

JURKO HELD IN JAIL FOLLOWING FATAL SHOOTING

Local Man Faces Murder Prosecution as Result of Death of A. B. W. Vandemark in Affray in Pool Room.

A. B. W. Vandemark, 70, formerly an agent of the United States geological survey, is dead and John Jurko, about 40, operator here of a barber shop and a billiard room, is a prisoner in the county jail facing prosecution on charge of first degree murder as a result of a fatal shooting at about 10 o'clock last night in the Cozy Billiard Parlor, 209 Main avenue east, in the operation of which Vandemark and Jurko had been associated as partners for about four months and until about a month ago when the partnership was dissolved at the instance of Vandemark.

According to witnesses Jurko fired six shots from a .32 calibre automatic revolver. Each shot is believed to have taken effect in Vandemark's body. Physically, the deceased had received eleven bullet wounds. Two entered the region of the heart. Death was almost instantaneous. Two bullets passed through Vandemark's right hand which he had flung up to ward off the sudden attack. A ring on a finger of his left hand was shattered.

Jurko Arrested

Jurko left the scene of the shooting and, according to his statement, was on his way on Shoshone street to the sheriff's office to surrender when he was captured by Chief of Police P. O. Hartman. He delivered the gun to the police chief.

Search was being made late last night for Mrs. Jurko who, according to witnesses, entered the establishment with Jurko but turned and ran when the first shot was fired. In his cell in the county jail soon after his arrest Jurko asked for his wife.

Will Hold Inquest

Inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the fatal shooting will be continued today, according to Coroner P. J. Grossman, who stated last night that an inquest would be held.

The tragedy was witnessed by three men who were seated at a table with Vandemark playing cards when Jurko entered the saloon and ran. He was followed by E. E. Dickson and John Barber. A. T. Pettymann who was in the room when Jurko entered, left before Jurko produced his gun.

At the police station Wednesday night Richard and Dickson told their story of the shooting.

"We were playing rummy," they said, "when Jurko and his wife came in. He was very angry. He came up to the table and shouted at Vandemark."

"You've got to prove what you've been saying about me," he said.

"Vandemark answered politely that he had said nothing about Jurko."

"Yes, you have; you've been talking about my wife," Jurko said.

Urges Uniformity Of Laws To Prevent Crossing Accidents

Railway Men Hear Recommendations Designed to Reduce Number of Fatalities at Crossing Grades.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 25 (AP)—Adoption by state authorities of uniform laws and regulations for the guidance of the automobile driver and the education of the public to safety first, offers the quickest and surest solution of the problem of reducing grade crossing accidents. H. A. Rowe, chairman of the committee for prevention of grade crossing accidents, told delegates to the annual convention of the American Railway Association here today.

Co-operation of the railroads in drafting a set of universal rules which would be enforced by every city was advocated by the speaker. That the public should be educated to safety first has been shown during the past year when the number of crossing accidents have been appreciably reduced through nation-wide advertising by the railroads. Maughan Ready to Return; Will Tell Story Over Radio

Army Flier to Relate Experiences of Epochal Trip; Plans to Start Back Saturday.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25 (AP)—Lieutenant Russell L. Maughan, the "one-day coast-to-coast army flier," is going on the air again tomorrow night at 9 o'clock, but not in an airplane. Over KPO radio station here, from which the San Francisco Call broadcasts, he will read the story of his dawn to night flight over the trackless airways that he recently so sensationally traversed.

Lieutenant Maughan plans to start his trip back to New York on Saturday morning. He will fly to Salt Lake the first day and will remain there over-night, visiting with members of his family. He will hop off from Salt Lake Sunday and expects to reach New York Sunday night.

FLAMES DESTROY FOREST WEALTH

Forest Fires in Nevada and California Continue; Thousands of Acres Burned.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25 (AP)—Forest fires, a number of them out of control, are burning in California from Truckee, Nevada county, to the heart of Santa Barbara county, a distance of approximately 300 miles. Thousands of acres have been burned over, the wide swath of destruction including some rich stands of timber.

A new fire was reported today in the vicinity of Truckee in the Tahoe national forest. When reported it had already destroyed the Flycatcher club house, a mountain resort, and was being fought by hundreds of men. A fire at Goodyear's bar in the same forest is still out of control after having burned over 1,000 acres. The fire in the vicinity of North Fork, Nevada county, which burned off the ranger station on Sunday, was reported under control today after sweeping over 800 acres.

The fire in the Truckee region is racing up Prosser creek, near the town, but the town itself is not believed to be in danger. The fire near Washoe, Nevada, and that in the Santa Barbara national forest are said to be under control.

