

600 DEPUTIES ARE ADDED TO IDAHO FORCES

Means Sends More Men Into the Field to Guard Against Spread of Disease in This State by Auto Tourists.

BOISE, May 1 (AP)—More than 600 additional deputies of the state department of agriculture were commissioned today by Mark A. Means, commissioner, to aid in the state's fight to prevent the spread of foot and mouth disease from California to this state. These new deputies are officers and directors of all cattle, horse, sheep, bull, swine and cow testing associations of the state.

Commissioner Means is asking all these men to serve without pay and to give them authority to stop that all persons or vehicles of any description entering the state from California receive proper clearance papers before being admitted.

PRIZE COW KILLED.

SACRAMENTO, May 1 (AP)—The owners of Tillie Alcatraz, famous Yolo county dairy cow, killed by a firing squad in Los Angeles today because she had foot and mouth disease, will receive $750 in compensation for her death, it was stated today by G. H. Hecke, director of the state department of agriculture.

Tillie was known as the greatest milk cow in the world and was at one time worth $50,000.

Although the cow had had calves which sold for as high as $40,000, it was said by men in Sacramento that she was no longer a breeder and that her value at the time of her death was principally an advertising and sentimental one. At the time of her death no insurance was carried on her life, a policy of $25,000 having been allowed to expire.

With Tillie Alcatraz there were killed other members of the Hotsack dairy herd in Los Angeles, said to be the most valuable in the world and including other animals a bull said to be worth $27,000. The average price to be received by the owner of the herd is said to be $427.40 a head, Hecke said.

Varied Events Mark Passing of May Day; Mine Strike Called

Two Hundred Workers in Colorado Walk Out; Communists and Police Clash in Berlin; Quiet in French Capital.

AGUIRRE, Colo., May 1 (AP)—May day was marked in Colorado with the beginning of a strike here of 200 coal miners who had been employed in the Broadhead mine of the Temple Fuel company. The mine shut down as a result.

The miners last night unanimously voted to suspend work following the failure of the state industrial commission to interfere with the effective date of a 15 per cent wage reduction offered by Frank R. Wood, operator of the mine.

MEXICO CITY—May day was observed in Mexico City and throughout Mexico by a virtually complete suspension of industry and business. Railway traffic was halted for five minutes at noon, no newspapers were published and street car service was suspended.

BERLINS AND POLICE CLASH.

BERLIN—Several communistic demonstrations in Berlin this afternoon resulted in clashes with the police who throughout the city were armed with emergency rifles. In one clash two demonstrators were shot down and one of them is expected to die.

LONDON—A dispatch to the Exchange-Telegraph from Athens says it is officially announced that 12 civilians and five soldiers were wounded in the May day demonstration today. The announcement says the communists started the trouble by firing on the soldiers.

QUIT IN PARIS.

PARIS—Today was the quietest May day since the world war throughout France. The taxi drivers were the only strikers in Paris, while in northern France, Alsace-Lorraine and the Lorraine mining, metallurgical and manufacturing districts were practically normal. The day was a safe, sane, ordinary day.

Thousands Present at Public Rites For Tragedienne

Homage Paid to Duse as Remains Are Taken to Italy for Funeral and Burial.

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Eloise Duse, the great tragedienne, today passed from America's shores forever.

The homage paid to her in death as the casket containing her body began its journey to her sunny Italy, was in keeping with the acclaim she had won across the footlights of many theaters in many lands. Hundreds of men and women who had been thrilled by her voice and stage presence crowded the church of St. Ferrer, where a solemn requiem mass was held.

Thousands later attended the public service in the Central park hall.

MENTION WALSH IN SENATE QUIZ

Coan Said He Was Ordered to Investigate Prosecutor's Record; Clears Wheeler.

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Investigation of the charges in the indictment returned against Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, by a federal grand jury in his state practically was completed today by the special senate committee.

Blair Coan, the last witness heard, testified that he had been sent to Montana by George H. Lockwood, secretary of the republican national committee to investigate the activities of Senator Wheeler, prosecutor of the Daugherty committee, but him of another senator. After he left the witness stand Coan said this senator was Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, prosecutor of the oil committee.

Coan told the committee he had no personal knowledge as to any employment of Senator Wheeler by Gordon Campbell, Montana oil man, to prosecute the permit to permit the oil pipeline through the state. He stated that the department of justice had some important documents bearing on the case which might interest the committee. It was agreed that Attorney General Stone would be asked to furnish them.

