

HUGHES OFFERS OBJECTIONS TO IMMIGRANT LAW

Forwards Protest from Rumania as to Quota Restrictions; Urges Measure Be Made Fair to All

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Secretary Hughes today outlined to congress further objections of the state department to details of pending immigration legislation and forwarded to the house committee a protest from the Rumanian legation which Chairman Johnson described as "Impudent."

In writing to Senator Colt, republican of Rhode Island, a chairman of the senate immigration committee, and to Mr. Johnson, Secretary Hughes urged that Congress should consider the effect of any "discrimination of which just complaint can be made." He called attention to the plan of the Johnson bill to substitute an "immigration" as a basis for future quota restrictions had already "evoked representations from Italy and Rumania," but did not amplify, except to say previously had expressed regarding the Japanese feature of the measure.

"Stresses Fairness."

"I desire," said Mr. Hughes' letter to Senator Colt, "to make no suggestions as to the basis of the quotas further than to state that I believe that a basis will be found that will not involve any discrimination of which just complaint can be made."

In his letter to Representative Johnson, Secretary Hughes said the Johnson bill as now framed, while designed to carry out recommendations of President Harding for avoiding discrimination of immigrants, would not in fact meet the Harding suggestions. Under certain conditions American consuls could refuse immigration certificates to be continued, although they had knowledge that the immigrants would have to be excluded upon arrival in America. Approved suggestions for using passport visas and immigration certificates to simplify consular work.

"It seems to me," said Mr. Hughes, "that it is very undesirable to pass a law generally understood to accomplish something which as a matter of fact, it does not accomplish. If it is the purpose of Congress that there should be a thorough examination of prospective immigrants in the (American) consulates to ascertain, as far as possible whether they are subject to exclusion under the immigration law and that the consuls should have authority to refuse immigration certificates to those who appear to be subject to exclusion, I shall, of course, be glad to meet with the committee for the purpose of formulating the necessary amendments to the bill."

EDITOR RESIGNS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 (AP)—Rollin C. Eberhart, editor of the American issue, tonight submitted his resignation as editor to the board of directors of the Anti-Bulgeon League of New York, declaring that he could not, "consistent with my conscience," certify that all was now well with the league following the appointment as successor to William H. Anderson, former state superintendent, of Arthur J. Davis, former head of the Massachusetts league.

Cox Is Thinking of Entering Race for Presidency Again

Democratic Candidate in 1920 Consents to Use of His Name in Party's National Convention

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 20 (AP)—James M. Cox, democratic presidential candidate in 1920 and former governor of Ohio, contemplates entering the race for the presidency again this year, it developed here today.

Twelve blank declarations, bearing the signature of Mr. Cox, giving his consent to Cleveland delegates to the democratic national convention to use his name, were received here today by Thomas H. Branden, treasurer of the democratic Cuyahoga county executive committee.

The blanks were accompanied by a letter in which Mr. Cox, chairman of the democratic executive committee, Columbus, Ohio, was signed by Marie E. McCurry, Mr. Durlin's secretary.

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 20 (AP)—Former Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, tonight told a representative of the Miami Herald that he had agreed to use his name as a candidate for president on a declaration of candidacy, received at headquarters of the Cuyahoga county democratic executive committee.

Mr. Cox said that a few days ago he received a letter from former Governor James E. Campbell saying that the democratic Ohio committee desired to present his (Cox) name to the convention as their choice for president.

Wants Pictures of Free-Climbing Fish; Will Wager $25,000

Former Mayor of Chicago Undertakes New Venture in South Sea Islands

CHICAGO, Feb. 20 (AP)—That there are fish that climb trees in the South Sea Islands is so firmly believed by William H. Thompson, former mayor of Chicago, that he has embarked on a motion picture expedition, it was learned today with the incorporation of his South Sea research company, at P. H. Ingfield.

The former mayor has offered to wager $25,000 that he can obtain films of the climbing fish and if he is successful he is confident the company will be a financial success. In connection with the incorporation of the company the former mayor has arranged to send an expedition to the South Sea Islands to have the films made.

FEAR FRANC MAY GO STILL LOWER

Paris Editor Sees Gloomy Future if Exchange Rate Decline is Not Halting

PARIS, Feb. 20 (AP)—"Can the franc fall like the mark?" is the query in a large type heading the first article in La Liberté today, being the first time that such a possibility has been placed bluntly before the public by a newspaper outside of the communist organs.

The article hastens to say that such a question is a scandalous and impious utterance, but is one which everybody is asking himself. The franc, it says, now is where the German mark was in October, 1919, when the pound sterling was worth about 100 marks. In less than a year, the pound was worth 300 marks, 10 months after that 300 marks, and then in three months later it went to 1,000 because of unlimited inflation.

La Liberté declares if the slightest inflation is admitted the franc is doomed to follow the mark, adding that it is not enough to increase the country's receipts, as there is a limit to such an increase, but the outlay must be reduced and Mussolini's example of stopping waste and parliamentary democracy must be followed.

Sinclair, Arriving Home, Is Willing to Talk About Everything But Oil Lease

CARTER PERMIT CANCELLED BY OFFICIAL ORDER

Dispute Over Conduct of Work at Tomb of King Tut Ends Abruptly; Refuse to Submit an Apology

CAIRO, Egypt, Feb. 20 (AP)—The dispute between the Egyptian government and Howard Carter over the conduct of the work on Tut-ankhamen's tomb was suddenly terminated today by a ministerial order cancelling the license of Countess Carnarvon, under which Mr. Carter was operating. It is believed here that this action ends Mr. Carter's connection with the most wonderful of all Egyptian archaeological discoveries unless, as has been intimated, there is recourse to legal procedure.

