for Recognition of Mexico and Russia to Begin Soon

LONDON, Jan. 30 (AP)—Negotiations looking to the recognition of the Oregon government in Mexico by Great Britain are expected to begin soon.

Preliminary discussions concerning the creation of special commissions to proceed to Mexico and inquire into the claims of British subjects who suffered property losses through revolutions and other causes have already taken place between foreign office officials and Rafael Nieto, Mexican minister to Sweden, who at President Obregon's instance is in London to seek an understanding with the new labor movement.

Premier MacDonald is understood to favor the resumption of normal relations with Mexico, as in the case of Russia, but desires certain assurances that the rights and property holdings of British citizens resident in Mexico will be respected and that the present Mexican cabinet has the full confidence of the country.

CUT VOTED ON INCOME TAXES FOR PAST YEAR

Payments Due This Spring Would Be Trimmed, Possibly 25 Per Cent, Under Plan Agreed on by Republicans

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—Income tax payers would receive a reduction in their 1923 taxes payable this year under a provision voted today by republican members of the house ways and means committee. The amount of reduction has not been determined, but Chairman Green, author of the proposal, said it might be as high as 25 per cent.

It would apply to the taxes after they have been computed and to all personal income taxpayers. Treasury experts estimated that a 25 per cent cut would mean a saving to taxpayers of $225,000,000.

Mr. Green explained the reduction was aimed at immediate relief whereas legislation of this kind in both the Mellon and Garner plans would begin on this year's taxes.

The action was the first taken on new income tax rates which the republican members of the committee decided today to write themselves and put through in committee by a majority vote.

Representative Hull of Tennessee, a member of the committee and chairman of the democratic national committee, announced tonight that democratic members of the committee had intended to present a similar proposal, but in the form of a joint resolution which could have been taken before the house and senate for action before March 15 when the first installments on last year's taxes are due.

May Refund Payments

Under the plan adopted today the reduction will be made a part of the revenue bill. If it is approved after March 15, Mr. Green said, provision will be made to allow refund on those taxes already paid.

Prior to the meeting of majority members, the full committee had considered further technical details of the revenue bill, but Chairman Green adjourned the committee subject to call for the next meeting of the committee.

The decision of republican members to write their own income rates was explained in a statement by Chairman Green as resulting from the "refusal" of democratic members of the committee to offer to compromise and their evident intention to support unchanged the so-called Garner plan. The latter plan, of which Representative Garner, democrat, Texas, is the author, proposes to reduce the surtax rates, which the committee reached just before adjournment, to a maximum of 10 per cent.

Lethal Gas to Be Used in Execution for the First Time

Complete Preparations at Carson City, Nevada, for Enforcing Death Penalties by New Method

CARSON CITY, Nev., Jan. 30 (AP)—Preparations are being completed here for the first legal execution by lethal gas in the history of America. At least one man, perhaps two, will pay the extreme penalty in this form on February 3.

Geo Jon, one of two Chinese convicted of a long murder, has been denied clemency by the state board of pardons and must die on that date. Thomas Russell, a Mexican, convicted of killing his sweetheart, an Indian girl, who has been sentenced to die February 8, but his application for clemency will be heard by the board Saturday.

A room in an old stone building in the prison yard has been fitted out for the death chamber. The windows will view the execution from a large window in the wall. On the recommendation of State Chemist Sanford G. Dinamore, hydrocyanic acid gas has been selected as the swiftest in deadly effect. It was brought from Los Angeles laboratory, which supplies it for fumigating orange trees. Because of its dangerous quality, the gas may not be shipped by freight or express, and so is being brought the 500 miles from Los Angeles to Carson City by automobile. It will be forced from a pump through a pipe in the floor of the death chamber, where a condemned man, reclining on a bench, is expected to die from virtually a single breath of the fumes.

In the afternoon the prosecution asked for a continuance to February 6 and obtained it over strenuous objections by the defense. Following grasping of the renewed defense attorneys declared they would ask for dismissal of the charge against their client when the case is called next week.

FORD'S FRIEND MAY LEAD THIRD PARTY MEMBERS

Federal Reserve Banking System Severely Scored as "People's Progressives" Line Up Platform for 1924 Drive

OKLAHA, Jan. 30 (AP)—Denunciation of the federal reserve banking system which was characterized as the "most gigantic legalized parasite ever fastened on human industry," marked the afternoon session of the meeting of the people's progressive party convention. Thirty delegates from 25 states attended the convention, which was called by Roy M. Harrop, its national chairman, for the purpose of selecting party candidates for the next general election.

Robert Pointer, of Dearborn, Mich., it was said at the meeting today, probably will be the party's choice for the presidential nomination. Pointer, previously to the time Henry Ford announced that he was for the re-nomination and election of President Coolidge, was a vigorous supporter of the Detroit automobile manufacturer. Selection of the candidate for president and vice president will be made by the convention tomorrow.

The platform of the party, which, when first organized, announced it would support Mr. Ford, if he would accept the nomination for president, Mr. Harrop indicated tonight, will demand the repeal of the federal reserve bank law and substitution of a government owned system by which currency may be issued by the government against the productive wealth of the country; making government bonds legal tender for all debts; payment of a soldier bonus; and various plans for creating employment to labor on public works and economic reforms that will release the grip of the money monopoly upon the people of the United States.

Wallace Campbell of Birmingham, N. D., called the federal reserve bank "banking" system and declared that it was the "most gigantic legalized parasite ever fastened upon human industry," which "exists the mere symbol of wealth and tramples the producer of it under its iron heel," and which is robbing the "honestest of bank failures" since they were unable to "avert the crop of devilish deflation they so industriously sowed." Others who criticized the federal system of banking included Mr. Harrop.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30 (AP)—A resolution disapproving of capital punishment "on the ground that it is not Christian" was adopted today at the 74th convocation of the Episcopal diocese in California. The resolution was introduced by the Rev. Spencer Burton, Episcopal chaplain at San Quentin state prison.

A Screen

When the Yale University Press production of "Jamaica" is shown at the Idaho theatre today it will not make the error of showing colonists of the early English settlement wearing silk hose. In those days of starvation and disease and menace by the Indians the people wore the practical woolen stockings, and so painstaking was the council's committee on Productions of Yale University in their task of presenting history accurately, that woolen hose took the place of sheer and lustrous silk. However, Dolores Costello, who plays Pocahontas, was not permitted the luxury of hosiery. Only leather moccasins graced her feet.

Three Passengers Killed, 11 Injured, when Buffalo-Pittsburgh Express Jumps Track on Curve

FRANKLIN, Penn., Jan. 30 (AP)—Three persons were killed and 11 passengers injured, some seriously, when the Buffalo-Pittsburgh express of the Pennsylvania railroad, southbound, was derailed on a curve at the St. George flag station, 22 miles south of here today. Two coaches and a Pullman car were partly overturned, and express car was partly submerged in the Allegheny river, while a combination baggage and mail car ploughed into the hillside. The engine went over the bank and turned around at the edge of the river, the tender sinking below the surface.

