Hundreds of visitors from all parts of southern Idaho are expected to gather in Twin Falls on the Fourth of July to attend what members of the committee say will be one of the most spectacular celebrations ever staged in Idaho. Miss LaVorne following the contest will compete with the best girl riders in southern Idaho for further prizes. Miss LaVorne is said to have won many prizes for her riding and the committee felt highly gratified at being able to obtain her for the events here.

The parade in which many organizations will participate will take place at 9 o'clock. During the morning there will be a free ball game, an address by President A. H. Upham of the University of Idaho, a baseball game under the direction of Mrs. L. H. Masters and other events. McADOO PASSES 500 MARK BEFORE ADJOURNMENT AT CLOSE OF 42ND BALLOT

Californian's Vote Shows but Slight Change After Reaching New High Total; Bryan's Performance Causes Much Speculation and Apparently Solidifies Both Principal Forces.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—William Gibbs McAdoo ran to a new high mark in tonight's balloting in the democratic national convention. He passed the much sought after 500 votes by dint of much frantic work and persuasion and managing on the part of his floor managers, who declared they had not finished their work yet.

Running close to the 40 and 44 ball records of the Baltimore and San Francisco conventions respectively, the Madison Square Garden exhibition gave promise of setting a new mark. McAdoo hit his high mark so far in the forty-second ballot when he polled 5634 votes. Smith at that time had dropped a little below his high total, 5182, made on previous ballots. At the close of the thirtieth ballot last night McAdoo had stood at 4172 votes. He gained nearly 100 in today's balloting and the votes he got were taken principally from John W. Davis, who fell to 70 on the last ballot tonight. The McAdoo people went into tonight's session attempting to estimate what damage had been done to their cause by the riotous performance of the late afternoon session when William Jennings Bryan approved of McAdoo from the platform and caused cries of "oil."

Leaders Got Together.
At first there were various predictions of what the effect might be at the night session, but when the leaders got outside and though it over, it became apparent that the principal effect of the Bryan incident had been to solidify the Smith forces and to spur the McAdoo people on to a new record. To pass the 500 mark tonight and adjourn while it

Rockwell Still Confident His Candidate Will Win; Says Others to be Eliminated.
NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—McAdoo had a "great day," in the expressed opinion of David Ladd Rockwell, his campaign manager. "I'm sure," he said, "that the McAdoo people will keep his eyes open, Rockwell, during the evening recess declared that the McAdoo line were stronger than ever that it had been conclusively shown his delegates would not surrender. He pointed to the gain McAdoo made during the day's balloting. "I believe he would wear down his opposition and wear above a majority, and asserted emphatically that no one authorized to speak for McAdoo was in an effort to agree on a compromise candidate and thus end the deadlock." Declaring there was no possibility of McAdoo releasing his delegates even if the tide should turn strongly against him, Rockwell said the candidate had no intention of withdrawing from the race.

"He's in the fight to stay," said Rockwell. "The fight is being narrowed down. Two are confident that all will be eliminated except McAdoo."

MEANS GOES TO PRISON

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—Sentenced to serve two years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta and fined $10,000 and $5000 respectively for conspiracy to release whiskey illegally from distilleries, Gustav H. Means, former department of justice agent, and Elmer W. Jarnecke, his secretary, tonight were sent back to Tomb, unable to furnish bail.

Overruling motion for a new trial, Federal Judge Wolverson imposed the maximum penalty. Counsel for Means and Jarnecke they filed a writ of error.

URGES RALSTON AS BEST CHOICE ON COMPROMISE

Taggart Emphasizes Merits of Indiana Senator; Points to Economy; Not Hostile to Any Other Candidate, He Says.

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—The merits of Senator Ralston of Indiana as a compromise candidate for the democratic presidential nomination were pointed to by Thomas Taggart, a Hoosier state political leader, in a statement issued later today at the recess of the national convention.

Taggart emphasized that Ralston made a good record for economy as chief executive of Indiana and that the Indiana delegation had no hostility toward any other candidate. He said indignantly that he did not believe William Jennings Bryan's address to the convention, mentioning Ralston, was an acceptable candidate, had either inspired or aided the senator's candidacy.

When Ralston's friends urged Taggart to start a drive for him tonight on the theory that McAdoo had been hurt by Bryan's speech, Taggart declined, and counseled waiting for another day or two if it seemed advisable. "We of Indiana are voting persistently for Senator Ralston, not because of hostility to any one but because of a well justified partiality for him," he said Taggart's statement. "Under all the conditions as they have developed we are convinced that his nomination is better calculated to unite the party than that of any other."

