Select Commissioner and President of Lewiston Teaching School.

BOISE, April 23 (AP)—Candidates for the positions of commissioner of education and president of the Lewiston state normal school rounded up all reinforcements today preparing for the final attack on the state board of education when it opens its meeting in the capital next week.

So far as could be learned this afternoon all members of the board will be present as follows:

Board Members

Huntington Taylor of Coeur d'Alene; Prentiss Stanley Eaton of Kellogg; Dr. W. E. Thompson of Pocatello; G. H. Gravely of Boise; Miss Elizabeth Russell; state superintendent of Major Instruction and Cleoey S. Clair of Twin Falls, the new member of the board. It will be Mr. S. C. Clair's first meeting.

Literally hundreds of letters concerning applicants for the two positions have been received and it is rumored that several have been turned down for the position of president of the Lewiston school.

For the commissionership Boise has two candidates, R. E. Sherman, mayor of the city, and G. F. Dionet, superintendent of schools.

Miss Ethel E. Redfield, executive secretary of the state board, has just now arrived by air from Denver to look over the case. She has not yet learned how far she is making headway for this position can not be learned.

Pocatello Man Busy

Walker B. Slader, Pocatello superintendent, is working for the place, relating on support given him by his constituents in the campaign of the state association which recently honored him with its place on the list of 20 educators to represent this country at a worldwide educational meeting in Edinburgh,

"Then there are G. D. Birck, Wallace superintendent, R. H. Snyder, Idaho Falls school head, and J. E. Turner, Payette school head, all of whom have been mentioned and all who are classed among the best educators of the state.

In state house circles the discussion on the two posts has been general, and the names of Miss Bedford and Norman R. Atkinson, secretary to Governor Moore, it is probable state officials think, that the race will be closest between them.

Los Angeles, April 23 (AP)—

Ramón Novarro appeared in superior court today and asked permission to change his name.

"Samanege is too hard to pronounce," he explained. "People call me Salmon Eggs and think like that."

"That must be annoying to be called that," he said. "What do you want to change it to?"

"Ramon Novarro."

"But that is the name of the mother of a picture actor. He may not like it. There may be trouble."

"No, it will be perfectly all right," the petitioner replied.
"You see, I am Ramon Novarro.
I am a Spanish name made my legal name."

"Effect of the decision, according to Mr. H. C. Hickman of counsel for the landholders, is to place Leyne and 17 other settlers associated with him in the suit in a difficult position. There are 40 other settlers and about 40 other settlers in the district involved in the case.

Mr. Hickman was never consulted by Mr. Babcock, he declared, when told that a rumor was current that the association, whose executive council has been in session since June 20, dismissed him because he was trying to negotiate a loan in America.

Mr. Babcock was appointed in February, 1924, to succeed John H. Mc-Ewen. He is a son of James A. Alli-belle, who died in 1919, and the late John H. McEwen, state supreme court judge.

Mr. Babcock is a graduate of the University of Idaho and has been prominent in the business and social life of the state.
