

G. O. P. CHIEFS TALK PLANS FOR SPEEDY ACTION

Coolidge and Party Heads Get Together in Interest of Boosting Legislative Program; Farm Relief Scheduled.

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—Aroused by the threat of democrats and insurgent republicans to hold congress in session during the national political conventions in June, President Coolidge and the republican organization leaders in the senate and house today reconciled their lines in preparation for an aggressive effort to clear the congressional calendars of important legislation.

The legislative program in general, and means of speeding up action, was discussed by the president with republican leaders of the house at a benefit conference and later with Senator Lodge and Senator Smoot.

The president went over with the republican house leaders the legislative situation in that body in detail, discussing the measures yet pending before the house, including legislation to afford farm relief.

While Senators Lodge and Smoot were at the White House, Senator Borah of Idaho also was called into their meeting, which had to do primarily with the status of financial measures, including the tax bill and the Bureau of Pensions measure voted last week. The possibility of enacting some sort of reclamation legislation also was considered.

The house leaders, in their talk with the president, touched upon the Saturday before the opening of the republican convention at Cleveland, as the adjournment day for congress. They told the president that the house would have its legislative slate clean by that time.

KLAN CANDIDATE AHEAD

INDIANAPOLIS, May 7 (AP)—Ku Klux Klan influence, an open factor in the pre-primary republican contest that ended Tuesday, was felt with tremendous force tonight when the next day's election returns showed that Ed Jackson, secretary of state, and only candidate for governor having Klan support had gained a majority vote that precluded the contest being thrown into the state convention later this month.

Experts on Sanitary Refuse to Comment on Scribe's Joke

Reporter from Rival Paper Exposes Friend's Hoax on Lunacy Commission; May Gain His Freedom Soon.

DES MOINES, May 7 (AP)—The scales of justice were being tilted today to gain freedom for John Duncan, a Des Moines newspaper reporter who was sent to the state insane asylum at Clarinda yesterday following his unsuccessful effort to test a theory that "any bright criminal could prove himself insane and thus escape punishment for his crimes."

Duncan, who told a wild story about having millions on deposit in a local bank to help defray reparation claims against Germany, was so successful in his scheme that the sanity commission ruled him a dangerous lunatic.

It is considered likely that Duncan will be given his freedom soon. This was not in accordance with the plans. Duncan hoped to stay at the insane hospital for a week or more, but he was recognized as he was being taken to the train en route to the hospital and a rival newspaper reporter exposed the hoax.

Members of the sanity commission would not comment on the case today.

INVOLVE MANY IN TRIAL OF LANGLEY CASE

Names of Leading Figures and Prohibition Officers Brought into Trial of Congressman on Liquor Charges.

COVINGTON, Ky., May 7 (AP)—Tales of "conspiracy," bribery and coercion involving the prohibition requirements of two states and men prominent in politics in Kentucky were told today in federal court here in the trial of Congressman John W. Lingley of Kentucky and four other defendants charged with conspiracy to defraud the United States government, through illegal removal of whiskey from a government warehouse in 1921.

Witnesses for the government related a number of "conspiracies" which took place in the months of September, October and November 1921, at Lexington and Louisville. These meetings were for the purpose of discussing transportation of whiskey from the Belle of Anderson distillery of Louisville, Ky., to Philadelphia and other cities. Congressman Lingley attended most of the meetings, testimony showed.

As government witnesses, confessed members of the ring, told of whiskey operations and implicated Lingley, the congressman sat indisturbed with the six attorneys who manage his case. Lingley was paid big sums for his influence in securing permits, the alleged former associates of the congressman testified. When he needed money he appealed to men in Washington who worked in conjunction with whiskey dealers in this state and the money was given Lingley as "long," not to be paid if the congressman were successful in any particular piece of work, testimony revealed.

O. S. L. DEFENSE HEARING OPENS

Road's Case Marks Climax in Utilities Commission Session in Teton Complaint

BOISE, May 7 (AP)—Formal opening of the Oregon Short Line railroad company's defense against the complaint of the Teton Coal company marked the climax of today's events in the hearing in progress before the public utilities commission.

The coal company is asking the commission to order the railroad company to repair the tracks leading to the mining claims in the Teton valley in order to make possible transportation of coal to Idaho consumers.

But two witnesses were on the stand today. One, J. H. Stummer, state highway engineer, last formerly in the employ of the mine owners, who was the first witness of the coal company before the commission. The other was Eugene B. McAllister, president of the Union Pacific Coal company, and an expert witness for the railroad company.