EDUCATORS IN SESSION

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—Nomination of Jess H. Newton, superintendent of schools of Denver, for president of the national education association and of other officers including twelve vice presidents and a director of education for each state was the principal event today at the association's convention. Mr. Newton was chosen to succeed Miss Olive M. Jones, New York City school principal, who will become a vice president. Other vice presidents nominated include Mary P. Mooney, San Francisco; W. O. Webb, Globe, Ariz.; and A. A. Slade, Casper, Wyo.

Veteran Democrat Finds Thrills in Present Sessions

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—Parley B. Perkins, 81-year-old banker, Iowa banker, and veteran of every democratic convention since '84, finds in the present gathering the best thriller of his experience. "The nearest thing to this we ever had," he reminisced, between ballots "was at Chicago in 1892, when Bourke Cockran talked all night against Grover Cleveland. We had a good fight at Baltimore and we made history there, but I would put this meeting right here down for the classic example of a deadlock conference. Some of these young fellows don't know yet what they are in for."

BORAH REQUESTS EXPENSE FIGURE

Sends Letter to Butler Outlining Facts to be Submitted as to Campaign Costs.

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—Chairman Borah of the senate committee authorized to maintain a continuing investigation into political expenditures during the presidential election, addressed a letter today to William M. Butler, chairman of the republican national committee, outlining the first formal inquiry on the subject.

The committee chairman asked for the amount of cash the republican organization had on hand July 1, plans it might have to meet projected expenses, how much it proposed to raise and expend, the limit it would place upon campaign contributions, any facts it had as to money expenditures actually completed or in progress by its opponents and whether the republican national committee would be willing to begin on September 1 reporting to the investigators "the total of funds received and the names of subscribers." Similar inquiry will be made of the national chairman of each of the other political parties.

FORECAST VOTE OF CONFERENCE FOR LAFOLLETTE

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 2 (AP)—Declaring that neither the republican nor the democratic platforms was acceptable to them, the national committee of the progressives political action today drew up plans for the convention of the organization in this city July 4 and 5.

William H. Johnston, chairman of the committee, said he will also deliver the keynote speech Friday, said that there was no doubt but that a national ticket would be placed in the field to run independent of the major parties.

"Virtually all of the delegates who are here are favorable to the presidential candidacy of Senator Robert M. La Follette, and are insistent upon his running," he said.

This sentiment was echoed by J. A. H. Hopkins, chairman of the committee of 48. Other leaders predicted that the delegates would not only nominate La Follette, but would adopt the platform which his followers offered in vain to the recent republican national convention.

Both major parties have done exactly what we expected them to do and have really advanced our cause rather than their own," said Mr. Hopkins. "Despite the committee's declaration, it was said, that at least 700 delegates would attend the conference. Arthur Holder, executive secretary, was authorized for a statement that 32 states had been organized under the banner of the conference.

Japanese Youth Is Charged With Insult to Flag

Okada Under Arrest and is Alleged to be Guilty Who Cut Down U. S. Colors; Two Were Taken Yesterday.

TOKIO, July 2 (AP)—Rihei Okada, age 21, was arrested at Osaka today under a charge of cutting down the flag of the United States at the American embassy here yesterday. Okada was a member of a society for the prevention of bolshevism and that he had been identified as a member of a gang which mobbed the fascist Goto's residence last December 27.

The two young men arrested yesterday, the police said, are members of the same society, which is said to be made up mostly of young reactionaries with ruffianly tendencies. They are still in custody and will be tried today in connection with the flag-cutting. All three lived in a lodging house which the society maintained near the American embassy. It was announced. It was here that the mutilated flag was found.