BEDLAM LOOSED IN MINE MEET

Defiance of Lewis Breaks Bounds and Riot Threatens on Rulings of Session Chairman

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 30 (AP)—Defiance of International President John L. Lewis burst bounds in the United Mine Workers' convention today and for one hour turned bedlam loose.

"Shut 'til you meet in hell," President Lewis thundered when the rioting reached the edge of his platform. "He had first ruled that anti-administration forces and failed to get efficient men to lead another roll call, or a proposition to change representation in the convention."

For an hour President Lewis, at one time demanding, then appealing, tried without effect to restore order. Shrieks of "give us justice" and "we want a square deal" filled the hall to the echo when Secretary Van Bitter of the constitution committee, to continue reading items of his report. Finally, at ten minutes of adjournment, while stamping of foot and yells convulsed the assembly, the edge of defiance broke through. President Lewis ordered the floor to proceed, and one section of the constitution was adopted, of which only six delegates had any knowledge.

LADS HELD FOR THEFT OF CARS

Three Boys, 17 and 18; Prisoners Here Facing Prosecution on Grand Larceny Charge

Three youths, 17 and 18 years of age, are prisoners in the county jail here facing prosecution on charges of stealing two and possibly two more automobiles. They gave the names of Orval Olekirk, 18, Provo, Utah; Henry Moore, 17, and Francis L. Shambow, 17, Monida, Montana.

They were arrested Friday night at Contact, Nevada, and turned over to the sheriff's office. The county deputy sheriff, during a search of complaints charging them with the theft Friday afternoon of a Ford sedan owned by C. D. Thomas. This car was taken early in the afternoon from in front of the Elks building here. It was found Saturday, with one wheel removed, about two miles south of here.

Officers here were inquiring Saturday evening into the ownership of a Ford coupe in which the accused lads were traveling when they were halted Friday night at Contact. They stated they had been told it was stolen in Pocatello. They told officers here they were on their way to California. Moore said that he has a brother residing at Shoshone, California.

Confession Announced
It was stated at the sheriff's office Saturday evening that the accused lads had confessed to taking the Thomas car.

It is the opinion of Mr. Thomas and the officers that the boys abandoned the Thomas car after they had failed in an attempt to transfer the wheels from it to their coupe in order to make detection more difficult.

Descriptions of the suspected lads were taken by the sheriff's office Friday evening in consulting the assistance of authorities of this region in the search for the auto thieves. These descriptions were given by C. A. Pool, proprietor of a local vintaging works, where the young men had attempted to sell the car taken by the sheriff's office. They were observed photo by Mr. Thomas as they were leaving the vintaging plant just as he entered in response to request of the proprietor to examine the tire. The proprietor suspected that the tire was one which had been repaired in his plant, and sought confirmation of his opinion.

The boys were placed under arrest in Contact by a deputy sheriff there, and were returned here Saturday in custody of Deputy Sheriff John W. Gabbard and Charles E. Jones.

SLEUTHS TRACE 3 BURGLARIES TO ONE SOURCE

Investigation Uncovers Evidence that Same Persons Entered Garages and Store at Hansen, Hollister, Rogerson

Burglaries at Hansen, Hollister and Rogerson Monday night were committed by members of the sheriff's force believe, by the same persons. In a telephone garage was broken into and at Hollister, the burglars entered also the McDonald Mercantile company store, where they took between $5 and $6 in small change from the cash register and demolished it, and took also a quantity of clothing and provisions, including overalls, underwear, neckties, shaving brushes, shelled nuts and bread.

An overcoat was taken from the Hansen garage, and approximately 25 gallons of gasoline from the Continental Service station at Rogerson.

The items taken by the burglars from the Hollister store were discovered at Rogerson by Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Jones, who spent Tuesday investigating the robberies and who Tuesday evening expressed the belief that the burglars would be captured within a few hours. At Hollister, the deputy noted the glass that had been dropped by one of the burglars through which they had entered the building. The deputy was able to determine the make of tires on the burglars' car, and also information was communicated to officers along the route believed to have been taken by the burglars.

SIX APPLICANTS IN RUNNING FOR POSTMASTERSHIP

Visit of Examining Board Brings List of Aspirants to Light; Congressman for Ex-Service Man

Six applicants are in the running for appointment as postmaster at Twin Falls to fill a vacancy occasioned by expiration February 4 of the term of the incumbent, M. A. Shaw, who has served for eight years in this capacity.

Mr. Strunk is an applicant for re-appointment, and others in the running are Captain P. W. McRoberts, O. J. Paulsen, E. M. Guest, Guy Sturgeon and Mark M. Rutan.

The personnel of the applicants became public knowledge following the visit here this week of the secretary of the civil service commission and the regional postoffice examiner, who have reviewed between 20 and 30 Twin Falls citizens as to the qualifications of the several applicants for the position. The investigation made by these officials constitutes a major portion of the examination to which the applicants are subjected.

Consult Community.
This phase of the examination had to do chiefly with applicants' qualifications for discharging the business of the office and their acceptability to the general public.

Previously each applicant had set forth in a "written statement" his business, educational attainments and other factors having a bearing upon his qualifications for the place.

The examiners made no statement as to the results of their investigation, which will be communicated to heads of the civil service and postoffice department.

Appointment of the successful applicant is to be made from a list certified to the national executive by the civil service commission.

Members of Idaho's delegation in congress probably will be consulted in respect to the appointment. In this event Representative Addison T. Smith will recommend the appointment of Captain McRoberts. This is in keeping with his determination to recommend the appointment of a former soldier man to the place, to which he made the following reference in a letter recently received here:

"After the boys returned from France I determined to recommend the appointment of one of their number as postmaster at Twin Falls. If I were in congress at the time the vacancy occurred, Captain McRoberts not only served in the Spanish-American war, but also in the world war.

"He has the unanimous support of the republican organization and the republican state committee. He is the unanimous choice of the American Legion, and, in addition, I have received scores of recommendations, personal and written, from prominent men in Twin Falls urging his appointment.

"I regard Captain McRoberts as a most capable and most worthy gentleman, and one of our most esteemed citizens, and I shall, of course, recommend his appointment."

FINANCE GRAVE QUESTION FOR MANY SCHOOLS OF

County's Educators in Session Here Discuss Serious Situation Involved by New Tax Law; Decision Up to Voters

Unless voters of the nine independent school districts and 24 out of the 48 common school districts of the county, at special elections this winter, authorize tax levies of more than 8 mills in support of their schools, these districts will be confronted with necessity of adopting one or two of three possible methods of dealing with a situation induced largely by depleted revenues.

Statement to this effect was made by schoolmen participating in a round table discussion of one of the most important questions presented for consideration of 250 teachers of Twin Falls county assembled here Friday at an annual teachers' meeting under supervision of Miss Charlotte Pond, county superintendent.

The three methods of meeting the situation that would result in these districts if the increased levy were denied, as seen by the schoolmen, are: First: Close high schools; second: curtail the length of the school year; third: reduce expenses of school operation, in many instances, by fully 50 per cent. The schoolmen agreed that the latter suggestion would not be at all feasible.

The question considered by the schoolmen in this discussion arises from adoption by the last session of the state legislature of a law which provides that the district administration may not, without obtaining authorization of the district's voters, levy a tax of more than 8 mills for operation of schools. The law does not affect levies for sinking fund or bond indebtedness.