The ministerial order after stating recent events which already have been published in detail, describes Mr. Carter's action in closing the tomb and abandoning the work as a grave infraction of the obligation assumed by him. Moreover, it contends that, as Mr. Carter himself has avowed, it is impossible to disregard the damage caused thus to the government, the right to cancel the license.

This measure was further induced says the order by Carter's constant disregard of the authority and rights of the Egyptian antiquities service and by his published letter of February 3 in which he openly denied the rights of the state over the antiquities discovered.

The minister of public works said today that Mr. Carter's telegram of February 19 demanding an apology from the Egyptian government and also making other allegations, made a compromise impossible and in the presence of such an attitude the ministry had no alternative but to take the course decided on today. He also admitted that Mr. Carter had started legal proceedings the first hearing of which will be February 23, claiming 50 percent of the treasure discovered which the minister declared is totally contrary to the agreement.

IDAHO WEATHER
Thursday: Fair.

THEY DO SAY IT'S NEVER TOO LATE

Discusses the Weather, Horse Racing, Gas Prices in Europe and Politics, But Wants Time for Other Opinions

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 (AP)—Harry F. Sinclair arrived from the West President Harding today, smilingly willing to discuss the weather, international politics and horse races, the gasoline business in Europe, the high gallop of Albin—everything but oil and the Toot-Do.

As his ship, already delayed by blizzards and heavy seas, touched quarantine and lay there for several hours waiting for the quarantine to life and the fog to clear, he met reporters and photographers who swarmed aboard with handbills all around and a prepared statement.

He, with Mr. Sinclair, M. V. Baldwin, his confidential secretary, and Colonel J. B. Simpson, vice-president of Sinclair Consolidated, were dining when the newspaper men went him word they'd like to hear what he had to say about the "Tutank Dome affair."

Declines to Talk.

"On account of my absence from home for several weeks," Mr. Sinclair said, "I'm not entirely familiar with what has happened in connection with the ancient investigation of the great find of naval reserve number 3 to the 'Mellon' Oil company. Until such time as I may be able to familiarize myself with what occurred I do not wish to make any comment."

Before submitting to questioning Mr. Sinclair turned himself over to photographers and posed for a score of still and movie cameras—always smiling or laughing. At last a cameraman said "Look serious for just one picture," Mr. Sinclair straightened himself, planting his cane firmly on the deck and frowning.

"I want my committee face," he said. "I'm going to pitch a quote for one picture. But he wouldn't get up 'close' to the camera. 'For that would be cheating,' he said. Colonel Simpson adding "and sufficient grounds for a congressional investigation."

"First source, I'll go to Washington," Mr. Sinclair said later. "I'm here and ready if they want me to."

Both Sinclair and Colonel Simpson pleaded almost total ignorance of recent Tutank Dome developments and confessed an eagerness to get all the details. They had heard of Mr. Donnan's resignation.

"And what about Roosevelt and Mellon?" asked Colonel Simpson.

He also asked many questions about (Continued on Page 3, Col. 1, 2)

New York Governor Holds Officers to Enforce Dry Laws

Responsibility for Enforcement Laid Directly on Shoulders of Executives

ALBANY, N.Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—The problem of enforcing the federal prohibition laws was laid squarely upon the shoulders of law enforcement officials of each county of the state by Governor Alfred Smith, in an address tonight at a conference of the officers of the prohibition enforcement laws.

Six counties of the state were chosen directly by the governor with having made little or no attempt to increase their staffs of enforcement officers since the prohibition laws went into effect and these six were selected, he declared, because they lie either along the Canadian border or over which the largest amount of illicit liquor now enters New York state.

VET CHIEF HITS LETTER SCHEME

National Legion Commander Slaps Employers' Plan to Coerce Their Employees

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Charges that employers' corporations which he said, "are still known as the Mellon interests," were being "coerced" into writing letters to members of congress in opposition to a soldiers' bonus were made in an address, here tonight by John R. Quinn, national commander of the American Legion, before the National Press club.

He further asserted that through these channels the Mellon fortune is being used in part, "to pay off" propaganda against the bonus.

Mr. Quinn read a letter which he said was addressed to Captain Knowlton, a member of the United States Anti-Bulgeon League, by H. J. Rust, president of the Koppers company of Pittsburgh, in which the latter said he hoped to make a substantial contribution to your treasury through George Davison, who, the letter said, was raising a fund for the legions.

Both Mr. Rust and Mr. Davison, who is vice-president of the Oil Corporation of Pittsburgh, are "business associates of Andrew W. Mellon," Mr. Quinn asserted, adding, however, that "the corporation of Mellon & Co. severed his connections with all private enterprises."

The Legion commander read another letter from an employer of the Chicago By-Products Coke company, which he said enclosed a copy of a form letter of that corporation to its employees, with instructions for its forwarding to them, the employees' letter said, "to tell their representatives in congress certain things."

EASTERN PACKER SAYS COMPETITION ACTIVE

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 (AP)—Active competition between Armour and Company and Morris and Company is still going on, despite the merger of the two concerns, George Franklin, president of the National Packing company of Pittsburgh, testified today at the hearing called to determine whether the merger created a monopoly in the meat-packing industry. He declared there was no "friendliness" among the packers and no possibility of their combining to force prices.

SLIGHT HOPE HELD OUT FOR GREENE'S RECOVERY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Slight hope was held out tonight for the recovery of Senator Frank E. Greene of Vermont. After showing a slight improvement early today, attending surgeons, who have performed two operations on the senator since he was struck down by a bullet fired during a battle between revenue agents and suspected bootleggers last Friday night, said his condition had taken a critical turn during the day. He was said to be growing gradually weaker.