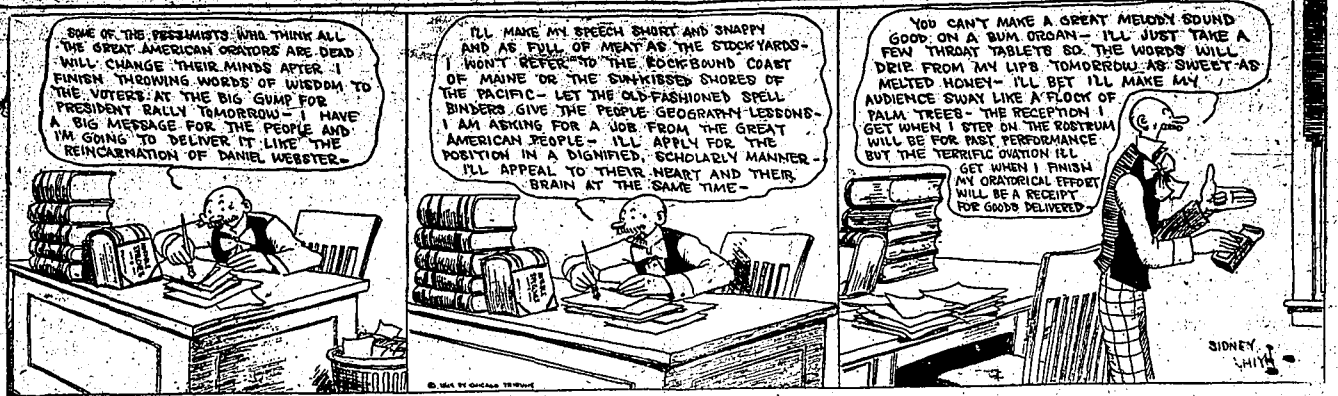

The criminal code prescribes a maximum of two years imprisonment for a crime such as that of Okada is charged with committing, and the authorities intend to ask that Okada be given the limit.

THE GUMPS—SWEET TOMORROW

BRYAN THROWS SESSION INTO NEAR STAMPEDE

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—That stormy petrel of democratic politics, William Jennings Bryan, added another tumultuous chapter to his long career today when he went before the democratic convention in an attempt to stem the tide of opposition to William G. McAdoo.

Interrupting an all-day succession of inconclusive ballots for a nominee for the presidency, the three times candidate of his party plunged the convention into a near riot and finally was all but driven from the platform by heckling delegates and boisterous galleries.

Besides Mr. McAdoo, he mentioned seven other presidential aspirants who would be satisfactory to him, but none of them aroused more than momentary enthusiasm and when the balloting was resumed scarcely a vote had been changed.

Neither did the conference of the leaders during an evening recess materially alter the situation, and the convention went on into another night session with its disorganization over the nomination still in a tangle. McAdoo and Smith, both unable to make material headway, kept their relative places at the head of the list. Davis of West Virginia lost a few votes, but remained in third place, and the supporters of Ralston of Indiana became more active in presenting the qualifications of their candidate as a compromise selection.

The entire effect of Mr. Bryan's appearance before the convention was not immediately apparent. The McAdoo men declared the incident would stimulate a new rally in the lagging fortunes of the former treasury secretary, but the Smith supporters said Bryan had turned the trick for which they had been waiting and relegated the McAdoo candidacy definitely to the limbo.

The speaker began with a plea for party harmony and moved on amid applause to declare he would name one of the men to whom he objected and wanted only to call attention now to several he considered eminently qualified.

Mentions Meredith.

The first name he mentioned was that of Dr. A. A. Murphy of Florida State university. Laughter swept the floor and galleries and a few good natured gibes were aimed at the commoner. There were ripples of applause as he presented in turn the names of Josephus Daniels of North Carolina, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, Senator Ralston of Indiana, Senator Walsh of Montana and E. T. Meredith of Iowa. Both applause and laughter answered a presentation of the qualifications of Mr. Bryan's brother, the governor of Nebraska.

Knows Lot About Men

A little crowd was gathered in the great man's studio to see his pictures before they were sent to the academy. A girl strolling around turned to the artist and remarked:

"Strange that angels are always women, isn't it?"

"Yes," said the artist, with a twinkle. "Shows artists don't know much about women, doesn't it?"

"It may be so," retorted the girl quietly, "but it certainly shows that they know a lot about men."—Modern Art.

METHODIST NINE TAKES CONTEST FROM BAPTISTS

The Methodist began to look up in the church league Wednesday evening with a win over the Baptists, who were unfortunate in the first inning, losing the game, the final score being 14 to 8, eleven of them coming in the first inning.

The "Hardshells" presented a somewhat stronger team this week than formerly and in the first inning they found "Brannock" Wolf foot twister, for nine hits which with numerous errors gave them 11 runs for the inning.

Martyr followed Glad's footsteps for the preceding night and was a hitting phenom, leading the batting list with 1.00 for a single and a double in two trips to the plate. Bear with two hits out of three trials was next in line and Lechleiter, Martin, Baker, Dean and Sturdevant all batted .500 for the evening. Butler's three-base hit in the first inning was another feature.

Baptist—Farrar 3b; Rivers, cf; Martyr, 2b; Brannock, p; Jones, ss; Butler, 1b; Shottwell, rf; Jackson, 4b; Dean, lf; M. Villers, 1b.

The score by innings: R. H. E. Methodist 11 10 14 12 2 1. Baptist 8 3 14 8 5 6.

Umpires—Hunter on balls, Cook on bases.

Tonight the Presbyterians will tangle with the Knoll team on the Lincoln lot at 6:30.