State-Wide Problem
Not only are the nine independent districts and 24 common districts of this county affected by the law, it was reported by L. E. Bear, Hollister, leader of this discussion, but a total of 503 school districts throughout the state are in the same situation. An effort is being made to hold the required special elections simultaneously throughout the state late next month.

Discussion of other questions and topics of interest and importance to educators was conducted in connection with the teachers' meeting in three departments—high school, upper elementary and rural sections, under the direction, respectively, of J. F. Johnston, Kimberly; Mrs. Rose Murray North, Twin Falls, and R. L. Peck, Piler, chairman.

Teachers Hear Addresses
Round table discussions were preceded by an assembly hour during which the teachers were addressed by S. H. Lewis, of the Idaho Technical Institute, Pocatello, appearing in the absence of Miss Elizabeth Rasmussen, state superintendent; President C. E. Bock, of the Albion normal, and "The Evolution of Representative Geography," and Oscar Kipham, Salt Lake, on "Boy Scout Work as an Educational Agency."

A report on the Idaho State Teachers' association was given during the afternoon assembly hour by Arthur N. Englund, Idaho Falls.

Invocation at the opening of the session was offered by the Rev. C. E. Wunning. The musical program included numbers by the high school orchestra, harp solo by Mrs. D. E. Egan, vocal solo by Mrs. O. P. Duval, violin solo by Clifford Bauer.

Explains Attitude of Legion on Adjusted Compensation

Excerpts from Address Delivered by Attorney Harry J. Benoit Before Twin Falls Rotary Club; Veterans of World War Declared a Unit in Support of Present Bonus Measure

MANY people are of the opinion that the American Legion is doing nothing but advocating the passage of the adjusted compensation bill. The converse is true. The American Legion considers the adjusted compensation bill an important item, but first and foremost in thoughts of Legionnaires is the welfare of our disabled buddies. Our rehabilitation committee now in Washington has proposed numerous plans and suggestions that will be enacted into laws for the betterment of the disabled veteran. That cause has received more time, attention and expenditure of money than has any other policy inaugurated by the Legion. Our World War Veterans committee has done splendid work for the care of orphans of the ex-service man, and our Americanization committee has done more in that line of work than any organization in this country.

No Political Significance
The question of the adjusted compensation bill is in no way political. Those who are working for it, Democrats and Republicans alike, are in accord. Their affiliations with the American Legion mean more to them than any affiliation with any political party. It was at the request of representatives of both the house and the senate that the American Legion first entered into the fight, for a fight it is now. And that organization is in it to stay until the bill is enacted into a law, or until they are licked.

The Bill in Brief

First, what is the compensation bill? It has been condemned on general principles by many who do not even know the provisions thereof. It is in brief as follows: There are three features; first, the certificate feature; $1.00 per day for all men who served at home, not to exceed $500; $1.25 per day for men who served overseas and not to exceed the sum of $600.

This certificate bears interest at the rate of 4-1/2 per cent per annum, compounded annually, and maturing in 20 years. This certificate is not to be issued before January 1, 1925, which at that time will have a loan value of 50 per cent. After January 1, 1925, the government will loan money on these certificates at a graduated rate in accordance with the date of the certificate and the earned interest thereon at that time. Second: The home and farm all feature; any man is entitled in cash to his adjusted credit service, plus 25 per cent, and which money must be put into a home or farm, for the purpose of liquidating indebtedness or for improvements, and this investment must be approved by the government. Third: Vocational training by which a man is entitled to $1.75 per day while in attendance at some school, not to exceed ced, however, 140 per cent of his adjusted credit service.

Estimated Annual Cost
The cost of the bill, according to the figures of the treasury department based on 75 per cent on certificate plan, 25-1/2 per cent on home and farm aid plan and 2-1/2 per cent on vocational training feature, totals the sum of $3,845,000,000, or an average of about $80,000,000 per annum.

Funds Now Available
The bill was first vetoed by President Harding for the reason that there was no revenue with which to pay it without further taxing the people. However, within two months thereafter England funded her debt and is now paying to the United States $179,000,000 annually and will do so for a period of 63 years, making a total to be paid of over $11,000,000,000, almost three times the cost of the entire adjusted compensation bill. There was in the United States treasury at the end of the fiscal year 1922 a surplus of $335,000,000, instead of a deficit of $24,000,000 as reported by the treasury department in January, 1922; and there was a surplus of $309,000,000 in the treasury at the end of the fiscal year 1923, instead of a deficit of $650,000,000, as the president said there would be nine months before in his veto message. These figures taken from the revenue department will readily show that the adjusted compensation can be paid without further taxation.

Effect on Taxes
Mr. Mellon has said that the bill could not be paid and at the same time reduce taxes. Mr. Mellon reported to the house ways and means committee that he could reduce taxes annually in the sum of $323,000,000 if the bonus was not passed. The figures of his department show that the bill would cost on an average of $81,000,000, and still Mr. Mellon would have us believe that the bill could not be paid and have a reduction of taxes at the same time. His tax reduction plan could be instituted and enacted into a law and we could pass the adjusted compensation bill at the same time, if there would be eliminated the feature of his reducing the income taxes of the multi-millionaire class (of which there are 22,000 according to Mellon's own figures), and reduce the taxes on the other 14,000,000 income tax payers, which would be legislation to affect the masses rather than the classes and which is one of the principles of the American Legion.

From the figures given no one can gainsay that we cannot pass the adjusted compensation bill and have a reduction of taxes.

Matter One of Principle

So much from the economic aspect. Now let us refer to the matter on an equitable basis, as a matter of principle.

Immediately after the war, or shortly thereafter, congress adjusted its difficulties with the railroads for the use thereof during the war, and appropriated the sum of over 800 million dollars which was paid to the railroad companies; a similar adjustment was made with war contractors and they were paid over 700 million; the federal employees were paid a bonus of 255 million; and the personnel of the army and navy were given a bonus of 135 million, making a total of $1,900,000,000 which is 50 per cent of the entire cost of the soldiers' bill. Still it is said that the ex-service man who was drafted body and soul was entitled to nothing and could not be paid.

Service Men Not Opposed
The propaganda and publicity of the opposition have attempted to convey to the public that the ex-service men are opposed to the bonus, which is not a fact. The vast majority of the ex-service men are in favor of the bonus and feel that it should be given to them. They are not asking for pay for the service in the uniform, say that is their pride, and there is not enough money in the United States treasury to pay for that service, but they do feel that there should be some adjustment as between themselves and the income credits that were made by profits while they were in the service. The American Legion is solidly behind this bill, regardless of the publicity in the press to the contrary, and for the reason that economically it can be paid and for the further reason that it honestly and earnestly believes that the ex-service man is entitled to some adjusted compensation, a theory that has been in vogue in this country since the Revolutionary war.

STATE GRIDIRON CROWN AWARDED TO IDAHO FALLS

Interscholastic Board of Control Denies Boise's Claim to 1923 Championship; Declines to Expel for Forfeiture

Idaho Falls high school football team was crowned state interscholastic football champion for 1923 by decision of the state interscholastic athletic board of control made public here by M. G. Mitchell, superintendent of Twin Falls schools, who served last year as president of the board and now its secretary.