The many giant redwood stands in the path of the flames are expected to escape destruction.

DELEGATES KEEP ORIGINAL RULE

Two-Thirds Plan Approved by Convention for Nomination of Party Candidates.

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—The democratic national convention today voted unanimously to retain the two-thirds rule for nomination of candidates for president and vice president just as it was framed last night by the rules committee. Under the plan for procedure as adopted a two-thirds vote means two-thirds of the ballots of delegates present and voting and not a two-thirds vote of the number of the accredited delegates.

The question of changing the unit rule which governs the vote of many delegations did not come up in the convention when the rules were adopted. There is a prospect, though, that the issue may be raised when balloting begins, as the minority members of some delegations want to bring the question to the floor in the hope that they may be freed from the unit rule as imposed by the majority members of their delegations.

Members of the convention, most of them hoping that the convention will not go as long as has been predicted, appeared to welcome today's plan of setting nominations ahead of consideration of the report of the platform committee. This will speed the machinery and will mean that delegates will get away at least one day, perhaps two days earlier than if the convention passed to a wait the platform now in process of framing by the platform committee.

DAWES PLAN TO BE ACTED UPON AT CONFERENCE

Ambassador Kellogg Will Deal With Matters Affecting U. S. Interests at Deliberations of Premiers.

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—Ambassador Kellogg at London was instructed today to attend the forthcoming premiers' conference to discuss execution of the Dawes plan. His appointment was announced in a White House statement which said that Mr. Kellogg would attend the conference "for the purpose of dealing with such matters as affect the interests of the United States; and otherwise for purposes of information."

This action was determined upon after the state department had been advised by the ambassador that an invitation for the United States to participate had been handed the American embassy in London. The White House statement declared that it was "the desire of the administration that the Dawes plan should be put into effect as speedily as possible."

Logan to Assist. Colonel James A. Logan, who has been American observer with the reparations commission at Paris will also go to London to assist the ambassador at the conference.

Ambassador Kellogg forwarded to the state department the text of the invitation and his Secretary Hughes conferred at length with President Coolidge. The statement was then given out at the White House. It follows:

"It is the desire of the administration that the Dawes plan should be put into effect as speedily as possible. This is the first essential step to economic recovery abroad in which this country is vitally interested. It is with this view that in response to the invitation extended by Prime Minister MacDonald, investigations have been given to Ambassador Kellogg to (Continued on Page 5, Col. 6)

Blind Boy Is Given Ovation at Annual Lions' Convention

Lad Divides Honors With Speaker of the Day; Colorado delegates Bring Snow.

OMAHA, June 25 (AP)—Heading by touch from a magazine for blind children which it has been proposed the International Association of Lions' clubs send to every blind child in America, a 30-year-old blind boy today received the greatest ovation of the eighth annual convention of Lions and divided honors with Douglas Malloch of Chicago as the speaker of the day. The magazine is edited by Ohio Lions for blind children of that state.

When nearly 2000 Lions, following adjournment of today's session marched through the streets in a parade of waving banners and cheering state delegations, they were met at the city hall by the Colorado delegation with a carload of snow brought from the mountains of that state. A snowball fight which all but broke up the procession, ensued.

DAVIS CAMP IS SILENT.

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—Backers of John W. Davis of West Virginia as the logical man to lead the democratic forces in the coming battle for the presidency remained in ambush tonight so far as publicity is concerned. They continued about their business of spreading the ideas in delegates' minds that if the convention should reach a deadlock as between the leaders, Davis offered a logical solution.

KIRBY ASSAILS BONUS MEASURE

Executive of Disabled Veterans Severely Scores Bill in Talk at Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 25 (AP)—Declaring that "they promised you a bonus that would give you a new lease on life and they gave you a certificate of death; those who did not die for their country must now die for their relatives," Thomas Kirby, chairman of the national legislative committee of Disabled American Veterans of the World War, strenuously attacked the bonus in his report to the fourth annual convention here today.

Touching further upon the bonus Kirby referred to it as "that so-called adjusted compensation which in fact is an adjustment which fails to adjust and a compensation which fails to compensate."

"The D. A. V. takes no pride of authorship or enactment in that measure," Kirby declared. He explained that although his organization has, in three national conventions, endorsed the principle of adjusted compensation.

NOT A GHOST OF A CHANCE

There were indications that the subcommittee would not recommend that the plan be named specifically in the platform, but this tentative decision will be subject to review by the full platform committee and probably will be acted on after a fight in the convention itself.

On foreign relations it is the present purpose of the subcommittee to reaffirm specifically the party's belief that the United States should be a member of the league of nations. The prohibition issue was disposed of by the subcommittee during the day by a decision to declare for law enforcement without mention of the 18th amendment or the Volstead act.

