Adequate Army and Navy Second to None Advocated in Strong Resolutions by Veterans of World War.

NAMED COMMANDER OF THE 'FORTY AND EIGHT'

ST. PAUL, Sept. 18 (AP)—George Dohsen of Passaic, N. J., was elected chief chemist for the LaSalle Society Forties at the final business session of the Forties and Eight here today.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 18 (AP)—With rousing choruses of "eyes" the sixth national convention of the American Legion went on record vigorously here today for a navy second to none, an adequate army and other measures of national preparedness.

Passage of the universal service act, sounder Americanism, soldiers and officers training camps, the national guard and similar proposals also received the endorsement of the convention in a session lasting more than five hours.

Condemnation of two departments of the United States veterans bureau and certain immediate officials of Colonel C. R. Forbes on the indictment charging irregularities in his management of the bureau, were contained in other resolutions.

On internal affairs, the first business of the convention session was shown when the interim national commander John B. Quinn, who retires tomorrow, the latter received unanimous and ringing approval.

Most of the business of the convention was out of the way tonight and politics came to the fore as the delegates prepared for the election of officers and adjournment of the convention which will meet in Omaha next year.

What various district delegations went into caucus tonight there was no well defined expression concerning the name of the probable successor to Commander Quinn and there still was talk of the District of Columbia, and John R. McQuigg of Idaho, were the names most frequently heard.

Other names also were reported, but other names also were reported under consideration in the executive caucuses under way tonight.

Adjutant General of Idaho Is Dead; Operation Fatal

Lieutenant Colonel Harry A. Padgham Dies at Hospital in Boise Following Removal of Appendix.

BOISE, Sept. 18 (AP)—Lieutenant Colonel Harry A. Padgham, state adjutant general, died this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at St. Luke's hospital following an operation a week ago for a ruptured appendix. A complication set in following the operation, according to Dr. W. S. Wines, his doctor, which weakened the patient's constitution that he was unable to fight through successfully.

The news of his death spread rapidly and caused a great shock to his friends in the capital city. The colonel's home was at Gooding, and he came to Boise when he was appointed adjutant general early this year.

As soon as the news reached Governor C. C. Moore he immediately ordered the flag at the state capitol to be flown at half mast and issued a statement mourning the loss to the state. Tomorrow morning the flag will be raised to the top of the capitol tower, will be raised to the top of the pole and then lowered to half mast.

Lieutenant Padgham was rushed to the hospital last Thursday on the eve of Defense day and operated on the same day. First reports indicated his condition was favorable, but not after his constitution showed the strain under which it was laboring. A second operation for a bowel obstruction also was performed Wednesday night, and blood transfusion was resorted to and Thursday morning another. Dr. A. C. Jones and Henry Mack, deputy sheriff, were the patients.

1200 Articles Are Found in Stomach of Young Woman

Operation Reveals Extraordinary collection of Pills, Buttons and Coins Swallowed.

SAGINAW, Mich., Sept. 18 (AP)—"Mary Dow," 15-year-old Saginaw girl, from whose stomach 1200 small articles, including pins, buttons, coins, sewing machine bobbins and bits of hair, were removed at a local hospital Tuesday, has swallowed half a dozen more pins, attending surgeons believe. They will make an X-ray examination tomorrow to ascertain definitely if their suspicions are correct.

The missing pins were in the package placed on the girl after the operation. The girl denies having swallowed them, but nurses and physicians cannot otherwise account for the pins' appearance. It was reported at the hospital tonight that the condition of the girl, whose identity is being guarded until surgeons can make an official report, is showing improvement and that she probably will recover.

OLD TIME FIRM GOES BANKRUPT

Well Known Brokerage Firm Wrecked by Defalcation of Speculating Partner.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—Defalcation of a trusted partner today threw the old established brokerage house of Day and Henton into involuntary bankruptcy and resulted in its suspension from the New York stock exchange of which it had been a member since 1871.

Liabilities of $1,700,000, according to a semi-official estimate, exceeded assets by about $700,000. Troubles of the firm were laid to the disappearance of George R. Christian, who entered its employ as a clerk 20 years ago, and was elevated to a partnership in 1910. Other partners said they had no knowledge of his whereabouts or the amount involved in his defalcation.

Christian, it was learned, left on his vacation a month ago, and irregularities in his accounts was discovered until last week.

Back of Mr. Christian's defalcation, it is asserted by insiders, was a night-long story of heavy losses encountered in stock market speculation. The missing broker, known to his associates as "heat" operator, was reported to have been an active short seller of stocks last spring, when the market was on the down grade.

Suffered Heavy Losses.

Extending these operations throughout the summer's advance, Mr. Christian reported by his relatives, a number of which he was pressed for payment. His disappearance coincided with the peak of the upward movement, which would have had disastrous results had he not consistently sold stock short.

Three of the suspended firm's six partners held membership on the New York stock exchange. They were William Weaver Heaton, William Wilson Heaton and Harry V. Day. Office partners in addition were James H. Waterbury and F. W. Griffin. The three stock exchange seats it was pointed out, would constitute almost $300,000 of the firm's estimated $1,000,000 assets.

The high regard in which William Weaver Heaton, a senior partner, was held was attested by resolutions passed by the governing committee of the New York stock exchange upon his retirement as governor in 1920. In more than 20 years of membership, committees of the exchange and held many responsible positions.

HUGE AREA ON MOUNTAIN TOP DROPS INWARD

Fifteen Acres at Southwestern Extremity of Mount Shasta Caves in; People Flee in Alarm.