The decision denies Boise's claim to the championship which is based upon defeat of Burley in a Thanksgiving day game in Boise.

Boise's Claim Forfeited.
"Burley forfeited all claim to the interscholastic championship of south Idaho by failing to play in Pocatello November 30 against Idaho Falls according to the board's orders," the board said in its decision. "Boise, which was interscholastic champion of the other two districts of the state, won nothing whatever in the way of a championship by defeating Burley on Thanksgiving day. Boise thus combined with Burley in interfering with the plans of the board of control in playing with Burley on Thanksgiving day. The board deemed it just that Boise be deprived of the right to play the championship game on her own ground. Boise was granted the privilege of going to Idaho Falls to contest with Idaho Falls on December 8 for the state championship. Boise failed to appear for the game December 8. Therefore Idaho Falls is awarded the state interscholastic football championship for 1923."

The board declined to grant Idaho Falls' petition that Boise be expelled from the state association for one year for insubordination, holding that "forfeiture of the game is the penalty attached to refusal to play."

In its decision the board went on record as commending Idaho Falls for its stand "in carefully abiding by all rulings of the board during the football season, even when her interests were jeopardized."

Members of the board, all whom concurred in the decision, are E. E. Grande Cherry, J. J. Rao and M. G. Mitchell. Here is the text of the board's decision and statement of facts on which it was based:

Idaho Falls Protest.
Complainant Idaho Falls high school acting through the principal, E. K. Crawford, protests against the action of Boise high school in refusing to play a football game on December 8, 1923, with Idaho Falls high school at Idaho Falls, pursuant to the order of the Idaho State Interscholastic Athletic Board of Control, and complainant petitions:

First—That the state board declare the game forfeited to Idaho Falls, and that the Idaho State Interscholastic football championship for 1923 be awarded to Idaho Falls.

Second—That Boise high school be expelled from the state association for one year for insubordination.

The argument of complainant as stated in his communication of December 5, 1923, directed to the state board of control, is as follows:

First—Boise scheduled a championship football game with the Burley high school for Thanksgiving day, in direct violation, with the ruling of the state board of control. The ruling follows:

"Cherry votes for game at Pocatello this week. Majority state board this vote that Burley and Idaho Falls play deciding game this week. Winner, to play at Boise in state championship game following week. Consider this final decision state board. Superintendent M. G. Mitchell."

Boise knew that the board of control had ruled that the Burley team play Idaho Falls at Pocatello during Thanksgiving week, and that the winner should play Boise for state championship the following week. Nevertheless, Boise advertised a state championship game with Burley for Thanksgiving day and after winning said game declared itself state champion.

Second—Boise refuses to play Idaho Falls for state championship, declaring that Boise is actually actual champion and is not interested in technical championship. This is the second direct violation of the ruling of the state board of control. This ruling of the state board of control that Boise must play Idaho Falls for the state championship at Idaho Falls, December 8.

JACKSON TAKES STAND IN SUIT AGAINST CLUB

Baseball Star Testifies He Did Not Receive a Copy of Contract Calling for Salary of $5,000 a Year

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 30 (AP)—Although he signed a contract calling for $5,000 a year for three years with the Chicago club of the American league, Joe Jackson, who is suing that organization for $15,000 in circuit court here, testified that he never received a copy of the contract.

Jackson was on the stand virtually the entire day, under direct and cross-examination, and told of the manner in which he signed a three-year contract in 1920 under which he played for the sum for which he brought suit was $5,000. The contract, he testified, was said not to contain the "ten day clause."

RAY WINS EVENT.
NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (AP)—Joe Ray, doughty little Chicago distance star, was a decisive victory tonight in the Rudman Wamanager mile and a half, first of two events he was entered in at the Millrose A. A. carnival, at Madison Square Garden, but failed in an attempt to lower the world's record for the event he set a year ago.

through the principal, D. H. Holloway, answers the protest in a communication on December 14, 1923, briefly stating that the conditions are as the board of control understands them to be.

Decision Given.
The decision of the state board is as follows:

The first petition is granted. Burley forfeited all claim to the interscholastic championship of south Idaho by failing to play in Pocatello November 30, 1923, against Idaho Falls, according to the board's orders. Boise, which was interscholastic champion of the other two districts of the state, won nothing whatever in the way of a championship by defeating Burley on Thanksgiving day. It was simply a Thanksgiving day game and nothing else. Boise thus combined with Burley in interfering with the operation of plans of the board of control in playing with Burley on Thanksgiving day. The board deemed it just that Boise be deprived of the right to play the championship game on her own ground. Boise was granted the privilege of going to Idaho Falls to contest with Idaho Falls on December 8 for the state championship. Boise failed to appear for the game December 8. Therefore Idaho Falls is awarded the state interscholastic football championship for 1923.

The second petition is not granted by the board. The board does not feel justified in expelling a school from the state association or a penalty for refusing to play a game. The forfeiture of the game is the penalty attending such refusal to play. The board believes that the failure of one of the teams to go through with the schedule under the circumstances attending the playing of the game during the past season, warrants only forfeiture of the championship and of expulsion from the association.

While deeming it unwise to grant the second petition of complainant the board did go on record as commending Idaho Falls for her stand in carefully abiding by all rulings of the board during the football season, even when her interests were jeopardized.

NEWS BOWLERS LOSE TO TIMES

Two-Game Win Features Printers' Battle; Anderson Tops List with 550 Score

Repeating their former triumph over The News, The Times bowlers took a well earned win from the morning paper Wednesday evening with Lawrence and Anderson doing the bulk of the heavy work and the remainder of the squad bowling on a par with the rival printshop squad.

The totals for the games also gave The Times the difference by 130 pins, the winners bowling 550 for a team average of 110 to a total of 2431 for The News team, which averaged 102.

A large part of The News' defeat can be attributed to the fact that but three regular members of the team were present, both Self and Whitel being absent, which necessitated the use of two new men and consequently The News' average fell. Percy Thompson was the high man for the morning paper with 531. The former Times star, Charles Bruggeman, was content to let other members of the team share the glory of being high point man and satisfied himself with a 467 score.

World's Champion Light Heavyweight Is Still Held to Contract for Bouts with Tunney, Gibbons and Stone

NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (AP)—Mike McTigue, world's light heavyweight champion, who believed he was free of all contract obligations after purchasing his release recently from Joe Jacobs, manager, now finds that he is still obligated to fulfill conditions imposed under that agreement, including matches with Gene Tunney, Tom Gibbons and Ad Stone.

McTigue, according to information revealed today, automatically bound himself to fulfill the old contract when he removed it from Jacobs' hands despite belief that it made him a free agent.

Jacobs had signed with Tex Rickard for fights with Gibbons and Tunney and for a match with Stone, the "Fighting Marine," at Philadelphia.

McTigue it was said, would carry his latest fight dilemma to the state athletic commission for an interpretation.