DIEBOLT AWARD TO BE APPEALED

Questions at Issue Not Settled, Bothwell Says; Plaintiff Given $156 Damages.

Verdict awarding $156.27 damages to J. R. Diebolt of the Salmon River Canal company, returned by a jury in district court Thursday afternoon after about five hours' deliberations, will not settle the questions at issue in the case, it was stated Thursday evening by J. T. Bothwell of counsel for the canal company, and appeal will be made to the state supreme court.

In this apt Diebolt sought damages of approximately $6000 for failure of the canal company to deliver water to his land outside the reduced area of the Salmon River project in 1921. Damages were awarded by the jury on account of loss of the rental value of the land resulting from failure to receive water. Nothing was awarded by the jury on account of Diebolt's claim for damages for alleged loss of an alfalfa seed crop. The verdict was signed by nine of the 12 jurors.

Defense on the part of the canal company in this case, Judge Bothwell stated, was based principally on the contention that the measure of damages was not the loss of crop or rental value of the land, but loss of the water right to said land, and it was in accordance with this contention that the company offered Diebolt $3000 in settlement of his claim for water delivery to this land. It was pointed out that settlement had been made with all but two owners of the land outside the reduced area.

Judge T. Bailey Lee, before whom the case was tried, is extending the jury from further services in this case, announced that Judge Babcock authorized excusing the jury from further service at this term of court. The new term will open May 5.

BRITISH SUBJECTS REFUSE TO DINE WITH FILIPINOS

MANILA, May 1 (AP)—Refusal of two British subjects to permit two Filipinos to sit at the same table with them in a hotel has led to international tensions, it became known today with the admission of the British consul general here that he was preparing a complaint to the governor general regarding treatment of the British subjects. Governor Montolio of Manila in his reply to the British consul general refused to share the blame for the incident. The intervention of the chief of police prevented the Britishing of the two.

TENSE SEARCH FAILS TO SHOW TRACE OF FLIER

Fate of Major Martin, Globe-Circling Commander, Still Undetermined; May Have Taken to Shelter.

BREMERTON, Wash., May 1 (AP)—After more than 36 hours no report has been received at the navy wireless station here from Chignik, Alaska, regarding the probable fate of Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the American aerial squadron encircling the globe, and his lieutenant, Sergeant Alva Harvey, who left that point at 11:10 a. m. yesterday for Dutch Harbor.

CHIGNIK, Alaska, May 1 (AP)—Tense search by such agencies as the government could concentrate hurriedly went forward today between here and the Shumagin islands, 150 miles southwest, for Major Frederick L. Martin, around the world flight commander, who yesterday departed after taking the air at Chignik under desperate conditions for Dutch Harbor, 400 miles away.

The best hope held was that Major Martin and his mechanic, Sergeant Alva Harvey of Chignik, Alaska, had taken refuge in some cove on the desolate, rocky coast of the Alaska peninsula.

The coast guard cutter Algonquin is directing the search. The Algonquin was at the Shumagin islands, all last week awaiting Major Martin's attempt to rejoin his comrades at Dutch Harbor. He was separated from them April 6, when he was forced down at Cape Igarka while they came on here and later went to Dutch Harbor.

The Algonquin has asked all craft in these waters and all wireless stations along the coast to search for the missing aviator.

There are numerous sheltered coves between here and the Shumagin islands, and the fact that the ocean beats upon it without resistance from large islands makes harbors not too likely to appear on any navigation chart. A survey of them would require days and could be prosecuted only by launches and smaller craft.

SAYS OIL LEASE NOT APPROVED

Assistant Secretary Shows up New Angle as to Authority of His Former Chief.

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—A search in the records of the interior department has failed to disclose that President Harding authorized Albert B. Fall as interior secretary to lease more than 3000 acres of land in California naval oil reserve No. 2 to the Honolulu Oil company, E. C. Pinney, assistant secretary of the interior, testified today before the senate oil committee.

Moreover, the witness said, the lease which it is to be the subject of a special investigation by the oil committee, had not been approved by Edwin Denby, secretary of the navy at the time it was executed.

Secretary Pinney agreed with Senator Walsh of Montana, the committee prosecutor, that the lease would not be valid without the approval of the president, as such approval is required under the terms of the general leasing law.

Recalling some of the circumstances surrounding the granting of the lease, Pinney said that during the Wilson administration, the Honolulu company had sought patents to the land which it claimed in reserve No. 2. Secretary Lano gave the matter careful consideration, he said, but, at the request of someone, did not act.

Towns Stricken by Storms in Seven States Slowly Recovering; Damage Believed to Exceed $10,000,000 Total.