Convention officials hope the platform will be ready for submission by Friday morning. Under the rules it must be adopted by the convention before voting begins on presidential candidates, and if no prolonged fight develops on the controverted plank

Convention Noise Pales Crashing of Big Thunderstorm

Delegates Glad to Adjourn After Day Devoted to Nominations and Demonstrations; Survive Another Hot Day.

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—Shirt-sleeved and sweating hosts of democratic voters gave themselves up today to nominations and noise.

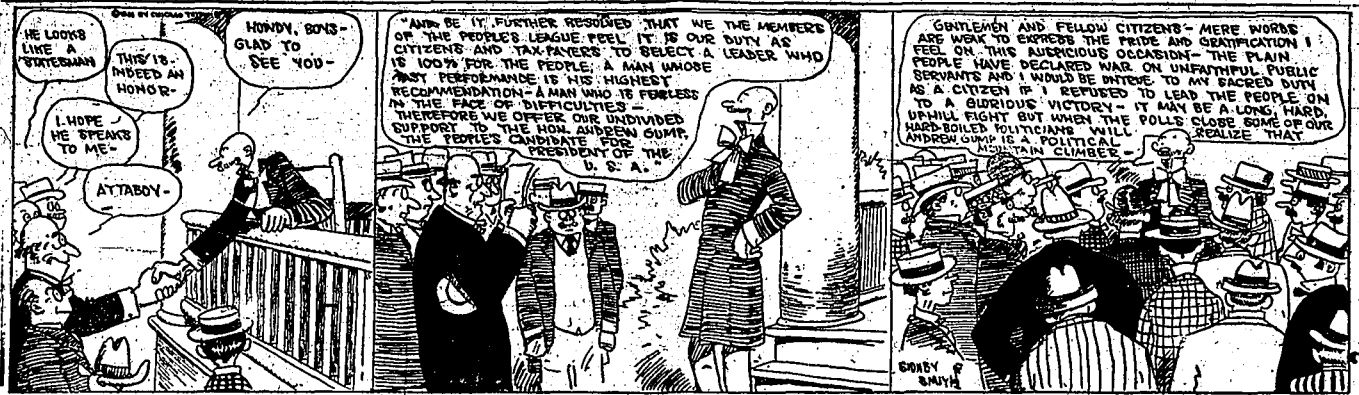

More of both are to come. Also, probably, more of the sticky heat that "makes your blooming eyebrows crawl" in the heavy, stifling air of the drab, though flag-wrapped old Madison Square Garden.

But if volume of sound is any criterion of the probable volume of democratic ballots next November the party ought to be satisfied with today's squall. They made noise enough to pale the violent thunderstorm which came later to cool the sweating city into an insignificant rumble.

Some of the noise at convention hall was impromptu and heated more than atmospheric conditions. Some of it was planned but all of it was noise of the noisiest kind.

And the loudest, gaudiest, and most welcomed cry of the day was the stenographic "aye" with which delegates joined in voting an end to the tumult.

THE GUMPS—I WILL

URGES M'ADOO AS BEARER OF PARTY COLORS

Phelan Classes Candidate as the "Leader of Progressive Thought"; Says "Triumphant Democracy" Must Return.

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—William O. McAdoo was placed in nomination for the presidency at the democratic national convention today by former Senator James D. Phelan of California, with the declaration that he is the "natural leader of progressive thought and achievement."

"This year demands the return of triumphant democracy," said Mr. Phelan. "The progressive of the nation look to the democratic party for their leader. Shall we give him to them? There is room in America for but one reactionary party, and the republicans have prompted that field. The party's chance for the presidency depends upon its choice for candidate for the presidency of this man."

Tracing Mr. McAdoo's career both in the government service and in private life, Mr. Phelan declared that the "vast problems of the continent are his familiar themes; the prosperity of the farm, the forest and mine, the factors of natural growth and strength and transportation and irrigation, these are not strange subjects born of restricted environment and narrow outlook."

Called Ideal American
"In the broadness of his vision, his sympathetic understanding, his aggressive personality, his burning patriotism, he is an ideal American," continued the speaker. "And so the country will accept him."

"The vast machinery of the government rusts like a machine that has been left to rot; the parts do not fit; the crew is recreant and rebellious and the chief engineer has been succeeded by the accident of an accident."

"Where should the people in all prudence turn? Continue the inexperienced and inept, or take a trained and tried chief who can at once step into the cab and give command. We want a man who knows where he is going, and who is going where the people want him to go—capable, progressive, confident of his power and alert and eager to get his work done."