DUNSMUIR, Cal., Sept. 18 (AP)—Approximately fifteen acres of the southeastern section of the top of Mount Shasta caved in today, causing the collapse of Mind Creek canyon, which has recently been overflowing with mud and rocks. The walls of the canyon for a distance of eight miles crumbled with a terrific roar which was immediately followed by a great cloud of dust and volcanic ash that hung over the mountain for several hours.

As the dust cloud appeared to rise from the crater left by the caving, persons living at McCleod, West and Mount Shasta, and other places at the mountain base, reached the alarming conclusion that the ancient pond had burst into eruption. Many frightened persons were on the point of exodus this afternoon and their alarm in many instances has not been quieted down tonight.

Some fears are entertained at McCleod that the mud flow, which has recently been quiescent, will be renewed with dangerous effects. The falls, water of the Mind Creek canyon are damming up a huge reservoir of water which, when released, may cause a inundation of all land at the southwestern base of the mountain.

COMMITTEE WILL BEGIN WORK ON REVENUE BUREAU

Senate Investigating Body To Be Given Every Assistance in Probe of Affairs of Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today charged in a questionnaire submitted by the internal revenue bureau to a special senate committee appointed to investigate it and was called upon in addition to furnish considerable data on various phases of tax payments on large incomes.

The secretary, who attended an executive session of the committee today, assumed it of his hearty co-operation in its investigation and Senator Couzens of Michigan, the chairman, was authorized to appoint a staff of examiners, engineers and agents to go through the files of the income tax and prohibition units of the internal revenue bureau in search of information desired.

The committee plans to begin public hearings as soon as Secretary Mellon reports on a questionnaire submitted by its agents gather the data they will be instructed to find. Chairman Couzens estimated that it would be required for several preliminary, but said the hearings would begin before the elections should the information required by the committee be available.

Secretary Mellon told the committee he had directed that any data in his department called for be furnished the committee, including reports, and that such agents as it might appoint be given unobstructed access to all departmental papers.

BOY WHO STOLE BONDS GIVEN FREEDOM; JURY HOLDS PECULIAR VIEW

CHICAGO, Sept. 18 (AP)—"Little Willie" Dalton, the 16-year-old boy who in 1921 upset the country by walking away from a Chicago bank where he was employed with bonds valued at $725,000, went home with his mother tonight without fear of being sent to a reformatory or penitentiary.

A jury trying here for the theft of the securities after two other juries had disagreed today decided that he is not guilty. The legal theory on which he was acquitted was that he had no intent to steal, but was a victim of "bond intoxication" from his close association with millions of dollars in securities every day.

Love, pastor, before the wedding, had a conference with the couple. When they came into the paragonage he asked but one question, saying: "I understand, Mrs. Fry, that you have only one child, a daughter, and that she does not oppose this wedding. Is that correct?"

Mrs. Fry nodded her head in the affirmative. The bride was very nervous. She was escorted into the paragonage by Mr. Griffith and his best man. The men held their caps in front of their own and the arms of the bride's face to thwart photoaphers.

RESTAURANT AT JEROME BURNS

Damage Estimated at $5500 Done Three Business Firms in North Side City.

JEROME, Sept. 18 (Special to the News)—Fire tonight to have been caused by faulty electrical wiring, destroyed the Chinese restaurant at the corner of Maple and Main streets in this city and did approximately $2500 damage to the Fry hardware store next door and a garage and electrical shop across the alley, this morning at 4 o'clock.

When the fire was discovered it had gained such proportions that all efforts to save the one-story frame building on the corner in which the restaurant was housed failed. This was burned to the ground and destroyed one of the oldest landmarks in Jerome. Damage to the restaurant and building was placed at $5000 which there is $1000 insurance on fixtures and $1000 on the building.

The Fry hardware store in a cement building adjoining the restaurant on Main street, suffered approximately $1500 damage from smoke and water. The garage, it is estimated, suffered approximately $1000 damage. The owner, Mrs. Biella Hale of Los Angeles, was the owner of the building destroyed, which was erected more than 12 years ago for a drug and hardware store. The Chinese owned the restaurant. The exact cause of the blaze could not be determined until Wednesday afternoon when the fire department declared they believed the fire due to a short circuit in wiring.

GENERAL PERSHING BIDS FAREWELL

THIS PHOTOGRAPH was taken in Washington when General John J. Pershing, having reached the limit in age, addressed American troops on Defense day and told the army good-bye. He is succeeded by General Hines.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—Facing an audience which filled Madison Square Garden, Senator Robert M. La Follette, independent presidential candidate, began active campaigning tonight with an address in which he complained of the state of La Follette's views with a denunciation of the two old parties.

When he appeared on the platform, the audience was given a prolonged demonstration and after he plunged into a discussion of campaign issues, he was interrupted again and again by cheers and applause.

For an hour before the senator arrived at the big auditorium, scenes of the recent democratic national convention, speeches were delivered in quick succession by a number of party chairmen of the LaFollette forces in New York; Matthew Wolf, vice president of the American Federation of Labor; Representative LaGuardia, a New York member of the republican insurgent bloc in the house during the last session of congress; Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, daughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, pioneer advocate of woman suffrage; Norman Thomas, socialist candidate for governor of New York; and the Rev. John Haynes Holmes, pastor of the community church here.

27 BODIES ARE NOW IN MORGUE

Remains of Five More Victims Removed During Day From Ill-Fated Coal Mine.

SUBLET, Wyoming, Sept. 18 (AP)—The official list of the victims of Tuesday's disaster in mine No. 5 of the Kemmerer Coal company, was issued here tonight by P. J. Quenly, president and principal owner of the ill-fated mine.