VANDERLIP IS DEFENDANT IN $800,000 SUIT

Joint Owners of Marion Newspaper File Suit in Federal Court for Damages as Result of Retired Banker's Charge

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 (AP)—Roy D. Moore and Louis H. Brush, joint owners of the Marion, Ohio, Star, today filed suit in federal court against Frank E. Vanderlip, retired banker, for $800,000 damages, alleging slander and libel as the result of the bankers' purported utterances in an address at Oshkosh on February 12.

The suit says that Mr. Vanderlip, "wickedly and maliciously" charged Brush and Moore with bribing Warren G. Harding, then president of the United States, to fall to perform certain of his official duties as president, and that the bribe consisted in the payment to former President Harding of $500,000 in the purchase of the Marion Star, which was more than twice its fair value.

PORTERS GET RAISE.

Demands Action by Congress on Bill for Soldier Bonus

New England Representative Says Settlement Can Not Be Delayed; Would Offer Loan and Insurance Plan

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Early action by congress on soldiers' bonus legislation in the house today by Representative Andrew H. Reiter, Massachusetts, who declared "this belated settlement cannot and will not be much longer delayed," and who was a former assistant secretary of the treasury, advocated passage of his adjusted compensation bill which would confine the bonus to those who served as called men during the world war.

In addition to eliminating former officers as beneficiaries the bill offers to the members of the Army and Navy in that it substitutes the privilege of loans from incorporated banks and trust companies for farm and home "aid and government" loans. It also eliminates the option of vocational training and would make paid-up insurance policies its most attractive feature.

Such policies would be payable to veterans at the end of 45 years or to their beneficiaries and heirs in the event of death and would be available as collateral for bank loans.

Mr. Reiter estimated that enactment of his bill would not cost the government more than $100,000 in government funds in any of the first four years and would not cost on the average more than $35,000,000 annually for the 20 succeeding years.

MEAT INSPECTOR PROPOSES PLAN TO PAY OWN WAY

Dr. McPherson Would Assess Charges Against Dealers and Relieve Taxpayers at Large of $150 Monthly Expense

A schedule of charges to be paid by dealers for inspection of meat, prepared by Dr. W. C. McPherson, meat and dairy inspector, with a view to making his division of the municipal administration self-supporting, was submitted to the regular meeting Monday evening and referred to City Attorney A. J. Myers for investigation with regard particularly to practicability of attempting to enforce collection of such charges.

The inspector's schedule was offered as an answer to the commission's problem of doing away with a drain on the current expense fund occasioned by assessment of cost of meat inspection against the taxpayers as a whole. It contemplates return to the policy in effect for some months past, of the adoption by the former administration of the present meat and dairy inspection regulations.

Apportion Charges.
Under the inspector's schedule the principal meat dealers would pay an annual fee of $50 and smaller dealers $25 each. In addition there would be collected a fee of 50 cents for each beef animal and 10 cents for each hog or pig inspected. It is estimated that the total revenue from these sources would approximate $120 per month, thus meeting the present inspection costs.

The commission's action Monday evening was influenced by Commissioner S. B. Allen's arrangement of methods employed by county authorities in dealing with the epidemic of measles, which was heavily assessed against the taxpayers and been attended by several fatalities. Commissioner Allen declared that quarantine has been loosely enforced, and asked if it were not within the province of the municipal administration to take measures for safeguarding public health.

Brown Opps on Payroll.
An offer by "Doctor" G. H. Brown to rid the city of dogs without license tags made in connection with his complaint against various disturbing factors, including barking dogs, roving about the streets and shouting, especially on Sunday, was accepted by the commission, and Brown was authorized to enter upon the duties of municipal dogcatcher either in person or by proxy. Brown told the commissioners he was sure he could more effectively work toward reducing the number of excess dogs than had municipal employees, but did not volunteer his services toward abatement of barking or roller skating on sidewalks.

Way Out for Nataratorium.
C. N. Lamborn and M. E. Gamble of the Twin Falls nataratorium, appearing again before the commission in regard to their problem of obtaining water supply for the coming season, were told that favorable consideration would be given a proposition under which the city would install a water line to the city limits, provided the expense involved could be bought within the budget limits. They were advised to obtain right of way for such supply line and were promised a definite answer at next week's meeting of the commission.

It was estimated that the expense to the city of extending the supply line to the city limits would approximate $500, which, it was shown, is approximately the amount paid by the nataratorium for a single season's water supply. The nataratorium would continue the use from the city limits to the pool, a distance of about 2500 feet.

The nataratorium heretofore has obtained its water supply through the city supplying the county general hospital, which has been rebuilt and which, according to decision rendered in court here recently, is county property.

Reports on Cash Balances.
Statement relative to cash balances at the end of the past month was submitted to the commission by City Clerk J. L. Mee, showing total of cash on hand January 31 amounting to $65,415, against balance on hand December 31 in the amount of $56,480. Revenues received during the past month amounted to $107,145, and $402,000 of clerk's office, and $467,000 of daily bank balances. Warrants were ordered drawn in payment of claims against the city in the aggregate of $541,121, in addition to payment of $110,000 on account of city maintenance charges assessed against lands within the city limits to which the city holds water stock. This claim was reduced in the sum of $203,778 by reason of representations made by the city administrator that the city did not hold stock for lands against the assessment was made, although these lands were included within the city limits.

Reports Discovery of Oil at Rockland

Telephone Communication Brings Word of Bringing in of Well Near American Falls

Heavy paraffin base petroleum has been encountered in a well drilling Valley Oil company well now drilling two miles north of Rockland, Idaho, south of American Falls, and indications point to development of a heavy flow of oil, according to word received here Monday by D. A. Drake, vice president of the company, in a telephone conversation with agents of the company at Rockland.

Enthusiasm was running high at Rockland and vicinity over the bringing in of the well. Mr. Drake said his informant declared.

The Rockland Valley company, Mr. Drake stated, is capitalized at $150,000 and its stock is fully subscribed by 80 stockholders. There are no stockholders in Twin Falls.