Mr. McAdoo was secretary of the treasury, the convention was told, he "cleansed it of the foul growth of favoritism and repelled the invidious attacks of the powerful, made it the repository of the people's hopes and the instrumentality of sound finance, the safeguard of honest business and industrial prosperity."

"We honor President Wilson, who left a great heritage of character and achievement to democracy," continued Mr. Phelan. "But we shall not forget the toll he has paid, the inspirer of ideas, the door of things, the great secretary of the treasury in the most exacting and soul-testing administration since Lincoln's."

UNDERWOOD MAN DENOUNCES KLAN

Johnston Demands Open Stand Against Secret Order in Giving Nomination Speech.

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—The demand of Senator Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama at the democratic national convention, condemn by name the political activities of the Ku Klux Klan was voiced to the convention today by Forney Johnston of Alabama as the keynote of his placing Mr. Underwood's name before the convention for the presidential nomination.

"No bare deference to the constitution or the bill of rights, actually mentioned in the Klan oath is adequate in this connection," Mr. Johnston declared. "The bill of rights are limitations only upon the state and federal governments and not upon private citizens. That is why the candidate of my people has insisted upon plain words."

"The question before this party is whether secret organizations shall be given powers immune from the bill of rights and superior to those delegated to the elected representatives of the people."

"Above all, does the candidate we represent condemn the massed action of political orders in furtherance of any objective which is plainly contrary to the spirit of the constitution."

Issue in 1856

"In order to express squarely his opinion on this grave question, I have, at his request, introduced a resolution reciting the established position of our party on that precise issue referring to the resolution of 1856 and concluding with this resolving clause: 'Resolved: That we do reaffirm the principles set forth in the said resolution of the democratic platform of 1856 and condemn as un-American and un-democratic political action by secret or quasi-secret organizations in furtherance of any political objective whatsoever; and in particular do we condemn such action for the purpose of prescribing the political rights and privileges of citizens of the United States, as is now proposed, practiced and publicly acknowledged by the organization known as the Ku Klux Klan, and as may now, or hereafter be proposed or practiced by any organization whatsoever.'"

Senator Underwood, Mr. Johnston said, had no word to say against those who join any order, secret or otherwise, organized for lawful purposes or to advocate openly any principle within the scope of legitimate public discussion.

Must Omit Politics.

"What he does condemn is the participation in politics by any secret organization, whatsoever," the speaker continued. "He believes such action intimidates public officials and encourages political or oath-bound pledges contrary to public policy."

At another point Mr. Johnston said the outstanding characteristic of the democratic party was that it stood for the protection of human rights by protecting public officials "against organized oppression and intimidation." Senator Underwood had requested, he said, that his position be made plain beyond misunderstanding by the delegates on this grave issue, and added: "He believes that unless the issue is met with candor and dignity in this campaign, you will not only ignore the disintegration of this party but will take a backward step so wholly inconsistent with the basis of a modern liberal government as to be so unthinkable for the democratic party to accept or condone."

How to Give a Linen Finish To Household Cotton Goods

FOR the starching of all household cotton goods use Linit, the remarkable starch discovery.

Linit is distinctly different from ordinary starches. After Linit is thoroughly dissolved and is ready for use, you will notice it is THIN and FREE-RUNNING like water—with a "milky" appearance.

USE but a little amount of Linit, according to directions, and unlike other starches, you will not find Linit stiff or jelly-like.

That is why Linit goes much farther than the old-fashioned kinds of starch, and is much easier to iron with.

Ordinary cotton napkins, table-cloths, curtains, etc., have a soft, pliable finish like pure linen when starched with Linit.

Linit penetrates the fabric, helps prevent wear, and prolongs the life of the material.

Linit is sold by all grocers—10c.

SEVERAL PLANKS ARE AGREED ON BY COMMITTEE

Alternate Proposals on Klan and League to Be Presented Today at New York; Debate Continues Over Night.

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP)—Alternative proposals on both the K. K. K. issue and the league of nations will be presented today to the platform committee of the democratic national convention by the 13 members appointed to work out a tentative draft of the party declaration.

This announcement was made by Chairman Cummings, after the subcommittee had been in session for more than 11 hours. Mr. Cummings and Senator Pittman of Nevada were appointed to put the various planks into final form for submission to the committee of eleven at 11 o'clock today.

The subcommittee will make its report in the afternoon with the expectation that the entire committee will be able to present a complete draft to the convention on Friday. Whether there are to be fights on the convention floor on the two paramount issues remains with the entire committee.

Reassembling after dinner last night the committee approved a plank by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, which will declare for government control and regulation of the alcoholic industry and other corporations or organizations controlling the necessities of life.

Agree on Planks.