The list was issued after a check had been made at the two morgues in Kemmerer where 27 bodies have been prepared for burial and at the homes of miners in Sublet.

It shows that 23 of the 39 victims were married and of the number married ten are survived by children in addition to their widows.

Five bodies were removed from the mine during the day and despite the work of rescuing crews all efforts to remove the remaining 15 bodies proved futile.

Because of the soft character of the roof of the mine proper, additional slides occurred and as the cleanup crews removed the debris more rock and earth fell to impede their progress.

One view of the delay in removing the remaining bodies, E. W. Holmes, corner of Lincoln county, announced late tonight that he would not empanel a jury until Monday afternoon to fix the cause and blame for the disaster.

Today relatives of the dead miners through the two morgues at Kemmerer where they claimed their dead and began arranging for funeral services.

ONE MORE BODY TAKEN OUT.

SUBLET, Wyoming, Sept. 18 (AP)—Rescuers working in mine No. 5 of the Kemmerer Coal company tonight brought to the surface the body of another of the victims of the disaster Tuesday that entombed 51 men. This makes a total of 23 bodies recovered from the 39 known dead. Six bodies were recovered today.

Overfield ranch, one and a half miles west of the Jerome highway. Four acres of corn were planted and an exceptionally big harvest is being made despite the shortage of water on this tract this year. Ears of corn taken from the field on the evening of Sept. 12 are in length and are well filled. A 64-ton silo has been filled with Yellow Dent and the ensilage will be used to feed stock. There are ears of wheat on this ranch west of Jeromeside to the acre. Clyde Hull also on the north side had 50 acres of land in wheat which averaged 30 bushels to the acre despite the water shortage.

LA FOLLETTE GIVEN OVATION BEFORE SPEECH

Independent Presidential Candidate Faces Capacity Audience at Madison Square Garden; Applaud Remarks.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—Facing an audience which filled Madison Square Garden, Senator Robert M. LaFollette, independent presidential candidate, began active campaigning tonight with an address in which he complained of the state of La Follette's views with a denunciation of the two old parties.

When he appeared on the platform, the audience was given a prolonged demonstration and after he plunged into a discussion of campaign issues, he was interrupted again and again by cheers and applause.

For an hour before the senator arrived at the big auditorium, scenes of the recent democratic national convention, speeches were delivered in quick succession by a number of party chairmen of the LaFollette forces in New York; Matthew Wolf, vice president of the American Federation of Labor; Representative LaGuardia, a New York member of the republican insurgent bloc in the house during the last session of congress; Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, daughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, pioneer advocate of woman suffrage; Norman Thomas, socialist candidate for governor of New York; and the Rev. John Haynes Holmes, pastor of the community church here.

OK Parties Assailed.

They outgazed Senator LaFollette as vigorously as they assailed the candidates and policies of the republican and democratic parties.

More than half of the men and women who heard Senator LaFollette tonight paid to gain admission to the arena. He estimated that the innovation "netted a house" of $12,000. The receipts went into the campaign fund.

As he started reading his prepared address the audience was given a demonstration of disorder in the far side of the hall. A man who had been noisy was ejected from the hall and the audience settled back to listen in peace.

"I propose to keep in the foreground of the discussion throughout this campaign," declared the speaker, "the record of the two parties in recent years under which the railroads and other corporations have made larger profits than in any other period in our history during the same length of time, while labor and the small business man have eked out a bare existence, and many have been driven into bankruptcy by the hundreds of thousands and the loss in value."

Dawsons Arrested At Elko on Charge of Mann Violation

Twin Springs Owners Must Face Federal Indictment; Officials Have Been Looking for Them Since June.

BOISE, Sept. 18 (AP)—Paul Dawson and Jane Dawson, alias Celia Dawson, alleged perpetrators of a road house at Twin Springs, in the vicinity of Twin Falls, were charged in an indictment returned by the September grand jury with conspiracy to violate the Mann act.

According to a telegram received today by Frank Breakers, United States marshal, from J. H. Palmer, United States marshal at Carson City, Nevada, men have been hunting for the Dawsons since last June. Besides the indictment on the Mann act charge, they face charges of violation of the prohibition law.

While government officials claim that several women and girls were transported from Reno to Elko to the road house, the indictments sets forth two alleged specific cases, that of Edna Belknap and Bebe Lewis. These girls, the indictment charges, were transported from Twin Falls across the Nevada line to Twin Springs and there lived at a road house.

The Dawsons were taken from Elko to Carson City, where removal proceedings will be instituted, according to the marshal's office.

WOMEN DEMAND VEIL REMOVAL IN HOLY LAND

Arab Feminists Launch Campaign for Greater Freedom; Also Want to Take Part in Politics.

JERUSALEM, Sept. 18 (AP)—The modern conservatism of the Mohammedan custom with regard to the social isolation of the women in Palestine may soon give way before the movement launched by Arab feminists for the removal of the veil. The Holy Land, backward in many respects, is behind such Moslem countries as Turkey and Egypt in breaking the shackles holding women in seclusion.

The movement for the emancipation of Moslem women in Palestine is of recent origin and is traceable to the influx of people from the west, especially Jewish immigrants coming to settle in their national home.

Dark Veils—As the first step towards their emancipation the women demand ecclesiastical sanction for the removal of the dark veil from their faces. If such flying in the face of age-long custom does not win official approval, some of the leading Arab women of Palestine are determined to do what their Moslem sisters did in Turkey, where the veil has been entirely cast off, or at least entirely cast off, or at least in Egypt, where only a light transparent veil is still worn, extending from below the nose.

The ban on the public appearance of women has retarded the development of Arabia drama, and it is the hope of feminists that the abandonment of Moslem women to the theatrical stage will follow the removal of the veil.