COLLECTIONS AT HOSPITAL SLOW

Financial Operations of County Institution Set Forth in Annual Report

Earned revenues of the Twin Falls county general hospital during the past year, in addition to income of $20,421.10 from taxes and interest, amounted to $49,780.00, making a total of $69,901.10, according to the annual report submitted Saturday to the board of county commissioners by Miss S. A. Johanson, superintendent.

Expenses of the institution during the year totaled $61,730.00, including $406.57 for care of indigents and indigent sick, and $431.56 for installation of a new water supply line.

Classified Accounts.
While the earned revenues for the year exceeded $48,000, according to the report, the year was outstanding January 1, 1924, for services rendered during the preceding year, a total of $17,604.04. Approximately one-half of this amount, the superintendent estimates, is uncollectible; one-half probably will be paid in the fall, and collection of the balance is "doubtful unless collection is forced." The total of the institution's outstanding bills for services rendered is established at $16,885.40.

Outstanding bills amounting to $13,493.75 were turned over to a collection agency last June, the report said, and the amount collected through this agency during the ensuing six months was $1,000.

"A surprising percentage of people believe it is right to let the county wait," the report says.

One Thousand Patients.
During the year, according to the report, 1000 patients were received as patients at the hospital. This number is about 100 less than that of the preceding year, and the reason, the report suggests, is that "1923 was an unusually healthy year. Each patient spent an average of little less than 10 days in the hospital."

During the year there were born at the hospital a total of 88 babies, 46 boys and 42 girls. One pair of twins was listed.

Fifty-four deaths occurred at the institution during the year. The death list is classified as follows: Accidents, 10; medical patients, 18; suicide, 1; operative, 23; following childbirth, 2.

A total of 619 operations were performed, 338 being major, and 281 minor operations.

Storage Room Needed.
Among the present requirements of the institution, as set forth in the report, is need for a larger storeroom for home canned fruits which may be caned in the hospital kitchen, thus adding in the prevention of waste of the region's abundant crops.

It is suggested also that provision for a tennis court would assist in solving the problem of maintaining the staff of nurses.

ROAD CONDITION BETTER
Resumption of Traffic Over Stage Highway Between Filer and Buhl Within Few Days Is Promised

Traffic may be resumed over the stage highway between Filer and Buhl within the next day or two, according to assurance given Monday evening by W. Watkins, resident engineer for the Idaho highway department, under whose supervision the road is being repaired on a bad spot in the road between these points at which teams and workmen have been stationed for several days to assist motorists.

Automobile bus service between Filer and Buhl, which has been suspended for several days because of this bad place in the highway, will be resumed today, according to announcement by Jack Personius. The stages will not attempt to negotiate the highway between Filer and Buhl for a time, but will go by way of Clover Stage service has been maintained without interruption between Buhl and Boise.

TWIN FALLS TO MAKE BID FOR TOURIST TRAVEL

Chamber of Commerce at Work to Divert Greater Share of Motorists Through This Region

Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce is convinced of the value of tourist travel to the community and, through its road department of which C. E. Lind, its chairman, is taking steps to divert through Twin Falls this year a generous share of travel over western highways that has been increasing by leaps and bounds.

One of the factors that is expected to make for largely increased volume of tourist travel through this region during the coming season is the national conference of the Woodmen of the World to be held in Yellowstone national park. It is expected that thousands of persons from California and the southwest will attend this conference and effort will be directed toward turning through Twin Falls the stream of traffic, as well as that of travel originating in the east and continuing to the western coast at the close of the conference.

Word has come to the chamber of commerce that the tide of immigration is turning back from California and that thousands of persons now in the Golden state will, as soon as weather and road conditions favor, lead a stream of newcomers to Idaho.

Through its roads department the chamber of commerce has set about to make two objectives the first the improvement of existing roads, and the second is directing travelers' attention to these roads.

In line with the latter purpose the chamber of commerce has itself affiliated with and induced a number of local business concerns to have direct representation of the Western Good Roads and Tourist Travel association, through which it is expected a heavy volume of motor tourist travel between Los Angeles and Yellowstone national park will be diverted this season from Nevada and Colorado to Idaho, Twin Falls and onward over the Old Oregon Trail.

World Gain New Friends.
In this undertaking the association and its members will distribute this year thousands of road maps and tourist literature. The chamber of commerce is not only endeavoring to bring to Twin Falls a larger share of tourist travel, but, through its tourist park committee, it is laying plans for accommodating visiting travelers in a manner that will win new friends for the community.

Indicative of the value of tourist travel in dollars and cents reference was made recently at the chamber of commerce to reports showing that tourist travel through Idaho in 1923 amounted to approximately $42,000,000, and that Salt Lake, which this year is making a strong bid for tourist travel, entertained last year 376,000 tourists who spent there approximately $3,760,000.

Important Change In School Plan is Effected by Board

Office of Supervisor of Elementary Grades Heretofore Held by Miss Elizabeth Showell is Abolished

At a called meeting of the board of the Twin Falls school district held Thursday afternoon, decision was made to abolish the position of supervisor of elementary grades heretofore held by Miss Elizabeth Showell, and to re-create the old position of principal of the high school, at which point D. Bloom, recently elected superintendent, will serve as grade supervisor in addition to performing the duties of superintendent. Selection of a principal has not yet been made, according to Mrs. Jane Cuyven, Scott, secretary of the board.

The matter of a possible change in the organization of the high school to provide for a return to the old two-year junior and four-year senior courses, as against the present three-year junior and three-year senior plan, was discussed but was not favored by the board.

Those present at the meeting were: C. E. McClain, chairman; Mrs. Scott, secretary; E. N. Foley, W. H. Weaver and James Fitzgerald. K. B. Peters, chairman of the board, was not present in California.