Later last night the planks agreed upon provided:

Law enforcement, omitting specific mention of prohibition.

Federal corrupt practices act.

Federal regulation and control of the anthracite coal industry and of other corporations or combinations controlling the necessities of life.

Immediate independence for the Philippines.

Enactment of legislation to prohibit the "watering" of stock.

Talk Farm Relief.

The agricultural relief plank was taken up late in the night. Senator King had drafted a plank along the lines of the Curtis-Aswell bill for creation of a great national marketing organization.

At midnight Chairman Cummings issued a statement saying:

"We have been discussing in addition to the corrupt practices act, the Lausanne treaty and some planks in regard to women, and provisions regarding postal clerks' wages. We are tentatively preparing planks on all these subjects. The women's plank contains nothing of material importance."

"The league of nations is in status quo." The subcommittee expects to report to the full committee at about 10 o'clock.

"If we find that we are not harmonious on any crucial subjects, we may prepare alternative plans for submission to the full committee."

Denounce Treaty.

Subsequently the subcommittee adopted a plank denouncing the Lausanne treaty with Turkey, which is yet to be ratified.

An agricultural plank, embodying the Curtis-Aswell bill, but going beyond that, also was approved. Besides declaring for governmental stimulation of co-operative marketing, it proposed revision of the tariff; reduction of rail and water transportation rates, and establishment of an export marketing corporation or commission to aid the farmer, and to obtain for agriculture equality with other industries.

Organ of Bamboo.

A bamboo organ in the Catholic church of Los Platanos, near Manila, Philippine islands, was built about 1818 by a Spanish priest, who used more than 800 lengths of bamboo in the construction. Every part is of bamboo and the organ is still used every week by the Belgian priest in charge.

In the Gilbert islands the men and women speak literally a different language in talking among themselves and the women do likewise. JURKO HELD IN JAIL FOLLOWING SHOOTING said. "Then he drew his gun and began shooting. We counted six rapid shots. Vandemark threw up his hands and held them in front of his breast. He started to fall forward across the table and then swung around it and fell almost where he had been sitting. Vandemark said nothing, but only cried out a time or two after Jurko began shooting. We all stood up when Jurko began shooting at Vandemark. We expected trouble, but thought it would be only a fist fight."

When Vandemark fell after the sixth shot, according to these witnesses, Jurko put the gun in his pocket and turned and left the place. Meeting an acquaintance at the door he said, "Well, good-by. I've shot him, and I'm going to take my medicine."

Result of Trouble.

Trouble between Jurko and the dead man is believed in many quarters to have originated over difficulties that wrecked the partnership relation between the two men. About a month ago Vandemark instituted suit in district court here asking that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the billiard parlors, and alleging that Jurko had been wrongfully disposing of the stock, all of which it was alleged, was owned by Vandemark. At about the same time Vandemark appeared before the municipal commission to demand that no license be issued to Jurko for operation of billiard or card tables on these premises.

Reopened Place on Wednesday.

Order for sale of the property was issued in the district court after Charles P. Larsen had been appointed receiver.

Vandemark came into possession of the place by this means, and it was reopened for business Wednesday by Vandemark, after having been closed for some weeks.

According to Joe Hiler, one of the engineers engaged in the building of the Twin Falls irrigation system, Vandemark visited this region about 20 years ago when the irrigation works were under construction, and upon his return here a few months ago he renewed his acquaintance with Hiler to whom, he recalled, he had applied for work when he arrived at Minner about 20 years ago while in the employ of the geological survey.

Relatives Not Known Here.

Persons familiar with Vandemark's affairs stated Wednesday night that he was worth about $10,000 to $15,000. He has no known relatives in this region, but is believed to be survived by a brother or other relatives in New York.

The body was removed Wednesday night to the Grossman undertaking establishment.

Physicians who were summoned after the shooting and who examined the body after its removal to the mortuary were Dr. W. F. Passer and Dr. C. D. Weaver.

Excitement Caused by Thermostat Explosions.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25 (AP)—Explosions of thermostat-controlled thermostats in the magazines which were flooded after the recent explosion which killed 48 men on the battleship Mississippi caused excitement on the vessel while it was on its way from San Pedro to San Francisco last week, it was announced by naval headquarters here today. At each explosion the crew rushed to quarters, to remain there until the cause was investigated. There was no damage except to the thermostats.

SCOUTS PROVE ADEPT IN AQUATIC PERFORMANCE

Natatorium Pool Scene of Strenuous Feats by Lad Qualifying for Merit Badges.

Twin Falls natatorium pool was filled with a horde of active boys Wednesday afternoon when the more advanced members of the local boy scout troops took first class swimming tests and merit badge work in swimming and life saving under the supervision of F. Douglas Hawley, district scout executive.