Would Enter Politics.—Arab women of Palestine have been not only on social emancipation but on participation in politics.

"Take us out of our insulting seclusion and remove from our faces the offensive black cloth, give us our opportunity as free members of a free people, granting us the right to fight with you for our national life," says in part an appeal appearing recently in an Arab language newspaper in Haifa.

"Then we shall in gratitude sacrifice our jewels, delivering up our gold and precious stones to the establishment of the Arab National bank."

URGE IRISH TO STAY AT HOME

Renewed Emigration to America Alarms Dublin Press; Many Applications.

DUBLIN, Sept. 18 (AP)—There are urgent appeals in the Dublin press against the renewal of emigration to America. The Independent says: "We were frequently assured in the past that Irish control of her own affairs emigration would cease. But though the British have departed the country is still being drained of its young men and women."

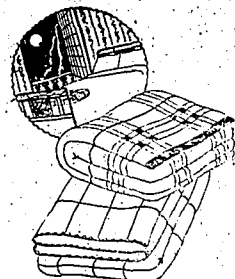

In the past two months the American consul has received 8000 applications for emigration visas, and the Free State quota soon will be exhausted. The applicants are mostly from the country districts.

Beak Career, Judge Cohalan of New York, who has lately been in Ireland, has advised young Irish men and women to seek careers in their own country rather than to go to the United States or Canada.

It is pointed out that large numbers of skilled British artisans, failing to get employment in America, are returning to Great Britain in a steady stream, and that the prospects for Irish unskilled laborers are extremely unfavorable.

Idaho Masons Have Charge of Ceremony at New Science Building.

date the rapidly expanding science department was an "immediate necessity."

Participating in the ceremonies were faculty members, students and the grand lodge of Idaho Masons, who came in a body from Lewiston, where the annual state convention is being held. Following a program in the university auditorium, the audience adjourned to the new science building and President A. H. Upham formally requested Victor Peterson of Grangeville, grand master, to take charge of the cornerstone laying.

First Speaker.
W. J. McConnell, governor at the time Mr. Hattabaugh made his appeal for a science building, was the first speaker. His subject was "The Inception of the Idea," and he told of the various efforts to dismember the institution and establish smaller schools in other parts of the state.

A. H. Connor, attorney general of Idaho, represented the state, Governor Charles C. Moore being unable to attend and his theme was "The Realization of the Idea." Mr. Connor told of the legislative situation at the time the appropriation was made for the new building.

STUDENT URGED TO FORGET IDEA

Graduate Must Discard Belief That He Can Conquer the World Offhand.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18 (AP)—The idea that young college graduates expect to stop forth, diplomas in hand, and conquer the world, or at least become masters of industry and finance within a few months' time, is being dispelled by the Carnegie Institute of Technology, John T. Morris, director of the college of industries declared today.

Even the college graduate should get his "white collar job" by traveling the "overall route" Mr. Morris believes, and various branches of industry are co-operating to the extent of hiring the youthful technicians, putting them into a pair of overalls and sending them into the dirt and grease of the shops before they are permitted to take a hand in the problems of management in the clean atmosphere of the swivel chairs and glass covered desks. Industrial heads also are providing special equipment and suggesting curriculum improvements.

Steps to incorporate a more practical system of industrial education in the college of industries were taken several years ago, but it has been only in the past few years that industrial corporations have shown any great interest in the developments. Soon after the first graduates of the new system had taken their first jobs, however, executives in big plants began to take notice and report from the institute and the willingness of these graduates to

Not a binding line from collar to bottom cuff. Nothing but ease and freedom in these fine suits. You never know what real clothes comfort is until you've worn one.

Snug about the collar, roomy about the waist. Jam your hands down into the pockets, stand squarely on both feet, whistle a tune—that's knowing clothes pleasure.

SETS FORTH REASON FOR RISING PRICE OF WHEAT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Secret statements that the very substantial rise in the price of wheat is due to artificial causes was declared by Secretary Hoover today to have no foundation in fact.

"Two things have underlain this advance," the secretary said in a formal statement.

"First, there are three hundred million bushels less of wheat in the world from this crop than of last year. Second, the increased stability given to Europe by the recent settlement brought about through activities of the administration has increased the buying power and outlook for consumption."

"The practical effect of all this is shown by the fact that our exports of 500,000 bushels in the last six weeks shows substantial increase over last year. There is every reason to believe that these exports will be maintained. Prices would probably have gone to higher levels had it not been that the farmer has crowded the market by sending in over 100,000 bushels of 1924 crop against 80,000 bushels for the same period last year. This is no doubt due to his necessities; but it has probably brought about lower prices than would otherwise have been the case."

LAFOLLETTE GIVEN A GREAT OVATION

use of farm lands and farm products has exceeded forty billions of dollars. Shall Not Avoid Tariffs.

"The leaders of both old parties naturally desire to escape discussion of the shameful acts which have produced such results as these. I do not intend that they shall avoid these issues."

Senator LaFollette discussed the record of the Harding-Coolidge administration, the acts of which, he contended "must be judged as a whole," and declared that President Coolidge "knew every act and policy of the last administration because he was a participant in their formulation." He referred to John W. Davis as a "certain distinguished lawyer now running for president and trying to get the people to forget his former clients," "who blocked" efforts of the public to bring about reductions in telephone rates.

Declaring that "parties and candidates should be judged on their records and not on pre-election promises," the senator contended while he witnessed "the best that the republican party, for example, can offer with its present candidate, is four years more of misgovernment and that four years more control by powerful private interests, the same cynical bestowal of special privileges on the favored few, the same shameful betrayal of the public trust."