Ernest D. Bloom, superintendent-elect, expressed himself as warmly endorsing the present plan of organization and highly commended the work of Superintendent Mitchell as school executive.

Vote upon the action taken stood three to two. Mr. Scott, Mr. Foley and Mr. Weaver voting in the affirmative, with Messrs. Fitzgerald and McClain opposed.

Another $50,000 to go to Beet Growers

Sugar Company to Distribute Third Participating Payment for Last Season's Crop

Approximately $50,000, representing the Amalgamated Sugar company's third participating payment for beet growers last season will be distributed today among beet growers of the Twin Falls district, according to announcement made by James Seely, manager of the company here, Tuesday evening. In the present distribution growers will receive 75 cents per ton for their beets. In addition to the amount heretofore received, bringing the total up to $7.50 per ton. It seems likely, Mr. Seely said, that two additional participating payments for last season's beets will be distributed.

Contract for growing beets this season are being signed rapidly. Mr. Seely stated, and the total acreage under contract this season already is as great as the whole area devoted to the crop in this district last season. Adoption of the new contract which grows and manufactures beets for the profit on a 50-50 basis this season is regarded as an important factor making for rapid sign-up. Under the new contract, it is estimated, growers will receive about 63 cents per ton more for their beets this season than they did last.

"It looks like production this season will be sufficient," Mr. Seely stated.

MUTUAL STARTS CRIMINAL ACTION

Former Officials of Building and Loan Association Accused of Embezzling $17,992.68

Charged jointly with K. S. Peters, former manager, with embezzling $17,992.68 from the Mutual Building and Loan association, Frank G. Lechlester, secretary of the association, entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned Saturday before Judge O. P. Duggan, in probate court here, and was admitted to $1000 bond. Peters is reported to be in California on a business trip.

The alleged embezzlement, according to the complaint filed Saturday forenoon, took place during the period Peters and Lechlester served the association in official capacities, constituting from January 6, 1921, to November, 1923. The signed by the association.

Before instituting the criminal action against the former officials Saturday, the association directors some weeks ago filed suit against Peters and Lechlester on bonds issued by Lechlester as secretary to recover approximately $18,000 alleged to have been lost to the association as a result of alleged wrongful acts on the part of Peters and Lechlester.

Negotiations for settlement with the bond concern are said to be continuing.

At about the same time the association instituted suit against the bonding concern, Peters and Lechlester, through their attorneys, Roy L. Black, Boise and Homer C. Miller, brought suit against the association for approximately $121,000 damages.

BONDING CONCERN WOULD GO INTO FEDERAL COURT

Petition for Removal from Local Tribunal Is Filed in Suit Brought by Building and Loan Association

Removal to the United States district court in Boise of the suit of the Mutual Building and Loan company against the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company to recover approximately $18,000 on the bond issued for F. G. Lechlester, former secretary of the association, will be sought by the bonding concern which Friday filed notice of application for such removal in the district court here.

Hearing on the petition for removal of the federal court was set for Saturday, March 8.

Removal is asked on the grounds that the action, which involves more than $3000, is between citizens of different states, the building and loan association, being incorporated under Idaho laws and the bonding concern under laws of Maryland.

Action of life-bonding concern in this regard does not affect continuing negotiations for settlement between it and the building and loan association, H. C. Black, attorney for the association, said Friday evening.

THE GUMPS—"CHARITY, SWEET CHARITY"

BOURBONS VOTE FOR AMENDING INCOME RATES

Democrats and Insurgents Continue Drive on Revenue Bill; Republicans Plan to Defeat Garner Proposals

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—House democrats, flustered by their victory in the fight on the income tax rates, continued their drive on the revenue bill today, gaining two important amendments.

Republican insurgents, who made possible the substitution of the Garner income rates yesterday for the Mellon schedule, joined again with a practically solid democratic vote today to make stock dividend profits subject to regular income taxes rather than to the 12-1/2 per cent capital asset tax, and to extend the provisions of the earned income tax reduction.

Republicans continued to put up a fight, however, and Representative Longworth, the party leader, declared hope was still held of gaining a majority to amend the Garner plan when the bill is brought up for passage, declaring several republicans who voted yesterday for the Garner plan had made indirect overtures indicating a desire to vote for a republican measure.

Want Compromise.

A vote on the tentative compromise advanced yesterday by Mr. Longworth and carrying a 35-1/2 per cent maximum surtax rate with the Mellon normal income rates, was not possible yesterday after adoption of the Garner plan. Republicans are now studying preliminary rules with a view to defeating the Garner plan and gaining an opportunity to present their compromise. A clear-cut majority on several preliminary votes would be necessary, this admitted, to make such a move successful.

Suggests Final Vote.

Reading of the measure section by section, each paragraph being open for amendment, proceeded rapidly today under the constant urge of Chairman Green of the ways and means committee, in charge of the bill on the floor. When the house adjourned such progress had been made that Representative Garner of Texas, in charge of the democratic fight on the floor, suggested an agreement be reached to bring the measure up for a final vote on passage by next Tuesday. Chairman Green indicated he thought an earlier vote might be set, but Mr. Garner replied that it be voted on not before Monday, indicating a desire to make sure a full party presence which might not be possible on Saturday because of weekend absences.

Numerous Suggestions.

Although numerous amendments were offered only those submitted by the leaders received any substantial support. The democrats stood almost solidly behind both the major amendments adopted, which were proposed by Representative Garner. Other changes were on both sides, not members of the ways and means committee, which framed the bill, who sought private amendments which the committee had considered impossible. He declared at one point, in seeking to limit debate, that "you are making a joke of the measure if you continue such actions."

HANSEN

HANSEN—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Hansen at their farm home east of town on Thursday, February 14.