In the morning the sugar factory and Hansen community teams will mix and in the afternoon the Blues are scheduled to tangle with the Salt Lake "Opta." Richardson and Flynn will probably line up as the battery for the Blues.

The field is being worked over with the purpose of putting it in first class condition. Cars will be allowed on the field during the afternoon game but not in the morning.

Throat Disorder Cause

of Most Heart Disease

Any inflammation of the joints in children or young persons, especially if accompanied by fever, should be looked upon as a possible source of damage to the heart, and calls for rest in bed and treatment by the family physician. In children rheumatism shows itself not only in the form of rheumatic fever, but in other ways that are less easily recognized—especially as a troublesome "growing pains" and as the nervous affection known as chorea, or St. Vitus' dance. The conditions have the same dangerous possibilities of setting up inflammation of the heart valves as has inflammatory rheumatism itself and deserves the same careful treatment.

"In children who have had rheumatic symptoms of any sort, or who have signs of damage to the heart valves, infected tonsils and adenoids should be removed and scrupulous care should be given to the teeth and mouth," Dr. Lewis A. Conner, professor of medicine at the Cornell university medical school, said in a recent radio broadcast by the New York state department of health. "A better understanding on the part of parents, teachers and the general public of the important relation of throat infections and the various rheumatic manifestations of childhood to valvular heart disease would prevent many children from becoming subject to heart disease."—New York Times.

Bark Forestation

Great trees from little seeds may grow—sometimes. Experts of the United States forest service have found that many of the western yellow pine forests in the Northwest second-growth pine is not multiplying as it should.

The older trees are there. These trees bear plenty of cones. These cones carry enough seed to start the new growth. But the seed never gets a chance to dig in. Squirrels collect and store the potential forest for their own use.—Science Service.

New Record Is Made for Sale Season Tickets

Chautauqua Closes With Opera; Children's Attendance Greater Than Any Like City in the West.

Twin Falls in the number of season tickets sold to children for the Chautauqua, established the record for the greatest number of tickets of this class of any city of its size in the west; it was announced from the platform at the Chautauqua tent Wednesday evening at which time "Robin Hood," a comic opera, was given by May Valentines' company.

A substantial surplus over the guarantee of $1050 was made, according to the announcement of Mrs. Burton L. Morse, who is chairman of the Twin Falls Chautauqua association. The total amount in tickets sold was $2349.50 and, divided as follows: $81 each, the children's season tickets at $1 each, $2349.50 and $27.75 each and 105 student tickets.

Reasons given for the great number of tickets sold and for the record on children's tickets hung up is that 113 members of the association sold tickets. Last year, according to reports, the Chautauqua fund also showed a surplus while for a number of years before that there was no surplus. A meeting of the association has been called for this evening at which time discussion will be taken up as to what should be done to increase the money. Collections of the entertainments offered will also be in order if there are any, and these will be forwarded to the Chautauqua company.

To Elect Officers.

At this meeting officers for the company year will also be elected to take the places of the present officers who are: Mrs. Burton L. Morse, chairman; Will Patrick, vice chairman; George Caldwell, secretary, and James Fitzgerald, treasurer, and Miss Jessie Fraser, corresponding secretary. A vote of thanks has been extended to G. G. Price, director of the Chautauqua, for the manner in which he served the association.

The closing Chautauqua number, "Robin Hood," given Wednesday evening, was attended by 1500 Twin Falls citizens, every one of whom, judging from the applause given, was entirely pleased with the performance.

Tenured Attr.

The tenured airs of "Robin Hood" coupled with some first class acting by a well-contoured and well-dressed cast resulted in a performance of the well-known light opera which pleased an overflowing house at the final number of the Chautauqua run last night.

The entire performance comprised a variety with any operative offering in Twin Falls. All the principals are persons of high order of merit.

"Robin Hood" constituted the entire program of the final performance.

Stars We Cannot See

Two hundred millions of millions of miles away is a star called Algor. It is the second brightest star in the constellation of Perseus, and it has the curious habit of varying in brightness at regular intervals.

After much research we know now that Algor consists of two stars—one bright, the other dark. They are each about a million miles in diameter and about two million miles apart. They revolve around one another, and when the dark star is between us and the bright star we receive from the latter diminished light.

There are several other stars of the Algor type, and it is simply through our researches that we are aware that there exist in the heaven dark stars—stars which give no light at all and are in themselves totally invisible.

How many there may be we do not know, for it is only by their power of eclipsing bright stars that we can recognize them at all.

Shortest Railroad

The shortest railroad reporting to the Interstate commerce commission is the Durium (N. C.) Union Station company. The road is sixteen one-hundredths of a mile in length.