Procedure Extraordinary.

"By an extraordinary procedure adopted at the beginning of President Harding's administration, the vice president was made a member of the president's cabinet so that he might not only be fully informed of every policy and action, but so that he might also give his counsel and advice. He sat in the cabinet while it discussed according to the testimony of those who were present, the transfer of Teapot Dome and other naval oil reserves from the navy department to the corrupt lease of those great properties might be made. He knew every act and every policy of the last administration during the time he was a participant in their formulation."

"But even if the then vice president had not, as a member of the cabinet, participated in the making of policies, it would have made little difference. All that was necessary in Washington during the last four years was the retention of the corrupt lease, to gain the knowledge that a monstrous orgy of corruption was taking place."

Nest of Corruption.

"A man might have been blind, a man might have been dumb, but if he still retained his sense of hearing he would have learned from trustworthy sources that the department of justice was a nest of corruption; that the department of justice under Secretary Fall was bartering away the nation's resources and that almost every department was honeycombed with corruption. He would have heard the confessions of the capitol, in committee rooms, in banks and in business houses. There was no escape. It was everywhere."

"I had no private sources of information. When I exposed the corrupt leasing of Teapot Dome and forced the senate by a unanimous vote to order an investigation, I merely dared to charge openly what every member of the senate knew. I was able in that speech to reveal substantially every important fact regarding the corrupt leasing of the oil reserves, except the corrupt consideration received by Fall from Doherty and Sinclair. I did not know that $100,000 in cash had been brought from New York to Washington and delivered in a black bag to Albert B. Fall. But the other important facts regarding the great profits made by the speculators in the stock market, was laid before the senate and the nation. There sat the vice president within 20 feet of me as I spoke, hearing every word of an indictment that forced even the old guard of the senate to consent to an investigation."

CROPS MATURING EARLIER, REPORT

Week Ending Tuesday Was Delightful and Good Growing Weather, Says Summary.

Full crops are maturing considerably earlier than usual this year, according to the weekly weather and crop summary of Clinton E. Norquist, in charge of the weather bureau office at Boise. The summary for the week ending Tuesday follows:

Southwest Idaho.
Delightful autumn weather prevailed throughout the week. Temperatures fell a little below normal early in the week, but after that the weather was quite warm. No rain occurred. Full crops, both field and truck, are maturing considerably earlier than usual. Seasonable farm work, except plowing and seeding, which are delayed by lack of moisture, made rapid progress. The third cutting of alfalfa is being secured in excellent condition in the districts where water has been available for late irrigation; in less favored sections meadows are being pastured. The bulk of the prunes crop has been gathered. Apples are taking on color rapidly and the early varieties will soon be ready for market. Corn is being cut for silage with fairly satisfactory results. Even harvest is about completed in the Twin Falls section and threshing has begun with good yields.

Southeast Idaho.
Light showers the first of the week were followed by light to killing frosts the middle of the week. No serious damage resulted from the frosts. Harvesting and threshing are about finished in the earlier sections and this work is progressing rapidly in the later sections. The northern counties are busy with the second cutting of alfalfa, while in the southern counties the third cutting has begun. Alfalfa is being cut in the latter part of the Bingham counties. Fall wheat is being planted and is benefited by the showers. Potato digging has begun generally except in some of the higher sections. Beets are doing well except where damaged by blight and insect pests. Bingham county corn is maturing.

TWIN FALLS WEEKLY NEWS

Established 1904. Twin Falls News Publishing Company, Ltd., Publishers

Entered as second class matter December 12, 1904 at the Post Office at Twin Falls, Idaho, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH US?

A speaker at a Twin Falls banquet some ten days ago told his audience of a dairy cow which in point of milk production led the world and then asked his hearers if they had ever heard of the animal or could tell him the name of the State in which it was bred.

Two men present were aware of the fact that the cow came from Meridian, Idaho.

The speaker's point was, simply, that had the State of California been the birthplace rather than the State of Idaho, the world would have been aware of the fact.

California would have taken advantage of the advertising possibilities to Idaho in a matter of almost complete indifference.

Recently speaking, California wine and Idaho lozes. There is nothing new in the situation. Apparently it has always been that way.

It is the same with communities as with the State as a whole. Within a few miles of Twin Falls the biggest single piece of development in the history of this section since the water was first turned upon the land, is going steadily forward, yet the new railroad outlet to the Coast, which comes as a result of the efforts of over ten years, is no longer a topic of conversation on out streets.

What's the matter with us? It wouldn't be that way in California.

SWIMMING GIRLS. A queer epidemic broke out over the country during the summer, particularly affecting automobiles. The symptoms were colored pictures of swimming girls pasted on the windshields and windows.

The first examples were striking and, in a way, commendable, since they served to brighten up dull streams of traffic. But soon the thing became a pest.

Thousands of motorists—probably millions of them—seemed to feel that they were doing something very devilish and smart when they decorated their cars with diving girls in one-piece suits.

The thing grew until the drivers could hardly see out and others could hardly see in, on account of the glass being so cluttered with diving girls. Many a wreck resulted from this cause, and from the additional fact that drivers and pedestrians were, too often lured into staring at the fair bathers when they should have been watching where they were going.

So the inevitable happens. The police, in city after city, have been obliged to order all the pictures stripped off the automobile windows, in order to restore clear vision.

It might be that society as a whole would have clearer vision if the same policy were extended to cover other epidemics of semi-audio art.

CASTLEFORD. Eighteen cars of sheep, owned by the John Killgren Sheep company, arrived in Buhl on Sunday from Oregon.