Mrs. H. M. Smith, organized the Hansen Bridge club on Thursday afternoon. All members were present, except Mrs. McCoy of Twin Falls and Mrs. Griswold of Buhl.

The box social and entertainment given by the Young People's society on Friday evening was a success in every particular. Each number on the program was heartily enjoyed, and after the program Arthur Scott auctioned the prizes, about $100 in all, which netted the sum of $80. The money will be used to help defray the expenses of decorating the interior of the church and furnishing the seats.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morford of Jerome, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis east of town, Saturday evening, and Sunday.

Charles Culvert was numbered among the sick list on Saturday and Sunday.

Ida Klingman entertained the little folks belonging to her Sunday school class Friday afternoon.

Mr. Scott's Booster Boys will have a party in the basement of the church, Friday evening. Preceding the regular talent of the evening the regular election of officers will be held.

The following persons were installed as the new officers of the Epworth League on Sunday evening: President, Mrs. McCoy; first vice president, Elvin Krum; second vice president, Theo Scott; third vice president, Bernice Kirkpatrick; secretary, Burton Hill; treasurer, Rita Bower.

Mrs. E. P. Walker of Murtaugh, visited the latter part of the week with Mrs. Gus Stohl.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hubbard has been quite dangerous by ill with measles the past two weeks.

The pupils of the seventh and eighth grades perpetrated a most appreciated surprise on their teacher, Mrs. Blakeley on Thursday afternoon in the form of a Valentine party. During the recess period while the teacher was distracted outside the young ladies filled a long table with cakes, sandwiches, pickles and salads and a generous supply of candy, nuts and popcorn, furnished by the boys. After the postman delivered 500 valentines to the 25 pupils the young ladies acted as hostesses in a very able manner and with delicious focus which was sent over by Mrs. Pledger, the cat was served. The pupils in the fifth and sixth grades also enjoyed a party which was given by their teacher, Mrs. Lewis.

Mrs. Stella Hughes and children are convalescing from the mumps. Alma Denning, formerly of Hansen, visited friends in town over Sunday.

A Business Story

Rich in meaning to every motor car buyer

How Studebaker reached the heights.

THE story of Studebaker has been told by many men in many ways. Now let us tell it to you.

Studebaker growth has in late years been Motorodom's sensation. Sales have mounted until last year 145,000 buyers of quality cars selected Studebakers. They paid over $200,000,000 for them.

All must realize that a new situation has arisen in high-grade cars. You who are interested should now analyze the reasons.

72-year traditions

The Studebaker principles have become traditions in their 72 years of existence. They have never wavered. In all changing conditions they have brought new luster to that name.

Men come and go, but a name like this becomes a heritage to foster and enhance. That's what we've done — we who have that name in keeping for a time.

Studebaker has always been a leader. For two generations it led in horse-drawn vehicles, now products of the past.

Most of you remember Studebaker carriages — queens of their time. They were used by multitudes of people who loved quality and style.

When motor cars succeeded them, Studebaker became the logical leader in that field. Any other place would have been an anomaly.

The only way to the top

A concern of this age has one fact ingrafted in its fiber. The only way to leadership is through super-service.

The leader must excel in all you seek — in quality, in beauty and in value. There is no other way to the top. Every stretch of the road is strewn with wrecks of those who tried another.

What others say — not what you say — determines your place in the long run. In every field of endeavor one must accept that fact.

We had the money, the plants, the prestige. We had the incentive of Studebaker traditions. In time we secured the men.

We told those men to build for us the utmost in fine motor cars, regardless of all costs. We pledged them our good faith and our resources.

The cost was $50,000,000

We built new factories — modern plants. We fitted them with new equipment — 12,500 up-to-date ma-

15% to conform to those standards exactly.

We invested $3,000,000 in a drop forge plant to make all our own drop forgings, $10,000,000 in body plants to build all bodies to our standards.

We employed 1,200 skilled inspectors to see that all standards were fulfilled. There are 30,000 inspections on Studebaker cars during manufacture, before they go out from the factory.

That's the whole story

That's about the whole story. We simply followed the never-changing Studebaker principles. We gave to our buyers the utmost — values they could not match. Then they turned by tens of thousands to Studebaker cars.

Over 750,000 of these cars have gone out. Their performance has developed a demand for 150,000 per year.

Every increase in sales brought a lowered cost, which we promptly gave our buyers. Today these fine cars are offering values which no rival can approach.

They have made us the world's largest builders of quality cars.

We deserve a hearing

Now we deserve a hearing. All who consider a car at $1,000 or over should learn what Studebaker offers. That in fairness to yourself and us. Check one by one the advantages we offer. You'll find them by the score.

Remember that 145,000 who did that last year chose a Studebaker car. There are nine chances in ten that you'll do it.

Consider our record, our accomplishments, our policies and principles. Consider that we have $300,000,000 at stake on satisfying men like you. Don't buy a car in this high-grade class without seeing what we give.

Find Out Why

People paid over $200,000,000 last year for Studebaker cars.

The result is now a demand for 150,000 per year.

Over $50,000,000 in modern plants and equipment to build the finest line cars.

One of these cars, built in 1918, has run 475,000 miles. That means 80 years of ordinary service. In December this car made the trip from coast to coast.

Of the $50,000,000 in our plants and equipment, $32,000,000 has been invested in the past five years. So it represents the last word in efficient manufacture.

We established a Department of Methods and Standards to fix for every Studebaker detail the maximum of quality.

We created a Bureau of Research and Experiment, employing 125 skilled men. They make 500,000 tests per year to maintain our supremacy.

They fixed countless standards, including 35 separate formulas for steels. Then on the most important steels we offered makers a bonus of

Hope Negotiations Now Under Way Between Nations Will Patch Up Breach Caused by War Operations

BUCHAREST, Feb. 20 (AP)—Negotiations are in progress here which, it is hoped, will remove the last obstacle to friendly relations between Bulgaria and Rumania, broken off as a result of Bulgarian operations in Rumania during the World War.