Mr. McAllister conducted the cross examination of Mr. Stummer and took the stand himself under direct examination of the railroad. He testified, practically continuously, from shortly after the noon recess until 5:45 o'clock in the evening. The hearing will be resumed at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Mr. McAllister began with the early history of the grant of one mile in the Teton valley and traced the development down to the present time, closing his testimony with an expert opinion of the present condition of the mine equipment.

Additional Territory in California Released From Quarantine; Few New Cases Reported; Will Study Outbreak.

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—General improvement in the foot and mouth disease situation in California with respect to new infections, plans for a western conference to make a full study of the outbreak, and the release of additional territory from quarantine featured developments announced today by the department of agriculture.

Extension of infected herds is now outstripping new infections, only one infection in Los Angeles county being reported today and one in Merced county yesterday. For a few weeks infections in Merced county in the rough district, were extensive, several infections involving large herds appearing daily. Most of these herds are now exterminated.

A conference has been called at Sacramento by Governor Richardson to study of conditions with a view to ascertaining all facts concerning the disease in California.

New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Oregon and Hawaii have accepted the governor's invitation. A number of counties and parts of counties in which no infection has been reported at any time, have been released from quarantine so that the quarantine territory at present includes Contra Costa and Orange counties, and parts of Napa, Solano, Alameda, San Francisco, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, Merced, Mariposa, Madera, Kern, Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties.

Disinfection of about six thousand railroad stock cars, ten exposed or infected counties, which had been with drawn from traffic, has almost been completed. As soon as infected herds in Merced county have been buried, irrigation water, shut off voluntarily during the emergency, will be turned on again.

Has no intention, though, still serious, has moved greatly since May 1. A few cases of supposed infection have been reported outside the quarantine zone, but investigation has shown that the ailments were not foot and mouth disease. Livestock owners and veterinarians are requested however, to continue to report any suspicious cases.

SENATOR GOODING AIRS PROFITEERING CHARGE

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP)—A charge that the government "profiteered" in its wheat transactions during the war was made by Senator Gooding, republican, Idaho, in a senate speech today, urging farm relief legislation.

Dividing of Estate Depends on Hour of Relatives' Deaths

Efforts Being Made by Attorneys to Fix Exact Time of Passing of Men on Opposite Sides of World.

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—New York attorneys today were working on a unique case in which the disposition of a $500,000 estate depends upon which of two men, who met death on opposite sides of the globe at almost the same hour, was the first to die.

The estate is that of Captain Coleman of the San Francisco vigilante of Argonaut days. His heirs were a son, Robert Louis Coleman, San Francisco financier, and a grandson, William T. Coleman, of Monterey, Cal.

The son, with George B. DeLong, New York broker, was slain by highwaymen in Albania last April 6, while on a tour of the world. On the same date the grandson died at his home in California. How the $500,000 estate shall be divided and whether descendants of the son or grandson shall receive the major share depends upon which of the two died first.

Philip King leaves today for the first stage of his journey to Eugene, Oregon, where he will compete for a place on the Oregon Olympic team which is to be chosen at Soldiers field, Cambridge, Mass., June 14.

Phil is accompanied by his brother, "Chick," who goes as a trainer and manager for the Twin Falls distance man. The two will first visit Caldwell, where they will attend the international high school track meet in which four Twin Falls athletes, two of whom are leaving Friday, are entered.

Following the Caldwell meet King will go to Moscow and complete his training for the distance events, in which he is entered, until the last of the month when he will go to Eugene for the elimination meet which is to be held May 30 and 31. Should he be successful in the Eugene meet, Phil with his brother will go to Cambridge for the final tryout.

The meet at Eugene is for athletes for the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO MEMORY OF A. W. HUSTED

Associates and Friends Crowd Ascension Church at Funeral for Veteran Printer Suddenly Stricken.

Associates, friends and neighbors crowded Ascension church, Episcopal, at funeral services Wednesday afternoon for the late Augustus Walker Husted, for 14 years foreman and employee of The Twin Falls News, whose death Sunday evening last followed a brief illness. The services were conducted by the Rev. Louis P. Nissen. Miss Alice Taylor, Miss Emma Smith, Douglas A. Salmon and Nelson Hayward of Ascension church choir, of which Mr. Husted was for some time a member, sang "Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me." Many and beautiful floral offerings bearing witness to tribute paid by friends and associates of Mr. Husted and members of his family, covered the casket and were banded high against the altar rail.