COUNTY NEEDS 8.5 MILLS TO MEET EXPENSE

Board of Commissioners Plans Upon Raising $234,077.33 From Taxes; Five-Mill Levy for State Purposes.

The board of commissioners at a meeting held at the Twin Falls county courthouse Monday morning fixed the county tax levy at eight and one-half mills, a decrease of one-half mill over the previous year. The levy was made on the total assessed valuation, placed at $27,538,510.

The county's levy was divided into the following classes: Current expense, .26; general school, .45; bond redemption and interest .05; agricultural fair, .03; county hospital, .06, making a total of .85. As compared with the previous year the figures are: 1923, current expense, .30; general school, .44; bond redemption and interest fund, .07; agricultural fair, .04; county hospital, .06.

State Needs.

In addition to the amount levied for 1924 there are special levies which also have been set. The county in order to raise the amount needed by the state made a levy of five mills (on divided) as follows: Highway making (.01), sheep (.01), predatory animal (on other stock) .05; sheep inspection, .10; tuberculosis eradication indemnity .05. The amount levied by the county in its county levy is figured to raise a total of $234,077.33 which does not include the levy made for the state.

Monday was the last day on which levies could be made and the county commissioners some time ago called for amounts necessary to run the various departments so that the levy could be fixed.

Twin Falls Apple Is in Big Demand

Representative of New York Concern Says Reputation of Local Fruit Unusually Good.

The reputation of Idaho apples and particularly those of the Twin Falls section in eastern cities for their delicious quality, has been the subject of comment recently, directed Mr. Otto to prepare the following statement: Observation of the development of the Jerome cannery, the export burden carried by the industry in our own county, is responsible for the effort of obtaining production and waste and stabilize local markets in the interests of the members and the public, brought into existence the Twin Falls Dairy under the act on April 7, at 1909 in Twin Falls, Twin Falls, Idaho.

The demand for the Idaho apple and particularly those of the Twin Falls section has become so strong, according to Mr. Edwards, who is working under the supervision of the State Office with Bureau of Fruit, manager, is much better than it was last fall, due to the general scarcity of apples. Market prices for the fruit this year will be higher than last year, but the return to the grower will be better than it did last year.

REPUBLICANS MEET AND DISCUSS PLANS FOR THEIR CAMPAIGN

Members of the Twin Falls county republican committee and officials met at the Rogerson hotel Wednesday evening to discuss the plans for their campaign in this state. John Graham, county chairman, presided at the meeting, at which time a general discussion of the plans under consideration were taken up.

Among these to give impromptu speeches were Congressman Addison T. Smith, John Graham, Miss Gladys Terhune, national republican committee woman, and C. J. Miller of Buhl. Present also were men from practically every precinct in the county were present, as well as most of the candidates for election at the polls this fall on the republican ticket. The banquet opened at 6:30 o'clock.

Dairy Association Tells Why Cream Goes to Jerome

L. S. Otto, Secretary of the Twin Falls County Co-operative Dairy-men's Association, in a statement issued Wednesday at the direction of the board of directors of that organization, made the following statement: The board of directors at a meeting held recently, directed Mr. Otto to prepare the following statement: Observation of the development of the Jerome cannery, the export burden carried by the industry in our own county, is responsible for the effort of obtaining production and waste and stabilize local markets in the interests of the members and the public, brought into existence the Twin Falls Dairy under the act on April 7, at 1909 in Twin Falls, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Increase Shown in School Enrolment

Three Grade Schools Have Total of 1603 Children; 398 in the Twin Falls High School. This year's crop of school children in Twin Falls continues to show the upward annual increase, according to figures supplied by Superintendent Erue D. Bloom, in an address before the Rotary club on Wednesday.

The total school population of the Washington, Lincoln and Cicero schools now amounts to 1603, according to Mr. Bloom. There are 88 more pupils in the first six grades of the three schools of the district than there were a year ago. The high school now has a total enrolment of 398 pupils as against 412 for the first six weeks of the school term a year ago.

Problem of Financing. They were confronted with the problem of financing the school. Mr. Bloom found that the production of 1300 cows manufactured into butter, placed in storage and on the market, would be a financial year. Other attempts of getting financial assistance from the county were not considered seriously as they led away from the very principles upon which the association was based.

It was then that the directors entertained a proposition from the Jerome cannery to purchase the cream. The directors of the association entered into a contract to deliver the association's cream to the Jerome cannery for one year, beginning October 1, 1924.

Use Trucks. The cream will be collected by light trucks in each locality and sent right away by the heavy trucks to the creamery where all testing and grading will be done by one man hired to give his entire time to receiving and testing the association's cream for the association.

HAZELTON

HAZELTON—Millon, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fine, was duck hunting Tuesday afternoon and accidentally shot himself through the ankle while the duck was quite badly. He was rushed to the Twin Falls hospital immediately by Dr. Barry for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle and daughter, Gladys, left Wednesday for a week's tour through Oregon with Mr. Zumwalt from Illinois, who has been visiting friends here for about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Finkelnburg and children returned home Wednesday evening from Montana, where they have been visiting Mr. Finkelnburg's mother for the past two weeks.

The irrigation water was turned out of all the pump ditches on this aggregation Wednesday, but the water in the gravity ditches will run until about November 1.

First apples to be received in Twin Falls for packing and shipping out were brought in Wednesday afternoon to the J. H. Among those are the Steinhilber-Kelly company, which it was announced, had leased the warehouse for the season.