The question of restitution by Bulgaria for war regulations in Rumania during the war is still pending and proving more difficult of solution.

ELKINS ADMITS DEALINGS WITH SINCLAIR FIRM

West Virginia Senator Willing to Tell What He Knows of Oil Transactions; War on Daugherty Grows Spirited

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Announcement by Senator Davis Elkins, republican, West Virginia, that he has had transactions in Sinclair oil stock furnished the one sensation today in the oil scandal.

Asserting that there was no law against one in his position buying and selling stock, Senator Elkins said he was perfectly willing to go before the oil committee and tell all about his transactions in this stock, which he said were much smaller than those in the case of several other companies.

The oil committee took an announcement of his public statement, but members said unofficially that he would not be invited to appear except on the public hearing, and then only after the completion of the audit of a number of brokerage firms now in progress both in Washington and New York.

Senator Elkins' statement revealed that he is the senator whose name appears on the records of J. P. Benard and Company, a New York stock brokerage firm, which was presented to the committee yesterday in executive session.

Coincidentally with Senator Elkins' statement, the oil committee conferred behind closed doors with Harry Payne Whitney, New York financier, and friend of Elkins, who expressed entire willingness to have his business books examined by committee experts.

Sinclair May Testify

Unofficial word of the arrival of Mr. Sinclair at New York today from Europe reached the committee during the day, but Chairman Lenroot said he had received no communication from the oil magnate. He declined to say whether a subpoena would be issued for Mr. Sinclair's appearance, but some committee men said that since Mr. Sinclair had hastened his return from abroad to appear before the committee, they would not have available the first opportunity to do so.

While there is no present intention of having any more committee sessions until the public hearing is resumed next Monday, members said there might be developments meantime that would make necessary an earlier meeting.

Disclosing that the funds of the oil committee have become exhausted, Chairman Lenroot had the senate vote another $125,000 for the prosecution of the investigation. The appropriation measure was adopted without debate or opposition.

DISCUSS RESIGNATION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Pressure on President Coolidge to remove Attorney-General Daugherty was increased today by administration leaders in the senate House conference lasting for an hour and a half, Senators Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, and Pepper of Pennsylvania, advised the president of the growing insistence at the capitol that Mr. Daugherty should resign.

The result of the conference was not apparent. The senators refused to make any statement and White House officials were equally reticent.

Politics

Asked if he thought politics was playing any considerable part in the oil inquiry, Mr. Sinclair said: "Politics? Yes, I think so—some of it. Maybe a lot of it."

Mr. Sinclair asked if, perhaps, he had brought back the crown of Albania, which kingdom was reported some months ago to have offered him the throne, if he would discontinue his financial activities.

"Now, don't try to blow the lid off this interview," was the answer.

FARM BUREAU GETS FUND

County Commissioners Approve $3800 Appropriation for Maintenance of Agricultural Agents' Work

Twin Falls county commissioners Wednesday approved an appropriation of $3800 for maintenance of the county farm bureau and office of the county agricultural agent during the coming year. The appropriation is the same in amount as that granted by county board last year.

In announcing their approval of the appropriation, members of the county board stated that R. E. Broadard, who has served for three years as county agent, will continue in this position since his work seems to have been productive of much benefit and to have given general satisfaction.

TUCKER CONTENTS CITY DID NOT WIN METER SUIT

Former Mayor Allyn has Opp-Bill to Stricken and that Court Declare Repealed Ordinance Unreasonable

On the grounds that the city of Twin Falls and members of its present administration were "not the prevailing parties" in a suit instituted in district court by J. B. Tucker, former mayor, to restrain carrying out of contract for purchase of water meters to complete the municipal water distribution system, the former mayor Tuesday filed a motion asking that costs and disbursements of the city in this action be stricken from the record. The city had filed the memorandum showing its total disbursements in the case amounting to $3, which amount was paid as fee for filing its demurrer.

A temporary injunction obtained by the former mayor in this action was dissolved by Judge W. A. Babcock, who rendered his decision last week.

The former mayor also filed another motion requesting the court to adopt additional findings of fact and conclusions of law and "amend the proposed judgment" in the case by declaring that an ordinance fixing water rates in effect at the time the action was instituted be voided for the reason that it provided "unreasonable, exorbitant and unnecessary charge for water," and fixed the rates approximately 40 per cent too high.

This ordinance already has been repealed by adoption of another ordinance fixing the water rates approximately 10 per cent lower than they have ever been since the municipality came into possession of its waterworks system.

A few reserved seats for "Little Women" still at McGehee pharmacy. Tickets 60c and 25c—adv.

BURIED TREASURES

It is regarded in fiction as the normal thing for discoverers to quarrel over buried treasure. Life is true to fiction in regard to the greatest buried treasure ever unearthed—that of King Tutankhamen, among which the mummified king himself is the chief jewel.

Archaeology and government have fallen to fighting over the remains. Howard Carter, the American excavator and discoverer of the tomb, believes he has a right to half the treasure, and to a reasonable liberty of action in his operations. The Egyptian government, official custodian of the tomb, believes it has a right to boss the job and take everything in sight. Technically the quarrel is based on a legal interpretation. If the tomb is regarded as a "violated tomb," that is, a tomb broken into before its discovery by Carter, there is nothing legally sacred about it, and Carter may share his find with Egypt. If the tomb was discovered "intact," it is all Egypt's. Carter bases his claim on the circumstantial evidence that thieves had broken into the tomb many centuries ago. The government bases its claim on the fact that in spite of that evidence, the outer door was sealed when discovered, the seal having been replaced apparently by ancient governmental authorities who drove away the thieves before the latter had accomplished their purpose. It is a pretty case for a lawsuit.