Nearly 200 persons went from the church to the cemetery to witness the funeral service. Ward W. Husted, eldest son of Mr. Husted, arrived Wednesday noon from his home in St. Joseph to attend the funeral services, and there were in attendance also M. F. Cunningham of Halley, with whom Mr. Husted was associated at one time in the publication of a newspaper at Ottawa, Illinois, the Misses Cunningham, a number of friends and former neighbors of the vicinity of Dahl where Mr. Husted on coming to Idaho in 1909, made final proof on farm property, which enters into his estate.

Associates and intimate friends of Mr. Husted were chosen as pallbearers, Frank Baldwin, J. Van Wertine, Roy A. Read, L. C. Cies, Fred W. Meek and H. C. Dickerson, being honorary pallbearers, and N. I. Jordan, William M. Moore, John O. Harvey, Emmett P. Ashbury, Charles Stevens and John Dickie being active pallbearers.

Interment was in the cemetery.

Theatres

NOTED ACTRESS APPEARS IN ROLE OF SHEKH

Norma Talmadge has introduced another Hollywood novelty which it is predicted will cause an even greater furor among both feminine and masculine patrons of the theater than the sheik.

She has brought the Ouled Nail dancing girl to Hollywood. Of course, Norma is an idealized version of this strange creature of the Sahara, who in real life is very, very good, but dances very intriguingly.

Like the sheik who seized what he wanted in cave-man fashion, Norma's Ouled Nail girl fights savagely to obtain the man she covets. And she gets him.

"The Song of Love," which is a drama of the Algerian Sahara, will be shown at the Orpheum theater today.

AN "AS YOU WERE" PARTY—WHAT IS IT?

One of the most unusual parties a screen heroine has ever given to her friends is given by Gloria Swanson in her new Paramount picture, "A Society Scandal," coming to the Idaho theater for a run of three days, starting today.

Her friends in the picture, all being more or less socially prominent, have at some time or another appeared in the motion picture news reel. So Miss Swanson in the role of Marjorie Colburn, rose to the trouble of collecting some of these pictures, making out of them several reels of film and shows them at her home, much to the amusement of the social elite gathered for the occasion—for instance, there is a scene dating back to August, 1918, showing a model war hero, Harrison Peters, who risks his life to save two persons from drowning, but falls before the camera—and so on.

This scene is a real novelty in that it shows motion pictures within motion pictures.

IDAHO PRAISED IN SONG TUCKER—ALLOWED COSTS

Mrs. Augusta L. Packard Author of Verses Set to Music by Husband to Provide Feature at Club Breakfast.

A song, "Idaho," written by Mrs. Augusta L. Packard, with music composed by her husband, Kennedy Packard, was sung Tuesday afternoon at the Twentieth Century Club breakfast by Mrs. D. L. Alexander and Mrs. O. P. Duvall, furnishing one of the most interesting features of the affair. The song which is dedicated by Mrs. Packard to the current events department of the club over which she has presided for many years, is as follows:

Mid all beautiful places
There's no place like home,
We'll never find another
Like Idaho, our home.

Her sunrises and sunsets,
Her pink-scented air,
Her white snow-capped mountains,
Make her fairest of the fair.

Home—home—sweet Idaho,
We love it, we love it,
This dear Idaho.

The scent of the sagebrush
Still clings to the air,
The ever-green hills send
Their perfume so rare;

The swift running streams
Wind like silver bands,
Her canyons and falls
Make her fairest of lands.

Her mountains that tower
So near to the sky,
Fill souls with ambition,
And pulse beat high.

In their grandeur sublime
Inspiration has birth,
She holds us in thrall,
Dearest land of the earth.

Idaho above.

Costs and disbursements incurred by J. D. Tucker, former mayor, in a suit against the present Twin Falls municipal administration, were awarded Wednesday by Judge W. A. Babcock in the amount of $48.70 to the former mayor from the city. Witnesses fee claims of Mrs. Catherine Provost, J. L. Allen and Harley Rayburn, municipal officials, were stricken.

The court's award in this instance followed hearing on motion of the city to strike Tucker's cost bill and motion of Tucker to strike the city's cost bill which amounted to $3.

In the action in which these costs bills were incurred, the former mayor attacked the present administration's contract for purchase of water meters, and called in question a subsequently repealed ordinance prescribing water rates. Contract for purchase of the meters was sustained by decision of the court at trial in the case.

BEAN GROWERS' ADVICE SOUGHT BY GOVERNMENT

Department of Agriculture Officials Here to Develop Views on Federal Licensing of Bean Warehouses.