Watches Are Affected By Actions of Owner

Time and again one hears words to this effect from unfortunate people who simply cannot get a watch to record correctly the unceasing march of old Father Time. In many cases, however, it is not the fault of the watch at all, but of the wearer's temperament, for modern timepieces are so delicately adjusted that they are affected by this.

A case is recorded of a woman who was constantly taking her watch to the maker with complaints that it was either too fast or too slow. So tired did he become of her constant visits that he wrote the watch for a week himself, and found that it kept perfect time. He then made inquiries, and found that the woman was a sufferer from a nervous complaint; at times she was alert and vivacious, and at others she was the victim of fits of depression. When she was in the latter mood the watch went slow, but when she was bright and lively it gained.

Many men who limp, or have some other peculiarity in their walk, have been unable to wear a watch which keeps correct time. Even changing the pocket in which it is generally carried has been known to have a disastrous effect on the beat of timepieces. Engine drivers have on occasion found that their watches kept perfect time as long as they were working on one route, but directly they went out to relief duty and had to drive over lines with which they were not acquainted their watches became hopelessly out of order.

When you take your watch to be regulated you should, if possible, tell the watch repairer the circumstances in which the instrument went wrong.

Prospective Bridegroom Afraid to Take a Chance

What with his little brown waxed moustache and all, Wilber Budd was a very hard catch, but at last Helen felt that she had him safely landed.

Leaving back against his broad shoulder, on a parlor sofa, she upbooked a sigh of relief.

"But, Helen, are you sure, if I marry you, that your father will give us a house of our own?" he said hesitatingly.

"Positive," she assured him.

"And do you think he will put me in all the best clubs in town?"

"Certainly, Wilber."

"And are you certain that he will provide us with money enough to live in the style to which I feel I ought to have been accustomed?"

"Absolutely, Wilber."

"And he will take me into the firm and let me put my name first on the letter heads?"

"He will, Wilber."

"And do you think he would let me give jass parties here every week after we're married?"

"Of course, Wilber."

"He made as though to kiss her, and then started to his feet."

"Good-by forever!" he cried, hoarsely. "Your father is too eager to get you off his hands!"—Detroit Free Press.

Gorgeous Visiting Cards

Mrs. Burton Kingsland, author of "Eligette for All Occasions," says that "in the early days, when everybody's visiting cards strove to be individual, the resulting products must have looked not unlike the old-fashioned valentines dear to our childhood. We read of eruptions made out of paper, or of cardboards flanked with sheets to imitate silk, tulle or what not—perhaps bordered with lace paper that framed a hand-painted landscape. The owner's name—though the raison d'être of the card—was really the least of it, but might be decorated in a graceful scroll evolving from the beak of a little bird singing in a tree top."

According to Mrs. Kingsland, even so late as the 1840s young men of fashion acted a card highly glazed with the same—such microscopic characters as to be almost illegible, which had succeeded the custom of engraving a facsimile of the owner's signature.—Detroit News.

CHICAGO SENDS MANY PROGRAMS OVER THE RADIO

Windy City Has Ten Active Stations; Receives News of Arctic Expedition and Other Important Events.

CHICAGO July 3.—The broadcasting of entertainment with the radioophone, one of the greatest achievements of the day, finds Chicago near the top of the list of "hosts." While no claiming the most powerful, the 10 active broadcasting stations give it a distinction in numbers and variety of programs.

Including the stations that have sprung out of existence, among them WBBM, operated by the city of Chicago, there have been 16 working in Chicago and its suburbs within the short time broadcasting has become popular. The city's pioneer in the radioelectric field, KTW, is still in operation. It probably has shown less change than any of the others, as far as ownership is concerned. However, it has been greatly improved in all respects.

Rapid Improvement.
The former station WDAF, now WGN, and owned by the Chicago Tribune, grew from the dreams of two amateurs. At the start a low powered transmitter, it has advanced to a station that can reach Australia. It previously was owned by the Chicago Board of Trade.

Station WJAF. owned by the Chicago Drovers' Journal, has its principal broadcasting period devoted to the distribution of the market. It too is one of the city's older stations. The first station to be operated here exclusively by a newspaper, WMAQ, was founded by the Chicago Daily News, and is an "old timer." It has been improved until now it has a record of many long-distance listeners.

Get Arctic News.
Following in the list of stations is WEBB, formerly WJAZ, which is now partially maintained by the Chicago Evening Post. One of its principal achievements has been the late night transmission of the news of the McMillan Arctic expedition. The call letters WJAZ are to be given to a new station to be erected here.