ATLANTA, May 1 (AP)—Towns and rural communities, stricken by tornado that dipped ruthlessly through seven southern states yesterday, were recovering slowly today. Relief workers had their tanks well under way in the scores of villages leveled. Victims gathered round the total death list at 113. There still was no definite estimate of the persons injured, but, belief persisted that the number would reach 500. Property damage will be much greater than at first anticipated. It was indicated today. The only estimate attempted—that of $10,000,000—was believed to be conservative.

South Carolina was worst stricken of the seven states visited. Red Cross workers and others were at Anderson, and at Horrell Hill settlement near town.

Latest tribulations disclosed the following deaths:

South Carolina, 31; Georgia, 13; Alabama, 12; North Carolina, 12; Louisiana, 1; Arkansas, 1.

The additional deaths were reported from Columbia where two injured persons died in hospital, and at Robersonville, N. C., where isolated reports told of a twister striking there. Senators Indulge in Oratory While Tax Action Waits

Chairman Smoot Warns Night Sessions May Be Necessary Unless More Progress Made; May Offer Compromise.

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—The tax reduction bill was suspended in the senate today on a wave of oratory which ran unchecked until adjournment when Chairman Smoot of the finance committee, warning that under such a regime the measure faced delay, said he would call night sessions to speed up its disposition.

Pointing out that almost all of the vital provisions of the bill "are to be acted upon, Senator Smoot called attention also that a conference on the measure would be necessary to adjust differences between the house and senate. This alone would require two weeks, he predicted.

Debate carried into the approaching fight on normal and surtax rates, and while Senator Bruce, democrat, Maryland, openly left the democratic ranks to support the Mellon surtax rates, Chairman Smoot conceded that there were "probably enough even votes to gain adoption of this schedule, reinforced in the bill by the finance committee.

In this regard Senator Smoot denied he had made any compromise on the Mellon surtax rates within the republican party, but said he might offer compromise amendment on the floor if the treasury rates were reduced down to make the maximum surtax 32 per cent. Beyond this point, he declared he would not go.

TOO MANY RAILROAD MEN?

The chief reason for high freight rates, says Roger Babson, is the employment of too many men by the railroads and the consequent swelling of the payrolls. He thinks the railroads could get along just as well handling the same volume of business as effectively, with 20 per cent less help. Transportation experts, says the statistician, back him up in this conclusion.

It does not blame the railroads for it, but blames the Interstate Commerce Commission, Congress, the state legislatures and the railroad labor unions, all of which combine to make the employment of so many men compulsory.

It is by no means the first time this charge has been made. When freight rates are so vital, especially to the farming population, the subject is worth looking into open-mindedly.

The rules requiring the employment of so many men were intended to promote public safety and welfare along with the safety and welfare of the railroad employees themselves. If they are unreasonable and excessive, the public ought to know about it and insist on action accordingly.

Not only should all justifiable steps be taken to reduce railroad expenses and thereby reduce freight rates, but, in a time of growing labor shortage and diminished supply of foreign labor, no hands should be wasted on railroads, in coal mines, in factories or anywhere else. It should be possible to substitute mechanical devices for men to an ever-increasing extent, on the railroads as in other industries. And the continued employment of superfluous hands will not do the employees themselves any permanent good, in any industry.

GO FISHING

Herbert Hoover, turning his engineering mind upon American public life, finds exactly what is wrong with it. There are not enough fishermen in office. He told the Frank Walton league about it the other day, thus: "A fisherman must be of contemplative mind, for it is often a long time between bites. These interludes produce patience, reserve and calm reflection—for no one can catch fish in excitement, in eagerness or in malice. "He is by nature possessed of faith, hope and even optimism, or he would not fish."

All these qualities, he argued, make for good government.

This is almost an inspired revelation. The truth of it should appeal instantly to any intelligent mind. The one thing needful is found. What our public representatives at Washington need is to go fishing. And to tell the truth, it wouldn't do the public itself any harm.

MILNER DISTRICT LOSES FIRST ROUND IN COURT

Judge Babcock Overrules Defendant's Demurrers and Orders to Strike in Suit Brought by O. M. and M. B. Boley

Demurrers and motions to strike submitted by the Milner Low Lift Irrigation district in the suit instituted against Judge W. A. Babcock by O. M. and M. B. Boley, landowners within the district, were denied and overruled in orders issued Monday by Judge W. A. Babcock in district court here.