It might be supposed that the Egyptian government, as a matter of decency, would share up with Carter, because if it had not been for him, the treasure might never have been found. On the other hand, Carter is an alien, and the tomb and its treasure are Egyptian, and the mummy itself may well be regarded with patriotic reverence as that of a celebrated Egyptian sovereign. Would any other country like to have foreigners digging up its historic personages, with all their funeral wealth, and carting them away? Suppose Egyptians started digging in Westminster abbey?

Meanwhile, King Tut sleeps on peacefully as ever. It doesn't worry him.

ANOTHER PEACE LEAGUE

Another peace organization has appeared in this country. It is called the American Youth League. It aims to unite the youth of the world in an understanding that will reduce international hatred and prejudice such as have caused wars in the past.

The organization is already international in scope. It appears to be foreign in origin. It is said to have three million members in Europe, all young people, with the number growing rapidly.

There is hope in any such movement as this. What old people think may be of small importance, because it is hard for them to imprint their ideas on a new age. The important thing is to have the rising generation developing the right ideas for itself, and getting ready to translate them into action. If millions of young men and

JUDGE OWL'S LETTER

By DADDY

(The phatnastor got a queer letter with no address on it except a picture of Judge Owl and his halow-gee. Jack and Janet take the letter to Judge Owl.)

CHAPTER IV.

A Talking Letter.

JACK and Janet looked in wonder at the queer letter they had found in the large envelope addressed to Judge Owl. Never had they seen a letter like it. Instead of writing on paper it was just a thick round loaf, marked with a fine line running around and around in a circle.

"Please read my letter for me," begged Judge Owl.

"No one could read that letter," declared Janet very positively. "It doesn't say anything. The fine line just runs around and around in a circle."

Jack was staring at the letter, trying to figure it out.

"That fine runs around and around like what does it run around like?"

Then Janet gave a squeal of joy. "I know," she cried. "It runs around and around like the line on a talking machine record. If this loaf were black it would be just like a record we play on our talking machine."

"For like is just what it does look like," declared Jack. "Perhaps this letter is not meant to be read. Perhaps it is a letter that is meant to be listened to. Let us try to listen to our talking machine."

"Whoa! That is the kind of a letter I like to get—a letter that is to be listened to. Instead of read it's to be played on a talking machine."

"Can you leave your job here at the barn long enough to go to the house to play this letter on the talking machine?" asked Janet.

"Whoa! Whoa! To be sure I can," hoisted Judge Owl. "I'll give a few hoos to scare all the mice and rats deep into their holes, and then I'll go with you. The mice and the rats will not dare to come out before I get back and then I can catch them for my supper."

So Judge Owl flew around the barn, giving such hoos that Jack and Janet covered their ears to keep out the terrifying sound. As for the mice and rats, they must have trembled in their holes.

Then the three set out for the homes of the children. When they got there

By a remarkable coincidence two of the most prominent figures in the struggle of the American colonists for independence, and later Presidents of the United States, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, died July 4, 1826, the fiftieth anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, of which they were signers. Adams died at Quincy, Mass., in his ninety-third year; while Jefferson died at Monticello, Albemarle county, Va., in his eighty-third year.

LAST CRIMINAL TRIAL OF COURT TERM IS BEGUN

Disposition of Case of Rock Creek Rancher Accused of Reckless Driving Will Clear Calendar; Basque Convicted

Trial in the last of the cases on the criminal calendar for the present term of district court here was begun Wednesday morning when a jury was impaneled to try the case of L. M. Van Eaton, Rock Creek, charged with driving an automobile in a reckless manner, willful and malicious, on Christmas eve. In a collision on Kimberly road, which figures in the evidence to be presented, Van Eaton himself and a young man riding in his car received minor wounds. Van Eaton has appeared to the district court from judgment of the probate court on conviction of the offense with which he is charged. He is represented by W. P. Guthrie and E. V. Larson, attorneys.

Convicted in Liquor Case
Trial in the Van Eaton case was begun after verdict had been returned by a jury which found Van Eaton, Basque proprietor of the Borekas lodge, guilty of illegal possession of liquor. He was required by the court to double the amount of his bail, bringing the total up to $500. Judgment on the verdict will be pronounced Saturday, Judge Babcock announced.

Seeks to Prove Alibi
Berri sought to establish an alibi and offered the testimony of several witnesses to show that he was in Clatskanie at the time of the alleged sale of liquor.

The verdict was signed by eight jurors. Members of the jury were: Drs. E. Potter, F. W. Mackey, George P. White, G. E. Thacker, H. P. Barker, C. L. Hart, L. C. Schneider, John Lundahl, E. S. Wood, J. F. Jewett, D. E. Ryan, and J. H. Wood.

Following are the jurors impaneled in the trial of the Van Eaton case: E. S. Wood, D. E. Ryan, H. P. Barker, G. E. Thacker, George P. White, C. L. Hart, L. C. Schneider, John Lundahl, E. S. Wood, J. F. Jewett, D. E. Ryan, and J. H. Wood.

McCullum and guardian of Alice and Robert Craven, is entitled to recover a claim amounting to $7500 for alleged violation of a contract for lease of a Main avenue building to the Diamond Hardware company, but, on the contrary, the hardware company should have judgment against the leaser for $5000 damages, according to an answer and cross-complaint filed in district court here Wednesday in the case of Craven against the Diamond Hardware company.

In its cross-complaint the hardware company alleges that the lease contract was rendered void through failure of the leaser to make necessary repairs in the building and that in the spring of 1923 the roof of the building blew off, causing damage to the hardware company's stock.

The answer and cross-complaint which was signed by G. K. Hunt, president of the hardware company, was filed by S. L. Hodge, attorney.