Other stations like WPAZ at Oak Park, WTAS at Elgin, official American Legion station, and WQBD at Zion, located in the Chicago district. WTAS is being improved to make it the most powerful station maintained and operated exclusively by an amateur. WQBD is owned and operated by Wilbur Glenn Wadsworth, overseer of Christ Church Apostolic church in Zion. Its principal feature is the broadcasting of classical music and the services at Zion tabernacle.

The youngest station WQJ, was preceded by WLS, in whose operation the Chicago Herald-Examiner co-operates. Of the newer stations, WLS is the most powerful and in its brief existence has piled up a lengthy distance record.

War Mothers Hear National Head in All Day Meeting

Mrs. Margaret McClure Tells of Work Now Being Undertaken at District Meeting Wednesday.

War mothers of the southwestern county chapters held a district meeting in Twin Falls Wednesday at which time the outstanding features were the election of officers for the coming year and an address by Mrs. Margaret McClure of Kansas City, national war mother, who arrived to attend the meeting which closed Wednesday evening in company with Mrs. Frank DeKay, state war mother.

Mrs. Grace of Shoshone was re-elected district war mother and Mrs. David Brown of Twin Falls, vice war mother, at the business session which was held at the First Methodist church during the morning. Plans at this time were also made for holding the next meeting of War Mothers at Shoshone. Delegates were in attendance at the meeting from Elmore, Mountain Home and Twin Falls, the three chapters in the district.

Forty-five members were present at the luncheon held at the Rogers cafe Wednesday noon at 1 o'clock at which time Mrs. McClure, who arrived on the noon train, was the guest of honor as was Mrs. DeKay. The afternoon session was taken up with an address by Mrs. McClure, who told of the work that is being done by war mothers to aid disabled war veterans and of the efforts being made to obtain the release of 100 boys in federal prisons who are being held there for offenses committed during the war. Mrs. DeKay also gave a short address in which she introduced the national war mother.

Twin Falls Schools Head Finished Work

M. O. Mitchell, for 10 Years Teacher, Principal and Superintendent; Going East to University.

M. O. Mitchell, for 10 years past teacher, principal and superintendent of Twin Falls schools, and Mrs. Mitchell expect to leave Twin Falls today, going to Cambridge, Mass., where Mr. Mitchell will enter upon post-graduate study with view to further advancement as an educator. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will go from here immediately to Fitchburg, where Mr. Mitchell will take over teaching of classes in the Idaho State Technical Institute, which up to this time has been taught by Ernest D. Bloom, former superintendent of Blackfoot schools, who has been elected to succeed Mr. Mitchell as superintendent of schools here. Mr. and Mrs. Bloom and children are expected to arrive here this week.

Under the administration of Mr. Mitchell as superintendent there has been established in Twin Falls schools the junior high school which includes the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, the elementary grades and senior high school. Mr. Mitchell entered upon his superintendency at a time when rigorous retrenchment was imperative and successfully maintained a system with radically reduced expenditures. During his first year as superintendent, Mr. Mitchell devoted a part of his time to teaching high school classes. During the past two years he has served in the dual capacity of superintendent and principal of the high school.

He has been actively identified with the work of civic organizations, serving as a director of the chamber of commerce and being a member of the Rotary club. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell have been active members of the Presbyterian church.

250 CHILDREN IN 'CIRCUS' PARADE

Awards Made Six Boys and Girls with Best Costumes in Procession.

In costumes of bright colors and many kinds, approximately 250 children paraded through the business streets of Twin Falls Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the opening feature of "carnival day" at Chautauqua. In the parade, on horses, in cars and on foot were children dressed in costumes and masquerades many of which were exceptionally clever and surprisingly original.

Three ribbon prizes were awarded girls for best costumes in the parade and three for boys. Girls who wore ribbon prizes were: Gwendolyn Thompson, first, dressed as the Goddess of Liberty; Esther Jewell, second, dressed, as a rose; Grace Johnson, third, dressed as a gypsy. Boys who wore ribbon prizes were: Arthur Bliff, first, dressed as an Indian; Robert Shunkel, second, dressed as a Spanish torero; Howard Reed, third, dressed as a cowboy.

The parade drew applause from citizens who lined the streets on both sides as it came up Shoshone street headed by the Boy Scout band of 12 players, with Miss Kathryn Brown, junior chorus, as director, leading the way on a horse. Miss Della Wyman, local school play supervisor, assisted in staging the parade, also mounted. What probably drew the greatest amount of applause was the cage of boys dressed as monkeys in a wire delivery wagon. Two tiny tots dressed as policemen just in front of the band also brought applause from the crowd.