Five of the boys started the tests in the pool which was filled within a few minutes of the top with 50-yard swimming trials before the fairly large crowd which gathered to watch the young swimmers.

Following the first swimming trials five more youths negotiated the feat of undressing while in the water and then swimming 100 yards. This proved almost too much for most but with much work in losing several difficult shoe laces which were the chief causes of trouble the boys were singularly successful in this test which afforded the most interesting part of the tests and the trials calling for lifting heavy objects from the bottom of the pool and the application of artificial respiration did not prove to be as hard. Feats in life saving to demonstrate the means of breaking strangle holds and towing drowning people to safety very nearly proved fatal for many of the subjects who were more or less manhandled in the trials, but satisfactory results were obtained in all cases, despite the rough methods.

A large group of younger scouts were on hand to watch the trials of their older companions and profit by their demonstrations.

THE NEW COACH

Twin Falls High School is to have a new athletic coach in the person of Felix Platinio, graduate of the University of Idaho.
It is fitting that an Idaho university man should be chosen for work in an Idaho school. If Messers could indirectly profit by the fact, that too, is as it should be.

There is just one point in which it is to be hoped the new coach will take an active and an abiding interest and that is the teaching and the development of athletics as applied to the entire school enrollment and not merely the training of a single team of fifteen or so men in three or four single fields of activity.

We want a winning football team;
we are strong for a winning baseball team. We hope to sweep the field in every direction when it comes to sports, but above and beyond all this we want a system of athletic training in the Twin Falls High School which will permeate clear to the lowest strata of school life and hold there.
Twin Falls asks for a developed interest and a sustained practice of athletics for all students, all the time.

If Mr. Platinio can give us this we might even be willing to excuse
a defeat or two. There are lessons in sportsmanship to be learned by defeat and they are not without value.

AN ACCOMPLISHMENT

Again the United States steps into the spotlight of international achievement in the world of aviation. The feat of Lieutenant Russell B. Maughan in traversing the continent between dawn and dark ranks with the outstanding accomplishments of fliers
the world over, if it does not actually take first place in the annals of aviation.

Lieutenant Maughan will receive an special monetary reward for his effort. There will be no prize or medal, no official recognition of any kind carrying with it emolument of a financial sort. But the Air Service of America gains immeasurably by the work of this intrepid adventurer and the satisfaction which comes of his achievement will probably constitute all the reward Lieutenant Maughan wants or cares for.

Unselfish devotion to the ideals of honor in the interests of one's country is not a thing of the past, although there are times when current events would indicate that there is less of it than used to be the case.

AT JARBIDGE

It may not be generally known that the Jarbridge mining district last year ranked first of all the Nevada counties in the production of gold.
Aked as to his opinion on the question of the greatest gold-producing districts of Nevada, the average man would probably hesitate a moment and then hazard a guess on Goldfield, Tonahop or some other of the advertised "producing centers of a decade ago."
Ten years make a lot of difference.
Jarbridge today not only leads the proccession as to Nevada gold producers but, with the opening of the new mill on the Bluster it will be an extraordinary thing if Jarbridge does not this year head the list of gold-producing districts for the entire United States.
Twin Falls does well to keep these points in mind and to hold constantly to the thought that a few thousand dollars spent in road-improvement as -means of connecting this city with Jarbridge would be money mightily well spent.

taxpayers standing in line until almost the closing hour to square accounts puted at approximately $218,000, and in addition to this amount it is estimated that mail remittances will increase

JEROME COUNTY FORMED

Dr. C. F. Zoller, Chairman of Organization to Direct Activities of Twin Organized Troops.

Organization of a boy scout council for Jerome county in conjunction with the Snake River boy scout district organization was effected at a meeting in Jerome Monday evening of about 20 editors. Dr. C. F. Zoller was elected chairman of the organization, and other officers were elected as follows: J. S.
Wright, director of finance, Paul J.
Kartke; director of camping, Guy L.
Towler; scout commissioner, Dr. L. G.

With four boy scout troops, in the county, two of which are in Jerome, and a total membership of approximately 75, according to F. D. Hawley, district executive, who attended the organization meeting in Jerome, the newly formed council will inaugurate an active campaign for advancement in scouting in Jerome county. The first step will be to have a large number of ty camps at the district's summer camp

in Shoshone Basin.

Summer Camp Is
Scene of Activity

Camp Fire Girls Spending Busy Days on Outing; Lads at Work on New Mess Hall.