A number of extraordinary significant views of the growing importance of the bean industry in this country, is to be held in Twin Falls, on the occasion being one of a series of public hearings conducted by the department of agriculture in connection with establishment of a recently authorized policy of government licensing of bean warehouses. The purpose of the hearing is to obtain the views of bean producers on the opportunity to discuss proposed regulations and to suggest changes. Mr. John E. Coughlin, in charge of the warehouse division of the department of agriculture, will be in charge of the hearing which will begin promptly at 10 a. m. in the postoffice building.

State Officials on Hand

L. G. Scullin, federal supervisor of inspection co-operating with the department, and M. L. Dean, director of the Idaho bureau of plant industry, arrived here Wednesday evening to attend the hearing, and expressed interest particularly in probable discussion on this occasion of bean grades and grading. Mr. Dean stated that the Idaho department will this year promulgate bean grades and expressed desire to discuss with producers and shippers the grades best adapted to the Idaho product.

The hearing in Twin Falls, Mr. Yohe stated, Wednesday evening, is the fourth of a series of hearings arranged to be held in the most important bean producing regions. The first was held at Rochester, New York, the second at Lansing, Michigan, and the third at Denver, Colorado. The hearing will be held May 12 in San Francisco and the last at Los Angeles May 15.

Wide Interest Develops

In commenting on the meetings already held Mr. Yohe stated: "We were agreeably surprised to see the interest which was shown, particularly on the part of some of the largest bean producers in the country. All the meetings clearly indicated that a great many persons interested in the bean industry do not understand the federal law and its purposes. For this reason we should like to see a good attendance at Twin Falls."

Receipts Valued

"The federal warehouse receipt," Mr. Yohe stated, "has been the basis on which millions of dollars have been loaned by the War Finance Corporation. One grower has received a $100,000 loan through these warehouse receipts while a great many others were granted loans ranging from $1,000,000 to $10,000,000 by the War Finance Corporation, the Intermediate Credit Banks and many private banks. Even one out of the country to the other, the bankers recognize the receipts issued under the provisions of the United States Warehouse Act as the most acceptable security for a loan on agricultural products which are stored pending such time as they can be sold without glutting the market."

FUNERALS

AINSWORTH—Funeral services for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ainsworth, whose death occurred Wednesday evening a few hours after birth at a hospital here, will be held this afternoon in the DeWitt chapel.

HOSPITAL ARRANGES FOR OPEN HOUSE ON OCCASION

In observance of national hospital week, coincident with the birthday anniversary of Florence Nightingale, Twin Falls county general hospital will hold open house next Monday from 11:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., and has issued a general invitation with the hope that there will be as many visitors as can arrange to attend. The hospital and nurses home will be open to public inspection between the hours named. Invitations have been issued to parents of babies born in the hospital, but every baby and its parents will be welcome at a baby clinic to be held beginning at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Dr. John E. Coughlin on this occasion will also be present, and babies will be examined to determine the measure of their physical well being.

VETERANS SHARE MIRTHFUL EVENT

Twin Falls Public Participates in Measure in Hilarity of Forty and Eight Initiation.

Twin Falls citizens shared, in a measure, in the hilarity of an initiatory ceremonial held here Wednesday afternoon and evening by Twin Falls veterans of La Balletoles des 40 Hommes of Chevaux, a nationwide organization composed of active members of the American Legion, when a half dozen candidates for membership in grotesque and comic costumes were paraded through the principal thoroughfares and then put to work under close supervision of initiators, at various tasks, including repainting of automobile parking stalls, and vending of "hot dogs" and pop corn. The ceremonial, which was opened with the street parade, included a banquet for members and candidates served at the Hotel Perrine, followed by continuation of the initiatory proceedings and a business session in the Old Falls hall. Candidates contributed to the entertainment program at the banquet, which was presided over by Marshall Chapman of Halley, chief de guerre, and included an address by Harry J. Bennett of Twin Falls. The ceremonial brought here members of the organization from Boise, Halley, Gooding, Jerome, Hazelton and Burley. The next initiatory ceremonial, it was announced, will be held at Guyer Hot Springs in the Wood river country.

In Naval Role

In the street parade, Twin Falls citizens saw as candidates for membership in the Forty and Eight, Eugene Ostrander in the role of an equine, Cleon Wilkins as a white wing, William B. Wall as a Jewish peddler, Charles "Chuck" Austin in clown's garb trundling a dead pan, Herbert G. Lauterbach in grotesque uniform of a general officer carrying an immense sash and diminutive hand instrument, C. A. "Bill" Halley in the habiliments of a native of the South Sea Islands, and Chester Wile in a barrel. Dr. D. L. Alexander who also was inducted into membership on this occasion, was excused from participation in the parade because of a professional engagement at the time, but it was noted, he was not exempted in subsequent proceedings in which the general public has no share.