SENATE WRANGLE GROWS INTENSE

Walsh Resolution in Regard to Teapot Dome Affair Precipitates Partisan Uphear

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—Warm debate, which more than once became politically partisan and which often resulted in such an uproar that it was only with difficulty that President Cummings was able to restore order, featured the wrangle in the senate today on the various matters pertaining to the Walsh resolution on Teapot Dome and the proposed amendments.

During the course of the discussion Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, author of the original cancellation measure, said the amendments offered to the Walsh resolution had been to "take the sting out of it," and seemed designed to be "apologetic to those who have betrayed their country."

His assertion that all the positive action came from the democratic side was contradicted by Senators Norris and Lorimer.

Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, said he regarded the leases as illegal and made without authority and that as a senator, he was called upon simply to construe the law.

"I was very clear in my own mind that there was not sufficient authority for the execution of these leases and the making of these contracts. I can readily understand that any layman or the secretary of the navy might come to a different conclusion and execute them in perfectly good faith."

When Senator Borah concluded, several senators were on their feet seeking recognition. Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, got the floor and denied that his first amendment was designed to "soften" the resolution. He said, however, that the secand one "might be admitted to have had that purpose."

Senator Underwood, of Alabama, candidate for the democratic nomination for president, joined the debate with the statement that he regretted there was not an opportunity to vote upon a resolution directly declaring the leases void.

It is said that the potatoes in freezing develop a chemical substance which is highly poisonous and that examination of dead animals has revealed this unclassified poison.

BLAMES C. O. P. FOR SCANDALS

Democratic Women's Party Leader Sees Dome Fracas as Chief Issue in Next Campaign

CLEVELAND, Jan. 30 (AP)—Direct responsibility for the Teapot Dome "scandal" rests with the republican party and President Coolidge and nothing can prevent its being made a campaign issue in 1924, democratic women attending a "school of democracy" here were told tonight by Mrs. Emily Nellor Blair of Missouri, vice-chairman of the party's national committee.

She characterized the Washington government as "an administration of scandals" and said that "honesty in government" was certain to be one of the majority questions submitted to voters in the coming campaign. The republican party claims credit for its achievements, she declared, and likewise must be held responsible for its failures.

"Mr. Coolidge is not merely 'Gavin Coolidge,' she declared. 'He ran as vice-president on the republican ticket of 1920. He is part and parcel of the republican administration. More than that, he is the cabinet of Mr. Harding. He must have known the policies which Mr. Harding approved. In fact, he went so far when he took office as to say that he would carry on Mr. Harding's policies. Surely that gives us a right to assume that he knows what those policies were.'

Declaring that it was no accident that a republican administration "fathered the Teapot Dome scandal," Mrs. Blair said it was due to "that 7,000,000 majority; it went to their heads." Republicans thought they faced an inept, ineffectual minority, she said, urging that minorities be kept extant as a check on the party in power.

Other speakers had deplored the "bargaining away" of oil leases, and criticized alleged corruption in irrigation and forest reserve administration and former Senator Allen's address at Ohio, in an effort to address, delivered a broadside of condemnation of administration policies.

Republican administration of the civil service, the existent tariff laws and the attitude towards the league of nations all felt the barbs of his criticism. He did not mention the Teapot Dome incident.

"I do not believe in civil service," he said, "as enforced by the republicans when nine out of ten appointments were those of republicans. 'There was something rotten in Denmark' when 'these' examinations were held."

"The tariff bill was not made for the rank and file, it is a bill of blocs, by blocs and for blocs. The farmers were duped by high rates placed on grain. They are selling their products in a free market while the tariffing under the highest protective tariff in the world."

VICTIM SPENDS DAY IN HUNT FOR STICK-UP MAN

Footpad Takes $15 from Main Avenue Pedestrian, According to Report to Police Headquarters

According to report made Tuesday night to police headquarters, a man whose name was not given on the records, but who is said to bear the name of Twillinger, was held up and robbed of $15 by a masked man on Main avenue south.

The victim of the robbery is said to have spent all day Wednesday searching for the robber. He told the police that he believed he would be able to identify his assailant, who, he said, was a small man.

Twillinger told the police that when the robber commanded him to put up his hands, he thought the affair a practical joke and resisted. At a second command, accompanied by a jab with the robber's gun before complying.

The robbery is reported to have taken place on the south side of Main avenue, between Third and Fourth streets south about 11 o'clock Tuesday night.

He intends to make. The senate appropriations committee reported favorably the house measure carrying $100,000 for the employment of counsel to prosecute the oil companies. It added an amendment requiring confirmation of such counsel by the senate.

The McKellar proposal to bar all counsel persons who are or have been in any way affiliated with oil companies is designed as an amendment to appropriation resolution. Its approval by the house was forecast, but whether it would affect in any way the president's selection of counsel did not appear.

Senator McKellar said it was not directed at either Mr. Gregory or Mr. Brown, as he had no information that either had ever acted as counsel for an oil company. He added, however, that he believed such a prohibition in the appropriation measure would be wise.

Attorney Confers

Some color to speculation as to the possibility of a hitch in the employment of Mr. Stinson or Mr. Gregory was given, however, by a visit to the White House by Assistant Attorney General Holland, who has been observing the senate inquiry. He conferred with Secretary Slomp on the question of counsel and Mr. Slomp afterwards had a long conference with President Coolidge.

Running its course for the third successive day, senate debate was marked by bitter exchanges between republicans and democrats and culminated in a personal tilt between Chairman Lenroot of the oil committee and Senator Walsh, democratic Montana, who has had the leading role in the inquiry.

Senator Walsh bluntly charged that he had received no cooperation from the chairman or other republicans on the committee up to the time Archie Roosevelt testified. Senator Lenroot said he was content to let the country judge from the record of the hearings.

Partisan politics ran through practically all of the six hours of debate and at times there was such a hubbub that President Coolidge had difficulty in maintaining even a semblance of order. Democratic senators indicated by laughter and smattering of applause their approval of shafts sent flying by speakers on their side and twice the presiding officer was obliged to warn the galleries against demonstrations.

Coolidge Assailed

President Coolidge, Mr. Fall and Secretary Donby were assailed time and again, while towards the last democratic charged republicans with undertaking to "soften" the language of the Walsh resolution. Taking exception to these charges, Senator Lenroot declared that republicans approved the language with respect to indicated "corruption and fraud" in connection with the leases and had sought only to make less positive the declarations concerning questions of law involved in the case, and upon which the courts must pass.

A group of republicans—insurgents and progressives—joined with the democratic minority in voting down amendments designed to modify the expressions as to the want of authority for the leases. The two former labor senators from Minnesota, Shipstead and Johnson, also opposed the amendments.

CUT VOTED ON INCOME TAX FOR PAST YEAR

num of 44 per cent from the present 30 per cent instead of to 25 per cent as proposed in the plan of Secretary Mellon.

Mr. Green's statement brought a retort from Representative Garner, who declared the former's "promise that he have refused to consider a compromise is not correct."

The action of the majority members of the committee forecasts a stubborn fight on the bill when it reaches the floor.

Representative Garner has declared the democrats were united for the rates proposed in his plan and would vote for them on the floor. Amendments to the rate schedules are in order under the modified House rules.