The carefree laughter of a dozen or so young girls, members of Owalewa Camp Fire circle, mingled with the sound of saw and carpenter's hammer
at boy scout headquarters in Shoshone Basin these days. The new mess hall for the scouts is rapidly nearing completion; the headquarters building in the center of activities in connection with the use of the plant by the Camp Fire girls.

Considerable improvement has been made in the arrangement of the camp grounds and the entire terrain is in better condition this year than has been the case in the past. The headquarters cabin which is used as an official headquarters as well as supply depot,
bears an air of neatness and order.
There is no single sign of rubbish or refuse about the camp. Life moves forward day by day on a schedule, and the days are busy ones.

Conveniences Provided.
The mess hall is provided with a view to convenience the work of cooking and serving the meals. The building in addition to containing dining room and kitchen, sufficient for needs of the scouts, is provided with hot and cold running water by an ingenious arrangement of roof tanks which will also permit of the installation of shower baths with an ample water supply for all the campers. The entire building is substantially built, the dining room being screened on three sides from a point about four feet from the ground to the bottom of the roof. When completed, which is expected to be within the next 10 days, the cabin built two or three years ago will become simply an administration building in day time and a sleeping room at night.

Tents are dotted about among the trees, where the present guests put in their sleeping hours with the exception of a few of those who prefer their portals of the cabin or the cabin life. Early last week a snowstorm followed a day of cold bleak weather, at which time
the entire camp moved into the cabin tents.

Mrs. Catherine Provost is in charge of camp activities and of the troop now in camp. The guests number 12 or 13 and are fairly morning to late at night. The cabin life is lively. Over the hills, games, reading hour and camp work take up most of the waking hours. Scout leader Hawley with Mrs.
Taylor, Julius Kinder, Blanche Stewart,
Lucile Walker, Dettie Lohr, Barbara Jane and Mary Catherine Provost, Lucille Gentry, Dorothy Estling and Carmen Holland.

Owalewa circle promises to return to town with its treasury enriched and in part replenished by reason of the fact that the circle's commissary has taken of the workers on the mess building as a means during the week. The circle assisted afforded the circle by Donald McLean and Scout Executive Hawley in connection with the campment is highly appreciated by Mrs. Provost and by the members of the circle.

U. S. Construction company, passed through Twin Falls Saturday with six carloads of horses and six carloads of gravel machinery on the way to begin active work on the Bannock and brought from Sheridan, Wyoming, where it had been employed recently.

Saturday's train was loaded with as passengers 10 workmen for whom all had been made Saturday morning by telegram to Secretary C. F.
Wright of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce.

Other materials and equipment forwarded Saturday to Rogerson included
one carload of iron, two cars of dynam-

A Talk With a Twin

Mr. Jacobs Tells Something of Interest to Twin Falls Folks.

There's nothing more convincing than the statement of someone you know and have confidence in. That's why this talk with Mr. Jacobs of Twin Falls might be mighty helpful to many of you.

F. Jacobs, prop. of shoe repair shop, 314 S. Main St., says: "My back was so lame and sore that I couldn't get out of bed. I had to get out of bed at night to the kidney cure. Don's Pills cured me entirely."

Mr. Jacobs is only one of many Twin Falls people who have gratefully endorsed Don's Pills. In your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—but distinctly for DOAN'S PILLS, the same that Mr. Jacobs had the remedy backed by home testimony, 60 cents at all dealers. Re-

STOCKHOLDERS VOTE AGAINST WATER TRADING

Recommendations of Investigators Embodied in Resolution Calling for End to Exchange Plan.

Recommendations of a committee recently named to inquire into operation of a plan adopted by the "committee of nine" to permit exchange of natural flow of Snake river for return flow of water in Snake lake reservoir were embodied in a resolution adopted by about 30 stockholders of the Twin Falls Canal company meeting here Wednesday afternoon with the canal company directors to receive and discuss the committee's report.

The resolution, which was addressed to the canal board, requested the board of directors to "terminate the present exchange of water of Snake river as quickly as possible and adhere in the future to distribution of natural flow waters of Snake river according to decreed rights and further, that the board of directors take the necessary steps to carry this resolution into effect."

The resolution which was offered by L. L. Brockmeyer of Twin Falls, with the second of J. D. Koenig of Hansen, was adopted by unanimous vote.

Board Delays Action

A session of the board of directors immediately following the stockholders meeting was devoted to the consideration of the resolution, which was referred to the committee.

Action taken by the stockholders followed two hours' discussion of the course of which Carl J. Miller of Gastleford, president of the canal board, and a number of the directors present declared that as the exchange plan this season has resulted in the accumulation by upper river users of 180,000 acre feet of stored water in Jackson lake, and the plan now is causing loss of 60,000 second feet to natural flow users of the lower river, Upper river users, he said, are being given credit for water that they could not apply to their lands without detrimental results.