BROAD NEW DEMAND IN CORN SHOWS UP

Market strengthens following Wednesday's collapse; cooler weather stimulates buying.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18 (AP)—Broad new demand for corn appears up today following yesterday's big collapse in prices.

which developed as soon as the market scored an early fractional gain. Lowest prices for corn since late in August were reached on the ensuing drop, but losses were soon more than wiped out and during the last-hour upward swing of the market, acquired a momentum which yesterday would have seemed out of the question. Purchases of the December delivery for cash houses were a feature of the day which attracted much attention. Meanwhile, a great deal of trading in small and many crop reports at hand placed stress on need of ideal weather until well into October. Wheat and oats rallied with corn. A good cash demand here for wheat was in evidence, with export participating and the September delivery gained nearly a cent on the December.

Export buying of lard strengthened the provision market. Wheat—Sept. 18 (AP)—High. Low. Close. Sept. 18, 129 127 1/4 129 1/4. Oct. 130 128 1/4 131 1/4 133 1/4. May 138 130 1/4 137 1/2 139 1/2. SEEDS OF GREAT INVENTIONS

Little Things Discovered From Which Spring Matters of World-wide Use. Every electric light in the world, from the small pocket torch to huge advertising signs, owes its existence to a little ring about six inches in diameter.

THIS RING, WHICH IS IN THE ROYAL INSTITUTION MUSEUM IN LONDON, IS THAT FROM WHICH FANTING, THE GREAT INVENTOR, OBTAINED THE FIRST INDUCTION SPARK, THIS MAKING A DISCOVERY WHICH IS THE BASIS OF OUR MODERN ELECTRIC LIGHTING SYSTEM.

In the same museum is another instrument from which great results have sprung. This is Faraday's pump used in his experiments in turning gas into liquid. Today we accomplish the same feat with the aid of two large engines working in compression.

Equally interesting is the model from which Sir Humphrey Davy constructed the famous lamp bearing his name. Every one who has heard of the Davy safety lamp, used in coal mines because it will not cause explosions of freamp, and so on.

This lamp was so important in the mining industry that colliery owners of Newcastle gave his inventor a silver dinner service as a recognition of his great work.

Walk Tells the Character.

A woman's character can be told by her walk. A upright tread indicates the soldierly type of woman. An energetic spirit, lively tongue and short temper are indicated by quick steps. The fast walker is usually a bustling, busy person, a good housekeeper and one who handles dirt and dust. No tradesman would ever cheat her, remarks London Tit-Bits. A soft, timid tread is the step of the clinging, gentle woman, who relies entirely upon her husband. She will be eminently "feminine" and dainty. Turn-of-ages tread a crookedly, almost-invisible person. Calmness and reflection are betokened by slow steps, either long or short. A proud and haughty nature is found where the step is measured and slow, with the toes well turned out.

DEFENSE SCORES IN SECOND DAY OF JURKO TRIAL

Witnesses Testify That Murdered Man Displayed Gun and Made Remarks Shortly Before Killing.

Testimony tending to show that John Jurko, on trial in the district court on charges of first degree murder, shot to death A. B. Vandemark in self-defense to keep from being killed himself was offered by the defense at the hearing Thursday, the second day of the trial. Several witnesses were called to the stand during the day who testified that Vandemark had displayed a gun in a local pool hall and invited one of their number to go with him to see Jurko and he would show them "how yellow Jurko is."

The defense placed on the stand Thursday the defendant and his wife, both of whom testified that Vandemark had shown Mrs. Jurko improper attentions and that the shooting occurred after Jurko had told her husband that Vandemark was annoying her and had urged her to leave her husband and go away with him.

Jurko Testifies. Jurko, who was himself on the stand Thursday morning, declared that he did not remember anything after going to the card room with his wife to obtain an apology from Vandemark and his wife to stay away from Mrs. Jurko, finding Vandemark in a game of cards there, of warning him and of Vandemark getting to his feet and making a threatening motion at him, following which he fired.

Mrs. Jurko corroborated the testimony of her husband as to improper advances made by Vandemark. She testified that while her husband was out of town, Vandemark had knocked on the door of her room one night at 11 o'clock and at that time urged her to leave her husband and go away with him. Later, she said, when they had moved from over the card room to a residence near the shooting, Vandemark to the house and urged her to go with him. These facts, she said, she had revealed to her husband until the day of the shooting.

During the afternoon session several witnesses were called to the stand by the defense as to what happened at the pool hall and the shooting. Percy E. Alfred, of Murphy's cigar store told of Vandemark entering that place of business one evening about 9 o'clock, evidently under the influence of liquor. He invited one of the men standing near by whom he knew to go down with him to see Jurko, with whom he had been having trouble. Alfred testified that Vandemark called Jurko crooked, using a great deal of profanity.

Following this he pulled from his pocket a gun and placed it on the counter with further remarks about Jurko. He was ordered to put the gun up and left the cigar store. This was also testified to by other witnesses. Martin Strandy, barber, was called to the stand and told of remarks that Vandemark had made in the barber shop in which Strandy worked and in which Jurko had also worked. He declared that Vandemark said Mrs. Jurko was a "thousand times too good" for Jurko, whom he characterized as crooked and no good.

Following the testimony of further defense witnesses, Dr. Wilson was called by the defense but was not in the city. The state then offered in rebuttal the testimony of P. J. Gronman, Twin Falls county coroner who took the stand and told of being called to the card room where he found Vandemark who was still alive but who died in a few minutes. He told of wounds on the hands of Vandemark. He also testified to examining the clothing on the body and said that he could not find a gun.

Deputy Sheriff Prater was then called and testified a statement made by Jurko when he gave himself up at the courthouse. This statement was in the NOW AN INMATE of the County General Hospital, suffering with pneumonia. He is probably the oldest living Shoshone Indian.