Representative Longworth, republican floor leader, in a long speech, promised to lead the Mellon plan, he said that, if the committee raised the Mellon surtax rates, enough support could be gained for the bill to assure its passage without material changes and without a long fight on the floor.

corporation, and Charles C. Goodrich of R. F. Goodrich company.

From the time the league was organized in October, 1921, until last November, 1400 persons contributed $70,000 to it, said Mr. Allen. The Washington Post, president of the Anti-Bonus league, denied it ever had received any money from the joint committee headed by Mr. Pratt, and said it welcomed an investigation. Up until December 31, it had received $80,000 in contributions from about 4000 persons, he said.

EPIDEMIC STILL GRIPS SCHOOLS OF TWIN FALLS

Attendance Continues at Low Ebb as Result of Continuing Prevalence of Measles Among Children

Attendance in Twin Falls schools continues at a low ebb as a result of the continuing epidemic of measles. The situation this week shows little improvement as compared with last week, although in several instances pupils who were absent last week have returned to their class rooms. The percentage of absence attributed to the epidemic was raised Wednesday at the Washington school where, according to report to the superintendent, 80 out of a total enrollment of 435 or about 20 per cent, were absent. In the Bickel school 215 out of an enrollment of 550 and in the Lincoln school 300 out of about 675 enrolled, were absent.

Inroads of the epidemic were less marked among the older pupils, the senior high school, with an enrollment of 450, showing between 7 and 8 per cent absent, and the junior high school with about 700 enrolled, showing between 10 and 12 per cent absent.

NEW SCHEDULE OF FEES ADOPTED FOR HOSPITAL

County Commissioners Take Action Looking Toward Disposing of Objections Raised to Former Policy

Twin Falls county commissioners Wednesday voted to dispose with the services of an anesthetist at the county general hospital and adopted a new schedule of fees for use of the operating room.

By this means the commissioners hope to meet objections raised by a number of physicians to the former policy of including the fee of the institutional anesthetist in operating room charges in cases where another anesthetist is employed.

These objections were discussed at a hearing Tuesday before the board of commissioners by a number of local physicians.

The new schedule of operating room fees provides for charging in cases where local anesthetics is used, $5; major operations, $7.50 minimum; major operations, $12.50 minimum. For an anesthetist was fixed at $7.50 per hour.

PRISON DOORS OPEN TO U. S. ARMY MAN

no development in the case, when asked earlier in the day.

MOSBACH, Germany, Jan. 30 (AP)—Although aware that strong efforts were being made to obtain his pardon, Lieutenant Carl Griffith was the most surprised man in this place when informed by his jailer late this afternoon that he could pack up his belongings and go wherever he wished.

Neither the state's attorney nor the jail warden was surprised until late that the release of Griffith had been granted as the appeal in his behalf as still strongly opposed on the ground that it should not be acted upon until the United States government announced its attitude towards Frederick W. Blachoff, convicted in 1918 of conspiracy against the American government, who it was thought, was to be traded off against Griffith.

The American lieutenant lost no time in leaving the jail and he caught the 6 o'clock train for Stuttgart. His departure took place so hurriedly that most of the villagers first learned of it after he was on his way. Vice Consul Magnuson accompanied him.

Carl Speyer and Faust Gagarin, who were implicated in the attempt to kidnap Bergdoll, are still in the jail at Mosbach.

EPIDEMIC SPREADING

LAHAINA, Island of Maui, T. H., Jan. 30 (AP)—Two more deaths of Japanese in the epidemic of spinal meningitis which has attacked many of the foreign residents here were reported late today. There have been nine deaths up to date from the disease.

Government physicians who are working to halt the epidemic believe they have the situation well in hand.

PHONOGRAPHS AND RADIO

It has been said lately that phonograph manufacturers were worried by the growth of radio, fearing that radio receiving sets would ruin their market. If that is true, a clever method has been devised to meet the competition.

Two of the leading phonograph companies are arranging to broadcast their own business by radio. One of them has opened a broadcasting station of its own and the other is co-operating with an established station. They will give radio fans a new form of entertainment—bearing phonograph records in the making. Through microphones placed in the phonograph studio, the listeners will hear famous artists singing or playing for the records, and they will also hear the familiar record transmitted through the air. New records will be broadcast for the double purpose of advertising and free entertainment.

Through such co-operation, the phonograph market may be stimulated anew. The two forms of entertainment are really well adapted to supplement each other, if properly handled.

Radio has a greater fascination and a wider range, but it still falls far short of the perfection attained in phonographic reproduction of fine music, and may continue to do so. Thus radio may strengthen the demand for phonographic records; and both of these, by their wide distribution of musical knowledge and interest, may stimulate anew the demand for pianos and other musical instruments.

In music, even more than in motor cars, it is hard to imagine a "saturation point." The more the public gets, the more it wants, and one form only sharpens the appetite for other forms. The musical age is only dawning.

Professor Mayberry, psychologist of the University of Chicago, after examining several thousand heads and studying the minds associated with those heads, announced that the size and shape of the forehead have little or nothing to do with intelligence. The only way to determine a person's brain power, from the outside, he says, is to measure the distance from the ears to the top of the head. That gives a relative cranial capacity from which the person's intelligence may be calculated.

There does not seem to be anything essentially new about this. The old phonologists, scorned by present-day psychologists, were teaching forty or fifty years ago that the strength of any mental faculty was indicated by the distance from the ear to the part of the brain representing that faculty. The lower the ears, they said, the better the brain. They seem to have gone wrong only in being too cocksure about the location of all the different faculties.

Professor Mayberry and his fellow psychologists, however, are doing a good work in exploring the popular fallacy of high foreheads necessarily representing high brain power. Practical observation should show anyone that there is little in that. Some of the brightest people in any community or group will be found to have low or sloping foreheads.

"Highbrow," then, is a misnomer. The lofty forehead may or may not indicate a high-powered mind, but proper term for intellectual people seems to be "highhead," and a foot rule is as good an index as a vocabulary.

Origin of "Mister." Master was originally used as a title, but only in speaking of a man of high social rank or learning. It gradually was diminished in application, but has been superseded by "Mr." The obscured pronunciation doubtless began while the written form, "Master," was still commonly employed. Before the end of the nineteenth century the abbreviation "Mr." (originally only one among many others used for the word in all applications) had come to be restricted to the use in which the pronunciation was observed, and to be the only permitted mode of using the word in that use. Therefore "Master" and "Mr." were practically two words.

Would It Be Out. Possession of a big fur coat makes a man almost happy for at least one season.

Railroad and Reservoir Factors in Program Laid Out for Year's Effort

COMMERCE BODY OUTLINES WORK FOR COMMUNITY

Directors Renew Invitation to Idaho Rainmakers and Include Engineers; Suggest North and South Highway

Directors of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, at a meeting Tuesday evening, adopted a comprehensive program of work for the organization during the coming year, and took action in relation to several matters of immediate concern.

In view of its record attendance and general satisfaction with respect to the annual convention of the Idaho Irrigation congress held here last week, the directors determined to extend an invitation to this organization and to the American Society of Engineers in Idaho to hold their annual sessions jointly next year in Twin Falls.