Talks of Conditions Here

Burton Smith, general manager for the canal company, stated that water delivery through the Twin Falls system had been reduced Wednesday to 60 per cent, and that another cut was to be expected in a few days.

"The river is dry at Blackfoot as far as natural flow is concerned," he said, "and we are diverting water from springs' output with water return foot from irrigated lands above that foot from irrigated lands above that point, and we will be in this condition for the balance of the season."

The cut today was made in anticipation of a drop in water delivery by upper river reports to enable us regulate delivery for some time in the future."

T. M. Baird, canal company director and member of the committee of nine, stated to the stockholders that the exchange plan was adopted with view to harmonizing different water users between upper and lower river water users. It had not been expected, he said, that the exchange would be employed as largely as it has been this season.

Reviews Investigation

The report of the investigating committee, which was composed of J. A. Crom, C. J. Miller and N. Y. Sharp, was addressed to the board of directors and stockholders of the Twin Falls Canal company, and read as follows:

"The committee appointed at a mass meeting of the stockholders and stockholders of the Twin Falls Canal company, held in Twin Falls, Idaho, on June 14, 1924, and instructed to make necessary investigations to ascertain if the method now being used by the watermaster on Snake river relative to the release of water in exchange for storage in Jackson lake is detrimental and dangerous to the rights of the Twin Falls Canal company in the natural flow of the Snake river, with to report as follows:

Canal Exchange Detrimental

The investigation as thorough as present conditions and available data will permit, we are of the opinion that the present practice of releasing water in exchange for storage is detrimental and dangerous to the Snake river rights of the Twin Falls Canal company. That water taken to the upper Snake river valley where, this year,

Work on Grading Of New Railroad Moves Steadily On

Steel Laid for Four or Five Miles Out of Rogerson Recent Visitor from Contact Reports.

Approximately 11 miles of grading has been completed between Contact and Wells, Nev., on the new Wells-Rogerson line, according to H. H. Hyde of Contact, who arrived in Twin Falls yesterday.

Mr. Hyde states that about eight miles of grade has been finished out of Rogerson and the steel laid on four or five miles of this. "At a number of points further along between Rogerson and the state line a good deal of work has been done. Engineering work is now going on in connection with the deep cut at Twin Springs, contract on which is understood, to have been awarded to Morrison & Knudson of Boise by the Utah Construction company."

Mr. Hyde also states that the state engineer of Nevada has approved application of Contact for water on Gray springs numbers 1 and 2, which means that Contact will have a water system in the near future, work on which will be commenced at once by the Contact Construction and Investment company.

OPENING NUMBER ATTRACTS CROWD

Large Audience Grooms Guatemala Marimba Band at First of Chautauqua Offerings.

The Guatemala Marimba band, opening Twin Falls' Chautauqua week, was greeted Wednesday evening by an audience that comfortably filled the big brown Chautauqua tent that has been erected on the corner of Second street and Fifth avenue east, next to the city park, where succeeding numbers of the course are to be presented.

Appreciation of the offering was evidenced by bursts of applause at the close of each number on the program, which included an unusual range of band selections.

The organization is composed of six marimba players and one bass viol accompanist. Said to be an instrument of Aztec origin, the marimba resembles a gigantic xylophone, and the native musicians produce an effect of harmony with it. Members of the organization were brought to this country seven years ago by the noted theater manager, Charles B. Dillingham, and the band has come to Chautauqua this year fresh from metropolitan successes in the east.

Financial Success Indicated

Success of Twin Falls Chautauqua this season from the financial viewpoint seemed assured on the opening day, according to Dr. G. H. Caldwell, secretary of the local Chautauqua committee, who stated Wednesday evening that, although several persons engaged in selling tickets had not then reported, it was indicated that the amount of the guarantee had been collected.

Ada Roach and Ruth Freeman, "Chautauqua's favorite entertainers," at 3 o'clock this afternoon will present an offering of musical comedy, songs and other monologues, parodies on fads and fancies of the day and musical numbers. They also will furnish the musical entertainment at the opening of the evening's offering which is to be a lecture by Arthur Walwyn Evans on "The Little Red Schoolhouse."

WOULD FLY FLAG FROM POLE AT COURTHOUSE

Request that a flagpole be provided on the courthouse grounds for displaying the national emblem and that this be done before the Fourth of July was contained in a communication received Wednesday by the board of county commissioners from a committee of the Daughters of the American Revolution, composed of Mrs. M. C. Ware, Mrs. H. L. Schidman and Mrs. M. F. Gamble.