In this action the plaintiffs Boley seek nullification of an agreement for purchase by the Milner district from the Milner Canal company of an option on 15,000 acres of storage water in Jackson lake reservoir, involving a consideration of $225,000, together with judgment for $1034 "and all other amounts" paid by the district disavowed on account of the agreement to D. R. Moorman as trustee, and also for the sum of $121,100 worth of the district's bonds delivered under the agreement as a part of the purchase price of the option.

Irregularities in the making of the agreement are alleged.

Where Hot Air is Deadly. In Mesopotamia, the "poison wind" or "am" is a whirlwind of superheated air, which literally deals death to those it strikes. It travels almost with the directness and narrow path of a bullet, singling out perhaps a single individual. The person struck by it collapses almost immediately and may die if stimulants are not soon applied. It has the effect of sending heat apoplexy.

COURT LIMITS DEFENSE BASES

Salmon River Canal Company Stands on Two Defenses in Suit Brought by Diebolt.

Defense for defense for the Salmon River Canal company in the suit instituted against it by J. R. Diebolt for $3000 alleged damages from failure of the company to deliver water to his lands outside the reforested area of the Salmon River project in 1921 were restricted by Judge T. Bailey Lee in district court here, granting motions submitted by counsel for the plaintiff Diebolt.

Trial in the case under these restrictions was thereupon opened, a jury being impaneled shortly before noon and testimony of three witnesses in support of the plaintiff's claims being heard before the evening recess. Witnesses in addition to the plaintiff Diebolt were C. W. Sprickling and William Leonard.

Mr. Diebolt testified that he had purchased the land in question in 1919 and that the canal company had delivered water for it during the seasons 1920 and 1921, but declined to accept his proffered payment of maintenance charges for 1920 and refused to deliver water that season with the result that his crops including a stand of alfalfa were ruined.

The case for the plaintiff Diebolt is being conducted by Attorney E. M. Wolfe and (from witness, the defendant company being represented by its attorney, J. R. Bothwell, and McKean P. Morrow of Richfield and Hugo, Idaho.

WOOL GROWERS TO GET CREDIT

State Association's Committee Reports Federal Funds Available on Clip in Storage

Through federal intermediary credit banks members of the Idaho Wool Growers' association have been loaned at 5-12 per cent interest in amount from 70 to 80 per cent of the value of their wool clips, according to report made by a committee at a meeting here Monday of the directors of the association to complete arrangements for shipment of the season's bonded warehouse at the markets of the clips of association members. Opinion was expressed that Idaho wool growers, through availing themselves of this credit provision, would profit to the extent of several thousand dollars in value of prevailing low prices. Only about 3,500,000 pounds of the Idaho clip has been contracted up to the present time, it was stated, leaving more than 10,000,000 pounds yet to be sold. Report as to availability of loans through the federal banks was made by a committee composed of Judge W. A. Babcock, Shoshone Ben Darrah, Shoshone, and W. N. Philbrick, American Falls, was appointed to purchase salt in carload lots for members, by which means it was estimated that saving of 25 per cent might be effected. Arrangements were completed for purchase of wool bags and twine.

The association will send several representatives to the Mountain Home wool sales Thursday, it was announced.

BOYS' PARADE FEATURE EVENT OF SCOUT WEEK

Almost 200 Lads in Line Following Junior Band Presents Impressive Spectacle to Twin Falls Citizens.

With crash and bang of music by the Boy Scout band of 24 pieces under the leadership of J. T. Baharirige, and with fluttering flags and banners—the national colors and scout and patrol flags—the eleven troops in line—170 Boy Scouts and 30 adult scout leaders paraded Twin Falls principal streets Tuesday afternoon for a feature of the observance here of Boy Scout week. In line were 30 scouts from Boise, with a detachment of Kimberly scouts arrived late for the march, took part, and carried away honors in the field games at Lincoln field following the parade.

Almost every one of Twin Falls' nearly 200 Boy Scouts were in line, and most of them were in full uniform, their brilliant scarlet sashes contributing to the list of color that attended the march.

Crowds lined the downtown streets through which the parade marched, and the sidewalks were lined with spectators. The parade band came in for special attention, while the staid march of the scouts, the youngest of the scouts, was given admiration. Each scout troop, accompanied by its leader, marched as a unit in the parade, which was formed in the city park with the scout band in the lead and members of the local court of honor following. The program of field games at Lincoln field attracted a considerable number of spectators, among whom were many small boys and their mothers, and many of them to become scouts, and who on this occasion shared in the abundant supply of winners and losers provided and served by the Rotary club.