While disclaiming purpose or intention of dictating the route of a north and south interstate highway through Twin Falls, the directors, after considering the subject at length, and conferring with A. A. Sabers, director of highways for the Twin Falls highway district, in reference to suggested routes, adopted a resolution recommending that "the north and south interstate highway be routed so that travel will pass over the Spokane street bridge through the center of Twin Falls."

Investigation looking toward securing of a permanent location for Twin Falls' tourist park was referred to Curle Turner, chairman of the park department, who will appoint a special committee for this purpose.

The directors appointed N. S. Wright, retiring secretary of the chamber of commerce, to represent the community at an annual meeting of the Old Oregon Trail association to be held February 12, in LaGrande, Ore., and upon recommendation of W. T. Leslie, chairman of the agricultural department, designated James A. Waters as representative of the chamber of commerce at a meeting to be held February 6 in Buhl, at which a local organization of a statewide Gorsemyer cattle association is to be formed.

Professor Mayberry, psychologist of the University of Chicago, after examining several thousand heads and studying the minds associated with those heads, announced that the size and shape of the forehead have little or nothing to do with intelligence. The only way to determine a person's brain power, from the outside, he says, is to measure the distance from the ears to the top of the head. That gives a relative cranial capacity from which the person's intelligence may be calculated.

POOLTRY SALES PLAN SUCCEEDS

Co-Operative Organization in Utah Claims Better Prices Obtained; Organize in Idaho

Utah is making a big success of the poultry business and this success is largely due to a state-wide egg marketing association that was formed last March. During the last ten months of 1923 they have shipped 225 cars of eggs to outside markets. These eggs have sold for top prices on the New York and Los Angeles markets.

As a result of the egg marketing association Utah eggs have sold for a cent more than eggs having a 75¢ net have been made for the Utah farmers. The association did $350,000 worth of business in eggs and handled $250,000 worth of broilers. The association started with 263 members; it now has 300.

The capability of the development of the poultry industry following cooperative marketing is shown by this state buying 1,000,000 more day old chicks than in the previous year. Raising of better broilers and production of quality products.

Idaho has much the same natural advantages as Utah, but lacks effective marketing.

The Southeastern Idaho Egg Marketing association now being organized, will take care of the market provided 75,000 hens necessary for successful operation are signed up. The poultrymen of each county are being organized and it is hoped that the required number of hens will be secured by March 5.

SALMON RIVER DISTRICT GIVEN COURT'S APPROVAL

Proceedings in connection with the organization of the Salmon River irrigation district, voted last month by electors of the district, were confirmed by Judge W. A. Babcock, in a decree issued Monday in district court here. It is the purpose of the district to take over the water rights of the project, and steps toward this end are to be taken in the immediate future by its board of directors. It is estimated that a bond issue of approximately $1,000,000 will be required for this purpose.

MAJOR PROGRAM OF COMING YEAR'S WORK FOR TWIN FALLS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

1. To secure the completion and construction of American Falls reservoir and the Rogerson-Wells railroad.
2. To assist in securing the greatest profits and returns to our farmers by co-operation with them to secure the best marketing accommodations.

STOCKHOLDERS STAND BEHIND MUTUAL BOARD

Building and Loan Association Directors Authorized to Proceed with Plans for Liquidating $18,000 Deficit

Stockholders of the Mutual Building and Loan association, at an adjourned meeting held Saturday afternoon, received an annual statement of the financial condition of the association as of December 31, last, showing a deficit of $18,351.63, constituting a capital impairment of 5.8 per cent, which, according to a statement of the board of directors accompanying the report, is "almost identical" with the account of K. S. Peters, former manager, and Frank G. Leichter, former secretary of the association.

The stockholders meeting adjourned on motion of E. H. Richards, Paul, within 30 minutes after it was called to order by P. E. Chamberlain, vice-president of the association. The motion for adjournment carried on a display of confidence in the board of directors and specifically authorized the board to proceed in the premises as it deemed best.

In their statement accompanying the financial report, the directors stated that "claims have been filed and suits have been instituted for recovery of the full amount of the loss."

Concurrent with the audit just completed, the directors' statement said, an examination was conducted by the state department of finances, which showed the condition of the association to be intact and in good condition.

At their meeting Monday the stockholders, who had received printed copies of the financial report and statement of the directors as they entered, approved minutes of the previous meeting; called for report previously submitted by K. S. Peters, which was read and showed, during the year 1923 up to November 10, a total of 451 new accounts opened and 7200 shares of stock sold; and then adjourned.

The financial statement listed assets in the amount of $295,710.15, certified as follows: Cash in hands of secretary, $179.42; cash in banks, $6,510.94; real estate loans, $262,265; stock loans, $10,803.43; real estate, $15,562.92; advanced on foreclosures, $125; furniture and fixtures, $1,044.55; stationery and supplies, $20.00.

Liabilities were shown in the sum of $371,061.68, itemized as follows: Installment loans, $240,170.33; paid-up stock, $73,500; uncompleted loans, $260.30; accounts payable, $25.15; reserve for litigation, $1,000; reserve for losses, $20.00.

Net gain for the year's business, credited to surplus, was shown in the sum of $7,736.63.

The statement of the directors relative to the deficit shown was signed by each member of the board: O. J. Finch, president; E. E. Chambers, vice-president; H. R. Grant, E. J. Finch, H. C. Hazel, W. S. Parish, Floyd Newman, Dr. George H. Caldwell, E. A. Moon.

The statement follows:

Impairment of the capital of the association amounting to about 5.8 per cent of the assets of the association; second, that the amount of this impairment is approximately equal to the amount of Messrs. Peters and Leichter; third, that due to above facts no dividend could be declared for the six months period ending December 31, 1923. In view of these facts, the board of directors offers the following explanation of these unusual conditions and on a report of audit in their hands.

On or about November 10, 1923, the board became aware of an alleged overdraft in excess of recorded or known earnings in the account of Messrs. Peters and Leichter, the general manager and secretary, respectively, of our association. The board immediately notified these gentlemen to discontinue the sale of stock, and also their services as officers of the association until the further orders of the board. At the same time the board requested the state department of finances to conduct an examination of the association books to be made by the Edwin A. Wilson company, certified public accountants, covering the past four years, and notified the two bonding companies, which have been sureties for P. G. Leichter, of a breach of the bonds. The board and themselves entirely dependent and interested in records prepared by Mr. Leichter and were therefore obliged to await the findings of the auditor before making claim of loss against the bonding companies. The total amount of proceeds of the sale of stock, which was alleged to be in excess of the overdraft is about $18,000. Claims have now been filed and suits have been instituted for recovery of the full amount of loss.

Board Kept in Dark Concurrent with the audit, an examination was conducted by the state department of finances, which showed the securities of the association to be intact and in excellent condition.