Effect that Jurko had declared he went to the card room to make Vandemark apologize and to warn him to leave his wife alone. Jurko, in the statement, Deputy Sheriff Prater said, declared that night that Vandemark had gone behind the bar, picked up a glass and flung it at him. He warned him if he did this again he would never throw another glass and when Vandemark started to throw another glass he had fired.

Sheriff M. E. Blach was called following Deputy Sheriff Prater and also told of statements made by Jurko when he gave himself up. The prosecuting attorney, J. W. Taylor, told the court Thursday afternoon that he expected the hearing would be completed today.

Speculation was rife on the streets Thursday night as to what effect the testimony of the defense Thursday would have on the jury. Many were of the belief that the jury would be unable to agree on the guilt or innocence of the defendant while others were of the opinion that a lesser charge than first degree murder would be brought in. According to attorneys, the jury can find Jurko guilty of first degree, second degree, murder, or manslaughter. They say there are five verdicts that might be returned.

The courtroom Thursday was crowded and during most of the day all seats were taken. Much more interest was shown in the trial the second day of testimony than on the first day.

Rock Creek Jim, Suffering From Pneumonia, Believed Well Over One Hundred Years of Age.

WITH the snows of a hundred winters on his head, his gnarled and weatherbeaten face wrinkled and weakened by disease through struggles to ignore, "Rock Creek Jim," only surviving patriarch among Shoshone Indians, once numerous in this region and a familiar figure in its days when white settlers first took up their abode in southern Idaho, is a patient in the county general hospital here, making a fight for life that is marked by the stoicism of his race. Suffering from a malady that racks his frame with occasional fits of pain, Deputy Sheriff Prater declared that he is so weak that he lies in his bed, Rock Creek Jim was brought to the hospital last Friday from his home on the ranch on Salvation creek, about 20 miles from here, on a project reservoir, where he has lived with his daughter, Maggie, since he left Rock Creek, about 20 years ago. During no one's home that he lies in the clean, white-sheeted hospital cot, Rock Creek Jim indicates not by words but by his actions, his appreciation of hospital care and the kindness of the project reservoir, where he has lived with his daughter, Maggie, since he left Rock Creek, about 20 years ago. Questions Hospital Opts.

Long practice of thrift and native honesty impelled the aged Indian one day following his arrival at the hospital to protest against what he would believe exorbitant charges that he would be called upon to pay for hospital attention and to confide to a visiting friend that he would immediately return to his own wickiup rather than pay such charges. It had not occurred to him in this regard, but his actions were commensurate with his own satisfaction and equanimity apparently returned to the venerable Indian. Communicative only in conversation with trusted friends of long standing, little has been learned by hospital attendants of Rock Creek Jim's history, and it has remained for pioneer settlers who were his friends and confidants a half century ago when he came to Rock Creek to make his home there for 38 years, to tell his story as they know it.

No Record of Age.

There is no record of Rock Creek Jim's age. His own version is: "Maybe see one hundred snows—maybe more of a band of Shoshone Indians, living in northern Nevada, Rock Creek Jim came to the village of Rock Creek in 1888 on his way north, presumably to the original home of the Shoshones in northern Montana. Surroundings of Rock Creek were to his liking and he established his home several miles above the settlement near the Crockett ranch. At about that time there were five families of Shoshone Indians residing in the vicinity of Rock Creek. Their principal occupation and means of livelihood was hunting and making buckskin and making truckskin gloves. John F. Hansen, now deputy county recorder, was in those days the proprietor of a general store at Rock Creek, and to him the Indians brought most of their buckskin gloves for sale. The gloves then made by the Indians were not the pointed-toe articles that their posterity make and sell today, but were plain durable gloves that met the requirements of work on the range. The prevailing price, Mr. Hansen recalled was one dollar-per pair. The Indians of Rock Creek during a single year were accustomed to make and bring into the Rock Creek store as many as 300 to 500 pairs of buckskin gloves.

Insists on Silver Dollars.

They demanded their pay in silver dollars, one silver dollar for one pair of gloves, and the silver dollar was the unit of their purchasing. On one occasion, Mr. Hansen stated, Rock Creek Jim was employed for a time by Robert Rogerson and received in payment for his services a check for some $22. Doubtfully he brought the check in to the Rock Creek store and had the cashier cash it for him when he received in silver dollars the amount for which it was drawn.

Rock Creek Jim and members of his family were welcome guests at the homes of Rock Creek's pioneer settlers. Never was there any question as to their integrity, and never were their needs allowed to go unfulfilled.

Tenacious memory of the aged Indian was demonstrated one day following his arrival at the hospital here. Over a gap of more than 35 years Rock Creek Jim raised his eyes one evening to look into the face of John F. Hansen standing at his bedside in the position of the Indian salute. "Why, hello, John," he exclaimed delightedly. Judge Lawrence Hansen required no introduction.

"Hello, Hansen," was the Indian's salutation.

Recalls Ancient History.

C. S. Wainwright, third member of the group of pioneers who visited the stricken Indian on this occasion, was introduced as Charley. Closely regarding his visitor for a moment the venerable old man declared, "You work for Stricker."

He referred to Herman Stricker, pioneer settler and settler of the vicinity of what is now Artaisan.

Rock Creek Jim is intensely proud of his connection with the Shoshone tribe and its traditions. He is a branch of the Blackfeet tribe of Montana, the Shoshones deem themselves far superior to the Blackfeet, and nothing so stir their indignation as being confused with the Blackfeet of eastern Idaho.

Rock Creek Jim has survived two wives. His family as far as he knows consists of his daughter, Maggie, who was a little girl in Rock Creek, and a son, Dick, a few years younger.