Judging from the number of children in the parade, it appears they got the idea of the number of children who packed the Chautauqua tent following the parade to watch the antics of Herbert A. Taylor, clown, juggler and ventriloquist, "carnival day" was a huge success. Children almost jammed the benches Wednesday afternoon at the closing day of Chautauqua and roared with mirth at Taylor, who is said to be exceptionally clever.

Wessling, Death at Nat Was Accidental

William Wessling, 34, who drowned last Saturday night at Barbary station, came to his death accidentally and not as the result of being hit over the head and pushed into the plunge as was rumored. P. J. Grossman, coroner, announced late Wednesday evening following his return from Buhl where he investigated rumors to that effect. Bruises about the head and shoulders and a rash on the forehead were received in the pool in getting the body out, it was found, and not as the result of a fight or attempted murder. Coroner Grossman was accompanied to Buhl Wednesday morning by Deputy Sheriff C. E. Jones and a thorough investigation made. It was found that Wessling had been swimming at the natatorium and using the slide and it is thought that bruises found were either from that cause or as a result of attempts made in getting the body out of the water. The body is being held at Buhl pending completion of funeral arrangements.

TWIN FALLS WEEKLY NEWS

Established 1904
Twin Falls News Publishing Company,
Ltd., Publishers
Entered as second class matter December 12, 1903, at the Post Office at Twin Falls, Idaho, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

IT'S TOO BAD, BUT—
Lawn and shrubbery in the residence district of Twin Falls are suffering these days. Grass patches which in previous years have donated their mantle of verdant green and carried it unscathed until fall are now of a dusty brown hue—not all, of course, but far too many.

This spring there was practically no moisture in the ground when the first signs of approaching spring in the shape of buds and flowers began to make their appearance, in sharp distinction to other years when the irrigating season, so to speak, began with the soil carrying a very actual moisture content. This is the real reason of the trouble. One hose out working from six to eight hours a day is not sufficient to irrigate one fifty-foot city lot in days like these and many lots are not equipped with more.

There is another reason as well, namely, the fact that a good many people are apparently failing to use as much water this summer as in former years. The records at the water office show this, and it is a pity. But the main reason is due to general conditions to a greater extent than to deliberate refusal to spend the money for an adequate water allowance.

This is poor economy from the standpoint of the city, to be sure, but all the water which could be poured out through the outlets on all the lots of the city would still be inadequate to keep the lawns and gardens in their old-time form.

But better this than a policy which would take away in the slightest degree from the available supply for crop irrigation.

TAXLESS BONDS WIDELY HELD
Tax-free securities are not so plentiful as has been supposed. A report of the investigation made by the Federal Trade Commission shows that as a matter of fact, such securities are distributed widely and rather democratically.

There are about thirty-two billions of securities either wholly or partially exempt. Of these, one-half are held by people of relatively small means. There are twelve billions held by corporations which in turn are largely owned by people of moderate means.

The totally exempt securities amount to about twelve billions, of which only one-third are in the hands of very wealthy persons.

The multibillionaire, to be sure, derives greater benefit proportionately from his untaxed bond investment than does the man of small income, because the income tax rate of the former is higher. Therefore the argument remains for limiting the issuance of tax-free securities because it is playing into the hands of the very rich. But that argument is weakened by the circumstance that the thrifty folks of less wealth have invested in such securities and are still investing in them, according to their means, and are reaping some advantage from them.

Perhaps the strongest objection, after all, to such exemption, is that by creating an unnaturally good market good market among all classes for public loans, it encourages public extravagance and leads cities and states unduly into debt, and that in turn checks prosperity and injures everybody.

Yet this evil, like most other economic evils, tends to correct itself. The interest rate on tax-exempt securities slowly sinks, because of the competitive demand for them, until eventually they may be no more profitable than taxed bonds or stocks, and so will be no more in demand.

Commonest Metal
Iron is the metal most used by man, yet the metal which is by far commonest in the earth's crust is not iron, but calcium. Forty per cent of limestone is calcium. Calcium is a very light metal, easily hammered, easily drawn into wire, and almost as pretty in color as gold. Why then, you may ask, do we not make more use of it? There are two reasons: the first that it is very difficult to isolate from its ores, but the second is worse. When isolated, it is the most active of metals, it catches fire, and it burns away into bright light. The present price of calcium is about twenty times that of gold.

VOTERS FORESEE WATER CLAIMS G.O.P. TRIUMPH TO BE PUSHED

Nearly 100 Republican Men and Women Here to Scan Political Situation.

Analyses of the present political situation in the nation and state, coupled with reports on progress in organization work, at a dinner meeting in the banquet room of the Hotel Perit, formed the basis for expression of confidence on that occasion in the complete triumph of the republican party in the election, next November.