The report of audit shows that the account of Messrs. Peters and Leichter has been in fact overdrawn for the past two years. In explanation of this condition the board received the following facts: The audits covering the years 1921 and 1922 were made by a local accountant, who was elected for this purpose by the stockholders at their annual meetings in January of 1922 and 1923, and the report a true statement of the condition of the association. The semi-annual reports and statements furnished to the directors by the secretary and general manager during the same period were in agreement with the auditor's report, and the board, in its desire to recover the loss, and to secure the recovery of the funds represented in this alleged overdraft, the normal earnings of the association can, within a very short time, liquidate the entire loss. As a matter of fact, the board is confident that it will recover the loss, and the board is therefore in a position to give the stockholders its assurance of the safety of the principal of their investments. A review of the earnings of the association will show an average dividend rate of 10 per cent, and the board expects that a 2 per cent dividend was declared in December, 1923, and none at all in December, 1923.

The board further recommends that, in view of the basic soundness of the institution, the stockholders can best protect their own interests by supporting the board in its efforts to reorganize normal conditions by resuming their regular payment of monthly dues. It can be readily understood that this course, in gross violation of the law, would be to make one of the many desirable loans that are being applied for.

Notice is hereby given to the undersigned administrators of the estate of Ida Sutton, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit with proof of their claims, within four months after the first pub-regular payment of monthly dues. It can be readily understood that this course, in gross violation of the law, would be to make one of the many desirable loans that are being applied for.

WHEAT LEADS ADVANCE TO HIGH RECORD MARK

Best Prices in Several Weeks Reached;
Corn Strong; Wheat Rather Short Supply

CHICAGO, Jan. 30 (AP)—Wheat displaced corn today in the matter of leadership toward higher prices. There was a marked change in sentiment regarding wheat, with offerings readily absorbed, wheat prices advanced to the best figure in several weeks. Wheat closed unsettled at 3-8 to 1-3 to 1-4 to not advance, May $1.10 3/8 to 1-10 1/2, and July $1.08 7/8 to 1.00. Corn finished weak, 1-2 to 7-8 not lower. Oats unchanged, 17c, and provisions unchanged to 7c down.

Influenced to some degree by prospects of financial relief for wheat producers in the northwest, wheat showed an upward tendency from the outset, and the market at no time went under the previous level of wheat. The bulk of the wheat traders on the bull side of the market had been showing wonderful resistance to selling pressure and had scored a substantial advance since January 10, the traditional date for calendar speculators to take to the bear side. He asserted that there was no immediate supply in this country, and that should anything adverse happen to the new crop, wheat was starting out with a considerable decrease of acreage, the result would be a sharp upheaval in prices.

The fact that wheat was on the upgrade and that corn today reached new high price records for the season help give temporary strength to corn. On the other hand, country offerings of corn were said to show an increase. Commission house buying of future deliveries of corn here showed lessened force and it was said mild weather was curtailing demand from feeders.

Provisions were governed largely by the course of hog values.

These prices are obtained daily at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and are intended to cover only the average of prices. Where certain crops for these periods offer more than the quoted price no effort is made to include such quotations. Quotations are offered merely as a guide to producers and should not be accepted as extreme of either high or low prices.

NEED SEEN FOR NEW PRECINCTS IN 1924 VOTING

Commissioners Make Survey of Duties Imposed on County Authorities by Operation of Election Law

Under provisions of Idaho election law, requiring that "each election precinct shall not contain more than 400 voters," several new precincts must be formed in Twin Falls county this year.

This requirement, Commissioner O. E. Carlson brought to the attention of his associates on the board of county commissioners Wednesday in connection with a survey of the duties imposed upon county officials through operation of the election law in an election year.

Alteration or division of precincts to conform to the legal requirement, is a duty imposed by law upon the county commissioners. It is their duty to see that the necessary records of the vote cast in each of the existing precincts in the last general election will be used.

Twin Falls and Buhl Affected

It is anticipated that new precincts must be formed to serve the voters in Twin Falls and Buhl and possibly Piler and Kimberly.

Action by the commissioners relative to the formation of new precincts must be taken prior to April 17 on which date county authorities will be required to furnish registrars in each precinct with registration supplies and to cause publication of a notice describing precinct boundaries and giving names of registrars.

Registration will begin May 3 for the primary election which will be held August 2.

June 6 is the first and July 5 the last day for filing nominations in the office of the county auditor.

Registration for the primary election will close August 2, and August 4 is the last day for issuing absent voters ballots for the primary election.

TRIANGULAR DEBATERS FOR TWIN FALLS NAMED

The Twin Falls high school debate teams for the coming season were chosen Wednesday evening by the 12 members of the squad and the coaches, Mr. Estes and Superintendent M. C. Mitchell.

Twelve boys representing the two sides of the question, "Resolved: that the United States should join the world court," met in the high school auditorium, and in a debate on the question, which will be used in the regular school debates with Boise, Idaho Falls and Pocatello, decided on the six which would represent the school.

This year as in former years the boys of the squad gave their selection which was found to agree with the choice made by the regular coach. The teams which will debate this year are: Negative, Alton Blackburn, Miles Watson and Willie Moffatt; affirmative, Walter Butcher, Loyd Perry and Kenneth Bendahl.

Mr. Estes, the regular coach, will be assisted by Mr. Mitchell, who has aided materially in upholding the enviable record of the local school in debating circles during the past few years.

BOISE MINISTER CALLED BY TWIN FALLS CHURCH

The Rev. Louis T. Nissen, who recently received a unanimous call to Ascension church, Episcopal here, is expected to arrive in Twin Falls with Mrs. Nissen from Boise next Saturday to enter upon his work as rector of this parish.

Mr. Nissen has been in charge of the religious educational work of the Episcopal church in Idaho for the past year, with headquarters in Boise, and during the Christmas season, he conducted services in the church here.

He is a graduate of Dartmouth college and of the Episcopal theological school at Cambridge. He came to Idaho about a year ago at the invitation of Bishop Frank Hale Tourret, from Warren, Rhode Island.

Bonding Concern Moves to Settle Mutual's Claim

Adjustor and Auditor Confer with Attorney for Building and Loan Association

With a view to effecting a settlement of the Mutual Building and Loan association's claim against the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company for approximately $18,000 based on alleged wrongful acts on the part of former employes, Irwin E. Mellstrup, adjustor for the company, spent two days here in conference with H. C. Ruxel, attorney for the association.

Mr. Mellstrup left Wednesday evening returning to his headquarters in Salt Lake, with the statement that he would return here to resume negotiations with the association as soon as S. E. Sudbury, Salt Lake auditor retained by the company, had completed his survey of an audit revealing the alleged shortage which was made recently for the association by the Edwin A. Wilson company, Twin Falls.

DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION WAGES SUCCESSFUL DRIVE

Gratifying Results Attend Showing of Motion Picture Films Throughout County, Organization Head Says

A campaign to enroll additional members in Twin Falls County Dairymen's association is being conducted with success in connection with the presentation throughout the county this week of motion picture films illustrating various phases of the dairy industry, according to statement of Guslay Kunze, president of the association, following the showing of the film here Wednesday afternoon.

About 20 new members joined the association following the showing of the film here, and an equal number of new members were signed up at Buhl where the campaign was launched on Tuesday. The sign-up at Buhl, Mr. Kunze said, is considered especially satisfactory in view of the fact that a cheese factory there consumes a large amount of milk.

The films will be exhibited this afternoon in Piler, and this evening in Kimberly.