Committee Women Scores
One of the most interesting and able addresses of the occasion was delivered by Miss Gladys Ferguson of Twin Falls, who recently has been appointed national committeewoman for the republican party in Idaho. Miss Ferguson outlined plans for organization of republican women voters and asked for co-operation in attainment of the objective for her work.

The plank in the republican national platform that pledges the party to make effective measures that will place agriculture on an economic plane of equality with industry and labor was written into the convention in Cleveland largely as a result of the instigation of Senator Gooding of Idaho, according to C. A. Robinson of Twin Falls, who related some of his observations of the convention as a member of Idaho's delegation.

Sees Fight for New Party
Predicting the return of the republican party to administration of the national government, Mr. Robinson declared that the republican party in Idaho has never entered a campaign under more auspicious circumstances than this year. He designated the progressive party as the republican's chief opponent in the November election in Idaho, and stated that the progressives feel the weight of a united and determined opposition.

Talk that "there is no difference except in the name between the two old parties," is propaganda put out by persons who seek the destruction of one or both of the old parties. Since the holding of Twin Falls, republican state committeemen, declared in the course of an address wherein he traced the history of both republican and democratic parties and of occasional third party manifestations.

The difference between the republican and the democratic parties, he said, is fundamental and is displayed notably in difference in economic policies. The republican party, he said, seeks to assure a fair return to the producers while the democratic party seeks to bring about price reductions to consumers. He attributed the difficulties of agriculture at the present time to effects of this democratic doctrine as carried into execution through the democratic legislation creating the federal reserve system which, he said, differed from a republican plan for a federal reserve system in that it surrendered to the reserve board the governmental power of regulating the currency.

Emphasis was laid upon the duty of citizenship with respect especially to the ballot, in brief talks by W. D. Gillette of Ellettsburg, W. W. Graham of Twin Falls and J. W. Taylor, Twin Falls county attorney.

The meeting was presided over by Frank L. Stephan, chairman of the republican county central committee.

TELLS OF PLAN FOR CLUB UNION

C. D. Thomas, Guest of Botanians; Discusses General Organization of Civic Bodies

Details of a plan for the organization under one head of all local clubs together with the chamber of commerce as worked out in the cities of the north-west were described to the Twin Falls Rotary club by C. D. Thomas, who has recently returned from an extensive tour of Puget Sound and other north-western cities.

Mr. Thomas was the guest of D. D. Alvord, president of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce. In referring to general conditions in the country which he visited, Mr. Thomas declared that Twin Falls had abundant reason to congratulate itself upon the general crop situation in these parts. He described whole areas of land upon which crops were growing at a total loss due to water shortage and stated that in many places where harvesting was going forward the actual result was such as to bring into question the advisability of attempting any harvest whatever. Referring specifically to the matter of general organization of clubs in Tacoma, Mr. Thomas stated that the idea had been well received and quickly adopted in Tacoma. The plan provides for a whole-hearted upbuilding of the chamber of commerce or local Commercial club as the head and front of civic activity, with the Rotary, Kiwanis and similar luncheon clubs actively back of the chamber. Matters of public interest initiated in any of the clubs come before the chamber for action, the membership of which is general and includes all members of all other clubs as well.

The plan has always been regarded as a sound one in that it makes of the chamber of commerce an active functioning institution on all public questions and delegates the activities of the other clubs to the realm of discussion of all such matters with action of any sort in the hands of the central body.

M. C. Mitchell, superintendent of schools in this district, delivered a brief speech of farewell in anticipation of his leaving Twin Falls within the next week. He spoke at length of his work here during the past 10 years and stated that he left with feelings of keen regret because of the advancement of many friendships formed by himself and family. O. E. Booth, president, voiced the general regret of the membership in connection with Mr. Mitchell's leaving.

Edward Lambert Ott, Chautauque lecturer, was introduced by Burton E. Morse. Mr. Ott delivered a highly interesting analysis of the aims and the program of International Rotary.

TO DISCONTINUE BUSINESS

O. H. Robbins Disposes of Entire Stock and Will Leave for the East With His Family to Make Home.

The entire stock of goods of the Robbins book store, established some two or three years ago by O. H. Robbins, has been sold to the Idaho Department store and is now being removed to the latter institution.

Mr. Robbins, an old-time resident of Twin Falls, expects to leave for the east within a few days, his family to follow. Little later Mr. Robbins was for number of years engaged in the grocery business here, selling out some years ago. For a time he devoted his full attention to the care of his ranch in the Snake River valley, later engaging in the real estate business as a member of the Sanger Robbins Realty company.
